FUZZ ACID & FLOWERS

by Vernon Joynson

Welcome to the web version of Fuzz Acid & Flowers, our extensive guide to U.S. psych and garage music 1964 - 1972.
Vernon Joynson's introduction and foreword also provide information on the basis behind the book, as well as explaining details about how the site is organised & how make most use of it's features.

This archive is regularly updated - and any additional information we have missed will be gratefully received. Please send corrections and additions to: ivor@borderlinebooks.com
Happy hunting!

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Hit a link to browse artist entries:-

A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

INTRODUCTION

The mid-sixties garage band phenomena, which attracted so little attention at the time, has generated far more interest retrospectively. After the excitement of the first wave of rock'n'roll music of the late fifties, the early sixties were a relatively unexciting era in American music. On the West Coast, in particular, there was a plethora of surf-orientated instrumental bands, whose music was still rooted in rock'n'roll and who produced some memorable guitar runs, but for the most part the scene was dominated by dance bands and balladeers. Enter Beatlemania and the British Invasion sound, as it became known, and things rapidly changed. The music of The Beatles and their other European contemporaries derived from American rhythm and blues and rock'n'roll to which was added enthusiasm and a fresh interpretation of these musical styles. Yet Beatlemania, Merseybeat, the British Invasion (whatever you want to call it) was more than just another new musical style ... with their hair styles, fashion and opinions, these bands heralded a new youth culture.

All over America thousands of teenagers started rock'n'roll bands which were initially influenced by the British Invasion sound, which itself had its roots in American rock'n'roll. Most of these bands were full of average teenagers who could only manage a few chords on a guitar but they transformed thousands of kids into weekend stars among their peers. The better ones got to play at local fraternity parties, dances, shopping centres ... anywhere the opportunity allowed really ... the really good ones made it to bigger venues ... the lucky ones got to cut a record (often a one-off recording deal was the prize for winners of local 'Battle Of The Band' competitions, which were a regular feature at weekend dances in most American towns and cities in this era), the more enterprising ones raised enough bucks themselves to have a record pressed. A minority of these got played on the local radio station and those that caught on became local hits maybe ... the big national labels were always searching for exciting new talent and, as you'll notice when you delve into the meat of this archive, some of these local releases were picked up by major labels for national distribution. This offered the opportunity of a hit record, indeed a few ot these discs became million-sellers. The 45 discographies in this book show the highest placing in Billboard's Hot 100 of all discs listed (and the equivalent placing for all albums listed in Billboard's Top 200 Album Charts for that matter) so you can see the discs and arists that really won through to, (so far as most garage bands are concerned) stardom. Sadly, most discs and the artists who created them remained in total obscurity.

The term garage band referred to the space where many of these bands rehearsed and to a musical phenomenon. In fact, the music they played was very varied but more than anything else the timely invention of the fuzztone box in the mid-sixties helped mould this sound. which in its purest form was a crudely-recorded, raw (even savage), primal three chord sound. thrashed out on Vox guitars and cheesy Farfisa organs laced with lots of fuzz and snarling vocals. Lyrically, they tended to deal with the problems of teenage life - social restrictions and uncooperative parents and girlfriends (for the American garage band was almost exclusively a male phenomenon as rock'n'roll had been before it). 1965 and 1966 were the prime years of the 'garage' band.

Around the Spring of 1966 marijuana and LSD were introduced to the college and high school campuses, by 1967 they were in widespread use among America's youth. When these naive teenage bands began experimenting with psychedelic drugs the result was sometimes very interesting leading to some of the most demented recordings ever made - the chords became more discordant, the basic rock'n'roll rhythms were broken down and the lyrics started to deal with peoples dreams or more often their nightmares. 1967 and 1968 were the prime years of 'garage psych' as it became known, but the term has been widely abused and misused, particularly by dealers who apply it as widely as they can in the hope of raking in extra cash for records which are not 'psychedelic' at all. Hopefully, some of these have been exposed in this book, which also guides you to those bands who were the real McCoy... bands like The Calico Wall who on Flight Reaction sought to recreate the paranoia of someone sitting in an airplane prior to take off and fearing that it would crash; The Bees, who related a nightmare in their Voices Green and Purple, which was one of many records which recounted vivid descriptions of colours associated by acid-inspired dreams; The William Penn V, who hallucinated a guru and wrote a song about it; The Bohemian Vendetta, who sang of 'skies paved with marshmallow love' on their Paradox City or Cosmic Rock Show's Psiship with lyrics like, 'Ride it to the moon/Psychedelic space ship/I got the feeling it'll be another bum trip!'... there were countless others. Of course only some garage bands experimented with psychedelia, thousands of them were content to stick more closely to their more basic primal thrash.

As those of you who read my earlier books ('The Acid Trip'and 'The Flashback') know not only garage bands experimented with psychedelia, psychedelic music grew out of other influences as diverse as folk, the blues, beat and rock'n'roll. The term 'psychedelic' really relates to human perception and experience whilst under the influence of psychedelic drugs. It is sometimes equated with 'mind expanding' yet it arguably means something more because new wave music was mind-expanding without being psychedelic. It's tended to be applied to music that is mystical, drug induced or designed to recreate the (psychedelic) drug experience. In its most literal form psychedelia is basically "trippy", uses distortion, minor keys (generally) particularly minor 7ths and relates to consciousness (mind) expansion as derived from the drug culture of the sixties. Psychedelia brought electricity, mysticism and hitherto unknown musical freedom to rock and pop. A whole new range of instruments - sitars, theremins, wind chimes, other electronic devices were introduced to rock and pop music for the first time.

This new radicalism was not solely confined to the music, a new youth culture was born with its own ideology and audience characterised by the hippie.

Hippie audiences and music were very different from the 'garage' or 'garage psych' scenes. Many of the emerging psychedelic rock groups like The Doors, Jefferson Airplane and Country Joe and The Fish strove to push back the musical frontiers and preoccupation with three-minute pop songs was soon surrendered in favour of experimentation and improvisation, as audiences sought after even more 'far out' sounds. The 'hippie' culture had its own underground press and rock journals like 'Rolling Stone' and 'Mother Magazine'. ln their dress hippies sought to re-create the visions of beauty and vividness of colour associated with the LSD experience, They wore kaftans, beads, bells and flowery shirts. 'Head shops' sprang up in centres like San Francisco, New York and elsewhere throughout the States selling joss sticks, pipes, books about hallucinogenic drugs and various other forms of psychedelic paraphernalia. 'Flower power' as it became known represented the commercial side of psychedelia in the same way that the 'flower-pop' acts included in this book represented the commercial arm of psychedelic music. Indeed, whilst the underground groups whose lyrics were often ladened with drug references for the benefit of turned-on kids were liable to have their records banned from the airwaves: the 'flower-pop' acts like The Mamas and Papas, Lovin'Spoonful, Turtles etc. whose lyrics talked of peace, love and flowers, often sold records in large quantities achieving sustained commercial success, as you'll see when you browse through the book. It was these bands who took psychedelia (albeit in diluted form) beyond its essentially elitist audiences to the masses, which is why they are included here.

The new psychedelic culture encompassed all related art forms. The light shows, psychedelic posters and record sleeves all represented a further attempt to recreate the LSD experience. The light shows initially developed in the San Francisco area with names as exotic as the groups they served (e.g. North American Ibex Alchemical Company, Garden Of Delights, Head Lights, Pacific Grass and Electric). They usually consisted of film slides and liquids on a transparent dish through which the light was projected onto a wall. The dishes were movable, enabling artists to make the swirling colours move in time with the rhythms of the music. Strobe-lighting (on-and-off flashing light giving the impression of stopping motion) was first widely used in this era.

Equally derivative of the San Francisco music scene was the growing art of rock posters - essentially an attempt to translate the vivid impressions of an acid trip onto paper. These were usually vivid in their use of colours and concepts. Eventually San Francisco s Art Museum mounted an exhibition of posters, 'The Joint Show' and their designers - Rick Griffin, Wes Wilson, George Hunter, Alton Kelly, Stanley Mouse, Victor Moscoso etc - became nationally known art figures. George Hunter and Michael Huntei, (of The Charlatans) designed one of the very earliest posters to advertse their residency at the Red Dog Saloon, Virginia City in Nevada. When the 'Acid Tests'. a series of free-form events, were organised by Ken Kesey and His Merry Pranksters in 1965, artist Norman Hartweg designed a poster to advertise them. Alton Kelley (a member of The Family Dog collective) produced the first three handbills and helped with the posters for the three dances held late in 1965 at the Longshoremen's Hall, San Francisco. Jefferson Airplane, The Charlatans, The Marbles and The Great Society played at the first on 16 October, The Lovin' Spoonful and Charlatans played at the second on 24 October and The Mothers (Of Invention) and Charlatans appeared at the third on 6 November. By 1966 these rock posters had become prolific. Between February 1966 - November 1968 at least 147 posters were produced in the numbered landmark series to promote San Francisco - based concerts mostly at the Avalon Ballroom and the Fillmore Auditorium. After the Family Dog ceased to stage rock shows at the Avalon, the new production company (Soundproof's) first event was a Grateful Dead dance accompanied by Rick Griffin's 'Aoxomoxoa' poster, The band later used Griffin's title and art for their third album sleeve. Rock promoter Bill Graham also used posters to promote his early Mime Troupe Shows and Benefits and the concerts staged at the Fillmore between 1966-71. A series of handbills were also produced to promote concerts at The Matrix (originally created by Jefferson Airplane's Marty Balin) between 1965-66. Indeed by 1966 most concert halls in America were using rock posters to promote their shows. Posters were also produced for the Trips Festival, a mixed media event which was the culmination of the 'acid tests', as Kesey called them, and was held at Longshoreman's Hall in San Francisco between 21-23 January, 1966. This, more than any other event, marked the inauguration of 'acid rock' as a musical phenomena. Although The Grateful Dead starred at The Trips Festival, it was more than just a rock event - all kinds of avant-garde artists working in various media took part. In short, it was an attempt to stimulate the LSD experience with the drug available for those who wanted to try it. Further Trip Festivals were held elsewhere in America, but before long LSD was made illegal and people were forced to be more discreet with its use.

Another landmark in the history of the hippie culture was the Human Be-In held on 14 January 1967 in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. 20,000 people gathered there on that sunny January day, Three of the city's top groups played there - Jefferson Airplane, Grateful Dead and Quicksilver Messenger Service and Jefferson Airplane wrote a song, Saturday Afternoon, to commemorate the event. Stanley Mouse, Alton Kelley and Rick Griffin were among those who designed posters for this event, which heralded the 1967 'Summer Of Love' in which people from all over America and beyond converged on San Francisco to create a new way of life which challenged the nation's prevailing social values. The 'Be-In' inspired 'The Monterey Rock Festival' held later that year in the resort area 150 miles downcoast from San Francisco.

Although overshadowed by San Francisco in the early psychedelic era, Los Angeles (which had always been a major recording centre) and Southern California generally was a vibrant music centre in the mid and late sixties. In the early sixties it had been the recording base of the surf/hot rod music and groups like The Beach Boys, Jan and Dean and a plethora of lesser known ones. By 1965 it became the centre of the emerging folk-rock music, The main influences on this type of music had been Bob Dylan (who I've not covered in this book as so much has already been written about him) and protest singers like Barry McGuire. Groups like The Byrds, Buffalo Springfield and later Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young put folk material to a rock format, playing music characterised by acoustic guitar (at first) and fresh, melodic harmonies. Some of them later experimented with psychedelia, but generally their music was more commercially orientated than their San Francisco counterparts.

The second distinguishable strand to emerge from Los Angeles in this era was the music of the heavy rock and rock/blues bands, Of these, the most interesting were probably two bands signed to Jac Holzman's Elektra label - The Doors and Love. The Doors, in both name and music were clearly influenced by LSD. Yet their brand of 'acid' rock was different from that of their San Franciscan contemporaries. They took the acid experience less literally, their lyrics tended to centre around leader Jim Morrison's obsessions with the newconsciousness' and their struggle against social repression, for example Break On Through (To The Other Side) rather than urge their audience to turn onto LSD and love one another. Morrison was well-read, and his lyrics were often poetical and concerned with his obsessions with freedom which resulted from his reading the works of various existentialist writers. These factors made The Doors something of an anachronism among the acid bands and also rather special. Indeed, they were the most controversial and commercially successful of the West Coast underground bands. Love, started out as a folk-rock act but their experimentation with drugs led them in a rather different direction to that of their contemporaries. At their best, they attained the melodic musical harmonies associated with the finest LA folk-rock bands and yet the surrealism and nihilism of their lyrics set them apart, though they do bear some comparison with The Doors.

Los Angeles, also, boasted a number of influential music venues, mostly in the vicinity of the Sunset Strip. The most popular was the Whisky-a-Go-Go, which soon became not only an important venue for the San Francisco bands, but also a springboard for many of LA's own acts like The Doors, Love and The Byrds. Other significant venues were The Troubador, the Shrine Auditorium, The Kaleidoscope, the Ash Grove, Ciro's (where The Byrds were frequent performers), Pandora s Box and the Sea Witch. Strangely, Los Angeles was never a great centre for rock posters. The Pinnacle concert production company was the first significant concert and production company to put on rock concerts and dances in Los Angeles, mostly at the Shrine Auditorium. The posters designed by local artist John Van Hamersveld for these events are now legendary works.

Los Angeles also had a prolific garage band scene. Many of the biggest and best garage bands like The Seeds, The Standells, Music Machine, Sons Of Adam, came from the city and countless more roared out of its surrounding suburbs. As you turn the pages of this book and read about the recordings of bands like The Avengers, The Grains Of Sand, The Lyrics, The Starfires, Limey and The Yanks, and The Human Expression you can imagine how exciting the city's music scene in the later half of the sixties must have been.

San Diego, although the third largest metropolis in California, failed to develop its own musical style and was mostly influenced by Los Angeles to its north, but its major venues were frequently visited by top bands. Its most significant venues were The Hippodrome (managed by Trans Love Airwaves Productions) which had a San Franciscan, Rebecca Galdeano, as its poster artist and modelled itself on that city's Avalon Ballroom. and The Community Concourse.

Elsewhere in the States psychedelic rock venues were mushrooming. A group of students at the University of Texas in Austin set up the Vulcan Gas Company, the State's first psychedelic dance hall. Many of the State's top bands played there (The Conqueroo and Shiva's Headband played at the grand opening on 27 and 28 October 1967) and a local artist, Gilbert Shelton, designed several posters for the venue.

Texas is best remembered for tough garage punkers in this era - bands like Larry and The Bluenotes, S.J. and The Crossroads, The Bourbons and hundreds more Another Texas speciality was garage psych, not only didn't produce some relatively well known demented geniuses like Roky Erickson and the 13th Floor Elevators and The Moving Sidewalks, it also produced countless more obscure acts like The Mind's Eye, The Outcasts, The Remaining Few, Stereo Shoestrings and Thursdays Children, whose discs are now sought-after and highly valued by collectors.

Chicago was less closely associated with psychedelia, being the home of the urban blues, but it produced acts like The Paul Butterfield Blues Band, The Buckinghams, Cryan' Shames and The American Breed, as well as some seminal garage bands like The Shadows Of Knight, The Del-vets, The Knaves, The Rovin' Kind and Saturdays Children. It also had several notable dance halls, like the Kinetic Playground, where much of the Concert Art was produced by Mark T. Behrens, and the Aragon Ballroom.

Detroit and its suburbs produced one of the most vibrant and unique local garage band scenes in America in this era. The opening of The Hideout Club in May 1964 and the associated record company proved a catalyst for several promising garage acts fronted by The Fugitives (who later evolved into SRC) and The Underdogs and as more clubs like the Crows Nest, the Hullabaloos, the Pumpkin and the Birmingham-Bloomfield Teen Center, opened up the number of bands proliferated further - The Tidal Waves, The Yorkshires, The Unrelated Segments, the Anglophile-influenced Human Beings. By 1967, the smaller clubs had been over-shadowed by the Grande Ballroom, which boasted its own poster arist Gary Grimshaw (and later Carl Lundgren) whose psychedelic handbills were a match for any poster designed by San Francisco's own artists. All the city's top bands - MC5, The Rationals, The Woolies, SRC, The Frost (formerly The Bossmen) played there and a second wave of local groups like The Amboy Dukes, Psychedelic Stooges, Third Power, Frijid Pink, Teegarden and Van Winkle emerged too. By then, the city was very much associated with the heavy rock genre.

The Pacific Northwest, from the late fifties onwards had been the home of some of the finest instrumental combos in the larid, bands like The Wailers, The Ventures and The Frantics. What characterised them from the 'also rans' of the era was their very strong, powerful, upfront rhythm section. The music of the Northwest was raw, aggressive and powerful and the phenomenal commercial success of acts like Paul Revere and The Raiders and The Kingsmen encouraged other local garage bands to seek the same without compromising any of their grungy sound. Among its major venues were Seattle's Eagles Auditorium, the Aqua Theatre and the Seattle Ballroom and Portland's Crystal Ballroom, Memorial Coliseum and Beaver Hall. Seattle also had well established regional labels like Jerden, Etiquette and Seafair - Bolo that gave emerging young groups access to good studios and experienced producers. Indeed Jerden had various subsidiaries like Burdette, Panorama and Piccadilly and recorded countless garage bands in this era. These well established regional labels also had good access to major labels and national distribution channels as well as influence over regional radio stations meaning that local hits could relatively easily become regional hits, which could then be leased to one of the majors and become a national hit. All of these factors are thought to have contributed to the generally good quality of Northwest recordings in this era. The prime Northwest garage band was The Sonics, who exuded a surly demeanour and created one of the rawest, toughest garage sounds. People as diverse as The Kinks, Bruce Springsteen and The Sex Pistols have acknowledged The Sonics' influence on their own music. The Northwest produced several other garage bands of note such as The Bootmen, The Brigade, The Live Five, The Night Walkers, Mr. Lucky and The Gamblers and The Wilde Knights as well as psychedelic acts like Cotton Mouth, The Crome Syrcus, The Daily Flash, The Floating Bridge, The New Tweedy Brothers and The Lollipop Shoppe.

Boston had a thriving garage scene, featuring bands like The Remains, The Barbarians, and Teddy and His Pandas, but more exciting was the emergence in 1968 of the so called 'Bosstown Sound', which featured out its like Ultimate Spinach, The Beacon Street Union, Freeborne, Phluph and Earth Opera. The city's own psychedelic scene soon sprouted from small clubs into larger psychedelic dancehalls like the Boston Tea Party, the Ark, the Crosstown Bus, Club 47 and the Psychedelic Supermarket.

Minneapolis was a sort of mecca for much of the Midwest producing some first rate psychedelic bands like C.A. Quintet, Calico Wall, The Litter and The Electras as well as more commercially successful acts like The Trashmen.

There's only been space to mention a few ofthe major cities here but throughout America most towns and cities had their own garage bands and psychedelic scenes in this era. Some of the finest records of this genre came from the Midwest States and places like Colorado as you'll see as you browse throug this book. Not all the bands in this book were garage or psychedelic bands, many were more loosely associated with the hippie movement and the music they played was more grounded in folk and the blues. The flower-pop and bubblegum bands represented the more commercial side of psychedelia and garage music. Ah yes, bubblegum - the basic beat of bubblegum records like Simon Says. Gimme Gimme Good Lovin', 1,2,3, Red Light, Quick Joey Small and Yummy, Yummy, Yummy was the basic sound of rock and roll and had close links with the garage band sound, the difference being that infantile lyrics were substituted for the usual rage, aggression and snarling vocals. So that's why the main bubblegum acts are included here, too.

We've mentioned the music, the fashion, the new art forms associated with the hippie culture, but the movement was more than just that - it was advocating a new lifestyle in a rapidly changing country. As the sixties evolved American society became very volatile indeed. Certain key events like the assassination of President J.F. Kennedy, the growth of the Free Speech Movement, the freedom marches in Mississippi and the draft and the country's entrenchment in the Vietnam War sparked off a challenge and defiance towards the American establishment among the Nation's youth. The hippie culture was very much a part of this mood. The word hippie was first used in a San Francisco Examiner article in September 1965 about a coffeehouse called The Blue Union in the heart of the Haight Ashbury area of San Francisco and the clients who patronised it. The movement's close association with psychedelia was cemented by Ken Kesey and The Merry Pranksters' activities in organising the Acid Tests and Trips Festival. It even had its guru, Dr. Timothy Leary (a Havard psychologist), who announced in September 1966 that he was forming a psychedelic religion, The League for Spiritual Discovery. He called a formal press conference at the New York Advertising Club and called on Americans-to "turn on, tune in and drop out".

At its most extreme, the hippie life-style would involve dropping-out of conventional society and discarding one's material possessions to live off the land in communes. Obviously, this represented a reaction against the growing materialism. violence and impersonality of Western Society (ie many rock songs of this era were imploring audiences to love their neighbours because they were their brothers) and the related pressures of urban life (ie 'let's quit the city and get back to the land') was also a regular theme in lyrics of this era. As one might expect given the experimentation and improvisation of its music the hippie life-style was essentially individualistic with its emphasis on meditation and doing 'ones own thing' as a means to self-fulfilment and realisation. On a more superficial level, long hair was a manifestation of both this new found freedom and an act of defiance against the standards of conventional society.

By 1969 the hippie movement was dead, discredited in the violence of the altamont Rock Festival, and almost all its dreams remained unfulfilled, but sociologically and musically these were very exciting times. What follows is a encyclopaedic guide to the garage, psychedelic, hippie-rock and related music which came out of America in the sixties and early seventies.

Vernon Joynson.

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Foreword

Firstly, thanks to all of you that bought 'The Flashback - The Ultimate Psychedelic Music Guide' and to those of you that sent in tapes and additional information. All of this encouraged me to write this book, which is not just an update of 'The Flashback' but a much more detailed study of American garage, hippie-rock and flower-pop bands of the sixties and early seventies as well.

The Purposes of This Book are:-

- To provide a comprehensive guide (including detailed discographies) to American garage, psychedelic, hippie-rock and flower-pop bands of the sixties and early seventies.
- To bring to your attention some of the recordings by lesser known bands of these genre. Biographies have been written about some of the better known artists and bands in this book. Consult these for more detailed histories of them.
- Countless bands sprang up in America in this era and it would be an impossible task to document them all (you can see the length of this book anyway). The ones I've included are those I consider merit an entry. Doubtless there will be many omissions, though some of these will appear in the American Rock History series I co-write with Hugh Mac-Lean. I've tried to ensure that the book is as accurate as possible but not all the information is easily verified. If you spot errors or feel strongly about omissions please write to me:- c/o ivor@borderlinebooks.com, with the details.

How To Use This Book

All bands appear in alphabetical order. 'The' has been ignored as the first word of a band's name. Individual aftists have been alphabetised under surnames, e.g. Tim Buckley appears in the'B's'.

Some entries are very brief, where bands or al lists just released one 45 of appeared on a compilation, but for more prolific acts expect to see the following:-

Personnel:

Name:	Instruments:	Line-up:
MEMBER1	gtr, vcls	A
MEMBER2	bs	A	B
MEMBER3	drms, vcls	A
MEMBER4	keyb'ds	A
MEMBER5	gtr, vcls		B
MEMBER6	perc		B

Album Discographies

Where more than one has been released, they are listed in order of release. Line entries are as follows:-

ALBUMS:

No/Line-up	Name	U.S. label & Cat No	Year
*			+
1(A)	A.B.SKHY	(MGM SE4628)	1969
2(B)	RAMBLIN' ON	(MGM SE4676)	1970

NB: * Where albums are known to have been reissued or pirated, this is indicated. + And highest chart placing where applicable

EP Discographies (where applicable)

Where more than one has been released, they are listed in order of release.

45 Discographies

Also listed in order of release. Line-up information is not supplied, but otherwise the same information is supplied as for album releases. c before the year of release = circa or approximate and appears where the year of release is not known for sure.

Assorted Information About The Band Or Artist

In the text, the name(s) of other bands or artists who are featured in this book appear in bold print to facilitate easy cross-reference. Where bands have tracks which are also included on compilations these are also identified in italics as for all but the most ardent collector they will be the only means of accessing the song. A list of all compilation albums referred to, along with label details, catalogue numbers and (where known) year of release, appears at the end of this book. Some of these compilations had very limited pressings and are also rare now,

CD Releases

The compact disc is here to stay and many albums referred to in this book have now been repackaged on CD. This is often referred to in passing beneath the album discographies, where known, although it has proved impossible to keep abreast of the flood of CD releases so the information is not comprehensive. Many CD compilations are also appearing and those known to the author as of 31 December 1992 are included in the compilation listings at the end of the book.

A Rarity / Sought-After Scale

This appears at the end of the book this time and instead of a rating being placed against each album as it appears in the text I've grouped all the albums of the same rarity rating together alphabetically.

Credits

Several collectors have contributed in some way to this volume. Particular thanks go to fellow U.K. collector Max 'Myndblown'Waller, who wrote the entries with MW at the end, contributed much otherdata and allowed several 45s and record sleeves from his collection to be screened for illustrations. Philippe Collignon sent me several tapes (as did Tim Holden) and helped compile the rarity/sought-after scale. Jeff Jarema supplied information and some illustrations. Marcel Koopman wrote a few entries with MK at the end and will contribute many more to the next volume. I'd also like to thank Hugh MacLean (data), John Platt (illustrations), Ron Simpson (data), Mike Warth (data), Neal Skok (data), Bruno Thors (data), Richard Allen (data), Don Adams (data and tapes), Keith Mintern (typeseting), Moira Foulds (typing compilation listings), Valerie Balazs (typing rarity scale), Bill Nevins (art work), Brian Hogg, Greg Shaw, Iain MacLean and Peter Hughes and .. sorry to anyone who I've forgotten.

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

A440 to The Abstracts

A 440 • Aardvark • Aardvark • Aardvarks • Aardvarks • Aardvarks • Aargons • Aaron • Abandoned • Abbreviations • Abdo-Men • John Howard Abdnor and The Involvement • Abel • A.B. Skhy • Abstract Sound • The Abstracts •

The Accents to The Actioneers

The Accents (featuring Sandi) • The Accents • The Accents • The Accents • The Accents • The Aces • Aces Combo • Acme Thunder • The Acoustics • Acrobat • Act of Creation • Act III • Action Unlimited • The Actioneers •

Adam to Agape

Adam • Addis and Crofut • The Advancement • Advantes • Adventurers • Aesop and The Fables • Aesop's Fables • Jeff Afdem and Springfield Flute • After All • Afterglow • Aftermath • Agape •

Age of Reason to Allies

The Age of Reason • The Age of Reason • The Agents • Aggregation • A.J. • Akers, Lee, and The Electric Generation • Steve Akin • Alamo • The Alarm Clocks • Aldermen • Gordon Alexander • Alexander Rabbit • Alexander's Rock Time Band • Alexanders Timeless Bloozband • Alien Nation • The Aliens • Alive 'n' Kickin' • All Saved Freak Band • Beau Allen • Chris Allen and The Good-Timers • Davie Allan and The Arrows • Alley Cats • Alley Cats • The Alliance • Allies •

Duane & Gregg Allman to Randy Alvey and The Green Fuz

Duane and Greg Allman • Allman Brothers Band • Allman Joys • The All Night Workers • All Of Thus • All That The Name Implies • Alphabetical Order • Al's Untouchables • Randy Alvey and The Green Fuz

The Amberjacks to American Zoo

The Amberjacks • Ambertones • The Amboy Dukes • America Is Hard To Find • American Beetles • American Blues • American Blues Exchange • The American Breed • American Dream • American Dream • American Eagle • American Express • The American Four • American Legend • American Revolution • American Zoo •

Eric Andersen to Aorta

Eric Andersen • Angel • The Anglo-Americans • Anglo Saxton • The Angry Men • Animated Egg • Anonymous • The Answer • Ant Trip Ceremony • Anthem • Aorta •

Apache to Arrogance

Apache • Apes of Wrath • The Apocalypse • Apokolips • The Apollos • Apollo's Apaches • The Apostles • The Apostles • The Apostles • The Apostles • Appaloosa • Apparition • Apperson Jackrabbit • The Apple Corps • The Apple-Glass Cyndrom • The Applepie Motherhood Band • Appletree Theatre • The Apolloes • Arbuckle • Arch Of Triumph • The Argyles • Ariel • Ark • The Arkay IV • Armageddon • Arnold Bean • The Arondies • Arrangement • Arrogance •

The Arrogants to Astronauts

The Arrogants • Ars Nova • Art Collection • Arthur (Arthur Lee Harper) • Art of Lovin' • David Arvedon • A Small World • The Ascendors • The Ascots • The Ashes • Jan Ashton • Associated Soul Group • The Association • The Assortment • The Astral Projection • Astral Projection • Astronauts •

The Asylum Choir to Aztex

The Asylum Choir • Atlantics • Atlantis Philharmonic • Atlee • Attila • Attila and The Huns • Aum • Aura • The Aussies • Autosalvage • Autumn People • The Avant Garde • The Avengers • The Avengers • The Avengers • The Avengers • Avlons • A Warm Puppy • David Axelrod • Axis Brotherhood • Hoyt Axton • Azitis • Aztecs • Aztex •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

B.J. & The Hobson Brothers to Ballroom

B.J. and The Hobson Brothers · The Bachs · Bachs Lunch · The Backdoor Men · Backdoor Society · Backgrounds · The Backseat · The Bad Boys · The Badd Boys · The Bad Habits · The Bad Roads · The Bad Seeds · The Bad Seeds · The Bag · Bagatelle · Kali Bahlu · Baker Street Irregulars · Baldwin and Leps · The Balladeers · The Balloon Corps · Balloon Farm · Ballroom ·

Bamboo to The Bards

Bamboo · The Ban · Banana and The Bunch · Banchee · The Bandits · The Bandits · Band Of Wynand · Nikhil Banerjee · Bang · Bangor Flying Circus · The Banshees · Banshees · Dave Banyase and Sum Guys · The Barbarians · Barber Green · Barbie · The Bards · The Bards

Bare Facts to Tom Barsanti And The Invaders

The Bare Facts · The Barking Spyders · Steve Baron Quartet · The Barons · The Barons · The Barons · The Barons · Baron Thomas and The Blue Crystals · The Baroque Brothers · Baroque Monthly · The Baroques · The Barracuda · The Barracudas · The Barracudas · The Barracuda's · Tom Barsanti and The Invaders

The Basement Wall to Beacon St Union

The Basement Wall · Robbie Basho · Basic Things · The Baskerville Hounds · The Bassmen · The Bassmen · Bastille · Gil Bateman · The Bats · Battalion Tweed · Skip Battin · Joe Bauer · Baxter · Baxter's Chat · Bay Ridge · The Baytovens · The BC's · B.C. and The Caveman · Beach Bums · The Beachcombers · The Beach Niks · The Beach Nuts · The Beachnuts · The Beacon Street Union

Bead Game to Beau Brummels

Bead Game • Beans • Bear • Paul Bearer and The Hearsemen • The Bear Fax • Bear Mountain Band • Beast • Beat of The Earth • Beaten Path • Beatin' Path • The Beatle-ettes • Beau Brummels

The Beau Denturies to Beech Nuts

The Beau Denturies • The Beau Gentry • The Beau Phenom • The Beaubiens • Beauregarde • The Beautiful Apollo • Beautiful Daze • The Beaux Jens • Beaver and Krause • Beaver and The Trappers • The Beaver Patrol • Joe Beck • Beckett Quintet • Billy Joe Becoat • The Bed of Roses • Jack Bedient and The Chessmen • Bedforde Set • Bedlam Four • Bedpost Oracle • Beech Nuts

The Beeds to The Berkley Five

The Beeds • The Beefeaters • The Beefeaters • Beep Beep and The Roadrunners • The Bees • The Bees • Bees • Beethoven Four • Beethoven Four • Beethoven's Fifth • Beethoven Soul • The Bel-Aires • Vincent Bell • The Belles • Denny Belline and The Rich Kids • The Bellingham Accents • The Bells of Rhymey • The Beloved Ones • The Benders • The Bends • Bengali Bauls • Benninghoff • Jay Bentley and The Jet Set • Bentleys • Terry Ber • John Berberian • Rob Berge Band • The Berkley Five •

Berkley Kites to Big Brother and The Holding Company

Berkeley Kites • The Bermuda Jam • The Berries • The Berrys • The Berries • Berwick Players • The Best • Best Of Friends • Karen Beth • Bethlehem Asylum • The Bethlehem Exit • Better Half • Better Half-Dozen • Better Sweet • Alex Bevan • B.F. Trike • Bhagavad Gita • Bhang • Big Brother and the Holding Company

Big Brother featuring Ernie Joseph to The Birdwatchers

Big Brother featuring Ernie Joseph • Big Foot • The Big Inners • Big Lost Rainbow • Big Sounds • The Big Three • Billy and The Kids • Billy Rat and The Finks • Edwin Birdsong • The Birdwatchers

Birmingham Sunday to The Black Orchids

Birmingham Sunday • Birtha • Biscuit Davis • Bit 'A' Sweet • Bits 'n' Pieces • Bittersweets • The Bittersweets • Anna Black • T.J. Black • Black and Blues • Blackburn and Snow • Black Death • J.D. Blackfoot • Black Merda • The Black Orchids •

Black Pearl to Arthur Blessitt and The Eternal Rush

Black Pearl • Black River Circus • The Black Sacks • The Black Sheep • Black Swan • The Black Watch • The Blackstones • Blackwell • Blackwood Apology • Blades Of Grass • Hal Blaine • Lindy Blaskey and The Lavells • The Blazers • The Blazers • The Blazers • Blessed End • Lynn Blessing • Michael Blessing • Arthur Blessitt and The Eternal Rush

Bliss to Blue Cheer

Bliss • The Blokes • Bloodrock • Bloody Mary • Mike Bloomfield • The Bloomsbury People • The Blox • David Blue • Blue Ash • The Blue Banana • The Bluebeards • The Blue Beats • The Bluebird • The Bluebird • Blue Cheer

The Blue Echoes to Blues Image

The Blue Echoes • Blu-Erebus • Blue Mountain Eagle • Blue Ridge • Blue Sandelwood Soap • Blue Scepter • The Bluethings • Blue Wood • Blues Company • Blues Image •

The Blues Magoos to Bo Grumpus

The Blues Magoos • Blues Messengers • The Blues Project • The Blues Spectrum • Boa • Boa Constrictor and Natural Vine • The Boards • Bocky and The Visions • Bodacious D.F. • The Bodrockers • The Boenzee Cryque • Curt Boettcher • Boffalongo • Bo Grumpus •

Bohemian Vendetta to The Bootmen

Bohemian Vendetta • Buddy Bohn • The Bojax • Bold • Bolder Damn • Boomerang • Bondsmen • Bone • Sonny Bono • Bonne Villes • Boo Boo And Bunky • Book of Changes • Pat Boone • Boot • The Bootles • The Bootmen

Boruk to Boyce and Hart

Boruk • The Boss Five • The Bossmen • The Boss Tweads • The Boss Tweeds • (Bill Wendry and) The Boss Tweeds • Boston Tea Party • Bo St Runners • Bottle Company • Botumless Pit • Bougalieu • The Bounty Hunters • The Bourbons • The Bourbons • Bow Street Runners • Box Tops • Boy Blues • Boyce and Hart

Amos Boynton and The ABC's to The Brave New World

Amos Boynton and The ABC's • The Boys • The Boys • The Boys From New York City • Boys Next Door • The Boyz • Bob Brady and The Concords • Victor Brady • John Braheny • The Brain Police • The Brain Train • The Brakmen • Bram Rigg Set • Brand X • Brand X • Brandywine • Brass Toad • Brat • The Brave New World •

The Breakers to The Bridge

The Breakers • The Breakers • The Breakers • Bobby Brelyn • The Brentwoods • Brethren • Brew • Brewer and Shipley • Bridge • The Bridge

The Brigade to The British Walkers

The Brigade • The Brigands • Brigg • Bright Image • George Brigman • The Briks • Brimstone • Brimstone • The Brimstones • The British Colonels • The British Walkers

The Brogues to Bruthers

The Brogues • Bronin Hogman Band • Terry Brooks and Strange • Broth • Brother Fox and The Tar Baby • Brotherhood • Brotherhood • BLC (Brother Love Congregation) • Brothers • The Brothers and Sisters • Brothers Grim • Bob Brown • Bobby Brown • Charlie Brown • Doug Brown • Scott Brown and The Tempests • Brownscombe and Kleiner • Brownstone • Bruthers •

Bryds to The Buckle

Bryds • The Brymers • The Brym-Mars • Brym Stonz Ltd • The Bubble Gum Machine • Bubble Puppy • The Buccaneers • The Buccaneers • The Buckinghams • Mickey Buckins and The New Breed • The Buckle •

Tim Buckley to The Buffaloes

Tim Buckley • The Buddahs • Buddies • Buff Organization • Buffalo Springfield • The Buffaloes •

The Bugs to Burnt Suite

The Bugs • Bulbous Creation • Sandy Bull • Bullangus • Bump • The Bumps • Wiburn Burchette • The Burgundy Runn • Danny Burk and The Invaders • Tommy Burk and The Counts • The Burlington Express • The Burlington Squires • The Burning Bush • Randy Burns • Burnside • Burnt Suite •

The Bush to The By Fives

The Bush • The Bushmen • The Busters • The Butlers • Paul Butterfield's Blues Band • Butter Rebellion • The Buzzards • Buzzsaw • The By Fives •

The Byrds to Byron and The Mortals

The Byrds • Byron and The Mortals

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Jimmy C and The Chelsea Five to California Poppy Pickers

Jimmy C and The Chelsea Five · C.A. Quintet · C.K. Strong · Cactus · Caeser And His Romans · Cafe Feenjohn · Jeffrey Cain · The Cake · The Calico Wall · California Bear · The California Poppy Pickers ·

Bobby Callender to Cannabis

Bobby Callender · The Calliope · Calliope · Calliope · Cambridge · Cambridge · Dick Campbell · Canadian Legends · The Canadian Rogues · Candymen · Canebreak (aka Canebreak Singers) · Cannabis ·

Canned Heat to Captain Beefheart

Canned Heat · Cannibal and The Headhunters · Canoise · The Cannons · Canterbury Fair · Canticle · Capes of Good Hope · Caps · Captain Beefheart ·

Captain Groovy and His Bubblegum Army to The Cartunes

Captain Groovy and His Bubblegum Army · Captain Matchbox Whoopee Band · Captain Milk · The Caravans · Caravelles · The Cardboard Box · The Cardinals · The Caretakers · The Caretakers of Deception · Bob Carey · Carmel Covered Popcorn · Carp · Chris Carpenter · The Carpetbaggers · Carroll's Mood · Dean Carter · The Cartunes

Cashman Vaquero Band to The Cellar Dwellers

Cashman Vaquero Band · The Castaways · The Castaways · Castells · Castels · Cast of Thousands · Catalina · The Catalinas · The Catamorands · Catch · Catfish Knight and The Blue Express · The Cats Meow · Cat Mother and The All Night Newsboys · Cavaliers · The Cavaliers · Cavalry Twill · Cave Dwellers · Cave Dwellers · The Cavemen · The Cavemen · The Cavemen · Ceeds · The Cellar Dwellers ·

The Cellar Dwellers to The Chambers Brothers

The Cellar Dwellers • The Celtics • The Celtics • Center Family • Central Nervous System • Central Park • Centrees • Centuries • The Centuries • The Centurys • The Centurys • The Ceptors • The Ceyleib People • Chad & Jeremy • The Chain Reaction • The Challengers (Of Who) • The Challengers • David Chalmers • Chamaeleon Church • The Chambermen • The Chambers Brothers •

The Chancellors to The Charlatans

The Chancellors • The Chancellors • Chancellors Ltd • Changing Times • The Changing Times • Changin' Times • Changin' Tymes • The Chants • The Chaparrals • The Chapparals • The Chaps • Chapter VI • Chargers • Chariot • Charity • The Charlatans •

The Charles to The Chevrons

The Charles • Charmer • Charolette Wood • The Chartbusters • Chateaus • Chateaux • The Chayns • Chaz (and The Classics) • The Checkmates • The Checkmates • Chelsea • Chelsea Beige • Chentelles • Cherokee • Cherry People • Cherry Slush • Chesmann Square • The Chessmen • The Chevelle V • The Chevelles • Chevrons (V) • The Chevrons •

Chicago Loop to Chocolate Tunnel

Chicago Loop • Chicago Transit Authority • Child • Childe Harold • The Children • The Children of Darkness • Children of The Mushroom • Children of The Night • Children of One • The Chimes • Chips & Co • Chirco • The Chob • The Chocolate Balloon Company • The Chocolate Light Bulbs • The Chocolate Moose • The Chocolate Paintbox • The Chocolate Pickles • Chocolate Telephone Pole • Chocolate Tunnel •

Chocolate Watchband to The Chozen Ones

Chocolate Watchband • The Choir • The Chosen Few • The Chosen Few • The Chosen Few • The Chosen Lot • The Chozen Ones •

Richard Christensen and Tartaglia to Le Cirque

Richard Christensen and Tartaglia • Christmas Spirit • Christopher • Christopher • Christopher and The Souls • Chrysalis • The Church Mice • Churchill Downs • The Churchkeys • Chy Guys • The Chylds • The Chymes • The Cicadelics • The Cindells • The Cindermen • The Cinders • Circuit Rider • The Circus • The Circus • Circus Maximus • The Cirkit • Cirkyt • Le Cirque •

Citations to The Cliques

Citations • City • City Blues • The City Limits • City Squires • The City Zu • Clann • Clap • Todd Clark • Kathy Clarke • The Classmen • Claytons • Cle Shays • The Cleanliness and Godliness Skiffle Band • Clean Living • Clear Blue Sky • Clear Blue Sky • Clear Light • Clefs of Lavender Hill • The Cliches • Click • Clicker • Clinging Hysteria • The Clique • The Cliques •

Clockwork Orange to The Cobras

Clockwork Orange • Clockwork Orange • Clouds • Clover • The Clue • The Coachmen • The Coachmen • The Coachmen • The Coachmen • The Coachmen • The Coachmen • The Coastliners • The Cobblers • The Cobblestones • The Cobras • The Cobras • The Cobras • The Cobras •

Dennis Coffey and Detroit Guitar Band to Colwell - Winfield Blues Band

Dennis Coffey and Detroit Guitar Band • Cold Blood • Cold Sun • Coldwater Army • Cole and The Embers • Collage • Collective Star • The College Boys • The Colony • Coloring Book • The Colors of Night • Colours • Colours • Colwell - Winfield Blues Band •

The Combenashuns to Cookin Mama

The Combenashuns • Bill Comeau • The Comets • Comfortable Chair • Comin' Generation • Coming Generation • Coming Times • Common People • Commons Ltd. • Communicaton Aggregation • Conception • Concrete Rubber Band • Condello • The Confederate Society • The Conqueroo • The Contents Are • The Continental Co-eds • The Continental V • The Continentals • The Continentals • Contra Band • Curley Cook and The Versitones • Cookin Mama •

Jeff Cooper and The Stoned Wings to The Cornerstones

Jeff Cooper and The Stoned Wings • Ry Cooper • Copperhead • Corbett and Hirsh • Jerry Corbitt • Corcoran Brothers • The Cords • The Cords • The Cornells • Corners Four • The Cornerstones •

The Corporation to The Countdown 5

The Corporation • Corpus • Corruption, Inc. • Corvettes • The Cosmic Brotherhood • Cosmic Michael • Cosmic Rock Show • Cosmic Sounds • The Cosmic Tones • The Cosmic Travelers • Cotton Mouth • Cottonwood • The Counsellors • Count and The Colony • The Countdown 5 (Five) •

The Countdowns to The Couriers

The Countdowns • The Countdowns • The Countdowns • The Count Five • Country Gentlemen • Country Joe and The Fish • Country Weather • The Counts • The Counts • The Counts • The Counts IV • The Couriers •

Coven to Creatures Inc.

Coven • Joe Covington's Fat Fandango • The Cowsills • Danny Cox • Crabby Appleton • The Crabs • The Crackerjack Society • Crazy Elephant • The Crazy Teens • Papa John Creach • Creation's Disciples • Creation of Sunlight • Creatures, Inc. •

Creedence Clearwater Revival to Cromagnon

Creedence Clearwater Revival • Creme Soda • The Crimson Bridge • The Critters • Cromagnon •

Crome Syrcus to The Cult

• The Crome Syrcus • David Crosby • Crosscut Saw • Crow • Crowfoot • The Crusade • The Crusaders • The Cryan' Shames • The Crystal Ball • Crystal Chandelier • Crystal Garden • Crystal Mansion • Crystal Rain • Cucumber • Culls • The Cult •

Curfew to The Cyrkle

• Curfew • Current Event • Don Curry and The Instigators • Rick Curtis Affair • Jimmy Curtiss • Custer and The Survivors • Customs Five • Cutty Sark • Cyclones • Cykle • Cynara • The Cynics • The Cyrkle •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Charley D. and Milo to Danny's Reasons

Charley D. and Milo • The "D" Men • Tommy Dae • The Dagenites • The Daggs • Daisy Chain • The Daily Flash • Floyd Dakil Combo • Floyd Dakil Four • Dakila • Dalek/Engham: The Blackstones • Damnation of Adam Blessing • Damon • Sterling Damon • Dan and Dale • Dancing, Food and Entertainment • Dan-Dees • Danes • Raul (Rabindra) Danks • Danny and Linda • Danny and The Counts • Danny and The Other Guys • Danny and The Sessions • Danny's Reasons •

Nick D'Angelo and The Farmers to Tim Davis

Nick D'Angelo and The Farmers • The Dantes • The Dantes • Darius • The Dark Horsemen • The Dark Knights • Darkseid • Dark Shadows • Daughters Of Albion • Daughters of Eve • Dave and The Customs • Dave and The Shadows • Dave and The Squires • Mogan David and His Winos • The David • David and The Boys Next Door • Jeff Davis • Tim Davis •

Tim Dawe to The Dearly Beloved

Tim Dawe • The Dawgs • The Dawks • Daybreak • The Dawnbreakers • The Day After • Day Blindness • The Daybreakers • Daze of The Week • The Deacons • The Dead Beats • Deadend • Deadlys • Ritchie Dean • Christopher Deane • The Dearly Beloved •

The Debonaires to Dee Jay and The Runaways

The Debonaires • The Debonairs • Debris • The Debs • The Decades • The Decades • The Decades • The Decades • December's Children • December's Children Ltd • The Decisions • Declaration Of Independence • Terry Dee and The Road Runners • Dee Jay and The Runaways •

The Deep to Depot Rains

The Deep • The Deepest Blue • Deep Soul Cole • Deerfield • The Defiant 4 • The Defiants • The Del Counts • Delaney & Bonnie and Friends • The Delights • Del-Rays • The Del-tinos • The Del-vetts • Demian • The Demons of Negativity • The Denims • Denise & Co • Denis and The Times • Dennis The Fox • Depot Rains •

Derby Hatville to Dialogue

Derby-Hatville • The Descendants • Destiny's Children • Destiny's Children • Detroit • Detroit Riots • Deuces Wild • Deviled Ham • Devilles • The Devilles • Devils • Devil's Anvil • Devil's Brigade • Dialogue •

Dave Diamond and The Higher Elevation to Dirty Wurds

Dave Diamond and The Higher Elevation • Johnny Diamond and The Royal Five • Dick Rabbit • Dick Watson 5 • The Different Parts • The Dimensions • The Dimensions (Five) • The Dinks • Dino Desi and Billy • Dirty Blues Band • Dirty Filthy Mud • Dirty John's Hot Dog Stand • Dirty Martha • Dirty Shames • Dirty Shames • Dirty Wurds •

The Disciples to Dick Dodd

The Disciples • The Disciples of Shaftesbury • Disraeli • Distant Cousins • The Distant Sounds • Distortions • DMZ • The Do's and The Don'ts • Doctor Feelgood • Dr. John, The Night Tripper • Dr Spec's Optical Illusion • Dr. T. and The Undertakers • Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band • Dick Dodd •

The Dogs to Donnybrookes

The Dogs • Dogwood • Denny Doherty • Dolphin • Domestic Help • The Dominions • The Dominos • Don and Jerry with The Fugitives • Don and The Agitators • Don and The Goodtimes • Donnybrook • Donnybrookes •

The Doors to Douglas Idaho

The Doors • Doppler Effect • The Doughboys • Douglas Fir • Douglas Idaho •

The Dovers to Drnwyn

The Dovers • Paul Dowell and The Dolphin • The Down Children • Down From Nothing • Downtown Collection • The Drag Kings • Dragonfly • Dragonwyck • Dreamies • Dream Merchants • Dreams and Illusions • D.R. Hooker Band • The Driving Stupid • Driving Wheels • Drnwyn •

The Drongos to The Dynasty

The Drongos • The Druids • The Druids • Druids • The Druids of Stonehenge • Drydock County • Dryewater • The Dry Gins • Duffy • The Dukes • Frank Dumin • Duplex • Dust • Dust Bowl Clementine • Dutch Masters • Dwight Douglas and The Jayhawkers • The (Dynamic) Dischords • The Dynasty •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

E.T.C. to Sally Eaton

E.T.C. • Eagle • Earthen Vessel • Earth Island • Earth Opera • Eastern Alliance • Eastfield Meadows • The East Side Kids • (Gaylon Ladd & the) Eastside Transfer • Eastwood Review • Easy Chair • Easy Steam • Easy Street • Sally Eaton •

The Ebb Tides to Eden's Children

The Ebb Tides • Ebb-Tides • Barry Ebling and The Invaders • The Eccentrics • Eccentrics • The Echoes of Carnaby St • The Echomen • The Echo(es) • Echos • Eclectic Mouse • Ecology • Eddie and The Showmen • Eden's Children •

The Edge to Electric Piano Playground

The Edge • Edge of Darkness • Jim Edger and The Roadrunners • Edgewood • Edison Electric Band • Bob Edmund • George Edwards and Friends • Jack Eely and The Courtmen • 8th Wonders (Of The World) • Elastic Prism • The Elastik Band • El Campo Jades • Billy Elder • Elderberry Jak • The Elders • The Electras • Electras • The Electric Company • The Electric Flag • Electric Junkyard • Electric Love • Electric Piano Playground •

Electric Prunes to Elephant's Memory

The Electric Prunes • The Electric Screwdriver • Electric Toilet • Electric Tomorrow • Electric Train • The Electrical Banana • Elephant • Elephant's Memory •

The Elite to (Original) Emotions

The Elite • The Elite U.F.O. • Elizabeth • Ellie Pop • Steve Elliot • Ron Elliott • Elmer City Rambling Dogs • The Elopers • The Elusives • Elysian Field • The Embers • The Emblems • The Emblems • The Emergency Exit • Tim Emery • Emilon • Emory University Almanac • (Original) Emotions •

The Emperor's to Era of Sound

The Emperor's • The Emporium • Enchanters 4 • The End • The End • The Endd • The Endless • The Energy Package • The Enfields • Butch Engle and The Styx • John English III • The Englishmen • The English Muffins • The English Setters • Enoch Smoky • Entourage Music and Theatre Ensemble • The Epics • The Epics • The Epics • The Epicureans • Epitome • Era of Sound •

Eric to A Euphonius Wail

Eric • Mark Eric • Eric and The Norsemen • Erik • Erik and The Smoke Ponies • Ernie and The Emperors • Ernie's Funny's • ESB • The Escapades • The Escorts • The Escorts • Esko Affair • The Esquires • The Esquires • The Esquires • The Esquires • The Esquires • The Esquires • The Essentials • The Estes Brothers • Eternity's Children • The Ethics • The Ethics • E-Types • Euclid • A Euphonius Wail •

Euphoria to Everything Is Everything

Euphoria • Euphoria • Euphoria • Euphoria • The Euphoria's Id • Even Dozen Jug Band • Ever Green Blues • Keith Everett • The Evergreen Blueshoes • Everyman • Every Mother's Son • Everpresent Fullness • Everyday Things • Everything Is Everything •

Evil to Denny Ezba

Evil • Evil Encorporated • The Evil I • The Excels • The Ex-cels • Excentrics • The Exception(s) • Exchequers • The Executioners • The Executioners • Exit • The Exkursions • The Exotics • The Experimental Blues Band • The Express • Denny Ezba •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Fab Four to Facts Of Life

The Fab Four • The Fabs • The Fabulous Apostles • The Fabulous Depressions • Fabulous Pack • The Fabulous Pharaohs • The Fabulous Prophets • Faces In The Crowd • The Factory • The Factory • Facts of Life •

Faine Jade to Family Tree

Faine Jade • The Fairviews • Faith • Falcons • Fallen Angels • The Fallen Angels • The Famen • Family • Family • Family of Apostolic • Family Tree •

The Fanatics to Farquahr

The Fanatics • Fancy • The Fantastic Dee-Jays • Fantastic Zoo • Fantasy • Fanz • Fapardokly • Far Cry • Fargo • Fargo • Richard Farina • Farm • Farm • The Farm Band • The Faros • Farquahr •

Pat Farrell and The Believers to Felt

Pat Farrell and The Believers • Cyrus Faryar • Fat • Fat Chance • Fat City • Fat Water • Father Pat Berkery • The Fatimas • Faun • Fax • Fear Itself • The Fearsome Five • Feather • Feather Da Gamba • Federal Duck • Feebeez • The Feelies • Fe Fi Four Plus 2 • The Felicity • Felt •

Feminine Complex to Fifth Avenue Band

The Feminine Complex • Fenner, Leland & O'Brien • The Fentons • The Fenways • Fenwyck (Featuring Jerry Ray) • Ferguson Tractor • Lawrence Ferlinghetti • The Ferraris • Feris Wheel • The Ferris Wheel • Fever Johnny • The Fever Tree • The Few • The Fewdle Lords • Fields • W.C. Fields Memorial Electric String Band • Fifth Avenue Band •

The Fifth Estate to The Final Solution

The Fifth Estate • Fifth Flight • Fifth Generation • Fifth Generation • Fifth Order • Fifty Foot Hose • Filet of Soul • The Final Solution •

Finchley Boys to Firebirds/31st Flavour (Electric Firebirds)

Finchley Boys • Fink Muncx IX • Emmett Finley • Finnigan and Wood • Mike Finnegan and The Surfs • Finnegan's Wake • Finnicum • Fire • Fire and Ice • Fire and Ice Ltd. • The Fire Escape • Firebirds/31st Flavour (Electric Firebirds) •

Firesign Theatre to Fish 'N' Chips

Firesign Theatre • 1st Century • First Chips • First Crow To The Moon • First Friday • The First Four • 1st National Band • First Revelation • Ernie Fischbach and Charles Ewing • Wild Man Fischer • Fish 'N' Chips •

The 5 to Five More

The 5 • The Five • The Five Americans • Five Bucks • Five By Five (5X5) • Five Canadians • Five Dollar Shoes • The Five Empressions / The Five Emprees • Five Hungry Men • Five More •

Five Of A Kind to Flavor

Five of a Kind • Five of Us • Sonny Flaherty and The Mark V • The Flamin' Groovies • Tommy Flanders • Flash and The Memphis Casuals • Flat Earth Society • Flavor • Flintwhistle •

Floating Bridge to Fly By Nites

Floating Bridge • The Floating Opera • The Flock • Flood • Floss • The Flow • The Flower Children • Flower of Purple • The Flower Pot • The Flower Power • Flower Power • Flowers, Fruits and Pretty Things • Flowerz • Fluff • Fly By Nites •

Flying Circus to The Fonograf Four

Flying Circus • Flying Karpet • The Flys • Foamy Brine • Fogcutters • Tom Fogerty • The Foggy Notions • Foley and Kavanaugh • Folkswingers • The Fonograf Four •

Food to The Four of Us

Food · The Footprints · Jim Ford · Neal Ford and The Fanatics · Ford Theatre · Forgotten Times · Joplin Forte · The Fort Mudge Memorial Dump · The Fortune Seekers · Fortune Teller · Forum Quorum · The Forums · Forvus (featuring Brooke Chamberlain) · The Foul Dogs · The Fountain of Youth · The Fountain of Youth · Four Fifths · The Four Gents · Four In The Morning · 4 Making Do · Four More · The Four O'Clock Balloon · The Four of Us ·

The IV Pack to Lance Fox and The Bloodhounds

The IV Pack · Four Real · 4 Score · The Four Wheels · The 4th Amendment · Fourth Cekcion · Fourth Way · Kim Fowley · Lance Fox and The Bloodhounds ·

Fraction to The Free

Fraction · Framework · Francisco · Joe Frank and The Knights · The Alan Franklin Explosion · (The) Frantic(s) · Frantic Freddie and His Reflections · Fraternity of Man · Freak Scene · Fred · John Fred and His Playboy Band · Frederic · The Free ·

Freebeez to Frar Tuck

Freeborne · Free Design · Freedom Express · Freedom Five · Freedom Highway · Freedom Of Choice · The Free For All · Freeman Sound · Freeport · Free Spirits · Free Thinkers · Freight Train · French Lick · Fresh Air · Friar Tuck ·

Friedles to Frost

Friedles · Friend and Lover · The Friendly Torpedos · Friends of The Family · Friendship · Friendsound · Frijid Pink · Froggie Beaver · Frolk Haven · Front Line · Front Office · The Front Page News · The Front Page Review · The Fronts · Frost ·

Frost to The Fugitives

Frost · Max Frost and The Troopers · Frumious Bandersnatch · Fruit of The Loom · The Fugitives · The Fugitives · The Fugitives · The Fugitives (Bill Allan and) · The Fugitives · The Fugitives · The Fugitives ·

The Fugs to Future

The Fugs · Bobby Fuller Four · Fumin' Humins · Fun and Games (Commission) · Funkadelic · The Furniture · Furniture Store · Fuse · Fusion · Future ·

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

G.T.O.'s to Gas Mask

G.T.O.'s • Gables • Gabriel Gladstar • Galabooches • Galactus • The Galaxies • The Galaxies IV • Galaxy • Gallows • Game • Gamma Goochee • Gandalf • Gandalf The Grey • The Gang Of Saints • The Gants • Jerry Garcia • Jerry Garcia and Howard Wales • The Gas Company • Gas Mask •

The Gas Station to The Gents

• The Gas Station • Gass Co. • The Gaunga Dyns • The Gears • The Geers • Arthur Gee • Joey Gee and The Come Ons • The Gee Tee's • The Generations • Genesis • Genesis • Genesis with Maryann Farra • Geneva Convention • The Gentlemen • The Gentlemen Wild • Gentle Reign • Gentle Soul • The Gentrys • Gentrys • The Gents • The Gents •

Geoffrey to The Glass Harp

• Geoffrey • The Georgetown Medical Band • The Georgia Prophets • Geronimo Black • The Gestures • Geyda • Tom Ghent • Giant Crab • Giant Jellybean Copout • The Giant Sunflower • The Gigolos • Russ Giguere • Jimmy Gilbert • The Gillian Row • Gin Gillette • Steve_Gillette • Ginger • The Girls • Glad • The Glass Bottle • The Glass Candle • Glass Family • The Glass Harp •

Glass Menagerie to Golden Dawn

• Glass Menagerie • The Glass Opening • The Glass Prism • Glass Sun • The Glitterhouse • Glory • Glory • Glory Rhodes • Gnats • Go-Betweens • Godfrey • God Unlimited • The Godz • Gold • Barry Goldberg • Goldberg-Miller Blues Band • The Golden Catalinas • The Golden Dawn •

Goldenrod to Goose Creek Symphony

Goldenrod • Golden Throat • Goliath • The Goldtones • Golgotha • Golliwogs • Gonn • Good and Plenty • Good Cheer • Good Dog Banned • Good Earth • Good Feelins • The Good Idea • The Good Rats • The Good, The Bad and The Ugly • Goodthunder • Goose Creek Symphony •

Jimmy Gordon to The Grass

Jimmy Gordon • Gordian Knot • Gord's Horde • Gospel • Gospel Oak • Gossip • Gove • Symon Grace and Tuesday Blues • Graced Lightnning • Graffiti • A Grain of Sand • Grains of Sand • Grains of Sand • The Grains of Sand • Grand Larceny • Grand Prees • Grand Prees • Granfalloon • Grandma's Rockers • Granmax • Grand Theft • Granicus • Grant's Blueboys • Grapes Of Rath • The Grapes of Wrath • The Grapes of Wrath • The Grapes of Wrath • The Grass •

The Grass Roots to Great Bear

The Grass Roots • The Grateful Dead • Graven Image • Nick Gravenites • Jesse Graves • Graveyard 5 • The Gray Things • Great Bear •

The Great Believers to Grim Reepers

The Great Believers • The Great Imposters • Great Jones • The Great Society • The Great Society • The Greek Fountains • The Greek Fountain River Front Band • Green • Green Apples Dirty • Green Beans • The Green Giants • Green Slime • Norman Greenbaum • Greenwood, Curlee and Thompson • Greer • The Gregorians • Dale Gregory and The Shouters • The Gremlins • The Grey Stokes • Griffin • Griffin • The Grifs • The Grim Reepers •

Grodeck Whipperjenny to Group Therapy

Grodeck Whipperjenny • The Grodes • The Groop • Grootna • Gross National Productions • Groundspeed • The Group • The Group • Group Axis • Group "B" • Groupies • The Groupies • The Group Image • Group Inc. • Group Therapy • Group Therapy •

Growing Concern to Gypsy Trips

• Growing Concern • Peter Grudzien • Gryphon • The Gs • Lenis Guess • The Guilloteens • Guise • Guitar Ensemble • Guns and Butler • Sandy Gurley • The Gurus • Margo Guryan • Arlo Guthrie • Guys Who Come Up From Downstairs • Gwydion • Gypsy • The Gypsies • Gypsy Boots • Gypsy Trips •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

H.B. and The Checkmates to Half Tribe

H.B. and The Checkmates · H.M.S. Bounty · H.M. Subjects · H.P. Lovecraft · H.Y. Sledge · Hackamore Brick · Hackers · Haircuts · Hair Theatre · Hal and The Prophets · Half Pint and The Fifths · Half Tribe ·

Sonny Hall to John Hammond

Sonny Hall · The Hallmarks · The Hamilton Face Band · Hamilton Peach · Hamilton Streetcar · Hammer · John Hammond ·

Hampton Grease Band to Tim Hardin

Hampton Grease Band · A Handful · Hangmen · Hangmen of Fairfield County · Ha'Pennys · The Happy Dragon Band · The Happy Feeling · Harbinger Complex · Tim Hardin ·

The Hardtimes to Harvest Of Dreams

The Hardtimes · Hard Times · Hard Times · Hardwater · Bob Hardy · Ray Harlowe and Gyp Fox · Harper and Rowe · Harper's Bizarre · Joe Harriott Double Quintet · The Harrison · Kent Harrison Boyles · Mickey Hart · Harumi · Harvest of Dreams ·

Jimmy Haskell to Head Lyters

Jimmy Haskell · The Hassles · Jeanne Hatfield · The Hatfields · Richie Havens · Haymarket Riot (Calvin James and) · Haymarket Riot · Haymarket Riot · Haymarket Riot · Haymarket Square · Haystacks Balboa · The Hazards · The Hazards · Roy Head (and The Traits) · Head and The Hares · The Headhunters · Head Lyters ·

Head Over Heels to Heather Black

Head Over Heels · The Heads · The Head Shop · Headstone · The Headstones · The Heard · The Heard · The Heard · The Hearsemen · The Heart Attacks · The Heartbeats · Hearts and Flowers · The Heathens · Heather Black ·

Heaven to Henry Tree

Heaven · Heavy Balloon · Heavy Cruiser · The Dave Heenan Set · Harry Hellings and The Radials · The Hello People · Help · Help · David Hemmings · The Henchmen · Jimi Hendrix · Henry Tree ·

The Herd to The Hippies

The Herd · The Herde · Here Comes Everybody · Heroes · Carolyn Hester Coalition · Hex · Hickory Hollow · Hickory Wind · The Hides · Gary Higgins · Higher Elevation · The Highlifes · High Mountain Hoedown · High Numbers · The High Spirits · High Treason · Highway · Highway Robbery · Kenneth Higney · Bunker Hill · Thomas Hill · Hillow Hammet · Him · The Hinge · Hip Sound · The Hippies · The Hitch-Hikers · The Hitch Hikers ·

Hobbits to Hombres

Hobbits · Hog Heaven · The Hogs · Hokus Pokus · Randy Holden · Randy Holland · Hollins and Starr · Rex Holman · Jake Holmes · Holocaust · The Holy Ghost Reception Committee Mo 9 · Holy Mackerel · The Holy Modal Rounders · Holy Moses · The Hombres ·

Homegas to Bill Horwitz

Homegas · Homer · The Honey Jug · The Hoodoo Rhythm Devils · The Hook · Hootch · The Hooterville Trolley · Hoover · Hope · Hope · Patrick Hopney · Hoppi and The Beau Heems · Horses · Horton · Bill Horwitz ·

Hot Coffee to The Human Beinz

Hot Coffee · Hot Dog Stand · Hot Poop · Hot Soup · Hot Tuna · Hound Dog Clowns · Hourglass · Household Sponge · The House of Commons · Houston · Houston Fearless · The Huck Finn · Huckleberry Mudflap · Human Beings · The Human Beinz ·

The Human Equation featuring Jon Uzonyi to Huns Of Time

The Human Equation featuring Jon Uzonyi • The Human Expression • The Human Situation • The Humane Society • The Humans • The Human Zoo • Ray Hummel III • Hung Jury • Hunger • The Huns • The Huns • Huns Of Time •

The Hunted to Hysterics

• The Hunted • The Huntsmen • Michael Hurley • The Hurricanes • Sandy Hurvitz • The Hush Puppies • The Hustlers • The Hustlers • Danny Hutton • Laura Huxley • The Hydraulic Raisins • Hydro-Pyro • Hysterical Society • Hysterics •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Id to Ilmo Smokehouse

The Id • Id • Id • The Id • The Ides • The Ides of March • The Ides of March • Idle Few • Idols • The Iguanas • The Iguanas • The Iguanas • The Ill Wind • The Ill Winds • Illinois Speed Press • Illusion • Illusion • The Illusions • The Illusions • The Illusions • The Illusions • Ilmo Smokehouse •

Image to Index

Image • The Immigrants • Impact • Impacts/Impact Express • (Fabulous) Impacts • Impact 5 (aka Impact IV) • Impala Syndrome • The Impalas • Thee Impalas • The Implicits • Improper Bostonians • In • The In Crowd • Inca • Incredible Broadside Brass Bed Band • Indescribably Delicious • Index •

Indian Puddin' and Pipe to The Interpreters

Indian Puddin' and Pipe • The Individuals • The Individuals • Industrial Image • The Inexpensive Handmade Look • The Infinite Pyramid • Infinite Staircase • Influence • The Ingredients • The Initial Shock • The In-Keepers • The Inmates • Inn Crowd • Inner Dialogue • Inner Lite • Inner Light • Inner Scene • Innocence • Innovation • The Innsmen • The Insane • The Insect Trust • The In-Sex • Inside Experience • The Inside Out • International Brick • Internal Canitery Sin • Interns • The Interns • The Interpreters •

The Intruders to Itchy Brother

The Intruders • The Intruders • The Intruders • The Intruders • Intruders 5 • The Invaders • Invasion • The Invictas • Iota • I.R.A. • The Iris Bell Adventure • Iron Butterfly • The Iron Gate • Iron Horse • Iron Lung • Itchy Brother •

It's A Beautiful Day to The Ivymen

It's A Beautiful Day • Its Them • Its Us • Ivan and The Sabers • Ivar Avenue Reunion • Peter Ivers • Ivory • The Ivymen •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

J.H. and The Esquires to The Jam Band

J.H. and The Esquires • J. Michael and The Bushmen • Jack and The Beanstalks • Jack and The Rippers • The Jackasses • John Roman Jackson • The Jackson Investment Co. • The Jackals • Jacob's Creek • Jacob's Ladder • Jacob's Reunion • Jade • Jade • Jades • The Jades • The Jades (of Fort Worth) • Jagged Edge • Jagged Edge • Jagged Edge • Jagged Edge • The Jaggers • The Jaguars • The Jaguars • The Jaguars • The Jaguars • Jaim • Jake Jones • The Jam • The Jam Band •

Michael James to Bobby Jameson

Michael James • Tommy James and The Shondells • James Gang • Bobby Jameson •

Jamme to The Jeans

Jamme • The Jammers • Jamul • Jan and Lorraine • Janey and Dennis • January Tyme • Jarvo Runga • Jasper Wrath • Robbie Jay • Jay Hawkers • Jeanie, Jim, Tom and Bill • The Jeans •

Jefferson Airplane and Jefferson Hankerchief

Jefferson Airplane • Jefferson Hankerchief •

Jefferson Lee to Jesus Generation

Jefferson Lee • The Jelly Bean Bandits • Jeremiah • Jeremy and The Satyrs • The Jerms • Jerry and The Others • Jerry and The Playmates • Jesse J. and The Bandits • Jesse, Wolf and Whings • Glen Jester and The Mersey Men • The Jesters • The Jesters • The Jesters • The Jesters IV • Jesters of Newport • Jesus Generation •

The Jet Stream to The Joint Effort

The Jet Stream • Tommy Jett • The Jiants • Jim and Dale • Jim and Jean • Jimmy and The Offbeats • Joey and The Continentals • Joey and Time Machine • John and Gunther • Jonathan and Charles • Jonathan and Leigh • John Bunyan's Progressive Pilgrims • Johnny and The Hurricanes • Johnny and The Nite Ryders • Johnny's Uncalled Four • Mike Johnson • Joint Effort • Joint Effort •

The Jokers Wild to The Juveniles

The Jokers Wild • Jolliver Arkansaw • The Jolly Beggars • The Jolly Green Giants • Jon and Robin • Josefus • Joseph • Ernie Joseph • Joshua • Joshua Dyke • Joshua Fox • The Journey Back • The Journey Men • Joyfull Noise • Joyous Noise (Musical Ensemble) • Joyride • The Joys of Life • Judge 'N' Jury • The Ju-Ju's • Jimmy Jukebox • Juletta's Valiants • Julius Victor • Jungle • Roy Junior • Just Luv • Just Too Much • Just Us • The Juveniles •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

K.O. Bossy to Katmandu

K.O. Bossy · Kack Klick · Kai Ray and Crew · Kak · Kaleidoscope · Maitreya Kali · Mickey Kalis and The Bakersfields Blues Band · Kallabash Corp · Kama Del Sutra · The Kan Dells · Kane's Cousins · Kangaroo · Kantones · The Kards · Kartune Kapers · The Kasenetz Katz Singing Orchestral Circus · Kasnat & Katz Fighter Squadron · The Kasuals · Katmandu ·

Katz Kradle to Kindred Spirit

Katz Kradle · Peter Kaukonen · Jimmy Kaye and The Coachmen · Keepers · The Keggs · Peter Kelley · Dick "Wilde Childe" Kemp · Kempy and The Guardians · Ken and The 4th Dimension · Kennélmus (featuring Bob Narloch) · Kenny and The Fiends · Kenny and The Kasuals · Kensington Forest · Keith Kessler · Ken Kesey · The Keymen · Khazad Doom · Kickland and Johnson · Kicks Inc. · The Kidds · The Kidds · Kids · Pat Kilroy · Kim and Grim · Kim and The Characters · Kindred Spirit ·

Kinetics to Russ Kirkpatrick

Kinetics · Charlie King · Denny King · King Arthur's Quart · The King Bees · The King Bees · The King Biscuit Entertainers · Kingdom · King Krusher and The Turkeynecks · King Richard and The Knights · The Kings · The King's Court · King's English · King's English · King's English · King's Ransom · Kings Verses · The Kingsmen · Kingtones (Dave Roberts and) · Russ Kirkpatrick ·

Kit and The Outlaws to The Knowbody Else

Kit and The Outlaws · Kit Kats · Kitchen Cinq · The Klowns · The Knaves · The Knickerbockers · Curtis Knight · Terry Knight and The Pack · Knight Riders · The Knights 5 + 1 · The Knights (aka The Herman Knights) · Knight's Bridge · Knights Bridge Quintet · Knights of Day · Knights of Day · The Knowbody Else ·

Koala to The Kynd

Koala • Dean Kohler • Kollektion • The Kommotions • Al Kooper • Kopperfield • The Kords • The Artie Kornfeld Tree • K-otics • Kracker Barrel Komplex • Kreed • The Kreeg • Kristyl • The Krums • Kubla Khan • Jim Kweskin Jug Band • Kyks • Kyle • The Kynd •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

L.A. Teens to Last Nikle

L.A. Teens · Ken LaBrie · Wayne Lacadisi · Lacewing · Gaylon Ladd · The Ladds · Lady and The Tramps · The Ladybugs · Lamb · Lamb · Lamp Of Childhood · J.J. Lancaster · Lancers · The Landlords · Landslide · Tony Lane and The Fabulous Spades · David Lannan · Larry and The Blue Notes · Larry and The Loafers · Larry and The Prophets · Last Call Of Shiloh · The Last Draft · The Last Five · Last Knight · Last Nikle ·

The Last Ritual to Leather-Coated Minds

The Last Ritual · Last Times · The Last Word · Last Words · James Late · The Laughing Kind · Andy Lauren · The Lavender Hill Express · The Lavender Hour · Arnie Lawrence and The Children of All Ages · K. Lawson and Four More · The Laymen · The Lazy Eggs · Lazy Nickels · Lazy Smoke · LCS and The Bishops Four · Timothy Leary · The Leather Boy (aka Milan) · Leather-Coated Minds ·

The Leaves to The Lemon Drops

The Leaves · Leaves of Grass · Barry Lee and The Actions · Billy Lee and The Rivieras · Terry Lee · The Left Banke · Lefty and The Leadsmen · Legend · The Legends · The Legends · The Legends · Lemon Drops ·

The Lemon Fog to Mark LeVine

Lemon Fog · The Lemon Pipers · Lemon Sandwich · Leo and The Prophets · Leonda · Perry Leopold · Drake Levin · Mark LeVine ·

The Levis to The Lidos

The Levis · Levitt and McClure · The Lewallen Brothers · Lewis and Clark Expedition · Jeff Liberman · Liberty Bell · Liberty Lads · The Liberty Party · The Liberty Street Ferry · The Lidos ·

Lift to Liquid Smoke

Lift · Light · J.J. Light · The Light Nites · Lightning · Lil' Boys Blue (aka Little Boys Blue) · Lily and Maria · Lime · Limey and The Yanks · Lincoln Park Zoo · The Lincolns · Lincoln St. Exit · Bob Lind · Lines End · Buzzy Linhart · Linn County · Lion and The Leprechauns · Liquid Smoke ·

Listening to The Litter

Listening · Lite Storm · The Litter ·

Ken Little to The Live Wires

Ken Little · (A) Little Bit of Sound · Little Bits of Sound · The Little Bits · Little Boy Blues · Little Casesar and The Consirators · Little John and The Monks · Little John and Tony · Little Willie and The Adolescents · The Live Five · Liverpool Five · The Liverpools · The Liverpools · Live Wires · The Live Wires ·

The Livin' End to Charles Lloyd

The Livin' End · The Livin' End · The Livin' End · The Livin' End · Liv'in End · Livin End · Livin' End · Livin' End · Livin' End · Livin' Ends · Livin' Ends · Livin' Ennd · The Living End · The Living End · The Living End · The Living End · The Living Ends · The Living Children · Adrian Lloyd · Charles Lloyd ·

Load to Long John and The Silvermen

Load · Loading Zone · Loading Zone · Loadstone · Locksley Hall · Locomotive · Lode Star · The Lollipop Shoppe · Robb London and The Rogues · London and The Bridges · London Fog · The London Knights · Londons · London Taxi · Long Island Sound · Long John and The Silvermen ·

Lonnie and The Legends to The Lorey's

Lonnie and The Legends • The Looking Glasses • The Loose Ends • The Loose Ends • Loose Enz • Lord and The Flies • Lord August and The Visions of Life • Lord Beverly and The Mossmen • Lord Sitar • Lords • Lords • Lords • The Lorey's •

The Lost to Lost Tribe

• The Lost • The Lost Agency • Lost and Found • Lost Chords • The Lost Generation • The Lost Generation • The Lost Generation • The Lost Legend • Lost Nation • Lost Ones • Lost Souls • Lost Souls • The Lost Souls • The Lost Souls • The Lost Souls • The Lost Souls • Lost Tribe •

Lothar and The Hand People to Love Song

• Lothar and The Hand People • Louie and The Leprechauns • Louie and The Lovers • Love • Love Corporation • Lovechain • The Loved Ones • The Loved Ones • Love Exchange • Love Flowers • Love Generation • The Love Ins • The Love Ins • Love Is A Heart-On • Love, Serve, Remember • Love Sitars • The Love Society • Love Song •

Lovin' Spoonful to Lyte

• The Lovin' Spoonful • Ted Lucas • Tom Lucas • Chris Lucey • Lucifer • Lucifer • Lumbee • Lunar Madness • Garrett Lund • The Luv Bandits • Luv'd Ones • Lyd • The Lykes of Us • Lyme and Cybelle • Lynn and The Invaders • Kathy Lynn and The Playboys • The Lynx • Jamie Lyons • The Lyrics • Lyte •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bobby Mabe and The Outcast to Madson

Bobby Mabe and The Outcast · Macabre · The Mach V · Larry Mack · Bruce MacKay · Rabbit Mackay and The Somis Rhythm Band · Mad Andy's Twist Combo · The Mad Hatters · Mad Mike and The Maniacs · Mad River · The Madadors · The Madhatters · The Madison Revue · Madson ·

Maelstrom to Majic Ship

Maelstrom · Maffit and Davis · Magi · The Magi · Magic · Magic Fern · Magic Mushroom · The Magic Mushrooms · The Magic Plants · Magic Reign · The Magic Ring · Magic Sand · Magic Sounds · Magic Swirling Ship · The Magicians · Majestics · Majic Ship ·

Major Arcana of Six to Mammoth

Major Arcana · Majority of Six · Malachi · Malibus · The Malibus · The Maltees Four · The Mama Cats · Mama Lion · The Mamas and Papas · Mammoth ·

Man to Marcus

Man · The Manchesters · Harvey Mandel · The Mandells · The Mandrake Memorial · Mankind · Terry Manning · Charles Manson · The Marauders · The Marauders · The Marauders · The Marauders · The Marauders · The Marauders · Marble Cake · Marble Collection · Marble Phrogg · The Marbles · Marcia and The Lynchmen · Lydia Marcelle · Marcus · Marcus ·

Mariani to Marshmellow Steamshovel

Mariani · Mark and The Escorts · Mark Five (Mark V) · Mark V · The Mark Five · The Mark Five · The Mark Four · Mark IV · Mark IV · Mark Markham and The Jesters · Marke V · Bob Markley · Marlboros and The Jokers Six · The Marquis · The Marsadees · The Marshmellow Steamshovel ·

Martians to Masters of Deceit

Martians • Bill Martin • Dewey Martin and Medecine Ball • Paul Martin • Pat Martino • The Martinis • The Mar-Vels • Mary Butterworth • The Masked Marauders • Mason • Mason Proffit • Bonnie Jo Mason • Mass • Masters of Deceit •

The Masters of Stonehouse to MC5

• The Masters of Stonehouse • Mastin and Brewer • The Matadors • Donnie Matchett • Matrix • The Mauds • Bugsy Maugh • The Maundy Quintet • The Mauve • Maximillian • Maxx • Judy Mayhan • Maypole • May Street Tops • The Maze • Cash McCall • The McCoys • MC5 •

Hugh McCracken and The Funatics to Members

• Hugh McCracken and The Funatics • McDonald and Sherby • Barry McGuire • Scotty McKay • McKendree Spring • Scott McKenzie • Billy McKnight and The Plus 4 • Me and Them Guys • Me and The Rest • The Measles • Mechanical Switch • Mecki Mark Men • The Medallions • The Meditations • Melanie • Melton, Levy and The Dey Brothers • Barry Melton • David and Tina Meltzer • Members •

Menerals to The Mesmerizing Eye

• Menerals • Menn • Mephistopheles • The Merced Blues Band / Notes • The Mercy Boys (aka The Mersey Boys) • Merkin • The Merlynn Tree • Merrell and The Exiles • Merrie Motor Company • Bobby Merritt • Merry Dragons • Merry-Go-Round • Neil Merryweather • The Mersey Men • The Merseylads • Mersey Sounds • The Mesmerizing Eye •

The Messengers to Mighty Manfred and The Wonderdogs

The Messengers • The Messengers • The Messengers • Taro Meyer • M.H. Royals • Micah • Michael • Michael • Al Michael and The Medallions • Michael and The Messengers • Michaelangelo • Lee Michaels • Michele • Mick and The Shambles • The Mid-Knighters • The Mid-Night Sons • Midknights • Midnight Sam • Midnight Snack • Midwest • Mighty Manfred and The Wonderdogs •

Mij and White to The Steve Miller Band

• Mij • Mijal and White • Mike's Messengers • Milan (The Leather Boy) • The Mile Ends • Buddy Miles Express • Milford Graves Percussion Ensemble • Milkwood Tapestry • Mill Valley Bunch • Millard and Dyce • The Millennium • The Steve Miller Band •

Miller Bros. to The Moanin' Glories

• Miller Bros. • Mind Distortions • The Mind-Expanders • The Mind's Eye • Mind Garage • Minets (Of England) • The Minimum Daily Requirements • The Minitmen • Minnie and The Kneebones • Minnesoda • The Minority • The Mint • Mint Tattoo • The Minute Men • Mirthrandir • The Mission Singers • Missing Links • Missing Links • Missing Links • Missing Links • Missing Lynx • Missouri • Mr. Christian • Mr. Flood's Party • Mr. Lucky and The Gamblers • Mister's Virtue • The Misty Blues • Misty Wizards • Chad Mitchell • The Mo Joes • The Moanin' Glories •

The Mob to The Models

• The Mob • Moby Grape • Modality Stew • Mod and The Rockers • The Mod 4 • The Mod VI • Modds • The Models •

Modern Folk Quartet to (Florian) Monday and His Mondos

Modern Folk Quartet • The Mods • The Mods • The Mods • The Mods • The Mods • The Mods • The Mods • The Modulation Corporation • David Mogan and His Winos • Moguls • The Mojo Men • The Mojos • The Mojos • Moloch • Mom's Apple Pie • Moms Boys • Monacles • Stephen Monahan • (Florian) Monday and His Mondos •

Monday Rain to Montage

Monday Rain • The Mongrels • The Monkees • The Monks • The Monocles • Montage •

Montells to Morgus and The Daringers

Montells • Monuments • The Mood • Moogie Woogie • Moolah • Chris Moon Group • Jeff Moon • The Moon • The Moon-Dawgs • The Moon Men • Glen Mooney and The Ferraris • The Moonrakers • Bill and Ron Moore • Bob Moore • Matthew Moore (Plus Four) • Moorpark Intersection • More-Tishans • Chris Morgan and The Togas • Morganmasondowns • Steve Morgen • Morgus and The Daringers •

Mor-Loks to Mo-Shuns

Mor-Loks • Morly Grey • Morning • Morning After • Morning Dew • Morning Glory • Morning Song • The Morning Tymes • Morninglory • Morocco • Kent Morrill • The Morticians • The Morticians • Mortimer • Moses Lake • Mo-Shuns •

Mother Earth to Mouzakis

Mother Earth • The Motifs • The Motion • The Motions • The Motivations • The Motleys • Motor City Bonnevilles • The Mott's Men • Mountain • Mountain Bus • Mount Rushmore • The Mourning Reign • Mouse and The Boys • Mouse and The Traps • Mouzakis •

The Movement to Muphets

The Movement • The Movement • The Movers • Movin' Morfomen • The Moving Sidewalks • Moving Violations • The Moxies • Mu • Muffets • Muffetts • Mugwumps • The Mugwumps • Munx • Muphets •

Murmaids to The Music Machine

Murmaids • J.F. Murphy and Free Flowing Salt • Murphy and The Mob • Music • Music Asylum • The Music Emporium • Music Explosion • Music Fair • The Music Machine •

Charlie Musselwhite to The Mystifying Monarchs

• Charlie Musselwhite • The Mussies • Mustache Wax • The Mustang • The Mustangs • The Mustard Family • The Mustard Men • Mustardseed • Mutha Goose • Mutzie • The Myddle Class • Dave Myers and The Disciples • The Myrchents • Myrth • Mysterians • Mysteries • The Mystery Trend • The Mystic Astrologic Crystal Band • Mystic Blue • The Mystic Five • The Mystic Five • The Mystic Number National Band • The Mystics • The Mystic Siva • The Mystic Tide • The Mystifying Monarchs •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

'N' Group to Neighb'rhood Childr'n

'N' Group • Ron Nagle • Naked Truth • Napoleon XIV • Napoleonic Wars • The National Gallery • The Naturals • The Nautiloids • The Navarros • The Nazz • The Nazz • Ted Neeley • Negative Space • Tommy Nehls • Neighborhood Of Love • Neighb'rhood Childr'n •

Fred Neil to New Colony Six

Fred Neil • Neon • Neon Philharmonic • Nepenthe • The Nervous Breakdown • Neurotic Sheep • Never Mind • The New Arrivals • The New Breed • The New Breed • New Breed • New Buffalo (Springfield) • New Colony Six •

New Dawn to The News

The New Dawn • New Directions • The New Fugitives • The New Generation • The New Hope • New Hudson Exit • The New Life • The New Life • Newluvs • The New Mix • The New Order • The New Phoenix • The Newports • The New Roadrunners • The New Rock Band • The New Survivors • The New Tweedy Brothers • New Wine • The New Wing • New World Congregation • The New York Rock (& Roll) Ensemble • The New Yorkers • New Zealand Trading Company • Curt Newbury • The News •

Next Five to Nineteen Eighty-Four

Next Five • Next Morning • The Next World • NGC-4594 • Chet Nichols • Nickel • The Nickel Bag • The Nickel Bag • Nicodemus • Ralph Nielsen and The Chancellors • The Nightcrawlers • The Night Crawlers • The Night Crawlers • The Night People • Night Riders • The Night Riders • The Nightrockers • The Nightriders • The Nightshadows • The Night Walkers • Nightwalkers • Nineteen Eighty-Four •

1910 Fruitgum Co. to The Nobles

1910 Fruitgum Co. • The '1900' Storm • 90th Congress • The Ninth Street Bridge • 9th Street Market • Nirvana Banana • The Nite Owls • The Nite Walkers • Nitty Gritty Dirt Band • Noah's Ark • Noah's Ark • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • The Noblemen • Noblemen 4 • The Nobles •

Nobody's Children to The Notations

Nobody's Children • Nobody's Children • Nobody's Children • Nobody's Children • Nobody's Children • Nobody's Children • The Nomadds • The Nomads • The Nomads • The Nomads • The Nomads • The Nomads • The Nomads • The Nomads • Nomadz • No-Na-Mee's • Steve Noonan • Dave Nordin • North Atlantic Invasion Force (N.A.I.F.) • North Bridge Company • The Northern Front • Nosy Parker • The Notations •

Notes From The Underground to Nu-Dimensions

Notes From The Underground • The Notorious Noblemen • Nova Local • Novac • The Novas • The Nova's • The Novells • Len Novy • Now • Now Generation • The Nuchez's • Nucleus • Nu-Dimension •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Oasis to Ognir and The Night People

Oasis • Phil Ochs • October Country • Octopus • Oda • The Odds and Ends • Kevin Odegard • Odyssey • Odyssey • Odyssey • Oedipus and The Mothers • Off Beats • Off-Set • The Offbeats • The Offbeets • Ofoendian Den • Carl Oglesby • Ognir and The Night People •

Ohio Express to The One Way Streets

• Ohio Express • Ohio Knox • Oho • Okiextremist Moon Dog • Old Hickory and The Pirate • Olivers • Omegas • The Omen • The Omens • Omnibus • Oncomers • On The Seventh Day • One • One Eyed Jacks • One Man's Family • The Oneness Space • One Of Hours • One St. Stephen • One Way Street • The One-Way Street • One-Way Street Band • The One Way Streets •

The Ones to Orient Express

• The Ones • Only Ones • Onyx • Michael Oosten • Operations • The Opposite Six • The Opposite Six • Opus 1 • Opus IV • The Oracle • Orange Colored Sky • The Orange Wedge • The Orange Wedge • Orang Utan • The Orfuns • The Organgrinders • Organised Confusion • Organised Confusion • Orient Express •

The Original Dukes to The Other Half

• The Original Dukes • The Original Sinners • PJ Orion and The Magnates • The Orkustra • Ormandy • Orphan Egg • Orpheus • The Orphuns • The Oscar Five • Oscar and The Majestics • Osgood • Oshun • Other Five • The Other Four • The Other Half • The Other Half •

The Other Side to The Outlaws

• The Other Side • The Other Two • The Others • The Others • Our Gang • Our Gang • Our Village Sound • The Outcasts • The Outcasts • The Outcasts • The Outcasts • The Outcasts • The Outcasts • The Outcasts • The Outcry • Outer Edge • The Outer Limits • Outlaw Blues • The Outlaw Blues Band • The Outlaws •

The Outrage to Ozone

The Outrage • The Outside In • The Outsiders • The Outsiders • The Outsiders • The Outspoken Blues • Owen-B • Owl • The Oxford Circle • The Oxford Circus • The Oxford Circus • The Oxford 5 • Oxford Watchband • The Oxfords • The Oxfords • The Oxpetals • The Oz Band • Oz Knozz • Ozone •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Pacific Gas and Electric to Lucia Pamela

Pacific Gas and Electric • Pacific Ocean • The Pack • The Pack • The Pagans • Page Boys • The Page Boys • The Page Boys • The Pagens • Painted Faces • The Paisleys • The Palace Guard • The Palace Guard(s) • Pale Fire • Bruce Palmer • Lucia Pamela •

The Pandas to The Patriots

The Pandas • The Pandemonium Shadow Show • The Panicks • The Panics • Paper Fortress • The Paper Garden • Paper Mind • Paper Train • The Parade • Paragons • Paraphernalia • Paraphernalia • Paris Pilot • Parish Hall • Park Avenue Playground • Van Dyke Parks • Parliament • Paul Parrish • Parrish and Wilde • The Parrots • Passing Clouds • The Passions • The Pastels • The Pastels • The Pastels • Pasternak Progress • The Patriots •

The Patriots to The Pedestrians

The Patriots • Patron Saints • The Pattens • The Patterns • Brenda Patterson • Paulist Folk Singers • The Pawnbrokers • Pawnee Drive • P.B. and The Staunchmen • Joe Peace • Peace and Quiet • Peace Bread and Love Band • Peacepipe • The Peanut Butter Conspiracy • Pearl Drivers • Pearls Before Swine • The Pebble Episode • The Pebbles • The Pebbles • The Pebbles • Peck's Bad Boys • The Peddlers • The Pedestrians •

David Peel and The Lower East Side to The Persuaders

David Peel and The Lower East Side • The Steve Peele Five • Peers • Pembrook Ltd. • Pendulum and Company • The William Penn Fyve • William Penn and The Quakers • Pentagram • The Penthouse Five • People • People of Sunset Strip • People's Victory Orchestra and Chorus • Pepper and The Shakers • Jim Pepper • The Peppermint Trolley Co • Linda Perhaus • The Perils • Perpetual Motion Workshop • Pep Perrine • The Persian Market • Perspective • The Persuaders •

Peter and The Prophets to Phineas and The Lemon Fogg

Peter and The Prophets • Peter and The Rabbits • Peter and The Wolves • Peter Pan and The Good Fairies • Peter Pipers • John Peterson • Kris Peterson • Petra • Petrified Forest • Pex's Bad Boys • Phafner • Phananganang • Phantasia • Phantom • The Phantom Raiders • The Phantoms • Phase III • Phil and The Frantics • Samy Phillip • Glenn Phillips • The Philosophers • Phineas and The Lemon Fogg •

Phinx to The Plague

Phinx • PH Phactor (Jugband) • Phlegethon • Phluph • Phoenix Bird • Phoenix Trolley • Phorenbach Delegation • The Pictorian Skiffuls • Picture • Pidgeon • The Piece Kor • Pied Pipers • Pierce Arreau • (Mark Stein and) The Pigeons • Piggy Bank • Pig Iron • Pilgrimage • Pinkiny Canandy • Pinnochio and Puppets • The Pirates • Pitche Blende • The Plague • The Plague • The Plague • The Plague •

The Plagues to The Plymouth Rockers

The Plagues • The Plagues • Plain Jane • Planet of The Apes • Planned Obsolescence • Plaster Casters Blues Band • Plastic Blues Band • The Plastic Ice Cube • Plastic Mushroom • Plato and The Philosophers • The Playboys of Edingburg (P.O.E.) • The Playgue • Pleasure (featuring Billy Elder) • Pleasure Fair • The Pleasure Seekers • Plum Nelly • Bill Plummer and The Cosmic Brotherhood • Plymouth Rock • The Plymouth Rockers •

Plynth to Pound

Plynth • P-nut Butter • Poco • Pollution • Polyphony • Erica Pomerance • Poobah • Pookah • The Poor • The Poor Boys • The Poor Boys • The Poor Boys • Poor Little Rich Kids • Poor Richard • The Poore Boys • Poother Unlimited • Popcorn Blizzard • Popcorn Blizzard • Positively Thirteen O'Clock • The Possums • The Possums • Potter St. Cloud • Pound •

Poverty Five to Don Preston and The South

Poverty Five • Powder • Power • Power of Zeus • Powers of Blue • The Preachers • The Preachers • The Premiers • Prentice and Tuttle • Press Down, Shaken Together and Running Over • Preston • Don Preston • Don Preston and The South •

Pretty People to Proctor Amusement Co.

• Pretty People • Pride • Adrian Pride • Pride and Joy • The Primates • Prime Mover • Primevil • Primrose Circus • Prince and The Paupers • The Princemen • The Princetons • Joe Pritchard and Gibraltar • Private Property Of Digil • Privilege • Probe • Proctor Amusement Co. •

The Prodigal to Pugsley Munion

• The Prodigal • The Prodigies • Professor Morrison's Lollipop • Proof • Proof of The Puddin' • Prophecy • The Prophets • The Prophets • Thee Prophets • Proposition (aka Ron Roman and...) • Prospectus • The Proverbial Knee Hi's • The Pseudos • Psychedelic Sounds • The Psychopaths • The Psychos • The Psychotics • The Psychotics • Puddin' Heads • Puff • Pugsley Munion •

The Pulsating Heartbeats to The Pyramids

• The Pulsating Heartbeats • The Pulse • Pulse • Punch • The Puppets • Pure Love and Pleasure • Purple Avalanche • Purple Canteen • Purple Fox • Purple Gang • The Purple Haze • The Purple Haze • Purple Image • Purple Passage • Purple Prism • Purple Rock • Purple Smoke • The Purple Underground • Purpose • Joseph Pusey • Puzzle • Pynk Peach Mob • The Pyramids •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Quadrangle to The Quinstrells

Quadrangle • The Quantrill Raiders • Quatrain • Queen Anne's Lace • Queens Nectarine Machine • The Quest • ? and The Mysterians • Questors • The Quest's • The Quick • Al Quick and The Masochists • Quicksilver Messenger Service • Quill • The Quinaimes Band • The Quinstrells • Quintette Plus •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Jimmy Rabbit and The Karats to Ramatam

Jimmy Rabbit and The Karats • Racket Squad • Raga and The Talas • The Raggamuffins • Raging Winds • Raiks Progress • Rain • Rain • Rain • Rain • Rain • Rain • The Rain • Rainbow • Rainbow Press • Rainbow Promise • Raindear Army • The Rainmakers • The Rainmakers • Rainy Days • Rainy Daze • Ram • Ramadas • Ramatam •

Terry Randall to Jerry Raye and Fenwyck

Terry Randall • Randy and The Radiants • Randy and The Rest • Randy and The Ring • Rapid Richard Group • Tom Rapp • The Rare Breed • The Rare Breed • Rare Earth • Rasput and The Sepoy Mutiny • Rasputin and The Mad Monks • Rasputin and The Monks • Billy Rat and The Finks • The Rationals • The Rats • The Ravelles • Raven(s) • Raven • Raven • Ravenz • The Rave-Ons • The Ravons with Bobby Roberts • The Raves • Ravin' Blue • The Raving Madd • Raw Honey • Bob Ray • Jerry Raye and Fenwyck •

The Raymarks to The Rebounds

The Raymarks • Raymond John Michael Band • Rayne • Razor's Edge • Razor's Edge • Reactions • Reactors • The Readymen • Real People • Rear Exit • The Reasons Why • The Reasons Why • The Reasons Why • The Reasons Why • Rebecca and The Sunnybrook Farmers • Rebirth • The Rebounds •

The Rebs to Relatively Clean Rivers

The Rebs • Red Beard and The Pirates • Red Bud Thunder • Red Crayola • The Reddlemen • Redeye • The (Roaring) Red Dogs • The Red House • The Red-Lite District • Red Roosters • Red Shepard and The Flock • Red, Wilder, Blue • Redwing • The Reekers • Reets • The Regents • The Regiment • The Rehabilitation Cruise • Rejects • Rejoice • Reknown • Relatively Clean Rivers •

The Remaining Few to Paul Revere and The Raiders

The Remaining Few • The Remains • Renaissance Fair • The Renagades • The Renegades • Renegades V • Renegades IV • Mike Renolds and 'The Infants of Soul' • Research 1-6-12 • The Restless Feelin's • The Restless Knights • Retreds • The Revelation • Reveliers • The Revelles • Reverbs • Paul Revere and The Raiders •

The Revlons to Richie's Renegades

The Revlons • Revolution • The Revolvers • Rhinoceros • Rhode Hog and The Nuisances • Rhubarb's Revenge • Rhythm Rockers • Randy Rice • Ronnie Rice (and The Gents/Silvertones) • Cathy Rich • Richard and The Young Lions • Emil Richards and The Microtonal Blues Band • Warren S. Richardson • Karl Richey • Richie's Renegades •

Rick and Ronnie to The Rising Sons

• Rick and Ronnie • Rick and The Riots • Nooney Rickett • The Ricochettes (Ricochetts) • The Riddles • Riders of The Mark • The Riffs • The Riffs • Rig • Rigor Mortis • The Ringers • Rio Grande • The Riots • The Rip Tides • Rising Hope • The Rising Sons •

Rising Storm to Road's End

• The Rising Storm • Rising Tides • Rising Tides • Peter Ritchie • Ritchies Renegades • The Rites • Rites of Spring • River Styx • Road • The Road • The Road Runners • The Roadrunners • Road's End •

Roamin Togas to Rock Collection

• Roamin Togas • Robbie The Werewolf • The Robbs • Howard Roberts • Don Robertson • Robin and The Three Hoods • The Robin Hoods • The Rob Roys • Andy Robinson • Rock Collection •

Rock Garden to The Roemans

Rock Garden • Rock Island • The Rock-N-Souls • Rock Shop • The Rockets • The Rockin' Ramrods • Rockin' Roadruners • The Rocks • Rocky and His Friends/and The Riddlers • Rod and The Satalites • The Roemans •

Rog and The Escorts to Rogues Inc.

Rog and The Escorts • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues • The Rogues - assorted unknown outfits... • Rogues, Inc. •

Rohrbacker, Hendren and Kingen to Tim Rose

Rohrbacker, Hendren and Kingen • The Roks • Rolling Ramsax(s) • The Romancers • Murray Roman • Roman Rebellion • The Romans • Jonny Rome and The Second Thought • Ron and Shirley • The Rondells • The Ron-dels • Ron-De-Voos • Ron-De-Vous • The Rooks • The Rooks • The Roosters • Rooter • The Roots • Joe Rosanova and The Vineyard • Tim Rose •

Rose Garden to Roxy

Rose Garden • Rotary Connection • The Rouges • The Rousers • The Rovin' Flames • The Rovin' Kind • Roxy •

Royal Aircoach to Rubber Band

Royal Aircoach • The Royal Caste • The Royal Flairs • The Royal Guardsmen • The Royal Knights • The Royal Rogues • The Royal Shandels • The RPM's • Rubayyat • Rubber Band • The Rubber Band • The Rubberband • Rubber Band (various) •

The Rubber Maze to Rums and Coke

The Rubber Maze • Rubber Memory • Ruben and The Jets • Roger Rubin and Rotfree Anderson • Ruby • Rude Awakening • The Rugbys • The Ruins • The Rumblers • The Rumbles • Rumor(s) • Rums and Coke •

The Run-a-Rounds to Rye

The Run-a-Rounds • The Runarounds • The Runaways • The Runaways • Merrilee Rush • Tom Rush • Rush Hour • Rustix • Ruthanne and The Invictas • Mitch Ryder and The Detroit Wheels • Rye •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Sabana Breeze to Endle St. Cloud

Sabana Breeze • Sacred Irony • The Sacred Mushroom • Saddhu Brand • Saddlesore • Sage • Sage and Seer • The Sages • Sagittarius • The Saharas • Sainte Anthony's Fyre • Endle St. Cloud •

St. George and Tana to Sam Samudio

St. George and Tana • Saint Jacques • Rod St. James • St. John Green • Buffy Sainte-Marie • Alan St. Pierre • Mike St. Shaw and The Prophets • Saint Steven • The Saints • The Salados • Salem Mass • Salem Witchcraft • Salloom Sinclair and The Mother Bear • Salt • Salt Water Taffy • Salvation • Sam The Sham and The Pharaohs • Sam Samudio •

Sanctuary to The Sants

Sanctuary • Sand • The Sandals / Sandells • Sands • The Sands • The Sands of Time • The Sanshers • Santana • David Santo • The Sants •

The Sapians to Savage Grace

The Sapians • Sapphire Thinkers • Sarofeen and Smoke • Satan and The De-Ciples • The Satans • Satan's Breed • Satan's Chyldren • The Satellites • The Satisfactions • Satori • Saturday's Children • Saturday's Garbage • The Satyrs • Robert Savage • The Savage Generation • Savage Grace •

Savage Resurrection to Bernie Schwartz

Savage Resurrection • The Savages • Savages • The Savoys • Sawdust • The Saxons • Jim Scannell and The Believers • Scarlet Letter • The Scavengers • Scepters • The Sceptres • Leonard Schaeffer • Warren Schatz • The Scholars • The Schoolboys • Bernie Schwartz •

John Scoggins to Search Party

John Scoggins • Scorpio Tube • Scorpion • Scorpion • The Scotsmen • The Scotsmen • Scott Bedford Four • Scoundrels • Scoundrels • Screaming Gypsy Bandits • The Screaming Wildmen • The Sea Dogs • Sean and The Brandywines • The Search • Search Party •

Seatrain to Section Five

Seatrain • John B. Sebastian • Second Chapter of Acts • Second Coming • Second Coming • The Second Edition • The Second Helping • The Second Summers • Second Thought • Second Time • Secrets • Section Five •

The Seeds to The Serfs

The Seeds • Bob Seger • Bob Seger and The Last Heard • Bob Seger System • Selah • The Semi-Colons? • The Senders • The Senders • The Serfmen • The Serfs •

Serpent Power to Shades of Black Lighning Soul

Serpent Power • Sertified Sounds • 7 Dwarfs • 1776 • 7th Cinders • Seventh Dawn • Seventh Seal • Seventh Sons • 17th Avenue Exits • The Shades (and variations of) • The Shades • The Shades • The Shades • The Shades • Shades Inc. • Shades of Black Lightning Soul •

Shades of Blue to Shady Daze

The Shades of Blue • The Shades of Blue • The Shades of Night • The Shadow Casters • Shadow Mann • The Shadows Four • The Shadows of Knight • The Shadows of Time • Shadrack • Shady Days • Shady Daze •

The Shag to Shan Dels, Inc.

The Shag • The Shaggs • The Shaggs • Shaggs • Shaggs • The Shags • The Shags • The Shags • Shakey Legs • The Shames • The Shamettes • The Shandells • The Shandells • Shandells, Inc. • The Shandels • Shandels / Shan Dels •

The Shane to Shindogs

The Shane • Anandar Shankar • Shanti • The Shapes of Things • The Shaprels • The Shatters • Shawkey Seau and The Muffins • The Shaynes • She Devils • The Sheep • Sheffields • Gilbert Shelton Ensemble • Shep • The Sheppards (aka Rickford Ziockowsky and The Sheppards) • The Sherwoods • The Shieks • The Shillings • The Shillings • The Shillings • Shiloh • Shiloh Morning • The Shilos • Shindogs •

The Ship to Show of Hands

The Ship • Shivas Headband • Wally Shoop and Fubar • The Shoremen • Short Cross • The Short Cuts • Shotgun Ltd • The Showmen • The Showmen • Show of Hands •

The Shy Guys to Silk Winged Alliance

The Shy Guys • The Shy Guys • The Shy Ones • The Shyres • The Sidekicks • Si-dells • The Side Show • The Sidewalk Skipper Band • Siegel Schwall Band • The Sights and Sounds • Silent Partner • Silk • Silk Winged Alliance • Silver •

Silver Apples to Sir Douglas Quintet

Silver Apples • Silver Fleet • Silver Metre • The Silvertones • Jeff Simmons • John Simon • John Simson • The Sinners • Sin Say Shuns • Sir Douglas Quintet •

Sir Lord Baltimore to S.J. and The Crossroads

Sir Lord Baltimore • Sir Michael and The Sounds • Sir Raleigh and The Coupons • Sir Winston and The Commons • The Sires • The Sirs • Six Feet Under • Six Pence • The Six Pents • Thee Sixpence • The Sixpence • The Sixpentz • S.J. and The Crossroads •

The Skeptics to The Sloths

The Skeptics • Skip and The Creations • Skunks • Sky • Sleepless Knights • Sleepy Hollow • P.F. Sloan • Sloths •

Sly and The Family Stone to Smithsonian Institute

Sly And The Family Stone • The Smack • Small Society • Smith • Bob Smith • Kathy Smith • Smithsonian Institute •

The Smoke to Smokin' Willie

The Smoke • The Smoke • Smoke • The Smoke Ring • Smoke Rings • Smoke Rise • Smokestack Banana • Smokestack Lightning • Smokey and His Sister • Smokin' Willie •

The Smubbs to Songs For The Masses

Smubbs • Snails • The Snaps • Sneakers • The Sneakers • The Sneekers • Alva Snelling • Snow • Marj Snyder • The Society • Society's Children • Society's Children • So It Goes • The Sole Survivors • Solenoid • Solid Ground • The Solitary Confinement • Some Other Animal • Some Beautiful Day • Somebody's Chyldren • Something Else • Something Wild • Song • Songs For The Masses •

The Sonics to The Sons Of Barbee Doll

The Sonics • The Sonics • Sonics Inc. • The Sons of Adam • The Sons of Barbee Doll •

The Sons Of Champlin to The Soul Generation

The Sons of Champlin • Sons of Joseph • Sons Of Keystone Cops • Sons Of May • Sons of Thunder • The Soothsayers • The Sopwith Camel • The Roy Sorensen Group • Sot Weed Factor • The Soul • Soulbenders • Soules of The Slain • The Soul Generation •

Soul Inc. to Soul Twisters

Soul Inc. • The Soul Seekers • Soul Society • The Soul Survivors • The Soul Survivors • The Soul Trippers • The Soul Twisters •

Souls Of Britton to Soundpeace

The Souls Of Britton • Souls Of The Slain • The Souncations • The Sound Barrier • Sound Extraction • The Sound Investment • Sound Machine • Sound Of Fury • The Sound Offs • The Sound Sandwich • Sound System • The Sound Track • The Sound Vendor • Soundpeace •

Sounds Like Us to The Soup Greens

Sounds Like Us • Sounds Ltd • The Sounds Of Dawn • Sounds Of Modification • Sounds Of Randall • The Sounds of Tyme • Sounds Of Us • Sounds Unlimited • Sounds Unlimited • Sounds Unlimited • Soundz • Soup • The Soup Greens •

South 40 to The Spades

South 40 • Southbound Freeway • Southern Comfort • Southern Comfort • Southern Steel • Southwest F.O.B. • Southwind • Space Ark • Space Cadets • Space Opera • The Spacemen • The Spades •

Spanky & Our Gang to The Spikedrivers

Spanky and Our Gang • The Sparkles • Sparks of Lite • The Spartans • The Spats • Specktrum • The Speckulations • The Specters • The Spectrum • Jim Spencer • Sperm Whale • Spider and The Mustangs • The Spiders • The Spiders • Spiffys • The Spikedrivers •

The Spindle to Split Level

The Spindle • Spindrift • The Spiral Starecase • Spires Of Oxford • Spirit • Spirit • Spirit In Flesh • The Spirits • Spirits and Worm • Spirits of Blue Lightning • Spiritwood • Split Ends • Split Level •

Mark Spoelstra to The Squires

Mark Spoelstra • Spoils Of War • The Spokesmen • Spontaneous Combustion • Spontaneous Generation • Spring Fever • The Springfield Rifle • Sproton Layer • The Sprytes • Square Root of Nine • Spur • Squiremen Four • The Squires • The Squires • The Squires • The Squires •

SRC to The Standells

SRC • Stack • The Staehely Brothers • The Staffs • Stained Glass • Stained Glass Window • The Stains • Stalk - Forrest Group • The Standells •

Starbuck and The Rainmakers to The Dave Starky Five

Starbuck and The Rainmakers • The Starchiefs • Starfire • The Starfires • The Starfires (Steve Ellis and) • Peter Stark • Stark Naked • Stark Naked and The Car Thieves • The Dave Starky Five •

The Starlets to Leigh Stephens

The Starlets • The Starliters • The Starlites • The Starlites • Alva Starr • Starvation Army Band • The State of Mind • The State of Mind • Statesiders • The Statesmen • The Statics (with Tiny Tony) • Status Quo • George Stavis • Steel • Steeplechase • Steeple Peeple • Gene Steiker and Larry Chenges • Stephen and The Farm Band • Leigh Stephens •

Steppenwolf to The Stoics

Steppenwolf • The Stepping Stones • Stepson • Stereo Shoestring • Steve Elliot • Jerry Stevens • The Stillroven • The Stingrays • Sting-Rays of Newburgh • Stix and Stoned • Stix and Stones • Stix & Stonz • Stix & Stonz • The Stoics •

Simon Stokes and The Nighthawks to Stone Harbour

Simon Stokes and The Nighthawks • The Stompers • Sly Stone and The Family Stone • Stone Canyon Rock Group • Stone Circus • Stone Country • Stone Garden • Stone Harbour •

Stone Henge to Stonewall

Stone Henge • Stonepillow • Stone Poneys • Stone Sypher • Stoned Circus • Stoneground • The Stonemen • Stonewall •

The Stooges to The Strawberry Alarm Clock

The Stooges • Stop • Jeremy Storch • Stories • The Story Tellers • The Stowaways • The Strange Fate • The Strangeloves • The Strangers • The Strangers • The Strangers • The Strawberry Alarm Clock •

Strawberry Tuesday to The Styx

Strawberry Tuesday • Strawberry Window • The Street • Street Christians • The Street Cleaners • Street Noise • Street People • Streys • The Striders • String and The Beans • String Cheese • Carol Stromme • The Stuarts • Stuffin' • The Stumbling Blox • The Stumps • The Styx •

Sub Zero Band to Summerhill

Sub-Zero Band • Substantial Evidence • Subterranean Monastery • Suburban 9-5 • Sudden Death • The Suedes • Sufi Choir • Sugar Creek • Sugar Cube Blues Band • Sugarloaf • Sultans Five • Sum Pear • Summer Sounds • Summerhill •

Sumpin' Else to The Surf Knights

Sumpin' Else • Sundance • Sunday Funnies • The Sunday Funnies • Sunday Funnies • Sunday Servants • Sundog Summit • Sundowners • Sun Lightning Incorporated • Sunliners • Sunny Funny Co. • The Sunrays • Sunrisers • Sunset Love • Sunshine • Sunshine Buggs • The Sunshine Company • Sunshine Ward • Superfine Dandelion • Sur Royal Da Count & The Parliaments • The Surf Boys • The Surf Knights •

Surprise to Sweet Stavin Chain

Surprise • Surprise • Surprise Package • The Surprize • The Surrealistic Pillar • The Swagmen • Swallow • The Swamp Rats • Swampgas • Swaydes • The Sweet Acids • Sweet Briar • Sweet Cherry • Sweet Marie • Sweet Nothings • Sweet Pants • Sweet Revival • Sweet Smoke • Sweet Stavin Chain •

Sweettarts to Gabor Szabo

The Sweettarts • Sweet Toothe • Sweetwater • T. Swift and The Electric Bag • Swift Rain • The Swingin' Apolloes • Swinging Machine • Swingin' Medallions • (Swingin') Yo Yo's • The Swiss Movement • Syndicate • The Syndicate of Sound • The System • Gabor Szabo •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

James T and The Workers to The Talula Babies

James T and The Workers • T.C. Atlantic • T.I.M.E. (Trust In Men Everywhere) • T.P. and The Indians • T.R. and The Yardsman • T.S. Truck • Wayne Talbert and the Melting Pot • Richmond Talbott • The Talismen • The Tallysmen • The Talula Babies (aka The Tulu Babies) •

Tamalpais Exchange to Teddy and His Patches

Tamalpais Exchange • Tamrons • The Tangents • Tangerine • Tangerine Roof • Tangerine Zoo • Tarantula • Tasmanians • Tayles • James Taylor and The Original Flying Machine • The Tea Company • Teardrops • The Tears • Teddy and His Patches •

Teddy and The Pandas to The Tempos

Teddy and The Pandas • Teddy Boys • Teegarden and Van Winkle • The Teemates • Teenbeets • Teen Tones • The Telstars • The Tempests • The Tempos •

Temptations to Thee Kavaliers

The Temptations • Tennessee Farm Band • Ten Wheel Drive • The Termites • Terra Nauticals • The Terrifics • Terry and Tommy • Terry and The Chain Reaction • Joel Tessler • Thackeray Rocke • Thee Kavaliers •

Thee Midniters to Their Singing Bodies

Thee Midniters • Thee Muffins • Thee Saints and The Prince of Darkness • Thee Wylde Main-iacs • Thee Young Generation • Their Eminence • Their Singing Bodies •

These Prosperous Times to Things To Come

These Prosperous Times • These Trails • Theze Few • The Thingies • The Things • The Things • The Things • Things To Come • Things To Come •

The Third Bardo to The Third World

The Third Bardo • Third Booth • Third Estate • The Third Evolution • Third Power • The Third Rail • Third Stone • The Third World •

The 13th Floor Elevators

• The 13th Floor Elevators •

Thirty Days Out to Those Of Us

• Thirty Days Out • Thirty-first of February • This Side Up • Susan and Richard Thomas • Thomas A. Edison Electric Band • Thomas Group • Don Thompson • Mayo Thompson • Thorinshield • Thornton, Fradkin and Unger and The Big Band • Those Boys • Those Guys • Those of Us •

3's A Crowd Out to Thundering Heard

• 3's A Crowd • Threshold of Sound • Tom Thumb and The Casuals • Thunder and Roses • Thunder Head • Thunder Mugs • The Thunderbirds • The Thunderbirds • Thunderbolts • Thunderduk • Thundering Heard •

Thunderpussy to The Tikis

• Thunderpussy • Thundertree • Thursdays Children • The Thyme • The Tiaras • The Tidal Waves • The Tidal Waves • The Tidal Waves • Tide • Tides In • Tiffany Shade • Tiffany System • The Tigermen • Tight Little Unit • The Tikis • The Tikis • The Tikis •

Tim Tam and The Turn-Ons to TNT

• Tim Tam and The Turn-Ons • Timbercreek • The Time Machine • Time of Your Life • Time Piece • The Timestoppers • The Timetakers • The Timezone • Timmothy (Tim Ward) • Tin House • Tingling Mothers Circus • The Tinkers • Bill Tinkler • Tino and The Revlons • Tiny Tim • The Titans • Titus and Ross • Titus Oates • TNT •

Toad Hall to Tomorrow's Children

Toad Hall • Toads • Toby Ben • Today • Today's Special • The Todds • The Togas • The Tokays • Tom and The Cats • Tombstones • Tommy and The Blue Velvets • Tommy and The Hustlers • Tomorrows Children •

Tongue and Groove to Touch

Tongue and Groove • Toni and Terri • Tonto and The Renegades • Tony and The Bandits • Top Drawer • Topsy Turbys • The Tormentors • Toronados • Torquays • Touch • Touch • The Touch •

Touchstone to The Traits

Touchstone • Touchstone • Tower • The Town Criers • Toy Factory • Toy Factory • The Tracers • Tracers • Traces Of Time • The Trackers • The Trademarks • Trademarks • Trademarks • The Tradewinds • Trafalgar Square • Train • The Train • The Traits • The Traits •

The Transactions to Tree

The Transactions • Trans-Atlantic Subway • Transatlantic Winkham Chiken No. 5 • The Trashmen • Travel Agency • The Travel Agency • The Travelers (IV) • The Travelling Salesmen • Dave Travis (Extreme) • Dick Treadway • The Treds • Tree • Tree •

Trees to Tripsichord (Music Box)

Trees • Trees • The Trees • Amanda Trees • Treez • The Tremelons • Tremors • The Trenchmen • Bobby Trend • The Trespassers • The Treytones • Trials and Tribulations • Triangle • The Tribu-Terrys • Trilogy • The Trippers • The Trippers • The Trips • Tripsichord (Music Box) •

The Triumphs to Truk

The Triumphs • The Triumphs • The Triumphs • The Trodden Path • Chuck Trois and The National Bank • Trojans of Evol • The Trolley • The Troll • The Trolls • Trolls • The Trophies • The Tropics • Troy • The Troyes • The Troys • William Truckaway • True Blue Facts • Truk •

Truth to Turnquist Remedy

Truth Truth Truth Truth Truth Truth and Janey Truth of Truths Truths Try-Cerz Tommy Tucker and The Esquires The Tuesday Club The Tulu Babies The Tumblers Turks Richard William Turner Velvert Turner Group Turnquist Remedy

The Turtles to 27 Dollar Snap On Face

The Turtles Twas Brillig Charlie Tweedle The Twelfth Night The 12 AM 27 Dollar Snap On Face

The Twentieth Century Zoo to Tyrannies

Twentieth Century Zoo The Twilighters The Twilighters The Twilighters The Twilighters The Twiliters Twilighters Twin Connexion Two Boys In The Windows The Two Of Clubs Tyde Tyler Mudge Tyme Tyme of Day Tymes Children Tyrannies

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

U.S. Apple Corps to The Unbelievable Uglies

U.S. Apple Corps • The U.S. Britons • U.S. Males • U.S. Rockers • U.S. 69 • U.S. Stamps • Ultimates • Ultimate Spinach • The Unbelievable Uglies •

The Uncalled For to The Underground

The Uncalled For • Unchained Mynds • Uncle and The Anteaters • Uncle Sam and The War Machine • Uncle Willard • The Undecided? • Underbeats • The Underdogs • The Underground •

Underground All-Stars to The Undesyded

Underground All-Stars • Underground Balloon Corps • Underground Cinema • Underground Electrics • The Underground Railroad • Undeground Sunshine • The Underprivileged • The Undertakers • The Undertakers • The Undertakers • The Undertakers • The Undesyded •

The Unfolding to The Unknown

The Unfolding • The Unholy Trinity • The Uniques • The United Nations • The United Sons Of America • The United States of America • The United Travel Service • The Universal Ignorants • The Unknown •

The Unknown Kind to Unusual We

The Unknown Kind • The Unknowns • The Unknowns • The Unknowns • The Unknowns • The Unlimited • The Unrelated Segments • Unsettled Society • The Unspoken Word • The Untamed • The Untouchables • Untoucables • (Kathi McDonald and) The Unusuals • Unusuals • Unusual We •

Up to Utopia

Up • The Upper Class • The Upper U District Singers • The Uprisers • Upsetters • Up-Stairs • Uranus and The Five Moons • Urban Renewal • Ursa Major • US • Us • The Us Four • Us Kids • Us Too • John Ussery • Utopia • Utopia •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Vacant Lot to Vandals

Vacant Lot • The Vacels • Vacuum Cleaner • The Vagrants • Dino Valente • Sal Valentino • Valhalla • Jim 'Harpo' Valley • Dave Van Ronk and The Hudson Dusters • Charles Vance (and The Sonics) • The Vandals • Vandals • Vandals •

Vanilla Fudge to Velvet Seed

Vanilla Fudge • The Vaqueros • The Variations • The Vectors • Vectors • Pat and Lolly Vegas • The Vejtables • The Velaires • Velvet Hammer • Velvet Illusions • Velvet Night • Velvet Seed •

The Velvet Underground to Victims Of Chance

The Velvet Underground • Velvet Whip • The Venetian Blinds • The Venturie '5' • The Venus Flytrap • Vestells • Mike Vetro and The Cellar Dwellers • Kevin Vicalvi • Viceroys • The Viceroys • Victims of Chance •

Victoria to The Vydels

Victoria • Victoria • The Victors • The Vigilaires • Vigilantes • The Vikings • The Vikings • The Village Outcast (aka as The Outcasts) • Villagers (Fl) • Villagers (Fl) • Villagers (Ma) • Villagers (NC) • Villagers (Oh) • Villagers (SC) • Villagers • Villagers • The Villains • Viola Crayola • The Viscount V • Vision of Sunshine • The Visions • Vondells • Von Ruden • Eric Von Schmidt • The Voyagers • The Vydels •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The W.C. Dorns to Steve Walker and The Bold

The W.C. Dorns · Wabash Resurrection · Tom Wachunas · The Wackers · Wadsworth Mansion · Dick Wagner and The Frost · T.Y. Wagner · The Wailers · Wali and The Afro Caravan · J. Walker and The Pedestrians · Peter Walker · Robert Walker · Steve Walker and The Bold ·

Pat Wallace to The Warlocks

Pat Wallace · The Wallflowers · Wally and The Rights · The Walnut Band · The Wanderers · The Wanderers · The Wanderer's Rest · Wanderin' Kind · Wanted · Waphphle · The War-Babies · The War-Babies · Warden and His Fugitives · Warlock · Warlocks · The Warlocks ·

The Warlords to Watermelon

The Warlords · The Warlords · Warm · Warmest Spring · Danny Warner · Warner Brothers · Ellen Warshaw · George Washington and The Cherry Bombs · Washington Merry Go Round · The Watchband · Waterloo · Watermelon ·

Watermusic to The Weeds

Watermusic · Waterproof Candle · Waterproof Tinkertoy · The Wave-Riders · Kenny Wayne and The Kamotions · Wazoo · Weathervane · The Weavils · The Weads · Wednesday · The Weeds ·

The Wee Four to West Coast Natural Gas

The Wee Four · The Weight · Weejuns · Weejuns · The Weekenders · The We Five · Weight · Elyse Weinberg · Bob Weir · Weird Street Carnival · Wellington Arrangement · Cory Wells and The Enemys · Wendy and Bonnie · The Werps · West · Leslie West · West Coast Branch · West Coast Natural Gas ·

West Coast Pop Art Experimental Band to West Minist'r

The West Coast Pop Art Experimental Band • West Coast Workshop • Westfauster • Westhampton Barge • West Minist'r •

We The People to The What-Nots

We The People • We Three • We Ugly Dogs • We Who Are • Wet Paint • Whalefeathers • Michael P. Whalen • What Four • The What Fours • The What-Knots • The What-Nots •

What's Happening to Whistler, Chaucer, Detroit and Greenhill

What's Happening • What's It To Ya • Whatt Four • Whatt Four • Whazoos • Peter Wheat and The Breadmen • Wheatstone Bridge • The Wheel of Fortune • Jim Whelan and The Beau Havens • The Whether Bureau • Whims • The Whims • Whistler, Chaucer, Detroit and Greenhill •

White Cloud to Wig/Wags

White Cloud • White Duck • White Fluff • White Light • White Lightning • White Room • White Wash • White Wing • Whitewood • Dan Whittemore • The Whiz Kids • Billy Whyte • The Whyte Boots • Wichita Fall • Wicked Truth • Widshit • Widsmith • The Wig • Wig/Wags •

Wild Butter to Tim Williams

Wild Butter • Wild Cherries • The Wilde Knights • Wildfire • The Wildflower • Wildflowers • The Wild Ones • The Wild Ones • Wild Thing • Wild Things • The Wild Things • The Wild Things • Wildweeds • Wildwood • Wilkinson Tri-cycle • William and The Conquerors • William The Wild One • Tim Williams •

Willie and The Red Rubber Band to Woody's Truck Stop

Willie and The Red Rubber Band • Will-o-bees • Willow Green • Wilshire Express • Wilson McKinley • Tom Wilson • The Wind • Wind • Windflower • Windflower • The Wind In The Willows • Windsor Tunnel • Wings • Winkle Pickers • Johnny Winter • Wire • Wizard • The Wizards From Kansas • Wolfman Jack and The Wolfpack • The Wolfmen • Womb • Woodbine • Terry Woodford • Woody's Truck Stop •

Wool to Thee Wylde Main-iacs

Wool/Ed Wool and The Nomads • Woolies • Wooly Bear • Wooly Ones • Word • The Word D • World Column • World of Milan • Worlocks • Would • Ron Wray Light Show • Wreck-A-Mended • Tommy Wright • Wrongh Black Bag • Wrong Numbers • The Wyld • Wylde Heard • Thee Wylde Main-iacs •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The X-cellents to The Xtreems

The X-cellents · X-Ceptions · Xit · The XLs · The XLs · The Xtreems ·

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Ya Ho Wa 13 to Yellow Hair

Ya Ho Wa 13 • The Y'alls • Yama and The Karma Dusters • Yancy Derringer • Dann Yankee and The Carpetbaggers • Yankee Dollar • David Yantis • Atlee Yeager • Year One • Year 2000 • Yellow Balloon • Yellow Hair •

Yellow Hand to The Young Aristocracy

• Yellow Hand • Yellow Pages • The Yellow Payges • Yellow Sunshine • Jerry Yester and Judy Henske • Yesterday's Children • Yesterday's Children • Yesterday's Children • Yesterday's Obsession • The Yetti-men • Yezda Urfa • John Ylvisaker • The Yorkshires • The "You-Know-Who" Group • Jesse Colin Young • Kathy Young • The Young Aristocracy •

The Youngbloods to Yo Yo's

• The Youngbloods • Young Generation • The Young Ideas • The Young Men • The Young Men • The Young Monkey Men • The Young Ones • The Young Rascals • The Young Savages • Young Stuff • The Young Tyrants • Your Friends • Yo Yo's •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Zaharas to Frank Zappa & The Mothers of Invention

Zaharas • Zakary Thaks • Frank Zappa & The Mothers of Invention •

Zendik to Andy Zwerling

• Zendik • Zephyr • Zerfas • The Zero End • 006 • Warren Zevon • Zig Zag People • Zipper • The Zone V • Zoo • The Zoo • Zoo • Zookie and The Potentates • Zorba and The Greeks • Zoser • Zuckerman's Dream • Zuma • Andy Zwerling •

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page]

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

A 440 to The Abstracts

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- A 440
- Aardvark
- Aardvark
- Aardvarks
- Aardvarks
- Aardvarks
- Aargons
- Aaron
- Abandoned
- Abbreviations
- Abdo-Men
- John Howard Abdnor and The Involvement
- Abel
- A.B. Skhy
- Abstract Sound
- The Abstracts

A 440

TOP

Personnel incl:

IAN HOFFMAN	drms	A
CARLOS LUEVANO	gtr	A
CRAIG MEACHAM	bs	A
TED NEELY	vcls	A
MICHAEL RAPP	keyb'ds	A
YVONNE WERSON	vcls	A
ROCK ROMANO	gtr

ALBUM:

1(A)	ULYSEES - THE GREEK SUITE (dbl)	(20th Century Fox TCF 1101)	1978

45s:

1	It's Just Your Mind/Torture	(Soma 103)	1967
2	When I Get Out/So Watch Out	(Cinema 006)	1967
3	Instructions! Please Do Not Open Before Christmas/Santa Claus Is Comin' Yeah	(Cinema 008)	1967

This Houston band were best known for Torture which Rock Romano co-wrote with Messrs Clark and Sartie. A driving psychedelic punk track with raw vocals, powerful drumming and rich organ work, it can also be found on the Acid Visions compilation, which was also issued as Mindrocker, Vol. 4 and the three-CD set Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1.

Formerly a guitarist with The Six Pents and later with The Fun and Games Commission, Romano played on the Soma 45 but was not a regular member of this outfit. Unreleased tracks from the 1967 period - When I Get Out and Marathelia Glows In The Dark - can be heard on The Houston Post Nowsounds Groove-In.

The band operated on and off during the seventies and eighties recording an album in 1978 but line-up data is hard to come by. The band's sole album was a rather forgettable effort entitled Ulysses, The Greek Suite. Released for 20th Century Fox, the resulting 23 track, double album set was clearly intended as a concept piece built on ancient Greek mythology. Written and arranged by keyboardist Michael Rapp, musically the set showcased the talents of singers Ted Neeley and Yvonne Iverson. Neeley wasn't half bad, displaying a nifty gruff voice that was well suited for more mainstream rock (the MOR Ambrosia-styled Ithaca). Recalling Yvonne Elliman, Iverson wasn't as impressive, though it didn't matter since her performances were scattered far and wide. Exemplified by material such as the instrumental Greetings From Olympus, Ulysses Theme and Island Of The Lotus Eaters the collection was heavy on pomposity, complete with spoken word narratives and over-the-top ELP-styled synthesizers and keyboards. Hardly something to get excited about, though it would have made for dandy background music when you were studying the Classics.

Ted Neely also had a solo career.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Clark Faville / Scott Blackerby)

Aardvark

TOP

45:

1	Wish I Could Tell You / Change For Ever	(Zoological Gardens 8606)	c1968

Wisconsin and Illinois are both claimed as home turf. Whatever, Wish... is a haunting melodic garage-ballad with echoey vocals, keening guitar and moody Hammond vibes. Flip over for another good example of the garage-ballad genre, full of yearning with a reflective piano solo. One for late night unwinding.

(Max Waller)

Aardvark

TOP

45:

1	Salty Dog / The Kiss That Touches Me	(Bullet 800)	196?

A subsidiary label of JEMKL (outta Miami & Nashville) may hint at possible locations for this band. Salty Dog blasts off with some dischordant distorto-fuzz, and later feature liberal doses of wah-wah. It is essentially an uptempo late '60s rocker with a driving beat, like Emerge-period Litter but with less bite. Kiss is a soul-tinged last-dance ballad.

(Max Waller)

Aardvarks

Personnel incl:
DARRELL DINGLER A

45s:

1	I'm Higher Than I'm Down/That's Your Way	(Vark 2058)	May 1966
2	I Don't Believe/I Don't Need You	(Fenton 2090)	Sep. 1966
3	Let's Move Together/Cherie, Can't You Tell	(Forte 2021)	1968
4	Let's Move Together/Cherie, Can't You Tell	(Talpa 68101)	1968

Erroneously thought to be a Chicago band, this act were in fact from Muskegon, Michigan. They were formed in late '64 under the name The Hitch Hikers, but later pulled the "Aardvarks" monicker from the first page of the dictionary.

Released on their own Vark label I'm Higher Than I'm Down despite the title wasn't a "drug" song. Hear it on Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 (CD) or Pebbles, Vol. 11. The flip, That's Your Way, is another fine number full of jangly guitar and has also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 6 (CD). The Vark release was recorded / produced and pressed by Fenton Records from Grand Rapids, Michigan, for whom they also recorded their second 45. The 'A' side to this, I Don't Believe, is a reasonable punker and can also be found on Destination Frantic! CD.

The Let's Move Together single was originally released on Forte, but was later re-issued by the bands ex-manager, after he had left town with a bunch of their money.

The band also recorded two unreleased songs: I Can't Explain which is a moody guitar and organ original and People Of This Land a sparse protest tune with lonesome sounding harmonica.

(Max Waller/Kip Brown/Mike Markesich)

Aardvarks

45:

1	Subconscious Train Of Thought/Unicorn Man	(Arch ARA 1303)	Aug. 1968

A rare and little-known late sixties fuzz guitar monster, produced by Steve Cropper at his studio in Tennessee, although the band were based in Florrisant, Missouri. Subconscious Train Of Thought can be heard on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych.

(Clark Faville/Max Waller)

Aardvarks

45:

1	Josephine / Reminiscing	(Bell 1059)	1965

A different, Minneapolis, outfit who included Dave Waggoner later of South 40 and Crow.

(Max Waller)

Aargons

45:

1	Do The Dog / Spiked	(Casino 1012)	196?

Do The Dog - a dirty-dancing frat-punker circa 1965 from Topeka Kansas - has been taken out for a walk on Monsters Of The Midwest Vol. II and Tom Tourville's CD comp Midwest Garage Band Series: Kansas. Woof!

(Max Waller)

Aaron

ALBUM:

1	MUSIC BY AARON	(Private Pressing)	1974 SC

From Virginia, a four-piece band with guitar and organ interplay and a melodic hard psych material. Only 500 copies pressed, housed in a homemade textured cover.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Abandoned

45:

1	Come On Mary/Around And Around	(The Abandoned 4867)	1966

This four piece frat rock band from Chicago formed in 1964 as The Satin Flames when they were all eleven year olds. Come On Mary, a simple frat rock raver was recorded in March 1966, at the Stereo Sonic Recording studios in Chicago and released on their own label. It later resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 6 in 1985, whilst more recently both sides of the 45 have been compiled on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 9. Around And Around was a cover of the Chuck Berry classic.

Abbreviations

45:

1	True Fine Lovin'/?	(N/K)	1965

The work of a very obscure Rocky Mount, South Carolina band. The 'A' side can be heard on Tobacco-A -Go-Go, Vol. 2.

Abdo-Men

45:

1	The Only Bad Thing About Her / All Alone Am I	(Arcola UA-407-41259)	196?

Two low-key strummed Beatlesque pop by a cleverly named group from Duluth, Minnesota. A crude and sparse sound from Arcola Recording of St.Paul, gives the impression of circa 1964 although a much later date has been suggested. Both sides were penned by R. Redosevich.

(Max Waller)

John Howard Abdnor and The Involvement

ALBUM:

1	INTRO TO CHANGE	(Abnak ABST-2072)	1969

From Texas, a pop rock group lead by John Abdnor, formerly in Jon and Robin.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Abel

Personnel:

CHARLES BOLDS	bs	A
TOM CATALANO	drms	A
LARRY CHIESA	vcls, trumpet	A
ABEL SANCHEZ	gtr, vcls	A
DAVID SPEDIACCI	sax, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	PLEASE WORLD	(Fantasy)	1971

From San Francisco, an average horn rock group with some latin influences and competent guitar work, previously known as The Prophets. Tom Catalano had worked with Nancy Sevins before she joined Sweetwater.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

A.B. Skhy

Personnel:

TERRY ANDERSON	drms, vcls	A
DENNIS GEYER	gtr, vcls	A B
JIM MARCOTTE	bs	A B
HOWARD WALES	keyb'ds	A
JAMES CURLEY COOKE	gtr, vcls	B
RICK JAEGER	perc	B
(RUSSELL DaSHIELL	gtr	A)
(JIM LIBAN	hrmnca	A)
(OTIS HALE	flute	A)
(DAVE ROBERTS	horn arrangements	A)
(ELVIN BISHOP	gtr	B)
(WALLY ROSE	piano	B)
(BEN SIDRAN	harpsichord	B)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	A.B. SKHY	(MGM SE 4628)	1969
2(B)	RAMBLIN' ON	(MGM SE 4676)	1970

45:

1	Camel Back / Just What I Need (PS)	(MGM 14086)	1969

Originally known as New Blues, they were basically an electric blues band with horns and some jazz influences. From Milwaukee, Winconsin they relocated to San Francisco where they became a popular live attraction at venues like the Fillmore and Avalon in the late sixties. Produced by Richard Delvy (Chamber Brothers, Challengers), their first album contains a mix of original songs and covers (You Upset Me Baby and Keith Jarrett's It's Love Baby, 24 Hours A Day) and is still very nice to hear. The 45 cuts are from this album.

Terry Andersen and Howard Wales then left, the latter to play with Harvey Mandel, Jerry Garcia and the Grateful Dead. They were replaced by Rick Jaeger and James Curley Cooke (ex-The Versitones and The Steve Miller Band).

Still in the same style, their second album was recorded in March 1970 and produced by Kim Fowley and Michael Lloyd. Cooke had obviously became their leader, writing most of their original material. The covers this time were Fats Domino's I'm Walkin, Doc Pomus's My Baby Quit Me and a version of Groovin'. The excellent and long track Gazebo was clearly jazz oriented and dedicated to Gabor Szabo. The band also started work for a third album which was never completed.

Upon their demise, Cooke went on to Cat And The Fiddle and also played with Boz Scaggs and Ben Sidran. After some years out of the music scene, he came in 1980 back with a decent solo album Gingerman (First American). Rick Jaeger joined Crowfoot and became a session man.

A CD, A.B. Skhy, Featuring Howard Wales (One Way 30011) has recently been issued.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Abstract Sound

45s:

1	Your Gonna Break My Heart/Judge Him If You Can	(CBM no #)	1966
2	Blacked Out Mind/I'm Trying	(Gray Sounds GS 006)	1967
3	Blacked Out Mind/I'm Trying	(Sound Of Soul SOS 1002)	Jun. 1967

Despite the Gray Sound label address of Brooklyn, New York, this group were from Springfield, New Jersey. Blacked Out Mind is an interesting, if uninspiring keyboard-heavy punker that is not in the least psychedelic despite its title. The flip unashamedly rips off the backing keyboard track from 96 Tears and is again a little pedestrian.

Their 1966 punker You're Gonna Break My Heart was misspelt Your... on the label, which also credited the group as Abstrack Sound. The flip is an excellent understated protest song.

Compilation coverage has included:- Your Gonna Break My Heart on Psychotic Reactions; Blacked Out Mind on Basementsville! U.S.A.; I'm Trying on Bad Vibrations Vol. 1 and Prisoners Of The Beat.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Abstracts

Personnel:

HENRI MARIO DONDINI	organ	A
TONY PELUSO	vcls, gtr	A
MICHAEL THATCHER	drms	A
PIERRE ARMAND VIGEANT	bs	A

ALBUM:

1	THE ABSTRACTS	(Atco Pompeii SD 6002)	1968

45:

1	Smell Of Incense / See The Birdies	(Atco Pompeii 66679)	Aug 1968

The Abstracts were formed by Peluso and Dondini, both from Los Angeles and Pierre Vigeant (from Montreal) whilst they were in high school. They discovered Thatcher (from Dallas) in a 'Battle Of The Drums Contest' in L.A. County and asked him to join their group. Their album was recorded for the small Pompeii label at Sound City Studios in Fort Worth, Texas, produced by Darrell Glenn and David Anderson and engineered by J. "T-Bone" Burnett. It was rather patchy on the whole but with a few highlights and ranged from soft to heavy, sometimes psychy, pop. The 45 catches two of their better efforts: - a lightweight cover of the West Coast Pop Art Experimental Band's psych-pop nugget (also covered by Southwest FOB, Pawnbrokers and '90s Norwegian folk-psychers Smell Of Incense); See The Birdies is a slab of Vanilla-Fudge-essenced heavy acid-pop.

Note that Smell Of Incense was credited to Peluso, not to the WCPAEB! Apart from the material written by Peluso, the album also contains a cover of Gerschwin's Summertime and Any Old Time, a Pat and Lolly Vegas song.

In the '70s, Tony Peluso went on to play with the Carpenters and Seals and Croft.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Accents to The Actioneers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Accents (featuring Sandi)
- The Accents
- The Accents
- The Accents
- The Accents
- The Aces
- Aces Combo
- Acme Thunder
- The Acoustics
- Acrobat
- Act of Creation
- Act III
- Action Unlimited
- The Actioneers

The Accents (featuring Sandi)

TOP

Personnel:

DON BECK	sax	A
TONY JOHNSON	drms	A B
GABE LAPANO	vcls, keyb'ds	A B
DON LOVAS	gtr	A B
FRANK MANNIX	bs	A B
DOUG MYERS	sax	B
SANDRA 'SANDI' ROUSE	vcls	B

45s:

1	Better Watch Out Boy/Tell Me	(Commerce C 5012)	1964
2	Better Watch Out Boy/Tell Me	(Challenge 45 1112)	1964
3	I've Got Better Things To Do/Then He Starts To Cry	(Charter CR 1017)	196?
4	What Do You Want To Do/I Really Love You	(Liberty 55813)	1965
5	On The Run/He's The One	(Karate 529)	196?

This San Diego-based group was previously known as The Accents, who played live concerts but made no recordings (line-up 'A'). The Accents held open auditions for a female vocalist and were so knocked out by Sandi Rouse that they gave her top billing! Their first 45 was a huge local hit (Los Angeles - San Diego) and the group was immediately picked up by Challenge records who re-released their 45 with national distribution and that Summer it made the charts in markets all across the country. Their subsequent singles met with similar success, but the group broke up when Myers was drafted. Mannix and Johnson later formed a group with David and Rick Randle called The Brain Police who eventually made an incredible album in 1968, after Johnson and Mannix had moved on. Johnson later became a sought-after live and session drummer, playing with Mary Wells, Junior Walker, Commander Cody, Maria Muldaur, Hoyt Axton and others. Sandi and The Accents were the most popular group in San Diego in 1964 - 1966, and staged a thirty year reunion concert there in 1996 that was a sold-out, standing-room only event. Their sound was R&B and soul-based pop rock.

(Clark Faville)

The Accents

Personnel:

SKIP DAKLIN	bs	A
TOM GROENE (aka TOM NYSTROM)	drms, vcls	A
BILL MILLER	keyb'ds	A
KEN SANDS	gtr, vcls	A

45s:

1	Howlin'For My Baby/Wherever There's A Will	(Bangar 605)	1964
2	Wherever There's A Will/Howlin' For My Baby	(Garrett 4008)	1964
3	You Don't Love Me/Searchin'	(Bangar 629)	1964
4	Searchin'/You Don't Love Me	(Garrett)	1964
5	Why/Road Runner	(Bangar 648)	1964
6	Why/Road Runner	(Garrett 4014)	1965
7	Wherever There's A Will/Louisiana Man	(Twin Town 707)	1965
8	Muffin Man/Someone To Love	(Twin Town 711)	1965
9	No One Heard You Cry/Your Time Has Come	(Bear 1977)	1966

These punkers were based in Minneapolis, Minnesota and also appeared on the compilation, Big Hits of Mid-America, Vol. 1 (Garrett 20l/Soma 1245) 1964. In addition, Road Runner, Muffin Man and Louisiana Man were compiled on the Bud-Jet series Top Teen Bands (Vol's 3, 1 and 2 respectively) in 1965. Surprisingly of their later recordings, only Why, a Lonnie Mack composition, has been compiled. You can hear it on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 9.

(Max Waller / Bruce McArthur)

The Accents

Personnel:

VIC BUNDY	keyb'ds	A B
PAT JERNS	drms	A B
GEORGE PALMERTON	bs	A
RON PETERSON	vcls	A
LAURIE VITT	sax	A B

BILL CAPP	vcls	B
DOUG LING	bs	B
KATHI McDONALD	vcls

45s:

1(A)	Sticky/Linda Lou	(Jerden 728)	1964
2	All Of My Life/I Want Your Love	(Panorama 10)	1965

A different act also from the Seattle area in the Pacific Northwest. They evolved out of a Bellingham Wailers-styled act called The Night People, led by Reginald Shannon (bs), with Gary Hill (ld gtr), Laurie Vitt (sax) and some other musicians from Seattle. Laurie Vitt was recruited at short notice, after their original sax player had quit:- "I played with them for about three months, but the band was starting to fall apart, mostly because the keyboard player and drummer were driving up from Seattle. At the same time, Ron Peterson from The Frantics had entered Western and their band too fell apart. We hired Ron to take Gary Hill's place - I liked Gary, but he and Shannon had a major falling out and, if you can believe it, Shannon owned the PA system so the band stuck with the PA. We continued to use The Night People name but it was clear that Reginald had to go. We also picked up Vic Bundy and Pat Jerns when the keyboard player and drummer dropped out, all within the space of a month. The Night People had become pretty well known in the northern part of the state so we had lots of bookings. Ron Peterson couldn't get along with Reginald either and before long we started thinking that it was time for him to go. Ron contacted George Palmerton about replacing Reginald and he agreed. So, in a major falling out, with threats by Reginald about lawsuits, we threw him out and got George. As it turned out, George was great, not only as a bass player, but as a singer. We changed our name to The Frantics, mainly to keep Reginald off our backs - and he was fuming to say the least. He claimed that he owned The Night People name. We then decided to record Linda Lou but Ron was worried that we might face legal problems if we did a record under the name Frantics. So we changed our name to Ron Peterson and the Accents".

"We then did the Linda Lou record with Sampan (written by Bundy) as the flip side. The voice introducing us on that record is Pat O'Day from KJR Radio Station in Seattle. It was this group, Ron Peterson and the Accents, who first tried out Kathi at a small grange hall in Mt. Vernon. Kathi was 13 at the time and she blew us away. I might add that Vic Bundy was either 13 or 14 and I was 18. As time went on, Kathi sang with us more and more and we started paying her $10 per night. At some point George Palmerton quit (he was driving up from Seattle), but on very good terms - we regretting seeing him go, and we replaced him with Doug Ling. Doug was an animal and a mediocre musician so it was clear that he wouldn't last. Ron Peterson decided to quit soon after and he also left on good terms. In the meantime Ron had coerced me into singing, which of course scared me to death. He was basically priming us to continue without him and it turned out that I wasn't too terrible. Then we hired Bill Capp who not only was a decent guitar player, but a good singer. We kept the name The Accents for a while but added "Bellingham" to it and did the Bacon Fat record which got some local air time but that was about it. One of our booking agents suggested The Bellingham Accents part arguing that it made us sound British."

Linda Lou has also resurfaced on the cassette only compilation History Of Northwest Rock Vol.7.

Laurie Vitt is now Curator of Reptiles and Professor of Zoology at Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History!

(Max Waller)

The Accents

45:

1	Friendly Stranger/People Are Funny	(Gazzari 90391)	196?

Previously thought to have been the San Diego Accents, this 45 was by another bunch, so who were they? The label is from Hollywood, Ca. and the song credits are Paolucci-Tutalo and Paolucci-Tutalo-Fallon respectively. Answers on an email please!

The Accents

45s:

1	Birds In My Tree / She Cried	(Planet 82468)	1968
2	Slow Down / Go Now	(Freeform 203)	1970

Aram Heller's New England bible 'Till The Stroke Of Dawn' informs us that they hailed from Rhode Island and that the top side on the Planet 45 is a Strawberry Alarm Clock cover.

(Max Waller / Aram Heller / Mike Markesich)

The Aces

A band who have three cuts on Thee Unheard Of, a compilation of Michigan acetates. Train's Late - an Elvis-style ballad, a really raw version of Bo Diddley's Who Do You Love, and a great garage ballad I Can Hear The Rain Drops with rainstorm effects and a big nod to the Cascades. The trouble is that the latter track is really I Can Hear Raindrops by The Noblemen 4. The other "Aces" tracks are also thought to be different artists. It turns out that many of the 'acetates' on Thee Unheard Of are actually modern forgeries manufactured by a fraudster who took the tracks from obscure '60s 45s to exploit the compiler's interests.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Aces Combo

Personnel:

HOWARD CAYWOOD	drms	A
MICHAEL EARNHARDT	bs	A
TIM ERVIN	ld gtr	A
JOHNNY NANCE	gtr	A
JOHNNY YARBROUGH	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	INTRODUCING	(Justice 134)	c1967

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Collectables CD 0605) 1995.

A schoolboy quintet, all 14 or 15 according to the reproduced liner notes, trot through some favourite covers - surf/instrumental (Wipe Out, Apache), ballads (Under The Boardwalk, My Girl), frat/dance (Shake A Tail Feather, The Monkey Time) and pop/beat (Pied Piper, This Boy). Kudos to Collectables for reissuing these extremely rare and expensive albums. Curiosity is satisfied without selling the family china, though the general sound of these lesser known Justice LPs is the pre-fuzz 1964/1965 period and of more interest to fans of beat/pop/frat than the "class of '66" clan.

(Max Waller)

Acme Thunder

Personnel incl:

ALIOTTA	gtr	A
HARVEY MANDEL	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1	LET'S ALL GET NAKED/TD>	(Private Pressing)	1975

A bluesy biker album. Although it features Harvey Mandel, the result is far from being interesting.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Acoustics

45:

1	My Rights/I Want Your Love	(Canaltown 254)	196?

This mid-'60s combo, who operated out of Palmra in New York State, recorded a catchy folk-punk song, My Rights, about the plight of the high school kid penned in by parents, teachers et el. It's captured in all its splendour on Pebbles, Vol. 16.

(Vernon Joynson / Mike Markesich)

Acrobat

Personnel incl:

BILL JONES	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1	ACROBAT	(TMI 1004)	c1972

On the same label as Edgewood, a rural rock group with vocal harmonies, probably from the Memphis Area.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Act Of Creation

TOP

Personnel incl:

? SAMPSON	A
ERIC SAMPSON	A
KEN WHITMAN	A

45:

1	I've Just Seen You/Yesterday Noontime	(Capitol 5973)	1967

The above is an interesting and as yet uncompiled 45 by a Plymouth, Rhode Island band. It must be said that both sides are nearer to pop than psych/garage: the 'A' side seems on the verge of breaking into a fuzzy freakout but never does, the 'B' side is pop - la - Merry Go Round but with some psychedelic effects added.

The Sampson brothers would later form The Buzzards who issued a decent heavy garage 45.

Act III

TOP

45:

1	Made For You / M.F.Y.	(Kookaburra 501)	c1966

Breezy harmonious pop with baroque flourishes from an unknown outfit who also released this track as by the Travel Agency. The flip is a different, almost instrumental, mix of the 'A' side. Thought to be Californian, but perhaps confused with the Viva band - is there an Aussie connection here?

(Max Waller)

Action Unlimited

TOP

45s:

1	Thinking To Myself / My Heart Cries Out	(Parkway P-115)	Nov 1966

A bouncy melodic male-harmony popper (think of an upbeat Association) backed by a haunting dreamlike ballad with harmonies and oscillating psych effects. Both sides were composed by a C. Trisko. The group personnel is unknown and may have just been another anonymous Los Angeles sessioneer aggregation. Historical significance and interest is assured by the production wizardry of wunderkind Curt Boettcher, that would be given its head with Millennium and Sagittarius.

You can also find the excellent 'B' side on the 1998 Arf Arf CD comp No No No, subtitled 28 Moody Somber and Tragic '60s Garage Rock Sagas.

(Max Waller)

The Actioneers

45:

1	No One Wants Me/It's You	(Shane 57)	1966

A sixties garage band from Texas (most probably Houston). Their 45 is rather primitive with both sides featuring pounding drum work, sloppy tambourine and guitars low in the mix - great stuff! Both sides of this 45 have also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Adam to Agape

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Adam
- Addis and Crofut
- The Advancement
- Advantes
- Adventurers
- Aesop and The Fables
- Aesop's Fables
- Jeff Afdem and Springfield Flute
- After All
- Afterglow
- Aftermath
- Agape

A d a m

Personnel:

JIMMY FITZSIMMONS	A
DONALD HENNY	A
ADAM MILLER	A
EDWARD SCHNUG	A

45:

1	Eve / Where Has My Little Girl Gone	(Mala 547)	Dec 1966

Eve is a strange and chaotic psy-punker that is hard to describe. Beginning with a fabulous instrumental passage which kicks into Eight Miles High mode, it evolves into an off-the-wall punker with fuzz guitar, keening backing vocals and screams that give it a nightmarish aura. The avalanche of guitars returns at intervals and the whole affair concludes abruptly in an odd anti-climax. Check it out on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol.7 and A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych.

The flip is just as bizarre in that it's a straight harmony-vocal ballad.

Possibly just a NYC studio aggregation, Henny, Miller and Schnug turned up again in 1967 as the Balloon Farm.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Addis and Crofut

ALBUM:

1	SUCH VERY INTERESTING PEOPLE	(Verve)	1963
2	ADDIS AND CROFUT	(Columbia)	c1966 SC
3	LIVE CONCERT RECORDING	(Private Pressing)	c1967 SC

NB: (3) was issued in a plain white sleeve.

A folk duo whose Columbia album reputedly contains some good acid folk tracks.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Advancement

Personnel:

COLIN BAILEY	drms, perc	A
LYNN BLESSING	vibes, hrmnca, organ	A
JOHN DE ROSE	classical gtr	A
HAL GORDON	conga, drms, perc	A
A.A. JOHNSON	gtr	A
LOU KABOK	bs	A
RICHARD THOMPSON	organ, harpsichord	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE ADVANCEMENT	(Philips PHS 600-328)	1969

A sixties Hollywood outfit whose album is one of those strange late sixties barrier-breaking experimental efforts trying to fuse different musical genres. Orient Express, Autosalvage and John Berberian are other similar projects which spring to mind. This particular one is an attempt to fuse jazz with folk, rock and acid. Interesting but its success is debatable.

Lynn Blessing also released a solo album in 1969, Sunset Painter and Lou Kabok went on to play with Gabor Szabo.

(Max Waller)

Advantes

45:

1	Done It Again / Feel A Whole Lot Better	(Tripper 60611)	Jun. 1966

A crude jangley garage-ballad also featured on the 'desperate garage punkers' comp I Can Hear Raindrops, backed by a cover of a Byrds' classic. Check it out there unless you've $100 plus for an original. It's been speculated (but not proven) that the band came from Pennsylvania.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Adventurers

45s:

1	Baby Baby My Heart / Lover Doll	(Reading R-602)	1966
2	Jane Doesn't Live Here Anymore / Cheryl's Theme	(Reading R-603)	1966

From Catasauqua, Pennsylvania. Invasion, beat and earlier teenbeat influences give the first 45 a charming 1964 sound - so won't appeal to the class of '66.

(Max Waller)

Aesop and The Fables

Personnel incl:

DAVID BURT ?		A
ORYSIA LUBINSJI ?		A
PIERRE 'PETE' OUELETTE	gtr	A

45:

1	Grass/You'll Be My Pride	(Panorama 29)	1966

From the Pacific Northwest, this outfit included Pierre Oulette, who had earlier played with Don & The Goodtimes and Paul Revere & The Raiders. The other personnel listed above may be incorrect.

(Max Waller / Darryl F. Riffero)

Aesop's Fables

Personnel:

RONNY ALTERVILLE	bs, gtr, vcls	A
SONNY BOTTARI	vcls, perc	A
ROBERT DI MONDA	flute	A
JOE FRATICELLI	sax	A
FRANK KREPALA	gtr	A
BARRY TAYLOR	keyb'ds, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	IN DUE TIME	(Cadet Concept LPS-323)	1969

45s:

1	Hidin' My Love/I've Got Troubles	(Atco 6453)	1966
2	Girl, I've Got News For You/Yes, I'm Back	(Atco 6508)	1967
3	Take A Step/What's A Man To Do	(Atco 6523)	1967
4	Slow And Easy/The Truth	(Atco 6565)	1968
5	I'm Gonna Make You Love Me/They Go Out And Get It	(Cadet Concept 7005)	1969 123
6	Temptation 'Bout To Get Me/What is Love?	(Cadet Concept 7011)	1969
7	What Is Love?/And When It's Over	(Cadet Concept 7016)	1969

Possibly a contentious inclusion for this Hampstead, Long Island group. Though we can't comment on their other releases, their What Is Love 45 contains most characteristics associated with the "Long Island sound". And When It's Over is very different from The Vagrants' rampantly heavy version of Bert Sommer's pop melodrama, starting with an encouraging dreamy intro but then replacing the guitar lines with brass and orchestra.

The album was recorded at Syncron Sound Studios, Wallingford, Connecticut and produced by Bob Gallo and Louis Cofredo, who were also the producers of Sum Pear.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Jeff Afdem and Springfield Flute

TOP

See Sprinfield Rifle.

After All

TOP

Personnel:

MARK ELLERBEE	drms	A
ALAN GOLD	keyb'ds	A
BILL MOON	bs, vcls	A
CHARLES SHORT	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	AFTER ALL	(Athena 6006)	1970

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Gear Fab GF-161) 2000.

The album, which is easy to find, is organ-dominated progressive rock with a psychedelic taint and a clear classical influence. The group comprised members from various bands in Tallahassee, Florida. They got together with lyricist Linda Hargrove (later a Nashville songwriter) to create a concept album, to "emulate the new styles of the era; acid rock, classical rock, surrealism in lyrics and complexity of form". A one-off project, all returned to their individual careers as soon as it was finished in 1969.

(Vernon Joynson/Roger Maglio/Max Waller)

Afterglow

Personnel:

LARRY ALEXANDER	drms	A
RON GEORGE	bs	A
GENE RESLER	vcls	A
ROGER SWANSON	organ	A
TONY TECUMSEH	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	AFTERGLOW	(MTA 5010)	1967

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Sundazed SC 6074) 1995.

From Chico, California, this band were originally known as The Medallions. Their album, which was produced by Larry Goldberg and Leo Kulka (aka Leo De Gar Kulka, a regular at Golden Gate studios, in San Francisco), consists of soft pop with a tinny organ backing and memorable tunes. Some of the tracks such as Susie's Gone, It's A Wonder, and Afternoon are extremely psychedelic and side one is much the stronger of the two. Something of a cross between Country Joe and The Fish and British North American Act, their album is certainly worth investigation and has been reissued on CD by Sundazed, with four previously unissued tracks - alternate versions of Susie's Gone, Chasing Rainbows, Afternoon and Morning.

Compilation coverage has so far been limited to Morning on Psychedelic Crown Jewel's Vol. 1 and Susie's Gone on both Pebbles, Vol. 2 (CD) and Beyond The Calico Wall.

Aftermath

Personnel:

MIKE DAVIS	bs	A
DANNY DEMIANKOW	ld gtr	A
SCOTT GIUS	gtr	A
BRAD GOODMAN	drms	A
GARY LA PRELL	vcls	A

Formed in North Hollywood in early 1966 after Danny and Gary met in Continuation School (a sort of halfway house for social misfits). They decided to form a band and got together in earnest with the rest of the guys. They got to play gigs at places like Pandora's Box, the Hullabaloo and It's Boss and were auditioned for a record deal at A&M but lost out to the Merry Go Round. Their increasing indulgence in psychedelics and brushes with the law were their downfall, the final straw coming when Danny was arrested backstage at one gig and thrown into Juvenile Hall for three months. Although they didn't make it onto vinyl at the time a tape of them playing three songs back in the summer of 1966 survived and their very loose version of Van Morrison's Gloria found its way into Vol. 20 of Greg Shaw's Highs In The Mid-Sixties series. Danny now lives in Oregon and plays with The Miracle Workers. Scott plays in Top 40 bands in Venice (not far from LA). Brad lives in Hawaii - he's now a born again Christian and plays in Top 40 bands; Gary is a construction worker in Simi Valley (outside LA) and Mike, well he kinda vanished and the others haven't heard of him for several years.

Agape

Personnel:

FRED CABAN	gtr, vcls	A
MIKE JUNGKMAN	drms, organ	A
JOHN PECKHART	bs	A
RON TURNER	manager	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	GOSPEL HARD ROCK	(Mark MRS 2170)	1971
2(A)	VICTIMS OF TRADITION	(Agape 101)	1972

NB: (1) and (2) have been issued on CD by Agape Communi Cations (AC001 and AC002 respectively).

Yep! Perhaps it could only happen in America. This Californian outfit (from Azusa) are preaching the gospel using a hard rock format and musically it's pretty good too. Fred Caban was the brain behind the project - he wrote the lyrics, music and supplies the vocals on all the tracks. The opening cut on the first album Blind is pretty bluesy, there's plenty of fuzz on tracks like Trust and a good echoed guitar on Freedom. The magnum opus is the final track, Rejoice, which deals with the end of the world and the coming of Christ. Imaginative, maybe even psychedelic, this track in particular is well worth a listen. Their second album is more laid back than the first but both are equally sought- after.

There's also a CD release by Hidden Vision entitled The Problem Is Sin: Live And Unreleased which was supposed to be their third album in 1973. The CD contains 70 minutes of music.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Age of Reason to Allies

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Age of Reason
- The Age of Reason
- The Agents
- Aggregation
- A.J.
- Akers, Lee, and The Electric Generation
- Steve Akin
- Alamo
- The Alarm Clocks
- Aldermen
- Gordon Alexander
- Alexander Rabbit
- Alexander's Rock Time Band
- Alexanders Timeless Bloozband
- Alien Nation
- The Aliens
- Alive 'n' Kickin'
- All Saved Freak Band
- Beau Allen
- Chris Allen and The Good-Timers
- Davie Allan and The Arrows
- Alley Cats
- Alley Cats
- The Alliance
- Allies

The Age Of Reason

Personnel:

- TOMMY DILDY keyb'ds, vcls A
- T. GORKA bs A
- J. JENSON bs A

- BILL MANNING drms, vcls A
- BILLY WINDSOR gtr, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE AGE OF REASON (Georgetowne no #) 1969

On a Washington D.C. label, this band is thought to have come from Virginia. The album, which had no catalogue number, is rare and sought-after by collectors now. It kicks off with the band's own individualistic cover version of Bob Dylan and Rick Danko's This Wheel's On Fire, which is probably their magnum opus. Like most of the album, the music is very keyboard driven - Sony Bono's Bang Bang and Ike Turner's I'm Blue get similar treatment. It also contains a couple of originals with Bill Manning and Tommy Dildy's Lefter To Home the pick. It starts with some cool bluesy piano but then becomes very country-influenced.

The Age Of Reason

TOP

45:

1. (Your Love ls Like A) Magnet/I'm A Free Man (Ascot 2230) 1967

A different act from Long Island. The 'A' side of their 45 later resurfaced on the Ear Piercing Punk compilation.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Agents

TOP

45:

1. Gotta Help Me/Calling An Angel (Rally 504) 1965

A California (Los Angeles) band whose Gotta Help Me has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 20. It's a Mersey-influenced record with a guitar riff very similar to one in The Searchers' When You Walk In The Room.

Aggregation

TOP

ALBUM:

1	MIND ODYSSEY	(LH1 12008)	1967

45:

1	Sunshine Superman/Maharishi	(LH1 1209)	Mar 1968

The album sounds like a studio project. It's atmospheric, psychedelic mood music and includes some mellow instrumentals with Eastern moves, flute passages and dreamy arrangements. Ideal music to unwind by. At times it's reminiscent of The Electric Prunes Mass In F Minor period, especially on White Light, with its cathedral choir sound. On the down-side there's some brassy arrangements that creep in too often and concocted lyrics and vocals which are occasionally rather lame. The City Of Toys And Games is sorta swing-era melody pop update - the toilet flush at the end eloquently sums it up. Life's Light makes amends though. Yet to be reissued/pirated, it commands pretty high prices but musically has limited appeal.

Recording on Lee Hazlewood's LHI label probably places this as a Los Angeles-based project.

(Max Waller)

A.J.

Personnel:

- TOM ARNOLD drms A
- LANCE GESSLER bs A
- ANDREW J. GOULARD gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) LAST SONG FIRST SIDE (Black Walnut) 197? SC

A privately pressed album of rural/hard rock recorded live on 31st October 1973. No date or local area is designated, but 1974 would be a best guess on the year of release.

Akers, Lee, and The Electric Generation

ALBUM:

1	HEAVY, HEAVY, HEAVY	(CROWN CST 600)	1969

On the same budget exploito label as the (Electric) Firebirds / 31st Flavors comes another anonymous assortment. Though the title might encourage hopes of more proto-grunge, 'heavy' this is NOT. The vocalist sounds like a gruffer version of CCR's John Fogerty, and the bulk of the material is in similar bluesy rock'n'boogie territory. The rest is country-rock and big ballads with piano to the fore. Heave, heave, heave!

(Max Waller)

Steve Akin

45s:

1	Baby You're A Habit I Gotta Break / Take Your Time	(Ash A-2001)	1969
2	It's Heavy / I'm Trippin' Alone	(Ash A-2002)	1970

A solo artist from Houston, Texas. The second 45 comes across like a pot-smokin' cowboy - trippy lyrics with a stoned folkie vibe over laid-back guitar rock. Very cool. It has subsequently resurfaced on the vinyl comp I'm Trippin' Alone, and also appears on The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 3 (CD).

(Max Waller)

Alamo

Personnel:

LARRY DAVIS	bs	A
LARRY RASPBERRY	vcls, gtr	A
RICHARD ROSEBROUGH	drms	A
KEN WOODLEY	keyb'ds, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	ALAMO	(Atlantic SD 8279)	1970

Formed by four Memphis musicians, Alamo released a decent hard rock album. Larry Raspberry was previously in The Gentrys and would later form the Highsteppers. Richard Rosebrough went on to play with the Hot Dogs and Big Star, whilst Ken Woodley later played with Don Nix and would team up again with Rosebrough on the first solo albums by Alex Chilton.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Alarm Clocks

Personnel incl:

BILL EARLE (SCHWARK)	drms	A

45:

1	Yeah/No Reason To Complain	(Awake 107)	1966

A Stones/Kinks-influenced teen trio from Parma, a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio. They drove into a Cleveland studio to record both sides of an excellent teen-punk 45 - great snotty vocals and a good beat. Check it out on Back From The Grave, Vol. 1. No Reason To Complain has more recently been compiled on the Acid Dreams Epitaph CD.

Drummer Bill Earle graduated to The Damnation Of Adam Blessing.

Aldermen

45:

1. House Of Wax / ? (Sir Graham 102) c1966

An excellent fuzz garage-punker from Los Angeles' East Side, that can be appreciated at last on a recent various artists EP along with Cannibal & The Headhunters and the Atlantics (Dionysus/Bacchus BA05, 1995). Originally compiled on the 1969 double-LP East Side Revue (Rampart 3303), the track was written by Chick Carlton, who had performed as Chick Carlton & The Majestics before turning to writing for other local acts including the Sunday Funnies and the Enchantments. (Max Waller)

Gordon Alexander

ALBUM:

1 GORDON'S BUSTER (Columbia CS 9693) 1968

A Californian singer whose sole album was produced by Curt Boettcher and released at the same time as the Millenium Begin album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Alexander Rabbit

Personnel:

- B. BRADBURY A
- C.J. BRODOWICZ A
- L. DEMSKI A
- C. HOLMES A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME (THE BELLS WERE MY FRIENDS) (Mercury SR 61291) 1970

The names are taken from the songwriting credits and on the back cover were four faces... but very little is known about this band. They were based in New Jersey from somewhere near Trenton, New Jersey, and their most popular live song was a version of the Spanish classic Malaguainia. Their album has been sadly neglected and is an excellent melodic psych/progressive cross-over item, with some similarities to Gandalf. It was produced by Jerry Samuels (Napoleon XIV).

Their guitar player later went on to form Duke Williams And The Extremes together with drummer Hank Ransom, from the Philadephia group Elizabeth. They also recorded at least one album.

(Vernon Joynson / Frederick Hoey)

Alexander's Rock Time Band

45:

1	Number One Hippie On The Village Scene/The Travel Song	(J&T 2022)	1967

This 45 was by The Coachmen. They later became Professor Morrison's Lollipop. See the Coachmen entry for further details.

Alexander's Timeless Bloozband

TOP

Personnel:

- CHARLES LAMONT A
- C. LOCKHART A
- L. MARKS A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) ALEXANDER'S TIMELESS BLOOZBAND (Smack 1001) 1967
2. (A) FOR SALE (Uni 73021) 1968

45:

1. Love So Strong / Horn Song (Matamat 101) 1967
2. Maybe Baby / Maybe Baby (Kapp K 967) 1967

NB: (1) also released on Uni (55044) 1967. They probably released other 45s.

A bluesy outfit with some psychedelic influence. Charles Lamont also released a solo LP in 1969, A Legend In His Own Time (Uni 73076), which consists of melodic psyche/pop with orchestrations. All the songs were written by Lamont and it features a version of Love So Strong which can also be found on the Alexander's Timeless Bloozband For Sale album. Both albums were produced by Tony Cary, but Lamont's solo effort cannot be recommanded.

The second 45 was a cover of the Buddy Holly/Norman Petty classic.

(Clark Faville / Stephane Rebeschini)

Alien Nation

TOP

ALBUM:

1	EAT THE DAY	(Private Pressing)	1970

A hippy folk group with good vocals.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Aliens

Personnel:

NICKY BONIS	organ	A
DOUG COWARD	bs	A
JOHN DAVIS	ld gtr	A
CONRAD DEDACATORIA	drms	A
STEVE GREEN	gtr	A
GAYLE "POONEIL" HOLLOWMAN	vcls	A
ROBBIE HOUSE	vcls	A
BILL SECHMAN	vcls	A

45s:

1	Come Fly With Me / Season Of The Witch	(Son Of A Witch 1801)	c1968
2	Love Someone / Tobacco Road	(Telastar 1401)	c1968

An octet from Norfolk, Virginia who were strongly influenced by the "San Francisco sound", especially Jefferson Airplane. Love Someone, an uptempo pop-rocker with Airplane-style vocals and heavy acidic guitar, is featured on Aliens, Psychos And Wild Things (CD).

The first 45 Come Fly With Me was a local hit. Their arrangement of Donovan's Season of The Witch adds a nightmarish atmosphere and more heavily fuzzed guitar - it lies in wait on A Fistfull Of Fuzz.

(Brent Hosier/Dr.Simon Trent D.S.U./Max Waller)

Alive 'n' Kickin'

Personnel incl:

P. CARDONA	A
J. PARISIO	A
BRUCE SUDANO	A
S. TODER	A
W. WILSON	A

ALBUM:

1	ALIVE 'N' KICKIN'	(Roulette SR-45052)	1970

45s:

1	Tighter, Tighter/Sunday Morning	(Roulette 7078)	1970
2	Just Let It Come/ ?	(Roulette)	1970

Produced by Tommy James and Bob King, Alive 'n' Kickin's album certainly deserves attention. Composed of five men and one female singer a la Joplin/Bonnie Bramlett, the group offers a exciting mix of pop and psych rock with excellent guitar parts. All the cuts bar two were penned by Bruce Sudano and W. Wilson, sometimes helped by S. Toder, P. Cardona or J. Parisio, so we assume they formed the line-up of this forgotten group. The more commercial songs from this very consistent album were chosen for singles. Tracks like Kentucky Fire, Mississippi Mud, Hitter Man or Mother Carey's Chicken are illuminated by a fantastic (and unknown) guitarist (who was probably a fan of the Litter's Zippy Caplan) using fuzz, wha wha and other effects. The tracks are generally long and give him the possibility to improvise at length.

Tommy James and Bob King also produced Neon.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

All Saved Freak Band

Personnel incl:

GLENN SCHWARTZ	gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	MY POOR GENERATION	(Rock The World Enterprises Records)	1975 R1
2(A)	FOR CHRISTIANS, ELVES AND LOVERS	(Rock The World Enterprises Records LP ASFB 1001)	1976 R1

A mix of gospel, Christian rock, heavy blues and psych folk with female vocals. Their albums are sought-after by some collectors now. Glenn Schwartz was previously in Pacific, Gas and Electric.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Beau Allen

45s:

1	My Time / See Her Honey (Instr)	(Allen Records 1001)	Aug 1968
2	I Hope You're Proud / Dreamin' (PS)	(Allen Records 1008)	1968
3	Stand By Me/That's All I Want	(Allen)	1968
4	Part Of Me / What A Love Can Do	(HFA International 1012)	Nov 1968
5	Fallen Angel / Pusher Man	(HFA International #1013)	Nov 1968
6	My Time / Waiting For Me	(HFA International #1014)	1969
7	My Time / Waiting For Me	(Scepter 12247)	1969
8	Give Me Your Love / What A Love Can Do	(HFA International #1016/#1012)	May 1970
9	Georgia Ground / Fallen Angel	(HFA Internatioanl #1016/#1013)	Jul 1970

NB: (1) and (2) as Bo Allen. (3) as Bo and The Weevils

A Vidalia, Georgia artist who recorded as Beau Allen, Bo Allen and Bo And The Weevils. A borderline inclusion - his material covers a wide variety of styles taking in early '60s sounding ballads, cabaret/club sounds, teen-beat, through straight pop and rock. His choice and most relevant cuts have been compiled - I Hope You're Proud on Kicks & Chicks (which mentions that he also put out a "best of, 8 track") and Give Me Your Love - a good garagey-pop number which sounds more like 1966 than 1970 - on The Garage Zone Vol. 1. Of possible interest is Georgia Ground, a fine pop-rocker with flowing lead, use of wah-wah, and a tinge of country.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

Chris Allen and The Good-Timers

45:

1. My Imagination / Sorry 'Bout That (New World) 1967

A little known band from Indiana. Their cool fuzz-punker My Imagination has also been included on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 8.

(Max Waller)

Davie Allan and The Arrows

Personnel:

DAVIE ALLAN	ld gtr	A B
LARRY BROWN	drms	A
PAUL JOHNSON	gtr	A
STEVE PUGH	bs	A
TONY ALLWINE	gtr	B
DREW BENNETT	bs	B
DON MANNING	drms	B

NB: Davie Allan has confirmed that Paul Johnson wasn't really in the band but was grabbed to fill out a publicity shot. Both he and Steve Pugh did play on two released tracks however: Dance The Freddie (the flip to Moondawg '65)and I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover" (the flip to Baby Ruth).

ALBUMS:

1()	APACHE '65	(Tower (D)T-5002)	1965
2()	THE WILD ANGELS (Soundtrack)	(Tower (D)T-5043)	1966
3()	THE WILD ANGELS VOL. 2 (Soundtrack)	(Tower (D)T-5056)	1967
4()	DEVIL'S ANGELS (Soundtrack)	(Tower (D)T-5074)	1967
5()	BLUES THEME	(Tower (D)T-5078)	1967
6()	MONDO HOLLYWOOD (Soundtrack)	(Tower (D)T-5083)	1968
7()	CYCLEDELIC SOUNDS	(Tower (D)T-5094)	1968
8()	THE HELLCATS (Soundtrack)	(Tower ST-5124)	1968
9()	WILD RACERS (Soundtrack)	(Sidewalk ST-5914)	1969

NB: (2) reissued on CD.

45s:

1	War Path / Beyond The Blue	(Cude 101)	1963
2	War Path / Beyond The Blue	(Marc 107)	1963
3	Apache '65 / Blue Guitar	(Sidewalk 1)	1964
4	Apache '65 / Blue Guitar	(Tower 116)	1965
5	Moondawg '65 / Dance The Freddie	(Tower 133)	1965
6	Baby Ruth/I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover	(Tower 142)	1965
7	Space Hop / Granny Goose	(Tower 158)	1965
8	Theme From The Wild Angels / U.F.O.	(Tower 267)	1966
9	Blues Theme/Bongo Party	(Tower 295)	1967 37
10	Angel With A Devil's Heart / I'm Leavin'	()	1967
11	Devil's Angels / Cody's Theme	(Tower 341)	1967
12	Blue Rides Again / Cycle-Delic	(Tower 381)	1967
13	Shape Of Things To Come / Wild In The Streets	(Tower 446)	1968
14	It's The Little Things You Do / You And Me	(MGM 14299)	1971
15	Head Over Heels / Here It Comes	(MGM 14374)	1972
16	Dawn Of The 7th Cavalry / Little Big Horn	(MGM 14432)	1972
17	Dawn At Wounded Knee / Little Big Horn	(MGM 14432)	1972
18	Pleasure Girl / And Evil Did Too	(MGM 14560)	1973
19	Apache '73 / Run Of The Arrow	(MGM 14650)	1973
20	White Man Beware / Where Do We Go From Here	(Aoa 113)	1976
21	Stoked On Surf / Outer Surf	(What 12-601)	1982
22	Stoked On Christmas / Flashback	(Macola MRC-0901)	1984
23	Chopper / Open Throttle	(In The Red ITR 0381)	1995
24	The Born Losers Theme / The Glory Stompers	()	19??

NB: (1), (2), (14), (15), (18) & (20) as Davie Allan. (16), (17), (19) as The Arrows. (10) unreleased. There are also two rare French EPs with picture sleeves: Apache '65/Blue Guitar/Red Roses For A Blue Lady/Indian River (Capitol EAP 60000) 1965 and Theme From The Wild Angels/Rockin' Angel/Blues Theme/Bongo Party (Capitol EAP 405043) 1967.

A mid to late sixties instrumental band from Hollywood, California. They specialised in doing a lot of soundtracks and there may have been a connection with Max Frost and The Troopers. In September 1967, Blues Theme reached No 37 in the U.S. charts. It was taken from the film 'Wild Angels' and has since resurfaced on Songs We Taught The Fuzztones.

Larry Brown later played with The Moon and Tony Allwine (aka Wayne Allwine) took up the long-standing role as the third official voice for "Mickey Mouse"!

In the '90s Davie Allan made at least two further albums: Fuzz Fest (Total Energy NER 3016) 1998, and Loud Loose And Savage (Dionysus ID123368), 1999. Still an amazing guitar player, with his trademark, a rich sustaining fuzz tone sound. He was inspired particularly by Duane Eddy, The Ventures' Nokie Edwards and Henry Mancini, whose songs are nearly the only covers he includes in his recent live and recorded work.

For more information on Davie Allan check his website: http://www.davieallan.com/

(Max Waller / Craig Morrison / Vernon Joynson / Janine Ridgeway / Stephane Rebeschini)

Alley Cats

45:

1. Cut Loose / Big Pigalle (Verna 501) 1965

Possibly two different outfits - the Verna 45 bunch called Houston home. They also recorded as the Terrible Teens, London Teens and Bad Habits - their bad habit being that they couldn't stick with one name. The Epic 45, produced and written by Ted Varnick, is swingin' beat-pop with a hint of country and enough attitude and swagger to be from Texas too. (Max Waller)

Alley Cats

45:

1	Lily Of The West / I Should Have Stayed At Home Tonight	(Epic 9778)	1965

Produced and written by Ted Varnick, this 45 is swingin' beat-pop with a hint of country and plenty of attitude and swagger. Ted was also in The Descendents and came from the Bronx, NY.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Alliance

45:

1. (I'm Not Your) Steppin' Stone/Somewhere They Can't Find Me (Americana 1003) 196?

A cool fuzzy cover of Boyce and Hart's, Steppin' Stone and a competent stab at Simon & Garfunkel's classic on the other side. From Ruston, Louisiana, both tracks have also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 14 (CD).

Allies

45:

1. I'll Sell My Soul / Burning Flask (Valiant V-748) 1966
2. I Would Love You / Sound Of Children (Reprise 0674)1968

A Los Angeles area outfit. I'll Sell My Soul is a superb moody folk-punker and can be savoured on Straight From The Garage EP Vol. 3, Acid And Flowers CD and Sixties Rebellion 14: The Basement. Burning Flask is very Byrdsy with delightful harmonies and a swaying beat, yet to be compiled. Recommended for Byrds-spotters and Dovers fans everywhere. It has yet to be established whether the Reprise 45 is by the same group. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Duane and Greg Allman to Randy Alvey and The Green Fuz

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Duane and Greg Allman
- Allman Brothers Band
- Allman Joys
- The All Night Workers
- All Of Thus
- All That The Name Implies
- Alphabetical Order
- Al's Untouchables
- Randy Alvey and The Green Fuz

Duane and Greg Allman

Personnel incl:

DUANE ALLMAN	gtr	A
GREG ALLMAN	vcls, keyb'ds	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	DUANE AND GREG ALLMAN	(Bold 33-301)	1970

45:

1	Morning Dew/I'll Change For You	(Bold 200)	1971

An album issued to cash in the Allman Brothers Band success. It's composed of tracks probably dating from the Allman Joys and Hourglass period. The best tracks are an excellent cover of Morning Dew and I'll Change For You. Curiously, some tracks have a very bad sound and are in fact other versions of Hourglass tracks with new titles and composers (Come Down And Get Me credited to Ray Gerald is in fact Down In Texas by Eddie Hinton).

Bold was a small Florida label from Hialeah, probably linked to Steve Alaimo, a local soul and rock producer.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Allman Brothers Band

Personnel:

DUANE ALLMAN	ld gtr	A B C

GREGG ALLMAN	organ, ld vcls	A B C
DICKY BETTS	ld gtr	A B C
JAI JOHANNY JOHANSON	drms	A B C
BERRY OAKLEY	bs	A B C
BUTCH TRUCKS	drms, perc	A B C
THOM DOUCETTE	hrmnca	B

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1(A)	THE ALLMAN BROTHERS BAND	(Atco SD33-308)	1969
2(B)	IDLEWILD SOUTH	(Atco SD33-342)	1970
3(B)	LIVE AT FILLMORE EAST (dble)	(Capricorn 2802)	1971
4(C)	EAT A PEACH	(Capricorn 2CP0102)	1972

NB: All these albums have been reissued on vinyl and CD.

After Hourglass, Duane and Gregg Allman teamed up in 1969 with Butch Trucks of the Thirty-first of February, Berry Oakley and Dick Betts (from Second Coming) and Jay Johanny Johanson. The Allman Brothers Band was essentially a blues rock fusion act with some country and even classical influences. Fired by Duane Allman's inventive lead and slide guitar work, and supported by their two drummers (an idea probably inspired by the Grateful Dead), the group soon became very popular, especially in the South (they were established near Macon, Georgia).

Their first album was released in 1969 and recorded in New York by Adrian Barber. It contains five Gregg Allman originals plus a Muddy Waters cover and Don't Wan't You No More by Spencer Davis. The inside of the gatefold sleeve shows the group naked, sitting in a river.

Reinforced by Thom Doucette, a bluesy harmonica player, Idlewild South was recorded in Macon, Miami and New York and produced by Tom Dowd and Joel Dorn. All their material was original, except a version of Willie Dixon's Hoochie Coochie Man.

Their third album, the double Live At Fillmore East, is one of the greatest live sets ever and was recorded in New York in 1971. With only seven cuts, two of them over 19 minutes, there are no wasted notes and no useless jams. It helped secure the Allman Brothers Band reputation as a hot live act second only perhaps to the Grateful Dead.

The follow-up, Eat A Peach was also a double album, partly recorded live. It is notable for the 34 minute jam of Donovan's First There Is A Mountain, which takes up two sides of the album. The inside gatefold is a psychedelic drawing with magic mushrooms and various hallucinations.

Duane Allman died in 1971 and Berry Oakley in 1972, both in motorcycle accidents in the same Georgia area. The group's subsequent releases are more Southern Rock and Country oriented and are out of scope of this book.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Allman Joys

TOP

Personnel:

MIKE ALEXANDER	bs	A
DUANE ALLMAN	ld gtr	A

GREGG ALLMAN	organ, gtr, ld vcls	A
BILL CONNELL (CONNEL)	drums	A
(TOMMY AMATO	drms	A)
(RALPH BALLINGER	bs	A)
(BOBBY DENNIS	gtr	A)
(JACK JACKSON	gtr	A)
(RONNIE WILKINS	piano	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	EARLY ALLMAN	(DIAL DL 6005)	1973

NB: (1) also sometimes seen as The Allman Joys. (1) also issued in France (Mercury) 197?.

45:

1	Spoonful / You Deserve Each Other	(Dial 4046)	Sep 1966

NB: (1) 'B' side is non-LP.

Duane Allman was born in 1946 and grew up in Nashville with his brother Gregg. In 1958 the Allmans moved south to Daytona Beach, Florida. They formed several groups (the Y-Teens, the House Rockers) and finally the Allman Joys. In 1966, John D.Loudermilk, the songwriter (Tobacco Road) heard them playing live in a small Nashville club, the Briar Patch, and decided to take them into the studio to cut some sides. One of these, a psychedelic version of Willie Dixon's Spoonful, was released locally as a single on Buddy Killen's Dial label and sold well locally. They returned to the studio to record more tunes but the album was shelved when the band toured the South for several months and broke up upon the formation of Hourglass. It was eventually released in 1973 to cash in the Allman Brothers success...

The album has clear blues and R&B influences which permeate these early efforts, especially in Gregg's strong emotive vocals, but some of this material has a garagey edge to it, most notably on Gregg's own compositions: - Gotta Get Away, a spirited fuzzy thumper; You'll Learn Someday - a wistful jangley folk-rocker ala Beau Brummels; Doctor Fone Bone - a raucous rocker sounding like an early Golliwogs/Creedence. Their version of Spoonful is more uptempo than usual and features some hot fuzz runs from Duane.

The personnel listed without parenthesis is the four-man line-up that gigged as the Allman Joys and who recorded the Dial 45. The additional "members" shown appeared on studio recordings, Ronnie Wilkins, for example, was a session player who co-wrote tons of songs with John Hurley and others... just check out the Gentry Time album by The Gentrys for five Wilkins songs on one album alone!

Brian Connell later played with The Rubberband.

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini/ Jeff Lemlich)

The All Night Workers

TOP

Personnel incl:

LLOYD BASKIN	A

45:

1. Why Don't You Smile?/Don't Put All Your Eggs In One Basket (Round Sound 1) 196?

Both tracks on this 45 were written by a pre-Velvet Underground Lou Reed and John Cale together with a guy called Vance and another called Terry Phillips. Phillips had been an early collaborator with Phil Spector, and was at this time in charge of Pickwick, who occasionally put out singles like this and The Ostrich by the Reed's The Primitives.

It may be that The All Night Workers were college mates of Lou Reed, and for certain the band had a large following from Fall 1966 through to Spring 1967 at Syracuse University, where they used to perform with a black soul-singer as Otis and The All Night Workers. It has also been suggested that some members of The Blues Magoos were in this act. Most of them moved to New York and formed The Albert who released LPs on Perception. Lloyd Baskin was later in Seatrain.

Why Don't You Smile? is a very appealing song, great vocals (rather soulful) and lots of commercial appeal. It was later covered by the U.K. Downliners Sect, but you can hear the original on Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1.

Other 45s by All Night Workers (though possibly not this outfit?):-

1. Honey and Wine/God Bless The Child (Cameo 420) 1966
2. The Collector/Misery (Mercury 72833) 1968

(Max Waller / Mike Kostek / Joe Foster / Christine Wands)

All Of Thus

TOP

Personnel:

- DON CORBIT gtr, bs A
- BARRY DALGLEISH drms A
- JERRY HEUKENSFELD organ, piano A
- JOHN JOHNSTON gtr, piano, organ A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ALL OF THUS (Century 27916) 1966 R5

NB: (1) reissued on Rockadelic (RRLP 11.5) 1994 SC.

A late sixties garage rarity, which was reissued by Rockadelic in 1994. There are a few competent cover versions (Roger McGuinn's Bells Of Rhymney, Stevie Winwood's Keep On Running, and Bacharach & David's Walk On By), and lots of originals penned by John Johnston. These range from good organ driven garage punkers like Last Night and Bye Bye Baby to catchy garage ballads like Kind Of A Dream, Just A Little and Artificial Lies, which seem to be their speciality. A New York band. (Max Waller/Vernon Joynson)

All That The Name Implies

TOP

Personnel:

ALLAN BREE	gtr, vcls, hrmnca	A
NICK FEVA	12-string gtr, vcls	A
ROY JIMINEZ	vcls	A

MELINDA PARKES	vcls	A
MARLENE RYAN	vcls	A
(EMILE LATIMOR	congas	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	ALL THAT THE NAME IMPLIES	(ORO ORO-4)	1968

45s:

1(A)	Black Tuesday/So Am I	(Oro 45-2)	1968
2(A)	Liar/August Pine	(Oro 45-3)	1968

This five-piece folkie collective, augmented by Emile Latimor on congas, produced an album and two 45s on this little known ESP subsidiary. The album rarely turns up - actually, its existence wasn't even suspected until it popped up on a list in 2000. The 45s are less elusive - only Black Tuesday is a non-LP track, though others are alternate versions.

Their sound is mellowed-out and distinct - gruff male vocals intertwine with sweet female and male harmonies over laid-back strumming and congas, with occasional flute or tambourine. Religious references and a 'back to the woods' vibe push this into the flower-children/hippie zone of the folk spectrum.

(Max Waller)

Alphabetical Order TOP

Personnel incl:

- MIKE CROSBY
- FRED DAVIDSON
- BOB LAMAR
- BOB McDANIEL
- RICHARD PERRYMAN

45s:

1. Under My Thumb/My Little Red Book (Lemco LEM 4402) Sep. 1967
2. All Over The World/Miss Blue Eyes (Rising Sons RS 45-710) 1968
3. All Over The World/Gonna Fight The War (Soul Boulevard 1002) 1968

From Louisville, Kentucky, their first 45 is quite sought-after. Both sides are keyboard-led garage with moody and soul-inflected vocals. Under My Thumb is a decent jerker with sinuous reedy runs, marred only by falsetto 'bah bah bah' backing vocals. My Little Red Book is a pretty competent stab at Love's classic, and has subsequently resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 8. Sadly, by their second release they'd turned to a more pop/club sound. (Max Waller)

Al's Untouchables

Personnel:

- BILL ALLEY bs A
- RON HAMAD vcls, rhythm gtr A
- AL HUNTZINGER drms A
- BOB KEITH keyb'ds A
- MEL WIDENER ld gtr A
- RON BRESLER drms B
- DICKIE DOUGLAS gtr B
- TOMMY HANKINS bs B
- BRUCE NUNEMAKER rhthmn gtr B

45s:

1. (A) Church Key/Danny Boy (Hunt 450) 1964
2. (B) Come On Baby/Stick Around (Hunt 1140) 1966

NB: (1) as Al & The Untouchables. (2) as Al's Untouchables.

Actually a Johnny And The Hurricanes-style instrumental band from Iowa City, Iowa, but both sides of the Come On Baby 45 feature on Boulders, Vol. 4 so we've included them here and indeed it's a screaming punk disc. Al Huntzinger played on the first 45, and was manager of the second line-up. He was also later in The Untouchables.

Their story is told on an excellent 1992 EP (MCCM 9102), which compiles both 45s. (Max Waller)

Randy Alvey and The Green Fuz

Personnel:

- RANDY ALVEY vcls
- LES DALE ld gtr
- R.E. HOUCHENS bs
- JIMMY MERCER gtr
- MIKE PEARCE drms

45:

1. Green Fuz/There Is A Land (Big Tex 445) 196?

This punk band hailed from Bridgeport in North Texas, just Northwest of Fort Worth and were for a while a popular local attraction in the area. Randy was just 15 when this single was made. Mastered on a portable reel to reel cassette and recorded in a rock constructed cafe after hours, which probably explains the echoey sound, it's hardly surprising the production sounds so crude. Since its inclusion on Pebbles, Vol. 2, and more recently the Pebbles Box set Acid

Dreams Epitaph CD and Get Primitive (The Best Of Pebbles), Green Fuz has become something of a cult classic. Only 500 copies were pressed at the time - the flip was a ballad credited to R.E. Houchens. Minus Les Dale the band recorded again as Natchez.

More recently, Green Fuzz has been covered by the Miracle Workers, Germany's Beatitudes, the Seclusions and by Dino Sorbello's Laughing Sky on their Free Inside CD retitled as Here We Come. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Amberjacks to American Zoo

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Amberjacks
- Ambertones
- The Amboy Dukes
- American Beetles
- American Blues
- American Blues Exchange
- The American Breed
- American Dream
- American Dream
- American Eagle
- American Express
- The American Four
- American Legend
- American Revolution
- American Zoo

The Amberjacks

45:

1	Hey Eriq! / Blue Jaunte	(Migliore CR 727661/2)	Aug 1966

Also known as Terrozoid and The Amberjacks, this outfit were from Baldwin, Long Island. Another 45 may exist featuring a track Put You Down.

Compilation appearances have included:- Hey Eriq! on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 4 and Back From The Grave Vol. 8; Blue Jaunte is on Teenage Shutdown Vol.6: (I'm Down Today).

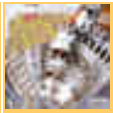
(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Ambertones

45s:

1	Charlena / Bandido	(GNP Crescendo 329)	1963
2	Chocolate Covered Ants / One Summer Night	(Dottie 1129)	1965

3	I Need Someone / If I Do	(Dottie 1130)	Oct 1965
4	I Can Only Give You Everything / I Only Have Eyes For You	(Rayjack 1002)	1966
5	I Can Only Give You Everything / I Only Have Eyes For You	(Treasure Chest 001)	1966
6	Clap Your Hands / Cruise	(Rayjack # Unkn)	1966
7	Clap Your Hands / Cruise	(Newman 601)	1966



NB: (3) was repressed on a pale blue label circa 1969, the original is on a dark blue label. Two further 45s may be by the same band:- 99% / You Don't Know Like I Know (White Whale 242) 1967 and A Million Tears / Little Bit Of Lovin' (White Whale 302) 1969.

Los Angeles' East Side has its own very special and vibrant scene, drawing on a plethora of musical styles from its wide ethnicity. In the '60s there was a wave of mainly Hispanic bands which peaked after the Invasion hit. Adopting rock'n'roll, pop, beat and garage sounds and flavouring them with their own musical heritage produced some fascinating and compelling results. These found an outlet on local labels like Linda, Faro, Rampart, Whittier and Chattahoochie which have been revisited in recent years by reissues, compilations and retrospectives. First division proponents of the 'East Side Sound' include Thee Midniters, Cannibal & The Head Hunters (Land of 1,000 Dances), and The Premiers (Farmer John). The lesser knowns now available on reissues and comps include the East Side Kids, Romancers (aka Smoke Rings), Atlantics, Jaguars, Enchantments, Sunday Funnies, Blendells ... and the Ambertones, who can be heard on Rampart's 1969 double-LP compilation East Side Revue (I Need Someone, I Only Have Eyes For You).

Recent comps of this genre include the Dionysus/Bacchus CD The East Side Sound and its same-name vinyl counterpart on Telstar. Their cover of the Troggs' I Can Only Give You Everything can also be found on Boulders Vol. 4 and Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 7. If I Do is on Basementsville! U.S.A..

(Max Waller/Mike Marksesich)

The Amboy Dukes

Personnel:

JOHN DRAKE	vcls	A B
STEVE FARMER	gtr	A B
RICK LOBER	piano, organ	A
TED NUGENT	gtr	A B C D
DAVE PALMER	drms	A B C D
BILL WHITE	bs	A
GREG ARAMA	bs	B C D
ANDY SOLOMAN	keyb'ds	B C

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1(A)	1ST ALBUM	(Mainstream 6104)	1968 183
2(A)	JOURNEY TO THE CENTER OF THE MIND	(Mainstream 6112)	1968 74

3(C)	MIGRATIONS	(Mainstream 6118)	1968
(-)	THE BEST OF THE ORIGINAL AMBOY DUKES	(Mainstream 6125)	1969
(D)	SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST	(Polydor 24-4035)	1970 129
(D)	MARRIAGE ON THE ROCKS/ROCK BOTTOM	(Polydor 6073)	1970 191

N.B. Since 1972 (1)-(3) and (6) have been reissued as double sets. The albums are also available on CD.

45s:

1	Baby Please Don't Go/Psalms of Aftermath	(Mainstream 676)	1968 106
2	Journey To The Center Of The Mind/Mississippi Murderer	(Mainstream 684)	1968 16
3	Scottish Tea/You Talk Sunshine, I Breathe Fire	(Mainstream 693)	1968 114
4	Good Natured Emma/Prodigal Man	(Mainstream 700)	1969 -
5	For His Namesake/Loaded For Bear	(Mainstream 704)	1969
6	Flight Of The Birds/?	(Mainstream 711)	1969

NB: (2) and (4) also released in France with a PS (Vogue INT 80140) and (London 69024).

This Detroit-based group are of particular interest as their leader, Ted Nugent, later attained rock stardom. The Amboy Dukes attracted national attention when the title track of their second album became a U.S. Top Twenty hit. Nugent's frenzied guitar playing also made them a prime 'live' attraction, and the number that usually closed their shows, Them's U.K. hit Baby Please Don't Go included on their first album is also featured on Nuggets. A typical punk garage band, The 'Dukes should, by rights, have faded back into obscurity post-1969. But Nugent's persistence kept them on the road and the band, having gone through various personnel changes, was still putting out largely tasteless albums into the seventies. A compilation The Best of The Amboy Dukes (Mainstream 6125) was also issued in the seventies, but the best compilation of their material is the double LP Journeys And Migrations (Mainstream) in 1974. Another compilation of their material was Dr Slingshot (Mainstream MRL 414) in 1974.

Steve Arama went on to form Ursa Major with Dick Wagner from Frost.

Original guitarist, Steve Farmer, has also recently been collaborating with neo-psych/acid-goth band Babylonian Tiles, co-writing and playing on their Shadows On The Wall 45 (Saint Thomas STP 0056) 1998. Babylonian Tiles have also covered another Amboy Dukes' track: Saint Philips Friend (STP 0043) 1997.

Compilation appearances have included:- Journey To The Centre Of Your Mind on Nuggets, Vol. 1, Best of '60s Psychedelic Rock (CD) and*Michigan Rocks Vol. 1*; and You Talk Sunshine I Breathe Fire on Michigan Brand Nuggets.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

American Beetles

Personnel:

- BILL ANDE ld gtr
- TOM CONDRA rhythm gtr

- DAVE HIERONYMUS drms
- JIM TOLLIVER bs

45s:

1. Don't Be Unkind / You Did It To Me (Roulette 4550) 1964
2. School Days / Hey Hey Girl (Roulette 4559) 1964
3. She's Mine / Theme Of The American Beetles (BYP 1001) 1964
4. It's My Last Night In Town / You're Getting To Me (BYP 101/2) 1964
5. I Wish You Everything / Say You Do (Yorey 1001) 1965

NB: (4) also issued on Mammoth (102). (5) also issued in Canada on Barry (3307).

Miami's answer to the Beatles? This outfit had already been going since the late 50s as the Ardells and the new moniker was not a bad idea to catch the latest musical craze in 1964. Unfortunately they chose a tough act to be compared to and none of their numerous 45s resulted in major success. So it was time for a rethink and another name change to - the The Razor's Edge. (Max Waller)

American Blues

TOP

Personnel:

- FRANK BEARD A
- DOUG DAVIS A
- DUSTY HILL A
- ROCKY HILL A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) AMERICAN BLUES IS HERE (Karma 1001) 1968
2. (A) AMERICAN BLUES DO THEIR THING (Uni 73004)1969

NB. (2) reissued by See For Miles (SEE 99) 1987, (1) and (2) have also been reissued on one CD (Afterglow) 199?.

45:

1. If I Were A Carpenter / All I Saw Was You (Karma 101) 1969

One of the better known Dallas bands of this era American Blues were originally known as The Warlocks and also an important stepping stone for Dusty Hill and Frank Beard before they went on to join ZZ Top. Their first album was produced by Scotty McKay and recorded at Robin Hood Brian's studio in Tyler, Texas. Side one is predominantly psychedelic and a 45 from it was issued the following year. Side two was in more of a heavy rock style. It did well enough to attract the interest of EMI subsidiary UNI who signed the band. The result was Do Their Thing, which was basically a blues rock album with some psychedelic trappings. It did have its moments and You Were So Close To Me, Softly To The Sun, Just Plain Jane and Dreams are the better tracks. However, the sales were poor and UNI quietly dropped the band.

There was a second band of this name who released one 45, Say So/Your Love Is True (Amy 997) during the 1960s.

Compilation appearances have so far included If I Were A Carpenter and All I Saw Was You on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 1 and If I Were A Carpenter on Reverberation IV (CD).

American Blues Exchange

TOP

Personnel:

ROGER BRIGGS	gtr	A
ROY DUDLEY	vcls, hmnca, tamb	A
PETER HARTMAN	bs	A
DAN MIXTER	gtr, recorder, harmony	A
DALE REED	perc, harmony	A

ALBUM:

1(A) AMERICAN BLUES EXCHANGE BLUEPRINTS (Tayl TLS 1) 1969

NB. (1) reissued on Heyoka (Hey 204) 1985 and on CD (Flash 55). Reissued officially on CD by Gear Fab (GF-120), with extra material not included on the bootlegs.

This band consisted of students at Trinity College in Hartford, and they mainly played a college parties and dances in the Connecticut / Massachusetts areas between 1968 and 1970. Aside from Burlington Letter, a sensitive 'acid' guitar ballad, their album is broadly-speaking a collection of late '60s bluesy numbers, with some great laid-back dual guitar leads. Don't let the "blues" in the band name put you off, however, as there's a Cream/Blind Faith influence on tracks like The Taker and Ode To The Lost Legs Of John Bean, and it's an album that will also appeal to fans of laid-back West Coast rock, as well as the blues.

Recorded at the Gallery studio in East Hartford, Connecticut, the album had an original pressing of 1,000 although only 400 were sold - the remainder being given away or binned over the ensuing years.

After the band split and went their separate ways, all continued to pursue their musical hobby, and now reside in the Connecticut / Massachusetts area, except for Dale Reed who moved out to LA. Indeed Roger Briggs still records and releases limited edition cassette tapes for friends and interested people to this day!

The American Breed

TOP

Personnel:

- AL CINER gtr A
- CHUCK COLBERT bs A
- LEE GRAZIANO dr A
- GARY LOIZZO vcls, gtr A
- KEVIN MURPHY keyb'ds

ALBUMS:

1. (A) AMERICAN BREED (Acta (Dot) 38002) 1967
2. (A) AMERICAN BREED ll 'Bend Me Shape Me' (Acta (Dot) 38003) 1968 99

3. (A) PUMPKIN POWDER SCARLET AND GREEN (Acta (Dot) 38006) 1968
4. (A) LONELY SIDE OF THE CITY (Acta (Dot) 38008) 1968

45s:

1. I Don't Think You Know Me/Give Two Young Lovers A Chance (Acta 802) 1967 -
2. Step Out Of Your Mind/Same Old Thing (Acta 804) 1967 24
3. Don't Forget About Me/Short Skirts (Acta 808) 1967 107
4. Bend Me, Shape Me/Mindrocker (Acta 811) 1967 5
5. Green Light/Don't It Make You Cry (Acta 821) 1968 39
6. Ready, Willing And Able/Take Me If You Want Me (Acta 824) 1968 84
7. Any Way That You Want Me/Master of Fate (Acta 827) 1968 88
8. Keep The Faith/Private Zoo (Acta 830) 1969 -
9. Hunky Funky/Enter The Master (Acta 833) 1969 107
10. Room At The Top/Walls (Acta 836) 1969 -
11. Cool It (We're Not Alone)/The Brain (Acta 837) 1969
12. Can't Make It Without You/When I'm With You (Paramount 0040) 1971

This outfit formed in Chicago in 1966 and were originally known as Gary and The Night Lites and The Light Nites. They began life as a kinda top 40 frat band releasing three 45s as Gary and The Night Lites and one as The Light Nites. When they signed to Acta they changed name to The American Breed. They continued the brief relationship they had with Bill Traut at Dunwich (as The Light Nites) and he became their producer for their first few Acta singles. They are most remembered for a soul-influenced pop sound best represented by Bend Me, Shape Me, which was by some way their biggest hit, but I've included them here on the strength of their earlier psych pop hit, Step Out Of Your Mind and Green Light, which was in a similar vein. Like many Chicago bands of this era they had quite a brassy sound. Although they were primarily a singles band their second album did make it to No 99 in the U.S. Album Charts. After several personnel changes the group evolved into Ask Rufus (who were later known as simply Rufus). Gary Loizzo was also involved in an outfit called Jamestown Massacre in the late sixties and early seventies.

Their compilation appearances to date have been confined to Bend Me, Shape Me and Step Out Of Your Mind on Nuggets, Vol. 5 and 11 respectively plus an otherwise unreleased recording of What Now My Love? from July 1967 on the Early Chicago compilation.

Oh Yeah! The Best Of Dunwich Records, Vol. 1 contains a radio spot. If You're Ready! The Best Of Dunwich Records, Vol. 2, contains another radio spot and the previously unreleased track It's Getting Harder. Varese Vintage issued the 17 track compilation Bend Me Shape Me in 1995 which also contains an interview with Gary Loizzo.

American Dream

TOP

45:

1. Love Is A Beautiful Thing/Jug Band Music (Bovi RM 45027/8) c1967

Despite the sweet harmonious vocals on the above 45, this Rhode Island group sound more like The Vagrants than The Young Rascals with some wonderfully vicious and heavy fuzz. Their Lovin' Spoonful cover is more true to the original and, therefore, something of a disappointment by comparison.

(Max Waller)

American Dream

Personnel:

MICKEY BROOK	drms	A
DON FERRIS	bs, vcls	A
NICKY INDELICATO	gtr, vcls	A
NICK JAMESON	ld gtr, piano, vcls	A
DON LEE VAN WINKLE	gtr, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE AMERICAN DREAM	(Ampex A 10101)	1970

45:

1	Good News / I Ain't Searchin'	(Ampex 11001)	1970

From Philadelphia. It is a pretty good debut album of heavy rock with three guitars, but what makes it stand out is the superb production job by Todd Rundgren, who also engineered the recording.

Nick Jameson would later join Foghat and Paul Butterfield. He also released a solo album in 1977 on Bearsville

(Max Waller / Tony Harland / Stephane Rebeschini)

American Eagle

Personnel:

- GREG BECK gtr,vcls
- GENE HUBBARD keyb'ds,vcls
- ROBERT LOWERY ld vcls
- FRED ZEUFELDT drms,vcls

ALBUM:

1. AMERICAN EAGLE (DECCA DL 75258) 1970

45s:

1. Family / Gospel (Decca 32788) 1971
2. On The Rack / Ballad Of A Well-Known Gun (Decca 32833) 1971

Previously known as the Surprise Package (with Mike Rogers instead of Gene Hubbard) these guys lineage stretches way back through numerous Pacific Northwest bands including the Viceroys, Galaxies and Rock Collection. They appear to have been based in California by this time. The album is predominantly straight-ahead riff-heavy rock with soulful vocals. The Vanilla Fudge style rework of the Moody Blues' Nights In White Satin drives that particular comparison home. (Max Waller)

American Express

TOP

45:

1 You're Going to be the One/You And Me (Teen Town 111) 1969

Pop with horns, on the same label as The Sidewalk Skipper Band.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The American Four

TOP

Personnel incl:

- JOHN ECHOLS ld gtr
- ARTHUR LEE vcls, gtr

45:

1. Lucy Baines/Soul Food (Selma 2001) 1964

This was a short-lived 1964 Los Angeles band of Lee's which recorded just the one rather commercial 45. Both sides can be heard on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 5 and Lucy Baines, the better of the two has also cropped up on Magic Carpet Ride. The band soonevolved into The Grassroots and later still into the seminal Love.

American Legend

TOP

45:

1. Back In The U.S.S.R. / Sunshine Morning (D.J. 101) 1969

From Mason City, Iowa. A good hard-rockin' Beatles cover backed by a light poppy number with way too many bah-bah-bah's.

(Max Waller)

American Revolution

TOP

Personnel:

- RICHARD BARCELONA gtr, vels A
- DANIEL DERDA drms A
- EBBIE HADDAD keyb'ds, vcls A
- JOHN KEITH bs, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) AMERICAN REVOLUTION (Flick-Disc FLS 45,002) 1968

NB: (1) promo copies issued in mono with sticker.

A late sixties Hollywood hippie type rock band. Barcelona and Keith later played in Edge, who issued an album in 1970. The American Revolution album, produced by Harley Hatcher, is quite heavily orchestrated with pleasant vocal harmonies, particularly on In The Late Aftemoon, Rainbow In The Rain and Love Has Got Me Down. Some of the songs have a psychedelic taint, but it's predominantly rather good psych-pop.

Producer Harley Hatcher, was an exploitation film composer, member of Mike Curb's gang and as an army buddy of Elvis he sang in ad-hoc groups with the King.

(Vernon Joynson / Joe Foster / David Jaffe)

American Zoo

TOP

Personnel:

- B. BOTTRELL
- DAVE DANIELI
- BILL HAWKINS
- J. MARTZ

45s:

1. Mr Brotherhood/Magdalena (Reena 1026) 1967
2. What Am I ?/Back Street Thoughts (Reena 1030) 1967

This band recorded at least two 45s for this Hollywood-based label in late 1967. Mr Brotherhood was poppy psychedelia with trippy lyrics and sound effects. It was released in two quite different versions - one with organ to the fore and an extra verse and the other was an abridged version with guitar more to the fore and the 'trippy effects'. You can hear the former version on High All The Time Vol. 2 and the later version on Slowly Growing Insane (CD) and it's vinyl counterpart Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 11.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Eric Andersen to Aorta

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Eric Andersen
- Angel
- The Anglo-Americans
- Anglo Saxton
- The Angry Men
- Animated Egg
- Anonymous
- The Answer
- Ant Trip Ceremony
- Anthem
- Aorta

Eric Andersen

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1	TODAY IS THE HIGHWAY	(Vanguard 79157)	1965
2	'BOUT CHANGES AND THINGS	(Vanguard 792206)	1966
3	'BOUT CHANGES AND THINGS, TAKE 2	(Vanguard 79236)	1967
4	MORE HITS FROM TIN CAN ALLEY	(Vanguard VSD 79271)	1968
5	A COUNTRY DREAM	(Vanguard VSD-6540)	1968
6	AVALANCHE	(Warner WS 1748)	1970
7	ERIC ANDERSEN	(Warner WS 1806)	1970
8	THE BEST OF	(Vanguard VSD 7/8)	1971
9	BLUE RIVER	(CBS)	1972

NB: Mono pressings of the Vanguard albums also exist. (1) and (2) also released in the U.K. by Fontana. Most of the Vanguard albums have been reissued in the '70s.

Of Norwegian origin, Eric Andersen was one of the best Greenwich Village folksingers and poet/songwriters during 1963/64, but his career has always been undermined by bad luck, poor judgment and mismanagement. After two good folk albums, his response to Dylan going electric was to re-record his best album with a rhythm section, hence the Take Two in the title.

His next effort, More Hits From Tin Can Alley, was ruined by the florid production of Al Gorgoni and features the usual New York musicians : Al Kooper, Hugh McCracken, Herb Lovelle, Bob Rafkin, Bobby Gregg, Paul Harris, Paul Griffin, plus some tasteful guitar parts of Amos Garrett. It contains one outstanding fast track, 'Mary Sunshine with McCracken (or Kooper?) doing a fantastic Bloomfield impersonation on electric guitar.

Following the collapse of the original folk scene, he pursued one fad after another, turning C&W for Country Dream and using Sgt Pepper-like orchestration for his Warner albums, which sold poorly. In 1972 he moved to Columbia and released one of his best albums, Blue River. Unfortunately the master tapes for the follow-up albums were lost and Andersen reappeared only in 1975, as a singer/songwriter a la James Taylor. He kept on recording for Arista and eventually returned to Norway.

In 1991 and 1994 he recorded two sympathetic albums with Rick Danko (The Band) and Jonas Fjeld. His songs have also been sung by other groups including: Violets Of Dawn by the Robbs and the Blues Project and Think About It by Len Novy. He is sometimes credited as Eric Anderson.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Angel

Personnel:

BARRY BRANT	drms	A
FRANK DIMINO	ld vcls	A
GREGG GIUFFRIA	keyb'ds	A
MICKEY JONES	bs	A
EDWYN 'PUNKY' MEADOWS	ld gtr	A

ALBUMS:

(up to 1976)

1(A)	ANGEL	(Casablanca 7021)	1976
2(A)	HELLUVA BAND	(Casablanca 7028)	1976

45s:

(up to 1976)

1	On And On/Angel (Theme)	(Casablanca CBXS 14)	1976
2	Feelings/Angel (Theme)	(Casablanca CBXS 22)	1976

This combo was launched by their label Casablanca Records as the "white" answer to Kiss, with whom they toured. They did a melodic hard-rock with strong keyboards. They also appeared in the Jodie Foster film "Foxes".

Punky Meadows had earlier been in The English Setters and prior to adopting the Angel monicker in 1975, the band were known as Sweet Mama From Heaven.

(Christophe Simplex / Don Smith / Jim McMaster)

The Anglo-Americans

45:

1. The Music Never Stops/Are You Ready For This? (Chattahoochee 605) 1966

A solid pop-thumper that comes with ringing guitars and a nod to The Beach Boys. The flip is full of 'hip' lyrics and a take on Bob Dylan circa 1965 lyric and sound-wise. Tongue-in-cheek folk-rock. (Max Waller)

Anglo Saxton

45:

1 Ruby/You Better Leave Me Alone (Lucky Eleven) 1967?

The 'A' side was a pop hit for the First Edition but this unknown group recorded a good sneering punky version with Dylan-like vocals and Animals style organ arrangement. The flip is a decent Jimmy Reed rip-off.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Angry Men

45:

1. Come With Me (To Another World)/Love Is Gone (Torch T-1001/2) c1965

Soft and restrained 'garage-ballads' from Rochester, New York, sounding anything but angry and coming on more like a lounge-bar band. (Max Waller)

Animated Egg

ALBUM:

1. ANIMATED EGG (Alshire SF-5104) 1967

N.B. (1) was also issued in mono on Somerset (SF-32700), and also released on Europa (E 316) in Germany and Marble Arch (MAL 890) in 1969 in the UK. The album was also issued under two different titles:
101 Strings Astro-Sounds From Beyond The Year 2000 (Alshire) 196? R1/2
The Black Diamonds A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix (Alshire S 5220) 19?? R1/2.

The album itself is of little interest but some of its better cuts have recently resurfaced on compilations. You'll find I Said, She Said, AhCid on Relics, Vol. 2 and Sock It My Way has turned up on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 1.

The Everything You Always... CD also includes three cuts, credited under the Astro Sounds... monicker: Flameout, Barner X-69 and the delightfully titled A Disappointing Love Affair With A Desensitized Robot.

Anonymous

Personnel:

- RON MATELIC vcls, gtr A
- JOHN MEDVESCEK drms A
- MARSHA ROLLINGS vcls A
- GLENN WEAVER vcls, gtr, bs A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) INSIDE THE SHADOW (A Major Label AMLS 1002) 1976 R4
2. ANONYMOUS (A Major Label AMLS 1002) 1981 R1/2

NB: (1) came in a blue and white cover, black and white label, with insert. 500 copies were pressed. (2) was a repressing of the Inside The Shadow album - this time untitled, with a slightly modified cover (black and white cover, red and white label, no insert). (1) reissued by OR (OR 015) 1996, in a ltd edition of 375.

Hailed from Indianapolis, Indiana, but recorded on a label based in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, by Jim Spencer. This is a superb album of melodic guitar driven rock which blends exquisitely with Marsha's vocals on tracks like J Rider, Up To You, Pick Up And Run and Baby Come Risin, which is probably the album's finest moment. If you like ringing guitar work and harmonic vocals, this album is for you. They've been likened to Jefferson Airplane! They also had a 45 on Flat, which I don't have details of, and a cut on the 1981 compilation Let Them Eat Jellybeans on Faulty Records.

Ron Matelic and John Medvescek had earlier played for Sir Winston and The Commons. The Anonymous album has been reissued by OR records, early in 1997, along with another album No Longer Anonymous recorded by Ron, John and Marsha circa 1979, under the name J.Rider. This was later reissued by OR records as a ltd edition of 375 in 1996 (OR 016)

I am told the band who appear on the Let Them Eat Jellybeans compilation is a different one with the same name. The style of music of the band on the compilation is apparently something like The Residents.

The Answer

Personnel:

- TODD ANDERSON vcls A
- MICHAEL FRIEDMAN bs A
- MIKE SIMPSON rhythm gtr A
- BOB SHUMAKER drms A
- CHIP WRIGHT gtr A

45:

1. Why You Smile/I'll Be In (White Whale 225) 1965

A little known garage band from Berkeley, California. The catchy 'A' side has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 3, the 'B' side on Highs In The Mid Sixties, Vol. 1. Anderson and Friedman formed The Drongos after The Answer split in 1966.

Anthem

Personnel:

BARTHOLOMEW	gtr, vcls	A
BOBBY HAYE	drms, vcls	A
GREGG HOLLISTER	bs, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	ANTHEM	(Buddah BDS-5071)	1970

A rare concept album, with sophisticated arrangements. Gregg Hollister would later play with Rockspur (DJM, 1978).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Ant Trip Ceremony

Personnel:

STEVE DeTRAY	ld gtr	A
GEORGE GALT	gtr, vcls, hrmnca, bs	A B
ROGER GOODMAN	vcls	A B
GARY ROSEN	bs, gtr, vcls	A B
MARK STEIN	ld gtr, flte, bs	A B
JEFF WILLIAMS	drms	A B

ALBUM:

1(A/B)	24 HOURS	(C.R.C. 2129)	1968

NB. (1) reissued on Resurrection. The vinyl reissue is exact and indistinguishable from the original except for the fact that it's on dark blue vinyl and must be held to a bright light to check. If you can't see colour through it, it's probably an original. (1) reissued on CD by Anthology (Ant 2311) 1995, with a newly designed cover. (1) reissued legitimately on CD by Collectables (Col-CD-0717) 1999 but with a different running order.

Steve Detray, a student at Oberlin College in Ohio, took a break in 1966 and early 1967 to spend time in Logan, Utah with his brother. While out there, he formed a band which he named Ant Trip Ceremony after a suggestion from a local English professor who had seen the term in a novel. The phrase was a description of modern human society and Detray thought it an appropriate name for his band. Before he returned to Oberlin for the 1967/8 academic year, Steve disbanded the band but retained the name when he formed a new electric rock band at Oberlin. Gary Rosen, George Galt, and Mark Stein had been playing together in a blues band. Stein was a flute major at Oberlin, Roger Goodman was also a student, and the only non-college member was the drummer, Steve Williams, a 16-year-old local kid who had some jazz-drumming experience.

The band mainly played gigs at Oberlin and were noted for long improvisatory jams. Their album was recorded in two sessions, the first in February 1968 and the second some months later. Steve Detray was only present for the first session as he left the College in the spring of 1968. Technical faults affected the recording: the KLH deck used for playback had a faulty right speaker and the mixdown was affected as a result with vocals sounding further back in the mix than originally intended. The producer, David Crosby, was a fellow-student at Oberlin and contrary to legend is not the David Crosby of The Byrds/CSN&Y fame. Only 300 copies of the album were pressed and sold around campus.

A blend of folk, blues, jazz and eastern psychedelia, the album is at its best on the more meditative pieces like Pale Shades Of Gray with it's eerily beautiful snakecharmer melody and What's The Matter Now which is based on on a reflective "Goodbye Pork Pie-Hat" riff. Four In The Morning and Riverdawn are also in this lullingly insistent vein whilst Elaborations is a lengthy raga-ish instrumental with some very effective flute. Some of the covers like Get Out Of My Life Woman and Eric Andersen's Violets Of Dawn are no more than adequate, but their version of Hey Joe is much more exciting.

The band disbanded as the members left college. Steve, George, Gary, and Jeff still perform while Roger is retired from teaching college. Steve Williams later played with such greats as Clark Terry, Al Hall and Herb Lovette, whilst Rosen was a Bluesbander prior to his conversion to folk music. Goodman came from England originally.

(Lloyd Peasley / Vernon Joynson / Clark Faville)

Aorta

Personnel:

JIM DONLINGER	gtr, vcls	A B
BILLY HERMAN	vcls, drms	A
BOBBY JONES	bs, vcls	A
JIM NYEHOLT	keyb'ds	A B
MIKE BEEN	bs, gtr, vcls	B
TOM DONLINGER	drms, perc	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	AORTA	(Columbia 9785)	1969 168
2	AORTA 2	(Happy Tiger 1010)	1970 -

NB: (1) also released in France: (CBS S7-63690) 1969. (1) reissued on CD by Buy Or Die.

45s:

1	Shapes Of Things To Come/Strange	(Atlantic 2545)	1968
2	Strange/Ode To Missy Mtfzspkik	(Columbia 44870)	1969
3	Sand Castles/Willie Jean	(Happy Tiger 567)	1970

These two albums of acid psychedelia are highly rated by some. Their first album is consistently good throughout and is certainly recommended. A wide range of material is held together by tight playing and some fine guitar/organ interplay. Unfortunately, the second album pales by comparison and is largely uninspired with no real highlights.

The band came from Chicago and during the mid sixties were a popular Top 40's lounge group, going by the name of The Exceptions. After a couple of years of regurgitating the latest hits, they were getting bored and were looking for room to explore their musical talents, when producer Bill Traut (of Dunwich Records) approached them with an offer to record an album of original material. All of the group with the exception of Pete Cetera lept at the chance, and with the bass slot now filled by Bobby Jones, they renamed themselves as Aorta.

Curiously their first album was released the same month as three other Chicago acts signed to Columbia Illinois Speed Press, The Flock, and Chicago (who incidentally included Pete Cetera). This was a marketing ploy to push a "Chicago" scene and all four albums entered the Billboard Top 200, with Aorta's peaking at around 168 and remaining in the chart for a respectable six weeks. Incidentally, the basic tracks and vocal tracks for the first album were recorded at Great Lakes Recording studio in Sparta, Michigan, with one track Sprinkle Road To Cork Street referring to two roads in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Been and the Donlinger brothers had all formerly played in The Rotary Connection, another Chicago act, and Been and Jim Dolinger were later in Lovecraft. Nyeholt also played with The Rotary Connection during a brief period between the two albums, and Billy Herman went on to play for New Colony Six. Michael Been later played with Moby Grape members Jerry Miller / Bob Mosley in Fine Wine, and is still active on the music scene.

The compilation Psychedelic Dream features three tracks from their first album:- What's In My Mind's Eye, a beautiful piece of orchestrated pop-psych; Sleep Tight, a rather disjointed song which wasn't one of their finest moments but ended with some pleasant keyboards and Catalyptic, a cover of a Colours song, which is another keyboard dominated number with some occasionally scintillating guitar. The latter track has often puzzled collectors, as it fits neatly into the 'concept' of Aorta, but is pre-dated by the Colours version. In fact, Bill Traut had received a demo of the track, and suggested it to Aorta for their album, but other than that there's no direct link between the groups.

Anyone interested in digging into Aorta's roots may be interested in the Collectables CD The Quill Records Story: The Best of Chicago Garage Bands, which includes two Exceptions singles: As Far As I Can See and Business As Usual.

(Vernon Joynson / Byron Stewart / Stephane Rebeschini / Michael Packer)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Apache to Arrogance

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Apache
- Apes of Wrath
- The Apocalypse
- Apokolips
- The Apollos
- Apollo's Apaches
- The Apostles
- The Apostles
- The Apostles
- The Apostles
- Appaloosa
- Apparition
- Apperson Jackrabbit
- The Apple Corps
- The Apple-Glass Cyndrom
- The Applepie Motherhood Band
- Appletree Theatre
- The Apolloes
- Arbuckle
- Arch Of Triumph
- The Argyles
- Ariel
- Ark
- The Arkay IV
- Armageddon
- Arnold Bean
- The Arondies
- Arrangement
- Arrogance

Apache

Apache was the title of the album. See Maitreya Kali for the corrected info.

Apes of Wrath

ALBUM:

1	APES OF WRATH	(Private Pressing)	c1972

Released by the band on their own label in a limited pressing of 500, the album includes a cover of Donovan's Hey Gyp, the very heavy 3 Billion Blind Mice, and The Apes Of Wrath, Mankinds Lies, Old Joe, Hypnotize The Masses, with lots of fuzz guitar and guitar leads.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Apocalypse

45s:

1	We Have Lost The Way / Do You Remember	(Apocalypse A-002)	c1966
2	God Is My Home / Summer Brings Rain	(Apocalypse # Unkn)	196?

Described as "gospel garage", from Grand Rapids, Michigan. We Have Lost The Way doesn't preach - it's upbeat folkie-rock. The lilting folk-ballad on the flip is more obvious in its religious message, as is the label's motto - "and ye shall sing praises unto Him".

(Max Waller)

Apokolips

45:

1. High Strung Woman / All Shook Up (Varmint 45-110) 1972

On a Silvis, Illinois label and described as "70s garage" - in reality it's 50s rock'n'roll transplanted to the '70s by a hard rockin' local outfit. The top side is a boogie-rocker with harp and is backed by the Elvis rocker with a Jerry Lee impersonator on piano. Good rockin' - yeah, garage? - no way, Jose.

(Max Waller)

The Apollos

Personnel:

DAVE HARNEY	gtr	A B C D
DON HARNEY	gtr	A B C D
JIM PRICE	bs	A B C D
JAN SYLVESTER	drms	A

WAYNE GROVES	drms	B
JON PARISI	gtr	B
TOMMY VORHAUER	vcls	B C
WAYNE GOUBILEE	drms	C D
DWIGHT JAMES	keyb'ds	C D
DOUG COLLIS	vcls	D

45s:

1(B)	That's The Breaks/Country Boy	(Delta MUM 183)	1965
2(D)	Target Love/It's A Monster	(Montgomery 0011/2)	Nov 1966

A garage band from the Falls Church area of Virginia, whose 45s were characterised by fizzling, speedy guitar work and catchy Farfisa organ. That's The Breaks, Target Love and Its A Monster are all superb examples of the garage fuzz genre. All three can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 13. Alternatively, the Finest Hour Of U.S. '60s Punk features Target Love and That's The Breaks, which has also resurfaced on Signed D.C. For completists, however, the best source for their recordings is Washington D.C. Garage Band's Greats, which features a previously unreleased alternate version of That's The Breaks, the original releases of Target Love and Its A Monster and four previously unreleased, if interior, live recordings:- Little Latin Lupe Lu; Good Lovin-, Time What Let Me and Green Onions. They might have got more recognition if they'd signed for a major label, but they were turned down by MGM and are best remembered now for their two 45s.

Prior to their 1st 45 the band recorded a demo EP at Edgewood Recording Studios in Washington, DC - the prize for winning a local battle of the bands. Two covers - the Beach Boys' Dance Dance Dance and the Videl's Mr.Lonely - were joined by debut versions of That's The Breaks and the instrumental Country Boy.

(Max Waller/Bob Embrey -DC Monuments #7)

Apollo's Apaches

TOP

Personnel incl:

MALLOW	A
MALLOW	A
O'CONNOR	A

45s:

1	Cry Me A Lie / Why Tolerate	(Anybody's 6088)	Feb 1966
2	Boss - Be Good To Me / Cry Me A Lie	(Barra-Donna 29)	1967
3	Now That You've Gone / Why I	(Barra-Donna RJM/DJM)	1968

NB: (3) as The Beautiful Apollo. They also recorded a 4th 45 on Barra-Donna in 1968.

A Garfield Ridge, Chicago band whose first two 45s are well worth investigating. Two further 45s were released on Barra-Donna, one as The Beautiful Apollo. This marked a departure to a harmony-pop style - Now... is catchy and midtempo, Why I is more frantic and reminiscent of the Isley's Shout.

Compilation appearances have included:- Cry Me A Lie on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 4 and Teenage Shutdown Vol. 15 - She's A Pest; Why Tolerate on Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 8; Boss - Be Good To Me and is on Let's Dig 'Em Up Vol. 3; and Be Good To Me on the Yeah Yeah Yeah CD. The latter was recorded at the debut 45 sessions but not released at the time as a reworked version appeared on their next release.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

The Apostles

Personnel:

- CRAIG BETCHER drms, vcls A B C D E F
- JIM LaBRESH gtr A B C D E F
- RICH SMITH ld gtr A B C D E F
- LARRY WEAVER bs A B
- JEFF LYMAN bs C D E F
- GEORGE DOSE organ D
- TY TRUEX keyb'ds E
- TIM TUPPER organ E F
- STAN RUD gtr F

45:

1. Help Me Find A Way/Unchain My Heart (Welhaven 125935) 1967

Also known as Thee Apostles, this outfit from Rochester, Minnesota, underwent several line-up changes. In mid-1966 they won a local Battle Of The Bands competition at Olmsted County Fair and with it a recording contract with Welhaven Records. After scraping their first effort, a cover of Marsha And The Vandellas Heat Wave and an original composition, Naughty Girl, because they didn't think they were good enough, they returned to the studio in late 1966 to record the above 45. The 'A' side was a classic garage effort with pounding drums, strong lead guitar and raw lead vocals. The flip was a soulful rendition of the Ray Charles hit, which was also covered by many other garage bands e.g. Starfires, Undertakers. The 45 has become rare and sought-after.

In the Spring of 1967 the band turned psychedelic, touring the Midwest quite extensively as a psychedelic roadshow and changing name to Stormy Monday. Under this name they continued with various line-ups until 1973.

(Max Waller)

The Apostles

ALBUMS:

1. ON CRUSADE ('No Label') 1964
2. AN HOUR OF PRAYER WITH ('No Label') 1965

NB: (1) and (2) were pressed by Ace Recording.

This was a prep/punk group from Philips Academy, Massachusetts, who recorded two albums. A cover of The Kinks' You Really Got Me, from their second LP, later resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 7. The albums probably have a value of $150+. (Max Waller)

The Apostles

45:

1	I'm A Lucky Guy/Tomorrow	(WGW 18702)	Jan. 1967

From South Plainfield, New Jersey this was their sole release. I'm A Lucky Guy later resurfaced on Open Up Yer Door Vol. 2.

(Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

The Apostles

45:

1	Tired Of Waiting / Stranded In The Jungle	(A2 401)	1967

A Kinks cover and a fuzzy frat-garage number with a novelty vibe is the sole 45 left by these Apostles. The A-Squared label from Ann Arbor, Michigan was run by Jeep Holland and put out some cool 45s by The Rationals, MC5, SRC and Thyme.

Stranded... has been re-aired on Basementsville! U.S.A..

(Max Waller)

Appaloosa

Personnel incl:

ROBIN BATTEAU	violin, vcls	A
JOHN CROMPTON		A
DAVID REISER		A
GENO ROSOU		A
(AL KOOPER	keyb'ds	A)

ALBUM:

1	APPALOOSA	(CBS CS 9819)	1969

A forgotten baroque rock group, with the support of Al Kooper. Robin Batteau became a session man and also recorded some solo albums.

Apache - Arrogance

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Apparition

45:

1. Apparition/Astral Spirit (Nebula NBS 1 / 10971) 1974

This terrific 45 couples the mid-tempo organ dominated Apparition with Astral spirit, a suitably slo-motion piece, with plenty of cosmic atmospherics and pretty stupid lyrics. Altogther very dark and very DIY. Both songs credit Scott Campbell and Arthur Sokoluk, and the single was produced by Campbell. Although issued in 1974, there is a lyric sheet (featuring nice silhouetted graveyard) which identifies the publishing date as 1971.

Anyone have any more info?

(Steve Panter)

Apperson Jackrabbit

45:

1. That's Why/Shadows Falling (Calmis 45-001) 1967

Way cool and understated garage-punkers - the top side features nifty pickin' and reeks of ATTITUDE. The uptempo flip is unusual for the inclusion of piano but makes up latterly with some tasty guitar runs. Who were these guys, apparently from somewhere in California? possibly Simi Valley?

(Max Waller)

The Apple Corps

45:

1. You'll Never Know/Don't Leave Me (Subtown ST-601/2) Feb. 1969

A dire ballad backed by a tasty garage-punker from Old Saybrook, Connecticut.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Apple-Glass Cyndrom

Personnel:

- BILL AGUIRRI vcls A

- JOHNNY MULHAIR keyb'ds A
- SCOTT REBTOY bs A
- DALE SILLS drums A
- JON WILLIAMS ld gtr A

45:

1. (A) Someday/Going Wrong (Column 691) 1969

NB: (1) reissued by Sundazed (S 134) on gold wax and with a picture sleeve.

From Clovis, New Mexico. The 'A' side is in the Pink Floyd vein while the 'B' side is more poppier. Both tracks have also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 15 and you can also find Someday on the Psychedelic Experience CD. (Max Waller)

The Applepie Motherhood Band

Personnel:

- RICHARD BARNABY bs, vcls A B
- JACK BRUNO drm, vcls AB
- JOE CASTAGNO gtr, vcls A
- TED DEMOS gtr, vcls A B
- JEF LABES keyb'ds, vcls A B
- ADAM MYERS hrmnca, vcls B
- BRUCE PAINE vcls B
- MICHAEL SORAFINE gtr, vcls B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) APPLE PIE MOTHERHOOD BAND (Atlantic 8189) 1968
2. (B) APPLE PIE (Atlantic 8233) 1969

45:

1. Long Live Apple Pie/Flight Path (Atlantic 2477) 1968

From Boston, this act evolved out of a garage band called C.C. And The Chasers. Richard Barnaby recalls: "As C.C. and the Chasers, we were a garage band. Jack was only thirteen at the time and we rehearsed in the basement of a friend, Tom Harrington in Arlington Mass, since none of our parents would have it! We covered The Byrds, and had a few originals, and when psychedelics hit, they hit us as well. We moved from Boston and lived in Greenwich Village from 1965-1969 and were the house band at the Bitter End Cafe. There we backed up a number of the groups of the day including First Edition (with Kenny Rogers), Neil Diamond, Linda Rondstadt and The Stone Ponys, Jerry Jef Walker, Joni Mitchell, etc. Having signed to Atlantic we moved into the psychedelic venues such as Electric Circus, Cafe Au Go Go, and The Ark. With our second album we lived and played in Vermont, and toured the East Coast, and Mid West from Toronto to Miami. We also toured both as a "B" group (supporting other groups like Chambers Brothers, Mamas and Papas, Jefferson Airplane, Butterfield Blues Band) and in our own right."

A good rock outfit whose albums deserve CD reissue. You can check out two of their cuts, Born Under A Bad Sign and Gypsy on Bosstown Sound - 1968: The Music And The Time.

The band were also known as The Sacred Mushroom for a while, when they first relocated to New York, but adopted the Applepie Motherhood Band monicker after a sarcastic retort stuck. Richard: "Our manager, Marvin Laganoff got us a record deal with Atlantic, but they didn't like the Sacred Mushroom name because it was "too druggy". I remember Ted Demos (lead guitar) saying "Well how about the 'Applepie Motherhood Band' then" in total sarcasm, and it just stuck... all you had to do was look at us to know it was a joke."

After the band split up, Jef Labes went on to the Caldwell-Winfield Blues Band, Van Morrison, Bonnie Raitt, Jesse Colin Young, and is now teaching music in elementary school in Marin County, California, which he describes as "...the most rewarding work I've ever done". He's also writing satirical musicals including "Di Di Diana", a satire exploring "Who killed Diana?"; Jack Bruno played with Second Coming a Jacksonville Florida act and contempories of Allman Bros Band; Shakey Legs Blues Band; before becoming Tina Turner's drummer for the past fifteen years. He still plays with Turner and is expecting to tour with her in 2000. Jack Bruno also joined Elton John earlier this year and is thought to be recording with him. Bruce Paine went on to the lead role as "Claude" in the San Francisco based musical "Hair" for several years, whilst Michael Sorafine also took the second male lead in the same production; Ted Demos went onto become one of L.A.'s finest Art directors and set designers for film, T.V. and commercials and both he and Bruce Paine still perform together from time to time.

Bruce Paine has a website at: http://www.jps.net/bpaine

Appletree Theatre

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN BOYLAN A
- TERRY BOYLAN A
- (LARRY CORYELL gtr A)
- (HERB LOVELLE vcls A)
- (CHUCK RAINEY bs A)
- (ERIC GALE gtr A)

ALBUM:

1. (A) PLAYBACK (Verve Forecast 3042) 1968

NB: (1) also issued in the U.K. (Polydor 2353.051).

45s:

1. HightowerSquare/Who Do You Think I Am (Verve Forecast KF 5071) 1967
2. Lotus Flower/What A Way To Go (Verve Forecast KF 5082) 1968

Supported by various session musicians, the Boylan brothers made the above-mentioned concept album which is strongly recommended. It was an album of considerable contrast, interest and imagination. After this project, which was a little ahead of it's time, Terry later made three solo albums in 1969, 1977 and 1980 and John went into management and later became a producer, with Linda Ronstadt and Russ Giguere (who covered his Brother Speed) among his credits.

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Apolloes

45s:

1	Hey / Laugh In My Face	(Apolloe No #)	1965
2	Summertime Blues / Gone	(Soupa 001)	May 1966
3	Summertime Blues / Slow Down	(Look 001)	1966/7
4	Summertime Blues / Slow Down	(White Cliffs 262)	1966/7
5	Chained And Bound / ?	(SAC 1001-1/2)	1967

NB: (4) and (5) as The Swingin' Apolloes. (5) may have been issued as a one-sided 45 only.

A mystery outfit from Atlanta, Georgia who went under the name of The Swingin' Apolloes on their later 45s. Laugh In My Face was written by Wayne White, leader of local heroes The Famen (of Crackin' Up fame). It's a dynamic Searchers inspired folk-punker punctuated with guitar and keyboard flourishes over slick drum rolls. Hey is a solid thumper, composed by Jim Youmans. He also produced Chained And Bound - composed by Chester, Lane and Freeman. Clues aplenty but no confirmation of band personnel yet.

Chained And Bound is a dreamy psych gem: bitter-sweet vocals glide over a shifting swirl of echoing and backward guitars, Too-Much-To-Dream bassline and sympathetic cymbals. Lovelorn lyrics, with unsettling depressive imagery, enhance its fragile charm. Experience it on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3 which also features both sides of their debut.

(Max Waller/Roger Maglio)

Arbuckle

ALBUM:

1	ARBUCKLE	(Musicor MS 3???)	c1971

A hippy rock group with smooth harmonies.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Arch Of Triumph

Personnel:

T. ARENA	A
J. McMAINS	A
S. McMAINS	A
W. SHELLER	A

ALBUM:

1	title unknown	(Date)	1970

45s:

1	My Year Is A Day / She And I	(Date 2-1618)	1968
2	Sunshine And You / Lands Of Shadow	(Date 2-1634)	1969

NB: (1) and (2) also released in the UK on CBS 3330 and 3600 respectively, but as by "The Beloved Ones".

This Los Angeles band relocated to France in the mid-60s where they met with some success as Les Irresistibles, releasing several 45s and an LP. On their return to the US they adopted a new monicker with a distinctly French connection - Arch Of Triumph (as in L'Arc De Triomphe) but were concurrently known as the Beloved Ones, under which banner their 45s were released in the UK.

Both 45s deliver orchestrated flower-pop with a melodramatic flair and harmonious vocals. Pick of the crop is the enchantingly wistful Lands Of Shadow which graces the Justavibration and Psychedelic Voyage Vol. 2 comps (credited to 'Beloved Ones'). My Year Is A Day can be found on the worthy pop-psych comp Collecting Peppermint Clouds, which must be given credit for unravelling the band's different identities and history. The compiler also mentions that they released a 1970 LP on Date in the US, whose details remain elusive.

(Max Waller)

The Argyles

TOP

Personnel:

- STEVE ANDERSON A
- LOUIS CABAZA keyb'ds, bs A
- CHRIS HOLZHAUS gtr A
- STEVE PERRON vcls A
- BENNY TREIBER A
- ANDY ZSUCH drms

45s:

1. White Lightnin'/Farmer John (Pic One 136) 1966
2. Still In Love With You Baby/Turn On Your Love Light (Jox 055) 1966

An historically interesting mid-'60s band which formed in 1961 and operated out of San Antonio. The Argyles later became The Mind's Eye and The Children. Promotional copies of their second 45 appeared on red vinyl, whilst their debut is wild'n'raucous waxing offering a different slant on Farmer John with one word changed - "I'm in love with your MOTHER"! An ode to the brewing of moonshine, White Lightnin' is a catchy fuzz-rocker with a novelty flavour.

Chris Holzhaus has a website at: http://www.chrisholzhaus.com/

(Max Waller/Andrew Brown)

Ariel

45:

1. I Love You / It Feels Like I'm Crying (Brent 7060) 1966

A San Francisco outfit, supposedly ex-Banshees of They Prefer Blondes fame. Adopting Beau Brummels-style vocals, the top side is a soft pop-ballad, but it's the upbeat garage-pop on the flip that's the choice cut. (Max Waller)

Ark

45:

1. Poverty Train/Daily Reminder (MGM K 13789) 1967

A stunningly powerful 45 from a North Californian outfit. Both sides have appeared on Incredible Sound Show Stories, Vol. 8 (aka Professor Pott's Pornographic Projector), where Daily Reminder is compared favourably to Clear Light - baroque touches, vocals effects, time changes and a superb guitar break - an unsung nugget. Poverty Train is no slouch either, a slow burner with Animals influences and tour-de-force vocals. A stunningly powerful 45 from an outfit whose origins remain unconfirmed.

(Max Waller)

The Arkay IV

ALBUM:

1. FOR INTERNAL USE ONLY (Marion 22595) 1968

NB: Reissued as The Mod Sound Of The Arkay IV (Cicadelic CICLP 1003) 1988 and on CD with The Outcasts Meet The Outcasts album as Battle Of The Bands (Collectables COL-CD-0519).

45s:

1. Surprise Love/Another Way (Marion 17811/2) 1966
2. Down From #9/When I Was Younger (Marion 18805/6) 1967
3. Demotion/I'll Keep On Trying (Marion 21667/8) 1968

From Erie, Pennsylvania, they issued three 45s and an album (Marion 22595) between 1966-68. Their album has been reissued as The Mod Sounds Of... by Cicadelic (CICLP 1003) 1988, and also on CD by Collectables as Battle Of The Bands. This CD combines The Arkay IV's album and The Outcasts Meet The Outcasts! It contains 26 tracks including previously unreleased demos. The band reformed in the 80s and released a 45 Feelin' Good Tonight / Every Morning (American Artists A 4857) 1985. There's also a CD available entitled When We Was Younger.

Armageddon

Personnel:

- MARK CREAMER gtr, vcls A
- ROBERT LEDGER bs A
- JAMES PARKER gtr, vcls A
- JOHN STARK drms, vcls A
- SKIP BATTYN bs

ALBUM:

1. ARMAGEDDON (Amos AAS 7008) 1969

A Los Angeles band, although Mark Creamer, Jim Parker and John Stark were earlier members of the Texan Kitchen Cinq. They did not release any 45s on this label but the album is now a very minor collectable. They sound influenced by Cream on a couple of tracks and also covered Tales Of Brave Ulysses. The album, which was produced by Tom Thacker, also contains a weird cover of The Magic Song (Bibbidi Bobbidi Boo), from Disney's "Cinderella".

Robert Ledger went on to play in Simon Stokes' Nighthawks, whilst James Parker and John Stark also played on Them's U.S.-only album In Reality. Marc Creamer played for his wife (Laura Creamer)'s band, Eve, on their Take It And Smile album, (LHI 3100) 1970 (also produced by Tom Thacker and featuring Ry Cooder, James Burton, Hal Blaine and Sneaky Pete). Finally, Skip Battyn played in The Evergreen Blueshoes and would later join The Byrds.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Arnold Bean

Personnel:

GARY BURNETTE	A
TODD CHRISTIANSON	A
MIKE GUTHERIE	A
HERB GUTHERIE	A

ALBUM:

1	COSMIC BEAN	(SSS International SSS-21)	1970

45:

1	SPECIAL BONUS SINGLE! (PS)	(SSS International AAA-PB-1)	1971

NB: (1), on blue wax, is a label sampler of LP tracks by Arnold Bean (selected cut is Fortune And Fame), Benninghof and H.Y.Sledge.

Arnold Bean formed in Germany in 1964 then pulled up roots in the late '60s - relocating to Columbus, Georgia. Their instrumentation is listed as "a homemade drum set, two homemade guitars, rebuilt amps, and a church organ".

Their album is housed in a nice "cosmic" sleeve and was issued on SSS, one of the numerous short-lived labels created by Shelby S.Singleton (also in charge of Amazon, Double Bayou, Plantation). The music is supposed to be a mix of psych, prog and pop but has failed so far to attract the attention of collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

The Arondies

Personnel:

JIM PAVLACK	gtr, vcls	A
GARY PITTMAN	bs, vcls	A
BILL SCULLY	drms, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	INTRODUCING ... THE ARONDIES	(Get Hip GHAS-5069)	1999

NB: (1) also issued on CD.

45s:

1	69 / All My Love	(Sherry 198/199)	June 1965
2	One Dead Chicken/Keep On Going	(Astra 1005)	1966/67
3	Class Of '69 / All My Love	(Sherry 198/199)	1969
4	Class Of '69 / All My Love	(Astro 1014)	1969

NB: (3) and (4) are a reissue of (1). (3) coloured vinyl.

A Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania band. 69 is a very simplistic and largely instrumental song, which was later reissued in 1969, when someone figured they could make some money by re-dedicating it to the class of '69. More recently the track can be heard on Burghers, Vol. 1, and Get Hip's retrospective album collects the first two 45s and nine unreleased tracks from masters and acetates, all recorded in 1964 and 1965. A healthy mix of instrumentals, garage ballads, folk-rockers and proto-punkers are on offer that stand up well against local rivals the (pre-Swamp Rats) Fantastic Dee-Jays. Vinyl fans will also be interested in a 7" reissue of 69 with a previously unreleased cut El Rondie on the flip, (Get Hip GHAS 69) 1998.

After The Arondies split, Bill Scully went on to play in a group with Herb Marshall (ex-Splendors/Isley Brothers), whilst Jim Pavlack and Gary Pittman headed for Detroit and session work for Motown and Stax. Pavlack and Pittman recruited drummer Jack O'Neill from The Oncomers, and played with Billy Sharay as Soul Congress, with whom they had a nationwide hit with Do It in 1971.

(Max Waller / Bill Scully Jnr)

Arrangement

45s:

1. You / Mr. Tripper (Scepter 12229) 1968
2. The Child Of The Times / River Road (Scepter 12258) 1969

3. We've Got A World To Build / Chautauqua (Scepter 12289) 1970

Dreamy harmony pop with occasional psychy FX for flower-pop fans. On their first 45 You is an Association-like ballad, whilst Mr.Tripper is upbeat midtempo pop nearer to the Turtles. Another apparently different Arrangement from Jackson Michigan put out a 'soul-garage 45 Midnight Trip / Mean ... on Small Town (103) circa 1970. (Max Waller)

Arrogance

Personnel incl:

- DON DIXON

45:

1. An Estimation/Black Death (Crescent City CCSS 1091) 1969

From Greensboro, this lot went on to become one of Central North Carolina's most prolific bands in the 1970s. Black Death tended towards hard rock - a sign of the times in 1969 - but it had great vocals. You'll find it on Tobacco-A-Go-Go, Vol. 1. Don Dixon went on to become a nationally known producer, playing a part in the 'Athens scene' producing both R.E.M. and Mitch Easter's Let's Active. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Arrogants to Astronauts

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Arrogants
- Ars Nova
- Art Collection
- Arthur (Arthur Lee Harper)
- Art of Lovin'
- David Arvedon
- A Small World
- The Ascendors
- The Ascots
- The Ashes
- Jan Ashton
- Associated Soul Group
- The Association
- The Assortment
- The Astral Projection
- Astral Projection
- Astronauts

The Arrogants

45:

1. Golden Stairs / Look For Tomorrow (Living Legend LL-101/2) January 1965

A very obscure 45 from Hollywood, Ca. which features a sultry and simple Beatlesque ballad. The midtempo flip is the stronger with its ringing and reverbed guitars more in a Searchers/Beau Brummels vein, and both exude a tentative charm. Any impact is more in its historical significance as the first release on Kim Fowley's modestly named Living Legend label and as the vehicle for two songs by budding writers Michael Lloyd and James Greenspoon. Lloyd arranged this and Fowley produced - was this their first recorded collaboration? Michael Lloyd would of course go on to achieve cult and legendary status as the whizz-kid behind the West Coast Pop Art Experimental Band and as a writer, arranger and producer (often in cahoots with Fowley) of so much more that is documented through-out this archive - e.g. A.B.Skhy, American Revolution, Fire Escape, Grains Of Sand, Laughing Wind, Rubber Band, St. John Green, and The Smoke (on Capitol/Sidewalk). He also worked in partnership with Mike Curb and went on to become the youthful vice-president of MGM records. He continues to produce and command considerable respect to this day. The recent retrospective on the early days of WCPAEB (Volume One on Sundazed) features an interview with Michael that mentions the period but not this group - apparently he was also playing with a band called the Rogues around the time which featured Shaun and Danny Harris prior to the formation of WCPAEB.

So, we have to ask, who actually were The Arrogants?

(Max Waller)

Ars Nova

TOP

Personnel:

- MAURY BAKER perc, keyb'ds A
- WYATT DAY gtr, keyb'ds, vcls AB
- BILL FOLWELL trumpet, bs A
- GIOVANNI PAPALIA gtr A
- JON PIERSON trombone, vcls AB
- JONATHAN RASKIN bs, gtr, vcls A
- WARREN BERNHARDT keyb'ds B
- JOE HUNT drms B
- ART KOENIG bs B
- JIMMY OWENS trumpet B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) ARS NOVA (Elektra EKS-74020) 1968
2. (B) SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS (Atlantic SD 8221) 1969

NB: (2) has been reissued on CD by Repertoire (REP 4377-WY) 1993.

45s:

1. Fields Of People/March Of The Mad Duke's Circus (Elektra 45631) 1967
2. Pavane For My Lady/Zarathustra (Elektra ?) 1968
3. Sunshine And Shadows/Walk On The Sand (Atlantic 2625) 1969

In a sometimes almost desperate search to elevate the standard of rock, many groups shared the desire to marry their music with classical compositions. Ars Nova succeed better than most in making a convincing attempt, since their brand of cross-over incorporates not only baroque instrumentation in a psychedelic environment, but also baroque composition techniques as fugas, chorales and pavanes, often scored for brass and guitar. On their first album, produced by Paul Rothschild and Arthur Gorson, they also write lovely tunes and the whole album does, surprisingly enough, not become as pretentious as it could have been, the name of the band notwithstanding. Two of the tracks even get covered (Fields Of People by The Move and I Wrapped Her ln Ribbons by Galliard, both U.K. bands!). Other highlights include March Of The Mad Duke's Circus, with vaguely renaissance-like harmonies and General Clover Ends A War, a bitter and driven satire on military affairs. Most tracks were penned by Wyatt Day, sometimes helped by Jon Pierson. Greg Copeland, a young songwriter also working with Steve Noonan and Jackson Browne, wrote the lyrics of four songs.

The formation changed after the first album and among the departing members, Maury Baker went on to play on Tim Buckley's Starsailor, Janis Joplin's Kosmic Blues and Augie Meyer's Head Music albums. Bill Folwell guested on the second Insect Trust album and Jonathan Raskin appeared on Tom Rush's Circle Game.

Their second effort in a completely revised line-up still finds them in good form regarding the playing, but they seemed to have lost their interest in the subtle art of their first. Some unusual harmonies are still to be found, but nevertheless more in a conventional rock frame.

After Ars Nova, Jon Pierson became a studio musician and played with Lou Reed.

Snap up the first LP when you come across it. March Of The Mad Duke's Circus was later included in the Elektrock The Sixties compilation.

(Marcel Koopman / Stephane Rebeschini)

Art Collection

TOP

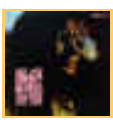
Personnel incl:
RAY COLUMBUS vcls A

EP:

1	RAY COLUMBUS & THE ART COLLECTION	(Distortions DR 1016)	1994

NB: (1) contains four tracks from 1967 including Kick Me.

45s:



1	She's A Mod / The Cruel Sea	(Philips 40251)	1965
2	Kick Me / She's A Mod	(Colstar 1001)	Jan. 1967
3	We Want A Beat / I Need You	(Colstar 1002)	Jul. 1967
4	I Would Rather Blow A Bagpipe / In The Morning Of Today	(Colstar 1003)	Oct. 1967
5	Till We Kissed / Tonight Is The Time (PS)	(Colstar 1004)	1968
6	I Go To School/Morning	(Sundazed S 119)	1996

NB: (1) as Ray Columbus and The Invaders. (2) as Ray Columbus and The Art Collection.

This transcendent San Mateo, California, combo uncannily clones that heart-stopping Who's Sell Out sound. The band was led by vocalist Ray Columbus (Invaders) who later formed Powder. Columbus was originally from New Zealand.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Arthur (Arthur Lee Harper)

TOP

ALBUMS:

1	DREAMS AND IMAGES	(LHI 12,000)	1968
2	LOVE IS THE REVOLUTION	(Nocturne NRS-905)	1969 R3

NB: (2) released as by Arthur Lee Harper with Second Coming. (2) reissued in 1998 (Synton T 9806).

The first album, recorded in Nov 1967, is a soft wistful folk LP by a Californian solo folkie, Arthur Lee Harper. Imaginative dealers may call this 'dreamlike psych' but they're only dreaming of how much they can boost its price! He did not release any 45s for Lee Hazelwood's label, but later released a privately pressed album under his real name. This is reputedly better and rockier.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

Art of Lovin

TOP

Personnel:

- PAUL APPLEBAUM ld gtr A
- JOHNNY LANK bs A
- BARRY TATELMAN sax A
- GAIL WINNICK vcls A
- SANDY WINSLOW perc A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ART OF LOVIN' (Mainstream S/6113) 1968

NB: (1) reissued on CD 1997.

45:

1. You've Got The Power/Good Times (Mainstream 687) 1968

A Massachussefts outfit whose album is full of interesting and quite imaginative pop/folk-rock, obscure enough to have been reissued. Apart from a cover of Tim Hardin's Hang On To A Dream, all the songs were penned by Paul Applebaum. It's certainly worth hearing.

David Arvedon

TOP

ALBUM:

1. IN SEARCH OF THE MOST UNFORGETTABLE TREE WE EVER MET (1969-1974) (Arf! Arf! AA-053/4) 1995

Take David Arvedon, a bona fide sixties New England legend, add seasoned studio cats, and inflict a severe case of lyrical weirdness, aardvarks, and quality songwriting in the league of Lucia Pamela and The Shaggs. The double CD compilation, which includes his limited edition LP, 8-track, both 45s and extra unreleased material is about as contorted and convoluted as homegrown music gets. David Arvedon was with Psycho's Psychopaths aka the Psychopaths in the 60s..

You can also find a previously unreleased cut Buckets Of Water on the strange Only In America CD comp.

A Small World

45s:

1. Wheel Of Fortune / Joni Joni (Pacific Challenger 140) c1968
2. I See You / The Life You Lead (Mira 250) 1968

Los Angeles area releases by an unknown outfit , whose Wheel Of Fortune is appealing midtempo melodic garagey-pop with some fuzz buried low in the mix, Turtles' style 'ba-ba-baaa's, but with upfront brassy outbursts. Joni is much better - a galloping fuzz-popper without the brass. It's not certain that the Mira 45 is by the same group. (Max Waller)

The Ascendors

45:

1. I Won't Be Home/? (Lee) 1966

From the Hornell, New York area. The 'A' side has resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8 and the track was also covered in 1997 by the Others (a nouveau Italian garage-psych band) on their 10" So Far Out under the title Won't Be Home. (Max Waller)

The Ascots

45:

1	Who Will It Be? / So Good	(Frat no #)	May 1966

This band came from Pontiac, Michigan, where they were a frequent live attraction in local teen clubs between 1964 and August 1966 when their lead guitarist and drummer quit for college. So Good is a raw recording with rockabilly-style guitar, but the label name says it all.

Compilation coverage has included:- So Good on Back From The Grave, Vol. 6, Straight From The Garage Punk Classics (EP), Vol2, Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 CD; Who Will It Be? on Teenage Shutdown Vol. 8.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

The Ashes

Personnel:

- AL BRACKETT bs A
- JOHN MERRILL gtrs A
- PAT TAYLOR vcls A
- JIM VORGHT drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE ASHES (Vault 125) 1966

45s:

1. Is There Anything I Can Do?/Every Little Prayer (Vault 924) 1966
2. Dark On You Now/Roses Gone (Vault 936) 1967
3. Homeward Bound/Sleeping Serenade (Vault 973) 1971

The above line-up is that featured on the album. This Los Angeles band's original drummer was, of course, Spencer Dryden, before he joined Jefferson Airplane. The remaining members, aside from Taylor, later teamed up with Bill Wolff, Lance Feat and Sandi Robinson to become The Peanut Butter Conspiracy.

The Ashes also have four tracks (both sides of their first two singles) on the 1967 Vault compilation, West Coast Love In. Every Little Prayer, Is There Anything I Can Do?, Dark On You Now and Roses Gone are all characterised by the distinctive melodies that typified so many mid-sixties English bands like The Fortunes. They feature Sandi Robinson rather than Pat Taylor on vocals. Their album is well worth a spin. A very hippyish sixties album with nice lead vocals.

Jan Ashton

TOP

One time vocalist-drummer with The Vejtables (she sang lead on their local hit I Still Love You and their cover of Tom Paxton's Last Thing On My Mind), she recorded an electro-folk track Cold Dreary Morning, which was a good platform for her vocal talents but remained unreleased until its inclusion on Nuggets, Vol. 7, after leaving The Vejtables and prior to joining The Mojo Men.

Both unreleased 1967 tracks Cold Dreary Morning and About My Tears have been re-aired on the CD comp Someone To Love, part of Alec Palao and Big Beat's utterly essential Nuggets From The Golden State series.

Associated Soul Group

TOP

Personnel:

- Heaven knows, do you?

ALBUM:

1. TOP HITS OF TODAY (CONTESSA CON 15012) 1968

This LP is one of the more celebrated and rated examples of a subgenre which tends to go under the banner of 'exploito', which has gained interest and become more collectable in the last few years. Whilst covering many styles of music and moving into 'exotica' territory, we're only concerned here with trying to unravel those that exploited the psychedelic, garage or flower-power genres.

What is 'exploitio' - briefly it's the cash-in on the latest musical wave at minimal cost. Both the music and artists are exploited by covering or reworking (and often retitling) current hits in the latest styles. Songwriting and artist credits or identity rarely appear because the artist was just a bunch of session musicians. Occasionally a real group would be hired on the cheap who couldn't (and at the time wouldn't have wanted to) reveal their true identity (not unlike Elton John's early career as a hired hand on all those U.K. 'Top Of The Pops' LPs). The music is frequently reused and recycled appearing on different LPs, labels, with new arrangements and often a new title. Mike Curb of Sidewalk was already having great success in recycling music and groups - his 'house-band' were Davie Allan & The Arrows who went under many assumed names. This was very effective in cutting down on studio and artist costs, to provide cheap music for the masses and still make big bucks.

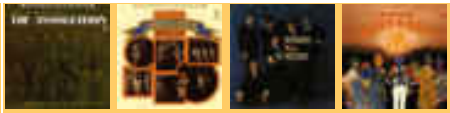
THE LABELS: generally found on budget labels like Contessa, Crown, Alshire, Wing, Wyncote, Custom, Design (equivalents in the U.K. would include Music For Pleasure, Starline and Marble Arch, and Europa on the continent).

SLEEVES/ARTWORK: It's with psych that most tried to cash in. Sleeve designs tend to be in two camps: splashes and swirls of colour in paisley or oil-slide style accompanied by San Francisco poster-sytle lettering, or a semi-clad leggy chick surrounded by records (as in this case). Even the LP artwork got recycled too - in the case of this LP the same design was used on a Firebirds LP.

MUSIC: The music ranges from totally naff to quite awesome: fuzz-psych extravaganzas, covering Hendrix or just trying to sound like him; fuzzy jazz-lounge instrumentals or instrumental reworkings (and renames) of recent hits; awful MOR pop or loungey ballad muzak. Unfortunately these extremes can be experienced on just one platter making the notion that it was one 'artist' unrealistic. Very few of these LPs don't have at least a couple of barfers.

FAKE GROUPS: This is where confusion really starts - Some LPs give the impression that it's a bona-fide group via a pic or sleeve notes but the same music may turn up elswhere under a different artist name and sometimes track name, e.g. Animated Egg. Also rumoured to be a bogus group is the Purple Fox - Tribute To Jimi Hendrix LP.

NON-GROUPS: Most of these are session musicians but even then one LP will not be by one group of sessioneers - given the reappearance of the same tracks on other LPs and the different syles and sounds - the name is most likely just a convenient and colourful handle for a collection of material. Examples: Associated Soul Group, Projection Company, Rasput & Sepoy Mutiny, T. Swift & The Electric Bag, Underground. Most of these 'names' had just the one release - one exception is the conglomeration known as 101 Strings.



BONA-FIDE GROUPS: the Firebirds (later Electric Firebirds and 31st Flavor) are thought to have been a genuine gorup. Another example is the Chimps, who recorded the rather good Monkey Business LP on Wyncote (2 Monkees covers and some good garage sounds) - they would later be known as the (Thomas A.) Edison Electric Band.

These LPs throw other outfits into question - the Projection Company LP features three covers of Id Inner Sounds LP tracks - Wild Times, Don't Think Twice and Boil The Kettle. The first 2 turn up on the Associated Soul Group LP and are exactly the same tracks. Whilst not the same as on the Id's LP, they sound close enough to question whether the bunch who recorded as the Id were behind some of the material on these two LPs.

So , what about the Associated Soul Group LP itslef? In the main it's above-par: five tracks recycled on the Projection Company LP; covers include a great version of Are You Experienced (T.Swift & The Electric Bag do this too), an awful Up Up And Away (5th Dimension), Macarthur Park (Jim Webb/Richard Harris) and two Simon & Garfunkel numbers with rehashed (i.e. misheard) lyrics - Sound Of Silence and Scarborough Fair. Other tracks sound remarkably like the Animated Egg to add to the confusion.

Any further information or unravelling of this tangled skein will be most welcome!! (Max very Myndblown)

The Association

Not a garage or psychedelic band as such, this Los Angeles band largely falls outside the remit of this book. If you were one of the lucky people who purchased 'An American Rock History: Vol. 1 - California, The Golden State' you can read all about them in there. They did, however, manage one foray into psychedelia, a rather strange record Pandora's Golden Heebie Geebies, named after Pandora's Box, the infamous Sunset Strip nightclub. You'll find it on Nuggets, Vol. 5.

The Assortment

45:

1. First I Look At The Purse/Bless Our Hippy Home (Sound Spot 2224) 1967

This lot hailed from the Lansing area, around Central Southern Michigan. The 'A' side is a pretty good cover of a Contours song, the flip's rather an unusual Farfisa-laden song with classic lyrics and effective folk-punk vocals. It's resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 19: Michigan, Part 3.

The Astral Projection

45:

1. Rosa-Lynn/Our Love Is A Rainbow (Maverick 711) Nov. 1970

Sole 45 from a Duncanville, Texas outfit. Despite the vocalist's occasional Elvis pretensions, this mid-tempo garage-ballad has an infectious guitar refrain. Our Love is more rocky but with some solid fuzz. Rosa-Lynn was written by a guy from Carbondale PA, who now says that the 45 was not supposed to be released.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Astral_Projection

Personnel:

JAY BERLINER	class. gtr	A
LOR CRANE	perc	A
AL GORGONI	gtr	A
JOSEPH MACHO Jr.	bs	A
HUGH McCRACKEN	gtr	A
FRANK OWENS	piano	A
BUDDY SALTZMAN	drms	A

ALBUM:

1 THE ASTRAL SCENE (Metromedia ?) 1968

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Gear Fab GF-153) 2000.

A NYC studio project. In addition to the personnel above there's string, horn and woodwind sections - in the former is Harry Lookofsky, father of the Left Banke's Michael Brown (Lookofsky). Al Gorgoni was previously one half of Just Us, with Chip Taylor. Hugh McCracken had fronted his own outfit the Funatics, and became an in-demand session player.

If orchestrated concept hippie-flower-pop is your bag (man), this should appeal. Garageniks, on the other hand, should steer clear.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

Astronauts

Personnel:

- BOB DEMMON gtr, bs A B C D E F
- BRAD LEECH drms A
- STORMY PATTERSON bs A B C
- RICHARD OTIS FIFIELD vcls, gtr B C D E F G
- JIM GALLAGHER drms B C D E
- DICK SELLARS gtr B
- DENNIS LINDSEY gtr C D
- MARK BRETZ gtr E F G
- RON JENKINS drms F
- ROBERT CARL MCLERIAN bs G H
- TONY MURILLO GH
- PETER M. WYANT G H

ALBUMS:

1. (C) SURFIN' WITH THE ASTRONAUTS (RCA Victor LSP-2760)1963
2. (C) ROCKIN' WITH THE ASTRONAUTS (RCA Victor PRM-183 MONO)1964
3. (C) EVERYTHING IS A-OK (RCA Victor LSP-2782)1964
4. (C) COMPETITION COUPE (RCA Victor LSP-2858)1964
5. (C) THE ASTRONAUTS ORBIT KAMPUS (AOK) (RCA Victor LSP-2903)1964
6. (C) GO...GO...GO!!! (RCA Victor LSP-3307)1965
7. (C) FOR YOU FROM US (RCA Victor LSP-3359)1965
8. (C) DOWN THE LINE (RCA Victor LSP-3454)1965
9. (D) TRAVELIN' MEN (RCA Victor LSP-3733)1967

NB: (6) & (7) have been reissued on one CD by Collectables (COL-2709) 1997. (8) & (9) reissued on one CD by Collectables (COL-2710) 1997.

EPs:

1. SURFIN' WITH THE ASTRONAUTS (RCA Victor SPC-1128 MONO) 1963
2. BEAT! ASTRONAUTS! ROCK! (RCA Victor SPC-1203 MONO) 1963
3. WURLITZER DISCOTHEQUE MUSIC (RCA Wurlitzer WLP5-100 MONO) 1964

45s:

1. Come Along Baby / Trying To Get To You (Palladium 610) 1962
2. ?Geneva Twist / Take 17 (Jan Ell 459) 1962
3. ?Blues Beat / Ski Lift (Vanruss 1000) 196?
4. ?Ridge Route / Blast Off (Luney 100) 196?
5. Baja / Kuk (RCA Victor 47-8194) 1963
6. Hot Doggin' / Everyone But Me (RCA Victor 47-8224) 1963
7. Competition Coupe / Surf Party (RCA Victor 47-8298) 1964
8. Go Fight For Her / Swim Little Mermaid (RCA Victor 47-8364) 1964
9. Theme from 'Ride The Wild Surf' / Around & Around (RCA Victor 47-8419) 1964
10. Can't You See I Do / I'm A Fool (RCA Victor 47-8463) 1964
11. Almost Grown / My Sin Is Pride (RCA Victor 47-8499) 1965
12. Tomorrow's Gonna Be Another Day / Razzamatazz (RCA Victor 47-8545) 1965
13. It Doesn't Matter Anymore / The La La La Song (RCA Victor 47-8628) 1965
14. Main Street / In My Car (RCA Victor 47-8885) 1966
15. Better Things / I Know You Rider (RCA Victor 47-9109) 1966
16. Sally Go 'Round The Roses / Pay The Price (RCA Victor 47-9227) 1967

NB: (2), (3) & (4) not confirmed as by this Astronauts. (16) as Sunshine Ward

For garage/psych purists with raised eyebrows at this entry, scoff ye not. Boulder's famous Astronauts may tend to be regarded as just an instrumental or surf group, but this is being grossly unfair, and I've been as guilty as many in that regard until recently. Yes, they did do instrumentals but vocals were predominant in their later material. What's more this talented bunch embraced beat, Invasion, and folk-rock styles to keep pace with the rapidly changing sounds of the times. Interested now? Read on.

Kicking off as the Stormtroopers in 1959 (lineup A) they changed their name to the Astronauts on releasing their first 45. On winning a contract with RCA they spent much of their time based in Los Angeles to record, lap up the surf and sunshine vibes and appear in some surf movies. Baja was a sizable hit and set them fair with RCA - resulting in 9 LPs and a large handful of 45s in just 4 years. When the bubble finally burst and their name and sound seemed to be a fading star at the onset of the psychedelic era, they changed their name to Sunshine Ward in an attempt to revive their fortunes. It didn't work, RCA lost interest and original mainstay Bob Demmon departed. The others tried one last relaunch after more personnel shuffles, firstly as Sunshine Ward and then after one final name change as Hardwater.

Collectables has recently reissued their LPs on 2-for-1 ('twofer') CDs and the pair above might interest readers of this archive. For those into the original vinyl and still to be convinced, try the Travelin' Men LP (includes covers of I Know You Rider, Midnight Hour, and the Beau Brummels' Laugh Laugh) or the more obviously Merseybeat influenced Down The Line LP (the Big O's title track, Down Home Girl, Walking The Dog, Sweet Little Rock And Roller, Memphis Tennessee). The obvious weakness with their last two LPs is that there are no group originals at all, unlike their earlier releases. So, although they may have adapted to playing these styles, writing them was a different proposition. However, it would be unkind to brand them a 'covers band'.

Compilation appearances - on beat/garage/psych comps - are restricted to their rare debut Come Along Baby on Highs In The Mid Sixties Vol. 18 and Tomorrow's Gonna Be Another Day on Let's Dig 'Em Up Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Asylum Choir to Aztex

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Asylum Choir
- Atlantics
- Atlantis Philharmonic
- Atlee
- Attila
- Attila and The Huns
- Aum
- Aura
- The Aussies
- Autosalvage
- Autumn People
- The Avant Garde
- The Avengers
- The Avengers
- The Avengers
- The Avengers
- Avlons
- A Warm Puppy
- David Axelrod
- Axis Brotherhood
- Hoyt Axton
- Azitis
- Aztecs
- Aztex

The Asylum Choir

TOP

Personnel:

- MARC BENNO vcls, drms A
- LEON RUSSELL vcls, gtr, keyb'ds A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) LOOK INSIDE THE ASYLUM CHOIR (Smash 67107) 1968
2. (A) THE ASYLUM CHOIR II (Shelter 8910) 1971

NB: (1) reissued in 1971 (Smash SRS-67107, group photo cover), (2) also issued in Holland (Philips 6369107) 1971. (2) reissued in 1974 (Shelter 2120), 1976 (Shelter 52010) and 1979 (MCA 684).

45s:

1. Soul Food/Welcome To Hollywood (Smash 2188) 1968
2. Indian Style/Icicle Star Tree (Smash 2204) 1969
3. Straight Brother/Tryin' To Stay Alive (Shelter 7313) 1971

A Los Angeles-based venture, which for Russell and Benno represented a largely unsuccessful journey into psychedelia. After a first single as Le Cirque, their debut album was released. This sold badly, partly because the cover featured a toilet roll, but mainly because the music was quite patchy. A mix of pop, R&B and psyche, with arrangements (especially on the second side). Smash later reissued it with a group cover.

Although the second album was recorded in 1969, Mercury did not release it on their Smash subsidiary and Russell bought the tapes to release it on his own Shelter label two years later. It's bluesier than the debut and contains some good songs (notably an anti Vietnam song Ballad To A Brother).

Russell and Benno's involvement is the main reason why collectors seek out these albums.

Born in 1947 in Dallas, Benno would later play with The Doors (on L.A. Woman), Rita Coolidge and Rick Roberts. He also released three excellent albums on A&M between 1970 and 1972, recorded with Ry Cooder, Jesse Ed Davis and Clarence White. Afterwards he disappeared only to return in 1979 with Lost In Austin (with Eric Clapton). In the '90s, he has recorded two good texas blues albums.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Atlantics

TOP

Personnel incl:

CARMEN	vcls	A
JIMMY	vcls	A

45s:

1	Let Me Call You Sweetheart / Home On The Range	(Rampart 614)	1964
2	Beaver Shot / Fine, Fine, Fine	(Rampart 643)	1965
3	Sloop Dance / Sonny & Cher	(Rampart 647)	1965
4	When I Look Into My Life / ?	(Ramrod)	196?

NB: (4) may be by a different group.

Part of LA's East Side scene, this was a group Mexican Amercians out of El Monte. They have been well compiled: - Beaver Shot (written by Max Uballez of the Romancers/Smoke Rings) and Sloop Dance are on The East Side Sound CD; Beaver Shot and Fine Fine Fine on the Dionysus/Bacchus EP (BA05,1995) alongside Cannibal & The Headhunters and the Aldermen; and Sloop Dance is also on 1969's double-LP comp East Side Revue.

An album Live At The Nite Lite (Hashish) c1970, was probably recorded by a different Atlantics, but has been described as "lounge act with wah wah guitar and a pretty little vocalist with a big voice".

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Atlantis Philharmonic

ALBUM:

1	ATLANTIS PHILHARMONIC	(Dharma)	1974 R1

On the same label as Ken Little, a prog rock album, keyboard driven, with lots of rhythm changes.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Atlee

Personnel:

- DON FRANCISCO drms, vcls
- BRUCE SCHAFFER keyb'ds, vcls
- MICHAEL STEVENS gtr, vcls
- ATLEE YEAGER lead vcl, bs

ALBUM:

1. FLYING AHEAD (ABC Dunhill DS 50084) 1970

45:

1. Rip You Up / Will We get Together (ABC Dunhill D-4254)1970

Produced by Joel Sill, Atlee were a good hard-rock quartet from California. All the tracks on their sole album were penned by Yeager and demonstrate the bands skills and their sense of humor: Jesus People, Dirty Sheets, Dirty Old Man, Let's Make Love are just some highlights of a very consistent album. Still working with Michael Stevens, Atlee Yeager would go on to issue another album on Chelsea in 1973.

Yeager also played bass on Damon's album whilst Stevens and Francisco had previously been in Highway Robbery.

(Max Waller / Clark Faville / Stephane Rebeschini)

Attila

Personnel:

BILLY JOEL	keyb'ds, vcls	A
JON SMALL	drms	A

ALBUM:

1	ATTILA	(Epic BN 30030)	1970 SC

After The Hassles, Billy Joel and Jon Small formed Attila, a keyboards/drums duo a la Lee Michaels. Joel was then playing a distorted Hammond B-3 and the forceful percussions help to create some strange sounds, very very far from Honesty! The record was a total flop but is now beginning to attract the attention of some collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Attila and The Huns

TOP

Personnel incl:

MIKE PEASE	ld gtr	A

45s:

1	Cheryl / The Lonely Huns	(Sara 6511)	1965
2	Hula Shake / Hurry Back	(Magic Touch 2009)	1967
3	Walking In The Vineyards / Here's Where I Get Off	(Magic Touch 2070)	1969
4	The Vineyards Of My Time / Here's Where I Get Off	(Magic Touch 2071)	1969

NB: (3) credited to The Huns Of Time.

Initially based in Thorp, Wisconsin this soulful bunch came together circa 1964. Their poppiest confection, The Vineyards Of My Time, is on Every Groovy Day. A fitting name-change to The Filet Of Soul resulted in an LP on the Monoquid label and several 45s. Another Filet Of Soul on Mercury in the '70s may have precipitated the slight alteration to The Filet Of Sound, which saw them through to the '80s.

(Max Waller/Tom Tourville)

Aum

TOP

Personnel:

- WAYNE CEBALLOS hmnca, vcls, gtr, keyb'ds A
- LARRY MARTIN drms, vcls A
- KEN NEWELL bs, vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BLUESVIBES (Sire 97007) 1969
2. (A) RESURRECTION (Fillmore 30002) 1969

NB: (1) also issued in France (Sire SHK 8401) 1969. (2) was also issued in France (CBS S 63911) 1970.

45s:

1. Bye Bye Baby/Resurrection (Fillmore 7000) 1970
2. Aum/Little Brown Hen (Fillmore 7001) 1970

This San Francisco band, which had its roots in the blues and was as popular 'live' attraction around that city's ballrooms in the late sixties, is a marginal case for inclusion in this book. Most of their material was written by Ceballos. The first album is bluesy with some psychedelic influence. Thd second is very diverse. God Is Back In Town is gospel-inspired, the title track is an R&B number and Today And Tomorrow is in a soft rock vein.

In 1975, Larry Martin would play with Charlie Musselwhite.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Aura

Personnel:

- SAM ALESSI organ, piano, vibes A
- GEORGE BARR trumpet, vcls A
- FRED ENTESARI sax A
- ANDY FOERTSCH trombone A
- DENNIS HORAN drms A
- AL LATHAN vcls, perc A
- JERRY SMITH bs, vcls A
- BILL WAIDNER gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) AURA (Mercury SRMI 620) 1971

A powerful horn-jazz rock outfit from Los Angeles. The stand-out cut on the album is Life Is Free on side two. Chuck Greenberg (flute, sax) and Terry Quaye (congas) also guested on the album.

The Aussies

45:

1. Slippin'And Slidin'/Oo Poo Pah Doo (Take Five 631-9) 196?

An obscure sixties combo from Arizona.

Autosalvage

Personnel:

- SKIP BOONE bs, piano A
- DARIUS DAVENPORT vcls, keyb'ds, drms, gtr, bs, perc. A
- THOMAS DONAHER vcls, gtr A
- RICK TURNER gtr, banjo A

ALBUM:

1. (A) AUTOSALVAGE (RCA Victor LSP 3940) 1968

NB. (1) reissued on vinyl by Edsel in 1988 (ED 286). (1) also reissued on CD.

45:

1. Parahighway/Rampant Generalities (RCA 9506) 1968

. were formed by Donaher and Davenport in 1966. They were reputedly discovered by Frank Zappa during his stay in New York and he took a role in their sole album. The group were obviously competent musicians, but this attempt to merge rock lyrics with avant-garde music was largely a failure. Some tracks had interesting intros, notably Land 0f Their Dreams and the final number The Great Train Robbery were musically interesting.

Skip Boone was the brother of Steve Boone, who played with The Lovin' Spoonful. Davenport also played with Bear, who recorded an album for Verve in 1968, and appeared on Terence Boylan's 1969 solo album. Rick Turner went on to work with Jerry Corbitt and Jeffrey Cain. He later became a well-known guitar builder/repairer (notably for Ry Cooder).

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

Autumn People

TOP

Personnel:

- STEVE BARAZZA drms A
- LARRY CLARK gtr A
- DANNY POFF keyb'ds A
- CLIFF SPIEGEL bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) AUTUMN PEOPLE (Soundtech 3020) 1976

This album by an obscure Arizonan band has generated some interest from collectors. A hippie progressive album it features some weaving organ work and superb guitar leads.

The Avant Garde

TOP

Personnel incl:

- CHUCK WOOLERY

45s:

1. Yellow Beads/Honey And Gall (Columbia 4-44388) Dec. 1967 -
2. Naturally Stoned/Honey And Gall (Columbia 4-44590) Jul. 1968 40
3. Fly With Me/Revelations Revelations (Columbia 4-44701) Dec. 1968 130

This band is best known for Naturally Stoned which hit the Billboard chart at No. 40. and is best described as orchestrated 'psychedelic pop' (the lyrics may be psychedelic but the music is pop) with the backing sounding like a James Bond-type movie theme. It is the flip side which has been compiled however: Honey and Gall resurfacing on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 8 and being an unusual and captivating hippie-psychedelic effort.

Yellow Beads is also dreamy acoustic hippie-pop in their unique style. The final 45 reverts to more standard orchestrated pop format effort on Fly With Me but is rescued by the electrified folk-pop flip.

All their material was composed by B. Fowler or C. Woolery, who it turns out is none other than Chuck Woolery, who would later become one of America's top game show hosts-- he was the original emcee of "Wheel of Fortune" before adding his brand of smarminess to the matchmaking "Love Connection".

(Max Waller / Des Dev / Tom Truszkowski)

The Avengers

TOP

Personnel:

G. BLAKE	A
H. GONZALES	A
KEN JOHNSON	A
G. LIKENS	A

45s:

1	You Can't Hurt Me Any More/When It's Over	(F-G 104)	May 1965
2	Be A Caveman/Broken Hearts Ahead	(Starburst 125)	Nov. 1965
3	Shipwrecked/I Told You So	(Starburst 128)	1966
4	It's Hard To Hide/Open Your Eyes	(Current 109)	Jun 1966
5	Strange Faces / Softly As I Leave You	(American 101)	Jan 1967

This garage outfit from Bakersfield, California but were part of the Los Angeles club scene. Their finest moments were probably Be A Caveman, a slice of three chord arrogance and Open Your Eyes, a fine song with superb instrumentation and catchy folk-rock vocals. Shipwrecked is a Farfisa-led song with fine throaty vocals, and You Can't Hurt Me Any More has a rockin' beat with a neat choppy solo. It's Hard To Hide, is a jaunty folkish rocker, with a neat reverb effect on the organ - in stark contrast to the primitive beat displayed on Be A Caveman. A band well worth checking out, especially for that second single.

The Avengers were managed by Bakersfield KAFY DJ Mike Lunky, and Ken Johnson also wrote I Can Read Between The Lines, the flip to Gary Lewis and The Playboys 1966 hit Green Grass. After The Avengers disbanded, Ken Johnson returned to the Bakersfield music scene and became involved in Gary Paxton's Bakersfield International studio crowd as a session player and songwriter.

Through Paxton and with fellow Bakersfield performer and songwriter Dennis Payne, they recorded a series of albums for Al Sherman's Alshire International label in the late 1960's as the California Poppy Pickers. Paxton leased various other recording projects to Alshire, which may have involved Johnson.

As one might expect, The Avengers' material has been heavily compiled including: Be A Caveman on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 1, Boulders, Vol. 1, Get Primitive (The Best Of Pebbles) and Pebbles, Vol. 2 (CD); Open Your Eyes on Acid Dreams Epitaph CD, Folk Rock EP; Open Up Your Eyes and It's Hard To Hide on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 20: LA-Part 4; It's Hard To Hide on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD); Shipwrecked on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 3 and I Told You So on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller / Rick Lewis / Jason Odd)

The Avengers

TOP

45:

1. Reflection/Irresistable You (Kama 780) 1967

From Syracuse, New York State. Echoes In Time, Vol. 2, includes Reflection from their sole 45. A decent garage outfit.

The Avengers

TOP

45s:

1. The Kiss I Never had / Your Picture (Van Dyk VD-1611/2) 196?
2. Crying All Alone / No Wonder (Mr.Genius 402) 196?

Both 45s thought to emanate from a Philadelphia area band in the mid-to-late 60s. The Van Dyk 45 is awful pre-beat pop with keening female-male vocals and should be avoided. Crying All Alone is a big beat ballad with brass BUT done with garage style and sentiments plus a great fuzz and brass solo - definitely different and a pleasant surprise (though probably not for purists). The flip is a brassy pop ballad.

(Max Waller)

The Avengers

TOP

Personnel:

LEE BAKER	gtr	A

JIM DICKINSON	12-string gtr	A
BILL DONATI	drms	A
JOE GASTON	bs	A
BOBBY LAWSON	vcls	A
JOE LEE	gtr, vcls	A
TERRY MANNING	organ, vcls	A

45:

1	Batman Theme/Batarang	(?)	1966
2	Batman's Theme / Back Side Blues	(MGM 13465)	Feb 1966

From Memphis, these Avengers recorded Batarang in 1966, an excellent bluesy instrumental cut with great guitar leads and organ. Lee Baker would later be in Moloch, Jim Dickinson was previously in the Jesters and would have a very prolific career, notably with Ry Cooder.

Batarang has subsequently been compiled on It Came From Memphis (Upstart 022) 1995.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

Avlons

45:

1. Mad Man's Fate / Come Back Little Girl (Pyramid 6-6877) 1966

An obscure outfit from North Carolina, whose Mad Man's Fate comes on like the Animals doing a moody soul ballad - eminently listenable but unlikely to appear on a garage comp. The less interestin' flip (in my opinion), a low-key garage affair with neat harp, appears on The Lost Generation. (Max Waller)

A Warm Puppy

45:

1. Around A Fountain/Colorful Love (Bullet 4512) 1968

Max Waller drew my attention to this 45 which has not yet figured on any compilations. The 'A' side is an airy psychedelic effort, the flip a heavily-Vanilla Fudge inspired slice of bombast with a psychedelic edge.

David Axelrod

ALBUM:

1	SONG OF INNOCENCE	(Capitol Records ST-2982)	1968

2	SONGS OF EXPERIENCE	(EMI)	1969
3	EARTH ROT	(EMI SKAO 456)	1970
4	MESSIAH	(RCA LSP-4636)	1972
5	HEAVY AXE	(Fantasy F 9456)	1974

NB : (1) also released in the UK, reissued on CD and LP (Ascension ANCD012/ANLP012) 2000. (2) reissued on CD and LP (Ascension ANCD013/ANLP013) 2000. (3) reissued on CD and LP (Ascension ANCD014/ANLP014) 2000. (4) reissued on LP 2000. (5) reissued on CD (Big Beat CDBGPM) 1999. There's also CD compilation 1968-1970 An Axelrod Anthology (EMI 7243 4 99405 2 9), also issued as a double LP with extra track (EMI 7243 4 994051 2).

David Axelrod was a producer, arranger and songwriter, who is now mostly remembered for his work with the Electric Prunes' Mass In F Minor and Release Of An Oath. He formed Pride in 1970 and he also released several solo albums which may interest some readers looking for a mix of psyche with neo-classical arrangements.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Axis Brotherhood

TOP

45:

1. Return/Signed D.C. (Woody 101) 196?

From New Mexico. Their competant cover version of Love's Signed D.C. can be heard on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 8 (CD) and New Mexico Punk From The Sixties.

Hoyt Axton

TOP

ALBUMS:
(Selective)

1	JOY TO THE WORLD	(Capitol ST-788)	1970
2	MY GRIFFIN IS GONE	(CBS 33103)	1974

Hoyt Axton began his career in the '60s as a songwriter for the Kingston Trio and his songs have been covered by Ringo Starr, Three Dog Night and many other popular acts. He was also an actor and a country singer. A multi-faceted talent, he also wrote two excellent songs dealing with the subject of drugs which were popularized by Steppenwolf: The Pusher and Snow Blind Friend (the latter also covered by Tim Williams). His song Never Been To Spain was covered by Morning.

Several of his albums may be of interest to some readers, notably Joy To The World, with a fantastic hard-blues version of The Pusher (with Chris Darrow on electric fiddle) and California Women. His 1974 album My Griffin Is Gone was also considered "a psychedelic relic" by Rolling Stone.

Hoyt Axton worked with Arlo Guthrie in the early seventies but sadly died in 1999.

The official Hoyt Axton site can be found at: http://www.sixcats.com/axton/hoyt.htm

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Azitis

Personnel:

- DONALD LOWER bs A
- STEVE NELSON perc A
- DENNIS SULLIVAN organ, piano A
- MICHAEL WELCH gtr, flte A

ALBUM:

1. HELP (Elco SC EC 5555) 1971

NB: (1) reissued on vinyl as a limited, numbered edition of 300 copies (ELCO102), 1997. Also reissued on CD.

45:

1. From This Place/Hope To Save (Elco 1/2) 1971

Hailing from Citrus Heights, near Sacramento, California, this outfit's now ultra rare and sought-after album is similar in mould to Agape with religious lyrics, but not quite as good. Musically, this is a keyboard dominated progressive which also has some good guitar moments and melodic vocals. All the songs are penned by the band with The Prophet, From This Place and Judgement Day among the album's finer moments.

The band had previously been known as Help, but changed their name to Azitis following a conflict with the Decca band Help. After the Decca group broke up, they reverted to their original monicker to record a further 45.

For more information on the band, check their website: http://www.geocities.com/Area51/Keep/3879

(Vernon Joynson / Clark Faville / Max Waller)

Aztecs

ALBUM:

1 LIVE AT THE AD-LIB CLUB OF LONDON (World Artists) 1964

A rave-up live-set by a little-known group. Their album has a photo of the Beatles in a corner of the front cover, quoting them as saying "The Best Club We've Ever Been In"!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Aztex

45:

1. I Said More/The Little Streets In My Town (Staff 194) 1967

Hailed from Gary, Indiana where they had started life in 1963 as The Valuables, a Beatles/Everly Brothers covers band. In late 1966, having developed a harsher persona, they recruited the lead singer/guitarist from The Squires, another popular Gary band, and recorded the above 45. Just 100 copies were pressed for friends and family. I Said Move, a pretty powerful rocker, was later included on Back From The Grave, Vol. 4 and the flip, an uptempo effort with jangly folk-punk guitar and tambourine, re-emerged on Back From The Grave, Vol. 5.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

B.J. & The Hobson Brothers to Ballroom

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- B.J. and The Hobson Brothers
- The Bachs
- Bachs Lunch
- The Backdoor Men
- Backdoor Society
- Backgrounds
- The Backseat
- The Bad Boys
- The Badd Boys
- The Bad Habits
- The Bad Roads
- The Bad Seeds
- The Bad Seeds
- The Bag
- Bagatelle
- Kali Bahlu
- Baker Street Irregulars
- Baldwin and Leps
- The Balladeers
- The Balloon Corps
- Balloon Farm
- Ballroom

B.J. And The Hobson Brothers

45:

1. To Those Wishing / Mad Sad Man (Valor V-45-101) 196?

Rock'n'roll ballads filtered through Merseybeat and 1964/5 Invasion sounds results in an excellent 45 with strong raw vocals from 'B.J.'. Both sides were written by Dennie Hobson. Described as 'garage', which it may be in spirit, this is simply classy U.S. beat. No details on this group have come to light yet - hopefully there are more 45s too.

(Max Waller)

The Bachs

Personnel:

- BLACK ALLISON bs, ld vcls A
- JOHN BABICZ perc A
- MIKE DeHAVEN gtr A
- BEN HARRISON ld gtr A
- JOHN PETERMAN gtr, ld vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) OUT OF THE BACHS (Private Pressing) 1968

NB: (1) reissued on the Del Val label in 1992, and later issued on CD and vinyl (Flash 43) 1997.

This is a highly collectable garage-psych classic from Chicago, indeed only 100 copies were ever pressed so original copies inevitably change hands for megabucks. Some of the finest garage cuts include You're Mine, Free Fall and Minister To A Mind Diseased, whilst My Independence Day and the superb Tables Of Grass Fields are more psychedelic. Just 350 copies of the first reissue were pressed so this album is destined to remain rare, although the more recent 'Flash' reissue will help collectors find copies in the short term. Essential. Just dig that distorted fuzz guitar on Minister To A Mind Diseased. All twelve cuts are original Allison-Peterman compositions.

I'm A Little Boy and Tables Of Grass Fields, from Out Of The Bachs, have also resurfaced on A Trip On The Magic Flying Machine.

Bachs Lunch

45:

1. Will You Love Me Tomorrow / You Go On (Tomorrow T-911) 1967

Carole King is writ large across this East Coast girl group 45. It's her label, her production and on the top side one of her classics - reworked in a slow, deliberate and dramatic style with forlorn female vocals. You Go On is even stronger - a brooding baroque beat-ballad written by Rick Philp and Dave Palmer of The Myddle Class (credited as "Philip Palmer"), which lends weight to a rumour that the group was heavily involved with and played on this 45.

(Max Waller)

The Backdoor Men

Personnel incl:

FRED HOSTETTER	gtr	A
STEVE KREIDER	vcls, hrmnca	A
DEAN TAGGART	drms	A

45:

1	Evil/Corinna, Corinna	(Fujimo)	196?

This Garage band operated out of Goshen, Indiana. Evil had quite a bluesy influence a la Yardbirds, whilst the flip was, by comparison, a pretty lame cover of the Ray Peterson hit.

Compilation appearances have included:- Evil on Hoosier Hotshots and Mayhem And Psychosis Vol. 2 (CD).

Backdoor Society

TOP

Personnel incl:

RICHARD PASH A

45:

1	I'm The Kind / I'm Getting Better	(Shoremen 1900)	1966

NB: 'B' side credited to Richard Pash and The Backdoor Society

The sole 45 by this Avon Lake, Ohio group is rare and easily commands 3-figure asking prices. I'm The Kind, accessible again on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 21, is a pretty good effort and the lyrics "I'm gonna make it now, just like I said would, I'll be big someday" reflected the optimism of the times.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/George Gell)

Backgrounds

TOP

45:

1	Day Breaks At Dawn/Oh Baby Please Take Me	(Cenco 110)	1967

An unknown Californian band with just one known and keenly-sought 45. Kickin' off with a 'Prunes-like howl, Day Breaks At Dawn is a sizzlin' fuzz-punker with awesome guitar-work. An intense, raw but powerful vocalist cranks ups the testosterone levels. Quite simply - stunning.

Kudos to Fuzz, Flaykes and Shakes, Vol. 2 for finally compiling it.

(Max Waller)

The Backseat

TOP

45:

1. Where Is Mary/Like You Do (Linda 125) 1967

From East L.A. comes this dreamy harmony-drenched ballad coupled with uptempo pop. Produced by Larry Tamblyn of The Standells, Like You Do is also on the 1969 double LP compilation East Side Revue (Rampart 3303). (Max Waller)

The Bad Boys

TOP

Personnel:

- GARY R. ST.CLAIR gtr, bs
- DEMETRI CALLAS gtr
- DANNY CONWAY drums

45:

1. Love/Black Olives (Paula 254) 1966

This band were based around Frederick in Maryland, NOT Louisiana as has been assumed due to their 45 on the Paula label. Previously known as Billy Joe & The Continentals, they split with Billy Joe Ash in mid-65 and the trio carried on as The Bad Boys, touring widely. In 1968 they came to the attention of Columbia Records and changed name to Flavor (not to be confused with the psychedelic NY outfit of that name).

This 45 is a classic - Love is a wicked catchy fuzz-punker that has been compiled on All Cops In Delerium (aka Good Roots), Louisiana Punk Vol. 2 (aka Sixties Archives Vol. 3 on CD) and Mindrocker Vol. 13. Written by Gary St.Clair it was covered in 1967 by the Corners Four. The uncompiled flip is a glorious mid-slow fuzzy instrumental with a blueish tinge, keyboard and bass solos, and exploito-movie / club-a-go-go vibes that would fit right onto the Animated Egg LP.

(Max Waller)

The Badd Boys

TOP

45s:

1. Never Going Back To Georgia/River Deep Mountain High (Epic 10119) Jan. 1967
2. Folks In A Hurry/I Told You So (Epic 10165) May. 1967

Good enough to get signed by a major label, these guys have made a couple of compilation appearances:- I Told You So has resurfaced on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 7 and Never Going Back To Georgia on both Boulders, Vol. 4 and Searching For Love. Mike Markesich tells us that from checking the copyright/publishing, this band were actually from the U.K., rather than the U.S.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Bad Habits

45:

1	Hook Nose And Wooden Leg / Don't Take My Love Away	(Scepter 12126)	1966

A Houston pop outfit who were also known as the Alley Cats, London Teens, and Terrible Teens. Their Huey P.Meaux produced 45 couples male harmony-pop that has a novelty feel (screeching vocals ala Pipkin's Gimme Dat Ding) with a half-decent rockin' popper. The latter has a frantic guitar break but suffers from twittering female backing vocals.

(Max Waller)

The Bad Roads

Personnel:

BUZ CLARK	ld vcls	A
KENNY COOLEY	tamb	A
TERRY GREEN	ld gtr	A
MIKE HICKS	bs	A
DANNY KIMBALL	drms	A
BRIANT SMITH	gtr	A

EP:

1	THE BAD ROADS	(Sundazed SEP 143)	1999

45s:

1	Too Bad/Blue Girl	(JIN 210)	1967
2	Till The End Of The Day / Don't Look Back	(Raintyre 1000)	Mar. 1967

From Lake Charles, Louisiana this outfit evolved out of the Shadows and the Avengers. Their first 45 with its sneering vocals and fuzztone guitar defines classic mid-sixties American punk.

Both sides of the first 45 are compiled on Pebbles Vol. 9, Lousiana Punk Vol. 2, Sixties Archives Vol.3 (CD), Acid Visions Vol. 1 and Vol. 2 LPs and Acid Visions: The Complete Collection (Vol.1) 3-CD set. Strangely Too Bad appears on the Acid Visions comps titled Outside Looking In and credited to 'The Unknowns'. Blue Girl is also on Mindrocker Vol. 4 and We Have Come For Your Children. Their cover of the Kinks' Till The End Of The Day can also be found on Louisiana Punk Vol. 2 and Sixties Archives Vol. 3 (CD).

The Sundazed EP brings together both 45s in a neat pic sleeve annotated by Jud Cost and Brown Paper Sack's Andrew Brown and with reminiscences from Danny Kimball and Briant Smith.

Several members went on to the Lemon Blue.

Bad Girl has been covered by the Miracle Workers on the Moxie's Revenge LP and Too Bad by the Morlochs on their Uglier Than You'll Ever Be CD. (Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Bad Seeds

Personnel:

- ROD PRINCE gtr, vcls A
- MIKE TAYLOR gtr, vcls A
- HENRY EDGEINGTON bs A
- BOBBY DONAHO drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE J-BECK STORY PART 1: BAD SEEDS (Eva 12034) 1983

NB: (1) also issued on CD, together with the equivalent Zakary Thaks album as A Texas Battle Of The Bands, Collectables (COL-CD-0652) 1995.

45s:

1. Taste Of The Same / I'm A King Bee (J-Beck 1002) Oct. 1965
2. Zilch Pt.1 / Pt.2 (J-Beck 1003) Dec. 1965
3. All Night Long / Sick And Tired (J-Beck 1005) Feb. 1966

This Corpus Christi outfit was discovered by Carl Becker, who ran the J-Beck / Cee-Be record label, playing at the Surf Club. They had formed in 1964 - Taylor had previously fronted an outfit called The Four Winds and Prince and Donaho had played together in The Titans. For a while they were the Corpus Christi act. Their first 45, a punkish Stones-inspired number, attracted some local interest. They followed it up with a double-sided instrumental and the 'A' side of their third and final effort was a version of the 13th Floor Elevators' Tried To Hide which had not been released at the time. They also appeared as the back-up band on the 'B' side of the 1966 45 Down The Road I Go by Tony Joe and The Mojos.

Rod Prince later played in the New Seeds and Bubble Puppy.

Eva/Collectables' posthumous release features their three 45s, two other J-Beck 45s Mike Taylor recorded under the name Michael after The Bad Seeds split and two previously unreleased cuts: Checkerboard and Arkansas. You'll also lind Taste Of The Same on the Son Of The Gathering Of The Tribe compilation and All Night Long on Off The Wall, Vol. 1.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini / Mike Markesich)

The Bad Seeds

45:

1. King Of The Soap Box/He's Lying (Columbia 4-43670) 1966

From Erlanger, Kentucky. This outfit's sole known 45 is full-blown jingle-jangle ala-Byrds-via-Dylan on the 'A' side, which can be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. 7. The flip is equally jangley but is more in the Searchers / Beau Brummels mould.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Bag

Personnel:

- AL ESPOSITO
- DAN MAHONY
- JOE DI MARZO
- JAY SAVINO

ALBUM:

1. REAL (Decca DL-75057) 1968/9

45s:

1. Nobody's Child/Nickels 'n' Dimes (Decca 32279) 1968
2. Down And Out/Up In The Morning (Decca 32409) 1968
3. I Want You By My Side/Red Purple And Blue (Decca 32463) 1969

A 'psychedelic soul' group, thought to be based in NYC. Jimmy Curtiss produced their album and co-wrote two songs for it.

Of the 45 cuts: Nickels 'n' Dimes has an acid flavour thanks to some good fuzz; the rest delve into funky, brassy or orchestrated soul-rock.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Bagatelle

Personnel:

WILLIE ALEXANDER	vcls, piano, perc	A
DAVID "TURK" BYNOE	bs	A
MARK GOULD	trumpet	A
FRED GRIFFITH	vcls	A
LEE MASON	drms	A
MARSHALL O'CONNELL	gtr	A
STEVE SHRELL	sax, flute	A
DAVID REDTOP THOMAS	vcls	A
RODNEY YOUNG	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	11 PM SATURDAY	(ABC ABCS-646)	1968

45:

1	Such A Fuss About Sunday/What Can I Do	(ABC ?)	1968

An integrated soul/rock group whose album was produced by Tom Wilson. Notable for featuring Willie "Loco" Alexander and Lee Mason (both ex-Lost), it may interest the fans of psyche/soul a la Chamber Brothers, although it's not as good.

One album track, Back On The Farm, also appeared on Tom's Touch, a compilation of Tom Wilson productions.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Kali Bahlu

ALBUM:

1. COSMIC REMEMBERANCE (World Pacific WPS 21875) 1967

Cosmic droning sitar, fronted by shrill spoken vocals that soon start to irritate. This is a rambling cosmic hippie journey of philosophy into whimsical fantasy, so garage-niks should keep well clear. Four meandering tracks - Cosmic Rememberance, A Game Called Who Am I, How Can I Tell My Guru, and A Cosmic Telephone Call From The Angel Liesle And The Buddha eloquently describe where this is coming from. Mellow meditation music, or cosmic twaddle? (MW)

Baker Street Irregulars

45:

1	I'm A Man Part 1 / Part 2	(Largo 5002)	c1966

From Lancaster, Pennsylvania, their extended version of Bo Diddley's classic song really is very impressive indeed - some superb guitar work and lots of sound effects. It's also compiled on Pebbles, Vol. 14 and is well worth a listen.

(Max Waller)

Baldwin and Leps

Personnel:

MICHAEL BALDWIN	vcls, violin	A
LEPS	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BALDWIN AND LEPS	(Vanguard VSD 6567)	1971

A unusual duo violin/guitar outfit who released this rarely seen album in 1971. It's notable for the side-long Calamandatine Brown with his five parts (Hannah, Headin' West, Spirit, The Dealer and Bella Donna). The lyrics are interesting, tackling subjects such as drugs dealing, people going to Canada to run from the draft, prostitution, teenagers leaving New York for California etc. The music has some haunting moments.

Recorded in New York, the album was produced by Lor Crane and all their material written by Michael Baldwin.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Balladeers

TOP

45s:

1. Words I Want To Hear/High Flying Bird (Cori CR 31001) Aug. 1965
2. Used To Be/Goin' Out Of My Head (Seven Seas 201, 215/6) Mar. 1967

From Framingham, MA. Their Cori 45 contains a cool harmony beat-ballad that could only come from New England, backed with an okay version of High Flying Bird. Unfortunately their Seven Seas 45 contains club / cabaret-type male-female harmony vocal pop and is best avoided.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Balloon Corps

TOP

45s:

1. Up In Smoke/Perfect Vision (Bell 796) 1969
2. Muddy Water/Make It Right (Dunhill 4219) 1969

Previously known as The Underground Balloon Corps and The Snaps, from Pennsylvania, they had veered towards a rockin' sound ala Creedence Clearwater Revival by the Dunhill 45.

(Max Waller)

Balloon Farm

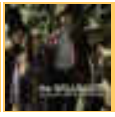
TOP

Personnel:

MIKE APPEL	A
DON HENNY	A
JAY SAKS	A

ED SCHNUG A

45s:



1	Question Of Temperature/Hurtin' For Your Love	(Laurie 3405)	Oct. 1967
2	Farmer Brown/Hurry Up Sundown	(Laurie 3445)	1968 -

An East Coast band who were probably based in New York (although Florida has also been mooted as their home). Balloon Farm issued two singles for Laurie Records. Question Of Temperature, an excellent psychedelic punk effort, can be heard on Acid Dreams, Glimpses, Vol. 1, Boulders, Vol. 4, Mindrocker, Vol. 3, Nuggets, Vol. 1, Acid Dreams Testament (CD), We Have Come For Your Children, and Wild Thing, so you've absolutlely no excuse for not checking this one out. The flip Hurtin' For Your Love also appears on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol. 6 (CD).

Some of the above mentioned personnel later reappeared in The Huck Finn.

(Max Waller / Todd Hunter)

Ballroom

Main Personnel:

- JIM BELL vcls, oboe
- CURT BOETTCHER vcls, gtr
- MICHELE O'MALLEY vcls
- SANDY SALISBURY vcls, gtr
- (LEE MALLORY vcls, gtr)
- (RON EDGAR drms)

NB: Ancillary personnel also included a large slice of the "Wrecking Crew" with Mike Deasy, Ben Benay, Butch Parker, Mike Henderson, Jerry Scheff, Jim Horn, Jim Troxell, and Toxie French.CD:

1. PREPARING FOR THE MILLENIUM (Rev-Ola CREV 058 CD) 1998

45:

1. Spinning, Spinning, Spinning/Baby Please Don't Go (Warner Brothers 7027) 1967

At long last Curt Boettcher has started to achieve deserved recognition. His Millennium and Sagittarius exploits are reasonably documented and have seen reissues over the last decade. But his earlier projects and one-offs as creator, arranger and producer have remained legend only amongst a handful of specialist collectors. Now thankfully, Rev-Ola has started a series that should see his star shine again. The Ballroom CD kicks off with twenty-two tracks that document his post-Goldebriars period, centered around Ballroom and Summers Children, and includes demos that were to mature with Millennium and Sagittarius. It's a treasure trove for lovers of creative dream-pop and the soft underbelly of psychedelia, complete with a fascinating and informative booklet by Dawn Eden.

Ballroom's sole 45 is one of the many highlights of the CD. Spinning is much akin to the rather twee and harmony-drenched styles of Sagittarius and Millennium, but Baby Please Don't Go is not to be missed, his amazing interpretation is totally different to the usual garage-punk ravers that had gone before - a psychedelic rain-dance that eventually reels off into chaotic effects - wow!

An article on Curt by Kingsley Abbott appeared in Record Collector no. 229 (September 1998).

Baby Please Don't Go has also surfaced on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8 - Professor Potts Pornographic Projector.

(Max Waller with thanks to Joe Foster and Dawn Eden)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bamboo to The Bards

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Bamboo
- The Ban
- Banana and The Bunch
- Banchee
- The Bandits
- The Bandits
- Band Of Wynand
- Nikhil Banerjee
- Bang
- Bangor Flying Circus
- The Banshees
- Banshees
- Dave Banyase and Sum Guys
- The Barbarians
- Barber Green
- Barbie
- The Bards
- The Bards

B a m b o o

Personnel:

WILL DONICHT	vcsl, bs, gtr, tack piano	A
DANIEL LEE HALL	vcls, organ, piano, rocksichord, gtr, tack piano	A
BRENDEN HARKIN	maracas, arranger	A
PETER HODGSON	bs	A
KEN JENKINS	accoustic bs	A
SANFORD KONIKOFF	drms	A
DAVE RAY	vcls, gtr, bottleneck, leslie gtr, hrmnca	A
RED RHODES	steel gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A) BAMBOO (Elektra EKS-74048) 1969

A Californian group lead by Dave Ray, who was previously part of the blues/folk trio Koerner, Ray and Glover. Produced by Allan Emig and recorded on the Feather River in Keddle, California, their only album contains a mix of folk, blues, rock and country highlighted by four excellent tracks: Girl Of The Seasons, Blak Bati Chari Blooz, Sok Mi Toot Tru Luv, all with inventive organ and guitar parts and Keep What Makes You Feel Nice, a progressive blues a la Butterfield Blues Band. All their material was original and the use of strange instruments (rocksichord, Leslie guitar, tack piano) provide some unusual effects. As usual with Elektra, the sound quality is excellent.

Dave Ray later released solo albums and Sanford "Sandy" Konikoff, who had previously played with Gentle Soul, will become a session drummer, notably working with Leon Russell and Ben Sidran.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Ban

Personnel:

RANDY GUZMAN (aka RANDY GORDON)	drms, vcls	A
TONY McGUIRE	gtr, vcls	A
OLIVER McKINNEY	keyb'ds, vcls	A
FRANK STRAIGHT	bs	A

45:

1 Bye-Bye/Now That I'm Hoping (Brent 7049) 1964

From Lompoc, Califorina, this bunch evolved into Now, when Tony McGuire was drafted and David Zandanotti recruited. They subsequently became Tripsichord Music Box!!

Banana and The Bunch

Personnel:

EARTHQUAKE ANDERSON	hrmnca	A
JOE BAUER	drms	A
MICHAEL KANE	bs	A
LOWELL "BANANA" LEVINGER	vcls, gtr, bs, piano	A
STEVE SWALLOW	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A) MID-MOUNTAIN RANCH (Raccoon 13 / Warner BS 2626) 1972

45s:

1	Vanderbilt's Lament/Vanderbilt's Lament (mono)	(Raccoon 10 / Warner WB 7621)	1972
2	Back In The USA/Back In The USA (mono)	(Raccoon 11 / Warner WB 7626)	1972

An excellent addition to The Youngbloods discography. The only solo album of Lowell "Banana" Levinger, backed by the other Youngbloods (sans Jesse Colin Young) and the renown jazz bass player Steve Swallow. The album contains a mix of rock, folk, bluegrass and more experimental tracks. The singles are from the album. In 1973, Levinger took part in the production of the A Euphonious Wail album and then apparently vanished from the music scene.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Banchee

Personnel:

- PETER ALONGI ld gtr, vcls A B
- JOSE MIGUEL DEJESUS gtr, vcls A B
- VICTOR WILLIAM DIGILIO drms A B
- MICHAEL GREGORY MARINO bs, vcls A B
- JOHNNY PACHECO perc A
- FERNANDO LUIS ROMAN perc, vcls B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BANCHEE (Atlantic 8240) 1969 SC
2. (A) THINKIN' (Polydor 24 4066) 1971 SC

45:

1. I Just Don't Know / Train Of Life (Atlantic 2708) 1970

This band, along with Sir Lord Baltimore, Yesterday's Children et al were among the East Coast's premier heavy blasters of the post-psychedelic era. Check out I Just Don't Know and Evolmia from their amazing first album on Atlantic. The second album has longer, less structured cuts with seemingly endless guitar soloing... nevertheless, both are recommended. (CF)

The Bandits

Personnel:

- GREG BIGSBY ld gtr A D
- STEVE HEARD vcls, keyb'ds A B
- DAVE HENDRICKS sax, vcls, gtr A B C D

- BOB PERRY vcls, ld gtr A B
- JOHN SIMPSON drms A B
- TOM DEETS ld gtr B
- DAVE JOHNSON ld gtr C
- RUSS KAMMERER drms C D
- SCOTT STRONG bs C D

45s:

1. (B) Tell Me/Little Sally Walker (Jerden 773) 1965
2. (B) Queen Jane / I Remember The Girl (Panorama 34) 1966

From Mercer Island, Washington. You'll find their recording of Little Sally Walker on Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 1 and History Of Northwest Rock, Vol, 4 and Queen Jane and Tell Me have resurfaced on Vol's 5 and 6 respectively of the same series.

In mid 1967, they became The Chicago Express, with the line-up: Dave Hendricks (vcls), Greg Bigsby (lead gtr, vcls), David Baroh (gtr, vcls), Scott Strong (bs) and Russ Kammerer (drms). At the end of the year, Chicago Express splintered again with Dave Baroh switching to bass, and Russ Kammerer joining with John Soltero to form a power trio called The Punch. In March of 1968 Pat Gossan was added on keyboards, but The Punch split in August '68 with David Baroh (and later John Soltero) going on to Bluebird. Russ Kammerer went on to The Locomotive and Pat Gossan joined the Floating Bridge.

(Max Waller / Darryl F. Riffero / David Baroh)

The Bandits

TOP

45s:

1. Highway 65 / Come On Pretty Girl (Twin Town TT 701) 1965
2. All I Want To Do / Buzzy (Studio City SC 1031) 1965

A band from Minneapolis who also recorded as Jesse J. And The Bandits and King Krusher And The Turkeynecks. Two further 1965 tracks Downtown and The Krusher, appeared '60s Minneapolis sampler on Top Teen Bands Vol.3 (Bud-Jet 313) and this latter track has reappeared on Sixties Rebellion Vol.12: Demented. (Max Waller)

Band Of Wynand

TOP

45:

1 Day-Time Nite-Time / What Am I To Do (Gemini G-501) 1967

Day-Time.. is a cool jangley swirly folk-punker with sultry Byrds' harmonies that has been included on the excellent Fuzz, Flaykes and Shakes Vol. 1 comp, whose liners give their location as Los Angeles.

It's also noted that the 45 was originally released as by the F.B.I. (Four Boys Incorporated). P'raps they were 'encouraged' to change their name by some bureau heavies?!

(Max Waller)

Nikhil Banerjee

ALBUM:

1	RAGAS FOR MEDITATION	(Capitol ST-10518)	1969

A rare sitar raga psych LP with two side long cuts: Raga Hemant and Raga Bhatiyar.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bang

Personnel:

TONY D'ORIO	drms	A
FRANK FERRARA	bs, vcls	A B C
FRANK GLICKEN	gtr, vcls	A B C
DURIS MAXWELL	drms	B
JEFFREY CHEEN	perc	B
BRUCE GARY	drms	B C

ALBUM:

1(A)	BANG	(Capitol ST-11015)	1972
2(B)	MOTHER/BOW TO THE KING	(Capitol ST-11110)	1972
3(C)	BANG MUSIC	(Capitol ST-11190)	1973

NB: (2) reissued on CD.

45s:

1	Future Shock/Questions	(Capitol 3304)	1972
2	Keep On/Red Man	(Capitol 3386)	1972
3	Idealist Realist/No Sugar Tonight	(Capitol 3474)	1972
4	Love Sonnet/Must Be Love	(Capitol 3622)	1973
5	Feels Nice/Slow Down	(Capitol 3816)	1974

NB: (5) double sided promo version also exists.

Straight forward seventies rock and roll, this band were thought to be from Florida, but this is not the case. They did in fact come from Pennsylvania, but played in Florida quite a lot. Some of this confusion is no doubt because there was a Florida act called the Bangles (also known as the Bangs) that by 1971 was calling itself Sun Country.

(Ron Bronholc/Stephane Rebeschini/Jeff Lemlich/Max Waller)

Bangor Flying Circus

Personnel:

- ALAN DE CARLO gtr, vcls A
- MIKE TEZGA drms A
- DAVID WOLINSKI bs, keyb'ds A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BANGOR FLYING CIRCUS (Dunhill DS-50069) 1969 190
2. (-) PREPARED IN PEACE (Capitol ST-11147) 1973 -
3. (-) LAST LAUGH (Capitol ST-11240) 1973 -

NB: (1) also released in the U.K. (Stateside SSL 5022) in 1970, reissued on CD by One Way (22119). (2) also released in the U.K. (Harvest SHSP 4010). (2) and (3) were released as Flying Circus.

45s:

1. Come On People/Change In Our Lives (Dunhill 4226) 1969
2. Mama Don't You Know/Someday I'll Find (Dunhill 4323) 1970

Originally formed in Chicago by ex-H.P. Lovecraft drummer Mike Tezga, who later formed Lovecraft. Their album, which got to no. 190 in the U.S. album charts, contained some good organ and guitar work and there's a case for its inclusion here. They relocated to L.A. and later evolved into Flying Circus recording two more albums. Upon their demise, in 1970, Wolinski and De Carlo formed Madura.

The Banshees

Personnel:

- JACK SMEAD ld gtr A B
- RON ROUSE ld gtr A B
- TOM LITO drms A B
- FRANK BUCARO vcls A B
- RICK NADOLINI bs A
- PETE SHELDON bs B

45:

1. Project Blue / Free (Dunwich 129) 1966

A Chicago band, whose Project Blue was a head-banging assault on the senses with some superb guitar riffs and is considered one of the city's classic recordings. If you hear it on Mindrocker, Vol. 2 - you'll know why. Alternatively you'll find it on Pebbles, Vol. 9. They were also known as The Fugitives and later The Prophets.

Pete Sheldon had earlier played in the U.K. group Tornados. Smead now runs a New York bar, Rouse became a lumberjack, Bucaro became a priest and Lito relocated to Texas. Project Blue was also covered by The Endd who operated out of La Porte, Indiana. The Banshees were properly regarded as one of Chicago's best white teen bands and in their day were a match for anyone. Project Blue can also be heard on The Dunwich Records Story compilation.

Banshees

45s:

1	They Prefer Blondes / Take A Ride With Me	(Solo 1)	1965
2	Never Said I Loved You / So Hard To Bear	(Solo 2)	1965

Formed at Mills High School in Burlingame, in the South Bay area of San Francisco as an instrumental combo called The Black Knights in 1962. Later in 1964 vocals were added and they changed name to The Banshees. They Prefer Blondes, is a sort of wailing Kingsmen-style punk song. In 1967 they changed their name again to Ariel.

Compilation appearances have included:- They Prefer Blondes on Boulders, Vol. 4 and Back From The Grave, Vol. 2; Take A Ride With Me on Teenage Shutdown Vol. 11.

(Max Waller/Alec Palao)

The Barbarians

Personnel:

BRUCE BENSON	gtr	A
JERRY CAUSI	bs	A
JEFF MORRIS	gtr	A
VICTOR MOULTON	drms, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE BARBARIANS	(Laurie LLP 2033)	1965

NB (1) reissued as Rhino RHLP 1008 in 1979, and later on CD by Bomp/Voxx. Another CD reissue on One Way (17965), is retitled Are You A Boy Or Are You A Girl? and contains Moulty as a bonus track. There is also a compilation on Line OLLP 5067.

45s:

1	You've Got To Understand/Hey Little Bird	(Joy 290)	1964
2	Are You A Boy Or Are You A Girl?/Take It Or Leave It	(Laurie 3308)	1965 55
3	What The New Breed Say/Susie Q	(Laurie 3321)	1965 102
4	Moulty/I'll Keep On Seeing You	(Laurie 3326)	1966 90

NB: There's also an extremely rare French EP with PS: Are You A Boy Or Are You A Girl?/What The New Breed Say/Susie Q/I've Got A Woman (Vogue INT 18027) 1966.

From Provincetown, Massachusetts, this punk band who were once regulars on 'Shindig', are best known for their 1965 single Are You A Boy Or Are You A Girl? and Moulty, the story of how their drummer lost his hand (in a fireworks accident when he was 14)!

After they split up, remaining members Bernie Fieldings, Jerry Causi and Bruce Benson went to San Francisco in 1967 and formed Black Pearl. Moulty went into the cleaning business in Abington, Massachusetts as the Moulton Cleaning Co. In 1995, he reformed the band as Moulty and the Barbarians with his sons, Tory and Eric, and twins Ken and Karl Olson.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Are You A Boy Or Are You A Girl? on Rhino's, Nuggets, Vol. 1 and We Have Come For Your Children; Moulty on Lenny Kaye's Nuggets; Hey Little Bird on New England Teen Scene, Vol. 2 and Get Primitive (The Best Of Pebbles); and You've Got To Understand on Hide & Seek Again.

You can check out a Moulty website at http://www.geocities.com/SunsetStrip/Palms/5555/moulty.html.

(Vernon Joynson / Lloyd Peasley / Stephane Rebeschini)

Dave Banyase and Sum Guys

45:

1	Just A Little Bit / Open The Door To Your Heart	(Solid Rock W-003/4)	1967

Some guys from the Detroit suburbs chose two popular R'n'B numbers, by Roscoe Gordon and Darrell Banks respectively, for their sole platter. Both have a loose'n'live feel - but club sounds rather than garage. Just A Little Bit (also covered by the Zombies, Tommy Burk and The Counts and Aussie acts Tony Worsley and The Blue Jays, Chosen Few and Purple Hearts) is the stronger thanks to some neat guitar solos.

(Max Waller)

Barber Green

45:

1	Life / Gliding Ride	(F-Empire GRS 1106)	Aug. 1968

On a very obscure label out of Eugene, Oregon, Barber Green was the work of five teens from Brownsville, who were managed by Jack Richardson. The band took their name from a road paving machine (a' la Buffalo Springfield) and mostly played local dances, with one show in Eugene.

The 'A' side to their 45, Life, is pleasant acoustic folk-pop. The flip, Gliding Ride, kicks off innocuously enough but one is suddenly woken by a brief fuzzy outburst before a return to the sparse'n'simple theme. The next verse ends with another burst, then an all-too-short bridge where the guitarist is allowed his head, and a denouement wrapped in some fine lead. So it ends, with potential unfulfilled - this coulda been SO good if only they'd let rip.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich / George Gell)

Barbie

ALBUM:

1	JOURNEY TO JESUS	(Private pressing)	1971
2	SINGS FOR LIFE	(Private pressing)	1973

A female Christian folk singer/songwriter and guitar player. Her two albums are highly rated by some dealers.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Bards

45:

1. Alibis/Thanks A Lot (Emcee 013) 1966

Not to be confused with the better known Pacific Northwest outfit, this Fort Worth band was rumoured to have issued three 45s in all during the mid-sixties. Alibis is unexceptional but you'll find it on Texas Flashbacks, 5, Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 13: Texas, Part 3 and Gathering Of The Tribe.

They evolved out of Johnny Diamond & The Royal Five. (Max Waller)

The Bards

Personnel:

- CHUCK WARREN bs, vcls A B C D E
- BOB GALLOWAY drms, vcls A B C D E
- MARDI SHERIDAN ld gtr, vcls A B D
- MIKE BALZOTTI keyb'ds, vcls A B C D
- JOHN DRANEY ld vcls A
- 'APPLE ANDY' gtr C
- MARK CHELSON vcls, sax C

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE BARDS - FIRST AMERICAN (Piccadilly 3419) 1969

NB: (1) not released at the time, the above album was later released on Picc-A-Dilly in 1980, R1.

45s:

1. The Owl and The Pussycat/Light Of Love (Piccadilly 224) 1966
2. The Jabberwocky/My Generation (Piccadilly 232) 1967

3. Never Too Much Love/Light Of Love (Piccadilly 242) 1967
4. My Generation/Jabberwocky (Panorama 52) 1967
5. Never Too Much Love/Jabberwocky (Capitol 2041) 1967
6. The Owl and The Pussycat/The Light Of Love (Capitol 2l48) 1968
7. Goodtime Charlie's Got The Blues/Tunesmith (Parrot 337) 1968
8. Goodtime Charlie's Got The Blues/Tunesmith (Jerden 9O7) 1969
9. Jubilation/Our Love (Parrot 344) 1969
10. Walla Walla/Day By Day (Parrot 351) 1969
11. I Want You/Freedom Catcher (Burdette 103) 1971

NB: (1) was originally scheduled for release as Panorama 46 but was never released. (4) Not released.

Operated out of Moses Lake, Washington between 1961-69. They evolved out of a school teen combo called The Fabulous Continentals, who were a late fifties and early sixties covers outfit. They took their new name, The Bards from Roget's Thesaurus - the word 'Bard' meaning 'a travelling English minstrel, poet ...' they were a travelling group of musicians and the reference to England clinched it because they wanted to sound like The Beatles. They even became a foursome when John Draney, their lead vocalist, left to join the army.

Their big break came when Never Too Much Love, an original arrangement of an old Curtis Mayfield tune, made it to No 67 nationally in the Cash Box Top 100, although it seems not to have figured in the Billboard charts. It created the opportunity for them to tour with big name acts like The Turtles, The Dave Clarke Five and Paul Revere and The Raiders. During 1967 Mardi Sheridan left the band for a while to head for San Francisco and was temporarily replaced by virtuoso guitarists known as Apple Andy and Mark Chelson, who joined from George Washington and the Cherry Bombs. When Sheridan returned they headed for LA to find a producer.

In Hollywood they met Curt Boetcher and Keith Olsen and in 1969 under their production recorded an unreleased album, although this resulted in the break-up of the band. After its completion Curt Boetcher wanted to go back to the Northwest to sing with the band which delighted Mike and Mardi but not Bob and Chuck who wanted to get back on their old gig circuit and preserve their autonomy. So the split came when Mike and Mardi left and ultimately headed to LA to pursue writing and recording careers, although Bob and Chuck regrouped and carried on with the name for a while. For their Boettcher/Olsen period, they renamed themselves Moses Lake and a 45 was released under that monicker on Together Records. The Multitrack masters still exist for the album too.

Michael Balzotti later played in a duo with Seattle singer/songwriter Michael Langdon called The Michaels. Mardi Sheridan now works in advertsing; Chuck Warren manages an irrigation company in Moses Lake; Bob Galloway raises show horses and Mike Balzotti owns a real estate company in Seattle. You can check out their recordings on the following compilations:- Owl and The Pussycat on Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 1 and History of Northwest Rock, Vol. 2; My Generation on Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 2 and History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 3: Tunesmith and Never Too Much Love on Vol. 1 and Goodtime Charley's Got The Blues on Vol. 6 of the same series.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bare Facts to Tom Barsanti And The Invaders

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Bare Facts
- The Barking Spyders
- Steve Baron Quartet
- The Barons
- The Barons
- The Barons
- The Barons
- Baron Thomas and The Blue Crystals
- The Baroque Brothers
- Baroque Monthly
- The Baroques
- The Barracuda
- The Barracudas
- The Barracudas
- The Barracuda's
- Tom Barsanti and The Invaders

The Bare Facts

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BILL WILLIAMS

45:

1. Bad Part Of Town/Georgiana (Jubilee 45-5544) 1966
2. The Only Thing / To Think (Josie 978) 1967

From Portsmouth, Ohio. The 'A' side to their first 45 is superb - great vocals and a superb guitar break. Both sides are also featured on The Finest Hours Of U.S. '60s Punk; Bad Part Of Town (which shouldn't be confused with The Seeds song of the same name) can also be heard on Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 2 and Psychedelic Microdots Vol. 3.

Bill Williams would later graduate to Southwest F.O.B., Seals & Crofts and Toto!

(Max Waller)

The Barking Spyders

45:

1	I Want Your Love / Hard World	(Audio Precision 45001)	1966

NB: (1) sometimes seen listed as "#4201" which is it's RCA matrix no.

Despite the label name, precision was AWOL the day they laid down I Want Your Love. So out-of-sync that it's been compiled on Pebbles Vol. 11, Teenage Shutdown Vol. 4 and Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3, hailed as 'low fi' and 'inept genius', and elevated to the status of garage classic! Where are these guys now?

From a Dallas, Texas.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Steve Baron Quartet

Personnel:

STEVE BARON	vcls, acoustic gtr	A
BILL DAVIDSON	electric gtr	A
JEF LOWELL	bs, vcls	A
TOM WINER	piano, organ	A
(HERB LOVELLE	drms	A)
(BILL LA VORGNA	drms	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE MOTHER OF US ALL	(Tetragrammaton T-123)	1969

Despite his name, the Steve Baron Quartet didn't just play jazz but an intriguing mix of rock and folk, with strong jazz influences prevalent especially on the guitar parts. The 'Quartet were formed in 1967 in New York by Steve Baron who had earlier participated in the Greenwich Village folk revival of the early '60s. Helped by session drummers, they released only one album in 1969, for the small Californian label Tetragrammaton. (This label also released Joshua Fox, Ivory and Quatrain and was partly owned by Bill Cosby). Produced by Mike Berniker and arranged by Manny Albam, the best tracks are Bertha Was The Mother Of Us All, Don't You Hate The Feeling and the eleven minute Shadow Man. Some of the other tracks, however, suffer from the addition of strings.

Curiously Pete Townshend penned the enthusiastic liner notes "all the sounds spontaneously and simultanously imploding and exploding. Just like nature! The Quartet make Natural Music. Jai Baba!"

In 1970, Bill Davidson joined Gas Mask for Their First Album (and last!).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Barons

45:

1. Come To Me/Only The Young (Monocle 001) 1967

This garage band hailed from San Antonio in Texas and the 'A' side of their sole 45 contains some good organ and guitar work although the vocals could be more upfront. The flip was an instrumental. Come To Me was later included on (Texas) Flashback, Vol. 1.

The Barons

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN NITZINGER A
- CURLY BENTON A
- DON BABB A
- RONNIE MARCOTT A

45s:

1. You're Gonna Get Hurt/I'll Never Be Happy (Torch 102) 1965
2. Live And Die/Don't Look Back (Torch 103) 1965
3. Don't Burn It/I Hope I Please You (Brownfield 1035) 196?

A different act which formed at Haltom High School in Fort Worth, also in Texas. All three 45s were written by John Nitzinger who later formed his own band in the '70s and then went on to play for Alice Cooper in the early '80s. The 'A' side of their second 45, a good folk-rocker, can be found on Texas Punk, 1966: Vol. 9, but their best effort was Don't Burn It, an anti-draft folk protest song. Check it out on Texas Flashbacks, Vol. 3 or Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 13: Texas, Part Three. Benton also went on briefly to play in Nitzinger's band but sadly died young of cancer.

The Barons

TOP

Personnel:

- DAVID BORDERKIRCHER ld vcls
- JIM KATT gtr, vcls
- DANNY FREEMAN keyb'ds, gtr, vcls
- GLEN NORMAN bs
- DEE EBERSBACK drums, vcls

45s:

1. Drawbridge / Lovin' Man (Tener T1011) Aug. 1967
2. Reach For The Sky / Colors Of Love (Tener T1021) 1967/8

From Orlando, Florida this band lasted through many personnel changes, after the original line-up detailed above, right up to 1977 - quite a feat. Drawbridge is a cool power-punker with a killer fuzz riff throughout, right up with the likes of The Del-Vetts' Last Time Around. Lovin' Man harks back to a 1964-5 R&B-influenced U.K. beat style.

Compilation appearances include: Drawbridge on Yeah Yeah Yeah CD, Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol.2 CD; Drawbridge and Lovin' Man on Sixties Rebellion Vol.5; You Must Believe Me on the sought-after Bee Jay Demo Vol.II 1967 LP (Tener 1014); Colors Of Love on the equally rare Bee Jay Video Soundtrack LP (also issued as Tener 1014, in 1968); and another track, title unknown, on the Bee Jay Sampler EP (Tener 1038).

(Max Waller / Roger Maglio)

The Barons

ALBUM:

1 BY REQUEST (Solar) 1972

Another Barons, also from Texas, this time doing covers of Creedence, Buffalo Springfield and Ten Years After. The only other known release on Solar is by Fourth Cekcion, so speculatively both groups may be linked in some way.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Baron Thomas and The Blue Crystals

45s:

1. Be Bop A Lula / Hey Baby (Courier 116) Jun. 1965
2. Tension/We'll Be Thru For Ever (Courier 8150) Sept. 1966

NB: (1) as The Blue Crystals.

From Bowling Green, Ohio. Tension is a typically crude garage punk recording - not a bad effort, though. You'll also find it on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 21: Ohio. whilst their rendition of Be Bop A Lula has also appeared on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller / George Gell)

The Baroque Brothers

45:

1. So Glad Was I/Baroque Au Go Go (Back Beat 562) 1966

Beatles meet The Byrds in So Glad Was I with some George Harrison chords for good measure. Similar sonic territory to The Coastliners, this outfit hailed from Houston, Texas. The flip is a 'live' club instrumental work-out with sax.

(Max Waller)

Baroque Monthly

TOP

Personnel:

- DAN MASYS ld vcls, ld gtr
- DAVE SAMPSON bs
- JIM KELLY keyb'ds
- SANDY EDELSTEIN
- JON RICKLEY drums

45:

1. I'll Be Lonely / You Are Your Only Mystery (Ironbeat HR 1167) Feb. 1968

A latter-day one-off monicker for The Jaguars of Columbus, Ohio, who formed around 1964 whilst students at the Bexley and Eastmoor high schools. You Are Your Only Mystery, which Dan Masys says was influenced by the Beatles' Eleanor Rigby and the Left Banke's Walk Away Renee, is a soft-baroque-rock charmer with horns and piano and a vaguely hippie aura - but don't let that put you off, it's highly rated by many. Save a fortune and judge for yourself by checking it out on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2.

Prior to this The Jaguars had a 45 that made it to the acetate stage in 1964/5, Two Can Play / The Day You're Mine. The former is also on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2. Ironbeat was a subsidiary of Mus-I-Col, whose legacy is to be explored in two volumes by Get Hip shortly.

In '99 Dan Masys is Associate Clinical Professor of Medicine in California, Sampson is an engineer for Lockheed Martin, Kelly a gymnastics teacher in New Jersey, Rickley lives in Indiana, Edelstein's whereabouts are unknown.

(Max Waller / George Gell / Roger Maglio)

The Baroques

TOP

Personnel:

- DEAN NIMMER drms A
- RICK BIENIEWSKI bs A
- JAY BORKENHAGEN gtr, keyb'ds, vcls A
- JACQUES HUTCHINSON gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BAROQUES (Chess 1516) Jun. 1967

NB: There are also two retrospective compilations. The Baroques (Baroque Records DRP-9005) 198? on vinyl and Purple Day (Distortions no #) 1996 on CD.

45s:

1. Mary Jane / Iowa, A Girl's Name (Chess 2001) Jun. 1967
2. I Will Not Touch/Remember (Baroque 4553/4) Apr. 1968

The Baroques came from Milwaukee, Wisconsin and were one of the first psychedelic bands in the area. Their original album Baroques is excellent and also includes their best track, Musical Tribute To The Oscar Weiner Wagon. This, starts slowly, culminating in a kaleidoscopic interplay of guitar and drums. A consistently high standard is also maintained throughout almost all the album with Rose Colored Glasses, In Silver Light and Purple Day featuring fine guitar interplay which captures the band at its best.

Originally known as The Complete Unknowns they dressed in baroque costumes and always played with a white pot-bellied stove on stage which contained the controls for their light show. After the first album Chess wanted them to record material like Chippie, The Hippie From Mississippi which the band refused to do. They were subsequently released from their Chess contract and released their own 45 I Will Not Touch You in April, 1968. The band split some six months later.

Wayne Will, an original member, was drafted in August 1966. Jay stayed in music business, Jacques is now a communications professor at University of Colorado, Dean an art professor at Massachusetts College of Art, and Rich is a travelling salesman.

Anyone interested in finding out more should take their pick between two retrospective compilations. The vinyl The Baroques put out by the band on their own label, contains some of their finer tracks from their original album (Mary Jane, Musical Tribute To The Oscar Weiner Wagon, Iowa, A Girls Name and Bicycle), otherwise the material is all new. Sunflowers and At The Garden Gate, both from February 1968, are more in a progressive vein with lots of extended instrumentation. Still, quite interesting though. The CD, Purple Day covers similar ground with rarities and "best of" material alike.

Not surprisingly their material has also been heavily compiled. You can find Mary Jane on Psychedelic Crown Jewels, Vol. 1 (CD); Musical Tribute To The Oscar Weiner Wagon on Mindrocker, Vol. 6; I Will Not Touch You and Remember, on Glimpses, Vol. 2 and Glimpses, Vol. 1 & 2 (CD); I Will Not Touch You on Gone, Vol. 1; Nothing Left To Do But Cry on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 15; Iowa, A Girl's Name on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 2 and Turds On A Bum Ride Vol.'s 1 & 2 (CD); and finally, Remember on the vinyl version of The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 1.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley)

The Barracuda

Personnel incl:

- PETE SANDO vcls

45s:

1. Dance Of St. Francis / Lady Fingers (PS) (RCA 9660) 1969 113

2. Julie (The Song I Sing Is To You)/Sleeping Out The Storm (RCA 9743) 1969

A New York City area group whose material was written and/or produced by Alan Gordon and Gary Bonner of Magicians' fame and Turtle's hit songwriters. Interesting late '60s pop, rather than garage or psychedelia, it's worth a spin and Dance Of St Francis can also be heard on Glimpses, Vol. 2.

Pete Sando, who sang on the first 45, was also guitarist in Gandalf.

The Barracudas

Personnel:

BUTCH EARNHARDT	sax, organ	A
CHRIS LAYNE	gtr	A
MIKE PARKER	ld gtr	A
SAM SHAW	bs	A
DONNIE THURSTON	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	A PLANE VIEW OF THE BARRACUDAS	(Justice 143)	1967

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Collectables COL-CD-0606) 1995.

45s:

1	I Can't Believe/20-75	(Cuda no #)	1966
2	Days Of A Quiet Sun/Apple Pie	(Satori 507)	1969

Highland Springs just to the east of Richmond, Virginia, (not Winston-Salem in North Carolina as was stated on the Tobacco-A-Go-Go compilation) was this band's home. They formed in late 1964 as a six-piece but soon solidified into the five-piece listed above in early 1965. Donnie Thurston's dad became their manager and they took part in various 'Battle Of The Bands' during 1965. Their first 45 in 1966 comprised an unimpressive folk-rocker on the 'A' side and an instrumental cover on the flip. They put it out on their own Cuda label. The same session also produced I'll Never Fall Again, their best original, and a bizarre medley of Gloria, Baby Please Don't Go, which remains unreleased.

In 1967 they recorded an album for Justice Records of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Besides two originals:- I Can't Believe and I'll Never Fall Again, the album comprised sloppy teenage versions of Blue Feeling, Feel A Whole Lot Better, Not Fade Away, I Call Your Name, Shotgun and I'm A Man, which were so faithfully rendered and devoid of fuzz that they sound more U.K. than U.S.. Clearly The Rolling Stones were their inspiration and their cover of Not Fade Away later resurfaced on Tobacco-A-Go-Go, with I'm A Man later appearing on Vol. 2 of the same series. One of the better tracks was I'm A Lover Not A Fighter, a frat-rocker from the Kinks' second Album but Shotgun, in particular, was a pityful attempt at exploiting sixties soul music. Nevertheless the album sold over 700 copies and the band became popular on the college frat-rock circuit.

By 1968 they had progressed into a Hendrix/Cream-type heavy jam sound, but suprisingly their final 45 in 1969 was a folk-rocker. They quit in late 1969. Their album is now quite a big collectors' item but it's really overrated.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Barracudas

Personnel:

- TERRY FONTANILLE ld gtr
- JOHN HAAS vcls
- ALEX HAAS drums
- TOMMY McNABB bs

45:

1. Baby Get Lost/Honest I Do (Zundak 101) 1965

From Bunkie, Louisiana and originally known as the Pickles, their story is revealed in Andrew Brown's 'Brown Paper Sack #1', thanks to Mark Prellberg. Their screamin' raver was unleashed on the world in April 1965 and graces Back From The Grave Vol. 6, coming on like a younger and speeded-up version of the Pretty Things. The flip was a slower Stones-style effort.

They disbanded in 1967 with John and Tommy forming Nobody's Children - no known releases and not to be confused with at least half-a-dozen same name outfits. John Haas was tempted away to lend his vocal talents to Jimmy & The Offbeats, who then renamed themselves as John Eric & The Isosceles Popsicles who recorded I'm Not Nice on the USA label.

(Andrew Brown/Mark Prellberg/Max Waller/Kip Brown)

The Barracuda's

Personnel incl:

- MIKE AKIN A B
- TOMMY GASS vcls A B
- ROBIE ROBICHAUD bs A B
- BOB ROLSKY drums A
- PAT STOREY A B
- TERRY SIDELINKER drums B

45s:

1. (A) Realize / It's High Time (Flare 200,848/9) 1966
2. (B) No Matter What You Do / Wait For Tomorrow (Critique 1075627) 1967
3. (B) No Matter What You Do / Wait For Tomorrow (Smash S-2181) 1968

Another Barracuda's, this time from Bath, Maine. Their first single was released locally, whilst No Matter What You Do was in the vein of The Buckinghams. It's High Time later resurfaced on It's Finking Time.

Robbie Robichaud went on to do solo work for Noel Paul Stookey (of Peter, Paul & Mary fame)!

(Lee Rand/Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Tom Barsanti and The Invaders

45:

1. You Can't Sit Down/For Your Precious Love (Delta 2134) 1966

This 45 was issued on a New Mexico label, and has an earlier frat-rock feel.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Basement Wall to Beacon St Union

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Basement Wall
- Robbie Basho
- Basic Things
- The Baskerville Hounds
- The Bassmen
- The Bassmen
- Bastille
- Gil Bateman
- The Bats
- Battalion Tweed
- Skip Battin
- Joe Bauer
- Baxter
- Baxter's Chat
- Bay Ridge
- The Baytovens
- The BC's
- B.C. and The Caveman
- Beach Bums
- The Beachcombers
- The Beach Niks
- The Beach Nuts
- The Beachnuts
- The Beacon Street Union

The Basement Wall

Personnel:

- BARRIE EDGAR drms, vcls A
- TERRY BOURDIER bs A
- RICHARD LIPSCOMB ld gtr, vcls A
- GEORGE RATZIAFF keyb'ds, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE BASEMENT WALL (Senate) 1963

NB: There's also a retrospective compilation The Incredible Sound Of... (Cicadelic 992) 1985, which has been reissued on CD (Collectables COL-CD-0524), together with The New Breed's Want Ad Reader.

45:

1. Never Existed/Taste Of A Kiss (Senate 2109) 1968

This fairly atypical garage punk band hailed from Baton Rouge, the State Capital and petrochemical industry centre in Louisiana. Perhaps they played in Texas a lot because they certainly seem to have been connected with the Lone Star State. Texas Punk: Vol. 8 captures a live recording of the band at the Act Ill in 1967. It's pretty raw stuff as they work their way through versions of Louie Louie, We Ain't Got Nothing Yet, Hungry, Double Shot Of My Baby's Love, Like A Rolling Stone and The Basement Exit.

Never Existed, their stab at immortality, can be heard on Relics, Vol. 1 and Boulders, Vol. 10. The Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 4 also contains an alternate take of the song. Ronnie Weiss (Mouse And The Traps) was on hand in the studio to wield lead guitar on this master-piece.

George Ratzlaff went on to form Potliquor, who recorded three albums of respectable blues-rock for Janus between 1970-73.

The retrospective on Cicadelic/Collectables may be a reissue of their original album on Senate, if indeed it was ever officially released. Many collectors are very dubious of its existence. Also of interest is Vol. 2/There Goes The Neighbourhood (COL-CD-0541), which contains 18 tracks, mainly covers of classic mid-sixties tunes.

(Max Waller/Joe Rein)

Robbie Basho

TOP

ALBUMS:

1	THE FALCONER'S ARM, VOL. 1	(Takoma C-1017)	1967 R1
2	THE FALCONER'S ARM, VOL. 2	(Takoma C-1018)	1968
3	VENUS IN CANCER	(Blue Thumb BTS-10)	1969
4	SONG OF THE STALLION	(Takoma C-1031)	1970
5	ZARTHUS	(Vanguard VSD 79339)	1972 R1
6	THE VOICE OF THE EAGLE	(Vanguard VSD 79???)	1972

NB: (1) also released in the UK (Sonet) 1968.

Discovered by John Fahey who signed him to his Takoma label, Robbie Basho was a singer and acoustic guitar player combining his folk and country roots with Native American, Arabic, Persian and Indian music. His work can be compared to Sandy Bull or Peter Walker and may also interest fans of Kaleidoscope or John Berberian, even if it's more meditative than the latter. His records are quite sought after now, especially Zarthus with its raga Llord Of The Blue Rose.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Basic Things

Personnel incl:

- HERMANN BENNETT vcls

45:

1. Ninety-Nine And A Half/You'll Still Dreaming (Purple Can 101) 196?

Operating around Port Arthur in Texas, this act recorded just one 45 at Jones Studios in Houston. The 'A' side was an organ driven punker, the flip a pleasant slow song.

The Baskerville Hounds

Personnel:

WILLIAM EMERY	vcls, bs	A
MICHAEL MACRON	drms, vcls	A
LAWRENCE MEESE	vcls, ld gtr	A
DANTE ROSSI	vcls, gtr	A
JACK TOPPER	piano, organ, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FEATURING SPACE ROCK PART 2	(Dot DLP 25823)	1967

NB: The Baskerville Hounds have recently released a new CD, Look At Us Now, () April 2000. This contains new versions of Hurtin' Kind, Mine Forever, and Space Rock as well as ten new original songs.

45s:

1	The Hurtin' Kind/Mine Forever	(Tema 817)	1965
2	Debbie/Although I Was To Blame	(Tema 125)	1965
3	Space Rock Part 1 /Part 2	(Tema 128)	1965
4	Christmas Is Here/Make Me Your Man	(Tema 131)	1965
5	All You Had To Do Was Ask / Who Does She Love	(Tema 132)	1966
6	Space Rock Part 1 /Part 2	(Tema 128)	1967
7	Space Rock Part 1 /Part 2	(Dot 17004)	1967
8	Debbie/Jackie's Theme	(Dot 17017)	1967
9	Baby Am I Losing?/Never On Sunday	(Dot 17037)	1967
10	Caroline/Last Night On The Back Porch	(Buddah 17)	1967 -
11	Hold Me/Here I Come Miami	(Tema no #)	1969 -
12	Hold Me/Here I Come Miami	(Avco Embassy 4504)	1969 88
13	The Hurtin' Kind/Mine Forever	(Mar no #)	19??
14	Route 66 / Hold Me	(Bowie 12268)	1981/2

NB: (1) released as The Tulu Babies. (2) initially released as The Tulu Babies and subsequently as The Baskerville Hounds. (13) is a bootleg of (1), miscredited as The Talula Babies. (3) reissued 1967 prior to being leased to Dot.

A Cleveland, Ohio, band, originally known as The Tulu Babies. The inclusion of their first 45 on Eva's Florida Punk

From The '60s, where it states that they weren't a Florida band in the liner notes, has nonetheless caused much confusion. The title of the flip to their first 45, as The Baskerville Hounds served only to add to this. Hold Me, incidentally, was the P.J. Proby song. It gave them their only hit peaking at No. 88. Neither a garage or a psychedelic outfit as such, The Tulu Babies/Baskerville Hounds dabbled in both at times. The Hurtin' Kind was probably their finest moment and later resurfaced on Everywhere Interferences. Space Rock Part 2 which also got a further airing on Pride Of Cleveland Past is an organ-driven instrumental. By no means outstanding it is probably the pick of the crop on a disappointing album which includes reasonable covers of Penny Lane, Never On Sunday and I'm A Believer and some rather average originals. Apparently they were also known for not being the best looking bunch around.

Recently The Baskerville Hounds have released a new CD, Look At Us Now, which contains new versions of Hurtin' Kind, Mine Forever, and Space Rock as well as ten new original songs. The band are also resuming live performances.

For more information, check their website:- http://www.baskervillehounds.com

(Max Waller / George Gell / Vernon Joynson)

The Bassmen

TOP

45:

1 Last Laugh/Come Home (Gallantry 745) 1965

Hailing from Tucson, Arizona, they were also known as Bobby and The Bassmen. Last Laugh can also be found on Boulders, Vol. 5 and Think Of The Good Times: The Tucson Sound.

(Max Waller)

The Bassmen

TOP

45:

1. I Need You/Leigh Anne (Vaughn Ltd VA-101) 1966

A different act from Alabama. You'll find I Need You on The Garage Zone, Vol. 2 and A Joumey To Tyme, Vol. 4. (Kip Brown/Max Waller).

Bastille

TOP

45:

1. Trying To Be Free/The Music Ship (Bastille 30299/30300) 1973

From New Bedford, Massachusetts, featuring wah-wah and heavy keyboard vibes. (Max Waller)

Gil Bateman

45s:

1. Wicked Love/Goodnight Irene (Panorama 12) 1965
2. Sneakin' Up On You/Daddy Walked In Darkness (Jerden 779) 1965
3. (Alt flip) One Eyed Cat/Daddy Walked In Darkness (Jerden 779) 1965
4. How To Do It/Wicked Love (Piccadilly 227) 1966
5. The Night Before/How To Do It (Piccadilly 249) 1967

Max Waller drew my attention to this little known but ubiquitous Pacific Northwest artist who also turned his talents to production (Bards, Ceptors amongst others). Daddy Walked is a fine reworking of House Of The Rising Sun with strong vocals and guitar. Much of his other material is garagey pop with a hard edge.

The Bats

45:

1. Nothing At All/Big Bright Eyes (HBR 445) 1965

An obscure outfit offer this evocative folk-rock 45, with some Moody Blues type vocal 'ooos' on the tragic 'A' side, that graces Moxie's Folk Rock (EP), whilst Big Bright Eyes is a more upbeat strummed affair. This act may have just been a studio aggregation, featuring Danny Hutton (and possibly Larry Goldberg). Hutton issued several solo 45s (including what may be a different version of Big Bright Eyes on HBR 453), before joining Cory Wells and The Enemys. He and Cory would later team up with Chuck Negron to become Three Dog Night.

Incidentally, the brooding Nothing At All was covered by the Love Exchange on their eponymous LP in 1967. (Max Waller)

Battalion Tweed

45:

1	But It's Alright / Last Time	(Mr.G. 810)	1968

A Connecticut band, who dug The Young Rascals, tackle J.J. Jackson's popular soul-popper But It's Alright (also covered by Them, The Red Dogs, Morning Reign and Canoise). This is a lively rendition with swirling keyboards, a little fuzz, and latterly brassy fanfares.

The flip is not a Stones' cover but a pulsating keyboard-led club dance instrumental with background vocal taunts and a great fuzz break. It ain't garage, rather a blood brother to that fave-rave of "Northern soul" circles - Footsee by the Chosen Few.

(Max Waller)

Skip Battin

Personnel:

SKIP BATTIN	bs, vcls, gtr	A
JOHN GUERIN	drms	A
SPANKY McFARLANE	backing vcl	A
ROGER McGUINN	12-string gtr	A
BILLY MUNDI	drms	A
CLARENCE WHITE	gtr, mandolin, dobro	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	SKIP BATTIN	(Sign Post SP 8408)	1972

Singer, bassist and songwriter, Skip Battin (or Battyn) began his long career in the '50s in the country duo Skip and Flip (Flip was Gib Guilbeau). A long time friend of Kim Fowley, in 1969 he formed the Evergreen Blueshoes and played with both Armaggedon and Gene Vincent. In 1970 he joined the Byrds in time for their Untitled album. He also played on Zevon's Wanted Dead Or Alive LP.

His 1972 album is essentially country pop but may interest some readers as all the songs were co-written by Battin and Fowley and the backing group comprised two Byrds (McGuinn and White), one ex-Mothers and Rhinoceros member (Billy Mundi) plus Spanky McFarlane from Spanky and Our Gang. Some tracks (Undercover Man, Cobras, Captain Video, Four Legs Are Better Than Two) are interesting if you appreciate Battin's nasal voice.

Battin later joined the New Riders Of The Purple Sage and the Flying Burritos Brothers and kept on recording with various country rock formations in the '70s and '80s. He released a second solo album, Navigator (Appaloosa) in 1981.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Joe Bauer

Personnel:

EARTHQUAKE ANDERSON	hrmnca	A
BANANA	gtr, piano	A B
JOE BAUER	drms	A B
JACK GREGG	bs	A
MICHAEL KANE	bs	A B
STEVE SWALLOW	bs	A
KENNY GILL	piano	B
BILL MITCHELL	tenor	B

ALBUM:

1(A)	MOONSET	(Raccoon 3 / Warner WS 1901)	1971
2(B)	CRAB TUNES/NOGGINS	(Raccoon 8 / Warner WS 1914)	1971

Two albums by The Youngbloods drummer: noises, improvisations, folk and blues. Not an easy listening experience!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Baxter

Personnel:

DOUG ARIOLA	gtr, vcls	A
STEVE BELGRADE	gtr, vcls	A
LAWRENCE DI NATALE	drms	A
STEVE KIRSHENBAUM	keyb'ds	A
EDWIN PERRY	bs, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BAXTER	(Paramount PAS 6050)	1973 SC

A prog rock album with guitar and organ interplay.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Baxter's Chat

45:

1	Don't Come Around Today/?	(Pearce 5812)	1967

Hailing from Southeast Kansas this outfit travelled to Cavern Studios in Independence Missouri to record this 45, a pleasing organ-dominated pop 45. There's also rumoured to have been a second fuzz drenched 45, but I don't have details of this.

Don't Come Around Today can also be found on Monsters Of The Midwest Vol. III.

(Max Waller)

Bay Ridge

Personnel:

JOSEPH CARBONE	A
ROBERT GAMBALE	A
HUGO PEROTTI	A
PETER PINTO	A
RICHARD ZITO	A

45s:

1	Back Track/I Can't Get Her Out Of My Mind	(Atlantic 2431)	1967
2	Without You/I Will Wait	(Atlantic 2520)	1968

From Brooklyn, New York. Both 45s have a garagey feel but also lean more towards Vanilla Fudge-styled R&B/soul-tinged vocals and keyboards. On the plus side there is some strong guitar work and good use of fuzz on Without Her and I Can't Get Her Out Of My Mind is reasonable garagey-pop. Their best effort however is I Will Wait - a good garagey workout and a song that actually is "One Chord", which the group modulates up to a higher key at the end.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich / Vernon Joynson)

The Baytovens

TOP

Personnel:

- CARL DEPOLO
- JON GREEN
- RICHARD GREEN
- DWIGHT PITCAITHLEY

45s:

1. My House / Luv Look Away (Leander) 1966
2. Waiting For You / Such A Fool (PS) (Belfast 67-1001) Feb 1967

NB: (1) not released.

A cleverly named bunch from San Leandro, California... Waiting For You is a pleasant pop song whose chord progression features an open or suspended chord where the ears would expect a full major. The flip side, Such A Fool is a Beau Brummels derived gem with a mesmerizing guitar figure and a plaintive spine-tingling chorus. The perfect song of lost love when the fog rolls in over Frisco's moody landscape. It's got an old-style almost gold-rush aura about it.

All four cuts by the band to appear on a forthcoming volume in the Nuggets From The Golden State series on Big Beat.

(Steve Hodson / Max Waller)

The BC's

TOP

45:

1	Oh Yeow!/Comin'On Home	(Ruff 1015)	1966

Hailing from West Texas they reworked The Shadow Of Knight's Oh Yeah Texas punk style. You can hear the result on Texas Punk, 1966: Vol. 9.

B.C. and The Caveman

45:

1	As Long As I'm Around/?	(Stone Age 814P-0001)	196?

A Michigan band whose rather mundane As Long As I'm Around can be heard on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 2 and Let Em Have It (CD).

Beach Bums

Personnel incl:

BOB SEGER	vcls	A
DOUG BROWN		A

45:

1	Ballad Of The Yellow Beret/Florida Time	(Are You Kidding Me Records 1010)	Mar. 1966

The first single released by Bob Seger, in March 1966. The Beach Bums were in fact the Omens and the song was a parody of Sgt Barry Adler's Ballad Of The Green Beret. It was a hit in Michigan but when Sadler complained the 45 was withdrawn.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Beachcombers

Personnel:

- DAVE ANDERSON bs A
- TERRY BIGGS ld gtr A
- STAN FOREMAN electric piano A
- PAUL LOVE gtr A
- DAVE REED sax, vcls A
- JIM WYNANS drms A

CD:

1. () THE LEGENDARY BEACHCOMBERS LIVE IN THE GREAT NORTHWEST () 1997

45s:

1. Purple Peanuts / Chinese Bagpiper (Jerden 719) 1963
2. Tossin' And Turnin' / The Wheeley (Jerden 734) 1964

3. All To Pieces / The Wheeley (Panorama 11) 1965

Formed in 1961 in Aberdeen, Washington (home of Kurt Cobain) they played the entire Northwest region until 1968. They did shows with The Wailers, Sonics, Viceroys, Bootmen, etc and played all the great dance halls including Parkers, Pearls, Target Ballroom, etc.

The Beachcombers recorded for Jerden Records, home of the Kingsmen, Dave Lewis, Ian Whitcomb, and others. The band had several instrumentals that received big airplay on Northwest radio. In 1989 the original members of the band got together again to play for their high school class reunion. They had so much fun that they decided to play a limited number of dates each year. Currently billed as "The Legendary Beachcombers", the band plays about ten dates a year... car shows, class reunions, corporate functions, country club '60s nites. etc. In 1997 the band released a live cd titled "The Legendary Beachcombers Live in the Great Northwest" which has sold almost 5,000 copies as of this date.

The Wheeley also features on the cassette-only comp History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 5.

Thanks to Stan Foreman for pointing out we'd missed this bunch!

The Beach Niks

TOP

45s:

1. Like Stoned/Good Things (MMC 007) 1965
2. Last Night I Cried/It Was A Nightmare (MMC 008) 1965
3. Last Night I Cried/It Was A Nightmare (Sea Mist 1001) 1965

A well respected punk outfit from Newell, a very small town in Western Iowa. You can check out Last Night I Cried on the cassette compilation, Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1.

The Beach Nuts

TOP

45:

1	Out In The Sun (Hey-O)/Someday Soon	(Bang 504)		1965 106

This 45 is thought to be the work of The Strangeloves under yet another pseudonym.

(Tom Truszkowski)

The Beachnuts

TOP

Personnel:

HAROLD HENRY	bs	A
MIKE JOHNSON	gtr	A B
CARL STEVENS	ld vcls, organ	A
TOM STREW	drms, vcls	A B
BILL WALLS	ld gtr	A B
MIKE GARCIA	organ	B

45s:

1(A)	Babba Diddy Baby / I'm Angry Baby	(Remus 5000)	1965
2(B)	What Makes You Think / Professional Loving Man	(Tiki 68-21/22)	1968

NB: (1) released as by The Heart Attacks.

Formed in 1962 this Virginia Beach bunch started out playing surf music. In 1965 they released their debut 45 as The Heart Attacks although they continued to be known as The Beachnuts. Mike Johnson got his draft papers at the end of 1965. On his return in late 1967 the group reformed and lasted till the end of the decade, releasing one more 45 in 1968.

Babba Diddy Baby, an infectious frat-stomp with what sounds like steel drums, was first compiled on Boulders Vol. 10 in the '80s and makes a welcome re-appearance on Aliens, Psychos And Wild Things (CD) - a professional comp of the Tidewater '60s scene. This CD also features an extended take of What Makes You Think, an accomplished slice of '68 pop-rock with neat tempo changes and spiralling guitar runs. The flip side of the Tiki 45 is frat-ish soul.

(Brent Hosier/Dr.Simon Trent D.S.U./Max Waller)

The Beacon Street Union

TOP

Personnel:

- PAUL TARTACHNY gtr, vcls A
- JOHN LINCOLN WRIGHT vcls, perc A
- WAYNE ULAKY bs, vcls A
- RICHARD WEISSBERG drms A
- ROBERT RHODES keyb'ds, brass A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) THE EYES OF THE BEACON STREET UNION (MGM SE 4517) 1968 75
2. (A) THE CLOWN DIED IN MARVIN GARDENS (MGM SE 4568) 1968 173

NB: (2) also issued in France (MGM) 1969. Both albums have been reissued on one CD (Head 3497) 1997 but with an edited version of Baby Please Don't Go. More recently See For Miles have reissued both albums on one CD, this time with the full sixteen minute Baby Please Don't Go but with a track ommitted from the first album.

45s:

1. South End Incident (I'm Afraid) / Speed kills (MGM K 13865) Dec 1967
2. Blue Suede Shoes/Four Hundred And Five (MGM K 13935) 24th Apr. 1968
3. Mayola/May I Light Your Cigarette? (MGM K 14012) Dec. 1968
4. Lord Why Is It So Hard / Can't Find My Fingers (RTP 10011/2) 1969

This group, part of the 'Bosstown Sound', were energetically promoted in 1968. Their debut album, though often pretentious, was a mini-psychedelic masterpiece. The material, a mixture of acid rock, blues, and ballads, was usually original and often interesting. The album is recommended it you are able to obtain a copy. Their second effort continued in a similar vein, but contained the orchestrated Clown's Overture and Angus Of Aberdeen. Also of note on the album were a sixteen minute version of Baby Please Don't Go, a most unusual track entitled May I Light Your Cigarette? and a version of the Carl Perkin's classic Blue Suede Shoes. The back cover of this album pictures the band walking on top of a cloud and their strange music was undoubtedly largely drug-induced. Either or both albums are well worth checking out and both met with some commercial success.

Wright, Ulaky and Rhodes all played for Eagle, who issued an album for Janus Records. Then in 1977, John Lincoln Wright released a country music album titled Takin' Old Route One. Wright has pursued a career as a country singer and remains a popular entertainer today in the New England area.

For more information check the following website: http://members.tripod.com/~psych1/

(Vernon Joynson / Steve Panter / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bead Game to Beau Brummels

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Bead Game
- Beans
- Bear
- Paul Bearer and The Hearsemen
- The Bear Fax
- Bear Mountain Band
- Beast
- Beat of The Earth
- Beaten Path
- Beatin' Path
- The Beatle-ettes
- Beau Brummels

Bead Game

TOP

Personnel:

- K. WESTLAND HAAG gtr, vcls A
- JOHN SHELDON ld gtr A
- JIM HODDER drm, perc, vcls A
- R. GASS keyb'ds A
- LASSIE SACHS bs A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) WELCOME (Avco Embassy 33009) 1970
2. (A) BAPTISM (American Sound AS 1004) 1996

NB: (2) Ltd to 900 copies.

45:

1. Sweet Medusa/Country Girls (Avco Embassy 4539) 1970

A U.S. East Coast band probably from Boston. Their debut albums' stand out cuts are the opening track Punchin Judy, Mora and Country Girl a very pleasant slow number. All the cuts on the album were written by the band and some contain pretty good fuzztone guitar. Jim Hodder went on to play with Steely Dan.

They also had a couple of apparently excellent cuts on a soundtrack album, People Next Door on Avco Embassvy. The whole band were apparently also part of Freedom Express who released Easy Ridin' (Mercury) 1970, a horn-rock album notable for fine guitar and organ work.

Baptism, was recorded at Natural Sound in Mayward, Massachusettes in 1970, before they signed to Avco-Embassy and has a very laid back vibe. While occasionally a bit rough, none of the eleven tracks comes anywhere close to psych. Material such as Water Boy, 20 Dollars Bill and Mr. Sorry are mainstream pop-rock. Elsewhere, tracks such as Steamballin' and What A Day opted for a mild country-rock flavor. It's a nice, but forgettable collection.

(Vernon Joynson / Scott Blackerby)

Beans

ALBUM:

1	BEANS	(Avalanche 9200)	1972

An unknown hippie rock with some weird tracks.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bear

Personnel:

- ERIC KAZ keyb'ds, vcls A
- STEVE SOLES vcls A
- ARTIE TRAUM gtr, vcls A
- (SKIP BOONE bs A)
- (DARIUS DAVENPORT drms A)

ALBUM:

1. (A) GREETINGS CHILDREN OF PARADISE (Verve Folkways 3059) 1969

45:

1. Don't Say A Word/Greetings (Verve Folkways 5096) 1968

Bear were part of Boston's music scene in the late sixties. Their album is worth investigating. Two of its better tracks include, What Difference?, a laid back, jazzy number and It's Getting Very Cold Outside. The group was helped out by Steve Soles and Darius Davenport from Autosalvage.

Eric Kaz played in The Blues Magoos during 1969 and 1970, and in Mud Acres (during 1972) with Artie Traum. All three members became session musicians during the seventies.

Paul Bearer and The Hearsemen

Personnel incl:

PAUL BEARER	A
ED WESTBY	A

45:

1	Route 66/I've Been Thinking	(Riverton 105)	Jun. 1966

From Albany, Oregon. I've Been Thinking has been exhumed on Teenage Shutdown Vol. 10.

(Max Waller / Darryl F. Riffero / Mike Markesich)

The Bear Fax

TOP

45s:

1. I Wanna Do It (Marry You)/Love Is A Beautiful Thing (Fuzz 901) 196?
2. Out Of Our Tree/Turn Over (Fuzz 4141) 196?

A mid-sixties punk outfit from Texas. Their best known song is Out Of Our Tree, a brash punk rocker, by virtue of its inclusion on Flashback, Vol. 4.

Bear Mountain Band

TOP

ALBUM:

1	ONE MORE DAY	(Predator)	c1970 R3

A loud hardrock/heavy psyche group with lots of fuzz guitar and gritty vocals. This private pressing is now extremely rare.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Beast

TOP

Personnel:

- GERRY FIKE keyb'ds A B
- KENNY PASSARELLI bs, hrmnca A
- DOMINICK TODERO trumpet A
- LARRY FERRIS drms A B

- MIKE KEARNS woodwind A B
- DAVID RAINES vcls A B
- ROBERT YEAZEL gtr, vcls A B
- ROGER BRYANT bs B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BEAST (Cotillion 9012) 1969
2. (B) HIGHER & HIGHER (Evolution 2017) 1970

45:

1. Communication/Move Mountain (Evolution 1028) 1970

This outfit played eastern influenced, mainly instrumental music. Their albums were recorded at Norman Petty's studios in Clovis, New Mexico. So Denver, Colorado (not so far from New Mexico) was probably their place of origin. After all, Roger Yeazel and Larry Ferris went on to play in Sugarloaf (ex-Moonrakers), who also originated from Denver. Kenny Passarelli became a session musician in the seventies. Their first album, Beast, is the more melodic and mellow of the two, with sophisticated arrangements dominated by the flute and trumpet. A couple of songs have soul influences. The best tracks are: the hypnotic Floating and When We Rise, which features some good guitar work. Their second album is more diverse with no trumpet. The material ranges from good-time music (two short tracks) to heavy rock (Move Mountain). There are also melodic and jazzy moments and the highlights are Communication and I Am.

Beat of The Earth

TOP

Personnel:

MORGAN CHAPMAN	A
RON COLLINS	A
KAREN DARBY	A
JR NICHOLS	A
PHIL PEARLMAN	A
BILL PHILLIPS	A
SHERRY PHILLIPS	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE BEAT OF THE EARTH	(Radish AS 0001)	1967 R4
2()	THE ELECTRONIC HOLE	(Radish 0002)	1969 R3

NB: (1) had a pressing of 500. (2) seen recently on a list for $650. There's also a 1994 retrospective release Our Standard Three Minute Tune (Radish AS 0001½) 1994 SC. This not a reissue of (1), it is a different album of recordings made in 1967, limited to 500 copies.

Beat Of The Earth was assembled by Phil Pearlman, who had earlier released a surf/hot rod 45 Chrome Reversed Rails (shown as by Phil and The Flakes). This group, who were one of the earliest known electric experimental bands, sound very similar to their East Coast counterparts The Velvet Underground. Both of the albums listed above were recorded basically live in the studio in 1967 and consist of long, unstructured jams using a myriad of acoustic and electric instruments. While the record has both friends and foes, it remains an unusual and rare item of significance from the California rock scene. Pearlman himself is also a most arcane figure, and rock historians have linked him with several rare records from the sixties and seventies without straying far from factual realities: Maitreya Kali, Wildfire, Bob Smith/Garrett Lund - just to name a few of the "known" ones... he later was responsible for one of, if not THE glorious rock masterpieces of the 1970s: Relatively Clean Rivers which is so far-removed from Beat Of The Earth that fully five years passed before anyone noticed a connection between the two Southern California groups!

The group also recorded a second album but apparently only demo copies exist, with one side entitled The Golden Hill with four cuts using sitar and side two entitled Love Will Find A Way with a wild cover of Zappa's Trouble Every Day.

(Clark Faville/Stephane Rebeschini)

Beaten Path

TOP

45:

1	Doctor Stone/Never Never	(Jubilee 5556)	Dec. 1966

A punk band from Brooklyn, NY. Doctor Stone is on Boulders Vol. 4 and a stereo version appears on Psychedelic Microdots Vol. 3.

(Max Waller)

Beatin' Path

TOP

Personnel:

- RUDY BENTZ bs
- CRAIG FORESTO gtr
- RON MALINOWSKI keyb'ds
- RON MASLER drums
- STEVE MUSSER ld vcls

45:

1. Original Nothing People/I Waited So Long (Fontana 1583) 1967

NB: (1) reissued by Get Hip (GHAS-15) 1998, with a picture sleeve.

From Reading, Pennsylvania, this outfit started life as The Starlites with two 45s on Barclay and later became Soul Generation, who had a 45 on Dater, before changing name again to Beatin' Path. Their finest moment, Original Nothing People, with its rich organ backing and catchy punk sound can also be heard on Boulders, Vol. 1, Mayhem and Psychosis, Vol. 1 and Ya Gotta Have Moxie Vol. 1 (CD).

(Max Waller)

The Beatle-ettes

45:

1. Only Seventeen/Now We're Together (Jubilee 5472) 1964

A one-off recording venture for this optimistically-named all girl garage band. New York was their home and their garage response to the Beatles invasion Only Seventeen can be heard on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 1. It was produced by the legendary Shadow Morton.

Beau Brummels

Personnel:

RON ELLIOTT	gtr, vcls	A B C D E
RON MEAGHER	bs	A B C D
DECLAN MULLIGAN	gtr, vcls	A
JOHN PETERSEN	drms	A B C
SAL VALENTINO	vcls	A B C D E
DON IRVING	gtr, vcls	C

ALBUMS:
(up to 1968)

1(A)	INTRODUCING	(Autumn (S)LP 103)	1965
2(B)	VOLUME 2	(Autumn (S)LP 104)	1965
3(C)	BEAU BRUMMELS 66	(Warner Brothers W(S) 1644)	1966
4(D)	TRIANGLE	(Warner Brothers W(S) 1692)	1967
5(A/B)	THE BEST OF THE BEAU BRUMMELS	(Vault (S)LP 114)	1967
6(E)	BRADLEY'S BARN	(Warner Brothers WS 1760)	1968
7(A/B)	VOLUME 44	(Vault SLP 121)	1968

NB: (1) also released in France as Laugh, Laugh (Vogue INT 4006) 1966. (7) Previously unreleased tracks and mixes from their Autumn albums. 1973 saw the release of The Beau Brummels Sing (Post 6000) while Original Hits (JAS 5000) was issued in 1975 (both contain material from their Autumn days). Rhino have (re-)issued three albums so far: The Best Of The Beau Brummels (RNLP-101) 1981, Introducing (RNLP-102) 1982 and From The Vaults (RNLP-104) 1982. The German reissue label Line have reissued Introducing (OLLP 5108) 1981, Volume 2 (OLLP 5113) 1982 and Good Time Music (OLLP 5275) 1982. (4) was reissued on CD in 1996. (1) and (2) have also been reissued on CD by Sundazed (SC 6039 and SC 6040) with many extra tracks. (1) was also released in the U.K. (Pye NPL 28062) in 1965, (6) was released in the U.K. (Edsel ED 151) in 1985 and there's also Autumn In San Francisco (Edsel ED 141), which was released in 1985. 1994 saw the release of a 26 track rarities double CD, Autumn Of Their Years (Big Beat CDWIKD 127), which contained 16 previously unreleased tracks and demos. 1996 saw the release of San Fran Sessions (Sundazed SC 11033), a 60-track 3-CD box set with demos, alternate versions, cuts from the never-released third Autumn album and lots more.

45s:
(up to 1969)

1(A)	Laugh, Laugh/Still In Love With You Baby	(Autumn 8)	1964 15
2(A)	Just A Little/They'll Make You Cry	(Autumn 10)	1965 8
3(B)	You Tell Me Why/I Want You	(Autumn 16)	1965 38
4(B)	Don't Talk To Strangers/In Good Time	(Autumn 20)	1965 52
5(B)	Good Time Music/Sad Little Girl	(Autumn 24)	1965 97
6(C)	One Too Many Mornings/She Reigned	(Warner Brothers 5813)	1966 95
7(D)	Here We Are Again/Fine With Me	(Warner Brothers 5848)	1966 -
8(D)	Don't Make Promises/Two Days 'Till Tomorrow	(Warner Brothers 7014)	1967 -
9(D)	Magic Hollow/Lower Level	(Warner Brothers 7079)	1967 -
10(E)	Lift Me/Are You Happy	(Warner Brothers 7204)	1968 -
11(E)	Long Walk Down To Misery/I'm A Sleeper	(Warner Brothers 7218)	1968 -
12(E)	Cherokee Girl/Deep Water	(Warner Brothers 7260)	1969 -

NB: Also released in the U.K. were (1) Pye (7N 25293) 1965, (2) Pye (7N 25306) 1965, (3) Pye (7N 25318) 1965 and (4) Pye (7N 25333) 1965. (5) was planned (Pye 7N 25342) but cancelled. There are also three rare French EPs with PS (Vogue INT 18002), (Vogue INT 18010) and (Warner WB 112).

While they only had two big hits, The Beau Brummels were one of the most important and underrated American groups of the '60s. They were the first U.S. unit of any sort to successfully respond to the British Invasion. They were arguably the first folk-rock group, even predating The Byrds, and also anticipated some key elements of the San Francisco psychedelic sound with their soaring harmonies and exuberant melodies. Before they finally reached the end of the string, they were also among the first bands to record country-rock in the late sixties.

The key axis of the band was formed by guitarist/songwriter Ron Elliott, who penned most of the Brummels' moody and melodious material, and singer Sal Valentino, owner of one of the finest voices in mid-sixties rock. Spotted by local DJ Tom Donahue in a club in San Mateo (just south of San Francisco), the group were signed to Donahue's small San Francisco-based label Autumn Records in 1964. With Sly Stewart (later Sly Stone) in the producer's chair, they made the Top 20 right off the bat with Laugh, Laugh. The melancholy, minor-key original sounded so much like the British bands inundating the airwaves that many listeners initially mistook the Brummels for an English act. The follow-up single, Just A Little, was another excellent, melancholy number that became their biggest hit, making the Top Ten.

The Beau Brummels made a couple of fine albums in 1965, dominated by strong original material and featuring the band's ringing guitars and multi-part, mournful harmonies. The best of their early work is nearly as fine as The Byrds' first recordings, yet the band were losing ground commercially, partially because Autumn, being such a small label, lacked promotional muscle. You Tell Me Why was their only other Top 40 hit, though Sad Little Girl and The Byrds knockoff Don't Talk To Strangers were excellent singles. The band also shuffled personnel a few times, and Ron Elliott was unable to stay on the road because of diabetes. Autumn was sold in 1966 to Warners, who made the lunkheaded move of forcing the band to record an entire album of Top 40 covers - ignoring the fact that original material was one of Brummels' primary fortes.

Regrouping as a trio, the group recorded the critically acclaimed, more experimental album Triangle, in 1967. Their last Warners LP, Bradley's Barn, found the group branching into country-rock, a year or so before it became fashionable. The Beau Brummels did reform for an unimpressive reunion album in 1975, and although Ron Elliott and Sal Valentino continued to make music and work on various low-profile projects of their own, they've never made records on par with the Brummels' vintage work.

Ron Elliott later played in Joyous Noise (Musical Ensemble)

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Beau Denturies to Beech-Nuts

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Beau Denturies
- The Beau Gentry
- The Beau Phenom
- The Beaubiens
- Beauregarde
- The Beautiful Apollo
- Beautiful Daze
- The Beaux Jens
- Beaver and Krause
- Beaver and The Trappers
- The Beaver Patrol
- Joe Beck
- Beckett Quintet
- Billy Joe Becoat
- The Bed of Roses
- Jack Bedient and The Chessmen
- Bedforde Set
- Bedlam Four
- Bedpost Oracle
- Beech Nuts

The Beau Denturies

Personnel incl:

- BURNHAM
- HARRIMAN

45:

1. Straight Home/Don't Quit Now (Encore 1001) 1966

Akron, Ohio was home to this mob. Over an incessant fuzztone riff the singer tells of a lousy date... how he watched an awful movie and ended up taking home a girl that was 'downright ugly'! Quite a little gem that later turned up on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 21: Ohio, Part 2 and on Riot City.

They were later known as The Zoo / Yellow Pages. (Max Waller)

The Beau Gentry

An unknown band, probably from the Chicago area. The previously unissued track Black Cat Blues was included on If You're Ready! The Best Of Dunwich Records, Vol. 2.

The Beau Phenom

45:

1. Call Off Life/Peyote Peyote Lowding (Co-op 520) 1969

Strange titles and a pretty strange psychy 45 from New Haven, Connecticut. Call Off Life is an anti-Nam protest dirge with the odd gun effect and military-style drumming. The flip is even weirder - a slowed-down take of the Shake Rattle And Roll melody with nonsensical lyrics. (MW)

The Beaubiens

45:

1. Time Passed/A Man Who's Lost (Malibu 67001) 1967

The work of an obscure Michigan band. Lotsa fuzz guitar and good vocals. It later resurfaced on Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 CD and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 19: Michigan, Part 3.

Beauregarde

Personnel:

- GREG SAGE ld gtr A
- DAVE KOLPEL bs A
- ALLEN ROBINSON congo, sax A
- OMAR BOSE organ A
- JAY LUNDELL drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BEAUREGARDE (Sound Productions SP 7104) 1969

NB: (1) also issued on F-Empire records (un-numbered). (1) has been repressed.

45s:

1. Mama Never Taught Me How To Jelly Roll/Popcorn Popper (1A 123) 1968
2. Testify/I (PS) (NW1 2758)1968

This Detroit outfit who later relocated to Portland are of historical interest in that Sage and Kolpel later emerged in Portland, Oregon playing with The Wipers in the late seventies. Largely mainstream rock the album is not recommended. Beauregarde was apparently a professional wrestler!

The Beautiful Apollo

TOP

See Apollo's Apaches.

Beautiful Daze

TOP

45s:

1	City Jungle Parts 1 / 2	(RPR R-101)	1967
2	City Jungle Parts 1 / 2	(Spread City 101)	196?
3	City Jungle Part 1 / City Jungle Part 2	(Alpha 618)	1968

NB: (3) as More Beautiful Daze.

This amazin' 45 was recorded on Hollywood-based labels although the band were originally from the Pacific Northwest. Full of feedback, it culminates into a psychedelic haze. You'll find both sides of the 45 on Acid Dreams and Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 4; Part 2 on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6 and Everything You Always Wanted To Know.... (CD). Part 1 also appears on Acid Trip From The Psychedelic Sixties. and Pebbles, Vol. 3 (CD).

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Beaux Jens

TOP

45:

1	She Was Mine/Trouble Baby	(Sound Of The Screen 2162)	Feb. 1967

Formed at high school in Grand Ledge, a small town about 15 miles west of Lansing (Michigan's State Capital), in March 1966, they soon became a local teen attraction. The above 45 was the quartet's sole stab for stardom. It was recorded at the Great Lakes / Fenton studios in Sparta, Michigan and released by The Screen, a local teen club, on its own label (a Fenton subsidiary). She Was Mine is a good organ-led mid-sixties punker on which the band sing about their 'little girl with lovely blue eyes'. You'll find it on Acid Dreams Epitaph CD, Back From The Grave, Vol. 6, Boulders Vol. 3, Let Em Have It Vol. 1 and The Complete Acid Dreams.

(Max Waller / Kip Brown)

Beaver and Krause

Personnel:

PAUL BEAVER	keyb'ds, sound effects	A
BERNIE KRAUSE	keyb'ds, sound effects	A
various sessionmen	various	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	RAGNAROCK ELECTRONIC FUNK	(Limelight 86069)	1969 -
2(A)	IN A WILD SANCTUARY	(Warner WS 1850)	1970 -
3(A)	GANDHARVA	(Warner WS 1909)	1970 -
4(A)	ALL GOOD MEN	(Warner BS 2624)	1972 -
5(A)	A GUIDE TO ELECTRONIC MUSIC (Comp)	(Nonesuch K 73018)	1975 -

NB: (2) and (3) were reissued on one CD (Warner Archives 9 45663-2) 1994.

Among the first American masters of synthesizers and electronic music, Beaver and Krause are credited on countless records between 1965 and 1975: Doors, Byrds, Neil Young, Beach Boys as well as several soundtracks including "Rosemary's Baby", "Candy", "Performance" etc.

They also recorded four albums of synthesizers, moogs, flutes, tablas, guitars and various sound effects (live voices, birds, monkeys, sea...), creating a kind of "musical trip", a little like Don Robertson's albums.

Gandharva, which is probably their best album, also features Mike Bloomfield, Ronnie Montrose, Howard Roberts and Gerry Mulligan.

Paul Beaver died in 1975. Bernie Krause has also released an entire album of songs called Fish Wrap on which ALL the sounds are sampled animal or fish sounds, as a Nature Conservancy fundraiser.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Beaver and The Trappers

45:

1. In Misery/Happiness Is Havin' (White Cliffs 236) 1966

From Los Angeles. The flip side has turned up on Boulders, Vol. 10 and Hipsville, 29 B.C..

(Vernon Joynson/Andrew Brown)

The Beaver Patrol

45:

1. ESP/Just Like A Lady (Columbia 4-44139) 1967

A very obscure band from Hollywood, Florida produced by Richard Gottehrer. They reworked The Pretty Things LSD as ESP, slowing it down in the process. A fine psychedelic punk number with some infectious fuzztone guitar playing, it is their only known recording and you'll also find it on Pebbles, Vol. 11, Boulders, Vol. 4 and Ya Gotta Have Moxie Vol. 1 (CD).

The same ESP song was later recorded by Big Brother featuring Ernie Joseph and an earlier in a faster punkier version by Rain.

(Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley)

Joe Beck

Personnel:

JOE BECK	gtr, bs, vcls, piano	A
(RANDY BRECKER	trumpet	A)
DONALD MCDONALD	drms, perc	A
(DON PAYNE	bs	A)
(DANNY WHITTEN	gtr, vcls	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	NATURE BOY	(Verve Forecast FTS-3081)	1969

An attempt at mixing psyche, rock and jazz with some classical influences. Joe Beck was a very gifted guitar player who composed, arranged, conducted and produced this album in 1969. Six of the nine tracks are over five minutes long and give Beck the opportunity to show his remarkable guitar skills, obviously influenced by Hendrix.

The best moments are probably No More Blues, Rapid Disintegration Of A Chamber Orchestra, Ain't No Use In Talkin and the title track (written by Eden Abba). The guitar, bass and drums parts are constantly good but some arrangements may sound a bit dated now.

Danny Whitten (Rockets, Crazy Horse) plays on two tracks including his own Let Me Go. Donald McDonald had earlier been in Jeremy and The Satyrs.

It's unclear if it's the same Joe Beck who issued several jazz albums in the late '70s.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Beckett Quintet

45s:

1. Baby Blue/No Correspondence (Gemcor 5003) 1965
2. Baby Blue/No Correspondence (A&M 782) 1965

The work of an L.A. outfit. Despite being picked up by A&M the 45 sank without trace. You'll find both sides on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 1 and the flip, which featured some great reverb, can also be heard on Pebbles Vol. 9 (Vol. 8 on CD), Garagelands Vol.1 (LP and CD), The Essential Pebbles Collection 2-CD and for some reason on Eva's Swamp Rats/Unrelated Segments compilation. The 'A' side was a nice folk-rock version of Dylan's Baby Blue.

Billy Joe Becoat

ALBUM:

1	LET'S TALK FOR A WHILE	(Fantasy)	1970

Following Richie Havens' success, several labels signed black folk rock singers and Billy Joe Becoat was Fantasy's attempt. Housed in a stunning yellow, orange and red 'flames' cover with a peace sign in the middle, his album contains ten self penned songs, with a voice somewhere between Tim Buckley and Havens.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Bed of Roses

45s:

1	I Don't Believe You / Hate	(Deltron 813)	1966
2	Quiet! / I Gotta Fight	(Tea 2577)	Feb 1968

Bay City, Michigan, was home to this band. Their debut, on Saginaw's Deltron label, featured a competent version of one of Dylan's less well known songs backed by an acid-tainted instrumental. The latter has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 6.

In 1967 they went the way of many other bands and headed for San Francisco. By early '68 they were back home, recording their follow-up in an upstairs room of a local record shop. Quiet! isn't - a raucous jerky rocker with a nifty fuzz break and outro - and can be heard on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Vernon Joynson / Kip Brown / Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Jack Bedient and The Chessmen

Personnel:

JACK BEDIENT	vcls, gtr	A
BILL BRITT	bs	A
JEWELL HENDRICKS	drms	A
KEVIN WOODS	vcls, gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1	LIVE AT HARVEYS	(Fantasy 3365)	1965
2	WHERE DID SHE GO	(Satori 1001)	1967

3	JACK BEDIENT	(Executive Productions)	c1969
4	SONGS YOU REQUESTED	(Chessmen)	19??
5	IN CONCERT	(Chessmen)	19??
6	TWO SIDES OF JACK BEDIENT	(Trophy)	19??

45s:

1	The Mystic One/Question	(Era 3050)	1961
2	Silver Haired Daddy/Pretty One	(Trophy 1001)	1964
3	Dream Boy (Count Your Dreams)/Drummer Boy (Please Play Us A Song)	(Palomar 2212)	1965
4	See The Little Girl/Here I Am	(Fantasy 595)	1965
5	See The Little Girl/Looking For A Good Love	(Fantasy 595)	1965
6	Double Whammy/I Want You To Know	(Fantasy 598)	1965
7	Glimmer Sunshine/Where Did She Go	(Rev 104/5 - 66)	1966
8	I Could Have Loved You So Well/Love Workshop	(Columbia 4-44302)	1967
9	Pretty One/See That Girl	(Columbia 4-44481)	1968
10	The Pleasures Of You/It's Over	(Columbia 4-44565)	1968
11	My Prayer/Independence Day	(Columbia 4-44671)	1968
12	I've Been Loving You/I Could Never Lose My Love For You	(Executive Prod. 21)	1969
13	Beautiful (Takes A Trip) / Release Me	(Executive Productions 21)	Apr. 1969

Originally formed in Wenatchee, Washington, this outfit relocated to Nevada, where they spent most of their time as a showband and regular attraction in Reno and Las Vegas. Over their long history this band changes with the times covering early sixties sounds, garage, folk-rock, protest, ballads. If they could be said to have a sound it's of a pop-group with strong vocals, harmonies and melodramatic arrangements. Their latest material would've suited Gene Pitney or the Walker Brothers! Garage collectors need look no further than the compilations:- Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 7 features Double Whammy and I Want To Know; Vol. 14 of the same series gives an airing to Rapunzel, a track from their reputedly excellent third album; and Glimmer, Glimmer from their 3rd album on Satori has resurfaced on Let's Dig 'Em Up Vol. 2.

The line-up listed above are the main personnel, however, Alvin Griggs and Walter Hanna are also thought to have been members at some point.

(Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero/Gary Behymer)

Bedforde Set

TOP

Personnel:

NORMAN BULL	A
LEWIS MILLER	A
STEVE SCHEIN	A
WILLIAM SINGER	A

45:

1 Girl, Go Run Away/A World Through A Tear (RCA 47-9068) 1967

From Rockville and Silver Spring, Maryland. Another one-off venture by a rather talented rock quartet judging by the sound of this 45. The 'A' side is a powerful garage-rock rendition with hard drivin' organ and some ripping electric guitar. You can also find it on Mindrocker, Vol. 9 and Fuzz, Flaykes, And Shakes Vol. 3.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Bedlam Four

TOP

Personnel:

- BOB DERRICKSON ld gtr A
- GREG HUPPERT keyb'ds A
- DICK POGUE drms A
- JACK TAYLOR bs A

45s:

1. Hydrogen Atom/Watch It Baby (Armanda A 001) 1967
2. No One Left To Love/Psychedelic Mantra (Caped Crusader CC 73) 1991

Came out of Minneapolis, Minnesota and are best known for the bizarre and completely 'over the top' Hydrogen Atom. They were previously known as The Echomen. Back in 1967 they also had a cut on Money Music, a compilation of some of the best Minnesota sixties bands which had a very limited pressing. The Hydrogen Atom 45 is also very sought-after and expensive.

The Caped Crusader release is a fabulous package featuring pictures and information on the band plus two previously unreleased tracks. No One Left To Love is a garage raver and Psychedelic Mantra consists of almost five minutes of fuzzy eastern psychedelia. This is a must-have for any collection of garage/psychedelic rock.

You can also find Hydrogen Atom on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 11 (CD), Changes, Magic Cube, Pebbles (CD), Vol. 2, Mayhem And Psychosis Vol. 3 (LP) and Mayhem And Psychosis Vol. 2 (CD).

Bedpost Oracle

TOP

Personnel incl:

- ROBERT M. DAVITT
- TED GULICK

45s:

1. The Break Of Dawn/Love Isn't Dead (Corby CR 230) 1970
2. Somebody To Love/Chest Fever (Oracle 29002) 1971

A psychedelic outfit worth investigating. Both 45s were on California labels and the band are thought to have been from Los Angeles, possibly Pomona. The cover of Jefferson Airplane's Somebody To Love was good.

Compilation coverage has included:- Somebody To Love, Chest Fever and Love Isn't Dead on Brain Shadows; and The Break Of Dawn on Fuzz, Flaykes & Shakes Vol.1. -

The Break Of Dawn, has also been covered by the Wicked Ones in 1991.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

Beech-Nuts

45:

1. My Iconoclastic Life/Nature's Company (Showcase 6602) Spring 1967

My Iconoclastic Life has lots of mouth harp an really classic growling punk vocals and really maladjusted lyrics like "My life is nil, I just take pills, sit for hours watching the flowers, I'm so alone I scream and moan without you". You can check it out on What A Way To Die or I Was A Teenage Caveman. Apparently, the band who came from Brooklyn, NY, were committed to a mental institution en bloc after the record's release.

Rumours of Lou Reed's involvement with this act are incorrect.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Beeds to The Berkley Five

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Beeds
- The Beefeaters
- The Beefeaters
- Beep Beep and The Roadrunners
- The Bees
- The Bees
- Bees
- Beethoven Four
- Beethoven Four
- Beethoven's Fifth
- Beethoven Soul
- The Bel-Aires
- Vincent Bell
- The Belles
- Denny Belline and The Rich Kids
- The Bellingham Accents
- The Bells of Rhymey
- The Beloved Ones
- The Benders
- The Bends
- Bengali Bauls
- Benninghoff
- Jay Bentley and The Jet Set
- Bentleys
- Terry Ber
- John Berberian
- Rob Berge Band
- The Berkley Five

The Beeds

45s:

1. Run To Her/You Don't Have To (Team 519) 1968

2. Love Hurts/You're Wrong (Buddah 210) 1971

Almost certainly a studio project for the Team label, a sub-division of Buddah. Run To Her is a classic of its genre - an uptempo melodic rock song, with Merseybeat harmonies, chiming guitars and reedy organ. It can be found on Mindrocker, Vol. 8. The later 45 on Buddah in 1971 may of course be by an entirely different outfit.

The Beefeaters

Personnel:

- GENE CLARK vcls
- ROGER McGUINN gtr, vcls
- DAVE CROSBY gtr, vcls
- CHRIS HILLMAN bs, vcls
- MIKE CLARKE drms

45:

1. Please Let Me Love You/Don't Be Long (Elektra 45013) 1964

L.A.-based, Clark, McGuinn and Crosby had previously played with another L.A. band, The Jet Set and Chris Hillman had been with The Hillmen. In addition to the 45, both sides on which can be heard on Electrock The Sixties, they recorded a four track EP and then evolved into The Byrds.

The Beefeaters

45:

1. Don't Hurt Me/Change My Mind (N/K) 1966

Texas Punk 1966: Vol. 1 features both sides of this Dallas band's 45. The 'A' side is 13th Floor Elevators - influenced, the flip notable for the 12-string Rickenbacker guitar.

Beep Beep and The Roadrunners

45s:

1. True Love Knows/Shiftin' Gears (Vincent 222) 1965
2. Watermelon Man/Don't Run (Vincent ?) 1966
3. Watermelon Man/Don't Run (Audio Dynamics 152) 1966

Formed in Worcester, an industrial metropolis and college town in Massachusetts, in 1962. They set out as an instrumental surfin' quintet doing covers of The Ventures and other surfing hits. By 1963 they had adapted to the British invasion by adding vocals and by the time of their first 45 they were a popular local attraction. The 'A' side, which was a typical teen beat effort, can be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 and the flip a pounding surf-instrumental resurfaced on Strummin' Mental, Vol. 5. In 1966 they hired an organ player and became a seven piece recording their second 45, which was in an Animals soulish vein. There was also a third 45, which I don't have details of, in 1969 and it wasn't until 1973, after 11 years together that they finally downed their instruments. The Watermelon Man 45 may actually have only been released on Audio Dynamics.

The Bees

TOP

Personnel:

GEORGE CALDWELL	vcls	A
PETER FERST	gtr	A
RON REYNOLDS		A
CARY SLAVIN	drms	A
JOHN YORK		A
ROBERT ZINNER ?		A

45s:

1	Leave Me Be/She's An Artist (She Belongs To Me)	(Mirwood 5003)	1965
2	Forget Me Girl/Baby Let Me Follow You Down	(Mira 210)	1966

A San Francisco outfit who'll appeal to fans of garagey folk-rock. Their first 45 is in this vein with Robert Zinner's (not the Zombies') Leave Me Be, compiled on the Moxie Folk Rock EP Vol. 1. It's backed by Bob Dylan's She Belongs To Me. The second 45 also features a Dylan cover on the 'B' side. The top side, Forget Me Girl, graces Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 20.

After the band split in early-to-mid '66 Caldwell and Zinner teamed up with guitarist Richard Fortunato, fresh ex-Vejtable and former Preacher, in the W.C. Fields Memorial Electric String Band, later known as ESB.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Bees

TOP

45:

1	Voices Green And Purple/Trip To New Orleans (PS)	(Liverpool LIV 62225)	Oct. 1966

From La Verne near Los Angeles, Ca. and often confused with San Francisco's Bees, this band are often cited as a classic example of the influence of LSD on a teenage rock band. They produced the remarkable Voices Green And Purple with lyrics that recount a bum LSD trip culminating in echoes screaming over a demented 'Riot On Sunset Strip' beat.

A garage-psych classic, it was first compiled on Pebbles Vol. 3: The Acid Gallery and has since appeared on the CD version and Get Primitive: The Best of Pebbles, the Nuggets 4-CD box and Songs We Taught The Fuzztones, who covered it in 1984 on their Leave Your Mind At Home LP. The flip, a more routine folk-blues number a-la Rolling Stones, can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 2 and Teenage Shutdown Vol. 9.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Bees

45s:

1	Shy Boy / Jadoo	(Bees 3622)	Jan 1966
2	Shy Boy / Where Is My Baby	(Sunville 495)	May 1966

NB; (2) as by 'Wally Naylor and The Bees'.

This particular swarm of Bees buzzed around Ft. Myers, Florida.

(Max Waller)

Beethoven Four

45:

1	Oh Pretty Baby / I'm Leaving Today	(Don-Lee 0003)	196?

Oh Pretty Baby is on EVA's Sixties Archives Vol. 7 CD which implies that they may have hailed from Michigan.

(Max Waller)

Beethoven Four

45s:

1. Don't Call On Me / Hairy Dog (Tag 4000) 1966
2. Sets My Soul On Fire / Miserlou (Talos 1313) c1966

From Georgia and also known as the Beethovens, Sets My Soul On Fire can be found on Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 8. (Max Waller)

Beethoven's Fifth

45:

1. Come Down/The Last Thing On My Mind (MGM 13746) 1967

This was the work of an unknown outfit. The 'A' side, a timeless pop-punk ballad, can be found on Pebbles, Vol. 9.

Beethoven Soul

Personnel:

- BILL POWELL gtr A
- JOHN LAMBERT bs A
- DICK LEWIS keyb'ds A
- ANDREA KOURATOU strings A
- OTIS HALE woodwind A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BEETHOVEN SOUL (Dot DLP-25821) 1967

45:

1. Good Time Gal/Walls Are High (Dot 1703l) 1967

Los Angeles was home to this mid-sixties band whose album is now a minor collectable. Lambert, Lewis and Hale all went on to play together in Pollution, a late sixties LA-based rock band with jazz undertones.

The Bel-Aires

45:

1	Ya Ha Be Be/If You Love Me	(Discoteque 1004)	1967

Hailed from Grand Rapids in Western Michigan where they'd all been pals at Wyoming High School, Their rather undistinguished organ punker can be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller/Kip Brown)

Vincent Bell

ALBUM:

1	POP GOES THE ELECTRIC SITAR	(Decca DL 74938)	1967

Beware of opportunist '(exploito) psych' tags, they are way off the mark here. The sleevenotes state that Bell was a virtuoso, a musician's musician amongst professional guitarists, and a consultant for Danelectro, with whom he created a 12-string christened the "Bellzouki" and the Coral Electric Sitar showcased here. However, little virtuosity is on display - this is an instrumental album where the electric sitar simply plays the melody line of well-known pop and film songs, backed by a full orchestra and oooo'ing female choir - imagine an MOR/muzak version of Lord Sitar.

Tracks that suffer this treatment include Goin' Out Of My Head, Eleanor Rigby, You Don't Have To Say You Love Me, More (theme from 'Mondo Cane') and Lara's Theme from 'Dr. Zhivago'. Ravi Shankar would be horrified, I suspect, to hear what could only be a curio for fans of sitar music.

(Max Waller)

The Belles

45s:

1. La Bamba/Sleep Walk (Tiara 703) 1965
2. Melvin/Come Back (Tiara 100) 1966

Miami, Florida was home to this all girl garage band. After a rather lame debut disc they took the tune to Van Morrison's Gloria and converted it into Melvin - their tribute to Melvin Bucci, lead singer of The Vandals. It's become something of a girl punk classic and you'll find it on Riot City, Vile Vinyl, Vol. 1, Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 4 and Pebbles (CD), Vol. 1. The flip, a rather thrashy garage number, also resurfaced on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 1.

Denny Belline and The Rich Kids

Personnel incl:

- DENNY BELLINE
- RICHARD SUPA

ALBUM:

1. (A) DENNY BELLINE AND THE RICH KIDS (RCA Victor LSP-3655) 1966

45s:

1. Money Isn't Everything/Summer Girl (RCA Victor 8883) 1966
2. Outside The City/Grey City Day (RCA Victor 9041) 1966

A Long Island New York combo fronted by Perry Como's nephew! Definitely not a garage outfit but they did produce some decent covers in the style of Young Rascals/Vagrants. Previously known as Denny Belline & the Dwellers, Denny went solo and the Rich Kids renamed themselves Man, which resulted in Swansea's Man being known as Manpower stateside for a couple of years. Related 45s are set out below, but see separate entry for Man:-

Denny Belline & Dwellers 45

1. It Happens That Way/Little Lonely Girl (RCA Victor 8665) 1965

Denny Belline Solo 45s

1. Living Without You/Forget About Me (Columbia 45123) 1970
2. Rosemary Blue/? (RCA JH-10171) 1975

Incidentally, you'll find Money Isn't Everything on Basement Walls and Boulders, Vol. 5.

The Bellingham Accents

Personnel:

VIC BUNDY	keyb'ds	A
BILL CAPP	gtr	A
PAT JERNS	drms	A
DOUG LING	bs	A
LAURIE VITT	sax, vcls	A
KATHI McDONALD	vcls	A

45:

1 Bacon Fat/Sampan (Jerden 746) 1965

NB: (1) 'B' side recorded whilst the band were still known as The Accents

From Bellingham, Washington, this act had earlier recorded two 45's as The Accents with Ron Peterson. Laurie Vitt:- "Kathi McDonald started with us when she was 13 and we were still The Accents. Eventually Ron Peterson quit and was replaced by Bill Capp and we picked up Doug Ling on Bass and changed the name to The Bellingham Accents."

After a change of drummer and bass players they became (Kathi McDonald and) The Unusuals.

Laurie Vitt is now Curator of Reptiles and Professor of Zoology at Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History.

The Bells of Rhymey

TOP

45:

1. She'll Be Back/The Wicked Old Witch (Dicto 1003) 1965

A Michigan band and probably a studio group. She'll Be Back was written by Dick Wagner and had an immediate appeal and some snarling fuzz guitar. Although a potential hit it never enjoyed any commercial success and all it's remembered for now is its appearance on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 19: Michigan, Part 3. They also have a simple and previously unreleased little ditty called Rich Man's Woman included on Thee Unheard Of compilation.

The Beloved Ones

TOP

See Arch Of Triumph.

The Benders

TOP

Personnel incl:

- GERRY CAIN gtr

45:

1. You Can't Tame Me/Got Me Down (Big Sound 306) 1966

Wausaw, a small town in Central Wisconsin, was home to the Big Sound label, but this mob were actually a group of kids going to college in Menominee, Michigan. The 'A' side has appealing vocals and a frantic beat and there's also lots of fuzz guitar work. Their sole stab for immortality is not entirely forgotten, You Can't Tame Me is included on The Midwest vs. The Rest.

Gerry Cain later turned up in The Why Four who cut the punker Hard Life.

(Vernon Joynson / Kip Brown)

The Bends

TOP

45:

1. If It's All The Same To You (Rebel 103) 196?

This one track was the sole vinyl output by this Pennsylvania band. It appeared as the 'B' side of an easy-listening tune by a guy called Smokey. There's some fine organ and it races along very nicely. You can check it out on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 or Pennsylvania Unknowns.

Bengali Bauls

TOP

Personnel:

HARE KRISHNA DAS	dotara	A
JIBAN DAS	tabla	A
LUXMAN DAS	khrmack	A
PURNA DAS	khrmack, kartaljulie	A
SUDHANANDA DAS	harmonium, kartaljulie	A

ALBUM:

1(A) BENGALI BAULS AT BIG PINK (Buddha BDS-5050) 1970

Coming from Calcutta, India, the Bengali Bauls were a group of street musicians who arrived in the USA in 1967. They played the Fillmore with the Byrds and the New York Town Hall with the Butterfield Blues Band and were invited by Albert Grossman, Bob Dylan's manager, to stay at the Band's house, Big Pink, near Woodstock.

Garth Hudson of the Band recorded and produced their album in December 1967, which was then shelved and eventually released in 1970 on Buddah. The music is "India's Soul Music" with vocals and should appeal to the tabla fans. The album is also a curiosity for collectors of The Band. Purna and Luxman Das also appeared with Bob Dylan on the front sleeve of his John Wesley Harding album. The Bengali Bauls returned to Calcutta in 1969.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Benninghoff

TOP

ALBUM:

1	CHURCH BACH	(SSS)	c1970

An album of reworkings of the classics with some good wild fuzz guitar but, alas, a lame harpsichord.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jay Bentley and The Jet Set

TOP

45s:

1	Watusi '64 / I'll Get You	(GNP Crescendo 332)	1964
2	Come On-On / Everybody's Got A Dancin Partner But Me	(GNP Crescendo 347)	1965

This band, possibly from the Los Angeles area, married beat sounds to a US dance-club vibe to produce some great party poppers. Watusi '64 gets the toes tappin', Come On-On gets every limb a-shakin'. Both flips switch down several gears to last-dance territory. The 45s were produced by Buzz Cason and Tommy Allsup.

(Max Waller)

Bentleys

TOP

45:

1	Now It's Gone / Night Time In The City	(Devlet 443/4)	1966

Previously thought to be from Allentown, Mike Kuzmin's Pa. discog 'Sounds From The Woods' reveals that they were from Stroudsberg, Pa. and were previously known as the Devils, releasing one fratty 45 in 1964 - The Devil Dance / Just Like That (Devlet 393).

Now It's Gone is a dynamic teen pop-punker brimming with commercial potential - echoes of Merseybeat, a soupcon of the Big O in the lead vocals, cool harmonies, topped off with rattlin' tambourine, restrained fuzz and a great stop-start outro.

This classy nugget can be found on Pennsylvania Unknowns and The Cicadelic Sixties Vol. 4 CD.

(Max Waller)

Terry Ber

TOP

ALBUM:

1	THROUGH THE EYES OF TERRY BER	(World Pacific WPS 31???)	c1967

Housed in a psychy cover, a poetic singer/songwriter hippie chick. Interesting but the album suffers a little from overproduction.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

John Berberian

Personnel:

SOUREN BARONIAN	clarinet, bongos, sax, zills	A B
JOHN BERBERIAN	oud	A B
JACK CHALIKAN	canun	A
STEVE PUMILIAN	finger cymbals, def, dumbeg, tambourine	A B
JAMES SHAHRIGAN	bs	A
BOB TASHJIAN	vcls, perc	A B
JOHN VALENTINE	gtr	A
JOHN YALENEZIAN	dumbeg	A
CHET ANDERSON	bs	B
JOE BECK	"amplified rock gtr & fuzz"!	B
ED BRANDON	gtr	B
BILL LA VORGNA	drms	B
ROSKO	vcls	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	IMPRESSIONS EAST	(Mainstream S/6023)	1964
2(A)	OUD ARTISTRY	(Mainstream S/6047)	c1965
3	MUSIC OF THE MIDDLE EAST	(Roulette # unkn)	1966
4	MUSIC AND GIBRAN	(Verve Forecast FTS-3044)	1968
5(B)	MIDDLE EASTERN ROCK	(Verve Forecast FTS-3073)	1969
6(A)	OUD ARTISTRY	(Mainstream 802, 2-LP)	196/7?

NB: (4) is by ROSKO (a DJ from WNEW-FM) with The John Berberian Ensemble. (5) is by "John Berberian and the Rock East Ensemble". (6) is a repackage of (1) and (2). It has been reissued itself in 2000 as a limited edition box-set.

Middle East ethnicity from New York City, more than two decades before the rather hyped "World Music" movement. John Berberian, an accomplished oud player and a student in Business Studies at Columbia University in the mid-60s, gathered around him a troop of skilled musicians to perform the music of his forefathers.

With a foundation of traditional music from Turkey, Armenia, Greece, Arabia and North Africa, they created a captivating blend of exotic rhythms, melodies and improvisations on the first two LPs, transporting the listener to bustling bazaars and scorched sands.

Music And Gibran is a collaboration with Rosko, a DJ at WNEW-FM. Subtitled 'A Contemporary Interpretation Of The Author Of "The Prophet" ', this is a predominantly-spoken mystical journey through the works of Kahlil Gibran, a Lebanese poet who died in 1931. One of Gibran's books, The Broken Wings, was made into a film at the time of the LP and won an award at the Sorrento Film Festival.

Middle East Rock is Berberian's most accessible album for the curious. Here he fuses Middle Eastern vibes with Western rock to produce some fascinating results - check out The Oud And The Fuzz on Turds On a Bum Ride Vol. 2 (LP) or Vol. 5 (CD).

John Berberian should appeal to all who enjoy the exotic strains of Kaleidoscope and Orient Express.

(Max Waller, with kudos to Malcolm Galloway)

Rob Berge Band

ALBUM:

1	POPCORN	(Private Pressing)	1974 SC

From Wisconsin, a breezy rural folk singer/songwriter with electric and acoustic guitars, piano, drums, pedal steel and banjo. The album is housed in a homemade B&W cover.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Berkley Five

Personnel:

RON GIBSON	ld gtr	A
STEVE JONES	bs	A
BILLY KELLOGG	drms	A
DAVE PARSON	gtr	A
PAT RILEY	ld vcls	A

45s:

1(A)	You're Gonna Cry/In The Midnight Hour	(Boss BOS 004)	1966

A garage band from Umatilla in Lake County, Florida. You're Gonna Cry starts off as a plaintive midtempo garage tune which explodes into a frantic screeching finale. It has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 4 and Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Berkeley Kites to Big Brother and The Holding Company

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Berkeley Kites
- The Bermuda Jam
- The Berries
- The Berrys
- The Berries
- Berwick Players
- The Best
- Best Of Friends
- Karen Beth
- Bethlehem Asylum
- The Bethlehem Exit
- Better Half
- Better Half-Dozen
- Better Sweet
- Alex Bevan
- B.F. Trike
- Bhagavad Gita
- Bhang
- Big Brother and the Holding Company

Berkeley Kites

TOP

45s:

1. Hang-Up City / Let's Get Together (Minaret 123) 1968
2. Hang-Up City / Mary-Go-Round (Minaret 132) 1968
3. Alice In Wonderland / What Goes Up Must Come Down (Minaret 140) 1969
4. Willow Run / Let Me Treat You Like A Woman (Minaret 145) 1969

NB: (2) and (3) also issued in the U.K. by Polydor (56742 and 56770 respectively).

The second and third 45s contain fine pieces of fluffy pop-psych and produced by Finlay Duncan. The 'A' sides of both singles are certainly the superior tracks, and the groups main composer R.J. Benninghoff also released 45s and LPs as Benninghoff's Bad Rock Blues Band and as Benninghoff on SSS International. From Florida, we believe.

(Steve Panter / Max Waller)

The Bermuda Jam

Personnel:

1. GLEN MELLO A
2. PAUL MUGGLETON A
3. ANDY NEWMARK drms A
4. JAMES O'CONNOR A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BERMUDA JAM (Dynovoice 31907) 1969

One track, Good Trip Lollipop - An Antihystahymn, has resurfaced on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 2. It's from the above mentioned album and very psychedelic. They are thought to have come from California and Andy Newmark was later in Sly and The Family Stone. The album is a schizophrenic affair - one side comprises interesting, if gimmicky psych, the other uninteresting soul.

The Berries

45:

1. I've Been Looking/Baby, That's All (IGL 133) 1967

From Des Moines, Iowa, they were originally known as The Coachmen, but changed their name after learning about the Lincoln, Nebraska Coachmen. Baby That's All is an irresistibly melodic fresh'n'breezy pop-harmony number. The flip, a Hollies cover laced with ringing twelve-string hook-lines.

Compilation coverage has included:- Baby, That's All on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 4; I've Been Looking and Baby, That's All on The IGL Rock Story, Pt. Two and The Best Of IGL Folk Rock. The band also have two numbers, an earlier version of I've Been Looking and That Boy, under their earlier Coachmen monicker on the IGL Dance Jamboree '66.

(Max Waller/Lloyd Peasley)

The Berrys

Personnel:

- MIKE ABRAHAM bs
- FRANK COONS organ
- JOE CORAZZI gtr
- JIMMY FRANCHINI vcls

- SONNY JOHNSON drms

45s:

1. Midnight Hour/Sand And Sea (Lavette LA 5011/12) 1966
2. Midnight Hour/Sand And Sea (Challenge 59358) Mar. 1967

Formerly known as The Viscount V, this youthful outfit were part of a vibrant garage and soul scene in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Originally issued on Lindy Blaskey's Lavette label, their legacy comprises a lightweight cover of Midnight Hour backed by a mournful garagey ballad.

(Max Waller / Mike Dugo)

The Berries

45:

1	What In The World / Baby, Let Me Follow You Down	(Delaware 5010)	1966

A rare 45 by a Chicago area outfit who chose to cover local heroes The Vectors and Bob Dylan. Both feature neat harmonica and great harmonies reminiscent of Saturday's Children or The Cryan' Shames.

What In The World is on Pebbles Vol. 7 CD and Class Of '66; Baby... graces The Essential Pebbles Collection Vol. 2 CD.

(Max Waller)

Berwick Players

Personnel incl:

JOHN ARMSTRONG?	A
MIKE NORRIS?	A

45s:

1	I Found Out About You / Images	(Look 5008)	1968
2	Love You Every Way / Hah Le Rama La	(Look 5014)	1968/9
3	Days Of Melancholy / Way Back Home	(Look 5021)	c1969

Catchy late-60s harmony-pop, featuring neat wah-wah on Days Of Melancholy, on Nashville's Look label.

(Max Waller)

The Best

ALBUM:

1	WE GOTTA GET OUTA THIS PLACE/BEST OF THE BEST	(Recorded Publications Co. 96)	1966 R4

NB: (1) had a limited edition reissue in 1996.

This split album on a Camden, New Jersey, label, saw a limited reissue in 1996. It features one side each by The Best/The Gents, two unknown local combos, who run through a bevy of typical garage covers in a 'prep rock' style. Very basic stuff - no fuzz, no off-the-wall ravers - just honest and workmanlike attempts that may sometimes sound flat and far from inspiring. But then that's what is so appealing about this genre and why serious collectors will pay a fortune for an original.

One track from the LP You Meant Nothing To Me can also be found on Oil Stains Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

Best Of Friends

Personnel incl:

RICH DEE	A
DOUG SHAFFER	A
DAVE WESLEY	A

45s:

1	You Ought To See My Love Today / Feel Pink	(Laurie 3432)	1968
2	Melodies / All The World Is Mine	(Laurie 3450)	1968

Both their 45s feature summery pop with strong harmonies.

(Max Waller)

Karen Beth

ALBUM:

1	THE JOYS OF LIFE	(Decca)	1967

Dark and introspective moody songs by a folk singer, somewhere between Karen Dalton and the English Bridget St. John.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bethlehem Asylum

Personnel:

- CHARLES DECHANT sax, flute, vcls A
- CHRISTIAN GANDHI piano, trombone, alto flute A
- DANNY FINLEY ld gtr, vcls A
- BUDDY HELM drms, perc A
- JIM NOIMAN bs, vcls

ALBUMS:

1. (A) COMMIT YOURSELF (Ampex 10106) 1970
2. (A) BETHLEHEM ASYLUM (Ampex 10124) 1971

45s:

1. Child Of The Mountain/Talkin' 'Bout Love (Ampex 11009) 1970
2. Child Of The Mountain/Talkin' 'Bout Love (Ampex 11020) 1970
3. Ring My Bell/? (Ampex 11041) 1971

This band's two albums are worth a listen with the first album being the better of the two. It contains lots of jazzy instrumentation and the better tracks are Sea Rider (which has lots of good piano work), Sailboat Ride (which features some nice sax and flute) and Earth (which also has some good flute pieces and jazzy piano). The final cut It's About starts with some rather discordant guitar work. The first 45 was taken from this album but consisted of the two most commercial but least interesting tracks. There's more of a country influence on the second album, particularly to the vocals - a good example of this would be Ring My Bell, which was also issued as a single. Also of note are Blind Man's Buff, which is quite bluesy and has some good flute pieces and Tales From The Citadel for its spacey intro. which soon gives way to the sort of jazzy instrumentation that characterises both albums.

They originated from the Clearwater/Tampa area in Florida although they toured extensively all around the south and had a good live reputation and were often double-billed with The Allman Brothers.

Buddy Helm went on to play briefly with Frank Zappa and then Tim Buckley. Charles Dechant later played with the Hall and Oates band, with whom he has spent the last 15 or more years. The guitarist/vocalist Danny Finley went on to the Kinky Friedman and the Texas Jewboys band and co-wrote many songs over several albums. Christian Ghandi has been missing many years, any info would be appreciated and Jim Neiman is now deceased.

For more information check the following website: http://www.buddyhelm.com/bethlehemasylum.html

(Vernon Joynson/Phil Larson)

The Bethlehem Exit

Personnel incl:

PETER SALTZBACH	gtr	A

WILKIE	A

45:

1	Walk Me Out/Blues Concerning My Girl	(Jabberwock 110)	1966

This 45 which is sought-after by collectors was the work of a San Francisco-based band which operated between 1966 and 1970. From Walnut Creek, an East Bay Suburb, at least one member, Peter Saltzbach, was later in the New Delhi River Band, a 7-piece San Francisco outfit whose breakup resulted in the formation of two new groups, New Riders Of The Purple Sage and Shango. Chicago blues was the inspiration for Walk Me Out, a mutation of what was originally a Jimmy Reed song.

Compilation coverage has included Blues Concerning My Girl on Pebbles, Vol. 22 and Pebbles Box set; Walk Me Out and Blues Concerning My Girl California Halloween.

(Max Waller)

Better Half

TOP

45:

1	Good Lovin / City Song	(Chatim 1777/8)	19??

Late '60s/early '70s soul-infused pop-rock seen described as 'garage'. Well it ain't - Good Lovin is funky rock though it isn't the James Brown song. The flip is choppy harmonious rock-pop. Band locale is unconfirmed - Michigan and Louisiana have been put forward, although the latter might be a confusion with the final incarnation of the Better Half-Dozen below.

(Max Waller)

Better Half-Dozen

TOP

Personnel:

JOHN D'ANTONI	bs	A B
TED GENTER	keyb'ds	A
MIKE MANGIAPANE	ld gtr	A B
ED McNAMARA	gtr	A B
RICHARD MOORE	drms	A B
STEVE SKLAMBA	ld vcls	A B
GRANCO MEIER	keyb'ds	B

45:

1	I'm Gonna Leave You/I Could Have Loved Her	(U-Doe 105)	1966

This outfit came together in New Orleans in 1965 as The Forces Of Evil, a name which didn't endear them in some quarters, so they became The Avantis... only to switch name again to the Better Half-Dozen in the summer of '66 when U-Doe label boss Frank Uddo took an interest.

It's a typical punk 45 with lots of organ. The top side is definitely the stronger of the two with a pulsating beat throughout. Both sides can be heard on EVA's Louisiana Punk Groups From The Sixties Vol. 1 LP and Sixties Archives Vol. 3 CD.

A second 45 was recorded but not released. Sklamba departed in mid-'67 and the band continued on into '68 as The Better Half.

(Vernon Joynson/Andrew Brown/Max Waller)

Better Sweet

TOP

45:

1. I Can't Do It By Myself/Like The Flowers (M.O.C. 667) 196?

Glimpses, Vol. 2 includes Like The Answers as does Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 3 (CD). Possibly a Memphis outfit.

Alex Bevan

TOP

Personnel:

TOM BAKER	drms	A
ALEX BEVAN	gtr, vcls	A
ROLLY BROWN	gtr	A
JIM NICE	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A) NO TRUTH TO TELL (Big Tree BT 2006) 1970

A decent mix of breezy folk and psych that went totally unnoticed at the time.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

B.F. Trike

TOP

Personnel:

- ALAN JONES bs, vcls A
- MIKE McGUYER gtr, vcls A
- BOBBY STREHL drms, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) B.F. TRIKE (RCA) 1971

NB: (1) unissued originally, however there has been an early '90s limited edition vinyl issue on Rockadelic and in 1996 a CD issue on Rockadelic.

Originally known as Hickory Wind with the same line-up, this trio went to Nashville early in 1971 and laid down tracks for a proposed RCA LP. It didn't happen. Eventually Rockadelic issued it - you'll need deep pockets for the limited vinyl version which disappeared all too quickly, so get the CD if this genre is to your tastes.

Musically it's quite varied but right 'in' with the heavy rock/psych school of the time. Launched by the fuzz-psych rework of Time And Changes it continues with some brisk and catchy rockers, characterised by excellent not-too-heavy drumming that swings rather than just being solid or pedestrian. Fluid fuzzed leads (the outstanding Lovely Lady), the odd lighter moment (Sunshine), and an irresistible cool boogie-rocker Six O'Clock Sleeper, absolutely tailor-made for Z.Z.Top, provide contrast and demonstrate their versatility. With perhaps the exception of the sentiments in Be Free, it has stood the test of time remarkably well and Mike McGuyer is totally justified in standing proudly by it. A shame on you, RCA! Heartily recommended. (Max Waller)

Bhagavad Gita

TOP

45:

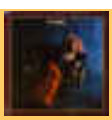
1. Long Hair Soulful/Long Hair Soulful (Instr.) (Philips 40485) 1967

This strange 45 came with a picture sleeve and an explanation of the subject matter - a painting by Paul Klee. Stoned psych; one side features cool vocals with hip oblique lyrics, the other is an instrumental version. Arranged by Roger Karshner, with Chuck Mangione, I guess this is 'art-rock'. He continued this theme as National Gallery, presumably with the same nameless Cleveland musicians. You'll also find the instrumental on Beyond The Calico Wall CD (it's not on the LP version).

(Max Waller)

Bhang

TOP



45:

1	Black Eyed Peas / Mellow Day	(Monster 0003)	196/7?

Late '60s/early '70s hard bluesy rock backed by a mellow meandering workout, penned by Messrs Namowicz and Wood. From Michigan (Detroit or Lansing area) on the same label as Magic and Plain Brown Wrapper.

(Max Waller)

Big Brother and the Holding Company

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN DAWSON gtr
- PETE ALBIN bs, gtr A B C D E F G H I
- SAM HOUSTEN ANDREWS ld gtr A B C D E F G H I
- DAVE ESKERSON gtr A
- CHUCK JONES drms A B
- JAMES GURLEY ld gtr B C D E F I
- DAVE GETZ drms C D E F G H I
- JANIS JOPLIN vcls D
- DAVE NELSON ld gtr E
- TED ASHBURTON piano F
- MIKE FINNEGAN organ F
- NICK GRAVENITES vcls F G H
- MIKE PRENDERGAST gtr F
- KATHY McDONALD vcls HI
- DAVE SHALLOCK ld gtr G H

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1. (D) BIG BROTHER (Mainstream 6099) 1967 60
2. (D) CHEAP THRILLS (Columbia CBS PC 9700) 1968 1
3. (G) BE A BROTHER (Columbia CBS PC 30222) 1970 134
4. (C/H) HOW HARD IT IS (Columbia CBS KC 30738) 1971 157

NB: (1) reissued by Mainstream and Columbia in 1968. (1) issued by Fontana and London in the UK. (1) issued as (Vogue CLVXMA 165) and (London 195011) in France. (2) and (3) issued by CBS in UK. (2),(3) and (4) issued in France on (CBS S7 63392), (CBS S 64118) and (CBS S 64317).

JANIS JOPLIN SOLO:

1. I GOT DEM OL' KOZMIC BLUES (Columbia CBS 9913) 1968 5
2. PEARL (Columbia 30322) 1970 1
3. IN CONCERT (Columbia 31160) 1971 4
4. GREATEST HITS (Columbia 32168) 1973 37
5. JANIS (Columbia 33345) 1974 54
6. FAREWELL SONG (Columbia PC 37569) 1981 104

45s:

1. Blindman/All Is Loneliness (Mainstream 657) 1967 110
2. Down On Me/Call On Me (Mainstream 662) 1967 43
3. Bye Bye Baby/Intruder (Mainstream 666) 1967 118
4. Women Is Losers/Light Is Faster Than Sound (Mainstream 675) 1967
5. Coo Coo/The Last Time (Mainstream 678) 1967 84
6. Piece Of My Heart/Turtle Blues (Columbia 44626) 1968 12

7. * Kosmic Blues/Little Girl Blue (Columbia 45023) 1969 41
8. * Try (Just A Little Bit Harder)/One Good Man (Columbia 45080) 1969 103
9. * Maybe/Wake Me, Lord (Columbia 45128) 1969 110
10. * Me And Bobby McGee/Half Moon (Columbia 45314) 1970 1
11. * Cry Baby/Mercedes Benz (Columbia 45379) 1970 42
12. * Get It While You Can/Move Over (Columbia 45433) 1970 78
13. * Down On Me/Bye, Bye Baby (Columbia 45630) 1970 91
14. Keep On/Home On The Strange (Columbia 45284) 1971
15. Nu Boogaloo Jam/Black Widow Spider(Columbia 45502) 1971

NB: *as by Janis Joplin.

The mercurial figure in this group was undoubtedly singer Janis Joplin, born in Port Arthur, Texas in 1943. She was very much out of place in this quiet Texan community, considered 'way out' by her school mates because she dressed differently and held different values and, therefore, grew up as rather a loner. Until now, neither she nor her family had exhibited any musical talent, but at the age of seventeen she discovered the blues, idolizing the songs of Leadbelly and Bessy Smith. She sang locally as a blues singer in Austin, Texas before dropping out of college and heading for San Francisco with Chet Helms, one of her few friends at the time. Janis arrived in Frisco at the beginning of the whole flower-power era - acid was becoming a big thing and underground clubs were beginning to open up all over the city. Chet Helms was organising the first hippy dances at the Avalon in San Francisco. One of the early groups trying to establish themselves were Big Brother and the Holding Company, who had begun gigging in the basement to 1090 Page Street. They were originally known as The Blue Yard Hill and also nearly called themselves Tom Swift and His Electric Grandmother. Helms became their manager, but the group felt they needed another singer. Realising Janis' potential Helms had sent Travis Rivers, a friend of his, to Texas to fetch her. He was just in time for she was about to join the 13th Floor Elevators. Big Brother was born....

In their early days they gigged regularly around the underground clubs alongside The Jefferson Airplane, The Grateful Dead and the many other exponents of the San Francisco Sound. Joplin's talent as the vocalist was immense. Her raucous gutbucket vocals complemented the strength of the band's electric music. Her roots were in the blues and she was at her best singing bluesy numbers which caused many to think she was the greatest female white blues singer. On stage, too, she was a powerful spectacle - appearing to be wild and working herself into a frenzy.

Undoubtedly, Big Brother was one of the most popular San Francisco groups at this time. Inevitably, they were soon offered a recording contract, first by Mainstream, a small Chicago label. They recorded an album which the record company did not release until after their appearance at the Monterey Festival in 1967. Prior to this festival the band was practically unknown outside of San Francisco. The festival launched them nation-wide and Janis demolished the hippies with her screaming, mourning bluesy voice and her sexual act - she became a star overnight.

Mainstream then released their debut album Big Brother and The Holding Company. However, the band, feeling they had improved vastly since recording it, fought vainly to block it. The opening track Bye Bye Baby demonstrated the raucousness of Joplin's amazing voice. In another track Light Is Faster Than Sound she blends effectively with the group's other vocalists. Call On Me was an equally effective slower number. However, some of the material on the album was comparatively weaker. For example, Women Is Losers once again featured Joplin's vocal gymnastics but over a rather unimaginative I'm A Man style guitar riff. Tracks like Blindman where other group members took the vocal lead were understandably inferior. On the final track All Is Loneliness, a strange sounding affair, the group come nearest to achieving Airplane-like harmonies. Very early pressings off the album have only 10 tracks. Later editions feature two later tracks Coo Coo and The Last Time.

Their follow-up album Cheap Thrills was released on Columbia, who had rejected the original title 'Dope, Sex and Cheap Thrills' and a photograph chosen of the band featuring them in bed. Instrumentally, the band had improved. Opening track Combination Of The Two was a fine illustration of their driving rock and Joplin's gutbucket vocals. 'We're goin' knock you, rock you, sock it you now' she growled. The slower I Need A Man To Love and Summertime also saw her in fine form. Oh Sweet Mary opens with an acid guitar intro and once again captures the band at their more harmonious. However, the prominent tracks on the album were Piece of My Heart and Ball and Chain. The former showed the group at their best and was a hit in the U.S. and also in the UK, where the group never attained the popularity they enjoyed in their homeland. The song possessed a catchy chorus and Janis growled in the opening verse and chorus, whilst Ball and Chain was a longer, more bluesy number executed in a similar vein.

Joplin probably realized the instrumental limitations of the Holding Company, which certainly lacked subtlety. She left the band in 1968 and performed with various backing bands prior to the release of her first solo effort I Got Dem Ol' Cosmic Blues Again. She then found a new backing group, The Full Tilt Boogie Band (John Till (gtr), Richard Bell (piano), Brad Campbell (bs), Ken Pearson (organ) and Clark Pierson (drums). With this line-up she started recording Pearl. Tragically she died accidentally of a heroin overdose on 4th October 1970 in a Hollywood motel room before the album was complete. The strains and stresses of overnight stardom had taken their toll. At first she had resorted to booze, but the loneliness of her life in contrast to her stardom on stage had driven her to narcotics. The album was completed and issued after her death. Among the material was her only U.S. No. 1 Me and Bobby McGee. Also on the album were Get It While You Can, a song which described her own live-for-today approach to life and two of her own compositions Mercedes Benz and Move Over. All subsequent releases are compilations, which ironically out-number her original recordings.

Meanwhile, Big Brother struggled on. Nick Gravenites and Kathi McDonald (ex-Unusuals) joined up as vocalist and they recorded Be A Brother and How Hard It Is, which were inevitably inferior in quality to their material with Joplin. They finally split up in 1972. Featuring ... JJ was a reissue of their first album. However, that Cheap Thrills album is a fine example of the bluesy side of San Francisco music at that time.

In 1984 Edsel issued a compilation LP Cheaper Thrills (Edsel ED 135) which includes previously unissued material from a live concert at California Hill on 28th July 1966. It gives a good insight into the band's music in their early days. Different pressings of this album have been issued by Made To Last and Rhino in the US. Also in 1985 Joseph's Coat (Edsel ED 170) emerged.

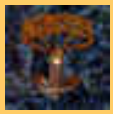
Big Brother reformed in 1987 with all the original members, are still playing gigs today.

(Vernon Joynson)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Big Brother featuring Ernie Joseph to The Birdwatchers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Big Brother featuring Ernie Joseph
- Big Foot
- The Big Inners
- Big Lost Rainbow
- Big Sounds
- The Big Three
- Billy and The Kids
- Billy Rat and The Finks
- Edwin Birdsong
- The Birdwatchers

Big Brother (featuring Ernie Joseph)

Personnel:

CORY COLT	gtr, organ	A
STEVIE DUNWOODIE	drms, perc	A
ERNIE JOSEPH (Ernie Orosco)	vcls, ld gtr, bs	A
REBEN THE JET	bs, gtr, drms, sax	A

ALBUMS:

1	I BIG BROTHER (featuring ERNIE JOSEPH)	(All American AA-5770)	1970
2	SOUTH EAST TOUR	(ALL AMERICAN AA-5773-LPD)	1971

NB: (1) counterfeited in 1989, but reissued officially by Akarma on vinyl and CD (AK 013) 1998. (2) reissued on vinyl and CD (Akarma AK 036) 1999.

45:

1	ESP/Brother, Where Are You	(All American 5718)	1970

A Californian band (commune/family) who recorded their first album in Hollywood. The best track is the unheavy Wake Me Up In The Morning. The album, sometimes titled Confusion also included an interesting long version of Saint James Infirmary.

Before Big Brother, Ernie Joseph was known as Ernie Orosco and formed several Santa Barbara outfits including Ernie and The Emperors, Ernie's Funnys and Giant Crab. Ernie Joseph also released a solo LP An American Emperor which has been reissued on Akarma.

The band may also be responsible for the ESP 45 by the group Rain.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Alec Palao)

Big Foot

Personnel:

- DAVID GARLAND keyb'ds, horns A
- GERRARD BELISLE horns A
- VIRGIL BECKHAM bs A
- SPENCE EARNSHAW drms A
- ART MUNSON gtr A

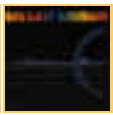
ALBUM:

1. (A) BIGFOOT (Winro 1004) 1968

A late sixties/early seventies San Francisco-based rock/horn rock outfit arguably of peripheral relevance to their book, although their album is a very minor collectable. They certainly had pedigree. Art Munson had been with The Righteous Brothers, Beckhorn went on to The Ritchie Furay Band, Earnshaw to The Wackers and Garland later played with Bobby And The Midnights.

Dave Garland and Virgil Beckham later played on a privately released album, Fred Field And Friends (Marantha HS 031) 1976, which is reputedly quite pleasant later seventies hippie rock.

The Big Inners



45:

1. Ethmoiditus Cum Polyposis/Do You Wonder (Panorama 16) 1965

Up there with Prognosis Stegnosis as a mouthful of a title, this is an ode to allergies that Buddy Holly never recorded and featured, very aptly, on The Big Itch Vol. 6! More derivative beat on the flip. Great group name.

(Max Waller)

Big Lost Rainbow

Personnel:

- J.P. BAILHE bs, vcls A
- ADAM BERENSON piano, vcls A
- RID PEARSON gtr, piano, sax, vcls A
- ROBIN PFOUTZ cello, vcls A

- TONY MORSE flute, gtr, vcls A
- OTIS READ gtr, harp, piano, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BIG LOST RAINBOW (Private Pressing) 1973 SC/R1

NB: (1) has been reissued officially on CD by Gear Fab (GF 118) 1998.

This home-produced effort was recorded at Sheffield Recording Studios in Timonium, Maryland and Dynamic Sound Studios, New Haven, Connecticut in August and September 1973. Only 200 copies were pressed which explains its rarity. Musically the album certainly isn't psychedelic or garage - most tracks are pleasant acoustic folk with lots of guitar and flutes. Of particular note is Brothers because it's different from the rest with lots of jazzy piano. Most of the tracks are written by Rid Pearson.

Pearson, is now a major thriller-writer and plays bass for the Rockbottom Remainders, a band made up of writers like Stephen King and Dave Barry who play music for a hobby.

For more information on Big Lost Rainbow check Rid Pearson's website: http://www.ridleypearson.com

(Vernon Joynson/Lloyd Peasley)

Big Sounds

TOP

45:

1. Whang Dang/Go Ahead And Cry (San Dun 003/4) 1965

A garage band from Dallas, Texas. Go Ahead And Cry is a reasonable beat number, with a vocalist that sounds like he's smoked too many Marlboro's... Check it out on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2.

The Big Three

TOP

Personnel:

DENNY DOHERTY	vcls	A
CASS ELLIOTT	vcls	A
TIM ROSE	vcls, gtr	A

45s:

1	Banjo Song/ Winkin' Blinkin'	(?)	1964
2	Grandfather's Clock/Nora's Dove	(?)	1964

A folk group, whose members Elliott and Doherty went on to the Mugwumps and later the Mamas and Papas. Tim Rose had also a subsequent solo career.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Billy and The Kids

45s:

1. Say You Love Me/It's Not The Same (Julian 104) Apr. 1966
2. When I See You/Do You Need Me (Julian 109) Summer 1967

Hailed from Wenatchee in the heart of Washington State, You'll find the 'A' side of their first 45, Say You Love Me, a teen punker, on Back From The Grave, Vol. 6.

Another single Shut Down Again/Troubles Of My Own (Decca 31951) 1966, was by a different act with a similar name: Billy and The Kid.

(Vernon Joynson / Kip Brown / Mike Markesich)

Billy Rat and The Finks

Personnel incl:

- WALLY SHOOP gtr

45:

1. Little Queenie/All American Boy (IGL 122) 1967

Spirit Lake in Northern Iowa was home to this band. Their fine version of Chuck Berry's Little Queenie can now be heard on Midwest vs The Rest. Wally Shoop, who played guitar on this also had an earlier release as Wally Shoop and The Zombies on the Soma label.

Edwin Birdsong

ALBUM:

1	DANCE OF SURVIVAL	(Bamboo)	1974?

From Philadelphia, a black soul psyche group, with lots of fuzz guitars.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Birdwatchers

Personnel:

SAMMY HALL	vcls	A
EDDIE MARTINEZ	drms	A
JOEY MURCIA	ld gtr	A

BOBBY PUCCETTI	keyb'ds	A
JERRY SCHILLS	bs	A

ALBUM:

1	SOUTH FLORIDA'S BIRDWATCHERS	(Florida Rock 4001)	1980

NB: (1) is a retrospective compilation of various 45s.

45s:

1	Love, Emotion, Desire / I Don't Care	(Tara 100)	Aug. 1964
2	Blue Suede Shoes / She Tears Me Up	(Tara 1001)	Oct. 1964
3	Wake Up Little Susie / She Tears Me Up	(Tara 1002)	1965
4	It's A Long Way Home / It Doesn't Matter	(Marlin 1902)	1965
5	Real Appeal / While I'm Gone	(Living Legend 101)	Jul. 1965
6	Girl I Got News For You / Eddies Tune	(Scott 27)	Feb 1966
7	Girl I Got News For You / Eddies Tune	(Mala 527)	Apr 1966
8	I'm Gonna Love You Anyway / A Little Bit Of Lovin'	(Mala 536)	Jul 1966
9	I'm Gonna Do It To You / I Have No Worried Mind	(Mala 548)	Nov 1966
10	Schroeder / ??	(Marlin # unkn)	Jan 1967
11	Mary Mary (It's To You That I Belong) / Cry A Little Bit	(Mala 555)	Feb 1967
12	Turn Around Girl / You Got It	(Scott 29)	Jul 1967
13	Turn Around Girl / You Got It	(Laurie 3399)	Aug 1967
14	Put A Little Sunshine In My Day / Then You Say Boh Bah	(Scott 30)	Nov 1967
15	While I'm Gone / I'll Remember You	(Living Legend 110)	1967
16	Dreamin' In The Rain / You Don't Need A Reason	(Victory 2000)	Jun 1968
17	Rock Steady / Little David	(Scott 401)	Oct 1968
18	Rock Steady / Little David	(Laurie 3480)	1968
19	Spinning Wheel / Rhyme Tyme	(Scott 402)	May 1969
20	Hold Onto Me / Hey Little People	(Acetate only)	1969
21	Mr. Skin / Come Home Baby	(Geminix 5501)	1972

NB: (5) as 'Gary Stites and The Birdwatchers'. (10) as 'Security Blankets'. (15) as 'Legendary Street Singers', 'B' side by The Gents Five. (16) as 'Glass Bubble'. (17) and (18) with Duane Allman as 'New Rock Band'. (19) as 'Mousetrap'.

This long-lived group from Tampa, Florida produced mainly highly-derivative beat/pop fare, though enjoyable nonetheless. They also recorded one 45 with Duane Allman as The New Rock Band.

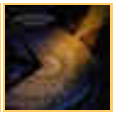
A retrospective LP was put out on the Florida-Rock label in the late seventies/early eighties. Joey Murcia went on to join Magic whose rare LP Enclosed has seen a reissue. Spirit fanatics should note the cover of Mr. Skin on the Geminix 45.

Sam Hall became a Christian in the late sixties or early seventies and later toured as Sammy Hall and The Sammy Hall Singers.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Mary Mary (It's To You That I Belong) on Marijuana Unknowns Vol. 1; I'm Gonna Love You Anyway on The Garage Zone, 2; and Girl I Got News For You on Searching For Love.

Thanks to Jeff Lemlich and his excellent Florida book 'Savage Lost' for helping to flesh out the 45 discography.

(Max Waller)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Birmingham Sunday to The Black Orchids

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Birmingham Sunday
- Birtha
- Biscuit Davis
- Bit 'A' Sweet
- Bits 'n' Pieces
- Bittersweets
- The Bittersweets
- T.J. Black
- Black and Blues
- Blackburn and Snow
- Black Death
- J.D. Blackfoot
- Black Merda
- The Black Orchids

Birmingham Sunday

TOP

Personnel:

- PHIL GUSTAFSON A
- JEAN HEIM A
- WARD JOHNS A
- JOHN KVAM A
- JOE LA CHEW A
- DEBBIE PARKE vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A MESSAGE FROM BIRMINGHAM SUNDAY (All American AA 5718) 1967/8 R5

NB: (1) reissued officially on vinyl and CD by Akarma (AK 014) 1998.

This was a local California album recorded by a local Nevada group in December 1967. Only three or four original copies of this record have surfaced, despite being on a "real" label, and produced by Strawberry Alarm Clock guru Bill Holmer. According to the band, however, a few hundred copies were pressed at the time.

On offer is a pleasant Summer-Of-Love flower-pop with occasional outbursts of acidic guitar. This should appeal to fans of the Peanut Butter Conspiracy. (Clark Faville / Max Waller)

Birtha

Personnel:

ROSEMARY BUTLER	bs, vcls	A
OLIVIA LIVER FAVELA	drms	A
SHERRY HAGLER	keyb'ds	A
SHELLY PINIZOTTO	ld gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BIRTHA	(Dunhill DSX 50127)	1972
2(A)	CAN'T STOP THE MADNESS	(ABC Probe)	1973

NB: (1) and (2) also released in the UK (Probe SPBA 6267 and 6272 respectively). (1) also issued in France by Pathe Marconi.

Like Fanny, this was an early '70s hard rock group formed by four Californian girls, and best avoided. Rosemary Butler later joined Jackson Browne's group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Biscuit Davis

Personnel:

- ROBERT ANTHOINE drms A
- TOM BAILEN gtr, vcls A
- DERRIK HOITSMA gtr, bouzouki, violin, vcls A
- BOB THIELE Jr. gtr, keyb'ds, vcls A
- TODD ZIMMERMAN bs A
- (and guests - nineteen of them!) A

ALBUM:

1. (A) PLAYING ON THE MOON (Flying Dutchman - Amsterdam AM 12014) 1973 SC

A remarkably 'Dead - sounding group of young country - rock musicians. A very good album in the hippie rock mould! Bob Thiele Jr produced the album which was issued on his father's Amsterdam label. Bob Thiele senior also being a well-known jazz producer. The album is housed in a nice psychedelic gatefold sleeve and contains a surprising long cover of Gasoline Alley (Rod Stewart / Ron Wood) plus a cover of Another Saturday Night (Sam Cooke). All the other tracks were composed by the group members.

(Clark Faville / Stephane Rebeschini)

Bit 'A' Sweet

Personnel:

- MITCH LONDON bs, drms, vcls A
- RUSSELL LESLIE drms, vcls A
- DENNIS DE RESPINO keyb'ds, gtr, vcls A
- JACK MIECZOWSKI gtr, sitar, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HYPNOTIC 1 (ABC ABCS 640) 1968

45s:

1. 2086/Second Time (ABC 11125) 1968
2. Out Ot Sight, Out Of Mind / Is It On - Is It Off? (MGM 13695) 1967

This band is thought to have come from Pennsylvania or NYC. The sleeve is one of the best points about their album, which apart from a couple of tracks, Travel and A Second Time is not recommended, although it has some interesting sound effects and phasing. Their cover of Out Of Sight, Out Of Mind which is not on the LP, is worth hearing and can be found on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 4 or 60's Choice, Vol. 2.

Bit 'A' Sweet also appeared in the movie "Blonde On A Bum Trip" performing Out Of Sight, Out Of Mind, plus one other track.

(Max Waller/Kip Brown/Mike Markesich)

Bits 'n' Pieces

45:

1. Look Out Linda/Who Could I Turn To? (Dee Gee 2005/6) c1964

Also seen listed as Antler 2005, this is pure Beatles-inspired invasion sound. Basic but catchy uptempo beat backed by a slow beat-ballad. Group origins are unknown, both sides are credited to one 'Buck Ram'. (?!!)

Bittersweets

Personnel incl:

PAUL BENNETT	drms	A
ALLAN CHITWOOD	bs	A
GREG FARLEY	gtr	A

BOB SUTKO	vcls, hrmnca	A

45s:

1	Cry Your Eyes Out / She Treats Me Bad	(Hype 1001)	July 1966
2	She Treats Me Bad / Road To Rann	(Chari C-102)	late 1966
3	In The Night / Another Chance	(Original Sound OS-70)	May 1967

Originally from Scottsdale, Arizona they enjoyed some local success. In late 1967 they added Paul "Skip" Ladd, from the Laser Beats, to their ranks and became known as Twentieth Century Zoo. Another Chance is featured on Mindrocker Vol. 13.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

The Bittersweets

45:

1. The Hurtin' Kind/Summertime (Tema PXT 001) 1965

An all girl garage band from Cleveland, Ohio. The Hurtin' Kind is a nice folk-rocker with pleasant harmonies which can be heard on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 1. The song was a hit around the Cleveland area for the Tulu Babies the same year (aka The Baskerville Hounds).

T.J. Black

45:

1	Gotta Turn Myself On, Babe / She Belongs To Me	(Jubilee 45-5516)	1965

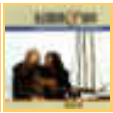
Moody folk-rock by a Dylan-clone, who pays his dues on the flip. Anyone know if this is Terry Black (aka Terence)?

(Max Waller)

Black and Blues

Personnel incl:

- BOB McDONALD
- G. KOPKO



45s:

1. Come To Me/Bye Bye Baby (UA 50245) 1968

2. Candy Castles/? (Talunt TUS-0715) 1969

Anderson a town about 40 miles North East of Indianapolis in Indiana was home to this band, whose first 45 was a fine two-sided fuzz pop single. Both sides can be heard on The Finest Hours Of U.S. '60s Punk. Bye Bye Baby is a very appealing Mona/Who Do You Love? style song. (Vernon Joynson / Kip Brown)

Blackburn and Snow

TOP

Personnel incl:

JEFF BLACKBURN	gtr, vcls	A
SHERRI SNOW	vcls	A
CHICKEN HIRSCH	drms	A

CD:

1	SOMETHING GOOD FOR YOUR HEAD	(Big Beat CDWIKD 189)	1999

45s:

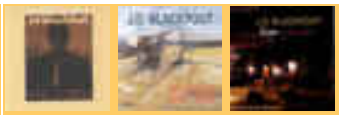
1	Stranger In A Strange Land/Uptown-Downtown	(Verve VK-10478)	1967
2	Time/Postwar Baby	(Verve VK-10563)	1967

One of the first wave of San Francisco bands, they formed in 1966 recording these two fine 45s the following year. They were due to release an album for Verve in April 1968 but it never appeared and apparently they had cuts on an ultra rare four album Box Set compilation of early Californian outfits on Colgems, which would now be virtually impossible to obtain. Still, you can find Stranger In A Strange Land on Sounds Of The Sixties: San Francisco, Part 1.

Jeff Blackburn went on to play for a number of Californian outfits including Jesse Wolf and Wings (early seventies), Silver Wings (1972/73), and Moby Grape (in the mid- seventies). Sherri Snow played briefly with Dan Hicks And His Hot Licks (in the late sixties) and Chicken Hirsch drummed for The Cleanliness And Godliness Skiffle Band (late sixties) and then the seminal Country Joe And The Fish (during the late sixties). He later owned a 'head' shop in San Francisco.

The Big Beat retrospective CD collects 20 tracks from their 1966 period at Trident Productions, also the fertilising ground for the Mystery Trend and the Chambers Brothers. Blackburn and Snow's forte was dramatic or dreamy chiming electrified folk-rock with confident strident vocals, brimming with the bright-eyed innocence and self-belief of the hippie generation. The vocals especially epitomise the emerging "San Francisco sound"... comparisons to early Jefferson Airplane or Jan Ashton-period Vejtables are inevitable. Both Verve 45s are included and turn out to be just the tip of the iceberg; hidden gems are revealed which justify a reappraisal - Yes Today, Takin' It Easy and Do You Realize are quite simply stunning. With comprehensive notes from Alec Palao, this is a must for any West Coast afficionado.

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini / Max Waller)



Black Death

45:

1. Rock And Roll With Ork/In Need (Cathedral 417) 19?

The band played in Minnesota in the late sixties/early seventies and this piece of psychedelia is now sought-after by some collectors.

J.D. Blackfoot

Personnel:

J.D. BLACKFOOT	ld vcls	A
CRAIG FULLER	gtr	A
KENNY MAY	bs	A
DAN WALDRON	drms	A
JEFF WHITLOCK	gtr	A
STERLING SMITH	keyb'ds
PHIL STOKES	bs

ALBUMS:

1	THE ULTIMATE PROPHECY	(Mercury 61288)	1970
2	SONG OF CRAZY HORSE	(Fantasy 9468)	1974
3	SOUTHBOND AND GONE	(Fantasy 9487)	1975
4	LIVE IN ST LOUIS (dble)	(Bisch)	1982

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Tokala 5947-2). (2) reissued on CD (Sisapa Record Co. 5945-2) (4) reissued on dble CD (Tokala). There's also a double CD compilation, Footprints ().

45s:

1	Epitaph For A Head/Who's Nuts Alfred?	(Philips 40625)	1969
2	Who's Nuts Alfred?/Epitaph For A Head	(Philips 40626)	1969
3	I've Never Seen You/One Time Woman	(Philips 40679)	1970
4	Twilight/Dove On The Ocean	(Fantasy 741)	197?
5	Wonderin' Where You Are / It Don't Mean A Thing	(Peace 50944)	197?
6	Savage/Almost Another Day	(Peace 61776)	197?

NB: (5) as J.D. Blackfoot with Uncle Billy.

This group was from Columbus, Ohio. They started out as a combination of two local groups, The Ebb Tides and Tree. They continued as Tree and won a recording deal from Mercury as a prize in a local band competition. Craig Fuller was added to the group after some of the material for the Ultimate Prophecy had already been written.

The album credits two people who don't play a note on it - Phil Stokes on bass (the actual bass player was Kenny

May - he was replaced after the recording), and Sterling Smith on keyboards (also joining after the recording, there are no keyboards on the album!). The line-up with Phil and Sterling did record some unreleased material.

The album did very well in the St. Louis area as there was significant radio play there. After a period of time, J.D. Blackfoot left the group and the rest of the band continued to play as Osiris. J.D. assembled a new group and recorded the two Fantasy label LPs. Some of the musicians on those albums were in other sixties Columbus area bands like The Four O'Clock Balloon and The Myrchents. The group Osiris sort of metamorphosised into two other groups, one of them being the Load, who recorded an album Praise The Load, which is keyboard driven progressive rock like ELP.

The Ultimate Prophecy album is arguably the best rock album ever from Ohio. Side one shows off Craig Fuller's country/folk roots which he expanded in Pure Prarie League. Side two features lyrics by J.D. Blackfoot and drummer Dan Waldron as they search for "the Answer". Most of the music on side two was composed by guitarist and original Tree member Jeff Whitlock.

J.D. himself spent two years in New Zealand between 1972-74. He and his wife went there for a month's holiday in 1972 and liked it so much they stayed much longer. Indeed, his second album, The Song Of Crazy Horse, was recorded at Auckland's Stebbing Studio with local luminaries such as Billy Kristian on bass and Frank Gibson on drums. Indeed, it won New Zealand's 'Best Album Of The Year Award' in 1974 and remains highly collectable. He also released an EP, Nobody's Business/Let Her Go/Stay The Night Away/He Walks On Past (Bison B-77), 1984. Blackfoot, who changed his name to Van Dervort in 1970, sold the worldwide rights to Fantasy Records some years ago, but retained exclusive rights to the New Zealand market. Currently living in Columbus, Ohio, he still makes recordings.

Craig Fuller and Phil Stokes later co-founded Pure Prairie League. Fuller was later a member of American Flyer together with Doug Yule (Velvet Underground), Eric Kaz (Blue Magoos) and Steve Katz (Blues Project). They released two albums for United Artists in 1975 and 1976 of average country rock produced by George Martin. Later still, Craig Fuller became lead singer for the reformed Little Feat in the early '90s.

Epitaph For A Head has been compiled on High All The Time Vol. 2.

(George Gell / Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini / Christer Bckhage / Phillip Stokes)

Black Merda

TOP

Personnel:

ANTHONY HAWKINS	gtr	A
CHARLES HAWKINS	gtr	A
TYRONE HYTE	drms	A
VEESEE L. VEASEY	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BLACK MERDA	(Chess CH 1551)	1970
2()	LONG BURN THE FIRE	(Janus JSX-3042)	1972

NB: (2) as by Merda

45:

1	Cynthy-Ruth/Reality	(Chess 2095)	1970

NB: There's also a French 45, with picture sleeve: Prophet / Cynthy-Ruth (Chess 169556L) 1970.

A short-lived outfit which operated out of Mississippi. The 45 is taken from their debut album, which is strongly influenced by the blues. As one would expect Cynthy-Ruth is the most commercial cut, but its better moments include Over And Over a bluesy instrumental; Reality, a laid back effort with some nice bluesy guitar work and Windsong, a slow instrumental, very similar to Fleetwood Mac's Albatross.

The band were latterly known as Merda.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

The Black Orchids

TOP

ALBUM:

1	THE BLACK ORCHIDS	(Private Pressing)	c1972 R2

A limited private pressing issued in a plain white sleeve. The music is reputedly psych with long guitar solos.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Black Pearl to Arthur Blessitt and The Eternal Rush

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Black Pearl
- Black River Circus
- The Black Sacks
- The Black Sheep
- Black Swan
- The Black Watch
- The Blackstones
- Blackwell
- Blackwood Apology
- Blades Of Grass
- Hal Blaine
- Lindy Blaskey and The Lavells
- The Blazers
- The Blazers
- The Blazers
- Blessed End
- Lynn Blessing
- Michael Blessing
- Arthur Blessitt and The Eternal Rush

Black Pearl

TOP

Personnel:

- BRUCE BENSON gtr A
- JERRY CAUSI drms A
- BERNIE FIELDINGS vcls A
- TOMMY MOLCAHY second ld gtr A
- JEFF MACKAY MORRIS ld gtr A
- O'CONNOR drms A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BLACK PEARL (Atlantic SD-8220) 1969
2. (A) BLACK PEARL LIVE AT THE FILLMORE (Prophesy PRS-1001) 1970

45:

1. Mr. Soul Satisfaction/White Devil (Atlantic 2657) 1969

When Moulty, The Barbarians drummer left the band, the remaining members (Fieldings, Causi and Benson) moved from Boston to San Francisco and with the addition of fellow Bostonian Jeff Morris and Molcahy and O'Connor formed Black Pearl in 1967.

The bands three guitar line-up created one of the first heavy psyche groups, with strong R&B roots. Their first album, produced by Lee Kiefer and Richard Moore, contained nine short tracks, with titles like Crazy Chicken, White Devil and Mr. Soul Satisfaction. It's cover was designed by Eve Babitz.

The second album was recorded live at the Fillmore West in September 1968 and contained an eleven minute version of James Brown's Cold Sweat.

Bernie Fieldings also guested on Fusion's Border Town album.

Forget It is on Rhino's Nuggets Vol.6 (Punk Part II).

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

Black River Circus

TOP

45:

1	Love's Gonna Carry Me (Home) / A Ritual Melody	(MRC MR-1096)	Dec 1969

An unknown outfit on a Waynesboro, Virginia label. Sounds more like '66/'67 again - soulful keyboard-dominated pop ala Young Rascals is backed by a 'groovy' exploito-style keyboard instrumental which seems outta place on Acid Dreams Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

The Black Sacks

TOP

This band originated from Houston, Texas. Two of their tracks: The Way I Feel and Take Out have subsequently resurfaced on Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD set). Any additional info anyone can give would be greatly appreciated!

The Black Sheep

TOP

Personnel:

BUDDY ('Fly Man')	A
DEAN ('Gopher man')	A
MARK HARMON ('Cartoon Man')	A
JOE MASTERSON ('Monkey Man')	A

MIKE ('Trash man') ld gtr A

45s:

1	I Told You / Baa-Baa	(Bellcor 102)	Mar 1965
2	It's My Mind / Arthur	(Vision 464-440)	Apr 1966
3	It's My Mind / Arthur	(Columbia 4-43666)	May 1966
4	Feeling Down / Suzanne	(Columbia 4-43974)	Jan 1967

From La Canada, Ca. this outfit changed their name to Trayne in 1967. It's My Mind is featured on Moxie's Folk Rock (EP) and is breezy uptempo folk-beat, whilst the flip is a cool uptempo instrumental with furious strumming and harp. The fourth 45 is pleasurable fare too. Both 45s were produced by Jerry Riopell, with arrangements by Murray MacLeod, who were later behind The Parade.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Black Swan

TOP

Personnel:

- BRUCE GOOD ld gtr A
- JEFF COHEN gtr, keyb'ds A
- MARK HANESWORTH gtr A
- SAUL CHAIT bs A
- TOM BRIGHT drms A

Named after the Tyrone Power movie, Black Swan were formed out of the exodus of kids heading off to San Francisco in the late sixties. Tom Bright was one of a bunch of kids from Austin Texas, who, fed up with red-neck aggression, dropped out of University to head West.. but when his "get rich quick" band broke up on arrival, he answered an ad and joined a couple of musicians by the name of Bruce Good and Jeff Cohen.

With the addition of Saul on bass, they scored a three month residency at a bar and moved to a farm in Sonoma, north of the Golden Gate Bridge.

Under the wing of Matthew Katz, they recorded a couple of tunes, Lady Blonde and She Encircles Me for his now legendary compilation The 5th Annual Pipedream. Both are quite commercially orientated tunes, with sprinklings of brass, and harmony vocals in a John Sebastian / Lovin' Spoonful vein. She Encircles Me is particular memorable for it's waltz feel, although both songs were really at odds with the long-extended jams coming from all other corners of San Francisco at the time.

Katz then arranged for Black Swan to move en-masse to Seattle, but after a month or so of playing the Encore Ballroom to "thin crowds and little cash", Tom quit and moved back to California, finding himself learning to do light shows... He recalls: "I muffed it bad at Matthew's faux-Moby Grape's first appearance (made up of a number of the 17-year-old staff musicians). I accidentally threw white light on the boys before the crowd had been acclimatised to them singing familiar songs in the dark - their covers were only 60% close - and it was immediately obvious that bouncing, live-wire Skip Spence was NOT onstage, nor was even a single other actual Grape. The crowd rather effectively rebelled and stormed the box office."

As to Black Swan, in 1971 a 45 appeared on Ember, and an album appeared the following year, but it's thought that these are by a different, probably European band. The 'A' side is sinister and slight, whilst the non-LP flip is sung in the style of a Greek folk/pop song.

ALBUM:

1. BLACK SWAN (MCA/Embassy MAPS 5666) c. May 1972

45:

1. Echoes And Rainbows/Belong, Belong (Ember EMBS 303) 1971

Prior to leaving Texas, Bright also played on Gilbert Shelton's sole 45, as well as playing with local notables such as Powell St. John, Steve Miller, Mance Lipscomb and John Lee Hooker.

Bruce Good now sells cruise ship births out of San Francisco and Jeff Cohen lives in Mill Valley and records TV ad music. Bassist Saul Chait was last heard of selling Mazdas in Petaluma, California, whilst drummer Tom Bright went on to race motorbikes professionally and is now a print broker, industrial consultant, and politcal candidate in Sacramento, California.

(Vernon Joynson / Hans Hoekstra / Max Waller)

The Blackstones

TOP

45:

1	Chicago City / Barrel Of Dreams (AS)	(Teen Tunnel TT-101)	1999

This 45 is a reissue of a recently discovered International Recording Co. acetate out of Chicago. It is thought to be a northside band whose name was hijacked by Jeff Boyan for his pre-Saturday's Children outfit Dalek/Engam: The Blackstones. Chicago City is a raw adolescent party punker and is backed by an attempt at a Beatlesque ballad. (Max Waller)

The Black Watch

TOP

45:

1	Left Behind/I Wish I Had The Nerve	(Fenton 2508)	Aug. 1967

A Cedar Springs, Michigan outfit on what is now a very collectable label. Left Behind can also be heard on Chosen Few, Vol. 2 and Teenage Shutdown Vol.7 (Get A Move On!!!).

(Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

Blackwell

Personnel:

- JOHN BUNDRICK keyb'ds A
- RANDY DEHART drms A
- GLENN GIBSON vcls A
- JIMMY SMITH gtr A
- TERRY WILSON bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BLACKWELL (Astro 9010) 1969

45s:

1. Wonderful/Dirty Story (Astro 2002/1000) 1969 89
2. Almost Gifted/Outside (Astro 1001) 1969
3. Doin' It/ ? (Astro 1003) 1969
4. Down On The Farm/Little Man* (Astro 6003) 1970

NB: * flip side was by Logan Smith.

A Texas rock and roll outfit, whose songs had strong vocals and some psychedelic influence. John "Rabbitt" Bundrick was later involved with The Who and one of their cuts Outside has resurfaced recently on both Acid Visions Box Set Vol. 1 (CD) and the 69 Love-In (CD) comp on Collectables.

Blackwood Apology

Personnel:

RON BECKMAN	bs	A
DENNIS CRASWELL	drms, vcls	A
DENNIS LIBBY	piano, vcls	A
DALE MENTON	gtr, vcls	A
BRUCE PEDALTY	organ, vcls	A
(GREG MALAND	keyb'ds	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	HOUSE OF LEATHER	(Fontana SRF-67591)	1969

Dale Menton was involved in several Mankato and Minneapolis-based sixties bands including The Gestures, The Best Things and The Madhatters. He was the writer and architect of this rock concept album, which was recorded in Chicago, although the artists responsible for it were mostly from Minneapolis. Craswell was earlier with The Castaways and later played for the Chicago band Crow, who moved to Minnesota. Pedalty was a session man and Greg Maland one of Minnesota's best keyboard players.

Greg Maland is perhaps best remembered as Gregory Dee (of Gregory Dee and The Avanties fame). He was also in the Castaways with Libby and Craswell, from 1966 until 1969.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

Blades of Grass

TOP

Personnel:

BRUCE AMES	A
MARC BLACK	A
FRANK DiCHIARA	A
DAVE GORDON	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	ARE NOT FOR SMOKING	(Jubilee 8007)	1968	(-)

45s:

1	Happy / That's What A Boy Likes	(Jubilee 5582)	1967
2	Just Another Face / Baby, You're A Real Good Friend Of Mine	(Jubilee 5590)	1967
3	Help / Just Ah	(Jubilee 5605)	1967
4	Charlie And Fred / You Won't Find That Girl	(Jubilee 5616)	1968
5	You Turned Off The Sun / The Way You'll Never Be	(Jubilee 5622)	1968
6	I Love You Alice B.Toklas / That's What A Boy Likes	(Jubilee 5635)	1968
7	Love Her And Cherish Her / Pageant	(Jubilee 5662)	1969
8	It Isn't Easy / My Someone	(Fine FI-57027)	Jun 1970

The Jubilee 45s are mainly summery harmony-pop. One highlight is a cover of the Peter Sellers film title-track I Love You Alice B.Toklas (also recorded by Harpers Bizarre). The Blades' version is noteworthy for vocal phasing and psychy effect-laden intro and outro. The Way You'll Never Be is a cover of labelmates the Fifth Estate. For their 45 on Fine, this Rochester, NY combo turned to heavier garage-pop sounds - features great fuzz breaks and has resurfaced on Seeds Turn To Flowers Turn To Dust.

Their album has an amusing title, but is may be disappointing for toking 'psych' fans.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

Hal Blaine

TOP

ALBUM:

1	PSYCHEDELIC PERCUSSION	(Dunhill DS 50019)	1967

Selected 45s:

1	Love-In (December) / Wiggy (November)	(Dunhill D-4091)	1967
2	The Invaders / Secret Agent Man	(Dunhill D-4102)	1967

Hal Blaine was one of the best American drummers and can be found on literally thousands of albums recorded in the Los Angeles studios since the mid-'60s. This album was his attempt to cash in the psych movement but it flopped.

You can also find his Secret Agent Man on Penny Arcade, Dunhill Folk Rock Vol. 2; and the instrumentals Love-In (December) on Everything You Always Wanted To Know About... CD and Wiggy (November) on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 2 CD.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

Lindy Blaskey and The Lavells

TOP

Personnel incl:

LINDY BLASKEY A

45s:

1	Gonna Be Free / ?	(Red Feather # Unkn)	1961
2	Wine Wine Wine/Meet Me Tonight In Your Dreams	(Lavette LA 5001/2)	1963
3	My Baby Done Left Me/I'll Get Along Somehow	(Space SR 0003/4)	1965
4	Papa Oom Mow Mow/Would You Believe	(Space SR 0005/6)	1965
5	You Ain't Tuff/Let It Be	(Space SR 0007/8)	1966
6	Sweets For My Sweet/Movin' Away	(Space SR 0009/10)	1966
7	You Ain't Tuff/Let It Be	(Challenge 59354)	1967
8	Out Here In Vietnam/What's Her Name	(Lavette LA 5005/6)	1966

NB: (2) as Lindy and The Lavels. (8) Lindy Blaskey solo effort.

Blaskey ran the Albuquerque-based Lavette label and fronted this New Mexican sixties pop outfit whose case for inclusion here is marginal. The second 45 was credited simply to Lindy And The Lavels. It all sounds rather passe now. At the time Blaskey produced or played on all the Lavette label's releases.

Compilation appearances have included:- You Ain't Tuff and Le It Be on Mindrocker, Vol. 5, Psychedelic Microdots Vol. 1 (CD) and I Turned Into A Helium Balloon CD; Papa Oom Mow Mow on The Big Itch; and all of the Lindy Blaskey and The Lavells 45s (except their 1961 debut) can be found on the compilation Chicago '60s Punk (Little Boy Blues) vs. New Mexico '60s Pop (Lindy Blaskey and The Lavells) (Eva EV 12065) 1989.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Blazers

TOP

45s:

1	Hula Hop Party/Vive La Campagne	(Golden Crest 552)	196?
2	Beaver Patrol/Shore Break	(Acree 101)	1963
3	Bangalore/Sounds of Mecca	(Acree 102)	1963
4	Grasshopper/A Little Bit Of Slop	(Mundo 864)	1964
5	Masked Grandma / Summer Sessions	(Dot 16623)	1964
6	The Grasshopper Twist I / II	(Seaside 617)	196?
7	Sit Down / ... Cried	(Singular 1003)	196?

This California (Hollywood?) band's forte was raucous guitar and sax instrumentals - e.g. Beaver Patrol on Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 6. The 1963 Battle Of The Beat LP features two Blazers tracks - Mag Wheels and Money (the latter "with vocals"). Strummin Mental Vol. 3 features a Blazers with an instrumental called Poison which may be this group.

A predominently instrumental/surf group, their inclusion here is thus marginal. No known connection to other Blazers...

The Blazers

TOP

45:

1	I Don't Need You/ To Do	(Brass 306)	1966

NB: Title of flip incomplete.

Kansas City, Missouri was home to this band. I Don't Need You can be heard on Monsters Of The Midwest Vol. 1 and Project Blue Vol. 5.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Blazers

TOP

45:

1	Graveyard / You Are My Sunshine	(Royalty no # (matrix 867L-5266))	196?

Another Blazers (reportedly from Michigan) whose rare, unheard and uncompiled "garage" 45 comes with a picture insert.

(Max Waller)

Blessed End

TOP

Personnel:

- DOUG TETI vcls A
- JIM SHUGARTS gtr A

- STEVE QUINZI keyb'ds A
- KEN CARSON bs A
- MIKE PETRYLAK drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) MOVIN' ON (Tns J 248) 1971

NB. (1) repressed in 1992, and also available as a legitimate CD reissue with bonus track (Gear Fab GF-112) 1998.

This band came from Philadelphia and their album is excellent Doors-influenced psychedelia with similar keyboards and a vocalist who sounds like Jim Morrison. Consistently good throughout, this is recommended. All ten tracks were self-penned and arranged by the band. The album was produced by Carl Sandell and recorded at "The New Sound" studios in Springfield, Pennsylvania. Teti's vocals are excellent and reach their peak on tracks like Sometimes You've Got To Be Strong and Dead Man. The album's finest moments include Nightime Rider and Movin' On, which both feature superb keyboard work.

Steve Quinzi himself adds: Mike, Jim, Ken and myself were from Ridley Park Pa., a suburb of Philadelphia, whilst Doug was from Springfield. We are all from more or less working class backgrounds. We met in high school (Ridley High) and the band had already been together about a year when I joined in the fall of 1970. Up until that that time they had 2 guitars. The other guitarist - Lenny Perchowsky - had left the band to go off to medical school. The first time we played together we hit it off both musically and personally, Mike and I became best friends and remain so to this day.

We played at school dances, pep rallies, battle-of-the-bands, splash parties, and coffee houses around town. It was a wonderful time. As we became more familiar with each other, Jim and I began writing songs together. We got the idea to record the album when a local recording studio owner called me and asked if I'd be willing to loan him my farfisa organ (for use at a recording session) in exchange for recording time. Needless to say I accepted his offer. Over a period of about 3 months, Jim and I worked up what we felt were our ten best songs, and the band started rehearsing them. We recorded the whole album in one day (Summer '71). Like a Godsend, three very good paying gigs came up in one week, and we used the proceeds to finance the pressing of the albums. Ken designed the cover.

Shortly after recording the album, Ken left the band to join the navy. This, as I was later to realize, was the beginning of the end for the band. The only other recording we did was a remake of Can't Be Without Her that we did with a sub bass player.

Ken's replacement was Rick Swanson. Rick and Jim did not get along, so sometime later Jim left and was replaced by Ernie Fletsig. The band took on more a hard rock edge and began to play frat parties at the numerous fraternity houses in Philadelphia. We also played some cheesy clubs. Ernie suffered a mental breakdown brought on by a drug problem and had to leave the band. He was replaced by Lou Grieco who did not get along with Mike. By this time (winter '73) I was sick of what things had become and left to join a top 40 band playing nightclubs full-time. Blessed End was formaly disbanded. A few months later Doug joined me in the new group, but a year later was fired after a bitter dispute with the other members. I never saw him again.

I believe that Doug went to medical school. Mike became an auto mechanic. Ken and Jim worked in sheet metal fabrication at the Boeing helicopter plant in Ridley Park. Ken passed away from cancer a few years ago.

I'm the only one who continued in music. I moved to Miami Florida in '78, where I now do music production for advertising and corporate presentations. I am also a new age artist with two albums out (The Pond and Vanishing Rainforest). A third Rhythm Of The World, on Pacific Time Records, is released in April '99 and is in an ambient-techno style. A dance remix of one of the cuts Mirage has also been released as a CD single.

Leading reissue label, Gear Fab have re-releasd Movin' On on CD, whilst Jim Shugarts also has a couple of original vinyl albums up for grabs - mail him at commanche@hotmail.com. For more info on the Gear Fab reissue and the band in general, check their website: http://www.voicenet.com/~osprey/blessed_end/index.html

Lynn_Blessing

Personnel:

JOHN BECK	gtr	A
LYNN BLESSING	vibes, hrmnca, vcls	A
ROBERT HIRTH	gtr	A
SNEAKY PETE KLEINOW	steel gtr	A
WOLFGANG MELZ	bs	A
MEL TEFORD	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	SUNSET PAINTER	(Epic BN 26488)	1969

Originally from Cicero, Indiana, Lynn Blessing was a talented vibes and harmonica player who had previously played in The Advancement and Cosmic Brotherhood. His sole solo album is an instrumental mix of jazz, rock, folk and country, produced by the jazz flutist Paul Horn. The material contains five covers (Beatles's Mother's Nature Son, Byrds' Child Of The Universe, Dylan's Country Pie, a Judy Sill song and a surprising version of Pinball Wizard) plus some originals penned by Blessing, Hirth or Melz (Cosmic Cowboy, Anacalypsis and the only track with vocals, Where There Is Grass). The album begins with these words: "Just sit back, relax and take off your shoes".

The backing musicians were all part of these Hollywood sessionmen, equally at ease with jazz, psych, rock or pop. John Beck also released a solo album and Wolfgang Melz went on to play with Gabor Szabo.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Michael Blessing

45s:

1	The New Recruit/A Journey With Michael Blessing	(Colpix 787)	1966
2	Until It's Time For You To Go/What Seems To Be The Trouble Officer	(Colpix 792)	1966

Michael Blessing was in fact Mike Nesmith before he joined the Monkees. He was obviously searching for some direction, as these two singles manage to display four different styles! The New Recruit is a folk/rock novelty about a new Army recruit wishing to learn how to kill his enemies, whilst the flip is an excellent instrumental acid raga with lots of echo. On the second 45, Until It's Time For You To Go is an awful orchestrated ballad while the "B" side is a funny protest song a la Dylan, complete with harmonica.

These two singles are now sought-after.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Arthur Blessitt and The Eternal Rush

Personnel:

J.P. ALLEN	bs	A
ARTHUR BLESSIT	vcls	A
BILL HARRIS	drms	A
JIM McPHEETERS	vcls, gtr	A
O.J.PETERSON	organ, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	SOUL SESSION - AT HIS PLACE	(Creative Sound CSS 15308)	c1969 R1

An extremely strange album, between stoned-on Jesus folk rock and anti-drug propaganda, housed in a great psych cover with a strange logo combining a cross and a peace sign, rock musicians and a portrait of Blessitt. Arthur Blessitt, a preacher "Minister to Sunset Strip", "tells it like it is" on two long tracks: Soul Session (14'23") and White Slavery, Black Panthers And The Hell's Angels (16'19"), O.J Peterson sings Glory Hallelujah and Jim McPheeters Tell It To Jesus and God's Love.

The liner notes explain that Blessitt has an all-night psychedelic Gospel Club at 8428 Sunset Strip in L.A., that his congregation is composed of acid heads, speed freaks, bikers, prostitutes, hippies, pushers, Black Panthers, Hell's Angels and that Blessitt is a preacher who cares enough to dare enter the strip joints, hippie pads, topless bars and love-ins with the message of Jesus-Christ!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bliss to Blue Cheer

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Bliss
- The Blokes
- Bloodrock
- Bloody Mary
- Mike Bloomfield
- The Bloomsbury People
- The Blox
- David Blue
- Blue Ash
- The Blue Banana
- The Bluebeards
- The Blue Beats
- The Bluebird
- The Bluebird
- Blue Cheer

Bliss

ALBUM:

1. BLISS (Canyon 7707) 1969

45:

1. Ride The Ship Of Fools/Gangster Of Love (Canyon 34) 1969

This band's hard rock album, which features some good guitar work may interest readers.

The Blokes

45:

1. All American Girl/Slander's Child (Dante 2545) 1967

A very obscure 45 from the Michigan area. All American Girl was co-written by Dick Wagner (leader of The Bossmen). Great organ and protest lyrics - you could give it a spin on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 6: Michigan,

Part Two.

Bloodrock

Personnel:

- JIM RUTLEDGE ld vcls A
- LEE PICKENS ld gtr, vcls A
- NICK TAYLOR gtr, vcls A B C
- ED GRUNDY bs, vcls A B C
- STEVE HILL keyb'ds, vcls A B C
- RICK COBB drms A B
- WARREN HAM vcls, woodwind B C
- RANDY REEDER drms C

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BLOODROCK (Capitol ST 435) 1970
2. (A) 2 (Capitol ST 491) 1971
3. (A) 3 (Capitol ST 765) 1971
4. (A) USA (Capitol SMAS 645) 1971
5. (A) LIVE (dbl) (Capitol SVBB 11038) 1972
6. (B) PASSAGE (Capitol SW 11109) 1973
7. (C) WHIRLWIND TONGUES (Capitol EST 11259) 1973
8. (-) BLOODROCK 'N' ROLL (Capitol SM 11417) 1976

NB: (1), (2) and (3) were also released in the U.K. and Europe. (8) is a compilation, also released in Europe (SPR 80536).

45s:

1. Certain Kind/Certain Kind () 197?
2. D.O.A./Children's Heritage () 197?
3. Help Is On The Way/Short Interview () 197?

NB: (1) promo only. (3) promo only.

From Fort Worth, Texas, this band had quite a prolific output, but with little success. Probably their best known track is D.O.A. from their second album, which is a heavy organ-based threatening piece with police sirens, and is very much in the anti-war, anti-space race, anti-everything vein of the era. Another notable cut Breach Of Lease off their third album is intense, starting slowly and building up to an amazingly heavy climax. The live version is also particularly hot, whilst the humorous Melvin Laid An Egg from the debut is another musical high point.

Actually, Cobb didn't play on the debut album; Rutledge played drums on it and early on, John Nitzinger too was considered (somewhat) a member of the band and wrote or co-wrote many of the songs.

After the live album, Rutledge and Pickens left and Warren Ham joined as a vocalist and woodwind player for the last two albums. For their final album (Whirlwind Tongues), Cobb left and was replaced by drummer Randy Reeder who had previously played in John Nitzinger's band and later played with a group called Alexis. Warren Ham later went on to form the Ham Brothers and released an album as such in 1977. Later still, he went on to play in former Kansas guitarist/keyboardist Kerry Livgren's Christian rock group AD for, we believe, two LPs - Time Line and Art Of The State. In the '80s Warren was also in Black Rose.

Producer Terry Knight was involved in the first three albums after which the band did the production themselves or co-produced (Peter Granet and Ed Grundy on the last two LPs; with John Palladino on USA).

(Chris Snow / Hans Hoekstra / Ron Bronholc)

Bloody Mary

Personnel:

- anonymous

ALBUM:

1. BLOODY MARY (Family Productions FPS 2707) 1974 R1

Solid New York area heavy rock band, Sir Lord Baltimore drummer / vocalist John Bradley is listed on the cover as an engineer, but may also have contributed musically to the recordings. (Clark Faville)

Mike Bloomfield

ALBUMS:

1	BLOOMFIELD/KOOPER/STILLS: SUPER SESSION	(Columbia CS 9701)	1968
2	THE LIVE ADVENTURES OF MIKE BLOOMFIELD AND AL KOOPER	(Columbia KGP_6)	1969
3	LIVE AT BILL GRAHAM'S FILLMORE WEST	(Columbia CS 9883)	1969
4	IT'S NOT KILLING ME	(Columbia CS 9883)	1970

Born in Chicago in 1943 into a wealthy family, Mike Bloomfield began recording in 1963 with Blues musicians: Yank Rachell, Sleepy John Estes, Big Joe Williams...

In 1965 he joined the Paul Butterfield Blues Band playing on their first two albums. Arguably the first American guitar hero, playing with Bob Dylan at the Newport Folk Festival and on Highway 61 Revisited, he also recorded two 45s with Barry Goldberg as The Chicago Loop. In 1967 he formed The Electric Flag and began guesting on albums of Mother Earth, Moby Grape, Nick Gravenites, Janis Joplin, Barry Goldberg, Tim Davis...

Bloomfield's solo career was first linked to the former Blues Project member Al Kooper, who he'd met during the sessions with Dylan. He then teamed up with Nick Gravenites for the Live At Fillmore West and It's Not Killing Me, albums, both recorded with Mark Naftalin and members of Southern Comfort. In 1973, Bloomfield recorded the bluesy Triumvirate with John Hammond and Dr. John. In 1975, after the lacklustre reunion of the Electric Flag, he formed the "supergroup" KGB with Goldberg, Ray Kennedy (ex Group Therapy), Rick Grech (ex Family/Blind Faith) and the former Vanilla Fudge Carmine Appice. KGB was in fact a total failure.

Bloomfield went on to release several other solo albums, which fall out of the time frame of this book. He sadly died in 1981 of an accidental overdose.

As well as an artist, Bloomfield was also a producer, often working with Nick Gravenites or Norman Dayron. His credits are mainly on blues albums by the likes of Otis Rush, Sam Lay and James Cotton etc..

NB: for contractual reasons, Mike Bloomfield is sometimes credited as Makal Blumfeld, Fast Fingers Finkelstein, Great...

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Bloomsbury People

Personnel:

PAUL DuJARDIN	bs	A
GREG JANICK	keyb'ds	A
DENNIS LANTING	gtr	A
MIKE LORENZ	drms	A
SIGMUND SNOPEK III	keyb'ds, trombone	A
JAN WYDERKA	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BLOOMSBURY PEOPLE	(MGM SE-4678)	1970

45s:

1	Have You Seen Them Cry / Madeline	(Page 843K-1109)	1969
2	Gingerbread Man/Witch Hellen	(MGM 14158)	1970
3	Have You Seen Them Cry/Madeline	(Page 1109)	1971

NB: (3) non LP tracks.

Formed by students at the University Of Wisconsin, in Waukesha. Their debut 45 is orchestrated baroque-rock/pop with progressive moves and switches and tasty guitar flourishes. The second takes one of the more memorable LP tracks and the non-LP Witch Hellen, a catchy hard-rocker with fluid guitar - this latter appears on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 5.

Snopek later had his own band and then pursued a solo career.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller/Carl Rath)

The Blox

Personnel incl:

- R.TURNER

45s:

1. The Way I'm Gonna Be/Say Those Magic Words (Solar 235) 1967
2. Hangin' Out/Everyday's Gonna Be Fun (Solar 237) 1967

This outfit hailed from Houston in Texas. The brainchild behind them was Fred Carroll, who'd started the International Artists label but later sold the name to Lelan Rogers. Carroll produced both 45s and the band actually recorded material for International Artists although nothing was published. Say Those Magic Words was a Strangeloves and Pomus/Schuman composition. Hangin' Out, an atypical sixties garage punk number with a short psychedelic interlude can be heard on Flashback, Vol. 3 or Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 23: Texas, Part 5.

David Blue

TOP

Personnel:

DAVID BLUE (aka DAVID COHEN)	vcls, gtr	A
HARVEY BROOKS	bs	A
MONTE DUNN	gtr	A
PAUL HARRIS	piano, organ, celeste	A
HERBERT LOVELLE	drms	A
BUDDY SALZMANN	drms	A

ALBUM:
(Selective)

1(A)	DAVID BLUE	(Elektra EKS-74003)	1966

Much influenced by Bob Dylan, who was his friend in Greenwich Village, David Blue (aka David Cohen) was in the wave of singers/songwriters who moved away from folk into topical songs. (Comparable with, say, Richard Farina, Tom Rush or Eric Andersen.) His first album is truely excellent and explores the ways opened by Dylan with Highway 61 and Blonde And Blonde: poetic songs with a strong electric back-up, often with strident guitar solos. Check out Justine, It Tastes Like Candy, If Your Monkay Can't Get It or Arcade Love Machine. Three of these songs can also be heard on Jim and Jean's Changes (also with Harvey Brooks and Paul Harris).

Blue then moved to California and his following albums are in the singer/songwriter style, often using excellent musicians (Cooder, Lindley, Barbata, Dave Mason, Levon Helm or Dylan).

David Blue died in 1983.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Blue Ash

TOP

Personnel:

- BILL BARTOLIN vcls, gtr A B
- DAVID EVANS drms, vcls A

- JIM KENDZOR vcls A B
- FRANK SECICH vcls, bs A B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) NO MORE NO LESS (Mercury SRMI 0666) 1973
2. (B) FRONT PAGE NEWS (Playboy 34918) 1978

A Youngstown-area Ohio band who were active from the late sixties through to the late seventies. They played a kind of Beatle-influenced melodic power pop.

The Blue Banana

TOP

45:

1. Spicks And Specks/My Luv (Kanwic Records HFCS-152) 1968

You'll find both sides of this Kansas band's 45, which originally came out in a picture sleeve, on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 5. They were a four piece from the Wichita area.

The Bluebeards

TOP

45:

1. Come On - A My House/I'm Home (Date 2-1547) 1967

Ohio has been suggested as a likely source of this bunch. Ross Bagdasarian appears to have had a hand in this whirling dervish of a neo-Eastern pop-psych ditty. They look back to a Beatles 1964 take-off on the flip, complete with mop-top shakin' falsetto 'ooo's. (MW)

The Blue Beats

TOP

ALBUM:

1. BEATLE BEAT (A.A.RECORDS 133) 196?

45s:

1. Superman/I Can't Get Close (Beowoolf 1061) 196?
2. Extra Girl/She's The One (Allen Associates # unkn) 1966
3. Extra Girl/She's The One (PS) (Columbia 43790) 1966
4. Born In Chicago/I Can't Get Close (To Her At All) (Columbia 4-44098) 1967

NB: Flip to (4) is a re-recorded version of the flip to (1).

This outfit hailed from Hartford, Connecticut. Extra Girl can also be heard on New England Teen Scene, Vol. 2. More recently Born In Chicago has got a further airing on Psychotic Reactions. This is a cool teen effort with lots of reverbed harmonica and Fender wall of sound.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

The Bluebird

Personnel:

- DAVID BAROH vcls, gtrs A B
- PHIL KLITGAARD drms A B
- KEVIN MARIN bs A B
- FRANK "TONY" PUGEL ld gtr A B
- JOHN SOLTERO ld gtr B

NB: Line-up 'A' August '68 to February '69. Line-up 'B' Feb '69 to April '74.

ALBUM:

1. COUNTRY BOY BLUES (Picc-A-Dilly PIC 3382) 1980 R1

45s:

1. Modessa/Goin' Down (Burdette 101) 1970
2. Billy Drake/I Shall Be Released (Jerden 918) 1970

This band came from Mercer Island, Washington. Modessa is a Byrdsian folk-rock ballad reminiscent of Chesnut Mare and about a ship wreck. The flip is a much more rocky upfront affair, though still with good harmonies and some excellent ringing guitars. The first two 45s and six other tracks were also assembled onto the Country Boy Blues album. Three members of Bluebird reputedly recorded the Grand Theft album, on which David Baroh recalls: "We kept this a closley guarded secret for years, but with the release of the new Grand Theft CD Hiking Into Eternity, we decided to come clean with the truth!"

You can hear The Bluebirds recording of Billy Drake on History of Northwest Rock, Vol. 5.

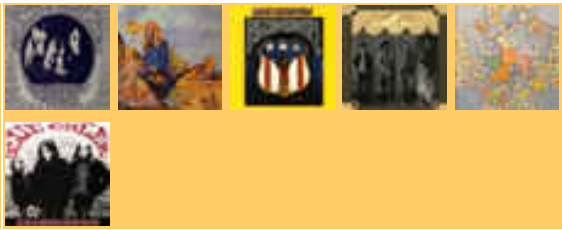
For more information, check the Bluebird website: http://hometown.aol.com/datco96pro/index.html

(Max Waller / Darryl F. Riffero)



The Bluebird

45s:

- Windy Linda/Touch (Dilley 113) 197?
- Here I Am/From The Country (Dilley 115) 197?

A different Bluebird, unconnected to the Washington mob.

Blue Cheer

Personnel:

- LEIGH STEPHENS gtr, vcls A B
- DICK PETERSON bs, vcls A B C D E F G H I
- PAUL WHALEY drms A B C F (H?) I
- BURNS KELLOGG keyb'ds B C D E
- RANDY HOLDEN gtr C
- NORMAN MAYALL drms,gtr D E
- GARY YODER gtr, hrmnca E
- BRUCE STEPHENS keyb'ds, bs D
- TONY RAINIER gtr F
- ANDREW MacDONALD gtr, vcls G (I?)
- DAVE SALCE drms G
- DIETER SALLER gtr I

ALBUMS:

1. (A) VINCEBUS ERUPTUM (Philips 600.264) 1968 11
2. (B) OUTSIDE INSIDE (Philips 600.278) 1968 90
3. (C/D) NEW! IMPROVED! BLUE CHEER (Philips 600.305) 1969 84
4. (D) BLUE CHEER (Philips 600.333) 1969 -
5. (E) THE ORIGINAL HUMAN BEING (Philips 600.347) 1970 188
6. (E) OH PLEASANT HOPE (Philips 600.350) 1970 -
7. (F) THE BEAST IS BACK (Megaforce MRI 1069) 1985
8. (G) BLITZKREIG OVER NUREMBERG (Thunderbolt THBL091) 1990
9. (H) HIGHLIGHTS AND LOWLIVES (Nibelung Records 23010-412) 1990
10. (I) DINING WITH THE SHARKS (Nibelung Records 306.0010.1) 1991

NB. (1-7) reissued on C.D. (8) recorded live in Germany 1988. (9) also issued on CD (23011-421). (1-4) and (6) reissued on vinyl in original sleeves and on CD in digipak by Akarma, (AK 011, AK 012, AK 016, AK 017 and AK 018 respectively) 1998. There's also a 16 track 'Best Of' CD called Good Times Are Hard To Find. Fans will also be interested in Live And Unreleased '68/'74 (Captain Trip CTCD 023) 1996, which contains three tracks from the "Steve Allen" show 1968 with five unreleased cuts from Gold Star studios in 1974.

45s:

1. Summertime Blues/Out of Focus (Philips 40516) 1988 14
2. Just A Little Bit/Gypsy Ball (Phillips 40541) 1968 92
3. Feathers From Your Tree/Sun Cycle (Philips 40561) 1968

4. West Coast Child Of Sunshine/When It All Gets Old (Philips 40602) 1969
5. All Night Long/Fortunes (Philips 40651) 1969 -
6. Hello L.A., Bye Bye Birmingham/Natural Men (Philips 40664) 1970 -
7. Fool/Ain't That The Way (Philips 40682) 1969
8. Pilot/Babaji (Twilight Rajs) (Philips 40691) 1970

A San Francisco-based heavy rock group who specialised in high volume rock. They were popular around the Bay Area but never caught on nationally or internationally. Their debut album is best remembered for its heavy electrified version of Eddie Cochran's Summertime Blues, which became a No. 14 U.S. hit in the summer of 1968. It also contained a powerful version of Rock Me Baby and four other compositions all played with characteristic energy and volume. For many their second album with Paul Whaley's excellent heavy rock drumming was their best, but Original Human Being was their most psychedelic, particularly on songs like Babaji. The band operated originally between 1967-71 but reformed in 1975, 1978 and 1985. On the final occasion they recorded an album comprised of new recordings and reworks of old classics like Summertime Blues, Babylon, Parchment Farm and Out Of Focus.

Prior to Blue Cheer, Paul Whaley's phenomenal drumming had ventured forth with The Oxford Circle, whose stunning 45 pointed towards the sonic-assault territory that Blue Cheer would claim. Whaley's fellow pioneers included pre-Kak members Dehner Patten and Gary Yoder (the latter would feature in the 1970 Blue Cheer line-up). Whaley's circle of influence did not end there. He inspired cousin Randy Hammon to start his own garage band ventures, whose trail led to the Savage Resurrection. Dick Peterson had recorded a brace of 45s before Blue Cheer - with brother Jerri and Danny Mihm, later of the Flamin' Groovies, in Sacramento's Group "B".

Band offshots included Pilot (with Bruce and Leigh Stephens, Micky Waller and Martin Quittenton (ex Steamhamer)), Silver Metre and Mint Tattoo. After Pilot, Bruce Stephens recorded two solo albums: Bruce Stephens (World) 1978 and Watch That First Step (Strawberry) 1981.

Leigh Stephens also recorded a solo album entitled Red Weather (Phillips PHS 600.294) 1969 R1. It's an excellent psychedelic record in the vein of Quicksilver and was recorded at London's Trident studios with help of such notables as Nicky Hopkins, Kevin Westlake, Micky Waller and Eric Albrona. It also had a U.K. release (Philips SBL 7897) 1969 R2, and has recently been counterfeited on CD. Leigh also recorded a rare promo-only 45, Red Weather/Saki Zwadoo (Philips 40628) 1969, which may have been a promotional-only release and had a non-album 'B' side. He recorded a second solo album in 1971, And A Cast Of Thousands (Philips / Charisma CAS 1040), however, despite a cover of Jumpin' Jack Flash it is marred by too many background singers and horns.

The recently issued Live And Unreleased Vol. 1 (Captain Trip CTCD 023) 1996, CD contains live recordings from 1968 and an unreleased demo from 1974 which was produced by Kim Fowley. In addition Vol. 2 also contains live recordings from San Jose in 1968 and some rare studio cuts. Both CDs were issued in Japan. In 1986, Rhino issued Louder Than God, a best of compilation.

Norman Mayell had previously played with Sopwith Camel.

Summertime Blues and Out Of Focus also appeared on the bootleg compilation California Easter and you'll find The Red House on California New Year. Summertime Blues can also be heard on the accessible Nuggets, Vol. 1, Highs Of The Sixties and Best Of 6O's Psychedelic Rock (CD) compilations.

(Vernon Joynson / Al Muehlke / Greg Byers / Dundagel / Clark Faville / Claus Lellinge / Stephane Rebeschini / Gunnar Wiskoff / Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Blue Echoes to Blues Image

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Blue Echoes
- Blu-Erebus
- Blue Mountain Eagle
- Blue Ridge
- Blue Sandelwood Soap
- Blue Scepter
- The Bluethings
- Blue Wood
- Blues Company
- Blues Image

The Blue Echoes

Personnel incl:

TOM COLLINS	drms	A
ERIC GULLIKSEN	12 string gtr, bs, vcls	A
TOM ZAGRYN	ld gtr, vcls	A

45s:

1	Blue Bell Bounce/Tiger Talk	(Bristol B-101)	1963
2	Roseanne/How Do I Tell Her	(BEP 103)	1964
3	Respectable / Young Blood	(BEP 104)	1964

NB: (1) later issued on Lawn (L-225) a subsidiary of Swan and later reissued on Lost Nite and Itzy (11). (3) Most copies destroyed - roughly 12 copies known to exist.

From Worcester, Massachusetts, this outfit got together at Worcester Polytechnic Institute and are notable for including pre-Orpheus bassist Eric Gulliksen. Their first 45, originally issued on Tom Zagryn's Bristol label, was a local hit - significant enough to be picked up by Swan. Eric recalls: "If you listen hard, you can hear Tom Collins' bass drum pedal squeaking throughout".

The group's name came from their use of home-built tape-delay echo units. Eric: "...we used the echo units on vocals and guitars. I played electric 12-string and doubled on bass guitar. Our initial 'claim to fame' was that we were playing a New York style of R&R-cum-R&B called 'shake' with a beat typified on Tiger Talk - nobody else in the area could play this stuff ".

Local station WORC-AM, known to the industry for sniffing out future trends and hits, picked up on Blue Bell Bounce. It reached No. 5 on their charts and generated much label interest. The group signed with Swan who issued it on their Lawn subsidiary. "Unfortunately it was released on the day that JFK was shot and, as you may know, for several weeks no radio station played any R&R at all, so the record died".

For the second 45, the Bristol label was renamed BEP ('Blue Echo Productions'). Incidentally Tom Zagryn also produced Squires' Going All The Way 45, but sold the rights, when they signed to Atco. He also produced their earlier 45 as The Rogues' too.

Eric adds:- "How in the name of all of the gods of music did you ever come up with the 'Respectable' 45? When we recorded it we went to a different pressing plant than the one we had been using, to try to save money (mistake no. 1). Unfortunately this company went into bankruptcy before we received product (we'd already paid for it). We screamed and yelled and threatened lawsuit, and finally received product. However, they had rushed it so much that they had evidently applied the labels before the ink was dry; they were all smudged, print had transferred from one to another, etc. The sound wasn't too bad, but nothing to write home about. Anyway, at the end of the day, we never released this record, and destroyed most of the copies (mistake no. 2). There may be as many as a dozen copies in existence (Tom and I each have one), but there wouldn't be any more than that. The record numbers on Bristol and BEP are sequential (B-101 through B-104). B-102 was a record which Tom and I wrote and produced - Andromeda/Swamp Rat - by a group from Gardner, MA, named Kenny and the Night Riders. It was a good record, sold very well in Gardner, but never went anywhere else".

Gulliksen had also previously worked with a few folk groups of various names. One of these, including Jack McKenes had a Kennedy Tribute 45, The Man as The College Boys. He played concurrently with The Blue Echoes and Wanderers until the fall of 1963, resigning from the latter as The Blue Echoes' popularity and commitments were increasing and they were about to release their debut 45.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Tiger Talk on Scum Of The Earth, Part 2 and Scum Of The Earth - Complete Collection; Blue Bell Bounce on Oldies I Forgot To Buy (CD).

(Max Waller w/thanks to Eric Gulliksen)

Blu-Erebus

Personnel incl:

LARRY DEATHERAGE ?	vcls	A
BRUCE EVANS ?	gtr, vcls	A

45:

1	Willowgreen / Plastic Year	(King James 8-9255)	Sep 1968

A Mt.Airy, NC. group who rose from the ashes of The Nomads (of Thoughts Of A Madman fame). A highlight on An Overdose Of Heavy Psych CD, Plastic Year "features some killer fuzz/wah wah and lurking organ. From the opening chord to the final chorus, this is a prime example of four-star late '60s psychedelia. Lyrically the song tells of one heck of a screwed-up chick...". Willowgreen is a mellow pop song with harpischord and wah wah guitar. This establishes a link to another Nomads-associated outfit, Willow Green who released a cheesy fuzzy-pop 45 composed by Evans-Deatherage - Fields Of Peppermint / Fields Of Peppermint (Instr) (Whiz #619) 1968/9.

(Max Waller/Erik Lindgren)

Blue Mountain Eagle

Personnel:

RANDY FULLER	bs, gtr, vcls	A
BOB "B.J." JONES	ld gtr, vcls	A
JOEY NEWMAN	ld gtr, keyb'ds, vcls	A
DON PONCHER	drms, vcls	A
DAVID PRICE	gtr, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BLUE MOUNTAIN EAGLE	(Atco SD 33-324)	1970 R1

NB: (1) also released in France (Atco 503 048) 1970.

45:

1	Yellow's Dream/Marianne	(Atco 6770)	1970

NB: Marianne is a non-LP cut.

A short-lived Californian band who came into existence in July 1969, when Dewey Martin left New Buffalo. The remaining band members were left with a recording deal struck on the strength of Martin's previous connections with Buffalo Springfield, so all that was needed was a simple name change and to recruit a Joey Newman (ex- Don and The Goodtimes / Touch) as a replacement.

Produced by Bill Halverson and recorded in L.A. in August and December 1969, the album will interest guitar lovers. The highlight and opening track, Love Is Here, is a memorable guitar-driven heavy rocker and others like Feel Like A Bandit, Loveless Lives and the more mellow Yellow's Dream feature more good guitar work. Others exhibit more than a touch of country influence and the album becomes a bit flat in places on side two. All the songs were written by group members, except Trivial Sum, a Terry Furlong/Richard Bowen composition.

In 1970 Blue Mountain Eagle played on bills with Love, Eric Burdon and War, Pink Floyd and Jimi Hendrix. Fuller left in May 1970 to join Dewey Martin's Medicine Ball and the band split in late 1970 after Poncher left to (briefly) join Love.

Randy Fuller was Bobby Fuller's brother and later had his own band. David Price, Bob Jones and Don Poncher went on to work with Augie Meyer (Sir Douglas Quintet) for his Western Head Music album in 1973. Don Poncher became a successful session man, working with Bobby Whitlock, Jim Price, Chris Jagger, Joe Cocker and also Arthur Lee (on his Vindicator album, 1972).

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini Nick Warburton)

Blue Ridge

ALBUM:

1	BLUE RIDGE	(Private Pressing)	1974 R3

A garagey blues psych group with brilliant guitar leads, only 100 copies were supposedly pressed.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Blue Sandelwood Soap

Personnel:

- DAVE BERGSLAND
- DAN KNUDSEN
- STEVE LUCK bs
- HARLEY TOBERMAN

CD:

1. LORING PARK LOVE INS (Get Hip GHAS 5006) 1996

NB: (1) is a retrospective compilation containing all the bands existing recordings.

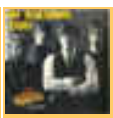
45:

1. Friends I Haven't Met Yet/Love! pirT (Aesop's Lable 103) 1968

Hailed from Minneapolis. Max Waller drew the 45 to my attention. The 'A' side is a mellow psychedelic ballad with a catchy instrumental refrain - keyboard dominated with brass that's not too intrusive. The flip features nonsensical psychedelic lyrics and is somewhat fragmented - a strange trip (shades of the West Coast Pop Art Experimental Band?).

Harley Toberman, also produced some of T.C. Atlantic's material, and also wrote material for them under his nickname "Toby".

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Jay Schwarz)



Blue Scepter

45:

1. Out In The Night/Gypsy Eyes (Rare Earth 5040) 1972

This outfit was actually SRC. Their excellent Gypsy Eyes can be found on Echoes In Time, Vol. 1.

The Bluethings

Personnel:

MIKE CHAPMAN	ld gtr	A B
BOBBY DAY	drms	A

RICHARD SCOTT	bs	A B
VAL STECKLEIN	vcls, gtr	A
LARRY BURTON	vcls	B
RICHARD LARZALERE	drms	B

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE BLUETHINGS	(RCA LSP 3603)	Sep. 1966

NB: There have also been some comprehensive retrospective releases. On Vinyl, there's The Bluethings Story Vol. 1 1964-5, Vol. 2 1965-6 and Vol. 3 1966 (Cicadelic 973, 974 and 975 respectively) 1987; whilst on CD there's The Bluethings Story Vol. 1 and Vol. 2 (Collectables COL-CD-0518, and COL-CD-0540) 1993. Both formats contain more or less the same material, with the CDs featuring some additional material but with a couple of tracks omitted.

45s:

1	La Do Do Do/Just Two Days To Go	(Damen Acetate no #)	Sep. 1964
2	Love's Made A Fool Of You/Silver And Gold	(Damen Acetate no #)	Sept. 1964
3	P's And Q's/So You Say	(Damen Acetate no #)	Sep. 1964
4	Mary Lou/Your Turn To Cry	(Ruff 1000)	Feb. 1965
5	Pretty Thing-Oh/Just Two Years Ago	(Ruff 1002)	May 1965
6	La Do Da Da/I Must Be Doing Something Wrong (PS)	(RCA 8692)	Oct. 1965
7	Doll House/Man On The Street	(RCA 8860)	May 1966
8	The Orange Rooftop Of Your Mind/One Hour Cleaners	(RCA 8998)	Sep. 1966
9	You Can Live In Our Tree/Twist And Shout	(RCA 9203)	May 1967
10	Somebody Help Me/Yes, My Friend	(RCA 9308)	Sep. 1967

NB: (1), (2) and (3) as The Blue Boys.

From Hays in a sedate college town in rural West Kansas came, The Bluethings who were one of the best acts to come out of the Midwest in the '60s. They formed in 1964 as The Blue Boys cutting the three acetate 45s listed above, before changing names in 1965. Starting out very much in the folk rock and Merseybeat mould, they recorded two 45s for Ruff, which led to them mistakenly being considered a Texas band. They then switched to RCA and their La Do Da Da was a drivin' rework of an old Dale Hawkins rocker. The follow-up Doll House was quite a strong folk-rock ballad later included on their first album. The late summer of 1966 marked an important turning point in the band's career. Now influenced by the wave of psychedelia sweeping the world and the enormously influential Revolver album by The Beatles, their live concerts at this time were legendary and included a fair splattering of Beatles' songs. The Orange Rooftop Of Your Mind single exemplified their new sound and marked the zenith of their recording career. The song is about a girl caught up in the rat race, but she can't take the pace so her mind is slowly snapping. The flip concerned a psychiatrist whose only hold on sanity came from his patients. Both songs were characterised by an East Indian sound with a Middle East organ and guitars tuned and played like sitars. After the release of the 45 Val left the group, suffered a nervous breakdown and was hospitalised. He was replaced by Larry Burton and early in 1967 the band returned to the studio and cut two originals - Caroline and You Took The Fight, which can be heard on The Bluethings Story, Vol. 3, along with a number of covers of popular songs like Talk, Talk. In May 1967 they released another great psychedelic single. You Can Live In Our Tree - an ecological protest song, interesting for its sound effects and rhythmical diversity - which had been recorded back in September 1966 and still featured Val on vocals. The flip - a rather interesting version of The Isley Brothers' Twist And Shout - was by the new band. They made their final recording foray in September 1967 with a fine cover of The Spencer Davis Group's song Somebody Help Me backed by Yes, My Friend, another group original, before eventually fading away.

Their album, released at the zenith of their career in 1966 is recommended, but if you can't find this the three record series issued by Cicadelic Records in 1987 (which Stecklein helped compile) and it's equivalent two volume CD is more accessible. Vol. 3 of the vinyl is essential to connoisseurs of psychedelia. It includes five previously unreleased Stecklein compositions from Spring 1966:- It Ain't No Big Thing, Babe, You Can't Say We Never Tried, High Life, Now's The Time and Take Seven (co-written with Mike Chapman); The Coney Island Of Your Mind (an early version of Orange Rooftop written by Val and recorded by him and Mike alone); both sides of The Orange Rooftop and Tree 45s and the later band's two originals from early '67.

The band also made a plethora of posthumous compilation appearances including: Doll House and La Do Da Da on Mindrocker, Vol. 9; The Orange Rooftop Of Your Mind on Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1, Mindrocker, Vol. 9, Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1 and Psychotic Moose And The Soul Searchers; Pretty Thing - Oh on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1; Twist And Shout on Flashback, Vol. 2, Mindrocker, Vol. 9, Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1 and Texas Punk Groups From The '60s (which also includes Ain't That Lovin' You Baby from their RCA LP). Finally, Your Turn To Cry is on Monster Of The Midwest, Vol. 3.

Val Stecklein put out a folky solo LP, Grey Life (Dot DLP 25904) in 1968 and two 45s:- Sounds Of Yesterday/Say It's Not Over (Dot 17200) in 1968 and All The Way Home/I Wonder Who I'll Be Tomorrow (Dot 1723 1) in 1969. He also played and recorded with Ecology in 1970 and in 1964 had previously played in folk group The Impromtwos, who issued a private-press LP on Campus.

Sadly Val Stecklein died in May 1993.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley)

Blue Wood

TOP

45:

1. Turn Around/Happy Jack Mine (Jet Set JSR 45 4) 1966

Cool uptempo beat with some fine fret-work that accelerates considerably in the break. It's a shame that the flip's a Country and Western-styled pop novelty. The label was based in Santa Barbara, California. (MW)

Blues Company

TOP

Personnel incl:

- TIM WARD vcls

45s:

1. Experiment In Color/She's Gone (Great Lakes 3002) 196?
2. Love Machine/B.C. Boogie (Pear 5l76842203) 196?
3. You're Dead My Friend/I'm Comin' (Pear) 196?

A late sixties outfit from Bay City, Michigan, they had earlier released a 45 Life Has Been So Good To Us / Playthings 5X5 under the name Ides of March. The 45 had no label name and is extremely rare! They changed their name after hearing about Chicago's Ides of March.

Experiment ln Color, a killer, acid-tinged freak-out with lots of wah-wah guitars can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 5. Vol. 6 of the same series features She's Gone, with its haughty vocals and fine driving guitars, and Love Machine, a fuzzy freakout which is almost as good as Experiment In Color. Love Machine also appears on Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 CD.

Tim Ward later went solo recording as Timmothy. (Vernon Joynson / Kip Brown)

Blues Image

TOP

Personnel:

MANUEL BERTEMATTI	drms, vcls	A B C
SKIP CONTE	keyb'ds	A B C
MALCOLM JONES	bs	A B C
JOE LALA	perc	A B C
MIKE PINERA	gtr, vcls	A B
DENNIS CORRELL	vcls	B
KENT HENRY	gtr	C

ALBUMS:

1(A)	BLUES IMAGE	(Atco SD33-300)	1969
2(B)	OPEN	(Atco SD33-317)	1970
3(C)	RED WHITE AND BLUES IMAGE	(Atco SD33-348)	1971

NB: (3) also issued in France and the U.K..

EP:

1	Clean Love / Pay My Dues / Parchman Farm	(Atco 33317)	1970

45s:

1	Can't You Believe In Forever / Parchman Farm	(Image 5833)	Sep 1968
2	Lay Your Sweet Love On Me / Outside Was Night	(Atco 6718)	Oct 1969
3	Ride Captain Ride / Pay My Dues	(Atco 6746)	Apr. 1970
4	Gas Lamps And Clay / Running The Water	(Atco 6777)	Sep 1970

5	Rise Up / Take Me Back	(Atco 6798)	Dec 1970
6	Behind Every Man / It's The Truth	(Atco 6814)	Apr 1971
7	Ride Captain Ride / (Van Morrison) Into The Mystic (DJ Promo)	(Warner Bros Pro 499)	1971
8	Ride Captain Ride / (Robert John) The Lion Sleeps Tonight	(Atlantic 13119)	197?

An energetic mix of blues, rock and hard rock from Miami/Tampa, Florida. Their guitarist, Mike Pinera, would leave in 1970 to join Iron Butterfly and later Ramatam. He was replaced by Kent Henry (ex Charity and Genesis). The group presumably disbanded when Henry later joined Steppenwolf. Joe Lala became a studio percussion player and Manuel Bertematti would team up again with Pinera for the sole album by the New Cactus Band in 1973 on Atlantic.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Thee Image)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Blues Magoos to Bo Grumpus

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Blues Magoos
- Blues Messengers
- The Blues Project
- The Blues Spectrum
- Boa
- Boa Constrictor and Natural Vine
- The Boards
- Bocky and The Visions
- Bodacious D.F.
- The Bodrockers
- The Boenzee Cryque
- Curt Boettcher
- Boffalongo
- Bo Grumpus

The Blues Magoos

TOP

Personnel:

GEOFF DAKING	drms	A
MIKE ESPOSITO	gtr	A
RON GILBERT	bs	A
RALPH SCALA	vcls, organ	A
EMIL THIELHIEM	vcls, gtr	A B C
RICHIE DICKON	perc	B
ROGER EATON	bs, vcls	B
ERIC KAZ	hrmnca, vcls, keyb'ds	B C
JOHN LIELLO	vibes, perc	B C
COOKER LO PRESTI	bs	C
JOEY STEC	gtr, vcls

ALBUMS:

1(A)	PSYCHEDELIC LOLLIPOP	(Mercury SR 61096)	1966 21
2(A)	ELECTRIC COMIC BOOK	(Mercury MG 21104)	1967 74
3(A)	BASIC BLUES MAGOOS	(Mercury ST 61167)	1968 -

4(B)	NEVER GOIN' BACK TO GEORGIA	(ABC S697)	1969
5(C)	GULF COAST BOUND	(ABC S710)	1970

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD.

45s:

1	So I'm Wrong And You Are Right/People Had No Faces	(Verve Folkways 5006)	1966
2	Tobacco Road/Some Times I Think About You	(Mercury 72590)	1966 -
3	(We Ain't Got) Nothing Yet/Gotta Get Away	(Mercury 72622)	1966 5
4	Let Your Love Ride/Who Do You Love?	(Ganim 100)	1967 -
5	Let Your Love Ride/Love Seems Doomed	(Ganim 100)	1967 -
6	Pipe Dream/There's A Chance We Can Make It	(Mercury 72660)	1967 60/81
7	One By One/Dante's Inferno	(Mercury 72692)	1967 71
8	I Wanna Be There/Summer Is The Man	(Mercury 72707)	1967 133
9	Life Is Just Cher O'Bowlies/There She Goes	(Mercury 72729)	1967 -
10	Jingle Bells/Santa Claus Is Coming To Town	(Mercury 72762)	1967
11	I Can Hear The Grass Grow/Yellow Rose	(Mercury 72838)	1968 -
12	Heartbreak Hotel/I Can Feel It (Feelin' Time)	(ABC 11226)	1969 -
13	Never Goin' Back To Georgia/Feelin' Time (I Can Feel It)	(ABC 11250)	1969 113
14	Gulf Coast Bound/Sea Breeze Express	(ABC 11 283)	1970 -

NB: (1) also reissued by Verve Folkways in l967. There's also a rare French EP with PS: (We Ain't Got) Nothing Yet/I'll Go Crazy/Love Seems Doomed/Tobacco Road (Mercury 126221) 1967.

This group came from New York's Bronx area, were originally known as Bloos Magoos and gigged regularly around Greenwich Village before Mercury offered them a recording contract in 1966. Their title is misleading, for they specialised in quasi-psychedelic electrical music rather than the blues. Their best moments are on their early albums and (We Ain't Got) Nothing Yet from their first album was a U.S. No. 5 in 1966. It also contained a fine version of J. D. Loudermilk's Tobacco Road. The second album contained a thin comic book full of all sorts of offers to turn you on whilst you played the album. Musically it was their magnum opus. The opening cut, Pipe Dream, had a good garage organ sound; There's A Chance We Can Make It featured some fine psychedelic guitar work; Life Is Just A Cher O'Bowlies had a gorgeous beginning followed by more guitar mayhem and side one also contained a discordant, extended cover of Van Morrison's Gloria. Side two was more restrained, although Take My Love was an uptempo song with catchy organ work and the penultimate track, Rush Hour, included a storming electric guitar extravaganza. On stage they appeared in Vidal Sassoon hairstyles and specially designed 'electric' suits. The fifth album, made with a changed personnel, marked a downward turn however, which was not arrested by subsequent efforts.

In their final days, Joey Stec from The Millenium joined the band which coincided with a resurgence as a live attraction, and they certainly went out in a blaze of glory.

When the group disbanded, Eric Kaz went solo and recorded two lame '70s pop rock albums. In 1976, he also formed American Flyer, a country pop group produced by George Martin, with Craig Fuller (ex-J.D. Blackfoot and Pure Prairie League), Steve Katz (ex-Blues Project and Blood, Sweat and Tears) and Doug Yule (ex-Velvet Underground). He kept on working with Fuller in Fuller/Kaz (CBS, 1978). Cooker Lo Presti went on to play with Ringo Starr.

Tobacco Road appears on Nuggets; I Can Hear The Grass Grow on Nuggets, Vol. 11 and (We Ain't Got) Nothing Yet was covered in 1967 by England's Spectres who became Status Quo. The Blues Magoos version resurfaced on Nuggets, Vol. 1. They also recorded a commercial for Great Shakes which is based around the riff of We Ain't Got Nothin' Yet. It's probably from 1966 and has resurfaced on Psychotic Reactions. You can also find Jingle Bells and Who Do You Love on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol's 1 & 2 (CD). Finally Let Your Love Ride appears on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol. 4 (CD).

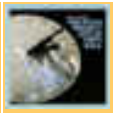
(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Joe Foster/Stephane Rebeschini)

Blues Messengers

TOP



45s:

1	High Wednesday (I'll Stay With You) / Whadya Come Back For?	(Adonis 05/06)	1968
2	Yesterday Girl / I Won't Ask For More	(Adonis 0702)	1968/9

An unknown group with two late '60s platters on a Fort Lauderdale label - it has also been suggested that they were from Hollywood, Florida. High Wednesday, a strange acid-rocker with some Iron Butterfly moves, gets another airing on Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD).

(Max Waller)

The Blues Project

TOP

Personnel:

ROY BLUMENFELD	drms	A B C D E
TOMMY FLANDERS	vcls	A D E
DANNY KALB	ld gtr	A B C D E
STEVE KATZ	gtr, vcls	A B C
AL KOOPER	org, vcls	A B
ANDY KULBERG	bs, flte	A B C
RICHARD GREENE	violin	C
JOHN GREGORY	gtr, vcls	C
DON KRETMAR	sax	C D E
DAVID COHEN	gtr, keyb'ds	D E
BILL LUSSENDEN	gtr	E

ALBUMS:

1(A)	LIVE AT THE CAFE A GO GO	(Verve FT 3000)	1966 77
2(B)	PROJECTIONS	(Verve FTS 3008)	1967 52
3(B)	BLUES PROJECT AT THE TOWN HALL	(Verve FTS 3025)	1967 71
4(C)	PLANNED OBSOLESCENCE	(Verve FTS 3046)	1968

5(-)	AL KOOPER, ROY BLUMENFELD, DANNY KALB, STEVE KATZ, ANDY KULBERG OF THE BLUES PROJECT (comp)	(Verve Forecast FTS-3069)	1968 -
6()	BEST OF THE BLUES PROJECT	(Verve FTS 3077)	1969 199
7(D)	LAZARUS	(Capitol ST 872)	1971 -
8(-)	BLUES PROJECT	(Capitol EST 11017)	1972
9(A)	REUNION IN CENTRAL PARK	(MCA 8003)	1973

NB: (4) and (6) also issued in France. (3) reissued on CD in Japan. (8) reissued on vinyl (Pickwick SPC-3657) 1979. CD releases include Reunion In Central Park (1973), '79 Reunion LP and a Best Of CD with five extra tracks. Anthology, a double set containing 36 tracks, was also released on Chronicles in 1996, whilst Rhino released The Best of The Blues Project (R 170165) 1989, which includes an interesting Al Kooper interview and one unreleased version of Wake Me, Shake Me.

45s:

1	Back Door Man/Violets Of Dawn	(Verve Folkways 5004)	1966
2	Catch The Wind/I Want To Be Your Driver	(Verve Folkways 5013)	1966
3	Goin'Down Louisiana/Where There's Smoke, There's Fire	(Verve Folkways 5019)	1966
4	Wake Me, Shake Me/?	(Verve Folkways 5028)	1966
5	I Can't Keep From Crying So Sometimes/The Way My Baby Walks	(Verve Folkways 5032)	1966
6	No Time Like The Right Time/Steve's Song	(Verve Folkways 5040)	1967 96
7	Gentle Dreams/Lost In The Shuffle	(Verve Folkways 5063)	1967

NB: (4) unissued. (7) both tracks non album. There's also a rare French EP with picture sleeve: No Time Like The Right Time/I Can't Keep From Crying So Sometimes/Steve's Song/The Way My Baby Walks (Verve 519 905), 1967.

This white blues-band simply burst onto the New York music scene between 1965 and 1966. Group member Katz had previously played with The Even Dozen Jug Band, whilst Flanders had been in the Boston-based Trolls. In his early days, Al Kooper was a Tin Pan Alley/Brill Building production writer (This Diamond Ring, Who Wears Short Shorts, etc.) and was with Bob Dylan on Highway 61 Revisited and Blonde On Blonde, playing the organ in a way that would influence many American and English groups. Kooper kept on doing sessions with New York based singers during his stay with the group.

The band were offered a residency at the Cafe A Go Go in Greenwich Village in 1966. Here, their first 'live' album was recorded and highly acclaimed. The band were one of the city's main live attractions playing three concerts in Central Park in the same year. Flanders left before follow-up albums Projections and At The Town Hall which also found the band in fine form. Incidentally, Projections was produced by Tom Wilson.

Unfortunately, friction developed in the band, with Kooper and Katz eventually leaving to torm Blood, Sweat and Tears. Their next effort Planned Obsolescence, hinted at what was to become Seatrain, including one track entitled Nairt Aes Hornpipe ("Seatrain" backwards). After it's release Kulberg, Greene, Kretmar, Gregory and Blumenfeld moved to the West Coast to form the first Seatrain line-up.

1971 saw Kalb and Blumenfeld attempting to revive the group with Flanders, Kretmar and David Cohen (ex-Country Joe and The Fish). This lineup recorded the under-rated Lazarus in London, under the guidance of Shel Talmy. Guitarist Lussenden was added for the Blues Project album. The band eventually split in 1972, but were reunited in early 1973 for a one-off gig in Central Park which MCA recorded and released on an album.

The Blue Project are usually considered one of New York's finest bands and their first three albums (two of which capture their exciting 'live' sound) are recommended if you can obtain them.

Tommy Flanders left the Blues Project at the request of Verve Records, who wanted to pursue his career as a solo artist, but dropped him after his first recording, the splendid Moonstone (Verve Forecast FTS-3075) 1969. After the group finally disappeared, he moved to California and left the music business to pursue a career as a male model for catalogues and later worked for an advertising agency.

In 1969, Danny Kalb issued an excellent blues album with another ex-Even Dozen Jug Band member, Stefan Grossman, Crosscurrents (Cotillion SD 9007) and also backed the blues singer Jimmy Witherspoon on his Bluesway albums. Of fragile health (apparently reinforced by an involuntary "chemically induced" nervous breakdown in 1969), Kalb did not perform for nearly five years, only coming out of his hiatus to perform at the Live At Central Park Reunion, and record the two reformation albums. He stopped recording between 1973 and 1993, until the release of an acoustic blues album in France on Legend Records.

Roy Blumenfeld kept on doing sessions with Mark Spoelstra and many others. He is still recording with Nick Gravenites (Don't Feed The Animals, 1994).

No Time Like The Right Time their best known song can be found on Lenny Kaye's Nuggets, compilation and on Nuggets, Vol. 11.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Blues Spectrum

TOP

ALBUM:

1	WE WERE THE BLUES SPECTRUM	(Private Pressing)	1970 R1

Their album contains garagey blues jams with some horns.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Boa

TOP

Personnel:

RICHARD ALLEN	drms	A
TED BURRIS	vcls, bs	A
C. HOOK	gtr, vcls	A
BOB MALEDON	piano, organ	A
BRIAN WALTON	organ, piano	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	WRONG ROAD	(Snakefield SN 001)	1969

NB: (1) reissued legitimately on CD by Gear Fab (GF-113) 1998, with two bonus tracks.

This late sixties Michigan band came from the Rochester, a small town 30 miles from Detroit. Their album was a limited edition private pressing, and is now rare and sought-after. Quite a varied album, it is well worth searching out. The opening cut, Never Come Back, which features some line keyboard and guitar work, sounds similar to The Doors and Blessed End. Hard rockers, like the title track and I Think I Been Had, which include competent guitar work, appear alongside gentle, keyboard dominated ballads and soft rockers like You Tell Me You Love Me, Don't Go Away and Angelisa, the finest track on the album which boasts some unusual piano work.

Boa Constrictor and Natural Vine

TOP

Personnel:

- GEORGE FIGGS All instruments A
- BEN SYFU All instruments A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BOA CONSTRICTOR AND NATURAL VINE (Vanguard 65111) 1968

A folk duo from Baltimore with some psychedelic influence, who did not release any 45s for Vanguard. Their album was recorded with a Nagra recording machine in Searsmont, Maine and then at Apostolic Studios, New York.

Ben Syfu also played on the Family Of Apostolic album.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Boards

TOP

45s:

1. You're A Better Man Than I/Please Tell Me Why (Yardly 400) 1966

A British-influenced garage band who played in Dallas, Texas during the mid-60s. Please Tell Me Why can be heard on Shutdown '66.

Bocky and The Visions

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BOCKY DEE'O (aka ROBERT DiPASQUALE) vcls

45s:

1. Mojo Hanna / Spirit of '64 (Redda 1501) 1964
2. I Go Crazy/Good Good Lovin' (Redda 1504) 1964
3. To Be Loved/The Bounce (Redda 15050) 1964

4. Mojo Hanna / Spirit of '64 (Philips 40224) 1964
5. I'm Pickin' Petals/I'm Not Worth It (Philips 40242) 1964
6. *Listen To The Beat Of My Heart/Give Me A Minute Of Your Time (Philips 40279) 1965

NB: * Released as by Bocky.

From Cleveland, Ohio. They are best known for Spirit Of '64 (included on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 9: Ohio on which they implore The Beatles to 'move over, don't be so selfish... we did the twist and sang the shout long before you ever sung it out'! Later they say 'We're the spirit of '64. This is the beginning of the Twist and Shout War! A later effort, I'm Not Worth It has also resurfaced on Pride Of Cleveland Past.

At the end of the decade Bocky was to be found in Wazoo.

(Max Waller / George Gell)

Bodacious D.F.

TOP

Personnel:

MARTY BALIN	vcls	A
DEWEY DAGREAZE	drms, perc, vcls	A
CHARLIE HICKOX	keyb'ds, vcls	A
MARK RYAN	bs, vcls	A
VIC SMITH	gtr, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BODACIOUS D.F.	(RCA APL1-0206)	1973

NB: (1) reissued (RCA AVL1-4243) 1978.

After the commercial failure of Grootna, Marty Balin formed Bodacious D.F. with the former Grootna members Vic Smith and Dewey Dagreaze. Their only album is an interesting West-Coast effort with excellent "acid" guitar parts and Balin vocals. Anna Rizzo (ex Grootna) guests on one track: Good Folks and the album is co-produced by Doc Storch and Bill Wolff (of Peanut Butter Conspiracy, Fusion, Sound Machine...).

Mark Ryan had earlier played with Quicksilver Messenger Service and Country Joe. Vic Smith later played with Flying Island, a progressive rock group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Bodrockers

TOP

Personnel:

- MIKE BECK bs A
- KIBI BROWNLOW piano A
- LEON McNEAL A
- RALPH SHELTON III A

- PAUL TROUSDALE vcls A

45:

1. I've Waited For Too Long/Born Not To Ramble (Bolo 755) Dec '65

From Seattle, Washington, both sides of their 45 were written by Beck and Trousdale, who went on to play in the acclaimed Brave New World. (Darryl F. Riffero/Max Waller)

The Boenzee Cryque

TOP

Personnel:

SAM BUSH	vcls	A
GEORGE GRANTHAM	drms	A
TERRY JONES	gtr	A
MALCOLM MITCHELL	gtr	A
DAN NASH	gtr	A
JOE NEDDO	bs	A
RUSTY YOUNG	gtr	A

45s:

1	The Sky Gone Gray / Still In Love With You	(Chicory 406)	1967
2	The Sky Gone Gray / Still In Love With You	(Uni 55012)	Apr. 1967
3	You Won't Believe It's True / Watch The Time	(Uni 55022)	1967

NB: There is also a 12" acetate of Ashbury Wednesday from the "Psych Out" soundtrack in existance.

From Colorado, this act later migrated to Los Angeles. Their first 45 was produced by Frank Slay and was a No. 1 hit in Colorado. The 'B' side is a cover of the Beau Brummels song, but both songs are basically horn dominated pop.

Boenzee Cryque also have one track, Ashbury Wednesday, featured in the classic cult hippie film "Psych Out", and on the associated soundtrack album. The track is featured in the movie where Jack Nicholson's Band "Mumblin Jim" are performing on some ballroom stage complete with oil lights a throbbin! It features an inverted Purple Haze riff and is a exploito-classic.

George Grantham and Rusty Young went on to form Pogo which later became Poco. Sam Bush was later in New Grass Revival and had a solo career.

(Stephane Rebeschini / Peter Principle / Max Waller / Ben Chaput / Mike Dugo / Joe Rein)

Curt Boettcher

TOP

ALBUM:

1	THERE'S AN INNOCENT FACE	(Elektra EKS 75037)	1973

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Elektra AMCY-2830) 199?. There's also a retrospective CD: Misty Mirage (Poptones MC 5007CD) 2001.

An important figure of the Los Angeles scene, Curt Boettcher began in the early sixties with a folk group, The Goldebriars and then became a prolific songwriter, arranger and producer, founding Ballroom, The Millenium and Sagittarius; and working with The Association, Lyme and Cybelle, Your Gang, Friar Tuck, Michele, Eternity's Children and many many more.

His productions are generally characterized by their inventive multi-layered harmonies and imaginative arrangements. His only solo album is in the same vein and, if his sales were low, it is now beginning to be sought after by collectors of soft psych and Californian sophisticated folk rock with harmonies, indeed as are all the records bearing his name.

Curt Boettcher died in 1987, at age 43.

Misty Mirage is a retrospective CD, comprising unreleased session tracks from 1969, together with demos, outtakes and radio ads.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Boffalongo

Personnel:

- KEITH GINSBERG gtr A
- LARRY HOPPEN bs, gtr, vcls A B
- BASIL MATYCHAK keyb'ds, vcls A B
- RITCHIE drms A B
- DOC ROBINSON bs, vcls B
- WELLS KELLY drms B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BOFFALONGO (United Artists UAS 6726) 1969
2. (B) BEYOND YOUR HEAD (United Artists UAS 6770) 1970

NB: (2) also released in the U.K. (United Artists UAG 29130) in 1970.

45s:

1. Mr. Go Away/Tomorrow Not Today (United Artists 50607) 1969
2. Please Stay/Mr. Go Away (United Artists 50656) 1970
3. Dancing In The Moonlight/Endless Question (United Artists 50699) 1970

From the New York area. Their first album is essentially progressive rock and features some pretty good guitar work and keyboards. Their second album, however, is not as good. Both were produced by Steve and Eric Nathanson, who also worked with Omnibus and Music Asylum.

Larry Hoppen later formed Orleans with John Hall, Wells Kelly and Lance Hoppen. Keith Ginsberg played with the Blues Brothers in 1980.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Bo Grumpus

Personnel:

- RONNIE BLAKE dims A
- JIM COLEGROVE bs, gtr A
- JOE HUTCHINSON gtr, bs A
- ED MOTTAU gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BEFORE THE WAR (Atco SD 33.245) 1968

EP

1. BO GRUMPUS (Atco EP C 4562) 1968

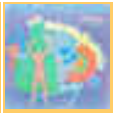
NB: (1) contains four cuts from their LP.

This band's album was produced by the late Felix Pappalardi and includes N.D. Smart (of The Remains) on drums. Sparrow Time and Think Twice have good fuzz guitar but it's predominantly a soft folk-rock LP.

Jim Colegrove was originally from Springfield, Ohio, and was co-founder of Teddy and The Rough Riders, a rock'n'roll outfit who made three singles and an album for Tilt/Huron/Mega City labels in the early '60s. In '66 he was with the intrigingly named Thee Rubber Band, and the same year moved to New York to play with The Hobbitts (whether the same act as The Hobbits... is unknown). In '67 he switched from guitar to bass, and joined Bo Grumpus. Subsequently, he's recorded with Jolliver Arkansaw who released one album Home (Bell 6031) in 1969 which was again produced by Felix Pappalardi, Hungry Chuck, and The Juke Jumpers,. Jim's story also sees him play alongside Canadian act Ian and Sylvia, as part of their backing group Great Speckled Bird (also with N.D. Smart), Todd Rundgren, Paul Butterfield and Allen Ginsberg amongst many others. Anyone remotely interested, should check out his Cool Groove website, for more info.

Ed Mottau later played with Elliot Murphy, David Peel and John Lennon on his Walls And Bridges and Rock & Roll albums.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bohemian Vendetta to The Bootmen

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Bohemian Vendetta
- Buddy Bohn
- The Bojax
- Bold
- Bolder Damn
- Boomerang
- Bondsmen
- Bone
- Sonny Bono
- Bonne Villes
- Boo Boo And Bunky
- Book of Changes
- Pat Boone
- Boot
- The Bootles
- The Bootmen

Bohemian Vendetta

Personnel:

- BRIAN COOKE organ, vcls A
- NICK MANZI ld gtr A
- CHUCK MONICA drims A
- VICTOR MUGLIA bs A
- RANDY POLLOCK gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BOHEMIAN VENDETTA (Mainstream S/6106) 1968

N.B. (1) has been repressed, and has also been issued on CD (Cosmic Mind KY 532 CD) 198?. There's also a rarities retrospective Enough! on LP and CD (Distortions DR 1038) 1998.

45s:

1. Enough/Half The Time (United Artists 50174) 1967

2. Riddles And Fairytales/I Wanna Touch Your Heart (Mainstream 681) 1968

A New York City band who issued just the one album, which is now a rare collectors' item. Prior to this they'd recorded the above 45 on United Artists. Their album contains some fine and often demented acid rock, particularly on All Kinds Of Highs and the superb Paradox City. There's also an interesting psychedelic version of Satisfaction, although the slowed-down cover of The House of The Rising Sun is a little tedious. If you're into psychedelic guitar work you should enjoy this album - it's full of great guitar work and good songs.

Nick Manzi, had earlier played with Faine Jade in a band called The Rustics and Bohemian Vendetta later backed him on the classic Introspection album.

The classic All Kinds Of Highs can also be found on the top-drawer Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 1 (CD), whilst the non-LP cut Enough has resurfaced on Ear-Piercing Punk, Best Of Pebbles, Vol. 2 and Pebbles (CD) Vol. 1 compilations. Another track, Paradox City, which has a catchy verse and nightmarish refrain with plenty of organ and raunchy fuzz guitar, can also be heard on Beyond The Calico Wall.

Fans of the band will also want to check out Distortions collection of rarities, acetates and non-LP cuts, entitled Enough!. Released on both vinyl and CD, the CD contains extra material.

Nick Manzi later played with Dust Bowl Clementine, who had an eponymous album on Roulette (2SR-42058) 1970.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Buddy Bohn

TOP

ALBUM:

1	PLACES	(Happy Tiger HT-10??)	1970
2	A DROP IN THE OCEAN	(Capitol)	1971
3	BUDDY BOHN	(Purple)	1972

Probably from Illinois, a folk rock singer who despite having albums on three big labels went unnoticed at the time, and is still totally overlooked. His first album was released on the same label which as Mason Proffit, Ecology and Aorta. He then moved to Capitol and his second album, recorded with a full orchestral backing, contains several dreamy, drifting songs (Picallilli Lady, Reflecting Butterfly and Curious Yellow). His third was on the label founded by Deep Purple.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Bojax

TOP

45s:

1	Hippie Times/Go Ahead And Go	(Panther)	Aug. 1967
2	Fast Life/Don't Look Back	(Panther PAN 4)	April 1968
3	I've Enjoyed As Much Of You As I Can Stand/?	()	1968

NB: (3) may have been withdrawn shortly after release.

A garage-punk band out of Greenville, South Carolina. Rudy Wyatt, of The Wyld, produced the first 45 and played on the second 45. Bojax singer Bobby Holliday sang on The Wyld's Know A Lot About Love. The band stayed together until 1969, releasing a third single for which I don't have complete info. The excellent Go Ahead And Go has resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8.

Their debut 45 is a cool Kinks-inspired punker with a slab of attitude and samples some phrasing and melody of Dylan's Like A Rolling Stone. Hippie Times is a driving uptempo belter. Fast Life is a hypnotic garage-swinger stuffed with power-chords and searing leads. The flip is a too-faithful rendition of The Remains' Don't Look Back and lacks bite. Don't Look Back charted locally.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / John Weathers/Tim Warren/Andrew Brown)

Bold

TOP

Personnel:

- MICHAEL CHMURA keyb'ds A
- DICK LA FRENIERE gtr A
- TIMOTHY GRIFFIN drms, perc, vcls A
- ROBERT LA PALM gtr, vcls A
- STEPHEN WALKER bs, ld vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BOLD (ABC ABCS 705) 1969

45s:

1. Gotta Get Some/Robin Hood (Cameo 430) 1966
2. The Train Kept A Rollin'/Found What I Was Looking For (Dyno Voice 232) 1967

NB: (2) issued as by Steve Walker and The Bold. No 45s, LP or non-LP, can be traced on the ABC label.

Hailing from the Springfield area of Massachussetts the band formed out of an outfit called The Esquires and also operated under the moniker of Steve Walker and The Bold.

The album was a Bill Szymczyk production recorded at "Hit Factory". It's not a bad experimental soft rock album with a nice blend of covers (All I Really Want To Do, For What Its Worth and It's All Over Now Baby Blue) given the group's own unique re-interpretation and originals. Among the better originals are Free Fugue, Child Of Love, Words Don't Make It and Friendly Smile, which has some nice organ work. Worth a listen.

Gotta Get Some with its raw vocals and driving beat is a fine punker, also featured on Pebbles, Vol. 9, Pebbles, Vol. 10 (CD) and Mindrocker, Vol. 11. It became a fave with The Fuzztones and duly appeared on their Lysergic Emanations LP - Latterly compiled again on Songs We Taught The Fuzztones. Their superb rendition of Train Kept A Rollin' can be enjoyed on Pebbles, Vol. 10 (LP/CD), preferably at full volume. It's a very loose version delivered at breakneck speed. Other groups to cover the song included The Cynics, Precious Few, The Rogues, and The Scotty McKay Quintet.

The Bold were an important act locally and actually quite popular. Many of their fans thought the production on the ABC album was weak, and so refused to buy it at the time. They were apparently a way better band live than any of their recordings, although very East Coast in their sound. Bob La Palm and Timothy Griffin went on to found a band called Clean Living who's records are worth checking out if you can find copies. Tim Griffin also played drums in James Taylor's road band very briefly.

(Vernon Joynson / Jonathan Sharkey / Stephane Rebeschini)

Bolder Damn

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN ANDERSON vcls A
- GLENN EATON gtr A
- RON REFFETT bs A
- BOB EATON drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) MOURNING (Hit) 1971 R4/5

NB: (1) reissued on the Rockadelic label, and also issued on CD.

This outfit formed in Fort Lauderdale, Florida in the summer of 1969. They played a sort of heavy rock music in the Black Sabbath/Alice Cooper vein and had a spectacular live show, opening for many 'big name' acts. The above album was recorded in just four hours and pressed in limited quantities for distribution to local fans. Just when major labels were beginning to show an interest John Anderson and Ron Reffeff were drafted leading to the band's demise.

The album's recent reissue on the Rockadelic label has brought it to a slightly wider audience because the original release was obviously ultra rare. If you're into heavy rock you'll like this. Rock On and Breakthrough have a great beat and driving guitar, whilst Dead Meat which takes up most of side two shows they were willing to experiment. It's very heavy, quite imaginative and espoused the revolutionary lyrics which were common from bands in this era. The final cut BRTCD featured some fine fuzz guitar work.

Boomerang

TOP

Personnel:

JO CASMIR	bs, vcls	A
JAMES GALLUZZI	drms	A
RICHARD RAMERIZ	gtr	A
MARK STEIN	keyb'ds, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BOOMERANG	(RCA LSP-4577)	1971

An unimaginative hard rock group formed by Mark Stein after Vanilla Fudge. The group disappeared soon after the failure of their album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bondsmen

45:

1. I See The Light/Our Time To Try (AMH 6704) Jan. 1968

From Durham, the home of Duke University in North Carolina. They won three Raleigh Battle of The Band competitions in the '60s and were perhaps Durham's best band. Tobacco-A-Go-Go, Vol. 1 features their competent cover of The Five American's hit and the more interesting 'B' side - which opens with a compelling drum beat followed by a very heavy guitar riff leading into a psychedelic frenzy. A promising effort, only the vocals let it down. There was a second 45, which could possibly be Out Of Sight / ? (Justice 1003) 196?.

Our Time To Try is also featured on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych.

(Max Waller)

Bone

Personnel incl:

MARK McHUGH	hrmnca	A

45:

1. It's An Easy Thing/Everybody's Gone Into April (Poison Ring PRR 712) 1969

Formed out of The Creations and known briefly as the Freudian Slip, this outfit was based in New Haven, Connecticut. The intriguingly titled flip is what draws most to this 45, though it is not so mindbending as hoped - nonetheless it's an infectious and melodic rocker. The 'A' side is uptempo Vaudeville-pop.

Mark McHugh had earlier played on a 45 by The Original Sinners.

(Max Waller)

Sonny Bono

Personnel:

HAROLD BATTISTE		A
SONNY BONO	vcls	A
MAC REBENNACK		A

ALBUM:

1(A)	INNER VIEWS	(Atco SD 33-229)	1967

45:

1	Laugh At Me/Tony	(Atco 6369)	1967

Produced, composed and "sung" by Sonny Bono (from Sonny and Cher), Inner Views was his "psychedelic" album. It has the reputation of being of the worst albums of the '60s, and in fact it's a strange listening experience: Bono's voice is not exactly easy to like, the tracks are too long (I Just Sit There lasts 12'15") and the lyrics are "groovy" ("She started smoking pot just to keep herself from flipping but it wasn't strong enough so she graduated to tripping" from Pammie's On A Bummer). The musicians got so bored that they started working on their own project during the sessions, creating what would become Dr. John, the Night Tripper.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bonne Villes

TOP

Personnel:

- NELSON M. BRADSHAW ld gtr
- DONALD W. CARTNER drms
- CURTIS "BUZZY" COBB sax, keyb'ds
- GARY HOWE second vcls
- JAMES ALAN LOVETTE ld vcls
- CARL F. STEELE Jr. bs

ALBUM:

1. BRINGING IT HOME (Justice # unkn) 1966

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Collectables COL-0623) 1997.

45:

1. Naughty Girl / ? (Pyramid 6536) 1966

Another Justice rarity is dusted off by Collectables to reveal a sextet from Salisbury, North Carolina. Not completely obscured by time in this case, since their Naughty Girl graced the '80s Tarheel compilation Tobacco A Go Go Vol.II - a slice of garagey frat-rock punctuated throughout by honking sax. Like many of the other Justice LPs, it is predominantly covers of soul, R&B, blues and ballads (Stand By Me, Monkey Time, My Girl, Midnight Hour, Under The Boardwalk) in a competent but uninspiring club style with no real bite and little variation - even their cover of 96 Tears is rather flat although they do try to belt it with a more raucous vocal style on Bring It On Home To Me. Once more with this series, curiosity is satisfied but the buzz factor is absent.

(Max Waller)

Boo Boo and Bunky

45:

1. This Old Town/Turn Around (Brent 7045) 1965

An obscure Californian folk-rock outfit. This Old Town can be heard on Open Up Your Door, Vol. 2 and the flip is on the Folk Rock EP.

Book of Changes

Personnel:

BOB BAILEY	vcls	A B
SAUL LEWIS	keyb'ds, vcls	A B
ROLAND OELLER	bs	A B
ARTHUR PENTHOLLOW	drms	A B
FRANK SMITH	gtr	A B
JOSEPH BRACKETT	keyb'ds	B

45:

1(A)	I Stole The Goodyear Blimp/Suddenly I'm Desperately In Love	(Tower 337)	Oct. 1967

The was the third and final phase of San Francisco's Vejtables. Both sides of the 45 can be heard on What A Way To Come Down, another CD in Big Beat's essential 'Nuggets From The Golden State' series, compiled and annotated by Alec Palao and confirming the personnel above. I Stole The Goodyear Blimp has also appeared on Glimpses Vol. 3.

(Max Waller)

Pat Boone

ALBUM:

(Very selective!)
1	DEPARTURE	(Tetragrammaton T-118)	1969

After his '50s and early '60s success as a white and very clean rock singer, Pat Boone had some difficulties in relaunching his career. He nonetheless tried with this 1968 album which was produced by Jerry Yester and Zalman Yanowski, both from the Lovin' Spoonful. The liner notes explain that "At least once, in every man's life... he changes, not in the superficial, physical or mental ways but fundamentally, spiritually.... and he makes a departure , not so much from where he has been, but toward what he must be, and he will never be the same again".

The material is composed of covers of folk and folk/rock : Tim Buckley's Song Of The Siren, Fred Neil's I've Got A Secret, plus several songs written by Biff Rose, John Loudermilk and John Stewart. The backing group was formed of ace studio musicians : Ry Cooder, Jack Nitzsche, Toxey French, John Forsha, Larry Knechtel, Jerry Scheff and the thanks go to The Leaves, Lovin' Spoonful, Beatles, Turtles, 'Stones and Neil Young.

Despite the fine producers, musicians and songs, the result is, not surprisingly, a total artistic failure, Boone's voice being definitely unable for instance to cover Tim Buckley's material!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Boot

TOP

Personnel:

DAN ELIASSEN	vcls, bs	A
BRUCE KNOX	gtr, vcls	A
MIKE MYCZ	gtr, vcls	A
JIM O'BROCK	drms, vcls	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	BOOT	(Agape 2601)	1972
2(A)	TURN THE OTHER CHEEK	(Guinness 36002)	1977

45:

1	Hey Little Girl / Liza Brown	(Agape 9008)	1972

Their first album is rare and came out on a Texan label 'though they hailed from Orlando, Florida, and had earlier recorded as The Split Ends. It's basically hard rock with some psychedelic guitar work. Their second album is rather mundane heavy rock.

Jim O'Brock recalls: "Circa 1969 We changed names from The Split Ends to B.O.O.T, an anacronym for 'Blues Of Our Time'. We began playing 80% to 90% original material and began traveling more, playing larger venues. We played with Canned Heat, B.B. King, Neil Diamond, Detroit Wheels, etc. and at the Atlanta Pop Festival and Miami II Pop Festivals. Once we competed with the Allman Brothers in a contest at the University of Florida and won first prize! In Atlanta Georgia we played with Lynyrd Skynyrd (they opened for us!) and stayed on the road for about 4 years. During this time we recorded our two albums in Nashville, Tn.

"We seemed to stagnate about that time. I left the band and it broke up. A couple of years later, Mike and Bruce tried to resurrect the name with a couple of new guys, but it didn't last long".

(Clark Faville/Max Waller w/thanks to Jim O'Brock)

The Bootles

45:

1	I'll Let You Hold My Hand/?	(GNP Crescendo 311)	196?

An early all girl band. The 'A' side can also be heard on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 2 (LP) and Vol. 1 (CD).

The Bootmen

Personnel:

- NEIL ANDERSON gtr A
- BARRY BALANTI drms A
- BUTCH HANUKANIE keyb'ds A
- JOHN STONE vcls A
- JIM STOVER bs A
- DE WAYNE McKASLIN bs
- FRED DICKERSON gtr
- MARK MARUSH sax
- MICHAEL MOORE keyb'ds

NB: 'A' = Original line-up. The rest were later members.

45s:

1. 1,2,3,4/Black Widow (Etiquette 10) 1964
2. Love You All I Can/Forevermore (Riveaon 101) 1965
3. Ain't It The Truth, Babe/Wherever You Hide (Riverton 104) 1966

The Bootmen evolved out of a Puget Sound high school group called The Solitudes. They got their big break when Ron Gardner, a part-time member of The Wailers introduced them to the owners of Etiquette Records, Kent Morrill and Buck Ormsby, who insisted on a name change to The Bootmen.

They soon became a popular Northwest dancehall attraction operating out of Tacoma in Washington. Their grundgy garage sound being typified by Ain't It The Truth, Babe which you can check out on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 7, which described it as a mixture between Mitch Ryder and Paul Revere and The Raiders.

Neil Anderson later joined The Wailers, whilst Fred Dickerson and Duane McCaslin went on to Cotton Mouth.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Boruk to Boyce And Hart

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Boruk
- The Boss Five
- The Bossmen
- The Boss Tweads
- The Boss Tweeds
- (Bill Wendry and) The Boss Tweeds
- Boston Tea Party
- Bo St Runners
- Bottle Company
- Botumless Pit
- Bougalieu
- The Bounty Hunters
- The Bourbons
- The Bourbons
- Bow Street Runners
- Box Tops
- Boy Blues
- Boyce and Hart

Boruk

ALBUM:

1	BLACKHOLE BOOGIE	(Private Pressing)	c1970 SC

A strange poet with background music, very short tracks (twenty-five on a single album).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Boss Five

45:

1. Please Mr President/You Cheat Too Much (Impact 1003) 1966

Primitive-sounding punkers issued on Detroit's Impact label. The 'A' side, a punk, novelty number, can be heard on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 4; the flip, another raw punker has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 5, even though it's now known that the band came from Hewlett and Lynbrook, Long Island. The 45 was recorded in New York and produced by Dickie Goodman although he isn't credited on the label.

Both sides of the 45 also feature on The Best Of Impact Records (CD).

(Vernon Joynson / Kip Brown / Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Bossmen

TOP

Personnel incl:

- DICK WAGNER

45s incl:

1. Take A Look (My Friend)/It's A Shame (Soft D-121) 1965
2. Here's Congratulations/Bad Girl (Dicto 1001) 1965
3. Wait And See/You're The Girl For Me (Dicto 1002) 1965
4. Wait And See/You're The Girl For Me (Lucky Eleven 227) 1966
5. Baby Boy/You And I (Lucky Eleven 231) 1966
6. Tina Maria/On The Road (Lucky Eleven 001) 1967
7. Help Me Baby/Thanks To You (M&L 1809) 196?
8. That Ticket To Ride/I Can't Help It (Busy Bee 1001) 196?
9. Fever Of Love/Good Lookin' Woman (Busy Bee) 196?
10. I'm Ready/? (Score 1003) 196?

NB. (1) is not on the Texas 'Soft' label, and was also issued as Beck 112.

This was one of Flint, Michigan's most prolific bands. They are thought to have recorded at least 13 45s so the above discography is incomplete. Many of their 45s were powerful rockers and two such songs, I'm Ready and Fever Of Love, can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol's 5 and 6 respectively. They are perhaps most notable for including Dick Wagner, who was not only their leader but who was very active in the music scene in Northern Michigan generally; writing, recording and producing several other records. He was later in The Frost.

Look out for The Complete Bossmen (Singles '64-'76) (CD) (Wagner Music No #) 1995, which comprises everything they put out and is an excellent tribute to the band. Dick Wagner is still active on the Saginaw scene and inspiring yet another generation of musicians - it's time someone wrote a book about him and his various ventures as he's such a major player in Michigan's musical history.

The Boss Tweads

TOP

45:

1. Goin' Away/It's Best You Go (Studio City 1056) 1966

Studio City was a Minneapolis-based label but the band themselves were from South Dakota. The 45 is very rare and sought-after and the 'A' side has had a further airing on Root "66", Vol. 1.

The Boss Tweeds (seen sometimes as Bostweeds)

TOP

45s:

1. Faster Pussycat! Kill! Kill!/? (Eve Productions) 196?
2. Little Bad News/Simple Man (Chattahoochee 689) 1965
3. She Belongs To Me/Lisa (Chattahoochee 701) 1966

This was a different outfit from Los Angeles who recorded at least three 45s. Faster, Pussycat! Kill! Kill! was the theme to Russ Meyer's film of the same name and was written by Bert Fhester. Eve Productions was Meyers' film company whilst their second and third 45s were released on Chattahoochie, which was being run by Kim Fowley at the time.

In the eighties, Faster, Pussycat! Kill! Kill! was given a new lease of life when it was covered by the Cramps. You can find the original on Born Bad, Vol. 1, whilst Little Bad News has also resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 5.

(Max Waller / Joe Foster)

(Bill Wendry and) The Boss Tweeds

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BILL WENDRY

45s:

1. Fire/A Wristwatch Band (Columbia 4-44605) 1968
2. Tryin' To Get To You/When He's Home (Columbia 4-44825) 1969
3. Love Is A Happening/Heartache Lives (Columbia 4-44961) 1969

Yet another Boss Tweeds this time from Springfield, Massachusetts. Their A Wristwatch Band got a further airing on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 7 and Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 6.

Boston Tea Party

TOP

Personnel:

- RICHARD DE PERNA bs A
- ROBERT DE PERNA organ A

- TRAVIS FIELDS vcls A
- DAVE NOVOGROSKI drms A
- MIKE STEVENS ld gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BOSTON TEA PARTY (Flick Disk 45000) 1968

NB: (1) promo copies issued in mono with sticker.

45s:

1. Words/Spinach (Big Boss 1002) 1967
2. Words/Spinach (Challenge 59368) 1967
3. Is It Love?/Don't Leave Me Alone (Fona 311) 1967
4. My Daze/Rose In The Night (Vogue International 101) 1967
5. Free Service/I'm Telling You (Flick Disk 900) 1967

Formed in 1963 this band became based in Burbank, California. People seem to have mixed views on the album, but it is not one which collectors particularly seek out. The band also had cuts on the original Soundtrack of the movie Cycle Savages. Their drummer, Novogroski, went on to play for The Edge, while Mike Stevens later fronted the highly rated heavy rock band Highway Robbery, who issued an album, For Love Or Money (RCA Victor LSP-4735) 1972.

My Daze which is compiled on An Overdose of Heavy Psych CD is their crowning glory.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / David Jaffe)

Bo St Runners

TOP

45:

1	Alladin/Johnny B. Goode	(KR 117)	Nov. 1966

NB: (1) one-sided promo copies also exist.

Unconnected to the US Bow St Runners, the UK Bo St. Runners, and the Missouri Bo St Runners (who recorded for Pearce). Their cover of Alladin was written by Artie Kornfield and Steve Duboff, two songwriters who issued their own version under the Changin' Times moniker.

Their version of Alladin is a decent mid tempo folk-rocker with harmony vocals and electric 12-string.

The 45 was recorded in Phoenix, but the bands own location isn't yet known.

(Mike Markesich/Jeffrey Knoll)

Bottle Company

TOP

45:

1. Barkley Square/Lives For No One (Hideout 1230) 196?

An obscure Michigan outfit whose Lives For No One also appears on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 2. It's pretty standard garage punk.

Botumless Pit

TOP

45:

1. 13 Stories High/My Girl (Psychadelic 113) 1966

This oufit hailed from San Antonio in Texas in the mid-'60s. Back From The Grave, Vol. 4 features their 45 from 1966. Exactly the same 45 was also released as by The Suedes.

Bougalieu

TOP

45s:

1. Let's Do Wrong/When I Was A Child (Roulette 4767) 1967
2. Let's Do Wrong/When I Was A Children (Rolette 4776) 1967

A short-lived New York City venture whose best known song Let's Do Wrong appeared on Boulders, Vol. 2 and Pebbles (CD), Vol. 1. Two versions of the song also appear on Psychedelic Microdots Of The Sixties, Vol. 3.

The Bounty Hunters

TOP

45:

1. Somewhere/The Sun Went Away (Romain 1010) 196?

Both sides of their 45 feature on the Return Of The Young Pennsylvanians compilation. The group operated out ot Philadelphia. The 'A' side is a punk ballad with lots of farfisa organ. The flip is also an organ-led song, but a little more uptempo.

The Bourbons

TOP

45:

1. A Dark Corner/Of Old Approximately (A Time For A Change) (Royal Family 267) 1967

A Texas band from San Antonio were responsible for this gem and both sides can be heard on the compilation Texas

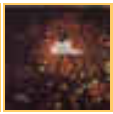
Psychedelia From The Sixties. The flip side, a raw garage rocker with sneering vocals can also be found on Flashback, Vol. 6 and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 11: Texas, Part One, whilst The Acid Dreams Testament (CD), includes A Dark Corner.

The Bourbons

TOP

Personnel incl:

- JIMMY GRANDMONT drms
- AL LORUSSO



CD:

1. HOUSE PARTY 1964-66 (Arf Arf AA-058) 1996

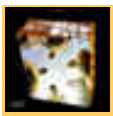
NB: (1) contains 28 previously unreleased cuts including tracks by the early line-ups Chevells and Vandells.

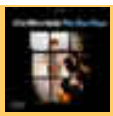
A garage band from Braintree, Massachusetts, whose finest moments and more are now captured on the above CD. Grandmont later played in The Morning After.

Bow Street Runners

TOP

ALBUM:





1. BOW STREET RUNNERS (B. T. Puppy BTPS 1026) 1970

NB: (1) reissued on CD & LP in original cover (Sundazed SC6112) 1996.

This is one of those interesting albums that linked the psychedelic and progressive eras. An album of imagination, variety and different moods. It's not all good - some cuts are plain bad - but others are superb. The opening track, Electric Star, is an exquisite slice of floating, melodic psychedelia, which occasionally lapses into dementia. Watch veers towards acid rock with some fine guitar licks. Another Face has a haunting keyboard introduction but then picks up tempo with lots of fuzz guitar. Those three tracks are the highlight. A few songs are bluesy but often contain unpredictable mood changes and the final track, Steve's Jam, contains lots of good fuzz guitar. This album is horrendously rare, so pick up the Sundazed reissue if you can.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Watch on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 1; Electric Star on the vinyl version of The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 1 and Another Face on Relics, Vol. 2.

Box Tops

TOP

Personnel:

TOM BOGGS	drms	A

ALEX CHILTON	vcls	A B
BILL CUNNINGHAM	keyb'ds, bs	A
JOHN EVANS	gtr, keyb'ds	A
GARY TALLEY	gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE LETTER	(Bell 6011)	1967
2(B)	CRY LIKE A BABY	(Bell 6017)	1968
3(B)	NON STOP	(Bell 6023)	1968
4(B)	SUPERHITS	(Bell 6025)	1969
5(B)	DIMENSION	(Bell 6032)	1969

NB: (1) and (2) were also released in the U.K. and France by Stateside.

45s:

1	The Letter/Happy Times	(Mala 565)	1967
2	Neon Rainbow/Everything I Am	(Mala ?)	1967
3	Cry Like A Baby/The Door You Closed To Me	(Mala ?)	1968
4	Choo Choo Train/Fields Of Clover	(Mala ?)	1968
5	Happy Song/Soul Deep	(Mala ?)	1968
6	I Met Her In Church/People Gonna Talk	(Mala ?)	1968
7	I Shall Be Released/ I Must Be The Devil	(Mala 12038)	1969
8	Together/Turn On A Dream	(Mala 12042)	1969
9	Sweet Cream Ladies Forward March/I See Only Sunshine	(Mala 120??)	1969

From Memphis and originally known as The Devilles, The Box Tops got the hit of the Summer of 1967 with The Letter, written by Wayne Carson Thompson and masterfully produced by Dan Penn, the famous songwriter. Their singer, Alex Chilton, was only 16 when it was recorded and Bill Cunningham was the brother of B.B. Cunningham from The Hombres. The line-up of the group was quite unstable, Chilton being the only continuous member and several tracks were in fact recorded by the American Recording Studios house band (Cogbill, Spreen, Leech, Moman...).

Very much a singles band, their albums are of minor interest but always contained some successful hits. The singles were released on Mala, a sub-label of Bell.

When the group broke up, Alex Chilton went on to form Big Star, which was a total commercial failure at the time but is now regarded as one of the first and finest examples of power pop. Chilton went solo and had a long, prolific and extremely chaotic career of singer, songwriter and producer (he notably produced the first Cramps album).

The Box Tops reformed in 1997 and recorded a live CD released in France by Last Call.

Tom Boggs also played with Tommy Burk and The Counts.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Boy Blues

TOP

45:

1. Coming Down To You/Living Child (Frantic 2131) 1967

The work of a Californian band. You'll find the 'A' side, a catchy number reminiscent of the 'Batman' theme on the Boulders, Vol. 10 and Psychedelic Disaster Whirl compilations. It also features a great fuzz-lead break, and appears to be about coming down of 'speed'. (Max Waller)

Boyce and Hart

TOP

Personnel:

TOMMY BOYCE	A
BOBBY HART	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	TEST PATTERNS	(A&M SP 4126)	1966 200
2(A)	I WONDER WHAT SHE'S DOING TONIGHT?	(A&M SP 4143)	1967 109
3(A)	IT'S ALL HAPPENING ON THE INSIDE	(A&M SP 4162)	1968

45s:

1	In Case The Wind Should Blow/Simon Smith And The Amazing Dancing Bear	(A&M 826)	1966
2	Out And About/My Little Chickadee	(A&M 858)	1967 39
3	Sometimes She's A Little Girl/Love Every Day	(A&M 874)	1967 110
4	I Wonder What She's Doing Tonight/The Ambushers	(A&M 893)	1967 8
5	Goodbye Baby (I Don't Want To See You Cry)/ Where Angels Go, Trouble Follows	(A&M 919)	1968 53
6	Alice Long/P.O. Box 9847	(A&M 948)	1968 27
7	We're All Going To The Same Place/6 + 6	(A&M 993)	1968 123
8	I'm Gonna Blow You A Kiss In The Wind/Smilin'	(Aquarian 380)	1968
9	Maybe Somebody Heard/It's All Happening On The Inside	(A&M 1017)	1969
10	L.U.V./I Wanna Be Free	(A&M 1031)	111

NB: There's also a French EP with PS: Out And About/In The Night/Sometimes She's A Little Girl/I Should Be Going Home (A&M EAM 1001) 1966.

This duo came from California and had both previously had solo careers. They were better known as songwriters, most notably for The Monkees, although they also enjoyed some chart success. I Wonder What She's Doing Tonight, an appealing pop song with a strong beat, can be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 3.

They returned in the '70s as part of Dolenz, Jones, Boyce and Hart - a kind of seventies Monkees doing old material much of it written by Boyce and Hart.

Tommy Boyce committed suicide in Nashville in 1995. He was just 55 years old. He had also released a solo album in 1967 entitled A Twofold Talent (Camden CAL/S-2202).

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Amos Boynton and The ABC's to The Brave New World

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Amos Boynton and The ABC's
- The Boys
- The Boys
- The Boys From New York City
- Boys Next Door
- The Boyz
- Bob Brady and The Concords
- Victor Brady
- John Braheny
- The Brain Police
- The Brain Train
- The Brakmen
- Bram Rigg Set
- Brand X
- Brand X
- Brandywine
- Brass Toad
- Brat
- The Brave New World

Amos Boynton and The ABC's

From Houston, Texas, and featuring Edgar and Johnny Winter. They were later known as The Great Believers. An unreleased recording, The Ballad Of Bertha Glutz, has resurfaced on Acid Visions and Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD set). It is actually a different version of The Great Believers' Comin Up Fast with different lyrics, vocals and a much heavier fuzz guitar line. It was recorded in Tyler, Texas.

The Boys

45:

1. You Deceived Me /When I Think (Emcee 015/16) 1966

A garage punk combo from Fort Worth in Texas. Flashback, 2 includes the 'A' side which changes pace frequently, and is a typically catchy slice of garage - Texan style.

The Boys From New York City

TOP

45s:

1. These Are The Things/Take It Or Leave It (Laurie 3412) 1967
2. Mary And John/I'm Down Girl (Laurie 3434) 1968
3. Goin' To California/A Little Bit Harder (Laurie 3443) 1968

New York City by name, but the group evolved out of The Energy Package of Worcester, Massachusetts. Their most worthy effort is I'm Down Girl, a decent pop-punker, with Goin' To California a close second. The rest of their Laurie output is straight pop or ballads.

You can also find I'm Down Girl on Destination Frantic! (CD). (Max Waller)

The Boys

TOP

45:

1	Sticks And Stones / Rocks in My Head	(Lowery Music NRC 511)	196?

A Jacksonville, Florida band. When they split, members teamed up with remnants of The (Florida) Deep Six to form Mouse and The Boys.

(Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich)

Boys Next Door

TOP

Personnel:

JIM ADAMS	gtr, vcls	A
SKEET BUSHOR	keyb'ds, vcls	A
STEVE DRYBREAD	bs, vcls	A
JIM KOSS	drms, vcls	A
STEVE LESTER	ld vcls, ld gtr	A

CD:

1(A)	THE BOYS NEXT DOOR	(Sundazed SC 11061)	1999

45s:

1(A)	Central High Playmate / Cold 45	(Soma 1428)	Mar. 1965

2(A)	Why Be Proud / Suddenly She Was Gone	(Soma 1439)	Aug. 1965
3(A)	There Is No Greater Sin / I Could See Me Dancing With You	(Cameo 394)	1965
4(A)	Mandy / One Face In The Crowd	(Atco 6443)	1966
5(A)	The Wildest Xmas / Xmas Kiss	(Bad 1301)	Dec 1966
6(A)	The Wildest Xmas / Xmas Kiss	(Atco 6455)	Dec 1966
7(A)	Begone Girl / See The Way She's Mine	(Atco 6477)	Apr 1967

NB: (1) as the Four Wheels.

Not for the garage and psych clan, but '60s pop fans read on... This clean-cut quintet from Indianoplis were obviously influenced by the Beach Boys, for whom they opened on several occasions, right down to the striped shirts. Initially adopting the surf/hot-rod sound, their debut 45 was re-credited to the Four Wheels, deemed to be a more suitable handle.

Thereafter they followed their heroes (and villains?) towards California's smooth moody harmony-pop ala Pet Sounds, adding other influences to produce some fine mid-60s pop pastiches: Begone Girl successfully takes on The Association; There Is No Greater Sin sounds like the Beach Boys covering Dylan and adds baroque flourishes; See The Way She's Mine adds a Midwest horn flavour to the recipe.

To their credit, whilst highly derivative, much of their material was self-penned, mainly by Koss and Lester. Of the covers:- three tracks (the final 45 and the unreleased Lorali) were written for them and produced by smooth balladeer Bobby Goldsboro, for whom they'd performed backing duties; Why Be Proud came from The Gestures' Dale Menten.

The CD comprises all their releases, including four tracks as the Four Wheels, radio spots, one live and several unreleased cuts. A detailed history and interview with Steve Lester by Jeff Jarema rounds off yet another quality retrospective from Sundazed.

(Max Waller)

The Boyz

Personnel incl:

- BILL MILLAY bs
- PAUL MAHALEC
- RICK NIELSEN

45s:

1. Never Be Lonely/Come With Me (Destination 630) 1966
2. Hard Times All Over/Never Be Lonely (Destination 7719) 196?
3. The Laugh's On Me/Charlotte (IRC 9531) 19?

4. The Laugh's On Me/Charlotte (Kiderian 45130) 19?

A late sixties Chicago outfit whose Come With Me can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 4. It's poorly produced but quite appealing. A 1976 LP, A Kiderian Records Sampler contains a whole side of their music.

(This outfit was supposedly was born out of The Phaetons and from The Boyz went on to Grim Reapers, Fuse and eventually Cheap Trick).

Bob Brady and The Concords

45:

1. Everybody's Goin To The Lov-In / It's Been A Long Time Between Kisses (Chariot Records 526) 196?

From Baltimore, Md area, who had a a Regional Hit with Everybody's Goin To The Lov-In.

Victor Brady

Personnel:

VICTOR BRADY	steel drms, vcls	A
MURCEY GORDON	bs	A
PETER PSARIANOS	gtr	A
GARY REAMS	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BROWN RAIN	(Polydor 24-4036)	1970 SC

45:

1	You Got Me/I've Got The Urge To Move	(MGM 13663)	1967

This very unusual album features a fusion between the steel drum sound with heavy progressive music. The leader, Victor Brady, plays wild improvisations with his instrument on self-composed rock tunes. The guitar is always present, with dense rhythm, sometimes clean, sometimes heavy and fuzzy. Brady sings on all tracks with his loud voice. The best track being the epic 11:30 Brown Rain with an excellent heavy guitar.

(Pascal Moru)

John Braheny

ALBUM:

1	SOME KIND OF CHANGE	(Pete Records S110?)	1970 SC

One of the few albums released on this Californian label. After a rather ordinary start, some tracks are good electric folk rock with an interesting atmosphere, the others are acoustic folk.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Brain Police

Personnel:

- TONY JOHNSON drms A
- FRANK MANNIX bs A
- DAVID RANDLE gtr A B
- RICK RANDLE vcls, gtr, keyb'ds, hrmnca A B
- BENNY BENNETT perc B
- NORMAN LOMBARDO vcls, bs B C
- SID SMITH drms B C
- LARRY GRANT gtr C

ALBUM:

1. (B) THE BRAIN POLICE (K.B. Artists WR 4767) 1968 R6

NB: (1) appeared as a demo disc in a plain sleeve. Some copies were issued with a letter of introduction from their manager dated 15th October 1968. (1) has been reissued on Rockadelic (RRLP 26) 1997. There are two different versions of the reissue. Fifty copies came on coloured vinyl with a special folder containing inserts (R2) and 600 copies were pressed on black vinyl with several inserts. (R1).

45:

1. (C) World Of Wax/Smoking At Windsor Hill (Head X 2002/3) 1969

The Brain Police were one of San Diego's most popular sixties groups. Rick Randle had been in The Other Four/The Mandells and Tony Johnson and Frank Mannix came from Sandi and The Accents, two bands that had been local phenomenons. In 1967, Norman Lombardo (The Other Four) and Sid Smith, a local drummer who had led a group called The Roosters who issued a 45 on A&M Records of Shake A Tail Feather / Rooster Walk (A&M 746) 1964, (Sid plays drums and sings lead vocals on this!) replaced Johnson and Mannix. This was the magical line-up that recorded the demo album in 1968. Recorded on a primitive 4-track machine, the record displays a degree of talent seldom seen in a teenage band. Through a unique combination of pop songs and heavy rock (all original material, written by Rick and Norman) The Brain Police created a remarkable document of American rock's transitionary period between flower-power and the guitar-led heavy rock that dominated the scene in 1969. The original demo album was pressed for promo use and the copies were sent to club owners and record labels - it is impossibly rare - the Rockadelic reissue is highly recommended, providing, of course, that you can find it! The reissue included a reprint of the letter included in the original, and a fistful of psychedelic posters from the groups 1967 - 1968 tenure as San Diego's top draw.

Norman and Sid left San Diego in 1969, relocating to the San Francisco Bay Area and along with Norman's old friend Larry Grant (The Other Four/The Mandells) recorded the 45, using session musicians from the 'Frisco area who remain unknown. World Of Wax is radically different from the version on the 1968 demo album, and, as well, the 'B' side reveals that this band had little in common with the San Diego Brain Police. Within the next few months, Sid accepted an offer to record and tour with Roly "Treat Her Right" Head. Rick Randle hooked up with the legendary Framework just as they were disintegrating, and then he and their drummer Carl Spiron played together in a two-man band (ala Lee Michaels / Frosty) that never recorded but played a few well - received live shows as The Rick Randle Band. Sometime in 1969, Rick journeyed up to the Bay Area to join Norman and the two formed a short-lived group called The Dry Creek Road Band who are known to have recorded a demo in San Francisco and played live in the area, including a gig at the Fillmore West. At about this time, the pair were asked to play in The Dudes, a top-notch band being assembled to back the up and coming singer Rita Coolidge. This band also included Spooner Oldham, Chris Etheridge and Randy Bishop - three musicians whose list of credits would fill this entire page. Rick then joined two hard-rock outfits, Bighorn and Child, recording and touring with each, and then formed the Seattle-based Randle-Rosburg Band, which became Striker, who released a highly-rated heavy rock album (Arista 4165) in 1978.

The Brain Police had a most remarkable lineage for an "unknown" group - talent most exemplified by Rick Randle who is well remembered by all who came in contact with him as one of the true "naturals", a born singer / musician / performer who is ranked by many as one of the greatest the West Coast has ever produced.

You can also find I'll Be On The Inside, If I Can on Love Peace & Poetry Vol. 1. (Clark Faville / Max Waller)

The Brain Train

TOP

Personnel:

MICHAEL NEY	drms	A B
ROBBIE ROBISON	gtr, vcls	A B
BOB SEALS	gtr, vcls	A B
DALLAS TAYLOR	drms	A B
WANDA WATKINS	vcls	A
DOUGLAS LUBAHN	bs	B

45:

1	Black Roses/Me	(Titan FF-1738)	Oct 1967

The full story of this band has finally been revealed thanks to Lee Joseph's compilation Take The Brain Train To The Third Eye (Bacchus Archives BA1147) 2000, annotated by Mike Stax. The theme of this recommended retrospective is the artists and releases in the hands of Bud Mathis, a boxer-turned-music-entrepreneur based on the Sunset Strip in the 60s.

Originally known as Garnerfield Sanitarium (line-up 'A') with an unusual double-drummer configuration, this local L.A. group were heard and picked up by Bud Mathis in 1966. Through him they acquired bassist Doug Lubahn but lost Wanda Watkins (who'd join another Mathis act The Joint Effort) and were rechristened The Brain Train (line-up 'B').

In late '66/early '67 they laid down Black Roses (written by Wolfgang Dios, a songwriter signed by Mathis) and Me. Mathis took these on the label trail and managed to get the group a contract with Elektra. At that point he was persuaded by Elektra to let Paul Rothchild take over as the group's manager. This triggered the band's final stage of metamorphosis into the venerated Clear Light - losing Robbie Robison and gaining Cliff DeYoung (vcls) and Ralph Schuckett (keyb'ds).

In September 1967 Clear Light's first 45 was released - She's Ready To Be Free / Black Roses (Elektra 45622). Bud Mathis had retained the rights to the Brain Train material, and as this wasn't going to be used, he leased out the original recordings to Titan, who put out the excellent and sought-after Brain Train 45 the following month.

Black Roses is very similar to the finished Elektra product, where Byrdsy-jangle confronts Yardbirds-style-rave-ups. Me veers towards sheer dementia with crashing distorted guitars, demonic drumming (ala 7 And 7 Is) and a chorus of eerie chants, reminiscent again of The Yardbirds (Still I'm Sad).

Both sides of the Titan 45 and an unreleased instrumental take of Me appear on Take The Brain Train... Me had previously appeared on The Chosen Few Vol. 2 and 30 Seconds Before The Calico Wall (CD).

(Max Waller/Vernon Joynson)

The Brakmen

TOP

45:

1. Minutes And Minutes/Movin' (LSK WS-2391/2) 1967

Both sides of the 45 can be found on The Garage Zone, Vol. 2. The band hailed from Fremont in Nebraska. A second but unconfirmed 45 on LSK - Nitey Nite - is thought to exist.

Bram Rigg Set

TOP

Personnel:

RICHIE BEDNARZYCK	organ	A
BOBBY SCHLOSSER (DAMON ROBEY)	ld vcls	A
PETER NERI	ld gtr	A
JERRY POULTON	bs	A
BENNET SEGAL	drms	A

45:

1	I Can Only Give You Everything/Take The Time, Be Yourself (Kayden 400)	Feb. 1967

NB: (1) also released in the U.K. on Stateside (SS 2020).

Formed in spring of 1966, members coming from North Haven and Wallingford, Connecticut. The group got their monicker when a few of the guys spotted the name 'Bram Rigg' on a gravestone in the local cemetary, and decided to go with it. Their version of I Can Only Give You Everything and the original Take The Time Be Yourself were recorded at Syncron Studios in Wallingford. The original was credited as 'Trod nossel' an 'in-phrase' used by their manager, and later became the new name of Syncron Studios in Wallingford in 1968.

The 45 came out on a New Jersey owned and operated label, and after a few months, received regional airplay in Albany Ny, Orlando Florida, and the Washington D.C. area. The Bram Rigg Set played every weekend in the state and when the single caught on elsewhere, traveled up and down the east coast. They also appeared on a D.C. Teen bandstand show, and were set to lip-sync their 45, but before they could go on, the 45 was misplaced by the studio engineer. The band wanted to lip - sync to the Wildweeds No Good To Cry which was also popular at the time in the area, but the station manager wouldn't let them do it.

The Bram Rigg Set also appeared in the film 'A Show With A Very long Title' which was a conceptual idea of teen bands and teen fashion that was shot in the New Haven area in 1966. The Shags appear in the film , while the Bram Rigg Set lip-sync I Can Only Give You Everything on the platform at the New Haven train station.

Bobby Schlosser (stage name Damon Robey) was involved with a local radio station as a DJ, and decided to quit the band in mid 1967. Local recording engineer and manager Doc Cavalier took some of the guys from the Bram Rigg Set and some from The Shags to form a 'real' musical group he dubbed Pulse. Subsequently The Shags split up in the fall of 1967.

You can hear both sides of The Bram Rigg Set's 45 on the compilation Psychotic Moose And The Soulsearchers; the flip has also resurfaced on Garage Music For Psych Heads, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Brand X

TOP

45:

1. She Lied/You Keep Coming Back For More (Sequoia 501) 196?

An obscure Californian punk band. She Lied can be heard on Boulders, Vol. 5.

Brand X

TOP

45:

1. Come On Home/Stop! In The Name Of Love (Steel Breeze STM-3786/7) 196?

Whether this is the Californian outfit of that name is unconfirmed. Heavy duty post-Vanilla Fudge with ladles of fuzz is what we're hearing here. Why they had to follow the Vanilla Fudge trail and fudgify motown songs is a mystery since Come On Home is the winner by far.

Brandywine

TOP

ALBUM:

1	AGED	(Brunswick)	1969

A rock group with flashy guitar and strong harmonies.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Brass Toad

45:

1. In The Back Of My Mind/Easy To Be Hard (Two Worlds 1071) 196?

From Orange, Texas, end-of-decade/seventies 'psych' that is rated by some. It's a bit too gruff and serious to get one high tho', with the 'A' side also having an orchestrated feel. Check it out for yourself on The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 1 CD. (Max Waller)

Brat

Personnel incl:

- RITCHIE BRUBAITER A
- GARY ERBE A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BRAT (No label R 2826) 197? R3

NB: (1) is a one-sided mono album issued in a plain cover.

No information is known about this band, and the price / rarity structure is a guess as there is only one copy known and it has never been offered for sale. The six cuts on the one-sided album include covers of The Nazz Are Blue and The Kids Are Alright, plus originals in a rural / Neil Young style. The estimated year of issue is 1971/2; although it's difficult to pin down - it could be several years later, in a "retro" style. (Clark Faville)

The Brave New World

Personnel:

- MIKE BECK bs A B
- GEORGE M. GUILMET keyb'ds, backing vcls A
- JOHN KENNEDY drms A
- GUS MOLVIK ld gtr A B
- PAUL TROUSDALE ld vcls A B
- RON ADCOCK drms B
- MIKE WHALEN keyb'ds B

NB: Line-up 'A' 1966. Line-up 'B' 1967.

45:

1. * It's Tomorrow/Cried (Panorama 51) 196?
2. It's Tomorrow/Cried (Piccadilly 225) 1966
3. It's Tomorrow/Cried (Epic 10123) 1967

NB: * Not released.

From Seattle, Guilmet, Kennedy and Molvik had all played at various times during 1964-5 in Mr. Clean and The Cleansers. Mr. Clean (a black vocalist, sax-player and band leader) used non-black sidemen so he could perform for both predominantly black inner-city Seattle clubs and general high school/college audiences. Mr. Clean blended traditional blues, R&B and motown with The Rolling Stones and similar material by miscellaneous American groups after the British invasion. Paul Trousdale knew members of The Daily Flash and The Crome Syrcus, two primary sources of the Seattle/San Francisco psychedelic sound. He wrote songs, mixing this genre with blues, which the three former members of Mr. Clean supported with their heavy R&B background.

Mike Beck blended both traditions. He'd played with Kennedy and Guilmet during 1963-4 in The Newports, the first Seattle group Guilmet had led. Tom Blessing of Tom Thumb And The Casuals was the sax player and sometimes lead singer in the group. The Newports played much material from the early Northwest sound. When Guilmet formed what was later to be named Brave New World in 1966, it was on Beck's suggestion that Trousdale should be auditioned as lead singer - they both attended the same high school, and had played together in The Bodrockers.

Brave New World played at the first major psychedelic rock concert in Seattle at the Eagles Auditorium in the Spring of 1967 (the Trips Festival named after its promoter Trips Lansing). They lasted as a more-or-less continuous band in various forms until 1973. By then Molvik and Guilmet had become the band's songwriters and lead vocalists. Beck was the other original member at this time.

Epic paid for a series of recording sessions of the band after It's Tomorrow was released, although it is uncertain whether the tapes still exist. Live tapes from 1972 definitely do. Incidentally, another version of their 45 was released on Epic 10123 with the flip-side entitled Don't You Know You Better Love Me, though it is the same track as Cried. Another song by the group, I See, was published on The History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 3 and Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 2. They only recorded three songs in 1966. Jerry Dennon of Jerden first bought all three but then sold two to Epic, keeping I See for this and other Northwest collections.

You'll also find Its Tomorrow on Boulders, Vol. 10 and History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 5.

Gus Molvik's son is the lead singer/lead guitarist Taine Downe (Gus Molvik Jr. or 'Little Gus') of the contemporary LA band Faster Pussycat. (Max Waller / Darryl F. Riffero)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Breakers to The Bridge

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Breakers
- The Breakers
- The Breakers
- Bobby Brelyn
- The Brentwoods
- Brethren
- Brew
- Brewer and Shipley
- Bridge
- The Bridge

The Breakers

TOP

45s:

1. All My Nights, All My Days/Better For The Both Of Us (Riverton 102) 1965
2. All My Nights, All My Days/Better For The Both Of Us (Jerden 789) 1966

From the Pacific Northwest. All My Nights, All My Days, their finest moment, can be found on Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 2 and History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 3. This is actually Tacoma's Wailers under a pseudonym.

The Breakers

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BOB GARVEY

45s:

1. Jet Stream/Beachhead (DJB 116) 1964
2. She's Bound To Put You Down/Tears In The Rain (Romco 101) 1965
3. Long Green/Splivit Shuffle (Celmor 1002) 1966/7

This band operated out of Wichita, in Southern Central Kansas, during the mid and late '60s. They started out playing surf rock and by 1966 had become an eight piece horn-rock outfit. It's really their second 45 (their garage rock phase) which may interest readers and you can cheek out She's Bound To Put You Down on Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 5.

The Breakers

Personnel:

GARY JOHNS	vcls	A
TOM KECKLER	bs	A
MIKE LADD	ld gtr	A
RICHARD LEWIS	gtr	A
STEWART LEWIS	vcls	A
EDDIE TATUM	drms	A

45:

1	Don't Send Me No Flowers, I Ain't Dead Yet/Love Of My Life	(Amy 938)	1966

This garage/punk outfit came from Memphis Tennesse and the 'A' side of the 45, a classic 'pleading' ballad with fine fuzztone guitar, was written by Donna Weiss, a Nashville songwriter who years later won a Grammy for her composition Bette Davis Eyes. The Breakers were all high school mates aged 15-22, and their sole stab at stardom came when they caught the ear of Charlie Rich's manager, Sy Rosenburg. Stewart Lewis remembers: "He drove us to Nashville to record the song and although it only reached No. 25 in Memphis we heard that it did well in the Santa Barbara, Ca. area. We didn't release any other records however. We just played locally and did the occasional "Battle of the Bands" contest against local bands like The Gentrys and The Boxtops. They won, naturally."

"After a few years of garage band fun, everyone drifted away to college, other bands, and real work. Playing in the band launched a couple of music related careers. Tom Keckler went on to develop quite a reputation making custom made guitars for the rich and famous and Gary Johns made a career out of music locally, ending up playing in a band with Duck Dunn and Steve Cropper, two noted Memphis studio musicians".

You can also find Don't Send Me No Flowers, I Ain't Dead Yet on Pebbles, Vol. 12 (LP) and Pebbles Vol. 10 (CD).

Other Breakers around included one from Phoenix, Arizona with at least one 45: Say You're Mine / Onec More on Moxie (MRC 103) in 1964. Another track called She's Bound To Put You Down on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 5 may be by the same act.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Jerry Cupples)

Bobby Brelyn

45s:

1. I Sit By... /Yes You Do (Jorel 5133) 196?
2. I Know I'll Cry Tomorrow/Hanna (Jorel 5396) 196?
3. Bits & Pieces/? (Jorel) 196?

Brelyn (real name Bob Konecnik) was actually a late sixties Chicago-based pop artist, but Hanna a rather Dylanesque punk song with some good guitar has been included on Pebbles, Vol. 16, Pebbles, Vol. 7 (CD), Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6 and Boulders, Vol. 11. It was rather out of character, because the 'A' side was a country and western ballad.

The Brentwoods

45:

1. Yeah, Yeah, No, No/Babe You Know (Ovr 101) 1967

Although this flower-pop 45 bears all the hallmarks of L.A. the band were from West Texas. The flip side can be found on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 12.- Texas, Part Two.

Brethren

ALBUMS:

1	BRETHREN	(Tiffany)	1970
2	MOMENT OF TRUTH	(Tiffany)	1971

A psych rock group with good lead guitar and organ work. Their albums have a religious content.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Brew

Personnel:

- TOMMY LOZANE vcls A
- MARK drms A
- JOHN MEKENIAN organ, piano A
- RONNY REYES ld gtr, vcls A
- ART SANCHEZ bs, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A VERY FINE BREW (ABC 672) 1969

This was the work of an obscure Californian quintet who may have spent time in Texas too. It's rumoured that a few of them were at some point members of Impala Syndrome. The album, which contains some interesting guitar work, is a marginal case for inclusion here and it's yet to become a real collectable.

Members later formed Yaqui, who released one album Yaqui (Playboy Records) 1973, which was dedicated to Don Juan and Carlos Castaneda. Musically, it sounded similar to Santana.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Brewer and Shipley

Personnel:

MICHAEL BREWER	vcls, gtr, piano	A B C D
TOM SHIPLEY	vcls, gtr, bs	A B C D
HAL BLAINE	drms	A
RUSSELL BRIDGES (LEON RUSSELL)	organ, piano	A
JIM GORDON	drms	A
MILT HOLLAND	perc	A
MIKE MELVOIN	organ	A
JIM MESSINA	bs	A
JOE OSBORN	bs	A
LYLE RITZ	bs	A
LANCE WAKELY	gtr, harp	A
RIENOL ANDINO	congas	B
APPLEJACK	hrmnca	B
MICHAEL BLOOMFIELD	gtr	B
RICHARD GREENE	fiddle	B
ROBERT HUBERMAN	bs	B
BOB JONES	drms	B C
JOHN KAHN	bs, wah-wah	B C D
IRA KAMIN	keyb'ds	B
MARK NAFTALIN	keyb'ds	B C D
FRED OLSON	gtr	B
ORVILLE RED RHODES	pedal steel	B
FRED BURTON	gtr	C
DANNY COX	vcls	C
JERRY GARCIA	pedal steel	C
NICK GRAVENITES	vcls	C
NOEL JEWKES	flute	C
DIANE TRIBUNO	vcls	C
BILL VITT	drms	C
JOSE CHEPITO ARIAS	perc	D
JOHN CIPOLLINA	gtr	D
SPENCER DRYDEN	drms	D
JOHN HARTMAN	drms	D
DAVID LA FLAMME	elec. violin	D
GLEN WALTERS	drms	D

ALBUMS:

(up to 1971)

1(A)	DOWN IN L.A.	(A&M SP 4154)	1968
2(B)	WEEDS	(Kama Sutra BS 2015)	1969
3(C)	TARKIO ROAD	(Kama Sutra BS 2024)	1970
4(D)	SHAKE OFF THE DEMON	(Kama Sutra BS 2039)	1971

45s:

1	One Toke Over The Line/Oh Mommy	(Kama Sutra KA 516)	1970 10
2	Tarkio Road/Seems Like A Long Time	(Kama Sutra KA 524)	1970 55
3	Shake Off The Demon/?	(Kama Sutra KA 539)	1971 98
4	Indian Summer/Song From Platte River	(Radioactive Gold RD 77)	1972

NB: (3) two-sided mono/stereo promo copies exist.

From Kansas, Brewer and Shipley were primarily a hippie duet with strong country-rock roots. They would be beyond the scope of this book if it wasn't for their lyrics, which often deal with drugs (One Toke Over The Line, Oh Mommy, Back To The Farm ...), their hippie values (People Love Each Other, Fifty States Of Freedom..) and for their numerous links with the Bay Area musical scene.

The pair first met at the Blind Owl coffeehouse in Kent, Ohio during 1964, however they didn't get togther until mid-1967. In the interim Shipley (born 1942 in Mineral Ridge, Ohio) spent some time working the Toronto folk circuit. Brewer (born 1944, Oklahoma City), meanwhile travelled to L.A. in late '65 with partner Tom Mastin and formed Mastin & Brewer. After Brewer's brother Keith replaced Mastin in late 1966, the Brewer brothers continued to write untill mid-1967, when Mike landed a songwriting job with Good Sam Music, an affiliation of A&M. Here he arranged for Shipley to also be recruited, and during the summer, they began recording their debut album. This was partially recorded at Leon Russell's house.

During 1967 they wrote songs individually for The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and The Poor amongst others. H.P. Lovecraft also covered the collaboration Keeper Of The Keys, which appeared on the duo's debut album.

Their first album was produced by Allen Stanton (who also worked with The Byrds and Mort Garson) and Jerry Riopelle. Down In L.A. defined their style: short, well structured songs with harmonies, good lyrics and the use of excellent musicians: Russell Bridges (better known as Leon Russell), Lance Wakely (pre-Joyous Noise), Jim Messina (Buffalo Springfield/Poco), plus the usual L.A. sessionmen.

Brewer and Shipley then decided to move to Kansas (they would return to California only to record) and signed a new contract with Kama Sutra. Their first two albums for their new label were Nick Gravenites. Some of the best musicians of the San Francisco scene play on these albums, including: Richard Greene (Seatrain), Mark Naftalin (Butterfield Blues Band, Mother Earth, Quicksilver), Michael Bloomfield, Bob Jones (We Five, Southern Comfort), Jerry Garcia, John Cipollina, David La Flamme (It's A Beautiful Day), Spencer Dryden (Jefferson Airplane),...

Not surprisingly, all their albums offer some good guitar solos. However Weeds and Shake Off The Demon are probably the best. The former contains a superb elongated cover of Witchi Tai To, the Indian hymn penned by Jim Pepper (ex Free Spirits), whilst Shake Off The Demon, with its title track, Working On The Well and Natural Child (with the electric violin of David La Flamme) being excellent.

Brewer and Shipley kept on recording for Kama Sutra and Capitol after 1972 but their albums are more conventional.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Nick Warburton)

Bridge

45s:

1. The Life Of A Day/A Beautiful Day (Co-op 519) 1969
2. Love Is There/Gotta Get Back (Roulette R-7081) 1970

The first 45 used to be picked up fairly easily, but nowadays this New Haven, Connecticut, outfit's late mid-tempo psych ballad is quite hard to obtain. Solid-backing with moody mellotron and some burning guitar backed with a straight pop-rocker. The later 45 is dramatic mid-tempo pop-rock with some searing guitar on one side and a harp solo on the other.

The Bridge

ALBUM:

1	JUST FOR YOU	(Crescent City Studios #CCSS-1226)	1970

A six piece mixed male/female Jesus Rock group from Greensboro, North Carolina. They issued at least one other album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Brigade to The British Walkers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Brigade
- The Brigands
- Brigg
- Bright Image
- George Brigman
- The Briks
- Brimstone
- Brimstone
- The Brimstones
- The British Colonels
- The British Walkers

The Brigade

Personnel:

- BOB ANDERSON drms A B C
- ERIC ANDERSON keyb'ds A B C
- PETER BELKNAP vcls A B C
- TIMMY VETTER bs A
- ED WALLO gtr A B C
- MARK HARTMAN bs B
- DENNIS STEINDL bs C

ALBUM:

1. (C) LASTLAUGH (Band N Vocal 1066) 1970

NB: (1) reissued on Del Val (1991) and on Rockadelic.

Formed in North Portland, Oregon during the summer of 1966. They won the KLSN Radio Portland Teen Fair Battle Of The Bands on 9th June 1968 and received a 1954 custom purple Cadillac Hearse as a prize! By now they were a top local attraction and the same year they signed to the American Record Company and recorded a demo which received a lot of local airplay. They went on to record an album for the B&V label in 1970 but split up before it was released. Consequently it received little airplay and flopped. The band all went on to college or further education. Today the album is exceedingly rare and even the limited edition reissue on Rockadelic, which has been restricted to just 350 copies, seems destined to become the same before long. Musically, it consists of keyboard-dominated progressive rock and pretty uninspired progressive rock at that on side one. The second side is much better, with some exhilarating keyboard playing on Self-Made God the highlight.

The Brigands

45:

1. (Would I Shall Be) Her Big Man/I'm A Patient Man (Epic 1001) 1966

This 45 must have been part of a one-off deal with Epic. The band have been reported as coming from Forest Hills, New York on the sleeve notes to Back From The Grave, but Ohio is also rumoured to have been their home. The 'A' side, a song about a guy working himself into the ground to pay for his girlfriend's expensive habits, can be found on Back From The Grave, Vol. 2 and Sixties Punk Ballad Sampler. It was written and produced by Arthur and Kris Resnick of Third Rail fame and is pretty good, with sharp lyrics and typical garage instrumentation.

Brigg

Personnel:

- RUSTY FOULKE vcls, gtr A
- ROB MORSE acoustic gtr A
- JEFF WILLOUGHBY bs, flute, piano, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. BRIGG (Susquehanna Sound Productions) 1973 R1

NB. (1) has been repressed and also reissued on CD.

This is an album of folk tinged psychedelic rock, from a Northumberland, Pennsylvania band, although some dealers have previously listed them as Canadian. Not a particularly memorable album, but quite pleasant.

Bright Image

45:

1. People In The Town/Julip Sanctuary (Amigo 114) 196?

People In The Town can be heard on Return of The Young Pennsylvanians. It comes with lots of fuzzy guitar and wailing vocals. They were a Philadelphia-based band.

George Brigman

Personnel:

- GEORGE BRIGMAN gtrs, vcls, bs A
- JEFF BARRETT drms A
- RON COLLIER harp, conga A

ALBUM(S):

1. (A) JUNGLE ROT (Solid SR001) 1975
2. 2ND ALBUM (Cassette only) 1977
3. I CAN HEAR DANCING (Or 004) 199?

NB: (3) is a vinyl reissue of the 1982 cassette of the same name.

45:

1. * Blowin' Smoke/Drifting (Solid SR 8417) 1977

NB: * shown as by Split.

Jungle Rot is full of Stooges - like raw electric punk, superb psychedelic guitar, and is very hard to find now. More accessible and in similar vein is Human Scrawl Vagabond (Resonance 33-8602) 1987 - a recent Dutch release. This includes material from his obscure I Can Hear Ants Dancing cassette and the five track Silent Bones EP together with six previously unreleased tracks and is full of fuzztone guitar.

I Can Hear Ants Dancing has also been reissued on vinyl by OR records, and the Silent Bones EP has been reissued on Bonafide.

The Briks

TOP

Personnel:

- RICHARD BORGENS ld gtr A B
- CECIL COTTON vcls A C
- LEE HARDESTY gtr A B C
- MIKE MARONEY bs A B C
- STEVE MARTIN drms A
- PAUL RAY vcls B
- CHRIS VAN DER CULT drms B C
- JAMIE HERNDON ld gtr C

45s:

1. I'm Losing/It's Your Choice (Acetate) (Rhodes Recording No #) 1966
2. Can You See Me?/Foolish Baby (Bismarck 1013) 1966
3. Can You See Me?/Foolish Baby (Dot 16878) 1966
4. NSU/From A Small Room (Bismarck 1020) 1967

Originally known as The Embers when they formed at Texas Tech early in 1965. They relocated to Dallas in the summer of that year and renamed themselves The Briks. Their first 45, which was preceded by an acetate, sold around 5,000 copies and was a hit locally. Foolish Baby was a pounding punk number which can be found on Flashback, 5 and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 13, Texas Part Three. The 45 was leased to Dot for nation-wide distribution but did not become the big hit the band hoped for. Their progress was further interrupted when Cotton, Martin and their manager Reggie Lange were drafted in the summer of 1966 although Cotton later rejoined the band in January 1967 when his original replacement Paul Ray left to join The Cobras. Later in 1967 a live tape was made of the band at The Northwood Country Club and this can be heard on side two of Texas Punk, Vol. 8. They also recorded a second 45, a rather weak cover of The Cream song NSU which flopped. Having failed to achieve success they disintegrated during 1968, but Richard Bergens later turned up on The Truth 45 and Cecil Cotton later moved to San Francisco where he played in The Snakes with Steve Karnavas (ex-Chapparals).

The Briks have been extensively covered in Cicadelic's Texas Punk series. Apart from occupying one side of Vol. 8, they have six tracks on Texas Punk 1966, Vol. 7. In addition to Can You See Me?, Foolish Baby and N.S.U, there are three previously unreleased tracks: the cover version of The Animals' Baby, Let Me Take You Home as performed by the band on the Sump 'N' Else TV Show; Over You, a folk-rock melody and Keep Down with Paul Ray on vocals. Texas Punk, Vol. 6 features It Won't Be Wrong and It's Your Choice - two previously unreleased tracks the last of which had been recorded along with I'm Losing early in 1966 prior to the first 45. Many of the tracks included on the Cicadelic vinyl comp, also appear on the Collectables CD box set Acid Visions Vol. 3

Brimstone

TOP

Personnel:

- GREGG ANDREWS vcls A
- KEN MILLER bs, voice A
- BERNIE NAU keyb'ds, clarinet, voice A
- JIMMY PAPATOUKAKIS A
- CHRISTOHER WINTRIP gtr, voice A

ALBUM:

1. (A) PAPER WINGED DREAMS (Brimstone) 1973

45s:

1. Home Cooking/Visions Of Autumn (Langco 3122/3) 1973

The album is melodic, early seventies progressive rock, with the title track probably the pick of side one. Side two is complex suite in five movements. Each movement, except the last is symbolic of something. The first, an instrumental composition on a childhood fantasy, symbolises the Crown of Creation. The second is symbolic of the Resurrection. It features some nice solo vocals complimented by intermingled harmonies. The third is symbolic of The Conception of Life and culminates in lots of instrumentation and percussion. The fourth is the most melodic part of the suite. Lyrics dominate the music but there's some nice guitar work and counte-pointing vocals. Given what has gone before the epilogue is a little disappointing but overall this is worth investigation. It was recorded in Youngstown, Ohio, although the band came from Cleveland.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / George Gell)

Brimstone

45:

1. Blowin' In The Wind/Trinket (Firebird 1800) 1969

A soulful outfit from Florida. (Max Waller / George Gell)

The Brimstones

45:

1. It's All Over Now But The Crying/What Is This Life? (MGM 13653) 1966

This Dallas, Texas band, had no other recorded output. The 'A' side later resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 17. It's a rather demented R&B influenced fuzz-rocker superimposed with rather emotive vocals.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The British Colonels

Played a lot around the Dallas area of Texas in the mid-sixties but never made it onto vinyl at the time. Texas Punk, 1966: Vol. 9 includes Come Back, a rather inconsequential previously unreleased recording by the band.

The British Walkers

Personnel incl:

ROY BUCHANAN	gtr	A
BOBBY "THE KID" HOWARD	vcls	A B C D E F G H
MIKE KENNEDY	drms	A B
JUNIOR GIL	bs	A B
JIMMY CARTER	gtr	B C D
GARY KINGERY	drms	C
RONNIE WELBORNE	bs	C
JACK BROOKS	bs	D E F G
STEVE LACEY	drms	D E F G
TED SPELEOS	gtr	E F
JOHN HALL	bs, keyb'ds	F
TONY FALSO		G
GEOFFREY RICHARDSON		G
MIKE ZACK	drms	H

45s:

1(A)	I Found You/Diddley Daddy	(Try 502)	1964
2(C)	The Girl Can't Help It/Lonely Lover's Poem	(Charger 108)	1965
3(-)	Watch Yourself/Bad Lightnin'	(Manchester 651120)	1965
4(-)	The Story of My Life/Bad Lightnin'	(Manchester 651121)	1965/6
5(D)	Sh'mon / Sh'mon Pt.2	(Soultime 001)	1966
6(-)	Shake/That Was Yesterday	(Cameo 466)	1967
			106

NB: (3) and (4) recorded by Bobby Howard with Nashville session players. (5) released as by Mr. Dynamite. (6) recorded by Bobby Howard, Larry Kidwell and Chartbusters members.

Originally a Virginian outfit called Bobby Howard and The Hi-Boys (line-up 'A'). Bobby Howard had already established himself on the scene with Link Wray's band, the Wraymen, and continued to record with Wray and as a solo artist.

Bitten by the Invasion bug, they changed to an Anglophile name and style and soon became a big attraction on the Washington, D.C. scene alongside The English Setters, Fallen Angels, Chartbusters and Telstars.

The debut 45 reflects the Liverpool influence - a Beatlesque pop ballad backed by a driving Bo Diddley beat-stomper with harmonica. Watch Yourself, written by Bobby Howard and Link Wray, looks to Bo Diddley again for the shufflin' rhythm with a nod to the Rolling Stones for moody attitude, then adds some way-cool slippery-smooth guitar runs - one of the class cuts on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 16. Bad Lightnin', notable for more great harmonica and raw vocals is on the Signed D.C. compilation. Bob Embrey reveals in his fanzine, "D.C. Monuments", that the Manchester 45s were recorded in Nashville by Bobby Howard with session musicians.

Shake is one of the more accomplished cover versions and can be heard on A Journey To Tyme Vol. 4 - excellent R&B vocals, great rhythm section and an unexpected fuzz solo. The flip is an orchestrated beat ballad. Bob Embrey notes that this 45 was actually recorded in NYC by Bobby Howard with members of The Chartbusters and Larry Kidwell of Lawrence and The Arabians on keyboards.

Bobby Howard left soon after in 1967 and joined The Mad Hatters briefly before forming the Sweet, a blue-eyed soul group who put out a couple of 45s on Smash. He'd team with Link Wray again in the early '70s and release a solo LP as Mordicai Jones.

The British Walkers strolled on through many line-ups but never recorded again and finally folded in 1969.

Amongst a host of local heroes that passed through their ranks the most famous is original guitarist Roy Buchanan, already a seasoned and in-demand player at the time. He would move on through a succession of other bands (Outcasts, Fourmost, Uncalled Four) and famous artists before a solo career that came to prominence in the early '70s with the sublime instrumental Sweet Dreams.

Mike Zack, who replaced Steve Lacey, was from Lawrence and The Arabians and would go on to many other outfits including Wild Honey, Reasons Why, Puzzle, Cherry People and Nils Lofgren's band.

Jimmy Carter moved on to the Telstars and was reunited with Zack in Wild Honey. Steve Lacey also joined the Telstars and would move on to Smalltalk, Puzzle and Tractor.

Hall and Speleos teamed up with Boston emigres Barbara Keith and ex-Remains drummer N.D.Smart to form Kangaroo. John Hall would find greater success in the mid-70s with Orleans.

Thanks to Bob Embrey and his "D.C. Monuments" fanzine (issue #2 is devoted to The British Walkers) for straightening out the personnel details.

For more info on the D.C. scene check out Mark Opsasnick's 'Capitol Rock' (Fort Center Books, 1996).

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Brogues to Bruthers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Brogues
- Bronin Hogman Band
- Terry Brooks and Strange
- Broth
- Brother Fox and The Tar Baby
- Brotherhood
- Brotherhood
- BLC (Brother Love Congregation)
- Brothers
- The Brothers and Sisters
- Brothers Grim
- Bob Brown
- Bobby Brown
- Charlie Brown
- Doug Brown
- Scott Brown and The Tempests
- Brownscombe and Kleiner
- Brownstone
- Bruthers

The Brogues

Personnel:

- RICK CAMPBELL organ, vcls A B
- GREG ELMORE drms A B
- EDDIE RODRIGUES gtr A B
- BILL WHITTINGTON bs A B
- GARY GRUBB (nee DUNCAN) vcls B

EP:

1. (A/B) THE BROGUES (Line/Taxim 3012) 198?
2. (A/B) Someday/But Now I Find/I Ain't No Miracle Worker/Don't Shoot Me Down (Sundazed SEP 114) 1996

NB: (1) and (2) contain both their 45s.

45s:

1. (A) Someday/But Now I Find (Twilight 408) 1965
2. (A) Someday/But Now I Find (Challenge 59311) 1965
3. (B) Don't Shoot Me Down/I Ain't No Miracle Worker (Challenge 54316) 1965

Although The Brogues lifespan extended a mere nine months, and their recorded output was limited to just two 45s, they are remembered some thirty years on as one of the best '60s punk bands - and as a precursor to Quicksilver Messenger Service.

The Brogues formed towards the end of '64, playing their first gig on News Years Eve that year and quickly gathering a following in their home town of Merced, California. It wasn't long before they cut a couple of demo tracks at a studio in Fresno, and the Hush label picked up on the stronger of them, Someday. (The other track, Journey is reputedly a poor instrumental which sounds like a TV theme tune). They were quickly signed up by Hush who prompted them to re-record the track at Coast Recorders, San Francisco for their first 45. Although Someday wasn't typically representative of the bands sound - being more of a folk-rocker, it's still pretty decent and the flip is more akin to their Brit-Invasion influences.

The 45 was a local hit around Bakersfield and Fresno, and they even got to play alongside bands such as the Zombies and plug the 45 on an L.A. TV show. It was also around this time that they recruited (pinched) Gary Grubb from another local group The Ratz, his vocal style fitting The Brogues penchance for "American music with a British accent", i.e. Brit Invasion styled R&B revved up with passion and ferocity.

Someday was licensed by major indie Challenge, and the new label took them to L.A. to record a follow-up - Miracle Worker being selected from a pile of demo acetates and the flip Don't Shoot Me Down being written by the band almost on the spot.

This epic punk 45, should have burned up the charts, but unfortunately The Brogues were in the hands of bigger forces... within a few weeks Eddie and Rick had received draft notices and had no option to quit. With the heart torn out of the band, auditions were held, but it was quickly realised that the magic could not be re-constructed, and they decided to disband.

Greg and Gary decided to stay in San Francisco, forming Quicksilver Messenger Service, whilst Bill went on to Family Tree, together with ex-Ratz member Bob Segarini.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Both sides of both their 45s plus the demo version of Someday on The Hush Records Story; Both sides of their first 45 on Sound of The Sixties: San Francisco Part 2; Both sides of their second 45 on Psychedelic Microdots Vol. 1 and I Turned Into A Helium Balloon; Don't Shoot Me Down on Garage Music For Psych Heads and Pebbles, Vol. 10; and I Ain't No Miracle Worker has resurfaced on Mindrocker, Vol. 1 and Nuggets, Vol. 6.

For a more indepth and eloquent article on The Brogues see Alec Palao's write-up on Hitomi I's Trans-World '60s Punk:Cutie Morning Moon website: http://60spunk.m78.com/.

Bronin Hogman Band

TOP

ALBUM:

1	BRONIN HOGMAN BAND	(Gamut)	1974 R2

From New York, a psych/prog band with guitar/organ battles.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Terry Brooks and Strange

Personnel:

- TERRY BROOKS ld gtr, vcls A B
- BOB GRIFFIN bs A
- JOHN KOTCH keyb'ds, moog B
- DONNIE CAPETTA bs B
- JIM CHAPMAN drms B
- (DON HASTE drms A)
- (DONALD L. HALL strings A)
- (BOB CARA bs B)
- (BRIAN LEARY drms B)

ALBUMS:

1. (A) TRANSLUCENT WORLD (Outer Galaxie TW 1000) 1973
2. (B) RAW POWER (Outer Galaxie OG 1001) 1976
3. (C) TO EARTH WITH LOVE (Star People SPR 0005) 1980
4. (-) HIGH FLYER (Star People) 196?

NB: (1) and (2) reissued as Psycho 34 (1985) and Psycho 2 (1984) respectively. (1) and (2) reissued on CD by Akarma (AK 001 and AK004 respectively). (3) reissued on CD by SPM and by Strange Records (CD001) 1995. Fanatics of this band will also be interested in The Criteria Demo Album (Criteria) R4, of which just 100 numbered promotional copies were pressed in red vinyl, all autographed by Terry Brooks. It's the usual heavy guitar psychedelia.

45s:

1. Jimi/Hey Mr Lonely Man (Outer Galaxie 305322) 197?
2. A Thousand Miles From Nowhere/Annihilation (Outer Galaxie 32157) 197?
3. Color My World/Queen Of The Mountain (Outer Galaxie 11229) 197?
4. Bottom Line/Do You Believe (Star People 0001) 198?
5. Do You Believe/Bottom Line (Star People 0002) 198?
6. DiscoQueen/I Promise You My Love (PS) (Star People 0003) 198?
7. DiscoQueen/What Kind Of Man (PS) (High Frequency 4178) 198?
8. Mr. Strange/Mr. Strange (12") (Florida Rock Inc. 4002) 1981

NB: (1), (2) & (3) As Strange. (4), (5), (6) & (7) As Terry Brooks and Strange. (8) is a German 12" with two different versions of Mr. Strange. It came with a copy of a document where a certain Dr. Chisholm attests that Mr. Brooks may be a bit strange, but not mentally insane.

This heavy Florida-based seventies psychedelic rock outfit is well worthy of investigation. All of the material is written (or in one case co-written), arranged, directed and produced by Terry Brooks, and pretty mindblowing some of it is too.

The stand out track on the first album is Ruler Of The Universe (also on Endless Journey, 3), which is full of psychedelic guitar and sound effects. The Kiss Of A Butterfly is full of fuzz guitar and Lost is more laid back in style.

On Raw Power, Fields And Fields Of People and Love Me are quite strong vocal numbers, Are You My Friend? and To The Far Side Of Time are space rock and the title track, a powerful psychedelic haze. The whole of side two is taken up by the 19 minute long Life Jam, which sounds largely improvised and not wholly successful.

The first albums are only recommended to connoisseurs of space rock and psychedelic freakouts, but the third is really psychedelic hard rock and Bottom Line, Woman and Mister Strange are all strong songs. This album should have a much wider appeal.

Broth

ALBUM:

1. BROTH (Mercury 6338 032) 1970 SC

This heavy progressive album was also released in Germany. It's now a very minor collectable. One of its cuts, I'm A King, was also included on Mercury's 1970 Dimension Of Miracles compilation. (Vernon Joynson / Rick Rozoff)

Brother Fox and The Tar Baby

Personnel:

- RICHIE BARTLETT gtr A
- TOM BELLIVEAU bs A
- DAVE CHRISTIANSEN gtr A
- BILL GARR drms, perc A
- STEVE HIGH vcls, perc A
- JOE SANTANGELO keyb'ds A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BROTHER FOX AND THE TAR BABY (Oracle 703) 1969
2. (A) BROTHER FOX AND THE TAR BABY (Capitol ST-544) 1969

This band don't seem to have put out any 45s. Their album is pretty varied but a couple of tracks, To Your Dreams and Mr. Sleepy, veered towards psychedelia. Bartlett had previously been with The Profets, who didn't make it onto vinyl and The Front Page Review, who recorded an album for Big Mouth in 1967, which was never released. He played in The Fools in 1980. His involvement certainly places them in New England, almost certainly Boston. Both albums are identical, the first being released privately.

Brotherhood

Personnel:

- RON COLLINS organ A
- DRAKE LEVIN gtr A
- MICHAEL SMITH drms A
- PHIL VOLK bs A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) BROTHERHOOD (RCA Victor LSP-4092) 1968
2. (-) BROTHERHOOD BROTHERHOOD (RCA Victor LSP-4228) 1969

45:

1. Box Guitar/Jump Out The Window (RCA Victor 47-9621) 1968

Formed by Levin, Volk and Smith after their exit from Paul Revere and The Raiders, and cultivating a similar pop territory. The first album contains strident pop with some heavier sounds than their predecessors but also adds some unwelcome brass and orchestration. One immediate standout is Doin' The Right Thing (The Way), a dramatic, sitar-influenced power-popper straight out of the Paul Revere and The Raiders school. Otherwise it is fairly undistinguished pop and ballads.

They also recorded as Friendsound. (Max Waller/Clark Faville).

Brotherhood

ALBUM:

1	STAVIA	(Private Pressing)	1972 R1/R2

From Ohio, this Brotherhood (unconnected to the ex-Raiders bunch), played an interesting mix of psych and prog rock with some latin influences, a roaring organ, a strong guitar and an electrified flute. Only 200 copies were pressed.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

BLC (Brother Love Congregation)

Personnel incl:

- LARRY ANDERSON
- B.S. HYPENFINKLE

45s:

1. Bringing Me Down/She's Gonna Love That Boy (Kumquat 1) 1968
2. I Don't Want To Go/What Can You Do When You're Lonely? (Kumquat 3) 1970

A Texas band, originally known as Brother Love Congregation, who issued their first 45 under this name. The 'A' side can be heard on The Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 2, whilst the 'B' side has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2. They followed this with a pretty good psychedelic single I Don't Want To Go which later appeared on Acid Visions, Vol. 2 and Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD set).

Apparently the same group may also have recorded as Jeremiah one 45:- Jeremiah/Forever Never Comes (Kumquat 2) around 1969.

Brothers

TOP

Personnel:

WARREN ZEVON	vcls	A

45:

1	The Girl's Alright/ Love Story	(White Whale 255)	1967

After Lyme and Cybelle, Warren Zevon played with the Brothers and wrote the 'A' side of their single, the flip being a Randy Newman song.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Brothers and Sisters

TOP

45s:

1. I Call Your Name/And I Know (Soft 979) 1966
2. I Call Your Name/And I Know (Tower 262) 1966

A pretty dire garage punk outfit from Texas judging by And I Know which can be found on Flashback, 3 and Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 2. This was a different group from the Texas Valley's Brothers & Sisters who released See What Tomorrow Brings on Pharaoh (153) in 1966.

Brothers Grim

TOP

45:

1. You'll Never Be Mine/Scuzzy (Triple Tigrrr 7) 196?

A folk-rock outfit from Los Angeles. The 'A' side includes loads of screaming girls. Not a bad effort, it can be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 4.

Bob Brown

Personnel:

BOB BROWN	vcls, gtr	A B
JOE CLARK	piano, organ	A B
MARSHALL HAWKINS	bass	A
ROLAND HENDERSON	viola, violin	A
BILL LaVORGNA	drms	A
ORIN SMITH	gtrs	A B
LORNA BEARD	violin	B
RUSTY CLARK	viola	B
EDDY GOMEZ	bs	B
ALETA GREENE	backing vcl	B
RICHIE HAVENS	backing vcl	B
BILL KEITH	pedal steel	B
ERIC OXENDINE	bs	B
ROB WINDSOR	drms	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE WALL I BUILT MYSELF	(Stormy Forest SFS 6007)	1970
2(B)	WILLOUGHBY'S LAMENT	(Stormy Forest SFS 6008)	1971

Produced in New York by Richie Havens on his own label, Bob Brown is a psych/folk singer influenced by Tim Buckley. Both albums are interesting, although very similar in style: dreamy vocals, some melancholic long tracks (Icarus, Light Of Children Come, Seek The Sun), with a competent backing group.

Not to be confused with Bobby Brown, as some dealers do!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bobby Brown

ALBUMS:

1. THE ENLIGHTENING BEAM OF AXONDA (Destiny DR 4002) 1972 SC/R1
2. LIVE (Destiny DR 4001) 1978 SC
3. PRAYERS OF A ONE MAN BAND (Destiny DR 4002) 1982 SC

NB: (1) has been repressed many times! Earliest known pressing says on back cover "For additional copies, send $5.00 to...", the second pressing says a higher price, third pressing higher etc. (2) copies say "Send $6.25" on the back. (3) was his last known album. Copies say "Send $8.50" on the back.

A Sacramento, Californian multi-instrumentalist who uses a wide range of homemade instruments on these three albums. Musically, they could be described as psychedelic folk and at their better moments a mystical atmosphere is achieved. Sadly, however, on some occasions (particularly Mambo Che Chay on (1)) Bobby Brown sounds extremely like Rolf Harris! They were released on his own label and the original pressings have become minor collectors items. Bobby Brown also performed along the West Coast. (Vernon Joynson/Clark Faville)

Charlie Brown

Personnel:

CHARLIE BROWN	vcls	A
BOB FERNBACH	autoharp	A
SHERRY NOYES	accordion	A
HARMONICA SLIM	hrmnca	A
GENE TAMBOR	gtr, vcls	A
MATT UMANOV	gtr	A
PAT WINSTON	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	TETON TEA PARTY	(Broadside BR 305)	1966

Born Charles Edward Artman and son of a Methodist minister in northern Iowa, Charlie Brown was, according to the extensive liner notes of his only album "a mystic, poet, folksinger, baker of bread, builder of tepees and prophet of The New Age Of Consciousness". After moving to California and experimentating with various religions, "often with the help of certain chemical catalysts", Brown adopted an identity with the Indian and chose to live in tepees and organized Indian Ceremonies, which got him arrested for possession of peyote. He also attracted the attention of the local police for building up his tepee on various sites (University of California, military bases etc.).

Housed in a superb sleeve which shows him like a kind of new Messiah (bearded, long-haired, surrounded by fire, shining cross, masks, mountains etc.), the album sadly doesn't live up to expectations. Produced by Anthony Kent and recorded in New York in 1966 with some local folk musicians, it consists of traditional folk, the best track being the long Ballad Of Earl Durand, the story of a man "Born too late a mountain man, he was shot down in the Tetons, by the Law's bloodthirsty band". It may interest fans of the first Holy Modal Rounders albums.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Doug Brown

45:

1	TGIF/The First	(Hide Out 1008)	1966

From Ann Arbor, an obscure single by the former Omens leader and future member of Beach Bums and Bob Seger and The Last Heard.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Scott Brown and The Tempests

ALBUM:

1	TEN SPEED	(Fish Creek)	1975

A rural rock outfit from Oregon.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Brownscombe and Kleiner

ALBUM:

1	FIND A SIMPLE LIFE	(Private Pressing)	1974 R2

From New Jersey, a rare folk duo mixing original material (Red Dog, Great Spirit) and some traditionals. Only 300 copies were pressed.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Brownstone

Personnel:

MICHAEL FRASS	keyb'ds, vcls	A
DAVID P. HOFFMAN	gtr, vcls	A
SAMUEL F. JOHNSON	drms	A
BARBARA LOPEZ	vcls	A
STEVE SELBERG	bs, oboe, vcls	A
DOUGLAS WELBAUM	ld gtr	A
(DAVE DICKERSON		A)
(BOB GISONNO		A)
(TOM JUSTIN		A)
(TOM SCOTT		A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	BROWNSTONE	(Playboy PB 110)	1973

Recorded in Los Angeles and produced by Al Schmitt, Russell Schmitt and Jerry Hudgins, this album should interest Westcoast fans with it's powerful female vocals and good guitar work a la Fear Itself. Al Schmitt, who had previously worked with the Jefferson Airplane and Ivory, managed the Pentagram label, and obviously knew what to do with the fine voice of Barbara Lopez and the fluid guitar of Doug Welbaum. The choice of material was judicious too: Free's Be My Friend, Ike Turner's Too Much Woman, Sweet Lullaby by Randi Jacobs and six originals co-written by the group members and Bob Gisonno.

The liner notes state that the group formed circa 1967 as Fair Befall.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bruthers

Personnel incl:
JOE DELIA A

45:

1	Bad Way To Go/Bad Love	(RCA-Victor 47-8920)	Sept. 1966

From the outskirts of NYC. The 'A' side, a frantic punker, is something of a classic with some great organ. Check it out on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (Vol. 10 on CD) or Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1. The flip has resurfaced on The Garage Zone, Vol. 1.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bryds to The Buckle

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Bryds
- The Brymers
- The Brym-Mars
- Brym Stonz Ltd
- The Bubble Gum Machine
- Bubble Puppy
- The Buccaneers
- The Buccaneers
- The Buckinghams
- Mickey Buckins and The New Breed
- The Buckle

Bryds

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BOB STANLEY ld gtr, vcls

45:

1. Your Lies/Why Did You Have To Break My Heart? (Raynard 10038) 1965

This outfit started out in 1963 as a frat rock combo The Empires which later split into The Bryds, a five piece and The Outspoken Blues. Only 500 copies of the Lake County, Illinois outfit's 45 were pressed. The 'A' side can be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 6, a Kinks-influenced song. It's notable for catchy organ and very abrupt ending.

In 1967 The Bryds split up and Bob joined The Outspoken Blues.

The Brymers

TOP

45:

1. Sacrifice/I Want To Tell You (Diplomacy 30) 196?

An obscure San Jose outfit of whom I know nothing. Sacrifice can be found on Boulders, Vol. 4 and Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 2.

The Brym-Mars

45:

1. Keep On Going / Brighter Than The Stars (eEe REcords RI 2772B) 196?

Out of Raliegh N.C. came The Brym-Mars, who recorded one single for eEe (Embers Entertainment Enterprises), a label put together by The Embers, who were known for their "Shag Beach" music.

Brym Stonz Ltd

Personnel incl:

- CURTIS KIRK
- LESLIE ROBERTS
- DWAYNE SAUNDERS

45:

1. Times Gone By/You'll Be Mine (Custom 143) 1967?

A minor league garage/psych outfit from Tyler, Texas. Max Waller tells me the 'A' side of this uncompiled 45 is a pedestrian ballad psychedelic only by virtue of some deeply serious but (nowadays) hilarious lyrics - "variations of oceans of lavender skies" - crimson thoughts in a green and yellow mist"! The flip is brooding mid tempo garage in a folk- rock vein with a nifty bass line.

The Bubble Gum Machine

ALBUM:

1	BUBBLE GUM MACHINE	(Senate (2)1002)	1967

A little unknown band. Not a bubble gum group, as they play a mix of dreamy pop and pop psyche.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bubble Puppy

Personnel:

- ROY COX bs A
- DAVID FORE drms A
- TODD POTTER gtr A

- ROD PRINCE ld gtr A
- TOMMY SMITH
- CLAYTON PULLEY

ALBUMS:

1. (A) A GATHERING OF PROMISES (International Artists IA 10) 1969 176
2. (A) WHEELS GO ROUND (One Big Guitar OBGLP 9004) 1987 (UK release) -

NB. (1) reissued on Decal (LIK 33) 1988 in the UK, and on CD by Collectables (COL-CD-0558).

45s:

1. Hot Smoke And Sasafras/Lonely (Int. Artists 128) 1969 14
2. If I Had A Reason'/Beginning (Int. Artists 132) 1969 128
3. Days Of Our Time/Thinkin' About Thinkin' (Int. Artists 136) 1969
4. What Do You See?/Hurry Sundown (Int. Artists 138) 1969 -

They started rehearsing in San Antonio in 1967 using a temporary name Willowdale Handcar although prior to this Prince, Cox and Fore had played together in Corpus Christi as The New Seeds. The name Bubble Puppy was chosen whilst they were high on acid at a Hendrix Concert flicking over the pages of Aldous Huxley's 'Brave New World'. With their new name they headed for Austin where they played at the now legendary Vulcan Gas Company but after being signed by International Artists they moved on to Houston. Their first 45 reached No. 14 in the U.S. charts in March 1969 and combined hard rock with fresh vocal harmonies. Their album, which actually reached No. 176 in the U.S. Album Charts, was similar in style and, although their three subsequent 45s never achieved the success of the first, they became International Artist's most successful act after the 13th Floor Elevators.

During a tour with Steppenwolf Nick St. Nicholas convinced them to move to California which they did signing to Steppenwolf's ABC/Dunhill label. Here they changed their name to Demian issuing an album in 1971. Later in 1977 they reformed as Sirius. However, the story was not over. They re-emerged in 1987 with a new album which contained new versions of their old classics as well as fresh material but which frankly showed them to be a shadow of their former selves.

Their original album was reissued again thanks to Decal/Collectables and their compilation The International Artists Singles Collection includes Thinkin' About Thinkin, If I Had A Reason and What Do You See?. Beginning can also be found on the Relics, Vol. 1; Hot Smoke And Sassafras on Best Of '60s Psychedelic Rock (CD); and, Thinkin' About Thinkin, Days Of Your Time and What Do You See ? can be heard on Austin Landing; Vol. 2 of the same series also includes Hurry Sundown.

The Buccaneers

TOP

45:

1. You Got What I Want/Standing In The Shadow Of Your Love (Sevens International SI-1007) 1966

From the Dallas/Fort Worth area of Texas. The 'A' side, a cover of The Sorrow's 1965 U.K. hit, can be heard on Flashback, 5 and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. II.-Texas, Part One. Quite a good version, it has some interesting guitar work near the end and altered lyrics in the chorus. The flip has also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 2.

The Buccaneers

45:

1. You're Never Gonna Love Me Anymore/I'm A Fool (Amigo 104) 1966

A different band who hailed from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The 'A' side, a very credible commercial punk offering with up front vocals, powerful guitars and tambourines, has resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 9. The flip can be heard on Return Of The Young Pennsylvanians. It's a typical garage-punker which is well worth a listen.

The Buckinghams

Personnel:

NICK FORTUNE	bs	A B C
CARL GIAMARESE	ld gtr, vcls	A B C
DENNIS MICCOLIS	organ	A
JON-JON POULOS	drms	A B
DENNIS TUFANO	gtr, vcls	A B C
MARTY GREBB	keyb'ds, horns	B
(JIM GUERCIO	bs	)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	KIND OF A DRAG	(USA 107)	1967 109
2(B)	TIME AND CHANGES	(Columbia CS 9469)	1967 58
3(B)	PORTRAITS	(Columbia CS 9598)	1968 53
4(B)	IN ONE EAR AND GONE TOMORROW	(Columbia CS 9703)	1968 161
5()	MADE IN CHICAGO	(Columbia 33333)	1975 -
6()	ROMPIN' AND STOMPIN'	(Capitol ST 440)	19?? -
7(A/B)	GREATEST HITS	(Columbia CS 9812)	1969 73

NB: (1) reissued on CD by Sundazed with bonus tracks (SC 6126) 199?. (2) and (3) reisued on one CD (Sundazed SC 11073) 199?. (4) reissued on CD (Sundazed SC 11074) 199? with nine bonus tracks.

45s:

1	Sweets For My Sweet/Beginner's Love	(Spectra-Sound 003)	1965
2	I'll Go Crazy/Don't Want To Cry	(USA 844)	1966 112
3	I Call Your Name/Makin' Up And Breakin' Up	(USA 848)	1966 -
4	I've Been Wrong/Love Ain't Enough	(USA 853)	1966

5	Kind Of A Drag/You Make Me Feel So Good	(USA 860)	1966 1
6	Laudy Miss Claudy/I Call Your Name	(USA 869)	1967 41
7	Summertime/Don't Want To Cry	(USA 873)	1967 -
8	Don't You Care/Why Don't You Love Me (PS)	(Columbia 44053)	1967 6
9	Mercy, Mercy, Mercy/You Are Gone (PS)	(Columbia 44182)	1967 5
10	Hey Baby (They're Playing Our Song)/And Our Love (PS)	(Columbia 44254)	1967 12
11	Susan/Foreign Policy (PS)	(Columbia 44378)	1967 11
12	Back In Love Again/You Misunderstand Me (PS)	(Columbia 44533)	1968 57
13	Where Did You Come From?/Song Of The Breeze (PS)	(Columbia 44672)	1968 117
14	This Is How Much I Love You/Can't Find The Words (PS)	(Columbia 44790)	1969
15	It's A Beautiful Day (For Loving)/Difference Of Opinion (PS)	(Columbia 44923)	1969 126
16	I Got A Feelin'/It Took Forever (PS)	(Columbia 45066)	1970 -
Special Juke Box Disc:
17	Interview + 'Kind Of A Drag'	(Play Me Play Back 1013)	1966
18	Veronica/Can We...	(Red Label 71001)	1981

NB: There's also a French EP with PS: Kind Of A Drag/You Make Me Feel So Good/Don't Want To Cry/I'll Go Crazy (Columbia ESRF 1841) 1967.

Originally known as The Pulsations, The Falling Pebbles, The Centuries and later The Buckingham Fountain, this Chicago-based act came together in 1965. Their biggest early exposure was on WGN-TV's "All Time Hits" show in 1965, playing cover hits of the day. Their first 45 release was a cover of the Drifters/Searchers' hit Sweets For My Sweet on Spectra Sound. They were soon signed by the Chicago-based USA Records. Their first three 45s were also substantial local hits but their big 'national' break came when Kind Of A Drag (written by Jim Holvay of local Chicago band The Mob) climbed to the top of the U.S. Singles Charts in February 1967. This resulted in Columbia buying their contract from USA Records and Jim Guercio, who was later involved with The Mothers Of Invention taking over production of their recordings.

They enjoyed two further Top Ten hits with Don't You Care (which was again written by Holvay and fellow Mob member, Gary Beisber) and Mercy Mercy, which took a top twenty instrumental hit by jazz musician Cannonball Adderly earlier that year and added vocals. Their first two albums also sold quite well peaking at No's 109 and 58 respectively in the Album Charts.

Not a psychedelic or garage band as such they did release a 45, Susan, which was an attempted venture into psychedelia and this was their most relevant recording to this book, whilst their first album is quite garagey, and of their early 45 cuts Don't Want To Cry is a great fuzz raver and I've Been Wrong Before is a great British-inspired slice of garage-pop.

Although they fell from favour in 1968, following a drug bust, they struggled on until 1970 and their Greatest Hits compilation, released in the summer of 1969, made No. 73 in the U.S. charts. Incidentally, Martin Grebe, who joined the band in 1968 had earlier played in Chicago act The Exceptions.

Carl Giamarese and Dennis Tufano later signed to A&M Records as a duo (recording under that name) and met with further chart success. They were one of a number of acts managed by Jon-Jon Poulos before his drug-related death on 26th March 1980. Marty Grebb also played with Dick Campbell and became an active sesson musician during the seventies.

The Buckinghams reformed in 1980 and again in 1981 for the annual Chicago festival. In 1985/86 they released two cassettes Sincerely Yours and A Matter Of Time, and for their 30th anniversary in 1996 a live CD/cassette and video Places In Five was released. They have also recently released their first new album of mainly original material Terra Firma, available on CD.

The vinyl junkies out there may want to know that in 1966 they released a juke-box only 45 on red wax. It consisted of a track from their first album and interviews with the band and is now one of the rarest '60s recordings out of Chicago. The compilation Psychotic Reactions also includes their rare I'm A Man cut featured only on the first pressing of their debut LP (and the Sundazed CD reissue). A right roarin' rave-up it is too which is why it was replaced makes you wonder if The Litter had heard this.

You can also find I've Been Wrong on Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD) and I Don't Want To Cry (the flip side to their first 45 on USA Records) on Glimpses, Vol. 1.

For more information on the band - check their website: http://www.aol.thebuckinghams.com

(Vernon Joynson/Cheryl Miller/Byron Stewart/Stuart Shea/Stephane Rebeschini)

Mickey Buckins and The New Breed

TOP

Personnel:

BILL McBRIDE	drms, vcls	A B
MICKEY BUCKINS	vcls, gtr	A B
TOMMY BECK	bs, vcls	A B
ALLEN EASTERLING	keyb'ds	A B
BENNY GOODWIN	gtr	A
DON SRYGLEY Jr.	ld gtr, vcls	B

45s:

1	Seventeen Year Old Girl / Long Long Time	(South Camp 7004)	Jul 1967
2	Reflections Of Charlie Brown / Big Boy Pete	(South Camp 7007)	1967

A snappy quintet from the Muscle Shoals area of Alabama, whose debut is swingin' pop, backed by a moody R'n'B ballad. The follow-up is an excellent cover of UK pop-psych band Rupert's People - a stately ballad with atmospheric keyboards, heavily influenced by Procol Harum's Whiter Shade Of Pale. The flip tackles Harris and Terry's evergreen Big Boy Pete (also covered by The Tidal Waves, Paul Revere, The Pirates...) in frat-party style with some cool fuzz.

The original group minus Benny Goodwin (replaced by Don Srygley,Jr) reunited at the Muscle Shoals Bands Of The '60s Reunion concert in 1992. Their renditions of Mustang Sally and Silly Girl are captured on the CD of that name (Alabama Music Hall Of Fame 1993-01) alongside contributions from Terry Woodford and The Mystics, The Del-Rays, The Weejuns, Mark V with Dan Penn, Hollis Dixon and The Keynotes, Bobby Denton and Travis

Wammack. The CD is available through the Alabama Music Hall Of Fame website at http://www.alamhof.org

(Max Waller)

The Buckle

Personnel incl:

- SAM NEELY gtr, vcls

45:

1. I've Got Something On My Mind/Woman (LP1 1001) 1967

This Corpus Christi pop outfit's 45 is thought to be the first record Neely played on. He went on to achieve minor fame as a singer/songwriter in the '70s. The 'A' side, a pleasant cover of a Left Banke composition, can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 12. Texas, Part Two.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Tim Buckley to The Buffaloes

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Tim Buckley
- The Buddahs
- Buddies
- Buff Organization
- Buffalo Springfield
- The Buffaloes

Tim Buckley

TOP

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1. TIM BUCKLEY (Elektra EKS 74004) 1966 -
2. GOODBYE AND HELLO (Elektra EKS 74028) 1967 171
3. HAPPY SAD (Elektra EKS 74045) 1969 81
4. BLUE AFTERNOON (Straight STS 1060) 1969 192
5. LORGA (Elektra EKS 74074) 1970
6. STARSAILOR (Straight STS 1064) 1970
7. GREETINGS FROM L.A. (Warner Bros. BS 2631) 1972
8. HONEYMAN: RECORDED LIVE 1973 (Edsel EDCD 450) 1995
9. LIVE AT ULTRASONIC STUDIOS (Demon) 1995

NB: (1), (3) and (6) also originally released in France (Elektra CLVLXEK 115, EKS 74045 and Straight C062 9294). (4) reissued in Greece (1985). Most of these albums have now been reissued on CD. There's also a double LP, Dream Letters live in London in 1968. (8) is a CD taken from a radio show broadcast in November 1973, after the release of the poorly-received Sefronia album, but which shows him to be in good form. (9) is a nine track CD recorded Live At Ultrasonic Studios, Long Island, New York on November 27th, 1973.

45s:
(up to 1972)

1. Grief In My Soul/Wings (Elektra 45606) 1966
2. Aren't You The Girl/Strange Street Affair Under Blue (Elektra 45612) 1967
3. Once Upon A Time/Lady Give Me Your Heart (Elektra 45618) 1967
4. Morning Glory/Once I Was (Elektra 45623) 1967
5. Morning Glory/Knight Errant (Elektra EKSN 45018) 1967
6. Once I Was/Phantasmagoria In Two (Elektra EKSN 45023) 1967
7. Wings/I Can't See You (Elektra EKSN 45041) 1968
8. Pleasant Street/Carnival Song (Elektra EKSN 4504) 1968

9. Happy Time/So Lonely (Straight 4799) 1970

Buckley was born in Washington D.C. on the 14th February 1947. He spent much of his early childhood in Amsterdam and New York, before his parents took him to Southern California, aged 10, and eventually settled in Anaheim.

During his mid-teens, he performed in various country bands and played folk music around Los Angeles. However, his musical taste soon grew to take in jazz and rock'n'roll, which were both to be significant for his later work. He also developed an act with poet Larry Becket (who wrote many of the lyrics for future Buckley songs) and bassist, Jim Fielder, who later played with Buffalo Springfield, The Mothers and Blood, Sweat and Tears. During this period, he was introduced to Herb Cohen, who became his manager and arranged a recording deal with Elektra for him. Holzman was apparently bowled over by his latest acquisition.

How far Buckley's music was influenced by the West Coast's acid rock movement is difficult to gauge. Many of his songs sound drug induced and, of course, he sadly died on 29th June 1975 from a heroin/morphine overdose.

His debut album contained all originals, five written by Buckley himself and the remainder-including arguably the best material Song Slowly Song, I Can't See You and Valentine Melody - by Buckley and Becket. The material was folk-based, often with a melancholic tinge that Buckley was to develop further on later recordings. Van Dyke Parks played keyboards on this album too.

The release of Goodbye and Hello coincided with the zenith of the Haight-Ashbury peace and love movement. The title track was supposed to convey the idea of saying goodbye to bad things and hello to good things. Another fine album, aside from the superb title track, it contained an anti-war song Man Can Find The War, beautiful numbers like Carnival Song and Phantasmagora In Two, Hallucinations and Morning Glory, which became one of his best known songs. Jerry Yester is credited as Recording Director on the album and Jac Holzman as Production Supervisor. It peaked at No. 171 in the U.S. Album Charts.

Commercially, Buckley was now at the peak of his career and most of 1968 was spent touring. Happy Sad was released in early 1969. Around the same time he made a brief visit to England playing with The Incredible String Band at The Queen Elizabeth Hall. Happy Sad, which was produced by Jerry Yester and Zal Yanovsky (of Lovin Spoonful fame), was a progression on his earlier recordings. Buzzin' Fly is a classic number.

Strange Feelin' and Love From Room 109 were both beautifully mellow. Unfortunately, much of side two is taken up by Gypsy Woman - a rather tedious song. In commercial terms this was to be his most successful album. It climbed to No. 81 in the U.S. charts.

Blue Afternoon, which Buckley produced himself, was much less commercial, and even more melancholic, than his earlier work but this should not deter readers of this book. In terms of popularity stakes though, his eagerness to explore with different musical forms left his audience behind. Among the best tracks on this are So Lonely, Cafe, a sensitive love song, Blue Melody and The River. It did climb to No. 192 in the U.S. Album Charts.

Lorca was recorded at the same time as Blue Afternoon, and produced by his manager, Herb Cohen. It's a strange, melancholic jazz-influenced album on which the title track and I Had To Talk With My Woman were outstanding.

Starsailor was an even stranger avant-garde album. These five albums are also strongly recommended. However, having lost his audience through his eagerness to experiment Buckley became something of a recluse, spending much time with his family and doing some acting - he appeared in productions of Zoo Story and No Exit.

The work he did after his lay-off was more commercial, less interesting and certainly less relevant to this book, and he was definitely on a downward trend at the time of his death. However, Buckley's talent cannot be denied, nor can his influence and significance for Californian rock in the late sixties. His voice was tremendous, many of his songs were beautiful and his albums sound better with time on account of their depth.

Buckley sadly died of a heroin overdose on 29th June 1975. Although he had earlier experienced both drink and drug problems, he was completely off both at the time of his death. Some sources reposed that Buckley thought he was taking cocaine, not heroin, until it was too late. His lay off from drugs would also have reduced his tolerance. At the time of his death Buckley was in debt - his sole possessions were a guitar and an amplifier!

There are two Buckley bootlegs around - Happy Mad and Live At Starwood, which are reputedly of excellent quality and an insight into what he was like live. He also recorded a live album which was never issued. Among his more accessible recordings are Best 0f Tim Buckley (Rhino RNLP 11 2) and The Late Great Tim Buckley - An Anthology (WEA 250770-1) 1984.

Two recent CD releases have been Dream Letter Live London 1968, a European two CD release which came with a booklet, and The Peel Sessions, a mini CD of live sessions on this BBC Radio Show.

The Buddahs

TOP

45:

1. Lost Innocence/My Dream (Smell-Dee 101) 196?

Apparently this was Bakersfield's only 'punk' band. Their catchy Lost lnnocence can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 2 (CD), Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD) and the Pebbles Box Set compilations.

Buddies

TOP

ALBUM:

1	A GO GO	(Mercury)	1965

A frat rock/garage group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Buff Organisation

TOP

45:

1. Studio "A"/Upside Down World (Original Sound OS-80) 1968

Paul Buff (of Music Machine, Mad Andy's Twist Combo, Friendly Torpedoes and many more projects) is behind the dials again for this effect-laden harmony-pop-psych ditty backed by a fuzz and phase-washed instrumental. I guess he's been listening in on Curt Boettcher.

Buffalo Springfield

Personnel:

RITCHIE FURAY	gtr, vcls	A B C
DEWEY MARTIN	drms	A B C
BRUCE PALMER	bs	A B
STEPHEN STILLS	gtr, vcls, keyb'ds	A B C
NEIL YOUNG	gtr, vcls, hrmnca	A B C
DOUG HASTINGS	gtr, vcls
JIM MESSINA	bs, vcls

ALBUMS:

1(A)	BUFFALO SPRINGFIELD	(Atco 33200)	1967 80
2(A)	BUFFALO SPRINGFIELD AGAIN	(Atco SD 33266)	1967 44
3(C)	LAST TIME AROUND	(Atco SD 33256)	1969 42
4(-)	THE BEST OF/RETROSPECTIVE	(Atco SD 33283)	1969 42
5(-)	EXPECTING TO FLY	(Atlantic 2462012)	1970 (UK only)
6(A)	THE BEGINNING	(Atlantic R1 K 30028)	1973
7(-)	BUFFALO SPRINGFIELD dbl	(Atco SD Z 806)	1973 104

NB. (2) and (4) reissued on CD. (4), (5) and (7) are compilations. (6) is a reissue of (1). (4) was also reissued in 1972 on Atco (SD 38105). There are also two French compilations, A Legend Vol. 1 and Vol. 2, (Atco 40321 and 40322 respectively) 1973.

45s:

1	Nowadays Clancy Can't Even Sing/Go And Say Goodbye	(Atco 6428)	1966 110
2	Everybody's Wrong/Burned	(Atco 6452)	1966
3	For What It's Worth/Do I Have To Come Right Out And Say It	(Atco 6459)	1967 7
4	Bluebird/Mr. Soul	(Atco 6499)	1967 58
5	Rock'n'Roll Woman/A Child's Claim To Fame	(Atco 6519)	1967 44
6	Expecting To Fly/Everydays	(Atco 6545)	1967 98
7	Uno Mundo/Merry Go Round	(Atco 6572)	1968 105

8	Special Care/Kind Women	(Atco 6602)	1968 107
9	On The Way Home/Four Days Gone	(Atco 6615)	1968 82
10	Pretty Girl Why/Questions	(Atlantic 226006)	1969

NB: (10) U.K. only.

NB: There's also a rare French EP: For What It's Worth/Burned/Everybody's Wrong/Pay The Price (Atco 123, 1967). (5) also released in France with a PS (Atco 61).

This now legendary band were formed when Stephen Stills headed to Los Angeles from New York to form a new group. Having failed to form a group with Van Dyke Parks and been rejected for The Monkees because of his crooked teeth he persuaded Ritchie Furay, originally from Dayton, Ohio to join him and he introduced Stephen Stills who he had earlier played with in the Au Go Go Singers. It was in Dayton that by chance they met Young, a Canadian from Ontario, who had backed the Au Go Go Singers, and recruited him to their ranks too. Dewey Martin joined at Young's insistence. He originated from Ontario too and had recorded as Sir Raleigh & The Coupons, been a session drummer in Nashville before prior moving to L.A. where he played for two bluegrass outfits The Dillards and M.F.Q. (Modern Folk Quartet).

Their debut album was stunning, full of original material written by either Stills or Young. When For What Its Worth became a smash hit in 1967 it was withdrawn and re-issued with the hit single replacing Don't Scold Me. Dealing as it did with the riots on Sunset Strip in 1966 For What It's Worth became something of a hippie anthem. The album included quite a few love longs, whilst Out Of My Mind and Burned previewed Young's fine guitar work. It climbed to No. 80 in the Album Charts.

Upheavals within the band led to their second album Stampede being shelved, although it was later available as a bootleg. The follow-up when it came was worth waiting for and contained some of their best work:- Expecting To Fly, Stills' Everydays and the ambitiously orchestrated Broken Arrow. Commercially this fared better than their debut peaking at No. 44 in the U.S. Album Charts.

Their first two albums are recommended but primarily conflict between Stills and Young led to their disintegration in May 1968. Last Time Around was a retrospective and comparatively disappointing release pieced together by Furay and Messina. It had a predominance of soft rock songs including Furay's The Hour Of Not Quite Rain and Kind Woman and the distinctive group harmonies of the first two albums were largely discarded as individual group members performed their compositions how they wished. Along with their Best Of/Retrospective album it was their most successful commercially, both reaching No. 42 in the Album Charts. Ironically this band who, on account of the strength of their material, vocal harmonies and superb guitar work became a legend, met with little major success at the time. Doug Hastings of The Daily Flash filled in for Young when Young quit the band between July and September 1967.

Young and Stills, of course, later enjoyed solo careers and played together in Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young. Messina and Furay both played in Poco and Palmer had a solo career.

Martin formed New Buffalo Springfield (quickly shortened to New Buffalo) before having a solo career with Dewey Martin's Medicine Ball

The Beatles' album The Beatles Were Born (Italian bootleg?) features an unreleased alternate take of Buffalo Springield's Bluebird.

(Vernon Joynson/Nick Warburton/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Buffaloes

45:

1. She Wants Me/You Told Me Lies (GMC 10000) 1966

Thought to be from NYC or New Jersey, She Wants Me has a cool loping garagey beat, whilst the flip is a tender soulful beat ballad. You can also find She Wants Me on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 9.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Bugs to Burnt Suite

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Bugs
- Bulbous Creation
- Sandy Bull
- Bullangus
- Bump
- The Bumps
- Wiburn Burchette
- The Burgundy Runn
- Danny Burk and The Invaders
- Tommy Burk and The Counts
- The Burlington Express
- The Burlington Squires
- The Burning Bush
- Randy Burns
- Burnside
- Burnt Suite

The Bugs

TOP

Personnel incl:

- ROSE bs
- DICK LEVIATHIAN vcls
- ED McGEE gtr

45s:

1. Albert Albert/Strangler In The Night (Astor 001) 1964
2. Pretty Girl/Slide (Astor 002) 1964
3. Preq Girl/Slide (Polaris 0001) 1964 ?

NB: (1) with Albert De Salvo.

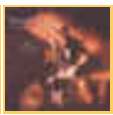
An English invasion influenced outfit from Marlborough, Massachusetts. They were originally know as Albert De Salvo and The Bugs and the first 45 was credited as such. Indeed Strangler In The Night was somewhat notorious as it was about and credited to Albert De Salvo, the Boston Strangler. The song was actually written by ghost writer James Vaughn, who got drafted three weeks after making the single. The narration for Strangler was done by Dick Leviathan, who was a well-known radio personality from New York City. The Sex Pistols of the '60s? Strangler In

The Night actually got a second airing on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6. Pretty Girl was a twee Merseybeat-style piece which adorns Pebbles, Vol. 9 and you'll also find Slide on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 and Scum Of The Earth, Part 2. More recently both 45s have been compiled, along with a previously unreleased cut, Gonna Find Me A Girl, on the CD compilation, The Polaris Story.

The Bugs have reputedly reformed, for some live performances complete with striped Bumblebee suits!

(Max Waller / Joe Foster)

Bulbous Creation



TOP

ALBUM:

1. YOU WON'T REMEMBER DYING (Rockadelic RRLP 13.5) 1994 SC

An extremely rare and previously unreleased 1969/1970 heavy psychedelic album housed in a superb sleeve. It was recorded in the Cavern Sound Studio, Missouri. The opening cut, End Of The Page, has a lovely guitar intro and the other highlight is the lengthy Let's Go To The Sea, which features some great Hendrix' psychedelic guitar work. The remainder of the album comprises harder edged rock cuts, their own interpretation of Stormy Monday and Hooked, which is the best moment on the album vocally. Worth checking out. The band hailed from the Kansas/Missouri area.

Sandy Bull

TOP

Personnel:

SANDY BULL	gtr, oud, banjo, bs, perc, vcls	A B C
BILLY HIGGINS	drms	A
DENNY CHARLES	hand drms	C

ALBUMS:

1(A)	FANTASIAS FOR GUITAR AND BANJOS	(Vanguard VSD-79119)	1963
2(A)	INVENTIONS FOR GUITAR, OUD...	(Vanguard VSD-79191)	1965
3(B)	E PLURIBUS UNUM	(Vanguard VSD-6513)	1968
4(C)	DEMOLITION DERBY	(Vanguard VSD 6578)	1970
5(-)	THE ESSENTIAL SANDY BULL (dble comp)	(Vanguard ?)	1974

A multi-instrumental virtuoso, who as early as 1963, was into Eastern music and instruments. A near prodigy on guitar and banjo, he became a student of jazz as well as Indian and Arabic music. This eclectic mix resulted in Blend, a 22 minute track taking up one side on his first album, Blend II on his second and Electric Blend on his third.

Ornette Coleman's drummer, Billy Higgisn, backed him up on his first two albums and 'Rolling Stone' magazine once described his music as " (a) smack freak's work-outs for acid eaters".

Since Bull played all the instruments on most of his songs, he regularly used overdubbing at a time when studio techniques were largely underdeveloped. Unfortunately a heroin habit interrupted his progress in 1972 and it wasn't until the late '80s that he was able to make a come back.

Fans of Kaleidoscope or Orient Express should especially check his albums.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bullangus

Personnel:

- GENO CHARLES drms, perc A
- LARRY LA FALLE gtr, vcls A
- DINO PAOLILLO gtr, vcls A
- RON PICCOLO organ, piano, vcls A
- FRANKIE PREVITE vcls, perc, recorder A
- LENNY VENDITTI bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BULLANGUS (Mercury SRMI 619) 1971

A hard rock outfit whose album contained some hints of psychedelia. It was recorded in New York.

Bump

Personnel:

ALAN GOLDMAN	gtr	A
JERRY GREENBERG	drms, vcls	A
PAUL LUPIEN	keyb'ds, vcls	A
GEORGE RUNYAN	ld vcls, bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	BUMP	(Pioneer PRSD 2150)	1970

NB: (1) was repressed a few years back and has been pirated on CD. A legitimate CD reissue, on Gear Fab (GF-142)2000, includes the 1st 45 as bonus tracks.

45s:

1	Winston Built The Bridge/Sing Into The Wind	(Pioneer 2147)	1969
2	Got To Get You Back/State Of Affairs	(Pioneer 2148)	1970

From Michigan. Original pressings of the album, which is an organ-based progressive affair somewhere between The Nice and Van der Graaf Generator, are sought-after by collectors. The opening cut, Sing Into The Wind, is one of the most commercial tracks, with a catchy introduction and great keyboards. State Of Affairs is a gentle organ-based pop song. Daydream has dramatic vocals but a weaker song structure. Spider's Eyes has a great organ intro and some fine guitar/organ interplay. The remaining material is less convincing, however, though the ten-minute finale, Lifeline - Decisions - You Can't Even Think, does have its moments.

You'll also find the punkier Winston Built The Bridge on the Colour Dreams and Mind Blowers compilations.

The Bumps

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN CLEAVER sax A B C
- BOB GREER bs A B C
- LARRY RICHSTEIN (aka RUBE TUBIN) ld gtr A
- ROBERT VAN DEN AKKER drms, ld vcls A B C
- GARY R. WALSH keyb'ds A B C
- JOHN KNAPP ld gtr B
- PAT HEWITT ld gtr C

NB: Line-up 'A' 1965-67. Line-up 'B' 1968. Line-up 'C' 1969.

45s:

1. You Don't Love Me Anymore/Can't Say I Told You So (Sin-A-Way 301) 1966
2. Baby Blue/Please Come Down (Piccadilly 238) 1967
3. Hey Girl/Wake Up, Wake Up (Piccadilly 245) 1967
4. It Wasn't Real/Hard Woman (Piccadilly 251) 1967
5. Ode To A Toad/Shining (Walrus 00112) 1969

From Seattle, Washington, The Bumps started out as a Wailers-style R&B dance band, but by 1967 they were playing a wide range of music from punk through to folk-rock through to commercial pop. Led by drummer/vocalist Robert Van Den Akker, they were very popular in the Vancouver, B.C. area and their fourth 45 was produced by Viceroys/Surprise Package organist Mike Rogers.

Two of their best punk style offerings were Please Come Down which can be heard on History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 3 and Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 2, and Hey Girl which has since resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 16. It's a rather ordinary punk-pop effoft, though. (Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero)

Wilburn Burchette

TOP

ALBUMS:

1. OCCULT CONCERT (Amos 7014) 1971
2. WILBURN BURCHETTE OPENS THE SEVEN GATES OF TRANSCENDENTAL CONSCIOUSNESS (Ebos 0001)1972
3. GUITAR GRIMORE (Burchette Bros 001) 1973

4. PSYCHIC MEDITATION MUSIC (Burchette Bros 002) 1974
5. MUSIC OF THE GODHEAD (Burchette Bros 003) 1974
6. TRANSCENDENTAL MUSIC FOR MEDITATION (Burchette Bros 004) 1976
7. MIND STORM (Burchette Bros 007) 1977

NB: Presumably there are more LPs (Burchette Bros 005 and 006).

These albums are now beginning to interest some collectors. Burchette was a guitarist and these are very odd instrumental albums.

The Burgundy Runn

TOP

45:

1. Stop!/How Far Up Is Down (Lavette LA 5013/4) 1966

A sixties punk outfit from New Mexico. Stop! written by Dave Schmuck, is highly-rated and can be heard on The Magic Cube and New Mexico Punk From The Sixties. The Chesterfield Kings covered Stop! on their self-titled 1985 album.

Danny Burk and The Invaders

TOP

Personnel incl:

DANNY BURK	ld vcls, gtr	A
JIMMIE CRAWFORD	ld gtr	A
EDDIE SHERIDAN	drms	A
VAN GRAY	bs	A

45s:

1	Ain't Going Nowhere/Till I'm Sure	(Ara 216)	1965
2	Promise Her Anything, Give Her Me/The World	(Leopard 200)	1966
3	A Bit Of Alright / Won't You Come On Home	(Leopard 201)	1968
4	Every Night About Now/Tomorrow Night	(Leopard 202)	1969

NB: (2), (3) and (4) by Danny Burke.

From Memphis, Tennessee this band were active between 1964-65. Their Ain't Going Nowhere is a superbly venomous snarling punker in the Pretty Things style. Till I'm Sure is a beat ballad.

Danny Burk, who also released the three solo 45s listed above, was the younger brother of Tommy from Tommy Burk and The Counts. Danny now lives and works in Nashville.

Tommy Burk and The Counts

TOP

Personnel incl:

THOMAS BOGGS	drms	A
TOMMY BURK	ld vcls, ld gtr	A
JOHN GREAR	vcls	A
DAN MORELOCK	vcls	A
STEVE O'KEEFE	vcls	A
MIKE STOKER	bs	A
WAYNE THOMPSON	gtr	A

NB: The above is the main personnel as there were few, if any, personnel changes over the years of 1962-1968.

45s:

1	You'll Feel It Too / Counted Out	(Nat 100)	c1962
2	Stormy Weather/True Love's Gone	(Nat 101)	c1963
3	Cute / Ding-A-Ling	(Rich-Rose 1001)	c1963
4	You Took My Heart / George's Theme	(Rich-Rose 1002)	c1964
5	She Told A Lie / You Took My Heart	(Rich-Rose 1003)	c1964
6	Just A Little Bit / (Don't Hafta) Shop Around	(Rich-Rose 711)	c1965
7	You Better Move On/Just A Little Bit	(Atco 6340)	1965
8	Without Me/Maggie's Farm	(Southern Artists 2026)	1965
9	Laughing Inside/Change Your Mind	(B--J 101)	1965/6
10	Rainy Day Lovin'/Smile	(Hip H-1180/1181)	c1967

NB: (2) later released on Smash Records.

This band operated out of the Memphis, Tennessee area. Both Stormy Weather and Just A Little Bit were regional hits in the Memphis/Mid-South area, and also got picked up for national release by major labels. However, when Just A Little Bit was taken up by Atlantic (Atco) they, inexplicably switched it to the 'B' side and opted for a rather flat cover You Better Move On for the 'A' side.

Their first five 45s are doo-wop/group affairs, and Just A Little Bit is probably the first, which 'fits' within the remit of this book. Especially notable is Laughing Inside, an excellent merseyish number with harmony vocals and chiming guitars. The flip is also good, sorta mid-tempo, a more "Yank" sounding tune replete with a 'lesliefied' guitar tone (i.e. the guitar was plugged into a leslie speaker cabinet, commonly used for hammond B-3 organs to achieve a tremoloed sound without reverb).

You can also hear Without Me on A Journey To Time, Vol. 4.

Thomas Boggs later toured with The Box Tops and now owns several restaurants in the Memphis area. Tommy Burk became a college educator. His younger brother Danny also lead Danny Burk and The Invaders.

(Vernon Joynson/Mike Markesich)

The Burlington Express

TOP

45s:

1. Three Time Loser/Shalee (Prod 01) 196?
2. One Day Girl/Memories (Cavern 2207) 1967

NB: They also had 7" and 4 song EP Acetates on Damen.

Topeka in Northwest Kansas was home to this outfit. Their Cavern 45 was produced by Bluethings's guitarist Michael Chapman. You'll find One Day Girl on the cassette compilation Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1. Their live acts were apparently great - full of Yardbirds, Who and Stones covers. Judging by two of the surviving tracks the EP Acetate was a medley of powerul fuzz-filled covers as evidenced by Stroll On and I'll Feel A Whole Lot Better, which have resurfaced on Vol's 2 and 3 of the Monsters Of The Midwest series, respectively.

The Burlington Squires

TOP

Personnel:

DAVID BOLES	ld vcls	A
DENNIS GRAYSON	keyb'ds	A
KERRY SCHOOLFIELD	ld gtr, bs	A
JIM SUTPHIN	ld gtr, bs	A
STEVE TURNER	drms	A

45:

1(A)	World / Back Up	(Tener 1016)	1968

Formed in 1963 when The Tide merged with The Squires, this popular Melbourne, Florida quintet toured the Southeast and made TV appearances in southern Florida. World, a simmering harmonious punker with dual fuzz attacks, is accessible again thanks to Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD).

(Max Waller/Roger Maglio)

The Burning Bush

TOP

45:

1. Keep On Burning/Evil Eye (Mercury 72657) Jan. 1967

A one off venture by this Georgia band for Mercury. Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 2, Sixties Rebellion (Vol. 2 (LP) - Vol. 11 (CD)) and Pebbles (CD), Vol. 2 include the 'B' side which is superb. With its demented vocals and superb psychedelic guitar work this is strongly recommended.

Randy Burns

TOP

ALBUMS:
(up to 1970)

1	OF LOVE AND WAR	(ESP 1039)	1967
2	EVENING OF MAGICIAN	(ESP 1089)	1968
3	SONG FOR AN UNCERTAIN LADY	(ESP 2007)	1970

NB: (1-3) all reissued on CD.

Another example of the ESP group of folk singers. Burns wasn't the best in this style but managed to keeep on recording in the '70s on Mercury and Polydor.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Burnside

45:

1 I Need No Help From You / Taking Her Hand (United Artists 50329) 1968

Late '60s pop by an unknown group. Taking Her Hand is compiled on Every Groovy Day.

(Max Waller)

Burnt Suite

ALBUM:

1. BURNT SUITE (B.J.W. 9) 1968

The album is a minor collectors item from a Canton, Connecticut outfit. It's actually a very varied album. There's some good guitar work on some tracks, a few sound very McCartney-like around the time of Rubber Soul and Revolver and several others are simply throwaway rubbish.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Bush to The By Fives

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Bush
- The Bushmen
- The Busters
- The Butlers
- Paul Butterfield's Blues Band
- Butter Rebellion
- The Buzzards
- Buzzsaw
- The By Fives

The Bush

Don't You Fret 45

Personnel incl:

GREG ECKLER	drms	A

45s:

1	Got Love If You Want It/Feeling Sad And Lonely	(Hiback 102)	1966
2	Don't You Fret/To Die Alone	(Hiback 104)	1966
3	Who Killed The Ice Cream Man/I'm Wanting Her	(Hiback 110)	1966

This garage band operated in San Bernadino, California between 1965 and 1966. Their first 45 was a catchy stab at the R&B standard, Got Love If You Want It, whilst the flip Feeling Sad And Lonely includes some nice mouth harp and some effective echoed vocals and instrumentation in places.

Their second single was produced by Kim Fowley and the 'A' side was a cover of the Kinks.

Greg Eckler went on to play for Light, and eighties surf-instrumental band Jon & The Nightriders.

An act which has been heavily compiled, compilation appearances have included: Got Love If You Want It on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD) and Scum Of The Earth; Feeling Sad And Lonely on 60's Choice, Vol. 2; To Die Alone on Vile Vinyl, 2 and I'm Wanting Her on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 3.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Bushmen

45s:

1. Baby/What I Have I'll Give To You (Dimension 1049) 1965
2. You're The One/Lonely Weekend (Mustang 3002) 1965

Both sides of the Dimension 45 can be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. 8. The 'A' side, by far the better of the two is a straight-ahead rocker with strong punk and British R&B influences. The flip is a Byrds-style folk-rocker with lots of 12-string guitar. The outfit were Californian, probably from L.A..

The Busters

45s:

1 Bust Out/Astronauts (Arlen) 1963

A frat rock/garage group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Butlers

45:

1. Shop Around/It's A Fine Time (Parkway P-148) 1967

A hand-clapping footstomper with blistering fuzz in The Chartbusters' vein. The flip too includes some wicked fuzz breaks and screams but also some pretty insipid male/female vocals - a hybrid at odds with itself. (MW)

Paul Butterfield's Blues Band

Personnel:

JEROME ARNOLD	bs	A B D E
PAUL BUTTERFIELD	hrmnca, gtr, flute, vcls	A B C D E F G
SAM LAY	drms	A
SMOKEY SMOTHERS	ld gtr	A
ELVIN BISHOP	ld gtr	B C D
MIKE BLOOMFIELD	ld gtr	B
BILLY DAVENPORT	drms	B D E F
MARK NAFTALIN	keyb'ds	B C D E
CHARLES DINWIDDIE	flute, mandarin, sax	C (D) G
KEITH JOHNSON	trumpet	C
BUGSY MAUGH	bs	C (D)
DAVE SANBORN	sax(alto)	C
PHIL WILSON	drms	C (D)
BUZZY FEITEN	ld gtr	E F
TED HARRIS	keyb'ds	F G

ROD HICKS	bs	F G
GEORGE DAVIDSON	drms	G
TREVOR LAWRENCE	sax	G
STEVE MADAIO	trumpet	G
RALPH WALSH	ld gtr	G
FRED BECKMEIER	bs
DENNIS WHITTED	drms

NB: Line-up 'D' appear as The Icebag Four along with producer John Court on their In My Own Dream album.

ALBUMS:

1(B)	PAUL BUTTERFIELD BLUES BAND	(Elektra EKS 7294)	1965 123
2(B)	EAST/WEST	(Elektra EKS 7315)	1966 65
3(C)	RESURRECTION OF PIGBOY CRABSHAW	(Elektra EKS 74015)	1968 52
4(D)	IN MY OWN DREAM	(Elektra EKS 74025)	1968 79
5(E)	KEEP ON MOVING	(Elektra EKS 74053)	1969 102
6(F)	LIVE	(Elektra 7E 2001)	1970 72
7(F)	SOMETIMES I FEEL LIKE SMILIN'	(Elektra EKS 75013)	1971 124
8(-)	GOLDEN BUTTER - LIVE DOUBLE	(Elektra 7E2005)	1972 136
9(A)	AN OFFER YOU CAN'T REFUSE	(Red Lightnin' R008) 1972

NB: (2) reissued on CD (Winner 447) 1996. (9) reissued in the UK 1982. There's also a compilation The Paul Butterfield Blues Band (Edsel ED1 50) 1985.

45s:

1	Come On In/I Got A Mind To Give Up Living	(Elektra 45609)	1966
2	Run Out Of Time/One More Heartache	(Elektra 45620)	1967
3	In My Own Dream/?	(Elektra 45643)	1968
4	Where Did My Baby Go/In My Own Dream	(Elektra 45658)	1969
5	Love March/?	(Elektra 45692)	1970

NB: (3) and (5) credited to Paul Butterfield. There's also an extremely rare French EP with PS: I Got My Mojo Working/Shake Your Money Maker/Born In Chicago/Mystery Train (Vogue INT 18063).

Paul Butterfield was born on 17th December 1942 in Chicago where he later formed his racially integrated R&B band in 1964. The original line-up included Jerome Arnold and Sam Lay who had previously comprised the rhythm section of a band fronted by Howlin' Wolf, but shortly afterwards Butterfield's former University of Chicago classmate Elvin Bishop joined and they signed to Elektra. Mike Bloomfield was brought in on slide guitar and Mark Naftalin joined on keyboards during the recording of their first album. One of their early live gigs was at the July 1965 Newport Folk Festival but it did not go down well with the folk purists among the audience. However, they impressed Bob Dylan who invited them to back him later that day in what was his very first non-acoustic set.

The band travelled to New York in January 1966 to record their self-titled debut album which comprised a hard-hitting battery of electric blues numbers. It made No. 123 in the Billboard album charts. In June the same year they contributed five tracks to What's Shakin', an Elektra various artists LP which also featured The Lovin' Spoonful, Eric Clapton, Tom Rush and Al Kooper. East/West followed in December 1966. The title track, which was over 13 minutes long, included many Eastern instrumental influences. The album peaked at No. 65 in the Billboard charts. Mike Bloomfield departed shortly after its release to form Electric Flag.

1967 was a quiet year for the band but Butterfield did cut an EP with John Mayall that was released in the U.K. by Decca. When Butterfield returned with Resurrection Of Pigboy Crabshaw in February 1968 (Pigboy Crabshaw was Bishop's nickname) it was with a fresh rhythm section and a three piece horn section. Climbing to No. 52 in the Billboard charts this was to be Butterfield's most successful album. Although it followed the usual blues format, it had a distinct soul influence. Compositions included Booker T's Born Under A Bad Sign which Albert King had made famous, and One More Heartache, a Smokey Robinson song which had been a hit for Marvin Gaye. However, many of Butterfield's fans and some critics yearned for high-powered, white electric blues and regretted the band's latest soulful direction.

When In My Own Dream emerged later in 1968 it was also slated in some sections of the music press. The line-up was basically the same as for the previous album, although producer John Court joined forces with Buggy Maugh, Charles Dinwiddie and Phil Wilson to provide vocal harmonies as The Icebag Four and Al Kooper guested on organ on a couple of tracks (Drunk Again and Just To Be With You). The album was musically diverse ranging from bar-room blues, to folk blues and electric music, and was criticised as being too fragmented. However, if much of it was uneven, the title track was distinctly innovative with the Icebag Four's backing vocals lending a gospel feel to the song. It reached No. 79 in the U.S. album charts.

Elvin Bishop left in 1968 to form his own band and was replaced by Buzzy Feiton for Keep On Moving, a heavy album with lots of brass, which could only reach No. 102 in the U.S. album charts. The band appeared at the Woodstock festival in 1969 and one of their songs, Love March was included on the original Woodstock album.

Live recorded with a new line-up live at L.A.'s Troubadour club in 1970, and produced by Todd Rundgren, saw some upturn in their fortunes (albeit temporary) reaching No. 72. It contained a selection of material from their three previous albums, Everything's Going To Be Alright (also featured on the Woodstock 2 LP) and three tracks which do not appear on other Butterfield albums:- The Boxer, Number 9 and Get Together Again.

By now Butterfield was tired of touring and he broke up the band in 1971 after a final studio album Sometimes I Feel Like Smilin', which could only manage the 124 spot in the album charts. Golden Butter Live Double, a double retrospective compilation, peaked to No. 136 the following year. 1972 also saw the release of An Offer You Can't Refuse which featured his earliest recordings back in 1963 with Smokey Smothers' band in Chicago, by specialist U.K. blues label Red Lightnin'. They account for one side of the album. The other side features Walter Horton, backed by musicians like Buddy Guy. This album was reissued again in 1982. More recent still is the Edsel 1985 release which is now the most accessible guide to the music of the Butterfield Blues Band. 1995 also saw the release on CD of The Original Lost Elektra Sessions (Rhino RZ 73505), which compiled material from an abandoned 1965 first album, which is largely dominated by powerful blues covers. It contains 19 tracks in all.

Bugsy Maugh later recorded two interesting albums for Dot. Paul Butterfield died in the nineties.

If you're into high powered white electric blues these guys are essential for you, but if you're garage-punkers or into demented psychedelia give them a miss.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

45:

1. I Cannot Turn Around/Aftermath (Maudz 45-002) 1968

Possibly from Florida, we have a pleasant pop ditty with tuneful keyboards and some fuzz buried low - promising. The flip is a melodic mid-tempo ballad about fighting abroad, punctuated by some searing bursts of fuzz. Cool. (MW)

The Buzzards

TOP

45:

1. Burned/Courage (Alberta 12) 1969

Formed by the Sampson brothers from Plymouth, Rhode Island, who were previously active in Act Of Creation. The 'A' side has resurfaced on High All The Time.

Buzzsaw

TOP

Personnel:

- RICK FENTEL bs
- EDDIE WEISS gtr
- GARY WEISS drms

CD:

1. FROM LEMON DROPS TO ACID ROCK! (Collectables COL-CD-0659) 1995

45:

1. I Live In The Springtime/I Can Make You Happy (RCI 47-8000) 1972

From Chicago, Buzzsaw were a short-lived acid rock trio who were formed in 1970. Eddie and Gary Weiss had earlier been in the reknowned The Lemon Drops, and Watermelon, and in fact Buzzsaw are best known for a version of The Lemon Drops' classic I Live In The Springtime. The liner notes to Collectables Chicago Garage Band Greats reveal that this was in fact the same recording as the earlier The Lemon Drops, but in a previously unreleased stereo mix.

Collectables CD anthology From Lemon Drops To Acid Rock! also compiles recordings from 1969 which fans of The Lemon Drops will enjoy.

Compilation coverage has so far included: I Live In The Springtime on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 4 and Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD); Walking Through A Rainbow, I Can Make You Happy, Nowhere To Go and Roll On, Angeline on Chicago Garage Band Greats: The Best of Rembrandt Records; Saturn Is Just A Few Days Away and Death Calls on Green Crystal Ties, Vol. 6.

(Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley)

The By Fives

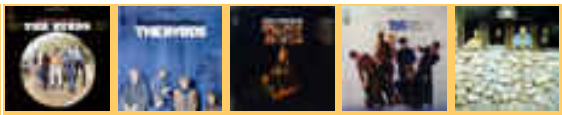
Personnel incl:

- JON WILLIAMS ld vcls

45:

1. I Saw You Walking/That's How Strong My Love Is (Tomi 106) 1966

A very short-lived 1966 garage/punk group formed by Williams in Dallas, Texas. The 'A' side can be heard on Texas Punk: Vol. 6 and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 11: Texas, Part One. It's a very primitive recording. In the summer of 1966 Jon left to form The Word D.



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Byrds to Byron and The Mortals

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Byrds
- Byron and The Mortals

The Byrds

Personnel:

GENE CLARK	vcls, perc	A C
MIKE CLARKE	drms	A B C D
DAVE CROSBY	gtr, vcls	A B
CHRIS HILLMAN	bs, vcls	A B C D E
ROGER MCGUINN	gtr, vcls	A B C D E F G
KEVIN KELLY	drms	E
GRAM PARSONS	gtr, keyb'ds, vcls	E
GENE PARSONS	drms, vcls	F
CLARENCE WHITE	ld gtr	F G
JOHN YORK	bs	F
SKIP BATTIN	bs	G

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1(A)	MR TAMBOURINE MAN	(Columbia CS 9172)	1965 6
2(A)	TURN TURN TURN	(Columbia CS 9254)	1966 17
3(B)	FIFTH DIMENSION	(Columbia CS 9349)	1966 24
4(B)	YOUNGER THAN YESTERDAY	(Columbia CS 9442)	1967 24
5(A/B)	GREATEST HITS	(Columbia CS 5516)	1967 6
6(D)	THE NOTORIOUS BYRD BROTHERS	(Columbia CS 9575)	1968 47
7(E)	SWEETHEART OF THE RODEO	(Columbia CS 9670)	1968 77
8(F)	DR BYRD AND MR HYDE	(Columbia CS 9755)	1969 153
9(-)	PREFLYTE	(Together 1001)	1969 84
10(F)	THE BALLAD OF THE EASY RIDER	(Columbia CS 9942)	1970 36

11(G)	UNTITLED (dbl)	(Columbia G 30127)	1970 40
12(G)	BYRDMANIA	(Columbia KC 30640)	1971 46
13(G)	FARTHER ALONG	(Columbia KC 31050)	1972 152
14(-)	GREATEST HITS VOLUME 2	(Columbia PC 31795)	1972 114

NB. (1)-(14) issued by CBS in the UK. (9) recorded in 1964, later reissued in 1972 (Columbia KC 32183) HCP 183. (4), (6) and (7) reissued as Edsel ED 227, ED262 and ED 234 (1987) respectively. Byrds collectors will also want Never Before (Murrayhill/Re-Flyte MH 70318) 1988, which compiles rare masters and remixes and comes with a booklet of photos, memories and a complete sessions file up to 1967. Most of these albums are now available on CD. Sony reissued (1), (2), (3) and (4) on CD in 1996 with many bonus tracks. (6), (7), (8) and (10) followed in 1997.

45s:

1	Lover Of The Bayou/So You Want To Be A Rock And Roll Star/Goin'Back/Chimes of Freedom	(Scholastic 1602)	196?
2	Mr Tambourine Man/I Knew I'd Want You	(Columbia 43271)	1965 1
2	All I Really Want To Do/Feel A Whole Lot Better	(Columbia 43332)	1965 40
4	Turn Turn Turn/She Don't Care About Time	(Columbia 43424)	1965 1
5	Set You Free This Time/It Won't Be Wrong	(Columbia 43501)	1966 63
6	Eight Miles High/Why	(Columbia 43578)	1966 14
7	Fifth Dimension/Captain Soul	(Columbia 43702)	1966 44
8	Mr Spaceman/What's Happening?	(Columbia 43766)	1966 36
9	So You Wanna Be A Rock'n'Roll Star/Everybody's Been Burned	(Columbia 43987)	1967 29
10	My Back Pages/Renaissance Fair	(Columbia 44054)	1967 30
11	Have You Seen Her Face?/Don't Make Waves	(Columbia 44157)	1967 74
12	Lady Friend/Old John Robertson	(Columbia 44230)	1967 82
13	Goin' Back/Change Is Now	(Columbia 44362)	1967 89
14	You Ain't Going Nowhere/Arfificial Energy	(Columbia 44499)	1968 74
15	Pretty Boy Floyd/I Am A Pilgrim	(Columbia 44643)	1968
16	Bad Night At The Whiskey/Drug Store Truck Drivin' Man	(Columbia 44746)	1968 -
17	Lay Lady Lay/Old Blue	(Columbia 44868)	1969 132
18	Ballad Of Easy Rider/Wasn't Born To Follow	(Columbia 44990)	1969 65
19	Jesus Is Just Airight/It's All Over Now, Baby Blue	(Columbia 45071)	1970 97

20	Chestnut Mare/Just A Season	(Columbia 45259)	1970 121
21	Glory Glory/Citizen Kane	(Columbia 45440)	1971 110
22	America's Great National Pastime/Further Along	(Columbia 45514)	1971
23	Jesus Is Alright/Mr Spaceman	(Columbia 45761)	1972

NB: There are also four French EPs and three singles, all with PS.

The Byrds spearheaded the Los Angeles folk-rock movement. Every member of the band had been involved in music from a fairly early age. Leader, James McGuinn (he changed his name to Roger in 1968) was born in Chicago, where he had backed Bobby Darin and the Limelighters among others. Guitarist, Gene Clark, from Missouri, had supported The New Christy Minstrels for a while and Dave Crosby, the only member who originated from LA, had played in Les Baxters Balladeers, a group of similar ilk. Chris Hillman had been playing folk music around local coffee bars, before becoming attracted to bluegrass music, first with Scoftsville Squirrel Breakers and later with The Hillmen, a group who synthesized folk and bluegrass.

In the summer of 1964, McGuinn, Crosby and Clarke began rehearsing in LA as a trio called The Jet Set. There they met Jim Dickson who had just produced an album for The Hillmen. When it became clear that neither The Jet Set nor The Hillmen were going to make it independently, Dickson persuaded Hillman to join the band, and drummer Mike Clarke, a friend of Crosby's, was added to complete the five man line-up. Their main influences in this period were The Beatles and Dylan and in 1964 Dickson got the group a one-record-and-option deal with Elektra. They changed their name to The Beefeaters and released Please Let Me Love You - a Beatles influenced record which flopped.

Changing their name to The Byrds, they negotiated a deal with Columbia and released Dylan's Mr Tambourine Man as a single. In fact, of the group, only McGuinn played on the record - the remaining instrumentation was provided by Hal Blaine, Leon Russell and Larry Knetchel. The record soared to the top of the U.S. charts and also reached No. 1 in the U.K. It also marked the emergence of folk-rock as a potent musical force. Their follow-up single All I Really Want To Do was beaten to the top of the U.S. charts by Sonny & Cher's cover version. It reached No. 4 in Britain. Their first two albums contained some fine folk-rock compositions, too, with the title track of the second LP Turn! Turn! Turn! returning the group to the top of the U.S. charts and reaching No. 26 in the U.K. Arguably, their music lacked excitement, although its harmonies were close to perfection.

Their next single was a flop, but follow-up, Eight Miles High in the spring of 1966 was arguably one of the earliest psychedelic recordings. It reached No. 5 in the U.K. in May 1966, and was a bigger hit in the US.

Gene Clark quit the group at this stage and The Byrds began to tire of the folk-rock formula which hitherto had been responsible for their success. Their next LP Fifth Dimension experimented with electronics. This was their first album without any Dylan songs and included numbers like the title track and Mr. Spaceman, which inaugurated the group's space rock phase. However, a gap was emerging between the group and their audience. This was evidenced in the failure of Fifth Dimension as a single and explains why the group henceforth struggled to achieve further chart success.

Their next album Younger Than Yesterday developed the experimentation of their previous album. It contained McGuinn's CTA 102, a strange spacey number, Hillman's Have You Seen Her Face?, Thoughts and Words and Time Between and two Crosby classics Renaissance Fair and Everybody's Been Burned. Perhaps the stand-out track, however, was the McGuinn-Hillman composition So You Want To Be A Rock and Roll Star?. Unfortunately, the album failed to achieve the recognition it deserved as it was overshadowed by The Beatles' Sergeant Pepper album, released around the same time.

Despite their change of direction, Crosby was becoming increasingly dissatisfied with the group. So much so around this time he openly gigged with The Buffalo Springfield when they opened The Byrds show. He wanted to record more political songs, and was also upset by The Byrds' refusal to perform one of his compositions, Triad (later recorded by Jefferson Airplane and CSN and Y). He finally left mid-way through the recordings of their pop-orientated songs like Goin' Back and Wasn't Born To Follow. However, both were gems and arguably two of the strongest in the group's repertoire. The latter was featured in the soundtrack to the film Easy Rider, winning the group wider acclaim. They were now beginning to develop a cult following, and attracting attention among the influential San Francisco audiences, who had previously tended to ignore them.

The arrival of Gram Parsons at this stage influenced the group's direction. Originating in Florida, he had run away from his adoptive home to Greenwich Village. Here, at the tender age of 16, he was singing protest songs. Two years later he had formed The International Submarine Band who released two obscure singles in New York before moving to Los Angeles to record what is generally regarded as the earliest country-rock album Safe At Home, now a collectors' item. Although he only played with the group for a short time. Parsons had an enormous influence on The Byrds' music. Their next album, Sweetheart Of The Rodeo, which also featured Kevin Kelley who replaced Mike Clarke, inaugurated their country-rock phase. It was recorded in Nashville, Tennessee. Once again The Byrds had opened an enormous gulf between themselves and their audience, who were still acclimatizing themselves to the musical direction of the band's previous three albums. Retrospectively, however, the album would win acclaim as a notable early country-rock work.

But the group was now disintegrating. Parsons left, refusing to do a tour of South Africa, and then on the band's return, when McGuinn wanted the band to move away from country-rock, Hillman left to join Parsons and form The Flying Burrito Brothers. McGuinn had to form a new band with Gene Pasons (drms), Clarence White (gtr), and John York (bs). Their first album Dr. Byrd and Mr Hyde was weak and still dependent on the country influence. But the follow-up The Ballad Of An Easy Rider was an improvement. At this time they benetifted from the inclusion of some of their songs in the film Easy Rider.

Before the release of double-album Untitled, Skip Battin (previously with Skip and Flip) replaced John York on bass. The band was acquiring a good reputation as a 'live' affraction, and one of the two albums was a 'live' recording. The stand-out song on the album was Chestnut Mare which returned the group to the U.S. singles charts and reached No. 19 in the U.K. Also of note was the bleaker Just A Season.

Sadly, they failed to capitalise on the temporary upturn provided by Untitled. They reached their lowest ebb on the subsequent two albums and McGuinn disbanded the group. One year later he reformed the original Byrds who in 1973, made a disasterous album, The Byrds. It really was the end of the road for the band, althouh McGuinn went on to produce a number of solo albums which still displayed that distinctive Byrds sound.

In terms of compilation appearances Eight Miles High can be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 9 and Psychedelic Dream; Mr Tambourine Man has resurfaced on Nuggets, Vol. 10 and you'll find Renaissance Fair on the Psychedelic Dream compilation too. California Christmas includes live versions of Rennaissance Fair, Lady Friend and Have You Seen Her Face? and California Acid Folk includes six songs from a Swedish radio broadcast on 29th March 1967.

Recent CD releases which may interest collectors include a European release Fly Into Passion, which features a live New York concert in 1970; an Australian CD Full Flyte 1965-70 (Raven), which includes some rare recordings among its 27 cuts; and In The Beginning (Rhino), which consists of 17 cuts from 1964.

Fans of David Crosby will also be interested in a couple of tracks by his first band Les Baxter Balladeers, Willie Jean, has resurfaced on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 5 (CD) and Vol. 6 of the same series includes Come Back Baby.

For more information check the following websites:
http://www.uark.edu/~kadler/rmcguinn/
http://members.aol.com/byrdsonlne/byrdsstuff/byrds.htm

Byron and The Mortals

Personnel incl:
BYRON KEITH DAUGHERTY A

45:

1	Music/Do You Believe Me?	(X-Preshun 1/2)	1966

Recorded on a Lake Elsimore, California label, the above 45 was their sole stab for stardom. The 'A' side was a Herman's Hermits styled pop song, the flip, a good amalgam between '60s punk and R&B.

Byron went on to The Generations who had one single Set Me Free / Please Help Me (Generation Records). This 7" is basically a Face To Face era Kinks rip-off, but Set Me Free is not The Kinks song. He also played with Muscle & Hair and recorded a country album, Byron Keith Daugherty (Fantasy Records) in 1974. A couple of 'Byron Dougherty' compositions - Vahalla and Love Is Blue also appear on Dancing Madly Backwards by Axcraft, an 'reissued' recently on LP and CD.

Compilation coverage has included Do You Believe Me? on Pebbles, Vol. 9 (LP), Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD) and Teenage Shutdown Vol. 4 (CD/LP).

(Max Waller/Brian Phillips/Steve Rosen)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Jimmy C and The Chelsea Five to California Poppy Pickers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Jimmy C and The Chelsea Five
- C.A. Quintet
- C.K. Strong
- Cactus
- Caeser And His Romans
- Cafe Feenjohn
- Jeffrey Cain
- The Cake
- The Calico Wall
- California Bear
- The California Poppy Pickers

Jimmy C and The Chelsea Five

TOP

45:

1. Play With Fire/Leave Me Alone (Zero 1003) 1965

This mob apparently went to high school in Dallas with Kenny And The Kasuals. Leave Me Alone, a folk-punker, is to be found on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 23: Texas, Part Five.

C.A. Quintet

TOP

Personnel:

- DOUG REYNOLDS keyb'ds, vcls A
- KEN ERWIN trumpet A
- TOM POHLING ld gtr A
- JIMMY ERWIN bs A
- RICK PATRON drms A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) TRIP THRU' HELL (Candy Floss 7764) 1969
2. (A) C.A. QUINTET-LIVE (Private Press) 1985

NB. (1) has been subjected to the following 'defective' reissues: as Psycho 12 (1983), a Greek pirate, and CD on Eva. All of these only include one-half of the stereo mix - missing out much of the guitar parts. Fortunately, Sundazed have reissued the album offcially, on CD with 12 bonus tracks (Sundazed SC 11021) 1996, and as a double LP with 14 bonus tracks (Sundazed LP 5037) 1996.

45s:

1. Mickey's Monkey/I Want You To Love Me Girl (Falcon 70) 1967
2. Blow To My Soul/She's Got To Be True (Falcon 71) 1967
3. Smooth As Silk/Dr Of Philosophy (Candy Floss 102) 1968

All three of these 45s and originals of this Minneapolis-based band's debut album are very rare and expensive collectors' items. The album, which was produced by band leader Ken Erwin, commences and concludes with the 12.30 minute long instrumental title track, which at times contains some interesting sound effects. However, the standout track is a piece of classic paranoid acid dementia Cold Spider, which is also included on the Endless Journey, II and Changes compilations. The latter also includes Blow To My Soul. The Live album is very disappointing.

They also had two cuts Mickey's Money and Blow To My Soul on the Money Music (August 100) 1967 compilation of Minneapolis bands, which had a very limited pressing and has also become very rare.

Although the album has been subject to many 'reissues', these were without the bands approval, and only included one-half of the stereo mix. The Sundazed reissue, corrects matters, and includes a number of alternate takes and previously unreleased cuts, together with sleevenotes including an interview with Ken Erwin, and studio engineer Steve Longman.

C.K. Strong

TOP

Personnel incl:

LYNN CAREY	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	C.K. STRONG	(Epic ?)	1969 SC

A loud and bluesy rock group with the screaming vocals of Lynn Carey and loads of guitar. Lynn Carey would later work with Neil Merryweather in Ivar Avenue Reunion and in Mama Lion.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Cactus

TOP

Personnel:

CARMINE APPICE	drms	A B C
TIM BOGERT	bs	A B C
RUSTY DAY	vcls	A B
JIM McCARTY	gtr	A B
DUANE HITCHINGS	keyb'ds	B C
PETER FRENCH	ld vcls	C
WERNER FRITZSCHINGS	gtr	C

ALBUM:

1(A)	CACTUS	(Atco SD33-340)	1970

2(A)	ONE WAY OR ANOTHER	(Atco SD33-356)	1971
3(B)	RESTRICTIONS	(Atco SD33-377)	1971
4(C)	'OT 'N' SWEATY	(Atco SD 7011)	1972

NB: (1) to (4) were also issued in the U.K. by Atlantic. (2) also issued in France (Atco 40307).

45s:
(partial list)

1	Long Tall Sally/ Song For Aries	(Atco)	1970

NB: (1) also released with a picture sleeve in France (Atco 103202L).

When Vanilla Fudge split, Appice and Bogert formed Cactus with Jim McCarty, the former Mitch Ryder guitarist, and Rusty Day, a singer and harmonica player. Their albums were well received by hard rock fans and may interest some readers in search of loud and heavy rock. For the third album, a keyboard player was added to the line-up and in 1972 McCarty and Day left. They were replaced by Werner Fritzschings and Peter French for the final album, recorded partly live at the Mar Y Sol Festival in Purto Rico. Their records were produced by Geoffrey Haslam, who also worked with the J.Geils Band.

Appice and Bogert then joined Jeff Beck and the group disbanded. Hitchings formed the imaginarily named New Cactus Band with two ex Blues Image members, Mike Pinera and Manuel Bertematti, and recorded Son Of Cactus (Atlantic) 1973. After it flopped, Hitchings and Pinera formed Thee Image and released two better avoided albums for Manticore in 1975.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Caeser and his Romans

TOP

45:

1. Green Grass Makes It Better/Why Make A Fool Of Me (GJM REC's Inc. GJM 505) 1966

Note the spelling of Caeser, since there were several similarly named outfits about. This particular combo came from Buffalo, New York, and were later known as Big Wheelie and The Hubcaps (output unknown). Both sides are decent garage-beat with cool keyboards. Green Grass has a frat/party atmosphere whereas Why is a more interesting beat-punker. (MW).

Cafe Feenjohn

TOP

ALBUM:

1	CAFE FEENJOHN	(Fran)	1965 SC

An oud-led quartet recorded live in a club. It may interest fans of John Berberian or Sandy Bull. There's at least another album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jeffrey Cain

Personnel:

BANANA	pedal steel	A
JOE BAUER	drms	A
JEFFREY CAIN	gtr, vcls	A B
JESSE COLIN YOUNG	vcls, bs	A B
SCOT LAWRENCE	keyb'ds	A
EDDIE OTTENSTEIN	ld gtr	A B
RICK TURNER	bs	A
EARTHQUAKE ANDERSON	hrmnca	B
TOM BISCHOFF	drms	B
DOUG TRUMBLEY	bs	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	FOR YOU	(Raccoon 2/Warner WS 1880)	1970
2(B)	WHISPERING THUNDER	(Raccoon 12/Warner BS 2618)	1972

45s:

1	Tomorrow/Lonely Boy	(Altera 001)	1966 -

NB: (1) as by Jeff Cain And The Youngbloods.

Jeffrey Cain was a close friend of The Youngbloods, providing songs for their albums and also for Jerry Corbitt debut. Not surprisingly Cain's two albums were released on The Youngbloods Raccoon label. The first, For You, with its Rick Griffin lettering, is in fact an extra Youngbloods LP, as the whole group are featured backing Cain. Rick Turner (ex-Autosalvage) produced this fine example of West Coast psyche folk which also contains some spoken poems.

His second album, which was produced by Jesse Colin Young, is equally interesting but more electric. Eddy Ottenstein shows his skills on several fast numbers like Whispering Thunder, Bless My Soul or When I'm Thirsty.

Both albums are recommended but are getting hard to find.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Cake

ALBUM:

1	THE CAKE	(Decca DL 74927)	1967

An all girl '60s rock group with some psych influences.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Calico Wall

45s:

1. Flight Reaction/I'm A Living Sickness (Dove Acetate no number) 196?
2. Flight Reaction/Beep (Tuttle 1107) 1967

Hailing from the suburbs of Minneapolis, they produced a single entitled Flight Reaction which attempted to recreate the thoughts of someone sifting in an airplane before takeoff and, fearing that the plane will crash, experiencing an attack of paranoia. An acid punk classic, it is now available to all on several compilations:- Changes; Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 2; Pebbles, Vol. 3 and Pebbles Box Set.

Equally brilliant was I'm A Living Sickness: fuzz laden, with great sound effects and tonsil tearing vocals, it was later covered by Green Telescope and The Fuzztones. This has since resurfaced on Get Primitive (The Best Of Pebbles); Psychedelic Unknowns (The EP) and Psychedelic Unknowns (the LP) and The Acid Dreams Testament (CD). They also had a track Flight Reaction on Money Music, a rare 1967 compilation of Minneapolis bands, and Flight Reaction and I'm A Living Sickness both appeared together on a reissue 45, which is already becoming rare and sought-after. Their original recordings are red-hot and now practically impossible to find - however be warned that Beep is just that - a continuos tone... check out an excerpt on the Everything You Always Wanted To Know... CD.

California Bear

45s:

1. Hand My Head/Virgin Dreams (M&H MH-101) 1969
2. In My Dreams/Eulogy (M&H MH-1543/8047) 1969

From Riverside, California, featuring one Bruce Terry. Late sixties soft rock with the odd psychy touch. Only the atmospheric echoey Eulogy with its short but excellent guitar solo can be recommended here. (MW).

The California Poppy Pickers

Personnel:

DON LARSON	vcls, bs	A
MIKE MESSER	vcls, gtr	A
TOM SLIPP	drms	A
RANDY WILCOX	vcls, gtr	A

ALBUM:

1()	SOUNDS OF '69	(Alshire S-5152)	1969
2()	HAIR / AQUARIUS	(Alshire S-5153)	1969
3()	TODAY'S CHART BUSTERS	(Alshire S-5163)	1969

4(A) HONKY TONK WOMEN (Alshire S-5167) 1969

This outfit was basically a studio project for Al Sherman's Alshire label, with Gary Paxton providing the musical side of the venture.

Al Sherman was the label boss of Alshire International label, which followed a simple philosophy, if you see a successful mucial trend follow it. It didn't matter if it was rock, muzak or country as long as it sounded like the real thing without any copyright infringements. Studio groups were assembled to produce copycat albums with group projects like the Zero-Zero-Seven Band (after the John Barry Seven), The Village Men (after the folk group, the Village Stompers), Fats and the Chessmen (Fats Domino), Rusty Dean {Top #10 country hits}, Los Norte Americanos (The Tijuana Brass), The California Poppy-Pickers (The Mamas and Papas meets country-rock), The Sons of the Purple Sage (The Sons of the Pioneers), The Bakersfield Five (Buck Owens Buckaroos) and so on.

The other main force behind the record deal was Gary Paxton, who had a 1960 hit with The Monster Mash as the Hollywood Argyles' and worked the Hollywood music scene as an engineer, producer, session musician, writer and music publisher with his Garpax and Maverick Music companies. He was heavily involved in the surf and Hot-Rod crazes, joining other L.A. session players as 'members' of various groups. Paxton had previously worked with Skip Battin in the Pledges {1956-1957}, Gary and Clyde {1957}, formed his own group {1957-1958} and produced the duo Skip & Flip, most notably for their 1959 million hit version of Gary's It Was I.

When Gary started his own Hollywood studio in 1965 his early session players included Gib Guilbeau, Gene Parsons, Clarence White, Carl Walden (steel gtr, vcls, gtr) Jerry Scheff (bs), Bruce Oakes (gtr, vcls), Vern Gosdin and Rex Gosdin.

In 1967, Gary relocated his studio one hundred miles away to Bakersfield and built a session crew that comprised Gib Guilbeau (vcls, gtr, fiddle}, Gene Parsons (vcls, drms, hrmnca), Clarence White (dobro, ld gtr), Ben Benay (gtr, vcls), Vern Gosdin (gtr, vcls), Rex Gosdin (gtr, bs, vcls), Wayne Moore (bs, vcls), Leo Leblanc (steel gtr), Ken Johnson (vcls, bs, drms, gtr) and Dennis Payne (vcls, gtr, bs).

During the 1965-1968 period, most of the session crew had their own singles leased by Gary Paxton to various labels, the most sucessful to emerge was the Gosdin Brothers, Rex and Vern. Their work on Gene Clark's 1967 solo debut for Columbia had gone largely unoticed, but their own 1967 single Hangin' On on Paxton's Bakersfield International label provided them with a country top No. 10 hit and their record deal was bought out by Capitol Records.

Paxton's studio suffered further desertion in 1967 with Clarence White, Gib Gulibeau, Wayne Moore and Gene Parsons leaving to form the group Nashville West to work a club in El Monte CA. This ground breaking country-rock group lasted until mid-1968 when White and Parsons joined The Byrds. In fact, the core of his studio crowd were mainly country musicians and played in various club bands and even did session work for other labels.

Paxton himself recorded for his own and other labels, including Capitol Records. One of his Bakersfield International productions was Eternity's Children's second album Timeless for Tower Records, a subsiduary label of Capitol.

In 1969 Paxton started leasing his studio masters to Al Sherman, that year alone the masters of the last few years were compiled into various albums for the Alshire label. Alshire International releases by The Bakersfield Five, Rusty Dean {in reality Gary Paxton and Gib Guilbeau supplied the vocals}, and The Modern Country Friends, were basically various songs that were cut in Gary's studio. Some were previously issued as singles, then reissued on the albums. Even Gib Guilbeau's first official Alshire release the Cajun Country 1969 album, was taken from 1965-1966 sessions.

The California Poppy Pickers were really Paxton's last solid project with Alshire. The studio group simply featured Ken 'Kenny' Johnson and Dennis Payne, with Bakersfield pedal steel player Leo LeBlanc added when needed. Ken Johnson appeared as the main singer and backing vocalist, he also played guitar, bass and drums. Kenny had been in the Bakersfield group The Avengers in the mid-60s and wrote almost everything that came out of the Paxton Bakersfield studio, especially in the later period. Also appearing on the albums with Ken Johnson was Dennis Payne, who was another of the labels country orientated performers, having co-written songs and played bass for Bakersfield singer Red Simpson's first two Capitol Records albums in 1966. He also played in the Buckshots and recorded Paxton produced singles for various labels during the sixties. His first single in the mid-60s was actually issued on Al Sherman's A S label. For the California Poppy Pickers sessions, Johnson and Payne each recieved a flat fee of $200 for each LP.

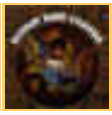
Apparently there was a falling out between Paxton and Sherman, for the Californian Poppy Pickers LP Honky Tonk Women, a different studio, producer and session crew were used. The Californian Poppy Pickers were Don Larson vocals and bass Mike Messer vocals, guitar, Tom Slipp on drums and Randy Wilcox on vocals. It was recorded at Wilshire Sound Studios, Hollywood in 1969, and co-produced by Phil Volk and Drake Levin (ex-Paul Revere & The Raiders). It was a one off deal and they were in reality a group called the Wilson McKinley. They used the proceeds from this recording to fund the release of an original EP in 1970 on Rockin' Chair Records.

Gary continued to lease material to other labels, the Guitar Country (1969-1970) album by Bakersfield's Big Guitars on the Bakersfield based Jaisco label may have been credited to a 'talented new country group from L.A.', but consisted of older material with Clarence White and Dennis Payne.

Most of Paxton's informal session crew went on to work in the country music industry and still do to this day. Dennis Payne continued to write and perform, he signed to the Bakersfield based Mosrite Records just as the company folded in 1969, he had yet to record for the label. In 1976 moved to Nashville, where he worked with Gary Paxton and Vern Gosdin among many others as a producer and sideman. He now runs his own studio. In 1970 Paxton was declared bankrupt and his operations were closed down, by this stage his Bakersfield holdings included a record store, a marina, rental properties, his own home and a string of publishing companies and small label deals. With his Bakersfield empire shattered, he moved to Nashville and built a career as a songwriter, continuing with recording and music publishing in the country gospel field.

(Jason Odd/Clark Faville/Max Waller with thanks to Dennis Payne and Don Larson)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Bobby Callender to Cannabis

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Bobby Callender
- The Calliope
- Calliope
- Calliope
- Cambridge
- Cambridge
- Dick Campbell
- Canadian Legends
- The Canadian Rogues
- Candymen
- Canebreak (aka Canebreak Singers)
- Cannabis

Bobby Callender

TOP

ALBUMS:

1	RAINBOW	(MGM SE-4557)	1968
2	THE WAY (FIRST BOOK OF EXPERIENCE)	(Mirtha)	1971
3	LE MUSEE DE L'IMPRESSIONNISME	(Philips)	c1972 R1

NB: (1) came with lyric sheets. (1) also reissued on CD with two extra tracks by Big Beat (CDWIKD 179) 1998 (1) reissued as a dble LP (Akarma AK 128/2) 2000. (2) reissued on CD (Akarma AK 129) and as a dble LP (Akarma AK 129/2) 2000. (3) as Robert Callender, it could have been released only in Netherlands.

45s:

1	Little Star/Love And Kisses	(Roulette 4471)	1963 95
2	You've Really Got A Hold On Me/I Can't Get Over You	(Coral 62517)	1967
3	Sweet Song Of Life/Vicissitude(Or A Day At Jaffry's)	(Coral 62528)	1967
4	Rainbow/Symphonic Pictures	(MGM 13965)	Sept. 1968

The first album consists of music to be seriously stoned to. Young negro-turned-mystic Bobby is joined by an orchestra and a host of other musicians including Funatics Hugh McCracken for a trip to the local souk-serious opium-den hippie scribblings, here. Sitars and tablas abound in this artifact of an era. Find a parsley cushion, adopt lotus position and contemplate your inner self (or navel fluff!). Produced by Alan Lorber whose other 'in' projects included Ultimate Spinach.

The second album is a double more conceptual piece. The third is a homage to the 19th century painters and was recorded with a full orchestra, sometimes heading into progressive territory, with good electric guitar work, flutes and organ. Still with Lorber, Robert Callender also co-produced the aural documentary album by The Groupies.

Before Callender embarked on a recording career, he was a radio producer for Murray the K at New York station WINS.

(Max Waller/Lloyd Peasley/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Calliope

Personnel incl:

- JAMES BENTLEY

45s:

1. Streets of Boston/Awaiting (The Truth) (Audio Seven MG 152/4) 196?
2. Kaleidoscope Calliope/Everybody's High (Audio Seven MG 151/3) 196?

Hailing from the affluent suburb of Short Hills, one of New Jersey's more prosperous New York suburbs, their finest moment was Streets Of Boston which can be heard on Attack Of The Jersey Teens. It's rather demented with a haunting spoken intro, military drums and rather menacing guitar. The second 45 was an unsuccesstul attempt at a flowery psychedelic pop song which one reviewer commented sounded 'like the legendary Stardust Cowboy on drums!' The warped dynamo behind this group was James Bentley, who wrote all four songs.

Calliope

Personnel inc:

- PAUL GOLDSMITH gtr A B
- DANNY O'KEEFE bs, vcls A
- CLYDE HEATON organ A
- JOHN SIMPSON drms A B
- LUTHER RABB bs B
- SCOTT STRONG keyb'ds B

ALBUM:

1. (A) STEAMED (Buddah BDS-5023) 1968
2. () CALLIOPE (Cotillion) 1970

45:

1. Rainmaker's Daughter/Hello Hello (Buddah 83) 1969

From Seattle, the driving force behind this short-lived outfit was singer/songwriter Danny O'Keefe, who later had one or two Top 20 hits (including Magdalena). They made a bit of a splash locally, but like a lot of Seattle bands, they seemed much better live than on record. It seems that bands from Seattle during that period did not get very good support from their record companies... obviously things have changed since then! Calliope's first album is now a very minor collectable, and the second may have remained unissued. The Steamed album includes cover versions of Hello Hello (Lee Michaels), California Dreamin' (with a very good psychedelic guitar solo), Hound Dog, Jimmy Bell (a traditional number), Like A Rolling Stone (Dylan), Nadine (Chuck Berry) and four originals - two by Goldsmith and two by O'Keefe.

John Simpson, who was tragically killed in a plane crash in 1973, had previously played with Scott Strong in The Bumps and may also be the guy who played drums in Christopher. Prior to joining Calliope, Scott Strong also acted as their road manager. Paul Goldsmith had earlier been in Emergency Exit, Clyde Heaton in The Dimensions and Luther Rabb later played with Ballinjack. (Chris Boardman/Darryl F. Riffero/Vernon Joynson)

Calliope

Personnel incl:

- J. ANDRON

45:

1. Ryan 5/I'll Take It Back (Epic 10372) 1968
2. Friends Of Mrs Fisher / We've Made It (Shamley 44013) 1969
3. Clear Mud / Wiser (Shamley 44020) 1969

NB: (3) also released in the U.K. (Uni UN 514) 1969.

This Calliope produced at least three excellent mellow folkie-rock 45s. The first, Ryan 5, sounds exactly like West (who also recorded on Epic), whilst the flip I'll Take It Back is mellow but uptempo San Francisco psychedelic sounds.

Both sides of their second effort which were written by A.J.Andron and produced by Brian Ross, maintain the standard. We've Made It features male/female vocals, good organ, two flute solos and a short but brilliant guitar, whilst Friends Of Mrs Fisher has male vocals with female backing, an unusual rhythm (a little like The Beatles' Octopus Garden) and interesting lyrics about a man "who wants to escape from the life he's leading today".

Their final 45, Clear Mud, is another track of particularly high quality with strong rhythm and layered flute, Hammond and good harmonies.

You can check out Ryan 5 on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8, but it's about time some of their other 45s re-materialised too!

(Vernon Joynson / Steve Panter / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Cambridge

Garage punkers from Rochester, Michigan who have two cuts:- I'm Coming Back and Lonely Lisa on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 2. Lonely Lisa, a punk ballad, sounds the stronger of the two.

(Max Waller / Robert J. Maledon)

Cambridge

Personnel:

- LONNY BOWERSOX vcls, gtr A
- CHARLES FISCHER keyb'ds A
- CHAS GUNTHER vcls, gtr A
- TOM STINE drms A
- DAN VOGAN vcls, gtr, banjo, steel gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) SHARE A SONG (Green Dolphin 6024 N3B) 197? R2/3

A local Philadelphia or Ohio band, excellent country rock private press in a Byrds/Flying Burrito Brothers style. (Clark Faville)

Dick Campbell

Personnel:

MIKE BLOOMFIELD	12 string gtr	A
PAUL BUTTERFIELD	harp	A
DICK CAMPBELL	vcls, gtr	A
PETE CETERA	bs	A
MARTY GREBB	keyb'ds, tambourine	A
BILLY HERMAN	drms	A
MARK NAFTALIN	organ	A
SAM LAY	drms	A
ARTIE SULLIVAN	tambourine, vcls	A
JIMMY VINCENT	gtr	A
LARRY WRICE	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	SINGS WHERE IT'S AT	(Mercury MG 21060)	1966

NB: (1) a mono pressing, SR 61060, also exists.

Produced by Lou Reizner, a Chicago singer/songwriter heavily influenced by Bob Dylan and backed by the Butterfield Blues Band plus various local musicians (including a young Pete Cetera, later with Chicago). The album is rare and sought-after but is in fact better avoided, the songs being weak and Campbell's voice too close of Dylan's.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Canadian Rogues

Personnel:

RONNIE HAREL	vcls	A
WILLIE METTS	ld vcls	A
DANE STREETS	gtr	A

45s:

1	Have You Found Somebody New / You Better Stop	(Fuller 2597)	Jul 1965
2	Oop-Poop-A-Doop/Keep In Touch	(Charay 19/P-5017)	1966
3	Oop-Poop-A-Doop/Keep In Touch	(Palmer 5017)	1967
4	Run And Hide/Love And Dreams (PIC INSERT)	(Paris Tower PT-112)	1967
5	Do You Love Me?/Mickey's Monkey	(Rogue 1967)	Dec 1967

From Lakeland in Central Florida. Their best known song is Keep In Touch, a Pretty Things inspired number with a Diddley shuffle, by virtue of its inclusion on Back From The Grave Vol. 2 and Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD). First released on the Fort Worth-based Charay label in 1966, it was picked up in 1967 by the Detroit-based Palmer label.

Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 8 features You Better Stop, the flip from their debut which charted locally on WLCY radio in August 1965. Their final effort from December 1967 consisted of two Motown covers.

Thirty-three years later Harel and Streets still play together in The Rogues with Carl Chambers (ex-Ron and The Starfires).

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich/Roger Maglio)

Canadian Legends

Not a Canadian based outfit. Initially from around Milwaukee,Wisconsin they relocated to the warmer climes of Miami Florida and recorded as The Legends, Legend and Canadian Legends. (Max Waller)

Candymen

Personnel:

- DEAN DAUGHTRY keyb'ds A
- BILLY GILMORE bs A
- RODNEY JUSTO vcls A
- BOB NIX drms A
- JOHN RAINEY ADKINS gtr A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) THE CANDYMEN (ABC ABCS 616) 1967 195
2. (A) BRING YOUR CANDY POWER (ABC ABCS 633) 1968

45s:

1. Georgia Pines/Movies In My Mind (ABC 10995) 1967 81
2. Deep In The Night/Stone Blues Man (ABC 11023) 1967 -
3. Sentimental Lady/Ways (ABC 11048) 1967
4. Candyman/Crowded Room (ABC 11077) 1968
5. It's Gonna Get Good In A Minute/Go And Tell The People (ABC 11141) 1969
6. I'll Never Forget/Lonley Eyes (ABC 11175) 1969
7. Happy Tonight/Papers (Liberty 56172) 1970

NB: (1) also released in the UK (HMV POP 1612) 1967.

Originally the Webs, out of Dothan, Alabama. Two 45s were released with original vocalist Bobby Goldsboro before his departure to schmaltzy pop stardom. His replacement was Rodney Justo from Florida's Rodney & The Mystics. A psychedelic pop outfit they acted as Roy Orbison's back-up band. They did achieve a minor hit with Georgia Pines and their second album also crept into the Album Charts climbing to No 195. Daughtry, Nix and Justo were all later involved in the Georgia-based Atlanta Rhythm Section.

They specialized in live reproduction of complex Beatles and Beach Boys material, like A Day In The Life or Good Vibrations, and that gave them quite a following when they first appeared in New York in the summer of 1967. Unfortunately for them, their original material and records were not up to their live shows.

Rodney Justo also recorded a 45 with Noah's Ark.

There was another different act, Joe Dee & The Candymen who had at least one album The Twist (Diplomat FM/S/100) 1962.

(Vernon Joynson / Prairie Dog / Stephane Rebeschini/Jim McMaster/Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich)

Canebreak (aka Canebreak Singers)

TOP

Personnel incl:

- MIKE CRESPO
- HENRY SHERBURNE

45:

1. Another Day / I Don't Really Like You (Montel-Michelle 969) 1966

From Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Originally a folk group, but went electric when Henry (of The Playgue) sat in. 1968 saw one further 45 on Columbia as by Love-Michael. Crespo's I Don't Really Like You is an excellent folk-rocker covered in 1967 by fellow Louisianans the Distortions. (Andrew Brown - Brown Paper Sack #1, Max Waller)

Cannabis

Personnel:

LONNY GASPERINI	keyb'ds	A
BRIAN KELLY	gtr	A
BOB RANDELL	drms, vcls, acoustic gtr	A
TONY RODRIGIJEZ	ld gtr	A
KEITH TWEEDLY	vcls	A
GARY WILKINSON	bs, vcls, acoustic gtr	A

ALBUM:

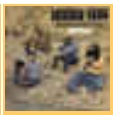
1(A) JOINT EFFORT (Amphion Seahorse AS 8100) 1972

NB: (1) reissued officially on CD by Gear Fab (GF-114).

The above album consisted of early seventies open air hippie festival rock from Lincoln, Rhode Island. Recorded at Methuen, Massachusetts the band is now far flung with original members in California (Brian Kelly), Florida (Bob Randall) and Puerto Rico (Tony Rodriguez). The remainder still live in Rhode Island.

The band had a decidely country rock feel and the pricipal song writers (Randall and Wilkinson) were influneced by artists as diverse as "The Band" and "Yes".

(Max Waller)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Jimmy C and The Chelsea Five to Captain Beefheart

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Canned Heat
- Cannibal and The Headhunters
- Canoise
- The Cannons
- Canterbury Fair
- Canticle
- Capes of Good Hope
- Caps
- Captain Beefheart

Canned Heat

Personnel:

STUART BROTMAN	bs	A
FRANK COOK	drms	A B C
BOB "THE BEAR" HITE	vcls	A B C D E F G H
HENRY "SUNFLOWER" VESTINE		A B C F G
AL "THE OWL" WILSON	vcls, gtr, hrmnca	A B C D
MARK ANDES	bs	B
LARRY "THE MOLE" TAYLOR	bs	C D E
ADOLFO "FITO" DE LA PARRA	drms	D E F G H
HARVEY MANDEL	gtr	E G
ANTONIO "TONY" DE LA BARREDA	bs	F G
JOEL SCOTT-HILL	gtr	G
ED BEYER	keyb'ds	H
RICHARD HITE	bs	H
JAMES SHANE	gtr, vcls	H
(JOHN LEE HOOKER	gtr, vcls	F)
(MAC REBENNACK	keyb'ds)
(LITTLE RICHARD	vcls	G)
(ELLIOT INGBER	gtr on 6)
(MARK NAFTALIN	keyb'ds on 6)
(ERNEST LANE	keyb'ds on 6)

ALBUMS:
(up to 1975)

1(C)	CANNED HEAT	(Liberty LRP-3526)	1967
2(D)	BOOGIE WITH CANNED HEAT	(Liberty LRP-3541)	1968
3(C)	VINTAGE	(Janus JLS 3009)	1967
4(C)	LIVE AT THE TOPANGA CORAL	(Wand 693)	1968
5(D)	LIVIN' THE BLUES	(Liberty LST-27200)	1968
6(D)	HALLELUJAH	(Liberty LST-7618)	1969
7(C/D)	CANNED HEAT COOKBOOK (comp)	(Liberty LST-11000)	1969
8(F)	FUTURE BLUES	(Liberty LST-11002)	1970
9(E)	'70 CONCERT, LIVE IN EUROPE	(Liberty LST-7641	1970
10(F)	HOOKER'N'HEAT	(Liberty LST-35002)	1971
11(-)	CANNED HEAT COLLAGE (comp)	(Sunset SUS-5298)	1971
12(G)	HISTORICAL FIGURES AND ANCIENT HEADS	(United Artists UAS-5557)	1971
13(H)	THE NEW AGE	(United Artists UA-LA049F)	1973
14(-)	THE VERY BEST OF (comp)	(United Artists UA-LA431-E)	1975

NB: (1) later issued on (LST-7526). (2) later issued on (LST-7541). (9) later issued on (United Artists UAS-5509).

45s:
(up to 1973)

1	Rollin' and Tumblin'/Bullfrog Blues	(Liberty 55979)	1967
2	Evil Woman/World In A Jug	(Liberty 56005)	1967
3	On The Road Again/Boogie Music	(Liberty 56038)	1968
4	On The Road Again/Amphetamine Annie	(Liberty 56073)	1968
5	Going Up The Country/One Kind Favor	(Liberty 56077)	1968
6	The Chipmunk Song/Christmas Blues	(Liberty 56079)	1968
7	Time Was/Low Down	(Liberty 56097)	1969
8	Poor Moon/Sic'Em Pigs	(Liberty 56127)	1969
9	Get Off My Back/Change My Ways	(Liberty 56140)	1969
10	Let's Work Together/I'm Her Man	(Liberty 56151)	1969
11	Sugar Bee/Shake It And Break It	(Liberty 56170)	1970
12	Future Blues/Goin'Up The Country (live)	(Liberty 56180)	1970
13	Goin'Up The Country/On The Road Again	(Liberty All Time Hits 54572)	1970
14	Woolly Bully/My Time Ain't Long	(Liberty 56217)	1971
15	Whiskey and Wimmen/Let's Make It	(United Artists 50779)	1971
16	Long Way From L.A/Hill's Stomp	(United Artists 50831)	1971
17	Rockin With The King/I Don't Care What You Tell Me	(United Artists 50892)	1972
18	Cherokee Dance/Sneakin' Around	(United Artists 50927)	1972
19	Rock & Roll Music/Lookin' For My Rainbow	(United Artists UA-XW197-W)	1973
20	Harley Davidson Blues/You Can Run, But You Sure Can't Hide	(United Artists UA-XW243-W)	1973

NB: (4) & (11) not issued.

The formation of Canned Heat evolved in 1964 from Al Wilson, John Fahey and Mike Perlowin's ideas about starting an independant record company to reissue old blues records. Al "Blind Owl" Wilson (b. 1943 in Boston), was a music major at Boston University, who wrote articles on bluesmen like Robert Pete Williams and Sun House, had a high pitched voice with a unique vocal technique and played harmonica and guitar. In 1964 with the help of the blues historian Dick Waterman, Wilson had managed to track down Son House and revive his interest in playing blues, as he hadn't picked up a guitar in twenty years. Strangely enough on the same day in 1964, John Fahey and guitarist Bill Barth (later with Insect Trust) rediscovered elder bluesman Skip James in Mississippi and also brought him out of retirement. Barth and Fahey with another guitarist, Henry Vestine, promoted Skip's appearence at the 1964 Newport Folk Festival.

Mike Perlowin was another folk blues guitarist having moved to L.A. from New York in 1961. He studied guitar at the Ash Grove's school of folk music, where one of his teachers was Clarence White, then with the Kentucky Colonels. Mike also played in a bluegrass outfit the Four Farfels with future Stone Poney Herb Steiner.

While Fahey, Wilson and Perlowin discussed their record label plans, Fahey remembered Bob "the Bear" Hite (b. Feb 1945, California} a record store manager and blues '78 collector, who owned a rare copy of the Library of Congress recording of Muddy Waters and it was decided to bring Bob into the group's plans.

Mike Perlowin remembers: "Bob was working at a record store at the time that was actually very close to where I was living. I called him, and he agreed to meet with the three of us. We realized that we could all play, so we decided to form a band instead. As soon as we said we wanted to play electric, John Fahey lost interest, so in the begining it was Bob and Al and me. We spent three days in Bob's house (he was living with his parents at the time, as was I) listening to records and making plans. We had a rehearsal in which Bob brought in a drummer named Keith Sawyer and I dragged in bassist Stu Brotman. Unfortunately for me, I was more of a folk style player (Fahey was my biggest influence at the time) and couldn't play rock very well, so I was fired and replaced by Kenny Edwards (pre Stone Poneys), who was also fired and replaced by Henry Vestine, a former member of the Beaus".

The band was then thinking of calling themselves either "The Heavies" {due Bob's large size) or "The Black and Blues" but they finally chose "Canned Heat".

Mike Perlowin remembers: "Mike Bass who was sharing a place with Al and myself was talking to Steve Mann, another LA folk blues guitarist who thought the band should all dress up as cops and call themselves The Heat. Bass came up with the name Canned Heat, after an old 1928 record, Canned Heat Blues, by a guy named Tommy Johnson which was about drinking sterno to get high".

As 1964 moved into 1965, the nucleus remained Bob Hite and Al Wilson. By this stage Al had played harp on the Sun House's 1965 LP The Father Of Folk Blues and had appeared on some John Fahey recordings (who gave him the Blind Owl nickname). He also guested on some sessions with Fred Neil.

The group was fairly informal and had basically dissolved, with Henry 'Sunflower" Vestine having left to join the Mothers of Invention briefly in 1965 before being sacked by Zappa.

In 1965 they reformed with Stuart Brotman (bass) and new drummer Frank Cook, who had actually backed artists ranging from Chet Baker to Dobie Gray. This version also failed to take off and the group disbanded again in early 1966, the public being not interested by their traditional blues repertoire. Later that year, Wilson, Hite, Vestine and Cook rejoined with Mark Andes on bass (Brotman joined Kaleidoscope in 1967), and performed with a predominant boogie sound mixed into their electric blues. They performed their first show at the Ash Grove in Los Angeles and soon became the resident band of the Kaleidoscope, another L.A. club.

In early '67 due to the efforts of their manager, Skip Taylor, they were signed to Liberty Records. In March 1967 Mark Andes left to join Spirit and was replaced by Larry "The Mole" Taylor (born 1942, NYC} who was an accomplished bass player in demand in the L.A. studios (notably with The Monkees). His brother Mel Taylor was in The Ventures.

In April '67, they started cutting demos at RCA studios in Chicago but these songs, notably a totally different version of On The Road Again, remained unheard until 1994. In May they re-cut some material for their self-titled first album, issued in July but preceeded by the Rollin And Tumblin single in June. Produced by Cal Carter, the LP featured blues covers of material like Guitar Slim's The Story Of My Life, Dust My Broom, Sonny Boy Williamson's Help Me. Willie Dixon's Evil Is Going On and a few originals like Bullfrog Blues.

In June 17, 1967, they played the Monterey Pop Festival (three tracks from their performance later appeared on the 1992 4-CD Monterey Pop Festival set). As with many other acts that performed at the event, it brought them a national audience and their debut LP rose to #76 in the charts. They then began touring but got busted in Denver for drug possession. To make bail, they received an advance from Liberty Records in exchange for their publishing rights!

Not long after, Mexican born Adolfo "Tito" De La Parra (b. 1948, Mexico City) replaced Frank Cook on drums, after Cook had left to form Pacific, Gas & Electric. Tito had played in bands since 1958, in Mexico (Los Sparks, Los Hooligans, Los Juniors, Javier Batiz And The Finks) and with Los Sinners entered illegally in California in 1965 where they became Los Tequilas (sic) and recorded two albums for RCA. In late 1965 they were caught by the police and sent back to Tijuana. De La Parra, who was married to an American woman, returned to California and joined Larry Barnes And the Creations, a club band from Torrance, and then Sotweed Factor and Bluesberry Jam (which evolved into Pacific Gas and Electric).

In late 1967 Canned Heat recorded a lot of material for their new album, but these versions of The Hunter, Whiskey And Women, Shake Rattle And Roll, Mean Old World, Fannie Mae, Gotta Boogie (The World Boogie) remained unissued until the 1994, EMI compilation CD Uncanned.

In January 1968 Boogie With Canned Heat was released. A Texas radio station picked up on one track, On The Road Again, and public interest led to its release as a single. It became a hit in the U.S and in Europe.

Produced by Dallas Smith, the album also featured classics as Amphetamine Annie (based on the death by overdose of one of Hite's friends) and Evil Woman (penned by Larry Weiss, who also wrote Hi Ho Silver Lining and Bend Me, Shape Me). The blues pianist Sunnyland Slim played on some tracks, but generally the LP gets stuck in the boogie mode, especially with the eleven minutes of Fried Hockey Boogie.

Soon after that, Al Wilson, Vestine and Taylor appeared on Sunnyland Slim's album Slim's Got His Thing Going On. They toured Europe that year and won a faithful audience in several countries, notably in Germany.

October 1968 saw the release of Living The Blues 1968, a two LP set which had the hit single Goin' Up The Country. The group was then totally immersed on drugs and was playing very long "psychedelic boogie" tracks, with extended impros. Two examples can be found on this album: Parthenogenesis (almost twenty minutes) and the live forty-one minute Refried Boogie which took up a whole LP and is rather self-indulgent. John Fahey, Dr John and John Mayall guested on the album.

In July 1969 thair next LP, Hallelujah, featured guests such as Mike Pacheco, Javier Batiz (the mexican friend of De La Parra), Skip Diamond, Elliot Ingber (from Fraternity Of Man), Ernest Lane and Mark Naftalin. Most of them were just adding vocals to the proceedings. The LP was a fairly tight set with several highlights: Same All Over, Time Was, Sic'em Pigs but produced no major hits.

In July, largely due to his drug abuse, Vestine left and formed Sun, that went nowhere. His replacement was the Chicago blues guitarist Harvey Mandel. In August 1969, Canned Heat appeared at the Woodstock Festival. (They were subsequently in the film and on the two albums).

With their chart success and sudden lack of new material, a compilation LP soon followed, The Canned Heat Cookbook, in October 1969. They also appeared on the Together Records compilation Early L.A (1969, 2 tracks) and Vintage Heat 1969. Hite and Vestine also spent time compiling albums for Imperial Records 'Legendary Masters' series. The group was so popular that Liberty appointed the making of "The Kanned Korn Komix", a 20 page comix book a la Robert Crumb, dedicated to the crazy adventures of the Bear, the Owl, the Snake and the Raccoon.

In '69, when blues singer Wilbert Harrison reworked his Let's Stick Together as Let's Work Together (an early 1970's U.S hit), Canned Heat cut their version, which was issued in January 1970 in the U.K and became a hit. They concentrated on touring the U.K. and Europe and also played the Isle Of Wight Festival in 1970. Canned Heat '70 Concert: Recorded Live In Europe was released in Europe in June 1970 and some months later in the USA with the usual mix of blues covers (That's All Right Mama, Bring It On Home, Let's Work Together) and original material (Pulling Hair Blues, London Blues, Goodbye For Now). In August 1970, their new album was titled Future Blues, with three songs already used on their live album. It's the final Canned Heat studio album to feature Alan Wilson. Future Blues was also one of their most focused efforts and the group themselves handled the production with Skip Taylor. From Alan Wilson's sadly all too fitting My Time Ain't Long to an heavy blues version of Arthur Crudup's That's All Right, Mama, the LP has an experimental edge that went far beyond their usual lengthy solos. Dr. John appears on two tracks: London Blues and Skat, a late-1940's-style jump blues novelty.

In May 1970 Larry Taylor and Harvey Mandel left the group to join John Mayall. Henry Vestine rejoined with Antonio 'Tony' De La Barreda on bass, a friend of De La Parra. That month they cut a double album with John Lee Hooker.

The label Wand then released a live album, Live At Topanga Corral. It features six long and energetic tracks recorded in 1966 and 1967, with one original, Bullfrog Blues, and five covers (I'd Rather Be The Devil, Dust My Broom, Wish You Would). It was in fact recorded at the Kaleidoscope but the group changed the name of the location as they were already signed to Liberty when the recordings occured. Al Wilson died September 3rd 1970 from an overdose and was replaced by Joel Scott Hill from the Strangers, Jerome (formed with De La Barreda) and L.A. Getaway.

Early '72 saw the release of Historical Figures And Ancient Heads LP, a rather patchy album. The group was obviously looking for a new direction after the death of Wilson and the tracks (which featured three different lead guitarists, Vestine and Scott Hill being complemented by a returning Mandel on one track) range from rock tracks (Hill's Stomp, Rockin With The King, with Little Richard) to boogie (Utah, Cherokee Dance) or more melacholic tracks (I Don't Care What You Tell Me, by and with Charles Lloyd). The cover art was quite scary, the group being depicted as old people looked after by nurses on the front sleeve and reduced to naturalized heads surrounded by dead flowers, shells, butterflies and material used for heroin injection on the gatefold. In June 1972, De La Barreda quit, with Larry Taylor re-joining for a short spell. Joel Scott Hill also left the group and later joined the Flying Burrito Brothers.

In 1973 Canned Heat had evolved into the line-up of Henry Vestine, Fito de la Parra, Bob Hite and his brother Richard Hite (bs, tuba, gtr) replacing Larry Taylor and other new members James Shane (gtr, bs, vcs, sax) and Ed Beyer (keyb'ds, ex-Smoke). This version produced the New Age LP in March 1973. From here onwards the group floundered with multiple line-up changes and recordings on small labels that fall outside the scope of this book.

"The Bear" died in 1981 from a heart attack. The surviving members, mainly led by drummer Fito de la Parra, continued touring and recording, although heavily relying on live albums. After recruiting new vocalist Walter Trout, they followed with James Thornbury, {who fronted the band from 1985 to 1995} then Robert Lucas assumed lead vocals.

They recorded as The Canned Heat Blues Band in 1996 for A&M, which was Vestine's last recording with the group, as he died in Paris in December 1997.A further release in 1999 Boogie 2000 was issued on the Ruf label.

(Jason Odd /Stephane Rebeschini)

Cannibal and The Headhunters

ALBUMS:

1. LAND OF 1,000 DANCES (Rampart R(M)(S)-3302) 1966
2. LAND OF 1,000 DANCES (Date TE(M)(S)-3001) 1966

NB: (2) is a reissue of (1), also reissued on CD.

45s:

1. Land Of 1,000 Dances/I'll Show You How To Love Me (Rampart 642) 1965
2. Nau Ninny Nau/Here Comes Love (Rampart 644) 1965
3. Follow The Music/I Need Your Loving (Rampart 646) 1965
4. Out Of Sight/Please Baby Please (Rampart 654) c1966

East L.A. frat-rockers. Their most famous track Land Of 1,000 Dances features on the 1969 double LP collection East Side Revue (Rampart 3303), on a 1995 EP on Dionysus/Bacchus and a CD comp The East Side Sound. This latter comp also contains Nau Ninny Nau. (Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Canoise

Personnel:

- BOB COATES gtrs, vcls A B D
- PAT CURTO drms, vcls A B C D
- DOUG SWANSON gtr, bs, vcls A B C
- NEAL DUNNING bs, vcls A C D
- GRANT GULLICKSON tamb, vcls B
- LARRY SUESS gtr, kyb'ds, vcls B C D
- GARY GILBERTSON kyb'ds C
- ROB STYER gtr C

NB: Line-up 'A' 1965-1966; 'B' 1967-1968; 'C' 1970-1974; 'D' 1981-now. The above formed the main line-ups who recorded - other musicians involved at various times included: DAN BURNICE, MARC WROE, WILLIE POUNDS drms (1968), DAVE BERGET, MIKE FLAHERTY bs (1968), PAULA ELSNER, LANCE GULLIKSON vcls (1970s Hawaii chapter), BOB MILES drms (1973-1974).

CDs:

1. NOW... AND THEN (private) 1993
2. THE TRUE STORY (private) c1995
3. PLUGGED IN (private) c1996

45s:

1. (A) Born In Chicago / Something I Could Do (IGL 120) 1966
2. (B) There's Something About You Baby / Oh No Not My Baby (Sonic 141) 1967
3. (B) You're No Good / Right Track (Sonic 153) 1968
4. (C) One Too Many Things / Look Inside (Trim 1973) 1971

Canoise (pronounced CANOY) was formed in St.Cloud, Minnesota in the fall of 1965 by four freshmen at St.Cloud College. All had previously served time with other outfits: Pat Curto in the Men From Uncle; Bob Coates in the Nightmen; Neal Dunning and Doug Swanson in the Trolls. Their first 45 was released on IGL in summer 1966 before they expanded to a five-piece with vocalist Grant Gullickson. Shortly after that Neal was drafted and Larry Suess, from the Mort Plank IV, was brought in, necessitating Doug switching from twelve-string to bass. Two more 45s were released on IGLs Sonic label before a period of rapid personnel turnover resulted in the departure of all the original members by late 1968, the last being Bob and Grant who joined Zarathustra.

In 1970 four of the original got together again with new member Gary Gilbertson to reform Canoise. Just one 45 was waxed by this line-up which was based in Hawaii for over two years before returning to tour the geographical and climatic extremes of mainland USA (from Alaska to Phoenix!). This second chapter ended in 1974. Pat went onto Tanglefoot and Maiden America, Neal joined Danny Stevens and F Troop, Larry went solo and got a degree in psychology, Grant went solo and cut two LPs (Ivory, Bobbidazzler), Bob completed medical school, and Doug moved to Connecticut.

The third and latest chapter stared in 1981 with Bob, Pat, Larry and Neal reuniting as an annual event, but latterly playing all over Minnesota and marking their 25th anniversary with a guest appearance by Doug.

Recently Bob Coates has co-ordinated the release of the three private CDs which cover their entire history - Now... And Then concentrates on live recordings by the current line-up - eighteen tracks performed in June 1993 (predominantly covers of '60s pop, ballad, soul, R&B and rock evergreens). It also features Something I Could Do (first 45, 1966), two unreleased tracks (from 1967 and 1968) and Look Inside (from the 1971 45); The True Story CD is a studio recording odyssey - the four 45s, two 1966 radio spots, nine unreleased tracks from the 1966-1968 period, four tracks from the current line-up (two from 1982 and two from 1995) plus a 1977 track featuring Grant and Lance Gullickson with Larry Suess and Bobbidazzler; Plugged In is all new recordings featuring contributions by seasoned Twin Cities musicians, including Larry Wiegand of Crow fame. All are available direct from Bob Coates at 6013 Porter Lane, Edina, MN 55436, USA.

As for the original 45s..... The first couples a good cover of Nick Gravenites' Born In Chicago, with solid rhythm and accomplished guitar work, and a charming harmonious midpace beat-ballad written by Doug Swanson (echoes of the Beatles and Everlys). Both are compiled on Arf Arf's The IGL Rock Story Part One (1965-67) CD. The second covers Goffin-King and Holland-Dozier-Holland in soul-pop mode with smooth harmonies and deep-throated lead. The third contains two more covers in a pop ballad vein but again the lead vocals try to take on a Elvis/cabaret style - it doesn't really come off, despite some fuzzed guitar on Right Track. Of the unreleased studio tracks from this period Paul Butterfield's Come On In stands out - above-par R&B-infused pop with waspish fuzz and better, i.e. less affected, vocals. The fourth Hawaii-period 45 covers Dylan in a good-timey folkie-rock style with sweet male-female harmonies, a piano solo and countrified guitar licks. The flip, an original, is overtly country-rock.

This band may not appeal to garage fuzz'n'farfisa purists but is definitely for those who enjoy the accomplished Midwest pop-rock sounds of the likes of Dee Jay and The Runaways, The Rumbles and The Coachmen.

(Max Waller, with thanks to Bob Coates).

The Cannons

45s:

1. Days Go By/Love, Little Girl (Night Owl 1312) 196?
2. Lonesome/Sweet Georgia Brown (Fan Jr. 5504) 196?

From Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The first 45 is a pleasant folk-rocker, which has been likened to The Beau Brummels, Days Go By can be heard on Highs In The Mid- Sixties, Vol. 15: Wisconsin, Part 2.

Canterbury Fair

Personnel:

CHERYL CHURCHMAN	vcls	A
JAMES HOLLEY	drms, vcls	A
PHILIP HOLLINGSWORTH	bs, keyb'ds, vcls	A B C D E
JOHN HOLLINGSWORTH	keyb'ds,vcls	B C D E
JOE LO FRESO	keyb'ds	B C
SEAN CORSARO	drms	C D
DAVID HOLLINGSWORTH	drms, bs	E

ALBUM:

1 CANTERBURY FAIR (Sundazed SC 11064) 1999

45:

1 Song On A May Morning / Days I Love (Koala 8081) 1967

The Hollingsworth brothers first played together in 1965 with James Holley (who also did time with The Bushmen) in Fresno band The Coachmen. In 1966 the addition of Steve Bryant (guitar and vocals) precipitated a name change to Everyday Things, though Bryant soon left. In 1967 the brothers joined Kings Verses in time for their trip to Los Angeles to seek success and fortune - when this didn't work out Philip returned to Fresno and formed Canterbury Fair with Holley again plus vocalist Cheryl Churchman.

John had remained in L.A. for the rest of 1967, attending Cal State. On his return home in early '68 he presented a wealth of newly-penned keyboard material that determined a new direction and configuration for the band - a keyboard-bass-drums format, with the addition Joe Lo Freso (also from The Bushmen) on Hammond.

With continuing apathy from record labels, Holley departed at the end of 1968 but not before securing Corsaro as a replacement, who in turn found them a new manager. The group relocated to San Francisco for a while, eventually returning to Fresno without Corsaro, whose place was filled by brother #3, David. They carried on until 1980 with various string players augmenting the line-up.

The CD comprises 10 tracks from their most creative period (1967 to 1969) highlighting their predominantly instrumental neo-classical or baroque flavoured recitals. Song On A May Morning from their rare 45 is their most commercial offering - a catchy slice of West Coast pop-psych previously compiled on A Journey To Tyme Vol. 2 and Son Of Gathering Of The Tribe.

Not for garage purists - this should should appeal to those who like soft-psych or the baroque tendencies of The Left Banke and Ars Nova.

(Max Waller)

Canticle

TOP

Personnel:

HOWARD FULLBROOK	vcls, gtr, violin	A
PETER LAMBERT	violin	A
HOWARD McDERMOTT	vcls, gtr	A
FRANK PRESS	vcls, gtr	A

45:

1	Like A Rolling Stone/My Mind's Eye	(Century 36685)	1970

Acoustic hippie-folkie workouts of Bob Dylan and the Small Faces, the latter notable for the use of the fiddle. The band were playing at the London Troubadour when they were approached by an American record producer called Robert Reiter. Howard Fullbrook:- "He was in London, Ontario looking for Canadian artists to record and within a week we were in London making the record. We never saw or heard anymore from him after that day in the studios. We did learn, through a friend in Canada, that the single had been released but we never received a copy of the record or even heard the final result!"

(Max Waller)

Capes of Good Hope

TOP

Personnel:

- MIKE HORN
- DICK TOOPS
- YOGI LANDEM
- MIKE JACOBSEN
- JOEL CORY

45s:

1. Shades/Lady Margaret (Round 1001) 1966
2. Winter's Children/If My Monique Would Only Dance (Round 1002) 1966

From Chicago. Shades kicks off like a certain Bob Lind folk-pop classic, whilst the flip is another matter:- weeping Eastern guitars, tablas, suitable stony vocals and numerous start/stops - still poppy but infused with incense. Lady Margaret can be found on A Heavy Dose of Lyte Psych CD. The follow up unfortunately reverts to harmony pop, with Left Banke keyboard textures. (MW).

Caps

45s:

1. Three Little Picknicks/? (White Star 101) 1959
2. Red Headed Flea/Daddy Dean (White Star 102) 1959

Red Headed Flea can be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 6. The band hailed from Akron, Ohio.

Captain Beefheart

Personnel:

- JOHN FRENCH (DRUMBO) drms A B C D E
- ALEX ST CLAIRE (SNOUFFER) gtr B
- PAUL BLAKELEY drms A
- DOUG MOON gtr A
- JERRY HANDLEY bs A B
- DON VAN VLIET (CAPTAIN BEEFHEART) vcls, harp A B C D E
- RUSS TITELMAN gtr A B
- RY COODER gtr A
- JEFF COTTON (ANTENNAE JIMMY SEMENS) b'neck gtr B C
- BILL HARKLEROAD (ZOOT HORN ROLLO) gtr, flt C D E
- MARK BOSTON (ROCKETTE MORTON) bs C D E
- VICTOR HAYDEN (THE MASCARA SNAKE) bs, cla, vcls C
- ELLIOT INGBER (WINGED EEL FINGERLING) gtr D
- ED MARIMBA (ART TRIPP) gtr, vibes D E
- ROY ESTRADA (OREJON) bs E

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1. (A) SAFE AS MILK (Buddah BDS 5001) 1967
 aka DROP OUT BOOGIE (Buddah 2349-002) 1967
2. (B) MIRROR MAN (Buddah 2365-002) 1968 - not released until 1971
3. (B) STRICTLY PERSONAL (Blue Thumb BTS1) Dec. 1968
4. (C) TROUT MASK REPLICA (dbl) (Straight FTS 1053) Oct. 1969
5. (D) LICK MY DECALS OFF (Straight FTS 1063) Dec. 1970
6. (D) SPOTLIGHT KID (Reprise RS 2050) Jan. 1972 131

7. (E) CLEAR SPOT (Reprise MS 2115) Nov. 1972 191

NB. Many of the above have subsequently been reissued eg. (2) on Buddah (1974), PRT (1982) and Edsel (1986). The above albums are also available on CD.

45s: (Selective)

1. Diddy Wah Diddy/Who Do You Think You're Fooling? (A&M 794) Apr. 1966
2. Moonchild/Frying Pan (A&M 818) Oct. 1966
3. Yellow Brick Road/Abba Zaba (Buddah DA 9) 1967
4. Plastic Factory/Where There's A Woman (Buddah DA 108) 1970
5. Click Clack/I Want To Booglerize You Baby (Reprise 1068) 1971
6. Click Clack/Glider (promo only) (Reprise) 1972
7. Too Much Time/Lo Yo-Yo Stuff (Reprise PRO 547) 1972
8. Too Much Time/My Head Is My Only House (Reprise 1133) 1972

Beefheart (real name Don Van Vliet) was born in Glendale, California in 1941. One wonders what the Lancaster High School, which included Frank Zappa and Van Vliet could have been like. After playing briefly with a band called The Blackouts, the 'mad captain' took the name Captain Beefheart and formed The Magic Band in 1964, which was based in Los Angeles. His first single for A&M was a version of Bo Diddley's Diddy Wah Diddy.

His debut album, which was rejected by A&M and eventually released by Buddah in the U.S. and Polydor in England, sounded like nothing that had been heard before. Beefheart's growling and grunted vocals were most unusual, his vocal range most impressive, but some of the lyrics almost inaudible. Nonetheless, the material was of a consistent standard, with Autumn Song, Zig Zag Wanderer, Electricity and Yellow Brick Road among the stronger numbers.

Mirror Man, the next album he recorded, was rougher and not released until 1971. It is not considered one of his best.

Strickly Personal, was even less commercial, but represented a musical progression. Raw blues numbers like Ah Feel Like Ahcid and Gimme Dat Harp Boy were combined with more imaginative tracks like Trust Us, On Tomorrow and the excellent Kandy Korn, which features some superb intertwined guitar work, and displays Beefheart's vocals at their howling and growling best. The album was apparently mixed without his supervision.

However, this line-up disintegrated after the album, St Clair left to work in a car wash and Handley joined a printing works. Then Beefheart by chance bumped into his old school mate Frank Zappa, who was busy setting up his Straight record label. With the promise of complete recording freedom Beefheart started work with a revised line-up on an album. The result was inevitably bizarre. Many would find Trout Mask Replica completely bewildering on an initial hearing. The band apparently recorded it in four hours and added the lyrics in four and a half hours without hearing the music! Most of the songs on the album are formless in the traditional sense, but far from being spontaneous, the band had rehearsed the material to the point of obsession. The album became an underground classic, regarded by many as the pinnacle of challenging music and hated by others. It was certainly atmospheric. Beefheart's next album was similar but lacked the apparent spontaneity of Trout Mask Replica.

Following the band's return from a nationwide tour in 1971, Beefheart and Zappa fell out and Beefheart switched to Reprise and changed his line-up bringing in a couple of influential figures:- Elliot Ingber, formerly of The Fraternity of Man who became known as Winged Eel Fingerling and Artie Tripp (Ed Marimba) from The Mothers of Invention. The resultant album, The Spotlight Kid, was his first album to make any impression in the Album Charts peaking at No 131. His next, Clear Spot, was made without Fingerling, but with Roy Estrada on bass. Musically this was one of Beefheart's best albums and it also made the album charts peaking at No 191.

Here we leave Beefheart - his subsequent recordings being outside the time-frame of this archive. He and his band were an almost unique phenomena in the history of rock. Quite unlike anyone else, especially on those early recordings, and musically at odds with mainstream rock, these recordings are essential for connoisseurs of progressive rock.

His first 45, Diddy Wah Diddy can also be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 6.

For more information on the great Captain, check out the following websites:
http://www.beefheart.com
http://www.shiningsilence.com/hpr/

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Captain Groovy and His Bubblegum Army to The Cartunes

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Captain Groovy and His Bubblegum Army
- Captain Matchbox Whoopee Band
- Captain Milk
- The Caravans
- Caravelles
- The Cardboard Box
- The Cardinals
- The Caretakers
- The Caretakers of Deception
- Bob Carey
- Carmel Covered Popcorn
- Carp
- Chris Carpenter
- The Carpetbaggers
- Carroll's Mood
- Dean Carter
- The Cartunes

Captain Groovy and His Bubblegum Army

45:

1. Captain Groovy and His Bubblegum Army/Dark Part Of My Mind Part 1 (Super K 104) 1969 128

Jerry Kasenetz and Jeff Katz, who were the masterminds behind the commercially successful late sixties bubblegum music which gave us acts like The Ohio Express, The Music Explosion and The 1910 Fruitgum Company, made this 45 themselves using a pseudonym. Sporting metallic fuzztone guitars and typically warbled bubblegum lyrics, you'll find it on Boulders, Vol. 9 or Mindrocker, Vol. 5.

An instrumental Bubblegum March (Or Blowing Bubbles Through Rose Coloured Glasses) appears on the Everything You've Always Wanted To Know... CD, and Erik Lindgren's sleeve-notes suggest that the same track also appeared as the flip to Super Cirkus' Dong-Dong-Diki-Di-Ki-Dung 45 (Super K 9)... whilst Dark Part Of My Mind also appeared on the flip to a Crazy Elephant 45 (Bell 763) and has been compiled on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol's 1 & 2 (CD). Confused? Well the explanation may be that Captain Groovy and his Bubblegum Army started life as a sound track to a cartoon show, which was cancelled, with some of the tracks later being recycled.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson / Joe Foster)

Captain Matchbox Whoopee Band

ALBUM:

1	SMOKE DREAMS	(ESP 3009)	1973

An unknown group who released an album on ESP in 1973, faithful to this New York label motto: "The artists alone decide what you will hear on their ESP disk".

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Captain Milk

Personnel incl:

EDWIN HUBBARD	A

45:

1	Hey Jude/Impossible Dream	(Tetragrammaton T-1542)	1968

A Beatles cover, largely instrumental, by an unknown group, probably from California. Captain Milk was Edwin Hubbard, who also produced this 45.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Caravans

45:

1. This Little Old Lady/Three Musketeers (Key-Man 101) 1966

Garage band from San Antone, Texas. One track, 3 Musketeers, has resurfaced on Hipsville 29 B.C., Vol. 2. The above 45 was issued as by 'Allivyn and The Caravans'.

Caravelles

Personnel:

RICK ANDERSON	bs	A
JERRY BRECI	gtr	A
JOHN FITZGERALD	ld vcls, hrmnca	A

MIKE LIPMAN	ld gtr	A
DANNY REED	keyb'ds	A
DOUG STEINER	drms	A

45:

1	Lovin' Just My Style/Self-Service	(Onacrest 502)	1966
2	Lovin' Just My Style / Self Service / Lovin' Just My Style (instr) (PS)	(Dionysus/Bacchus Archives BA 1146)	2000

The Caravelles were from Phoenix, Arizona. They were managed and produced by Hadley "Who Loves You Madly" Murrell, a disc jockey at the practically all-black KCAC, Phoenix's AM soul station in the mid-60s. For the most part, Murrell is better known for the legendary Phoenix soul acts he produced, which included The Servicemen, The New Bloods, Eddie and Ernie (who were in The New Bloods) and the Soulsetters. The Caravelles' flip to Lovin' Just My Style was a garage-y cover of The New Bloods' Self Service, which had gotten enough local attention in Phoenix to get picked up by 20th Century-Fox for national distribution.

John Fitzgerald, The Caravelles' lead singer, had a reputation as "the Mick Jagger of Phoenix", and the group opened for the Dave Clark Five at Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Phoenix.

Rick Anderson was later in The Superfine Dandelion and The Tubes. It's unclear whether or not he played on Lovin' Just My Style, though. Drummer Neal Smith, who was in-between stints with The Laser Beats and Alice Cooper, joined The Caravelles in 1966, just before they changed their name to The Holy Grail. Contrary to rumours, Smith was not on the Onacrest record.

Their reissue 45 adds an instrumental take of Lovin'.. and comes in a neat pic sleeve with a band history by Dan Nowicki.

You can also hear the catchy Lovin' Just My Style, with its typical garage style guitar work, on Pebbles, Vol. 8 or Boulders, Vol. 1. Very much a case of The Kinks meet The Yardbirds.

(Vernon Joynson/Dan Nowicki)

The Cardboard Box

TOP

Personnel:

BARRY BERGER	gtr	A
DAVE DUDAS	drms	A
ERIC KISSINGER	bs	A
JACK LORENZO	keyb'ds, vcls	A

45:

1	Come On Baby / Carol	(Regime M-69075)	1969

From Pottstown, Pa. this band were previously the Ethics who released one 45 on the Up Tight label in 1967. Come On Baby is on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych.

(Erik Lindgren/Max Waller)

The Cardinals

45s:

1. Tomato Juice/I Want You (Cha Cha 740) 1965
2. Hatchet Face/Go Go Baby (Cha Cha 741) 1965
3. Saturday Night/I'm Gonna Tell On You (PS) (Cha Cha 742) 1965
4. I'm GonnaTell On You/When You're Away (PS) (Cha Cha 748) 1966

A mid-sixties college outfit based in Muncie, Indiana. Go Go Baby is a rather primitive stomper, which can also be found on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (CD). Other compilation coverage has included: Tomato Juice on Open Up Yer Door; Hatchet Face on Hipsville 29 B.C. Vol. 2; and I'm Gonna Tell On You on Follow That Monster. (Max Waller/Kip Brown)

The Caretakers

45s:

1. Heart Of Love/Good Inside (Rock-It 2002) 1968
2. The World Outside/Summer Moments (Rock-It 2004) 196?
3. East Side Story/Epic (Rip-Off 1001) 196?
4. Hidden Steps/You Don't Have to Pretend (Worm 1001) 196?

From the San Bernadine/Riverside area of California. You'll find East Side Story on Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD) and Boulders, Vol. 5. Another cut, Hidden Steps can also be heard on Boulders, Vol. 4.

The Caretakers of Deception

45:

1. Cuttin' Grass/X+Y=13 (Sanctus 5511/2) 1967

A psychedelic punk outfit from Los Angeles. Cuttin' Grass notable for its brash vocals and some compelling guitar riffs, can be heard on the Acid Dreams, The Acid Dreams Testament (CD), Acid Trip From The Psychedelic Sixties and Psychedelic Disaster Whirl compilations. The flip can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD) and Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 2 (EP) but is much mellower, with a sparse arrangement and a melody that sticks in the brain...

Bob Carey

ALBUM:

1	THE SOUL OF FOLK	(20th Century Fox)	1964

2 HOOTENANNY LIVE AT THE BITTER END (FM) 1965

A Greenwich Village folksinger, understandably forgotten. Several other 'Village singers, including Fred Neil also play on the live album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Carmel Covered Popcorn

TOP

45:

1. Suzie Q/Lookinf For A Place (Vistone 2055) 1968

A Californian (probably LA) outfit's decent cover of Suzie Q in "West Coast" style rather than Creedence Clearwater Revival boogie.

(Max Waller)

Carp

TOP

Personnel:

GARY BUSEY	drms, vcls	A
JOHN CROWDER	bs	A
RON GETMAN	gtr	A
GLEN MITCHELL	piano	A
(BOBBY BRUCE	fiddle	A)
(BUZZ CLIFFORD	vcls	A)
(SNEAKY PETE KLEINOW	steel gtr	A)
(DAN MOORE	vcls	A)
(GORDON SHRYOCK	vcls	A)

ALBUM:

1(A) CARP (Epic E30212) 1969

45:

1 Save The Delta Queen/ ? (Epic 10632) 1969

Carp was formed in the spring of 1966 by four Oklahoma State University students. Produced by Dan Moore and Buzz Clifford (who also both produced the East Side Kids album), their only album is a consistent mix of rock, blues and country with some excellent guitar parts. All the material is original, except for The Great Kansas Hymn (penned by Michael McGinnis) and the lyrics often have a religious feel.

Gary Busey would later become an actor and, as "Teddy Jack Eddy", played drums with another Oklahoma native, Leon Russell. John Crowder, Glen Mitchell and Ron Getman became session musicians and later played with Loudon Wainwright, Tony Bird, Janis Ian etc..

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Chris Carpenter

TOP

45s:

1. This World (Is Closing In On Me)/Waterfalls (Sidra 9006) 196?
2. This World (Is Closing In On Me)/Waterfalls (Oceanside OS 100) 196?
3. This World (is Closing In On Me)/Waterfalls (United Artist 50266) 1968

This Detroit gentleman first released this same 45 as by Preston on Sound Paterns 110. This World (Is Closing In On Me) is an atmospheric piece of doomy psych with orchestration, some neat effects and eerie guitar. The Preston version, which is a much hotter rendition with the fuzz guitar and mysterious organ much louder in the mix can be heard on Magic Carpet Ride. Waterfalls is a rather strange track; a ballad with effects galore and vocals like Bobby Vee on acid! Both sides have also been compiled on A Heavy Dose Of Lyte Psych CD, whilst the flip has also resurfaced on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8. (Max Waller/Kip Brown).

The Carpetbaggers

TOP

45:

1. Let Yourself Go/Just A Friend (Limited International 407) 196?

Another obscure one. Vile Vinyl, Vol. 2 includes Let Yourself Go. The group possibly hailed from Tennessee.

Carroll's Mood

TOP

45s:

1 Out She Goes / No One's Waiting For Me (AOK 1026) 196?

A punk-ballad 45 by an obscure Texan act. They later became Sights and Sounds.

Dean Carter

TOP

45:

1. The Rockin' Bandit/? (Milky Way 4) 196?

2. Jailhouse Rock/Rebel Woman (Milky Way 11) 196?

From Illinois. Jailhouse Rock was a classic double-sided punk 45. Both sides have resurfaced on Ear-Piercing Punk and Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD) while the 'A' side can also be found on Born Bad, Vol. 6. Jailhouse Rock was a cover of a 1959 rockabilly song by Ray Smith (a Sun Records artist).

There may have been another 45, Run Rabbit Run (Milky Way 8), although it's possible that this track was the flip side of The Rockin' Bandit. Anyone out there able to confirm details?

(Max Waller / Todd Hunter)

The Cartunes

45:

1 Keep The Fire Burning / Chanda (Roulette 7011) 1968

This outfit from Hazelton, Pennsylvania were previously known as Ognir and The Nite People.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Cashman Vaquero Band to The Cellar Dwellers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Cashman Vaquero Band
- The Castaways
- The Castaways
- Castells
- Castels
- Cast of Thousands
- Catalina
- The Catalinas
- The Catamorands
- Catch
- Catfish Knight and The Blue Express
- The Cats Meow
- Cat Mother and The All Night Newsboys
- Cavaliers
- The Cavaliers
- Cavalry Twill
- Cave Dwellers
- Cave Dwellers
- The Cavemen
- The Cavemen
- The Cavemen
- Ceeds
- The Cellar Dwellers

Cashman Vaquero Band

TOP

Personnel incl:

DOUG CASHMAN A

ALBUM:

1	TRIBUTE TO BERRY OAKLEY	(Private Pressing)	1975 R3

A rare psych blues rock album, dedicated to the late Allman Brothers Band bassist. Only a few hundred copies were pressed, with cuts like San Fran Sunset and There's No Tellin.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Castaways

Personnel:

DENNY CRASWELL	drms	A B C D E
ROY HENSLEY	vcls	A B C D E
LONNIE KNIGHT	gtr	A
DICK ROBY	gtr	A B C
BOB FOLSCHOW	gtr	B C D
JIM DONNA	keyb'ds	C D
TOM HUSTING	gtr	E
DENNIS LIBBY	keyb'ds, vcls	E
GREGORY MALAND	keyb'ds, vcls	E

NB: Lineup 'A' 1962-3, 'B' 1963, 'C' 1963-1965, 'D' 1965-1966, 'E' 1966-1969.

CD:

1	LIAR, LIAR - THE BEST OF THE CASTAWAYS	(Plum 14032)	1999

EP:

1(B/C)	THE CASTAWAYS	(Soma CA-03)	1987

NB: (1) is a bootleg EP featuring their three Soma 45s.

45s:

1(B)	Liar, Liar/Sam	(Soma 1433)	1965 12
2(B)	Liar, Liar/Sam	(Apex 76969)	1965 -
3(C)	Goodbye Babe/A Mans Gotta Be A Man	(Soma 1492)	1965 101
4(C)	Goodbye Babe/A Mans Gotta Be A Man	(Apex 76970)	1965 -
5(C)	She's A Girl In Love/Why This Should Happen To Me	(Soma 1461)	1967
6(B)	Liar, Liar/Surfin' Bird	(Soma 1469)	1967
7(E)	I Feel So Fine/Hit The Road	(Taunah 7745)	1967
8(E)	I Feel So Fine/Hit The Road	(Bear 2000)	1967
9(E)	Walking In Different Circles/Just On High	(Fontana 1615)	1968
10(E)	Lavendar Popcorn/What Kind Of Face	(Fontana 1626)	1968

NB: (6) a reissue 45, flip by The Trashmen. (7) 500 copies pressed.

Formed at the University of Minnesota in Minnesota in 1962 where they started the group largely for self-amusement and to entertain fellow students. In 1963 Lonnie Knight left to form The Rave-Ons and was replaced by Bob Folschow.

Liar, Liar (composed by Jim Donna and Denny Craswell) was a spectacular debut that climbed to No. 12 in the summer of 1965. Despite several fine 45s they'd never reach those heights again.

Before their follow-up Dick Roby left to go solo. In late 1966 Bob Folschow was called up for service and Jim Donna went back to college. Replacements were found in Tom Husting and Dennis Libby (from Dudley and The Doo-Rytes) and Gregory Maland (better known as Gregory Dee of Avanties fame). This line-up lasted until the band folded in 1969, after which Craswell, Libby and Maland moved onto Blackwood Apology. Craswell was later in South 40 and Crow. Other members are thought to have been in Hope.

Twas far from the end for The Castaways... Liar Liar was/is a blissfully simple pop song of under two minutes long. From the opening drum beat, keyboard strains and falsetto lead, it is instantly recognisable. The pining guitar motif, girl put-down lyrics and a break preceded by one chilling scream, add up to a great slice of '60s garage-pop.

It first appeared on LP in 1966 on the Bud-Jet label Big Hits Of Mid America Vol. 2, accompanied by Sam. It would probably have been forgotten after the '60s but for its inclusion on Lenny Kaye's Nuggets compilation in 1972. Since then it has appeared on Wild Thing, We Have Come For Your Children, More Nuggets Vol. 2 (CD), Psychotic Reactions (Topline label), The Soma Records Story Vol. 2 and the Nuggets 4-CD boxset. Outside of the collector set, appreciation of it has been kept alive in films (notably 'Good Morning Vietnam'), soundtracks and on TV. Quite rightly it has come to be regarded by many as a '60s classic.

In the late '70s Jim Donna revived his own version of The Castaways, which was still going strong in 2000.

In 1987 Hensley, Craswell, Roby and Folschow formed The Original Castaways with Al Olivera, on the heels of the interest generated by 'Good Morning Vietnam'.

The 22-track retrospective CD collects all their 45 tracks and adds: three unreleased '66 tracks - Lead Me On, Everytime, Watching The Time Go By; Work Song - a solo release by Dick Roby; and six tracks from the two revived Castaways. With detailed liners from Jim Oldsberg and input from several band members, this is a fine testament to a GREAT Midwest pop act.

Other compilation appearances include: Sam and Goodbye Babe on The Soma Records Story Vol. 1; A Man's Gotta Be A Man and Why This Should Happen To Me on Soma Records Story Vol. 3; Feel So Fine on the rare 1967 Minneapolis sampler Money Music; Just On High on The Psychedelic Experience Vol. 2 CD.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Castaways

TOP

45:

1. You Were Telling Lies/Ain't Gonna Cheat On Me (Tornado 1003) 1965

An obscure garage band from Louisiana. You Were Telling Lies is a primitive snarling punker, whilst the flip, Ain't Gonna Cheat On Me has some catchy lyrics. Both sides have resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 9.

Castells

TOP

Personnel incl:

CHUCK GIRARD	vcls	A

45s:

1	Just Walk Away/An Angel Cried	(Decca 31834)	1965
2	I Thought You'd Like That/Life Goes On	(Decca 31967)	1966

Another Castells, this lot were produced by Gary Usher and were "rather conservative" in their tastes.

(Richard Rochford)

Castels

Some 45s:

1	Save A Chance / Children Who Dream	(Wildfire Record Co. W-105)	Sep 1965
2	Save A Chance / Children Who Dream	(Black Gold 306)	1965
3	In A Letter To Me / We Better Slow Down	(Solomon 1351)	1967
4	I'd Like To Know / Rocky Ridges	(Solomon # unkn)	1967/8
5	I'd Like To Know / Rocky Ridges	(Laurie 3444)	1968

NB: (2) mis-spells group name as Castells.

A Memphis group who blended beat and folk-rock to produce some vibrant sounds. Save A Chance is raw upbeat Brummelesque, first issued on the local Wildfire label - this is unearthed on Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 3. The jangle quota was upped on the more polished Black Gold 45 version, compiled on Leaving It All Behind. This is also excellent but many will still prefer the original. The flip, by the way, is a swaying Everlys-style ballad.

Marijuna Unknowns Vol. 1 includes Rocky Ridges, a slow beat ballad with flute, water effects, smooth harmonies and psychy vibe. It includes the immortal line "Pass the grass and I'll keep saying something I don't mean".

(Max Waller/Ivor Trueman)

Cast of Thousands

Personnel:

- CHRIS LINGWALL drms A
- BUGS HENDERSON ld gtr
- JIM RIGBY vcls A
- BOBBY FORMAN horns A
- STEVE TOBOLOUSKY gtr, piano A
- MIKE McCULLOUGH bs, gtr A
- STEVIE RAY VAUGHN gtr A

45s:

1. Girl Do What You Gonna Do/My Jenny Wears A Mini (Soft 1002) 1966 and Tower (276)

2. Have It Your Way/Power Vested In Me (Soft 1002) 1967
3. Long Way To Go/Carter's Grove (Amy 11,040) 1967
4. Country Gardens/The Cast's Blue (Amy 11,056) 1967

Hailing from Dallas in Texas. Their first 45 was picked up by Tower for nationwide release and much later the 'A' side was included on Boulders, Vol. 5.The flip to their next 45 had earlier appeared on the reverse to early versions of their first 45. Lineup (A) also had two cuts - Red, White And Blue, a rockabilly-influenced effort and I Heard A Voice Last Night, which featured some good guitar work - on the compilation A New Hi, Dallas 1971-Part 1 (Tempo 2). Bugs Henderson played on their last two 45s on his way to Mouse And The Traps from The Sensors and Stevie Ray Vaughn later fronted Double Trouble.

Catalina

TOP

ALBUM:

1 LIVE FROM THE CHI CHI CLUB (Avalon) c1970

From California, a bar rock group with a good guitar and a cheezy voice.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Catalinas

TOP

45:

1. The Coco Cherry Mash/? (Chase Candy Co. 912/913) 1967

An obscure Midwest band from St Joseph, Missouri. You'll find this song on the cassette compilation Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1.

The Catamorands

TOP

45:

1. Over You/Never Say Goodbye (D.G.M.R. 101) 196?

Yearning beat-ballads influenced by British invasion sounds but also harking back to pre-beat 'teen pop' sounds from Nashville, Tennessee. (Max Waller)

Catch

TOP

ALBUM:

1. CATCH (Dot DLP 25956) 1969

45s:

1. I'm On The Road To Memphis/Amber (Dot 17277) 1969
2. Storm/City Ditty (Dot 17304) 1969

A five-piece from California. All the tracks are written by M. Collings/R. White, who were also responsible for Feather - Friends on Columbia in the late sixties. Musically, it's very different; whereas Feather sounds like the third Chocolate Watchband album, Catch is poppier with quite a few orchestrated numbers like The Dandelion And The Butterfly and the 8½-minute Nine Roses. The one exception is the glorious psychedelic rocker Crash And Burn.

There was also another outfit of this name from Belmond, Iowa, who were previously known as The Confederacy. They recorded one side of a Booking Agent Disc Sampler on Sensational Sounds (5079). The flip side was by Stack.

Catfish Knight and The Blue Express

TOP

Personnel incl:

J. KNIGHT A

45s:

1	I Can't Keep From Cryin' / Deathwise	(Verve 10607)	Jun 1968
2	See Saw / Web Of Trouble	(Verve 10629)	1968

Hidden away on the back of a solid brassy popper, is Deathwise - a fuzz extravaganza that kicks off like the Stones' Paint It Black before moving into freakout territory. The nearest comparison to these ears is Mystic Tide. Check it out on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych.

The second 45 is of less interest - See Saw is back to bland and brassy pop with a laid-back rock ballad featuring piano on the flip.

(Max Waller)

The Cats Meow

TOP

45s:

1. Confusion/La La Lu (Decca 31940) 1966
2. House Of Kicks/True True Lovin' (Decca 32037) 1966

Almost certainly a studio group who had just two vinyl outings. Their first 45 Confusion was a beaty, guitar instrumental, but their finest moment is usually considered to have been House of Kicks, an appealing combination of surf-harmony falsettos and driving punk guitars. You can find it on Pebbles, Vol. 13.

Cat Mother and The All Night Newsboys

Personnel:

CHARLIE CHIN	gtr, vcls	A
MICHAEL EQUINE	drms	A B C D
ROY MICHAELS	bs, gtr, vcls	A B C D
LARRY PARKER	vcls, gtr	A B
BOB SMITH	keyb'ds, vcls	A B C D
PAUL JOHNSON	gtr	B
JAY UNGAR	bs	B
STEVE DAVIDSON	perc	C D
CHARLIE PRITCHARD	ld gtr, slide gtr	C
CHARLIE HARCOURT	ld gtr	D

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE STREET GIVETH AND THE STREET TAKETH AWAY	(Polydor 244001)	1969
2(B)	ALBION DOO-WAH	(Polydor 244023)	1970
3(C)	CAT MOTHER	(Polydor 245017)	1971
4(D)	LAST CHANCE DANCE	(Polydor 245042)	1973

NB: (3) and (4) credited to Cat Mother.

45:

1	Good Old R'n'Roll/ Bad News (PS)	(Barclay 61138)	1969

NB: (1) French release.

Originally formed on the East Coast, where their first two albums were recorded. Their first album was produced by Jimi Hendrix and they opened for him at several of his concerts, including the famous L.A. Forum concert.

For the Cat Mother album they shortened their name to Cat Mother. They were still together in the late seventies. Some of their material appeared on The Pacific High Studios Christmas album in 1970. All of their albums were recorded at Electric Ladyland in New York. Their music had a strong blues and country/folk influence. A diverse band worthy of investigation.

Band member Jay Ungar (ex-Family of Apostolic) recently achieved some level of fame recording Ashokan Farewell, used in the U.S. ministeries "The Civil War". Charlie Harcourt later played for U.K. band Lindisfarne.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Cavaliers

45:

1. Seven Days of Cryin'/? (Crisis no number) 196?

This very promising punker was the work of a really obscure garage band from Lynwood, California. You'll find Seven Days Of Cryin 'on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7, although it's erroneously been omitted from the track listings on the actual record.

The Cavaliers

TOP

45s:

1. Sea Weed/Pride (Pharoah 137) 1965
2. That Hurts/Symbol Of Sin (Pharoah 146) 1966
3. The Last Four Words/Ballad Of Thee Kavaliers (Pharaoh 150) 1966
4. Congregation For Anti-Flirts Inc./Back To You (Pharaoh 154) 1967

Both sides of their first 45 can be heard on Texas Punk, Vol. 5 and Acid Visions Box Set Vol. 2 along with The Congregation For Anti-Flirts, which also resurfaced on Cicadelic Sixties Vol. IV They were also known as Thee Kavaliers. Various members went on to The Playthings, Blacksmith and Translucent Umbrella.

Cavalry Twill

TOP

45:

1. All You Need Is Love/The Girl (MGM K 13849) c1968

Starting this Beatles anthem with the intro of Strawberry Fields is quite a feat. This version soon develops into an uncanny combination of scorching fuzz guitar over trite Flowerpot Men-like backing, complete with multiple vocals and 'la la la's. The 'B' side (by producer Neil Levenson) is a B-film instrumental with vague Balkanesque leanings. Obscure! (Marcel Koopman)

Cave Dwellers

TOP

45:

1. Run Around/You Know Why (Jim-Ko 41085) 1967

A Chicago-based mid-sixties garage band. You'll find Run Around on Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD), Back From The Grave, Vol. 8 and Glimpses, Vol. 4.

Cave Dwellers

TOP

45:

1. Meditation/Night Runner (Bay Town 003) 1968

A different outfit. Meditation can be heard on Boulders, Vol. 6. They came from the Bay Area in California.

The Cavemen

45s:

1	Small World/Whatever Will Be, Will Be	(20th Century 6643)	1966
2	All About Love/Bo Diddley	(C.S.A. 18285)	1967

An obscure Rochester, New York State band whose Small World resurfaced on the Everywhere Interferences and on Sick And Tired compilations.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Cavemen

Personnel:

- ANDY JOHNSON ld gtr A B
- SERGIO ROACH gtr, vcls A B
- ROBERT TIFF bs A
- PAULI WALTERSON drms, vcls A
- BOB JABOUR bs, vcls B
- TONY REY drms, vcls B

45:

1. (B) It's Trash / The Pillow Bit (Chelli PH 148) June 1966

Former members Pauli Walterson and Bob Jabour have produced the Key West Psychedelic Daze Volume #1 (1965-1975) compilation, which at last reveals the identities behind this band and two other Key West, Florida outfits - Paloma (who also featured Pauli Walterson and Tony Rey - one track from 1972) and Overseas Highway (nine tracks from 1970 to 1978 featuring comp co-producer Jim Dean). No new nuggets by The Cavemen however - just their moment of immortality, It's Trash (also compiled on Off The Wall Vol.II, Mayhem And Psychosis Vol. 1 (LP), Mayhem And Psychosis Vol. 1 (CD) and Teenage Shutdown 4: I'm A No-Count). With its superb iron-lunged vocals, savage guitar-led instrumentation and fine use of echo it typifies all that's best about mid-sixties psychedelic punk.

The Key West compilation dangles a carrot by stating that The Cavemen did record an LP which only made it to the test pressing stage (ten copies, it sez, also on the Chelli label). Let's hope that any nuggets thereon may be revealed in a future volume.

Additional info is provided by the liners on the excellent Teenage Shutdown series, which reveals that the band included two former Coachmen (Jabour and Rey?) and would be known latterly as the 4th Generation until they split. (Max Waller/Vernon Joynson/Mike Markesich?)

Personnel incl:

- JOHNSON
- REY

45:

1. The Pillow Bit/It's Trash (Chelle 148) 196?

From the Miami, area in Florida. It's Trash with its superb iron-lunged vocals, savage guitar-led instrumentation and fine use of echo typified all that's best about mid-sixties psychedelic punk. You'll find it on Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1. Unconnected, so far as I know, to the band who recorded on 20th Century.

The Cavemen

TOP

Personnel incl:

- KARL KENNINGTON vcls

45:

1. Summertime/No Reply (Leaf 6670) June 1967

On a Janesville, Wisconsin label. Soft ballad backed by a very basic reading of the Beatles number, sounding more like 1964-era beat, and featuring a Karl Kennington on vocals. (Max Waller).

Ceeds

TOP

45:

1. You Won't Do That/Too Many People (Emlar 1001) 196?

The 'A' side can be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 2. Thought to have been a Colorado outfit.

The Cellar Dwellers

TOP

Personnel incl:

- FRANK BEARD drms

45:

1. Bad Day/Call (Steffek 1921) 1968

An historically significant Fort Worth outfit on account of being one of Beard's early bands. Previously with The Hustlers he went on to The Warlocks and later became drummer with megastars ZZ Top. The band were the house band at Pat Kirkwood's Cellar Club hence their name and inevitably their 45 is rare and sought-sfter. Bad Day, a Merseybeat influenced song, was included on Texas Punk, 1966: Vol. 9.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Cellar Dwellers to The Chambers Brothers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Cellar Dwellers
- The Celtics
- The Celtics
- Center Family
- Central Nervous System
- Central Park
- Centrees
- Centuries
- The Centuries
- The Centurys
- The Centurys
- The Ceptors
- The Ceyleib People
- Chad & Jeremy
- The Chain Reaction
- The Challengers (Of Who)
- The Challengers
- David Chalmers
- Chamaeleon Church
- The Chambermen
- The Chambers Brothers

The Cellar Dwellers

TOP

45:

1. Love Is A Beautiful Thing/Working Man (Lance 111) 1967

A sixties punk outfit from the Albuquerque area of New Mexico. You'll find the flip side on The Psychedelic Sixties and Boulders, Vol. 5.

The Celtics

TOP

Personnel incl:

JAMES CHESHIRE	vcls	A
WALLY GARDNER		A
JACK WATKINS		A

45s:

1	And She'll Cry / Jail	(Linjo 106)	1966
2	Wondering Why / Man That's Gone Mad	(Coronado 133)	c1966

From El Paso, Texas. And She'll Cry is a promising tune and moves in all the right places with a distinctly moody menacing beat that is underplayed without developing into overkill. It can be found on Diana's Rootin' Tootin' Wild Teenage Rock'n'Roll Party and Sixties Rebellion Vol. 2. Jail is an ode to delinquency with spoken vocals delivered in a aptly rebellious and don't-give-a-damn attitude.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Celtics

TOP

Personnel incl:

RONNIE HAMMOND	vcls	A

45s:

1	Times With You/?	(Dante 2291)	1968
2	For Your Love/Looking For You	(Dante 2295)	1968

From Atlanta, Georgia. Times With You appears on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 3 and it's a real scorcher! Ronnie Hammond would later find fame with the Atlanta Rhythm Section.

(Mike Markesich)

Center Family

TOP

ALBUM:

1	SHANTI-DAS/SERVANT OF PEACE	(Vector)	1973

Another example of a community managed by an Indian guru and releasing an album to show the world how happy they were. Mostly acoustic folk with Indian instrumentation, chanting.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Central Nervous System

TOP

ALBUM:

1 I COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT (?) 1968

An exploito style album, but not a good one.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Central Park

TOP

45:

1 Flower Hill/Who Wouldn't Want To Be Loved (Amy 11019) 1968

Produced by Wes Farrel, the manager/producer of Elephant's Memory and Beacon Street Union, this was a Beatles inspired group who apparently issued only this single.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Centrees

TOP

Personnel:

- BOSMA
- BOSMA
- CANTER
- REINHARDT

45:

1. She's Good For Me/Why (Wildwood 19045/6) 1967

From the rural communities of Tipp City and New Carlisle, near Dayton, Ohio. This very young garage quartet set out as a surf outfit called The Rhythm Riders circa 1963/4. The surf influence is still evident in their garage rocker, She's Good For Me, which can be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 5, and the flip is good too.

(Max Waller / George Gell)

Centuries

TOP

45:

1. The Fourth Dimension/? (Cleopatra 3) 196?

Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 6 features The Fourth Dimension from this New Jersey band.

The Centuries

45s:

1. Lonely Girl/I'd Cry For You (Rich RR-102) 1965
2. Don't Let It Fade Away/Just Today (Rich RR-112) 1966

A cool outfit from Oklahoma City. The first 45 starts with a yearning pre-beat style teen ballad but the flip is the reason why it is sought-after - simple but very effective beat-garage with fuzzed guitar. The later 45 sadly fails to follow up this promise, reverting to basic beat-pop ballads - with horns on the flip. (MW).

The Centurys

Personnel:

- BILL BELLAMY gtr A B
- TONY VOLZ gtr A B
- PAT WELLBERG gtr A B
- JIM TAYLOR drms A B
- WINK KELSO vcls B

45:

1. Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On / Gandy Dancer (Mark C # unkn)1964

Formed initially as a four-piece instrumental outfit while still at school in Alamo Heights, San Antonio, Texas. With the addition of a vocalist they moved towards the new Invasion/beat sounds and issued their own 45, featuring covers of Jerry Lee Lewis and the Ventures. They also recorded an LPs worth of material which remained unreleased - although the four recently compiled tracks are supposedly from that project. They continued through to 1966 when, with the departure of Tony Volz and a name change to the Pandas, they put out the awesome Walk 45. For the band's full story check out Andrew Brown's 'Brown Paper Sack #1' zine.

Four unreleased tracks from 1964 have recently resurfaced. You'll find: Johnny B. Goode on Texas Punk Vol. 3 and Acid Visions Box Set 2 (CD) and Back From Eternity, New Orleans and City Surfin on Acid Visions Box Set 3 (CD).

(Andrew Brown / Max Waller)

The Centurys

Personnel:

- BILLY BEARD ld gtr, vcls A

- BERNIE ORNER drms, vcls A
- LARRY McKINNEY gtr, vcls A
- JOHN LACAVONE bs, vcls A
- BOB KOCH ld vcls, keyb'ds A

EP:

1. (A) THE RENCO DEMOS (Bona Fide BF 7001) 1984

45s:

1. And I Cried/? (BBB-4002) 1966
2. Endless Search/Hard Times (Swan S-4265) 1966

This punk quintet were based in Lebanon, Pennsylvania. Hard Times can be found on Boulders, Vol. 1 and also appears along with And I Cried on Return Of The Young Pennsylvanians, although neither song is particularly notewonhy, There's also a cut, Endless Search on the Pennsylvanian Unknowns compilation and they also recorded a version of Jerry Lee Lewis' Whole Lot A Shakin' in 1965. The recent EP also features four tracks from 1965. These were:- 83, So The Prophets Say, Don't Bother and Together To Stay.

The Ceptors

45:

1	I Can't Make It/I Need Her	(Panorama 1001)	Dec 1967

Solid thumpin' Pacific Northwest sounds, produced by Gil Bateman, from Washington state. I Can't Make It - not the Small Faces track despite the Stevie Marriott vocal mannerisms - is also on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Max Waller)

The Ceyleib People

Personnel:

RY COOTER (Ry Cooder)	slide gtr	A
MIKE DEASY	gtr	A
SEAN DEASY	drms	A
LYBUK HYD	gtr, sitar	A
JOE OSBORNE	bs	A
LARRY KNECHTEL	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	TANYET	(Vault 117)	1968

NB: (1) was also released in Germany with a different sleeve, 1968. Reissued on CD (Drop Out Records DO CD 1991), with both mono and stereo versions on one CD.

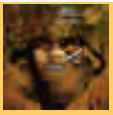
45:



1	Changes/Ceyladd Beyta	(Vault 940)	1968

A studio-only West Coast group, most of whose personnel went on to greater achievements. Osborne, as a member of The Dillards and later as a session musician for Simon and Garfunkel among others; Knechtel as a member of Bread and session musician for Dave Mason, Lee Michaels, Art Garfunkel and Neil Diamond among others, and Cooder, of course, has made many significant solo albums and done session work for numerous artists. The album is an excellent collection of Indian-influenced instrumentals.

The rare alternate 45 mix of Ceyladd Beyta resurfaced on Everything You Always Wanted To Know.... CD.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Chad & Jeremy

TOP

Personnel:

- JEREMY CLYDE vcls, gtr
- CHAD STUART vcls, gtr, banjo, keyboards, sitar

Albums:

1. YESTERDAY'S GONE (World Artists 2002) Aug. 1964 22
2. CHAD AND JEREMY SING FOR YOU (World Artists 2005) Feb. 1965 69
3. BEFORE AND AFTER (Columbia 9174) April 1965 37
4. I DON'T WANT TO LOSE YOU BABY (Columbia 9198) Sept. 1965 77
5. THE BEST OF CHAD AND JEREMY (Capitol 2470) March 1966 49
6. MORE CHAD AND JEREMY (Capitol 2546) June 1966 144
7. DISTANT SHORES (Columbia 2564) Aug. 1966 61
8. OF CABBAGES AND KINGS (Columbia 2671) Sept. 1967 186
9. THE ARK (Columbia 2899) Aug. 1968

NB: (1), (4), (8) and (9) reissued on CD. The World Artists recordings have been compiled on a number of CD's, the best of which is The Best Of Chad And Jeremy (One Way 31380) which has twenty tracks including all the World Artist singles. Perhaps of more interest to psych fans however is the twenty tracck compilation CD Painted Dayglow Smile (Columbia Legacy 47719) from their Columbia years.

45s:

1. Yesterday's Gone/Lemon Tree (World Artists 1021) March 1964 21
2. A Summer Song/No Tears For Johnny (World Artists 1027) July 1964 7
3. Willow Weep For Me/If She Was Mine (World Artists 1034) Oct. 1964 15
4. If I Loved You/Donna, Donna (World Artists 1041) Jan. 1965 23
5. What Do You Want With Me/A Very Good Year (World Artists 1052) March 1965 51

6. Before And After/Fare Thee Well (Columbia 43277) Apr. 1965 17
7. From A Window/My Coloring Book (World Artists 1056) May 1965 97
8. I Don't Want To Lose You Baby/Pennies (Columbia 43339) July 1965 35
9. September In The Rain/Only For The Young (World Artists 1060) July 1965
10. I Have Dreamed/Should I? (Columbia 43414) Oct. 1965 91
11. Teenage Failure/Early Morning Rain (Columbia 43490) Dec. 1965
12. Distant Shores/Last Night (Columbia 43682) Apr. 1966 30
13. You Are She/I Won't Cry (Columbia 43807) Sept. 1966 87
14. Rest In Peace/Family Way (Columbia 44131) May 1967
15. Painted Dayglow Smile/Editorial (Columbia 44379) Nov. 1967
16. Sister Marie/Rest In Peace (Columbia 44525) May 1968
17. Paxton Quigley's Had The Course/You Need Feet (Columbia 44660) Aug. 1968

Ex-public schoolboys Chad Stuart and Jeremy Clyde were regarded by Americans as examplars of that pinnacle of western civilization, the Archetypal Englishman, and were hence far more popular stateside than at home - the English being less infatuated with Englishness than Americans. Realizing early on that their appeal lay in the States, they moved their base of operations to Los Angeles and can be regarded as an American act for the purposes of this archive.

The two met in 1962 while studying at the Central School of Speech and Drama in London and formed a duo, performing folk-based pop material. They signed with Ember Records and had a minor U.K. hit (No. 37) in late 1963 with their debut single, Yesterday's Gone. U.S. label World Artists picked up the U.S. rights to the duo and Yesterday's Gone reached No. 21 in the States in June 1964 followed three months later by their biggest hit, A Summer Song. Willow Weep For Me and If I Loved You (from the musical "Carousel") were also sizable hits but when World Artists failed to pay the pair any royalties, they teamed up with Allen Klein who quickly signed them to Columbia Records in March 1965. Their musical style remained the same, a softly melodic but rather cloying harmony-pop, except for a foray into Righteous Brothers-territory with I Don't Wanna Lose You Baby and a comedy single (Teenage Failure), but they were frequently on TV - not only performing their hits but also demonstrating their acting skills on Batman, the Patty Duke Show, and the Dick Van Dyke Show.

In late 1965, while on tour in the mid-West, they discovered future Chicago and Blood, Sweat and Tears manager James William Guercio, who was then playing in a Chicago group called the Mob. They employed him as their bassist and he wrote several songs for them including their final top-40 hit, Distant Shores, and later became their manager.

Wearied by the insubstantial nature of their musical output so far, the pair decided to go for something more ambitious and joined up with Byrds and Sagittarius-producer Gary Usher in 1967 for the concept album, Of Cabbages And Kings. The entire second side was devoted to the five-movement Progress Suite which told the story of man from Creation to Nuclear Holocaust. The album however is better remembered by psyche-holics for the 6'46" opening track, Rest in Peace, a gently satirical number inspired by Tony Richardson's film adaptation of the Evelyn Waugh novel, "The Loved One".

Their musical swansong, The Ark (spelt Arc on some pressings), was easily their best album with a number of highly evocative tunes like Pipe Dream, Pantheistic Study For Guitar And Large Bird, and Transatlantic Trauma 1966. Gary Usher spent $75,000 in making it a production tour-de-force but was sacked by Columbia for his pains when it failed to chart. The duo also wrote the music for the movie "Three In The Attic" around this time.

By this time, Jeremy had decided to devote his flagging energies to acting and the pair split up. Since then, Jeremy has become a well-known actor in England on TV and in the movies while Chad remained in the U.S. writing music for television and stage. The two reunited in 1983 for an album, Chad Stuart & Jeremy Clyde, and also in 1986 for an oldies tour.

For more information, check out the Chad & Jeremy fanpage at: http://members.aol.com/bocad/cj.htm or another page at: http://www.jasonrh.com/pgcj.htm

The Chain Reaction

Personnel:

DON SOLOMAN	keyb'ds	A
STEVE TALLARCIO	drms	A

45s:

1	The Sun/When I Needed You	(Date 1538)	1966
2	Ever Lovin'Man/You Should Have Seen Her Yesterday	(Verve 10611)	1967
3	What Am I Supposed To Do?/Life	(Francais 201.436/7)	1967

This outfit operated out of Sunapee, New Hampshire and were orginally known as The Strangers. Influenced by The Rolling Stones, they turned professional in '64 becoming The Stranguers and then The Chain Reaction. A 45 for the CBS subsidiary Date met with little success, although the band were regulars on the NY circuit and even got to open for The Yardbirds.

After they eventually folded in June 1967, Tallarcio worked in the studio with the last version of The Left Banke before working the New York club scene with Chain in 1967-1968. He then moved back to Boston where that group split in 1969, worked with Fox Chase (1969) and William Proud (1970) before trying out for the reforming Jeff Beck Group.

Tallarcio was then teamed up with The Jam Band by Henry Smith, a roadie and gofer not only for The Stranguers, but also the Yardbirds, The Jeff Beck Group and even Led Zeppelin. In 1970 he changed names to Steve Tyler and with the remnants of The Jam Band formed Aerosmith.

Another 45 release, which I don't have the full details of on Audio Dynamics (1 07) may be by same Chain Reaction although another group of this name also issued a 45, Definitely Dixie/I've Got A Lot Of Love Left In Me (Dial 4070) in 1968.

Compilation appearances have included:- When I Needed You on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 4.

(Jason Odd/Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Brian Phillips)

The Challengers (Of Who)

Personnel incl:

MIKE HOULIHAN		A

45s:

1	The Challengers Take A Ride On The Jefferson Airplane/I Wanna Hold You	(Night Owl J-6794)	196?
2	It's Love/Leave Me Be	(Night Owl 1457)	196?
3	Hear My Message/I Wanna Hold You	(Age Of Aquarius 1500)	196?

NB: (2) and (3) as The Challengers Of Who.

This Milwaukee, Wisconsin band's first 45 features a psyched-out instrumental which is a blatant tribute to the kings of American acid rock. You'll find it on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 15: Wisconsin, Part 2 and Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 1 (CD). The band were also known as The Challengers Of Who, with two further 45s on Cuca subsidiary labels.

The Challengers

TOP

45:

1. Moon, Send My Baby/Dream (Kix International 2263) 196?

A very young band from Wilson, a town about 40 miles due east of Raleigh in North Carolina. They are therefore unconnected to the earlier Wisconsin band. The 'A' side has a super bluesy intro which gives way to a slightly manic uptempo punk thrash. You'll find it on Tobacco-A-Go-Go, Vol. 1.

David Chalmers

TOP

ALBUM:

1	PRIMEVAL ROAD	(Same Old Label)	1976 R1

In the Hendrix style, an album full of guitar excursions and decent vocals.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Chamaeleon Church

TOP

Personnel:

- TED MYERS gtr, vcls A
- TONY SCHEUREN gtr, bs, harpsichord, vcls A
- KYLE GARRAHAN bs, ld gtr, piano, vcls A
- CHEVY CHASE drms, keyb'ds, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) CHAMAELEON CHURCH (MGM 4574) 1968

45:

1. Camillia Is Changing/Your Golden Love (MGM 13929) 1968

This sole album is full of great flower-power pop with heavenly vocals that will appeal greatly to fans of Left Banke and Cryan' Shames. Prior to Chamaeleon Church, Ted Myers and Kyle Garrahan had been in The Lost and after the band's demise, Myers and Scheuren went on to Ultimate Spinach. Kyle Garrahan too pursued a solo career, whilst Chevy Chase went on to fame and fortune with a career in films.

Apparently their album did not truly represent the bands own "sound". During the recording of the album, for example, the bass drum was given its own track but is all but missing from the final mix - Chevy was apparently "rippin' mad" when he heard the final result.... Producer Alan Lorber had wanted to give them an easy soft-rock feel - a phrase that didn't even exist back then, but which was somewhat akin to Orpheus, who had achieved some success at the time with their blend of soft psych.

Ted Myers later wrote a song around '72 called Going In Circles which was recorded by Three Dog Night as the flip side of one of their biggest hits, The Family Of Man. It also was used in a movie called "X,Y & Z". Later Myers recorded an album with studio musicians, called Glider, a single Your Like A Melody and is now is an A&R Director for Rhino Records. Tony Scheuren went onto to the National lampoon, where he appeared with Chevy in a road company of "Lemmings" (an off broadway spoof on Woodstock written by Tony Hendra). After that he was in some other road shows and appeared regularly on the Radio Hour. Scheuren is also featured on several National Lampoon albums, two of which were grammy nominated... Missing White House Tapes and Goodbye Pop.

You can also find Off With The Old and In A Kindly Way on Lorber's recent The Best Of The Bosstown Sound CD.

The campaign to get the Chamaeleon Church album issued proper (with ooddles of bonus tracks) starts here....

(Vernon Joynson / Mark Scheuren)

The Chambermen

TOP

45:

1. Louie Go Home/Midnight Hour (Chambermen 1292) 196?

Came out of Spokane, Washington and put this out on their own label. The 'Aside, one of the most recorded Northwest songs, can be found on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 7. It had a catchy guitar riff and typical garage organ backing.

The Chambers Brothers

TOP

Personnel:

1. GEORGE CHAMBERS bs A B
2. WILLIE CHAMBERS gtr A B

3. LESTER CHAMBERS hmnca A B
4. JOE CHAMBERS gtr A B
5. BRIAN KEENAN drms B

ALBUMS: (up to 1971)

1. PEOPLE GET READY (Vault LP(S)-9003) 1966
2. THE CHAMBER BROTHERS (Vault LP/VS-115) 1967
3. THE TIME HAS COME (Columbia CL 2722/CS 9522) 1967
4. THE CHAMBER BROTHERS SHOUT (Vault VS-120) 1968
5. A NEW TIME A NEW DAY (Columbia CS 9671) 1968
6. LOVE,PEACE AND HAPPINESS (Columbia KGP 20) 1969
7. FEELIN' THE BLUES (Vault VS-128) 1969
8. THE CHAMBER BROTHERS GREATEST HITS (Vault VS-135) 1970
9. A NEW GENERATION (Columbia C-30032) 1971
10. THE CHAMBER BROTHERS GREATEST HITS (Columbia C-30871) 1971

NB: (1) was also released in the U.K. (Vocalion VA-L/SAV-L 8058) in 1966, (3) was also released in the U.K. (Direction 8-63407) in 1968, (5) was also released in the U.K. (Direction 8-63451) in 1969, (6) was also released in the U.K. (Direction 8-66228) in 1970, (7) was also released in the U.K. (Liberty LBS 83276) in 1970, (9) was also released in the U.K. (CBS 64156) in 1971, (3) and (5) were issued on a double album in 1975 (Columbia CG-33642). 1996 saw the release of Time Has Come Today, a CD compilation on Legacy.

45s: (UK releases up to 1971)

1. Love Me Like The Rain/Pretty Girls Everywhere (Vocalion VL 9267) 1966
2. Call Me/Seventeen (Vocalion 9276) 1966
3. All Strung Out Over You/Falling In Love (CBS 202565) 1967
4. Up Town/Love Me Like The Rain (Direction 58-3215) 1968
5. Time Has Come Today/Dinah (Direction 58-3671) 1968
6. I Can't Turn You Loose/Do Your Thing (Direction 58-3865) 1968
7. Are You Ready/You Got The Power To Turn Me On (Direction 58-4098) 1969
8. People Get Ready/No No Don't Say Goodbye (Direction 58-4318) 1969
9. Wake Up/Everybody Needs Someone (Columbia 44890) 1969
10. Have A Little Faith/Baby Takes Care Of Business (Direction 58-4367) 1969
11. Love Peace And Happiness/If You Want Me To (Direction 58-4846) 1970
12. Funky/Love Peace And Happiness (CBS 5389) 1971
13. By The Hair Of My Chinny Chin Chin/Heaven (CBS 7689) 1971

This group of Mississippi-born brothers started out as gospel singers in the 1950s. Keenan joined in 1965 when they switched to a rock format. They went on to record several albums and singles enjoying five U.S. Top 100 hits. It was their biggest, Time Has Come Today which has most relevance to this book. You'll find it on Nuggets, Vol. 9 and the Best of '60s Psychedelic Rock (CD). It peaked at No 11 in the US. It is a good example of what might be termed 'psychedelic soul'. They also had four tracks on the West Coast Love-In (Vault SLP-113), released in 1967.

Tony Allen writes: Also noteworthy are the title track from A New Time A New Day which features shards of guitar with leslie speaker effect, over what sounds like a black power anthem. The central instrumental section of the track also features a freak-out with lots of strange sound effects and wild guitar... unique violent psychedelia!

The title track from Love, Peace and Happiness, reissued on CD (GNPD-2224) may also be of interest: a side-long wonder with a lengthy psychedelic instrumental section in the middle (with lot's of wah-wah and echo). This is quite a nice track, but is surrounded by a lot of mediocre, poorly recorded gospel r&b.

There's also an album from 1972, Oh My God (Columbia C-30871), which remained unreleased.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Chancellors to The Charlatans

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Chancellors
- The Chancellors
- Chancellors Ltd
- Changing Times
- The Changing Times
- Changin' Times
- Changin' Tymes
- The Chants
- The Chaparrals
- The Chapparals
- The Chaps
- Chapter VI
- Chargers
- Chariot
- Charity
- The Charlatans

The Chancellors

TOP

45:

1. On Tour/? (D.C. 22) 1966

This garage band hailed from Potsdam, New York. They cut the above punker in 1966 for a Schenectady, New York label. It has resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8.

The Chancellors

TOP

Personnel incl:

- RICK GARFIELD drms
- JIM OVAITT keyb'ds

45:

1. One In A Million / Journey (Fenton 2066) c1967
2. Dear John / 5 Minus 3 (Fenton 2072) 1967
3. Places We Once Knew / Something For Sure (Chamus 3448) 196?

Highly touted and collectable garage-punkers from Michigan. Their instrumental Garfield-Ovaitt duet, 5 Minus 3 implies that the band was a quintet.

Compilation appearances include:- Dear John on When The Time Run Out Vol.1; Journey on Project Blue Vol. 5; and 5 Minus 3 on Killer Cuts! and Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 2 (CD).

(Max Waller)

Chancellors Ltd

TOP

45:

1. You Be The Judge/From The Sublevels (Dene 101) 1966

From Houston in Texas. The 'A' side, which is undistinguished, can be found on the Riot City! compilation. So far as I know they were unrelated to The Chancellors, a sixties punk band who also cut two 45s and came from Houston.

Changing Times

TOP

45:

1. I'm Alone/Cry (Mark VII 101 3) 1967

Operated around the Waco-Temple area of Texas in the 1960s. The flip, which has a chiming intro and pleasing vocals, appeared on Flashback, Vol. 4.

The Changing Times

TOP

Personnel:

- DALE HASTINGS A B
- SANDY CHARLES A B
- RICK DAVIDSON A B
- RICK LAYMON A B
- GARRYFORD A B
- JOE REYNOLDS B

A different Dallas outfit who were known as The Gentlemen prior to 1966. They didn't make it onto vinyl at the time but Texas Flashbacks Vol. 1: Dallas included five unreleased cuts by line-up B:- She Don't Know, About Me And You, Near You Babe, Life's A Game and Just Look Back. None of these have much to commend about them.

Changin' Times

Personnel:

- ARTIE KORNFELD
- STEVE DUBOFF

45s:

1. Pied Piper / Thank You Babe (Philips 40320) Oct 1965
2. How Is The Air Up There / Young & Innocent Girl (Philips 40341) Jan 1966
3. I Should Have Brought Her Home / Goin' Lovin' With You (Philips 40368) May 1966
4. Aladdin / All In The Mind Of A Young Girl (Philips 40401) Oct 1966
5. Free Spirit (She Comes On) / You Just Seem To Know (Bell 675) 1967

This talented NYC-based songwriter duo would achieve some success but also saw this eclipsed by covers of their songs. A vibrant blend of catchy and occasionally punky folk-rock-pop, some of these titles should be familiar - Crispian St.Peters achieved a U.K. no. 5 with his version of Pied Piper, which was also covered by the Human Bein(g)z, La De Da's, and both the Aces Combo and Tony & The Fabulous Spades on their respective Justice LPs. New Zealand's garage gods the La De Da's also covered the Changin' Times finest moment How Is The Air Up There - hear it on Ugly Things Vol. 3 or Wild Things Vol. 1. It's a dynamic snarling garage-pop blast that would've fit right into the Standells' repertoire. The Changin' Times' original of this classic can be heard on Vile Vinyl Vol.1 and Open Up Yer Door Vol. 2. Other compilation coverage includes Pied Piper on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol. 5 (CD) and Thank You Babe on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol.6 (CD).

Artie Kornfeld went on to be one of the quartet that created and organised Woodstock - with Joel Rosenman, John Roberts and Michael Lang. Steve Duboff subsequently released a solo 45 - In The Peaceful Valley (Woodstock '69) / Song For You (Cotillion 44051) 1969.

Their names continue to turn up on songwriting credits and as arrangers or producers of other acts. Steve Duboff and Dave Morris composed Out Of Sight, Out Of Mind was covered by The Marauders, Limey & the Yanks, the Bit 'A Sweet, and in the 80s by the Outta Place. Artie Kornfeld production credits include 45s by the Carnival Connection, Guild Light Gauge, Tuneful Trolley and the Unclaimed (with Milan), Bert Sommer's eponymous LP on Kama Sutra in 1971 and Swampgas.

(Max Waller)

Changin' Tymes

45s:

1	Chicago Street Fight / Blue Music Box	(M.U.M.A. Muma 1)	1968

A gloriously rare 45 on the 'Memphis Underground Music Association' label whose design incorporates the peace salute and which gives off suitably '68 'heavy' vibes, man. The choice cut Blue Music Box - "a ferocious 1968 grinder that's reminiscent of a track off MC5's Kick Out The Jams" - kicks off the essential CD compilation A Lethal Dose of Hard Psych.

(Max Waller/Erik Lindgren)

The Chants

45:

1. Hypnotized/Elaina (B.Ware 869) 1966

A mid-sixties folk-punk band from Dallas in Texas. You can check out Hypnotized on Flashback, 3, Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 11: Texas, Part One or Gathering Of The Tribe and Elaina has been included on Punk Ballads From The Sixties, a 1987 compilation.

The Chaparrals

Personnel:

- WAYNE ROSSEE ld gtr A B C
- STEVE KARNAVAS drms A B C
- JAMIE BASSETT bs, hmnca A B C
- CHUCK McKAY vcls, gtr A B C
- TOMMY CASHWELL keyb'ds B
- VERNON WOMACK keyb'ds C

This much-travelled mob formed in North Texas State University late in 1964. They journeyed to Miami and then headed to Orlando where Cashwell joined their ranks. His connections with a booking agency got them gigs throughout the South but the rest of he band were not interested in gigging in the North so they parted company with him. Returning to Dallas in 1966 and adding Womack to their line-up they recorded a number of songs which were unable to attract any record labels at the time but which have subsequently been included on Texas Punk, 1966: Vol. 7. In 1968 they set off again to try their luck in California. After a spell in LA they split up in San Francisco. Karnavas remained there forming The Snakes with ex-Briks vocalist Cecil Cotton, but the rest went back to their homeland. Other previously unreleased tracks have cropped up on compilations: Respect and Blues From An Airplane on The Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 4, I'll Go Crazy on Texas Punk, Vol. 9, So Good has resurfaced on Acid Visions, Box Set 1 (CD) and Move On, One More Time, Wake Up Girl, If Your Heart Were Only Wise, Get Off Of My Cloud, Satisfaction, So Good (again) and I'll Go Crazy on Acid Visions, Box Set 3 (CD).

The Chapparals

45:

1. * Roxanne/Without You (Notsuch 003/4) 196?

* released as by Chaparral Trio.

A trio of brothers from Houston. They have Roxanne, which was released as a test pressing, included on Houston Hallucinations 1982 and a previously unissued cut, I Tried So Hard included on Epitaph For A Legend (Int Artists 13) 1980, which has recently been reissued by Decal.

The Chaps

45s:

1	Tell Me/Forget Me	(Paula 236)	1966
2	Remember To Forget/You'll Be Back	(Paula 250)	1966
3	To Kingdom Come/Wait A Minute	(Soft 1032)	1969
4	Jemima Surrender/Ozark Smokehouse	(Soft 1032)	1969
5	Maybe I'm Amazed/Wait A Minute	(Soft 1032)	1970
6	Golden Slumbers - Carry That Weight/Ozark Smokehouse	(Soft 1033)	1971
7	Get Me Off This Plane In Time/Little Red Wagon	(Soft 1043)	1971
8	Cry, Just A Little/Ozark Smokehouse	(Demand 303)	19?
9	Population Zero/Water Hole	(Madella 105)	19?

Out of the Dallas/Fort Worth area of Texas, their first 45 was in the garage genre but the rest were more rock-oriented. Wait A Minute which has also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2 has a trotting beat underpinned by a continual fuzz guitar line - only broken by the sudden intrusion of a harpsichord... unusual and quite cool - especially the freaky ending! You can also check out Tell Me on Sick And Tired.

Possibly connected with the following Dallas-Fort Worth record - by L.B. Gibson & The Chaps:-

1. Treat Her Right/Oh Boy (Charay 1003) 1969

(Max Waller)

Chapter VI

45:

1. Fear/Oracle (Original Sound OS-78) 1966

An unknown group, probably Californian. Fear is a good organ driven mid-tempo track with an excellent intro and male vocals, whilst Oracle, is also an interesting organ-driven piece. The 45 was produced by Brian Ross with the 'A' side written by Mike Payne and the flip by by D.Mandish / S.Libbea and R.Helgeson.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Chargers

45:

1. Taxi/? (Julian 106) 1965

More obscurios. Taxi resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 2, by an unknown Wenatchee, Washington band.

Chariot

Personnel:

PUG BAKER	drms	A
LARRY GOULD	bs, vcls	A
MICHAEL KOPLAN	gtr, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	CHARIOT	(National General NG 2003)	1968 R1

A blues and hard psyche trio influenced by Cream. There are rumours that they may have later recorded as The Knack.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Charity

Personnel:

- BLOSSOMS vcls A
- JOHN CORTINAS A
- WALT FLENNERY A
- KENT HENRY gtr A
- JEFF OXMAN vcls A
- JAMES PETERS A

ALBUM:

1. (A) CHARITY NOW (Uni 73061) 1969

A Los Angeles outfit whose main claim to fame was the inclusion of Kent Henry, previously of Genesis and later of Steppenwolf. The album, which I haven't heard, is yet to excite collectors but some felt it deserved a mention.

Walt Flannery had earlier played with Love Exchange.

The Charlatans

Personnel:

- GEORGE HUNTER vcls, harp A B C
- MIKE WILHELM gtr A B D
- MIKE FERGUSON piano A B
- SAM LINDE drms A B
- DAN HICKS gtr,vcls B C
- (LYNN HUGHES guest vcls B)
- RICHARD OLSEN bs A B C D
- DARRYL DE VORE keyb'ds D
- TERRY WILSON drms C D
- PATRICK BOGERTY piano C

ALBUMS:

1. (B) CHARLATANS (Philips 600.309) 1969

NB: They also recorded an unreleased album for Karma Sutra in 1966, reissued on Groucho Marx in Italy 1979 and as Alabama Bound by Eva in 1983. More recently (1) has been reissued on CD by One Way (31442) which also includes their first 45 for Kapp. Ace has issued The Amazing Charlatans (Big Beat CDWIKD 138) in 1996, a 23 track CD with four unreleased tracks, recorded with Sly Stone in 1965, and nine demo recordings from 1966. It also includes a commercial they did for Groom and Clean hairdressing in 1966.

45s:

1. The Shadow Knows/32-20 (PS) (Kapp 779) 1965
2. Radio Spot (SpeciaI DJ release of them talking) (Philips 34) 1969
3. High Coin/When I Go Sailin' By (PS) (Philips 40610) 1969

The Charlatans were the very first San Francisco underground rock band. Their story begins back in the Summer of 1964 when George Hunter, inspired by the Beatles, decided to form a rock band. He got together with Richard Olsen, an old college friend, and Mike Wilhelm, a folk singer who had been at school with him. Later that year, Mike Ferguson, who owned an antique shop in San Francisco and had just returned from a trip to Mexico, joined as pianist. Sam Linde was their original drummer, although he was later replaced by Dan Hicks. Hicks had known some of the group at the San Francisco State College. He had done a bit of drumming but his interest really lay in guitar and vocals. At the start the group played Chuck Berry numbers and R & B standards like Got My Mojo Working and My Babe but gradually they evolved the folk rock repertoire for which they had become famous. Eventually the group were offered a residency at the Red Dog Saloon in Virginia City, Nevada, one of the states adjacent to California. Virginia City, once a thriving mining town, was in danger of becoming something of a ghost town when the silver ran out and its population fell from 30,000 back in the 1870s to just 450 in the 1960s. However, around the late 1960s it became a tourist haunt for people armed with cameras and interested in America's history. The manager of the Red Dog Saloon had originally wanted The Byrds to play there, but by then their Mr. Tambourine Man single had given them international popularity so he had to settle for The Charlatans.

To mark the occasion of their first appearance Mike Ferguson designed what is generally thought to have been the first rock poster. Here The Charlatans acted as a magnet for the whole hippy scene. News ot them soon got around and acid heads came from Reno, 'Frisco and as far afield as Seattle and Los Angeles to hear them play. The Red Dog Saloon predated any of the San Francisco venues, and at the time it was the only place on the West Coast where you could hear the new music. When the group arrived at the saloon they were submitted to an unexpected audition - they did this out of their heads on acid! Apparently, The Charlatans had no hassle from the police - there were only a handful of them anyway and they all used to listen to the band, on one occasion even the Governor of Nevada being in the audience.

But things began to go wrong. Despite being packed almost every night, the saloon made a loss because no admission charge was levied so profits could only be made from beer and wine sales. The owner had left his 22 year old son in charge and was not pleased when he found, on returning to discover the reasons for this loss, that everyone was having a ball at his expense. To make matters worse his visit coincided with two members of the group getting busted on the way back from San Francisco with more drug supplies for the group.

Eventually the band headed back to San Francisco for good, taking with them a reputation on a par with anybody. Before long, record companies began to take an interest in them and they eventually signed with the Lovin' Spoonful's label, Kama Sutra. In retrospect, they would have done better to wait for a company to offer them the sort of advance RCA had offered The Jefferson Airplane. The group cut a nine-track album for Kama Sutra which included the Buffy St. Marie song Codine (later recorded by many other 'Frisco bands), amazing versions of traditional songs like Alabama Bound and 32-20 Blues, and the old Coasters' song The Shadow Knows and two songs featuring Lynne Hughes, who worked as a barmaid at the Red Dog Saloon (and later sang with Tongue and Groove and Stoneground) on vocals - Side Track and I'd Rather Be The Devil. The Charlatans had wanted Codine backed by 32-20 released as a single, but the record company got cold feet because of the mention of 'drugs' in Codine and cut off all contact with the band. This was disasterous for The Charlatans and ironic when one considers that the song was condemning drugs rather than advocating their use. (Both sides of the proposed 45 can be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. 3). Nuggets, Vol. 7 includes an unreleased version of Codine.

At this point, Mike Ferguson left the group to join Tongue and Groove with Lynne Hughes, to be replaced by Patrick Bogery, and Dan Hicks gave up the drums to concentrate on the rhythm guitar. So Terry Wilson, who had been playing with David LaFlamme and Jaime Leapold in a group called The Orkustra came in on the drums. But they struggled to get work and Hicks, Bogerty and Hunter left the group for good. Hicks to set up Dan Hicks and His Hot Licks. The remaining three (Wilhelm, Olsen and Wilson) recruited a keyboard player Darryl De Vore and were determined to have a final fling. They negotiated a new contract with Philips, although the resulting album was a mediocre affair. This time The Charlatans called it a day for good.

The tragic story of The Charlatans, probably one of San Francisco's most talented bands, that of a group taken for a ride by its record company, was sadly typical of this era.

Readers of this book may also want to check out a solo album Wilhelm (Zig Zag UA 221) released in 1976, featuring Mike Wilhelm and a host of session musicians. Many consider that side one captures The Charlatans' spirit far better than their albums did.

George Hunter now designs furniture in Sonoma county, Dan Hicks is a famous drunk in Marin and Richard Olsen still performs with his Richard Olsen Orchestra. Mike Furgusen died back in the seventies.

Two LPs from Eva The Charlatans (Eva 12004) and Alabama Bound (Eva 12017) collect their material, but the recent CD reissues from Ace and One Way are superior. Number One and Jack O' Diamonds can also be found on California Christmas, 1.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Charles to The Chevrons

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Charles
- Charmer
- Charolette Wood
- The Chartbusters
- Chateaus
- Chateaux
- The Chayns
- Chaz (and The Classics)
- The Checkmates
- The Checkmates
- Chelsea
- Chelsea Beige
- Chentelles
- Cherokee
- Cherry People
- Cherry Slush
- Chesmann Square
- The Chessmen
- The Chevelle V
- The Chevelles
- Chevrons (V)
- The Chevrons

The Charles

45:

1. Motorcycle/Down By The Riverside (Calliope 138) 1966

Another very obscure one. You can hear Motorcycle on Scum Of The Earth, Part 1. This was Rochester, New York's answer to Leather Boy Milan.

Charmer

Personnel:

- TOM DELLING drms A
- DUANE HITCHINGS keyb'ds, effects A
- STEVE ROSS vcls, gtr A
- RON SPACER bs A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) YOUR PRESENCE REQUESTED (Illusion CM 1070) 1976
2. (A) DO IT TO IT (Illusion CM 1071) 1976

A power rock group. All 10 songs on their first album are composed and produced by Steve Ross and recorded in Florida. The first track, Psychedelic Ride, is a raucous boogie hard rock jam and psychedelic only by title. There is a hint of psychedelia in Mirror Of Darkness and Fun Of Your Lies. Way Home has a good swirling guitar and a garage feelin'. In a more wild garage vein is Zodiac Blue.

Duane Hitchings was in Cactus for their last album in New Cactus Band. The first album may have been recorded in 1971.

Charolette Wood

Friendly Indians was the last recording by The E-Types in 1967. It was released in 1968, on San Francisco International Pop Festival compilation (Colstar 1005), recredited by their manager Ron Roupe to the fictional outfit Charolette Wood. Check out Jud Cost's full story on the Introducing The E-Types CD (Sundazed SC 11026). Friendly Indians also appears on Son Of The Gathering Of The Tribe and Psychedelic Patchwork, Vol. 1. (Max Waller)

The Chartbusters

Personnel incl:

- MITCH CORDAY drms
- JOHN DUBAS bs
- VINCE GIDEON gtr
- VERNON SANDUSKY gtr, vcls

45s:

1. She's The One/Slippin' Thru Your Fingers (Mutual 5O2) 1964 33
2. Why (Doncha Be My Girl)/Stop The Music (Mutual 508) 1964 92
3. You're Breakin' My Heart/Can't You Hear Me Calling (Mutual 511) 1965 -
4. New Orleans/Lonely Surfer Boy (Crusader 118) 1965 134
5. Kick Wheeler/Selfish Girl (Crusader 124) 1965 -
6. One Bird In The Hand/Maybe (Crusader 129) 1966
7. Leavin'You/One Bird In The Hand Is Worth Two In The Bush (Bell 652) 1966
8. Grass Houses/Dance Dance (Bell 683) 1967

Originally known as Bobby Poe & The Poe Kats, from Kansas, they moved to Washington DC at the start of the sixties. Bobby Poe dropped out of performing to handle the management side, but the remaining members carried on under the same name, backing Big Al Downing. In 1964, as a side project, and in response to the wave of Invasion sounds, they cut She's The One with the above line-up as The Chartbusters, and bust 'em they did! This meant leaving the comfort of Big Al and going for it as a bona-fide '60s band. They took their chance and, having invaded the '60s invasion, stayed with it through to the end of the decade. Few genuine rock'n'roll groups from the 50s can have made the transition more successfully or lastingly.

Vernon Sandusky later became lead guitarist for Roy Clark, a guitarist, banjo and fiddle player from Virginia. She's The One can also be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 4. (Max Waller)

Chateaus

TOP

Personnel incl:

JERRY FENDER ?	A
JIM GOODMAN ?	A

45:

1	Since You Have Gone/I'm the One	(Smash 2021)	1966

Probably from Midwest or Dakota (their publisher was Falls City Music amd Near North Music), this unknown Byrds-ish group was produced by Ray Allen. Both sides of their 45 were penned by Jerry Fender and Jim Goodman, who we presume were band members. The 'A' side is kinda like The Byrds Bells Of Rhymney with some Dylan harmonica and the 'B' side close to a Searchers type sound. 12-string guitar throughout.

(Ken Grant/Stephane Rebeschini)

Chateaux

TOP

Personnel incl:

- TOMMY BOLIN gtr

45:

1. Reference Man Pt. 1/Pt. 2 (Eye 1000) 1968

Reference Man, Part 1, has resurfaced on 30 Seconds Before The Calico Wall (CD). From Vermillion, South Dakota, they included a certain Tommy Bolin on guitar.

The Chayns

45s:

1. Night Time/Live With The Moon (Chayn-Reaction 001) 1965
2. Night Time/Live With The Moon (Int. Artists 114) 196?
3. There's Something Wrong (In This Place)/I See It Thru' (Int. Artists 119) 196?
4. Run and Hide/Why Did You Hurt Me? (Chayn-Reaction 002) 1968
5. You/Let Yourself Go (Chayn-Reaction 003) 1971

Best known for their version of Night Time which was picked up by Lelan Rogers for release on his International Artists label, their remaining material was unexceptional. Both sides of their first 45 can be found on A Journey To Tyme, 1. Night Time was later included also on Epitaph For A Legend and the flip to it appeared on Boulders, Vol. 1 and Austin Landing. Run And Hide has also resurfaced on Austin Landing, Vol. 2.

From San Antonio, Texas, they were formed out of Paul Alien & the Baroques.

Chaz (and The Classics)

45s:

1. Alice (in Wonderland)/Gentle Thursday (Picture 6981) 196?
2. Cindy (I'm A Soldier Now)/Dream Boat Overseas (Picture 6995) 196?
3. Girl Of The 13th Hour/Stardust On You (Picture 6999) 1966

Thought to have been based in Houston, they recorded their first two 45s under the name Chaz. The third 45, a snotty punker with a tinge of psychedelia, was issued under the longer name. Check it out on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 11:Texas, Part One.

The Checkmates

Personnel:

BILLY CARDEN	vcls	A
BARON CONKLIN	gtr	A
DAVE MACK	organ	A
JACK McCURDY	trumpet	A
JON MUELLER	tenor sax	A
GEORGE OUTLAW	drms	A
RODDY PORTER	bs	A

SAMMY WINSTON	tenor sax	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	MEET THE CHECKMATES	(Justice 149)	c1967

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Collectables COL-CD-0617) 1996.

The appetite was whetted when Collectables started reissuing the much-vaunted Justice albums which are rarely seen and go for astronomical figures. Tim Warren had already made the Tempos waxing available again which had just lived up to expectations - with the Barracudas, Invaders, Mod and The Rockers, Stowaways albums in the same stable, expectations of the remaining unknown combos was probably unreasonably high. So it's not surprising to discover that they occupy soul/lounge/club territory, well away from garage/beat sounds. What's more, they perform, almost exclusively, the same covers as each other in a perfunctory style. Stick to the known Justice garage-classics and enjoy them at an affordable price.

(Max Waller)

The Checkmates

TOP

45:

1. Talk To Me / ? (Champ 2009) Aug 1967

On the Nashville label that put out 45s by the Originals, Three From Three and Thee Saints & The Prince Of Darkness comes a classic style punker with superbly snarled and pissed-off vocals and booming backing. No fuzz fest but probably the COOLest cut on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2.

(Max Waller / Roger Maglio)

Chelsea

TOP

Personnel incl:

PETE CRISS	drms	A

ALBUM:

1	CHELSEA	()	1970

A group mainly notable for featuring Pete Criss without make-up (he would later become the drummer of Kiss). Their album supposedly contains some good psych rock tracks.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Chelsea Beige

Personnel:

CHRIS EFTHIMIAN	drms	A
STAFFORD L.JAMES III	drms	A
KENNETH LEHMAN	alto sax, clarinet	A
JOHN SCARZELLO	trumpet, fluegel horn	A
BILLY SCHWARTZ	ld gtr	A
ALLAN SPRINGFIELD	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	Mama Mama Let Your Sweet Bird Sing	(Epic Records E-30413)	1971

NB: (1) also released in Holland, (BN 26296).

Springfield, Efthimian, Lehman and Scarzello were previously in The Last Ritual. Produced by John McClure, their only album as Chelsea Beige is better than its predecessor but still contains (too) many horn arrangements.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Chentelles

45:

1. Be My Queen/Time (Fenton 2132) 1967

This was the work of five 13 and 14 year olds from a West Michigan high school. Originally they had a girl drummer too. Be My Queen, a good uptempo teenbeat rocker, can be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 3. The group lasted until 1968 when its members headed off to various colleges

Cherokee

Personnel:

DAVID DONALDSON	gtr, hrmnca	A
GEORGE DONALDSON	gtr	A
ROBERT DONALDSON	keyb'ds, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	CHEROKEE	(ABC ABCS 719)	1971

45:

1	Rosianna / All The Way Home	(ABC Paramount 11295)	1970
2	All The Way Home/Girl, I've Got News For You	(ABC 11304)	1971

This was a later version of The Robbs (from Milwaukee, Wisconsin). The flip side to the 45 is a rather ordinary pop song and can be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 5.

Their album, which was recorded with the help of Chris Hillman, Gib Guilbeau and Sneaky Pete Kleinow, is of minor interest, mainly for country rock fans.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

Cherry People

TOP

Personnel incl:

CHRIS GRIMES		A
DOUG GRIMES		A
ROCY ISAAC	drms	A
EDWIN "PUNKY" MEADOWS	vcls	A
JAN ZUKOWSKI	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	CHERRY PEOPLE	(Heritage 35000)	1968

NB: (1) reissued on CD.

45:

1	And Suddenly / Imagination	(Heritage ?)	1968

NB: (1) some copies with picture sleeve.

Formed by three former English Setters (Meadows and the Grimes Brothers), The Cherry People were an popular mellow pop group that some dealers try to describe as psychedelic (but definitely isn't).

Punky Meadows would later form Angel.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Cherry Slush

TOP

Personnel:

BRIAN BENNET	keyb'ds, vcls	A
GENE BRUCE	ld gtr	A
MARK BURDICK	gtr, vcls	A
DICK COUGHLIN	drms, vcls	A
ART HAUFFEE	bs	A
DAN PARSONS	ld vcls	A

45s:

1	I Cannot Stop You/Don't Walk Away	(Coconut Groove 2032)	1968 -
2	I Cannot Stop You/Don't Walk Away	(USA 895)	1968 119
3	Day Don't Come/Gotta Take It Easy	(USA 904)	1968 -

This group was most significant for the involvement of Dick Wagner (a central figure in the active Michigan rock scene, who led groups like The Bossmen and The Frost). Although he wasn't a member of Cherry Slush, he was a close friend and helped out as a studio musician, writer, producer and arranger. Their finest moment I Cannot Stop You has resurfaced on three compilations:- Boulders, Vol. 5, Colour Dreams and Mindrocker, Vol. 2. It contains some good guitar hooks from Wagner along with some crystal clear harmonies, but over-all it's not that memorable.

The two releases of I Cannot Stop You feature different mixes with horns more prominent onto the U.S.A. release. Dick Coughlin:- "We recorded it at Audio Sound Studios in Cleveland Ohio and the horns were played by Dr. Don Sheets, who played four different parts. He is now a local Veteranarian."

Three 'previously unreleased' tracks on Thee Unheard Of compilation are by a different act entirely and include, a cover of The Beatles' Birthday, Feel A Whole Lot Better and the weaker See Suzie Run.

Amazingly The Cherry Slush are still gigging today and will shortly be releasing a CD The Cherry Slush Looking Back, which features all four of their '60s 45 tracks.

Chesmann Square

TOP

Personnel:

- RON HOGDEN A B
- STEVE HODGDEN A B
- GARY HODGDEN A B
- DAVE HUFFINES A
- JIM McALLISTER B

45:

1. Circles (Instant Party)/Try (Lion 1002) 1969

These Beatles-imitators had a large local following around their home town of Kansas City, Missouri. They were originally known as The Chesmann and their sole 45 came in a picture sleeve. Their cover of Pete Townsend's Circles has resurfaced on the cassette compilation, Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1 and the High All The Time Vol. 2 LP.

The group started in 1964 and eventually called it quits around 1973. Both Gary Hodgden and Jim McAllister later turned up in Michael Browne's post-Stories venture, the Beckies, alongside Scott Trusty. Thereafter Gary and Ron have been involved in heavy metal outfits, whilst Jim retired to studio work.

The Chessmen

Personnel:

- DOYLE BRAMHILL drms, vcls
- TOMMY CARTER bs
- JOHNNY PEEBLES ld gtr, vcls
- SAMMY PIAZZA drms
- ROBERT PATTON ld gtr
- JIMMY VAUGHN ld gtr
- BILLY ETHERIDGE

45s:

1. Save The Last Dance For Me/Dreams And Wishes (Bismarck 1010) 196?
2. I Need You There/Sad (Bismarck 101 2) 1966
3. You're Gonna Be Lonely/No More (Bismarck 1014) 1966
4. No More/When You Lost Someone You Love (Bismarck 101 5) 1966

A popular mid-sixties Dallas band with a strong live reputation. They underwent frequent line-up changes but all of the above were members at some time. Although their original 45s were hard to come by their second 45 can be found on Texas Punk Groups From The Sixties. The 'A' side, a killer punk masterpiece, was also included on Flashback, Vol. 6. The flip was actually a folk-rocker. You can check out both sides of their final 45 on Texas Punk.- Vol. 6 and No More can also be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 13: Texas, Part Three and Acid Visions, Box Set 3 together with You're Gonna Be Lonely. The outfit harboured quite a lot of talent and unsurprisingly many of them were involved in other projects later. Doyle Bramhill played with Stevie Ray Vaughn and Double Trouble, Bill Etheridge briefly replaced Larnier Greig in ZZ Top before being edged out by Dusty Hill, Sammy Piazza went on to Day Creek Road and later still to Hot Tuna and Jimmy Vaughn was in the Fabulous Thunderbirds.

The Chevelle V

45s:

1. I'm Sorry Girl/Come Back Bird (UMI 100) 1966
2. Come Back Bird/Koko Joe (Askel 45-7) 1966
3. Dangling Little Friends/Stone and Steel Man (PS) (Titan 1737) 1967

Hailing from Abilene, a sizeable town in Western Texas, this garage punk outfit has received good compilation coverage. Both sides of the UMI 45 can be heard on Texas Punk 1966, Vol. 1. Come Back Bird, a pretty fine effort, can also be found on Flashback, Vol. 2, and Basement Walls; Koko Joe appears on Texas Punk (1964-8), Vol. 3; and both sides of the Titan 45 can be heard on Bad Vibrations Vol. 2.

The Chevelles

45:

1 Chevelle Stomp/Dear Sue (Bangar Records 616) 1964

The "A" side of this 45 is a cool rock instrumental with good guitar licks, greasy sax, and piano. The "B" side is a ballad. In 1965 they merged with the VanDels and evolved into Dee Jay and The Runaways. You can also find both sides of the 45, along with Blue Chevelle and Mala Boo on the Dee Jay and The Runaways Arf Arf! CD Peter Rabbit.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Chevrons (V)

45:

1. Hey Little Teaser/What Everyone Wants (Fenton 2092) 196?
2. I Lost You Today/????? (Nook) 196?

From Grand Rapids, Michigan. Both sides of their Hey Little Teaser 45 resurfaced on Best Of Michigan Rock Groups, 2 and you can also find the 'A' side on Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 (CD). There's also a strong rockabilly influence in the guitar work on I Lost You Today which can be heard on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 2.

I Lost You Today was released under the Chevrons V monicker, and the 'B' side was the same song recorded backwards. (Max Waller / Kip Brown)

The Chevrons

Personnel incl:

- MIKE NUCCIO

45s:

1. Love, I Love You/Dreams (MMC 016) 1968
2. Love, I Love You/Dreams (Independence 88) 1968
3. Mine Forever More/In The Depth Of My Soul (Independence 94) 1969

This outfit hailed from Omaha in Eastern Nebraska. Dreams and Mine Forever More have both resurfaced on the cassette compilation Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1. The group evolved into a local rock band, Pilot, in the early 1970's.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Chicago Loop to Chocolate Tunnel

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Chicago Loop
- Chicago Transit Authority
- Child
- Childe Harold
- The Children
- The Children of Darkness
- Children of The Mushroom
- Children of The Night
- Children of One
- The Chimes
- Chips & Co
- Chirco
- The Chob
- The Chocolate Balloon Company
- The Chocolate Light Bulbs
- The Chocolate Moose
- The Chocolate Paintbox
- The Chocolate Pickles
- Chocolate Telephone Pole
- Chocolate Tunnel

Chicago Loop

Personnel:

MIKE BLOOMFIELD	gtr	A
BARRY GOLDBERG	organ	A
JUDY NOVY	vcls	A
CARMINE RIALE	bs	A
JOHN SIOMOS	drms	A
BOB SLAWSON	vcls	A

45s:

1	(When She Wants Good Lovin') My Baby Comes To Me/This Must Be The Place	(Dynovoice 226)	1966
2	Richard Corey/Cloudy	(Dynovoice 230)	1967

3	Saved/Can't Find The Words	(Mercury 72755)	1967
4	Technicolor Thursday/Beginning At The End	(Mercury 72802)	1968

The first two 45s were produced by Bob Crewe on his label with Mike Bloomfield and Barry Golberg before they formed the Electric Flag.

The Mercury 45s are brash uptempo popsters. The final effort is good pop - with - fuzz backed by a strange unsettling number with spiralling fuzz that gives it a psychy feel and a somewhat off-the-wall ending. Their first Mercury 45 is nowhere near as good.

John Siomos and Carmine Riale also played with Mitch Ryder.

(Max Waller / Steve Panter / Jeff Lemlich / Stephane Rebeschini)

Chicago Transit Authority

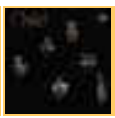
TOP

Personnel:

PETER CETERA	bs, lead vcls	A
TERRY KATH	gtr, lead vcls	A
ROBERT LAMM	ld vcls, keyb'ds	A
LEE LOUGHNANE	trumpet	A
JAMES PANKOW	trombone	A
WALTER PARAZAIDER	woodwind	A
DANIEL SERAPHINE	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	CHICAGO TRANSIT AUTHORITY	(Columbia PG 8)	1969



NB: (1) also issued in France, U.K., Germany, Holland etc.

Produced and conceived by James William Guercio, a Chicago producer already responsible for The Buckinghams success, Chicago Transit Authority were one of the first "big rock bands with horns". Their first album is really interesting, notably for Free Form Guitar: 7 minutes of Hendrix-like improvisation on guitar and Liberation: 15 minutes recorded live and full of great guitar mayhem courtesy of Terry Kath. Prologue was recorded at the famous Democratic Convention of Chicago in August 1968, during the confrontation between black militants and the police. There's also a cover of Steve Winwood's I'm A Man. Unfortunately, after this good debut, the group became known as Chicago and that's a totally different story, really out of the scope of this book!

Terry Kath, their talented guitarist, killed himself while playing Russian Roulette in 1977. Pete Cetera had earlier played with The Exceptions.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Child

TOP

Personnel:

- TEDDY ld vcls A
- PAUL ld vcls, gtr, hmnca A
- JOEY organ, piano, chimes A
- CHICK bs A
- TOMMY drms, perc A

ALBUM:

1. (A) CHILD (Jubilee JGS 8029) 1969

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD.

45:

1. You'll Never Walk Alone/? (Jubilee 5673) 1969

This short-lived outfit specialised in melodramatic cover versions of popular songs of the day. The album, which was recorded at Select Sound Studios, in New York, includes slowed down versions of classics like Hold On I'm Comin, You'll Never Walk Alone, Old Man River and the instrumental Exodus. All come with lots of very heavy organ in the same mould as Vanilla Fudge. Certainly worth a spin.

Childe Harold

TOP

45:

1. Brink Of Death/Anne With Love (PS) (Limelight L-3084) 1968

An interesting sole waxing by this five-piece, presumably from the New York area. Produced by electronics wizard Walter (aka Wendy Carlos), the 'A' side was also written by Bert Sommer of Left Banke fame. Brink Of Death is a haunting lament with phasey vocals, lotsa orchestration as one would expect plus doses of strange effects. Strangely enough the flip, though not penned by Sommer, sounds much more like the Left Banke - sorta psychy baroque-pop. Brink of Death has recently surfaced on A Heavy Dose of Lyte Psych CD, and you can hear both sides of the 45 on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8. (MW).

The Children

TOP

Personnel:

- LOUIS CABAZA keyb'ds, bs, vibes A B C
- CHRIS HOLZHAUS gtr A B C
- STEPHEN PERRON vcls A B C
- ANDREW SZUCH Jnr drms A
- BENNY TRIEBER A

- MIKE MARECHAL B
- CASSELL WEBB bs, vcls C
- KENNY CORDAY

ALBUM:

1. (C) REBIRTH (Cinema 0001) 1968

NB. Also released by Atco (SD-33-271) 1968 in a regular cover. The Cinema issue had a fold-out sleeve.

45s:

1. Picture Me/Enough Of What I Need (Laramie 666) 1967
2. Maypole/I'll Be Your Sunshine (Atco 6633) 1968
3. Pills/Once More (Cinema 025) 1970
4. From The Very Start/Such A Fine Night (Ode 66005) 1970 105
5. Hand Of A Lady/Fire Ring (Ode 66013) 1971

One of the more commercial acts to come from San Antonio, Texas in the 1960s, Perron, Cabaza, Szuch, Trieber and Holzhaus had all previously been with The Mind's Eye. It had been speculated that Bill Ash (ex The Stoics) had been in The Children as a version of The Stoics Enough Of What I Need appeared on the flip of The Children's first single. Chris Holzhaus has, however, told us that he played on all The Children's recordings, and that Bill Ash had only been an early member of The Mind's Eye.

Mike Marechal replaced Trieber after Trieber was Killed in A Drag Boat accident at McQueeney Lake outside San Antonio Texas in '68. Their second 45 was taken from their album - a collection of pleasant pop psychedelia produced by Lelan Rodgers. There may also have been a test pressing for an LP on Ode. Their cover of lan Whitcomb's This Sporting Life later surfaced on Boulders, Vol. 5 and Enough Of What I Need can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Slxties Vol. 23 Texas, Part 5. Cassell Webb was later in Saddlesore and went on to production work and a solo career. She is now based in the UK. Perron also enjoyed a brief solo career but sadly committed suicide, whilst Holzhaus went on to Eastwood Review.

There's also a CD with Thursdays Children entitled Stoned Sixties. It was released on Collectables (COL-CD-0600).

Chris Holzhaus has a website at: http://www.chrisholzhaus.com/

The Children of Darkness

TOP

45:

1. She's Mine/Sugar Shack A-Go-Go (Royce 5140) 1966

Allegedly from 'Oblong' in Southern Illinois, this was their sole vinyl venture. The 'A' side, a typical garage punker with great organ about an independent-minded girl whose really cool, can be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 2. The flip, a sing-along party track, with brilliantly numbskull lyrics, has also resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (CD) and Hipsville, Vol. 2.

There's some dispute over the bands origins. Oblong is indeed located in East Illinois, due west of Robinson in Crawford County, (which borders Indiana just north of Vincennes), but its also said that the band claimed to come from here as a joke that was meant to go along with the name The Children of Darkness being a reference to a Casket / Coffin...

(Max Waller / Kip Brown)

Children of The Mushroom

TOP

Personnel:

DENNIS CHRISTENSEN	drms	A
JERRY McMILLAN	vcls, gtr, flte	A
AL PISCIOTTA	bs	A
JIM ROLFE	ld gtr	A
??	keyb'ds	A

45:

1	You Can't Erase A Mirror/August Mademoiselle	(Soho 101)	1968

This outfit came from Thousand Oaks, California with one awesome 45. The 'A' side being a psychedelic ballad, whilst the flip is also an enchanting psychedelic folk-rock track. Unsurprisingly the 45 commands a very high price tag, and has been heavily compiled.

They started off doing Doors type material, then turned into sort of an Iron Butterfly "clone". In fact, the lead singer, Jerry McMillan, was rumored to have auditioned with Iron Butterfly, and possibly even sang on their first album, Heavy (check the credits on the album - the vocals for one song are listed as "Darryl with Jerry" - could it be?). By late 1970, Jerry was also playing flute, and their material had progressed into a sort of psychedelic version of Jethro Tull.

Compilation appearances have so far included: You Can't Erase A Mirror on Magic Cube and Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD); August Mademoiselle on Filling The Gap; and both sides on; The Human Expression & Other Groups: Your Mind Works In Reverse, the Slowly Growing Insane CD and it's equivalent Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 11 LP.

(Max Waller / Bruce Emmons)

Children of The Night

TOP

45:

1. World Of Tears/Don't Cry Little Girl (Bella 45-101) 1967

From Old Saybrook, Connecticut. You'll find World Of Tears on the Psychedelic Disaster Whirl compilation, which shows that the band only had rather crude recording techniques...

Children of One

Personnel:

- BALAKRISHNA sitar A
- LES GRINAGE cello, dilruba A
- KONRAD KAUFMAN drms, perc A
- LAKSHMI tanpura A
- LEONARD LONERGAN soprano sax A
- MARCELLA MALMOLI vcls A
- LUCAS MASON flute, piano A
- PAULA MASON vcls A
- IRIN POELLIOT vcls A
- PETER SOKOLOW bs clarinet A
- VERA SOKOLOW vcls A

ALBUM:

1. CHILDREN OF ONE (Real 101) 1968 (also seen as 1970) R1

A New York band whose album of Eastern-based improvisational music features wordless female vocals. (Clark Faville)

The Chimes

45:

1	#38/Foolish Pride	(Matrix S 777)	1968

Dothan, Alabama's answer to Dave Diamond and The Higher Elevation. Composer Douglas Huber was a local DJ who came up with some weird alliterative lyrics, spoken Bob Markley-ilke, over music composed by The Chimes. OK, it's not quite 'out there' with DD's classic Diamond Mine but #38 is quite weird'n'wonderful, with flange and tremolo effects and great harmonica.

It awaits your pleasure on The Essential Pebbles Collection Vol. 2 and Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Chips & Co

45s:

1. Let The Winds Blow/Marbletown (MS 191) 1965

2. Every Night/You're You (ABC Paramount 10749) 1965
3. Walk Tall/Ace Of Spades (ABC Paramount 10769) 1966

These are the work of a Connecticut band. Let The Winds BIow has adriving beat, reverberating guitar and typically tough-sounding punk vocals. You'll find it on The Midwest vs The Rest, Vol. 1.

Chirco

TOP

Personnel:

- ANVIL ROTH vcls A
- JOHN NAYLOR gtr A
- BRUCE TAYLOR bs A
- TED MACKENZIE drms A
- S.H. FOOTE keyb'ds A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE VISITATION (Crested Butte) 1972

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Gear Fab GF-130) 1999.

45:

1. Mr. Sunshine / Golden Image (PS) (Crested Butte 1200) 1972

Previously known as Sassafrass, this progressive rock outfit came from Westchestr County, NY, although they also spend some time recording in New England. There's a lot of fuzz and vibes on their fine album, which Barry Tashian of The Remains helped the band record. Every track's a winner in what is for the most part a stunning blend of guitar and keyboards. The finest moment is probably the final track Child of Peace and there's also a cover of Barry Tashian's Mister Sunshine.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Michael Stelk)

The Chob

TOP

Personnel:

KEITH BRADSHAW	bs	A
ROBBIE CRNICH	keyb'ds	A
DAVE ELLEDGE	drms	A
DICK HANSON	vcls, gtr	A
QUINTON MILLER	ld gtr	A

45s:

1	We're Pretty Quick/Ain't Gonna Eat Out My Hean Anymore	(Lavette LA 5016)	1966

2 I'm Not Your Steppin' Stone/Why Am I Alone? (QQ 724) 196?

Arguably their first 45 was one of the best 45s to come out of New Mexico in the mid-sixties. Both sides can be heard on New Mexico Punk From The Sixties and you'll also find the 'A' side on Chosen Few, Vol. 1 and Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1. They came from the Albuquerque and were also responsible for Why Am I Alone? which appeared on the Straight From The Garage (EP), Vol. 1 credited to Choab (a euphemism for pimple!).

The Chocolate Balloon Company

45:

1. Gotta Get This/Little Girl I Love You So (Choc-Balloon CB-1) 196?

A self-pressed effort, Gotta Get This can be heard on Boulders, Vol. 5.

The Chocolate Light Bulbs

45:

1. I'll Forgive You Girl/Poor Little Girl (Lennan 1263) 196?

A little known garage band from California. The 'A' side has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 9.

The Chocolate Moose

45s:

1. Take A Ride/The Chocolate Moose Theme (Spotlight 1012) 1966
2. Rosie/Half-Peeled Banana (Spotlight 1015) 1966

Out of Dallas, Texas in the mid-sixties, this punk outfit's theme tune has subsequently surfaced on Boulders, Vol. 1 and Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 2 and Take A Ride can be found on Boulders, Vol. 2.

The Chocolate Paintbox

CD:

1. IT CAME TO ME IN A DREAM (Collectables COL-CD-0597) 1995

An early seventies rock band from Texas. The above CD has 10 tracks. Little is known or revealed on the CD liner notes. Sadly a lot of the music is also pretty anonymous and uninspiring, despite the liner description of 'acid trips' and 'psychedelia' - mellow folk/blues- rock it certainly is. (MW)

The Chocolate Pickles

45:

1. Hey You/? (Darn-L 451-5-10A) 1967

An obscure recording on a little known Michigan label. You'll find Hey You, with its fuzz and derogatory vocal style on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 6: Michigan, Part 2.

Chocolate Telephone Pole

45:

1	Let's Tranquilize With Color / One By One	(Jack O'Diamonds J.O.D. 1011)	Nov 1967

Such a trippy group name and A-side title, it may sound like it's gotta be wonderful psych but, too often, it's exploito psych or tame MOR flower-pop put out by a producer with studio musicians, eager to catch the latest trend; such is the case here.

Alex Zanetis, owner of a small Nashville label, harvested some studio musicians and issued this flowery-pop confection in late '67. Should appeal to fans of The Love Generation, Fifth Dimension and Free Design but there's something missing - the lull in the middle is obviously where a guitar or keyboard solo was to be inserted!

This curio can be heard on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Max Waller/Roger Maglio)

Chocolate Tunnel

45s:

1. Highly Successful Young Rupert White/Ostrich People (In-Sound 403) 1967
2. Highly Successful Young Rupert White/Ostrich People (Era 3185) 1967

Possibly an LA-based outfit. Ostrich People has resurfaced on the Good Roots compilation.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Chocolate Watchband to The Chozen Ones

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Chocolate Watchband
- The Choir
- The Chosen Few
- The Chosen Few
- The Chosen Few
- The Chosen Lot
- The Chozen Ones

Chocolate Watchband

TOP

Personnel:

PETE CURRY	drms	A
JO KEMLING	organ	A B
MARK LOOMIS	gtr	A B C D E G
DANNY PHAY	vcls (AB) gtr (GH)	A B G H
NED TORNEY	ld gtr	A B G
RICH YOUNG	bs	A B
GARY ANDRIJASEVICH	drms	B C D E G H
DAVE AGUILAR	vcls	C D F
BILL FLORES	bs	C D E F G H
SEAN TOLBY	gtr	C D E F G H
TIM ABBOTT	gtr	E
CHRIS FINDERS	vcls	E
MARK WHITTAKER	drms	E F
PHIL SCOMA	ld gtr	H

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1(C)	NO WAY OUT	(Tower 5096)	Sept. 1967
2(D)	THE INNER MYSTIQUE	(Tower 5106)	Feb. 1968
3(E)	ONE STEP BEYOND	(Tower 5153)	1969

NB. (1) reissued on CD (Sundazed SC 6023) 1994 with three bonus tracks: In The Midnight Hour (previously unreleased), Psychedelic Trip (previously unreleased) and Milk Cow Blues. (2) reissued on CD (Sundazed SC 6024) 1994 with the 45 version of She Weaves A Tender Trap as a bonus cut. (3) reissued on CD (Sundazed SC 6025) 1994 with two bonus tracks from the "Riot On Sunset Strip" soundtrack: Don't Need Your Lovin' and Sitting There Standing. (1) has also been reissued as No Way Out..., Plus (Big Beat/Ace CDWIKD 118) 1993, which includes eight bonus tracks (including 45 cuts like She Weaves A Tender Trap and Sweet Young Thing, an alternate take of Misty Lane and two tracks by line-up 'B' Don't Let The Sun Catch You Crying and Since You Broke My Heart). (1) and

(2) have also been reissued on one CD by Eva (with inferior sound quality) and (1) and (2) have also been reissued on vinyl, with one additional track in the case of (1). There have also been a number of compilations, including Fourty Four (Big Beat) 198? which includes all of the material, which the band actually played on; The Best Of The Chocolate Watch Band (Rhino) 198?; and Are You Gonna Be There? (Eva 12048) 198?.

EPs:

1	Sweet Young Thing/Come On/I'm Aware/Milk Cow Blues	(Eva 2004)	198?
2	SITTING THERE STANDING	(Sundazed SEP 109)	1996

NB: (1) is a bootleg. (2) Contains Sitting There Standing, 'Till The End Of The Day, Sweet Young Thing and Are You Gonna Be There. 'Till The End Of The Day and Are You Gonna Be There are previously unreleased instrumental backing tracks.

45s:

1	Sweet Young Thing/Baby Blue	(Uptown 740)	Dec. 1966
2	Blue Theme/Loose Lip Sync Ship	(HBR 511)	Dec. 1966
3	Misty Lane/She Weaves A Tender Trap	(Uptown 749)	Feb. 1967
4	Are You Gonna Be There (At The Love In)/No Way Out	(Tower 373)	1967

NB: (2) as The Hogs. In the late eighties, the bootleg label Eva also issued a promo 45, Let's Talk About Girls/In The Past (EVA JBR 4) 198?

This San Jose band formed in the summer of 1965 at Foothills college in Los Altos and were discovered late the following year by Ed Cobb. Their original line-up included Pete Curry on drums, who went on to become guitarist / songwriter with The Halibuts. His time in the band was severely limited however, and after their first gig was replaced by Gary Andrijasevich. Although nothing was released by the first couple of line-ups (*), they were reputedly on par with the "classic" The Chocolate Watchband, with Dan Phay being a particularly charismatic front-man.

The band were also friends with another act called The Topsiders who for a short while included Skip Spence, prior to his joining Jefferson Airplane. In 1965, both bands underwent a number of changes, with Phay, Torney and Kemling all leaving to join The Topsiders (who then became The Other Side), whilst Sean Tolby, moved from The Topsiders to The Chocolate Watchband. Indeed Mark Loomis (ex-Shandels) also had a brief spell with The Other Side after Rich Young was drafted, before he decided to reform the 'Watchband with Gary Andrijasevich and Jo Kemling. The latter opted to stay with The Other Side however, and bassist, Bill Flores (ex-Shandels) and, a vocalist, biology student Dave Aguilar, were drafted in to complete The Chocolate Watch Band's new line-up. Heavily influenced by British R & B outfits like The Stones and The Yardbirds, the band gigged regularly around the Bay Area supporting bands like The Doors, Big Brother and The Holding Co. and The Mothers of Invention.

They were signed to Tower and recorded a debut single in 1966. The 'A' side, written by Cobb, was a fine Stones' infIuenced number, but with an uniquely Californian interpretation. Inexplicably, Tower issued the single on its black R & B subsidiary label, Uptown, which did not, as a white group on this label, attract the airplay it deserved.

On Cobbs insistence, The Chocolate Watch Band returned to the studio to record a cover version of Blue Theme, originally performed by Dave Allen and the Arrows, on the soundtrack to The Wild Angels. However, Tower were not convinced of its commerciality, and Cobb leased the finished master to Hanna Barbers records. It was released, under the pseudonym, The Hogs, as HBR 511, with Loose Lip Sync Ship, which culminates into a strange psychedelic piece of dementia, on the flip side. It was quite successful locally and Dave Allen's version of Blue Theme became a Top 40 hit.

The 'A' side of their next single Misty Lane was more commercial and not as powerful as Sweet Young Thing. The flip was an uncharacteristically reflective, quieter number with a stringed and woodwind section.

1967 saw the band record two tracks Don't Need Your Lovin' and Sitting Here Standing, on the soundtrack to Riot On Sunset Strip. September 1967 saw the release of their debut album No Way Out. Essentially a collection of psychedelic punk, containing the impressive Let's Talk About Girls (featured on the Nuggets compilation), punk versions of Come On and In The Midnight Hour as well as drug-influenced songs like Expo 2000, The Dark Side Of The Mushroom, Gosamer Wings and the title track. Many of the songs have an Eastern influence. It has later been revealed that the band did not play on the spacier tracks on this album, for which Cobb used session musicians. It is now known, too, that arranger Don Bennett and not Dave Aguilar sang the vocals on Let's Talk About Girls. However, the full band did play on Are You Gonna Be There (At The Love In)/No Way Out their next single lifted from the album. Aguilar's explanation for the mixed-up nature of the studio recordings is that the band considered themselves primarily live performers who "loved to challenge big-namegroups and blow 'em off the stage. That's where we got our excitement and our kicks". The studio stuff was considered a mere sidelight which they left mainly in Cobb's hands.

The Eastern influence is developed further on their excellent second album, The Inner Mystique, which appeared in February 1968 and actually comprised of outtakes from the first album plus new recordings that didn't feature the band. Aguilar, Loomis and Andrijasevich had all quit before the release of the first album leaving Flores and Tolby to fill their spaces with other musicians from the San Francisco Bay Blues Band. The band did not appear at all on the 'A' side, which was the work of Ed Cobb's session musicians. There was a mystical/Eastern element to instrumentals Voyage Of The Trieste and Inner Mystique, (both written by Cobb) and in their cover version of We The People's In The Past. The band itself did play on side two, which included a remix of Dylan's Baby Blue taken from their first single, an excellent version of Ray Davies' I'm Not Like Everybody Else and The Brogues' I Ain't No Miracle Worker. Flore and Tolby also quit in late '67, prior to the albums release, although this was because of the problems in maintaining a stable line-up rather than any frustration with Cobb's influence over the bands recordings.

With no band to promote the release, a year passed before Ed Cobb persuaded some members to reform the band and have another go. Guitarist Danny Phay (from The Other Side) came back in as a replacement for Dave Aguilar, who decided not to get involved again. The band wrote all the material for the resultant One Step Beyond album, but aside from I Don't Need No Doctor, it's comparatively disappointing. They split again after this album was released in 1969 and an attempted reformation in 1970 lasted just one month.

Also of note was a short lived act known as The Tingle Guild, who included Mark Lomis, Dan Phay, Gary Andrajasivich plus his cousin Chris Ramey. Original drummer, Pete Curry, also returned to the fold for a while, but presumably the band fizzled out...

Dave Aguilar was reported, in 1983, to be Professor of Astronomy at Colorado University and he then moved into doing research for the aerospace industry. Rich Young now gigs in the bay area with Jerry Miller of Moby Grape fame. Sean Tolby is now dead.

Later revelations that the band did not play on some of their album tracks perhaps diminish a little of their reputation, but they remain one of the most interesting West Coast bands and they made some fine music.

In 1999, the band reformed for a gig at the 3-day "66-99" event in San Diego on 12th June and later at the New York 'Cavestomp '99!' on Nov 5-7th alongside The Standells, Monks et al.

Compilation coverage has also included: Let's Talk About Girls on Nuggets; Sweet Young Thing on Pebbles, Vol. 7 and Nuggets, Vol. 6; Loose Lip Sync Ship on Pebbles, Vol. 3: Are You Gonna Be There (At The Love ln)? on Nuggets, Vol. 2; and I Don't Leave You Lovin' on Garage Music For Psych Heads.

For more information on the band, check their website: http://www.chocolatewatchband.com

(Vernon Joynson / Chuck Kemling / Stephane Rebeschini / Alec Palao / Lloyd Peasley)

(*) A recording does exist of line-up 'B' from a gig in the Summer of 1965, but only two tracks have surfaced on the Big Beat CD reissue of No Way Out.

The Choir

Personnel:

- JIM BONFANTI drms, vcls, tamb A B C DEF G
- WALLY BRYSON ld gtr A B C
- DAVE BURKE bs A
- DANN KLAWON gtr, drms, hrmnca A D F
- DAVE SMALLEY vcls, gtr A B C D
- JIM SKEEN bs B C
- KENNY MARGOLIS keyb'ds C D E F G
- JIM ANDERSON ld gtr D
- DENNY CARLETON bs E
- RANDY KLAWON ld gtr E
- PHIL GIALLOMBARDO organ E F G
- RICK COON gtr F G
- BOB McBRIDE bs G

line-up 'A': 1966, recorded It's Cold Outside in December 1966.
B: 1967, recorded first Roulette 45.
C: Fall 1967, recorded second Roulette 45 and other unreleased cuts.
D: 1968
E: Fall 1968
F: Spring 1969
G: 1969-70, recorded Intrepit 45.

ALBUM:

1. CHOIR PRACTICE (Sundazed LP 5009) 1994

NB: Contains It's Cold Outside and many previously unreleased tracks, also on CD (SC 11018), which contains 18 tracks.

EP:

1. The Choir (Bomp (04-EP) 197?

45s:

1. It's Cold Outside/I'm Going Home (Can Am 203) 1967
2. It's Cold Outside/I'm Going Home (Roulette R-4738) 1967
3. No One Here To Play With/Don't You Feel A Little Sorry For Me (Roulette R-4760) 1967
4. Changing My Mind/When You Were With Me (Roulette R-7005) 1967
5. Gonna Have A Good Time Tonight/So Much Love (Intrepid 75020) 1969

Originally called The Mods, they formed in Mentor (near Cleveland), Ohio in 1964, adopting that particular musical genre popular in Cleveland - U.K. mod-pop. The line-up revolved through many changes with members constantly coming and going. The nucleus was Wally Bryson, Jim Bonfauti and Dave Smalley (3/4 of the Raspberries). Jimmy Skeen was another member. When they recruited vocalist Eric Carmen from Cyrus Erie they became The Raspberries. Their vinyl zenith was Its Cold Outside, a melodic, Merseybeat-influenced pop song, which can be found on the Pride Of Cleveland Past, Pebbles, Vol. 2 and Pebbles Box Set compilations. The flip was far more punkish. You'll find it on Pebbles, Vol. 2 (CD), The Best Of Pebbles, Vol. 2 and Highs In The Mid- Sixties: Vol. 9, Ohio. It was later covered by The Chesterfield Kings. It's Cold Outside, I'm Going Home, No One Here To Play With, Don't You Feel A Little Sorry For Me and When You Were With Me have also resurfaced on Psychedelic Microdots Of The Sixties, Vol. 3 (CD).

The EP, released in the late seventies, features five unreleased tracks:- Anyway l Can, Don't Change Your Mind, I'd Rather You Leave Me, Treeberry and I Only Did It Cause I Felt So Lonely. The group split in 1970.

Upon The Choir's demise Margolis moved immediately to Los Angeles, where he formed another ambitious group, Sanctuary, with Richard Tepp and eventually Rick Caon. Jim Bonfanti briefly considered leaving music but instead approached a post-Cyrus Erie/Quick Eric Carmen about forming a 'bar band'. Enthusiasm soon took over and the 'bar band' idea was shelved in favour of a totally English-inspired group, somewhat along the same lines as The Mods and Cyrus Erie. With the addition of Wally Bryson and a band mate of his from the group Fortega, John Alleksic, the new band settled for the name Raspberries and a reactionary (for 1970) British Invasion/Beach Boys' sound. In a bold move, they even adopted shorter, vintage Beatle-length haircuts and matching suits. By the Summer of 1972 (and with Dave Smalley added as Alleksic's replacement), The Raspberries were positioned at No. 5 nationally with the classic Go All The Way. Other hits followed. After three albums, Bonfanti and Smalley left the Raspberries over a long-running dispute with Carmen over image. Bryson and Carmen continued with The Raspberries for one more album, 1974's Starting Over (voted one of the best albums of the year by 'Rolling Stone'). Though the album yielded a sizeable hit in Overnight Sensation (Hit Record), the band soon ground to a halt. By 1976 Eric Carmen re-established himself as a top ten recording artist, though now in an ultra-commercial singer/songwriter mould. Bryson, who went on to record albums with Tattoo and Fotomaker in the late seventies currently plays in the Cleveland area band, Sittin' Ducks, with Dann Klawon and Kenny Margolis.

While not every ex-member of The Choir is still involved in music Denny Carleton currently enjoys an international cult following for the home studio pop creations he releases through his Green Light label. Randy Klawon keeps the spirit of The Mods and The Choir alive; he currently performs obscurities like The Pretty Things' Come See Me and Yardbirds' Little Games in a band called The Newcastle Quartet.

The Chosen Few

TOP

45s:

1. Synthetic Man/Lost Man Alive (Liberty 55919) 1966
2. Asian Chrome/Earth Above, Sky Below (Liberty 55962) 1966/7

From Simi Valley, California. Asian Chrome can also be heard on Boulders, Vol. 7. Rumours of a third 45: I Know Your Name Girl/I Never Really Knew (Liberty ?) 1966/7 are unsubstantiated.

The Chosen Few

TOP

Personnel:

- VANN SLATTER
- MIKE DURE
- BOB SEGARINI gtr, vcls

45s:

1. I Think It's Time/Nobody But Me (Northbeach 1003) 1965
2. I Think It's Time/Nobody But Me (Autumn 17) 1965

A mid-sixties San Francisco-based outfit both sides of whose 45 has resurfaced on two compilations:- Autumn Single Box and Sound Of The 60s: San Francisco, Part 2. Nobody But Me also resurfaced on Mindrocker, Vol. 1.

Slatter and Dure both went on to Family Tree and Segarini played in several San Francisco/Californian bands including Ratz, Us, Family Tree, Roxy and The Wackers.

It's likely that Gary Wagner of Parish Hall, was connected to this outfit as he is credited as songwriter on their North Beach 45.

The Chosen Few

TOP

Personnel:

DAVE BARNES	drms	A
DAVE BENNETT	gtr	A
JOHN CASCELLA	keyb'ds	A
JACK HAMILTON	bs	A
CARL STORIE	lead vcls, perc	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE CHOSEN FEW	(RCA LSP-4242)	1969

As 1969 saw the commercial breakthrough of the much dreaded horn-rock style, many record labels tried to participate in it and RCA chose to launch a group of aging musicians (probably from Indiana, the liner notes being written by a local DJ) to be their own Chicago or Blood Sweat and Tears.

Produced by Pierre Maheu and recorded in Chicago and New York, their album is almost totally awful. The group material and the two covers (the soul hit You Make Me So Very Happy" and not surprisingly, Chicago's Beginnings) are totally ruined by the insipid horn arrangements of Pete Dino and Lee Holdridge. The exception is the only track without horns, the intriguing drug song Safrowillie, in which the singer implores to "get his head back" with a background of wah-wah guitar, percussion and the sound of people inhaling cigarettes.

In 1973 the whole group (minus Hamilton) reappeared as the Faith Band and managed to record four albums on Brown Bag and Mercury up until 1979. Cascella also played with Peddler in 1976.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Chosen Lot

Personnel incl:

- ANTHONY BRAZIS

45:

1. Time Was/If You Want To (Sidra 9004) 1967

Both sides of this superb 45 are accomplished affairs composed by Tony Brazis. The band were previously known as Tony and The Bandits and hailed from Middleton, Ohio but moved to Oxford to attend college. Time Was is a hypnotic garagey power-popper with fuzz and eastern influences that pushes all the right buttons and can be enjoyed on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 8 and, strangely, on Sixties Archives 6 CD: Texas & Michigan Psychedelia. The flip is noteworthy too - a shimmering hook-laden fuzzy garage-ballad.

(Max Waller / George Gell / Mike Markesich / Kip Brown)

The Chozen Ones

45:

1	Cold Summer / How Many Times	(Frog 867-JFB-2)	1967

Believed to be from Long Island, NY, this combo's sole 45 is a decent two-sider, labelled 'soul rock' on the top side and 'folk rock' on the flip.

Actually, Cold Summer is moody fuzz-pop - the soul flavour is in the forceful vocals and raucous yelps. Check it out on Sick And Tired. How Many Times is on Bam Caruso's US folk-punk compilation From The New World Vol. 1.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Richard Christensen and Tartaglia to Le Cirque

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Richard Christensen and Tartaglia
- Christmas Spirit
- Christopher
- Christopher
- Christopher and The Souls
- Chrysalis
- The Church Mice
- Churchill Downs
- The Churchkeys
- Chy Guys
- The Chylds
- The Chymes
- The Cicadelics
- The Cindells
- The Cindermen
- The Cinders
- Circuit Rider
- The Circus
- The Circus
- Circus Maximus
- The Cirkit
- Cirkyt
- Le Cirque

Richard Christensen and Tartaglia

TOP

ALBUM:

1	MUVE	(Capitol)	c1967

A weird poet reading his texts over a mix of soft-rock with orchestration and some female chorus, but also with lots of heavy psych guitar on some tracks. Another example of many forgotten records issued on Capitol.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Christmas Spirit

45:

1	Christmas Is My Time Of Year/Will You Still Believe In Me	(White Whale 290)	1968

Christmas Spirit were in fact the Turtles singing two Christmas songs with Linda Ronstadt, then with the Stone Poneys .

(Stephane Rebeschini/Ken Grant)

Christopher

Personnel:

RICHARD AVITTS	gtr	A
RON CRAMER	perc	A
TERRY HAND	drms	A
JOHN SIMPSON	drms	A
DOUG TULL	perc	A
DOUG WALDEN	bs, piano	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	CHRISTOPHER	(Metromedia MD 1024)	1970

NB: (1) has also had a limited edition repressing on Amos and has been pirated on CD by Buy Or Die and later released officially by Gear Fab (GF 108).

45s:

1	Every Boy In The Crowd/Wonderful Love	(Bell 667)	1967
2	Every Boy In The World/Hey Girl	(Bell 679)	1967

This Texan outfit's psychedelic/progressive album has been increasingly attracting attention from collectors in recent years and has also had a limited repressing on vinyl and CD, including an official reissue by Gear Fab. It combines some fine fuzzy psychedelic guitar work on tracks like Dark Road, In Your Time, Disaster and The Wind, whilst Magic Cycles leans towards the progressive genre. Well worth tracking down.

Doug Tull also played with Josefus and the 45s listed may have been by a different band.

Christopher

Personnel:

- GARY LUCAS drms A

- FRANK SMOAK ld gtr A
- BILL McKEE bs A
- STEVE NAGLE gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) WHATCHA GONNA DO (Chris-tee PRP 12411) 1970

NB: (1) reissued on Rockadelic and later on Atlas (12 411 15) 1999.

This is another fine album by an entirely different band, from North Carolina. Only 100 copies were pressed originally making it an ultra rarity, although the recent reissues on Rockadelic/Atlas will bring it to the attention of a wider audience. There's lots of good guitar work on this album, from the fuzz psych of Holiday (with its effective drumming) and Modern Day Oracle to the bluesy guitar on Day Of Sunshine and the title cut and the more melodic and mellow mood of The Great Clock and Fugue. Recommended.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Christopher and The Souls

TOP

Personnel:

- DEE EDWARDS drms A
- JAY HAUSMAN gtr A B
- ALLEN KIRSCH vcls A B C
- BRIAN VOSS bs A
- JERRY EBENSBERGER bs B C
- DAVID LOTT drms B C
- MURRAY SCHESINGER gtr C
- CHRISTOPHER VOSS vcls

45:

1. (C) Diamonds, Rats and Gum/Broken Hearted Lady (Pharaoh 151) 1966

The Souls were a McAllen Texas band who gigged in the Texas Valley area with other area acts - including the Marauders and Cavaliers. In 1966 they were approached by Christopher Voss, who was the elder brother of their original bassist. Chris wanted to record two songs he'd written and they were duly waxed on the local Pharaoh label. The 45 features line-up C but with Chris replacing vocalist Allen, hence the new monicker. Kudos and thanks to Andrew Brown for allowing us to fill in the details from his 'Brown Paper Sack #1' zine which divulges the histories of many Louisiana and Texas '60s bands.

Lyrically, the 'A' side was unusual with words like "I'll give you rats and five pieces of gum and then you'll know I'm not a bum!" If you want to hear more seek out Texas Punk, Vol. 5.

(Andrew Brown / Max Waller)

Chrysalis

Personnel:

- PAUL ALBUM bs A
- JAMES 'SPIDER' BARBOUR rhythm gtr A
- NANCY NAIRN vcls A
- DAHAUD SHAAR perc A
- JON SABIN ld gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) DEFINITION (MGM E/SE-4547) 1968

NB: (1) reissued in 1993.

A New York band who recorded just one album. All the tracks were composed by group leader Barbour, who came originally from Canton, Ohio. Musically their album is soft, intricate psyche with a few more intense tracks also included. Most notable is Dr. Roots Garden, which has an early "Floydish" feel to it, whilst the album as a whole has a very strange sound that is exceptionally unique with beautiful clear female vocals.

It is thought that mono copies of the album were DJ only. Price guides tend to list these as worth less than stereo copies but in fact they are 20 times harder to locate!

Barbour had at least one of his later songs recorded by Martha Velez. Dahaud Elias Shaar went on to play drums with Van Morrison first appearing on his His Band And The Street Choir album. He is also the drummer on the live It's Too Late To Stop Now and Veedon Fleece releases. Paul Album also played with Fear Itself.

(Stephane Rebeschini)(Ed Moulin / Vernon Joynson / Dennis McCurdy)

The Church Mice

Personnel:

- ARMAND SCHAUBROECK
- BLAINE SCHAUBROECK
- BRUCE SCHAUBROECK
- OZZIE

45:

1. Babe We're Not Part Of Society/College Psychology On Love (House Of Guitars 43) 1965

Prior to this band Armand had been in an outfit called Kack Klick. The 'A' side to this 45 later resurfaced on the Colour Dreams compilation.

Armand Schaubroek spent some time in jail in the early '70s and then began a solo career with at least five albums (including the triple LP set A Lot Of People Would Like To See Armand Schaubroek Dead, the double Live At The Hollywood Inn, Ratfucker and I Came To Visit But Decided To Stay) in a style very influenced by Lou Reed. He now runs Mirror Records, home to the Chesterfield Kings, and with brother Blaine, the House of Guitars store, in Iron-dequoit, New York.

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Churchill Downs

45:

1. I Gotta Get Back To My Baby/The Amazing Three (Amazing 3 SJQ-101) 1968

Obscure Californian outfit kick off with a catchy strummed pop-rocker then turn to heavier rock sounds, which is well worth repeated listens. Despite the intrusion of some brass (actually not too much of a distraction), there's some lowdown fuzz and distortions to be savoured. One to look out for. (MW).

The Churchkeys

45:

1 To Angela/To Angela (Instr) (Big Sound Records 1002) 1967

From North Dakota, a horn rock/garage group with decent vocals.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Chy Guys

45:

1. Say Mama/You'll Never Believe Me (Mobie 3422) 1965

Came out of Rockford, Illinois. The 'A' side has resurfaced on the Ho-Dad Hootenanny compilation.

The Chylds

Personnel:

- JOHN BERECEK ld gtr A
- TIM HOGAN rhythm gtr, keyb'ds A
- AL TWISS bs A
- JOE VITALE drums A B

- DENNY JACKSON B
- DAVE JACKSON B

45s:

1. (A) Hay Girl/I Want More (Lovin') (Giant 101) 1967
2. (A) Hay Girl/I Want More (Lovin') (Warner Bros 7058) 1967
3. (A) Deep Inside/Psychedelic Soul (Warner Bros 7095) 1967
4. (B) Grey Days / No More Tears (Ivanhoe 1801) c1969

From Canton, Ohio and previously known as The Echos. By the final 45 all bar Joe had been replaced by the Jackson brothers. Their finest moment is Hay Girl, an uptempo punker with an effective organ backing which gives way to a drum roll chorus and becomes quite psychedelic half way through before reverting back to a more usual garage punk style. Interested? Well, it's resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 9: Ohio and Boulders, Vol. 1. Don't get too excited about the Psychedelic Soul 45 however - it's more soul than psych!

Joe Vitale had previously done time with The Measles (a group featuring Joe Walsh amongst others) and would go on to Marble Cake who didn't make it onto vinyl. In the '70s he rejoined Joe Walsh when Walsh went 'solo' after the James Gang. Vitale contributed vocals, keyboards, synth and flute in addition to drums, and was Walsh's main 'Barnstormer' from 1972's Barnstorm LP through to 1978's But Seriously Folks. For those who groaned when Walsh joined the Eagles, this represents his peak period which of course includes the Smoker You Drink.. LP featuring the classic Rocky Mountain Way. During this stay Joe V. also found time to do a solo LP - Roller Coaster Weekend (Atlantic SD 18114, 1974).

(Max Waller/George Gell/Vernon Joynson)

The Chymes

TOP

45:

1. He's Not There Anymore/Quite A Reputation (Chattahochee 715) 1966

This Los Angeles band issued at least one 45 in the mid- sixties. He's Not There Anymore appears on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 2 and Girls In The Garage, Vol. 1. Vol. 2 of the same series featured another song Quite A Reputation by the group. An all-girl band who specialised in harmony pop it seems we have Howard Kaylan (of The Turtles) to thank for discovering them.

The Cicadelics

TOP

45:

1. We're Gonna Love This Way/What Can I Do? (Psychidelic Sound 1001) 1967

A sixties punk band from Angleton, a small town in Southeast Texas about 30 miles south of Houston, who had the Texas-based Cicadelic label named after them. Their own record label did spell psychedelic with an i. The 'A' side can be heard on (Texas) Flashback, Vol. 1 and both sides of the 45 appeared on Texas Psychedelic Punk, Vol. 11, an unreleased compilation for which an acetate exists.

The Cindells

45:

1. Don't Bring Me Down/McDougal Street (Shag) 1965

They hailed from Cortland, New York. The Pretty Things cover Don't Bring Me Down has recently resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8.

The Cindermen

Personnel incl:

- DICK 'CINNAMON' CINDER vcls

45s:

1. Think Of Me/I'm Happy (Moonglow 5002) 1965
2. If I Can't Love You/On Forever (Moonglow 5005) 1965
3. Don't Do It Some More/True Love (Moonglow 5012) 1966
4. Don't Knock It/I Can't Believe It (Moonglow 5014) 1966
5. I Can't See You/Stay Away (Moonglow 5016) 1966
6. Miss Connie You're A User/You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling (Moonglow 5021) 1967

From Fresno, this mob were house band for a year at L.A.'s "Cinnamon Cinder" club. Don't Do It Some More, a catchy number, is said to be their best effort and can also be found on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (LP & CD). Another of their effoerts Don't Knock It also appears on Boulders, Vol. 7.

The Cinders

45:

1. Good Lovin's Hard To Find/Poison Ivy (RIC S-156) 1965

Rockin' beat covers by this Texan outfit, notable as an early outing for J.D. Souther. (MW/MM).

Circuit Rider

ALBUM:

1. CIRCUIT RIDER (C.R. 666) 1980

Although not released until 1980, this album was recorded in Norwalk, Connecticut, during September/October 1971. The 1980 release suffers from poor production and sounds like it's taken from a demo tape. Still, it has it's moments. Old Time Feeling and How Long have psycho-folk influences and, in similar vein but heavier and faster is Just For Today. The 'B' side is notable for the psycho-crazed experimental Limousine Ride, which featured a jazz-influenced guitar line.

The Circus

TOP

Personnel incl:

- POYNER

45:

1. Bad Seed (You're A Bad Seed)/Burn Witch Burn (Offe 101) 196?

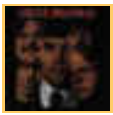
A raw punk outfit from somewhere in Texas. Both sides of the 45 resurfaced on Texas Punk From The Sixties, Vol. 2 and Bad Seed can also be found on Flashback, Vol. 3 and We Have Come For Your Children. The 'A' side is pretty dire garage/punk and the flip's pretty raw too - the story of a guy who strangled a witch who spat in his eye before dying. Poyner wrote and produced both songs.

The Circus

TOP

45:

1. Games We Play/Change Of Face (Rembrandt ?) 1966



Reggie Weiss signed this Chicago act to his Rembrandt label when they were a top act for Ted and Marvin Stuart's Chicago booking agency. Despite their commercial sound his attempt to mould them into a tight pop group did not succeed in commercial terms.

Compilation coverage has included: Games We Play on Chicago Garage Band Greats (LP); and Games We Play, No Reservations Necessary and Sands Of Mind on Chicago Garage Band Greats (CD).

They may also have released a 45 for Jambee and there was a U.K. act called Circus who had one 45 released in the US: Sink Or Swim / Gone Are The Songs Of Yesterday (USA 903) 1968.

(Max Waller / Steve Panter)

Circus Maximus

TOP

Personnel:

- JERRY 'JEFF' WALKER gtr, vcls A

- BOB BRUNO ld gtr, keyb'ds, vcls A
- DAVID SCHERSTROM drms A
- GARY WHITE bs A
- PETE TROUTNER vcls, gtr, perc A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) CIRCUS MAXIMUS (Vanguard VSD 79260) 1967
2. (A) NEVERLAND REVISITED (Vanguard VSD 79274) 1968

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD.

45:

1. Negative Dreamer Girl/Lonely Man (Vanguard 35063) 1967

Hailing from Austin, Texas, this band played a mixture of hard rock, folk rock and West Coast with flower power lyrics. Their two albums are not easy to come by but they are not expensive and recommended for their excellent guitar work. The first album contains seven Bob Bruno songs (mostly psychedelic with some jazzy touches, notably on Wind) and four by Jerry Jeff Walker (which are more folk/rock oriented).

At the end of 1967 they gave a unique concert at the Carnegie Hall with the New York Pro Musica, a baroque ensemble.

Their second album is qually interesting and contains songs like Mixtures and Parallel which are really nice. Neither of these albums sold well however and the group broke up.

Jerry Walker later enjoyed a long and successful solo career, as a singer and a songwriter (his Mr. Bojangles was covered by many artists, including the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and Bob Dylan).

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Cirkit

TOP

Personnel:

- RAD HANSEN vcls
- DAVE GOLDMAN bs
- BRUCE HAINEY gtr
- SCOTT GLEMSIECK organ
- JIM SHINDELL ld gtr

45:

1. Yesterday We Laughed/I Was Wrong (Unicorn 34941) 1967

NB: (1) came in a purple paisley picture sleeve.

Operated out of Michigan City in Indiana between 1966-68, although front man and author of both sides of the 45, Rad Hansen originated from the Deep South. They travelled to Universal Studios in Chicago to record this 45 and Yesterday We Laughed, in particular, had some fine grungy reverb guitar work. Both sides of the 45, which was issued with a picture sleeve can now be heard on the Hoosier Hotshots, and you can also find Yesterday We Laughed on Psychedelic Moods Part Two (CD). (Max Waller / Kip Brown)

Cirkyt

45:

1. That's The Way Life Is/Six Page Lefter (PS) (Jody 6703/4) 1967

The 'A' side can also be heard on Garage Punks Unknown, Vol. 1. The band were from New York.

Le Cirque

Personnel:

MARC BENNO	A
BILL BOATMAN	A
LEON RUSSELL	A

45:

1	Land Of Oz/I'll Be Thinking Of You	(Buddah BDS-14)	1968

Two slices of Beatles influenced psyche, especially on Land Of Oz, a Russell/Boatman composition with its arrangements a la Strawberry Fields/Lucy In The Sky. The flip, written by Benno, is not as good.

After this commercial failure, Benno and Russell formed Asylum Choir and Bill Boatman went on to play with Taj Mahal, Don Preston and various Leon Russell's projects.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Citations to The Cliques

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Citations
- City
- City Blues
- The City Limits
- City Squires
- The City Zu
- Clann
- Clap
- Todd Clark
- Kathy Clarke
- The Classmen
- Claytons
- Cle Shays
- The Cleanliness and Godliness Skiffle Band
- Clean Living
- Clear Blue Sky
- Clear Blue Sky
- Clear Light
- Clefs of Lavender Hill
- The Cliches
- Click
- Clicker
- Clinging Hysteria
- The Clique
- The Cliques

Citations

Personnel:

ALAN	A
ANTHONY	A
BILL	A
DOUG	A
JAMES	A

KEN	A
MIKE	A
OTHA	A
VICTOR	A
plus 1 unnamed	A

A 10-piece "zebra" (black'n'white) outfit from Dayton, Ohio. Their sole recorded legacy is the brassy and soulful Good Love (wherein James Brown meets Good Lovin'), composed by members A. Woodall and D. Simon. It appears on WONE, The Dayton Scene (Prism PR-1966), the souvenir LP of the 1966 WONE-sponsored three-day battle of the bands which features one cut each from the twelve winning acts.

(Max Waller)

City

Personnel:

JIM GORDON	drms	A
CAROLE KING	vcls, keyb'ds	A
DANNY KOOTCH	gtr, vcls	A
CHARLES LARKEY	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	NOW THAT EVERYTHING'S BEEN SAID	(Ode Z12-44012)	1968

Originating from the New York scene, this decent pop rock group, is of most interest for it's members solo careers:- Carole King was formerly a Brill Building songwriter with her husband Gerry Goffin. Their melodic songs were covered by several groups, notably Wasn't Born To Follow by The Byrds and Take A Giant Step by Taj Mahal. As a singer/songwriter, Carole King would become extremely popular with her best seller album Tapestry in 1972.

Previously with The King Bees, Danny Kootch (or Kortchmar) went on to play with James Taylor, formed Jo Mama with Charles Larkey in 1971 and became a session musician. One of the best American drummers, Jim Gordon can be found on hundreds of records and went on to play with Delaney and Bonnie and Derek and The Dominos.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

City Blues

ALBUM:

1	BLUES FOR LAWRENCE STREET	(Nouveau)	1967 R3

From California, an extremely rare album of blues psych, with interesting guitar leads. It was apparently released only as a promo on this short-lived label.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The City Limits

Personnel:

- JEFF BEALS bs A
- DAN DENTON sax A
- JEFF LaBRACHE drms A
- KEVIN MASON vcls A
- ALAN PARK gtr A
- RIC ULSKY keyb'ds A

45:

1. Stagger Le/Backyard Compost (Uptown 728) 1966

From Seattle, Washington the band's members had previously been in The Imperials, Rocky and The Riddlers and Rocky and His Friends. Under this name they cut a fine version of Stagger Lee in a straight forward rock and roll format. After their demise Jeff Beals went on to play with The Kingsmen, Ric Ulsky joined The Association and Jeff LaBrache played with West Coast Natural Gas / Indian Puddin' and Pipe. They have a previously unreleased version of Tossin' and Turnin' included on Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 1 in 1966 and History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 4 in 1983.

City Squires

Personnel:

JIM BRICKNER	A
D.J.KOHLER	A
D.RAND	A

45s:

1	Jenny Jenny/Russian Ho Ho	(Tema PXT-137)	1967
2	Is It Time / Lonely Boy	(Tema PXT-141)	1967

A Cleveland, Ohio pop outfit who became The Gregorians. Is It Time is cute Anglo-style pop ala Tremeloes or Marmalade. Lonely Boy is a soft pop ballad.

(Max Waller/George Gell)

The City Zu

Personnel:

- MIKE COX bs A B
- MIKE GARLAND drms A B
- CHUCK HARCUS keyb'ds A B
- DOUG HEATH ld gtr A
- BRAD MILLER gtr A B
- JERRY 'ZU' MATHESON sax, ld vcls A B
- RON FOOS ld gtr B
- DAVE ROLAND drms

45s:

1. Give A Little Bit/I'll Find Another (Columbia 44342) 1967
2. Eeny Meeny/Too Much, Too Soon, Too Fast (Dot 17166) 1969
3. Quick Like A Bunny/Stop Running Away (Dot 17266) 1969

Formed in Bellevue, Washington State in 1965 as The Classics (no connection to the Vancouver band of this name) later changing to The City Zu. They played in a gritty punky pop style not dissimilar to Paul Revere but with more harmony. They secured a record deal with Columbia and when the resulting 45 flopped did two for Dot. Sadly they did not fulfil their potential. Foos and Heath went on to play for The Sonics and later still in the late eighties for the reformed Paul Revere and The Raiders. Too Much, To Soon, Too Fast, a punky pop number with some adventurous harmonies, can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 16: The Northwest - Part 3, although the end result is a rather messy production.

Dave Roland also hit the skins for The City Zu after The Wailers had split up in '69.

(Max Waller / Samuel D. Carlson)

Clann

TOP

Personnel incl:

- TONY DIONISIO

45s:

1. Stubborn Kind Of Fellow/I've Found Somebody (General American GAR 103) 1966
2. Tall Towers/Hey Baby (General American GAR 109) 1967

After an average first effort this Columbia, Missouri, bunch turn out the cool mid-tempo fuzzer Tall Towers. The flip reverts back to a much earlier British Invasion sound unfortunately. Tony Dionisio was also a member of The Vandals, who also had one 45 on the same label. (Max Waller).

Clap

Personnel:

- DAVE AURIT gtr, sax, vcls A
- SCOTT MERCIER drms, perc A
- JIM MORRISON bs, vcls A
- STEVE MORRISON vcls, harp A
- KEITH TILL gtr, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HAVE YOU REACHED YET? (Nova-Sol NSLP 1001 AB) 1971 R5

NB: reissued on Phaze II (CPS 001).

This is a very rare Manhattan Beach, Californian album from the early seventies. The sound is reputedly closer to 66/67 punk and some collectors rate it highly. A sixth and occasional member was Les Hurst (drms). It's not the Jim Morrison on the album.

Todd Clark

ALBUM:

1 INTO THE VISION (TMI) c1972

An obscure singer whose album is beginning to attract some collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Kathy Clarke

45:

1. My Summer Prayer / Little Girl Called Sad (International Artists 105) 1966

A little known artist from Texas who's Little Girl Called Sad was included on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 4. It was one of the earliest releases on the International Artists label in 1966.

The Classmen

45s:

1. Julie/Any Old Time (Pearce 5806) 1967
2. The Yang Yang (The Heart String)/Poor, Poor Johnny (Pearce 5813) c1967
3. His Girl / Michaelangelo (Pearce 5826) 196?
4. Graduation Goodbye / (Pearce # unkn) 196?

Another Kansas City, Missouri outfit. You'll also find Julie on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1. The second 45 is soul-tinged, brassy, dirgeful and not recommended. This outfit should not be confused with the Detroit "Classmen" who issued 45s on J, Volkano and Impact. (Max Waller)

Claytons

TOP

45:

1. Puttin' Me On/Need Mine Too (M 4982) 1966
2. I Want You/The Claytons (B.Racker) 196?

From Fort Wayne, Indiana. Puttin' Me On has resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 5. There is another 45 by possibly the same group?:-

1. For What It's Worth/Fourth Street (Columbia 444941) 1969

Cle Shays

TOP

45:

1. Spend All My Money/Annabelle Zodd (Monex 5232) 1968

Garage rockers from Des Moines, Iowa.

The Cleanliness and Godliness Skiffle Band

TOP

Personnel:

- ANNE JOHNSTON vcls, gtr, mandn, woodblocks A B C
- HANK BRADLEY vcls, mandn, fiddle C
- PHIL MARSH vcls, gtr A B C
- BRIAN VOORHEES vcls, gtr, hmnca C
- RICHARD SAUNDERS bs A B C
- (CHICKEN HIRSCH drms A)

ALBUMS:

1. (A) THE CLEANLINESS AND GODLINESS SKIFFLE BAND'S GREATEST HITS (Vanguard VSD 79285) 1968
2. () MASKED MARAUDERS (Reprise 6378) 1969

NB: (2) as The Masked Marauders.

45:

1. I Can't Get No Nookie/Cow Pie (Deity 0870) 1969

NB: (1) as The Masked Marauders.

An 'acid' influenced skiffle band, their album though weak technically, is good fun if you can obtain a copy. Their second album, under the pseudonym, The Masked Marauders, was an attempted imitation of Dylan, Lennon-McCanney, Harrison and Jagger. They were based in San Francisco.

NB. Hirsch, Johnston and Marsh all played at various times with Country Joe (McDonald).

(Vernon Joynson / Lloyd Peasley)

Clean Living

TOP

Personnel:

TIMOTHY GRIFFIN	drms, perc, vcls	A B
PAUL LAMBERT	pedal steel, dobro	A B
ROBERT "TEX" LA MOUNTAIN	gtr, vcls	A B
ROBERT LA PALM	gtr, vcls	A B
NORMAN SCHELL	gtr, ld vcls	A B
FRANK SHAW	gtr, bs, vcls	A B
ELLIOTT SHERMAN	keyb'ds	A
JEFFREY POTTER	keyb'ds, hrmnca, perc	B
(K.P. BURKE	hrmnca	A)
(AL ANDERSON	gtr	B)
(GUILLAUME "SNAKE" LA PALM	fiddle	B)
(MIKE MANDEL	piano	B)
(TIM PITT	gtr	B)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	CLEAN LIVING	(Vanguard VRS 79318)	1972
2(B)	MEADOWMUFFIN	(Vanguard VSD 79334)	1973

NB: Rare quadraphonic pressings of both album exists (VSQ 40009 and VSQ 40025 respectively).

Bob LaPalm and Timothy Griffin were previously in Bold and went on to form Clean Living with various musicians. This group offered a good-humored mix of country, blues, rock and good time music.

Produced by Maynard Solomon, their first album is musically diverse, with three different lead singers and material covering rock (Berry's Sweet Little Sixteen), bar songs (In Heaven There Is No Beer), delicate ballads (Charles Street) and "religious" songs (Jesus Is My Thing, Jesus Is My Subway Line).

In 1973, Danny Weiss (Everything is Everything) produced Meadowmuffin. Norman Schell was now clearly the lead singer and the album loses in variety what it gains on direction. Being more country oriented, it's probably less interesting than its predecessor.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Clear Blue Sky

45:

1. Morning Of Creation/Ugly Girl (Romat 1005) 1967

Recorded in Greenville, a small town in Eastern North Carolina, which I believe is a leading market centre for bright leaf tobacco. Morning Of Creation sounds like Jefferson Airplane without the extra dimension that Grace Slick's vocals gave them. Despite this, the layered harmonies are quite effective and the rhythm section is quite competent. You'll find it on Tobacco-A -Go-Go, Vol. 1.

Clear Blue Sky

Personnel:

DAN ANGOTT	organ, vcls	A
KEITH BUCKLEY	bs, vcls	A
JOHN ROCCO	gtr, vcls	A
LES WARD	drms	A

Along with Mark Lepine (vcls) and Dave Lawrence (bs), Angott, Ward, and Rocco were previously in the Tryumphs who, in 1966, committed to tape at least two songs: covers of the Yardbirds Mr. You're A Better Man Than I and the Byrds Chimes Of Freedom. In 1968, after Lepine and Lawrence had left and Keith Buckley joined, the band switched names to Clear Blue Sky. Though they were popular in their home town surroundings of Northwest Detroit, they were never able to achieve wide spread success. Clear Blue Sky never officially recorded, but tapes survive of the band's versions of Along Comes Mary, Uncle Jack, I'm So Glad, Are You Happy?, Can't Take It and the group original Mr. Pebbles, which should definitely interest many garage/psych fans.

Buckley and Angott continued to record throughout the '70s and '80s, and in December 1999 completed cover versions of a few of their favorite songs by sending tapes back and forth between Michigan and North Carolina! When not creating music, the pair stay busy by running the My First Band web site (www.myfirstband.com), a site that requests submissions from members of former '60s garage bands such as Clear Blue Sky, and documents their histories accordingly. A book is also currently in the planning stages.

(Mike Dugo, with thanks to Dan Angott and Keith Buckley)

Clear Light

Personnel:

CLIFF DE YOUNG	vcls	A B

DOUGLAS LUBAHN	bs	A B
MICHAEL NEY	drms, perc	A B
RALPH SCHUCKETT	organ, piano, celeste	A B
BOB SEAL	gtr, vcls	A
DALLAS TAYLOR	drms	A B
DANNY KORTCHMAR	ld gtr	B

ALBUM:

1(A)	CLEAR LIGHT	(Elektra EKS 74011)	1967 126

NB. (1) also issued in France and the U.K.. (1) reissued on Edsel (ED 245) 1988.

45s:

1	Black Roses/She's Ready To Be Free	(Elektra EK 45622)	1967
2	They Who Have Nothing / The Ballad Of Freddie And Larry	(Elektra 45626)	1967
3	Night Sounds Loud/?	(Elektra EKSN 45027)	1968

NB: (3) U.K. release.

This heavy rock band from Los Angeles was a novelty at the time, possessing two drummers. Their only album was a fair debut, although the band never looked likely to break into the first division of American rock. It achieved modest commercial success peaking at No 126 in the Billboard Album Charts. Often their songs lacked distinctive melodies. This was not the case, however, with A Child's Smile, the shortest and one of the best tracks on the album. Another strong track Black Roses was issued as a 45. The non-LP flip side, which is excellent, was taken from the film "The President's Analyst" which they appeared in briefly.

De Young later went solo (two LPs and two 45s on MCA) and pursued an acting career. Seal went on to the Peanut Butter Conspiracy. Lubahn, who had earlier done session work for The Doors went on to play for an outfit called Dreams and Ney and Kortchmar later played together in The City, an early seventies trio, Dallas Taylor (ex-Factory) went on to fame as drummer for Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young and Danny Kortchmar was also in King Bees.

Sand, another track from their album, can be heard on Endless Journey, Phase 3, It was also covered by a Mexican outfit, Los Land Jets, (in Hispanic) entitled Mira. The 1988 Edsel reissue of their album includes one track She's Ready To Be Free which was not on the original LP. The compilation Elektrock The Sixties includes Black Roses and Mr Blue, a track from their album.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Clefs of Lavender Hill

45s:

1. First Tell Me Why/Stop! Get A Ticket (Thames 100) 1966 -
2. Stop! Get A Ticket/First Tell Me Why (Date 1510) 1966 80
3. One More Time/So I'll Try (Date 1530) 1966 114
4. It Won't Be Long/Play With Fire (Date 1533) 1966 -

5. Gimme One Good Reason/Oh Say My Love (Date 1567) 1967 -

From Miami, Florida. The Everywhere Interferences compilation features all four of the Date 45s and Stop! Get A Ticket can also be found on Open Up Your Door.

(Max Waller / Tom Truszkowski)

The Cliches

TOP

45:

1. Save It For Me/Why, Why, Why (Wes Mar 1020) 1966

Minor league garagey folk-rocker and beat-punker from somewhere in Ohio. Class Of Shutdown 66. (MW).

Click

TOP

ALBUM:

1	CLICK	(ABC ABCS-677)	1969

A folk singer/songwriter. Although most of the tracks are orchestrated and best avoided, the album contains some decent folk rock numbers and a good psych folk track with sitar.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Clicker

TOP

Personnel:

JEFF EISENBERNER	keyb'ds	A
CHRISTINE HESS	vcls	A
LYNN MCLAUGHLIN	vcls	A
BOB SCHMIDTKE	gtr	A
JEFF TRACY	drms	A
STEVE TRACY	bs, vcls	A
DICK WIEGEL	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	CLICKER	(Hemisphere 5180)	1973 R1
2(A)	HARDE HAR HAR	(Clicker 1975)	1975 R1

An excellent heavy prog group with some furious guitar solos and male/female vocals. Their albums rarely turn up.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Clinging Hysteria

TOP

Personnel:

- ?
- JEFF SMITH
- GEORGE TATEHAM
- BILL FINKY

A Michigan ouvit who ripped off The Doors' Soul Kitchen renaming it The In Sound. Their decidedly inferior version can be heard on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 2.

The Clique

TOP

Personnel incl:

- TOMMY PENA bs
- SID TEMPLETON gtr, keyb'ds
- JERRY 'FUNCTION' COPE drms
- RANDY SHAW
- DAVE
- OSCAR
- MIKE TEAQUE

ALBUM:

1. () THE CLIQUE (SUGAR ON SUNDAY) (White Whale WW 7126) 1969 177

45s:

1. Splash 1 /Stay By Me (Cinema 001) 1967 -
2. Splash 1 /Stay By Me (Scepter 12202) 1967 113
3. Love Ain't Easy/Gofta Get Away (Scepter 12212) 1968
4. Superman/Shadow Of Your Love (White Whale 312) 1969 -
5. Sugar On Sunday/Superman (White Whale 322) 1969 22
6. I'll Hold Out My Hands/Soul Mates (White Whale 333) 1969 45
7. My Darkest Hour/? (White Whale 335) 1969
8. Sparkle And Shine/I'm Alive (White Whale 338) 1970 100
9. Memphis/Southbound Wind (White Whale 361) 1970 -
10. + Judy Judy Judy/Judy Judy Judy (White Whale 367) 1970 -

+ Promo only.

Pena, Templeton and Cope joined this band from The Lavender Hour and Mike Teaque and Steve Headley from the same band were also briefly members of The Clique, who operated in Austin, Texas between 1966-71. They are best known for their fine cover of the 13th Floor Elevators' Splash 1 which can be heard on Endless Journey, Phase 1 and Austin Landing, Vol. 2 (which also includes Gotta Get Away). It was earlier featured on 21 KILT Goldens, Vol. 2. Two of their three Top 100 hits, Sugar On Sunday and Sparkle And Shine, were written by Tommy James and The Shondells. REM have covered Superman, which was written by their LP producer Gary Zekley and M. Bottler, on Life's Rich Pageant. Most of the White Whale 45s are from the album, but they may also have recorded a non-LP 45 from Laurie. Teaque was later in Just Us, who issued a 45 on Mod International, and Tiger's Claw.

The Cliques

45:

1. So Hard/? (Custom) 1966

Hailed from Champaign, Illinois - their 45 was recorded in nearby Urbana. You can hear the short punker with raw vocals on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 They appeared in a locally televised 'Battle Of The Bands' competition in 1966.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Clockwork Orange to The Cobras

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Clockwork Orange
- Clockwork Orange
- Clouds
- Clover
- The Clue
- The Coachmen
- The Coachmen
- The Coachmen
- The Coachmen
- The Coachmen
- The Coachmen
- The Coastliners
- The Cobblers
- The Cobblestones
- The Cobras
- The Cobras
- The Cobras
- The Cobras

Clockwork Orange

TOP

45s:

1. Sweet Little Innocent Lorraine/Help Me (Rust 5119) 1967
2. Image Of You/What Am I Without You (Rust 5126) 1968

This New York City combo produced two interesting 45s. Whilst Lorraine is quaint post Sgt. Pepper 'psychedelic pop', Help Me is rather heavier and is rather reminiscent of early Iron Butterfly. Image Of You is disappointing soulful pop but it's the flip again that comes up trumps. Pumped up psych-pop with some wonderful licks.

Compilation coverage has so far been limited to: What Am I Without You? on Mindrocker, Vol. 13 and Help Me on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 4 (CD). (Max Waller)

Clockwork Orange

TOP

45:

1. Do Me Right Now/Your Golden Touch (Creole 1002) 1967

A different group from Paducah, Kentucky. The 45 above is an excellent garage psych two-sider. Both sides have resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 12 (Vol. 10 on CD). (Max Waller)

Clouds

45:

1. Visions/Migada Bus (Independence 82) 1967

This Los Angeles band also had the same 45 issued under the name The Looking Glasses on the Media label. The Clouds version can be found on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6 and you'll find The Looking Glasses version on Pebbles, Vol. 11. They're exactly the same. Visions is glorious mystical psypunk that goes from frantic to spaced-out and back again. Migada Bus is a pleasant instrumental in a baroquey style with fuzzy edges.

Clover

Personnel:

ALEX CALL	vcls, gtr	A
JOHN GIAMBOTTI	bs, gtr, vcls	A
MITCH HOWIE	drms	A
JOHN McFEE	ld gtr, pedal steel, piano, vcls	A
(ED BOGAS	fiddle, gtr, piano	A)

NB: Bruce Campbell also plays banjo on their 2nd album.

ALBUMS:

(up to 1971)

1(A)	CLOVER	(Fantasy)	1970
2(A)	FOURTY NINER	(Fantasy 8405)	1971

NB: (1) also released in France by America (30 AM 6044, 1970). (1) and (2) also released in the U.K. by United Artists.

45:

1	Shotgun/ Wade in The Water	(Fantasy ?)	1970

NB: (1) also released in France with a picture sleeve (America 17016) 1970.

McFee, Call and Howie all met at Tamalpais High School and formed the Tiny Aid Hearing Company. In 1967, when they teamed up with Giambotti - formerly with the bluegrass act The Valley Boys and the Outfit, they became Clover. The next two years were spent giging around venues like the Avalon and the Fillmore, before John Fogerty of Creedence Clearwater Revival helped them to sign a contract with Fantasy.

Their first album is supposed to have been recorded without a mixing desk. It contains some excellent west coast rock and country rock selections, notably Wade In The Water (a la Mad River), Lizard Rock'n'Roll Band and Shotgun (the only non original track).

The second album is more country rock oriented but is still interesting with Mr. Moon, Chicken Butt and Keep On Trying. Both albums were produced by Ed Bogas, who was the fifth member of the group and an active studio musician (also with David and Tina Meltzer) and soundtrack composer (notably for Ralph Bakshi's 'Fritz The Cat').

Clover drifted back into obscurity and finally, circa 1975, McFee, Call and Giambotti came to England with new members Huey Lewis, Micky Shine and Sean Hopper to launch a new career. This new line-up of Clover somehow managed to play with Elvis Costello on his first album, My Aim Is True, and even signed a new recording contract with Vertigo/Mercury which resulted on two new albums in 1976 and 1977 (Clover and Unavailable), which are totally different from their previous efforts.

A gifted guitarist, John McFee also played on several Californian recording sessions (Janey and Dennis, Tim Davis, Norman Greenbaum etc.) and joined the Doobie Brothers in 1980. Alex Call went solo and is still recording for the German label Taxim. The two later members, Huey Lewis and Sean Hopper, went on to form Huey Lewis and the News and sold some millions of records during the '80s.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Clue

TOP

45:

1. She's The Reason/Bad Times (Byron 101) 196?

From Midland, Texas, The Clue recorded one of the classic acid punk singles from that state, Bad Times, with its rich organ backing can be found on Pebbles, Vol. 8 but was earlier included on All Cops In Delirium, the original Good Roots compilation.

The Coachmen

TOP

Hailed from Independence, Missouri. Their previously unrleased cut, Too Many Reasons, a routine garage punker, has since resurfaced on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 2.

The Coachmen

TOP

45:

1. A Sunday Kind Of Woman/It Was Like A Song (Audio House 7-128F78) 196?

Yet another Coachmen. This crew were based in Lawrence, the state capital of Kansas, where they played during the mid and late sixties.

The Coachmen

45:

1. Grapes Of Wrath/Summer Should Bring Happiness (Sea-Ell 106) 1968

Yet another Coachmen, this time from Texas. The 'A' side, which can best be described as hippie psych, has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 15.

The Coachmen

Personnel:

RICK BELL	gtr, keyb'ds, vcls	A
RED FREEMAN	gtr	A
CRAIG PERKINS	bs	A B
JIM REINMUTH	gtr, keyb'ds	A
JEFF TRAVIS	ld gtr	A B
BRUCE WATSON	drms	A B
FRANK ELIA	gtr	B
KELLY KOTERA	keyb'ds	B

CD:

1(-)	STILL ROCKIN'	()	1999

NB: (1) contains original recordings of Mr. Moon, Nothing At All, Linda Lu, My Generation, and Time Won't Change plus fifteen new recordings, including a re-recording version of Mr. Moon and two new originals.

45s:

1	Mr. Moon/Nothing At All	(MMC 010)	1965
2	Mr. Moon/Nothing At All	(Bear 1974)	1966
3	Linda Lou/I'm A King Bee	(Bear 1976)	1966
4	My Generation/No Answer	(MMC 013)	1966
5	Tyme Won't Change/Tell Her No	(MMC 014)	1967
6	Number One Hippie On The Village Scene/The Travel Song	(J&T 2022)	1967
7	You Got The Love/Lady	(White Whale 275)	1968
8	Angela/Duba Duba Do	(White Whale 288)	1968
9	Oo Poo Pah Susie/You Take It	(White Whale 293)	1969

NB: (6) as Alexander's Rock Time Band. (7), (8) and (9) as Profesor Morrison's Lollipop.

Probably the best known of the outfits using this monicker, they were based in Lincoln, Nebraska and played in a cool melodic beat-rock style. A local supergroup with Jim Reinmuth and Bruce Watson having previously spent time in The Chandells and the remainder coming from The Viscounts, they would have some success over the next three years. Mr. Moon was a local phenomenon and sizable hit in the Midwest, but as the decade unfolded the band changed it's name to prevent becoming dated, firstly to Alexander's Rock Time Band and then Professor Morrison's Lollipop with a more straightforward pop sound.

The earlier releases are certainly worth a spin and you'll find My Generation on Monsters Of the Midwest, Vol. IV and No Answers on Brain Shadows II.

Incidentally, the band hosted their own local TV show "The Coachmen Show" in Omaha, where they performed their own hits and featured guest appearances by other local bands. The programme was on air for six months, with each song being pre-recorded in one take.

Bruce, Red, Jeff, Rick and Craig are planning on performing occassionally "as money and logistics allow" which, considering that the members reside in three different parts of the country, might prove difficult. Red, Jeff and Bruce all continue to write original music, as evidenced by Stand Tall (a real rocker!) and Heartland on the new CD, and they hope to release another CD in the future, dependent on sales for the Still Rockin' release.

For more information, try the website for the Nebraska Rock and Roll hall Of Fame at http://www.nebrocks.org, or the band's site at http://www.thecoachmen.com.

(Max Waller / Mike Dugo with thanks to Red Freeman & Bruce Watson)

The Coachmen

Personnel incl:

- WAYLAND HUEY

45:

1. Say You Love Me / Hush Broken Heart (Gala # Unkn) 1964

From Abilene, Texas. Wayland Huey formed The Livin' End after The Coachmen split in 1964. Both sides of the 45 can also be found on Collectables Livin' End retrospective: Unreleased Texas Garage Sounds (COL 0715) 1998.

(Max Waller)

The Coachmen

45:

1. Goodnight Irene/Bringin' Home The Bacon (20th Century Rec 562) c1963

Another Coachmen, apparently unrelated to the others and consistin of passable early sixties rock. Arranged by Norm Ratner.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Coastliners

45s:

1. The Lonely Sea/Big Mike, The Sidewalk Surfer (Astro 109) 1965

2. Alright/Wonderful You (Int. Artists 101) 1965
3. Alright/Wonderful You (Back Beat 554) 1965 -
4. She's My Girl/I'll Be Gone (Back Beat 556) 1966 121
5. California On My Mind/I See Me (D.E.A.R. 1300) 1967 115

Sometimes known as the Beach Boys Of Texas this Houston-based act set out as a surfing outfit and actually recorded the first 45 on International Artists. Their final effort was a harmony pop effort and along the way they made a few punkier recordings, including Alright which was written by Ross-Vanadore and later recorded by The Legends. Some of their work has surfaced on compilations:- I'll Be Gone and Alright on Texas Punk From The Sixties, Vol. 2 1988, She's My Girl on 21 KILT Goldens, Vol. 2 and My Kind Of Girl, a previously unreleased cut, can be heard on Houston Hallucinations.

They were previously known as the Carrousels with one 45 (Merseybeat/lt's Funny) on Astro 105 (1965) and latterly as the U.S. Males, (Come Out Of The Rain/Open Up Your Heart (Brittania 101) in 1968)).

The Cobblers

TOP

45:

1. Smokin'At The Half Note/Maybe I Love You (Studio City 1060) 1966

This highly-touted garage 45 was the work of college students from Concordia University, Fargo in North Dakota.

The Cobblestones

TOP

Personnel?:

JIM JACOBS	A
LEHMANN	A
PEARSON	A

45s:

1	It Happens Every Time / I'll Hide My Head In The Sand	(Den-Ric 9421/01)	Mar 1967
2	I'll Hide My Head In The Sand / It Happens Every Time	(Mobie 3424)	1967
3	Flower People / Down With It	(Mobie 3425)	Nov 1967

From Bloomington, Indiana, this previously unhailed outfit made good use of fuzz and farfisa. Their repertoire ranged from garage (I'll Hide My Head...) to flower-pop (Flower People) and a fuzzy instrumental laid on a Mona-beat (Down With It) - these three are compiled on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3. Down With It also appears on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 2 (CD).

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich/Roger Maglio)

The Cobras

Personnel:

- BOBBY HERNE gtr A
- GARY LEAVITT gtr, vcls A
- JAY LEAVITT drms A

45s:

1. I Wanna Be Your Lover/Instant Heartache (Big Beat 1002) 1966

From Maine. This New England teen band have been well represented on recent compilations:- Wanna Be Your Lover can be heard on I Was A Teenage Caveman and New England Teen Scene, Vol. 2; whilst Instant Heartache featured on Vol. 1 of the same series.

The Leavitt brothers were later in Euclid and Bobby Herne produced their album. Herne had previously played with the Exotics (on Coral) and DJ and The Soulbeats. He went on to produce and arrange numerous New England acts in the '60s and '70s, including the infamous LP Philosophy Of The World by The Shaggs. He died suddenly in May 1998 and Aram Heller's zine 'Banjo Room Revisited #2' chronicles parts of his legacy.

(Max Waller)

The Cobras

45:

1. If I Can't Believe Her/I'm Hurtin' (Scoop 103) 196?

A different outfit. If I Can't Believe Her resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 5. Anyone out there who can fill in the gaps?

The Cobras

45:

1. Come On Back/Summertime (Feature 201,264/5) 196?

Yet another Cobras. Anyone out there who can identify this bunch?

The Cobras

45:

1. Try/Good Bye (Milky Way MW-006) 1966

This lot hailed from Danville, Illinois, and their sole effort is low-key moody garage-beat. (MW).

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Dennis Coffey and Detroit Guitar Band to Colwell - Winfield Blues Band

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Dennis Coffey and Detroit Guitar Band
- Cold Blood
- Cold Sun
- Coldwater Army
- Cole and The Embers
- Collage
- Collective Star
- The College Boys
- The Colony
- Coloring Book
- The Colors of Night
- Colours
- Colours
- Colwell - Winfield Blues Band

Dennis Coffey and Detroit Guitar Band

ALBUM:
(up to 1971)

1	EVOLUTION	(Sussex SXBS 7004)	1971

From Detroit, Dennis Coffey is a guitarist and producer, often associated with Mike Theodore (on Paul Parrish's Forest Of My Mind for instance). If his prolific solo production throughout the '70s is generally in the funk style and totally out of the scope of this book, his first album may interest some readers, as it contains ten instrumental tracks (including a cover of Whole Lotta Love) with three guitars, a sitar and percussions.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Cold Blood

Personnel:

FRANK J. DAVIS	drms	A
ROD ELLICOTT	bs	A B
LARRY FIELD	gtr	A

DANNY HULL	sax	A B
JERRY JONUTZ	sax	A B
LARRY JONUTZ	trumpet	A B
RAUL MATUTE	keyb'ds	A B
DAVID PADRON	trumpet	A
LYDIA PENSE	vcls	A B
SANDY McKEE	drms	B
(MIC GILLETTE	trumpet	A B)
(JOSE CHEPITO ARIAS	perc	B)

ALBUMS:
(up to 1974)

1(A)	COLD BLOOD	(San Francisco Records SD 200)	1969
2(B)	SISYPHUS	(San Francisco Records SD 205)	1970
3(-)	FIRST TASTE OF SIN	(Reprise RS 2074)	1972
4(-)	THRILLER	(Reprise RS 2130)	1973
5(-)	LYDIA	(Warner 2806)	1974

NB : (1) and (2) were also released in the U.K. by Atlantic. (5) was also released in the U.K. by Warner.

A Soul/Blues group with horns who was popular on the San Francisco rock scene, playing regularly at the Fillmore. Their sound was based on the bluesy vocals of Lydia Pense.

Their first album is notable for its fine Rick Griffin artwork but the music was rather uninspired and the horn arrangements quite messy. The same can be said of their following albums, which became more and more soul oriented.

Their first drummer, Frank Davis, also played with Loading Zone and shouldn't be confused with the Texan Frank Davis (Travel Agency, Saddlesore).

You can also find Shop Talk and Too Many People on San Francisco Sampler - Fall 1970.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Cold Sun

TOP

Personnel:

TOM McGARIGLE	gtr	A
BILL MILLER	electric autoharp	A
HUGH PATTON	drms, chimes	A
MIKE WAUGH	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	DARK SHADOWS	(Rockadelic RRLP 2.5)	1990

NB: (1) Issued with an insert and colour photo of the band.

A Texas group. Contrary to popular belief, the Rockadelic release above is not a straight reissue of an acetate. An acetate was found with several tracks by this group (only one known copy exists, now in a private collection) and through this acetate, information leading to the group was dug up. The leader of the band was found to have several tapes of sixties material and from these tapes the Dark Shadows album was mastered. Most of the material on the Rockadelic album does not appear on the acetate.

This release is well worth picking up - a genuinely psychedelic item with lots of superb and, often discordant, electric autoharp and sustained fuzz guitar and lots of fresh ideas. The vocals don't always reach the same standard but this album is recommended.

Bill Miller later played on Roky Erickson's 1981 album The Evil One.

(Clark Faville/Vernon Joynson)

Coldwater Army

TOP

Personnel:

BOB GARRETT	vcls, keyb'ds	A
BOBBY GOLDEN	gtr	A
KENNY GOLDEN	bs	A
RICHARD HUGHES	drms	A
NICK JONES	trumpet, vcls	A
DALE MILER	sax	A
BOB SPEARMAN	keyb'ds, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	PEACE	(Agape 2600)	197?

From Florida, a mix of psyche, prog and southern rock which may interest some. Bobby Golden and Bob Spearman went on to form Stillwater in the mid-70s.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Cole and The Embers

TOP

45s:

1. Hey Girl/? (Star Trek 1220) 1967
2. Love Won't Hurt You (possibly flip of above) (Star Trek) 196?

A St Louis band from the late sixties. Hey Girl followed the simple punk format with a droning farfisa organ backing and just a hint of progressivism in the brief organ solo midway through. Hey Girl can also be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 13.

Collage

Personnel:

DONNA	A
JERRY	A
JODIE	A
RON	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE COLLAGE	(Smash 101)	1967

A nice psychedelic sleeve for a totally disappointing pop quartet.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Collective Star

ALBUM:

1	GARUDA	(Private Pressing)	1974 SC

This unknown group played a mix of hard psych with strange effects and some Middle Eastern influences.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The College Boys

Personnel:

DAVE BEABER	gtrs, vcls	A
ERIC GULLIKSEN	12 str gtr, bs, vcls	A
JACK McKENES	banjo, bs, vcls	A

45:

1	The Man / Song Of The Traveller	(Swan S-4166)	1963

Significant for containing pre-Orpheus members Jack McKenes and Eric Gulliksen, this is the group referred to in the liner notes for The Best Of Orpheus retrospective CD as The Wanderers. A tribute to the late JFK, the record was produced by Tom Zagryn and Eric Gulliksen, and recorded in the cellar of a fraternity house on a Webcor tape recorder. Eric recalls: "As we already had a relationship with the Swan label via The Blue Echoes, we trotted it down to Philadelphia and Swan jumped on it thinking they would make a bundle. However, no Kennedy records made it in the US; people (and rightly so) just didn't want to see someone make money from the tragedy of JFK's death. For many years, though, I received air play royalties (in small amounts) from the four corners of the earth".

The Colony

45:

1. All I Want/Things On My Mind (Platter 105) 196?

The outfit came from Ventura, California and had a great constipated-sounding vocalist. All I Want later appeared on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD), Boulders, Vol. 1 and on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 1.

Coloring Book

45:

1. Smokestack Lightning/You Make Me Feel So Good (Pacific Challenger 117/8) c1966

The cover of Smokestack is rather lightweight but includes some wailing harp and is laid-back rather than a bluesy rave-up. Their cover of the Zombies classic is rather insipid. (MW).

The Colors of Night

45:

1. C-0-L-0-R-S/? (Regime 6964) 1967

C-0-L-0-R-S can be heard on Pennsylvania Unknowns - they hailed from Philadelphia.

Colours

Personnel:

- GARY MONTGOMERY piano A
- JACK DALTON gtr A
- ROB EDWARDS ld gtr A
- CARL RADLE bs A
- CHUCK BLACKWELL drms A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) COLOURS (Dot 25854) 1968

2. ATMOSPHERE (Dot 25935) 1969

NB. (1) & (2) later reissued as double set (Paramount 81030).

45s:

1. Brother Lou's Love Colony/Lovin' (Dot 17060) 1967
2. Love Heals/Bad Day At Black Rock, Baby (Dot 17132) 1968
3. Hyannisport Sequel/Run Away From Here (Dot 17181) 1968
4. Angie/God Please Take My Life (Dot 17280) 1969

English spelling for a U.S. group seems illogical enough, but the liner-notes from their first album tell us that they 'have the crystalline sharpness of the Beatles before they turned acid'. That seems a dangerous thing to postulate. The first track, though, completely lives up to these pretensions and must be reckoned among the very best attempts at an orchestrated psych sound. Easily switching from key to key and with disturbingly many time-changes, which at first sound completely innocent, this particular track conveys a sense of drama seldom equalled. Menacing harmonies and superb instrumentation underscore the sorry tale of a bored lad, who vainly tries to rob a liquor store - with a tragic outcome: Bad Day At Black Rock, Baby "I'm carving a gun from an old piece of wood, dip it in black paint, it looks pretty good".

Other tracks can't quite keep the standard that high, but feature several more highlights and very versatile playing, like the sitar droned Rather Be Me, the commune-song Brother Lou's Love Colony with bagpipes and later covered by Moon, and the eerie Cataleptic. Definitely an underestimated LP. Their second album is sadly not in the same class. Without any credits to other musicians than Dalton/Montgomery, this album takes in some progressive rock, some undigested country and also has a cluttered production. Only the very last track on side 2 You're High comes anywhere near the former style and intensity. This album is best forgotten. The first needs rehabilitation.

From Tulsa, Radle and Blackwell were close friends of Leon Russell. They both guested on Don Preston and The South's album and later enjoyed successful careers. Carl Radle was with Delaney and Bonnie, Derek and The Dominos, J.J. Cale and Eric Clapton. Chuck Blackwell played with Taj Mahal, Joe Cocker and Leon Russell.

Where Is She, a Dalton/Montgomery song, surfaced on Harper and Rowe's album, whilst Cataleptic was also covered by Aorta.

(Marcel Koopman/Stephane Rebeschini)

Colours

TOP

ALBUM:

1	COLOURS	(Century)	1969 R1

Totally unrelated to the group on Dot, this one is a Texan folk group doing covers of the Beau Brummels, Dylan and Steve Stills.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Colwell - Winfield Blues Band

Personnel:

BILL COLWELL	gtr	A
CHUCK PERRO	drms	A
JACK SCHROER	alto sax, tenor sax, soprano sax	A
CHARLES 'MOOSE' SORRENTO	vcls, piano	A
COLIN TILTON	tenor sax, flute	A
MIKE WINFIELD	bs	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	COLD WIND BLUES	(Verve Forecast FTS-3056)	1968
2()	LIVE BUST	(Za-Zoo)	c1970 R2

Whilst the extended version of Dead End Street from their debut album had a lot of exposure on the early FM stations on the U.S. East Coast at least, of more interest is the six minute intrumental Govinda which is a great hindiesque groove with mallets on the drums, soprano sax and electric guitar played like a sitar... (undoubtedly they had heard the new Butterfield Blues Band's East West). For the most part, the album consists of urban blues rock in the Chicago style, although there's no harmonica.

Possibly from Chicago, Cold Wind Blues was recorded in New York and has the written endorsement of Will and Lester Chambers of the Chambers Brothers on the back cover...

Definitely more of a progressive blues than a psych item, the cover is standard issue record company psychsploito smoke and double exposure band/nature photo that is actually quite nice... tinted lavendar even...

The group kept on playing and issued in 1970 a privately pressed live album with a paste-on cover.

(Peter Principle/Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Combenashuns to Cookin Mama

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Combenashuns
- Bill Comeau
- The Comets
- Comfortable Chair
- Comin' Generation
- Coming Generation
- Coming Times
- Common People
- Commons Ltd.
- Communicaton Aggregation
- Conception
- Concrete Rubber Band
- Condello
- The Confederate Society
- The Conqueroo
- The Contents Are
- The Continental Co-eds
- The Continental V
- The Continentals
- The Continentals
- Contra Band
- Curley Cook and The Versitones
- Cookin Mama

The Combenashuns

45:

1. What'cha Gonna Do/Hey Uncle Sam (Leo 3801) 196?

A Bethlehem, Pennsylvania outfit, you'll find Whatcha Gonna Do on the Pennsylvania Unknowns compilation.

Bill Comeau

ALBUM:

1	Fragments From An Unknown Gospel	(Avant-Garde)	1969

On this Christian label, an ambitious folk album with lyrics penned by Bill Comeau, described as a "poet/composer/singer/playwright/seeker/dreamer, and music composed by Carmel Signa, a "composer/teacher/free spirit/hurried and sometimes happy soul".

Bill Comeau went on to form The Incredible Broadside Brass Bed Band.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Comets

Personnel:

ALAN DENNY	gtr, keyb'ds	A
MIKE HALL	drms	A
BUDDY HOBGOOD	ld gtr	A
TIM PEPPER	bs	A
MIKE RUSSELL	vcls	A
JOE STONESTREET	sax	A

CD:

1	MERCY MERCY	(Collectables Col-0620)	1997

NB: (1) Originally recorded for release on Justice in 1966, but not issued.

Formed in 1963 at Hill Junior High School in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, The Comets recorded twelve tracks for Calvin Newton's Justice Records Label in 1966. Aside from the typical cover versions, including three Chuck Berry tunes, the Rolling Stones' The Last Time and Wilson Pickett's In The Midnight Hour, the band recorded three original lightweight pop compositions: What You've Done, Someday You'll See, and Do You Remember.

Tim Pepper recalls:- "We were all very young at the time. I was one of the oldest at 16 and Mike Hall was only 10 years old. The rest were scattered in between. As it was, our ages kept us out of a lot of clubs without a chaperone and we always had one in the person of Buddy Hobgoods' and Mike Halls' parents. So, we never got in trouble and we always had a feeling of security that even today I'm thankful for. I had no notions of doing it for a living. I just enjoyed having a good time and appreciated the extra money that a boy of 16 always needs."

"The Comets were a typical rock band of the time. We played all the current music that was being played on the radio (if we could figure it out). We had all talked of making a record but that kind of thing was expensive especially when you played a weekend gig for $30 each total. So we kept dreaming and kept playing and had fun."

"One day a guy by the name of Calvin Newton approached us with a proposition. He'd been managing a recording studio named Justice Recording Co. here in Winston-Salem, NC for quite some time. He offered us the opportunity to record an album with 12 songs on it for $1000. How we came up with the money I'll never know but after a month or so went into the studio and laid down 12 tracks which were mostly covers although we did record three of our own songs. It was the first time we had ever even heard ourselves, as we hadn't previously got anyone to record us on tape and we didn't even own a PA System. Whenever we performed, all the vocals were sung through one of the guitar amps, so this was a real blast. It sounded great and we didn't even notice the mistakes."

"It took about four hours to record the entire album and we weren't too choosy because we would have to pay extra if the session took longer and we just didn't have the money. So all except two of the songs were done in just once take. Man we were tickled! We told all our friends and several of the local record stores here were going to sell it. We were getting attaboys from every quarter and we strutted like roosters for weeks."

"The record was not intended to be released nationwide, and around 500 albums were due to be pressed, but it felt like the big time to us. In fact the Justice label itself was not suppose to be a big name label. It was started to give new artists a tool to work with, to help them get themselves heard in the right places. The bands they recorded would take their records to gigs and set up a little table and sell them while they were playing or during a break. The band could also use them for promotional purposes like placing them in a local radio station and hopefully get someone there to play it."

"So we had done it. It was a fantastic experience. In those days of four track recorders, reverb and Silvertone guitars, we were felt like we were on top of the world. We shook hands, patted our selves on the back, went home and waited for our album Do You Remember to be released. It would be a long wait."

"Some of our parents were getting pretty sore, having put up the money, and not getting the discs. After about a month attempts were made to reach Calvin Newton. Some success was made in this but in the end we were told there would be no record. Justice Records had gone bankrupt. Two of the fathers finally confronted Mr. Newton and one of them was armed. The money was returned, but Calvin retained the tapes."

"Well we were heart broken. Worst of all we had to tell all our friends that the deal had fallen through and they were not going to get our albums. They all gave us that look to the effect that we had pulled their leg, hoodwinked them; in a word, lied about the whole thing. After that things started to go down hill for us. The Comets continued to play for many months afterwards but it didn't seem the same. Also the music was changing and we got to playing gigss where they wanted us to play long after 1am. I didn't like that at all. The nights weren't any fun any more and I wanted to do other things with my weekends. Finally at a regular gig at the Radar Base NCO Club, after being asked again to play 'over', I finally had enough and I walked out. After I left the band fell apart. Mike Russell went on the road for a while with a rhythm and blues group. Allen and Buddy formed another band called the Ambassadors and played together for many years, whilst I got married, got a job at the local news paper and hung up my bass for 10 years. I never knew what happened to Mike Hall and Joe."

That was thought to be the end of The Comets saga, but the story doesn't end there.... After Justice closed it's doors in '67, the building became home to various businesses (it's now a Carpet store!). However, circa 1975 it was home to an advertising agency. Tim:- "After the break up of The Comets, Mike Russell, our lead singer, went on to perform with several bands. He went on the road for a while and in the process made a number of friends who like all musicians drifted in and out of the music business. One of his friends, Tom Vickers, was working in this advertising studio at the old Justice building. In the back was a great big old desk that had very deep drawers in it. No one knew how long the old thing had been there. Well, Tom had gone back to this old desk to look for a roll of double sided tape to work on a layout with. Reaching way back in the lower drawer he found two boxes of Scotch Recording Tape. Each box had one reel of 7" X1/4" recording tape in it and on the front of the boxes was a label that just said The Comets."

Over the next few years, the tapes languished on the shelf, until Mike Hall accidentally discovered a Collectables reissue of another Justice album. The tapes were verified by Calvin Newton, and at last released by Collectables. Tim:- "The official release date of the album was June 21, 1997 and when I looked up in the sky on that warm clear evening I could see the glowing tail of the Hale Bop Comet. It was a fitting end to the events that had transpired. It hadn't been here for thousands of years. When it came back it brought me the best present I ever had."

Today, Buddy lives in Orlando and Mike Hall in Massachusetts but the other four remain in Winston-Salem.

(Mike Dugo with thanks to Tim Pepper)

Comfortable Chair

TOP

Personnel:

- TAD BACZEC ld gtr A
- GREG LEROY bs, ld gtr A
- GARY DAVIS keyb'ds A
- WARNER DAVIS drms A
- GENE GARFIN vcls, perc A
- BERNIE SCHWARTZ vcls A
- BARBARA WALLACE vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) COMFORTABLE CHAIR (Ode 212 44005) 1969

45s:

1. Be Me/Come Soon, Some Day (Ode 109) 1969
2. I'll See You/Now (Ode 112) 1969

A Los Angeles band whose main claim to fame is that they were discovered by Jim Morrison. Their album was produced by Robbie Krieger and John Densmore (also of The Doors). It has some very pleasant moments. They sounded similar to It's A Beautiful Day and Peanut Butter Conspiracy. I believe they made a fleeting appearance in a late '60s trendy Hollywood movie starring Bob Hope!

Bernie Schwartz was also a songwriter who began recording singles in 1963 and released an interesting album, The Wheel in 1969 or 1970, with Gene Garfin and Euphoria.

Greg Leroy later worked for Neil Young and Crazy Horse.

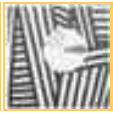
(Stephane Rebeschini)

Comin' Generation

TOP

Personnel:

- DENNIS BEERY drms
- EDD KOLAKOWSKI ld vcls,keyb'ds
- STEVE TRUXELL bs
- BOB WEBB gtr



45:

1. Hey Girl / Get Out Of My Life Woman (Dupree D-1304) July 1967

This outfit were from Alliance, Ohio. Bob Webb went on to the Measles and Lacewing. Hey Girl, from their sole 45, is on The Lost Generation.

(George Gell / Max Waller)

Coming Generation

Personnel:

ED CONNOR	gtr	A
ROGER EDDINGTON	bs	A
STEVE EDDINGTON	ld gtr	A
BOB FROBISCH	keyb'ds	A
GIRARD STEICHEN	drms	A

A quintet from Dwight, Illinois. They contributed two cuts to A Psychedelic Six-Pack Of Sound, a 1968 sampler LP of six local Illinois bands. Without You is a harmonoius acoustic folkie-pop ballad. Down To The City is much better, a catchy folk-rocker notable for its use of a siren - one of the few 'psychedelic' moments on the LP.

(Max Waller)

Coming Times

45:

1. Pork & Beans/Keep The Music Playing (Josie 954) 1966

This one 45 was the sole vinyl excursion by this obscure outfit which is thought to have come from New York or Philadelphia. Judging by the 'B' side Keep The Music Playing, which can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 12, they deserved better with this than a return to total obscurity. It's got some nice pop harmonies but perhaps suffered from being a low cost production.

Common People

Personnel:

- JOHN BARTLEY III gtr A
- DENNY REBINETT gtr, vcls A
- MICHAEL McCARTHY bs A
- JERRALD REBINETT drms A
- WILLIAM FAUSTO A

ALBUM:

1. (A) OF THE PEOPLE BY THE PEOPLE FOR THE PEOPLE FROM THE COMMON PEOPLE (Capitol ST 266) 1969

NB. The album has been repressed recently.

This album was recorded in California and they may have been a Californian band. Mellow, soft psychedelia similar to Gandalf the album is recommended and increasingly attracting interest from collectors.

Commons Ltd.

TOP

45:

1. Roses Are Red (My Love)/I'm Going To Change The World (MOD M-1005) Oct. 1966

Top side is mid-tempo Invasion beat (complete with 'yeah yeah's that was originally done by The "You Know Who" Group). The winner here is an excellent cover of The Animals' song with a superb, and all too short, fuzz break that's a highight on the Quill Records Story CD (Collectables COL-CD-0662) and Pebbles, Vol. 7 (CD). Rumour is that they hailed from Illinois. Can anyone confirm or correct this? (Max Waller).

Communicaton Aggregation

TOP

Personnel incl:

BUZZ CASON	A
BOBBY RUSSELL	A

45:

1	Freakout USA/Off The Wall	(RCA Victor 47-8930)	1966

A Nashville studio aggregation featuring Bobby Russell (Bobby Russel and The Beagles). He was also involved in many of the acts on the budget Hit label (Jalopy Five, Beasts, Doodles) who covered hits of the day. Freakout USA has recently resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 11. Wacky rather than psychedelic.

(Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich)

Conception

TOP

45:

1. Babylon/The Game (Perfection P-1001) 196?

You'd be excused for thinking this 45 is by two different groups. The 'A' is a cover of Blue Cheer's brain-buster, suitably heavy with phasing; the 'B' is a mellow jazzy West Coast workout - a cure for Babylon presumably! (MW).

Concrete Rubber Band

Personnel:

- D. LONG vcls, keyb'ds, gtr A
- J. LONG vcls, keyb'ds A
- B. RHODES perc A

ALBUM:

1. (A) RISEN SAVIOR (American Artists AAS 1164) 1974 R3

A Missouri label, so the band may be from there as well. A very rare and strange rock album with religious themes - male and female lead vocals, electronic embellishments, very strangely recorded. The record actually has several dropouts in the pressing, apparently the result of tape flaws. Only two or three copies are known in collections. (Clark Faville)

(Mike) Condello

Personnel:

- MIKE CONDELLO gtr, keyb'ds A
- RAY TRAINER bs, keyb'ds, flute A
- BILL SPOONER gtr A
- DENNIS KENMORE drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) PHASE 1 (Scepter SPS 542) 1966
2. () NO BATHING IN POND (Takoma TAK 7116) 1984

NB: (1) as Condello. There's also a retrospective CD, Mike Condello - Presents Wallace And Ladmo's Greatest Hits (Epiphany W&L 1954) 1994.

EPs:

1. BLUBBER SOUL (Ladmo L-007-1) 1965
2. MIKE'S MINI ALBUM (Blitz Kpho-Tv 005) 1967
3. MAKES A COMEBACK: (Blitz-Big 006) c1967
4. COMMODORE CONDELLOS SALT RIVER NAVY BAND (BlitzCheap) 1976

NB:(1) as Ladmo Trio. (2), (3) & (4) as Commodore Condello's Salt River Navy Band. (1) contains Obese Man, Shapes Of Things, Michelle and Run For Your Life. (2) Sgt. Pepper parody. (3) contains Soggy Cereal, Sonic Boom, Time Machine and three other tracks.

45s:

1. Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer / Little Drummer Boy (Ladmo 631-12)1964
2. Let's Really Hear It (For Hub Kapp) / Work Work (Take Five 631-5)1964
3. Sigh, Cry, Almost Die / Bony Maronie (Capitol 5215)1964
4. Little Volks / What You're Doin' To Me (Framagratz F-101)1965
5. Ho, Ho, Ha Ha, Hee Hee, Ha Ha/Pollen's Found A Home In My Nose (Ranco 2003) 1968
6. Crystal Clear/See What Tomorrow Brings (Scepter 12233) Nov. 1968
7. Goodnight/I'm So Glad It Ain't Me (Scepter 12261) Sep. 1969
8. Goodnight (3:58 Mono) / Goodnight (5:06 Stereo) Promo (Scepter 12261)Sep 1969

NB: (1) as Ladmo. (2 - 4) as Hub Kapp & The Wheels. (5) as by 'Commodore Condello's Salt River Navy Band'. (6 - 8) as Condello.

Formed in Arizona but based in California, Condello's Phase One album has some interesting moments. Their Makes A Comeback EP included Soggy Cereal, (which has become rather well-known by virtue of its inclusion on Pebbles, Vol. 3, and Sonic Boom, a Hendrix-influenced blast (compiled on Brainshadows Vol. 2 CD). Mike Condello later joined Elton Duck, a LA-based late seventies/early eighties new wave trio, and then recorded a solo LP in 1984. Bill Spooner ended up in The Tubes and Dennis Kenmore joined Pollution, a late sixties/early seventies jazz-influenced lock band.

Condello also produced an album for Warren S Richardson, which may be a Bill Spooner solo project.

Much of Condello's material is collected on the CD Wallace And Ladmo's Greatest Hits. Brainshadows Vol. 2 CD also features The Time Machine, a rather catchy number by Commodore Condello's Salt River Navy Band.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Confederate Society

TOP

Personnel incl:

- MARK MECCIA

Acetate:

1. I'm Through With You/Pride/Ticket To Ride/Hold On I'm Coming (Unreleased 1967)

Came from Glen Ridge, New Jersey and true to their name often did sport confederate uniforms for their gigs. An important part of their live repertoire was a fine version of Hey Joe, but that never did make it on to vinyl. Indeed their sole vinyl appearance came when Pride, an odd mix of the Byrds and Merseybeat sung to standard punk lyrics, was later included on the Attack Of The Jersey Teens compilation.

The Conqueroo

TOP

Personnel:

- BOB BROWN gtr A
- SUPER SPADE (ED GUINN) flute, bs A

- FAT CHARLIE (PRITCHARD) ld gtr A
- GERRY STORM drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FROM THE VULCAN GAS CO. (5 Hours Back 008) 1987

45:

1. 1 To 3/I've Got Time (PS) (Sonobeat 103) 1968

One of Austin's best-loved bands of this era they opened their own club, The Vulcan Gas Company in 1967 and among its attractions were the 13th Floor Elevators and many of the best black blues singers of the era. The club lasted until 1970. Their 45 appeared in a picture sleeve and featured some fine 'acid' guitar work. Indeed the band have been referred to as Austin's Grateful Dead. They moved to San Francisco for a while and whilst there Brown and Guinn also worked as The Angel Band. Disillusioned The Conqueroo split and returned to Texas. They reformed briefly in the mid-seventies.

Their retrospective album is a live recording from 1968. It features fine guitar work on Passenger and Banana And The Cat but is patchy overall so primarily for archivists. Ed Guinn and Bob Brown also cut a long demo tape about early 1967 of entirely fresh material, but this hasn't resurfaced to date. They also helped back comic artist, and Austin resident Gilbert Shelton on his sole 45.

Bob Brown later married and subsequently divorced Julie Christenson of Divine Horseman fame.

You'll find both sides of The Conqueroo's 45 on Texas Psychedelia From The Sixties.

The Contents Are TOP

45s:

1. I Don't Know/Direction Of Mind (ROK 6709) 1967
2. Future Days/New Mexico (ROK 6907) 1967

Hailing from Davenpoo, Iowa, this mob actually made an album although I've no details of it. Consequently their best known recording is Direction Of Mind by virtue of its inclusion on the compilation, Dirty Water.- The History Of Eastern Iowa Rock, Vol. 2. This one shows a strong Byrds influence. The first 45 was recorded in Minneapolis.

The Continental Co-eds TOP

Personnel:

- CAROLYN BEHR
- CAROL GOINS
- NANCY HOFMANN
- VICKI STEINMAN

- MARY JO HOFMANN

45:

1. I Don't Love You No More/Medley Of Junk (IGL 105) 1966

This lot hold the distinction of being the only all girl band from Minnesota ever to record in the 1960s. The girls came from the Pipestone and Fulda areas down in the extreme Southwest corner of the State. They were a popular local live attraction at clubs and teen fairs in the region. The 'A' side, a fairly typical garage punk effort, can be heard on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 2 and Glimpses, Vol. 2. The flip, a surf-influenced instrumental medley, can be found on Vol. 1 of the Girls In The Garage series.

The Continental V

TOP

45s:

1. Wake Me Up Girl/Tell Me Why (Radel 107) 1967
2. Wake Me Up Girl/Tell Me Why (Continental 101) 1967

Flashback, Vol. 3 includes the 'A' side to this Houston outfit's sole vinyl offering. It's pretty trippy.

The Continentals

TOP

45s:

1. Take Me/She Wants You (AOK 1025) 1966
2. I'm Gone/Blue Moments (Gaylo 124) 196?

They hailed from West Texas and you'll find I'm Gone, a fast punk number with a tambourine solo on the Texas Punk From The Sixties, Vol. 2 and Riot City! compilations.

The Continentals

TOP

45s:

1 Sick And Tired / ? (D&C DC-20) 1966

From upstate New York on the Schenectady label that put out notable 45s by The Chancellors and The Oscar Five.

Sick And Tired - a great Anglophile punker, where Kinks riffs mesh with strong raunchy vocals and cool harmonica - is a stand-out on the compilation named after it (Sick And Tired).

(Max Waller)

Contra Band

ALBUM:

1	CONTRA BAND	(Private Pressing)	c1972

Issued in a plain cover without credits, this album is the work of a rare Grateful Dead inspired group, with dual guitars and aggressive drumming.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Curley Cook and The Versitones

45:

1	Avalanche/Long Road To Nowhere	(Norcur NR 100)	1966

One of the first records by the future Steve Miller Band / A.B.Shky member. The 'A' side is a good instrumental track with fine guitar, the 'B' side is a ballad written by Ricky Lee.

The Norcur label was based in Hobbs, New Mexico.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Cookin Mama

Personnel incl:

SHERRY FOX	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	NEW DAY	(Rock Bottom)	1972

From San Francisco, a rural jamming rock album, on the same label as Ofoendian Den. Sherry Fox would later be in Oasis.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Jeff Cooper and The Stoned Wings to The Cornerstones

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Jeff Cooper and The Stoned Wings
- Ry Cooper
- Copperhead
- Corbett and Hirsh
- Jerry Corbitt
- The Cords
- The Cords
- The Cornells
- Corners Four
- The Cornerstones

Jeff Cooper and The Stoned Wings

TOP

Personnel incl:

- JEFF COOPER (?)

ALBUM:

1. TRIBUTE TO JIMI HENDRIX (Germany/Europa E 454) 197? R1

Despite only being released in Germany, this album is obviously of American origin. The musicians are uncredited. The bulk of the tracks on the album were included on another mysterious non-U.S. issued record Purple Fox. The group sounds uncannily like The Exkursions. (Clark Faville)

Ry Cooper

TOP

45:

1	1983/The Life Game	(Musicor 1148)	1969

An excellent folk/rock singer with a raging voice, some organ and a great electric guitar, obviously influended by Dylan and the protest songs a la Eve Of Destruction. Contrary to what it may seem, it's totally unrelated to Ry Cooder.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Copperhead

TOP

Personnel:

JOHN CIPOLLINA	gtr	A B
MARIO CIPOLLINA	bs	A
NICKY HOPKINS	keyb'ds	A
JIM MURRAY	gtr	A
PETE SEARS	bs, keyb'ds	A
CASEY SONOBAN	drms	A
MARK UNOBSKY	gtr	A
JASPER "HUTCH" HUTCHINSON	vcls, bs	B
JIM McPHERSON	vcls, piano, bs, perc	B
GARY PHILIPPET	vcls, gtr, organ	B
DAVID WEBER	drms, perc	B

ALBUM:

1(B)	COPPERHEAD	(CBS CS 32250)	1973

NB: (1) also released in the U.K. and Holland. (1) Reissued by Edsel (ED 136) with one bonus track.

45:

1	Roller Derby Star/Chameleon	(CBS ?)	1973

NB: (1) Chameleon is non LP but does appear on the Edsel reissue.

When John Cipollina left Quicksilver Messenger Service in 1971, he formed Copperhead with Jim Murray and Casey Sonoban (two members of the first Quicksilver line-up), his brother Mario (who later found fame with Huey Lewis and The News) and various other musicians. Their frequent rehearsals and gigs didn't allow them to get a recording contract and in 1972 Cipollina assembled a new line-up with Gary Philippet (ex Front Line), Jim McPherson (ex Stained Glass), David Weber and Hutch Hutchinson. A record, Sealed For Your Protection, was ready to be released on Just Sunshine Record but was eventually shelved. Finally Copperhead was issued by CBS in 1973 and is a superb example of San Francisco Sound, with seven original tracks and a new version of Kibitzer, already recorded by McPherson with Stained Glass. A must for fans of Quicksilver and Cipollina's guitar.

Two bootlegs with a good sound quality also exist: Drunken Irish Setter, recorded live on December 16th, 1972 in San Francisco (Oh Boy 1-9026, CD) and Live 1973, recorded for KSAN-FM (Blue Velvet FCP002, LP). Both contain tracks not present on the LP.

Cipollina, McPherson and Philippet also played on one track of Kathi McDonald's Insane Asylum (Capitol ST-11224) 1974.

After Copperhead, Cipollina, Weber, McPherson and Hutchinson joined Terry and The Pirates and played with various local groups. Hutch Hutchinson became a renowned bass session player and is still active in the studios.

John Cipollina died in 1989.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Corbett and Hirsh

TOP

Personnel:

MIKE CORBETT	vcls, flute, vibes, perc	A
JAY HIRSCH	gtr, keyb'ds, mandolin, accordion	A

HUGH McCRACKEN	gtrs, mouth harp, sitar	A
JOHN SIOMOS	drms	A
(LEW HARBINGTON	french horn	A)
(RUSSEL GEORGE	fiddles	A)
(PAUL GRIFIN	keyb'ds	A)
(AL ROGERS	drms	A)
(CHRISTIE THOMPSON	keyb'ds	A)
(ERIC WEISBERG	pedal steel gtr	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	MIKE CORBETT AND JAY HIRSCH WITH HUGH McCRACKEN	(Atco SD 33-361)	1971

In 1971, Hirsch and Corbett recorded, wrote and produced this good album which is in the same vein as their previous group, Mr. Flood's Party. Tracks like Gypsy Child, Annie's A Wizzard, Fly With Me or Butterfly Day all contain fine vocals and lyrics with interesting instrumentation. The album was recorded in New York.

John Siomos was previously in Chicago Loop and Music. Hugh McCracken was a very active musician at the time on the East Coast.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jerry Corbitt

TOP

Personnel:

ED BOGAS	moog	A
JERRY CORBITT	gtr, mouthharp, vcls	A B C D
CHARLIE DANIELS	mandolin, bs, fiddle, gtr	A B C D
GREGORY DEWEY	drms	A B
BERNIE KRAUSE	moog	A
RICK TURNER	bs, gtr	A
RON MBULA WILSON		A
JESSE COLIN YOUNG	vcls	B
EARL GRIMSBY	bs	C D
JEFFREY MEYER	drms	C D
JOE ROMAN	keyb'ds	C D

ALBUMS:

1(A)	CORBITT	(Polydor 24-4003)	1969
2(B)	JERRY CORBITT	(Capitol ST-771)	1970
3(C)	CORBITT & DANIELS, LIVE I	(Tiger Lily 14001)	1976
4(D)	CORBITT & DANIELS, LIVE II	(Tiger Lily 14002)	1976

Corbitt was previously in The Youngbloods and left them in 1968. He went on to become a producer (Mad River, Janey & Dennis) and a solo artist. His first album featured Rick Turner (from Autosalvage), Greg Dewey (from Mad River/Country Joe), Bernie Krause (from Beaver & Krause) and Charlie Daniels who also produced all his albums.

(Daniels was also producing The Youngbloods at that time). Not surprisingly, it sounds a bit like Corbitt's previous group and contains some excellent west-coast tracks like The Kahuna Song, Out Of The Question or Banned In Boston. Most songs were penned by Corbitt and Jeffrey Cain.

His second album is very disappointing and best avoided. Corbitt also figured on most of Jesse Colin Young's solo albums and teamed up again with Charlie Daniels in 1976 for two good live LPs of original material plus some covers (like John Deere Tractor written by Lawrence Hammond, ex-Mad River).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Cords

TOP

45s:

1	Cords, Inc./Think	(Cuca JS-1512)	1970
2	Ghost Power/Waiting Here For You	(Cuca JS-1513)	1970

An obscure four piece ouffit from somewhere in Wisconsin. GhostPower is a really good sorta punk thrash instrumental. Sounds like they had a lot of fun recording this!

Cords, Inc. can be heard on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 1 (CD) with Ghost Power haunting the companion Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 2 (CD) plus Back From The Grave, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller)

The Cords

TOP

Personnel incl:

BILLY STULL ?	A
GLEN WILBANKS ?	A

45s:

1	Country Church / Termites	(Rakki 101)	1965
2	I'll Do Just What I Want To Do/Ain't That Love	(Atco 6687)	1969

An outfit from Amarillo, Texas whose second 45 is produced by Norman Petty and is a surpisingly excellent platter from 1969. I'll Do Just.... is well-crafted baroque-tinged pop with good (i.e. unobtrusive) orchestration and a defiant mood.

Ain't That Love is a great fuzz-rocker featuring a brief wah-wah solo.

Compilation coverage has included:- I'll Do Just... on Every Groovy Day ; and Ain't That Love on Sixties Rebellion 15: The Apple Glass Syndrome.

(Max Waller)

The Cornells

Personnel incl:

- PETER LEWIS

ALBUM:

1. SURF FEVER! THE BEST OF THE CORNELLS (Unknown label) 1963

The above album has been re-issued on vinyl (LP 5013) and CD (SC 6061) by Sundazed and contains three bonus tracks. Peter Lewis later played with Moby Grape.

Corners Four

45:

1. Love/It's So Right (Philips 40448) 1967

Reputedly an Ohio outfit, Love is a poppier version of the track done by Lousiana's Bad Boys. Forget the flip. (MW).

The Cornerstones

Personnel incl:

- STEPHEN ROOD

45s:

1. You Rule Me/Our Love Is All Through (Metrobeat MBR-4447) 1967
2. When Will My Day Come?/It's Gonna Be That Way (Metrobeat MBR-4455) 1967

Originally out of Grand Forks, North Dakota they went to Minneapolis hoping to make it big. Their first effort, You Rule Me, a garage rocker, was very successful in the Dakotas. The follow-up, When Will My Day Come? was less successful and they called it a day. The 'A' sides of both 45s and their frantic, previously unissued version of James and Bobby Purify's classic soul number Shake A Tail Feather can all be heard on The Best Of Metrobeat.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Corporation to The Countdown 5

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Corporation
- Corpus
- Corruption, Inc.
- Corvettes
- The Cosmic Brotherhood
- Cosmic Michael
- Cosmic Rock Show
- Cosmic Sounds
- The Cosmic Tones
- The Cosmic Travelers
- Cotton Mouth
- Cottonwood
- The Counsellors
- Count and The Colony
- The Countdown 5 (Five)

The Corporation

TOP

Personnel:

- KENNETH BERDOLL bs, vcls
- JOHN KONDOS gtr, keyb'ds, flute
- NICK KONDOS drms, vcls
- PATRICK McCARTHY keyb'ds, trombone
- DANIEL VINCENT PEIL vcls
- GERARD JON SMITH ld gtr, vcls

ALBUMS:

1. () HASSELS IN MY MIND (Age of Aquarius 4150) 1968
2. () GET ON OUR SWING (Age of Aquarius 4250) 1968
3. () THE CORPORATION (Capitol 175) 1969 197

NB. (1) and (2) have been reissued on one LP, Age of Aquarius and on one CD (Eva EVA B 43) 1995. (3) was also issued in France (Capitol 2C062-80161) and has also been reissued on CD (Repertoire REP 4539-WP) 1995.

45s:

1. You Make Me Feel Go/Sitting By The Sea (Cuca 1496) 196?
2. You Make Me Feel Go/Sitting By The Sea (Age Of Aquarius) 1968
3. Highway/I Want To Get Out Of My Grave (Capitol 2467) 1969

Originally from Sauk City, Wisconsin, this band was based in Detroit when it recorded the three above-mentioned albums. The Capitol LP is notable for the side-long psychedelic rework of John Coltrane's India. It was produced by John Rhys and recorded at Ter Shirma Studios, Detroit. All the tracks on side one were group compositions. The album also crept into the U.S. Album Charts peaking at No 197.

Rumoured to be connected, other than geographically to The Skunks.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Corpus

Personnel:

- WILLIAM GRATE ld gtr, vcls A
- JAMES CASTILLO bs A
- FRUDY LIANES drms A
- RICHARD DELEON gtr, ld vcls A
- GILBERT PENA, Jnr lyrics A

ALBUM:

1. (A) CREATION A CHILD (Acorn 1001) 1970/1

NB: (1) has been repressed several times on Acorn. Later reissued on Breeder (RPR 007-3C-567) 1986 and also on CD.

From Corpus Christi in Texas as their name suggests. There's some good guitar work on the album, which is essentially blues-based. The reissue is worth investigating but don't fork out lots of bucks on the original.

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

Corruption, Inc

Personnel:

- TOM HETZLER A
- THOM WESSELS gtr A
- JIM LOGEL vcls A
- MIKE McCLEARY gtr A
- DAVE MEYERS drms A

45:

1. She's Gone/Somewhere (Hunt 1201) 1966

This outfit recorded their sole 45 upstairs in a store in their hometown of Iowa City. The 'A' side, with its impressive double track vocal and screetching intro, is reminiscent of The Seeds and can be found on the compilation, Dirty Water., The History Of Eastern Iowa Rock, Vol. 2. Tom Hetzler went on to join The Daybreakers.

Corvettes

Personnel:

CHRIS DARROW	vcls, gtr, bs	A B
JEFF HANNAH	vcls, gtr	A
JOHN LONDON	drms	A B
JOHN WARE	bs	A
BERNIE LEADON	gtr	B

45s:

1	Back Home Girl/ The Lion In Your Heart	(Dot 45-17244)	1969
2	Beware Of Time/Level With Your Senses	(Dot ?)	1969

Formed by Jeff Hannah and Chris Darrow when the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band disbanded, Darrow had earlier played in Kaleidoscope. The two Corvettes 45s were produced by Michael Nesmith, who had recently left the Monkees.

The Corvettes soon became Linda Ronstadt's back-up band when she left the Stone Poneys. She had heard about them through Nesmith, who had written the Stone Poneys' hit Different Drum. When Jeff decided to reform the Dirt Band, Bernie Leadon (ex Hearts and Flowers) joined the band. This aggregation stayed with Linda until Bernie was asked to join the Flying Burrito Brothers, and John Ware and John London, the rhythm section, teamed up with Nesmith in his First National Band. Chris continued to play with Linda off and on for a number of years.

Musically interesting, it's a mix of west coast and Californian country rock with excellent guitar and vocals.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Chris Darrow)

The Cosmic Brotherhood

Personnel:

HERSCH HAMEL	sitar, tambura	A
MILT HOLLAND	tabla	A
BILL PLUMMER	sitar, string bass	A
RAY NEOPOLITAN	sitar	A
JAN STEWARD	sarode, tambura	A
(RAY ANTHONY	gtr	A)
(LYNN BLESSING	vibes, bells	A)
(DENNIS BUDIMER	gtr	A)

(MIKE CRADEN	transceleste, duo vigong, American tree bells, boo bams, surrogate vithara, "which stand"(?)	A)
(BILL GOODWIN	drms	A)
(CAROL KAYE	fender bass	A)
(MIKE LANG	piano, harpsichord	A)
(MAURICE MILLER	drms	A)
(TOM SCOTT	sax, flute, electronics	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	BILL PLUMMER AND THE COSMIC BROTHERHOOD	(ABC Impulse A-9164)	1967

NB: (1) as Bill Plummer and The Cosmic Brotherhood.

45s:

1	Journey To The East / Arc 294	(ABC Impulse 45-266)	1967
2	Sunshine World/Yentra II	(A&M 1097)	Aug 1969

NB: (1) as Bill Plummer and The Cosmic Brotherhood.

Born in Boulder, Colorado in 1943, Bill Plummer moved to Los Angeles twenty years later to pursue a jazz career. Already trained on piano, string bass, trumpet, marimba and vibraharp, he added the sitar to his repertoire under the tutelage of Ravi Shankar. He played and toured with Herb and Lorraine Geller, Nancy Wilson, the Paul Horn Group, Buddy DeFranco Quartet, and Pete Jolly Trio amongst others. In 1966 he toured with Tony Bennett and Buddy Miles and formed an experimental group The Jazz Corps, which included Lynn Blessing and Maurice Miller.

His love of jazz and interest in Indian music comes together on this 1967 album where jazz workouts sit alongside Eastern ragas and blend with some contemporary pop/rock influences - exotic renditions (ala Lord Sitar or Folkswingers) of Bacharch's The Look Of Love and Byrds' Lady Friend are enchanting rather than cheesy.

The sitar extravaganza should appeal most to psych fans of an Eastern persuasion: the trippy Journey To The East (with deadpan spoken vocals) has since appeared on a CD compilation of the same name; the ten-minute Arc 294 is a heady cacophany where exotic instruments do battle on a field of freeform jazz.

The A&M 45 switched to more accessible pop-psych sounds: Sunshine World is catchy and quite heavy sitar-pop; Yentra II is a stately sitar instrumental that starts off like Zodiac Cosmic Sounds then builds gradually to a heavy crescendo - most excellent.

Lynn Blessing released a solo album in 1969.

(Max Waller)

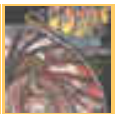
Cosmic Michael

ALBUMS:

1. COSMIC MICHAEL (Bliss) 196? R3/4
2. AFTER AWHILE (Bliss) 19?? R1

A solo artist. His first album was issued in New York. Its poorly produced piano/vocals - led rock music is an acquired taste. Some people regard him as a Godhead. Certainly an interesting record overall but the value is difficult to justify. The second album was a local California release made after he moved to Los Angeles to catch the wave and is awful. (Clark Faville)

Cosmic Rock Show



TOP

45:

1. Psiship/Rising Sun (Blitz 469) 196?

Hailing from Duluth, Minnesota this band recorded just one 45 which is quite soughtafter. The flip, a slowed down version of The Animal's House Of The Rising Sun was included on the compilation LP Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 1 the earlier EP of the same name and the Only In America CD. The 'A' side is pretty weird. It's recently resurfaced on Beyond The Calico all and has lyrics like: 'Ride it To The Moon/Psychedelic Space Ship/l Got The Feeling/It'll Be Another Bum Trip'.

Cosmic Sounds

TOP

Personnel incl:

- MORT GARSON
- CYRUS FARYAR vcls

ALBUM:

1. THE ZODIAC (Elektra EKS 74009) 1967

NB: Reissued on CD (FID 32) 1997.

A track is allocated to each of the twelve signs of the zodiac on the above album, which was recorded by a group of session musicians and featured Cyrus Faryar on vocals. Instrumentals are superimposed by narrative and the two do not always blend effectively together. An unusual album, but not really recommended.

Mort Garson, whose project it was, went on to make an album as Lucifer, Black Mass and there were a number of others, including The Wozard Of Iz/An Electronic Odyssey (A&M SP 4156) from 1968 or 1969. It seems there were a also a whole series of albums dedicated to the Signs Of The Zodiac by Mort Garson including, Leo (A&M SP 4215) 1969/1970 and Aries (A&M SP 4211) c1969. On the Leo album he collaborated with Jacques Wilson, who also wrote the lyrics on The Zodiac album. Incidentally, Paul Beaver (half of the cult electronic duo Beaver and Krause - Beaver died in 1975) was involved on both The Zodiac and Wozard Of Iz albums. Cyrus Faryar was also a member of Modern Folk Quartet (along with Jerry Yester).

For Mort Garson completists, there's also an old 45: Gas Light Village/Drum Tango (Todd 1050) 1959, yes '59 as by 'Mort Garson & His Orchestra'! It's certainly different!

Aries (The Fire Fighter), a track from the Zodiac album, has turned up on both the Elektra compilation, Elektrifying and Turds On A Bum Ride Vol's 1 & 2 CD.

(Vernon Joynson / Costas Arvanitis / Max Waller)

The Cosmic Tones

A little known garage band from Texas whose Gonna Build Me A Woman was included on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 8.

The Cosmic Travelers

Personnel:

- JOEL CHRISTIE bs A
- DRAKE LEVIN gtr A
- DALE LOYOLA drms A
- JIMMY McGHEE gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) LIVE! AT THE SPRING CRATER CELEBRATION DIAMOND HEAD, OAHU, HAWAII (Volcano CT 00004) 1972 R3/4

NB: The album was recorded live on 1st April 1972. Of only a handful of copies known to exist, one was found with a large poster inside.

A local Hawaii release by a Los Angeles group. Joel Christie is ex-Lee Michaels Band. Drake Levin had been in Paul Revere and The Raiders, Brotherhood (on RCA), Lee Michaels Band, Friendsound and Emmit Rhodes. Dale Loyola was previously in Hook. The very rare album consists of long, jam-outs loaded with crazed fuzz guitar solos. (Clark Faville)

Cotton Mouth

Personnel:

- FRED DICKERSON ld gtr
- BOB JENKINS ld vcls
- DUANE McCASLIN bs
- DEAN WHITBECK drms

45s:

1. Mr Fishker's Glory/Sunshine Saleslady (Sabrina 4) 19?
2. Rivers Invitation / ?? (Little Piggy 109) 196?

Based in Olympia, Washington, this band included Fred Dickerson and Duane McCaskin, who had earlier played in The Bootmen. Cotton Mouth were a great live act circa 1968 and Mr. Fishker's Glory is one of the rarest and finest slices of psychedelia to come from the Pacific Northwest. Strongly recommended with lots of fuzz guitar.

(Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero)

Cottonwood

TOP

Personnel:

RICK ALLEN		A
DAVID FARRELL		A
DOUG PHILLIPS		A
GARY ROWLES	gtr, vcls	A
DAVID WEYER		A

ALBUM:

1	CAMARADERIE	(ABC ABCS-729)	1971

From California, a short-lived outfit formed by the guitarist Gary Rowles after Love broke up. The music reflects the sleeve: bearded men running in the fields or meditating by the sea. It may sound quite naive and dated now.

Rowles would later back Flo and Eddie and in 1973 join Richard Torrance and Eureka, an interesting Californian rock group (lovers of west-coast guitars may check their two albums on Shelter).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Counsellors

TOP

Personnel:

- DOUG FAIELLA ld gtr,vcls A
- PHIL ROBISON ld vcls A
- MURRAY HENDRICKSON drms, vcls A
- DENNY STITH organ A
- BOB CONDIT bs,vcls A
- JERRY BORDEN gtr
- DALE STOPHER bs

45s:

1. (A) Why Don't You / Love Go Round (Ironbeat HR-1251) 1968
2. It Must Be Love / With Only Me (Ironbeat # unkn) 196?

From Columbus, Ohio. Love Go Round starts off hesitantly with a coy intro but gradually builds in confidence from poppy garage to a waspish fuzz solo and a memorable outro - neat, hear it on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2.

(Max Waller / Roger Maglio)

Count and The Colony

TOP

45s:

1. Can't You See/That's The Way (Pa Go Go 121) 1967
2. Say What You Think/Symptoms Of Love (Pa Go Go 201) 1967
3. Say What You Think/Symptoms Of Love (SSS Int'l 711) 1967

From Flint, Michigan. Can't You See has resurfaced on Basement Walls and Glimpses, Vol. 2.

The Countdown 5 (Five)

TOP

Personnel incl:
JOHN BALZER
MALCOLM HAYES
TOMMY MURPHY

45s:

1	Bamboo Hut/Shout	(Pic 1 123)	1965
2	Do What You Do Well/My Own Style Of Living	(Pic 1 131)	1966
3	Uncle Kirby (From Brazil)/Speculation (PS)	(Toucan TI)	1967
4	Uncle Kirby (From Brazil)/Speculation	(Cinema 010)	1967
5	Time To Spare/Elevator	(Toucan TCI)	1968
6	Time To Spare/Elevator	(Cinema ?)	1968
7	Maybe I'll Love You/Willie And The Hand Jive	(Cinema 026)	1968
8	Uncle Kirby (From Brazil)/We Are All One	(Cinema 031)	1968
9	Shaka Shaka Na Na/ Money Man	(Cobblestone 745)	1969

NB: (9) as The Countdown Five.

Hailing from Galveston in Texas this band is best-known for Uncle Kirkby (From Brazil) with its interesting rhythms and effective guitar playing. The 45 originally appeared in a picture sleeve.

Compilation coverage has included: Uncle Kirkby (From Brazil) on (Texas) Flashback, Vol. 1; Shaka Shaka Na Na and Money Man on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 3 ; Speculation on Fuzz, Flaykes and Shakes Vol. 1; Elevator on Every Groovy Day; they also have three previously unreleased recordings:- Willie And The Hand Jive (the famous Shuggie Otis number), Sweet Talk and Candy on Houston Hallucinations, although aside from the latter they are not on a par with the best of their released material.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Countdowns to The Couriers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Countdowns
- The Countdowns
- The Countdowns
- The Count Five
- Country Gentlemen
- Country Joe and The Fish
- Country Weather
- The Counts
- The Counts
- The Counts
- The Counts IV
- The Couriers

The Countdowns

TOP

Personnel incl:

- LARRY BARRETT vcls, gtr

45s:

1. You Know I Do/Strange Are The Shadows (Fiji 691) 1965
2. You Know I Do/Strange Are The Shadows (Bear 1968) 1985

The 45 was the work of a high school band from the Iowa City suburb of Coralville, previously The Friars. Larry Barrett wrote, sang and played guitar on You Know I Do, an undistinguished effort which can be found on either Dirty Water.- The History Of Eastern Iowa Rock, Vol. 2 or on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 4. The band later changed their name to Uncle and The Anteaters and Barrett was also later involved in The XL's and Fire and Ice.

The Countdowns

TOP

Personnel incl:

- RON GRAY

45s:

1. No More/Ajax The Tin Knight (N-Joy NJ 1013) 1966
2. Cover Of Night/? (N-Joy NJ 1015) 1966
3. Can't You See?/Cover Of Night (N-Joy NJ 1016) 1966
4. Hold Back The Sunrise/The Shake (HBR) 196?

NB: (1) credited to Ron Gray and The Countdowns.

Hailing from West Monroe, Louisiana, Cover Of Night, a raw, bluesy garage punk rendition, can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 20. The band were originally known as Ron Gray and The Countdowns and their first 45, No More, was released under this name. No More got a further airing on Louisiana Punk Groups From The Sixties, Vol. 2. Written by Ron Gray, it has a pretty good beat.

The Countdowns

TOP

45:

1. Skies Will Be Happy To See You/She Works All Night (WG 1) 1967

This 45 was the work of a different act from Holyoke, Massachusetts. Skies Will Be Happy To See You has also resurfaced on the Basement Walls compilation.

Other bands of this name in this era included one from the Bay area of California who had two 45s on Link and one who had a 45 on Image. (Max Waller/Claus Rosenblad)

The Count Five

TOP

Personnel:

CRAIG ATKINSON	drms	A
SEAN BYRNE	vcls, rhythm gtr	A
ROY CHANEY	bs	A
KENN ELLNER	vcls, tamb, hrmnca	A
JOHN MICHALSKI	ld gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	PSYCHOTIC REACTION	(Double Shot DSM 1001)	1967 122

NB: (1) reissued on vinyl and CD by Performance (PERF 398) and added all the Double Shot non-album singles sides making it a total of 18 tracks. There's also a 14-track 1987 live album on CD entitled Psychotic Reaction Live (PERF 396).

45s:

1	Psychotic Reaction/They're Gonna Get You	(Double Shot 104)	1966 5
2/TD>	Peace Of Mind/The Morning After	(Double Shot 106)	1966 125
3	You Must Believe Me/Teeny Booper Teeny Booper	(Double Shot 110)	1967
4	Merry-Go-Round/Contrast	(Double Shot 115)	1967

5	Declaration Of Independence/Revelation In Slow Motion	(Double Shot 125)	1968
6	Mailman/Pretty Big Mouth	(Double Shot 141)	1969

NB: A couple of foreign 45s include:- Peace Of Mind / The Morning After (Apex 77026) 1966 (Canada) and Revelation In Slow Motion / Declaration Of Independance (PS) (AZ SG 48) 1967 (France). There's also a rare French EP with PS: Psychotic Reaction/They're Gonna Get You/Can't Get Your Lovin/The Morning After (Disc AZ 1058)

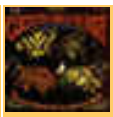
This San Jose high school/student band reached the U.S. Top Ten with the title track of their only album, now a collector's item. Their album also made No 122 in the U.S. Album Charts, and the group toured the U.S. performing with the Hollies, Beach Boys, Rascals, Byrds, Dave Clark Five, Sony and Cher, The Doors, Them, and Peter and Gordon to name but a few.

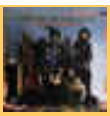
Psychotic Reaction is also included on the Nuggets compilation, We Have Come For Your Children, Highs Of The Sixties, Nuggets, Vol. 1, Wild Thing, Tough Rock and Best Of Psychedelic Rock (CD). Their album was full of driving rock songs, of which Double Decker Bus was the next best. A German Line compilation Dynamite lncidents 1983 contains some of their non-LP 45's. One side plays at 33 r.p.m. and the other at 45 r.p.m. Also Edsel have released a 13-track compilation, Psychotic Reaction (Edsel ED 225) 1987. Other compilation appearances have been You Must Believe Me on Eva's Sound Of The Sixties and Teeny Bopper, Teeny Bopper on Sound Of The Sixties: San Francisco: Part 1.

Psychotic Reaction has become something of a classic. It was well covered at the time by the like of Fire Escape, Leathercoated Minds, Positively 13 O'Clock and Underground.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

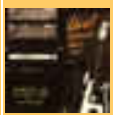
Country Gentlemen





TOP

45:



1. Saturday Night/For You (Breni 7058) 1967

A Californian outfit. The 'A' side, written by Bill Alessi, can be found on Boulders, Vol. 7 and Mindrocker, Vol. 12.

Country Joe and The Fish

TOP

Personnel:

MIKE BEARDSLEE	vcls	A
COUNTRY JOE MCDONALD	gtr, vcls, hmnca	A B C D E F
BARRY MELTON	gtr	A B C D E F
CARL SHRAGER	perc	A B
BOB STEELE	bs	A B
RICHARD SAUNDERS	bs, gtr, vcls	B
BRUCE BARTHOL	bs	C
DAVID COHEN	keyb'ds, vcls	C D

CHICKEN HIRSCH	drms	C D
MARK RYAN	bs	D
PETE ALBIN	bs, gtr	E
DAVE GETZ	drms	E
MARK KAPNER	keyb'ds	E F
GREG DEWEY	drms	F
DOUG METZNER	bs	F

ALBUMS:

1(C)	ELECTRIC MUSIC FOR THE MIND AND BODY	(Vanguard VSD 79244)	1967 39
2(C)	I-FEEL-LIKE-I'M-FIXIN'-TO-DIE	(Vanguard VSD 79266)	1967 67
3(C)	TOGETHER	(Vanguard VSD 79277)	1969 23
4(D)	HERE WE ARE AGAIN	(Vanguard VSD 79299)	1969 48
5(-)	GREATEST HITS	(Vanguard VSD 6545)	1969 74
6(-)	C J FISH	(Vanguard VSD 6555)	1970 111
7(-)	THE LIFE AND TIMES OF COUNTRY JOE AND THE FISH FROM HAIGHT-ASHBURY TO WOODSTOCK	(Vanguard VSD 27/28)	1976 197
8(-)	RE-UNION	(Fantasy 9530)	1976 -
9(-)	THE EARLY YEARS (The Rag Baby EP's)	(Rag Baby AMR 3309)	1981
10()	LIVE! FILLMORE WEST 1969	(Vanguard) (CD)	1996

NB: Of recent interest to collectors will be a European double CD The Vietnam Experience. LPs (1), (2) and (7) have been reissued. (10) includes cameo appearances by Steve Miller and Jerry Garcia.

EPs:

1(A)	RAG BABY	(Rag 1001)	Oct 1965
2(A)	RAG BABY	(Rag 1001)	June 1966
3(-)	RAG BABY	(Rag 1002)	1966
4(-)	RAG BABY	(Rag 1003)	1971

NB. (1) and (2) are different pressings of the same EP. These EPs were issued on the LP The Early Years in 1981 and reissued on Decal LIK 8 (1987), One Way and Sequel (NEX CD 228) 1992. (2) features Bass Strings, Thing Called Love and Section 43 and can also be heard, along with The Frumious Bandersnatch, Mad River and Notes From The Underground EPs, on one CD, The Berkeley EPs (Big Beat CDWIKD 153) 1995. (4) was actually Grootna with Country Joe McDonald.

County Joe McDonald Solo (up to 1972)

1	THINKING OF WOODY GUTHRIE	(Vanguard)	1969
2	TONIGHT I'M SINGING JUST FOR YOU	(Vanguard VSD 6557)	1970
3	QUIET DAYS IN CLICHY (Five tracks on Soundtrack UK)	(Sonet SNTF 622)	1970
4	HOLD ON IT'S COMIN'	(Vanguard VSD 79314)	1971
5	WAR WAR WAR	(Vanguard VSD 79315)	1971 185
6	INCREDIBLE LIVE! COUNTRY JOE	(Vanguard VSD 79316)	1972 179

Country Joe and the Fish 45s:

1	Not So Sweet Martha Lorraine/Masked Marauder	(Vanguard 35052)	1967 95
2	Janis/Janis (Instrumental)	(Vanguard 35059)	1967 -
3	Who Am I?/Thursday (PS)	(Vanguard 35061)	1967 114
4	Rock And Soul Music Pt1 /Pt2	(Vanguard 35068)	1967 -
5	Here I Go Again/You Drive Me Crazy	(Vanguard 35090)	1969 106
6	Janis/I-Feel-Like-I'm-Fixin'-To-Die-Rag	(Vanguard 35112)	1970 -

NB: In the U.K. only the first 45 and 'Here I Go Again/it's So Nice To Have Love' (Vanguard VA3) were issued. Other European releases included: The Fish Cheer + F.U.C.K/Rock and Soul Music (Vanguard 119023) 1969 - a French single with B&W picture of Country Joe at Woodstock with a big "F.U.C.K." written on the sleeve. The French censors were probably unable to read english! Country Joe also had a solo 45 in France: Tiger by the Tail / Friend Lover Woman Wife (Vanguard 119028L) 1970, which was housed in a picture sleeve showing a B&W picture of Country Joe Country Joe and the Fish were the wittiest, most political and most reflective of the San Francisco 'acid' rock bands. The band's radicalism emanated mainly from Country Joe McDonald, who was born of leftish parents in El Monte, Caiifornia in 1942. His Christian name, Joe, was apparently after Joseph Stalin. Musically, his main influences were country and he wrote his first song I Seen A Rocket in support of a colleague's campaign for student presidency. In 1964 he made The Goodbye Blues (his first recording) with Blair Harriman. His first group was The Berkeley String Quartet. Then, with Barry Melton and Bruce Barthol he played in the 13-strong Instant Action Jug Band. The Rag Baby EPs were the first recordings credited to Country Joe and the Fish. They were released in 1965 on the Rag Baby label, Rag Baby was a left wing pamphlet magazine. The group, which was based in Berkeley, eventually developed and recorded their superb debut album Electric Music For The Mind And Body. Written to trip to, this was one of the classic albums of the period and contained a broad range of material. There was Not So Sweet Martha Lorraine, a song of social satire, drug songs like Flying High, Bass Strings and Section 43, a daring political skit Superbird and the closing love song Grace (presumably about Grace Slick of The Jefferson Airplane) was full of acid-inspired lyrics.

I Feel Like I'm Fixin' To Die was also excellent including a more polished version of its title track; Janis, the beautiful love song McDonald wrote at the end of his romance with Janis Joplin; Eastem Jam, an electric instrumental with fine guitar interplay and Who Am I? which captures the band in more reflective mood. Also of interest were the drug-induced Thought Dream, the Bomb Song an anti-nuke anthem and the notorious Acid Commercial:-

'Now if you're tired
Or a bit run down
Can't seem to get your feet off the ground
Maybe you oughta try a little bit of LSD
Only if you want to

Shake your head and rattle your brain
Make you act just a bit insane
Give you all the psychic energy you need
Eat flowers and kiss babies
LSD..for you and me....
(from Acid Commercial)

Country Joe left The Fish after this album, getting married and recording a solo album. Barry Melton kept the band together either as The Fish or The Incredible Fish and individual band members wrote their own material. The band reformed a few months later as The Country Joe and The Fish Revue. Although nowhere near as good as their first two albums Together, which included the results of their individual enterprise still has some fine moments notably on An Untitled Protest- another anti-Vietnam protest song and The Streets Of Your Town and Bright Suburban Mr and Mrs Clean Machine which were both protests against their own environment. McDonald is still credited as one of the band on the album sleeve and he appeared on some of the tracks. During 1968 these were extensive personnel changes and as a result Here We Are Again was disappointing.

They appeared at the Woodstock Festival on 21-24 August 1969, with a modified line-up, and performed their infamous Fish Cheer, but only McDonald and Melton now remained from their definitive line-up. They also appeared in Michael Wadleigh's full length movie of the festival in 1970. The same line-up recorded their CJ Fish album. After this the band disintegrated. Briefly in the mid-seventies the whole 1967 line-up reformed for a series of live gigs and the disappointing Reunion album.

Barry Melton later recorded an album with Melton, Levy and The Dey Brothers.

We're The Crackers and All I Need which don't seem to appear elsewhere are on the Zachariah soundtrack LP. Death Sound Blues from 1968 can be found on California Christmas, Vol. 1.

Country Joe and the Fish were one of the best and most interesting of the late sixties San Francisco rock bands. Their first two albums remain classics of the genre.

David Cohen has a website at: http://www.davidbennettcohen.com

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Country Weather

Personnel:

- BILL BARON drms A
- DAVE CARTER bs, vcls A

- STEVE DERR gtr, vcls A
- GREG DOUGLASS ld gtr, vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) LIMITED EDITION (No label) 1968/9 R6

EP:

1. Desperate (Recorded tracks for a compilation on Fillmore Records which was eventually shelved).

This one-sided 12" album was issued in a plain sleeve. Only 50 copies were pressed and it was the rarest record from the San Francisco sixties scene. Four tracks from the album surfaced on the late eighties bootleg compilation California Acid Folk. Of these Time Is Leaving Me Behind, a pleasant, melodic pop-folk number with good guitar moments and the superb finale Fly To New York, a driving number with excellent guitar work, really catch the ear. New York City Blues is routine blues but Carry A Spare features some pretty good guitar jamming.

Greg Douglas became a well regarded Californian musician first with Terry and The Pirates and later with The Steve Miller Band.

He performed his first gig in June 1964 with The Statics for a P.T.A. sponsored event. Throughout 1965 Greg was with the Vibrants, leaving them in 1966 to replace Paul White in the Virtues. By late 1967, the Virtues changed their name to Country Weather and played the Avalon, Fillmore and throughout Northern California and the Pacific Northwest. Their 'almost' record deal never materialized and by 1973 the band broke up.

After the split Greg and Bill Baron formed Mistress with Brian Kilcouse. Their album which was produced by Mallory Earl was again never released and by August 1974 Mistress called it quits. At this time Greg's reputation was growing. Aside from working with Terry and the Pirates, he had played on Link Wray's 1973 album and performed with Van Morrison's back up band and Mario Cipollina's band Soundhole. He later worked with Hot Tuna on their Yellow Fever album and joined The Steve Miller Band in 1977.

He is still performing and recording today with two solo albums on the German Taxim label.

(Clark Faville / Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Counts

TOP

Personnel:

- CENTER CHARLES CASE keyb'ds A
- HOWARD HORNSBY sax A
- JIM NICHOLS drms A
- DAN OLASON ld gtr A B C D E F G
- PETE RICHES bs A B C D E F G
- AL SCANZON sax A B C D E F
- BILL OLASON organ B C D E F G
- RICH PEARSON tpt B C D
- MIKE LEARY drms B

- PHIL CREORE drms C
- JIM WALTERS tpt E F
- GEORGE O'BRIEN drms E
- DAVE HUMMON drms F G

Line-up: 'A' 1959, 'B' 1962-63, 'C' 1964, 'D' 1965, 'E' 1965-66, 'F' 1966-67, 'G' 1967.

45s:

1. (C) Turn On Song/Enchanted Sea (Sea Crest 6003) Aug 1964
2. Doggin'/Then I Cried (Sea Crest 6004) 1964
3. Chitlins, etc/Clyde, Clyde, The Cow's Outside (Panorama 9) 1965
4. Come Now/Since I Fell For You (Panorama 33) 1966

Formed in Ballard, Washington in 1959, their personnel underwent a number of changes, and in addition to the personnel listed above, Mike Smale, Steve Lervold and Craig Parker provided keyboards in early line-ups, with Dick Gazewood also playing sax. By 1964 they had secured a record deal with Seacrest Records. Turn On Song won them a lot of regional recognition and they got to play with many major acts before they evolved into Rubber Band in 1967.

In addition to their four 45s they had one cut, Trick Bag on the compilation Battle Of The Bands in 1966, on which Billy Burns provided vocals. It's also since resurfaced on History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 4 1983. Other vocalists on their recordings, include Woody Carr on Then I Cried.

Early member, Steve Lervold later played with James Henry & The Olympics, whilst Dan Olason was last reported working as a Boeing executive and brother Bill is a dentist in Seattle. (Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero)

The Counts

TOP

45:

1. Night Of Misery/If I Look Back (Wam 1006) 1965

A different outfit from Warren, Ohio, whose Night Of Misery has resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 7.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / George Gell)

The Counts

TOP

45:

1. Now You're Gone / Old Man River (Teen 900) 196?

Another Ohio Counts, from Cincinatti this time. The wimpy garage-ballad Now You're Gone is on Love Is A Sad Song Vol.1 and No No No.

(Max Waller / George Gell)

The Counts IV

45s:

1. Listen To Me/Lost Love (PS) (J.C.P. 1006) 1967
2. Spoonful/Where You Are (Date 1526) 1966

This outfit consisted of personnel from the Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in North Carolina. They had a very Anglophile sound which is evidenced by Listen To Me. This song has since re-surfaced on the Tobacco-A-Go-Go and Scum Of The Earth, Part 1 compilations. They then signed up to record a 45 on the nationally distributed Date label. The 'A' side Spoonful (which is not the Cream classic) is a live recording, more in the 'frat rock' mould. Not really a progression on their first effort, this can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 22.- The South, Part 2.

The Couriers

45:

1. Feelings/Stomping Time Again (C.V. 500) 1968

From the Lancaster area of Pennsylvania, this outfit started out as a soul band but became more and more rock orientated and sound very Rascal-ish on their sole 45, Feelings, which eventually got a further airing on the Crude PA compilation. The band finally split in 1968.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Coven to Creatures Inc.

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Coven
- Joe Covington's Fat Fandango
- The Cowsills
- Danny Cox
- Crabby Appleton
- The Crabs
- The Crackerjack Society
- Crazy Elephant
- The Crazy Teens
- Papa John Creach
- Creation's Disciples
- Creation of Sunlight
- Creatures, Inc.

Coven

TOP

Personnel incl:

JINX DAWSON	vcls	A
JOHN HOBBS	keyb'ds	A
CHRISTOPHER NIELSEN	gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1	WITCHCRAFT - DESTROYS MINDS AND REAPS SOULS	(Mercury 61239)	1969
2	COVEN	(MGM 4801)	1971
3	BLOOD IN THE SNOW	(Buddah BDS 5614)	1974

NB: (3) also released in England (Buddah BDLH 5011).

An heavy rock outfit notable for the screaming female vocals of Jinx Dawson. They released at least three albums. Produced by Bill Traut (Aorta, Shadows of Knight...), their first one attempted to mix psych rock with Black Mass "liturgy" for generally enjoyable results and contained ten tracks: Black Sabbath, Dignitaries Of Hell, Pact With Lucifer, For Unlawful Carnal Knowledge... The album came with a nice gatefold cover with lyrics and several pictures of the "ceremony".

Their subsequent releases were in the same style.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Joe Covington's Fat Fandango

Personnel:

JOE E. COVINGTON	drms, vcls	A
SENATOR PATRICK CRAIG	keyb'ds	A
STEVIE MIDNITE	gtr	A
JACK PRENDERGAST	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	JOE E.COVINGTON'S FAT FANDANGO	(Grunt BLF1-0149)	1973

45s:

1	Boris The Spider / I'll Do Better Next Time	(Original Sound 74)	1967

NB: (1) as Joey Covington.

After a Kim Fowley/Michael Lloyd produced 45, Joe Covington played drums with Jorma Kaukonen and Jack Cassady for the first live gigs of Hot Tuna. He eventually became the drummer of the Jefferson Airplane for Bark but quit the group in 1973 to go solo.

His sole album was released on Grunt, the 'Airplane label, and produced by Pat Ieraci. Musically patchy, it contains seven tracks written by Covington and mixes good west-coast guitar solos with loose improvisation and generally weak vocals.

Covington had earlier been in The Fenways and also later played on Peter Kaukonen's Black Kangaroo and Papa John Creach's first album. Patrick Craig joined the Tazmanian Devils in 1980.

His version of The Who's Boris The Spider has been compiled on Mindrocker, Vol. 12.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Cowsills

45:

1	All I Wanta Be Is Me/And The Next Day Too	(Joda 103)	1965

A New England family-teen combo. The 'A' side has resurfaced on Hipsville 29 B.C., Vol. 1. Precursors to The Osmonds brand of sibling pop, they were an all family band managed by an ex-military father. They had numerous further releases, including the flower-power The Rain, The Park, And Other Things, which is reputedly worth a spin.

Danny Cox

Personnel:

DANNY COX	gtr, vcls	A B
JOHN KAHN	bs	A B

STEVE LEFEVER	bs	A
RICHARD RUSHER	gtr	A
MERLE SAUNDERS	keyb'ds	A
PATRICK SHANAHAN	drms	A
BILL VITT	drms	A
JOSE CHEPITO ARIAS	perc	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT	(Together ST-1011)	1969
2(B)	DANNY COX	(Dunhill)	1971

From the San Francisco Bay Area, Danny Cox was a black singer/songwriter who probably benefited from Richie Havens' success to get a recording deal. His albums are a decent mix of folk, blues and Bay Area rock and are maybe mainly of interest for his accompanist musicians: on his first album, Steve Lefever went on to form Medecine Ball with Dewey Martin and Patrick Shanahan would later work with Rick Nelson. On the Dunhill album, produced by Nick Gravenites, Cox played with the ubiquitous jamming companions of Jerry Garcia plus Chepito Arias from Santana.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Crabby Appleton

TOP

Personnel:

FELIX "FLACO" FALCON	perc	A
MICHAEL FENNELLY	gtr, vcls	A
CASEY FOUTZ	keyb'ds	A
HANK HARVEY	bs	A
PHIL JONES	drms	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	CRABBY APPLETON	(Elektra AKS 74067)	1970
2(A)	ROTTEN TO THE CORE	(Elektra AKS 74106)	1971

45:

1	My Little Lucy/Some Madness	(Elektra)	1970

NB: (1) also released in France with a PS (Vogue/Elektra INT 80258).

Formed by Michael Fennelly after the end of Millenium and Sagittarius, Crabby Appleton was one of the early seventies Californian rock groups signed by Elektra, along with Rhinoceros or the Wackers. Their first album was produced by Don Gallucci (from Don and The Goodtimes and Touch) and enjoyed reasonable success, allowing them to release a second album on which they used some female background vocals. Their music was characterized by Fennelly's vocals (sometimes inspired by Robert Plant) and his good lead guitar work. Their songs combine hard rock and melodic pop/rock.

Fennelly later moved to England and released two solo albums: Lane Changer with Rod Argent (Epic KE 32703, 1974) and Strangers Bed (Mercury SRM 1-1043, 1975). Felix Falcon became a session musician.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Crabs

Personnel:

- JERRY DeJONG ld gtr
- ROBBIE LEFF rhythm gtr, vcls
- ED RUDNICK III bs
- ALEC SMITH drms

45:

1. Chase Yourself/Bye Bye My Little Girl (Universal 30495) 1967

Formed in 1966 by childhood friends Alec Smith and Robbie Leff, The Crabs were managed by prominent Houston agent and big-band leader, Buddy Brock, who produced their only record, Chase Yourself b/w Bye Bye My Little Girl on Brock's own Universal label. Both songs were written by Leff.

Chase Yourself met with no success on Houston radio (many thought that the 'B' side should've been the A-side) but it did chart in Beaumont, Texas and Lake Charles, Louisiana where The Crabs also made their one and only TV appearance on a local morning show. There they lip-synched their single and promoted that night's appearance at the opening of a Lake Charles nightclub, The Cave. One embarrassing moment of the live TV show: Someone in the booth mistakenly played the opening 20 seconds of the 45 at 33rpm... no doubt the longest 20 seconds in the brief career of The Crabs.

Typical songs from the group's set list included those of the Yardbirds, The Beatles, Gerry and The Pacemakers, Johnny Rivers, Sam The Sham and The Pharaohs, Paul Revere and The Raiders, Wilson Pickett and Roy Head and The Traits.

After playing steadily for almost two years the group broke up when drummer Smith went off to college in El Paso and Leff moved to Los Angeles to pursue songwriting. Although Leff's music never enjoyed great success, his songs were recorded by a diverse group of artists including Nancy Sinatra, Johnny Winter and Alice Cooper.

Leff moved back to Houston in 1982 where he currently performs in the '60s music duet, Speedy Mancini with singer/drummer Dale Marks. Alec Smith is married with two grown children and is in the insurance business. Jerry DeJong was last heard of teaching guitar and Ed Rudnick's whereabouts are currently unknown.

You can also find the 'A' side of their 45 on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 12: Texas, Part Two and Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD).

The Crackerjack Society

45:

1	Walk In The Sky/ Listen To This Side	(Columbia 44434)	1966

An unknown garage band.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Crazy Elephant

Personnel:

- LARRY LAUFER keyb'ds, vcls A
- BOB AVERY drms A
- RONNIE BRETONE bs A
- KENNY COHEN keyb'ds, sax, vcls A
- HAL KING vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) CRAZY ELEPHANT (Bell 6034) 1968

45s:

1. Gimmie Gimmie Good Lovin'/Dark Part Of My Mind (Sphere Sound 77005) 1968
2. Gimmie Gimmie Good Lovin'/Dark Part Of My Mind (Bell 703) 1968 12
3. Sunshine, Red Wine/Pam (Bell 804) 1969 104
4. Gimmie Some More/My Baby (HoneyPie) (BeII817) 1969 116
5. There's A Befter DayA-Comin' (NaNaNaNa)/Space Buggy (Bell 846) 1969
6. Landrover/There Ain't No Umbopo (Bell 875) 1970

NB: (1) also issued in Spain (EMI J00690096M) 1968, in a PS showing a drawing of... a crazy elephant.

This bubblegum outfit was originally put together in the studio by producers Jerry Kasenetz and Jeff Katz with Robert Spencer, formerly of The Cadillacs, on vocals. The above line-up is for the touring group that was formed later. They are best remembered for Gimmie Gimmie Good Lovin, which had the pounding beat and immediate appeal that typified bubblegum music but the flip is superb slice of U.S. psychedelia with a long organ introduction and haunting vocals.

Although the album includes Gimme Gimme Good Lovin', the rest of the material is also different. The opening cut is a long version of Respect, featuring heavy organ and flute solos. Apparently the 45 group was a studio creation but the band which recorded the album was formed by New York musicians, who'd earlier recorded as Livin End.

Dark Part Of My Mind also appears to have been released as the flip to Captain Groovy and His Bubblegum Army's sole 45 and can be found on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 2 (CD).

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

The Crazy Teens

45:

1. Crazy Date/? (Scott 19) 196?

From Tuscaloosa, Alabama, you'll also find Crazy Date on Scum Of The Earth, Part 1. (Max Waller)

Papa John Creach

Personnel:

JACK BONUS	sax	A
DAVID BROWN	bs	A
JACK CASADY	bs	A B
JOHN CIPOLLINA	gtr	A
JOEY COVINGTON	drms	A
PAPA JOHN CREACH	electric violin, vcls	A B
JERRY GARCIA	gtr	A
PAUL KANTNER	gtr	A
JORMA KAUKONEN	gtr	A B
MIKE LIPSKIN	organ	A
SKIP OLSEN	bs	A
SAMMY PIAZZA	drms	A B
DOUGLAS RAUCH		A
CARLOS SANTANA	gtr	A
PETE SEARS	bs	A
GRACE SLICK	vcls	A
ZULU	backing group	B

ALBUM:

1(A)	PAPA JOHN CREACH	(Grunt FTR-1003)	1971
2(B)	FILTHY	(Grunt FTR-1009)	1972

45:

1(A)	The Janitor Drives A Cadillac/Over The Rainbow	(Grunt 65-0501)	1971

Born in 1917, Papa John Creach was a black violin player who joined Hot Tuna in 1970 and the Jefferson Airplane in 1971. His first album for Grunt (the 'Airplane label) can interest the Bay Area fans because of the participation of the whole of 'Airplane, plus Jerry Garcia, John Cipollina, Pete Sears, Carlos Santana...

Musically patchy, it contains some excellent tracks (The Janitor Drives A Cadillac, sung by Grace Slick and written by Covington; Plunk A Little Funk, Everytime I Hear Your Name and String Jet Rock with Casady, Kaukonen and Piazza in an electric formation). Alas, insipid covers of Over The Rainbow and Danny Boy reduce the global quality of this surprising album.

In 1972, Papa John created his own group, Zulu, and recorded his second album Filthy which is not as good, his main highlight being the Kaukonen composition Walking The Tou-Tou.

Creach later joined Jefferson Starship and kept on recording under his name during the '70s. He died in the early '90s.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Creation's Disciples

TOP

45:

1. Psychedelic Retraction/I'll Remember (RED VINYL) (Dawn 309) 196?

From New Jersey, their superb psych/punk effort Psychedelic Retraction can be heard on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 4 and Destination Frantic! (CD).

Creation of Sunlight

TOP

Personnel:

- RON CLARK A
- CARL ESTRELLA A
- JERRY GRIFFIN A
- BOB MORGAN A
- STEVE MONTAGUE A
- DON SAIN A
- GARY YOUNG A

ALBUM:

1. CREATION OF SUNLIGHT (Windi ST 1001-1002) 1968 R4

NB: Also issued on CD (Mystic 7) 1997.

A very rare Southern Californian pop/psych album with dual organ, fuzz and sunshine vibes similar to Strawberry Alarm Clock. (Vernon Joynson)

Creatures Inc.

TOP

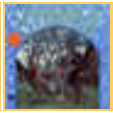
45s:

1	Letters Of Love / All About Love	(Oxon Hill 1001)	196?
2	Stop Your Sobbing/Letters Of Love	(Jet Set 1004)	1966

Originally from Rome, New York they relocated to Washington D.C. and picked up a couple of new members from Georgetown outfit The Tejuns en route. Letters Of Love, rather a nice harmony pop effort in the Zombies mould, can also be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 22: The South - Part 2.

Confusingly the Jet Set 45 has also been seen listed as by an apparently different group, The Creations. Can anyone confirm this?

(Max Waller)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Creedence Clearwater Revival to Cromagnon

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Creedence Clearwater Revival
- Creme Soda
- The Crimson Bridge
- The Critters
- Cromagnon

Creedence Clearwater Revival

TOP

Personnel:

DOUG CLIFFORD	drms	A B
STU COOK	bs	A B
JOHN FOGERTY	vcl, ld gtr	A B
TOM FOGERTY	gtr, vcls	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	CREEDENCE CLEARWATER REVIVAL	(Fantasy 8382)	1968 52
2(A)	BAYOU COUNTRY	(Fantasy 8387)	1969 8
3(A)	GREEN RIVER	(Fantasy 8393)	1969
4(A)	WILLY AND THE POOR BOYS	(Fantasy 8397)	1969
5(A)	COSMO'S FACTORY	(Fantasy 8402)	1970
6(A)	PENDULUM	(Fantasy 8410)	1970
7(B)	MARDI GRAS	(Fantasy 9404)	1972
8(B)	LIVE IN EUROPE	(Fantasy CCR1)	1974

NB: All these albums have also been released in Germany, England, Italy, France and Holland. Several reissues exists on vinyl and CD. Countless compilations have also been released, without any rarities.

45s:

1	Suzy Q, pt. 1/Suzy Q, pt. 2	(Fantasy 616)	1968 11
2	I Put A Spell On You/Walk On The Water	(Fantasy 617)	1968
3	Proud Mary/Born On The Bayou	(Fantasy 619)	1969 2
4	Bad Moon Rising/Lodi	(Fantasy 622)	1969
5	Green River/Commotion	(Fantasy 625)	1969
6	Down On The Corner/Fortunate Son	(Fantasy 634)	1969 3
7	Travelin' Band/Who'll Stop The Rain	(Fantasy 637)	1970 2
8	Up Around The Bend/Run Trough The Jungle	(Fantasy 641)	1970 4
9	Lookin' Out At My Back Door/Long As I Can See The Light	(Fantasy 645)	1970

10	Have you ever seen the Rain/Hey Tonight	(Fantasy 655)	1971
11	Sweet Hitch Hiker/Door To Door	(Fantasy 665)	1971
12	Someday Never Comes/Tearin' Up The Country	(Fantasy 676)	1972

NB: All these singles are LP tracks and have also been released by Bellaphon on Germany with picture sleeves, by America and Fantasy in France with picture sleeves, by Fantasy in Italy with picture sleeves and by Liberty in the U.K.. France also issued two other singles: Bootleg/Good Golly Miss Molly (America 17010) 1968 and Molina/Sailor's Lament (Fantasy 17038) 1971.

When they renamed themselves with this strange name, the former Golliwogs were wishing to make a new start, relying on their roots: raw blues-tinged sounds from Memphis and New Orleans. Their first 45, a good cover of Dale Hawkins' Suzy Q reached No. 11 in the charts in October 1968. The debut album was greeted with much critical approval and sold surprisingly well, reaching No. 52 in the charts. The following albums established Creedence as a very popular act. The prolific songwriting skills of John Fogerty helped the group to release six albums in three years and most of the songs were a powerful mix of blues, rockabilly, rock and R&B with clever lyrics, often expressing the working-class sensibility (Fortunate Son, Lodi). They were probably the only San Francisco band whose public thought they were from Louisiana or Tennessee.

In February 1971, Tom Fogerty had quit the band to pursue a solo career. John gave in to the demands of the rhythm section for more artistic freedom and their final album, Mardi Gras, was an artistic desaster, the singing and songwriting abilities of Cook and Clifford being really limited.

When the group broke up, Doug Clifford recorded a solo album Cosmo (Fantasy 9411) 1972, which is better avoided. Clifford and Cook kept on working together, first with Doug Sahm (the excellent Groover's Paradise was produced by Clifford) then with the Don Harrison Band and Russell DaShiell. Stu Cook then worked with Roky Erikson (he produced The Evil One) and later formed Southern Pacific, a successful country rock act with other San Francisco veterans (John McFee, Keith Knudsen).

In 1996, Clifford and Cook formed Creedence Clearwater Revisited and are still touring, mostly in Northern Europe.

John Fogerty first created the Blue Ridge Rangers, a country/blues/hillbilly act whose album sold quite well (it was in fact Fogerty solo playing all the instruments!) and went "really" solo in 1973, recording some singles and an excellent John Fogerty in 1975. Being in a long-term procedure with Fantasy to get his royalties back, he stopped recording for ten years and finally came back in 1985 with Centerfield which was very successful. He is still recording and touring.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Creme Soda

TOP

Personnel:

- JIM WILSON bs, keyb'ds, vcls A
- BILL TANON gtr, bs, harp, mandolin, vcls A
- RON JUNTUNEN ld gtr,bs A
- ART HICKS drms A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) TRICKY ZINGERS (Trinity CST-11-LA) 1975

NB: (1) issued with picture of group on cover, and also in a black & white cover.

45s:

1. Keep It Heavy/And That Is That (Trinity 112) 1975
2. Keep It Heavy/And That Is That (Trinity 45121) 1975
3. (I'm) Chewin' Gum/Roses All Around (Trinity 45122) 1975

Hailed from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where they first started playing together in 1972. Both 45s are from their album, which contains quite a range of styles. Melodic soft rock predominates as evidenced by Give It Up, Tonight, Deep In A Dream, Keep It Heavy and Daydreamin'; but there's also a couple of weirder more psychedelic tracks in the early Pink Floyd mould - Numero Uno and The Beat Song; some rockabilly/punk (I'm) Chewin' Gum and When The Sun Shines and a bit of punk/blues on That ls That. Overall, it's worth investigating. Ron Juntunen, incidentally, later played with Oklahoma.

Keep It Heavy and Tonight were later included on Endless Journey, Phase Two in 1983. There were rumours of another album entitled Live Zingers, but this is now known not to exist.

The Crimson Bridge

TOP

ALBUM:

1	THE CRIMSON BRIDGE	(Myrrh MST-6503)	c1973

Described on the back cover as "rock-jazz-latin-progressive-blues-acid-folk sounds", this album contains lots of lead guitar (but also some horns) and may interest some curious readers. Side one has five originals:- Better Times, Comin', He's Alive, Easy Ways, and Birthright. Side two is a side long Suite broken into three movements Searching In Reality, Experience and Beginning Of Joy.

Myrrh was a Xian rok/folk label.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Critters

TOP

Personnel:

DON CICCONE	rhythm gtr, vcls	A
CHRIS DARWAY	keyb'ds, autoharp, vcls	A B
JACK DECKER	drms	A B
KENNY GORKA	bs, vcls	A B C
BOB PODSTAWSKI	sax, vcls	A
JIM RYAN	gtr, vcls	A B C
BOB SPINELLA	keyb'ds	C
PAUL GLANZ	gtr	C
JEFF PELOSI	drms	C

ALBUMS:

1(A)	YOUNGER GIRL	(Kapp KS-3485)	Aug. 1966 147
2(B)	TOUCH AND GO WITH THE CRITTERS	(Project 3 PB 4001)	1968
3(C)	THE CRITTERS	(Project 3 PB 4002)	1969

45s:

1	Georgianna/I'm Gonna Give	(Musicor MU-1044)	1964
2	I'm Telling Everyone/No One But You	(Prancer PR-6001)	1965
3	Children And Flowers/He'll Make You Cry	(Kapp 727)	Dec. 1965
4	Younger Girl/Gone For A While	(Kapp 752)	Apr. 1966 42
5	Mr Dieingly Sad/It Just Won't Be That Way	(Kapp 769)	Jul. 1966 17
6	Bad Misunderstanding/Forever Or No More	(Kapp 793)	Nov. 1966 55
7	Marryin' Kind Of Love/New York Bound	(Kapp 805)	Jan. 1967 111
8	Don't Let The Rain Fall Down On Me/Walk Like A Man Again	(Kapp 838)	Jun. 1967 39
9	Little Girl/Dancing In The Streets	(Kapp 858)	Oct. 1967 113
10	Good Morning Sunshine/A Moment Of Being With You	(Project 3 1326)	1967
	Touch'n'Go/Younger Generation	(Project 3 1332)	1968
11	Cool Sunday Morning/Lisa But Not The Same	(Project 3 1349)	1968
12	I Just Want To Sit Right Here And Look At You/ She Said She Loved Him	(Project 3 1363)	1969

NB: There are also two French EPs with PS from 1966 (Vogue Kapp KEV 13028 / 13031 respectively).

This New Jersey flower power pop quintet first attracted attention when they recorded Younger Girl, a John Sebastian song from the first Lovin' Spoonful album. The 45 gave them the first of their four U.S. hits and their first album was a delightful summery disc.

Originally called The Vibra-Tones, when they signed up to Kama Sutra Records, they were forced to record covers although the band had a large amount of original material ready. After recording the Jackie DeShannon song Children And Flowers for their first Kama Sutra single, the band wanted the Don-Ciccone original, Mr Dieingly Sad for their second but when the label insisted on Younger Girl, four of the members went on strike rather than record the song. Subsequently, only Don and Kenny appeared on the single.

The record company then relented and Mr Dieingly Sad became their biggest hit. Soon after Don and Bob left to join the Air Force and a few months later, Jack Decker was drafted. Chris Darway then left to return to college and

Jimmy Ryan and Kenny Gorka were left to carry the name with some hired musicians

In late '67 they signed to Enoch Light's Project 3 label, whose interest lay in making interesting use of cutting edge recording technology rather than music per se. they were subsequently featured on Light's "Popular Science" series of stereo/quad test LP's.

Jim Ryan later worked with Carly Simon and Gumhill Road, Kenny Gorka went on to Steeplechase, an altogether heavier outfit whose LP, Lady Bright is quite collectable. He later became the manager of The Bitter End in New York City; Don Ciccone went off to write songs (for the Innocence) and later joined The Four Seasons, whilst Chris Darway became "Inventor in Residence" at Princeton University.

Their most successful 45, Mr Dieingly Sad can also be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 11, whilst you can find the earlier For A Long Time on Destination Frantic! (CD); and Don't Let The Rain... on Every Groovy Day.

(Max Waller / Joe Foster / Vernon Joynson/Lloyd Peasley/Stephane Rebeschini)

Cromagnon

TOP

Personnel:

- BRIAN ELLIOT A
- AUSTIN GRASMERE A

ALBUM:

1. (A) CROMAGNON (ESP 2001) 1969

NB: (1) reissued on CD by ESP as Cave Rock.

This duo came from Connecticut. Their album was weird, full of sound effects and improvised music. Originals are still possible to obtain relatively cheaply, although the album has also been reissued on CD. Caledonia was also included on an ESP sampler. It previews the rage/angst music represented well by Ministry in the late eighties.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Crome Syrcus to The Cult

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Crome Syrcus
- David Crosby
- Crosscut Saw
- Crow
- Crowfoot
- The Crusade
- The Crusaders
- The Cryan' Shames
- The Crystal Ball
- Crystal Chandelier
- Crystal Garden
- Crystal Mansion
- Crystal Rain
- Cucumber
- Culls
- The Cult

The Crome Syrcus

TOP

Personnel:

- LEE GRAHAM vcls, bs, flte A
- DICK POWELL mouth harp, keyb'ds A
- ROD PILLOUD drms A
- TED SHREFFLER keyb'ds A
- JOHN GARBORIT ld gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) LOVE CYCLE (Command RS 925) 1968

45s:

1. White Korte Feather/Blue Morning (Merrilyn 5303) 196?
2. Lord In Black/Long Hard Road (Piccadilly 256) 1968
3. Take It Like A Man/Crystals (Command 4111) 1968

4. Take It Like A Man/Cover Up (Command 4111) 1968
5. Lord In Black/Elevator Operator (Jerden 921) 1969

Originally from Seattle The Crome Syrcus relocated to San Francisco. The title track of their album, a 17 minute composition, commences with religious chanting superimposed upon electric organ, which later gives way to an extended psychedelic suite. Crystals on Side 1 is notable for some fine flutework, and the preceding track, You Made A Change In Me is a soothing gentle number. The Command 45 was taken from the album. They won a songwriting award in the Bay Area in 1969.

Elevator Operator can also be found on History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 6, and the heavy broody Lord In Black reappears on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 3 (CD).

David Crosby

TOP

ALBUM:

1	IF I COULD ONLY REMEMBER MY NAME	(Atlantic SD 7203)	1970

NB: (1) also released in the U.K., France, and Germany.

Recorded shortly after the death of his girlfriend, Christine Gail Hinton, the first solo album by David Crosby contains some decent tracks but will not appeal to everyone, and many will find it boring. It's main interest today is probably the stellar backing group: four members of the Dead (Garcia, Lesh, Hart and Kreutzmann), two from Santana (Shrieve and Rolie), four from the 'Airplane (Grace Slick, Kantner, Casady, Kaukonen), one from Quicksilver (Freiberg), plus Graham Nash, Neil Young, Joni Mitchell and Laura Allen.

The music is very laid back and as one may expect, given the personnel, contains some good guitar parts. The material was penned by Crosby with some help from Young, Nash, Garcia, Lesh and Shrieve. The strangest track is an accapella version of the French traditional Orleans, Beaugency.

The album was enginereed by Stephen Barncard, who also worked with Chet Nicholls and went on to form Oasis (the US one!). David Crosby worked throughout the '70s and '80s with Graham Nash and occasionally Steve Stills and Neil Young. He also spent various periods in jail. After some severe health problems, he is now intensively touring and recording, solo or with his two groups, CPR and the reformed CSN&Y.

David Crosby was of course one of The Byrds.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Crosscut Saw

TOP

ALBUM:

1	MAD, BAD, AND DANGEROUS TO KNOW	(Private Pressing)	1974 SC

A wild Florida acid blues-rock outfit with raw vocals and good guitar leads.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Crow

Personnel:

DENNY CASSWELL	drms	A
DAVE "KINK" MIDDLEMIST	keyb'ds	A
DAVE WAGGNER	vcls	A
DICK WIEGAND	ld gtr	A
LARRY WIEGAND	bs	A

ALBUMS:

1	CROW MUSIC	(Amaret 5001)	1969
2	CROW BY CROW	(Amaret 5006)	1970
3	MOSAIC	(Amaret 5009)	1971
4	BEST OF	(Amaret 5012)	1972
5	DAVID WAGNER, CROW	(Amaret 5013)	1972

NB: (1) and (2) also released in the U.K. by Stateside.

45s:

1	Something In Your Blood/Yellow Dawg	(Amaret ?)	1971

NB: (1) also released in Spain with a picture sleeve (Exit/Ekipo 2605B) 1971.

Previously known as South 40, Crow was a competent rock group with occasional good songs and guitar work. They must have had some success as they released four albums plus a "best of" on a small label. David Wagner, Crow is in fact a solo album with session musicians.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Crowfoot

Personnel:

RUSSELL DaSHIELL	gtr, vcls, keyb'ds, bs	A B
RICK JAEGER	drms	A
DON FRANCISCO	drms, perc, vcls	B
SAM McCUE	gtr, vcls	B
(BILL MEEKER	drms	B)
(BILL SUTTON	bs	B)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	CROWFOOT	(Paramount 265)	1970
2(B)	FIND THE SUN	(ABC ABCS-745)	1971

NB: (2) also released in the U.K. (Probe 1042) 1971.

Originating from the San Francisco area, Russell DaShiell had previously played with Norman Greenbaum, guested on A.B.Shky's debut album and played on Harvey Mandel's Games Guitar Play. He formed Crowfoot with Rick Jaeger (ex-A.B.Shky) in 1970.

After a first album for Paramount, they signed with ABC and recruited Sam McCue, a guitarist who was also associated with A.B.Shky. Produced by Russ Gary and DaShiell (who also wrote all their material), their second album is probably better avoided. The lyrics (Summer's Gone, Travel in Time, Hollywood) are typical of the Californian groups of that period and the guitar parts are often interesting, but the songs are rather lacklustre and tend to sound very similar.

After Crowfoot, Russell DaShiell became a session musician (playing with Portland, Alexander Harvey, William Truckaway amongst others). Teaming up with ex-Creedence members, he also played on Tom Fogerty's solo albums and formed the Don Harrison Band in 1976 with Doug Clifford and Stu Cook. He also released a decent rock album Elevator in 1978.

Sam McCue and Don Francisco would do much better with Atlee and Atlee Yeager. Francisco would also be in Highway Robbery.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Crusade

TOP

45:

1. Psychedelic Woman/Fade Away (Golden North 103) 196?

Psychedelic Woman, a guitar-driven garage-punker with snarling vocal, figures on Scum Of The Earth, Part 2, and is the first uncovered example of "pipeline psych" from Junean, Alaska!. Both sides of the 45 have also recently resurfaced on A Trip On The Magic Flying Machine and the flip, Fade Away, is a slow number with catchy guitar and sound effects.

The Crusaders

TOP

ALBUM:

1	MAKE A JOYFUL NOISE WITH DRUMS AND GUITARS	(Tower ST50??)	1966

A five piece gospel rock group, quite similar to some Chambers Brothers albums.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Cryan Shames

TOP

Personnel:

- DENNIS CONROY drms A B C

- TOM DOODY (TOAD) vcls A B C D
- JIM FAIRS ld gtr A B C
- JIM PILSTER (J.C. HOOKE) drms, tamb, vcls A B C D
- DAVE PURPLE (GRAPE) bs, keyb'ds A
- GERRY STONE (STONEHENGE) gtr A B
- LENNY KERLEY bs, vcls B C D
- ISAAC GUILLORY gtr, vcls C D
- DAVE CARTER ld gtr D
- AL DAWSON drms D

ALBUMS:

1. (A) SUGAR AND SPICE (Columbia CP 2589) 1966 192
2. (C) A SCRATCH IN THE SKY (Columbia CP 2786) 1967 156
3. (D) SYNTHESIS (Columbia CP 9719) 1968 184

NB. (1) reissued with five additional tracks - the 'A' sides of their 3rd - 7th 45s (Decal LIK 37) 1988. There's also a Columbia Legacy eighteen track compilation entitled Sugar And Spice (A Collection) 1992.

45s:

1. Sugar And Spice/Ben Franklin's Almanac (Destination 624) June 1966 49
2. I Wanna Meet You/We Could Be Happy (Columbia 4-43836) Nov 1966 85
3. Mr. Unreliable/Georgia (Columbia 4-44037) Feb 1967 127
4. It Could Be We Are In Love/I Was Lonely When (PS) (Columbia 4-44191) June 1967 85
5. Up On The Roof/Sailing Ship (Columbia 4-44457) Mar 1968 85
6. Young Birds Fly/Sunshine Psalm (Columbia 4-44545) May 1968 99
7. Greenberg, Glickstein, Charles, David Smith & Jones/The Warm (Columbia 4-44638) Sept 1968 115
8. FirstTrain To California/A Masters Fool (Columbia 4-44759) Feb 1969
9. Rainrnaker/Bits And Pieces (Columbia 4-45027) Oct 1969

Originally known as The Travelers, this Chicago-based act were clearly influenced by the British music invasion. Indeed it was their cover version of Sugar And Spice, which had given The Searchers a big U.K. hit back in 1963, which attracted the attention of Columbia, leading them to take over the distribution of their 45. A latter cover of Lennon-McCanney's You're Gonna Loose That Girl, which was probably intended as the follow-up, got lost somewhere in their switch from Destination to Columbia and only got an airing much later when Happy Tiger included it on their Early Chicago compilation.

After signing to Columbia they concentrated on putting out their first album which had a considerable Byrds influence and some good original compositions, notably Jim Fair's Ben Franklin's Almanac. It also contained some well done cover versions of classics like, Hey Joe, lf l Needed Someone, We Gotta Get Out Of This Place, We'll Meet Again and She Don't Care About Time. It peaked at No. 192 in the U.S. Album Charts.

Further 45s followed:- another Jim Fair composition from their debut album, I Wanna Meet You, which became a minor hit, and Georgia, which was even less successful.

Gerry Stone was drafted and further line-up changes took place before they began work on a second album. The result was rather bland but a marked advance in terms of production and harmony. Commercially it was more successful than their first, climbing to No. 156. Meanwhile they enjoyed a minor 45 hit with It Could Be We Are In Love - one of their more inventive singles. Like the follow-up, Up On The Roof, it made the No. 85 spot.

Their third album Synthesis had strong material and lavish instrumentation but could only manage No 184 in the Album Charts. For this release Dave Carter had joined from the recently disbanded Saturday's Children.

In 1969, Carter, Kerley, and Dawson joined with members of Aorta to do an album of Navy public service spots under the moniker Aorta/Cryin' Shames Ensemble. The following year the band called it quits.

They've also resurfaced on some compilations. Their most relevant recording to this archive Ben Franklin's Almanac can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (CD), Destination Frantic! (CD), Garage Music For Psych Heads and A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 2, whilst Sugar And Spice (their biggest hit) resurfaced on Lenny Kaye's Nuggets and Rhino's Nuggets, Vol. 3.

Isaac Guillory gave it a go solo and issued at least one 45 (Sidewalks Of America/Steamboat on Atlantic (UK 10442) (UK #) in 1974) and an LP, Isaac Guilloly (Atlantic SD 7307) 1974, in the folky 'singer-songwriter' mould. In the nineties Jim Pilster, who got his nickname because he had a hook instead of a left hand was still singing for a re-formed The Cryan Shames, for which Tom Doody also makes occasional appearances.

For more information on the band check their website: http://www.geocities.com/SunsetStrip/Palms/4670

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley)

The Crystal Ball

TOP

45:

1. Trans-Love Airways (Fat Angel)/You're A Big Girl Now (Smash S-2092) 1967

Stoned psych one-off cover of Donovan, backed by a Lovin' Spoonful cover in a melodic pop vein. Produced by Roger Karshner (Bhagavad Gita, National Gallery), Richard Toops and Joel Corey (of the Capes Of Good Hope).

You can also find Trans-Love Airways on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 11. (Max Waller).

Crystal Chandelier

TOP

45s:

1. The Setting Of Despair/It's Only You (United Artists 50284) 1968
2. Suicidal Flowers/Land Of Love (Cobblestone 730) 1969

A psychedelic punk outfit from Providence, Rhode Island. The inclusion of Suicidal Flowers, which had a distinctively Eastern flavour, on Pebbles Vol. 3 - The Acid Gallery, introduced them to a wider audience. More recently the song has been included on the Acid Dreams Epitaph CD, and Pebbles Box set. You can also track down The Setting Of Despair on Acid and Flowers CD, Son Of Gathering Of The Tribe and Punk Ballads From The Sixties.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Erik Lindgren)

Crystal Garden

45:

1 Flash/Peach Fuzz Forest (Bay Town) c1968

From Hayward, California, a good psych single with an interesting lead guitar.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Crystal Mansion

45:

1 If I Live/Goin To Carolina (Colossus) 1968

An unknown folk pop group

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Crystal Rain

45s:

1. Hey Ma Ma/Funeral At Dawn (Vangee 904100) Apr. 1969
2. You And Me/World On Fire (Dynamic Sound 91101) Nov 1969

This band came from Dayton, Ohio. Their first 45, Hey Ma Ma has quite a hypnotic quality, with well thought out fuzz, keyboard pulses and inventive drumming. Their follow up You And Me, is also a fine tripped-out, echo-soaked mind-blast. Check it out!

Both 'A' sides have also appeared on comps. You can find Hey Ma Ma and You And Me on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 11 (CD); Hey Ma Ma on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych; You and Me on An Overdose of Heavy Psych (CD), Turds On A Bum Trip Vol's 1 & 2 CD and Echoes In Time, Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

Cucumber

45:

1. Don't Make Me Cry/Under (Cobblestone CB 715) 1968

An obscure outfit which recorded just this one 45. The flip, a heavy fuzz instrumental number, is on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6 and Everything You've Always Wanted To Know.... CD, whilst the top-side, also composed by a Robert Esposito, is a heavy mid-tempo fuzzy thriller.

Culls

45:

1	Midnight To Six Man / Walk On By	(MY 2918)	1967

The Midnight To Sixty-Six compilation revisits the Culls' rather conservative cover of the Pretties' classic on their sole 45. Based in Little Rock, Arkansas, the MY label seems to have had a monopoly on the area's burgeoning mid-60s scene and released fine 45s by the likes of the Dutch Masters, Egyptians, Romans and Spires Of Oxford.

(Max Waller)

The Cult

45s:

1	Fire And Flood/I Don't Know	(20th Century Fox 621)	1965
2	Here I Stand/You Know, You Really Hurt Me Girl	(20th Century Fox 6636)	1966

From New York City, Here I Stand can be heard on Vile Vinyl, Vol. 1 and Fire And Flood on . A mystery outfit from Riverside, Long Island. They released two moody pop-punk 45s that are proving popular now with compilers: Fire And Flood is on Every Groovy Day, I Don't Know is on Leaving It All Behind, and Here I Stand on Vile Vinyl Vol. 1.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Curfew to The Cyrkle

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Curfew
- Current Event
- Don Curry and The Instigators
- Rick Curtis Affair
- Jimmy Curtiss
- Custer and The Survivors
- Customs Five
- Cutty Sark
- Cyclones
- Cykle
- Cynara
- The Cynics
- The Cyrkle

Curfew

TOP

ALBUM:

1. LET THERE BE DARK: AND THERE WAS DARK (United Artists UAS 6746) 1970

45:

1. Photogenic Jenny/Wait For The Moment (United Artists 50651) 1970

A faceless outfit, who get no credits or pictures on this minor-league U.A. album. However, they do produce the odd bit of vibrant heavy keyboard pop-rock with strong fuzzy guitar. Photogenic Jenny kicks off nicely in that vein, but the album quickly disappoints, slipping into insipid easy-pop. Whilst a couple of other tracks return to form - the Cream-inspired Something Inside Of Me for example, overall it's a patchy effort with no real identity. (MW).

Current Event

TOP

ALBUM:

1 WHAT IS TRUTH? (Ambassador) c1968

An obscure exploito album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Don Curry and The Instigators

Personnel incl:

- DON CURRY

45:

1. Bony Moronie Revisited/A Million Years Or So (Texas Record Co 2086) 196?

A garage band out of Waco, Texas. The 'A' side of their 45 can be found on Straight From The Garage, Vol. 4.

Rick Curtis Affair

ALBUM:

1 RICK CURTIS AFFAIR (Avco Embassy AVE 330??) c1970

A lounge act with some heavy organ and psychy bits.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jimmy Curtiss

Personnel:

- JIMMY CURTISS (A)
- BILLY ELMIGER (A)
- JOHN TRIVERS (A)
- JAN WILLIAMS (A)
- HOWIE WYETH (A)

ALBUM:

1. (A) LIFE (Perception PLP-1) 1970

45s:

1. The Girl From The Land Of 1000 Dances/Let's Dance Close (Laurie 3315) 1965
2. Psychedelic Situation/Gone But Not Forgotten (Laurie 3383) 1967
3. For What I Am/Johnny Get Your Gun (Perception P-2) 1970

NB: (3) features a non-LP track on the 'A' side.

This guy was involved in several different musical ventures between 1961 and 1973. Throughout he was a phenomenal songwriter. In the early days he sold songs to Bobby Darin and Ellie Greenwich. In 1963 he went into advertising but still continued writing in the evenings. He had records out on UA and Warner Brothers which aren't shown above because they fall outside the remit of this book. In 1967 he turned full-time to singing/songwriting forming an association with Ernie Maresca at Laurie Records. Psychedelic Situation, which really falls into the short-lived but successful bubblegum phenomenon, can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 16. He met with more success as a songwriter, most notably writing Child Of Clay, a hit for Jimmie Rodgers.

He later formed his own Perception label, releasing an album on it, before going into TV and commercials in 1973. His solo LP is quite interesting, with various styles covering folk and pop, with some strings arrangements. It's best tracks include You Can't Tell A Man By The Songs He Sings for its wah wah guitar and bass work, whilst Lack O' Testicle Blues is about a soldier ready to be sent to Vietnam but willing to burn his draft card.

His most interesting period was with Decca from 1967 to 1969 where he was a member of The Hobbits, who released one LP of soft psychy sounds and another of folk plus a couple of 45s. He also produced and wrote for The Bag who had an LP and 2 45s of 'psychedelic soul' (sic).

Baubles, Vol. 1 features The Hobbits 'Down To Middle Earth.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Custer and The Survivors

TOP

45:

1. I Saw Her Walking/Flapjacks (Golden State 657) 1965

NB: 45 later issued on Ascot (2207) 1966.

The legend of Golden State Recorders in San Francisco has been revitalised of late, notably by Jud Cost and Alec Palao's excellent zine 'Cream Puff War' and their various collections on Big Beat's Nuggets From The Golden State series and Sundazed compilations.

Though most stuff was leased out to local and national labels, Leo De Gar Kulka's studio also had its own label which put out a few 45s including efforts by Poor Souls, Gold, Donnybrookes, Astros, Zorba and The Greeks, Hyde St IV and Seventh Dawn.

Custer is sadly not one of the more memorable - solid pop with horns, backed by an instrumental. (Max Waller)

Customs Five

TOP

Personnel incl:

- S.CARTER

45:

1. Let's Go In '69/Little Louie (Task 45-108) 1965

Let's Go In '69, a good teen punk effort, can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 14.

Cutty Sark

45s:

1. Gloria/Cutty Sark Theme (Zuma 448) 196?
2. Dusty/The Night Of The Phantom (Zuma 652) 196?

This garage band were based in Fort Worth in Texas in the mid-sixties. They also recorded the Larry and The Blue Notes' song, Night Of The Phantom as Zuma.

Cyclones

45:

1. She's No Good/? (Lee 5467) 196?

This obscure outfit are thought to have been based somewhere in Pennsylvania. She's No Good is a strongly Stones - influenced garage punker which was later included on Back From The Grave, Vol. 4.

Cykle

Personnel:

KEN ALLEN	A
JEFF HARDIN	A
RICKEY WILSON	A
GRADY POPE	A
RALPH STEPHENS	A
JIMMY SOSSAMON	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	CYKLE	(Label 9-261)	1969

NB: (1) has been bootlegged on vinyl and CD, and is also available officially on CD (Gear Fab FG 106) with many bonus tracks, and on vinyl (Gear Fab LP-GF203).

45s:

1	If You Can/In Love My Friend (PS)	(Label 101)	1969
2	Too Much Lovin'/Harbor Melon	(Super Cool 7337)	1967

NB: (2) as by The Young Ones.

Hailing from Fayetteville, North Carolina, this group were originally known as The Young Ones and issued one 45 under this name. The A and B sides figure on Tobacco-A-Go-Go, 1 and 2 respectively. They turned psychedelic around 1969, and If You Can is to be heard on Tobacco-A-Go-Go, Vol. 1.

Endless Joumey, Phase 3 features two of their songs, Lesson To Learn and Do My Thing. The former's notable for catchy drumming and guitar work and an original ending, the latter starts with a slower 'intro' and gradually works up momentum. Their album is very rare and highly rated. All the material on it was originals written by Jimmy Sossamon and it was recently repressed. Jimmy currently lives in Lumberton, North Carolina (where 'Blue Velvet' was filmed).

More recently Gear Fab have reissued the album officially on CD, with many bonus tracks. Two of the best - the epic Walkout (Of My Mind) and It's Her also feature on their top-drawer Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 1 CD comp.

Cynara

TOP

Personnel:

- CAL HILL bs A
- LES LUMLEY perc A
- MICHAEL TSCHUDIN keyb'ds A
- JEFFREY WATSON vcls, perc A
- CHIP WHITE drms A

ALBUM:

1. CYNARA (Capitol ST 547) 1970

Cynara is a keyboard dominated jazz-rock group that issued one LP in 1970. The LP features exceptional keyboard playing from Michael Tschudin (ex-Listening) and fine expressive vocals from Jeffrey Watson. Almost every track features multi-tracked piano, organ, harpsichord and vibes, all played by Michael Tschudin. The LP consists of five songs and one extended melodic jazz piece featuring veteran jazz drummer Elvin Jones. The songs are quite unusual, often with a middle eastern flavour. The multiple keyboards and percussion give them a sound not really comparable to anything else I've heard. The LP was recorded in New York and produced by Ken Cooper.

There isn't a weak track on this LP. Recommended.

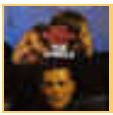
In the late '70s, Michael White went on to play with Tom Waits and Michael Tschudin with Tim Curry.

(Tony Allen / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Cynics

TOP

Personnel:



- JOHN RODRIGUEZ vcls A B
- BOB RODRIGUEZ bs A
- PAUL CHRISTENSEN gtr A B
- SANDY GREGORSON drms A B
- RONNIE RAMBO ld gtr A
- RILEY MORRRIS bs B

45:

1. You're A Better Man Than I/Train Kept A Rollin' (Bear 001) 196?

This Fort Worth garage band formed at Paschal High School. Strongly influenced by the British invasion their sole 45 comprised two superb Yardbirds cover versions. Both can be heard on Eva's Texas Punk Groups From The Sixties compilation. The 45 was also featured on an unreleased acetate Texas Psychedelic Punk, Vol. 11 and the flip which includes lots of fuzztone and feedback can be found on Flashback, Vol. 5. When Ronnie left the band and Bob Rodriguez was drafted to the marines another old Paschal High School mate Riley Morris came in on bass. The new line-up recorded I'll Go, which was written and engineered by Terry 'T-Bone' Burnette. On the flip was a strange cover of Ray Davies' Don't You Fret which included lots of sound effects culminating in what was meant to be a nuclear explosion to mark the end of the band. These recordings remain unissued but an acetate does exist.

The Cyrkle

TOP

Personnel:

DON DANNEMANN (AKA'The Sheet Metal Prince')	vcls	A B
TOM DAWES	gtr, sitar, harmonica, vcls	A B
MARTY FRIED (AKA'Troy Honda')	perc, drms	A B
EARL PICKENS	keyb'ds	A
MICHAEL LOSEKAMP	keyb'ds	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	RED RUBBER BALL	(Columbia CS 9344)	1966 47
2(B)	NEON	(Columbia GS 9432)	1967 164
3()	THE MINX (Soundtrack LP)	(Flying Dutchman/Amsterdam AMS 12007)	1970

NB: (3) reissued on vinyl 2000.

45s:

1	Red Rubber Ball/Red Rubber Ball (Promo Issue on Red Vinyl)	(Columbia 43589)	1966 -
2	Red Rubber Ball/How Can I Leave Her (PS)	(Columbia 43589)	1966 2
3	Turn-Down Day/Big Little Woman (PS)	(Columbia 43729)	1966 16
4	Please Don't Ever Leave Me/Money To Burn	(Columbia 43871)	1966 59
5	Camaro/SS 396 (flip by Paul Revere and the Raiders)	(Columbia Special Products 466)	1966
6	I Wish You Could Be Here/The Visit (She Was Here) (PS)	(Columbia 43965)	1967 70
7	We Had A Good Thing Goin'/Two Rooms	(Columbia 44108)	1967 72

8	Penny Arcade/The Words	(Columbia 44224)	1967 95
9	Don't Cry, No Fears, No Tears Comin' Your Way/Red Chair Fade Away (Mislabel, track is 'Turn Of..')	(Columbia 44366)	1967 -
10	Don't Cry No Fears, No Tears Comin' Your Way/Turn Of The Century	(Columbia 44366)	1967 112
11	Reading Her Paper/Friends	(Columbia 44426)	1968
12	Where Are You Going?/Red Chair Fade Away	(Columbia 44490)	1968
13	It's A Lovely Game, Louise/Squeeze Game	(Film Score 1170)	1970

NB: (5) was "created exclusively for Chevrolet dealers".

Originally known as The Rhondells, the group were formed at Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania with Jim Maiella on drums. They were apparently spotted by Nat Weiss, who introduced them to Brian Epstein, who became their manager. When they changed their name to The Cyrkle - that name was suggested to Brian Epstein by John Lennon.

Their debut single for Columbia in 1966, Red Rubber Ball written by Paul Simon and Bruce Woodley (of The Seekers), was a U.S. hit. Follow-up Turn-Down Day 1966 also charted and the group was part of The Beatles 1966 U.S. tour. After this, Earl Pickens left the band to concentrate full-time on medical school and was replaced by Michael Losekamp on keyboards.

The interesting harmony pop outfit was by now based in New York City and Turn-Down Day was a good example of their dabbling with Eastern raga/sitar sounds. It can also be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 3 along with Red Rubber Ball. They enjoyed further minor hits including another Paul Simon and Bruce Woodley composition, I Wish You Could Be Here and a Neil Sedaka song We Had A Good Thing Goin'. Their Byrdsy raga composition The Words can be heard on Psychedelic Archives, Vol. 6. They also had some commercial success with their albums which reached No's 47 and 164 respectively.

The It's A Lovely Game, Louise 45 coupled two tracks from the film 'The Minx', which are on the film soundtrack album issued on the Amsterdam label in 1970. The album features only The Cyrkle's contributions (penned by Dawes and Dannemann) - dreamy or swingin' harmony-pop, mainly instrumentals with 'oooos' or 'ba-ba-bas', ala Association or Harpers Bizarre. The film's almost-obligatory "opium-den" number, Nicole, is the standout track - a hypnotic 4-minute sitar and flute number which builds into a screaming raga freakout.

Another collectable oddity from this group is a cardboard interview 45 from Teen Scoop magazine.

After their demise, Dawes and Dannemann went on to make commercials, Fried became a lawyer and Losekamp went on to play with Green Lyte Sunday. However, later in 1981 Dannemann and his wife Eileen recorded I Did It For You/Mother and Lover (Mother GD 2), which Eileen had written as a tribute to John Lennon.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Charley D. and Milo to Danny's Reasons

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Charley D. and Milo
- The "D" Men
- Tommy Dae
- The Dagenites
- The Daggs
- The Daily Flash
- Daisy Chain
- Floyd Dakil Combo
- Floyd Dakil Four
- Dakila
- Dalek/Engham: The Blackstones
- Damnation of Adam Blessing
- Damon
- Sterling Damon
- Dan and Dale
- Dancing, Food and Entertainment
- Dan-Dees
- Danes
- Raul (Rabindra) Danks
- Danny and Linda
- Danny and The Counts
- Danny and The Other Guys
- Danny and The Sessions
- Danny's Reasons

Charley D. and Milo

ALBUM:

1 CHARLEY D> AND MILO (Epic) c1970

On this major label, a soft rural rock duo that went totally unnoticed at the time.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The "D" Men

Personnel:

DON ASKEW	(lyrics only)	A B
RICK ENGLER	gtr	A B
DOUG FERRARA	bs	A B
BILL SHUTE	gtr	A B
WAYNE WADHAMS	keyboards, lead vcls	A B
CHUCK LEGROS	lead vcls	B
(KEVIN GAVIN	vcls	)

NB: Kevin Gavin was the bands manager, but helped out recording some of the groups vocals.

45s:

1	Don't You Know/No Hope For Me	(Veep V 1206)	Nov. 1964
2	I Just Don't Care/Mousin' Around	(Veep V 1209)	Mar. 1965
3	So Little Time/Every Minute Of Every Day	(Kapp 691)	Sep. 1965

A Stamford, Connecticut combo originally known as The Demen. Their name was truncated by a Veep publicist who also insisted that each member have a D-name (Dwayne, Don, D'Arcy, Duke, D.Wm)...

Their debut single, a garagey beat/pop affair in the style of The Searchers, was picked as a hit by Billboard, Cashbox, and Record World, but when the parent label, UA, decided to promote Shirley Bassey's Theme From Goldfinger heavily instead, it failed to make the charts.

For their second effort, they got to perform I Just Don't Care on Hullabaloo on March 30th, 1965, but again it failed to ignite the public opinion. The flip, Mousin' Around was a surf-style instrumental.

Their final 45, So Little Time is teen pop-punk, influenced by The Beau Brummels with some nicely reverberating guitar chops.

Askew and Wadhams went on to become The Fifth Estate who released several 45s on Jubilee and one on Red Bird. You can find much of the D-Men and Fifth Estate material on the Ding Dong: The Witch Is Back CD retrospective.

Compilation appearances has also included So Little Time on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 8.

(Max Waller/Lloyd Peasley)

Tommy Dae

ALBUM:

1	TOMMY DAE	(Hitt 7001)	1970

45s:

1	Destiny / I'm In Love	(M-Z 100)	196?
2	Janie / It Was A Lie	(Goldisc G-12)	196?

3	Twinkle Dello / Please Don't Treat Me This Way	(Glo 5227)	196?
4	You Made Me Cry / It Was A Lie	(Hitt 101/2)	196?
5	Tampico Rage / Lost Horizon	(Hitt 591/2)	196?
6	I'll Be Coming Home / It's Gonna Be Alright	(Hitt 6403/4)	1964
7	You've Got It Made / Looking For A Summertime Girl	(Hitt 6601/2)	1966
8	Poor Man / ?	(Hitt 6605/6)	1966
9	Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Yellow Polka-Dot Bikini/Summertime Girl	(Diamond D-226)	1967
10	I Shall Walk / It Could Be So Nice	(Hitt 7002)	1970
11	Just As Long As You Are Mine / It's Time We Got Together	(Hitt Prod 7201)	1972

NB: (3) as Tom Dae Trio, (4) as Tommy Dae's Tensionettes, (6) as Tommy Dae and The Tensionettes, (7) and (8) as High Tensions, (9) as Tom Dae and The High Tensions, (10) as Tom Dae Turned On, (11) as Tom Dae "Love 70". Another possibly related 45 was released as by The Cirkyt:- Six Page Letter / That's The Way Life Is (PS) (Jody 6703/4) 1967

From Rockville, Connecticut, Tom Dae cut a large and varied selection of discs under numerous names. Aram Heller reveals in his New England bible, 'Till The Stroke Of Dawn', that Tommy's real name was Draus and that father Frank provided help and connections via his job at a big record label. Much of his material falls well outside the boundaries of our interest - the album is apparently in lounge mode - but he did dabble in garage and psych. You Made Me Cry is said to be a decent garage effort, I Shall Walk is a psychy phase-filled opus and is compiled on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych and Exploding Plastic Inevitable Vol. II. The final 45 is in hard-rock mode.

Erik Lindgren notes in the Lethal Dose liners that the Cirkyt 45 is thought to be the High Tensions minus one member, though this remains unconfirmed.

(Max Waller/Aram Heller/Erik Lindgren)

The Dagenites

TOP

Personnel:

JOHN BARDI	ld gtr	A B
ROGER FALLIN	drms	A B
BRUCE KENNETT	gtr	A
GEOFF ROBINSON	bs	A
JULIAN BARDI	bs	B
JIMMY MUSGROVE	vcls	B
JON ROWZIE	gtr	B

45s:

1	I Don't Want To Try It Again/Now That Summer's Gone	(Pixie 204)	1965
2(B)	I'm Gonna Slide/Now That Summer's Gone	(Heigh-Ho 619)	Sept. 1965

Oxon Hill, Maryland was home to these garage punkers, although they're compiled on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 9: Ohio which features I Don't Want To Try It Again. They got together in 1964 and got a manager who also happened to manage Link Wray, so they played shows with Wray every week at the 1023 Club. Their first 45 was recorded in the spring of 1965 at a Dayton, Ohio, studio and released on the local Pixie label. The band lasted until June 1966.

Two more tracks - Fugitive and Poison Ivy - were recorded at the NYC session that produced the second 45 but were never released.

I'm Gonna Slide has also resurfaced on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 3. I Don't Want To Try It Again can be found on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8.

Thanks to Bob Embrey for the personnel details (DC Monuments zine #7).

(Max Waller/Vernon Joynson/Kip Brown)

The Daggs

45:

1. You Don't Know Like I Know/Tales Of Brave Ulysses (Decade 5992) 1967/8

Unknown garage band from Illinois. The 'A' side, is a slow punker with some simple but tasty fuzz guitar. The track has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 9.

The Daily Flash

Personnel:

DON MacALLISTER	bs	A B C D
DOUG HASTINGS	ld gtr	A
JOHN KELIEHOR	drms	A B
STEVE LALOR	gtr	A B C D
CRAIG TARWATER	gtr	B C D
TONY DEY	drms	C
RON WOODS	drms	D

ALBUM:

1(-)	I FLASH DAILY	(Psycho 32)	1984

NB: (1) reissued on CD with two additional tracks: Grizzly Bear and When I Was A Cowboy (Flash 60) 199?.

EPs:

1	Jack Of Diamonds/Queen Jane/Green Rocky Road/The French Girl	(Moxie 1014)	1983
2	Jack Of Diamonds/The Girl From North Alberta/Grizzly Bear/When I Was A Cowboy	(Sundazed SEP 120)	1996

NB: (2) consists of previously unreleased tracks from 1966.

45s:

1	Queen Jane Approximately/Birdses	(Parrot 305)	1966

2	Queen Jane Approximately/Jack Of Diamonds	(Parrot 305)	1966
3	The French Girl/Green Rocky Road	(UNI 55001)	1967

NB: (1) and (2) feature different recordings of Queen Jane Approximately.

Formed in the Summer 1965, The Daily Flash became Seattle's first alternative psychedelic band. The band members were from very diverse backgrounds. MacAllister had previously played with a bluegrass trio, The Willow Creek Ramblers, which he had founded. Hastings was a red hot guitarist who'd briefly played in The Dynamics, Keliehor was a classical percussionist and jazz drummer and Lalor, a New York folk musician who had been a member of the San Francisco folk group, The Driftwood Singers.

They were discovered performing at the Door, a down town Seattle club, by a local record distributor, who released their first single. The 'A' side was a fine self-penned composition, the flip a Dino Valenti composition Birdses. However, the single was poorly recored and received little promotion outside of the Northwest. It did not sell.

Buffalo Springfield's manager Charlie Greene saw the potential of the band and invited them to L.A to re-record Queen Jane Approximately with Jack of Diamonds on the flip. A much superior version, it sold quite well in the Northwest.

In the Spring of 1966, The Daily Flash headed for San Francisco and played at the Avalon Ballroom before heading on to Los Angeles, where they played numerous shows at the Whiskey A Go Go with bands such as The Byrds, Sons Of Adam and Love. A second single was issued but gained insufficient airplay to launch the band nationally. After this they began to disintegrate with Hastings leaving in late May '67 for a brief spell with Buffalo Springfield.

Craig Tarwater (gtr), was living near Jon Keliehor at the time, and whilst with Sons Of Adam had gigged with 'Flash at the Whisky in '66. He was recruited, but in July, Keliehor too left to be replaced by Toney Dey. Keliehor later auditioned for Project Supergroup, Elektra Records attempt at forming a supergroup.

The group finally disbanded in 1968.

After Buffalo Springfield, Hastings auditioned for Clear Light but this didn't work out and he joined Keliehor in Project Supergroup. They both appeared on David Ackles's debut album, although Keliehor was subsequently dropped in favour of Billy Mundi and the band became Rhinoceros.

During 1968 Keliehor and Lalor put together the five-piece outfit Popcorn with ex-Kingsmen bass player Kerry Magness, who had failed the Project Supergroup audition. The band recorded as Bodine in October 1969.

Lalor joined Danny O'Keefe's support band in late 1969 and Keliehor later moved to London to perform at the London School of Contemporary Dance. MacAllister played with Barry Goldberg and then joined Hastings in Dr John's autumn 1969 tour band. He subsequently died of a heroin overdose.

Craig Tarwater, had also previously played with The Other Half and went on to play with Buddy Miles, Frank Zappa as well as playing on Arthur Lee's Vindicator album.

The Psycho/Flash retrospective, which is recommended, includes both sides of their two singles and a live recording of Cantaloupe Island at the Eagles Auditorium, Seattle in October 1967 and of Queen Jane Approximately at the Whiskey A Go Go in November 1966. An important psychedelic folk-rock band, The Dally Flash deserved greater recognition.

Hastings, Lalor and Keliehor had a re-union in 1994. Steve Lalor is still active on the local Seattle music scene, whilst Craig Tarwater now lives in Walla Walla, Washington and operates a mail order business called Video School of Guitar as well as his local music store, Blue Mt. Music Inc. For more information on the Video School of Guitar check his website: http://www.videoguitar.com.

Compilation coverage has included: Green Rocky Road on Sound Of The Sixties: San Francisco Part 1; French Girl on Baubles, Vol. 1; and both Jack Of Diamonds and Violets Of Dawn on Nuggets, Vol. 8.. The latter track is a superb period flower power piece.

(Vernon Joynson/Nick Warburton)

Daisy Chain

ALBUM:

1	STRAIGHT OR LAME	(United International)	c1968 R2

On the same label as the Dick Watson 5, probably from New Jersey, an extremely rare flower power/garage all-girl group. Their album is now sought-after but the quality of the pressing is not for audiophile lovers.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Floyd Dakil Combo

ALBUM:

1. LIVE (Ashley 101) 1967

45s:

1. Dance Franny Dance/Look What You've Gone And Done (Jetstar 103) 1964
2. Dance Franny Dance/Look What You've Gone And Done (Guyden 2111) 1965

This Texas outfit enjoyed a regional hit with this 45, which was subsequently included on Pebbles, Vol. 1. They later became the Floyd Dakil Four.

Recently Collectables have issued a compilation CD entitled Dance Franny Dance.

Floyd Dakil Four

45s:

1. Bad Boy/Stoppin (Earth 402) 196?
2. Kitty Kitty/It Takes A Lot Of Hurt (Earth 403) 196?
3. You're The Kind Of Girl/Stronger Than Dirt (Earth 404) 196?

Based in Dallas they are best known for Bad Boy a strong rocker which was later included - on (Texas) Flashback, Vol. 1 and the unreleased metal acetate Texas Psychedelic Punk, Vol. 11. Dakil later recorded a solo 45, Merry Christmas Baby/One Girl (Atco Pompeii 66687).

Dakila

ALBUM:

1	DAKILA	(Epic)	1972

From the Bay Area, a Santana soundalike: latin influences with searing guitar, strong organ and loads of percussions.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dalek/Engham: The Blackstones

Personnel:

- GEOFF BRYAN
- DAVE KELL
- JERRY McGEORGE
- TOM OSBORNE

45:

1. Never Feel The Pain/Could It Be Love (Invictus 3751) 197?
2. You Don't Know Better/She Tells Me With Her Eyes (Invictus 3755) 197?

Also known as Engam: The Blackstones. The band also included Jerry McGeorge and were basically the same band as Saturday's Children. Strangely enough, You Don't Know Better, on the Dalek: The Blackstones' 45, was credited to Bryan-McGeorge and to Bryan-Holder on the Saturday's Children Dunwich 45. Some doubt has been expressed as to whether Bun E. Carlos was in this band as McGeorge and Bryan were from Indiana and Carlos at the time was in The Paegens (probably from Rockford). They also released a third 45 on Invictus, Never Feel The Pain, which had a catchy beat but suffered from indistinctive vocals. You can hear it on Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD) and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 4. For the full lowdown on the band from Jerry McGeorge himself, check out Jeff Jarema's essential 'zine Here 'Tis # 6 - Jerry later went on to Shadows of Knight, and H.P. Lovecraft.

The 45's listed on Invictus were recordings made in 1965 and issued in the seventies as a 'Collector Series'. (Max Waller/Vernon Joynson/Kip Brown)

Damnation of Adam Blessing

Personnel:

RAY BENICK	bs	A B
ADAM BLESSING	vcls	A B
BOB KALAMASZ	gtr, vcls	A B
JIM QUINN	gtr, vcls, perc	A B
BILL SCHWARK	drms	A B
KEN CONSTABLE		B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE DAMNATION OF ADAM BLESSING	(United Artists UAS 6738)	1969 181
2(A)	SECOND DAMNATION	(United Artists UAS 6773)	1970
3(B)	WHICH IS THE JUSTICE	(United Artists UAS 5533)	1971

NB: (1) reissued (Akarma AK 100) 2000. (2) reissued (Akarma AK 101) 2000. (3) reissued (Akarma AK 102) 2000. (1)-(3) reissued as a 3-CD box set (Akarma AK 102/3) 2000.

45s:

1	Morning Dew/Cookbook	(United Artists 50609)	1969
2	Last Train To Clarksville/Lonely	(United Artists 50666)	1970 -
3	Back To The River/Driver	(United Artists 50726)	1970 102
4	Fingers On A Windmill/Leaving It Up To You	(United Artists 50819)	1971 -
5	Cookbook/Leaving It Up To You	(United Artists 50912)	1972 -

From Cleveland, Ohio, a good psyche hard rock outfit which did achieve some modest commercial success. Their first album is excellent, with surprising covers of Last Train To Clarksville, Morning Dew and You Don't Love Me, plus a good original penned by William "Bill" Constable. The Second Damnation is also interesting, with Back To The River, Money Tree and In The Morning. There's already a Southern rock feel in some songs.

After three albums, they renamed themselves Glory and released an LP on Avalanche in 1973.

Eric Stevens, who later worked with Brownsville Station, produced their albums and Bill Schwark had previously played with The Alarm Clocks.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

Damon

Personnel:

- RICHARD BARHAM durbeki A
- CHARLIE CAREY ld gtr A
- DAVID DEL CONTE (DAMON) vcls, gtr A
- LEE PASTORA perc A
- MIKE PASTORA perc A
- HELENA VLAHOS finger cymbals A
- ATLEY (ATLEE) YEAGER bs, vcls A
- CARL ZARCONE drms A

ALBUM:

1. SONG OF A GYPSY (Ankh no #) 1970

NB: (1) issued in two covers - a more common single B&W one and a rarer black embossed gatefold. Later bootlegged in Belgium in 1993 and on CD by Afterglow (013). More recently there has been another CD reissue, with the original inner gatefold used as a cover, and an official limited vinyl repress, by Ten Little Indians in an exact replica embossed gatefold cover with bonus 7".

45s:

1. Song Of A Gypsy/Oh, What A Good Boy Am I (Ankh 1) 1969
2. Don't You Feel Me/Poor Poor Genie (Ankh 2) 1969

This is an excellent psychedelic album, which was issued simultaneously in a gatefold and non-gatefold covers. Both versions are monster rarities. It was recorded in Hollywood and just onehundred copies were pressed. There's lots of fuzz guitar and a mystical feel about tracks like Do You? and The Night, I Feel Your Love has a sleepy, stoned atmosphere sounding rather similar to The Deep and Birds They Fly High has spoken lyrics and 'snake charming' music, again creating a sort of Eastern mystical feel.

The Song Of A Gypsy 45 cut features the same music as on the album, but with a different lead vocal, whilst the flip is non-album. The second 45 comprises album cuts remixed for 45 issue.

Damon was in fact Californian based David Del Conte, who wrote the music, played guitar, sang and also produced the record. He's recently released a new album entitled Gypsy Eyes, which is well worth checking out if you liked his earlier album.

You can also find the LP version of Song Of A Gypsy on Love Peace & Poetry Vol. 1.

For more information on Damon, see the following website: http://www.damonthegypsy.com.

Dan and Dale

Personnel incl:

DANNY KALB	gtr	A
SUN RA	keyb'ds	A

ALBUM:

1	THE SENSATION GUITARS OF DAN AND DALE PLAY BATMAN	(Tifton)	1966 R2

Dan and Dale were in fact a studio group with Sun Ra and his Arkestra and Danny Kalb (of Blues Project fame). Apart from Batman and Robin's Theme, all the other tracks are instrumental, with the excellent acid guitar sound of Kalb backed by the organ and horns of Sun Ra and his Arkestra.

A rare and expensive curiosity.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dancing Food and Entertainment

Personnel:

- TOM GLASS bs

- MARK PIERCE keyb'ds
- DENNIS REED gtr
- NAOMI RUTH-EISENBERG violin, vcls
- WAYNE THIBAULT drms

An obscure psychedelic band from Berkeley, California who were founded ex-Jazz Mice member Tom Glass. Picked up by Bill Graham's booking agency (Millard) in mid 1968, they opened for Ten Years After at the Fillmore West the weekend of November 16th, 1968 (where they replaced Country Weather who cancelled because of illness); played the Avalon Ballroom with Santana and did several gigs opening for the Grateful Dead. The band never got an album or single pressed, but recorded three songs at the infamous Sierra Sound Labs in Berkeley that were destined for the never-pressed EP.

Needless to say their name has been a big hindrence with regard to archival research... Thus, Dancing, Food and Entertainment have been largely overlooked by '60s psychedelic historians.

Naomi Ruth-Eisenberg went on to join ex-Charlatan Dan Hick's band as one of the "Hot Licks".

(Ivor Trueman, with thanks to Dennis Reed)

Sterling Damon

TOP

45:

1. Rejected/My Last Lefter (Int. Artists 108) 1966

Damon was probably based in Houston, Texas. The 'A' side of his 45, which has a strange backing, has subsequently surfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol: 23 Texas, Part Five and The International Artists Singles Collection.

Dan-Dees

TOP

45s:

1. Think About It/Take A Look At Yourself (Jorel 108) 196?
2. Dandy/Memphis (Vest 8002) 196?

A late sixties Chicago outfit. Think About It features some nice fuzzy folk-rock guitar augmented by a pounding beat and thought ul lyrics. It's also on Pebbles, Vol. 21.

Danes

TOP

Personnel incl:
W.R. ("DUB") LYNCH A

45s:

1	Come On Baby / Most Of All	(Le Cam 718)	c1961
2	Hey Hey Baby / High On A Hill	(Smash S-1962)	1965
3	To Make Me A Man / Lost Love	(Tower 247)	1966
4	Just A Dream /	(Charay 303)	196?
5	Don't Need No Cadillac /	(Charay 33)	196?

NB: (4) and (5) are dubious and unconfirmed - they may be one 45.

This group included Dub Lynch who went on to The Gnats, and Texas Valley group Foamy Brine.

(Max Waller/Andrew Brown)

Raul (Rabindra) Danks

Personnel:

RALPH CASSEL (CASALE)	gtr	A
STEFANIANNA CHRISTOPHERSON	vcls	A
RAUL DANKS	vcls, gtr	A B
RICHARD LANDIS	keyb'ds	A
JOHN MILLER	bs	A
JAMES STROUD	drms	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	DANKS	(Colossus CS-1005)	1970
2(B)	ALL I SEE IS YOU	(Takoma/Devi D 1036)	1973

NB: (2) as Rabindra Danks.

Produced by Richard Landis and Jerry Ross, the first album was recorded in New York and Los Angeles. Although it contains some decent guitar parts by Ralph Casale and Donald McDonald (ex Jeremy and The Satyrs) guested on one track, the LP is ruined by the pretentious horn arrangements and universally weak songwriting. Only the folk rock Matthew Mouse and two or three other cuts are listenable, the second side being a total disaster.

Three years after, Raul (now named Rabindra) had moved to California and having turned mystic, managed to release a second album on Takoma. Produced by John Fahey and dedicated to his guru, All I See Is You benefited from the presence of Don Preston (Mothers Of Invention) and Jim Hobson (Love, Morning) but the material was once again too undistinct to retain attention.

Colossus was a small label which also released an album by Maypole.

James Stroud later became a studio musician.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Danny and Linda

Personnel:

DANNY	A
LINDA	A

ALBUMS:

1	DANNY AND LINDA	()	c1972 SC
2	GOSPEL	(Revelation)	1975 R2

From New York, a Christian folk/rock duet with guitar and organ, who would also record as First Revelation.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Danny and The Counts

Personnel incl:

- ERIC HUREQUE bs
- JOE HUREQUE drms
- DANNY PARRA ld vcls, gtr
- IRENE PORRAS vcls
- KEN PRICHARD ld gtr
- JAVIER VENISULA organ
- JOE ?? vcls

45s:

1. For Your Love/It's All All Over (Frog Death 4) 196?
2. You Need Love/Ode To The Wind (Coronado 136) 1966

The band was formed around 1960 and maintained a popular following into the late 60's. They played Tejano music and soul in the early days later switching to a rock-Texas garage band sound influenced by Beatles, Stones, Bobby Fuller etc..., but without abandoning their Tejano beginings. Danny and The Counts recorded on the same lable as Bobby Fuller (Coronado) did in his early years. A staple of El Paso rock scene, they were ahead of themselves in the punk evolution and showmanship played as much part in the Count's act as did the music...

Their second 45 can be heard on Texas Punk From The Sixties, Vol. 2 and the 'A' side had earlier appeared on Pebbles, Vol. 5 erroneously credited to Danny and The Escorts (corrected on the CD version). You Need Love was typical Texas punk, but the flip was a smoother, more psychedelic track.

Danny and The Other Guys

45:

1. Hard Times/ 5 for $14.50 (C.P. 101) 196?

Chicago punkers. The 'A' side can be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 2.

Danny and The Sessions

45s:

1. Big Boss Man/I Knew You Would (Saligo 6501) 1965
2. Grand Time and Gay Nights/Mojo (Cobra 11 14) 196?
3. My Angel Diane/Hey Babe (Cobra 1253) 196?

From San Antonio in Texas. Mojo got a second airing on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 7.

Danny's Reasons

Personnel:

- DANNY STEVENS vcls A
- LEE DAHLIN A
- FRANK MARENOS A
- CEDRIC VAN DEUSEN A
- BOB GONYEA A
- STEVE MAURER drms

45s:

1. Little Diane/Believe Me (IRC 6935) 1966
2. Under My Thumb/Triangles (Carnaby 101) 1967
3. With One Eye Closed/Think Of You (Hand 9-420) 1969
4. Young Emotion/Hard Old Times (Uncle Sam 19361) 1972
5. Vision Of Love/Time (Great Hall 30297) 197?

This mob operated out of Minneapolis in Minnesota from 1965 until at least 1972. Danny Stevens was otherwise known as Danny Capri. Their early recordings were the best. You'll find their cover of Dion's Little Diane on Hipsville 29 B.C.. Better still was Triangles, a punk screamer which has resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 22 and Changes. They also figured on the now rare compilation, Gathering At The Depot, back in 1970.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Nick D'Angelo and The Farmers to Tim Davis

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Nick D'Angelo and The Farmers
- The Dantes
- The Dantes
- Darius
- The Dark Horsemen
- The Dark Knights
- Darkseid
- Dark Shadows
- Daughters Of Albion
- Daughters of Eve
- Dave and The Customs
- Dave and The Shadows
- Dave and The Squires
- Mogan David and His Winos
- The David
- David and The Boys Next Door
- Jeff Davis
- Tim Davis

Nick D'Angelo and The Farmers

Personnel incl:

- NICK D'ANGELO vcls

45:

1. Mr. Zeppelin Man/Time To Be A Woman (Chime 109) 19??

Long Islanders Nick D'Angelo and The Farmers cut a demented track called Mr. Zeppelin Man, which has resurfaced on Hipsville 29 B.C., Vol. 1, solely for their own private use. Except for the drummer, the rest of the band were all D'Angelo's brothers, and you'll be pleased to know that today Nick lends his considerable talent to the Hare Krishna movement.

The Dantes

Personnel incl:

BARRY HAYDEN	ld vcls	A

JOE HINTON	perc	A
CARTER HOLLIDAY	bs	A
LYNN WEHR	gtr	A
DAVE WORKMAN	ld gtr	A

45s:

1	Can't Get Enough Of Your Love/80-96	(Jamie 1314)	1966
2	Under My Thumb/Can I Get A Witness?	(Cameo 431)	1966
3	Connection/Satisfied	(Main Line 1366)	196?

Columbus, Ohio was home to this outfit. Some of their recordings were reasonable Stones covers but Can't Get Enough Of Your Love, is a fast moving soul- rocker, which you'll find on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 9: Ohio. Mindrockers, Vol. 11 also included Can I Get A Witness? and the instrumental 80-96 can be found on Everything You Always Wanted To Know.... CD, Garage Monsters, The Garage Zone Vol. 4, and Sick And Tired.

The Dantes performed with many top name groups such as Jimi Hendrix, Byrds, Roy Orbison, Bobby Goldsboro, Strawberry Alarmclock, The Outsiders, Neil Diamond, Them and J. Frank Wilson to name a few.

(Max Waller/George Gell/Ben Knepper)

The Dantes

TOP

45s:

1. Top Down Time/How Many Times? (Rotate 5008) 1964
2. Dragon Walk/Zebra Shoot (Courtney 713) 1964

A different act from Carnegie, Pennsylvania, their Top Down Time resurfaced on Pebbles Vol. 4, whilst both sides of the Courtney 45 are included on Strummin' Mental, Vol. 4. (Max Waller)

Darius

TOP

ALBUM:

1. DARIUS (Chartmaker CSG 1102) 1968

N.B. Reissued on Breeder (005-C2-565) 1986 and on CD (Flashback 009) 199?.

45:

1. Hello Stranger/I Don't Mind (Chartmaker 419) 1968

Darius was possibly based in California due to Ben Benay and Butch Parker's involvement in his album on which he is backed by Goldenrod. The album is all originals and the music very melodic with upfront vocals and a style veering towards progressivism. Particularly stunning are Mist-Veiled Garden and I Feel The Need To Carry On. Funk and blues influences are more evident on Side 2 of the album.

The 45 was taken from a projected second album on Chartmaker, Hello Stranger, which was never released. You can also find Shades Of Blue on Love Peace And Poetry Vol. 1.

The Dark Horsemen

Personnel:

MACK BENTLY	A
MACK LANE	A
DAVE ROOF	A
TOM ROOF	A

45:

1	You Lied / Girl, Stand By Me	(The Dark Horsemen 3720)	March 1966

A rare private-press 45, mastered in Miami, Florida. However this quartet is thought to have emanated from the Jacksonville area. You Lied, an uptempo punker, is to be found on Back From The Grave Vol. 8 and Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD).

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich/Roger Maglio)

The Dark Knights

45:

1. Send Her To Me/Dark Knight (IGL 111) 1966

The work of a garage quintet from Storm Lake, Iowa.

Darkseid

45:

1. Ground Zero/Land Of The Darker Sun (Brooks RSR-6) 1973

Awesome heavy psychedelic fuzz-rocker on a label out of Hampton, Virginia, that could just as easily be from 1968 or 1969. Both sides are excellent. Ground Zero is the more upbeat with female-male vocals, tribal drumming and searing breaks. Darker Sun has a backing track reminiscent of Uriah Heep's Gypsy, some scorching leads and a doom-laden feel. Quite superb in fact, for the genre. If you see it, grab it.

There's a Darkseid, noted in Mike Kuzmin's excellent discography on Pennsylvania ('Sounds From The Wood'), who released one 45 in 1971 on their own name label - Space Bass/Shamokin' Woman. Noted as a possible Pennsylvania outfit presumably due to the Shamokin' in the title - is it the same group as this lot? (Max Waller)

Dark Shadows

ALBUM:

1	COLD SUN	(Rockadelic)	198?

NB: (1) limited to 300 numbered copies came with insert and photo. (1) reissued 2000.

From Texas, recorded in 1969 but only issued in the late eighties. Strongly influenced by the 13th Floor Elevators, with fuzz guitar and filtered vocals.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Daughters Of Albion

Personnel:

GREG DEMPSEY	vcls, gtr	A
KATHY YESSE	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	DAUGHTERS OF ALBION	(Fontana SRF 67586)	1968

NB: (1) also released by Fontana in U.K. (STL5486) and Holland (887806).

A hippie psyche pop duo who were produced and arranged by Leon Russell. All the songs were written by Greg Dempsey (sometimes helped by Dave Luff) and some arrangements are obviously influenced by the Beatles's Sergent Pepper album. Quite pleasant but nothing essential.

Graced with a really good voice, Kathy Yesse recorded in 1974 a disappointing solo album produced by Greg Dempsey as Kathy Dalton, Boogie Bands And One Night Stands on Frank Zappa's Discreet label.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Daughters of Eve

45s:

1. He Cried/Don't Waste My Time (Spectra Sound 920) 1966
2. Symphony Of My Soul/Help Me Baby (USA 891) 1967
3. Stand By Me/Hey Lover (USA 1779) 1967/8
4. Social Tragedy/1000 Stars (Cadet5600) 1968

N.B. Also an unknown 45 on Destination.

One of Chicago's top late sixties all girl groups. Girls In The Garage, Vol. 4 features Help Me Baby and Don't Waste My Time figured on Vol. 2 of the same series.

Dave and The Customs

45s:

1. Ali Baba/Shortenin' Bread (DAC 500) 1963
2. The Local/You Should Be Glad (DAC 501) 196?
3. Mizerlou/Bony Morony (DAC 502) 196?
4. I Ask You Why/He Was A Friend Of Mine (DAC 503) 1966

Decent garage-folk-rock on the last 45 shown here. From Pomona, California. I Ask You Why is also on From The New World, Vol. 1; Ali Baba is also on Diggin' Out. (Max Waller)

Dave and The Shadows

Personnel incl:

DAVE KALMBACH	A
DAVE NOWLEN	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	TWOS SIDES OF CHRISTMAS	(Fenton)	1964

Some 45s:

1	Here After/Blue Down	(Check-Mate 1011)	1962
2	Dancing Cheek To Cheek/At The Fair	(Check-Mate 1016)	1962
3	Playboy/Faith 7	(Fenton 942)	1964

From Sparta, Michigan. Leader Dave Kalmbach was the owner and engineer of the Fenton label. Playboy was later included on the cassette compilation Best Of Michigan Rock Groups, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller/Frank Uhle)

Dave and The Squires

45:

1. The Girl Of My Dreams/Ferry Cross The Mersey (Radex R 65121) 1965

Out of Freeport, Illinois. This fairly routine punk ballad can also be heard on Punk Ballads From The Slxtles.

Mogan David and His Winos

ALBUM:

1	SAVAGE YOUNG WINOS	(Kosher)	1973

45:

1	Nose Job / The Big War	(Kosher KMW-1)	1971/2

From somewhere in California. Nose Job was originally included with an issue of 'Mad' magazine and has subsequently resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion 12: Demented and the Mad Music CD. The Kosher 45 may also have been issued as by Mogan David and The Grapes Of Wrath who released the following:

1	Little Girl Gone / Hot Blood	(Cha Cha)	1971? unconfirmed
2	Street Baby / Party Games	(Kosher KMW-2)	1972

(Max Waller)

The David

TOP

Personnel:

- WARREN HANSEN A
- TIM HARRISON A
- CHUCK SPIETH A
- MARK BIRD A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ANOTHER DAY, ANOTHER LIFETIME (VMC V 124) 1967

NB: (1) also reissued on vinyl and CD.

45s:

1. 40 Miles/Bus Token (20th Century Fox 6663) 1966
2. People Saying - People Seeing/40 Miles (20th Century Fox 6675) 1967
3. I'm Not Alone/Sweet December (PS) (VMC 716) 1967

The David, who came from Los Angeles, made an interesting album which has now become a collectors' item. The title track blends Eastern, chantlike overtones with Western orchestrational motifs. Other tracks are often characterised by driving rhythms played alongside oddly spaced melody lines. Much of the material - which was all written and composed by Warren Hansen - is heavily orchestrated. Hansen also invented an instrument, which he called the Plasmatar, to provide the vibrant rasp on one track Mirrors of Wood, which also contains some fine fuzztone. The final track Of Our Other Days had considerable commercial potential with a calypso- style melody and hypnotic beat.

The second 45 includes a fabulous non-LP scuzzy-sitar-punker: People Saying, People Seeing.

The David have also been compiled, including:- 40 Miles and I'm Not Alone on Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD) and Boulders, Vol. 6; Forty Miles on Gone, Vol. 1; I'm Not Alone and Sweet December on Acid Trip From The Psychedelic Sixties; and People Saying, People Seeing on Seeds Turn To Flowers Turn To Dust.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

David and The Boys Next Door

Personnel incl:

- DAVID KERSHENBAUM

45:

1. Land O'Love/If I Was King (Skipper 828 R-1240) 1965
2. Spring Fever/It Ain't No Use (Del-Ray 3059) 196?

Springfield, Missouri was home to his band. David Kershenbaum composed both sides of the Del-Ray 45 and Land O'Love can also be found on The Garage Zone, Vol. 1.

Jeff Davis

ALBUM:

1	DEAR JEFF	(Tap LP-0030)	c1970 SC

An acid folk singer and guitarist, from Houston. The album was recorded at Dale Mullins Studios in Houston, produced by Dale Mullins and Randy Callaway. Very introspective lyrics, some with a Christian bend. Mostly acoustic, with a bit of electric guitar on tracks like Clouds, Sorrows Come Too Fast and Leavin' Sea.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Tim Davis

Personnel:

JAMES CURLY COOKE	gtr	A B
TIM DAVIS	vcls, drms	A B
MIKE FINNIGAN		A
DOUG KILLMER		A
SONNY LEWIS		A
JOHN MCFEE	gtr	A
HART MCNEE		A
BILL MEEKER		A
STEPHEN MILLER	keyb'ds	A B
PETER MINTON	keyb'ds	A
TRACY NELSON	vcls	A
RICHARD OLSON		A
DONNA THATCHER	vcls	A
LINDA TILLARY	vcls	A
LONNIE TURNER	bs	A
JOHN WILMETH		A

KEN ADAMANY	piano	B
MIKE BLOOMFIELD	gtr	B
JOHN KAHN	bs	B
BOZ SCAGGS	gtr	B
BEN SIDRAN	piano	B

ALBUM:

1(A)	PIPEDREAM	(Metromedia KMD 1054)	1972
2(B)	TAKE ME AS I AM	(Metromedia BLM 1-1075)	1972

Tim Davis was the drummer in the Steve Miller Band for their first five albums. He went solo, recording two albums for Metromedia with several Californian musicians: Turner, Sidran, Scaggs and Cooke (Steve Miller Band), Linda Tillary (Loading Zone), Richard Olson (Charlatans), John McFee (Clover), Tracy Nelson (Mother Earth), Stephen Miller (Linn County)... Take Me As I Am is the better of the two, being in the Steve Miller Band mould.

Davis came from the Children's Service Society, an orphanage in Milwaukee where he was with Ken Adamany. In 1964, he formed "Tim Davis and the Chordairres" with Curley Cooke in Madison, Wisconsin, where the other local groups included Tracy Nelson and the Imitations and Steve Miller and the Ardells. In 1965, Davis, Adamany, and Cooke got together with Miller and Scaggs and played occasionnaly as the Knight Trains before Miller drifted south to Chicago to form the Goldberg-Miller Blues Band. The Chordairres reformed and played the affluent resort town of Lake Geneva every week for at least a year. In late 1966, Miller, back from Texas after the failure of his Chicago band, called from San Francisco to ask Davis and Cooke to join him in his new band.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Tim Dawe to The Dearly Beloved

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Tim Dawe
- The Dawgs
- The Dawks
- The Dawnbreakers
- The Day After
- Day Blindness
- Daybreak
- The Daybreakers
- Daze of The Week
- The Deacons
- The Dead Beats
- Deadend
- Deadlys
- Ritchie Dean
- Christopher Deane
- The Dearly Beloved

Tim Dawe

Personnel:

TIM DAWE	vcls, acoustic gtr	A B
ARNIE GOODMAN	keyb'ds	A B
CHRIS KEBECK	gtr	A
CLAUDE MATHIS	drms	A
DON PARRISH	bs	A
RALPH BENKUS	perc	B
MITCHELL HOLMAN	bs, hrmnca	B
PATRICIA PICKENS	vcls	B
JERRY ROSS	gtr	B
HAL WAGENET	ld gtr	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	PENROD	(Straight/Warner STS 1058)	1969
2(B)	TIMOTHY AND MS PICKENS WITH NATURAL ACT	(Half Moon Bay Records HMB 01)	1976

NB: (1) also released in France.

Tim Dawe appeared on the scene in 1969 with an album on Frank Zappa's Straight label. Penrod was a superb debut, full of psychedelic folk rock with lots of organ, harpsichord and brilliant acid guitar. Four masterpieces are included:- Nite Train Home, Junkie John, Sometimes Alone (with strong percussion) and Didn't We Love. The result stands comparison to another more well known Straight artist, Tim Buckley. Quite surprisingly, however, the backing group doesn't seem to have played on other albums (unless they were using pseudonyms).

Dawe then wrote songs for Rod Taylor and It's A Beautiful Day (Places Of Dreams and Bitter Wine, on Choice Quality Stuff/Anytime).

In 1976 he returned with an interesting west-coast album produced by the ex-It's A Beautiful Day member Mitchell Holman, who also played bass on it. Another ex-It's A Beautiful Day, member Hal Wagenet, also played guitar, whilst Patricia Pickens, was an excellent vocalist. On this album Dawe included versions of Bitter Wine and Junkie John together with nine new songs. It was recorded in Coos Bay, Oregon.

In 1978, he produced A Night On The Wine Cellar (Cabernet GWC 101), a live folk/blues album on which he sang three new songs, along with Billy Roberts and other Californian local artists.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Dawgs

TOP

Personnel incl:

- GAYLON LATIMORE
- BOB SHARP

45:

1. Shy/Won't You Cry For Me (Pic 1119) 196?

Operated out of Texas. Beatlesque harmonies are to the fore on the Invasion beat sounds of Shy, whilst Won't You Cry For Me looks towards Jay and The Americans for a yearning teenbeat-ballad.

Latimore went on to record a 45 with Sharp under the name Bob and Gaylon before playing with The Silverlones, Eastside Transfer and Heather Black. After The Silvertones he recorded three 45s under the pseudonym Gaylon Ladd.

(Max Waller)

The Dawks

TOP

Personnel:

JIM	A
TERRY LAWSON	A
LOU	A
MIKE	A
STEVE	A

45:

1(A) A Good Thing / Poison Ivy (Prism) 1966

In 1966 a three day battle of the bands was sponsored by WONE of Dayton, Ohio to highlight the local talent. Twelve bands were selected by the judges to record at Mega-Sound studios and each had on cut on the resultant WONE, The Dayton Scene LP (Prism PR-1966). The Dawks' selection, A Good Thing, is driving teenbeat with a big sound and strong Mersey influence. It appeared again on their own 45 on Prism.

(Max Waller)

The Dawnbreakers

TOP

45:

- Alligator / The Bounce (Trophy Int. 1504) 1966

From Kentucky, their cover of Soul Inc.'s frat punker, The Alligator, has resurfaced on It's Finkin' Time. It's an uptempo tune with nice fuzz guitar.

The Day After

TOP

This outfit recorded a song called The Graduate, which can be heard on Oil Stains, Vol. 2 or Relics, Vol. 2. It's a soft, haunting number but has little special to differentiate it from the crowd.

Day Blindness

TOP

Personnel:

- DAVE MITCHELL vcls, drms A
- GARY PIHL vcls, gtr A
- FELIX BRIA vcls, bs, organ A

ALBUM:

1. (A) DAY BLINDNESS (Studio 10 DBX 101) 1969

NB: Reissued on CD (Flash 42) 1997.

45:

1. House And A Dog/Middle Class Lament (Studio 10 2494) 1969

The above is an unexceptional San Francisco studio album, with some competent organ work, but little else to distinguish it, save possibly the final and longest track Holy Land - an attempt to sound like The Doors', The End.

Daybreak

ALBUM:

1	Daybreak	(Dome)	1974 R3

Presumably a High School Project, this album came with two posters and a lyric sheet. Musically it's a mixture of psych with fuzz guitars and Christian folk rock a la Holy Ghost Reception Committee.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Daybreakers

Personnel:

- MAX COLLINS ld vcls, keyb'ds
- TERRY BECKLEY bs, vcls
- BRUCE PETERS vcls
- PAUL THOMAS bs
- DENNY MAXWELL gtr
- MIKE BRIDGES gtr
- BUDDY BUSCH keyb'ds

45:

1. Psychedelic Siren/Afterthoughts (Dial 4066) 1967

Hailing from Iowa City this band underwent frequent personnel changes but featured the personnel listed above at various times. They recorded just the one 45 at the time. The 'A' side can be heard on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 1 as well as on the Psychedelic Unknowns EP and a screeching siren intro, and backing distinguishes what was other-wise a routine psychedelic/punk single. An LP of their material has subsequently been put out on Unlimited Productions Rock 'n' Roll label (RRRLP-0002). The group later became Rox in 1969 but folded in 1971. After a five year lay- off they re-emerged as Cruisin'(1976-79). The Dirty Water compilation (RRRLP-0003) included alive 1988 version of Respect by the band.

Daze of The Week

45:

1. One Night Stand/? (Piece 1003) 1966

Their sole vinyl offering, the Piece label operated out of Tacoma, Washington and the band may also have come from this area. One Night Stand is an aggressive garage punker with snotty vocals. Strangely enough the track also appears on Piece 1002, backed by You Gotta Give, Baby and credited to the Grotesque Mommies. The same group?

You can find One Night Stand on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 22.

(Max Waller/George Gell)

The Deacons

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN CHINCHILLA drms
- EARL PRITCHARD ld vcls
- GARY STARZECKI bs
- DICK WEEKS sax
- RICH YOUNGBERG ld gtr

45s:

1. Donna/Baldie Beat (Re-Car 9001) 1964
2. The Baldie Stomp/Baldie Beat (Re-Car 9004) 1964
3. Candy Man/Think It Over (Re-Car 9012) 1965
4. Empty Heart/Problems About Baby (Soma 1452) 1965
5. Empty Heart / Bring It On Home To Me PS (Sundazed S 140) 1998

Not a garage band at all, but a popular Minneapolis-based dance group who seemed to make songs about 'The Baldies', a sixties Minneapolis gang. Their finest moment, Empty Heart has recently been reissued with the bonus of an unreleased Bring It On Home To Me from the same sessions, and rounded off with a brief history from Minnesota mastermind Jim Oldsberg.

The band have also apeared on a number of comps including: Empty Heart on Hipsville, Vol. 3; The Baldie Stomp on Ho-Dad Hootenanny and Victims Of Circumstance; and The Baldie Beat on the The Big Itch. They were also featured on the 1965 compilation series Top Teen Bands, Vol's 1/2/3 with The Baldie Stomp, Baldie Beat and Candy Man respectively.

(Max Waller, with kudos to Sundazed)

The Dead Beats

TOP

45:

1	Can't Go On This Way / Trust Me	(Coe West 002)	Oct 1967

An unknown band who recorded their sole 45 at Robert Quimby's home studio in Deland, Florida. Daytona Beach has been suggested as their home-turf. Can't Go On This Way on Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD).

(Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich)

Deadend

45:

1. Just Like A Season/I Ain't Got Nobody (Voice Of The Junkyard 24425) 197?

A hippie rock 45 which came in a picture sleeve. The band were from Grand Forks in North Dakota, although the disc was recorded in Minneapolis.

Deadlys

Out of Columbus, Ohio, they featured with one track On The Road Again on a sampler of Columbus bands issued on Hillside (166). The track has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 9:Ohio. It's a raw and poorly produced version of a Lovin' Spoonful song.

Ritchie Dean

45:

1	Goodbye Girl!/I'd Do Anything	(Capitol CL 15374)	1966

NB: (1) is a U.K. pressing. A german language version also exists.

A mid '60s pop/rock 45. It's in fact Warren Schatz in disguise.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Christopher Deane

45:

1	Angel's Last Trip/Purgatorio	(Sidewalk 906)	1966

Probably a garage psyche single.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Dearly Beloved (Beloved Ones)

Personnel:

- LARRY COX vcls A B
- TOM WALKER gtr A B
- TERRY LEE gtr A B
- PETE SCHUYLER drms A
- SHEP COOKE bs A B
- RICK MELLINGER drms B
- LENNY LOPES drms
- VAL VALINTO bs
- TOM RIPLY vcls

ALBUM:

1. (A/B) ROUGH DIAMONDS: HISTORY OF GARAGE BAND MUSIC VOL 6 - DEARLY BELOVED (Voxx 200.018) 1984

45s:

1. Peep Peep Pop Pop/It Is Better (Boyd 157) 1966
2. Peep Peep Pop Pop/It Is Better (Columbia 4-43797) 1966
3. Wait Till Mornin'/You Ain't Gonna Do What You Did With Him To Me (Columbia 4-43959) 1966
4. Merry Go Round/Flight Thirteen (Splitsound SSDG-5) 1967

NB: (1) credited to The Beloved Ones.

Forming in 1963 as The Intruders and later known as The Quinstrells they became known as The Dearly Beloved in late'65 and were Tucson's most popular'60s band. Shortly after their name change Dan Gates, a DJ from a local radio station KTKT came along with the tape of a song called Peep Peep Pop Pop. The group were not at all keen at first but eventually he persuaded them to record it at the Audio Sound Recorders Studio in Phoenix and a record deal was negotiated with the New Mexico-based Boyd label. They got the band's name wrong on the label and the 45 was released in 1966 and credited to The Beloved Ones. It was a No. 1 hit in Tucson that year and held the No. 1 position for many weeks on KTKT radio. Consequent upon its success the 45 was leased to Columbia, who at least got the band's name right. With national distribution the 45 almost made Billboard's Top 100.

Fuelled by their success the band headed to LA to record an album for Columbia. They recorded twenty songs in all in just three half day sessions! These sessions spawned their next 45. Tom Walker wrote the 'A' side, the flip was the work of The Grodes' leader Manny Freiser. The posthumous Voxx compilation includes some tracks from this session, but Columbia didn't promote the band or release the LP. Around this time Pete Schuyler left the band and was replaced on drums by Rick Mellinger from The Grodes.

On a further trip to LA the band were spotted playing with The Leaves by a White Whale rep. and this led to them signing a new record contract (having sued Columbia to get out of their previous one). Larry Cox had to return to Tucson the next day to get married so they left LA at 3am taking turns with the driving. Eventually they all fell asleep including the driver. Inevitably they crashed and Larry Cox was killed instantly. The rest of the band sustained injuries. To make matters worse Larry's death negated their White Whale contract because it contained a clause stating that the band would have to stay intact.

The band tried to keep going but never successfully replaced Larry. The 'A' side of their final 45 was a haunting song written by Larry about death ironically shortly before his own tragic demise. The flip, a punker with a ripping bass line, was a regional hit. Vocalist Jim Perry sang on the 'A' side and Terry Lee took the vocal role on the flip. Arguably this 45 was their finest moment, Both sides can be heard on the Voxx compilation. The flip also appears on Acid Dreams Epitaph (CD) and Boulders, Vol. 6.

The band disintegrated when Shep Cooke left to join Linda Ronstadt's backing band, The Stone Poneys. Although he soon returned to Tucson to rejoin The Dearly Beloved he got into a motorbike accident shortly after his return and couldn't play for six weeks. This led to the final break-up.

Tom Walker and Shep Cooke have remained active in the music scene. Walker going on to play for Arizonian outfit Butterscotch and later composing songs used on the Chuck Wagon and The Wheels album. Cooke started The Floating House Band in Tucson in 1976 and later made two solo LPs as well as playing on albums by Jackson Browne, Tom Waits and Linda Ronstadt. Pete Schuyler joined the marines and now works in electronics, Terry Lee is a successful Tucson architect and Mellinger is an inhalation therapist. Tom and Shep still continue to gig together.

The Voxx compilation is an excellent guide to their career with full liner notes by Lee Joseph which have been summarised here. It contains all the band's better 45s and some of their unreleased recordings for Columbia.

(Vernon Joynson)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Debonaires to Dee Jay and The Runaways

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Debonaires
- The Debonairs
- Debris
- The Debs
- The Decades
- The Decades
- The Decades
- The Decades
- December's Children
- December's Children Ltd
- The Decisions
- Declaration Of Independence
- Terry Dee and The Road Runners
- Dee Jay and The Runaways

The Debonaires

TOP

45:

1. Never Mistaken/Summertime (Rite 0785) 1966

A Chicago-based mid-sixties garage band. The 'A' side can be heard on The Chosen Few, Vol. 1 and the Pebbles Box Set.

The Debonairs

TOP

Instrumentalists from San Antonio in Texas. They didn't make it on to vinyl back in the 1960s but they have a cut Lonely Is The Summer on Texas Punk, 1966: Vol. 9.

Debris

Personnel:

- CHARLES (POISON) IVEY syn A
- JOHNNY GREGG drms, vcls A
- O. POWERS (RECTOMO) vibraharp
- (RICHARD DAVIS sax, organ) A
- (DIRK E. ROWNTREE perc) A

ALBUM:

1. (A) STATIC DISPOSAL (Static Disposal PIG 0000) 1976

The band were apparently high on acid when they recorded this, so unsurprisingly the result is prefly demented psychedelia. Modulators and synthesizers, a vibraharp and more are utilised to good effect. Indeed the album is full of sound effects and echoes.

All the material is written and arranged by Ivey and Powers. The album was pressed in Oklahoma and many psych heads will want it in their collection.

A CD reissue is currently being put together, with bonus tracks and a detailed history - touchdown is expected in mid '99.

The Debs

This girl-group made two 45s for Mercury. They're sometimes thought to have come from England, since Sloopy's Gonna Hang On, which has resurfaced on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 4, was issued there shortly after it came out in America, but it's pretty clear they originated somewhere on the East Coast, and were probably a studio group.

The Decades

45:

1. I'm Lovin' You/Thinking Of You (Sully 121) 196?

Probably the sole stab for stardom for this band, who recorded for this West Texas label but are thought to have come from Oklahoma.

The Decades

45s:

1. I'm Gonna Dance/On Sunset (Lady Luck 001) 1967
2. I'm Gonna Dance/On Sunset (Era 3174) 1967

This was a different Californian outfit whose I'm Gonna Dance has subsequently resurfaced on Off The Wall, Vol. 2. On Sunset also got a further airing on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 8.

The Decades

45:

1. C'mon Pretty Baby/Strange Worlds (Janie JL 10645/6) 1964

More Decades, this time from Akron, Ohio. This particular bunch were also known as The Rats but only for the Rats Revenge 45, immortalised on Back From The Grave Vol's 1 and 2. C'mon Pretty Baby, a rather repetitive early sixties rock'n'roller, has been compiled recently on the Follow That Monster compilation. Its flip, Strange Worlds, is a pretty decent Tornadoes/Ventures type instrumental surprisingly not featured on the Strummin' Mental series.

(Max Waller,George Gell)

The Decades

45:

1. There Ain't No Way / Pledging My Love (Great Scott 1002/3)c1967

A horn-garage-rock 45 from yet another Decades. Possibly from Ohio, as the 45 is on a Cincinnati label, but not the Akron (Rats) bunch.

(Max Waller,George Gell)

December's Children

Personnel:

- CRAIG BALZER gtr, keyb'ds, vcls A
- BRUCE BALZER gtr A
- BILL PETTI bs, vcls A
- ALICE POPOVIC vcls A
- RON PAPALED drms, perc A

ALBUM:

1. (A) DECEMBER'S CHILDREN (Mainstream 6128) 1970

45:

1. Sweet Talkin'Woman/Back Road Rider (Mainstream 728) 1970

NB: (1) "double-headed" promo copies also exist.

From Cleveland, Ohio and based around the Balzar brothers. The above album, which was recorded in Miami, is not outstanding. The band's sound was characterised by the vocal harmonies of Craig Balzer, Petti and Popovic and some competent guitar work. Living (Way Too Fast), which captures Alice Popovic's vocals at their most poignant, and the opener Trilogy, which displays the band's harmonies to best effect are arguably the best tracks.

Bruce Balze later played with Ambleside (also spelt Amblesyde, after a street on which the band rented a house), whilst both brothers played in Circus, an early seventies power pop band who had an album on Metromedia, and Windfall. They later went on to form a band called 747 which was signed to Planet Records in late 79 and had it's named changed to American Noise due to some protests from Boeing or the record company.

American Noise's eponymous album (Planet P-8) 1980 topped the Charts in Cleveland and few other areas.

Craig and Bruce Balzer are now both married and run a specialty advertising firm out of Greater Cleveland, Ohio, USA.

There was also another band of this name from Chicago, which recorded 45s for Twin, Capitol, Liberty and three for World Pacific. Backwards And Forewards / Kissin' Time (World Pacific 77887) actually made No 123 in the charts in 1968, but this was a different outfit so far as we know, whose style was brash brassy pop with harmonies. This 45 was produced, arranged and written by Ray Whitley.

Another December's Children, likely Californian, released a 45 (Somethin' Fresh/Mitch's High produced by Jerry Riopell), on Corio later leased to Columbia - fresh faced pop a la Monkees with good fuzz.

Another D.C. 45 exists on the Balance label. If you can work out which one is which, well done!

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / George Gell / Arthur St. James / Stephane Rebeschini)

December's Children Ltd

45:

1. Signed D.C./So Long Ago (Domestic Sound DS 123) 196?

A different band from Washington D.C. who recorded a fine version of Arthur Lee's classic ode to a junkie Signed D.C. in true ballad punk style. It's included on the Signed D.C. compilation, which was named after it and on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 8 (CD).

The Decisions

45:

1. Tears, Tears/Don't You Know It's Love (Topper 1013) 196?

The above was this band's sole release and one of just five releases on this label, The 'A' side is a prefly lame effort. In fact they took Just Like Me (The Paul Revere and The Raiders and Wild Knights classic) altered the lyrics and added a new guitar lead. If you want to hear the result it's on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 19: Michigan, Part 3. They came from Kalamazoo, Michigan. (Vernon Joynson/Kip Brown)

Declaration of Independence

45s:

1. Morning Glory Man/Letter To Ruth (Mr. G. 804) 1967
2. House/Next Stop - Dead End Street (Mr. G. 805) 1968

Not garage or psych, but polished flower-power pop, produced by Johnny Cymbal. (Max Waller)

Terry Dee and The Road Runners

45:

1. Feel No Pain/Some Other Guy (Ventura 502) 1966

A Beatlesque ballad backed by a swaggering fifties-inspired garage-rocker from University City, Missouri.

Some copies came with labels reversed. (Max Waller)

Dee Jay and The Runaways

Personnel:

- CHUCK COLEGROVE rhythm gtr A
- BOB GODFREDSON gtr, bs, vcls A B C D
- GARY LIND vcls A B C D
- JOHNNY SENN (JAY) bs, gtr, vcls A B C
- DENNY STOREY (DEE) drms, vcls A B C D
- TOM VALLIE organ, vcls A B C D
- DERRY KINTZI keyb'ds C D
- JIM WIENER
- RUSTY DAVIS
- TERRY KLEIN
- SAM FRENCH
- GRANT GILMORE
- JIM JOHAN
- JIM GROTH
- ROGER WHITMORE
- ROGER HUGHES

CD:

1. Peter Rabbit (Arf!Arf! AA-067) 1997

45s:

1. Jenny Jenny/Boney Moronie (IGL 100) 1965
2. Love Bug CrawI/The Pickup (Coulee 109) 1965
3. (C) Peter Rabbit/Three Steps To Heaven (IGL 103) 1966
4. (C) Peter Rabbit/Are You Ready? (Smash S-2034) 1966
5. (C) Peter Rabbit/Three Steps To Heaven (Smash S-2034) 1966 45
6. She's A Big Girl Now/He's Not Your Friend (Smash S-2049) 1966
7. * Keep On Running/Don't You Ever (Sonic 132) 1966
8. * Keep On Running/Don't You Ever (Stone 45) 1967

9. My Gal/Doesn't Matter Anymore (Sonic 148) 1967
10. Sunshine Morning/And I Know (Sonic 158) 1967
11. Love Tender, Love/While You Were Sleeping (Dee Jay 101) 1982

Hailing from Spirit Lake / Dickens / Estherville and Armstrong, this band played an important slice in the history of Iowa rock. Johnny Senn (Jay) was instrumental along with Cliff Plagman and Roger Blunt in setting up the IGL Studios and Jenny Jenny became the label's first recording. As only 100 copies were pressed it's understandably now extremely rare. Peter Rabbit a rather popish song was picked up by the Chicago-based Smash label and earned the band an appearance on Dick Clark's 'Where The Action Is' show as well as a place in the charts. However, when the big breakthrough never came they reverted to Sonic for three further 45s, including a cover of the Spencer Davis hit Keep On Running, on which they were joined by local vocalist Terry Klein.

The core of the group were former members of the Chevelles and the VanDels who joined forces in 1964 due to draft and other member depletion. Line-up "C" recorded Peter Rabbit. From 1966 John Senn 'retired' to concentrate on the IGL studio work, though he continued to be involved and record with the group. After line-up "D", personnel was very fluid to cover departures and touring. The band officially split in 1968 but IGL continued well into the '70s becoming a cult collector's label since its demise and the label has been well compiled in recent times on LP and CD by Arf!Arf! and Get Hip.

These details and a comprehensive story of the band are to be found on Erik Lindgren's retrospective CD, which contains 32 tracks including 4 by the Chevelles. It confirms that the band was an adept outfit covering rockin', instrumental and frat genres in a pop vein, and ballads in an accomplished Four Seasons style. Their appeal will lie with connoisseurs of '60s midwest pop - you'll find neither fuzz nor psych here. In 1981 Storey and Senn got together to revive the name and laid down four more tracks. Two were put out on a 45, and three are featured on the CD.

Kintzi, Storey and Powell all went on to record solo 45s for IGL/Sonic along with Peter Rabbit song writer Tim Smith, Johnny Senn latter recorded an album for IGL with a new band, The Fortunes. The retrospective 45 release in 1982 also comes with a photo and history of the band.

Also briefly in the band was a guy called Roger Hughes, who later formed Bands Of Gold who recorded one 45, You Won't Change Me/lt's Over (Smash 2058) in the late sixties. Prior to his spell with the band he'd produced one 45, In A Thousand Cities/ls It Really Love? (Sultan 1002), with a Sioux City- based project called Denny and The Dukes.

(Max Waller, with thanks to Erik Lindgren)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Deep to Depot Rains

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Deep
- The Deepest Blue
- Deep Soul Cole
- Deerfield
- The Defiant 4
- The Defiants
- The Del Counts
- Delaney & Bonnie and Friends
- The Delights
- Del-Rays
- The Del-tinos
- The Del-vetts
- Demian
- The Demons of Negativity
- The Denims
- Denise & Co
- Denis and The Times
- Dennis The Fox
- Depot Rains

The Deep

TOP

Personnel:

- MARK BARKAN A
- RUSTY EVANS A
- DAVID BROMBERG A
- (D. BLACKHURST A)
- (C. BLUE A)
- (L. POGAN A)
- (A. GELLER A)

ALBUM:

1. (A) PSYCHEDELIC MOODS OF THE DEEP (Cameo Parkway 7051) 1966

N.B. (1) reissued on Cicadelic (977) 1987, and also on CD (Collectables).

This was a Philadelphia-based studio-only project. The album, which is an extremely rare and quite costly collectors' item, has until recently been shrouded in total mystery. It was produced by Mark Barkan and Rusty Evans. Both were also involved in Freak Scene whose album Psychedelic Psoul (CBS 9456) 1968 is virtually a second Deep L.P. We also know thal David Bromberg was involved in the project. The other personnel listed above have been deduced from songwriting credits and may also have been involved.

Deep tracks are also featured on three compilation albums - Color Dreams on Gone, Vol. 1 and on Gathering of The Tribe and Trip 76 on Echoes In Time. Their album is very strange, full of weird sound effects, haunting vocals and acid-soaked lyrics. It is based on a psychedelic folk format. Some, such as Color Dreams and Your Choice To Choose, sound very Seeds-like. Others, like Shadows On The Wall and Wake Up and Find Me are haunting acid ballads.

> 'Wake up and find me
> With dreams of liquid nights
> And never ending lights'
> (f rom Wake Up and Find Me).

Arguably the best two tracks are Turned On and Psychedelic Moon - which are both very odd. The latter has also resurfaced on the vinyl version of The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 1. The album is recommended listening. Fans of the band will also be interested in a series of outtakes released on CD by Collectables, Part 2 and Part 3 contains alternate takes and unreleased tracks which were recorded in 1966), whilst Part 4 (which also features tracks by Hydro-Pyro) and Part 5 are now also available on CD through Collectables.

Barkan went on to a group called Hydro Pyro. In the seventies Rusty was involved in a band called Marcus, who issued a self-titled LP on Kinetic (Z-30207) in 1970.

The Deepest Blue

TOP

Personnel:

ALEX "EARL" SHACKELFORD	ld vcls	A
RUSSELL JOHNSON	ld gtr, vcls	A
KEN ZABEL	organ	A
RICK EDWARDS	gtr, backing vcls	A
BRUCE LAVOIE	bs, backing vcls	A
RUSS "SOUPY" MORROW	drms	A

45:

1(A)	Pretty Little Thing/Somebody's Girl	(Blue-Fin BL-FI-102)	Aug. 1966

Fine Stones-influenced garage punkers from Pomona, California. Starting out as a surf/grease combo in the early 60s, The Doves had stabilized as the above line-up by 1965. Soupy Morrow and Ken Zabel were Pomona locals, Earl Shackelford and Bruce Lavoie hailed from Ontario, Russ Johnson was from England, and Rick Edwards was from Montclair.

Earl Shackelford recalls: "We played mostly in the teen clubs - the Oasis, Hilltop, Pace Setter, Discoteen - what's known today as The Inland Empire. And some beer bars - no-one cared the how old you were then. College fraternity parties were always the best unless some drunken jocks decided you were dead meat and you had to fight off the sweaty block heads as you tore down your equipment and threw it into your trusty band mobile. Oh yeah.. those were the days alright."

"We went out of state once to a little bar in Pocatello, Idaho. I was sick with strep throat so we played instrumentals mostly and lived on bar food for several days, (slim jims, jerky, and beer). That was our tour. We did work in Hollywood a couple of times on the Strip, but we all hated Hollywood. We played with The Leaves once, and The Seeds ... although I don't remember playing with them - Ken Zabel says we did. High Schools were a good gig except that we were banned from all of them after one gig at each, for various reasons (hee hee hee)!"

In the summer of 1966 they released their sole 45 as The Deepest Blue. "Our main influences were The Stones, Animals, Them, early Moody Blues. We changed our name during the time of our recording - we thought it was more commercial."

Sadly the 45 bombed and the band split soon after, leaving a few tracks recorded for an album in the can. Tragedy struck soon after: Soupy Morrow died in a motorcycle accident; one year later Rick and three members of a band, with whom he was doing a car tour, went off the road in the middle of the night, to join Soupy.

Thereafter Earl "bummed around for several years doing what most people were doing in the late 60's, singing in coffee houses until I returned to Los Angeles and began to perform with various bands again in the early 70's, experimenting with all the jumbled forms of psych/country/rock/acid that was affecting musicians at the time".

"Eventually I teamed up with Walter Egan, thanks to mutual friend and musician Chris Darrow of Kaleidoscope fame, whom I'd known for years after The Kaleidoscope had recorded one of my songs I Found Out (on the Beacon From Mars album). We formed a band called Wheels and played the Los Angeles circuit until Walter got a solo record contract.

"I worked with him in some capacity on most of his records. He had a top ten hit (Magnet And Steel) and recorded two or three of my songs for his string of albums on CBS and MCA/Backstreet labels. During this time, 1978 to be exact, I worked with James Williamson on Iggy Pop's LP New Values arranging and singing backup vocals. From that time on I've been involved at various levels with friends putting out CD's, playing the guitar and writing."

And what of the others? "Ken Zabel lives in Boise, and was recently playing with a bluesband, The Ramblers; Bruce Lavoie just retired from the union after having been in road construction for 30 years; Russ Johnson disappeared somewhere - Australia we believe - and hasn't been heard from since 1969."

Compilation appearances have included:- Pretty Little Thing and Somebody's Girl on Boulders Vol. 6 and Ya Gotta Have Moxie Vol. 1 (Dble CD); Pretty Little Thing on Off The Wall Vol. II, Mayhem & Psychosis Vol. 3 (LP), Mayhem & Psychosis Vol. 2 (CD) and Teenage Shutdown Vol. 10; and Somebody's Girl is also on The 60's Choice Vol. 1 and Fuzz, Flaykes & Shakes Vol. 2.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller, with thanks to Earl Shackelford)

Deep Soul Cole

TOP

Poverty Shack was recorded by non other than Fred Cole, who recorded this 45 in 1963, at the age of 15, at the El Dorado studios in Los Angeles. Cole sings lead and plays bass, Larry Williams plays guitar and is the producer and The Blossoms are the back-up singers. Fred was managed at the time by Mike Tell, son of a Las Vegas newspaper owner. Mike took Fred to L.A. where he stayed for a couple of weeks with Larry Williams, met Stevie Wonder and lots of other black acts. For the cover of the record they dumped a bucket of water over Fred's head, to make him look like he had sweated his guts out. It's the very first recording by this outrageous person and it has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 9. Later Cole would turn up in The Lords, The Weeds, Lollipop Shoppe, Zipper, King Bee, Torpedos, Rats, Desperate Edge, Western Front and, finally, Dead Moon.

Deerfield

Personnel:

CHARLIE BRICKLEY	bs, vcls, mandolin	A
STEVE COLEMAN	lead pedal steel gtr, vcls	A
JOHN GUERRY	piano, organ, bs	A
DENNIS HANSON	drms	A
MICHAEL HICKMAN	gtr, piano	A

ALBUM:

1() NIL DESPERANDUM (Flat Rock FRS 1) 1971

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Gear Fab GF-148) 2000.

Formed in Houston, Texas in 1968, they were originally known as The Dream Machine. Their album, a mixture of country rock and psychedelia, has attracted increasing interest from collectors. It was issued with a letter (in envelope) stuck inside the cover.

Charles Bickley is now the owner of a small Austin Texas based label named Buttermilk Records which released several vinyl LP's and 45's in the '70s. in fact he's stiill releasing 25 year old masters on new vinyl and CD of Texas Blues, Rock, Jazz, Cajun, and more. For details (including two Deerfield albums, check his website: http://www.meridianis.com/buttermilk

(Clark Faville/Max Waller)

The Defiant 4

45:

1. Away From My Home/My Time Is Now (Delta 2195) 196?

This band hailed from New Mexico. The'A'side resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 10.

The Defiants

45:

1. What I'd Say/? (Defiant?) 1966

A different New Mexico band.

The Del Counts

Personnel incl:

- KELLY VINCENT

ALBUM:

1. THE DEL COUNTS (Dove acetate no number) 1964/5

45s:
(up to 1972)

1. Let The Good Times Roll/Bird Dog (Soma 1430) 1966
2. What Is The Reason?/With Another Guy (Soma 1465) 1967
3. What Is The Reason?/With Another Guy (Apex 77058) 1967
4. Ain't Got The Time/Don't Ever Leave (Mar-Bil 109) 1968
5. Who Cares/Don't Let The Green Grass (Hand 2173) 1972

A long standing Minneapolis band who were still rehearsing 45s as late as 1974. The album was never released, but BirdDog has resurfaced on the Riot City compilation.

Delaney & Bonnie and Friends

Personnel incl:

BONNIE BRAMLETT	vcls	A
DELANEY BRAMLETT	vcls, gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1	HOME	(Stax 2026)	1969
2	ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTE	(Elektra EKS 74039)	1969
3	ON TOUR	(Atco SD 33-326)	1970
4	TO BONNIE FROM DELANEY	(Atco SD 33-341)	1970
5	MOTEL SHOT	(Atco SD 33-358)	1971
6	GENESIS	(GNP Cresendo 2054)	1971
7	D & B TOGETHER	(CBS KC 31377)	1972

NB: All these albums were also released in the U.K. and France. The rare U.K. test pressings of (2) on Apple are extremely valuable.

Delaney Bramlett began his career in 1964 with two unsuccessful 45s recorded in Los Angeles. He became acquainted with Leon Russell and his "Oklahama Mafia", and became a "Shindog", the group appearing on the TV show "Shindig". In 1967 he met and married Bonnie Lynn, a former Ikette. The duo signed with Stax and in 1969 supported the first part of the Blind Faith's U.S. tour. Subsequently, Eric Clapton, George Harrison and Dave Mason declared that they were the "best group in the world".

Backed by an excellent group with their "Friends":- Russell, Carl Radle (ex Colours), Jim Gordon, Bobby Whitlock, Jim Price, Bobby Keys, Sandy Konikoff, Jim Keltner, etc. Delaney & Bonnie were suddenly very popular and toured constantly. Their records mix rock, white gospel, soul and blues with a solid rhythm section. On Tour, with Eric Clapton and Dave Mason is one of their best efforts, while the "Friends" in Motel Shot included Gram Parsons, Duane Allman and Ben Benay (ex Goldenrod).

The duo's demise was no doubt due to an erratic management (they moved from Stax to Elektra to Atlantic and then to CBS in three years) together with the fact that when Leon Russell left he took their backing group for Joe Cocker's "Mad Dogs and Englishmen" tour. In 1972, the Bramletts split up and both went solo. The records of Delaney are out of this books scope, while Bonnie went on to work with Southern rock groups and released several albums on Capricorn Records with members of Allman Brothers Band.

Jim Price and Bobby Keys later became the horn section for the Rolling Stones and Whitlock, Radle and Jim Gordon formed Derek and the Dominos with Eric Clapton and Duane Allman.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Delights

45s:

1. Long Green/Find Me A Woman (Delaware 1712) 1965
2. Every Minute, Moment, Hour/Just Out Of Reach (Smash S-2072) 1966

Based in Chicago this band's grungy cover of The Kingsmen's Long Green can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 4 and Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD).

Del-Rays

Personnel:

BILLY COFIELD	sax	A B
JOHN DANIELS	drms	A B
JIMMY RAY HUNTER	vcls	A B
JIMMY JOHNSON	gtr	A B
BILLY SCOTT	keyb'ds	A B
LARRY YORK	bs	A B
JIM CRONEY	bs	B
JIMMY EVANS	drms	B
LOUIE ROBERTSON	keyb'ds	B

45s:

1	Hot Toddy / ?	(Fame #unkn)	1962
2	Night Prowl / Windy And Warm	(R and H 1002)	1964
3	Dimples / Fortune Teller	(R And H 1005)	1965
4	Like I Do / Fortune Teller	(Atco 6348)	1965

Formed in 1959 in Muscle Shoals, Alabama this band's style predates the British Invasion and garage waves but they're a fine example of the more rockin' sounds around in Deep South in the early-to-mid-60s. Their debut was a brassy instrumental Hot Toddy. Later efforts were in an accomplished frat-pop style, notably garage-band fave Fortune Teller (reportedly from 1963 and re-released in 1965).

An expanded line-up reunited for the 1992 Muscle Shoals Bands Of The '60s Reunion concert. The CD of the event (Alabama Music Hall Of Fame 1993-01) captures them swingin' through Hot Toddy, Love Potion No. 9, Fortune Teller and Ya-Ya.

Fortune Teller had already reappeared on the Lost Gems From The 60's Vol. 1 EP and Like I Do is on Searching For Love.

(Max Waller)

The Del-tinos

TOP

Personnel incl:

MICHAEL "CUB" KODA	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1	GO! GO! GO!	(Sounds Interesting 013)	1985

45s:

1	Go! Go! Go!/Ramrod	(Del-Tino 100)	1963
2	Nightlife/Pa Pa Ooh Mau Mau	(Sonic 1451)	1965
3	Ramblin'On My Mind/I Got My Mojo Workin'	(Del-Tino 200)	1966

From Michigan, Detroit, The Del-tinos were an early band of Cub Koda. The LP is a collection of their goodies on noted collector Erik Lindgren's Sounds Interesting label. In 1969 Koda formed Brownsville Station whose success peaked in 1974 with Smokin' In the Boys Room, a massive hit which sold over 2 million copies. He continued to write and release solo works as well as recording and performing in numerous bands and travelling Oldies road shows. He also wrote about music, via a monthly "Vinyl Junkie" column and as co-author of the 1998 book "Blues For Dummies". Highly regarded as a purveyor of blues and rockabilly styles, he was dubbed "America's Greatest Houserocker". On the 1st July 2000, at the age of 51, he died of complications arising from kidney dialysis.

Nightlife also got another airing on the Basement Wall compilation.

(Vernon Joynson/Kip Brown/Max Waller/Doug Sheppard)

The Del-vetts

TOP

Personnel:

- JIM LAUER ld vcls, ld gtr A B C
- LESTER GOLDBOSS gtr A
- BOB GOOD bs A C

- PAULWADE drms A B
- JEFF WEINSTEIN gtr B
- JACK BURCHALL bs B C
- ROGER DEATHERAGE drms, vcls C

45s:

1. Little Latin Lupe Lu/Ram Charger (Seeburg Jukebox 1018)1965
2. Last Time Around/Everytime (Dunwich 125) 1966
3. I Call My Baby STP/That's The Way It Is (PS) (Dunwich 142) 1966

Formed in Chicago back in 1964 playing Chuck Berry covers for kids in the well-to-do Highland Park Suburb of the city. They soon became a popular live attraction and cut a 45, produced by Bill Traut for Seeburg back in 1965 before signing to Traut's Dunwich label to record their magnum opus, Last Time Around. This was a superb 45 with some really rousing guitar work and great vocals. Indeed it sold very well locally and, for a while, the group all owned Corvettes. Last Time Around has since been featured on Mindrocker, Vol. 2, Mayhem And Psychosis, 2, Nuggets, Vol. 2 and Off The Wall, Vol. 1. Every Time also got an airing on Boulders, Vol. .7

The follow-up, I Call My Baby STP, became something of a hot rod anthem and is now very rare. Picture sleeve copies also included a free STP sticker!

Perhaps the best source for their finer moments is the recent Dunwich Records Story compilation which features three tracks by the band:- Every Time, Last Time Around and That's The Way It Is. Both sides of their Dunwich singles have also resurfaced on Oh Yeah! The Best Of Dunwich Records.

When it didn't happen for The Del-vetts they changed their name to the Pride and Joy. Their bassist/singer, Jack Burchall, later played with Bloodrock (not the Texas one). He was later in The Jump 'n' The Saddle Band who had a U.S. hit with The Curly Shuffle. Jim Lauer is, reportedly, locked away in a mental institution.

You can also find Ram Charger - the flip to their first 45 on Pebbles, Vol. 4 (CD).

D e m i a n

TOP

Personnel:

- ROD PRINCE gtr, vcls A
- ROY COX bs, vcls A
- TODD POTTER gtr, vcls A
- DAVID FORE drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) DEMIAN (ABC 5718) 1971

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD by TRC (048) 1994.

45:

1. Face The World/Love People (ABC 11297) 1971

Formed from the ashes of Bubble Puppy (in which all four had previously played) and signed to ABC on the advice of Steppenwolf's Nick St Nicholas, they took their new name from the title of a Hermann Hesse novel and headed back to Houston after a spell in California. Face The World was the gem on an impressive hard rock album. Later in 1977 Prince and Potter played together in Sirius.

The Demons of Negativity

TOP

Personnel:

- URSULA DRABIK voice
- ARAM HELLER bs
- G. ANDREWMANESS gtr
- RIC HADDAD drms
- ERIC LINDGREN keyb'ds

An eighties combo whose classic slice of modern psychedelia, Ressurrection, which appeared originally on a 1988 Boston compilation called These Dogs Live In The Garage/The Arf Arf Sampler, Vol. 2, can now be heard on Beyond The Calico Wall, a compilation which Eric Lindgren actually compiled! Modelled on Dave Diamond's sixties acid trip narrative, The Diamond Mine, this nugget is every bit as good. Recommended listening.

The Denims

TOP

45s:

1. The Adler Sock/The Adler Sock (ADl) 1965
2. Ya Ya/I'm Your Man (Columbia 4-43312) 1966
3. Sad Girl/Everybody Let's Dance (Columbia 4-43367) 1965
4. Salty Dog/Salty Dog Man (Cavort 122333) 1966
5. The Ghost In Your House Is Me/I Do Love You Baby (Mercury 72572) 1966
6. White Ship/Salty Dog Man (Mercury 72613) Oct. 1967

This outfit came from New York City. Their vinyl debut extolled the virtues of Adler Socks!. I'm Your Man, was a high energy punker with an effective drum beat and some fine guitar runs. By the time of their final 45, White Ship, they were experimenting with LSD:-

'Let me take you on a trip,
A voyage upon a pure white ship,
Of pretty maids, set the costs
Informed me that the ship was boss,
When the waves destroyed the sea
The ship went down with all our sanity
Ride baby ride - so deep in my mind
Ride baby ride - leave reality behind
Oh No!'
(from White Ship)

The liner notes to A Fistful Of Fuzz state that, contrary to previous belief Adrian Belew was not in this band, but rather a similarly named group from Kentucky. Belew became a renowned guitar player in the '70s and went on to play with King Crimson (Discipline) and Frank Zappa (Sheik Yerbouti) as well as releasing several solo albums.

Salty Dog was apparently another advert record promoting some new denim brand.

Compilation appearances have included:- White Ship on Pebbles, Vol. 7, 60s Punk Ep Vol.1 Boulder Punk EP Box; and A Fistful Of Fuzz; Salty Dog Man on Fuzz, Flaykes and Shakes Vol. 2; I'm Your Man on The Essential Pebbles Collection Vol.2; The Adler Sock on Highs ln The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 9; I'm Your Man on Mindrocker, Vol. 7 and Psychedelic Patchwork, Vol. 1

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley / Stephane Rebeschini)

Denise & Co

A really obscure girl garage group about whom nothing is known. They have Take Me As l Am, an R&B influenced punker with cool lyrics, included on Girls From The Garage, Vol. 1.

Denis and The Times

Personnel:

PARIS AIKEN	drms	A
DEAN BURLAGE	gtr	A
DENIS BURLAGE	vcls	A
GUY BURLAGE	ld gtr	A
SKIP WATTS	bs	A

45:

1	Flight Patterns/Just If She's There	(Trend 1036)	1967
2	Whenever You Want Me/Denis Dupree From Danville	(Trend 1051)	1969

Denis and The Times were formed by the three Burlage brothers and two friends in Norfolk, Virginia. With promotional help from their father they released their debut 45 in the fall of 1967 - and Dad should've been proud, cos his boys produced a classic that's revered to this day.

From the opening ringing chords to the final flourish of spacey effects, Flight Patterns is a wondrous piece of 8 Miles High-inspired psychedelic folk-rock complete with freakout guitar break. Good enough indeed to have graced The Byrds' Younger Than Yesterday or Fifth Dimension platters. Compilers seem to agree - you'll find it on 30 Seconds Before The Calico Wall (CD), Sixties Rebellion Vol. 9 and Aliens, Psychos And Wild Things (CD). The flip ain't half bad either - check it out on Ear-Piercing Punk (CD) and Killer Cuts.

Their second 45 was released in the spring of '69. Whenever... is a heavy pop ballad with strident vocals and punctuated by fuzz attacks. The flip is a faithful cover of the Cryan' Shames (on their Scratch In The Sky album) - but with a harder edge and burnin' guitar.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Brent Hosier/Dr.Simon Trent D.S.U.)

Dennis The Fox

ALBUM:

1 MOTHERTRUCKER (Private Pressing) 1975

A rare private pressing, with Like A Stone Man and the title track.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Depot Rains

Personnel incl:

- DENNY FRY vcls
- NICK HADCLIFF drms
- LENNY SLOAT gtr

From Muscatine, Iowa, this folk-rock outfit emerged out of two of the town's early garage bands:- The Rogues and The Coachmen. The Dirty Water compilation features two of the fruits of a 1968 recording session at RCA's studio in Chicago:- 7-1 1 Hour (Whiskey Hollow), a Denny Fry folk-rocker and l Am Lost, another folk number written by Lenny Sloat with Lenny performing on vocals.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Derby-Hatville to Dialogue

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Derby-Hatville
- The Descendants
- Destiny's Children
- Destiny's Children
- Detroit
- Detroit Riots
- Deuces Wild
- Deviled Ham
- Devilles
- The Devilles
- Devils
- Devil's Anvil
- Devil's Brigade
- Dialogue

Derby-Hatville

45s:

1. Turn Into Earth/You'll Forget Me (Sea-Ell 102) 1967
2. Scorched Sand/Instant Replay (Sea-Ell 104) 1968

Hailed from Lubbock in West Texas and made nil impression. Their different treatment of The Yardbirds' Turn Into Earth can be found on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 12, Texas, Part Two, whilst The History of Texas Garage Bands Vol.1 double-CD (Collectables COL-8819) features four 1967 tracks - You'll Forget Me, Instant Replay, Scorched Sand and the unreleased This Girl (an early version of Instant Replay). (Max Waller)

The Descendants

45:

1. Lela/Garden Of Eden (MTA 112) 1966

This was the work of a mid-sixties San Francisco-based outfit. You'll find the 'A' side on Pebbles, Vol. 7 and on Sounds Of The Sixties: San Francisco, Part 1. It's a harmonious punker, with a Bo Diddley shuffle beat - instantly catchy.

Destiny's Children

45:

1. Your First Time/The Fall Of The Queen (Ventural 730) c1966

A Houston, Texas outfit. The flip to their sole 45, The Fall Of The Queen, has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2.

Destiny's Children

Personnel:

MARK COURTER	drms	A

45:

1	For Me/The Collectors	(Pyro 52)	1966

From Phoenix, Arizona, both sides of this 45 contain excellent punk, and have re-appeared on The Garage Zone, Vol. 1.

Detroit

Personnel:

JOHN "THE BEE" BADANJEK	drms, vcls	A
W.R. COOKE	bs, vcls	A
DIRTY ED	congas, tambourine	A
STEVE "DECATOR GATOR" HUNTER	ld gtr	A
HARRY PHILLIPS	keyb'ds	A
MITCH RYDER	ld vcls	A
BRETT TUGGLE	gtr	A
(BOOT HILL	keyb'ds, hrmnca	A)
(MARK MANKO	gtr	A)
(JOHN SAUTER	bs	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	DETROIT	(Paramount PAS 6010)	1971

Produced by Bob Ezrin and recorded in Toronto, Detroit was a fine example of the "High Energy" bands coming out of Michigan, like MC5, the Stooges or Frost. Formed by Mitch Ryder and his stalwart drummer John Badanjek, with Phillips and Cook (both ex Catfish), Steve Hunter and Dirty Ed, their music was a powerful mix of hard rock and Rhythm and Blues. Their material ranged from original cuts penned by Ryder and Badanjek, to covers of Let It Rock, Lou Reed's Rock 'n' Roll and Wilson Pickett's I Found A Love. Erzin and Steve Hunter would later work with Lou Reed and Alice Cooper.

You can also find Rock 'n' Roll on Michigan Rocks Vol. 1.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Detroit Riots

45:

1. Pebble Stone/A Fast Way To Die (Dearborn D-582) 1967/8

Minor league garage from a label named after the Southwest surburb of Detroit which had an active garage scene, highlighted by Cicadelic's Psychedelic Sixties, Vol. 3 which compiles the area's other garage label Wheels 4. (M.W.)

Deuces Wild

45:

1. Hey Little One/Come Easy Go (Deuce 101/2) 1966

Both sides of the Amarillo outfit's psychedelic 45 can be found on Texas Punk, 1966, Vol. 10. The 'A' side was a haunting song and the flip made interesting use of reverb and echo. The Deuces Wild on Faro and Vault were a different outfit from California.

Deviled Ham

ALBUM:

1. I HAD TOO MUCH TO DREAM LAST NIGHT (Super K 6003) 1968

The album, produced by Big Al Pavlow, contains many cover versions, including Come On In and Alligator Wlne (which is awful), as well as a medley comprising the title track (given slower and tedious treatment compared to the original) and Rosemary's Baby. They were previously known as The Ascots, from Rhode Island, who had issued four soulish 45s on the local Super label.

Generally the album is best avoided.

Devilles

Personnel incl:

- WAYNE GUST ld gtr
- ?? HILL bs
- J.H. "SKIP" PRATT, Jr. vcls
- GARY TOBIN drms

45:

1. Searching For Love/Mary Lou (Jerden 107) 1961

From Vancouver, Washington, except for Gary Tobin, who hailed from Seattle, this act were previously known as Skip & The Flames. The 'A' side to their sole 45 later resurfaced on The History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 7.

(Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero)

The Devilles

45s:

1. You've Made Up My Mind/Baby Blue (Kerry 1109) 1 966
2. Ma Ma's Baby/Denise (Kerry 1110) 1966
3. Cry Baby/High Blood Pressure (Studio City 1045) 1966

A teen rather than garage band from Duluth, Minnesota. All three discs are reputedly good and now quite sought-after, You'll find You've Made Up My Mind on Root 66, Vol. 1 and Ma Ma's Baby has resurfaced on Hipsville, Vol. 3. The band later became Second Thought and recorded three 45s on the Gloria label.

Devils

See the Bentleys entry.

Devil's Anvil

Personnel:

- ELIEZER ADORAM accordion A
- JERRY SAPPIR ld gtr, vcls A
- KAREEM ISSAY oud, vcls A

- STEVE KNIGHT gtr, bs, bouzouki A
- (FELIX PAPPALARDI bs, gtr, tamboura, perc, vcls A)
- (BOBBY GREGG drms A)
- (HERB LOVELLE drms A)
- (MIKE MOGEL durbeki A)

ALBUM:

1. (A) HARD ROCK FROM THE MIDDLE EAST (Columbia CS 9464) 1967

NB: (1) reissued on CD together with the Freak Scene album. Also reissued on vinyl by Fantasia in 1999 (Shaitun DVA 1031).

45:

1. Karkadon / Hala Laya (PS) (Columbia 4-43817) 1966

This New York band were heavily influenced by Oriental and Greek music. Seven songs are sung in Arabic, two in Greek and one in Turkish. Misirlou is sung in English by Pappalardi. All of their songs were covers of traditional or popular numbers. Musically the album is in a similar vein to Orient Express, Kaleidoscope and John Berberian. Steve Knight and Felix Pappalardi went on to play for Mountain. Bobby Gregg played with Eric Anderson, John Cale and Bob Dylan among others.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Devil's Brigade

TOP

45:

1. Dreaming Is/Hey Mister Man (United Artists UA 50291) 1968

Harmonious orchestrated pop-psych with baroque touches. Might appeal to Left Banke fans. (Max Waller)

Dialogue

TOP

ALBUM:

1. DIALOGUE (No label) 1973 R3

NB: This was repressed in 1974 on Cold Studio. R2. The first pressing had no mention of Cold Studio anywhere. Both came with inserts.

This obscure psychedelic album, from Pennsylvania, is a significant collectors' item.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Dave Diamond and The Higher Elevation to Dirty Wurds

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Dave Diamond and The Higher Elevation
- Johnny Diamond and The Royal Five
- Dick Rabbit
- Dick Watson 5
- The Different Parts
- The Dimensions
- The Dimensions (Five)
- The Dinks
- Dino Desi and Billy
- Dirty Blues Band
- Dirty Filthy Mud
- Dirty John's Hot Dog Stand
- Dirty Martha
- Dirty Shames
- Dirty Shames
- Dirty Wurds

Dave Diamond and The Higher Elevation

TOP

45:

1	The Diamond Mine/Crazy Bicycle	(Chicory 408)	1967

Dave Diamond was a Los Angeles disc jockey and on this 45 he was backed by the Higher Elevation from Greeley, Colorado. Previously known as The Monocle's, Diamond Mine was actually a reworking of one of their earlier tracks The Spider And The Fly.

A classic 'weirdo' song, Diamond Mine has been featured on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 12 (CD), Pebbles, Vol. 3 and The Pebbles Box set.

In 1979, the track was also covered by The Wicked and their version can be heard on Arf Arf's Only in America CD.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

Johnny Diamond and The Royal Five

TOP

45:

1. Thanks A Lot Baby / Pretty Little Girl (Soft 981) 1966

From Fort Worth, Texas, they later evolved into The Bards.

Dick Rabbit

TOP

45:

1. Take Me To L.A./You Come On Like A Train (Deltron 895) 196?
2. Trip/Love (Great Lakes) 196?

A heavy rock three-piece from the Saginaw/Flint area of Michigan. They have two tracks on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 1. You Come On Like A Train is a hard rocker with some good guitar work. Take Me To L.A. isn't quite as heavy and has quite a commercial slant to it. Vol. 2 of the same series features two further cuts:- Love, which captures the band at their most psychedelic and demented, and the rather disappointing Trip. (Vernon Joynson/Kip Brown)

Dick Watson 5

TOP

ALBUMS:

1. BAKER STREET (United International 1001) 19??
2. THE WORLD OF DICK WATSON (United International) 196?

45s:

1. I'd Do It Again/A Married Man (United International UI 1014) 19??
2. I'll Make It Up Some Other Way/? (United Int'l) 1965/6

This band recorded a rare local New Jersey album. One track, Cold Clear World, has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 22.

The Different Parts

TOP

Personnel incl:

STEVE BROUSSARD	A
RON VICE	A

45:

1	Why / I	(AMS AMS-001)	Feb 1967

An Abbeville, Louisiana aggregation whose sole 45 was released on manager Allen Schriefer's vanity label. Why is five-star moody folk-punk with a sinuous blending of jangle and fuzz; I is a lightweight beat ballad. Both sides reappeared on Follow That Munster, Why has resurfaced on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Max Waller/Roger Maglio)

The Dimensions

TOP

Personnel:

- BARRE PROBST ld gtr, vcls A
- STEVE PURNELL gtr, keyb'ds A
- JACK BRUNSFIELD drms A
- JIM SEBASTIAN vcls A
- TOM? bs A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) FROM ALL DIMENSIONS (No label 1666) 1966

NB: (1) bootlegged by Eva (12018) 198?.

From Park Ridge, Illinios. The album is a classic of the 'prep-rock' garage genre, rather like the Rising Storm album, only this supposedly had a pressing of just 100 making it a mega-buck rarity. The Eva reissue has an extra track and costs a lot less! (Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Dimensions (Five)

TOP

Personnel:

- LEE DARK ld vcls
- CLYDE HEATON keyb'ds
- BILL HOAK drms
- JOE VILLA gtr
- RON VILLA bs

45s:

1. She's Boss/Penny (Panorama 25) 1966
2. She's Boss/Penny (HBR 477) 1966
3. Baby What Do You Say/Knock You Flat (Panorama 41) 1966

A garage outfit from the Rainier Beach area of South Seattle, whose finest moment, She's Boss was captured on Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 1 in 1966 and more recently on History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 2 in 1977. It's a stark garage punker which although a regional hit, deserved to do better.

Clyde Heaton later played with Calliope. (Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero)

The Dinks

TOP

45s:

1. Nina-Kocha-Nina/Penny A Tear Drop (Sully 914) 1965
2. Ugly Girl/Kocka-Mow-Mow (Sully 925) 1966

A mid-sixties garage band from West Texas. Nina-Kocha-Nina can be found on Boulders, Vol. 6. The flip, a folk-rocker, is to be heard on Texas Punk: 1966, Vol. 9 (Cicadelic 971) 1987. Kocka-Mow-Mow is featured on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. IV and like Nina-Kocha-Nina is more frat-rock / 'trash' than garage with slightly demented nonsensical lyrics. This odd bunch originally hailed from Beloit in Kansas.

Dino, Desi and Billy

TOP

Personnel:

- DINO MARTIN A
- DEZI ARNAZ JR. A
- BILL HINSCHE A

ALBUMS:
(selective)

1. I'M A FOOL (Reprise R(S)-6176) 1965
2. OUR TIMES ARE COMING (Reprise R(S)-6194) 1966
3. MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS (Reprise R(S)-6198) 1966
4. SOUVENIR (Reprise R(S)-6224) 1966

There's also an album called The Rebel Kind! The Best Of (Sundazed SC 11034) 1996 which was issued on CD only. It contains 20 tracks (all their single 'A' sides plus many non-album sides).

Dirty Blues Band

TOP

Personnel incl:

ROD GINGERMAN PIAZZA	vcls, hrmnca	A B
PAT MALONEY	keyb'ds	A B

ALBUMS:

1	DIRTY BLUES BAND	(ABC Bluesway BLS 6010)	1967
2	STONE DIRT	(ABC Bluesway BLS 6020)	1968

NB: (1) and (2) also issued in the U.K. by Stateside.

A white blues band with an harmonica, a swirling organ and two guitars. Rod Piazza would later form Bacon Fat.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dirty Filthy Mud

TOP

EP:

1. DIRTY FILTHY MUD (PS) (Worex 2340) 196?

45:

1. The Forest Of Black/Morning Sunflower (Worex 2340) 1968

From Oakland, California, this band has an amazin' track on the Endless Journey, Vol. 3 compilation entitled The Forest Of Black which was originally issued on the above 45, It opens with a haunting psychedelic haze and is literally endowed with weird sound effects. The EP release has not been verified.

'I'm goin'to the sea shore to wash my brain
I'm goin'to the sea shore to wash my brain
I'll never come back here the same now
I'll never come back here the same now
What do I see in the sea
What do I see in the sea
There's me looking inside of me.
There's me looking inside of me.
(from The Forest of Black)

Dirty John's Hot Dog Stand

TOP

Personnel:

P.J. COLT	A
CAREY MANN JR	A
STANLEY MELILLO	A
A. MERCURIE	A
KENNY PAULSON	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	RETURN FROM THE DEAD	(Amsterdam 12004)	1970

45:

1	Hard Driving Man/Growing Old	(Amsterdam AM 85014)	1970

Produced by Charlie Dreyer and Bobby Hern, this quintet released their only album in 1970. Carey Mann and

P.J.Colt wrote four of the nine tracks (Hard Driving Man, Growing Old, Living In A Cloud, River). Some excellent tracks, especially Growing Old which contains, slowly rotating, grinding fuzz-filled psych, with an ethereal trumpet and a heart-felt solo guitar. A cover of Irving Berlin's Blue Skies (7'10" of guitar and thunder noises) has its moments, but alas there's also some very regrettable soul-blues crossover with horns (Hard Driving Man). The album comes in a great gatefold cover with a hearse, mushrooms and a forest made of musicians' heads.

According to Aram Heller's New England bible, 'Til The Stroke Of Dawn, they came from the New England area.

(Marcel Koopman / Aram Heller / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Dirty Martha

TOP

45:

1	She's Not There/Why Can't I	(Castle 110)	196?

Recorded at MSI Studios in Camden in the late '60s - She's Not There is the Zombies song with some overwrought male vocals, the flip by Murray Goodman and Terry Wade is a laid-back lounge-ballad with piano, and brassy crescendos. Just a coincidence? or is there some connection between this group and another New Jersey bunch called Victoria, given that the latter's music was published in 1971 by Dirty Martha Music Co.? (Max Waller)

Dirty Shames

TOP

Personnel incl:

BOB LARSEN?	A
MARTY WONS?	A

45:

1	I Don't Care/Makin' Love	(Impression 112)	Sep 1966

Los Angeles area punkers whose one excellent 45 has been well compiled. I Don't Care is on Moxie's 60's Punk Ep Vol.1 (later repackaged as the Boulders Punk EP Box), Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 2, Pebbles Vol. 8 CD and Teenage Shutdown Vol.14:('Howlin' For My Darling'). Makin' Love made it onto Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 4 and Vile Vinyl Vol. 1 - and a version by the Sloths (from their sole 45, also on Impression) is on Back From The Grave Vol. 4.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Dirty Shames

TOP

45s:

1	Coconut Grove/Walk Away	(Philips 40436)	1967
2	Blow Your Mind/Would You Like To Take A Ride	(Philips 40474)	1967

Two lads and a lass from Montana who delivered two platters of breezy harmony-pop and folk-rock. Blow Your Mind has reappeared on I'm Trippin' Alone. Coconut Grove was a cover of a Lovin' Spoonful song.

(Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

Dirty Wurds

45s:

1. Why/Takin'My Blues Away (Marina 502) 1965
2. Born In Chicago/Midnight Hour (Chess 1983) 1967
3. Not This One / Mellow Down Easy (PS) (Caped Crusader CC-76) 1996

This band operated from Chicago. Their screetching punk single Why can be found on Pebbles, Vol. 5 and Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1. In 1996 Mark Prellberg's Caped Crusader label released a 45 of unreleased nuggets from 1966. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Disciple to Dick Dodd

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Disciple
- The Disciples
- The Disciples of Shaftesbury
- Disraeli
- Distant Cousins
- The Distant Sounds
- Distortions
- DMZ
- The Do's and The Don'ts
- Doctor Feelgood
- Dr. John, The Night Tripper
- Dr Spec's Optical Illusion
- Dr. T. and The Undertakers
- Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band
- Dick Dodd

Disciple

TOP

ALBUM:

1	COME AND SEE US AS WE ARE	(Avco Embassy AVE 330??)	1970

An obscure psych rock group, nothing is known about them.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Disciples

TOP

45:

1. It's Over/Respect (Feature Records SS-9427) 196?

This killer punk 45 was recorded in Minneapolis, but the band came from Norman on the Southern perimeters of Oklahoma City.

The Disciples of Shaftesbury

45:

1. My Cup Is Full/Times Gone By (Int. Artists 109) 1966

Essentially a pop outfit from Houston, Texas judging by Times Gone By which can now be heard on The International Artists Singles Collection. Nonetheless, the 45 is one of the more sought- after on the label.

Disraeli

Personnel:

AL	vcls	A
MATHE MATHRE	vcls	A
TOM STANGLAND	ld gtr	A
ROGER		A
STEVE		A
GENO		A

45s:

1. What Will The New Day Bring/Spinnin' Round (PS) (Mantra 113) Jul. 1968
2. Say You Love Me/I've Seen Her One Time (PS) (Mantra 114) Jan. 1969
3. The Lonely One/You Can't Do That (Mantra 115) 1969
4. Tomorrow's Day/Humidity (Mantra #?) 196?

From Astoria, Oregon. Their first 45 kicks off with a wistful folk-rocker backed by a more up-tempo soft-rocker. Their other 45s remain elusive but based on this one, worth searching out. (Max Waller)

Distant Cousins

Personnel:

- LARRY BROWN
- RAYMOND BLOODWORTH

45s:

1. Let It Ring/To Have And To Hold (Dynovox 203) 1965
2. Slipper Your Mind/Empty House (Dynovoice 208) 1965
3. Gently Goodbye/No More You (PS) (Date 1501) 1966
4. Here Today, Gone Tomorrow/She Ain't Lovin' You (Date 1514) 1966
5. Stop Runnin' Round Baby/ Take This Woman Will You (Date 1542) 1966
6. Empty House/Mr. Sebastian (Write Me A Song) (Date 1560) 1967

The Big Apple's answer to Peter & Gordon? This New York duo's 45s should appeal to fans of crisp'n'classy beat, pop and folk-rock with a garagey edge. They wrote (and co-wrote, mainly with N. Nader or producer Bob Crewe) nearly all of their material. If their names seem familiar, it's because their songwriting talents were appreciated by others, including: - Richard & The Young Lions - the classic Open Up Yer Door, You Can Make It, Nasty, Lost And Found and a cover of Distant Cousins' To Have And To Hold and Missing Links - Behind Locked Doors and You Don't Love Me Anymore.

She Ain't Lovin' You, which was a big hit in Ohio, is on Boulders Vol. 10. Let It Ring - a vibrant Beatlesque raver - also adorns Psychotic Reactions. (Max Waller,George Gell)

The Distant Sounds

TOP

45:

1. It Reminds Me/Dreamin' (Citation 17371/2) 1966

Cool swingin' garage-beat from Worcester, Massachusetts. The flip is a slow guitar instrumental in the Shadows' mould. (Max Waller)

Distortions

TOP

45s:

1. Hound Dog / Can You Tell (Sea 100) 196?
2. Take This Ring / You Know I'm On My Way (Sea 101) 196?
3. Smokestack Lightning / Hot Cha (Sea 102) 196?
4. I Ain't Gonna Eat Out My Heart Anymore /Thank ... (Malcolm Z.Dirge 45000) 196?
5. Smokestack Lightning / Behind My Wall (Malcolm Z.Dirge 45002) 1966
6. A Love That Loves You / Behind My Wall (Smash S-2068) 1966
7. I Don't Really Like You / I Found A Girl (Casino 501) June 1967
8. Let's Spend Some Time Together / Gimme Some Lovin' (Malcolm Z.Dirge 45008) 1968

NB: (8) also released on Capitol (2223) 1968.

From the Southern shores of Louisiana. Embracing beat, folk-rock and garage styles but with a strong soul/R&B flavour, they're generally labelled as 'soul-garage', if that's your bag. But don't write them off if it isn't - the Casino 45 is a fine example of low-key garage-ballads. I Don't Really Like You in particular is in a muted Searchers/Beau Brummels folk-rocker style and is a cover of Baton Rouge's Canebreak (aka Canebreak Singers) who would later be known as Love-Michael, with one 45 on Columbia.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

DMZ

45:

1. Somewhere In Between/Somewhere In Between - Part 2 (MTA 135) 1967

Echoey harmony-pop with baroque flourishes, effects and some orchestration. The flip is an instrumental take and would be ideal as a soundtrack for one of those 'swinging sixties' movies. (Max Waller)

The Do's and The Don'ts

45s:

1	I Wonder If She Loves Me / Our Love May Not Live Again	(Red Bird 10-072)	1966
2	Be Sure / Still Remember The Past	(Zorch 103)	196?
3	Cherry Lane / Girl In The Corner	(Zorch 104)	1967
4	The Scrogg / Loving You The Way I Do	(Zorch 105)	196?
5	Woman / No One To Talk My Troubles To	(Zorch 106)	196?
6	Let The Sun Shine Free / She's Walking Out Of Life	(Zorch 107)	196?
7	Hot Rock & Roll To Go / Being With You Girl	(Zorch 108)	196?

This clean-cut act from Ely, just south of Cedar Rapids in Eastern Iowa, later became Rog and The Escorts.

Doctor Feelgood

ALBUM:

1	SOMETHING TO TAKE UP TIME	(Number One)	1971 SC

A bluesy underground rock outfit, unrelated to the more well-known UK bunch, but presumably named after the same R&B standard. The album with a flute played in the early Jethro Tull style, contains originals with track titles like Nasal Greens And Toe Jam, The Roach Did It and Smoke Dream.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dr. John, The Night Tripper

Personnel incl:

DIDIMUS	perc	A B C D
RONNY BARRON	keyb'ds	A
HAROLD BATTISTE	bs	A B
BUDDY BOLDEN	flute	A

JOHN BOUDREAUX	drms	A
DAVE "GONCY O'LEARY" DIXON	perc	A B
SHIRLEY GOODMAN	vcls	A B
JESSIE HILL	vcls, perc	A B
DR JOHN	vcls, gtr, keyb'ds	A B C D
PLAS JOHNSON	sax	A
JOANIE JONES	vcls	A B
TAMI LYNN	vcls	A B
STEVE MANN	gtr	A
ERNEST MC LEAN	gtr, mandolin	A
BOB WEST	bs	A
AL FRAZIER	bs	B
CHARLIE MADUELL	sax	B
JOHN McALLISTER	tablas, keyb'ds, transceleste	B
ALVIN ROBINSON	gtr, vcls	B C
RAY DRAPER		D

ALBUMS:
(up to 1971)

1(A)	GRIS-GRIS	(Atco SD-33324)	1967
2(B)	BABYLON	(Atco SD-33270)	1968
3(C)	REMEDIES	(Atco SD-33316)	1969
4(D)	THE SUN, MOON AND HERBS	(Atco SD-33362)	1971

NB: (1) to (4) also released in the U.K. by Atlantic. Also reissued on CD by Atco.

Malcolm "Mac" Rebennack, also known as Dr. John, Mac Rabinac or Dr. John Creaux, is an extraordinary singer, guitar player, pianist, producer and songwriter who took a very active part in the Hollywood scene between 1965 and 1972.

Born in New Orleans in 1940, Mac Rebennack began playing professionally in the Crescent City Studios in 1954, when he was only 14 and his first album was released in 1957. Working with Specialty and Ace Records, he started songwriting and producing for local singers and in 1960 he was already President and A&R man of Ric & Ron Records, a local label. After a long stay at the Fort Worth federal prison in 1964 due to a drug bust, Mac Rebennack had to leave New Orleans for Los Angeles where he teamed up with exiled New Orleans musicians: Harold Battiste, Earl Palmer, Red Tyler, Melvin Lastie and Plas Johnson, who were at the time in demand as studio musicians.

Battiste (who was Sonny & Cher's musical director) introduced Rebennack to both Sonny Bono and Phil Spector as a keyboard and guitar player. After a while, he began playing piano for the Mothers of Invention but had to leave as Zappa refused to work with musicians who used drugs. (Rebennack later explained that he began taking narcotics of all kinds since he was 12 and only got 'clean' in the '80s. His career was subsequently marred by drug busts, debts, bad contracts, problem with managers etc.) He was also very active in the Los Angeles studios, playing keyboards and/or guitar, often uncredited, on recordings by Oxford Circle, Iron Butterfly, Buffalo Springfield, Hourglass, Future, John Sebastian, Sonny & Cher and dozens of other rock, psych, soul, blues and pop acts. He also was a producer for Mercury Records and their short-lived Pulsar subsidiary (where he worked with Wayne Talbert and produced two Graham Bond albums among many others).

In 1967, he thought up the concept of forming a musical group around the personality of Dr. John, a 19th century New Orleans root doctor and, through Harold Battiste (together with his Sonny & Cher job), managed to cut a few tunes on "free" studio time at the Gold Star Studios. Ahmet Ertegun was at first very surprised to be asked to release an album that had been recorded "on the sly" but finally agreed to release it on Atco. The album, Gris-Gris, fell right into the "hippie" groove of the time and soon became a kind of underground hit, being supported by the free form radio stations and receiving good reviews. It's quite easy to understand why when reading the lyrics of Gris Gris Gumbo Ya Ya:

> They call me Dr. John
> Known as the Night Tripper
> Got my satchel of gris gris in my hand
> Tripping up, back down the bayou
> I'm the last of the best
> I'm known as a gris-gris man
> Got many clients come from miles around
> Running down my prescriptions
> Got medecine cure all y'all's ills
> Got remedies of every description

Other tracks include Walk On Gilded Splinters and Croker Courtbullion whilst the music can best be described as "voodoo rock". The Dr. John live shows were also totally unusual for the Californian scene, Rebennack and his group using the old minstrel shows and New Orleans carnival outfits:- smoke, feathered clothes, snakes, make-up, candles, limbo sticks and burning incense. Rebennack and his group also began hanging out with Emmett Grogan's Diggers, the local Hell's Angels and were often in trouble with all sorts of authorities.

In 1968, Atlantic asked them to do a second album. Rebennack and Battiste wrote songs about the end of the world, using unusual rhythms and named it Babylon. The title track had these lyrics, just before the sound of an atomic explosion :

> No politicians, no high religions to guide you from the dark
> No more love-ins, no more human be-in's will light up Griffith Park

A true psych gem, Babylon is a strange album, with the croaking voice of Dr. John mixed with lots of percussion, guitars and female vocals. The final track, The Lonesome Guitar Strangler is about a character "smoking psychedelic guitar picks and strangling guitar players", every day he gets one more and the lyrics cite Gabor Szabo, Jimi Hendrix, Wes Montgomery and Ravi Shankar, with a short example of their style every time. Scary!

After that, Rebennack got busted once more, this time in St Louis, Missouri, and had to spend time in the UCLA Neuropsychiatric Center for a detox attempt. He finally escaped from there and went to Miami. In the meantime, the third Dr. John album, Remedies, had come out and was in fact "finished" by Dr. John's new managers, Brian Stone and Charlie Greene (who also worked with Buffalo Springfield, Iron Butterfly and Sonny & Cher). The side long Angola was about the Louisiana prison farm although the critics thought it was about the African country.

The group then went to Europe for a long and chaotic tour, with many drug and visa problems. Rebennack wanted to record a triple concept album: The Sun, Moon and Herbs and recorded it in London, with many guests including Mick Jagger, Eric Clapton and his Dominoes, Doris Troy, Graham Bond, Ray Draper and Chris Mercer. During the sessions, Stone and Greene tried unsuccessfully to sign Dr. John to the Blue Thumb label and somehow most of the original tapes were lost. Rebennack then signed a new management contract with Albert Grossman and finally a single album was rescued from the project and released on Atco. Housed in a superb gatefold sleeve, the result is not surprisingly, not very convincing although it still has its moments.

After this album, Mac Rebennack and his singers worked with the Rolling Stones on Exile On Main Street and with The Band. He later returned to New Orleans and his following albums are out of the scope of this book (although many of them are excellent). Deeply involved with the New Orleans beliefs, Rebennack even fronted the 'Dr. John's Temple Of Voodoo', a local "church" in the early '70s.

His songs have often been covered including:- United States Of Mind by Great Jones, Walk On Gilded Splinters by both Humble Pie and Marsha Hunt, Headin Closer To Home by Great Bear and Glowin' by several different groups.

For further readinging, check out "Under A Hoodoo Moon, The Life Of The Night Tripper", his very sincere memories published in 1994.

Dr. John is still recording and touring extensively.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dr Spec's Optical Illusion

TOP

Personnel:

- KRIS SHERMAN rythym gtr,vcls
- SCOTT SHERMAN drms,vcls
- MARSHALL CLYBURN ld gtr
- RICK STELMA keyb'ds
- BRYCE "PINKY" HATCHETT bs

45:

1. Tryin' To Mess My Mind / She's The One (Flambeau 103) 1967

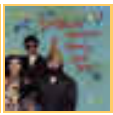
Thanks to Andrew Brown's "Brown Paper Sack #1" for the line-up and informing us that this New Orleans band were originally known as the Illusions and would later be known as Flavor from 1969 through to about 1973. Their Dr.Spec's 45 can be heard on Louisiana Punk Groups From The Sixties Vol. 1. Both sides are hard edged punk veering towards psychedelia with confident vocals and lots of organ. (Andrew Brown / Max Waller)

Dr. T. and The Undertakers

TOP

Personnel:

TONY ASCI	ld vcls, keyb'ds	A
BOB BARBARA	gtr	A
BOBBY JABO	ld gtr	A
JERRY JOHNSON	drms, vcls	A
BOB USHERSON	bs	A



45s:

1(A)	Times Have Changed / Deceased	(Epitaph 1001)	Jan 1966
2(A)	Blue Blue Feeling /Undertaker's Theme	(Target 101)	Aug 1966
3(A)	It's Easy Child / Times Have Changed	(Target 4610)	Apr 1967

From the Miami area, this band featured Bobby Jabo, who went on to The Kollektion and Katmandu. The Undertaker's Theme, a cool'n'cheesy club-a-go-go instrumental, is re-aired on Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD). It was previously released on their debut 45 as Deceased, also compiled on The Boss Instrumentals EP.

(Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich)

Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band

TOP

Personnel:

JACK CARRINGTON	junk instruments	A
EVAN ENGBER		A
NORMAN GREENBAUM	vcls	A
BONNIE ZEE WALLACH		A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE EGGPLANT THAT ATE CHICAGO	(Go Go 22-17-002)	1967
2(A)	NORMAN GREENBAUM	(Gregar GG-101)	1970

NB: (2) is a repackaging of (1) with two single tracks ("Gondoliers" and "Daddy-I-Know") but without "The Eggplant" and "Nora". (1) was also released in the U.K. (Page One POLS 017) in 1969. There's also an excellent CD retrospective, Euphoria!! The Best Of (Sundazed SC 11070) 1998, which contains twenty-five tracks including many previously unreleased cuts.

45s:
(US Releases)

1	The Eggplant That Ate Chicago / You Can't Fight City Hall Blues	(Go Go 00100)	1966
2	Gondoliers, Shakespeares, Overseers, Playboys And Bums / Daddy I Know	(Go Go 00102)	1967
3	You Can Fly / The Circus Left Town Today	(Go Go 00104)	1967
4	Bullets La Verne / Jigsaw	(Gregar 00106)	1968

NB: (1) flip is non LP. (2) also on Gregar LP. (3) and (4) non LP. (4) as by Dr.West's Medicine Band.

45s:
(UK Releases)

1	Gondoliers, Shakespeares, Overseers, Playboys And Bums/Daddy I Know	(CBS 202658)	1967
2	The Eggplant That Ate Chicago/You Can't Fight City Hall Blues	(CBS 202492)	1967
3	Bullets La Verne/Jigsaw	(Page One POF 061)	196?

This band had a minor hit with one of the all-time greatest novelty songs, The Eggplant That Ate Chicago, in 1967. Their album, produced by Tony Marer, was released by a small Californian company, Go-Go Record and distributed by Epic.

Anyone wishing to check their blend of Spike Jones and Bonzo Dog Band should look out for Sundazed's CD retrospective Euphoria! The Best Of..., which contains 25 tracks including all their 45s and plenty of unreleased cuts... completely zany, off the wall, deliciously goofy stuff!!

Singer Norman Greenbaum hit the big time with Spirit In The Sky in 1970. He came from Boston originally.

Jigsaw has also resurfaced on Exploding Plastic Inevitable and you can also hear a radio commercial as the bonus track on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 3 (CD).

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebschini)

Dick Dodd

ALBUM:

1. FIRST EVOLUTION OF DICK DODD (Tower ST-5142) 1968

45s:

1. Little Star/Lonely \Neekends (Tower 447) 1968
2. Fanny/Don't Be Ashamed To Call My Name (Tower 490) 1969
3. Guifty/Requiem: 820 (Attarack 102) c1969

These solo efforts by The Standells' drummer may interest readers. The album is now a minor collectable.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Dogs to Donnybrooks

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Dogs
- Dogwood
- Denny Doherty
- Dolphin
- Domestic Help
- The Dominions
- The Dominos
- Don and Jerry with The Fugitives
- Don and The Agitators
- Don and The Goodtimes
- Donnybrook
- Donnybrookes

The Dogs

TOP

45:

1. Don't Try To Help Me/Soul Step (Treasure 007) c1967

An Obscure Philadelphia Outfit who have a cut, Don't Try To Help Me on Return Of The Young Pennsylvanians, Tougher Than Stains and Back From The Grave, Vol. 8. It's a typical garage-punker which has a very catchy guitar riff.

(Max Waller)

Dogwood

TOP

ALBUM:

1	AFTER THE FLOOD	(Private Pressing)	c1974 R2

A rare Christian folk trio with female vocals.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Denny Doherty

ALBUM:

1	WHATCHA GONNA DO	(Dunhill DS-50096)	1971

Produced by Bill Szymczyk, this solo album by the former Mamas and Papas member, backed by Barry McGuire, Eric Hord, Brian Garofalo, Russ Kunkel and Buddy Emmons. It has yet to attract much attention.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dolphin

Personnel:

- BOB BERBERICH drms A B
- GEORGE DALY gtr A B
- PAUL DOWELL bs,vcls A
- NILS LOFGREN gtr A B

45s:

1. (A) Let's Get Together / Grubb's Blues (Phoenix PH 3) 1968
2. (A) It's Better To Know You / The last Time I Saw You (Sire 45-SI-4107) 1969

NB: (2) released as Paul Dowell and The Dolphin.

On the demise of The Hangmen, Dowell Daly and Berberich approached a young and talented guitarist called Nils Lofgren. Nils was with the Crystal Mesh, who'd recorded some demos in NYC with Richard Gottehrer (Strangeloves) producing - Gottehrer would produce both Dolphin 45s too. After the second 45 Dowell split to California and the remaining trio (line-up B) became the first incarnation of Grin. They'd take the trail to L.A. themselves and the rest, as they say, is history.

Their first 45 on the short-lived Sire subsidiary (also responsible for a 45 and album by David Santo) features a heavyish version of the hippie anthem and a decent bluesy (first?) Lofgren original, credited to "Nils Lothgrin". He wrote both sides of the more commercial orchestrated pop-rock follow-up. Neither are outstanding but will be of great interest to his loyal legion of fans.

(Max Waller)

Domestic Help

45s:

1. A Woman Owns The Biggest Part Of Man/The Bad Seed (Acta 805) 1965

2. You're The Potter / Try To Forgive Them (Acta 814) 1967

This group's origins remain a mystery, though L.A. is a good bet. The first 45 features a decent folk-rocker backed by a mid-tempo garage lament with disturbing lyrics and both cuts feature excellent guitar work. The second 45 is melodramatic orchestrated pop with the odd burst of unwelcome brass -a disappointment after their first release. (Max Waller)

The Dominions

45:

1	Spanish Harlem/I Need Her	(Graves 1091)	1966

A mid-sixties punk outfit. The label was based in Eugene, Oregon and the band were made up of college students at the local University of Oregon. The flip, a pretty strong punker, has since resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 16.

(Max Waller/George Gell)

The Dominos

45:

1. Where Comes The Dawn / A Matter Of Fact (Kleo 171) 196?

This outfit is though to be from Wisconsin, though there is also a Chicago area bunch with a 45 on Cha Cha and an unknown instrumental group with a 45 on Domino to confuse matters further. A Matter Of Fact is decidedly weird. It steals a riff from Purple Haze and at times disintegrates into a sort of haze of confusion. Interesting. To make matters more confusing, the same recording was released as Dooley Vs. The Ferris Wheel by IRA.

You can also find A Matter Of Fact on Pebbles Vol. 22. (Max Waller)

Don and Jerry with The Fugitives

Personnel:

DON GRIFFIN	A
JERRY STRICKLAND	A

45s:

1	In The Cover Of Night/I Can't Quit	(Fabor 140)	1965
2	One Year Today/Big Man (That Ain't Love, It Ain't Right)	(Fabor 141)	Jun. 1965

NB: (2) by Delna Lee with The Fugitives. (1) was also issued on Action (1012).

Another mystery outfit who have a cut In The Cover Of Night on 60's Choice, Vol. 1. It's a rather accessible garage punker - good vocals and an effective organ-led backing. As Fabor Robinson's label was based in Burbank, Ca. they may have come from California, although Louisiana has also been suggested. The second 45 featured Delna Lee (a guy not a gal) and both sides were written by Don and Jerry. One Year Today is an early-60s teen ballad, the flip a frantic beat number.

Another 45 as by Don And Jerry is probably the same ouffit:-

1. Better Run And Hide/Too Much Confusion (N-Joy NJ 1018) 1966

(Max Waller)

Don and The Agitators

45:

1. Going Back Home/? (Lucky Token 109) 1964

You'll find Going Back Home on Boulders, Vol. 7 From the label that brought us the pre-Turtles Crossfires first waxing, so L.A. seems the likely source of this outfit.

Don and The Goodtimes

Personnel:

- DON McKINNEY sax, vcls A
- PETE OULETTE gtr A
- DAVE CHILDS bs A B C
- DON GALLUCI keyb'ds A B C D E F
- BOB HOLDEN drms A B C D E F
- JIM VALLEY gtr B
- CHARLIE COE gtr C D
- JOEY NEWMANN gtr E
- RON OVERMAN bs D E F
- JEFF HAWKS vcls, gtr F

ALBUMS:

1. (B) WHERE THE ACTION IS (Wand WDS 679) 1966
2. (-) GREATEST HITS (Burdette 300) 1966 -
3. (F) SO GOOD (Epic BN 26311) 1967 109
4. (-) HARPO (Panorama 104) 196?
5. (-) GOODTIME MUSIC (Piccadilly 3394) 1982

NB: (3) a mono copy also exists (Epic LN 24311).

45s:

1. * Turn On Song/Make It (Jerden 740) 1964
2. Turn On/Make It (Wand 165) 1964
3. Straight Sceptre/There's Something On Your Mind (Wand 184) 1965
4. Little Sally Tease/You'll Never Walk Alone (Jerden 762) 1965
5. Little Sally Tease/Little Green Thing (Dunhill 4008) 1965
6. I'll Be Down Forever,'Big Big Knight (Dunhill 4015) 1965
7. Hey There, Mary Mae/Sweets For My Sweet (Dunhill 4022) 1966
8. You Were A Child/I Hate To Hate You (Piccadily 223) 1966
9. Blue Turns To Grey/I'm Real (Jerden 805) 1966
10. You Were A Child/I Hate To Hate You (Jerden 808) 1966
11. I Could Be So Good To You/And It's So Good (Epic S-1 01 45) 1967 56
12. Happy And Me/If You Love Her Cherish Her And Such (Epic 5-10199) 1967 98
13. Sally! (Studio A At 6 O'Clock In The Morning)/Bambii (Epic 5-10241) 1967
14. May My Heart Be Cast Into Stone/Ball Of Fire (Epic 5-10280) 1968
15. Colors Of Life/You Did It Before (Burdette 3) 1968

NB: * Not released.

Formed in Portland, Oregon in 1964 when Don Gallucci was forced to leave The Kingsmen because he was still in high school and unable to tour. Gallucei drafted in Bob Holden, a good friend of his, on drums and Holden brought with him Don McKinney, who had played sax with him in a band called The Imperials. With the bass and guitar slots filled by Dave Childs and (ex-Paul Revere & The Raiders) Pierre Oulette, The Goodtimes started out playing at The Chase in Portland, Oregon but soon became a popular regional attraction. Their debut recording in 1964 was Turn On Song, an instrumental which featured McKinney's wailing sax and Oulette's superb guitar. It became a big regional hit. However, in 1965 Oulette left to join Aesop and The Fables and was replaced by Jim Valley on guitar. As well as being one of the region's finest guitarists he was a talented songwriter and his songwriting opened up new opportunities for the group. For example, he wrote Little Sally Tease for the band, which became a gigantic regional hit and was recorded by several national acts such as The Standells and The Kingsmen. The 45 was picked up by Dunhill and the band went to L.A. to record Sweets For My Sweet and Mary Mae with P.F. Sloan and Steve Berry handling the arrangements. Whilst there they appeared on several Top TV shows. Indeed L.A. became their base until their demise.

On New Years Day, 1966, they shared the bill with Mr. Lucky and The Gamblers at Portland's Oriental Theatre and Don and the lads were so impressed they helped get them a record deal with Jerry Dennon's Panorama label and wrote and produced a couple of songs for them.

Sweets For My Sweet went on to become a huge hit in the Northwest, but whilst they were working on a new single, Blue Turns To Grey Jim Valley left to join Paul Revere and The Raiders, with whom in late 1966 they appeared as regulars on 'Where The Action Is'. They also signed for Epic in 1966 bringing them two national hits, I Could Be So Good To You and Happy And Me in 1967. Just when they seemed to be at the pinnacle of their career their world fell in around them - 'Where The Action Is' was cancelled, two members quit and their next single bombed. By 1968 the band had fallen apart. Their most successful album, in commercial terms, had been So Good, which rose to No 109 in the U.S. charts. Produced by Jack Nitzsche and Stu Phillips, it's very pop oriented, with several english covers (Troggs' With A Girl Like You, Beatles's Good Day Sunshine andn Spencer Davis' Gimme Somme Lovin'), two Nitzsche selections and four Ron Overman compositions. It hasn't aged well and sounds a bit naive now.

Newman had earlier played in The Liberty Party and Galluci, Newman and Hawks went on to form Touch, an acid rock outfit. Don McKinney went into personnel management and record production and Bob Holden became a recording engineer. Later still Galluci became a producer/engineer for Elektra records. Don Galluci was last reported working in Real Estate, Ron Overman is a pastor in Arkansas, Jim Valley works in education with gifted children, Dave Child is a machinist, Pete Oulefte works in advertising, Charlie Coe (who had joined them from Paul Revere and The Raiders) is in food sales, Joey Newman is a studio musician and has also recorded two gospel albums, Jeff Hawks is a hair stylist in L.A. and Bob Holden works as a recording engineer in Seattle. Interestingly, McKinney, Child and Holden are all active with Christian music in some way and Galluci is active in the Christian ministry.

The band's material has been quite well documented on some of the regional compilations:- The Hitmakers (Jerden 7005) contains their versions of Louie Louie, Tail Cool One and Lip Service.

The History Of Northwest Rock, Vol. 1 1976 contains Little Sally Tease and You Were A Child. Vol. 2 off the same series features I Could Be.., Blue Turns To Grey and Turn On Song and Vol. 4 contains their version of The Witch. Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 1 contains Blue Turns To Grey and Little Sally Tease and you'll find You Were Just A Child on Battle Of The Bands, Vol. 2.

Brian Church writes: In 1994 Jerden Records issued a Don & The Goodtimes CD called simply Don & the Goodtimes (JRCD7016) which I believe is still in print. Its 21 tracks covers virtually all of their recorded output from Money and Little Sally Tease to You Were Just A Child and I Could Be So Good To You. Highly recommended.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Donnybrook

TOP

45:

1	Always Getting Hurt/I'm Going For You	(Canterbury 505)	Jan 1967

Harmonious folk-rock-pop ballads, with the winner being the tender Byrdsy Always Getting Hurt. Possibly from L.A.

(Max Waller)

Donnybrookes

TOP

Personnel incl:

SNEAKY O'FENNEMAN	vcls	A

45:

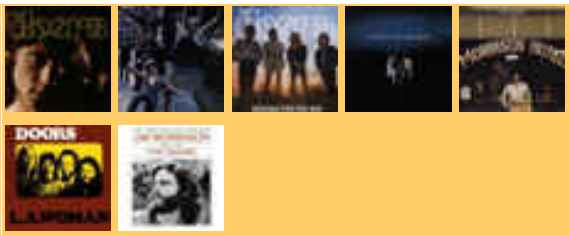
1	You're Gonna Cry/Time Will Tell	(Golden State 608)	Nov 1966

You're Gonna Cry is also on Pebbles Vol. 17. It begins with a soulful blues feel and works up into a climax of blistering guitars. Superimposed on all this is O'Fenneman's emotive style which owes a lot to Eric Burdon.

Definitely one worth investigation.

The band were from Fairfield, California. In 1967 they were known as Stone Henge, and in 1968 they became the Maze who issued the highly rated Armageddon album.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Alec Palao)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Doors to Douglas Idaho

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Doors
- Doppler Effect
- The Doughboys
- Douglas Fir
- Douglas Idaho

The Doors

Personnel:

- JIM MORRISON vcl, writer (till 1971) A
- RAY MANZAREK keyb'ds, vcls, bs, writer A B
- ROBBIE KRIEGER gtr A B
- JOHN DENSMORE drms A B

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1. (A) THE DOORS (Electra 74007) 1967 2
2. (A) STRANGE DAYS (Elektra 74014) 1968 3
3. (A) WAITING FOR THE SUN (Elektra 74024) 1968 1
4. (A) THE SOFT PARADE (Elektra 75005) 1969 6
5. (A) MORRISON HOTEL (Elektra 75007) 1970 4
6. (A) ABSOLUTELY LIVE (Elektra 29002) dbi 1970 8
7. (A) LA WOMAN (Elektra 75011) 1971 9
8. (A) 13 (Elektra 74079) 1971 25
9. (A) OTHER VOICES (Elektra 75017) 1971 31
10. (A) WEIRD SCENES INSIDE THE GOLDMINE (Elektra 26001) 1971 55
11. (B) FULL CIRCLE (Elektra 75038) 1972 68

N.B. Numerous posthumous releases have appeared. Of particular interest may be the 1987 release The Doors Live at the Hollywood Bowl (Elektra 960741-1) which captures the band on stage on 5 July 1968. Most of these albums are now available on CD.

45s:

1. Break On Through (To The Other Side)/End Of The Night (Elektra 45611) 1967 126

2. Light My Fire/Break On Through (Philco-Ford HP 9) 1967
3. Light My Fire/The Crystal Ship (Elektra 45615) 1967 1
4. People Are Strange/Unhappy Girl (Elektra 45621) 1967 12
5. Love Me Two Times/Moonlight Drive (Elektra 45624) 1967 25
6. The Unknown Soldier/We Could Be So Good Together (Elektra 45628) 1968 39
7. Hello I Love You/Love Street (Elektra 45635) 1968 1
8. Touch Me/Wild Child (Elektra 45646) 1968 3
9. Wishful Sinful/Who Scared You (Elektra 45656) 1969 44
10. Tell All The People/Easy Ride (Elektra 45663) 1969 57
11. Runnin' Blue/Do It (Elektra 45675) 1969 64
12. You Make Me Real/Roadhouse Blues (Elektra 45685) 1970 50
13. Universal Mind/The Icewagon Flew (Elektra 45708) 1970
14. Love Her Madly/(You Need Meat) Don't Go No Further (Elektra 45726) 1971 11
15. Riders On The Storm/The Changeling (Elektra 45738) 1971 14
16. Tightrope Ride/Variety Is The Spice Of Life (Elektra 45757) 1971 71
17. Ship With Sails/In The Eye Of The Sun (Elektra 45768) 1972 -
18. Get Up And Dance/Treetrunk (Elektra 45793) 1972
19. The Mosquito/It Slipped My Mind (Elektra 45807) 1972 85

NB: (2) is a kind of precursor to the flexi disc, this was issued in the 'Hip Pocket' format 4 (10cm) series of 45s that were issued in picture envelopes.

The Doors more than any other band, broadened the appeal of 'acid rock' and carried it beyond the acid-heads and students to the wider teeny bopper audience. However, theirs was a different brand of 'acid' rock from The Jefferson Airplane, less psychedelic and more surreal, their lyrics were concerned with the struggle against social repression and did not romanticise about the virtues of psychedelic drugs. Their significance in the evolution of rock is immense - to attend a Doors concert was to undergo a novel experience of rock theatre. On stage, Morrison, one of the late sixties leading sex symbols, was electrifying. Although some say he lacked a good singing voice, he was an artist of many moods who could shout loudly and furiously or sing softly and mysteriously.

The group formed in 1965 when Morrison, son of a U.S. admiral met Ray Manzarek whilst studying at the UCLA. Morrison was more interested in poetry than music, but claimed to hear strange songs inside his head. It was Manzarek who encouraged him to get them down on tape. Manzarek persuaded Morrison to play in his own band, Rick and The Ravens and later he also recruited the other group members, Robbie Krieger and John Densmore, from a group called The Psychedelic Rangers. Jim Morrison apparently chose the name The Doors from a line of William Blake: 'There are things that are known and things that are unknown, in between are the doors'. The inference of opening doors to new perception and discovery fitted well into the acid scene. They got their first gigs in small clubs along the Sunset Strip. The record companies showed little interest at first but eventually Elektra, then a small company who had made inroads into the rock market with another top LA band, Love offered them a contract after Arthur Lee had persuaded Jac Holtzman to go to hear the band. Their first single appeared to stem trom Morrison's obsession with freedom which came from extensive reading of existentialist texts. At the time, however, it was widely understood to refer to a younger generation's struggle against repressive adult society. Their follow-up Light My Fire, an edited single, also from their first album, was a rock masterpiece and shot to No 1 in the US. Probably the most fascinating track on the first LP, however, was The End, a long, semi-improvised tale of madness, patricide and incest. Their follow-up LP Strange Days was even more imaginative and equally bizarre, containing songs of mystery like People Are Strange as well as songs of rage and confusion like When The Music's Over.

Their reputation as a live band also grew from strength to strength. A Doors gig was not merely a rock concert but more a theatrical show. In their debut at the Fillmore West, for example, they opened the show third on the bill to The Young Rascals and The Sopwith Camel, but dominated the proceedings. In 1968 they embarked upon a successful European tour which included a memorable appearance at The Roundhouse in London. Although they were co-billed with Jefferson Airplane, they attracted practically all the publicity.

However, by 1969 the acid dream was fading and their third LP saw a change of direction, away from acid psychodramas towards areas of political concern - the stand out track The Unknown Soldier being a straight-forward political protest song. It was also issued as a single. Somewhat surprisingly, another track Hello, I Love You which sounded very much like The Kinks' All Day And All Of The Night gave them another No 1 hit.

Meanwhile, the pressures of rock stardom were beginning to tell on Morrison, who in the height of the acid explosion had taken LSD over 250 times, but was now fast becoming an alcoholic. He arrived inereasingIy late for concerts and, as the band played before increasingly younger audiences, every concert bordered on utter chaos. He had been arrested in New Haven, Connecticut, in December 1967 for using obscene language and staging a riot. But following an appearance in Miami, in March of 1969, he was charged with lewd and lascivious behaviour, indecent exposure, open profanity and drunkenness, although in the subsequent court case he was found guilty of only profanity and this was the subject of an appeal at the time of his death. In the short-term, the result of his arrest on the group was catastrophic; venues were cancelled at Jacksonville, Dallas, Pittsburgh, Providence and Syracuse - indeed they were banned nearly everywhere. More ominously, perhaps, many city radio stations removed their songs from playlists. Gradually as things simmered down they got gigs again, although on Morrison's insistence they cut down on their live performances, Their two new albums of this era Morrison Hotel and LA Woman were both highly acclaimed. Gone was the rage and confusion of their 'acid' days, in its place was fine relaxed music which has proved more durable over time.

Morrison Hotel was a nice contrast of driving rockers like Roadhouse Blues and You Make Me Real and relaxed music like The Spy and Indian Summer. Absolutely Live contained an impressive medley opening with the much-covered Who Do You Love and The Celebration Of The Lizard. L.A. Woman was a rather inconsistent album but at its best contained some of the band's best music including the doomy Riders On The Storm and Love Her Madly which both brought them further singles chart success.

By now, however, Morrison, was much worse for over-indulgence in life and alcohol, and quit the band to spend afew months in Paris with his wife, Pamela. He would never return to the States. Much mystery surrounds his death on 3 July 1971, which was officially attributed to a heart attack in his bath, But only his wife and the doctor who issued his death certificate saw his body, and no autopsy was conducted. The Parisians preferred to believe that he had OD'd on heroin (many of the clubs he frequented were junkie haunts). Admittedly, a bath tub is often the first place heroin victims are placed to resuscitate them, although Morrison was known to have a fear of hypodermic needies and his wife kept her own heroin habit a secret from him. It is, however, more probable that he may, have snorted a lethal dose of the drug. Alternatively, there are those who believe he staged his own death to escape the pressures of public life which were clearly taking their toll. Only Pamela could have known the truth, and she outlived him by just three years, dying herself from a heroin overdose in May 1974. Essentially, of course, he followed the line of rock stars who died from self-abuse - indeed, a young death was almost inevitable from the time he attained stardom.

The remaining members continued as a trio. Their first effort Other Voices was not too bad, but Full Circle was very weak indeed suggesting they had exhausted their inspiration. Numerous posthumous releases followed and also worth investigation are two bootlegs:- The Lizard King recorded at The Roundhouse in 1968 and Moonlight Drive recorded at The Matrix, San Francisco in 1967, although both are hampered by their quality. The Mindblowers and Turds On A Bum Ride Vol's 1 & 2 (CD) compilations include an unreleased 1966 demo, Go Insane, made prior to their first 45.

An American Prayer was issued on CD in 1995. An Australian CD was issued in 1996 (Ozit) entitled Stoned! But Articulate. It contains a 16-minute interview with Jim Morrison.

When Manzarek left Jess Roden was pulled in on vocals and Krieger and Densmore formed The Butts Band along with Roden, Roy Davies (keyb'ds) and Philip Chen (bs). The Doors remain a vital band in the evolution of rock and Morrison is still rightly regarded as one of rock's most creative figures.

For more information check the following website: http://www.angelfire.com/de/doors4ly/index.html

Doppler Effect

TOP

45:

1. God Is Alive In Argentina/Memphis Woman (PS) (Ego 1626) 1966

The 'A' side to this 45 is good hippie-psych with some good fuzz guitar. It has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 18, indicating that they came from Colorado although Mike Markesich, has linked them to Malibu Beach, California.

God Is Alive In Argentina also on The Psychedelic Experience Vol. 2 CD.

(Max Waller)

The Doughboys

TOP

45s:

1. Rhoda Mendelbaum/You're A Pip Mr Hip (Bell 662) 1967
2. Everybody Knows My Name/Candy Candy (Bell 678) 1967

Possibly a New York area band. Rhoda is ok orchestrated pop with baroque flourishes. The flip is a poppy piss-take of fashion victims but has a glorious freaky'n'fuzzy break and outro that come as a pleasant surprise. The Crewe/Gaudio Everybody borrows a couple of lines of melody, and vocal style, from Sonny and his I Got You Babe but is decent orchestrated pop nonetheless. Candy Candy, written by Milan (Leather Boy), is straight bubblegum pop.

You'll also find Rhoda Mendelbaum on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 8. (Max Waller)

Douglas Fir

TOP

Personnel:

TIM DOYLE	keyb'ds	A B
RICHIE MOORE	gtr	A B
DOUGLAS A. SNIDER	drms, ld vcls	A B
BRUCE BYE	bs	B

ALBUM:

1	HARD HEARTSINGIN'	(Quad 5002)	1970

NB (1) reissued on CD (Gear Fab GF-149) 2000.

45:

1	Smokey Joe's / Comin' Back Home	(Quad QU 104)	Jun 1970

Originally known as The Sun Trio, this Oregon outfit spent two years putting together an album's worth of material. Snider made the trip to Hollywood to do the record label rounds. Following a chance elevator encounter, he landed a deal with MGM's Quad label. Bruce Bye was added to the line-up and the band toured briefly before the label folded.

The title track is pretty powerful with strong, soul-based vocals, effective organ backing and occasionally some good guitar work too. Apart from three more mellow, laid-back numbers most of the remaining material is very rocky. There's some good keyboards too, on a couple of tracks and the vocals are powerful and appealing throughout.

Recommended.

(Clark Faville / Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Douglas Idaho

45:

1. Prince Of Darkness/Taming The Snake (No label S-80 778-37105) 197?

This Minneapolis band pressed just 300 copies of this punkish 45 in the early seventies. Consequently, it's now rare and sought-after by some collectors.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Dovers to Drnwyn

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Dovers
- Paul Dowell and The Dolphin
- The Down Children
- Down From Nothing
- Downtown Collection
- The Drag Kings
- Dragonfly
- Dragonwyck
- Dreamies
- Dream Merchants
- Dreams and Illusions
- D.R. Hooker Band
- The Driving Stupid
- Driving Wheels
- Drnwyn

The Dovers

Personnel incl:

- TIM GRANADA ld vcls, gtr A B
- BRUCE KLASSON gtr A B
- ROBBIE LAUDEWIG bs A B
- RICK MORINI drms A
- TONY REEVES sax A B
- ?? drms B

45s:

1. (A) I Could Be Happy/People Ask Me Why (Reprise 0439) 1965
2. (A) She's Gone/What Am I Going To Do? (Miramar 118) 1965
3. (B) The Third Eye/Your Love (Miramar 123) 1966
4. (B) She's Not Just Anybody/About Me (Miramar 124) 1966

A Beatles-influenced combo from Santa Barbara, who started life as The Vandells. Their compilation appearances have given them a cult following making it impossible to acquire any of their 45s at realistic prices. Their first 45 consists of two folk rock ballads, whilst the second charted locally. Shortly afterwards Rick Morini left the band, being replaced by the drummer from Ernie and The Emperors, in time for The Third Eye - a stand-out raga piece. Their fourth and final 45 also includes some great guitar work.

Compilation coverage has so far included: I Could Be Happy and People Ask Me Why on The Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 2; She's Gone and What Am I Going To Do? on Pebbles, Vol. 2; She's Not Just Anybody on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (Vol. 8 on CD); The Third Eye on 30 Seconds Before The Calico Wall (CD) and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 20 and finally Your Love on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 6 (CD).

Few modern bands have been brave enough to attempt to cover Dovers' songs, given the very high esteem in which they're held. So hats off to Buffalo, New York's Mystic Eyes for attempting She's Gone (1997 45 on Get Hip GH-188). Buy it yourself so you can judge whether they've succeeded in doing it justice.

(Max Waller / Craig Morrison)

Paul Dowell and The Dolphin

TOP

See the Dolphin entry.

The Down Children

TOP

45:

1. I Can Tell/Night Time Girl (Philips 40441) 1967

I Can Tell can also be heard on Return Of The Young Pennsylvanians. This seems to have been a one-off venture on a national label for the quintet. I Can Tell is most notable for containing a kinda guitar freak-out towards the end of the song.

Some members later went on to The In-Sex.

Down From Nothing

TOP

ALBUM:

1	DOWN FROM NOTHING	(Private Pressing)	1970 R3

Probably from Chicago, this band issued a rare album containing a breezy mix of psych, prog and jazz, with nice guitar, keyboards and sax interplay.

Some of his members later played in Pound.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Downtown Collection

45:

1. Washington Square/Sunshine (Strobe ST 351) 1968

Flower pop-psych ditty to stop the hippie-train to California, by extolling the virtues of Washington Square and Greenwich Village. The flip would have driven them away again. Produced by 'Leather Boy' Milan. (Max Waller)

The Drag Kings

45:

1. Midnight Drag Of Paul Revere/I'm A Lonely Boy (Wayne-way 105) 1964

A rock'n'roll influenced garage band from Waynesboro, Virginia. You'll find the 'A' side to this 45 on the Signed D.C. compilation. Another 45, instrumentals this time, may be by the same band: Nitro / Bearing Burners (United Artists UA-676) 1963. (Max Waller)

Dragonfly

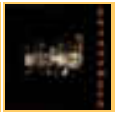
Personnel:

- B. DAVIS
- J. DUNCAN
- G. JIMERFIELD
- R. RUSSELL

ALBUM:

1. DRAGONFLY (Megaphone 1202) 1970

NB: (1) has been reissued on vinyl by Eva.



The above album by this Californian band is superb, full of driving rhythms and excellent psychedelic guitar. It's easy to see why copies of this collectors' item now change hands for a fair bit. My personal favourites were I Feel lt, Portrait Of Youth and the spacey Miles Away, although it's difficult to single out tracks as such a high standard is maintained throughout.

The same outfit released an album for Megaphone under the name Legend, a couple of years earlier, along with an early 45 version of Portrait Of Youth.

Compilation coverage has included: She Don't Care on Reverberation IV (CD), Blue Monday on Sixties Archives Vol. 8 (CD) and additionally Crazy Woman is featured on an EP that came with the book 'Le Rock Psychedelique Vol.1' for those who want to brush up on their French.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Dragonwyck

Personnel:

- JACK BOESSNECK drms A
- TOMMY BRAME gtr A
- MICHAEL GERCHAK bs, vcls A
- BILL PETTIJOHN vcls A
- KENNETH STAAB piano, organ, vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. DRAGONWYCK (Acetate) (Dragon Wyck DW 002) 1971
2. DRAGONWYCK (Acetate) 1972/3
3. * FUN (Acetate) 1975/6

NB. * This is the same band but was recorded under the name Fun. (2) reissued on CD and vinyl (Rockadelic no #) 1996.

From Cleveland, Ohio their ultra rarities are well worth seeking out for connoisseurs of psychedelia. The first album, which was only issued as a promotional acetate, is an effective blend of keyboards and guitar. Fire Climbs is the outstanding track but there are lots of other highs on this album which is well worth searching for.

Their next effort similarly didn't get beyond the acetate stage. Even more keyboard-orientated than the first one with lots of synthesiser it perhaps inevitably leans more towards the progressive genre. A different version of Fire Climbs and the final track, Freedom Son are among the highlights and there's still some fine psychedelic guitar work in places. Fortunately, you can now check it out on the Rockadelic reissue.

Their third venture was made under the name Fun. The opening cut, Music is superb, whilst on the whole this acetate is more experimental than their earlier recordings. I Shall Stay, for example, is quite chaotic. They went on to evolve into Moonlight Drive releasing some 45s and a mini-LP with quite a lot of Doors' covers.

Kenneth Stab died in 1973.

Dreamies

Personnel:

BILL HOLT	various	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	AURALGRAPHIC ENTERTAINMENT	(Stone Theatre DM 68481)	April 1974 R3

NB: (1) has been pirated twice on vinyl and at least once on CD. Original copies came with a booklet. (1) reissued officially on CD (Gear Fab GF-146) 2000.

A very cool local Delaware private press of psychedelic folk and sound collages weaving in and out. The cover states that it's "an incredible mental experience" and it's out there! Bill Holt's style was inspired by The Beatles and composer John Cage. The mood of the album reflects the dreams of a young man caught in the middle of the Cold War. From the trauma of President John Kennedy's assassination, through the psycho politics of the 1960's and early 1970's, acoustic guitar, Moog synthesizer, and sound effects from the period are used to paint a hauntingly surreal and beautiful musical tapestry of the times. Side One, Program Ten, and Side Two, Program Eleven deliver over fifty minutes of very personal music that many critics feel was twenty five years ahead of it's time. Rolling Stone writer David Fricke (at the time a fledgling critic writing for The Drummer in Philadelphia), called Dreamies "endless hours of mental entertainment".

Composer Bill Holt created Dreamies using a four track recorder, an acoustic guitar, and one of the original Moog synths. The album cover was modeled after a box of "Total" breakfast cereal. The recording took two years to complete and was done in Holt's home studio in Wilmington, Delaware. It was mastered at the renowned Sigma Sound in Philadelphia (the same place David Bowie recorded his memorable mid-seventies dance album). It was originally sold via direct mail through Rolling Stone magazine. Holt is currently working on Dreamies Program 14.

(Clark Faville/Vernon Joynson)

Dream Merchants

TOP

ALBUMS:

1. SOUL KNIGHT (Capitol ST 102) Nov. 1968
2. STRANGE NIGHT VOYAGE (A&M SP 4199) Aug. 1969

NB: (1) and (2) issued as by The Merchants Of Dream.

45:

1. Rattler/I'll Be With You In Apple Blossom Time (London 1015) 1967

I'm told the Strange Night Voyage album, a concept pop/psych offering based on the Peter Pan fairytale, was recorded in New York. The cover contains no information about the musicians - there were six - but the producers were Vincent Testa and George Shadow Morton, who also produced The Shangri-Las and later the New York Dolls. This probably means The Dream Merchants were not the same band as the San Francisco-based Merchants of Dreams.

Dreams and Illusions

TOP

Main Personnel:

- AL CHARNET gtr A
- HERBERT LOVELLE drms A
- LOUIS MAURO bs A

- MEL OLMAN piano A
- DANNY SCHLOSS vcls, composer A
- Plus a brass, string and Latin percussion section.

ALBUM:

1. (A) DREAMS AND ILLUSIONS (Verve Forecast FTS-3040) 1967

One of those cross-genre explorations or just a psychedelic cash-in? Despite some occasional bursts of psychedelic guitar, this appears to be a studio-only project by 'hip' dudes out for a ride on the latest wave. Trendy, musically competent but lacking feel or spirit, and therefore ultimately unconvincing. (Max Waller)

D.R. Hooker Band

TOP

Personnel:

- D.R. HOOKER vcls, gtr
- STEVE MALKAN bs
- BERT McDEVITT drms, vcls
- BOB REARDON keyb'ds
- CARROLL YANNI ld gtr

ALBUMS:

1. THE TRUTH (XLP 1029) 1972
2. ARMAGEDDON (Here On) 1979
3. RAIN ON THE MOON (No label) 1987

NB: (1) Reissued on Del-Val in 1993. (2) was recorded in 1973. (3) was a cassette only, private release.

They hailed from Connecticut. The first album is one of the all-time monster U.S. psych albums (R5). It was recorded with studio musicians..

The Driving Stupid

TOP

Personnel incl:

KELLEY RODGERS A

45:

1	Horror Asparagus Stories/The Reality Of (Air) Fried Borsk	(KR 102 (0116))	1966

NB: (1) single sided white label promo copies numbered 116 also exist.

This is generally heralded as one of the acid punk classics of the sixties, with off the wall lyrics, psychotic vocals and one of the simplest guitar solos imaginable. The flip is even better with an out of key 'I'm A Man' rhythm to lyrics like 'You stand on the table, Rugs creep up the legs, Tiny green lobsters, Throw spiders eggs'. Copies of the 45 were apparently plentiful in San Francisco, even enthralling Big Brother and The Holding Company, to the extent that they wrote a song The Driving Stupid, in tribute, but little was known about the group.

A second 45 was tantalisingly advertised in the July, 1966 issue of "The Lance". This featured a full page ad promoting The Driving Stupid's next single: My Mother Was A Big Fat Pig b/w Green Things Have Entered My Skin, Gladys. Both tracks were recorded in Jerry Wilson's Nu-Mex Sound Studios in June, 1966, but the 45 doesn't appear to have been released. In fact Dick Stewart, the publisher of the original 'Lance' Newsletters in Albuquerque in the mid-'60's remembers:

"Jerry Wilson of Nu-Mex Sound ordered and paid for a full page ad in the July, 1966 issue. I don't recall ever hearing the cuts but, according to Jerry at that time, the songs were recorded and I remember him being hot on them. I'm not convinced that the 45 was released on Wilson's QQ record label. Nevertheless, I saved a handwritten letter that was given to me from one of my staff members that lends credence to the existence of the record and the possible label that issued it. It was addressed to Marshal Chess of Chess Records, Chicago, Illinois. The staff writer is unknown (although it could be Jerry himself) and there is no date on the letter; however, I did receive it sometime in late 1966." (Chess handled disribution for KR at the time.)

Dick was incidentally the founding member of King Richard and The Knights and also the founder of Lance Records who released 45s by The Kreeg and Fe-Fi-Four Plus Two: "I do remember the ad causing quite a stir (good and bad) as the song titles were so radically new at the time. In fact, it was the Lance Newsletter's first experience with psychedelic musical expressions although the term psychedelia had not yet found a home during the time the ad was run."

In fact, The Driving Stupid didn't come from Chicago nor New Mexico, but were originally from New Jersey... They recorded the two demo tracks in Jerry Wilson's New Mexico studio on route to find fame and fortune in Hollywood. The band tragically existed for only one summer and never got to perform anywhere, as band leader Kelley recalls:- "We could barely play our instruments, and I taught one of the members how to play guitar on the drive to the east coast. The best guitarist in the band was our drummer, but he had to be the drummer, because it was his drum kit. In Hollywood we hung out with Jim Morrison, Neil Young, Steve Stills and got to meet The Mothers Of Invention. We were also (probably) the first 'white' act to sign to Chess."

"Hollywood went nuts over us, and we had offers from many labls and clubs in LA, but we were all enrolled in different colleges in the east including U.N.C., Harvard and Penn State. If we'd dropped out of school, we'd all have been drafted and sent to Vietnam, so at he end of the summmer we split up."

Most tantalising of all, is the news that The Driving Stupid recorded an album's worth of material, the masters of which still exist! Kelley:- "We did about eight songs in Albuquerque, and then got a record deal with Koppelman and Ruben in Hollywood. We re-recorded everything, and added four tunes for a total of twelve. The Albuquerque tapes rock harder, as it was a two-track studio, and we pretty much had to blow 'live.' Also, Koppelman and Rubin made us change lyrics on two of the songs, and they lost a bit of juice in the transformation. A lot of juice when it came to one song that made fun of postmen. Really. They were afraid we'd offend the U.S. Post Office. Horror Asparagus Stories was originally called My Mother Was A Big Fat Pig, which was also the first verse. We had to change the verse to 'My mother was a little wren'. Thankfully, nothing else was 'censored."

For an in-depth interview with The Driving Stupid check the Lance Monthly website:- http://www.lancerecords.com

Compilation coverage has so far included:- The Reality Of (Air) Fried Borsk on Pebbles Vol. 3; Horror Asparagus Stories and The Reality Of (Air) Fried Borsk on Pebbles Box Set and Pebbles Vol. 3 (CD); Horror Asparagus Stories on Acid Dreams Epitaph (CD) and Sixties Rebellion Vol. 12 (CD).

(Vernon Joynson / Mike Dugo / David Jaffe)

Driving Wheels

45:

1. One YearAgo From Today/She's My Only World (Pan Am PA-4001) 1966

The 'A' side can be heard Eva's Sixties Punk Ballad Sampler. The vocals are good but the production and instrumentation is rather ordinary. From San Antonio, Texas apparently, though they could also be the Louisiana outfit, Jay & the Driving Wheels who issued at least nine 45s as the Lanor label.

Drnwyn

Personnel:

- DAVID W. HAAG gtr, mandolin, syn A
- JOHN VOLIO acoustic gtr, vcls A
- with some assistance.

ALBUM:

1. (A) GYPSIES IN THE MIST (Wilderland 31778) 1978

A later effort by this Salem, Ohio band. There's some melodic guitar work on the title track which is the high point of an album of varied music syes. If you like good guitar work, this album, which is already quite rare, is worth seeking out.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Drongos to The Dynasty

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Drongos
- The Druids
- The Druids
- Druids
- The Druids of Stonehenge
- Drydock County
- Dryewater
- The Dry Gins
- Duffy
- The Dukes
- Frank Dumin
- Duplex
- Dust
- Dust Bowl Clementine
- Dutch Masters
- Dwight Douglas and The Jayhawkers
- The (Dynamic) Dischords
- The Dynasty

The Drongos

TOP

Personnel incl:

- TODD ANDERSON vcls A
- MICHAEL FRIEDMAN bs A

45:

1. Under My Thumb/If You Want To Know (White Whale 235) 1966

From Berkeley, California, and featuring ex-members of The Answer. Their Stones cover is competent but not exceptional, whilst the flip is a mid-slow ballad with reedy solo. (Max Waller)

The Druids

TOP

45:

1. Doctor's Friend/She's Got A Secret (To Hide) (Thunderbird 505) 1967

New York City is thought to have been the home of this band. Both sides of their 45 got a second airing on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 3.

The Druids

TOP

45:

1. Jelly Belly/Over And Over (Broad Covetten Haven 2001) 1965
2. The Girl Can't Take A Joke / I Can't Leave You (Select 743) 1965

From Hingham, Massachussetts, Aram Heller's 'Till The Stroke Of Dawn' book, also tells us that they were previously an instrumental group known as the Internationals. You'll also find Jelly Belly on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 6 and Erik Lindgren's Mondo Frat Dance Bash A Go Go (CD), whose titles dispels any doubt whatsoever about the musical content!

(Aram Heller/Max Waller)

Druids

TOP

45s:

1	Cool, Calm And Collected / Sorry's Not Enough	(MNO MNO-101)	Mar 1966

Another Druids, from San Jose, California. Cool, Calm And Collected is just that, a folk-punker in an early Beau Brummels mould, and can be heard on Time Won't Change My Mind and Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 2.

(Max Waller/Alec Palao)

The Druids of Stonehenge

TOP

Personnel:

- CARL HAUSER ld gtr, vcls, keyb'ds A
- DAVE BUDGE vcls A
- BILLY TRACY gtrs A
- TOM WORKMAN bs A
- STEVE TINDALL drms, keyb'ds A

ALBUM:

1. (A) CREATION (Uni 73004) 1968

NB: (1) has been reissued and also issued on CD.

EP:

1. Who Do You Love/Pretty Thing/I Put A Spell On You/Baby Please Don't Go/Bald Headed Woman/I Who Have Nothing (Sundazed SEP 127) 1996

NB: The first four songs of the (double) EP above were recorded in New York in 1965, the other two were recorded in Los Angeles in 1966. All six tracks are previously unreleased.

45:

1. A Garden Where Nothing Grows/Painted Woman (Uni 55021) 1967

This outfit came from Columbia and Syracuse Universities in New York but relocated to Los Angeles in 1966. reputedly included Elliot Randall on lead vocals at one time. Randall later played with Sea Train prior to forming Randall's Island in 1971. However, the line up for their sole album, which was produced by Jerry Goldstein, was that shown above. It's a fairly routine rock album, which includes cover versions of Jay Hawkins I Put A Spell On You and Dylan's It's All Over Now Baby Blue. Not really worth searching for, but it has recently had a limited repress. Their 45 was later included on the album. Baubles, Vol. 1 includes two tracks from the album:- Pale Dream and Six Feet Down.

The recent double 7" EP, on Sundazed, contains some brilliant, Pretty Things styled, raucous R&B / garage - particularly the rollercoaster rendition of Who Do You Love, and Them inspired Baby Please Don't Go. The EP, which is recommended comes with detailed sleeve notes from Mike Stax and Jud Cost, which reveal how The Druids' played in front of their idols The Rolling Stones, whilst they were house band at the Ondine - a trendy Manhattan club and jammed with Eric Burdon and Jimi Hendrix.

The Druids Of Stonehenge also opened shows for Moby Grape, The Blues Project and Big Brother & The Holding Company in their time.

Drydock County

TOP

ALBUM:

1	DRYDOCK COUNTY	(Mercury)	c1970

45s:

1	Fish Bite Better In Summertime/Same (mono)	(Mercury)	c1970

A group whose records reputedly contain some good psych tracks, but who went unnoticed at the time.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dryewater

TOP

Personnel:

- ROBERT BLAIR bs, vcls A
- RICHARD DRYE ld vcls, gtr A
- SHAYE DRYE keyb'ds, vcls A
- GARLAND WALKER STIDHAM drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) SOUTHPAW (J.T.B. NR 5122) 1974 R3

NB: (1) has had an official limited repress of 350 copies.

From North California, an interesting rural hard rock album. Occasionally the lead vocals get a bit strained and screechy, but when the band shines it has great moments. Don't Let Her Sleep Too Long has a confident, sinister quality to it that satisfies. (Clark Faville)

The Dry Gins

TOP

45:

1. She's A Drag/You're Through (Montel-Michelle 959) 1966

The Dry Gins were from Lafayette, Louisiana, and were also known as The Rogues. While playing a gig in Baton Rouge, they were spotted by Cyril Vetter from The Greek Fountains who got them a recording contract with Montel-Michelle. It was Vetter who suggested they change their name to The Dry Gins for this 45. The band called it quits in late 1966.

She's A Drag has also turned up on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8, and You're Through has resurfaced on The Essential Pebbles Collection double CD set. (Max Waller)

Duffy

TOP

45:

1. Come Back, Come Back/Hello There Girl (Dial 4097) 1970

An unknown artist whose 45 was produced by Buddy Killen and probably recorded in Nashville. The 'A' side, which is full of studio gimmickry with lots of echoplex and other sound effects, can be heard on Beyond The Calico Wall and is well worth checking out. The flip is reputedly awful - an insipid song sung through a megaphone.

The Dukes (aka Royal Jones and The Dukes)

TOP

Personnel:

- GARY JONES gtr A
- GENE JONES ld vcls, organ A B
- KEITH KILMER drms A B
- SKIP WALTERS bs A B
- DAVE WORKMAN sax A B
- JAY PURVIS gtr, vcls B

45s:

1. I Don't Love You Anymore / Do It Now (Fujimo 4454) 196?
2. Walking The Dog / Please Come Home (Fujimo #unkn) 196?
3. Take Your Love /? (Fujimo #unkn) 196?
4. The First Time I Saw Her / Take Your Love (Signett 3265) 1967

NB: One of the Fujimo 45s came in a picture sleeve and there may be more 45s on that label. (1) and (3) were released as Royal Jones & The Dukes.

This was Goshen, Indiana's top band in the mid-sixties. Formed in 1963 by the Jones brothers, they underwent several personnel changes but their most stable line-ups are shown above. They recorded a few 45s for Fujimo and the Chicago- based Signet label, Gary Jones left the band in 1966 and was replaced by Jay Purvis who wrote Take Your Love which has recently got another airing on the Hossier Hotshots compilation. It's very much in the folk-garage mould and worth a listen. They later signed to Columbia who clearly wanted to turn them into a Midwest version of Paul Revere and The Raiders and fit them with navy uniforms and a new moniker Gene Paul Jones and The American Navy. When the band made it clear they didn't want to know, Columbia simply didn't record them and they soon were no more.

Frank Dumin

TOP

ALBUM:

1	ANOTHER DAWN	(Avantgarde)	1970 R1

A good Christian folk rock album by an ex-seminary student.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Duplex

TOP

Pebbles, Vol. 16 includes a live version of Louie, Louie by this band at a 'Battle Of The Bands' (Star 101) 196? competition in Hawaii. It is pretty undistinguished. Most of the other participants were surf instrumentalists.

Dust

TOP

Personnel:

KENNY AARONSON	bs, gtr, dobro	A
MARC BELL	drms, vcls	A
RICHIE WISE	gtr, vcls	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	DUST	(Kama Sutra KSBS 2041)	1971
2(A)	HARD ATTACK	(Kama Sutra KSBS 2059)	1972

NB: (1) and (2) have been reissued.

45s:

1	Stone Woman/?	(Kama Sutra 534)	1971
2	Love Me Hard/?	(Kama Sutra 541)	1972

A New York hard rock trio, highly regardd by some. Marc Bell later played with Richard Hell's Voivoids and the Ramones. Kenny Aaronson went on to play with Stories, joined the Rick Derringer Band and played with several hard rock groups including HSAS (Hagar, Schon, Aaronson, Shrieve). He also played on Blue Oyster Cult's Club Ninja album.

Richie Wise and Kenny Kerner (their producer and collaborator) went on to produce the first two Kiss albums. Richie also has a producer credit and photo on Savoy Brown's Greatest Hits/Live.

It's rumoured that Dust also laid down some tracks for a third album that was never finished.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Ken Schneider)

Dust Bowl Clementine

TOP

Personnel:

BRUCE BRADT	piano, organ, vcls	A
EDWARD EVANS	bs, gtr, vcls	A
ANTHONY FABIANO	drms, perc, vcls	A
CHUCK LASKOWSKI	ld vcls, 12-string gtr	A
NICK MANZI	gtr, vcls	A
(GEORGE CHRIST	hrmnca	A)
(BARRY WEBER	gtr	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	DUST BOWL CLEMENTINE	(Roulette SR-42058)	197?

45:

1	Goin' Back Down To The Country/Patchin' Up	(Roulette ?)	1970

NB: (1) also issued in France with a PS (45 VR 19 5083) 1971.

Chuck Laskowski is in fact Faine Jade's real name and wrote most of Dust Bowl Clementine material. Bruce Bradt (Illusion) and Nick Manzi (Bohemian Vendetta) already worked with him on his Introspection album.

Produced by Michael Earle and recorded in Hempstead, New York, the album is clearly country oriented, most of the songs dealing with the same subject: Going Back Down To The Country (the only one penned by Manzi), Farm Song, Get Back Home, Country Man. Some good guitar solos by Manzi help to improve the final result but this album is more a curiosity than a masterpiece.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Dutch Masters

Personnel:

EARL DENTON	vcls	A

45s:

1	Burnin' Up The Wires / Way Down Feelin'	(MY 2916)	Mar 1967
2	The Expectation / You're Nearby Me	(MY 2926)	Sep 1967

Assembled by MY label-owner Earl Denton in Little Rock, Arkansas to provide backing for his vocals, the band continued without him after the debut and produced one excellent 45. The Expectation, a "midtempo fuzz-grinder", has subsequently resurfaced on Erik Lindgren's A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych CD compilation, which notes that the band decked themselves out like the depiction of Dutch dudes on cigar boxes.

One member was later in The Hombres.

(Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

Dwight Douglas and The Jayhawkers

Personnel incl:

1. DWIGHT DOUGLAS

45:

1. Interstate 45/Mr. Big (Astra 3008) 196?

From Detroit, this 45 was by Jay Hawkers, who had several 45s under that monicker. You can also find Interstate 45 on Scum Of The Earth, Part 1.

The (Dynamic) Dischords

Personnel incl:

- TOM RADINE

45s:

1. Age Of Caesar/I Love Life (Mark Custom 4000) 196?
2. This Girl Of Mine/Passageway To Your Heart (IGL 150) 1968

Operated out of Oakes, a small town in the Southeast of Nonh Dakota. After recording their first 45 in Moorhead, North Dakota, they became the only band from that state to sign for the IGL label, based in Milford, Iowa. The result was a good punk 45 and you'll find Passageway To Your Heart on The Midwest vs Canada compilation. Later, in 1971, they recorded a reasonable hard rock 45. By then they were known simply as The Dischords.

The Dynasty

45s:

1. I've Gona Shout/I'm Cryin' (Royal Court 262) 1966
2. Flying On The Ground Is Wrong/Soul Kitchen (Westchester 1156) 1968

A youthful sixties punk quintet from Duluth, Minnesota. The first 45, in particular, is rare and sought-after and I've Gotta Shout has also resurfaced on the compilation The Midwest vs Canada. It's a pretty standard, if bone-crunching, punk offering with an I'm A Man type guitar riff. The flip side was an Animals cover. The second 45 attempts attempts a cover of the Buffalo Springfield classic, but falls short in the vocals department. Their version of the Doors' Soul Kitchen is altogether better - quite excellent in fact, with strong and sometimes raucous vocals. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

E.T.C. to Sally Eaton

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- E.T.C.
- Eagle
- Earthen Vessel
- Earth Island
- Earth Opera
- Eastern Alliance
- Eastfield Meadows
- The East Side Kids
- (Gaylon Ladd & the) Eastside Transfer
- Eastwood Review
- Easy Chair
- Easy Steam
- Easy Street
- Sally Eaton

E.T.C.

TOP

ALBUM:

1 E.T.C. IS THE NAME OF THE BAND (Windi) c1975

On the same label as Merkin and Creation Of Sunlight, but issued a few years later, this album went totally unnoticed. Some dealers describe as "cool loungy rock" or "excellent Westcoast vibe". Any additional information welcomed.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Eagle

TOP

Personnel:

- WAYNE ULAKY bs A
- ROBERT RHODES keyb'ds, horns A
- JOHN WRIGHT vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) COME UNDER NANCY'S TENT (Janus JLS 3011) 1970

NB: (1) also released in France (Stateside C 062 92118) 1970.

45s:

1. Kickin' lt Back To You/Come In, It's All For Free (Janus 113) 1970
2. Brown Hair/Working Man (Janus 135) 1970

Previously known as, The Beacon Street Union, the album, which has some nice guitar pieces, is quite good. The Best Of Bosstown Sound double CD compilation includes Come In It's For Free, Kickin' It Back and Separated.

Earthen Vessel

Personnel:

DAVE CAVDILL		A
KEN FITCH		A
SHARON KEEL	vcls	A
JOHN SPRUNGER		A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HARD ROCK - EVERLASTING LIFE	(NRS 2587)	1971 R3/4

NB: (1) reissued officially on CD by Gear Fab (GF-127) 1999.

45:

1	Life Everlasting/You Can	(NRS 591)	19??

From Lansing, Michigan band, although their rare album is on a Tennessee label. The 45 cuts are on the album. Both records are undated, but sound circa 1970. The group played hard rock with male and female vocals (overtly religious lyrics) punctuated by loud fuzz guitar.

(Clark Faville)

Earth Island

Personnel:

- BRUCE DOSHIER A
- BILL LISKA A
- NICHOLAS RUSH A
- RICHARD VANDERWOERDT A

ALBUM:

1. (A) WE MUST SURVIVE (Philips PHS 600.340) 1969

A soft-rock album which is pleasant enough and similar in style to Strawberry Alarm Clock with the theme of conservation running throughout. Eight of the cuts were penned by the band. The album was produced by Kim Fowley, who co-wrote the final two tracks, a pair of pretty awful 'green anthems' with Skip Battin.

Earth Opera

TOP

Personnel:

PAUL DILLON	drms, vcls, perc, gtr	A	B
DAVID GRISMAN	mandolin, piano, sax, vcls	A	B
JOHN NAGY	bs, cello	A	B
PETER ROWAN	gtr, sax, vcls	A	B
BILL STEVENSON	vibes, keyb'ds	A
(BILL MUNDI	drms	A)
(WARREN SMITH	drms	A)
(JACK BONUS	sax		B)
(HERB BUSHLER	double bs		B)
(JOHN CALE	viola		B)
(DAVE HOROWITZ	keyb'ds		B)
(RICHARD GRANDO	sax, bass recorder		B)
(BILL KEITH	pedal steel gtr		B)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	EARTH OPERA	(Elektra EKS-74016)	1968 -
2	THE GREAT AMERICAN EAGLE TRAGEDY	(Elektra EKS-74038)	1969 181

NB: (1) and (2) also released in France (Vogue/Elektra EKS74016 and CLVLXEK 354 respectively). (2) reissued (Edsel ED215) 1987.

45s:

1	American Eagle Tragedy/When You Were Full Of Wonder	(Elektra 45636)	Mar. 1968 -
2	Home To You/Alfie Finney	(Elektra 45650)	1969 97

Another of the Boston wave of rock groups, Earth Opera, certainly possessed talent. However, they arrived on the scene a little too late to make a sustained impact.

The origins of the group lay in the rich Boston folk scene in the early sixties with the first experiences of Rowan and Grisman. A gifted songwriter, singer and, mandolin and guitar player, Peter Rowan began playing in the early '60s bluegrass and string band music with Bill Monroe and the Bluegrass Boys and the Mother Bay State Entertainers. A master of mandolin, David Grisman had similar roots and played with Siegel, Grisman, Rose and Lewinger. Some recordings of these early Rowan and Grisman bands can be found on The String Band Project (Elektra EKS-7292) 1965.

Earth Opera was formed at the end of 1967 by Rowan and Grisman and their first album was housed in a strange gatefold sleeve with pictures probably taken inside an Indian temple. All the songs were credited to Rowan (Time And Again being cowritten with Grisman) and the use of vibes, harpsichord or mandocello help creating a gloomy atmosphere on songs like Death By Fire or As It Is Before. The following year The Great American Eagle Tragedy pursued a similar direction. Bill Halverson had left but the four remaining members were helped by various guests, including Velvet Underground's John Cale on viola, Jim Kweskin Jug Band's Bill Keith and Jefferson Airplane's friend Jack Bonus. Once again the sleeve was notable, this time with a collage combining a skull with the American Eagle symbol.

Both albums were produced by Peter Siegel, formerly with The Even Dozen Jug Band and Siegel, Grisman, Rose and Lewinger.

Commercially unsuccessful, Earth Opera broke up in 1969. Grisman and Rowan went to California and joined two bluegrass outfits: Muleskinner with Clarence White of the Byrds and Old And In The Way with Jerry Garcia (Grisman also played on The Grateful Dead's American Beauty).

Peter Rowan would later join Seatrain and form the Rowan Brothers with his brothers Chris and Lorin. He also released several solo albums mixing rock, bluegrass and country. In the mid '70s, David Grisman formed the David Grisman Quintet and spearheaded the Dawg Music movement, mixing bluegrass and jazz. Both are still recording.

John Nagy became a studio musician and also played with Michael Hurley.

You can also find Home To You and The Red Sox Are Winning (from their first album) on the compilation Electrock The Sixtles while Close Your Eyes And Shut The Door has also turned up on the Elektra compilation Elektrifying.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Vernon Joynson)

Eastern Alliance

TOP

Personnel incl:

TIMOTHY GAY	A
BILL WRINN	A

45:

1	Love Fades Away/Please Don't Say You're Sorry	(Wriga 124-12)	Oct. 1966

From New Haven, Connecticut, this band formed at high school around 1965. Love Fades Away features some nice mellow, laid back guitar work.

Bill Wrinn later recorded a solo 45, The Devil Take New Orleans (Poison Ring) 1969/70.

You can also find Love Fades Away on Sixties Punk Ballad Sampler.

(Mike Markesich / Vernon Joynson)

Eastfield Meadows

Personnel:

JOHN BIERER	A
DAVID CARPENTER	A
WAYNE GRAJADA	A
TONY HARRIS	A
DWIGHT PAYNE	A
JAMES WHITTEMORE	A

ALBUM:

1(A) EASTFIELD MEADOWS (VMC VS 133) 1968

Probably from California, a nice mix of psyche, country and vocal harmonies. The album is quite sought-after by collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The East Side Kids

Personnel:

- DAVID DOUD gtr A
- JOE MADRID vcls A
- MIKE DOUD bs A
- DAVE POTTER ? A

ALBUM:

1. (A) TIGER AND THE LAMB (Uni 73032) 1968

45s:

1. Subway Train/Sunday Stranger (Philips 40295) 1965
2. Might Mist Blue/Chocolate Matzos (Warner Bros 5821) 1966
3. Little Bird/I Listen To The Wise Man (Valhalla 672) 1967
4. Close Your Mind / Take A Look In The Mirror (Orange Empire OE-500) Jan 1967
5. Taking The Time/Is My Love Strong? (UNI 55105) 1969

NB: (4) both sides non-LP, written by Bernie Schwartz.

Although obviously connected with Texas, because Dave Potter joined them from Endle St. Cloud and went on to Potter St. Cloud, they were from Los Angeles' East Side. The album, which is largely mainstream pop aside from a psychedelic interpretation of Dancing In The Street, is really one to avoid. Some tracks were written by H. Wesley Watt (of Euphoria) who also migrated between Texas and California.

Listen To The Wise Man is compiled on East Side Revue whilst Close Your Mind also appears on The Psychedelic Experience Vol. 2 CD.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

(Gaylon Ladd & the) Eastside Transfer

TOP

Personnel incl:

- GAYLON LATIMORE (LADD)

45:

1. Repulsive Situation/My Life, My Love (Pacemaker 257) 1966

This fuzz punk 45 is generally considered Latimore's best recording. Hear it on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 23: Texas, Part Five. Prior to forming the band in Waco he cut three solo 45s. He went on to play in Heather Black.

Eastwood Review

TOP

Personnel:

- RICKY HERNANDEZ keyb'ds A
- CHRIS HOLZHAUS gtr A
- LAURENT PERRON drms A
- MARIUS PERRON bs A

CD:

1. (A) RIDE DOWN TO HOUSTON (Collectables COL-CD 0582) 1994

From San Antonio, the line-up included two distant cousins of the late Steve Perron (of Mind's Eye and Children) and Chris Holzhaus (of The Argyles, Mind's Eye and Children. Recorded in Houston at Andrus Recording Studios 1969-1970, Roy Ames was unable to get any interest outside the locals - slow and moody blues-rock wasn't flavour of the industry then, it seems. So it languished until now - if Cream, Johnny Winter, or early Fleetwood Mac appeal to you, this is worth a listen.

Chris Holzhaus, incidentally, later played guitar with Roky Erikson on his Live At The Ritz album. He still plays regularly around the San Antonio bar scene. Marius Perron (bubba) is now a recording engineer and also teaches recording classes around San Antonio. An internet search inquiry under "marius perron" will bring up a string of hits regarding credits on the albums he has been involved with. He has been very involved with Michael Morales who made a local noise a few years ago. His brother Laurent Perron is not involved in music anymore and works a regular job. Ricky Hernandez still does playing gigs on the side as a freelance player with several local acts in the bar scene.

(Max Waller / Michael Lowell)

Easy Chair

TOP

Personnel:

- PHIL KIRBY A
- PETER LARSON gtr A
- ALBERT MALOSKY A
- JEFFREY SIMMONS gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE EASY CHAIR (Vanco) 1968 R4

NB: This was a local Washington State one-sided demo album issued in a plain cover.

Of the three tracks on this rare Northwest item, two are long, bluesy jamming cuts that never actually go anywhere and one is an amazing Eastern/heavy psych cut. Jeff Simmons and other members of this band were previously managed by Matthew Katz as Indian Puddin' and Pipe, but although they were the first band to use the name, they were not the people responsible for Indian Puddin' & Pipe's known recordings... that outfit were West Coast Natural Gas, who inherited the name when the original band split with Katz and became Easy Chair. Curiously, West Coast Natural Gas shared the bill once with the original Indian Puddin' and Pipe in Seattle.

Simmons released two solo albums on the Straight label in 1969.

Ex-Jack Eely & The Courtmen member Bill Truitt was also in a later line-up of Easy Chair.

(Clark Faville/Darryl F. Rifero)

Easy Steam

TOP

ALBUM:

1	TO BE ALIVE	(Conglomerate)	1976 SC

NB: (1) issued with a picture sleeve or a plain white cover.

From Minnesota, a prog rock outfit with flute and guitar interplay.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Easy Street

TOP

45s:

1. Peter Pan / Boom-Bah (Cine Vista 1003) 1968
2. Walking In The Clouds / Do You Hear The Magic Music (Cine Vista 1004) 1969

NB: (2) later issued on Paramount (0007), 1969.

Easy Street evolved out of The Madadors from Palmyra, Wisconsin.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Sally Eaton

TOP

ALBUM:

1	FAREWELL AMERICAN TOUR	(Paramount PAS 5021)	1971

An surprising record. The ugly front sleeve makes you want to put the album back where you found it, and the first four tracks, which are boring, just confirm this impression. But with Flower In The Air, a raga with oriental percussion, you begin to get hooked and Side Two is really good, culminating with the 7 minutes of Maybe My Love For You. Swirling organ, nice guitars, and Sally Eaton's voice.

The record was produced by George Brackman, Nat Shapiro and Harold Wheeler and all the songs were written by Sally Eaton and Brackman.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Ebb Tides to Eden's Children

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Ebb Tides
- Ebb-Tides
- Barry Ebling and The Invaders
- The Eccentrics
- Eccentrics
- The Echoes of Carnaby St
- The Echomen
- The Echo(es)
- Echos
- Eclectic Mouse
- Ecology
- Eddie and The Showmen
- Eden's Children

The Ebb Tides

Personnel incl:

TONY TAVEIRA	bs	A

45:

1	My Baby's Gone/Sumertime	(Arco 107)	Sept. 1966

An early incarnation of Tangerine Zoo, from Fall River, Massachusetts. Tony Taveira later formed a '70s disco outfit with his brothers called Tavares!

You can also find My Baby's Gone on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 4.

(Vernon Joynson/Mike Markesich)

Ebb-Tides

Personnel:

- DONALD KYRE rhythm gtr A

- BENNY VANDERVORT ('Benny Van') B
- DAN WALDRON drms AB
- MIKE WHEELER ld gtr A B
- MIKE WHITED bs A B

45s:

1. (A) Little Women / What'd I Say (Clark 238) 196?
2. (B) Seance / Spirits Ride The Wind (Jar 820J-106) 1967

The second 45 is a spirited affair, literally. Seance is a jaunty keyboard dominated punk-pop-novelty, with ghostly 'wooooos' and tongue planted firmly in cheek. Make contact with it via Boulders Vol. 6 or, more strangely, via Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 CD - strange, because this outfit hailed from Columbus, Ohio! Spirits Ride The Wind is spoken poetic lyrics over a mellow psychy backdrop of gently cascading guitar and soft hand-drums. Benny Van would take this group on a spiritual odyssey to higher musical planes in the course of which he and they metamorphosed into J.D. Blackfoot.

(George Gell/Max Waller)

Barry Ebling and The Invaders

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BARRY EBLING vcls
- GARY VANDEVER gtr, vcls

45:

1. I Can Make It Without You/Sunny Day Rain (Norman 581) 1967

Came from Granite City, Illinois and were originally known as The Invaders. When Barry Ebling joined his father took over as manager. Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 3 includes the 'A' side, which has some fine guitar work from Vandever.

The Eccentrics

TOP

45:

1. Baby I Need You/She's Ugly (Shane 60) Jan 1966

Another obscure garage band from Texas. Baby I Need You features a compulsive rhythm guitar and is quite superb slice of garage. The flip is a slower ballad in Animals vein, with typical "girl put-down" lyrics.

Both sides have also resurfaced on the excellent Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 3.

Eccentrics

45:

1	Podunk Holler / Weathermaster	(Fresh FR 32)	Jun 1965

Podunk Holler is a 5-star fuzz'n'farfisa punker with all the ingredients of the so-called "class of '66" - driving rhythm, raucous vocals, screams, stunning break and attitude aplenty. Amazing that this has evaded the compilers. Produced by Jeff Hagen and Kearney Barton with a label address in Sequim, Washington state. The flip is an instrumental.

(Max Waller/Andrew Brown)

The Echoes of Carnaby Street

Personnel incl:

KENNY AHERN	ld gtr	A
DON FEDELE	keyb'ds	A
DONNY GOODSON	drms	A
BILL KERTI	bs	A
WAYNE MAGLEY	gtr	A

45s:

1	No Place Or Time/Baby Doesn't Know	(Thames E-105)	Aug 1966

From Miami, Florida, this quintet were also known as The Echoes and latterly The Echo. No Place Or Time was co-written by Travis "Fairchild" Ximenes of The Clefs Of Lavender Hill. It's a great effort - an upbeat choppy harmony popper that metamorphoses midsong into a mini acid guitar work-out. Initially compiled (erroneously) on EVA's Louisiana Punk Groups From The Sixties Vol. 1 (reissued on CD as Sixties Archives Vol. 3), it has been restored to full glory on Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD). The flip has some outstanding guitar-work too - check it out on The 60's Choice Vol. 2.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich/Roger Maglio)

The Echomen

Personnel:

- BOB DERRICKSON ld gtr A B C
- RANDY RYMER bs A
- GREG HUPPERT keyb'ds A

- GARY ORLINE gtr A
- RICK BARN drms A
- JACK TAYLOR bs B C
- BOB RASMUSSEN keyb'ds B C
- EMMIT CASE drms B
- RICHARD (DICK) POGUE drms C

N.B. line-up 'A' 1964. Line-up B 1966. Line-up C 1966.

45s:

1. (B) Long Green/Chocolate Chip (Fox 1) 1966
2. (C) Watch It Baby/Blue Blue Feeling (Le Jac 3006) 1966

From Minneapolis, Minnesota, this band is most notable for later evolving into the now legendary Bedlam Four. Their version of Long Green got a further airing on Hipsville, Vol. 3. Richard 'Dick' Pogue came in shortly before they evolved into the Bedlam Four and also wrote Watch It Baby. (Max Waller)

The Echo(es)

TOP

Personnel incl:

KENNY AHERN	ld gtr	A
DON FEDELE	keyb'ds	A
DONNY GOODSON	drms	A
BILL KERTI	bs	A
WAYNE MAGLEY	gtr	A

45s:

1	Every Second Of The Day/Wild Mother	(Art 198)	1966
2	Don't Know Why/Young People	(Rebound 001)	1967
3	Cheatin' Girl/Shadows	(Argee 103)	1968

NB: 2 and 3 released as by The Echo.

From Miami, Florida this band also issued a 45 as The Echoes Of Carnaby Street. After their 1st 45 above as The Echoes, they were credited as The Echo. Every Second Of The Day is on Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 7. Shadows, a piece of fragmented psych, is on Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD), which reveals that a different version made it onto a Universal Recording demo disc with a different flip (credited to The Echoes).

(Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich/Roger Maglio)

Echos

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN BERECEK ld gtr
- TIM HOGAN rhythm gtr, keyb'ds
- AL TWISS bs
- JOE VITALE drms

45:

1. Around And Around / You Make Me Feel Good (Dupree 101) 196?

An unheard and uncompiled 45 to-date but the titles (presumably covers of Chuck Berry and the Zombies) sound encouraging. What's more interesting about this Canton, Ohio outfit is that after this 45 they changed their name to The Chylds, of Hay Girl fame. Joe Vitale later did time with The Measles and Marble Cake. In the '70s he raised his profile higher as Joe Walsh's main "Barnstormer" from 1972 to 1978, and released a solo album in 1974 - Roller Coaster Weekend (Atlantic SD 18114).

(George Gell/Max Waller)

Eclectic Mouse

TOP

Personnel incl:
STEVE FORMAN A

ALBUM:

1(A)	EVERYTHING I'VE GOT	(Capitol SKAO 395)	1969

45:

1	Everything I Got Belongs To You/Where Do The Hounds Go?	(Capitol 2706)	1969

Nicely packaged to look like an EMI or Harvest import (just so we knew it was sophisticated) this concept album is basically the vision of one individual... Steve Forman. Subtitled "Suite for voice, wind ensemble, percussion and electric instruments" it fits into an odd catagory of big band music that was at the same time ambitious and experimental in all the best ways one could be at the end of the '60s. A very interesting record, not always rock or psych - there are no fuzz guitars (well maybe once) and sometimes there are effects on the vocals. Lyrically it is "deep", stylistically eclectic. Kind of like Lionel Bart directing a Three Dog Night / Grand Wazoo collaberation with Gary Usher producing. There are no song titles, just six movements.

A quote from the inner sleeve notes: "Musicians are challenging the long accepted borders seperating popular and intellectual music, expanding the musical vocabulary on both sides. The styles are blending and the stereotypes are disappearing. Todays competent American musician must be as familiar with Eric Clapton and Sly Stone as with Beethoven and Bartok, Miles Davis and Oliver Nelson, Jim Webb or Buck Owens. Past predjudices within the industry are becomming myths...". It was recorded in Arizona.

The flip to their 45, Everything I Got Belongs to You, compiled on U Spaces: Psychedelic Archaology Vol. 3 (CDR) has been described as a very rare, very strange psychedelic horn freakout!

(Ben Chaput/Ted Batho/Peter Principle)

Ecology

Personnel incl:

- JERRY COLE A
- RAY RUFF A
- VAL STOECKLEIN A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ENVIRONMENT/EVOLUTION (Happy Tiger HT 1008) 1970

Occasionally psychy but mainly a melodic folk-country-rock concept album recorded at Gold Star in Hollywood. Featuring Val Stoecklein, ex-Bluethings, and Texas artist-turned producer Ray Ruff. (Max Waller)

Eddie and The Showmen

45s:

1. Toes On The Nose/Border Town (Liberty 55566) 1963
2. Squad Car/Scratch (Liberty 55608) 1963
3. Movin'/Mr Rebel (Liberty 55659) 1964
4. Far Away Places/Lanky Bones (Liberty 55695) 1964
5. We Are The Young/Young And Lonely (Liberty 55720) 1964

Squad Car can also be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 6. A Californian combo.

Eden's Children

Personnel:

- RICHARD 'SHAM' SCHAMACK gtr, vcls A
- LARRY KILEY bs A
- JIMMY STURMAN drms A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) EDEN'S CHILDREN (ABC ABCS 624) 1968 196
2. (A) SURE LOOK'S REAL (ABC ABCS 652) 1968 -

NB. (2) has been reissued. (1) and (2) have also been reissued on one CD (Head 3797) 1997.

45:

1. Goodbye Girl/Just Let Go (ABC Paramount 11053) 1968

A power trio from Boston whose influences varied from hard to soft rock and from jazz to eastern music. Their first LP included some virtuoso guitar especially on Just Let Go and Don't Tell Me and is better than their second, which was patchy but interesting in places.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Edge to Electric Piano Playground

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Edge
- Edge of Darkness
- Jim Edger and The Roadrunners
- Edgewood
- Edison Electric Band
- Bob Edmund
- George Edwards and Friends
- Jack Eely and The Courtmen
- 8th Wonders (Of The World)
- Billy Elder
- Elastic Prism
- The Elastik Band
- El Campo Jades
- Elderberry Jak
- The Elders
- The Electras
- Electras
- The Electric Company
- The Electric Flag
- Electric Junkyard
- Electric Love
- Electric Piano Playground

The Edge

TOP

Personnel:

- RICHARD BARCELLONA ld gtr, vcls A
- GALLEN MURPHY bs, gtr, vcls A
- JOHN KEITH bs, gtr, keyb'ds A
- DAVID NOVOGROSKI drms, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) EDGE (Nose NRS 48003) 1970

45:

1. Seen Through The Eyes/Something New (Enith 101 1) April 1969

Barcellona and Keith had earlier played together in American Revolution and Novogroski had been with Boston Tea Party making it likely that this was a Hollywood band although it is frequently reported as a San Francisco band. They may have also recorded 45s for Stonehenge Records, the 'A' side of the Enith one can be found on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (Vol. 9 on CD). The album is not very good at all.

Edge of Darkness

TOP

45:

1	So Many Years/Mean Town	(Jamie 1363)	Sept. 1968

Formed in Oswego, New York, they hooked up with management from Utica NY, which got them gigs throughout New york state and Eastern Pennsylvania. They also recorded several original tracks in Philadelphia, but a promised LP was never released.

You can check out Mean Town on Boulders, Vol. 6.

(Vernon Joynson/Mike Markesich)

Jim Edger and The Roadrunners

TOP

Personnel incl:

- JIM EDGER

ALBUM:

1. DIGGIN' THE '80s (Ditch Witch 1001) 1980

45s:

1. Little Pig/Rains (as by'Road Runners') (Commerce 560) 1963
2. Little Pig/Rains (Chan 111) 1963
3. Hey Little Girl/Apartment No. 9 (Hama 1002) 1963 or 1964
4. Treasure Of Love/Funny How I Feel (DJ B 117) 1964
5. New Girl In Town/What Is One To Do (Bismarck 1011) 1966
6. Wait A Little Longer/Tennessee Stud (Scepter 12147) 1966
7. You Can't Lie To A Liar/The Place (Discovery 1001) 1967
8. Artificial Army/Cheat On Your Neighbor (PS) (Atco Pompeii 66684) 1968
9. Who Do You Turn To/Lots Of Time (Ditch Witch 1001) 1968

Originally from Oklahoma City but they spent a lot of time in Dallas and may have relocated there in 1966 for a while. A long-lived rock band, neither garage nor psychedelic - The Place, which later resurfaced on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6, is untypical of their output.

Edgewood

Personnel:

DAVID BEAVER	keyb'ds, vcls	A
DAVID MAYO	keyb'ds, gtr, vcls	A
STEVE SPEAR	bs	A
JIM TABUTTON	gtr	A
PAT TAYLOR	gtr, vcls	A
JOEL WILLIAMS	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	SHIP OF LABOR	(TMI Z 30971)	1969

A Memphis group, produced by Jimmy Johnson. Beaver, Tarbutton and Spear were all members of The Gentrys at different periods. This album is interesting, mixing the Gentrys' sound with elaborated keyboards parts. It comes in a stunning sleeve showing chained slave hands on the front and chained feet on the back.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Edison Electric Band

Personnel:

FREEBO	gtr, bs	A
MARK JORDAN	keyb'ds, gtr	A
RIP STOCK	vcls, drms	A
T.J. TINDALL	gtr, vcls	A
(NORMAN PRIDE	congas	A)
(MICHAEL ZIEGLER	gtr	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	BLESS YOU, DR. WOODWARD	(Cotillion SD 9022)	1970

NB: (1) also released in France (Atlantic 650194) 1970.

45:

1	Ship Of The Future/West Wind	(Cotillion 44071)	1970

Formerly Thomas A. Edison Electric Band, and originating in Pennsylvania, their album is an amalgam of jazz, rock, blues and soul influences.

The all too short instrumental Lebanese Packhorse is rather pleasant.

(Vernon Joynson / Scott Blackerby)

Bob Edmund

Personnel incl:

- BOB EDMUND vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) I SEE NO COLORS (Rabo) 1970 R3/4

An extremely rare local folk/rock album from a New York artist. The original cover design was rejected by the printer as it portrayed an American flag with different colours. The issued version has a note about censorship superimposed over the original design.

George Edwards and Friends

45:

1. Norwegian Wood/Never Mind I'm Freezing (Dunwich 117) 1966

Ex-folk troubadour who cut a solo 45 for Dunwich and a raw cover of Bob Dylan's Quit Your Low Down Ways, that remained unreleased until its inclusion on Happy Tiger's Early Chicago compilation in 1971 (it has also resurfaced on The Dunwich Records Story and If You're Ready! The Best Of Dunwich Records, Vol. 2). He was working as in-house session vocalist with Dunwich before he joined H.P. Lovecraft in February 1967.

Jack Eely and The Courtmen

Personnel:

- CHARLIE COE bs
- JACK EELY gtr, ld vcls
- LEON ETTINGER bs
- MICHAEL "MONK" McGRATH drms
- BILL TRUITT keyb'ds

45s:

1. David's Mood/Louie Louie '66 (Bang 520) 1966
2. Louie Go Home/Ride Ride Baby (Bang 534) 1966

Jack Eely actually founded The Kingsmen and sang vocals on their classic Louie Louie, before leaving shortly after. After a spell with a group called The Squires he formed The Courtmen. Their Louie, Louie '66, a pretty straightorward rehash of The Kingsmen's classic, can also be found on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 7.

Bill Truitt went on to Easy Chair in 1971, whilst Charlie Coe played with Paul Revere & The Raiders and Michael

McGrath was later with Emergency Exit. (Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero)

8th Wonders (Of The World)

45:

1. Must Have Your Love/Summer Dreamin' (Uptite #002) c1967

Orchestrated psychedelic pop melodrama by an unknown outfit on an obscure New York City label. Despite minor brass intrusions, this should appeal to Anglophile Rubble-ites - the outro guarantees a re-appraisal of first listen. The flip fails to live up to the promise - pretty straight. (Max Waller)

Billy Elder

45:

1	Poor Old Organ Grinder/Don't Take The Night Away (Pathway 101)	19??

NB: (1) also released as Pleasure (Tower 506) Sep. 1969.

This 45 features Sgt.Peppery pop backed by a haunting and heavily echoed 'baroque-psych' ballad. The latter can be heard by lucky owners of the Growing Slowly Insane (CD) and Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 11, under it's alternate personality Pleasure.

(Max Waller)

Electric Prism

45s:

1	Time Change/In The Garden	(Kustom 101)	1968
2	Red, Purple & Blue / The Longer Nights Of Summer	(Jana 6969)	1969
3	Going Down / Let One Hurt Do	(Jana 6970)	1970

Psychedelic Moods, Part Two and The Psychedelic Experience Vol. 3 give this Houston band's In The Garden an airing. Musically it leans toward heavier psychedelia in the Iron Butterfly and Vanilla Fudge tradition, but was secluded on the 'B' side of a Third Rail style pop ditty.

(Max Waller)

The Elastik Band

Personnel:

- DAVID CORTOPASSI

- RUSSELL KERGER
- RUSTY KURIG
- VINCE SILVERA
- SCOTT WILLIAMS

45s:

1. Got A Better Reason Now/Mixed Emotions (DCA DM 1033) 19??
2. Paper Mache/Spazz (Atco 6537) 1967
3. I Would Still Love You/In A Family Tree (Kapp 965) 1968
4. Tunesmith/Tunesmith (Kapp 968) 1969

NB: (2) trivia fans will note that Papier Mache was misspelt on the Atco label... the typo was corrected on the U.K. Stateside (SS 2036) release on the 45, but the EMI subsidiary misspelt the band name as The Elastick Band instead. (4) radio station promo 45.

A band they all love to hate? Reknowned for the utterly tasteless, and politically incorrect Spazz, this frantic punker has overshadowed their other 'pop' 45s, and probably from the bands point of view given a skewed perspective of what they were 'about'. Still a compulsive riff, with lyrics sung with in an almost (modern-day) Rap style, a bluesy mid-break, and a Electric Prunes style arrangement are hard to ignore.

Amazingly, the Spazz 45 was also scheduled for release in the U.K. on EMI subsiduary Stateside, and demo copies were pressed, credited to The Elastick Band. Even stranger is that Spazz was played exactly once (almost) in Australia on Sydney radio station 2UW as a request.. about one minute into the track the DJ lifted the needle and apologised to the audience.. "I think we've heard about enough of that, I don't know what they're getting at and I don't care what they're getting at, but I find it offensive and I'm sure a lot of other people do too...."

Originally known as This Side Up, they recorded a 45 for Century in 1966, before a slight personnel shuffle resulted in the new monicker The Elastic Band.

Given the reaction to Spazz, it's understandable that many people are disappointed with their other three 45s, which are in a straightforward pop-ballad vein. The final 45, Tunesmith was a Jimmy Webb composition and appears to have only been released as a Radio Promo, despite being advertised in Billboard. The Elastik Band's version was actually an attempt to beat another groups rendition which was then shooting up the charts somewhere in Oregon or Washington. They recorded it as a "cover record" for KAPP who flew them in from Arizona and within three days Universal recorded, pressed and distributed 45s of their cut. As a result, stations refused to play either record cause they didn't know which was the cover!

David Cortopassi later went on to play in Dangerfield, who recorded further 45s for Kapp and then he played with Rodan. Rodan also featured Scott Page on horns, who went on to play with Supertramp and Pink Floyd. Their manager loved them so much he put out a 12" LP for them gratis! Anyone out there with info??

If you haven't heard Spazz, and garage is your bag... then you're missing possibly one of the most tasteless records ever. Check it out on Pebbles, Vol. 1 and Nuggets, Vol. 2.

Lookout for a CD retrospective (Gear Fab GF-148) due shortly.

(Ivor Trueman/Josh Cortopassi/Tony Allen/Joe Rein/Max Waller)

El Campo Jades

TOP

ALBUM:

1	THE 13th SONG	(Golden Eagle)	1966 SC

A Texan frat/garage rock with good organ.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Elderberry Jak

Personnel incl:

JOE CERISANO	ld vcls	A

ALBUMS:

1	ELDERBERRYJAK	(Forest)	1968
2	LONG OVERDUE	(Electric Fox)	1972?

NB: (2) is a reissue of (1).

An obscure outfit from North Central West Virginia, whose album has been described as psychedelic. The "Forest" pressing hasn't been verified, and may not exist.

Joe Cerisano has a website at: http://www.cerisano.com

(Clark Faville/Dave Haines)

The Elders

Personnel:

JERRY BEHRING	bs	A
ROD BUDLINGY	gtr	A
RON SKINNER	drums	A
PAT SMITH	keyb'ds	A

ALBUM:

1	LOOKING FOR THE ANSWER	(Audio Fidelity 6247)	1971

NB: (1) also released in Italy (Audio Fidelity) 1971.

45:

1	Looking For The Answer / It's Too Late To Change	(Audio Fidelity 170)	1970/71

From Dayton Ohio and originally known as Jerry and The Others, they became The Elders in 1970. Their album blends driving guitar and organ with late flower power songs, it was housed in an amazing silver "skull" cover.

(George Gell / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Electras

Personnel:

- BILL BULINSKI gtr A B
- EARL BULINSKI gtr A B C
- TIM ELVING vcls B C
- JERRYFINK drms A B C
- HARVEY KORKKI gtr C
- GARY OMERZA keyb'ds A B C

45s:

1. 'Bout My Love/Memories (Scotty 6194) 1965
2. Dirty OI'Man/Courage To Cry (Scott 6351) 1966
3. Soul Searchin'/This Week's Children (Scotty 6613) 1966
4. Dirty Ol' Man/Your Love (Scotty 6621) 1966
5. I'm Not Talkin'/Pregnant Pig (Scotty 6720) 1967
6. Action Woman/Pregnant Pig (Scotty 6720) 1967
7. * Dirty Ol' Man/This Week's Children (Date 1550) 1967

* Released as by Twas Brillig.

This garage-punk outfit was formed in Ely, Minnesota back in 1961 or 1962. All of their recordings are now hot property - their best know Dirty OI' Man was written and produced by Warren Kendricks, The Litter's producer. This is a superb example of mid-sixties punk with excellent snotty vocals and chainsaw guitar. Check it out on Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1. They also did a studio demo of The Litter's Action Woman which you can find on Get Primitive (The Best Of Pebbles) and Open Up Your Door. The Midwest vs The Rest gives another airing to I'm Not Talkin, which is more mid-sixties punk delivered at breakneck speed. Both Soul Searchin' and This Week's Children can be found on Glimpses, Vol. 4 and Pebbles, Vol. 21 gives an airing to 'Bout My Love. The band later became Twas Brillig.

Bill Bulinski was drafted in 1966 and returned in 1968 just as their name was changed by Warren Kendricks to Twas Brillig. Shortly after Tim Elving was drafted and they called it a day.

The Litter's Rare Tracks LP (which should really be called The Best Of The Rest Of Warren Kendrick) features many non-Litter tracks including the Electras/Twas Brillig tracks Dirty OI' Man, You Love, This Week's Children and Soul Searching. The later is even stronger than The Litter's version and considering that The Litter covered other tracks that The Electras had done first these guys must get justifiably pissed off when people say they're The Litter. Let's hope this finally puts the record straight and that The Electras receive due credit.

There's also an album on Get Hip (GHAS 5066), which was released in 1993, entitled Electras vs. Scotsmen/Victors. It contains tracks from 1965 to 1968 by Warren Kendrick's earliest project The Scotsmen and the pre-Litter Victors. Get Hip has also recently issued a 7": Soul Searchin/Action Woman (GHAS 67) on coloured vinyl. For those who prefer CDs, Erik Lindgren has put together The Scotty Story (Arf! Arf! AA-043) which includes all the album tracks plus some unreleased goodies. Recommended.

Electras

ALBUM:

1. THE ELECTRAS (ELP 201) 196?

Not to be confused with the Minnesota bunch, this private press album was the work of a prep-rock band from St. Pauls academy in Concord, New Hampshire. (Max Waller)

The Electric Company

45:

1. Scarey Business/You Remind Me Of Her (Titan FF-1735) 1966

A Californian band who recorded an outstanding 45. The 'A' side is a superb R&B/punker whilst the flip is more in the folk-punk genre. Both sides have resurfaced on Moxie Punk EP Box Set, whilst Scarey Business is also featured on The Psychedelic Experience Vol. 3 (CD).

(Max Waller)

The Electric Flag

- MIKE BLOOMFIELD gtr A B
- HARVEY BROOKS bs A
- MARCUS DOUBLEDAY trumpet A
- BARRY GOLDBERG organ A B
- NICK GRAVENITES vcls A B
- BUDDY MILES drms A B
- HERBIE RICH gtr A
- PETE STRAZZA sax A
- ROGER TROY bs B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) THE TRIP (Soundtrack) (Sidewalk T/ST 5908) 1967 -
2. (A) A LONG TIME COMIN' (Columbia CS 9597) 1968 31
3. (A) ELECTRIC FLAG (Columbia CS 9714) 1969 76
4. (A) THE BEST OF (Columbia C 30422) 1971 -
5. (B) THE BAND KEPT PLAYING (Atlantic SD 18112) 1974 -

NB: (2) also released in the U.K. and France (CBS 62394) in 1968, (3) also released in the U.K. and France (CBS 63462) in 1969. (4) also released in France, CBS 63976. (5) also released in the U.K. (Atlantic K 50090) in 1974. (1) has been reissued on CD.

45s:

1. (A) Peter's Trip/Green And Gold (Sidewalk 929) 1967
2. (A) Groovin' Is Easy/Over Lovin' You (PS) (Columbia 44307) 1968
3. (A) Sunny/Soul Searchin' (Columbia 44765) 1969
4. (B) Sweet Soul Music/Every Now And Then (Atlantic 3222) 1975
5. (B) Doctor Oh Doctor/The Band Kept Playing (Atlantic 3237) 1975

This short-lived but successful band certainly deserve a mention. They were formed in 1967 by Mike Bloomfield after he'd left The Butterfield Blues Band and were full of talent, particularly black soul drummer Buddy Miles, who'd done session work with Otis Redding and Wilson Pickett, Chicago singer-composer Nick Gravenites and keyboardist Goldberg, who'd previously played with Steve Miller. They played a combination of soul and Chicago blues which was flavoured with a taint of psychedelia and liberal use of flashy electronics, which were ideally suited to the times. They were also one of the first bands to use a brass section. Their first break was an extremely well received performance at the Monterey Festival in 1967. To some degree their appearance in the Peter Fonda/Roger Corman movie 'The Trip' consolidated their growing reputation. Collectors of psychedelia may be interested in this largely instrumental album, which included tracks like Joint Passing and Psych Soap, which were evocative of the growing psychedelic culture. The Peter's Trip 45 was also taken from the album.

Their first album proper, A Long Time Comin', was basically blues-rock with an occasional hint of psychedelia. It got to No. 31 in the U.S. album charts and was certainly stronger than their next effort, The Electric Flag, which despite climbing to no. 76, failed to mask the internal turmoil that hard drug abuse and internal stresses had created and which led to their disintegration in 1969. They did reunite in a studio project with Mama Cass shortly after, which was completed then shelved.

In 1974 the band made a reunion album with Roger Troy replacing Harvey Brooks on bass; but the sparkle had deserted their music and the end result was patchy and can't be recommended.

After their split in 1969 Buddy Miles went on to form The Buddy Miles Express, Barry Goldberg made several solo albums and Nick Gravenites worked for Big Brother and The Holding Company. In 1975 Bloomfield and Goldberg were instrumental in forming KGB, one of the most disastrous supergroups ever.

A compilation CD, Old Glory, was issued on the Rock Artifacts label in 1995. It contains 17 tracks, among them five of which are previously unreleased. Also issued on CD in 1995: The Best Of An American Music Band, a 60-minute CD on One Way which contains previously unreleased alternate takes, demos and live tracks from the Monterey festival. It's available on Columbia Legacy (CK 57629) in the UK. There's also a 1983 album, Groovin' Is Easy (Thunderbolt), which contains previously unreleased live material.

Electric Junkyard

TOP

Personnel:

CAPLAN ?	A
TRUNZ ?	A

ALBUM:

1()	THE ELECTRIC JUNKYARD	(RCA LSP-4158)	1969

From New York and arranged by Frank Hunter, this was an instrumental group covering two tracks from 'Hair' plus some original tunes with promising titles: Smoke Coming Out Of Your Ears, Freeway, The Joint, Annie's Place, and Roundtrip. The instrumentation used is comprised of electrified horns, guitars, fuzz bass, drums and electric piano and their message is "Dig It!".

The result is as strange as the sleeve (a bearded bare-chested man with a red wig and muddy shoes sitting in a bin): messy horns-leaden tracks with, from place to place, occasional excellent guitar solos for a mix of rock, psyche and horn pop.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Electric Love

TOP

45:

1. This Seat Is Saved/Gotta Get Back To My Baby (Charay 47) 196?

Both sides of this 45, written by one Dave Smith, appear on The Major Bill Tapes Vol. 2 - The Fort Worth Teen Scene (Big Beat WIK 59) 1987 so we know they were based in Fort Worth in the mid-sixties. With its partly spoken lyrics the 'A' side differed from the usual punk fare. It was also included on Flashback, Vol. 5.

Electric Piano Playground

TOP

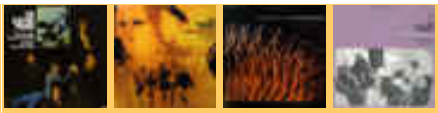
ALBUM:

1. PSYCHEDELIC SEEDS (Bell) 1967

45:

1. Flower Song/Good Vibrations (Bell 695) 1967

A short-lived, possibly studio-only outfit. The album consists of covers of popular sixties songs done in a psychedelic style, although it's also been suggested that Psychedelic Seeds is a "Children's" record - whether of the "Flower" variety is open to question!



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Electric Prunes to Elephant's Memory

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Electric Prunes
- The Electric Screwdriver
- Electric Toilet
- Electric Tomorrow
- Electric Train
- The Electrical Banana
- Elephant
- Elephant's Memory

The Electric Prunes

Personnel:

JIM LOWE	vcls, gtr, auto harp, perc	A B C
PRESTON RITTER	drms, perc	A
'WEASEL' SPAGNOLA	vcls, gtr	A B
MARK TULIN	bs, keyb'ds	A B C
KEN WILLIAMS	gtr	A B C
MIKE WEAKLEY ("QUINT")	drms	B C
MIKE GANNON	gtr	C
JOHN HERREN	keyb'ds	D
MARK KINCAID	gtr, vcls	D
RON MORGAN	gtr	D
BRETT WADE	bs, vcls, flute	D
RICHARD WHETSTONE	drms, gtr, vcls	D

ALBUM:

1(A)	ELECTRIC PRUNES (I HAD TOO MUCH TO DREAM LAST NIGHT)	(Reprise RLP 6248)	1967 113
2(A/B)	UNDERGROUND	(Reprise RLP 6262)	1967 172
3(C)	MASS IN F MINOR	(Reprise RLP 6275)	1967 135
4(C)	RELEASE OF AN OATH	(Reprise RLP 6316)	1968 -
5(D)	JUST GOOD OLD ROCK AND ROLL	(Reprise RSLP 6347)	1968
6(-)	LONG DAYS FLIGHT	(Edsel ED 179)	1986
7(B)	STOCKHOLM '67	(Heartbeat (CD)HB67)	1997
8(-)	THE SANCTIONS/JIM AND THE LORDS: THEN CAME THE ELECTRIC PRUNES	(Heartbeat (CD)HB65)	2000

NB. (3) and (4) also released in France (Vogue/Reprise CRV 6078 and CRV 6099 respectively) 1968. (3) Later reissued by Midi. (6) is a 'best of'compilation. (1) and (2) reissued on one CD (Head 3397) 1997. (1) and (2) have also been issued individually on pirate CD's with inferior quality live tracks, from the Stockholm '67 show. (3) and (6) also issued on CD. (4) & (5) issued on one CD. (7) is an official reissue of a live performance from Swedish Radio. (8) is an official reissue of pre-Electric Prunes material.

45s:

1	Ain't It Hard/Little Olive	(Reprise 0473)	1966
2	I Had Too Much To Dream (Last Night)/Luvin'	(Reprise 0532)	1966 11
3	Get MeTo The World On Time/Are You Lovin' Me More (But Enjoying It Less)	(Reprise 0564)	1967 27
4	Dr Do Good/Hideaway	(Reprise 0594)	1967 128
5	The Great Banana Hoax/Wind-Up Toys	(Reprise 0607)	1967 -
6	Sanctus/Credo	(Reprise PRO 277)	1967
7	Everybody Knows You're Not In Love/You Never Had It Better	(Reprise 0652)	1968
8	I Had Too Much To Dream Last Night/Get Me To The World On Time (double A re-release)	(Reprise 0704)	1968
9	Help Us/The Adoration	(Reprise PRO 305)	1968
10	Sanctus/Credo	(Reprise PRO 277)	1968
11	Shadows (one-sided promo)	(Reprise PRO 287)	1968
12	Hey Mr President/Flowing Smoothly	(Reprise 0756)	1969
13	Sell/Violent Rose	(Reprise 0833)	1969
14	Finders, Keepers, Losers, Weepers/Love Grows	(Reprise 0858)	1969
15	Vox Wah-Wah Ad	(Thomas 08-0001 32-0)	1966/1967

NB: (6), (9), (10), (11), (13), (14), (15) Promo only releases. (7) and (12) also released in France with PS. There are also two rare French EPs with PS.

The Electric Prunes originated from the San Fernando Valley, a suburb of Los Angeles, although many bio's mistakenly claim that they came from Seattle, since I Had Too Much Too Dream (Last Night) first broke in Seattle and then Boston. In fact their very first live concert to promote the record was in Seattle, and according to their drummer Preston Ritter, a DJ there started the mis-information, by claiming that the band were from that area.

More commercially successful and classier than the average punk bands, they experimented with different types of music. Their first single Ain't It Hard was a brash punk number written by Roger and Terrye Tillson, members of folk-rock duo, Gypsy Trips. It was not a hit and was not issued in the U.K. but, along with the flip side, Little Olive and both sides of their next single (I Had Too Much To Dream Last Night/Luvin), it appeared on a French EP (Reprise RVEP 60098) which is the rarest 'Prunes item. Their debut album provided two U.S. hit singles: I Had Too Much To Dream (Last Night) and Get Me To The World On Time. Both also attracted airplay in the U.K. reaching Nos 49 and 42 respectively. The former, also featured as the first track on the Nuggets compilation, starts with a freaky fuzz- box intro - the brain child of their producer, Dave Hassinger. The lyrics and their sound were tailor-made for the druggy days of 1967. The latter was a driving, urgent rocker, superimposed on top of a culminating whistle sound. Also on the album and the B side to their second single, was Are You Lovin' Me More (But Enjoying It Less) which used echo-drumming techniques to good effect. Some of the other numbers like Onie and Train For Tomorrow, were a little more laid back, but still featured acid guitar work. The album peaked at No 113 in the charts.

The second album, which was not issued in the UK, developed their psychedelic experience further. Recorded for the most part by line-up (A), drummer Preston Ritter recalls that he was given the choice between credited on the cover or being given royalties... In fact his replacement, Quint, only played on five tracks, Children of Rain, Antique Doll, I, Capt. Glory and Long Day's Flight. Despite the line-up changes, the album is more consistent, than their debut with fine acid guitar work and effective drumming. Sadly, however, it failed to maintain their stream of hits. Of particular note are the psychedelic rockers The Great Banana Hoax, Long Day's Flight (both unsuccessful singles), - the latter a U.K. only issue, Children of Rain and strange, more subtle tracks like Wind-up Toys, Antique Doll and I Happen To Love You. This was a fine album, and it is a pity the group didn't pursue this direction further. It made No 172 in the U.S. charts. Also of note around this time is a non-LP single Everybody Knows You're Not In Love/You've Never Had It Better. This was also issued in the U.K. and in France. The B side is a fine dance number with a great psychedelic intro. It is included on the Chainsaw compilation. Another recording of note from 1968 is a second French EP (Reprise RVEP 601 10) consisting of Long Days Flight, Dr. Do Good, The Great Banana Hoax, and Captain Glory.

Towards the end of '67 the band embarked on a European Tour, and for many years a short poor quality tape circulated of a recording from Swedish Radio. Intrigued by the performance, 'Prunes fan Simon Edwards, spent years tracking down the master-tapes, and clearing the rights to the material. In 1997 his efforts were rewarded with the release of Stockholm '67 in a lavish gatefold sleeve, with booklet of Gered Mankowitz photographs, and tour reminicences from 'Prunes, James Lowe and Mark Tulin. The album, which was also released on CD, is on a par with the excellent H.P. Lovecraft and Shadows of Knight live albums that have recently resurfaced, and captures the band in full flight - It also includes about 45 minutes of material, approx 20 mins more than was originally broadcast.

Their next album Mass In F Minor was backed by an additional orchestra of studio musicians and as the group's identity started to be swamped by Hassinger and Axelrod's grandiose concepts, members of the original outfit started to drop out of the project. Canadian band The Collectors, then based in L.A. and whose two album's were also produced by Hassinger, were brought in to plug the gaps. Mass... is regarded as one of the first rock operas, a mix of gregorian music and psychedelic pop with vocals in Latin, which was written, arranged and conducted by David Axelrod - a neoclassical musician. The opening track Kyrie Eleison is widely known and backed the acid trip in the cemetery scene of Easy Rider. The album climbed to No 135 and was re-released by Midi in 1974. They made a further album in a similar vein that may have also included members of The Collectors, before breaking up, although Dave Hassinger later attempted an unsuccessful comeback with the LP, Good Old Rock And Roll, which contained none of the band's original members. Recent interviews of some original members, notably in Record Collector and Jeff Jarema's Here 'Tis #8, reveal that they were unaware of subsequent machinations by Hassinger so it seems unlikely that the whole truth of the post-Mass period will ever fully emerge.

The Shadows promo is horrendously rare. Shadows was also included in a little-known movie 'The Name Of The Game Is Kill'. It sounds like the song was originally intended for The Doors. A 'Record Collector' article also revealed that different mixes of their 45s were made for the European and American markets. 'For England, they felt that the music ought to be a little more up, peppier. So we would put the material on the capstan and make the songs faster', James Lowe told journalist Mark Paytress.

In July 2000 Heartbeat have released Then Came The Electric Prunes which unearths pre-Prunes Audiodisc acetates recorded chez Russ Bottomley - tweleve tracks from 27th March 1965 by the Sanctions (Jim Lowe, Ken Williams, Mark Tulin and Mike Weakley) and four tracks from 29th September 1965 by Jim And The Lords (with Dave Hargrave added to the previous line-up). The Sanctions' sound is of a garage band with surf roots performing popular covers including Long Tall Sally, Money, Moon Dog, Love Potion Number Nine, What'd I Say, Jack The Ripper and of course Louie Louie. With the Jim and The Lords tracks - Little Olive, I'm Free, I'm Down and Too Many People - the surf influences are replaced by raw harmonica and a raucous punk style ala Stones and Seeds. A folk-rock lilt on I'm Free marks another development since the March sessions. The sound quality is surprisingly good considering the source. With previously unseen photos this is a must-have for any Prunes fan.

Long Day's Flight is featured on Vol. 1 of the Garage Music For Psych Heads compilation, Ain't It Hard on Sound Of The Sixties and I Got My Mojo Workin' on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 2.

The Electric Prunes were undoubtedly pioneers in experimentation with psychedelic and quasi-religious music. They certainly made some fine singles and had they not been overshadowed by San Francisco's own psychedelic sound may well have achieved wider recognition. Their first two albums, both reissued a few years ago, or alternatively the Edsel compilation are highly recommended. The band also did radio spots for Vox Wha-Wha pedals - the advert is included on Pebbles, Vol. 2 and Pebbles Box Set. Turds On A Bum Ride Vol's 1 & 2 (CD) also includes Hey Mr. President.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

For more information on the band, check their website: http://www.electricprunes.com/

The Electric Screwdriver

ALBUM:

1	WORKING THE ELECTRIC SCREWDRIVER	(Spar)	c1970

On the same label as the Now Generation, another album of exploito covers.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Electric Toilet

ALBUM:

1. IN THE HANDS OF KARMA (Nasca 9004) 1970

NB. (1) reissued as Psycho 8 (1983) and on CD (Golden Classics Rebirth GRC 007) 1996.

45:

1. In The Hands Of Karma / Revelations (Nasco ET) c1970

NB: (1) may have been promo only.

From Memphis, Tennessee, Dave Hall was a guitarist in this band, which split up when two of its members were killed in a car crash in July 1970. The album is over-rated, although the reissue is probably worth purchasing if only for the inter-whirling organ and guitar, and the resultant psychedelic haze on its best track, Within Your State Of Mind.

Electric Tomorrow

45:

1	Sugar Cube/The Electric Tomorrow	(World Pacific 77860)	1966

Psychedelic cash-in instrumental for uneventful trips in elevators. Sugar Cube has subsequently popped up on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 1 (CD).

(Max Waller)

Electric Train

Personnel incl:

BILL BOWEN	drms	A
GARY PHILIPPET	vcls	A

45:

1 Try Harder / Through Winter And Sunshine (Moxie M-106) p1984

The one-sided Moxie 45 was a reissue of a rare acetate and is thought to be this Marin County, CA. band. Former Pullice-man Philippet was later in the Front Line and Freedom Highway. Bowen too was later in the Front Line and joined another Marin outfit, the Sons Of Champlin, at the end of 1966.

(Max Waller/Alec Palao)

The Electrical Banana

Personnel:

MICHAEL IOLI	drms	A
PREBEN JESSEN	organ	A
DEAN KOHLER	vcls, gtr	A
JON SUGDEN	bs	A

45s:

1 There She Goes Again / She's Gone (Custom acetate) 1967

NB: (1) just 10 copies with customized labels were pressed, credited to "The Banana".

This short-lived venture came together in Vietnam whilst Dean Kohler (formerly of The Satellites out of Portsmouth, Va.) was doing his service for Uncle Sam. Despite its rarity both sides have been preserved on Aliens, Psychos And Wild Things (CD) which reveals that the band adopted the Banana theme from the Velvet Underground LP, playing in banana uniforms around the region's service clubs.

A cover of Lou Reed's There She Goes Again is backed by a Kohler original - two pleasant jangley folk-rockers recorded live (and "on tour") in an army tent. Ten copies were pressed up with individualized custom labels and distributed to all involved. Dean Kohler would be back in the studio again on his safe return to Portsmouth at the end of the year.

(Brent Hosier/Dr.Simon Trent D.S.U./Max Waller)

Elephant

Personnel incl:

GEOFF LEVIN	gtr	A
DICK GLASS	vcls, gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	ELEPHANT	(Capitol SMAS 11154)	1973 SC
2(A)	THE ELEPHANT	(Monwatcher 20001)	1974 SC

NB: (2) was reissued on Big Tree.

A melodic West-Coast group with superb guitar parts. Formerly with People, Geoff Levin was also the guitarist of Jimmy Spheeris, a Californian hippie balladeer.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Elephant's Memory

Personnel:

RICHARD "CHESTER" AYERS	gtr	A
STAN BRONSTEIN	vcls, sax	A B C D
RICK FRANK	drms, vcls	A B C D
MICHAL SHAPIRO	vcls	A
RICHARD SUSSMAN	piano, organ	A
JOHN WARD	bs, gtr, drms	A B
MYRON YULES	bs, trombone	A B
DAVID COHEN	gtr, vcls, keyb'ds	B
GUY PERATORI	gtr, vcls	B
MIKE ROSE	gtr	B
WAYNE TEX GABRIEL	gtr	C
ADAM IPPOLITO	keyb'ds, vcls	C
GARY VAN SCYOC	bs, vcls	C D
CHRIS ROBISON	keyb'ds	D
JOHN SACHS	gtr	D
(JOHN LENNON	vcls, piano	C)
(YOKO ONO	vcls	C)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	ELEPHANT MEMORY	(Buddah BDS-5033)	1969
2(A)	SONGS FROM MIDNIGHT COWBOY	(Buddah BDS-5038)	1970
3(B)	TAKE IT TO THE STREETS	(Metromedia MD-1035)	1971
4(C)	ELEPHANT'S MEMORY	(Apple SMAS 3389)	1972
5(D)	ANGEL'S FOREVER	(Polydor 2383 260)	1974

45s:

1	Keep Free pt. 1/pt. 2	(Buddha ?)	1968
2	Crossroads Of The Stepping Stones/Jungle Gym	(Buddah ?)	1969
3	Mongoose/ I Couldn't Dream	(Metromedia MM 210)	1970
4	Skyscraper Commando/ Power	(Metromedia MM 210)	1970

NB: (2) also released in Germany with a PS (Buddah 201050). (3) also released in France with a PS (CBS 5207). (4) 'A' side is a non-LP cut.

Originating from New York, Elephant Memory was formed in 1967 by Bronstein and Frank, who were both playing the strip joint circuit. They soon became known for their outrageous performances, with light shows, destruction of sculptures and weird outfits. After recruiting a young Israelian singer, Michal Shapiro they were signed to the Wes Farrell Organization, a powerful management and production company. Their first album was released in February 1969 and has a flashing sleeve, the group members being pictured nude, covered with paints, in front of an elephant. An interesting record, mixing psyche, dreamy ballads, jazz and hard rock, two of the songs, Old Man Willow and Jungle Gym At The Zoo appeared on the soundtrack to 'Midnight Cowboy'.

With the success of this film, Buddah released Songs From Midnight Cowboy, which was basically a reissue of the first album with new versions of Everybody's Talkin' and Theme From Midnight Cowboy.

Michal Shapiro, Richard Sussman and Chester Ayers then left with Richard Sussman joining Grootna. A new line-up was put together and the next album, produced by Ted Cooper, Take It To The Street was totally different their debut. Elephant's Memory were now playing a very effective hard-rock, obviously inspired by the Detroit groups of the era. Tracks like Power, Piece Now, Damn and Mongoose are powerful and Mongoose became a hit. Incidentally Rick Frank is credited as "Reek Havoc" on the sleeve.

Following this album, the line-up changed again and the band backed John Lennon and Yoko Ono on Some Time In New York City and Approximately Infinite Universe. Their fourth album was naturally issued on Apple and has a good reputation.

In 1973, they backed Chuck Berry on his Bio album and finally released a deceptive final record in 1974, produced at the Rockfield Studios in Wales by Steve Smith.

Stan Bronstein launched a jazz-rock career, Rick Frank formed various local bands but died in the '90s. Adam Ippolito went on to play with soul and funk groups and Wayne Tex Gabriel joined Mitch Ryder.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Elite to (Original) Emotions

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Elite
- The Elite U.F.O.
- Elizabeth
- Ellie Pop
- Steve Elliot
- Ron Elliott
- Elmer City Rambling Dogs
- The Elopers
- The Elusives
- Elysian Field
- The Embers
- Tim Emery
- The Emblems
- The Emblems
- The Emergency Exit
- Emilon
- Emory University Almanac
- (Original) Emotions

The Elite

TOP

Personnel:

- ROGER BROWNLEE vcls, gtr A
- EDDIE DEATON ld gtr, A
- BOB BARNES bs A
- BRUCE LAIR drms A

45s:

1. One Potato/Two Potato (Charay 17) 1966
2. My Confusion/I'll Come To You (Charay 31) 1967
3. Bye Bye Baby/All I Want Is You (Charay 56) 1967

Formed by three seventeen year olds from Paschal High School in Fort Worth. Brownlee was a weekend addition.

They won many Battle Of The Bands competitions and were the house band at Fort Worth's Teen-a-Go-Go for a while. Their first 45 was an instrumental.

Barnes and Deaton later formed a flower power outfit, Those Guys, with Bob Barnes later going on to the Yellow Payges.

Compilation coverage has included: My Confusion on Back From The Grave, Vol. 1 and Acid Dreams Epitaph CD; One Potato, My Confusion, Bye Bye Baby and I'll Come To You on The Major Bill Tapes Vol. 2 - The Fort Worth Teen Scene and both One Potato and Two Potato on The Big Itch.

The Elite U.F.O.

TOP

45:

1	Now Who's Good Enough/Tarantula	(M.A.I.)	Sept. 1966

From Stanton, Kentucky. The 'A' side uses the riff from Louie Go Home while the 'B' side is a Mexican-flavoured instrumental. The 'A' side has also turned up on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8.

(Vernon Joynson/Mike Markesich)

Elizabeth

TOP

Personnel:

- STEVE WEINGART ld gtr, harp, organ, vcls A
- BOB PATTERSON gtr, vcls A
- JIM DAHME gtr, flte, vcls A
- STEVE BRUNO organ, bs A
- HANK RANSOME drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ELIZABETH (Vanguard VSD 6501) 1968

This is a fairly standard late sixties rock album with a few highlights such as the fuzz guitar extravaganza on You Should Be More Careful, the rather haunting Alarm Rings Five and the final track When All Else Fails, which is more interesting than most of what has preceded it. Originally from Philadelphia they moved to New York, where they recorded their album. Earlier, drummer Stewkie Antoni, who later played with The Nazz, had played with them and Hank Ransome later played for Good God and Duke Williams and The Extremes.

Ellie Pop

TOP

ALBUM:

1. ELLIE POP (Mainstream S6115) 1968

45:

1. Seven North Frederick/Can't Be Love (Mainstream 686) 1968

A light 'n' fresh psychedelic-folk-pop band with quite an Anglophile sound. The album is reasonable.

Steve Elliot

TOP

Personnel incl:

- STEVE ELLIOT A

ALBUM:

1. (A) DEMO (No label SE 1000) 1969 R2

This was a band not a solo artist. The album is a rare local New York folk release in a cool, handmade cover - with guitars, piano, sax and flute. (Clark Faville)

Ron Elliott

TOP

Personnel:

RY COODER	gtr	A
DENNIS DRAGON	drms	A
RON ELLIOTT	gtr, vcls	A
CHRIS ETHRIDGE	bs	A
PAUL HUMPHREY	drms	A
DAN LEVITT	gtr	A
MARC McCLURE	gtr, vcl	A
LYLE RITZ	bs	A
LEON RUSSELL	brass arr.	A
BUD SHANK	flute	A
SAL VALENTINO	tamb	A

ALBUM:

1(A) THE CANDLESTICKMAKER (Warner WS 1833) 1970

NB: (1) reissued on CD in Germany by Line (LECD 9.00944 O) 1990.

A must-have for Beau Brummels fans, the only solo album of Ron Elliott is a excellent follow-up to Triangle and Bradley's Barn. The side-long The Candlestickmaker Suite with its 14' 53" minutes of magnificence, is the most impressive track, but All Time Green, To The City, To The Sea and Deep River Runs Blue are interesting too.

Recorded at Sunwest Studios in Hollywood, all the songs were composed and produced by Elliott, sometime helped by Gary Downey, the co-producer.

Levitt and McClure were previously in Levitt and McClure whom only album was produced by Elliott. In 1971, McClure and Dragon formed Joyous Noise with some help from Elliott. Ron Elliott was later a member of Pan and Giants and reformed the Beau Brummels in 1975.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Elmer City Rambling Dogs

Personnel:

MIKE MASCIARELLI	drms	A
JAMES ROWLAND	ld gtr, jew's harp, hrmnca	A
RICHIE VER-L	keyb'ds	A
(BUTCH WALKER	gtr	A)
TEENY WAR	ld vcls, german slide whistle	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	JAM IT	(Dog Dirt DD1)	1975 SC

A local Pennsylvania, bluesy bar band. Their album is sometimes given a psychedelic tag, which is misleading as it is, essentially, Grateful Dead influenced hillbilly rock. ALl the songs were recorded between January and August 1975 by Tony Pappa at MSI Recording Studio, Pennsauken, NJ or by Frank Virtue, Virtue Recording Studio, Philadelphia. Produced by the group and Eddie Harris, it contains mostly original material with very crude lyrics (Spitball King, Hot Prison Love, The Prowler...) and and almost X-rated drawing in front cover.

(Stephane Rebeschini / Clark Faville)

The Elopers

45:

1	Music To Smoke Bananas By/Peak Beat	(RLW 1267(1286/7))	Sep. 1967

Came out of Colorado and the above psyched-out instrumental from September 1967 can also be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 18: Colorado and The Psychedelic Experience Vol. 2 (CD). It's nothing special though.

The Elusives

45:

1	Won't Find Better Than Me / Lost Love	(Philips 40379)	1966

According to Mike Kuzmin's 'Sounds From The Woods' Pa. book this act came from Northampton, Pennsylvania and were originally known as the Corvairs. They also later recorded as The Scott Bedford Four.

Elysian Field

Personnel:

FRANK BUGBEE	gtr, vcls	A B
MARVIN MAXWELL	drms	A B C D E
JIM SETTLE	bs, vcls	A C D E
GARY JOHNSON	bs, vcls	B C
DENNIS LEDFORD	gtr/bs	C D
MARK MICELI	gtr	C D
DENNY LILE	bs, gtr	D E
RUDY HELM	bs	E

CD:

1(-)	ELYSIAN FIELD	(Gear Fab GF-140)	1999

45s:

1	Kind Of A Man / Alone On Your Doorstep	(Imperial 66318)	Aug 1968
2	24 Hours Of Loneliness / Strange Changes	(Imperial 66387)	Jul 1969

In 1968 Bugbee, Settle and Maxwell broke away from Louisville's premier garage band Soul, Inc. to pursue a more pop-oriented style. The resultant brace of 45s on Imperial showed a strong tendency to the orchestrated pop sounds of the Classics IV - no surprise since they too were produced by the Buie/Cobb team.

After the first 45 Settle was replaced for a while by The Oxfords' Gary Johnson. The band wanted to move to an aggressive hard rock style but Imperial were having none of it, rejecting the band's own material and presenting them with more Buie/Cobb songs. The band relented for the second 45 but persisted with their chosen direction. Imperial baulked and terminated the contract. The group carried on until 1971 but nothing more was released.

Interest in their material was renewed after band members responded to the Soul, Inc. entry and were put in touch with Gear Fab. Two CD volumes documenting Soul, Inc. are now accompanied by a CD dedicated to Elysian Field. It comprises the 45 sides but, of more interest here, a baker's dozen of unreleased tracks that are a revelation - excellent hard-rock with scintillating guitar. The cuts vary from Cream-inspired riff-heavy bombardments to crisp vibrant rockers with occasional folk and country influences. Recommended.

(Max Waller)

The Embers

Personnel incl:

JACKIE GORE vcls A

ALBUM:

1(A) BURN YOU A NEW ONE (EEE Records 1069) 1967

A Raleigh, North Carolina white rock act sounding a lot like The Young Rascals (they cover Groovin). They released at least two other albums.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Tim Emery

ALBUM:

1 ALIAS REDD GARRETT (Ros Sound) 1973 R3

A moody psych singer with fuzz guitar, his album is extremely rare.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Emblems

45:

1. We're Gonna Love/Lumberjack Jack (Lamia 1547) 196?

An obscure band from Indiana. The 'A' side was written by Don Basore, from Sir Winston and The Commons, who also recorded it. It has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 9.

The Emblems

Personnel incl:

ROY STRAIGIS A

45:

1 (It Would Still Be A) Cruel World / Whenever I'm Feeling Low (Cameo C-293) 1963

A cooing teen ballad backed by dynamic Mersey-inspired beat. This Philadelphia act were a studio-only group, according to Mike Kuzmin's 'Sounds From The Woods' Pa. discography. They were later known as the Liverpools and released two Beatlemania cash-in LPs in 1964 on Wyncote, the first of which includes Whenever I'm Feeling Low.

(Max Waller)

The Emergency Exit

Personnel:

- PAULGOLDSMITH ld gtr A B C
- BILL LEYRITZ drms A
- LUTHER RABB bs A B C
- JIM WALTERS gtr A B C
- MIKE McGRATH drms B
- AL MALOSKY drms C

45s:

1. Maybe Too Late/Why Girl? (Ru-Ro 412) 1966
2. Maybe Too Late/Why Girl? (Emergency Exit) 1966
3. Maybe Too Late/Why Girl? (Dunhill 4060) 1966
4. It's Too Late Baby/You've Been Changing Your Mind (Dunhill 4082) 1967

Formed in Seattle, Washington in the Spring of 1965. Goldsmith, Rabb and Walters had all previously played with The Nightsounds, whilst McGrath had been with Jack Eely & The Courtmen. They played beat influenced music and before long became a local live attraction. Their debut 45 was eventually picked up by Dunhill and Why Girl? has subsequently resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 8. This shows the band had achieved a good garage sound. In their heyday during 1967 they appeared with The Beach Boys at the Seattle Center Coliseum and at the Oregon State Fair with B.J. Thomas and The Triumphs.

Al Malosky joined the band from The Liberty Party but when Jim Walters was drafted Emergency Exit broke up, late in 1967. Malosky later played in Easy Chair.

Walters and Rabb later both played together in Ballin' Jack. Goldsmith also went on to several bands including Soldier and Calliope, in which Rabb also had a spell.

Emilon

ALBUM:

1. EMILON (Amos) 1968

An obscure psychedelic album which is now attracting some interest from collectors.

Emory University Almanac

Personnel:

KNIGHT	A
MOZENENGRAZN	A
QUAVE	A

ALBUM:

1	SO IT GOES	(CQL-666)	1973

This album has an early '70s spacey progressive sound with some real good keyboards and fuzz guitar. The Mozenengraz Song is by far the best cut on the album.

(Roger Maglio)

(Original) Emotions

45:

1. You're A Better Man Than I / Are You Real? (Johnson J-746)196?
2. You're A Better Man Than I / Colour My World (South Park 10000) 1970/1

NB: (2) is a Canadian release, as Original Emotions.

Probably from about 1968, Better Man differs from other covers - it's pretty competent but instead of the usual Yardbirds-type rave up in the 'break', here we get some keyboard workout followed by a short drum solo - hmm. Are You Real? is sorta '68 'psych-pop', orchestrated unfortunately but the use of echoes and phasing plus some good wah-wah guitar lifts it out of the dross. (Max Waller).

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Emperor's to Era of Sound

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Emperor's
- Enchanters 4
- The End
- The End
- The Endd
- The Endless
- The Energy Package
- The Enfields
- Butch Engle and The Styx
- John English III
- The Englishmen
- The English Muffins
- The English Setters
- Enoch Smoky
- The Epics
- The Epics
- The Epics
- The Epicureans
- Epitome
- Era of Sound

The Emperor's

TOP

45s:

1	Searchin' Round The World / A Fool For You I've Been	(Wickwire 13003)	1964
2	Blue Day/Laughin' Linda (PS)	(Wickwire 13007)	196?
3	You Make Me Feel Good / Heat Wave	(2+2 102)	196?
4	I Want My Woman / And Then	(Sabra 5555)	May 1965

From San Bernadino, California it's not 100% confirmed that the Wickwire/2+2 group is the same as that which recorded for Sabra, but it is likely. Lelan Rodgers who produced the classic but politically incorrect I Want My Woman 45, was working in L.A. at the time as an independent record producer.

Compilation coverage has included: I Want My Woman on Epitaph For A Legend, I Was A Teenage Caveman, '60s Punk EP, Vol. 1 and Boulders Punk EP Box Set; And Then on Austin Landing, Vol. 2; Laughin' Linda on Grab This And Dance and finally Blue Day on I Can Hear Raindrops.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Enchanters 4

45s:

1	I Don't Know/Like Tuff	()	196?
2	Lost You/Route 66	(Mal 1019)	196?

This garage band came from Oak Park, Illinois. Their first 45, I Don't Know is a mid-tempo mersey sound, while the flip is a guitar instrumental... Lost You has resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 7.

(Mike Markesich/Vernon Joynson)

The End

45:

1. Not Fade Away/Memorandum (Cha Cha 746) 1966

Came out of Chicago. Not Fade Away has resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 1. You can also find the flip on Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD).

The End

45:

1. Bad Night/Make Our Love Come Through (Insegrievious CR 31007) c1967

Aram Heller's 'Till The Stroke Of Dawn' tells us that this bunch hailed from Philips Academy, Andover, Massachusetts, well-spring of the 'prep-rock' genre and many of its best proponents (Rising Storm of course). That prep-rock aura oozes through. The 'A' side is real cool New England garage and the flip is a competent beat-ballad. (Max Waller)

The Endd

Personnel incl:

- RUSS SANDERS ld vcls

- LARRY ANDERSON bs

45s:

1. So Sad/Emancipation (Seascape SS-500) IR65
2. Out Of My Hands/Project Blue (Seascape SS-501) 1966
3. Gonna Send You Back To Mother/Don't It Make You Feel Like Crying (Seascape SS-503) 196?
4. Come On In To My World/This Is Really The Zoo Plus Two (Seascape SS-504) 1967

Hailing from La Porte, Indiana, they originally used just one 'd' and their first folk-rock 45 was issued using that spelling. By contrast the follow-up is a primitive garage punker. You'll find the 'A' side on Pebbles, Vol. 9, Pebbles (CD), Vol. 1 or on the Pebbles Box Set. The flip is a cover of The Banshees composition.

The 'A' side to their final effort was a heavy West Coast influenced number with fine guitar and drumming, which got another airing on Hoosier Hotshots. The flip, a short acoustic guitar dominated instrumental, can be found on Everything You Always Wanted To Know.... CD. Mike Markesich tells us that the Seascape 502 release was by a different band.

The Endless

TOP

Personnel:

- MIKE LYONS rhythm gtr
- JACK McATEE ld gtr
- PAT McATEE bs,lead vcls
- CHUCK MOORMAN keyb'ds
- MIKE O'BRIEN drums

45:

1. Prevailing Darkness/Tomorrow's Song (Cardinal 521) December 1966

From Springfield, Ohio. The 'A' side is very much in the garage punk mould and comes with snarling vocals and farfisa organ. The flip is more sensitive - a Zombies influenced composition with chiming guitars. You can hear both sides on Highs In The Mid-Sixties: Vol. 21: Ohio, Part 2. Prevailing Darkness is also on Vile Vinyl Vol. 2. Apart from their sole 45, five unreleased tracks exist which include alternate versions of the 45 tracks. These are to be featured on a forthcoming CD set The Mus-I-Col Story on Get Hip.

(George Gell/Max Waller/Vernon Joynson)

The Energy Package

TOP

45:

1	This Is The 12th Night/See That I Come Home	(Laurie 3392)	June 1967

From Westbury, NY, a town on Long Island, this act were a popular draw in the top Manhattan discotheques. Several members of this group reformed shortly after The Energy Package's demise, and renamed themselves The Boys From New York City.

You can also find the 'A' side to their 45 on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 7 and the flip on Mindrocker, Vol. 10.

NB: Any info taggin' these groups as Massachusetts based is erroneous...

(Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

The Enfields

TOP

Personnel:

- GORDON BERL drms A B C
- JOHN BERNARD gtr A B C
- BILL GALLERY bs A B
- MAC MORGAN vcls A
- TED MUNDA gtr A B C
- ROBIN EATON vcls B C
- JOHN RHOADS bs C

ALBUM:

1. () THE SONGS OF TED MUNDA (Distortions DB 1003) 1991
2. () THE ENFIELDS AND THE FRIENDS OF THE FAMILY (Get Hip GHAS 5000) 199?

45s:

1. The Eyes Of The World/The Eyes Of The World (Richie RI-669) 1965/6
2. She Already Has Somebody/I'm For Things You Do (Richie RI-670) 1966
3. You Don't Have Very Far/Face To Face (Richie RI-671) 1966
4. Twelve Months Coming/Time Card (Richie RI-675) 1967

This outfit formed in Wilmington, Delaware around 1964. Ted Munda and Gordon Berl had earlier played in an outfit called The Playboys with a third guy called Rick. Bernard Gallery and Eaton had previously played in a quartet named The Touchstones with a fourth guy called Charles Jenner, which played mostly surf music. With the British invasion so strong at the time they opted for a British name to reflect the sound they were striving for. There was after all a town in England called Enfield, the Royal Enfield motorcycle and a British rifle named the Enfield. They got their first break in late 1965 when they were taken under the wings of Vince Rago, who managed several local Delaware bands in the fifties and sixties. The group agreed to make a record and at Vince Rago's suggestion the same song was put on both sides so that dee-jays would know which side to play. Eyes Of The World created quite a lot of interest locally with its Beatle-like harmonies and some nice minor chord guitar work. The follow- up, She Already Has Somebody, was more polished, a minor-key folk rocker with some fine guitar work from John Bernard, and already The Enfields had become Wilmington's top band. You Don't Have Very Far was a quieter, reflective ballad but the flip, Face To Face was one of their finest moments with a compelling "Taxman" riff.

Bill Gallery left the band shortly after the third single. He was replaced by John Rhoads from The Wrecking Crew -

another local band that included Jeff Daking, who later joined The Blues Magoos. In early 1967 they travelled to the Virtue Recording Studios in Philadelphia to record cuts for a possible album. Twelve Months Coming, Time Card and four other songs were recorded for the album. The tape ended up costing quite a bit of money and Vince Rago decided not to buy it. The studio's owner overdubbed it with a different vocalist and sold it to Capitol records, where it remains today. Rago, meanwhile, took the band to an inferior studio in New Jersey, where less good versions of Twelve Months Coming and Time Card were recorded and released on a 45 by Rago without the band's consent. The Enfields decided to call it a day in disgust and the record flopped. Ted Munda, who had written all the band's songs, formed a new outfit The Friends Of The Family with John Rhoads and two members of another local band, The Tuds.

The Distortions retrospective album collects all The Enfields and most of The Friends Of The Family tracks together and provides an excellent insight into this obscure ouffit who produced some magical moments that deserve wider recognition. Get Hip have also released a simliar CD retrospective, which also includes previously unreleased material.

In addition A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 1 features both sides of their second 45 and She Already Has Somebody can also be heard on What A Way To Die.

Butch Engle and The Styx

TOP

Personnel:

BUTCH ENGLE	vcls	A
LARRY GERUGHTY	keyb'ds	A
RICK MORRISON	drms	A
HAPPINESS SMITH	bs	A
BOB ZAMNORA	gtr	A

45:

1	Going Home/I Like Her	(Loma 2065)	196?

From Mill Valley, Marin County, this five-piece were closely connected with Ron Elliot of Beau Brummels, who co-wrote all their songs. You'll find Going Home on *Boulders, Vol. 7*and I Like Her on Vol. 10 of the same series. More recently a welter of tracks have been unearthed on Big Beat's Nuggets From The Golden State' CD series, so check 'em out: Going Home plus three unreleased tracks are included on Good Things Are Happening; two more unreleased tracks on Someone To Love and three on What A Way To Come Down.

Butch Engle may also have recorded a 45 with The Showmen. See also The Styx.

(Max Waller/Alec Palao)

John English III

TOP

45s:

1	I Need You Near /?	(Sabra # unkn)	196?
2	Moanin' / Just Don't Complain	(Moonglow M-5011)	1966

NB: (2) as John English III and The Lemondrops.

Formerly with The Preachers, this L.A. based singer used them on some of his later 'solo' recordings under different monickers, e.g. The Lemondrops on the Moonglow 45 - some discography books list this as by The Preachers. Another monicker was John English III and The Carnaby Commoners but no releases have come to light.

Boulders Vol.7 includes I Need You Near. Just Don't Complain, co-composed with The Preachers' Rudy Garza, is on Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

The Englishmen

TOP

Personnel:

WARREN DANIELS	bs, vcls	A
TOMMY HOWARD	gtr	A
TOMMY MEDLIN	keyb'ds	A
RONNIE WHEELER	drms	A
JOHN WORKMAN	vcls, gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	SUMMER IS HERE	(Justice 155)	c1967

NB: (1) reissued on Collectables (COL-CD-0609) 1995.

Apart from their own composition, Summer Is Here, we have a snappy-suited clubbie band, plodding through instrumentals, R&B, teen ballads, easy, Latin and beat covers. Even their attempt at 96 Tears is fairly routine and flat. As with The Checkmates, best to stick to the known Justice classics and avoid disappointment.

(Max Waller)

The English Muffins

TOP

Personnel:

WILLIAM CRAUN	drms	A
MARC FARLEY	bs, vcls	A
DANNY LEGGE	gtr	A
ED "SHRED" SCHROEDER	ld gtr, vcls	A
LARRY TRAITOR	vcls	A

45:

1	Leave Or Stay/It's My Pride	(Gama 702)	1966

A quintet who were at college in Bridgewater, Virginia but have tended to be regarded as a Washington, DC band. This was reinforced by the inclusion of their fuzz-fest Leave Or Stay on the Signed D.C. compilation.

By 1967 they'd been rechristened as The Seventh Seal and journeyed forth to Winston-Salem, NC to record what turned out to be an unreleased LP for the Justice label. It was eventually released as a limited edition in 1999 - Reflections (Justice JLP-0).

The English Muffins on B.T. Puppy was another outfit - an all-girl group - which puts a totally different complexion on the name!

(Max Waller)

The English Setters

Personnel incl:

- DAVID ALVES
- CHRIS GRIMES
- DAVE GRIMES
- LARRY GRAY
- PUNKY MEADOWS gtr

45s:

1. Tragedy/If She's All Right (Glad Hamp 2029) 1966
2. It Shouldn't Happen To A Dog/Someday You'll See (Glad Hamp 2033) 1966
3. Wake Up/She's In Love (Jubilee 5560) 1967

Formed in Washington D.C., but relocated to Arlington, Virginia, this band offered a pretty average garage fayre. They've had good compilation coverage though:- Tragedy can be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 7 and A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 4; It Shouldn't Happen To A Dog was covered on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 2 and the flipside resurfaced on Vol. 4 of the same series.

The 2nd 45 is decent folk-rock pop.

In 1968, Meadows and the Grimes Brothers formed the Cherry People and later their frontman, Punky Meadows went on to form Angel, who recorded for Casablanca, toured with Kiss, and also appeared in the Jodie Foster film "Foxes".

(Max Waller / Don Smith / Stephane Rebeschini)

Enoch Smoky

Personnel:

DICKIE DOUGLAS	gtr

45:

1	It's Cruel / Roll Over Beethoven	(Pumpkin Seed 83-4010)	197?

Based in Iowa City, this band was formed in 1969 by guitarist Dickie Douglas and their popularity kept them going until 1976. Douglas had previously been with the Legends, Al's Untouchables and St.John and The Heads. After the latter outfit had relocated to Los Angeles the other members - Phil Jones, Felix Falcon and Casey Foutz - teamed up with Crabby Appleton, leaving Douglas to return alone to Iowa.

It's Cruel can be heard on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych.

(Erik Lindgren/Max Waller)

The Epics

TOP

45:

1. Give Me A Chance/Louis Come Home (Zen 202) 1965

An LA band - one of the few to record a variation on Louie, Louie. Indeed Louis Come Home with its superb growling vocals was one of the finest versions to come out of LA. You'll also find it on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 1. They were unconnected to any other Epics (on Aga, HBR or Love) so far as is known.

The Epics

TOP

45:

1. White Collar House/She Believed In Me (Dolphin 3821) 1966

From Columbus, Ohio, this bands 45 also has a rare pic sleeve which shows the band wearing long hair wigs. Expect to pay $100+ for an original 45, $250+ with the pic sleeve!! White Collar House can be also heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 21. It's a pretty standard garage punker.

(Max Waller / George Gell)

The Epics

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BOB WINKELMAN gtr

45:

1. Homesick/Humpty Dumpty (Love 670312) 1967

A good trashy garage punker from Walnut Creek, California. You can hear the flip on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 8. The asking price for this 45 in 1997 was $300, probably due to the fact that this was Bob Winkelman's outfit prior to him joining Frumious Bandersnatch. (Max Waller)

The Epicureans

TOP

Personnel:

- JERRY CLARK gtr, sax A B C D
- STEVE MURPHY ld gtr, vcls A B C D E
- PHIL MESSERLI keyb'ds A B
- WAYNE WOLTERS bs BC
- TOM BROCKMAN drms A B
- TIM MESSERLI keyb'ds C D E
- DENNIS THATE drms c
- DICK DUSEK drms D E
- JOHN GOOSSEN gtr E

45s:

1. Baby Be Mine/I Don't Know Why I Cry (IGL 113) 1966
2. Break Out And Run/Blue Side Of Lonely (UA 551) 1969

This band hailed from Fairmont, Minnesota and they had in Steve Murphy one of the state's finest guitarists. Jerry Clark had previously been the leader of another local garage band, The Corvairs and Murphy had fronted The Pacers, who were also a local garage act. Through the latter part of 1965 and into early 1966 they competed in several local 'Battle Of The Band' type events. One of their contest wins enabled them to use some recording time at the IGL Studios in Milford, Iowa. Initially four tracks were recorded - Pain Is Evil, Somewhere, Someplace, Sometime, My Baby Went Away and P W Blues. They didn't get beyond acetate form but the band returned shortly after to record a 45, which remains sought-after by collectors today in part due to Steve Murphy's fine vocal performance. The second 45 was more in the hard rock genre. In 1971 the band became known as Highway.

I Don't Know Why I Cry can be heard on The IGL Rock Story Part One and The Best Of IGL Folk Rock. Two of their unreleased 1966 tracks - Pain Is Evil and Baby Be Mine are also included on the double-CD IGL Roof Garden Dance Jamboree '66. (Max Waller)

Epitome

TOP

45:

1. I Need You/Flower Power (Mona-Lee 219) 1967

This New York City suburbs band cover The Other Half's I Need You (written by Mike Port and Randy Holden) - it's a very different version and doesn't quite take off. The flip isn't as bad as it might sound.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Era of Sound

TOP

Personnel incl:

MICHAEL NARANJO	A
REYNALDO NARANJO	A

45:

1	Girl In The Mini Skirt/Stay With Me	(Delta R 2255)	May 1967

From Espanola, New Mexico, members included native American brothers Michael and Reynaldo Naranjo. The 'A' side of their 45, is a rather catchy blast coming with a strong chorus sandwiched between the buzz of fuzztone guitars.

*Girl In The Mini Skirt*has subsequently resurfaced on New Mexico Punk From The Sixties, 60's Punk EP, Vol. 1, Garagelands Vol. 2, Sixties Archives Vol. 4 CD and the King Richard & The Knights Precision CD.

(Vernon Joynson/Mike Markesich)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Eric to A Euphonious Wail

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Eric
- Mark Eric
- Eric and The Norsemen
- Erik
- Erik and The Smoke Ponies
- Ernie and The Emperors
- Ernie's Funny's
- ESB
- The Escapades
- The Escorts
- The Escorts
- Esko Affair
- The Esquires
- The Esquires
- The Esquires
- The Esquires
- The Esquires
- The Essentials
- The Estes Brothers
- Eternity's Children
- The Ethics
- The Ethics
- E-Types
- Euclid
- A Euphonious Wail

Eric

ALBUM:

1. ERIC (C.E.I.) 197? R2/3

An inter-racial quartet named Eric, not a solo album, from Ohio. On offer is weak pop/rock by a semi-inept band. (Clark Faville)

Mark Eric

ALBUM:

1	A MIDSUMMER'S DAY DREAM	(Revue RS7210)	1969

A soft psych album with orchestrations in the mould of Sagittarius or the Beach Boys's Pet Sounds. It's beginning to attract some collectors. Revue was an UNI/MCA subsidiary.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Eric and The Norsemen

Personnel:

FOREST CLOUD	bs	A
ROGER JOHNSON	vcls, rhythm gtr	A B
MIKE WILLMAN	vcls, ld gtr	A B
JIM KOCHER	drums	A B
FRANK BERRIER	bs	B
MITCH??	kyb'ds	B

ALBUM:

1	ERIC AND THE NORSEMEN	(Studio House acetate)	1967

NB: (1) acetate only.

45:

1	Get It On/Scotch And Soda	(Chrome 45-103)	Apr. 1967

This 45 was the work of a garage/frat rock quartet from Lawrence in Kansas. The 'A' side has since resurfaced on The Garage Zone, Vol. 1. It's a Paul Revere And The Raiders cover with some droning slide guitar and distorted orchestration.

Some Super 8mm home movie footage of the band, filmed between 1965-1968, backed by an acetate of the band's unreleased album is also known to be circulating amongst collectors. The album, like the single, is standard frat rock fare, bringing to mind the Justice albums, and features performances of, among others, Little Latin Lupe Lu, Money, Turn On Your Lovelight, Little Red Riding Hood, and Double Shot Of My Baby's Love. One track from it, Norsemen's Theme has also been unearthed on Let's Dig 'Em Up Vol. 2.

(Mike Dugo / Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Erik

ALBUM:

1	LOOK WHERE I AM	(Vanguard VRS-9267)	1968

A psyche folk singer whose album is now beginning to attract collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Erik and The Smoke Ponies

Personnel:

RICHARD KLASKO	A
GIACONI	A

45:

1	I'll Give You More/From Where I'm Standing	(Kama Sutra KA 227)	May 1967

45:

1.

The origins of this band are unknown but the 'A' side of their sole vinyl epitaph is a fuzzy punky pop effort. Both sides were written by Richard Klasko, helped by Giaconi for the unfortunately very forgettable 'B' side and produced by Klasko, Hy Mizrahi and John Linde. As Linde also produced Group Image and the New York Rock & Roll Ensemble, it may be a New York area group.

I'll Give You More can also be found on Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 9.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Ernie and The Emperors

Personnel incl:

ERNIE OROSCO	A

45:

1	Meet Me At The Corner/Got A Lot I Want To Say	(Reprise 0414)	1965

Merseybeat style pop and slightly fuzzy folk-punk from the Californian outfit who became Ernie's Funnys and later Giant Crab. The drummer of this particular incarnation went on to The Dovers.

Ernie Orosco was later known as Ernie Joseph, formed Big Brother and released a solo album.

(Max Waller / Craig Morrison / Alec Palao)

Ernie's Funny's

Personnel incl:
ERNIE OROSCO A

45:
1 Thru' The Fields/Shimmey Like Kate (Yardbird 8004) 1967

Formerly Ernie and The Emperors and pre-Giant Crab. Average pop-beat put out on the Starfires' label.

After Giant Crab, Ernie Orosco was better known as Ernie Joseph and formed Big Brother as well as releasing a solo album.

(Max Waller/Alec Palao)

ESB

Personnel:

- GEORGE CALDWELL
- RICHARD FORTUNATO
- PATRICK BURKE
- STEVE LAGANA
- ROBERT ZINNER

45:

1. Mushroom People/Let Me Touch You (In Arts IA 102) 1967

The above fivesome are credited on both sides of this 45, so it seems fair to assume they comprised the band. The 'A' side is weird and strangely fragmented and has surfaced on An Overdose of Heavy Psych CD and High All The Time Vol. 2. In Arts was a Californian label.

Burke, Lagana and Fortunate went on to form Fields, a late sixties power-trio with slightly less chemical influences. Fields were Los Angeles based.

Richard Fortunato had earlier made some recordings with post-Vejtables personnel in 1966 and was also with The Preachers of Who Do You Love fame.

Can anyone confirm if ESB was previously W.C. Fields Electric String Band which latterly included George Caldwell of The Bees?

The Escapades

45s:

1. Tell No Lies/She's The Kind (XL 356) 1966
2. Tell No Lies/She's The Kind (Arbet 1010/11) 1966
3. Mad Mad Mad/I Try So Hard (Verve VK 10415) 1966

A mid-sixties punk outfit from the Memphis area. Tell No Lies can be found on Pebbles, Vol. 5, She's The Kind on Sixties Rebellion Vol's 1 & 2 (CD), Mad Mad Mad on Gathering Of The Tribe and on Boulders, Vol. 7. Fairly typical garage-punk.

The Escorts

TOP

Personnel incl:

ROGER BOOTH	vcls

45:

1	Heart Of Mine/The Twelfth Of Never	(Fredlo Records 6416)	1964

From Davenport, Iowa, an upbeat pop rock/garage single. Heart Of Mine was written by Booth.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Escorts

TOP

ALBUM:

1	BRING DOWN THE HOUSE	(Teo)	1966 R1

A Virginian garage/frat band. Their album, which was recorded live, consists of standards such as Louie Louie, Gloria, The Last Time, and Shout etc.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Esko Affair

TOP

45s:

1. Morning Dull Fires/Salt & Pepper (Mercury 72887) 1969
2. On Broadway/On A Summer's Day With You (Mercury 72934) 1969

From Philadelphia and formed by two brothers surnamed Esko, who'd previously been in the Liberation News Service. Touted as 'psych', which it is not, the 2nd 45s covers Broadway in a heavy Fudge-like style with some good acidic guitar, but is orchestrated and a little brassy - on the whole above-par. The flip is a tender pop ballad with orchestra again and woodwind more to the fore.

Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 7 also includes the 'A' side to their first 45, Moming Dull Fires. (Max Waller)

The Esquires

Personnel:

- CHUCK SNELLING
- DICK THORNBERRY
- WES HORNE
- TERRY HALL

45s:

1. Loneliness Is Mine/Come On, Come On (Texan 103) 1966
2. Loneliness Is Mine/Come On, Come On (Glenvalley 103) 1966
3. Time Don't Mean So Much/Summertime (Glenvalley 104) 1966
4. These Are The Tender Years/Judgement Day (Glenvalley 105) 1966
5. These Are The Tender Years/Come On, Come On (Glenvalley 105) 1966

From Irving, Texas in the mid-sixties, although they played mainly around Dallas and Fort Worth. Come On, Come On, a rock'n'roller, was their best known song. Hear it on Texas Flashback Vol. 1 or Flashback, Vol. 1. All of the Glenvalley releases appeared in the same picture sleeve. Judgement Day can also be heard on Highs In The Mid-60s Vol. 11: Texas, Part One and a whole side of Texas Punk Vol. 2 - Music From The Outer Limits (Cicadelic 997) is given over to unreleased tracks , mixes and outtakes by the band. Collectables Acid Visions Box, Set 2 triple CD, probably contains the same material (i.e. the CD features Judgment Day, These Are The Tender Years, Come On Come On, Time Don't Mean So Much, Loneliness Is Mine and Come On Come On (Reprise)). You can also find Time Don't Mean So Much on Straight From The Garage (EP), Vol. 4.

The Esquires

45s:

1. She's My Woman/Misfortune (Dot 16954) Oct 1966
2. Summer Nights/Settle Down (Scratch SI-1234/5) 1967

Unconnected to the better known Texan band, this mob were from Springfield, Missouri. She's My Woman can also be found on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 2. It has some effective organ which blends nicely with the vocals but is hampered by lame guitar work. The Scratch 45 kicks off with a light summery popster with brass but the flip is SO much better. Understated garage-pop oozing with charm and a keening guitar break that ends way too soon - a good candidate for one of those 'loser/desperate garage punker' comps. (Max Waller)

The Esquires

Personnel incl:

1. R. EYMAN

45:

1. Heartaches Stay The Night/Heat (CFP CPR2) 1966

A different band yet again. This time from Tampa, Florida. The 'A' side is a rather good haunting psychedelic pop song. The flip's an instrumental. Both sides can be heard on Eva's Florida Punk Groups From The Sixties compilation.

The Esquires

45:

1. Sadies Way/Big Thing (Alley 650A-1023) 1965

Yet another Esquires from Jonesboro', Arkansas this time. The 'A' side to this late '65 effort can be heard on Hipsville 29 B.C., Vol. 2 or A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 2.

The Esquires

45:

1. Shake A Tail Feather/Down The Track (Salem SR-003) 1965

This Esquires was from Springfield, Massachusetts and were late known as (Steve Walker &) The Bold. (Max Waller).

The Essentials

45:

1. Sunshine Baby/Freedom (Kandy 82042) 1968

Trite pop but the flip is heavy pop-rock interleaved with doses of wah-wah culminating in a great ending. A 'Vibra Sound' pressing. (Max Waller)

The Estes Brothers

Personnel:

- JOE ESTES drms, vcls A
- JOHN ESTES ld gtr A
- BILL MARREN piano, vcls A
- DON SMITH bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) TRANSITIONS (Edcom ED-71-01-LPS) 1971 R5

NB: (1) reissued on Rockadelic (RRLP 17) 1994.

45:

1. Tomorrow's Sunlight / Yesterday's Blues (Estbro # unkn) 1971

Thought to be from Amherst or Lorain Ohio, this outfit's over-hyped album ranges from ballads to harder rock. It does feature some good guitar jams on tracks like Gary's Thought. Good, but not worth the hefty price-tag - pick up the reissue instead! Bill Marren was formerly in The Unknown Kind, who were based in Amherst.

(George Gell / Max Waller / Vernon Joynson)

Eternity's Children

Personnel:

BRUCE BLACKMAN	keyb'ds	A
JERRY BOUNDS	gtr	A
LINDA LAWLEY	vcls	A B C
CHARLIE ROSS	bs	A B C
JOHNNY WALKER	gtr	A
ROY WHITAKER	drms	A B
MIKE McCLAIN	keyb'ds	B C

ALBUMS:

1(A/B)	ETERNITY'S CHILDREN	(Tower 5l23)	1968
2(C)	TIMELESS	(Tower 5144)	1968

NB: There's also a retrospective CD Eternity's Children (Revola CREV062CD) 1999.

45s:

1	Rumors/Wait And See	(A&M 866)	1967 -
2	Mrs Bluebird/Little Boy	(Tower 416)	1968 69
3	Sunshine Among Us/Rupert White	(Tower 439)	1968 117

4	Till I Hear From You/I Wanna Be With You	(Tower 449)	1968
5	Sidewalks Of The Ghetto	(Tower 476)	1969
6	Blue Horizon/Lifetime Day	(Tower 498)	1969
7	Alone Again / From You Unto Us	(Liberty 56162)	1970

NB: (5) flipside was by Charles Ross Ill.

Originally The Phantoms (minus Lawley) they'd formed in Cleveland, Mississippi. After relocating to Biloxi, they recruited Linda Lawley and changed their name to Eternity's Children. With aspirations to become an LA pop-psych band, they honed their skills on the New Orleans circuit (playing as Charlie Rich's backing band?), before venturing to LA to record. Their main claim to fame was Mrs. Bluebird, a minor hit, which was produced by Millenium's Curt Boettcher and Keith Olsen. By the time their first album was released however, Bounds, Walker and Blackman had left, with the latter replaced by Texan McClain (ex-Neurotic Sheep).

Overall their eponymous debut album is a top album for Boettcher fans, and features songs by Boettcher plus other Millenium members - including Flowers, a Michael Fennelly composition dropped from Millennium's Begin album. Curiously, the "cover" of Sagittarius' You know I've Found A Way is the exact same track as the demo logged at the publishers, and may not even feature Eternity's Children at all!

Their second album, was produced by Gary Paxton in Bakersfield, with compositions by Clarence White, Gene Parsons, Ben Benay and Gary & Jan Paxton. Sounding like a tougher 5th Dimension, with a European tinge, akin perhaps to Glitterhouse's performance on the "Barbarella" soundtrack. A couple of the tracks, Blue Horizon and Sidewalks Of The Ghetto were cut with Spooner Oldham and Chips Moman - presumably in Memphis.

Their final 45 included an unreleased Curt Boettcher tune on the 'B' side which may even date back to their first album sessions.

Blackman went on to form Starbuck and later Korona.

The band also recorded a further album which wasn't released at the time. This has recently been discovered by Gear Fab and is due to be reissued together with other bonus material from '65 - '67, sometime in the near future. Alternatively, there is a Revola CD which comprises 25 tracks, covering both LPs and assorted 45s from 1967-1970. This comes with a detailed history by Dawn Eden.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster / Mike Markesich)

The Ethics

TOP

45:

1	(A Whole Lot Of) Confusion/Out Of My Mind	(Dynamic Sound 2001)	1966

From Milwaukee, Wisconsin. On December 30th 1965 they took part with a dozen local acts in the Milwaukee Sentinel Rock'n'Roll Revue. On the lo-fi LP that captured the event (Century 23214) 1966 they can be (sorta) heard performing Down The Road Apiece. In late '66/early '67 they changed their name to Invasion.

You can also find (A Whole Lot Of) Confusion on Boulders, Vol. 6 and Midnight To Sixty-Six.

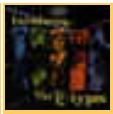
(Max Waller/Andrew Brown)



The Ethics

45:

1. She's A Deceiver/It's OK (Graves 1099) 196?

This band came from the Pacific Northwest. You'll find It's OK on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 5.

E-Types

Personnel incl:
DANNY MONIGOLD	bs	A
REGGIE SHAFFER		A
BOB WENCE		A
CRAIG WILLIAMS
RANDY BARLOW
LARRY HOSFORD

ALBUMS:

1	INTRODUCING THE E-TYPES (CD)	(Sundazed SC 11026)	1996
2	LIVE! (LP)	(Beat Rocket BR 103)	1998

45s:

1	I Can't Do It/Long Before (PS)	(Link-l)	Mar. 1966
2	I Can't Do It/Long Before (PS)	(Dot 16864)	Apr. 1966
3	She Moves Me/Love Of The Loved	(Sunburst SBM 45-001)	Sep. 1966
4	Put The Clock Back On The Wall/4th Street	(Tower 325)	Mar. 1967
5	Big City/Back To Me	(Uptown 754)	Sep. 1967

NB: (1) and (2) feature the same picture sleeve, except for the record label logo.

From Salinas, a farming community fifty miles south of San Jose, this garage band were formed in 1966 and were regulars at local Battle Of The Bands competitions. Spurred on by Don Shepard, who conducted band rehearsals in his garage, and helped provide the band with instruments and song arrangements, they soon developed a good reputation on the San Jose scene.

When their first 45 was picked up by Dot for national distribution they attracted the attention of Ed Cobb, a LA producer who was already handling The Chocolate Watch Band and The Standells. Consequently he produced the Sunburst 45 - the flip was an unreleased Beatles composition. Their magnum opus, however, was Put The Clock Back On The Wall (a Bonner-Gordon composition). Despite the LSD inspired lyrics it was the product of an all night amphetamine session.

The Sundazed CD retrospective is a 22-track compilation which contains all of their singles plus previously unreleased tracks. Most of their 45s also appeared on Eva's 1984 compilation The E-Types versus The Mystlc Tide (Eva 12037), but in addition Put The Clock Back On The Wall resurfaced on the Off The Wall and Nuggets, Vol. 4 compilations and She Moves Me can also be heard on The Sounds On Tha Sixties: San Francisco: Part 1. Fans will also want to check out the Live! retrospective album, recorded at Fresno's Rainbow Ballroom in 1966, which includes their I Can't Do It alongside covers of Yardbirds / Who / Beatles and Dylan standards.

When the group folded in 1967, their manager recredited their last recording Friendly Indians to fictional outfit Charolette Wood, which was released the following year on the San Francisco International Pop Festival compilation.

In 1998 three of the original members, Bob Wence, Danny Monigold and Reggie Shaffer regrouped releasing an independent CD of new and Beatles-covered songs! You can contact them at P.O. Box 808, Moss Landing, CA 95039, to see if they still have a copies. It's reputedly well worth tracking down.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Myndblown / Dan Kramer / Mike Markesich)

Euclid

Personnel:

- GARY LEAVITT vcls, gtr A
- JAY LEAVITT drms A
- MARIS bs A
- RALPH MAZZOTA vcls, gtr A
- HARRY PURINO gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HEAVY EQUIPMENT (Flying Dutchman - Amsterdam AMS 12005) 1970 R2

This Maine - based group contained the Leavitt brothers who had previously led the Cobras, Ralph Mazzota from Lazy Smoke and Maris, who was the bass player for The Ones. Pedigree aside, this is a powerful and inventive psychedelic heavy rock album(!) that stands on its own as a great work. With its backwards bits and oddly-effected vocals, the album stands with one foot in the 1960s and one in the 1970s - leaning into the tracks with a heavy - handed metallic attitude. The album is recommended but has not been reissued yet, so it may be difficult to obtain. Gary Leavitt was killed in 1975, which effectively ended the band - a popular live attraction in the Northeast through 1974. Jay Leavitt still performs with his group Bluesberry Jam in the Maine area. (Clark Faville)

A Euphonious Wail

Personnel:

DOUG HOFFMAN	drms, vcls	A
BART LIBBY	keyb'ds	A
SUSANNE REY	vcls	A
STEVE TRACEY	gtr, vcls	A

GARRY VIOLETTI	bs, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	A EUPHONIOUS WAIL	(Kapp KS 3668)	1973

Heavily influenced by San Francisco bands (Big Brother and the Holding Company and Jefferson Airplane quickly come to mind), the Santa Rosa, California-based A Euphonious Wail sound more '68' than '73.

Built around the talents of drummer Doug Hoffman, keyboardist Bart Libby, singer Suzanne Rey, singer/guitarist Steve Tracy and bassist Gary Violetti, the band's self-titled 1973 debut teamed them with producer Brian Ingoldsby, although Lowell Levinger (of Youngbloods fame) reportedly also helped out. It does have a couple of momemts, but for the most part the album is surprisingly lame and uninspired. Lead vocalists Rey and Tracy have decent, if unexceptional voices (though Rey tends to screach in the higher registers). Taken individually guitar and keyboard propelled rockers such as Pony, We've Got the Chance, When I Start To Live and F# aren't bad, but stretched over an entire album, there simply isn't much to stand out, and the songwriting is average. The band were even less successful when they tried slowing things down - check out the lame ballads Did You Ever and I Want To Be A Star. Needless to say, the album vanished without a trace.

The Michael Hawes cover drawing is interesting, depending on how you look at, you can see something completely abstract, or possibly obscene.

(Scott Blackerby/Vernon Joynson)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Euphoria to Everything Is Everything

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Euphoria
- Euphoria
- Euphoria
- Euphoria
- The Euphoria's Id
- Even Dozen Jug Band
- Ever Green Blues
- Keith Everett
- The Evergreen Blueshoes
- Everyman
- Every Mother's Son
- Everpresent Fullness
- Everyday Things
- Everything Is Everything

Euphoria

TOP

Personnel incl:

- TOM PACHECO gtr, vcls

ALBUM:

1. (A) EUPHORIA (Heritage HTS 35-005) 1969

45:

1. You Must Forget (Part 1)/(Part 2) (Heritage 831) 1971

A lightweight flower power vocal group of two boys and two girls from Texas, although they seem to have spent time in California, too. Pacheco was later in Pacheco and Alexander.

Euphoria

TOP

Personnel:

- WILLIAM LINCOLN A

- HAMILTON WESLEY WATT A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A GIFT FROM EUPHORIA (Capitol SKAO 363) 1969

NB: (1) reissued on CD (See For Miles SEECD 465) 1995.

45:

1. Hungry Women/No Me Tomorrow (Mainstream 655) 1968

Originally from California, where they had earlier recorded with Word, they travelled to Houston around 1967 and settled there recording their superb 45 (the flip in particular is an unnerving haunting number) which later appeared on the compilation A Pot Of Flowers (Mainstream 6100). During their stay in Houston they also recorded four unreleased songs:- Pick It Up, In Time, Walking The Dog and Oh Dear, You Look Like A Dog. These were included on the 1982 compilation Houston Hallucinations and are as psychedelic and good as their recorded output. They returned to California to record the album, which ranged from country rock to psychedelia, and is recommended.

Watt also wrote some material for the L.A. based East Side Kids and he and Lincoln wrote for, co-produced and played on Bernie Schwartz' solo album circa 1969/70.

Euphoria

TOP

Personnel incl:

- D. WALLOCH ld gtr

ALBUM:

1. LOST IN TRANCE (Rainbow 1003) 1973

NB: (1) had a limited reissue in 1990 on Rainbow (8993-1).

Another Euphoria, this time from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. This is a heavy rock album with lots of fine guitar work, particularly on the title track, Lost In Trance, the most psychedelic cut, and Enchanted. All the songs on the album were written by lead guitarist D. Walloch.

This rare album is worth seeking out. (Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Euphoria

TOP

45:

1. Somebody Listen/Dedication Of Sally And Cher (Band Box BB 393) 1969?

Yet another Euphoria, from a Denver label this time. Later sixties hippie-protest-rock that doesn't really pick up until the instrumental break - a keyboard solo followed by some fine distorted guitar. The vocalist keeps saying 'Somebody Listen' but he does go on a bit - the track clocks in at 4:00. The flip is good but a rambling affair too.

(Max Waller)

The Euphoria's Id

Personnel:

- JAY SNEIDER keyb'ds
- JIMMY DROWN gtr
- TERRY DROWN bs
- SKIP SMITH drms

45:

1. Morning Dew/I Just Don't Understand You Baby (Cinema 108/9) 1965
2. Hey Joe/Deception's Ice (Eadit 201,366) 1967

NB: (1) as The Id

An obscure Saco, Maine band who recorded a unique version of Hey Joe which is truly notable for a superb raga-rock guitar break. We have Pebbles, Vol. 22 to thank for bringing it to our attention. The flip side, Deception's Ice, has also got another airing on the New England Teen Scene, Vol. 3, and features more snappy guitar work. All four tracks also feature on the Arf Arf's essential New England Teen Scene CD - a must-have even for those with the original N.E.T.S. vinyl comps. The informative booklet traces the personnel and band evolution in detail, starting back in 1963 with the Electrons, onto the Nomads, then the Id. The Euphoria's Id moniker was used just to avoid confusion with other Id's around at the time. After the band split some members went on to other outfits - the Fate and the Blend.

One spin-off is a solo 45 by Jimmy Drown as Jonathan Cloud - Jonathan Cloud / Stop And Think (Vigor VI 701) 1971- both sides of which are pleasant upbeat pop. Some ex-members of the Telstars may have been helping out on this too.

Rockadelic Records have recently released the post-Euphoria's Id album by Fate. Titled Sergeant Death, it has been taken from an acetate discovered at a garage sale in LA. The album was produced in 1968 by Tommy Kaye. Jay Snyder (Sneider) wrote most of its songs.

(Max Waller)

Even Dozen Jug Band

Personnel incl:

MARIA D'AMATO	vcls, violin	A
FRANK GOODKIN	banjo	A
DAVE GRISMAN	mandolin	A
STEFAN GROSSMAN	gtr, banjo, vcls	A
BOB GURLAND	vcls, trumpet	A
PETE JACOBSON	banjo, gtr	A
STEVE KATZ	washboard, vcls	A

DANNY LAUFFER	jug	A
JOSHUA RIFKIN	piano	A
JOHN SEBASTIAN	gtr, vcls	A
PETER K. SIEGEL	gtr, banjo, vcls	A
FRED WEISZ	fiddle	A
(PEGGY HAINES	jug	A)

ALBUM:

1(A) EVEN DOZEN JUG BAND (Elektra EKS-7246) 19??

A seminal jug band from Cambridge, Massachusetts, although success totally eluded them. John Sebastian would later form the Lovin' Spoonful, Steve Katz the Blues Project and Maria d'Amato played with the Jim Kweskin Jug Band and become better known as Maria Muldaur. Peter Siegel became a producer and later worked with Earth Opera. Today Stefan Grossman is still renowned as a master and teacher of acoustic folk and blues guitar. He also recorded an excellent album Bluescurrent with Blues Project's Danny Kalb in 1969.

(Stephane Rebeschini / Joe Nagarya / Jon Riley)

Ever-Green Blues

TOP

Personnel:

- RICK BARRIO gtr A
- TOM BRAY trumpet A
- MANNY ESPARZA vcls A
- STEVE LAWRENCE organ A
- SAM LOMBARDO drms A
- J. E. MOSWEYN bs A
- KEN WALTHER trombone A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) 7 DO 11 (Mercury SR-61157) 1968
2. () COMIN' ON (ABC ABCS 669) 1969

45s:

1. MidnightConfessions/ That's My Baby (Yes) (Mercury 72756) 1967
2. Laura (Keep Hangin'On)/Yesterday's Coming (Mercury 72780) 1968
3. Feelin' Your Love/Three's A Crowd (Mercury 72826) 1968
4. Funky Woman/Don't Mess Up My Mind (ABC 11198) 1969
5. Girl, I Got Wise/The Moon Is High (ABC 11216) 1969

The first 45 appeared with a picture sleeve and both tracks are included on their first album, as is their second 45. On the sleeve-notes they are referred to as an L.A. group and their album is recorded there, although their fan club was based in Surfside, Florida. Steve Lawrence went on to play with Buddy Miles in the mid-seventies and Tom Bray was with Crazy Horse in the late seventies. The better tracks on their album are the cover versions of Midnight Confessions and Gimme Some Loving.

Three's A Crowd has also resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 6.

Keith Everett

TOP

45:

1	Conscientious Objector/Don't You Know	(Tmp-ting 118)	c1969

An obscure garage rock singer.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Evergreen Blueshoes

TOP

Personnel:

SKIP BATTYN	bs, vcls	A
KEN KLEIST	keyb'ds	A
LANNY MATHIJSSEN	gtr	A
CHESTER McCRACKEN	drms	A
AL ROSENBERG	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE BALLAD OF EVERGREEN BLUESHOES	(Amos 7002)	1969

NB: (1) also released in the UK.

45:

1	Johnny B. Goode/Walking Down The Line	(Amos 115)	1969

A typical hippie outfit with its gatefold sleeve showing eight naked people dancing in the grass while a kind of fat Pan is playing flute. Produced and arranged by Mike Post, most songs were written by the group members. The Everblue Express was composed by Battyn and the ubiquitous Kim Fowley and The Raven is an adaptation of Edgar Allan Poe.

Lots of organ, good guitars and a strong rhythm section. Battyn was previously in Skip and Flip and would later join The Byrds and the Flying Burritos Brothers. He also played on Armaggedon's album and several Kim Fowley productions. Chester "Chet" McCracken would become the drummer of Help and the Doobie Brothers.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Everyman

TOP

Personnel:

- PAUL PENFIELD

45:

1. It's A Pushbutton World/Eternal Youth (Main Line ML-1362) 1966

A novelty-psych 'A' side - acoustic folk-pop with choruses made up of sound effect collages. The flip is an anti-protest protest song. An oddly charming 45 from Cleveland, Paul may have been one of the cast of the Banana Splits kiddies' TV show in the U.S. (this may have been shown in the U.K. too). So, hands up anyone brave enough to confirm this! If this were the case it would explain the novelty aspect and vocal style of Pushbutton World, but the war noises probably precluded it being broadcast to a young audience.

Chuck Mangione and Roger Karshner wrote and produced - their names appear behind many other Cleveland acts/projects -e.g. Bhagavad Gita, National Gallery. Roger was a regional rep for Capitol during the mid-60s, covering Ohio, Virginia and Pennsylvania, and was manager of Cleveland's Outsiders.

(George Gell/Max Waller)

Every Mother's Son

TOP

Personnel:

CHRISTOPHER AUGUSTINE	drms	A
DENNIS LARDEN	vcls, gtr	A
LARRY LARDEN	gtr, vcls	A
SCHUYLER LARSEN	bs	A
BRUCE MILNER	keyb'ds	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	EVERY MOTHER'S SON	(MGM SE 4471)	1967
2(A)	BACK	(MGM SE 44504)	1968

45s:

1	I Believe In You/Come On Down To My Boat	(MGM KGC 191)	1967

The MGM answer to the Monkees. Produced and managed by Wes Farrell (who also produced Beacon Street Union and Elephant's Memory), they released two albums of lightweight pop rock with vocal harmonies and occasional efficient organ. Dennis Larden would later work with Rick Nelson and the Stone Canyon Band.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Everpresent Fullness

TOP

Personnel:

- TOM CARVEY gtr, ld vcls A
- TERRY HAND drms A
- PAUL JOHNSON ld gtr A
- STEVE PUGH bs A
- JACK RYAN electric autoharp, hrmnca, trumpet, washboard, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) EVERPRESENT FULLNESS (White Whale 7132) 1970

45s:

1. Wild About My Lovin'/Fine And Dandy (White Whale 233) 1966
2. Wild About My Lovin'/Doin' A Number (White Whale 233) 1966
3. Darlin'You Can Count On Me/Yeah! (White Whale 248) 1966

A Los Angeles based act who were together between 1965 and '66, and who shared the stage at various concerts with, amongst others, Jefferson Airplane, The Turtles, Buffalo Springfield, Sir Douglas Quintet and Love.

One of many bands who had trouble with the record company executives of the time, Everpresent Fullness best material is said to have remained unrecorded. Their album, was recorded in 1966, but White Whale cut off funding before it was completed and only released it four years later to fulfill their contractual obligation to the band. A disappointing mix of pop and country rock with some ragtime influences, it is now rare but not particularly recommended. The best moments are probably the Lovin' Spoonful cover, Wild About My Lovin' and The Way She Is, written by Warren Zevon, who was then their stablemate on White Whale, as part of the duo Lyme and Cybelle.

Doin' A Number is a fast moving R&B/rock instrumental, which can be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. 3. Some of their 45s are not on the album.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Everyday Things

TOP

Personnel:

STEVE BRYANT	ld gtr, ld vcls	A
JAMES HOLLEY	drms	A
JOHN HOLLINGSWORTH	gtr, keyb'ds	A
PHILIP HOLLINGSWORTH	bs	A

10" EP:

1	EVERYDAY THINGS	(Sundazed SEP 10-161)	2000

The EP presents six unreleased tracks recorded in 1966 by this Fresno, California quartet with recollections from Philip Hollingsworth. Forceful covers of I Ain't No Miracle Worker, Mister You're A Better Man Than I, The House Of The Rising Sun, Pushin' Too Hard and Outcast are joined by one original - Song On A May Morning.

In 1965 the Hollingsworth brothers formed a high school band The Coachmen with Holley. The following year they got together again, adding guitarist Bryant from nearby Merced. Everyday Things became their handle and in late 1966 they laid down these tracks, but split after just a few months.

In 1967 the brothers joined Fresno fellows Kings Verses in Los Angeles. On their return home they called upon Holley again and, as Canterbury Fair, released a 45 featuring a reworked Song On A May Morning.

(Max Waller)

Everything Is Everything

Personnel:

1. DANNY WEISS A
2. CHRIS HILL A

ALBUM:

1. (A) EVERYTHING IS EVERYTHING (Vanguard VSD-6512) 1969

45s:

1. Witchi Tai To/Ooh Baby (Vanguard Apostolic VRS-35082) 1968 69
2. You Don't Need No Music/Ya Hay Ho (Vanguard 35097) 1969

A short-lived outfit whose first 45 actually made it to No. 69 in the U.S. Billboard Top 100. Danny Weiss produced the single, whilst Chris Hills was previously in Free Spirits alongside Jim Pepper, the writer of Witchi Tai To.

Danny Weiss went on to become a producer on the East Coast, working with Clean Living and Jim Pepper, to name a few. He shouldn't however be confused with Danny Weis, the former Iron Butterfly / Rhinoceros member.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Evil to Denny Ezba

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Evil
- Evil Encorporated
- The Evil I
- The Excels
- The Ex-cels
- Excentrics
- The Exception(s)
- Exchequers
- The Executioners
- The Executioners
- Exit
- The Exkursions
- The Exotics
- The Experimental Blues Band
- The Express
- Denny Ezba

Evil

TOP

">

Personnel:

- JEFF ALLEN drms
- JOHN DALTON rhythm gtr
- JOHN DOYLE vcls
- MIKE HUGHES bs
- STAN KINCHEN ld gtr

ALBUM:

1. EVIL / THE MONTELLS (Corduroy CORD 027, Australia) 1997

NB: (1) is a split album with The Montells.

45s:

1. Always Running Around/Whatcha Gonna Do About It (Living Legend 108) 1966

2. Always Running Around/Whatcha Gonna Do About It (Capitol 2038) 1966
3. I'm Movin' On/You Can't Make Me (Norton 826) 1999

- NB: (3) split 45, with 'B' side by The Montells.

A talented Miami, Florida punk band, worthy of investigation. Drummer Jeff Allen, had earlier played with The Montells / H.M. Subjects and made frequent trips to England, where he picked up the latest releases. Subsequently Evil used to cover tunes by The Pretty Things, Fairies, Move, Downliner's Sect etc, before most of their counterparts had heard of them.

Their original 45 has also received good compilation coverage. Both sides can be heard on Boulders, Vol. 3. The 'A' side Always Running Around is also on 60's Choice, Vol. 1 and Destination Frantic! (CD), while the flip figured on Scum Of The Earth Part 2.

The two versions of the 45 have different edits of the 'B' side with a wild guitar solo edited-out from the later Capitol release.

After Evil split, Jeff Alan, John Doyle carried on for a while under the bizarre monicker Fruit Eating Chicken and Drek with Montells members' George Walden and Danny Murphy. John Doyle quit shortly afterwards, being replaced by Frank Milone (who had played in a later line-up of Evil), and they changed name again to Smack.

Jeff Allen led an Evil reformation in 1994-95, and also played with U.K. combo Flea.

Evil and The Montells have recently been the subject of a vinyl retrospective LP entitled You Can't Make Me. The Evil tracks include: I'm Movin' On, I Know I'll Die, Always Runnin' Around and two versions of Whatcha Gonna Do About It.

(Max Waller)

Evil Encorporated

TOP

Personnel:

FRANK DUNLAP	A
DOUG GENT	A
BOB JAMES	A
EDDIE MICHEAL	A

NB: Eddie Micheal misspelt "Michael" on 45 label.

45s:

1	Hey You/The Point Is	(Scene SR 101)	Dec. 1967
2	Baby It's You/All I Really Want To Do	(Scene SR 102)	1968

From Oak Hill, Scarbo and Fayetteville, West Virginia. Both sides of their first punk 45 can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 22, The South, Part 2. The flip has also resurfaced on Punk Classics, Vol. 1 and 60's Choice, Vol. 1. The 2nd 45 is an undistinguished garage ballad with lots of 'sha-la-la's', backed by a decent Byrds cover. The latter is featured on From The New World Vol.1.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

The Evil I

Personnel incl:
GEOFFREY McCABE A

45:

1	Love Conquers All/I Can't Live Without You	(Bridge Society 25-66)	Dec. 1966

NB: (1) reissued in 1992 (Frog FR-02) as a limited edition of 300.

The band came from Lingleston, Pa. and their forte was moody garage-psych with a Doors flavour vocally, especially on Love Conquers All which is memorable more for the fluid meanderings of its keening lead. The flip is a more shambolic affair with growling fuzz and a not-quite-great solo.

You'll also find Love Conquers All on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 1 plus the Psychedelic Unknowns (EP); whilst the flip is on The Cicadelic '60s, Vol. 5 (LP) and The Cicadelics Vol. 4 (CD).

(Max Waller)

The Excels

Personnel:

- JAMES GOODE gtr A B
- DANNY GOODE bs A B
- ROGER BENNETT ld gtr A
- GIB HARRIS drms A B
- RON VERMILLION ld gtr B

45s:

1. Let's Dance/Walking The Dog (Gibson 210) 1965
2. Merchant Of Love/The First Kiss (Gibson) 1965

Formed in McKinney, Texas in 1963 taking Chuck Berry as their inspiration. 1,000 copies of their first 45 were pressed and sold exclusively at Gibson Discount Centres. The 'A' side can be heard on (Texas) Flashback, Vol. 1. A fast rock 'n' roller it gets underway with a drum roll. The 'A' side of their next 45 was a ballad and the flip a raucous instrumental. Bennett was eventually drafted, so Vermillion, a trained jazz musician came in to replace him on lead guitar during 1967. This new line-up soon fell apart and not even a change of name to The Shags in their final days could prevent this.

The Ex-cels

45:

1. Like A Dream/Sorrow And Pain (Coral 62482) 1966

From Gloversville, New York, this seems to have been a one-off venture for Coral. The 'A' side, has a shuffle rhythm and a great but short guitar break. It has also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol's 1 & 2 (CD) - which lists them as Californian... and A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 4.

(Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Excentrics

45:

1	Hold Me Tight(I Feel So Fine Inside)/What Can I Do (Glo Lite GL-97) What Can I Say	1965

Invasion sounds are to the fore on this Memphis label 45, where Merseybeat meets Kinks riffs. Both sides are compiled on Bad Vibrations Vol. 2 and the B side is also on Prisoners Of The Beat.

(Max Waller)

The Exception(s)

Personnel incl:
PETER CETERA
KAL DAVID
JAMES VINCENT DONLINGER
MARTY GREBB/GREBE
BILLY HERMAN
JAMES NYEHOLT

EP:

1	A ROCK & ROLL MASS EP	(Flair 810)	1966

NB: (1) features six different rock songs with words taken from various religious prayers. The best song (relevant to this book) is Glory To God, a garagey-sounding tune written to the words of the Christian prayer, and features Cetera on lead vocal. It was issued in a colour cardboard picture sleeve featuring a live shot of the band.

45s:

1	Searchin' / Day Dreamin' Of You	(Tollie 9007)	1964

2	Come On Home / Dancin' Danny	(Tollie 9043)	1965
3	Down By The Ocean / Pancho's Villa	(Cameo 378)	1965
4	As Far As I Can See / Girl From New York City	(Quill 114)	1966
5	As Far As I Can See / Girl From New York City	(Capitol 5982)	1967
6	Business As Usual / My Mind Goes Traveling	(Capitol 2046)	1967
7	You Don't Know Like I Know / You Always Hurt Me	(Capitol 2120)	1968

NB: (5), (6) and (7) as The Exception.

This outfit merits an entry, since members would go onto better-known outfits. In particular: Kal David - Rovin' Kind, Illinois Speed Press, H.P. Lovecraft and Fabulous Rhinestones; Marty Grebe - Buckinghams and Fabulous Rhinestones; Pete Cetera - Chicago; Billy Herman - Aorta and New Colony Six; James Donlinger - Aorta; and James Nyeholt - Aorta. Musically The Exceptions material is outside the style confines of this book, being in a soulful or slick lounge-band mould.

They were latterly known as The Exception on the Capitol 45s, before the main body of the band decided on a change of style and identity to become Aorta. As Far As I Can See and Business As Usual are featured on the CD comp The Quill Records Story.

An Exceptions, said to be from Rockford, Illinois put out the following 45 - can anyone confirm if this is the same group or not? Note the label name and "Jim VINCENT Donlinger" - it could be a coincidence of course.

1. Get Down / This Time Boy PS (Vincent # unkn) 196?

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Exchequers

45:

1	Is There Some Girl/Greensleeves	(Boom C45-115)	1965

NB: (1) issued on green vinyl.

La Crosse, in the far west of Wisconsin, was home to this folk-rock outfit, whose Is There Some Girl was the usual blend of 12 string guitars and melodic harmonies. You'll find it on Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 11 and on Leaving It All Behind.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Executioners

Personnel:

- ANDY GLISTA bs A
- TERRY GRIMM drms A
- DICK STRONEY keyb'ds A

- ED WASACZ ld gtr A
- RICHARD YEAGER sax, vcls A
- ROGER LEWIS gtr

45s:

1. The Guillotine/I Was Wrong (Sunburst 108) 196?
2. Don't Put Me On /The Noose (Action 500) 1965
3. Dead End (Pt. 1)/(Pt. 2) (Action 502)) 1965
4. I Want The Rain (Pt. 1)/(Pt. 2) (instr) (Swan 4259) 1966

NB: (1) later issued on Itzy (4).

An Youngstown, Ohio-based outfit which started off as a frat-house sax instrumental band and later turned "punk". Their first 45 is pretty cool, with each verse punctuated by the sound of a blade slamming down, and their second, Don't Put Me On was an a typical punk song with a good beat.

The Action label was run by the bands drummer, but later in 1965 they signed to the nationally distributed Swan label. The result, I Want The Rain, was another punk effort with no mean commercial appeal. Sadly, it made little impression at the time. Roger Lewis was briefly a guitarist in this group and would team up with Dick Stroney again in the Poppy.

Compilation coverage has included: Don't Put Me On on Midwest vs. The Rest; I Want The Rain (Pt. 1) on 60's Choice, Vol. 1 and I Want The Rain (Pt. 2) on Everything You Always Wanted To Know... (CD).

(George Gell/Max Waller/Mike McKay)

The Executioners

TOP

45s:

1. You Won't Find Me/Haunting My Mind (Vermillion 269) 196?

A different band from Accokeck in Maryland whose Vermillion 45, can be found on Scum Of The Earth, Part 2.

Exit

TOP

ALBUM:

1. EXIT (Better Daze Records) 1969

An obscure compilation of folk acts, featuring the group Exit. The album is somewhat scarce, but overall not very interesting.

The Exkursions

Personnel:

FYL JOHNZEN	drms	A B
MIKE JOHNSON	gtr, vcls	A B
LEON WILSON	gtr, vcls	B

ALBUM:

1(B) THE EXKURSIONS (private press) 1971

NB: (1)reissued on CD (Hidden Visions AC-025) 1998.

A Christian rock band who formed in Chicago in 1968. The album is predominantly in a heavy bluesy style with many Hendrix inspired moments and some fleeting jazz influences, occasionally enhanced by good use of fuzz.

For all its overtly religious themes and lyrics however, it doesn't come across as spiritually uplifting or inspiring and could have done with some lighter 'n' brighter shades. If interested check out the Holy Fuzz compilation first. It contains two of the better album tracks - Dry Ground and the heavily-fuzzed It's Been Set Down.

(Max Waller)

The Exotics

Personnel:

- ROBERT PRICE vcls
- BLAIR SMITH ld gtr, vcls
- TOM SPALDING gtr
- GEOFF WEST bs
- CHRIS BROWN drms
- ANDY MICHLIN keyb'ds
- LAURRY MICHLIN keyb'ds

45s:

1. I Said 'Hey Little Girl'/ I Want Your Good Loving Bad (Nonsuch 817-93) Early 60s
2. Hey Little Girl/Madge's Blues (Polly 100) 196?
3. Morning Sun/Fire Engine Red (Monument 984) 1966
4. Come With Me/Hymn To Her (Tad 2410) 1967
5. Queen Of Shadows/I Was Alone (Tad 6701) 1967

Hailing from Dallas in the second half of the sixties, this band are well covered in subsequent compilations. Flashback, Vol. 5 features the 'A' side of their first 45, whilst Flashback, Vol. 4 includes both sides of the second. Cicadelic '60s - Vol. 1 includes the three tracks covered in the Flashback series and the 'A' side of their final 45. However, a whole side of Texas Punk.- Vol. IV - Dallas Psychedelic Gold is allocated to the band featuring their six 45s cuts and two unissued songs Come With Me To Chevrolet (a more commercial version of Come With Me) and Alone Again. Come With Me was later covered by The Chesterfield Kings on their Here Are The Chesterfield Kings LP. Musically The Exotics played strong melodies in a folk-rock vein with occasional psychedelic touches - well worth a listen. The first 45 was issued as Robert Price & The Exotics.

Guitarist, Blair Smith was also responible for the lead guitar work on Scotty McKay's version of Train Kept A Rollin' - which is often miscredited to one Jimmy Page!

A 1998 Collectables' CD The Thingies Have Arrived!! (featuring The Thingies and Morning Dew) contains eleven Exotics tracks, including unreleased versions and two radio adverts.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson)

The Experimental Blues Band

TOP

45:

1. Fifty Miles Back/Opus # 1 (Counterpart 2601/2) 1967

A sought-after item on this interesting Ohio label, the 'A' side of whch has been described as wild fuzz garage with screams, whilst the flip is a mid-slow brooding folk rocker. The band came from Cinncinati, Ohio. (Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

The Express

TOP

Personnel:

- DON ANDERSON
- REX CAUGHROM keyb'ds
- SONNY LEDET ?
- DENNIS MAXWELL

45:

1. You Gotta Understand/Long Green (Piccadilly 226) 1966

Originally from Oklahoma City in 1962, where they were known as The Juveniles, they relocated to Portland, Oregon in 1964. Operating now as The Express they played there until 1969 and recorded this one mini classic. The 'A' side, a kinda grungy R&B effort, can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 16: The Northwest, Part 3. Vol. 7 of the same series features the flip, which was a pretty credible version of one of The Kingsmens' classic songs. (Max Waller/Darryl F. Riffero)

Denny Ezba

TOP

45s:

1. Sunny Side of My Life/The Last Man (Quanta Q-271)
2. Mary Diane/Brighter Tomorrows (Renner RR-213)
3. Mister Blue/Bald Headed Lena (Jox 061) 1967
4. I Want To Love/Cleo's Back (Jox 064) 1967
5. I'm A Back Door Man/Susie Buffalo (Jox 068) 1968
6. Santa Fe/Dimples (Dome 1238) 1968
7. Raining In My Heart/Cindy (Tear Drop 3072) 1968/9
8. Queen Mary/It's A Cryin'Shame (Tear Drop 3225) 1969
9. Queen Mary/It's A Cryin'Shame (Jamie 1377) 1969

NB: (1) to (4) as Denny Ezba and The B.F.B.A.. (5) as Denny Ezba and The Goldens. (6) to (9) as Denny Ezba's Gold.

A durable Texan musician who fronted a number of punk outfits in the late sixties. The first of these Denny Ezba and the B.F.B.A. were responsible for the first four 45s. The fifth was credited to Denny Ezba and The Goldens, who by the time of the last four had become known as Denny Ezba's Gold. These punk combos included at various times Mike Nesmith (later of The Monkees), M. Forney, Augie Meyer and Harvey Kagen (who achieved some success with the Sir Douglas Quintet), Keith Allison (who went on to Paul Revere And The Raiders) and Mike O'Dowd (later of Augie Meyer's Western Head Band). As for Ezba, he later embarked on a solo career recording an LP Greatest Hits of 4,000 Years Ago (Texas Re-cord ?) during the 1980s.

Brainshadows Vol. 2 CD includes the up-tempo Dimples.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Fab Four to Family Tree

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Fab Four
- The Fabs
- The Fabulous Apostles
- The Fabulous Depressions
- Fabulous Pack
- The Fabulous Pharaohs
- The Fabulous Prophets
- Faces In The Crowd
- The Factory
- The Factory
- Facts of Life

The Fab Four

45s:

1. Now You Cry/Got To Get Her Back (Brass 311) 1964
2. Now You Cry/Got To Get Her Back (Coral 62479) 1964
3. Welcome Me Home/Oop Shoobee Doop (Melic 4114) 196?
4. Happy/Who Could It Be (Brass 314) 1966
5. I'm Always Doing Something Wrong/Young Blood (Brass 316) 1966
6. River Days/Got A Feeling In My Body (Pearce 5842) 196?

A Kansas City, Missouri band. You'll find both Happy and I'm Always Doing Something Wrong on the cassette compilation, Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 1. Previously known as the Fabulous Four they would later change their name to Kansas City - either way one was left in no doubt as to where "they were coming from" or where they were from! (Max Waller)

The Fabs

Personnel incl:

- BOB ELLIS drms

45:

1. That's The Bag I'm In/Dinah Wants Religion (Cotton Ball 1005) 1966

Formed in 1966, the liner notes to Back From The Grave states that they originated from Fullerton, California, and that they wound up on the Texas Cotton Ball label via a business associate of their drummers mom. Whatever the story, their sole stab for stardom was a pretty good 45. You can check out the 'A' side on Back From The Grave, Vol. 1 and Songs We Taught The Fuzztones whilst you'll also find the flip on Flashback, Vol. 6, Back From The Grave, Vol. 4 and Acid Dreams Epitaph CD. (Max Waller)

The Fabulous Apostles

TOP

45:

1. Dark Horse Blues/You Don't Know Like I Know (Shana 097) 1968

This outfit originated from Wichita, Kansas. Recorded in L.A. at the home studio of boy genius Michael Lloyd, Kim Fowley is thought to have been lurking somewhere here too... The 'A' side of their 45 is written by WCPAEB's Shaun Harris and Michael Lloyd (of numerous other projects beside). The 'B' side is presumably the Hayes/Porter ditty favourite with soulful garage bands (Mauds, Pied Pipers etc). Dark Horse Blues can also be heard on Glimpses, Vol. 4 and the Midwest Garage Band Series: Kansas CD.

(Max Waller / Joe Foster)

The Fabulous Depressions

TOP

Personnel:

- JIM DAUER bs A B C D
- PHIL GROEBNER ld gtr A B C D
- PETER KITZBERGER organ A B C D
- JOHN TRETAULT drms A
- GREG DEBERRY drms B
- TIM LINDSAY ld vcls B C
- RANDY EVANS ld vcls D
- JOHN GINKEL drms C D

45:

1. I Can't Tell You/One By One (Mead 123167) 1967

Formed in 1964 these wonderful chaps were from New Ulm, Minnesota. They'd earlier used various names like Wholly Moses, Brain Police, Manic Depression and Great Depression. Their first drummer was an 11 year old. John Tretault came in on drums, although in 1966 he left and was replaced by Greg DeBerry from Iowa. Around the same time they recruited Tim Lindsay, a talented singer, who got them lots of work around Minnesota and northern Iowa.

After a short while Greg DeBerry was forced to leave the band when his father's business required him to be transferred out of town and John Ginkel who'd previously played with another local band, The Shags, was welcomed into the fold (he was Peter Kitzberger's next door neighbour). Shortly after Tom Lindsay departed to join The Royal Emperors (an Owatonna, Minnesota band) and a new vocalist Randy Evans, from the Lake Crystal area, was recruited in his place. His vocal range was well suited to the 'harder' rock and roll and blues the band was now playing. This line-up (D) recorded the band's sole 45. The 'A' side, which later resurfaced on Root "66", Vol. 1, was a song of teenage love with a scorching fuzz guitar break by Phil Groebner. The flip was a good cover of a Blues Magoos' tune.

Fabulous Pack

45s:

1. * Harlem Shuffle/I've Got News For You (Lucky Eleven 003) 1968
2. Wide Trackin'/Does It Matter To You Girl? (Lucky Eleven 007) 1968

* Issued as by The Pack.

Wide Trackin' can be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. II. From Detroit, Michigan, this is Terry Knight & the Pack minus Terry, who decided he'd make more money for less effort as their manager.

The Fabulous Pharaohs

45s:

1. Church Key/Route 66 (Three Star 2668) 196?
2. Hold Me Tight/Sometimes I Think About (Reprize 36-22-36) 196?
3. Talkin' Bout You/Sometimes (Reprize 38-22-38) 196?

This outfit was part of Delaware's contribution to the garage-rock scene. Their first 45, Church Key, a grungy rocker about the evils of alcohol, was not very memorable. You'll find it on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 4 and another of their offerings, Hold Me Tight, can be heard on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6. (Max Waller)

The Fabulous Prophets

45:

1. Gertrude/? (Combo 1000) 196?

Gertrude can be heard on Scum Of The Earth, Part 1. From Nashville, Tennessee, they were also known as Larry Herman & the Fabulous Prophets.

Faces In The Crowd

45:

1. Clouds Of Doubt / Lonely Beach (Del-Nita 60941)1966

Clouds Of Doubt has resurfaced on Hipsville 29 B.C., Vol. 2 and the band hailed from Cleveland, Ohio.

(Max Waller / George Gell)

The Factory

Personnel:

LOWELL GEORGE	ld gtr	A B
MARTIN KIBBEE	bs	A B
WARREN KLEIN	gtr	A
CARY SLAVIN	drms	A
DALLAS TAYLOR	drms	A
RITCHIE HAYWARD	drms	B
(EARL PALMER	drms	B)
(EMIL RICHARDS	perc	B)
(FRANK ZAPPA	vcls, piano	B)

ALBUM:

1(A)	LIGHTNING-ROD MAN	(Bizarre/Straight R2 71563)	1993

NB: (1) is a CD retrospective, issued as Lowell George and The Factory, and manufactured and marketed by Rhino. Also released in Europe by Edsel (EDCD 377) 1993.

45s:

1	When I Was An Apple/Smile, Let Your Life Begin	(UNI 55005)	1967
2	No Place I'd Rather Be	(UNI 55027)	1967

NB: (2) with Emil Richards.

A Los Angeles band. Line-up 'B' recorded a three track demo on the 18th August 1966, two tracks from which appeared on the first UNI 45, with the third, Candy Cane Madness finally appearing on Demon's Microdelia CD comp. Their second 45 is a rework of a Gene Vincent composition which they turned into a late sixties punker by adding a screaming fuzztone guitar. Both of their 45s were produced by ex-Teddy Bear, Marshall Lieb and he also cut four or five additional tracks at the time.

The band's main significance was that Kibbee, Klein, Hayward and Taylor later played with Fraternity Of Man, the late Lowell George played with The Mothers of Invention, and achieved greater fame as an original member of Little Feat with Hayward. Dallas Taylor was also one of the two original drummers with the revered Clear Light and would later occupy a very successful seat behind Crosby, Stills, Nash (& Young).

Frank Zappa also cut some tracks with The Factory at Original Sound studios in 1966, and financed / produced / played on several more between '67 - '69. None were released at the time, but two have recently been released on Lightning Rod Man CD by Rhino (Lightning Rod Man and The Loved One). The retrospective also contains another thirteen tracks including a live version of Candy Cane Madness, two post-Factory cuts: Framed" and Juliet; and studio versions of Lost (great garage pop), Slow Down, Smile, Let Your Life Begin, Sleep Tonight, No Place I'd Rather Be, Hey Girl, Changes, Crack In Your Door, Teenage Nervous Breakdown and Candy Cane Madness.

An interesting aside on The Factory is that they appeared in two '60's sitcoms: "F-Troop" (as The Bedbugs in a starring role) and "Gomer Pyle" (performing as a bar band... where both Lost and Candy Cane Madness can be clearly heard in the background).

Other compilation coverage has also included: No Place I'd Rather Be and Smile, Let Your Life Begin on California Acid Folk.

(Stephane Rebeschini)(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster / Mike Dugo / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Factory

TOP

45:

1. High Blood Pressure/Lovely Path (USA 922) 1969

From Chicago. Their late '60s rock version of High Blood Pressure was originally done by '60s frat outfit Huey "Piano" Smith & The Clowns and can also be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (CD) and Mindrocker Vol. 2.

According to the Pebbles sleevenotes, this outfit consisted of ex-members of The Ides of March and Little Boy Blues.

Facts of Life

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BRUCE KLAUBER drms

45:

1. I've Seen Darker Nights/All In Good Time (Frana 59) 1967

From Bala-Cynwyd, which is a suburb of Philadelphia in Pennsylvania, this outfit formed in 1966 when a group of ninth formers came together at Bala-Cynwyd Junior High School. I've Seen Darker Nights is a pretty typical sixties garage record with up-front organ, lots of fuzz and some adventurous drumming tor the times. You can check it out on the Crude PA compilation. The flip, however, is bereft of fuzz and is a very doleful garage-ballad (sniff). Both sides of the 45 were written by Yampolsky - another member of the band, perhaps?

Bruce Klauber went on to become one of Philadelphia's top jazz drummers.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Fab Four to Family Tree

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Faine Jade
- The Fairviews
- Faith
- Falcons
- Fallen Angels
- The Fallen Angels
- The Famen
- Family
- Family
- Family of Apostolic
- Family Tree

Faine Jade

TOP

ALBUM:

1. INTROSPECTION - A FAINE JADE RECITAL (RSVP ES 8002) 1968
2. IT AIN'T TRUE (Distortions 1007) 1992

NB. (1) was reissued on Psycho (13) in 1983. More recently the album has been released on CD with four bonus tracks, plus the 'missing' Piano Interlude which was recorded for the album, but left off at the time it was originally released (Sandiland SL 8002) 1993 and (Big Beat CDWIKD 141) 1995.

EP:

1. FAINE JADE (Distortions DB 1009) 1992

NB: (1) contains December's Children from the It Ain't True retrospective, plus You're All I Gotta Do, Crazy World and Widow Woman, Willow Woman.

45s:

1. Can't Get You Out Of My Heart/Look At Me (Ye Old King 1000) June 1966
2. Love On A Candy Apple Day/It Ain't True (Providence 420) 1966
3. Doctor Paul/Introspection (RSVP 1130) 1967
4. Doctor Paul /Don't Hassle Me Part 2 (PS) (Distortions DB-1013) 1993

NB: (1) as The Rustics, limited to 100 copies, this now fetches in excess of $100. (4) contains two previously unreleased demos from 1967.

Faine Jade was an East Coast solo artist based around Boston. The album contains two outstanding tracks People

Games Play - complete with sounds of the jungle - and the subtle Cold Winter Sun Symphony In D Major. Both tracks are also featured on Endless Journey, Phase 2 and you can also find another classic cut The Ballad Of The Bad Guys on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 1 (CD). The remainder of the album is experimental, but not outstanding (though some regard it as an absolute classic). It is, however, quite a significant collectable.

It Ain't True, is a limited edition release of previously unreleased demos and acetates. Side one consisting of Faine Jade's earlier outfit The Rustics, which led to him and Nick Manzi being signed up as staff writers for Laurie Records in 1966. The Rustics did issue one single on their own label, which also appears on the Distortions album, but towards the end of the year Nick Manzi left to join Bohemian Vendetta. Faine then signed a solo deal with Laurie subsiduary, Providence, which resulted in the Love On A Candy Apple Day 45 with his brother Jeff Jade on drums, and founding Illusion member Bruce Bradt on organ. The 'B' side, It Ain't True, is an excellent psychedelic number and can be heard on Acid Dreams, Pebbles, Vol. 8, Mindrocker, Vol. 5, Journey To Tyme, Vol. 2, Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1 and Acid Trip From The Psychedelic Sixties.

In late '67, Faine recorded demo versions of Cold Winter Sun and I Lived Tomorrow Yesterday, backed by the Bohemian Vendetta, which led to the deal with New York independent label for the Instrospection album. The band also backed him on the album, along with Bruce Brandt and Randy Skrha (who filled in for Jeff Jade - who was in Vietnam at the time). Bruce also co-wrote two of the songs on the album. The recent CD reissue, includes a linking piano section Piano Interlude omitted by the record company at the time because of it's uncommercial nature, as well as three album demos, and a '90s tribute to John Lennon.

Where Introspection captures the arguably naive atmosphere of '67, and naked openess that the use of psychedelics represented, Vietnam polarised poltical opinion, which Faine articulated on a 1969 recording USA Now before moving to Florida and working with pre-Allmans outfit Second Coming. Later he rejoined Nick Manzi and Bruce Brandt as Dust Bowl Clementine who released one album Patchin' Up on Roulette (1970) and opened a studio in Long Island.

Faine recently had a local hit with Mario Taxes, a song about the state of affairs in New York.

For more information check Faine Jade's website: http://www.fainejade.com

(Vernon Joynson / Ivor Trueman / Max Waller)

The Fairviews

TOP

45s:

1	Ya Gotta Be Real Good, Baby/Twinkee Lee	(Spin It 120)	1964
2	Cry Over Mary Lou/Little One	(Spin It 121)	c1965
3	Nightmares/Little Baby Of Mine	(Spin It 122)	c1965
4	Windy City/Big Joke	(Spin It 123)	1966
5	A New Direction/Discomboober	(Spin It 124)	1966

NB: (5) as Fairviews with The 5th Dimensions.

The Windy City 45 features decent mid-tempo garagey-beat that sounds more like 1965, with its early Byrds and British Invasion influences. A garage band from Burbank, California. They were managed by Sunset Strip enterpreneur Bud Mathis, whose retrospective compilation Take The Brain Train To The Third Eye (Bachus Archives BA 1147) 2000, includes A New Direction, plus an unreleased version of Discomboober featuring Bud Mathis on vocals.

Nightmares can also be heard on Boulders Vol. 8.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

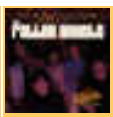
Faith

ALBUM:

1	FAITH	(Brown Bag)	1973

A mediocre heavy rock in the style of Rare Earth. They were also known as Limousine.

(Stephane Rebeschini)



Falcons

45:

1. There's A Tear/I Gotta See Her (Strafford 6504) 1966

I Gotta See Her gained belated appreciation and reputation via its inclusion on the five-star comp Psychotic Moose And The Soul Searchers. A great Kinks-type riffin' punker with fuzz and atmospheric harmonica, totally at odds with the insipid Merseybeat flavoured lounge-ballad on the 'A' side. Now both can be experienced on The Strafford Story CD. According to the CD leaflet, the band actually hailed from Upstate New York and would be known later as the Franklin Brothers, after they'd recorded 2 further unreleased tracks in 1969, also featured on the CD - Rape The Wind and When Mother Nature Was A Girl. (Max Waller)

Fallen Angels

Personnel:

JACK BRYANT	vcls, bs	A B
HOWARD DANCHIK	keyb'ds, flte	A
WALLY COOK	drms	A B
RICHARD KUMER	drms	A
JACK LAURITSEN	gtr, sitar, vibes	A B
KEVIN ARMSTRONG	bs	B
TOM MANSELL	drms	B
LARRY WILLIS	keyb'ds, B-3	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	FALLEN ANGELS	(Roulette SR 25358)	1968
2(A)	IT'S A LONG WAY DOWN	(Roulette SR 42011)	1968
3(B)	RAIN OF FIRE	(Wild Child! 05852)	1998

NB (2) has recently been repressed. (3) CD only.

45s:

1	Everytime I Fall In Love/I Have Found	(Laurie 3343)	1966
2	Have You Ever Lost A Love?/A Little Love From You Will Do	(Laurie 3369)	1966
3	Room At The Top/Your Friends Here In Dunderville	(Roulette 4770)	1967
4	Hello Girl/Most Children	(Roulette 4785)	1967
5	Room At The Top / Most Childen Do (PS)	(Philco HP-23)	c1968
6	Everything Would Be Fine/Hid And Found	(Sun Dream 704)	1974

NB: (5) is a 'Hip Pocket' 45 - a 4" flexi in a pic envelope, a series issued by Philco. (6) was recorded in 1969 but released posthumously on manager Tom Traynor's local label.

Operating out of Washington D.C. this band was formed in 1965 when Wally Cook and Ned Davis of the Young Rabbits teamed up with Jack Bryant and Charlie Jones. Initially called the Disciples, then the Uncalled Four, they eventually settled on the Fallen Angels. Drummer Rocky Isaac was also a member at one point (he was formerly with the Tejuns, the Creatures, and later Cherry People, and of course in the '70s Joe Walsh's Barnstorm) but his place was eventually taken by Richard Kumer from the The Mad Hatters by the advent of the first LP. Lauritsen had also replaced Charlie Jones by then and Danchik had been added to make it a quintet.... Their first album has a nice paisley cover and consists of competent rock with some pleasant psychedelic interludes. The second album carried on from where the first had ended. Three tracks in particular - One Of The Few Ones Left, Something New You Can Hide In and I'll Drive You From My Mind - stand out, being full of melodic guitar work, climbing keyboards and sensitive vocals.

The band split in 1969 but in 1974 a retrospective 45 was released on their manager's own-label 45. This has an acoustic mellow rock sound until some mean guitar kicks in, and is notable for affected 'vibrato' vocals. The flip is dull by comparison and full of la-la-la-la-la's.

Both original albums are worth searching for and the second has been repressed. You can also find twelve album tracks on each of the Collectables CDs Roulette Masters, Part 1 and Part 2.

In 1998, The Fallen Angels returned with a new CD Rain Of Fire. Every Time I Fall In Love and Everything Would Be Fine are updated and accompanied by eleven new tunes (all bar one by Jack Bryant). Purists who expect a time-warp back to their garage and psych sounds of 1967/8 will be disappointed; but for those without such unrealistic preconceptions, this is accomplished and mature rock with blues, folk and country influences (just the odd spot of rust in the vocals department).

Compilation coverage has included: Have You Ever Lost A Love? on Mindrocker, Vol. 10 whilst their decent cover of Arthur Lee's Signed D. C. resurfaced on Psychedelic Moods - Part Two.

For a comprehensive lowdown on the band check out issue #9 of Jeff Jarema's excellent Here 'Tis fanzine. Alternatively check their website: http://www.thefallenangels.com.

(Max Waller)

Fallen Angels

Personnel:

- CHRIS BANDLER
- JAY KERR

- DAVE STEVENSON
- RICHARD ZIPPLE

45:

1. Bad Woman/Pimples And Braces (Eceip 1003/4) Dec. 1970

A different bunch who were formed at Syracuse University in Syracuse New York in 1965. Bad Woman was recorded in 1966 but not presssed until Ron Wray put it out on Eceip (Piece backwards) in the early '70s. Bad Woman remains a classic example of U.S. garage punk influenced by both british and U.S. success stories.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Bad Woman on Songs We Taught The Fuzztones, The Best Of Pebbles, Vol. 2, Pebbles (CD), Vol. 1, I Was A Teenage Caveman and Off The Wall, Vol. 2.

(Frank Brandon III / Max Waller)

The Famen

TOP

Personnel incl:
WAYNE WHITE A

45s:

1	Time Is Slipping Away / Crackin' Up	(X-Pose # unkn)	1966

From the Atlanta, Georgia region, this outfit released a total of four 45s in 1965-6 on the Delta Ltd., X-Pose and World Wide labels. Their crackin' version of Bo Diddley's Crackin' Up (also tackled by The Gants) appears on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 1. Group-leader Wayne White lent one of his compositions, Laugh In My Face, to The (Swingin') Apolloes for their debut 45 - hear it on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Family

TOP

45s:

1. Face The Autumn (one sided promo) (USA 886) 1967
2. Face The Autumn/So Much To Remember (USA 886) 1967
3. San Francisco Waits/Without You (USA 894) 1968

This group of studio musicians was put together, in Chicago, by USA records staff producer, Bobby Whiteside. San Francisco Waits, a flower-pop single, which successfully captures the Californian sunshine in its chorus, can also be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. 2.

Family

45:

1. I Wanna Do It/A Song (Teen Town 119) 1968

A different Wisconsin band who recorded a version of The Strangeloves' I Wanna Do It in 1968. Several garage bands recorded this and Family's version, which can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 15, is unexceptional.

Family of Apostolic

Personnel:

BOB BERKOWITZ	piano, organ	A
JERRY BURNHAM	bs, drms, vcls, wind	A
LYNDON HARDY	vcls	A
PETER SMITH	bs, oud	A
DEIRDRE TOWNLEY	vcls	A
GILMA TOWNLEY	drms	A
JOHN TOWNLEY	gtr	A
JAY UNGAR	violin, mandolin, vcls	A
and many friends.		A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FAMILY OF APOSTOLIC (dbl)	(Vanguard 79301)	1968

45s:

1	Saigon Girls/Water Music	(Vanguard Apostolic 35081)	1968
2	Just Another Day/Did You Leave Your Heart Behind?	(Vanguard 35122)	1969

NB: (1) Some copies in picture sleeve, on which the artists name appears to be 'The Spirit Of Khe Sahn', although the label still credits The Family..., other copies shown as by John Townley and The Apostolic Family. (2) is non-LP.

A New York band, sometimes acoustic, at others they sounded rather like The Fugs. Two of the weirder album cuts, Saigon Girls and Water Music were also released on 45.

Apart from Saigon Girls (a Bonner/Gordon song), all their material was original and penned by the Townleys, Jay Ungar or Bob Berkowitz. Some were in fact rearranged trad folk songs (notably Fiddler A Dram, also recorded by The Youngbloods).

John Townley founded the Apostolic studios in New York, and had earlier played guitar with Gordon and Bonner in The Magicians. He was managing his Apostolic studio when he signed a distribution deal with Vanguard for the productions of his label, Apostolic (artists included Far Cry, Boa Constrictor and Everything Is Everything). He was later involved in Gospel and, in 1979, released an solo album in England John Townley (Harvest ST 12007).

Jay Ungar later joined Cat Mother and was active on the folk scene.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Family Tree

Personnel:

- BOB SEGARINI gtr, vcls, keyb'ds A B C D
- BILL WHITTINGTON bs, gtr A B C
- NEWMAN DAVIS drms A
- MIKE OLSEN (LEE MICHAELS) keyb'ds A
- MIKE DURE gtr B C D
- VAN SLATTER drms B C D
- BILL 'KOOTCH' TROACHIM bs, vcls C D
- JIM DECOCQ keyb'ds D

ALBUM:

1. (D) MISS BUTTERS (RCA LSP 3955) 1968

45s:

1. Prince Of Dreams/Live Your Own Life (Mira 228) 1967
2. Do You Have The Time?/Keepin' A Secret (RCA 9184) 1967
3. Slippin' Thru My Fingers/Miss Butters (RCA 9565) 1968
4. He Spins Around/She Had To Fly (RCA 9671) 1968
5. Terry Tommy/Electric Kangaroo (Paula 329) 1970

Segarini and Whittington formed this band when The Brogues dissolved in late 1965. They based themselves in San Francisco. In the summer of 1966 they signed for Mira issuing the above 45. The 'A' side was a folk-rocker notable for strong vocals and a prominent harp which resurfaced on the Mindrocker, Vol. 8 compilation in the early eighties. The flip side merged folk rock and Merseyrock. A further seven tracks were also recorded for Mira to put out on an album which never materialised. (The tracks were Good Day, May I Ride Wlth You, He Doesn't Come Around, Up In The Alr, Beggar, She Reads Magazines and Observations.) After this Mira release, which was a minor hit in Northern California, the group were offered a recording contract by RCA and made the above concept album which was rather ahead of its time and Beatiesque in inf luence. The Miss Butters 45 was also taken from the album. The others were non-LP. As neither the album nor the singles sold RCA dropped the band in 1969. Segarini and DeCocq later formed Roxy. Olsen pursued a solo career as Lee Michaels and Segarini and Kootch were later in The Wackers. Segarini also recorded a series of solo albums in the late seventies.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Fanatics to Farquahr

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Fanatics
- Fancy
- The Fantastic Dee-Jays
- Fantastic Zoo
- Fantasy
- Fanz
- Fapardokly
- Far Cry
- Fargo
- Fargo
- Richard Farina
- Farm
- Farm
- The Farm Band
- The Faros
- Farquahr

The Fanatics

TOP

Personnel incl:

- NEAL FORD
- LARNIER GREGG

45:

1. I Will Not Be Lonely/Be Mine (Gina 1118) 1965

Formed in Houston, Texas in 1965 out of The Ramadas when they were still in their mid-teens. Neal Ford wrote both songs. The 'A' side was a powerful punker, which can be heard on Mayhem & Psychosis Vol. 3 (Vol. 2 CD), Flashback, Vol. 5 or Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 13: Texas, Part 3. After the 45 the band became known as Neal Ford And The Fanatics.

An unissued cut from 1966, I Can't Believe, has also been compiled on Acid Visions, Vol. 2 and also appears on Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD set) together with I Will Not Be Lonely. (Max Waller)

Fancy

ALBUM:

1	MEETING YOU HERE	(Poison Ring PRR 22??)	1970 R1/R2

On the same label as Pulse and Incredible Broadside Brass Bed Band, and from Connecticut too, this is a rare hard-rock album with screaming female vocals and blistering fuzz lead guitar. The best track is probaby Black Snake.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Fantastic Dee Jays

Personnel:

- TOM JUNECKO drms A
- DICK NEWTON gtr, vcls A B
- DENNY NICHOLSON gtr, vcls A B
- BOB HOCKO drms, vcls B

ALBUM:

1. (B) THE FANTASTIC DEE-JAYS (Stone 4003) 1966

NB. Reissued in 1996 on Millenia (FDJ 96) as Fantastic Dee-Jays: 30th Anniversary Reissue and also on Eva (12028) in 1983.

45s:

1. Apache/This Love Of Ours (Sherry 309) Mar. 1965
2. Love Is Tuff/Two Tymes Two (Fleetwood 1096) May. 1965
3. You're The One/Two Tymes Two (Red Fox 102) Sept. 1965
4. Fight Fire/Get Away Girl (Tri Power 421) Jun. 1966
5. Love Is So Tuff/Just A Boy (Stone 044) Oct. 1968
6. Fight Fire / Get Away Girl / T&C Lancers (PS) (Get Hip GHAS-1) 1995
7. Shy Girl / Two Tymes Two (PS) (Get Hip GHAS-10) 1997

NB: (6) & (7) reissue 45s in picture sleeves, (6) in blue wax.

Originally known as The Larks, this McKeesport, Pennsylvania band began to smoulder with some sparse beat offerings culminating in the gloriously noisy Fight Fire. Both sides of this fine 45 can also be heard on Hipsville, 29 B. C. and Love Is Tuff resurfaced on Burghers, Vol. 1. Fight Fire pointed the way to the next step - the legendary Swamp Rats, the epitomy of great garage music.

An unreleased 1966 track Shy Girl has also turned up on the Pittsburgh radio-show comp Terry Lee Show WMCK. This is one of many unreleased recordings which are known to include alternate and acoustic versions of above singles and album cuts, plus many early WMCK recordings. In all, there are 17 unreleased tracks.

(Max Waller / William S. Scully)

Fantastic Zoo

Personnel incl:

- DON CAMERON
- ERIK KARL

45s:

1. MidnightSnack/This Calls For A Celebration (Double Shot 105) 1966
2. Light Show/Silent Movies (Double Shot 109) 1967

Don Cameron and Erik Karl were the creative force behind this band which originated from Colorado and were originally known as The Fogcutters. They became known as Fantastic Zoo when the original band broke up and Cameron and Karl moved to Los Angeles in 1966, where they cut a debut single Midnight Snack in the October of that year. Their lead singer's distinctive voice and bizarre lyrics stand them aside from a typical psychedelic bands of the era.

Their best song was the excellent Light Show (the only psychedelic record I know of dealing with one of psychedelia's best known attributes), released in February 1967. This can be heard on The Psychedelic Experience (CD), Mindrocker, Vol. 6 and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3. It is an excellent example of well-crafted, laid back, subtle psychedelia.

Mindrocker, Vol. 8 features This Calls For A Celebration, which was in a similar mode to, though not as good as, Light Show.

Fantasy

Personnel:

- J. DeMEO Jr. A
- G. KIMPLE A
- LYDIA MILLER A
- D. ROBBINS A
- M. RUSSO A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FANTASY (Liberty LST-7643) 1970

45s:

1. I Got The Fever/Painted Horse (Imperial 66394) 1969

2. Understand/Stoned Cowboy (Liberty 56190) 1970

NB: (1) also issued in France with a picure sleeve (Liberty 2C006-90647) 1968.

From Miami, Florida, this band's first LP is well worth a listen if you're into the 'West Coast sound' format, though they're closer sound-wise to Big Brother than Jefferson Airplane.

A strident female lead vocalist called Lydia belting it out and sounding not unlike her namesake - Lydia Pense - of Cold Blood. Some searing guitar and quite a hard rockin' style with more blues rather than folk influences. Stoned Cowboy received considerable airplay in Miami / Detroit at the time.

They were later known as Year One and their first 45 was non-album.

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini / Ron Bronholc)

Fanz

TOP

Personnel:

DUFFY JACKSON	drms	A
LITTLE KENNY	perc	A
CHARLES MICHAEL	gtr	A
MICHAEL PINERA	vcls	A
DANNY RAY	keyb'ds	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE GRAND ILLUSION	(Illusion CM 1045)	1970

From Miami, a rare album mixing psyche and southern rock. It's not known if Mike Pinera is the former Iron Butterfly member.

The Illusion label did'nt last long and is rumored to have been a tax scam label, the records being given away or destroyed after production. Other Illusion records include Hopney and Sage.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fapardokly

TOP

Personnel:

- MERRELL FANKHAUSER gtr A
- BILL DODD ld gtr A
- JOHN OLIVER bs A
- DICK LEE drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FAPARDOKLY (ULP 2250) 1966

NB. Reissued in 1983 (Psycho 5), 1987 (5 Hours Back Tock 003) and on CD (Sundazed SC 6059) 1995.

The above album was issued around 1966/67, during which time the band played in Lancaster, California. It includes material recorded on 45s with Fankhauser's previous band, The Exiles, which by the time of the album's release was patchy and rather dated. The remainder of the album consists of folk-rock and soft psychedelia. Examples of the latter are the mysterious Gone To Pot and No Retreat, which also appear on Echoes In Time, Vol. 1. Gone To Pot can also be found on the We Have Come For Your Children compilation. The Fapardokly album remains extremely sought-after.

The recent Sundazed CD includes three previously unreleased tracks The War, Yes I Love You and Run Baby Run.

Far Cry

TOP

Personnel:

- SEAN HUTCHINSON bs A
- LARRY LUDDECKE keyb'ds A
- VICTOR McGILL drms, perc A
- JERE WHITTING vcis, hrmnca A
- PAUL LENART gtr A
- DICK MARTIN sax, perc A
- DAVID PERRY gtr, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FAR CRY (Vanguard Apostolic VSD 6510) 1968

45:

1. Shapes/Hellhound (Vanguard 35085) 1968

NB: (1) both tracks taken from their album.

From Boston, this was a heavy psychedelic outfit with free jazz influences. Except for the classic blues track, Sweet Little Angel, all the songs on their album were penned by the group and sung in a very rasping voice by Jere Whiting.

The album was produced by Danny Weiss (Everything Is Everything) and recorded in New York. It's one of the few records issued on Vanguard Apostolic, the label managed by John Townley (from Family Of Apostolic).

Paul Lenart went on to play with another Bostonian, Peter Ivers.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Fargo

TOP

Personnel:

- TONY DECKER A
- DEAN WILDEN A

ALBUM:

1. (A) I SEE IT NOW (RCA Victor LSP 4178) 1969

This romantic-sounding late sixties pop offering with the occasional nod and a wink towards more vaguely psychedelic tendencies is worth a passing mention.

Fargo

TOP

45:

1. Robins, Robins/Sunny Day Blue (Capitol 2149) 1968

This 45 could possibly be by a different band of the same name.

Richard Farina

TOP

Personnel:

RICHARD FARINA	vcls, ftr, dulcimer	A B C
MIMI FARINA	gtr, autoharp	B C
BRUCE LANGHORNE	gtr, tambourine	B C
RUSS SAVAKUS	bs	B C
CHARLES SMALL	piano, celeste	B C
JOHN HAMMOND	hrmnca	C
FELIX PAPPALARDI	bs	C
ALVIN ROGERS	drms	C

ALBUMS:

1(A)	SINGER SONGWRITER PROJECT	(Elektra EKS-7299)	1965
2(B)	CELEBRATIONS FOR A GREY DAY	(Vanguard VSD-79174)	1965
3(C)	REFLECTIONS IN A CRYSTAL MIND	(Vanguard VSD-79204)	1965
4)-)	MEMORIES	(Vanguard VSD-79263)	1968
5(B/C)	THE BEST OF MIMI AND RICHARD FARINA	(Vanguard VSD 21/22)	1971

NB: (1) stereo pressing, also exists on mono (EKS-299). (2) and (3) as Richard and Mimi Farina. (5) is a reissue of (2) and (3) on a double album.

45:

1	Reno Nevada/One Way Ticket	(Vanguard ?)	1965

Of Irish and Cuban heritage, Richard "Dick" Farina was caught up in the I.R.A. movement and arrested at the age of 16. At 18 he was finally deported from Ireland to the U.S.A. for his activities, attended Cornell and was dismissed after leading a demonstration. He began singing in the Greenwich Village folk circuit and briefly married Carolyn Hester. He returned to Europe as an actor, street singer and play writer and finally met and married Mimi, Joan Baez's sister, in 1963 in Paris.

Both returned to the U.S.A. and Richard became a published writer for various magazines and newspapers, a poet and a songwriter. His song Birmingham Sunday was sung by Joan Baez at the 1964 Newport festival and he got offered a contract with Elektra to appear on their 1965 Singer Songwriter Project along with David "Blue" Cohen, Patrick Sky and Bruce Murdoch. The resulting record contains three Farina songs: House Un-American Blues Activity Dream (later covered by Ian Matthews), Birmingham Sunday and Bold Marauder (covered by John Kay of Steppenwolf).

He then formed a duo with his wife and they recorded two excellent albums, predominantly folk with nice poetic lyrics, and some oriental influences (especially on Reflections). The use of a rock rhythm section is very effective on several tracks. Miles is dedicated to Miles Davis and the superb Reno, Nevada was later covered by Turnquist Remedy and Ian Matthews. Pack Up Your Sorrows became a folk classic and some dozens of versions exist. Both albums are recommended.

The long liner notes of these well-received albums thank "Assorted Algerian herbs for the head", Leary for his Quick-Trip manual, Paul Butterfield and Bob Dylan.

Farina also wrote a novel, "Been Down So Long It Looks Like Up To Me", which is now considered a classic of the transitional period between beatniks and hippies.

After this very promising start, Richard Farina unfortunately died in a motorcycle accident in 1966.

Mimi Farina kept on singing in the folk and folk/rock circuit, recording some albums with Tom Jans in the seventies.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

F a r m

Personnel:

- DENNY AABERG vcls, gtr A
- ED CARTER A
- JACK CONRAD A
- DARYL DRAGON keyb'ds A
- DENNIS DRAGON drms A
- DOUG DRAGON keyb'ds A
- ROGER HEATH A
- ERNIE KNAPP gtr A
- ADRIEN MILLER A
- PHILL PRITCHARD bs, gtr, vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) THE INNERMOST LIMITS OF PURE FUN (No label) 197? R3

2. (A) THE INNERMOST LIMITS OF PURE FUN (Dendra) 197? R3

NB: On the first release the label had a crude swirl design. The record was issued in a black and white printed cover with a blank back. The second release came with a red label, issued in a plain sleeve with a front cover sticker pasted on. The second pressing has fewer tracks than the first issue listed above.

A local Southern Californian release of an Original Movie Soundtrack to a surf movie. Oddly, an Australian pressing of this rare private press also exists! Another album shown as by Farm and involving the Dragon brothers is rumoured to exist but so far, no copy has turned up. The music is rural rock, mostly instrumental. Dennis Dragon later played in another rural rock outfit, the Joyous Noise (Musical Ensemble). (Clark Faville / Max Waller)

Farm

Personnel:

JIM ELWYN	A
STEVE EVANCHIK	A
GARY GORDON	A
ROGER GREENWALD	A
DEL HERBERT	A
MIKE YOUNG	A

ALBUM:

1	FARM	(Crusade Enterprises LPS-465)	c1971 R2

NB: (1) reissued as a 10" LP (Akarma AK2012) 2000.

Recorded at Golden Voice Recording Studios in South Pekin, Illinois and released on a small record label from Flora, Illinois, this Farm released a very obscure and rare album of heavy garage psyche with fuzz guitars, congas, mouth harp, organ, bottleneck and timbales. The album contains five tracks including Jungle Song, Let That Boy Boogie and Sunshine In My Window. They thank a certain George Leeman as their friend and spiritual guide.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Farm Band

Personnel:

DAVID CHALMERS	drms	A
LOUISE DOTZLER	vcls	A
THOMAS DOTZLER	vcls, keyb'ds, sax	A
WALTER RABIDEAU	gtr, vcls	A
MICHAEL SULLENS	bs	A
JOSEPH	gtr, hrmnca, vcls	A
STEPHEN	perc	A

ALBUM:

1	THE FARM BAND	(Mantra 777)	1972

2	UP IN YOUR THING	(Farm Records EE 1776)	1973
3	ON THE RIM OF THE NASHVILLE BASIN	(Farm Records 1001)	1976
4	COMMUNION	(Farm Records 1013)	1977

NB: (2) as Stephen and The Farm Band.

These records are the work of a Tennessee rural and vegetarian community directed by Stephen, their guru. The first album contains two LPs with inner sleeves and a giant poster. Their music was somewhat inspired by the Grateful Dead: long bluesy jams with good guitar solos, flute and violin (several tracks last more than eight minutes). The lyrics are very religious and quite naff (Loving You, Being Here With You, I Believe It). The second album came with another poster explaining how their community in Summertown worked (no smoking, no alcohol, free concerts and pastoral activities). It's musically very similar to their first album. With their third, their music became more influenced by the Southern Rock a la Allman Brothers. On the Rim Of The Nashville Basin was recorded in the famous Muscle Shoals studios by Steve Melton and the country soul singer George Soule. It's psychedelic sleeve mentions its "Southern Country Boogie" style. Their fourth album was more of the same, always with the excellent guitar of Walter Rabideau.

Contrary to some beliefs, The Farm was totally unconnected to Frantic.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Faros

TOP

45:

1. I'm Cryin'/I'm Calling You Back (Target 10314) 196?

From Neenah, Wisconsin, their finest moment is this half decent berserk cover of the Animals' hit. It figures on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 10.

Farquahr

TOP

ALBUMS:

1	FABULOUS FARQUAHR	(Verve Forecast FTS-3053)	1968
2	FARQUAHR	(Elektra EKS 74083)	1970

45:

1	My Island / Teddy Bear Days	(Verve Forecast KF5085)	1968

After their debut album on Verve Forecast, the four Farquahr "brothers": Barnswallow, Hummingbird, Condor and Flamingo, moved to Elektra in 1970. Produced by Jerry Ragovoy and recorded in New York, Farquahr is a deceiving and overproduced album in 1970. The only decent tracks being the Lovin' Spoonful like Dear John Deere and Babe In The Woods on Side Two.

The backing group was made of local session men: Eric Weissberg, Gary Chester, Joe Mack and Lou Mauro.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Pat Farrell and The Believers to Felt

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Pat Farrell and The Believers
- Cyrus Faryar
- Fat
- Fat Chance
- Fat City
- Fat Water
- Father Pat Berkery
- The Fatimas
- Faun
- Fax
- Fear Itself
- The Fearsome Five
- Feather
- Feather Da Gamba
- Federal Duck
- Feebeez
- The Feelies
- Fe Fi Four Plus 2
- The Felicity
- Felt

Pat Farrell and The Believers

TOP

Personnel:

- PAT FARRELL (real name PAT HENRY SICKAFUS) bs
- KEITH FISTER drms
- RUSSELL HIX gtr
- KEITH VAN ETTEN gtr

CD:

1. PAT FARREL & THE BELIEVERS (Arf!Arf! AA-072) 1998

45s:

1. Gotta Find Her/War Boy (Kingston 1967) 1967
2. War Baby/Gotta Find Her (Diamond 236) 1968
3. All My Love/Bad Woman (Diamond 239) 1968

NB: (1) credited to Razor's Edge.

Around 1965, Hamburg Pa.'s The Triumphs were looking for a new bassist and Pat got the job - it helped that he could sing too. They were already well established with two 45s released on Barclay in 1964 and had several other recordings that stayed in the can but are now available - see their entry. They kept this name for a couple of years until it came to the release of War Boy, whereupon they became the Razor's Edge, to avoid confusion withother Triumphs. After the release of a 45 on Kingston, it turned out that another group was using that moniker so a further name change was in order.

Bad Woman, featured on Pennsylvania Unknowns and Destination Frantic! (CD), is a superb tough pop-punker with a wicked bass line and scorching guitar. Unfortunately the 'A' side is a cover of a sloppy ballad and Pat's macho-man vocals tended toward Tom Jones here! Gotta Find Her on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 3 and Sixties Rebellion Vol's 1 & 2 (CD) is a bouncy pop number with some fine drifting organ and dreamy vocals, whilst the unreleased demo Brand New Baby on Crude PA. is again more pop than garage - being dominated by warbling keyboards.

The band eventually called it a day in 1969, Hix and Etten going on to Pepper Mill, a cover band. Fister had already left to join the Air Force and his replacement Joey Goheen joined the Police force (obvious choices for rock drummers?!). Pat moved into the country music field.

The CD retrospective contains seventeen tracks (ten unreleased plus two unreleased Pat Farrell solo efforts) from 1966 through 1968. I've taken the liberty of using Erik Lindgren's liner notes to confirm and extract the skeletal facts and do this band's entry justice. This CD is one of a 'set' of four 1998 releases that explore the '60s music of Eastern Pennsylvania - the other being a Flowerz CD (Fltye) and two vols of Eastern Pa. Rock which cover other acts on Barclay and its associated labels. (Erik Lindgren/Max Waller)

Cyrus Faryar

TOP

Personnel incl:

MIKE BOTTS	drms	A
CRAIG DOERGE	piano	A
CYRUS FARYAR	vcls, glass hrmnca, gtr	A B
BRIAN GAROFALO	bs	A
ALEX HASSILEV	electronic score, backing vcl	A
PAUL McCANDLESS	oboe	A
GLEN MOORE	bs	A
DICK ROSMINI	gtr	A
RALPH TOWNER	gtr, mellophone	A
COLIN WALCOTT	perc	A B
(DAVID CROSBY	backing vcl	A)
(MAMA CASS ELIOTT	backing vcl	A)
(BOB GIBSON	gtr, backing vcl	A)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	CYRUS	(Elektra 74105)	1971
2(B)	ISLANDS	(Elektra ?)	1973

The former Modern Folk Quintet member and voice of Zodiac Cosmic Sounds recorded these solo album's in 1971 and 1973. Cyrus was recorded in Los Angeles with the help of the members of the jazz group Oregon, David Crosby, Cass Elliott and various sessionmen. It's mainly composed of introspective folk rock with some oriental influences and very religious lyrics (Softly Through The Darkness, New Beginnings, Kingdom). Springtime Bouquet is an electronic score composed by Alex Hassilev. Recorded in 1973, Islands is presumably in the same style.

Faryar can also be found on recordings by Fred Neil, Mama Cass and the Stone Poneys and he sung one track for the soundtrack of "Last Summer" produced by John Simon. He even produced some albums by the Firesign Theater. In the early seventies, Faryar moved to Hawaii where he produced some local groups like Country Comfort.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Father Pat Berkery

TOP

ALBUM:

1. Prayers For A Noonday Church (Glasgow 1500) 1969 R1

A spoken word religious album of some note, on which local Missouri band Spur provide the musical backdrop. (Clark Faville)

Fat

TOP

Personnel:

WILLIAM BENJAMIN	drms, vcls	A
MICHAEL BENSON	gtr	A
GUY DeVITO	bs, vcls	A
JAMES KAMINSKI	gtr, vcls	A
PETER NEWLAND	vcls, hrmnca	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FAT	(RCA LSP 4368)	1970 R1
2()	FOOTLOOSE	(Dream Merchant)	1975

45s:

1(A)	Over The Hill / The Shape I'm In	(RCA Victor 47-9913)	1970
2(A)	Still Water/Jump Town Girl	(RCA 74-0408)	1970
3()	Livin' Like An Outlaw / ?	(Dream Merchant # Unkn)	1975

NB: (3) comes in a fold-open PS.

A local Massachusetts rural rock outfit, their first album is now catching on with collectors. The first 45 features two album cuts, but the second 45 tracks are non-album.

They apparently had a long local career as they recorded a rare second album in 1975, which is reputedly more polished than the first one.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Fat Chance

TOP

ALBUM:

1	FAT CHANCE	(RCA LSP- 4626)	1972

A decent horn rock group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fat City

TOP

Personnel:

EVERETT BARKSDALE	bs	A
HOWARD COLLINS	gtr	A
BILL DANOFF	vcls, gtr	A B
TAFFY NIVERT	vcls	A B
JIM PARKER	gtr	A B
(BERNARD PURDIE	drms	A)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	REINCARNATION	(ABC/Probe CPLP 4508)	1969
2(B)	WELCOME TO THE FAT CITY	(Paramount PAS 5???)	1970

Produced by the blues guitarist Dick Weissmann and lead by Bill Danoff, Fat City released two psyche folk albums of minor interest. The first album contains cuts like Prince Of Peace, Easter Island, Holly Would or the title track. With a renewed line-up, still reinforced by several session men (including Eric Weissberg and Richard Greene), the second album is reputedly in the same style. Bill Danoff would later marry Taffy Nivert and together they founded the Starland Vocal Band which released five albums during the '70s on RCA and Windsong.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fat Water

TOP

ALBUM:

1	FAT WATER	(MGM SE 4660)	1969

45:

1	Santa Anna Speed Queen / Amalynda Guinevere	(MGM 14101)	Dec 1969

From Chicago, a mix of psyche and heavy rock, with good organ and guitars plus the powerful voice of their singer, who was probably influenced by Janis Joplin.

This outfit reportedly evolved out of The One Eyed Jacks from Champaign, Illinois.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

The Fatimas

45:

1. Sand Storm/Hoochy Coo (Original Sound 72) 1967

A great single with female vocals, the 'B' side is an instrumental version of the 'A' side with sandstorm sound effects added! Both tracks were written by Petagno / Grovers / Hudson. Sand Storm can also be heard on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 8 and Teen Beat, Vol. 4 (CD).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Faun

Personnel:

DON BANDUCCI		A
LYNN CHATWIN	vcls	A
ROYAL MARTIN		A
GEORGE TICKNER	gtr	A
JAMES TRUMBO	vcls, keyb'ds	A
ROSS VALLORY	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FAUN	(GreGar GG 70000)	1968

NB: (1) also released in Italy with a different sleeve (Muriel) 1970.

45s:

1	I Asked My Mother/Better Dig What You Find	(Gregar 7000)	1968
2	Son Of A Literate Man/Yes l'm Really Lonely	(Gregar 7001)	l968

A San Francisco band, which strangely enough is not mentioned in Gleason's excellent book on 'The Jefferson Airplane and the San Francisco Sound'. Indeed some of the personnel may have come from Northem Califomia.

Vallory and Tickner had both previously played with Frumious Bandersnatch and Vallory later went onto play with The Steve Miller Band and Joumey. Trumbo had previously been a solo artist and retumed to this pursuit after Faun's demise. The case for Faun's inclusion here is marginal, as the album largely consists of progressive rock. It is now a minor collectable.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Fax

TOP

45s:

1. I Can Only Give You Everything/ Her Love (Transaction 701) 1966
2. Just Walkin'ln The Rain/Not Too Long Ago (Trans-action 702) 1966
3. I'll Go Crazy/If I Needed Someone (PS) (Trans-acton 704) 1967

NB: (3) as The Lost & Founds.

A four piece teen garage combo from La Crosse, Wisconsin often linked with label-mates The Ladds. Both were billed for the La Crosse Rock Reunion '91 show with other fifties and sixties local acts including Marauders, Unchained Mynds, Molly McGuires, Satisfactions, Johnny & the Shy Guys, and Dave Kennedy & The Ambassadors.

Their raunchy, rather primitive version of*I Can Only Give You Everything* has been compiled on Brainshadows Vol. 2 CD. (Max Waller)

Fear Itself

TOP

Personnel:

- CHRIS ZALOOM ld gtr A
- ELLEN McILLWAINE gtr, keyb'ds, vcls A
- BILL McCORD drms A
- PAUL ALBUM bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FEAR ITSELF (Dot DLP 25942) 1969

NB: (1) later reissued by Paramount, also released in France with a different sleeve (Dot 2C062 90484).

45:

1. The Letter / Born Under A Bad Sign (Dot 17278) 1969

A late sixties San Francisco outfit, whose album is tull of fuzz-blues material sounding rather like a psychedelic Groundhogs. Its more psychedelic tracks included Underground River and For Suki. Only two covers are present, a bluesy version of "The Letter" and "Born Under A Bad Sign", both were chosen for their 45. The album is now a very minor collectors' item and was produced by Tom Wilson.

Mclliwaine produced many solo albums in the seventies when she spent much of her time in Canada. Paul Album was also in Chrysalis.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Fearsome Five

TOP

45:

1. It's All Right/? (Fearsome 101) 196?

Unknown garage band, the 'A' side has resurfaced on Hipsville 29 B.C., Vol. 2.

Feather

TOP

Personnel:

- M. COLLINGS A
- D. GREER A
- R. WHITE A
- STEVE WOODWARD A

ALBUM:

1. FRIENDS (Columbia KC-30137) 1970

45s:

1. Kiss Of Fire / Mocassin (Viva 635) 1969
2. Friends / Salli (White Whale 353) 1970
3. Fifth Stone / No Time For Sorrow (Columbia 4-45231) 1970
4. Choo Choo Nairobi / Down The Wire (Columbia 4-45405) 1971

They were probably from L.A. where the album was recorded. Musically we're talking typical mainstream U.S. rock, pleasant and all originals. Collings and White were also responsible for Catch.

Feather Da Gamba

TOP

ALBUM:

1	LIKE IT OR GET BENT	(Private Pressing)	1971

From Louisiana, a psyche group playing tracks like Fear or Refusal and sometimes compared to Ant Trip Ceremony. Their album was pressed in very small quantities (maybe 200 copies with paste on covers).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Federal Duck

Personnel:

TIMMY ACKERMAN	drms, perc	A
JACK BOWERS	gtr	A
TONY SHAFTEL	vcls, bs	A
GEORGE STAVIS	gtr, vcls	A
BOB STERN	bs, vcls	A
KEN STOVER	keyb'ds, tuba	A
HUCK WHITE	gtr, french horn	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FEDERAL DUCK	(Musicor MS 3162)	1968

The sleeve to this record features a picture of a duck made up by a collage of different coloured pieces of paper, together with a photo of the group. The album, which was recorded in New York, is not greatly acclaimed although there are some good tracks including the mellow psychedelia of Tomorrow Waits For Today and Peace In My Mind. The outstanding track, however, is Bird with strong out-there vocals and a jazzy piano solo.

In 1969, George Stavis went solo, recording an album for Vanguard.

Feebeez

45:

1. Walk Away/Season Comes (Strange R 2216) 1966

You'll find the 'A' side on a compilation called Diana's Rootin' Tootin' Wild Teenage Rock 'n'Roll Party and both sides have also resurfaced on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 4. The group came from Albuquerque, New Mexico and some copies of the 45 included a poster. (Max Waller)

The Feelies

Personnel:

- RICK FONDELL bs
- BILL HOLLAND keyb'ds

- GORDY "FLASH" KJELLBERG ld gtr
- SHAKEY ROE drms

45s:

1. Louie, Louie/Warm Women (Jerden 904) 1968
2. Happy/Look At Me (Jerden 910) 1969

Kingsmen imitators from the Pacific Northwest. Kjellberg had earlier played with The Liberty Party. (Darryl F. Riffero/Max Waller)

Fe-Fi Four Plus 2

TOP

Personnel:

- ERNIE GONZE bs
- DANNY HOULIHAN vcls
- EDDIE JAMES gtr
- MIKE LAYDEN ld gtr
- EDDIE ROYBAL drms
- VIC ROYBAL organ

45s:

1. I Wanna Come Back (From The World Of LSD)/Double Crossin' Girl (Lance 101) 1967
2. Mr Sweet Stuff/Pick Up Your Head (Odex DR 1042) 196?

Wow, what a name! This was perhaps the best acid punk outfit to record out of New Mexico. Danny Houlihan wrote I Wanna Come Back. The band have been well represented on compilations. New Mexico Punk From The Sixties includes both sides of the Lance 45. You'll also find the 'A' side on Pebbles, Vol. 5 and the flip on Boulders, Vol. 10. Mr Sweet Stuff has resurfaced on Journey To Tyme, Vol. 2 and Pick Up Your Head can be found on Everywhere Chainsaw Sound, Vol. 1. More recently, I Wanna Come Back... has been covered by the likes of the Undertakers (1985 LP The Greatest Stories Ever Told), Nik Turner's Inner City Unit and the Mad Violets (1986 LP World Of...).

Dick Stewart, who ran Lance Records as well as being the main-man behind King Richard and The Knights has recently confirmed that Tom Bee was not a member of this band.

(Max Waller/Mike Dugo)

The Felicity

TOP

Personnel:

- DON HENLEY drms
- RICHARD BOWDEN gtr

- MIKE BOWDEN bs
- JIM EDNORMAN keyb'ds

45s:

1. Hurtin'/Try It (Wilson 101) 1967
2. Hurtin'/Try It (Regency 974 - Canadian release) 1967

Formed in Texarkana, Texas in 1964 they are more significant for their later achievements than this 45. All four became Shiloh in 1969. The Bowden brothers later played in Linda Ronstadt's band and various LA country-rock outfits. Henley who was in two earlier bands, The Four Speeds and The Speed, also played for Ronstadt and ended up in The Eagles, whose string arranger was Jim Ed Norman. Hurtin' can be heard on Boulders, Vol. 8 and Mindrocker, Vol. 6. It was also covered by Dewayne and The Beldettas. This version is featured on Boulders, Vol. 7. (Max Waller)

Felt

Personnel:

- MYKE JACKSON gtrs A
- MIKE NEEL drms A
- TOMMY GILSTRAP bs A
- STAN LEE gtrs A
- ALLAN DALRYMPLE keyb'ds A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FELT (Nasco 9006) 1971

NB. (1) has had a limited repress.

Felt came from Alabama. Their album, which is full of good guitar work and fine vocals, has become a very rare collectors' item. The bands leader, Myke Jackson also made a solo album.

Destination is also featured on Journey To The East.

(Vernon Joynson / Clark Faville / Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Feminine Complex to Fifth Avenue Band

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Feminine Complex
- Fenner, Leland & O'Brien
- The Fentons
- The Fenways
- Fenwyck (Featuring Jerry Ray)
- Ferguson Tractor
- Lawrence Ferlinghetti
- The Ferraris
- Feris Wheel
- The Ferris Wheel
- Fever Johnny
- The Fever Tree
- The Few
- The Fewdle Lords
- Fields
- W.C. Fields Memorial Electric String Band
- Fifth Avenue Band

The Feminine Complex

ALBUM:

1	LIVIN LOVE	()	1968

An all girl rock quartet who is beginning to attract collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fenner, Leland & O'Brien

Personnel:

FENNER	A
LELAND	A
O'BRIEN	A

ALBUM:

1 SOMEWHERE, SOMEDAY, SOMEHOW () 1969

NB: (1) has been reissued on vinyl.

An acid folk trio, sometimes compared to D.R. Hooker or Arthur Lee Harper. Only 250 originals were pressed but the album has recently been repressed.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Fentons

TOP

An unknown Michigan combo who have a previously unreleased cut on Thee Unheard Of compilation. Need Me Like I Need You is a pretty typical garage punker with rather a catchy guitar riff.

The Fenways

TOP

Personnel incl:

- JOEY COVINGTON
- SONNY DINUNZIO
- JOHNNY YORK

45s:

1. Will You Please Be Mine / Goodbye My Love (Kiski 2057)c1962
2. Moonlight Was Made For Lovers / I'm In The Mood For Love (Joey 6202) 1962 / 63
3. Nothing To OfferYou/The #1 Song In The Country (Ricky 106) 1964
4. Nothing To Offer You/Humpty Dumpty (Bevmar 401) 1964
5. Be Careful Little Girl (vcls)/Be Careful Little Girl (instr.) (Bevmar 402) 1964
6. Walk/Whip And Jerk (Imperial 66082) Dec. 1964
7. Walk/Whip And Jerk (Stone 4560) 196?
8. Hard Road Ahead/The Fight (Blue Cat 116) 1965
9. You're The One / Some Words (Blue Star 229)1965
10. Will You Or Won't You/True Lovers (Co & Ce 231) 1965
11. I'm A Mover/Satisfied (Co & Ce 233) 1966
12. Love Me For Myself/Satisfied (Co & Ce 237) 1966
13. I Move Around/A Go-Go (Co & Ce 241) 1966
14. I'm Your Toy/There For Pammy (Co & Ce 243) 1967

NB: (1) released as Tawny Sims with The Fenways. (4) also issued on Chess (1901) 1964. (5) also issued on Roulette (4573) 1964. (9) released as Vogues with The Fenways and also released on Co & Ce (229) 1965. (10) released as Four Chaps. There may be another 45, Never Thought I'd See The Day / ?, which may itself have been reissued on Stone (48). Details? Confirmation? Anyone?

Pittsburgh in Pennsylvania was home to this band. Joey Covington was a member for part of '66 - '67, before he moved to California and fame and fortune with Jefferson Airplane. He's known to have played on at least one of their 45s, I'm A Mover, and may have played on another. Sonny Di Nunzio went on to Racket Squad and then Sebastian.

You can also find Be Careful Little Girl on Burghers, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller / D. Molnar/Timothy Cox)

Fenwyck (featuring Jerry Raye)

TOP

Personnel:

- JERRY RAYE A
- PAT ROBINSON A
- PAT MAROSHEK A
- KEITH KNIGHTER A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE MANY SIDES OF JERRY RAYE FEATURING FENWYCK (De Ville LP-1 01) 1967 R3 (On Red Vinyl)

NB: (1) has been repressed.

45s:

1. I'm Spinning/Mindrocker (Challenge 59369) 1967
2. Iye/I Wanna Die (Progressive Sounds of America 103) 1967

Jerry Raye 45s:

1. The Simple Things Of Life/She Just Kept Coming Around (Perspective 6005) 196?

(& the New Trend):

1. The Devil Is A Woman / I Cry (Deville 201) 1966
2. Pray For Me / I'll Wait (Red Vinyl) (Deville 202) 1966
3. Mr.Kicks / ? (Deville #unkn) 1966 (203 or 204?)

(& Fenwyck):

1. I'm Spinning / Mindrocker (Deville 206) 1967
2. State Of Mind / Away (Deville 207) 1967
3. Mindrocker/State Of Mind (Blue or yellow Vinyl) (DeVille 207) 196?
4. I Cry/? (DeVille 207) 196?
5. I Wanna Die / Iye (Deville 208)1967

NB: (3) details dubious, anyone able to confirm? (4) also dubious.

A whole compilation series was named after this band's fine pop/rock 45 Mindrocker which typified the times of 1967. Jerry Raye came originally from Bristol in Rhode Island and along with the rest of this crew possessed some talent. Certainly Pat Robinson was quite a talented songwriter and Raye possessed an appealing vocal style. However, the album suffers from variable material with Mindrocker, State Of Mind and I'm Spinning (the last two both penned by Robinson) among its better moments. Much of side two is very lightweight pop and overall it can't be recommended.

The original LP is rare and pricey and was booted a few years back on black vinyl in a black-and-white sleeve (original sleeves are black-white-purple). The LP should be considered as by two different outfits: Fenwyck's psychy folk-rock side vs. Jerry's Raye's teen crooning side (Sorta 2nd division Conway Twifty). Certainly Jerry Raye's sound was out-of-date then.

Although Raye originated from Rhode Island, Fenwyck were probably based in California, as both their record label and management company were Hollywood, California based outfits.

Fenwyck compilation coverage has included: Iye on Pebbles CD Vol. 9: S.California 2 (CD); Mindrocker on Mindrocker Vol. 1 and The Garage Zone Vol. 4; Mindrocker (Remix, unreleased version) on Psychedelic Microdots Vol.1 (CD); Mindrocker (stereo version), I'm Spinning (stereo), State Of Mind (stereo), I Wanna Die, Iye and Away all appear on I Turned Into A Helium Balloon. Finally Away (alternate version) appears on Brain Shadows II.

(Max Waller)

Ferguson Tractor

TOP

45:

1	12 O'Clock High/Desperation Blues	(MTA)	1968?

An acid/garage rock rarity.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Lawrence Ferlinghetti

TOP

Personnel:

JEFFERY CHIN	gtr, sitar	A
LAWRENCE FERLINGHETTI	voice	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FERLINGHETTI (aka TYRANNUS NIX)	(Fantasy 7014)	1969

Ferlinghetti was a San Francisco poet, who owned the 'City Lights' bookshop. On side one, Ferlinghetti is accompanied by either the sitar or guitar on three tracks: Assasination Raga, Big Sur Sutra and Moscow In The Wilderness. The whole of side two is taken up by one track Tyrannus Nix - a narrative attack on ex-President Nixon, before his dramatic fall from grace. An unusual, but tedious album.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Ferraris

Personnel:

- JIM GRANT gtr A
- BILL FORD gtr A
- CHUCK RODGERS gtr A
- SAM NOTTLEMAN drms A
- BOB KUHLMANN keyb'ds A

45:

1. Can't Explain/I'm Not Talkin' (Welhaven 1001) 1966

Hailed from Winona in South-east Minnesota. This 45 was their sole vinyl offering and is becoming sought-after. I'm Not Talkin' can be heard on Psychedelic Patchwork, Vol. 1 and When The Time Run Out Vol. 1. I'm Not Talkin' was a Yardbirds' song also copied by The Electras. The 'A' side was a straight copy of The Who's classic hit.

They underwent several line-up changes over the years. Originally formed in 1963 as The Westcotts, they were also known at various times as The Farrarez, The Ferraries, The Fabulous Ferraris and finally The North Country Band. In 1968 they opened for The Yardbirds on their tour throughout the Mid West, and also played with The Flying Burrito Brothers, among others.

Jim Grant later went on to a solo career, becoming one of Southern Minnesota/Wisconsin Border's foremost acoustic rock artists. His debut CD Not The Only World, from 1995, was nominated for a Minnesota Music Award.

Feris Wheel

45:

1. The Best Part Of Breaking Up (Is Making Up)/Woman (Magenda 5653) c1967

Lower division Michigan garage-pop notable for being on the same label as Meatloaf's first waxing when he was a member of Popcorn Blizzard and that's all. To be fair, although the 'A' side is dire, their Zombies' cover ain't half bad. Check it out on Bad Vibrations Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

The Ferris Wheel

45:

1. Come Baby Back/Cherrie-42533 (Randolph 004) 1966

Hailed from the small Indiana town of Winchester and just put out this one 45. The 'A' side, a typical garage-punker, later got another airing on the Hoosier Hotshots compilation. The flip was more pop-orientated.

Fever Johnny

45:

1. Zombie/Wonderful World Of The Heart (RCA Victor 47-9071) 1967

Good fuzz-pop novelty with deep echoey Zombified vocals. The flip is an awful orchestrated Gene Pitney type ballad. There's also a 45, which maybe has no connection at all, by a similarly-named 'Mad John Fever' Breath & Thunder / One World Lost To Another (Century 44090) 197? whose topside is prog rock with jazzy guitar interludes between the heavier riffin' moments. The flip is jazzy rock with pizzicato guitar and brass soloing to the fore, but is actually pretty cool - if that's your thing, dude. A Rofran (Urbana,Illinois??) product. (Max Waller)

Fever Tree

Personnel:

DENNIS KELLER	vcls	A B
MICHAEL KNUST	ld gtr	A B C
ROB LANDES	keyb'ds, woodwind	A
JOHN TUTTLE	drms	A
E.E. WOLFE III	bs	A B
GRANT JOHNSON	keyb'ds	B
KEVIN KELLY	drms	B
KENNETH BLANCHET	bs	C
PAT BRENNAN	vcls, keyb'ds	C
ROBBIE PARRISH	drms	C
JOHN CLARRY	drms

ALBUMS:

1(A)	FEVER TREE	(UNI 73024)	1968 156
2(A)	ANOTHER TIME, ANOTHER PLACE	(UNI 73040)	1969 83
3(A)	CREATION	(UNI 73067)	1969 97
4(B)	FOR SALE	(Ampex A 10113)	1970
5(C)	LIVE AT LAKE CHARLES 1978	(Shroom SP 98004)	1998

NB: (1) was reissued in 1973 as MCA 551. (1) and (2) issued on one CD by See for Miles (SEECD 364) 1993. (3) and (4) reissued on one CD. There's also two compilations:- San Francisco Girls - The Best Of (LP) (See For Miles SEE 71) 1986 and San Francisco Girls: The Best of Fever Tree (CD) (ERA)1992.

EPs:

1	Radio Spots Promo - (Five Tracks)	(UNI 10)	19?
2(C)	Fever Tree Return (PS)	(Buttermilk 711X4779-102)	1978/9

NB: (2) contains: Mam Hang Around, Nowadays Clancy Can't Even Sing, Rhythm Fix and You Don't See Me.

45s:

1	Hey Mister/I Can Beat Your Drum	(Mainstream 661)	1967
2	Girl, Oh Girl (Don't Push Me)/Steve Lenore	(Mainstream 665)	1967 -
3	San Francisco Girls (Return Of The Native)	(UNI 55060)	1968 -
4	San Francisco Girls (Return Of The Native)/Come With Me (Rainsong)	(UNI 55095)	1968 91
5	Love Makes The Sun Rise/Filigree And Shadow	(UNI 55146)	1969 -
6	Clancy (Nowadays Clancy Can't Even Sing)/ The Sun Also Rises	(UNI 55172)	1969
7	Catcher In The Rye/WhatTime Did You Say It Is In Salt Lake City?	(UNI 55202)	1969
8	I Am	(UNI 55228)	1970
9	I Am/Grand Candy Young Sweet	(UNI 55228)	1970
10	She Comes In Colors	(Ampex 11013)	1970
11	She Comes In Colors/You're Not The Same Baby	(Ampex 11 01 3)	1970
12	I Put A Spell On You	(Ampex 11028)	1970
13	I Put A Spell On You/Hey Joe, Where You Gonna Go	(Ampex 11 028)	1970

NB: (3), (8), (10), (12) double-sided promo.

Originally known as Bostwick Vine, they formed in Houston in 1966 and quickly became known as Fever Tree. Michael Knust had earlier been a solo artist. Like many other Texan bands of this era they spent time in San Francisco and many actually believed them to be Californians. This was partly due to their Top 100 U.S. hit San Francisco Girls, which reached No. 91.

Their first album was excellent, and reached No. 156 in the charts, but then decline set in. The remaining three each had moments of merit, particularly the second and third which got to No.'s 83 and 97 respectively in the charts. However the last album was released during a period when the group was breaking up and appears to have been completed using session musicians. The liner notes to the ERA CD suggest that many of the tracks were outtakes from earlier LPs.

Michael Knust reformed the band in 1978, recording a four-track EP Fever Tree Return and the Live At Lake Charles 1978 CD, which was released in 1998. The group style is best described as "Fever Tree gets funky" and neither release is recommended.

Kevin Kelly joined the band from The Byrds and went on to play in Jesse, Wolf and Wings, Clarry and Blanchefte were both earlier in The Sherwoods.

San Francisco Girls remains the best guide to their material.

Compilation appearances to date include: San Francisco Girls on 21 KILT Goldens, Vol. 2; Man Who Paints The Picture on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 2; HeyJoe on Boulders, Vol. 8; Hey Mister and I Can Beat Your Drums on Mindrocker, Vol. 12; and two radio adverts for the Living Eye club and Now Sound on Houston Hallucinations taken from the Radio Spots 'EP'. They also appeared on the soundtrack to Angels Die Hard.

(Vernon Joynson/Joe Rein/John Melbourne)

The Few

45s:

1. Why?/How Much Longer (Skokie 451) 196?
2. Escape/? (Maestro 4977/4978) 1967

This Skokie, Illinois outfit were big fans of The Animals. They split in mid '67 a few months after their second 45 was recorded to go to college.

Back From The Grave, Vol. 5 features Escape, a raunchy garage punker with a catchy guitar and upfront organ.

The Fewdle Lords

45s:

1 Farewell To Today And Tomorrow / I Know (Tiara MP-900) 1968

A mystery group thought to hail from Miami or Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The stately baroque-harmony-pop Farewell... has been unearthed by Jeff Lemlich on Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1.

(Max Waller)

Fields

Personnel:

- PATRICK BURKE bs A
- STEVE LAGANA drms A
- RICHARD FORTUNATO gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FIELDS (UNI 73050) 1969

45:

1. Bide My Time/Take You Home (UNI 55106) 1969

A Los Angeles outfit, these three were previously known as ESB. The album, which is heavy rock with some psychedelic influence, was produced by ex-Merry-Go-Rounder Bill Rinehart, ESB may previously have been W.C. Fields Memorial Electric Band. (Electric String Band ESB. Get it?).

W.C. Fields Memorial Electric String Band

Personnel (probably):

- GEORGE CALDWELL
- ZINNER
- PATRICK BURKE
- STEVE LAGANA
- RICHARD FORTUNATO

45s:

1. Hippy Elevator Operator/Don't Lose The Girl (HBR 507) 1966
2. I'm Not Your Steppin' Stone/Round World (Mercury 72578) 1966

This Los Angeles band are thought to have recorded the first version of I'm Not Your Stepping Stone, which is featured on Highs In the Mid-Sixties, Vol. 2 and Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD). However, perhaps their most successful number was Hippy Elevator Operator, which demonstrated the band's commercial aspirations and underground pretensions. This can be heard on Boulders, Vol. 3. Their non-comped tracks are worthy of note - Don't Lose The Girl is a simmering midslow punker with strong moody vocals from, I'd guess, Richard Fortunato (based on the fabulous April'66 Vejtables sessions that finally saw light of day on the Good Things Are Happening CD). With snarling guitar and a mean break, this oozes class throughout. Round World has a lighter feel with orchestrated backing and softer harmonies but retains a cool folk-rock-pop aura with some sharp guitar mixed low. Surely there must be unreleased stuff languishing in some tape archive or band member's loft?

A later recruit to the band was George Caldwell from The Bees.

Shorten the name to Electric String Band, then ESB and you have an outfit featuring a Caldwell, George ex-Bees Caldwell (+Zinner, Patrick Burke, Steve Lagana and Richard Foftunato). And when ESB became a three piece they became Fields.

(Max Waller)

Fifth Avenue Band

Personnel:

KENNY ALTMAN	bs, vcls	A
JERRY BURNHAM	vcls, gtr	A
PETER GALLWAY	vcls, gtr	A
PETE HEYWOOD	drms	A
JON LIND	vcls	A
MURRAY WEINSTOCK	keyb'ds	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FIFTH AVENUE BAND	(Reprise RS 6369)	1969

NB: (1) also released in France (Vogue/Reprise 6369).

Produced by the two Lovin' Spoonful members Jerry Yester and Zal Yanovsky, an urban folk-rock group who should naturally appeal to the 'Spoonful fans.

Peter Gallway later formed the short-lived Ohio Knox and Kenny Altman became the bass player of another 'Spoonful, John Sebastian.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Fifth Estate to The Final Solution

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Fifth Estate
- Fifth Flight
- Fifth Generation
- Fifth Generation
- Fifth Order
- Fifty Foot Hose
- Filet of Soul
- The Final Solution

The Fifth Estate

TOP

Personnel:

DON ASKEW	wordsmith	A B
RICK ENGLER	gtr	A B
KEN EVANS	gtr	A B
DOUG FERRARA	bs	A B
CHUCK LEGROS	vcls	A
BILL SHUTE	gtr, hrmnca	A B
WAYNE WADHAMS	keyb'ds	A B

ALBUM:

1(-)	DING DONG! THE WITCH IS DEAD	(Jubilee JGM(S) 8005)	Oct. 1967

NB: There's also a retrospective CD, Ding Dong: The Witch Is Back! ('64-'69) (Boston Skyline BSD 116) 1995.

45s:

1	Love Is All A Game/Like I Love You	(Red Bird 10064)	May 1966 -
2	Ding Dong! The Witch Is Dead/The Rub-a-dub	(Jubilee 5573)	Apr. 1967 11
3	The Goofin' Song/Lost Generation	(Jubilee 5588)	Aug. 1967
4	Heigh Ho!/It's Waiting There For You	(Jubilee 5595)	Oct. 1967
5	Morning Morning/Tomorrow Is My Turn	(Jubilee 5607)	Feb. 1968
6	Do Drop Inn/That's Love	(Jubilee 5617)	Apr. 1968

7	Coney Island Sally/Tomorrow Is My Turn	(Jubilee 5627)	July 1968

NB: (2) Also released in France.

The Ding Dong: The Witch Is Back! is a superb CD package documenting the life and evolution of the above group, from their 1964 formation in Stamford, Connecticut as the Demen (line-up 'A'), their Invasion garage-beat stance as the D-Men, to the addition of solo vocalist Chuck Legros and a change of name and direction to The Fifth Estate. Comprising 28 tracks, including many demos and unreleased versions, plus a hefty 30+ page booklet - good value for money, especially if you don't have the D-Men 45s. Much of their later material is pretty weak pop.

Love Is All A Game, their debut single, came out on the imminently defunct Red Bird Records and despite being an infectious and tuneful Searchers-style number, failed to chart. Meanwhile, the songwriting team of Wadhams/Askew were also pitching songs at a number of British artists including Peter and Gordon, Cilla Black, and Freddie and The Dreamers. All of them passed but some lesser-known American acts like The Highwaymen, the Brothers Four, and Reparata and the Delrons did record their songs. They also wrote and recorded a number of advertising jingles and continually played New York's nightclub scene.

In late 1966, Chuck Legros left after walking off stage in a pique just before the band managed to interest Jubilee Records in a demo of a tune taken from "The Wizard Of Oz". The song, done in response to a dare, was arranged around a Bouree by the 17th century composer, Michael Praetorius, and made No. 11 on the US charts on June 15th 1967. It was also the title track of their album. The "B" side written by W. Wadhams and Don Askew, is decent bubblegum pop. The remainder of their Jubilee LP contains tracks like No. 1 Hippie On The Village Scene and covers of I'm A Believer and Midnight Hour.

The follow-up single was in the good-timey vein of The Lovin' Spoonful but failed to repeat the success of its predecessor. In August and September 1967 the band toured as part of a package with Gene Pitney, The Happenings, The Music Explosion, The Buckinghams, and The Easybeats. After the tour, most of the bandmembers decided to return to college, mainly to avoid the draft, but still found time to record occasionally. Heigh Ho was an attempt to cash in on Ding Dong's success and was arranged around a Bach tune. Their label pressed them to record bubblegum material in keeping with the Spring 1968 trend. The group was unenthusiastic and Jubilee hired studio musicians to record an ersatz Fifth Estate single Parade Of The Wooden Soldiers. When the label went bankrupt shortly after, the group broke up also. Wadhams now teaches record production at Berklee College of Music in Boston.

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Fifth Flight

TOP

Personnel:

- anonymous

ALBUM:

1. INTO SMOKE TREE VILLAGE (Century 39398) R2 197?

Obscure early seventies private album of cover songs, the highlight of which is a version of Neil Young's Sugar Mountain with massive fuzz guitar. Overall, the album is pretty inept and is not recommended. The stock Century "mill" cover makes another appearance on this album. I think this group was from California. (Clark Faville)

Fifth Generation

45:

1. Purple Haze/Caroline (IGL 155) 1968

Carroll, a small town in Western Iowa, was home to this obscure band. These guys could play though - check out their fine version of Hendrix's Purple Haze on Midwest vs The Rest, Vol. 1 or The Best Of IGL Garage Rock (LP) and The IGL Rock Story Part Two (CD). (Max Waller)

Fifth Generation

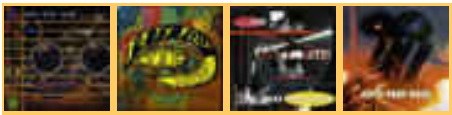
45:

1. If I See Her/You Lied To Me (Fone Booth 1001) 196?

A different band, from Westfield, Massachussetts, whose If I See Her can be heard on New England Teen Scene, Vol. 2 and New England Teen Scene (CD). (Max Waller)

Fifth Order

Personnel incl:



- BILLY CARROLL vcls
- T. HAY
- JEFF JOHNSON bs
- H. LOVDAL
- J. SENDER

45s:

1. Goin'Too Far/Walkin'Away (Counterpart 2571) 1966
2. Goin'Too Far/Walkin'Away (Diamond D-212) 1966
3. A Thousand Devils (Are Chasin' Me)/Today (I Got A Lefter) (Counterpart 2595) 1967
4. A Thousand Devils (Are Chasin' Me)/Today (I Got A Lefter) (Laurie 3404) 1967

This Columbus, Ohio band played a form of folk-rock with a strong Merseybeat influence. This is typified by Today (I Got A Letter) which has resurfaced on Mindrocker, Vol. 3 and Walkin' Away which also appears on Sixties Rebellion Vol's 1 & 2 (CD). You can also find the punkier Goin' Too Far on Boulders, Vol. 1, The Psychedelic Sixties and A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 2. (Max Waller/Ben Knepper)

Fifty Foot Hose

Personnel:

DAVID BLOSSOM	gtr, piano, thumb piano	A B C D
NANCY BLOSSOM	vcls	A B C D
GARY DOOS	drms	A
LARRY EVANS	gtr, vcls	A B C D
CORK MARCHESCHI	(bs), various electronic effects	A B C D
KEN CAMPAGNA	drms	B
TERRY HANSLEY	bs	B C D
DOUG ?	drms	C
KIM KIMSEY	drms, perc	D

ALBUM:

1(D)	CAULDRON	(Limelight 86062)	1969

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD as Cauldron... Plus (Big Beat CDWIKD158) 1996, with bonus tracks and also on CD in the U.S. (Weasel Disc 744213 1945 3) 1994. There's also a live CD taken from a 1995 performance Live And Unreleased (Captain Trip CTCD 052), 1997 and a 1999 studio CD Sing Like Scaffold (Weasel Disc WD 19456). On vinyl, there was also a limited album of previously unreleased material dating from '66/'67 called Ingredients () 1998.

45s:

1	Blue Canary / Need Your Love	(D & A 6601)	1965
2	Skopull / It's Time	(D & A 6602)	Feb 1966
3	?? / ??	(D & A #unkn)	1965/6
4	Bad Trip/Skins	(Mary Jane NA 102)	1967

NB: (1), (2) and (4) released as by The Ethix. (3) backing Rudy Grau - titles unknown. There's also a 45 Red The Sign Post (Alt. Take)/ If Not This Time (Alt. Take) (PS) (Get Hip GH-50) 1990.

Cork Marcheschi, the creative force behind Fifty Foot Hose, grew up in the Bay Area and developed a taste for both R&B and avantgarde music - Edgar Varese was an early influence. After finishing high-school in 1963, he formed a garage band called the Hide-A-Ways with guitarist Jim Flannery (Marcheschi played bass). The band soon changed name to the Ethix and played constantly around the Bay Area between 1964-66. They recorded the notoriously atonal Bad Trip single in the bathroom of Cork's mother's house but the band ended in early 1967 when the band played Las Vegas where two of the members were found to be under-age.

Cork's interest in avant-garde music prompted him to build his very own musical "instrument" with two audio generators, two theremins, and various other sonic-distortion devices - a bit like the one Simeon used in the Silver Apples. He teamed with guitarist and fellow experimental music-enthusiast David Blossom who brought in his wife, Nancy, as vocalist. A second guitarist, Larry Evans, was added and former Ethix-member, Gary Doos, played drums to complete the original lineup of Fifty Foot Hose. Doos soon left and a couple of other drummers were tried before settling on Kim Kimsey for good. Meanwhile Cork gave up bass to devote himself to the electronics and Terry Hansley was brought in to take up bass duties.

Early on, the band played a lot of gigs but mostly perplexed audiences with their uncompromisingly experimental approach. They recorded a demo, four tracks of which are included on the Big Beat CD, and hawked it around the record companies. Limelight Records, an experimental label subsidiary of Mercury, signed the band and they recorded their album in early 1968 with Dan Healy, who also worked with Human Expression and later extensively with the Grateful Dead, as producer.

Although Cauldron went unnoticed at the time, partly because it didn't fit into any neat "psychedelic" mould, it has certainly stood the test of time and utilises just about every music-making electronic device then available. Audio generators, echodette, squeaky box, siren, ringing oscillator circuits, theremin - the list is almost endless. Nancy Blossom also has a beautifully clear voice which begs comparison with Dorothy Moscowitz, the vocalist with another pioneering electronic band, The United States of America.

Sadly after the album disappeared without trace, several members left to join the production of the musical "Hair" (just to get a regular paycheck) and the band effectively folded.

No original 45s were issued under the Fifty Foot Hose monicker, but the recent release of original alternate takes of the strongest LP tracks is a welcome addition and worth seeking out. The recent Big Beat CD reissue of the Cauldron album also features two takes of Bad Trip - the 33rpm and the 45rpm versions. Both are still way out there somewhere. Finally, subscribers to Ptolemaic Terrascope #23 also got to hear an 'unreleased acetate version' of Bad Trip on the accompanying free EP.

Kimsey later played with the Hoodoo Rhythm Devils, whilst Cork became a teacher and later a well-known sculptor.

In the late '70s and '80s Cauldron influenced a number of experimental outfits - including Pere Ubu, Throbbing Gristle, and Chrome. Continuing interest in the band led to a "re-union" live album, from 1995, which appeared on the Japanese, Captain Trip label. Although only Cork Marcheschi is the only original member, Live... and Unreleased is rather successful, with spirited performances of If Not This Time, Red The Signpost plus six other tracks. A studio album Sing Like Scaffold followed in 1999 and there was also a vinyl rarities compilation Ingredients.

You can also find Red The Sign Post on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 1 (CD) and both Bad Trip and Skins on California Halloween.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley / Alec Palao)

Filet of Soul

TOP

Personnel:

- RICH LEGAULT drms A
- DENNY LEWAN bs A
- MIKE PEARCE vcls, ld gtr A
- BEN WIESNIEWSKI gtr A

ALBUM:

1. FREEDOM (Monoquid Squid ST 4857) 1968

An album which is reputed to contain a few flashes of brilliance from this outfit from Champaign, Illinois, who were heavily into Hendrix-style guitar work. The remainder is poppy and gospel influenced. The album was recorded in Chicago.

The Final Solution

Personnel:

- ERNIE FOSSELIUS gtr A B
- JOHN YAGER gtr A B
- BOB KNICKERBOCKER bs A B
- JOHN CHANCE drms A
- JERRY SLICK drms B
- (CARL FOSSELMS vcls, ld gtr

This San Francisco-based band was founded by Ernie Fosselius (who came from Berkeley) and Bob Knickerbocker (from Sunnyvale) who met in 1963, although the band proper started when the other two members joined in the summer of 1965. They coined their name late that year, not realising what it could mean to a Jew. Although the band were a part of the early San Francisco music revolution, partly through their own violation they weren't in the big league. They tried to look different (dressing from top to bottom in black) and sound different. They auditioned for Mainstream but never made it on to vinyl because Bob Shad never liked them or their sound. Late in 1966 Bob Chance lost interest in the band and Jerry Slick (Grace's husband) came in as a replacement in November following the break-up of The Great Society. This, briefly, gave the band new impetus but they never really capitalised on it and fell apart in 1967. Ernie Fosselius went on to enjoy a career in film-making and Bob Knickerbocker is now dead. Pebbles, Vol. 22 and the Pebbles Box set both include So Long Goodbye, a hitherto unreleased song by the band. It's a raw-sounding rather trippy jam that typified the San Francisco sound between 1966-67. Those who subscribed to the first issue of Jud Cost & Alec Palao's quality zine "Cream Puff War" also received a one-sided red flexi 45 which featured an unreleased track, Bleeding Roses, from 1966.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Finchley Boys to Firebirds/31st Flavour (Electric Firebirds)

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Finchley Boys
- Fink Muncx IX
- Emmett Finley
- Finnigan and Wood
- Mike Finnegan and The Surfs
- Finnegan's Wake
- Finnicum
- Fire
- Fire and Ice
- Fire and Ice Ltd.
- The Fire Escape
- Firebirds/31st Flavour (Electric Firebirds)

Finchley Boys

TOP

Personnel:

- GARRET OOSTDYK gtr A
- GEORGE FABER vcls, harp A
- J. MICHAEL POWERS drms, perc A
- TABE bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) EVERLASTING TRIBUTE (Golden Throat 200-19) 1972

NB. (1) reissued plus session material as Practice Sessions (Eva 12033) 1984, also reissued on CD with three bonus cuts.

Hailing from Champaign, lliinois, where they formed in January 1963, the band recorded the material for their album in Chicago during 1968 and 1969, although it was not released until 1972. They do not appear to have released any 45s at all. Practice Sessions is a reissue of their album but with five additional tracks. The best cuts on the album are their reinterpretation of Ray Davies' I'm Not Like Everybody Else and the superb It All Ends. Most of their material is very bluesy, as one might expect for a Chicago band of this era and to appreciate their music you'll need to be a fan of the blues. There is a rumour that the band later evolved into Bent Wind, but I think this is wrong.

Compilation appearances include: *I'm Not Like Everybody Else*on Endless Journey, Phase I; It All Ends on Endless Journey, Phase 2 and Outcast on Reverberation IV (CD).

Fink Muncx IX

45:

1. Coffee, Tea, Or Me / ? (Prism 1907)1964

A Cincinnati, Ohio outfit made up of four instrumentalists and five singers - the 45 was released purely as a fund-raiser. Basically a joke band, they did actually play live a couple of times. Lap it up on Garage Punk Unknowns Vol.1 (where the band are miscredited as Fink Muncx 4).

Wasn't there a teen exploito movie of this name around at the time??

(George Gell/Max Waller)

Emmett Finley

ALBUM:

1	EMMETT FINLEY	(Poison Ring PRR 22??)	c1972 SC

Another release by this Connecticut label (also responsible for Fancy and Pulse), this one is a moody organ/guitar rural psych album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Finnigan and Wood

Personnel:

RAY BAGBY	drms	A
DON CLAREY	drms	A
MIKE FINNIGAN	keyb'ds, vcls	A
DAVE GATES	bs	A
RAY LOECKLIE	sax	A
JERRY WOOD	vcls, gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	CRAZED HIPSTERS	(Blue Thumb BTS 35)	1972

A good Californian blues and heavy rock outfit, with rough vocals and strong instrumental parts (guitar, organ, sax and harp). Mike Finnigan (or Finnegan) was previously the leader of The Serfs and Ray Loecklie would later play with Mike Bloomfield and Jesse Colin Young.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Mike Finnegan and The Surfs

Personnel incl:

MIKE FINNEGAN	keyb'ds, vcls	A

45s:

1	Bread and Water/?	(Parkway 113)	1966

An obscure single by the future leader of The Serfs.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Finnegan's Wake

45s:

1. Situation Sad/Walking The Dog (Disques Cote X-13/14) c1966
2. Stay With Me Baby / You Blew It (Val 1015) c1967

An unknown Pittsburgh, Philadelphia. outfit. Their choice cut is a strong fuzz-popper Situation Sad, featured on Psychedelic Patchwork Vol. 1 and The Psychedelic Experience Vol. 3. The song is actually a cover of Michel Polnareff's No No No No No (La Poupee Qui Fait Non) whose success in continental Europe resulted in both a U.S. and U.K. release in 1966 (Kapp 786 and Vogue VRS 7012) and is one highlight on his French Rock-Blues album. (Max Waller)

Finnicum

45:

1. Come On Over/On The Road Again (Ruff 1011) 1966

This West Texas band was managed by Ray Rut but isn't one of his better known bands. Nonetheless the 'A' side is great - lots of fuzz, feedback and harp. You can hear this bubbling rocker on Flashback, Vol. 1. The flip was a hard rock version of a Dylan song.

Fire

Personnel:

P. GLANZ ?	A
ROGERS ?	A
TAPLIN ?	A

WHITE ? A

ALBUM:

1(A) FIRE (ABC ABCS-661) 1968

An unknown quartet whose album was produced by Tom Wilson and is reputedly a mix of psyche and soul/rock a la Rascals. Two tracks, One More Heartache and I Thought You Were A Lover, were compiled on Tom's Touch, an album dedicated to Tom Wilson productions. Both songs are well structured, with good organ and guitar parts.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fire and Ice

TOP

Personnel:

- JOE McCLEAN bs, vcls A
- LES THEDE drms A
- LARRY BARRETT vcls, gtr A
- ANDY BAILEY organ A

McClean and Thede put this Iowa act together when The XL's were ripped apart by the draft. The Dirty Water compilation includes a McClean composition called Person To Person which contains some good instrumental breaks. The above line-up disintegrated in 1969, although Andy Bailey (who still plays in Iowa bands tgday) was involved in later line-ups. Les Thede deputised for The Daybreakers'/Rox's drummer in 1970 when he was incapacitated through illness.

Fire and Ice Ltd.

TOP

ALBUM:

1. THE HAPPENING (Capitol T 2577) 1966

Chaotic off-the-wall instrumentals accompanied by shouted exhortations, or rambling spoken nonsense, characterize this strange trip. I guess it's an early attempt at some sorta free-form freakout - whether it works depends primarily, I suspect, on one's state of mind at the time. Definitely do not listen to it sober, however, as it just sounds vacuous.

There was a Fire and Ice who provided backing music to Capitol's notorious LSD documentary album (the one which tells the tale of Brian's 34th LSD trip amongst other things)... anyone out there able to confirm that they're the same bunch??

(Max Waller / Joe Foster)

The Fire Escape

ALBUM:

1 PSYCHOTIC REACTION (GNP Crescendo 2034) 1967

NB: (1) is also available on CD with The Seeds' Raw And Alive LP, and has also been reissued on vinyl by GNP Crescendo.

45:

1 Love Special Delivery/Blood Beat (GNP Crescendo 384) 1967

NB: There's also a rare French EP with PS : Love Special Delivery/Talk Talk/96 Tears/Trip Maker (Vogue INT 18117) 1967.

The Fire Escape was actually a group of studio musicians, one of many put together by Kim Fowley. Their sole album, produced by Hank Levine, included competent versions of such punk classics as 96 Tears, Talk, Talk, The Trip and, of course, the title track Psychotic Reaction which the record company misspelt on the album cover!

All the songs on the album were written by Hank Levine and Larry Goldberg, making it almost certainly some relation to the other phantom group The Mesmerizing Eye. The remaining members are unknown, but the band were from Hollywood.

It is rumoured, but not proved that Sky Saxon and Kim Fowley played on the album. Like so many bands of this ilk, their demise was as fast as their rise. Fire Escape have one song, Love Special Delivery, on Mindrocker, Vol. 1. Their version of Fowley's The Trip (also covered by Godfrey) appears on the MIcrodelia CD comp.

Both 45 cuts were on their album.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

Firebirds / 31st Flavour (Electric Firebirds)

ALBUMS:

1. LIGHT MY FIRE (Crown CST 589) 1969 R2
2. DANCE PARTY TIME (Crown) 1969
3. HAIR (Crown CST 492) 1969

NB: (1) was counterfeited in 1991. (2) as Electric Firebirds. (3) as 31 Flavours.

An intriguing mystery outfit whose albums have become sought-after for their over-top heavy psych-blues-rock mayhem that owes much to Hendrix, Iron Butterfly and Blue Cheer's Vincebus Eruptum. The best place to start is Erik Lindgren's superb 1997 CD compilation, An Overdose Of Heavy Psych which contains six primordial chunks. The Associated Soul Group Contessa album below is listed purely as conjecture in the hope that someone may establish a connection other than that it shares the same cover as the Electric Firebirds and is on another exploitation California label. Who WERE these Godfathers of grunge? (Max Waller)

Possibly connected:
ASSOCIATED SOUL GROUP

ALBUM:

1. TOP HITS OF TODAY (Contessa CON 15012) 1968

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Firesign Theatre to Fish 'N' Chips

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Firesign Theatre
- 1st Century
- First Chips
- First Crow To The Moon
- First Friday
- The First Four
- 1st National Band
- First Revelation
- Ernie Fischbach and Charles Ewing
- Wild Man Fischer
- Fish 'N' Chips

Firesign Theatre

TOP

Personnel:

- PHIL PROCTOR A
- PETER BERGMAN A
- PHIL AUSTIN A
- DAVID OSSMAN A

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1. (A) WAITING FOR THE ELECTRICIAN (Columbia 9518) 1968
2. (A) HOW CAN YOU BE IN TWO PLACES AT ONCE WHEN YOU'RE NOWHERE AT ALL (Columbia 9884) 1970
3. (A) DON'T CRUSH THAT DWARF HAND ME THE PLYERS (Columbia 30102) 1970
4. (A) I THINK WE'RE ALL BOZOS ON THIS BUS (Columbia 30737) 1971

Although their records are worth investigating, their best work in this period is considered to have been for TV and for their free-form radio show, "Dear Friends". Primarily a comedy act, Firesign Theatre owed much of their early success to the 'acid rock' period with their lyrics exploiting the way many American kids were spending their time getting stoned to well-crafted rock albums. Their repertoire extended well beyond 'acid' humour, mixing in both poignant political comment and slapstick comedy - for example their debut album dedicated one side to a series of sketches dealing with the fate of the American Indian.

Firesign Theatre also had a side-line as session men, with Gary Usher using them as 'Atmosphere' on many of his productions including Sagittarius and Chad and Jeremy. Perhaps the best known of these was on The Byrds classic Draft Morning.

Throughout the seventies and eighties Firesign Theatre continued to issue a plethora of albums, whilst both Austin and Ossman recorded solo comedy albums. They've also recently recorded a video, whilst Phil Proctor and David Ossman have also worked on a film with Canadian documentarian Ron Mann called "GRASS - the social and legislative history of Marijuana....".

For more information on this act, check their website: http://www.benway.com/firesign

(Vernon Joynson / Brian Phillips / Joe Foster / Michael Packer)

1st Century

TOP

45:

1. Looking Down/Dancing Girl (Capitol 2135) 1968

Scintillating and irresistibly catchy sitar-pop-psychedelia backed by a stoned mid-tempo groovy effort which adds a flute to the exotic instrumentation. Both sides can also be heard on Professor Pott's Pornographic Projector (Incredible Sound Show Stories, Vol. 8). (Max Waller)

First Chips

TOP

Personnel:

- VYTO BELESKA A
- GARY GREENBERG A
- GENE LYNCH A
- DENNY MURRAY A
- DARICK NAVA A
- ARVY TUMOSA A
- ED WESTPHAL A
- TED ZDANEK A

ALBUM:

1. (A) VOLUME ONE (Clay Pigeon CPP SFCV1) 1972 R2

NB: This album was subtitled A Collection Of Early Recordings From Clay Pigeon Productions. It has been counterfeited.

A rare Illinois local blues-rock, folk-rock item. Much of it sounds amateurish and the recording quality is poor. Most of the material was recorded between 1970 - 72. There is one, rather interesting instrumental track with sound effects dating from December 1964. Otherwise on offer is experimental but disjointed blues-rock, best exemplified on the opening cut Stoneball and the 8.31 minute Mind and Soul, recorded live at Tinley Park High School. Other material is more acoustic-based.

First Crow To The Moon

Personnel:

- JERRY MILLSTEIN ld vcls, organ, piano
- ALLEN MILLER drms
- ALAN AVICK ld gtr
- STUART GOLD gtr
- EDDIE GREENBERG bs

45:

1. Spend Your Life With Me/The Sun Lights Up The Shadows (Roulette 4774) 1967

Hailed from Brooklyn, New York. They were originally known as Back Door Men when they cut one 45 backing Alaina Shore, Wrong Number/Shades Of Yesterday on Satellite (not the Stax-related label). As First Crow To The Moon, they were signed to Roulette on the recommendation of Doc Domus. They were also sometimes known as The Bootleggers. The sleevenotes to Psychedelic Microdots, Vol. 3, which includes both sides of the Roulette 45 and the previously unreleased We Walk The Rain (all three songs were written by Jerry Millstein), suggest that their name was the product of a typographical error at Roulette - their correct name was actually First Crew To The Moon, which would make more sense. All three songs are an exciting blend of punk and psychedelia. Spend Your Life... can also be heard on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 2 and the Psychedelic Unknowns EP and you'll find the flip on the Magic Carpet Ride and Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 7. The 45 was not really promoted at all by Roulette, who were busy pushing the latest Tommy James record (I Think We're Alone Now). Jeff Jarema recently interviewed the band's drummer, Allen Miller, who sang vocals on The Sun Lights Up The Shadows Of Your Mind. According to Miller, the band opened for The Vagrants and The Lovin' Spoonful but never The Velvet Underground (as previously reported). Also, Chris Stein (laterof The Stilletos, MagicTramps and Blondie) was never in this band, he was just a friend who hung around with them and was at many rehearsals. It had previously been thought that Stein was in the band, which broke up in January 1968 when Alan Avick died of leukaemia.

First Friday

Personnel:

- BOB EWAN vcls A
- JOHN PRENDERGAST bs, sax, keyb'ds A
- JIM STYNES drms A
- ANDY WALLACE keyb'ds, vcls, gtr A
- NORM ZELLER gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FIRST FRIDAY (Webster's Last Word WLW-S-2895) 1970 R2

Local Illinois roadhouse rockers/blues with some fine guitar moments. Recorded in 1969, the album was issued in

1970. (Clark Faville)

The First Four

45s:

1. Hurt Me To My Soul/That's Where Your Love Has Gone (Strata 108) 1965
2. Empty Heart/One And Only Man (Claridge 306) 1966

A garage band from Philadelphia. Their version of the Rolling Stones Empty Heart has resurfaced on What A Way To Die, whilst One And Only Man is on Follow That Munster Vol. 2.

1st National Band

45:

1. The Trip Down/When Once It Was Good (Monument 45-1031) 1967

The top side has the encouraging title but is pretty tame harmony-pop and though it has some psychy effects it disappoints. However, turn it over and mellow-psych lovers are in for a treat - an entrancing mid-slow psych ballad infused with backward guitars, effects and smell of incense.

When Once It Was Good also appears on the Acid & Flowers CD. (Max Waller)

First Revelation

Personnel:

DANNY	gtr, vcls	A
LINDA	keyb'ds, vcls	A

ALBUMS:

1	THIS SIDE OF ETERNITY	(Revelation)	1973 R1
2	UPON THIS ROCK	(Revelation)	1975 SC

From New York, a Christian rock group with heavy guitar and moog. They were previously known as Danny and Linda.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Ernie Fischbach and Charles Ewing

Personnel:

- ERNEST FISCHBACH dulcimer, sarod, gtr A
- CHARLES EWING gtr A
- DAVID GOINES vcls A
- DEBORAH CLEALL FISCHBACH tamboura A
- TOM HARRIS A
- DUSTIN MARK MILLER vcls, producer A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A CID SYMPHONY (No label) 1967 R3/4

NB: (1) reissued as a double CD (Gear Fab GF-135) 1999. Originally issued as a three album set on coloured vinyl. The three discs had individual catalogue numbers: yellow vinyl #7-121/7-123, purple vinyl #7-122/7-124, and green vinyl #7-125/7-126. These were in separate printed inner sleeves on which photos of the group appear, and were shrink-wrapped together. The front cover was a cardboard slick that was mostly pink; some of these were mounted to heavy posterboard, had their corners rounded and had a gold card attached through a hole at the top for hanging. The back cover was a cardboard slick that featured a photo of an Afghan turban cap, often described as "The Mandala cover". Some copies also included concert flyers. All of these items were contained in an open-top polyethylene bag.

This unusual and decidedly uncommercial private press triple album was produced at the University Of California by Berkeley graduate Miller, who had earlier produced other records in support of the Free Speech Movement on campus. Fischbach and Ewing had been playing together while students at California State University - Long Beach, but came up to Berkeley to play and study music at the Ali Akbar College Of Music. The album was recorded at Fantasy Studios in Berkeley in 1967 and 1,000 copies were pressed that year. The band played frequently, usually at colleges but also appeared at the Monterey Pop Festival, and The Human Be - In in Golden Gate Park. Their repertoire of acoustic material covered blues, flamenco guitar improvisations, Hindustani ragas, even American Indian chants. Miller added some spoken word segments to the record, it is acknowledged as a significant Bay Area collectable from the heyday of California's political and psychedelic era.

(Clark Faville)

Wild Man Fischer

ALBUM:

1	AN EVENING WITH WILD MAN FISCHER (dbl)	(Bizarre Reprise RS 6332)	1969

NB: (1) also released in England (Reprise RSLP 6332).

45:

1	Circles/ Merry Go Round	(Bizarre 0781)	1969

Larry "Wild Man" Fischer was a Los Angeles street singer when Frank Zappa discovered him and decided to release and produce a double album of his "songs" on his Bizarre label.

The usual Zappa graphic designer, Cal Schenkel conceived the strange gatefold sleeve and the liner notes explain that "His mother had him committed to a mental institution twice".

Most of the material was recorded "live in the street in front of the Whisky A Go Go and The Hamburger Hamlet on Sunset Strip", with occasional percussion added by Art Tripp. The album was divided on four parts: "The Basic Fischer" with Merry Go Round and The Madness And Ecstasy (a recitative by Kim Fowley, Rodney Bingenheimer and the GTO's), "Larry's Songs": fifteen vocal tracks with unusual titles and really tormented vocals (Which Way Did The Freak Go, Think Of Me When Your Clothes Are Off, I'm Working For The Federal Bureau Of Narcotics), "Some Historical Notes " with The Taster (later covered by Kane's Cousins and the Rocket Rock and "In Conclusion" with Circles (subtitled "Larry's first psychedelic hit").

Taster and Circles were accompanied by over dubs provided by Zappa and some of the Mothers (Jimmy Carl Black and Roy Estrada). A real curiosity!

Wild Man Fischer recorded some other albums for Rhino between 1978 and 1984.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fish 'N' Chips

45:

1. Four Times Faster/The Whole Thing Is Getting Out Of Hand (Joy 45K-297) 1965

Excellent up-tempo pop-beat with harpsichord and a fuzz-enhanced chorus, from New England. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The 5 to Five More

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The 5
- The Five
- The Five Americans
- Five Bucks
- Five By Five (5X5)
- Five Canadians
- Five Dollar Shoes
- The Five Empressions / The Five Emprees
- Five Hungry Men
- Five More

The 5

TOP

45:

1. I'm No Good/? (JB 106) 196?

Mobile in Alabama was home to this obscure outfit. The 'A' side, a Beau Brummels-styled song, can be found on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 22 - The South, Part 2.

The Five

TOP

45:

1. She Doesn't Love Me Anymore/I Don't Care If It Rains All Night (Britain 100) 196?

I Don't Care If It Rains All Night, by this unknown primitive garage band, has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2. The vocalist sounds like he's about twelve and the rest of the band sound like they were similar in age...

The Five Americans

TOP

Personnel:

JOHN DURRILL	drms, keyb'ds	A
NORMAN EZELL	bs, gtr	A
JIM GRANT	gtr, bs	A B
MIKE RABON	ld gtr, vcls	A B

JIMMY WRIGHT	vcls, drms	A B
KENNY GOLDSMITH	keyb'ds	B
BOBBY RAMBO	gtr	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	I SEE THE LIGHT	(HBR HCP 9503)	1966 136
2(A)	WESTERN UNION	(Abnak ABLP 2067)	1967 121
3(A)	PROGRESSIONS	(Abnak ABLP 2069)	1967
4(B)	NOW AND THEN	(Abnak ABST 2071)	1969

NB. (1) reissued on CD (Sundazed SC 6018) 1994, with bonus tracks. There's also two compilations: Western Union (Eva 12050) 1985; and Western Union / The Best Of (Sundazed SC 11004) 1989 featuring 20 tracks from 1964 to 1969, many in original unedited form and/or stereo mixes.

45s:

1	It's You Girl/I'm Gonna Leave Ya	(Jestar 104)	1964
2	I'm Feeling O.K./Slippin' And Slidin'	(Jetstar 105)	1964
3	Love Love Love/Show Me	(ABC 10686)	1965
4	Say That You Love Me/Without You	(Abnak 106)	1965
5	I See The Light/The Outcast	(Abnak 106)	1965
6	I See The Light/The Outcast	(HBR 454)	1965 26
7	EVOL Not Love/Don't Blame Me	(HBR 468)	1966 52
8	Good Times'/The Losing Game	(HBR 483)	1966 -
9	Reality/Sympathy	(Abnak 114)	1967
10	If I Could/Now That It's Over	(Abnak 116)	1967
11	Western Union/Now That It's Over	(Abnak 118)	1967 5
12	Sound Of Love/Sympathy	(Abnak 120)	1967 36
13	'Western Union/Sound Of Love	(Hip Pocket 10)	1967 -
14	Zip Code/Sweet Bird Of Youth	(Abnak 123)	1967 36
15	Stop Light/Tell Ann I Love Her'	(Abnak 125)	1967 132
16	7.30 Guided Tour/See-Saw-Man	(Abnak 126)	1968 96
17	No Communication'/Rain Maker	(Abnak 128)	1968 -
18	Lovin' ls Livin"/Con Man	(Abnak 131)	1968
19	Generation Gap/The Source'	(Abnak 132)	1968
20	Virginia Girl/Call On Me'	(Abnak 134)	1969 133
21	Ignert Woman/Scrooge	(Abnak 137)	1969
22	I See The Light '69/Red Cape	(Abnak 139)	1969
23	She's Too Good To Me/Molly Black	(Abnak 142)	1969

NB: (1), (2), (3) & (4) contain non-LP tracks. (20) & (22) released as Michael Rabon and The Five Americans. (11) four-inch flexi-disc enclosed in a picture envelope. (19) also released in France with a PS. There are also three rare French EPs with PS (Vogue INT 18087, Stateside FSE 102 and 107).

This pleasant pop/rock outfit formed in Dallas in 1964 and proceeded to enjoy a prolific recording output until they disbanded in 1970. Mike Rabon, Norman Ezell and John Durrill formed a successful song-writing trio and most of the band's songs were self-penned. Western Union, produced by Dale Hawkins, captures them at their best and includes their three main hits:- I See The Light, Westem Union and Sound Of Love, along with covers of Steve Winwood's Gimme Some Lovin, Screaming Jay Hawkins, I Put A Spell On You and Roger Miller's Husbands And Wives. Westem Union and Sound Of Love both received a fair degree of airplay in the U.K. where the former was covered by The Searchers, but neither charted.

Group members Jim Grant, John Durnill and Jimmy Wright, along with Bobby Rambo and Jim Glaves (from a group called The Crowd) were the backing musicians on the album Elastic Event (Abnak ABST-2070) 1967 by the Dallas pop/rock duo Jon and Robin. The Five Americans drummer went on to marry Javonne Braga aka "Robin" in the '70s after Jon and Robin and The Five Americans had broken up.

The Five Americans have also featured on a number of compilations. Gimme Some Lovin' featured on a radio station EP from 1967 or 1968, 'WLAV Memory Pack Vol.1', alongside Cherish by The Association, Think Twice by The Pedestrians and Hey Joe by The Soulbenders. More recently you'll find: - I See The Light on Mayhem & Psychosis Vol. 3; Don't Blame Me on Garagelands Vol. 2; Slippin' And Slidin' on Pebbles, Vol. 10 and I See The Light on The Sound Of The Sixties. They also appeared imitating The Beatles backing Rex Miller on a 1965 45, Ballad Of The Boss Bug/Ringo's Doctor.

Jimmy Wright stayed with Mike Rabon in the seventies outfit, Mike Rabon and Choctaw.

The band also had three EPs issued in France:- I See The Light and three other tracks (Stateside Vogue 18087); Western Union/Now That Its Over/lf I Could/Reality (Stateside 103) which appeared in a picture sleeve and Sound Of Love + 3 (Stateside 1007).

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Tom Truszkowski / Stephane Rebeschini... and a couple of other people Ivor's missed!)

Five Bucks

TOP

45s:

1	No Use In Tryin' / Now You're Mine	(Afton 1701)	May 1966
2	I'll Walk Alone / So Wrong	(Omnibus 1001)	Nov 1966

"Class of '66" at the University Of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Students who'd been in bands in their hometowns of Waukesha, WI. and Glencoe, IL. joined forces at UOM, releasing two cool 45s that year. Both fetch considerably more than five bucks thirty+ years on.

No Use In Tryin' is on Open Up Your Door Vol. 2 and I'll Walk Alone, featuring excellent fuzz and organ work, is on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Five By Five (5X5)

Personnel:

- LARRY ANDREW gtr, vcls A
- DOUG GREEN drms A
- BILL MERRITT gtr A
- TIM MILAM organ, vcls A
- RONNIE PLANTS ld vcls, gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) NEXT EXIT (Paula LPS 2202) 1968

45s:

1. Shake A Tail Feather/Tell Me What To Do (Paula 261) 1967
2. Harlem Shuffle/You Really Got A Hold On Me (Paula 283) 1967
3. Fire/Hang Up (Paula 302) 1968 52
4. Aint Gonna Be Your Fool No More/She Digs My Love (Paula 311) 1968
5. Apple Cider/Fruitstand Man (Paula 319) 1970 133
6. Ain't Gonna Be Your Fool No More/Too Much Tomorrow (Paula 322) 1970
7. 15 Going On 20/Penthouse Pauper (Paula 326) 1970
8. Good Connection/Never (Paula 328) 1970

This garage band used lots of fuzz in many of their songs. The album is now a minor collectors' item and they also enjoyed a U.S. hit when Fire (which was written by Jimi Hendrix) climbed to No 52 in 1968. Produced by Gene Kent, Next Exit features various covers: Hush (Joe South), She Digs My Move (Doug Sahm), Soul Man (the Sam and Dave song), Shake A Tail Feather, Share your Love... Two songs were written by Eddie Hinton and Jimmy Johnson, who are both credited as arranger or engineer and would later take an active part in the famous Muscle Shoals Studios.

Nine of their singles tracks are non on their album (Tell Me What To Do, Harlem Shuffle, You Really Got A Hold On Me, Hang Up, Apple Cider, 15 Going On 20, Penthouse Pauper, Good Connection and Never).

The inclusion of Apple Cider on Austin Landing, Vol. 2, suggests that they hailed from Texas, but Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 5 (CD) also features the track, and claims they came from Louisiana... whilst the more reliable Sixties Rebellion Vol. 8 includes their fine version of Love's 7 And 7 Is (from their album) and locates the band as Oklahoma... Mike Markesich has however since established that they were from Magnolia, Arkansas. Apple Cider by the way is a catchy punker with some great wavering male vocals, and neat keyboard motif. Finally, Hang Up is also compiled on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol. 3 (CD).

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Five Canadians

Personnel:

- BRUCE SVOBODA keyb'ds
- LOUIE SIEDLECKI ld gtr, vcls
- RAUL PINA gtr
- BILL KAITNER drms
- BOBBY FLORES bs

45s:

1. I'm Gonna Love You / Goodnight (Flo-Pin 101) 1966
2. Writing On The Wall / Goodnight (Domar 1120) 1966
3. House Of The Rising Sun / Never Alone (Domar 1121) 1966
4. Don't Tell me / Writing On The Wall (Domar 1123) 1967

NB: (1) as by The Hangman. (2) also released on Stone (701) in Canada 1966. (3) also released on Stone (704) in Canada 1967. (4) reissued on a limited edition Canadian 45 with a Pic Sleeve - (Leaf DOMAR CDN-1001) 1997.

Andrew Brown's Brown Paper Sack #1 'zine is to be commended for finally unravelling the myths and presenting the full and fascinating story of this group (amongst many others, so go grab a copy).

In brief, The Hangmen were a quintet from around San Antonio,Texas. Following their self-promoted debut on their own label (which misprinted their name as 'The Hangman'), they came to the attention of a local self-styled promoter 'Colonel' Paul Beckingham (as in Colonel Tom Parker or Major Bill Smith). He imposed a new name on them based on the logic that non-local groups were more exotic and got more air-play - along the same lines I guess as US bands adopting British names, even accents, in the wake of the British Invasion. So, the Five Canadians were born and the band were publicised as invaders from north of the border (Toronto). No wonder there has been so much confusion and debate ever since. At the time the hype only achieved limited success and despite out-of-state forays the band would remain a local phenomenon. Bobby Flores moved on to The Infinite Staircase and later solo 45s. Bruce Svoboda released a psych 45 as Grapple - Ethereal Genesis/Snail (Rush 1394) - in 1969.

Despite the confusion and doubts perpetuated as to their origins, what is not in doubt is the testosterone drive of their music whose climax is Writing On The Wall. It is rightfully regarded as a classic of the garage genre and no collection is complete without it. The article mentions that it impressed others at the time - it was covered by the XL's (from St.Louis). But it is with the Pebbles generation that appreciation has matured and this song has now been covered by the likes of Germany's Broken Jug on their Grand Junction EP, girl-garage queens the Brood, and the Nines.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Writing On The Wall on Pebbles Vol. 5 (LP & CD), Pebbles Box Set and I Was A Teenage Caveman; Goodnight on Sixties Rebellion 2: The Barn; Never Alone on 60's Punk EP Vol.1, Boulders Punk EP Box, Texas Flashbacks Vol. 5 and finally, Don't Tell Me resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol.1: The Garage.

(Andrew Brown - Brown Paper Sack #1, Max Waller)

Five Dollar Shoes

Personnel:

GREGG DIAMOND	drms, perc, vcls	A
TOM GRAVES	keyb'ds, vcls	A
JIM GREGORY	bs, vcls	A
MIKE MILLIUS	ld vcls, hrmnca	A
SCOTT WOODY	gtrs, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FIVE DOLLAR SHOES	(Neigborhood Records NRS 47002)	1972

Produced by Peter Schekeryk and enginered by Eddie Kramer at the Electric Lady Studios, Five Dollar Shoes came from the New York area, where Tom Graves had previously played in Street Noise. Their sole release is a decent urban hard rock/power rock album, obviously influenced by Mott The Hoople and other early seventies UK glam acts. Lots of keyboards, guitar and harmonica and growling vocals, not bad but nothing outstanding. The most interesting tracks are maybe Chemical Lover and Can't Do That Anymore. All their songs are originals penned by the group members and Daniel Elfassy.

Gregg Diamond also drummed for Melanie and Ian Lloyd (ex-Stories) and he would team up again with Jim Gregory on Michael Wendroff's Southpaw (Buddah BDS 5609, 1974).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Five Empressions / The Five Emprees

Personnel:

- TONY CATANIA ld gtr
- DON COOK ld vcls
- MIKE DE ROSE drms
- RON PELKEY ld gtr
- BILL SCHUENEMAN keyb'ds, bs

ALBUMS:

1. THE FIVE EMPREES (Freeport FRS-3001) 1965
2. LITTLE MISS SAD (Freeport FRS-4001) 1966

45s:

1. Little Miss Sad/Nobody Cares (Gold Standard 262) 196? -
2. Little Miss Sad/Hey Lover (Freeport 1001) 1965 74
3. Hey Baby/Why (Freeport 1002) 1965 -

4. Little Miss Happiness/OverThe Mountain (Freeport 1007) 1966 -
5. Pretty Face (Part I)/(Part 2) (Freeport 1009) 1966
6. Johnny B. Goode/Hey Lover (Freeport 1010) 1966
7. Shake/I'm In Love (GMA 9859) 196?
8. Hey Diddle Diddle/Gone From My Mind (Smash 2065) 1966

From Benton Harbor, Michigan this act were picked up by Freeport records in Northern Illinois and had a minor hit with Little Miss Sad. More commonly known as The Five Emprees, they had quite a prolific output and both their albums are now minor collectables.

Founder member Ron Pelkey recalls: "We had been known as the Impressions for a few years, not knowing there was another group by that name. When we released our first record as The Five Empressions , The Impressions filed an injunction against us and our record company changed our name to The Five Emprees without consulting us. We did not like the sound of Little Miss Sad, but it turned out to be #2 on WLS in Chicago behind Yesterday by the Beatles. Making Hey Lover the flip side was a mistake, however, as it was probably the best recording we ever made and would have been a good follow-up."

The band recorded Little Miss Sad, which was given to them by their DJ-Manager Bob Richards, plus several other songs at Universal Studios in Chicago. It was written by Dick and Don Addressi, who also wrote several songs for The Association and the track looked like it might break nationally, Bob:- "But there were promotional blunders as well. Irv Garmissa (our Agent and Freeport label owner) did not spend $2000 to have the song promoted nationally as he thought that it was going to be #1 in Chicago and then would take off on it's own. If he had spent the money it would have gotten the song played in all markets, but as it was with the spotty playing it, #76 on Billboard was as far up the charts as I ever saw it."

"We all had a great time playing tho'. We performed with some big names including The Animals, The Outsiders, Neil Diamond, The Vogues, Bobby Vee, The Lovin' Spoonful, Paul Revere and the Raiders and most of the other big names of the day. If fame had come later we would have known better what to do with it. As it was, we were not ready to climb the ladder."

Don Cook and Bill Schueneman later married Ron Pelkey's sisters, making three-fifths of the band brother-in-law's! It is consequently easy for the group to stay in touch and with the exception of Mike De Rose, they still perform today at the occasional benefit gig and all accomplished musicians. Don Cook and Tony Catania still live in Benton Harbor, Mich., Bill Schueneman in Woodstock, Georgia, Mike DeRose in Santa Barbara, Calif., and Ron Pelkey in Alpharetta, Georgia.

Little Miss Sad can also be found on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 4.

(Max Waller)

Five Hungry Men

TOP

45:

1. Bustin' Rocks/We Belong Together (Melmar 122) 1967

This outfit came from Andalusia, Pennsylvania, but their sole 45 isn't very memorable. You'll find the 'A' side on Pebbles, Vol. 13 and on Vile Vinyl, Vol. 2, though the latter compilation erroneously lists it as being the 'B' side. (Max Waller)

Five More

45:

1. Avalanche/I'm No Good (Tandy 205) 196?

A mid-sixties garage punk outfit from Tucson, Arizona, Avalanche has been included on Garage Punk Unkowns, Vol. 2 and I'm No Good can be found on Vol. 6 of the same series.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Five Of A Kind to Flintwhistle

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Five of a Kind
- Five of Us
- Sonny Flaherty and The Mark V
- The Flamin' Groovies
- Tommy Flanders
- Flash and The Memphis Casuals
- Flat Earth Society
- Flavor
- Flintwhistle

Five of a Kind

TOP

45:

1. Never Again/I Don't Want To Find Another Girl (Vandan no #) 1965

The 45 was this Fort Worth outfit's sole stab for stardom. Highs ln The Mid-Sixties Vol. Il: Texas, Part One includes the 'A' side, a folk-punk anthem. (Max Waller)

Five of Us

TOP

Personnel incl:

- GEORGE 'TAGO' MARYVILLE

45:

1. Why Oh Why/Pretty Baby (Keeson 125) 1965
2. Hey You/I Don't Believe (Platt) 1966
3. Hey You/Need Me Like I Need You (Current 110) 1966

NB: (1) With Tommy Gardner.

Previously known as The Impressions and The Temptations, they were one of Maryville's Tucson sixties outfits. Their cover of The Guilloteens Hey You resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 8. Prior to this band Maryville was with The Showmen and when they spit he joined The Poppies, but they did not record. His final outfit was Whatever's Left. The band also recorded a 1966 acetate: Let Me Explain / I Lied Need Me Like I Need You which together with an unreleased 1966 track Let Me Explain, has recently resurfaced on Bacchus Archives' Think Of The Good Times

(The Tucson Sound 1960-1968).

Sonny Flaherty and The Mark V

TOP

Personnel incl:

- SONNY FLAHARTY

45s:

1. Hey Conductor/You Bring These Tears To Me (Counterpart 2591/2) 1967
2. Hey Conductor/You Bring These Tears To Me (Philips 40479) 1967

From Dayton, Ohio in the late sixties and eady seventies Sonny Flaharty released several 45s on local labels in the era. He started out playing rockabilly and ended up a middle of the road ballad singer. His groups included The Sonny Flaharty Application, the Young Americans and the Grey lmprint as well as the Mark V. The 45 which was originally issued on a local label credited The Grey lmprint as his backing band but when it was picked up for nationwide release by Philips the Mark V was credited, so maybe the backing band changed its name. Hey Conductor can also be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 14. Written by Sonny Flaharty, it showcases his vocal talents and some good organ work. Some of his other 45s are listed below:-

Sonny Rabafty and The Young Americans 45:

1. Coconut Stomp I/II (PAQ 21) early 60's

Sonny Raharty Applicafion 45s:

1. The Marble Orchard/Reflections (Philips 40532) 1968
2. I'm Not The Man / Brave Little Boy (Counterpart C-2651/2) 1969
3. Ma Belle Made/Wrong Side Of The Road (Fratemity 3366) 19?
4. Odyssey / Husbands Of Young Wives (Counterpart #unkn) 196?

Sonny Raharty Solo 45s:

1. Heartbreak Station / Don't Talk About Love (Epic 9394) 1960
2. Mystery Of Love / Teenage War Chain (Huron 22004) c1961

The Flamin' Groovies

TOP

Personnel:

- GEORGE ALEXANDER bs A
- CYRIL JORDAN gtr, vcls A
- ROY LONEY vcls, gtr A
- TIM LYNCH gtr A

- DANNY MIHM drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) SNEAKERS (Snazz R-2371) 1968 R2

Rare first 10" album by this well - known San Francisco rock and roll group, Sneakers is more of a psych - pop/blues effort and due to its great tracks (like Golden Clouds) and its rarity, it should be included in this archive. (Clark Faville)

Tommy Flanders

TOP

Personnel:

MICHAEL BOTTS		A
TOMMY FLANDERS	vcls	A
BRUCE LANGHORN		A
DENNIS McCARTHY		A
DICK ROSMINI	gtr	A
JERRY SCHEFF	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	MOONSTONE	(Verve Forecast FTS-3075)	1969	(-)

45:

1	Between Purple and Blue / The Moonstone	(Verve Forecast KF5076)	1968

Musically, this solo project by Blues Project member Tommy Flanders is similar to Tim Buckley's early albums. It's best tracks The Moonstone, Blue Water Blue, Boston Girls, and Sleepin', are melancholic folk with excellent vocals and jazz / West Coast influences.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Flash and The Memphis Casuals

TOP

Personnel:

JOE Jr CARRERA	drms	A
JIM DICKINSON	gtr	A
DAVID "FLASH" FLEISHMAN	vcls	A
JOE FRANK	bs	A
MARK TIDWELL	gtr	A

45s:

1	Midnight Hour/Uptight Tonight	(Block Records ?)	1966

A Memphis group playing wild rock with loud guitars and lost of crash cymbal. Uptight Tonight was written by Jim Dickinson (Jesters, Avengers) and has been compiled on It Came From Memphis (Upstart 022) 1995.

As Flash and The Board Of Directors, David Fleishman would later record some regional white soul/pop hits under the guidance of Chips Moman.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Flat Earth Society

TOP

Personnel:

PAUL CARTER	bs, vcls	A
RICK DOYLE	ld gtr, vcls	A
PHIL DUBUQUE	gtr, vcls, recorder	A
CURT GIRARD	drms	A
JACK KERIVAN	keyb'ds, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	WALEECO	(Fleetwood FCLP 3027)	April 1968

NB: (1) reissued on CD together with The Lost Kids Space Kids on Arf Arf (AA 042-2). The latter being a sci-fi audio fairy tale with incidental music. Also earlier reissued as a separate CD and on vinyl (Psycho 17) 1983..

From Lynn, just north of Boston, Flat Earth Society were notable for their crispy, clear vocal sound. In early 1968 they were approached by the Boston advertising firm Quinn and Johnson to make an album and a jingle for the manufacturer of the 'Waleeco' candy bar - the F. B. Washburn Candy Company. That year every 'Waleeco' bar carried a coupon advertising the Flat Earth's Society's album Waleeco for $1.50 and six 'Waleeco' bar wrappers.

Recorded at Fleetwood Recording Studio in Revere, most of the material was written by Kerivan, the only non-original being a slow melodic version of Midnight Hour. The album covers quite a wide rock spectrum with goodtime (I'm So Happy), folk (When You're There and The Prelude For Town Monk), hard rock (Four & Twenty Miles and Shadows), as well as psychedelia, but each track has the band's own style about it. Aside from Feelin' Much Better, the best tracks are arguably on the second side of the album. Dark Street Downtown has some haunting vocals superimposed upon swirling piano. Portrait In Grey is a haunting piano-oriented instrumental and Satori, a very strange psychedelic instrumental. The reissue is worth purchasing, although it's probably imprudent to fork out for the original should you come across a copy.

The band made a few appearances after making the album but broke up soon after.

In 1974, Fleetwood disposed of the remaining boxes of the album into the dumpster but luckily the mastertapes survived to be revived by Arf Arf who reissued the album in 1993 on CD in the original stereo mix (the vinyl originals had been mixed down to mono).

Paul Carter was active in the Boston music scene until the late '80s, Phil Dubuque later moved to England for a while but is now back in Boston, and Jack Kerivan became senior director of professional services at NEC. One member was also later in Copperfield.

Compilation appearances have so far included: Feelin' Much Better on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 1 (CD), Endless Journey, Phase 2 (LP) and Endless Journey (CD).

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Lloyd Peasley)

Flavor

Personnel:

- GARY ST.CLAIR bs, gtr A
- DEMETRI CALLAS gtr A
- DANNY CONWAY drums A

45s:-

1. Sally Had A Party / Shop Around (Columbia 4-44521) 1968
2. Hearteaser / Yea I'm Hip (Columbia 4-44673) 1968
3. Coming On Home / Dancing In the Streets (Columbia 4-44881) 1969

From around the Frederick, Maryland and Washington DC area, this trio originally came together behind Billy Joe Ash, and were known collectively as Billy Joe & The Continentals. When they parted company with their front-man in mid-65 they carried on as a trio under the name The Bad Boys, releasing one classy garage-punk 45 on Paula. Their named was changed again to Flavor after gaining a contract with Columbia, but an expected LP never materialized due to the lack of chart success with their three 45s. Tim O'Brien was their producer at Columbia, not a group member, as we previously had suggested. Gary St.Clair released an eponymous solo LP on Paramount in 1972 with O'Brien as producer again. Recently the pair have also been producing and directing the group "All For One".

There was also an album by Flavor called In Good Taste (Ju-Par 6-1002) 1977, but this is probably a different outfit.

(Max Waller)

Flintwhistle

Personnel:

ERIK BRAUN	gtr	A
DARRYL DeLOACH	vcls	A
LENNY FEIGEN	drms	A
JERRY PENROD	bs	A

Formed in January 1970, this band played through the year but whether they recorded is debatable. Braun, DeLoach and Penrod were all ex-Iron Butterfly.

(Nick Warburton)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Floating Bridge to Fly By Nites

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Floating Bridge
- The Floating Opera
- The Flock
- Flood
- Floss
- The Flow
- The Flower Children
- Flower of Purple
- The Flower Pot
- The Flower Power
- Flower Power
- Flowers, Fruits and Pretty Things
- Flowerz
- Fluff
- Fly By Nites

Floating Bridge

TOP

Personnel:

- RICK DANGEL ld gtrs A
- JO JOHNANSEN ld gtrs A
- MICHAEL MARINELLI drms A
- JOE JOHNSON bs A
- PAT GOSSAN keyb'ds B

ALBUM:

1. (A) FLOATING BRIDGE (Vault 124) 1969

NB: (1) issued as Liberty LBS 83271 in the U.K. also recently issued on CD.

45s:

1. Brought Up Wrong/Watch Your Step (Vault 947) 1968
2. Don't Mean A Thing/Mr Jaybird (Vault 953) 1969

NB: (1) also released on Japan on dark red translucent vinyl with a picture sleeve (Liberty/Toshiba LR-2589).

This Seattle outfit included Dangel from The Wailers and Johnansen later went onto play with Little Bill and the Blue Notes. Their album is guitar oriented and largely blues-based. It lacks consistency, but their medley of Eight Miles High/Paint It Black shows them at their most inventive. Liberty included the best track Don't Mean A Thing on their compilation album Son Of Gutbucket and it can also be found on Nuggets, Vol. 8.

(Vernon Joynson / Tom Whiting / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Floating Opera

TOP

Personnel:

- ARTIE ALINIKOFF drms A
- CAROL LEES keyb'ds A
- GARY MUNCE bs A
- JOHN NEMEROVSKI piano A
- STEVE WELKOM gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE FLOATING OPERA (Embryo SD 730) 1971

45:

1. The Vision / Song Of The Suicides (Embryo 511) 197?

A hit and miss progressive album surprisingly produced by soulster Herbie Mann. The best track is the opener, Song Of The Suicides, which features some great guitar work sadly lacking elsewhere on the album, which is mostly rather ordinary. The sleeve-notes give a brief biography of the members who formed the band in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The Flock

TOP

Personnel incl:

RICK CANOFF	sax	A
JERRY GOODMAN	violin	A
RON KARPMAN	drms	A
FRED GLICKSTEIN	gtr	A
JERRY SMITH	bs, vcls	A

ALBUMS:

(up to 1971)

1(A)	THE FLOCK	(CBS 9911)	1969
2(A)	DINOSAUR SWAMPS	(CBS 30007)	1971

NB: (1) and (2) also released in France (CBS 63733) and the U.K. (CBS S 64055). Both album were reissued as Flock in Holland (CBS 67278) 1972.

An ambitious mix of jazz, blues, prog and rock, with horns and the electric violin of Jerry Goodman, who would later join Mahavishnu Orchestra. They benefited from an intense promotion from CBS who tried to launch them with Blood, Sweat & Tears, Aorta and Chicago. Their records may sound dated now.

Big Bird was compiled on the CBS sampler Different Strokes in 1971.

Flock reformed with a new line-up in 1975 and finally disappeared after an awful album (Inside Out, Mercury).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Flood

TOP

Personnel:

- GEORGE CABANTING gtr A
- BILLY CARROLL drms, congas A
- FRED COVINO bs, gtr A
- JOHN T. MAGAZINO vcls, conga, tamb A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE RISE OF FLOOD (Maple # unknown) 1970 R3

NB: (1) reissued as a limited edition in 1996 with no label name, also reissued on CD.

Long-lost seventies psych-rock from an act based in New York. Some bluesy workouts with a funky feel on occasion and rock'n'riffy numbers with great moments of intense fuzz guitar soloing, but really rather a disappointment. Inexplicably considered R5 by a couple of record dealers recently, but R3 value has been consistent for 10 years elsewhere. (Max Waller/Clark Faville).

Floss

TOP

ALBUM:

1	CRUISIN	(SilverCrest)	1976 R3

A rare (and late) garage psych group covering classics. Reputedly only 100 copies were made and therefore it's now really expensive.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Flow

TOP

Personnel:

- MONTE FARBER bs, vcls A
- PETE FINE gtr, vcls, synth A
- STEVE STARER drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FLOW (No label) 1972 R5

NB: (1) all copies came in a plain cover that said 'one-sided' on the back although some of the discs have music on both sides. The album was later counterfeited in Europe on vinyl and this contains all the music. (1) also counterfeited on CD.

From New York, whilst this band's album is a primitive recording, it nevertheless contains lots of fuzz guitar and is one of the mega rarities. Musically it's orchestrated progressive electric folk rock (whew!), a very unique and powerful record with male and female vocals and impressive musicianship. Not unusually, the album was not truly representative of the bands sound, as Monte Farber recalls: "It was a great band, what the record didn't capture was that our real love and our real speciality was to just stand up and jam. It was truly amazing and we were like one mind, waaaaaaaayyyyyyyy ahead of our time and of this time, too, unfortunately."

Their guitarist Pete Fine broke up the band when his girlfriend inherited some money and they moved to Arizona. He later released a rare privately - pressed album On A Day Of Crystalline Thought (No label) 1974. This was issued in a plain sleeve with front and rear paste-on slicks and an insert. Information on the labels is rubber-stamped and on the label the title is "On A Day Of Crystalline Thought".

Monte Farber went on to become an author: "The truth is that I've moved on from making music of a spiritual secret nature to writing books of a metaphysical nature that have done quite well, thank you. So take care and keep up the good work".

The Flow album is going to be reissued officially shortly, together with a bonus EP. Pete Fine's solo album is also going to have a limited official vinyl reissue.

(Vernon Joynson/Clark Faville)

The Flower Children

TOP

45s:

1. Mini-Skirt Blues/Marching Lovers (Castil 101) 1968
2. Mini-Skirt Blues/Marching Lovers (Allied 101) 1968

A Los Angeles band who came up with the raunchy garage R & B style offering Mini-Skirt Blues in early 1968, which has an effective drum and organ intro. This is featured on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3.

Flower of Purple

TOP

Personnel
probably incl:

- RICH CLARK
- DOROTHY ANDREW

45:

1. Luv's So Free/Luv's So Free (instr.) (RC Enterprise M650) Nov. 1967

A snaking lead underpins this mid-tempo West Coast rocker with male-female vocals by an obscure L.A. area outfit. (Max Waller).

The Flower Pot

TOP

Personnel:

- MIKE DEASY

45s:

1. Mr Zig Zag Man/Black Mojo (Vault 935) 1967
2. Wanting Ain't Gettin'/Gentle People (Vault 937) 1967

This was Deasy operating under a pseudonym in LA. Freaky harmony flower-pop is the groove here - with the sitar-infused Black Mojo being the choice cut on the first 45. Wantin' Ain't Gettin' is catchy stoned sitar-pop that the Association covered on their Insight Out album. Mike's other projects included Ceyleib People, Your Gang, Friar Tuck. (Max Waller)

The Flower Power

TOP

Personnel incl:

- CRAIG FERGUSON
- SANDI CRAIG

45s:

1. You Make Me Fly/Sunshine Day (Tune-Kel 608) Feb 1968
2. Mississippi Delta/Bye Bye Baby (Tune-Kel 611) April 1968
3. Trivialities/Mt. Olympus (Tune-Kel 612) c May 1968
4. Don't Burn My Wings/Sailing Around The Sun (Tune-Kel 613) 1969
5. Stop! Check It/Orange Skies (Tune-Kel 614) 1969

NB: (2) released as by Sandi Craig & the Flower Power.

This lot sound every bit like a San Francisco outfit but Erik Lindgren tells us that they originated from Louisiana. He's also selected their outstanding Mt. Olympus for his Beyond The Calico Wall, Vol. 1 collection of psychedelic mayhem and no wonder - a smouldering slice of psych that erupts at the end with unrestrained manic feedback. The mellower You Make Me Fly can be heard on the vinyl and CD versions of The Psychedelic Experience and the EP Garagelands, Vol. 2. Its flip Sunshine Day is on Psychedelic Archives, 6.

Their second 45, released as Sandi Craig & The Flower Power features a decent bluesy cover of Bobby Gentry's Mississippi Delta with strong vocals and some searing guitar bursts. In contrast, their final 45 features a laid back, almost lounge-styled, rendition of Love's Orange Skies, this has also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 8, whilst Trivialities also made an appearance on the ltd Brainshadows Vol. 2 CD.

Other compilation coverage has included You Make Me Fly and Sunshine Day on Acid Dreams Volume Three.

(Max Waller)

Flower Power

TOP

Personnel incl:

MICHAEL MELBY	gtr, vcls	A B
LARRY PEARL	bs, vcls, hrmnca	A B
STEVE PUGLIESIE	keyb'ds, gtr, vcls	A B
JOHNNY SHERMAN	drms	A
JOHN COX	drms	B

45:

1(A)	I Can Feel It / Stop	(Tener T1010)	May 1967

Formed in early 1967 in Brevard County, Florida, this quartet blossomed briefly with one superb fuzz-punkadelic 45, and an otherwise unavailable cover of the Hollies' Hard Year on the rare double-album Bee Jay Demo Vol. II (Tener 1014). Cox replaced Sherman in late '67. The band went into limbo shortly after, when Larry Pearl moved to Houston to take up a post with NASA. He quickly discovered a vibrant scene there and encouraged the other three to join him ... and so they did, on January 2nd 1968, for a gig at the University Of Houston. This secondary flowering lasted only until July, when the gigs started to dry up.

I Can Feel It is one of the highlights on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych and Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1, whose liners tell the group's full story.

(Max Waller/Roger Maglio)

45:

1	I Can Feel It / Stop	(Tener T1010)	May 1967

Thought to be from the Orlando region of Florida this band left just one excellent punkadelic 45 and a cover of the Hollies' Hard Year on the rare double-LP sampler of local bands, Bee Jay Demo Vol.II (Tener 1014) 1967. I Can Feel It is just one of many highlights on the superb A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych CD compilation.

(Max Waller)

Flowers, Fruits and Pretty Things

45:

1. Take Me Away/Wanting You (G E P 101) 1968

Not the usual heavy psych associated with late sixties Michigan obscurities, this Saginaw outfit turn out two delicate garage ballads full of weeping guitars and yearning vocals. If this is your bag, check out Wanting You on Professor Pott's Pornographic Projector or Take Me Away on Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

Flowerz

Personnel:

- MIKE LEECE ld gtr
- JIM LEINBACH drms
- BILL SHEFFER keyb'ds
- LARRY SKILLMAN bs gtr
- JEFF STOUT vcls
- BARRY TUCCI rhythm gtr

CD:

1. FLYTE (Arf! Arf! AA-071) 1998

45s:

1. I Need Love Now/My Sad Story (Kingston 1967) 196?
2. Flyte/Talken About Love (Kingston 19683/19684) 196?

From Reading, Pennsylvania. Previously known as the Marauders, they became the Flowerz when Stout was added and Tucci replaced Danny Bausher. Now you can read their whole story and enjoy their soundz on Erik Lindgren's CD - issued as part of a quartet on the region, with Pat Farrell & The Believers and two volumes of Eastern Pa. Rock making up the set. This CD features twenty-two tracks recorded especially by the band as a 'backing soundtrack' over which they would play or sync at a live performance in Reading on February 16th 1968. Their four 45 tracks appear on the Eastern Pa. Rock Part Two CD.

I Need Love Now has also resurfaced on Pennsylvania Unknowns and both sides of the 2nd 45 can be heard on Return Of The Young Pennsylvanians.

(Max Waller)

Fluff

ALBUM:

1	FLUFF	(Roulette)	1971

An average rock group whose only album came in a superb psychedelic cover.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fly By Nites

45:

1. Found Love/Come On Up (Tiffany 564) 196?

A short-lived outfit, thought to have come from either Georgia or Alabama, whose sole stab for stardom was this one 45, Found Love, which can now be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 8: The South. It has a rather hypnotic quality coming with an acid punk organ drone, some fine guitar work and rather sleepy vocals. The flip-side, Come On Up, has also resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2 is another fine track, with a danceable beat and great guitar break.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Flying Circus to The Fonograf Four

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Flying Circus
- Flying Karpet
- The Flys
- Foamy Brine
- Fogcutters
- Tom Fogerty
- The Foggy Notions
- Foley and Kavanaugh
- Folkswingers
- The Fonograf Four

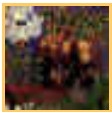
Flying Circus

TOP

Personnel:

- BILL BERRY vcls A
- JOHN HAAPALA bs A
- KEVIN "KID" HAAPALA gtr A
- JIM GRANDJEAN gtr A
- DON PERKINS drms A

45s:



1. I'm Going/Midnight Highway (MTA 117) 1967
2. Green Eyes Green World/Got To Learn To Love (MTA 130) 1967
3. Pony Rider/Betty June (PS) (Rock Bottom WRS 670) 1970

Decent West Coast garagey sounds, from this Marin County, California outfit, who recorded at San Francisco's Golden State Studios. Both sides of the 2nd 45 feature good guitar work, and the third came in a beautiful picture sleeve.

I'm Going is more in a garage vein and can also be heard on Sixties Rebellion Vol's 1 & 2 (CD) and Brain Shadows. You can also find I'm Going, Midnight Highway and Green Eyes Green World on Crystalize Your Mind (CD), whilst Got To Learn To Love remains uncompiled - it's catchy pop-beat.

Another 45, Hayride/Early Morning (GNP Crescendo 426) 1969, was by an Australian band of the same name, with a cover of a Barclay James Harvest tune. (Max Waller/Clark Faville).

Flying Karpet

Personnel:

- CHRIS bs A
- FRANK gtr A
- PAUL keyb'ds A
- PEPE drms A
- TONY vcls, hrmnca A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE FLYING KARPET (Mexico/Soa-Art D 179) 1968 R4

NB: (1) reissued as a limited edition of 300 (Iguana 159) 1997.

Housed in a great psychedelic cover, this album consists largely of weakish cover songs including standards such as White Rabbit, San Francisco Nights and My Back Pages. Recorded by a group of mainly American draft-dodgers in Mexico, the album is on a par with a "psychedelic" PJ Orion & The Magnates and shouldn't be taken too seriously! (Ivor Trueman/Clark Faville)

The Flys

45s:

1. Reality Composition No. 1 /? (Myskatonic 100) 1966
2. Be What You Is/The Way Things Are (Myskatonic 101) 1966

Hailed from McLean, Virginia. Their finest moment sounds like Reality Composition No 1, a real Stones-influenced garage classic with superb vocals and typical girl-put-down lyrics. Check it out on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 22: The South. By comparison Be What You Is sounds rather mundane, but it got an airing on the Signed D.C. and Psychedellc Unknowns, Vol. 6 compilations.

Foamy Brine

Personnel incl:

W.R. ("DUB") LYNCH	A

45s:

1	Tell Her / Ever Changing	(Brine 101)	Apr 1967
2	The Change Is Made / About You	(ARV International 5017)	Mar 1969

This Texas Valley group included Dub Lynch who had previously been in The Danes and The Gnats. Tell Her is an accomplished garage power-popper that lopes effortlessly along.

(Max Waller/Andrew Brown)

Fogcutters

Personnel incl:

- DON CAMERON
- ERIC KARL

45s:

1. Cry Cry Cry/You Say (Carthay 777) 1965
2. Cry Cry Cry/You Say (Liberty 55793) 1965
3. Casting My Spell/I Want Your Love Again (Charter CR 1217) 1965
4. It's My World/That's Where I'll Be (Charter CR 1218) 1965

An excellent beat/pop combo originally from Colorado who may have moved to California (Charer is a small Californian label that also featured the likes of The Cascades) before splitting. Mainstays and songwriters Cameron and Karl would stay in the sunny State and produce two wonderful 45s as the Fantastic Zoo.

This earlier work ranges from Beatlesque pop to Beau Brummels style (Cry Cry Cry) and ballads not dissimilar to the aforementioned Cascades. (Max Waller).

Tom Fogerty

Personnel:

RODGER COLLIN	backing vcls	A
TOM FOGERTY	gtr, vcls, hrmnca	A B C D
RUSS GARY	gtr	A C
JOHN KAHN	bs	A B
BILLY MUNDI	perc	A
MERL SAUNDERS	keyb'ds	A B
BILL VITT	drms	A B
JERRY GARCIA		B
JOHN FOGERTY	gtr	C
STEPHEN FUNK	keyb'ds	C
STEPHEN MILLER	keyb'ds	C D
JEFF NARELL	steel drum	C
TOM PHILLIPS	gtr	C D
THE STOVALLS	backing vcls	C
DOUG CLIFFORD	drms	D
STU COOK	bs, gtr, harp	D

RUSSELL DaSHIELL	gtr	D
(GARY POTTERTON	gtr	C D)
(RON STALLINGS	sax	C D)
(ED BOGAS	moog, piano	D)
(MATTHEW CORRIGAN	perc	D)

ALBUMS:

(up to 1975)
1(A)	TOM FOGERTY	(Fantasy 9407)	1972
2(B)	EXCALIBUR	(Fantasy 9413)	1972
3(C)	ZEPHYR NATIONAL	(Fantasy 9448)	1974
4(D)	MYOPIA	(Fantasy 9469)	1974

NB: (1) and (2) were also released in Germany by Bellaphon. (3) was also released in Holland (Fantasy 5C062-95265) (4) was also released in Italy by Fonit (AMI 9469).

45s:

1	Goodbye Media Man, pt. 1/pt. 2	(Fantasy 17027)	1971
2	Lady Of Fatima/Cast The First Stone	(Fantasy 17037)	1972
3	Joyful Resurrection/Heartbeat	(Fantasy 17042)	1973

NB: (1) is non LP. (1), (2) and (3) were also released in France with picture sleeves.

When he left Creedence Clearwater Revival, Tom Fogerty went solo and recorded several albums and singles. Unfortunately, he didn't have the voice and the songwriting skills of John, his younger brother and his records are generally better avoided (unless you are a die-hard Creedence fan!). Their main interest resides in the participation of notorious Bay Area musicians: Billy Mundi (Mothers, Rhinoceros), Stephen Miller (Linn County), Ron Stallings (Southern Comfort) and Russell DaShiell (Crowfoot, Norman Greenbaum).

The only album of interest is Excalibur, recorded with Jerry Garcia (Grateful Dead) and his usual jamming partners Saunders, Vitt and Kahn. Produced by Fogerty and Brian Gardner, it features some good Dead-like tracks: Black Jack Jenny, Sign Of The Devil and Faces, Places, People. The same musicians can also be found on two Merl Saunders albums, Heavy Turbulence and Fire Up.

Tom Fogerty later formed Ruby with Randy Oda and died in the '90s.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Foggy Notions

TOP

Personnel incl:

- PETER HOY
- SUE KOFF
- KAPLAN bs
- MAZIQUE

45:

1. Need A Little Lovin'/Take Me Back And Hold Me (Ginny 904) 1966

A Chicago garage band who were together for some time but just recorded the one 45. The 'A' side, a powerful slow-paced punker with an unusual drum roll near the end, can be found on Pebbles, Vol. 10 (LP), Vol. 6 of the equivalent CD and The Essential Pebbles Collection Vol. 2. The flip, which has some bluesy piano and lots of mouth organ, has also resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (CD) and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 4. (Max Waller)

Foley and Kavanaugh

TOP

ALBUM:

1	Ways To Get Through	(Merlin)	1973 R1/R2

A double album of dreamy folk psych with an introspective feel and fuzz guitar interplay.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Folkswingers

TOP

Personnel:

GLEN CAMPBELL	12-string gtr	A
DOUG DILLARD	banjo	A
RODNEY DILLARD	gtr	A
TUT TAYLOR	dobro	A
DEAN WEBB	bs	A
HAL BLAINE	drms	B
DENNIS BUDIMIR	12-string gtr	B
HERB ELLIS	gtr	B
LARRY KNECHTEL	keyb'ds	B
BILL PITTMAN	bs	B
HARIHAR RAO	sitar	B
LYLE RITZ	fender bs	B
HOWARD ROBERTS	gtr	B
TOMMY TEDESCO	gtr	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	12 STRING GUITAR!	(World-Pacific Records WP-1812)	1964
2(A)	12 STRING GUITAR! VOL. 2	(World-Pacific Records WP-1814)	1964
3(B)	RAGA ROCK	(World Pacific WP-1846)	1966

45s:

1	Black Mountain Rag / This Train	(World Pacific 391)	1963

2	12 String Special / Amor A Todos	(World Pacific 396)	1963
3	Don't Think Twice / Freight Train	(World Pacific 410)	1964
4(B)	Norwegian Wood / Raga Rock	(World Pacific 77831)	1966

NB: (3) as 'Bud Shank & The Folkswingers'.

The third album Raga Rock unashamedly cashed in on the success of Ravi Shankar and the emerging use of the sitar in Western pop/rock (Beatles, Stones, Byrds), offering up instrumental versions of the latest cool hit sounds, many with fuzzed guitar, and all topped off with that exotic sound. The more obvious and successful choices for such treatment are here - Paint It Black, a regular on later "exploito" LPs of exotic-psych, Eight Miles High and Shapes Of Things. Also tackled (with varying success) are Norwegian Wood, The Association's Along Comes Mary, Outsiders' Time Won't Let Me, Kicks, Hey Joe, Homeward Bound and The Turtles' Grim Reaper Of Love. Their own Raga Rock is the finale - although it starts off rather pedestrian, it's soon spiralling off into Eight Miles High territory, but comes back to earth way too soon.

The two 1964 albums were produced by Jim Dickson. He asked Dillards members Doug and Rodney together with Dean Webb to help him on his instrumental project, rounding it out with session guitarist Glen Campbell and Nashville based dobroist Tut Taylor, who was in L.A. to work on his own solo instrumental albums in '64.

Jim Dickson called the group The Folkswingers and they recorded folk and bluegrass songs to cash-in on the current trends. Basically they kept the name for the 1966 album and tried to tackle another musical trend. It's interesting to note that World Pacific actually put out a Ravi Shankar sitar album in 1965.

Jim Dickson not only went on to produce the Byrds, Flying Burrito Brothers and Country Gazette, but in 1964 alone, produced World Pacific sessions for The Kentucky Colonels, The Dillards (including a live album and tracks with drummer Dewey Martin later of Buffalo Springfield), sessions for the Hillmen {Chris Hillman's pre-Byrds Bluegrass group}, as well as the embryonic Byrds in their original and Jet Set/ Beefeaters formations.

A couple of the names on the Raga Rock release should also strike a chord - Larry Knechtel (later of Bread) and Hal Blaine were part of the elite corps of L.A. session musicians known as The Wrecking Crew.

(Max Waller / Jason Odd)

The Fonograf Four

45:

1. Don't Throw Stones/You're Not Foolin' Me (Recettsic 69) 196?

Don't Throw Stones, by this New England garage band, has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2. With a pulsing and a rather repetitive organ 'hook', gentle beat and almost spoken vocal...

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Food to The Four of Us

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Food
- The Footprints
- Jim Ford
- Neal Ford and The Fanatics
- Ford Theatre
- Forgotten Times
- Joplin Forte
- The Fort Mudge Memorial Dump
- The Fortune Seekers
- Fortune Teller
- Forum Quorum
- The Forums
- Forvus (featuring Brooke Chamberlain)
- The Foul Dogs
- The Fountain of Youth
- The Fountain of Youth
- Four Fifths
- The Four Gents
- Four In The Morning
- 4 Making Do
- Four More
- The Four O'Clock Balloon
- The Four of Us

Food

Personnel:

TED ASHFORD	keyb'ds	A
ERICK SCOTT FILIPOWITZ	bs	A
BARRY MRAZ	drms	A
STEVE WHITE	vcls	A
BILL WUKOVICH	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FOREVER IS A DREAM	(Capitol ST 304)	1969

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Ascension ANCD021) 2000.

A Chicago act whose album of soft psychedelia is heavily orchestrated in places. A couple of tracks from the album were used in a porno B-movie,'The Babysitters'. A very pleasant and melodic album which maintains a high standard throughout, with the title cut and Here We Go Again among its finer moments. They didn't release any 45s.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

The Footprints

TOP

45:

1. Never Say Die/Mama Rand's (Capitol 2052) 1967
2. Just Lazy / You Got A Ticket To A Mobile (Capitol 2215) 1968

From Island Park, Woodmere, New York. Their first 45 features two decent garagey beat-pop numbers that sound a bit dated by 1967, despite being punctuated by some clear ringing guitar spots and steaming organ. Mama Rand's was a popular live number, named after the club where they played. The second 45 is lame. (Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Jim Ford

TOP

Personnel:

JIM FORD	vcls, gtr	A
PAT VEGAS	bs	A
LOLLY VEGAS	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HARLAN COUNTY	(Sundown ?)	1969

NB: (1)reissued on CD (Edsel EDCD 519) 1997.

45:

1	Harlan County/Changing Colours	(Sundown SD-115)	1969

Originally from New Orleans, Jim Ford moved to California in 1967 and met Pat and Lolly Vegas. Together they wrote P.J. Proby's hit, Niky Hoeky and managed to get a record deal with Sundown, a small subsidiary of White Whale.

Released in 1969, Harlan County, his only album, is a very consistent mix of pop, country and rhythm and blues with some tracks totally relevant to this book: a fuzz-drenched version of Willie Dixon's Spoonful, Dr. Handy's Dandy Candy with his drugs related lyrics and I'm Gonna Make Her Love Me. The other tracks are more pop or country oriented but Ford's vocals and lyrics are constantly outstanding. The sleeve looks like a wrapped parcel, complete with stamps and rope, and credits as special assistants "red wine, white wine and little sleep"!

In 1971, Jim Ford went to London to record a second album. After some sessions with Brinsley Schwartz and the Grease Band, the project collapsed and the tapes disappeared.

Back in the U.S.A, he wrote some songs in 1972 for Bobby Womack and later worked with Sly Stone but, apart from that, little has been heard from him ever since.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Neal Ford and The Fanatics

TOP

Personnel:

JOHN CRAVEY	drms	A
NEAL FORD	vcls	A
LARNIER GRIEG	keyb'ds	A
ROB JOHNSON	bs	A
JOHN PERELES	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	NEAL FORD AND THE FANATICS	(Hickory LPS 141)	1968

45s:

1	I Will Not Be Lonely/Be Mine	(Gina 1118)	1965
2	Bitter Bells/Don't Tie Me Down	(Tantara 1101)	1966
3	AlI I Have To Do Is Dream/Searchin'	(Tantara 1107)	1966
4	I Will If You Want To/Woman Who Tums Away	(Tantara 1107)	1966
5	Shame On You/Gonna Be My Girl	(Hickory 1433)	1967
6	Wait For Me/(I've Got A) Brand New Girl	(Hickory 1450)	1967
7	Get Together With Me/Rain	(Hickory 1468)	1967
8	I Have Thoughts For You/That Girl Of Mine	(Hickory 1490)	1967
9	Little World Girl/Movin'Along	(Hickory 1500)	1968
10	Mary Wanna Marry Me/The Jones	(Hickory 1506)	1968
11	I'll Put My Boots On Backwards/Buttercup	(Hickory 1516)	1968
12	The Very First Time/That Time Of Year (Valentine)	(Pablo 7013)	196?
13	You Made Me A Man/I've Got A Mind To Find Me A Woman	(ABC 11 184)	1969

NB: (1), (2), (3), (4), (5)-A Side, (6), (7)-B Side, (9), (10), (11), (12) and (13) non-LP. (1) as The Fanatics. (12) as Neal Ford Solo. (13) as Neal Ford Factory. (8) also released in France with a PS.

Neal Ford was a prolific Houston-based artist. He formed The Fanatics in 1965 out of an earlier band The Ramadas, who had several 45s in their own right. Most of The Ramadas output pre-dates this archive, but Life Is So Tough a powerful punker, was issued in 1965, and can be heard on Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD set), Flashback, Vol. 5, Highs In The Mld-Sixties, Vol. 13 Texas, Part Three and Acid Visions, Vol. 2. Both Acid Visions titles also includes an unissued cut, I Can't Believe, trom 1966, with the CD set also including The Fanatics I Will Not Be Lonely.

They were still in their mid-teens, when they changed their name to Neal Ford and The Fanatics and they went on to produce a string of 45s, both punk and ballads, most of which were not on their album. Bitter Bells has recently surfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 17: Texas, Part Four. An unreleased She Is All There has recently surfaced on The Houston Now-Sounds Groove-In.

When the outfit disintegrated - Larnier Greig went on briefly to The Moving Sidewalks and the first ZZ Top line-up - Ford cut a solo 45 and then formed a new outfit, The Neal Ford Factory. He later played with The Sound Investment and Rick Mensik and was last reported running a Nashville-based talent agency.

Two more essential 45 reissues of awesome unreleased 1966 material, have been issued by Caped Crusader: Good Men / For You (CC-74) and Woman / I Can't Go On (CC-75) both in 1995.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

Ford Theatre

TOP

Personnel:

JAMES ALTIERI	bs	A
(WALLY MAGEE	strings	A)
JOHN MAZZARELLI	keyb'ds, vcls	A
HARRY PALMER	gtr	A
JOEY SCOTT	vcls	A
ROBERT TAMAGNI	drms	A
ARTHUR 'BUTCH' WEBSTER	gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	TRILOGY FOR THE MASSES	(ABC ABCS 658)	1968
2(A)	TIME CHANGES	(ABC ABCS 681)	1969

45s:

1	From A Back Door Window/Theme For The Masses	(ABC 11118)	1968
2	Time Changes/Wake Up In The Morning	(ABC 11192)	1969
3	I've Got The Fever/Jefferson Airplane	(ABC 11227)	1969

Ford Theatre is the place where Abraham Lincoln was assassinated and the liner notes explain that "the six musicians chose this name because it corresponds to what they are trying to create - a vision of America in all its present chaos and agony".

The group were probably from Milford, Massachussets, given that their first album gives a credit to 'the population' of that town. Produced by Bob Thiele (Eden's Children, Free Spirits), Harry Palmer and Fred Cenedella, Trilogy For The Masses is excellent in parts, particularly the nine minute 101 Harrison Street. All the tracks were written by Harry Palmer and Wally Magee (who also lead the string quartet present on some tracks).

It's a pity that their follow-up, 'a musical concept' album was not as interesting.

The 'B' side to their third 45, Jefferson Airplane has recently been compiled on the excellent Acid And Flowers CD.

Harry Palmer also played on Smooth As Raw Silk by Silk, another ABC production.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Vernon Joynson)

Forgotten Times

45:

1. Little Black Egg/Won't You Be With Me (Night Owl 678) 1967

A cover of The Nightwalkers' hit Little Black Egg by an outfit from Quad Cities, Iowa.

Joplin Forte

ALBUM:

1 AIN'T MISBEHAVIN' (Shamley SS 702) 1969

One of the four records released on the short-lived Shamley label (the others being H.M.S. Bounty, Moonrakers and Future). Joplin Forte played a kind of old-timey folk, similar to the Cleanliness and Goodliness Skiffle Band and particular cuts by Dan Hicks and The Hot Licks.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Fort Mudge Memorial Dump

Personnel:

- CAROLINE STRATTON A
- DAN KEADY A
- JAMES DEPTULA A
- DAVE AMARAL A
- RICHARD CLERICI A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FORT MUDGE MEMORIAL DUMP (Mercury 61256) 1970

NB.This album has been reissued.

The above album by this Boston band contains some good tracks. All the material was written by the band. Mr. Man and Crystal Forms both portray Stratton's vocals favourably and include some good guitar work. Others, such as Actions Of A Man and What Good Is Spring? find Caroline and the band in a mellower mood. Another track Know Today is an instrumental, although the record cover includes lyrics for it. However, overall the album does not maintain the standard set in its opening cuts.

The Fortune Seekers

45:

1. Why I Cry/Break Loose (Trident 9966) 1966

This obscure song can be heard on Punk Classics, Vol. 1. Reportedly a Californian band.

Fortune Teller

ALBUM:

1 INNER CITY SCREAM (RMT) 1978

From Baltimore, a crude album of fuzz/grunge psych by an unknown group. It was recorded in 1968 but not released before 1978.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Forum Quorum

Personnel:

- BRIAN ALBANO drms A
- ROGER CALLEO vcls, flute, keyb'ds A
- BOBBY CASTALDO bs A
- SAL PALAZZOLO vcls, gtr A
- STURG PARDALIS vcls, gtr, bouzouki A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE FORUM QUORUM (Decca DL 75030) 1968

45s:

1. Your Turn To Cry/No More Tears (Decca 32340) 1968
2. Just The Same/Misery (Decca 32425) 1968

A Greco-Italian American quintet from Astoria, New York City. Some intriguing pop-psych with a punky edge, though occasionally straying into Young Rascals or Vanilla Fudge blue-eyed soul territory. Still, there are some nice touches of Middle Eastern promise that lift them out of the ordinary. The LP can still be found fairly easily and cheaply. The 45 tracks all feature on the album. (Max Waller)

The Forums

Personnel:

DALE	A
JIM DOSSETT	A
GEORGE	A
ERICH MEYER	A
RALPH	A

45:

1	Bring It On Back / I ... (title incomplete)	(Prism 1940)	1966

A white-clad teen quartet from Dayton, Ohio. In 1966 they entered the three-day Daytonian battle of the bands and, as one of the twelve winning acts, got to record a track for the souvenir LP WONE, The Dayton Scene (Prism PR-1966). Their contribution is Bring It On Back, a keening pop ballad that would grace their sole 45. It's been compared to the Four Seasons due to the falsetto lead, though its piercing quality sounds more like 80s castrato Jimmy Somerville.

(Max Waller)

Forvus (featuring Brooke Chamberlain)

45:

1. Now That Summer Is Here/It's Nothing New (Tampa Bay BC-1110) 1966

Harmony-vocal pop from Florida, that would be most undistinguished were it not for the Rovin' Flames providing the backing as well as one 'Harvey Swadnungle'. I kid you not. (Max Waller)

The Foul Dogs

ALBUM:

1. THE FOUL DOGS NO. 1 (Rhythm Sound 481) 1966 R3

NB: (1) reissued in the early-mid 80s on Resurrection (CX 1296) and more recently by Distortions.

A Concord, New Hampshire group whose album comprised typical local R&B/prep rock. One cut, I'm A Man, also appears on Oil Stains, Vol. 1. The album sounds very Stones-influenced but had a couple of self-penned numbers.

The Fountain of Youth

45s:

1. (Angie, Love Me) Make The Hurt Go Away/Livin' Too Fast (Colgems 1020) 1967
2. Take A Giant Step/Don't Blame Me (For Trying) (Colgems 1024) 1968
3. Sunshine On A Cold Morning/Day Don't Come (Colgems 1032) 1968
4. Liza Jane/Witness People (Colgems 5033) 1969

This band played in Fredericksburg, Texas between 1966-67 and were originally known as The Crossfires. Their early 45s were slick, well crafted pop songs - Day Don't Come was also covered by Michigan's Cherry Slush. The most relevant song to this archive was Witness People, a superb slice of heavy psychedelia, which was out of character from the rest of their output. This can be heard on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 15 (CD), Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 3 (LP) and Vol. 2 (CD). Another track, Sunshine... features quite outstanding '60s pop and could easily be mistaken for Emitt Rhodes and the Merry-Go-Round. Their slower dramatic version of the Monkees' hit Take A Giant Step is also excellent and can be found on From The New World Vol. 1. Don't Blame Me is also on Garagelands Vol. 1. Don't Blame Me (For Trying) also got another airing on Boulders, Vol. 8. Details of the Crossfires 45 are: Who'll Be The One/Making Love Is Fun (Tower 278) 1966. (Max Waller / Vernon Joynson)

The Fountain of Youth

TOP

45:

1. Hard Woman/Thing Of The Past (Sur-Speed 223) 196?

Recorded on a Nashville label, this 45 is probably the work of a different band. Hard Woman is a really raw, nasty punk song which you'll find on Pebbles, Vol. 11 and Boulders, Vol. 8.

Four Fifths

TOP

45s:

1	If You Still Want Me/Have You Ever Loved A Girl	(Columbia 4-43913)	1966
2	She'll Hurt You In The End / Life Goes Movin' On	(Associated Recording Studios)	Apr 1966

Teenage Shutdown Vol. 8 has scooped the unreleased She'll Hurt You In The End and revealed that this was a bunch of teenagers from Manhattan, who were still attending school. They'll be best remembered for the sublime Byrds-influenced folk-punker If You Still Want Me, first compiled on Pebbles Vol. 7 and now on The Essential Pebbles Collection Vol. 2.

There were probably a number of acts using the Four Fifths monicker, as there's a doo-wop 45 After Graduation/Come On Girl (Hudson 8101) from 1962/63, and there's at least one other Four Fifths with a 45 - Talkin' Bout You / ... Love (Rage 0101) 196? - which has been described as mid-fast garage-punk.

Other Four Fifths with no known connections to the above include: a "doo-wop" 45 from 1962/3 - After Graduation/Come On Girl (Hudson 8101) and another outfit who cover Talkin' Bout You (Rage 0101, 196?).

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich/Pat Harper)

The Four Gents

45:

1. Soul Sister/I've Been Trying (HBR 509) 1966

Soul Sister can be heard on S.V.R Rock Hits Of The 60's. Not the Pacific Northwest outfit on Nite Owl, this bunch were from the Detroit area.

Four In The Morning

45:

1. Yesterday/LSD (Cross Road 7002) 196?
2. Draft Dodger Rag/? (Cross Road 7001) 196?

An obscure Pacific Northwest band.

4 Making Do

45:

1. The Simple Life/? (Wells Desert 2275) 1965

This promising Los Angeles-based girl group sing about the pleasures of living in LA in The Simple Life, a simple folk ballad with melodic vocals. Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 1 introduced the song to a wider audience.

Four More

Personnel:

MIKE BURROWS	drms	A
CHUCK CARTER	ld gtr	A
JERRY CHANDLER	ld vcls, gtr	A
KENNY CHANDLER	bs	A

45:

1	Don't Give Up Hope/Problem Child	(Fairchild 1001)	1966

This raw punk 45 was the work of a band from Corpus Christi, Texas. Aged between 14 - 17, most went to King High School in Corpus Christi, and their manager/roadie/friend Dennis Fairchild put out the 45 on his "Fairchild" label.

In their time they played regularly at places in and around Corpus, including the Naval Air station at Kingsville, and The Stork Club as well as local TV and a couple of "Battle Of The Bands" contests. They also got to support Charlie Rich!

In 1967 they changed their name to The Chosen Ones, recruiting older brother Jim Chandler on lead vocals, with Jerry and Kenny switching to harmony back-up. As such they issued a further 45, The World's Dark Side/Bald-Headed Lena (Gulfside) 196?. The flip was also recorded by The Lovin' Spoonful. In the '70s they also played as The Chandler Bros, in and around Houston.

Today Mike Burrows still lives in Corpus, Jerry and Kenny reside in the Houston area and Jim has moved to California.

Problem Child, which was written by 15 year old Kenny and 17 year old Jerry Chandler can also be found on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 11: Texas, Part One..

The Four O Clock Balloon

Personnel:

- HAZEL WIGGET vcls (later SHEPPARD, married Wayne)
- WAYNE SHEPPARD keyb'ds
- ROGER ALTON ld gtr
- JEFF ROBINSON rhythm gtr
- PAT JENNINGS bs gtr
- JACK WHITE drms

ALBUM:

1. NORTHLAND'S BATTLE OF THE BANDS (MAGNA 71014, 2-LP) 1967

NB: (1) Various Artists comp, features six tracks by The Four O'Clock Balloon.

45:

1. Two Heads/Dark Cobble Street (Magna 71152) 1967

From Columbus, Ohio, all except Roger Alton were students at Ohio State University. As worthy winners of the 3rd annual battle of the bands held at the local Northland's Shopping Center in 1967 they were rewarded with a whole side of the double-album that captured the event. Six tracks - Somebody To Love, Motherly Love, Strawberry Fields Forever, Plastic Fantastic Lover, (Who Are The) Brain Police and Wake Me Shake Me. Not yer usual bunch of covers, they clearly wore their influences on their sleeves (or over their kaftans). All are performed with confidence and verve, and they were certainly (two) heads above the competition judging from the rest of the LP.

Second place went to the Dubonnets, third the Trolls, fourth the Thirteenth Dilemma and fifth the Lapse Of Tyme. Other groups on the LP are: Tonebenders (a girl group, doing Little Black Egg), Verdics, Brass Tax, Restless Knights, Kings English, Rubber Band, Lo-Brows, St.John's Mod, Unchosen, Sound Of Us, and The Lorey's from nearby Sparta with Don't You Care. Unfortunately there's no track listing to know exactly who does what and the unfortunate Nazar Blues and Vi-Counts who also took part didn't make it onto the album.

After such evident promise by Four O'Clock Balloon the resultant 45 is a bit disappointing but judge for yourselves - their cover of Jefferson Airplane's Two Heads is on Glimpses Vol. 4 and Brain Shadows, whilst the flip is on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 21.

(Max Waller/George Gell)

The Four of Us

45s:

1. You're Gonna Be Mine/Batman (Hideout 1003) 1965
2. You're Gonna Be Mine/Freefall (Hideout 1003) 1965
3. I Feel A Whole Lot Better/I Can't Live Without Your Love (Hideout 1012) 1965

A folk-rock outfit from the Detroit suburb of Grosse Pointe in Michigan. They seem to have had some connection to The Fugitives 'cos You're Gonna Be Mine (featured on Psychedelic Unknowns, 3), considered by many to be their finest moment, appeared under both names. Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 5 includes Baby Blue, which appeared on a rare local compilation album (Hideout 1002), but was never issued as a 45. It's a competent enough version of the much-covered Dylan song. The vocals and 12-string guitar give it good treatment. For their second 45 Gene Clark's I Feel A Whole Lot Better was given similar treatment. This has resurfaced on Vol. 6 of the Highs series, and A Journey To Tyme Vol. 2. The Hideout was a Detroit teen club started by Dave Leone and Ed 'Punch' Andrews in May 1964 and the following year Leone started the Hideout Record Company, which like the club thrived for a short while.

The rare compilation LP Best Of The Hideouts has recently been reissued. It contains Baby Blue, I Feel A Whole Lot Better and I Can't Live Without Your Love. It also features tracks by other Hideout regulars The Underdogs (4), Yorkshires (2), Pleasure Seekers, Henchman and Doug Brown. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The IV Pack to Lance Fox and The Bloodhounds

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The IV Pack
- Four Real
- 4 Score
- The Four Wheels
- The 4th Amendment
- Fourth Cekcion
- Fourth Way
- Kim Fowley
- Lance Fox and The Bloodhounds

The IV Pack

TOP

45:

1. Whatzit?/? (Hippie 2019) 196?

Came out of Danville, Virginia and their Whatzit? was a sort of variation on The Count Five's Psychotic Reaction. Pretty good it is too and half way through the chorus gives way to a sorta cosmic guitar freakout. Check it out on the Signed D. C. compilation. (Max Waller)

Four Real

TOP

ALBUM:

1	CONTENTMENT	(Private Pressing)	c1972 R1

A Christian rock group with tracks like Og For A Thousand Tongues To Sing.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

4 Score

TOP

45s:

1	Mini-Skirt / ?	(Blackjack 110)	1967

A salacious punker dedicated to man's most popular female fashion and other turn-ons. Check out this lechers' classic on Sick And Tired with its exhortations of 'M - I - N - I', creepy keyboards and fuzz.

The band are thought to originate from the New York area.

(Max Waller)

The Four Wheels

Personnel:

- JIM ADAMS
- SKEET BUSHOR
- STEVE DRYBREAD
- JIM KOSS
- STEVE LESTER

45:

1. Central High Playmate/Cold 45 (Soma 1428) 1965

This Indianapolis-based band later became The Boys Next Door, who released a 45 for Soma, one for Cameo, one for Bud and three for Atco in the mid-sixties. Hipsville, Vol. 3 features the 'A' side of their 45.

The 4th Amendment

45:

1. Always Blue/Whiskey Man (Constitution 5109) 1968

From Atlanta, Georgia, this garage band's Always Blue bears an unashamed resemblance to Sky Saxon and The Seed's Pushin' Too Hard. The flip, is in a similar vein.

You can also find both sides on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 12 (CD) or the 'A' side on The Garage Zone, Vol. 1, Pebbles, Vol. 17, Follow That Munster, Vol. 2 and Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6. (Max Waller)

Fourth Cekcion

Personnel:

- GREG ISAACS keyb'ds A
- MIKE ST CLAIR bs A
- STEWART ROJO ld gtr A
- RICHARD CANTU woodwind A

- LOUIE BROUSSARD drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FOURTH CEKCION (Solar 110) 1970

NB: (1) also issued on White Whale.

A little known Texan outfit whose album has become a collectors' item. Cantu later played for Richard Torrence. Probably their finest moment, Find Yourself Another Way is comped on Journey To The East.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Fourth Way

TOP

Personnel incl:

JOHN WILMETH	bs	A

45s:

1	The Far Side Of Your Moon/Pink Cloud	(Soul City 765)	1968
2	Bucklehuggin' / Clouds	(Capitol 2619)	1969

A suitable track for the 'Barbarella' movie, the groovy 'A' side on their first 45 is pleasant Eastern keyboard doodling and Telstar spacey effects topped by little-girl vocals a la Hole In My Shoe. Fairly far out. The flip by contrast is a stupid but amusing nursery-rhyme song with inane whistling. Undoubtedly a studio effort, songs are credited to R. Graves and Steve Venet. Steve was a Screen Gems writer and Nick Venet's brother - he wrote many songs for "Red Bird" girl groups and also composed the classic Tomorrows Gonna Be Another Day.

John Wilmeth later played with Southern Comfort.

Check out The Far Side of Your Moon on A Heavy Dose of Lyte Psych CD or Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8.

(Max Waller / Joe Foster / Stephane Rebeschini)

Kim Fowley

TOP

Personnel:

KIM FOWLEY	vcls, keyb'ds, perc	A B C D E F
MIKE ALLSUP	gtr	C
BEN BENAY	harp, gtr	C
MARS BONFIRE	gtr	C D
JIMMY GREENSPOON	keyb'ds	C
EDDIE HOH	drms	C
ORVILLE RED RHODES	steel gtr	C
CARMEN RIALE	bs	C
JOE SCHRMIE	bs	C
WAYNE TALBERT	keyb'ds	C

JOE TORRES	perc	C
MICHAEL LLOYD	keyb'ds	D
WARREN ZEVON	gtr	D

ALBUMS:

(up to 1972)
1(A)	LOVE IS ALIVE AND WELL	(Tower DT 5080)	1967
2(A)	THE INCREDIBLE KIM FOWLEY	(Original Sound OSR-LPS-8877)	1967
3(A)	BORN TO BE WILD	(Imperial 12413)	1968
4(C)	OUTRAGEOUS	(Imperial 12423)	1968
5(D)	GOOD CLEAN FUN	(Imperial 12443)	1966
6(E)	IN THE UNDERGROUND	(Not issued)	1968
7(F)	I'M BAD	(Capitol ST 11075)	1972

NB: (2) and (6) not issued. (3) and (4) have been reissued on one CD by Rev-Ola in 1995.

45s:

(up to 1969)
1	American Dream/The Statue	(Mira 209)	1965
2	The Trip/Big Sur	(Corby 216)	1965
3	Mr. Responsibility/My Foolish Heart	(Living Legend 721)	1965
4	Underground Lady/Pop Art '66	(Living Legend 725)	1966
5	Lights/Something New And Different	(Loma 2064)	1966
6	Love Is Alive And Well/Reincarnation	(Tower 342)	1967
7	Don't Be Cruel/Strangers From The Sky	(Reprise 0569)	1967
8	Fluffy Turkeys / Young America-Saturday Night	(Original Sound OS-81)	1967
9	Born To Be Wild/Space Odyssey	(Imperial 66326)	1968
10	Wildfire/Bubblegum	(Imperial 66349)	1969

NB: (5) also released on Parlophone in the U.K. (R 5521). (8) Promo copy labels state "from the LP The Incredible Kim Fowley, OSR-LPS-8877" but this was probably not released. Of special note : the dead wax has the following writings : "Rodney Underground DS Canyon Put On" and "Wait til you hear the album, photos by Ed, Art Needs Love". There's also a rare French EP with PS: The Trip/Beautiful People/The Underground Lady/Curiosity (Vogue INT 18086)(estimatd value: $150) and a French single with PS: They're Coming To Take Me Away/You Get More For Your Money On The Flip Side (CBS 2243).

Son of Hollywood actor Doug Fowley the multi-talented Fowley - singer, producer and composer - was born in Los Angeles in 1942. He got into the music business as an assistant to Marty Melcher (Terry's Dad) who ran a music publishing company. He was pals with The Cadets and other black vocal groups of the time and was a sometime member of his school-band The Sleepwalkers (notable for including at various times Bruce Johnston, Sandy Nelson, Phil Spector and various others). Among the groups Fowley wrote for and produced were The Jayhawks, B. Bumble and The Stingers, The Innocents and The Hollywood Argyles. In the early sixties he was involved with The Rivingtons and Paul Revere and the Raiders, but it was novelty scams like Ally Oop and Nutrocker which became worldwide hits and set his career pattern.

He also ran Chattahoochie records for a time, roping other hollywood chancers like David Gates in - The Murmaids, Kathy Young, and various Chicano bands like Thee Midnighters to make up their roster. He then became a press officer for Motown and for various Brit bands inc. The Yardbirds (incidentally, WCPAEB came together at the end of tour party Fowley threw for The Yardbirds at Bob Markleys house).

He moved to England for a couple of years in 1965, first working with P.J. Proby as publicist and tour manager, and then with Andrew Loog Oldham on various projects, as well as producing lots of records. Two of his 45s cuts from the period, Pop Art '66 and Lights were collaborations with Mark Wirtz, while the backing on Don't Be Cruel contains most of Fleetwood Mac plus sundry cronies.. Eventually however, EMI compelled Fowley and Wirtz to go out and find some bands and stop messing about at Abbey Road. They returned first with the Inbetweens, then later with Pink Floyd, Tomorrow, and The Soft Machine. The first two were signed, and Fowley took the Softs to Polydor for one 45 and a bunch of unreleased tracks. Fowley also discovered and named Family, cutting a one off single for Liberty. Somewhere inbetween all this he also found time to work with Cat Stevens, The Rockin' Berries, Dave Mason and Jim Capaldi.

Upon his return to America he worked on the first Mothers Of Invention album and in 1967 he also formed a home for bands which was used by Sparrow, Jim Morrison, and Rose Garden.

Undeniably Fowley had a talent for novelty songs and uncomplicated teenage anthems. An example of the former was The Trip, which was very popular around LA in 1966 and was covered by Godfrey and Thee Midniters, amongst others. In the eighties this would be a favourite track amongst the "garage" freaks.

His first album Love Is Alive And Well features The West Coast Pop Art Experimental Band (as does the non LP 45 cut Strangers From The Sky) and was co-produced by Michael Lloyd. His second, Born To Be Wild contains groovy organ instrumentals; Outrageous is experimental hard psych and Good Clean Fun features Lloyd, Mars Bonfire, Skip Battin, Warren Zevon, and Rodney Bingenheimer. The latter album turns into a contract breaking farrago halfway through, as his signings to Liberty / Imperial, Zevon and Johnny Winter, were both dropped whilst it was being recorded. When Winter became the biggest star in the U.S. only a couple of months later, it was too much to bear.

He continued to record albums throughout the seventies, but in the eighties confined his activities more to songwriting, publishing and talent spotting. In the late 90s, however he's been getting more recognition from current acts, played his first gigs since 1968, inc. sell-out shows in London, and performed a song cycle with narration The Ghosts Of Scotland for BBC radio Scotland. He's also made some bizarre dance records which have actually made the club charts - ably assisted by Joe Foster, Norman Blake, Steve New, Roni Size, William Orbit and various members of the Fall, BMX Bandits etc. One particular offshoot of all this was a strange version of Millenium's Prelude, whilst a remix of Animal Man from Outrageous was a standout track on a recent Bentley Rhythm Ace project for Ministry of Sound.

Anyone interested in investigating Kim Fowley's unique work should check out Mondo Hollywood, Vol. 1 (Rev-Ola CREV036CD) 1995, a compilation CD which contains tracks from the sixties, including many of his more bizarre offerings like The Trip and Gypsy Canyon. A track from Outrageous, Animal Man, has also resurfaced on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 2. Other compilation coverage has included: Young America Saturday Night on Only In America CD; Strangers From The Sky on U-Spaces: Psychedelic Archaeology, Vol. 1; The Trip on Pebbles, Vol. 1, Pebbles Box Set and The Sound Of The Sixties; Underground Lady on Pebbles Box Set; and The Canyon People on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3, which captures him explaining to CBS news cameras, in the Summer of 1967, how 'the canyon people' had replaced the 'flower children' as America's hope for the future!

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster / Stephane Rebeschini)

Lance Fox and The Bloodhounds

TOP

Personnel incl:

- LANCE FOX

45:

1. That's Your Problem/You Got Love (Bang 523) 1966

Both sides of this 45 have resurfaced on Mindrocker, Vol. 13. The outfit was based in New York City.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Fraction to The Free

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Fraction
- Framework
- Francisco
- Joe Frank and The Knights
- The Alan Franklin Explosion
- (The) Frantic(s)
- Fraternity of Man
- Freak Scene
- Fred
- John Fred and His Playboy Band
- Frederic
- The Free

Fraction

TOP

Personnel:

- JIM BEACH vcls A
- DON SWANSON gtr A
- CURT SWANSON perc A
- BOB MEINEL gtr A
- VIC HEMME bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) MOONBLOOD (Angelus 571) 1971

NB. (1) was originally limited to 200 copies but has been counterfeited/reissued several times, including a ltd repro, duplicating the original "Blood Red" see-through mylar sleeve. It has also been counterfeited on CD a couple of times, including a re-press by Anthology (ANT 24.11) 199?.

45:

1. Sanc-Divided/? (Angelus WR 5005) 1971

This album, has some good guitar and Jim Beach's vocals are reminiscent of Doors, although he was singing on Sunset Strip long before Jim Morrison took to the stage. Sanc-Divided, which was also included on the album, can be heard on the Valley Of The Son Of The Gathering Of The Tribe compilation.

Jim Beach had earlier sang for Fever Tree, although he did not record with the band and Fraction also recorded two further albums, which remain unreleased.

The Filling The Gap compilation incorrectly states that they were previously known as Stonegarden and had issued at least one 45 on Angelus entitled Oceans Inside Of Me - this is now known to be the work of a completely different outfit.

Framework

TOP

Personnel:

- TERRY FANN bs, vcls
- JERRY McCANN gtr, vcls
- CARL SPIRON drms

45:

1. I'm Gonna Give/The Direction (Harvey Swartz HS-0001) Feb, 1969

This legendary San Diego underground band had several personnel line-ups before this final incarnation recorded this amazing 45 in 1968. Just 500 copies were pressed. The Framework as recorded here sound remarkably like Frumious Bandersnatch despite never having heard of their Bay Area counterparts! Jerry McCann was considered the premier guitarist of the era in San Diego, even the Brain Police's David Randle cites him as his favourite player. The 45 has a very clean sound as the band used small amps in the studio, but live in the sixties they cranked through over-driven stacks and their concerts are the stuff of legend. The 'B' side is a tremendous guitar/bass dirge with introspective lyrics:

> Love is something you can't feel
> But hate leaves scars that never heal
> I can feel the harm that's been done
> Please correct me if I'm wrong
> But peace has been absent for too long
> I can feel the harm that's been done
> (from The Direction.)

Framework split before recording again, McCann forming Anthrax and after signing with Elektra, releasing the album Show of Hands shown as by 'Formerly' Anthrax (an inside joke). An unreleased live album recorded in 1970 also exists on acetate, issued only to the band members. (Clark Faville)

Francisco

TOP

ALBUM:

1. COSMIC BEAM EXPERIENCE (Cosmic Beam) 1976

This obscure Californian psychedelic album is now a minor collectors'item,

Joe Frank and The Knights

Personnel incl:

- JOE FRANK

45s:

1. Five Elephants In A Volkswagen / Twistin' Mississippi (El Jay 100463) 1963
2. Can't Find A Way/Won't You Come Home (Block 510) 1966
3. Can't Find A Way/Won't You Come Home (ABC 10782) 1966

From Leland, Mississippi and featuring Joe Frank who, as one of the smooth popsters Hamilton, Joe Frank And Reynolds, hit the bigtime in 1975 with Fallin' In Love. Can't Find A Way found its way onto Pennsylvania Unknowns (which has caused much confusion as to their origins) and also Victims Of Circumstances Vol. 2. (Max Waller/Johnny Jennings)

The Alan Franklin Explosion

Personnel:

- ALAN FRANKLIN gtr, vcls A
- DAVE DIX drms A
- BUZZYMEEKINS bs A
- CHRIS RUSSEI ld gtr A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) COME HOME BABY (Aladin Records) 1968
2. (A) BLUES CLIMAX (Horne) 1970

NB (2) reissued on Psycho (18) 1983.

45:

1. Bye Bye Baby / Piece Of Your Love (Horne 888-4)1970

A marginal case for inclusion here. Musically a hard rock/blues band from Orlando, Florida, with pretty wild vocals. The whole of Side 2 of their second album is taken up with Climax, an 18 minute 10 second drivin' instrumental hard rock rendition, which on the best scenario is reminiscent of the long instrumental jams of the San Francisco Ballrooms and at the worst monotonous.

(The) Frantic(s)

Personnel:

- MAX BYFUGLIN vcls A
- DAVID DAY bs A
- DENNIS DEVLIN gtr A
- JIM HAAS keyb'ds A
- PHIL HEAD drms A
- KIM SHERMAN gtr A

NB: Line-up 'A' shown above, was actually a later line-up of the band, and not that which recorded the Route '66 45.

ALBUM:

1. (A) CONCEPTION (Lizard Records 20103) 1971
2. (A) RELAX YOUR MIND (Collectables COL-CD-0570) 1994

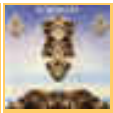
NB. (1) has been reissued. (1) also issued on CD by SPM/World Wide Records (SPM-WWR-CD-0049) 1993 and boolegged on CD as (Flash 31). (2) is a CD only issue of 1968 recordings.

45s:

1. La Do Da Da/Route 66 (Sunco 1008) 1966
2. Midnight To Six Man/Shady Sam (Lizard 21002) 1969/70

We are informed that this group hailed from Billings, Montana, originally, though they toured all over the country. In 1968 they relocated to Santa Fe, New Mexico, then moved onto Colorado Springs before making L.A. their final base in 1969, removing the final 'S' from their name and recording the Conception LP. All told they lasted from 1965 to 1971 and just 1,000 copies of their first 45 were pressed back in 1966.

The Conception album has been likened to early MC5, but the Relax Your Mind CD of an unreleased 1968 album, is more overtly psychedelic and is one of Collectables' more worthwhile reissues. It was recorded at Norman Petty's studio in Clovis, New Mexico.



When the band broke up in 1971, three members went on to form an outfit called The Cows, who recorded an unreleased album, Hunchbacks From Outer Space. It had been thought that Frantic had become an act known as Farm Band, however Frantic member Dennis Devlin, says this is false... commenting "I suppose one shouldn't discount the possibility that there may have been more than one band in the USA calling themselves Frantic; there were certainly several "The Frantics" as you know. Another theory springs to mind as to why they may have been connected to us. It was common practice in the Midwest during the late '60s for unscrupulous promoters to book unknown local bands into venues as touring English bands, as it was thought at the time that all musicians with long hair looked alike. When we were playing Midwestern gigs there was a bogus "Them" playing the same circuit. Most people wouldn't have known the difference. I assume these bands were encouraged to work up a few songs by whatever group they were pretending to be and hope for the best. What this is leading to is that after Frantic broke up, we heard rumours of a bogus Frantic playing back in the Midwest, apparently having learned our album. I know none of the original Frantics were involved, but perhaps the Farm Band started off as a bogus Frantic? It would be interesting to hear from a Farm Band member."

Other Frantics included Seattle's oufit, whose powerful instrumentals graced the early sixties and the pre-Moby Grape Frantics out of Marin County.

Punk Classics, Vol. 5 also includes The Frantics version of Route 66.

(Max Waller)

Fraternity of Man

Personnel:

- RICHARD HAYWARD drms, vcls A
- ELLIOT INGBER ld gtr A
- WARREN KLEIN gtr A
- MARTIN KIBBEE bs A
- LARRY WAGNER vcls, gtr A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) FRATERNITY OF MAN (ABC ABCS 647) 1968
2. (A) GET IT ON (Dot 25955) 1969

NB: (1) and (2) reissued on CD by Edsel (EDCD 437 and EDCD 438 respectively) in 1995.

45:

1. Don't Bogart Me/Wispy Paisley Skies (ABC 11106) 1968 133

This Los Angeles band grew out of Factory of which Kibbee, Hayward and Klein were members. They are probably best known for Don't Bogart Me, which appeared on the soundtrack to counter-culture epic "Easy Rider".

Produced by Tom Wilson (Mothers, Ill Wind, Velvet Underground, Harumi etc), their albums are musically quite diverse and raw, but worth investigation. With its superb sleeve, Fraternity Of Man contains a cover of Frank Zappa's Oh No I Don't Believe It, all the other tracks being group compositions. In The Morning is particularly notable for its lyrics ("High in the morning, high in the afternoon, high in the evening...") whilst Candy Striped Loin's Tails features good use of sitar, guitars and percussion.

Their second album, Get It On is equally as good. Once again the group composed most of the songs (including Too High To Eat), except for three covers (Sonny Boy Williamson's Don't Start Me Talkin', Cat's Squirrel (also recorded by Cream) and Trick Bag penned by P.Weedon)

Ingber had previously played with The Mothers Of Invention and later became Winged Eel Fingerling with Captain Beefheart. Hayward later played in Little Feat (Lowell George had guested on a couple of The Fraternity of Man's album tracks), and Kim Fowley also guested on the first album. Warren Klein later worked with Kim Fowley on his I'm Bad release.

Don't Bogart Me & Fherinst also appear on Then And Now Vol. 1, whilst Bikini Baby also appears on Vol. 2 of the same series. In The Morning and Plastic Rat appear on a rare compilation of Tom Wilson's productions, Tom's Touch, released by ABC in 1969.

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini / Joe Foster)

Freak Scene

Personnel incl:

- RUSTY EVANS

ALBUM:

1. PSYCHEDELIC PSOUL (Columbia 9356) 1967

NB. (1) has been reissued and is also available on CD (Head 2896) 1997. The album has also been reissued on CD together with Devil's Anvil's album

45:

1. A Million Grains Of Sand/Behind The Mind (Columbia 44056) 1967

The album is virtually a second Deep LP and almost identical in style. A Million Grains Of Sand and My Rainbow Life are two of its better tracks. Some of the other material can arguably described as rubbish, or brilliant. It's now a minor collectors' item and was repressed in 1989. My Rainbow Life was also done by Third Bardo and it has therefore been surmised that they were yet another of Rusty Evans' 'projects'. This was not the case as you'll read later in the Third Bardo entry. Filling The Gap includes a different version of A Million Grains of Sand that Rusty recorded at a later date as Marcus.

Fred

TOP

45:

1. A Love Song/Salvation Lady (Arpeggio 1057) c1970

Pennsylvania Unknowns includes a cut called A Love Song by this artist. From Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Another 45 issued on the Arpeggio label included Killing Confusion, but we haven't been able to dig up any more details...

John Fred and His Playboy Band

TOP

Personnel:

ANDREW BERNARD	baritone sax	A
HAROLD COWART	bs	A
TOMMY DE GENERES	organ	A B
JOHN FRED	vcls	A B
RONNIE GOODSON	trumpet	A B
JOE MICELI	perc	A
JIMMY O'ROURKE	gtr	A
HARLIE SPINOSA	trumpet	A B
LESTER DODGE	drms	B
BILLY DOUGLAS	bs	B
HAL ELLIS	gtr	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	JOHN FRED AND HIS PLAYBOYS	(Paula LPS-2191)	1965
2(A)	34.40 OF JOHN FRED AND HIS PLAYBOYS	(Paula LPS-2193)	1966
3(A)	AGNES ENGLISH	(Paula LPS-2197)	1967
4(A)	JUDY IN DISGUISE	(Paula LPS-2197)	1967
5(A)	PERMANENTLY STATED	(Paula LPS-2201)	1968
6(B)	LOVE MY SOUL	(Uni 73077)	1969

NB: (3) also issued in France with a different sleeve (Stateside SSSX 340 637) 1968. (4) is a reissue of (3) with a new front sleeve. A mono pressing also exists.

45s:

1	Shirley / My Love For You	(Montel 1002)	1959
2	Good Lovin' / You Know You Made Me Cry	(Montel 1007)	1960
3	Down In New Orleans / I Love You	(Montel 904)	1961
4	Mirror Mirror (On The Wall) / To Have And To Hold	(Montel 2001)	1962
5	Dial 101 / There Goes That Train	(Jewel 730)	1964
6	The Fool / There'll Be No Teardrops Tonight	(Jewel 730)	1964
7	You're Mad At Me / Lenne	(Jewel 736)	1964
8	My First Love / Boogie Children	(N-Joy 1005)	1965
9	My First Love / Boogie Children	(Jewel 737)	1965
10	Wrong To Me / How Can I Prove	(Jewel 743)	1965
11	Making Love To You / Fortune Teller	(Paula 225)	1965
12	Can't I Get (A Word In) / Sun City	(Paula 234)	1966
13	Doin' The Best I Can / Leave Her Never	(Paula 244)	1966
14	Love Comes In Time / Outta My Head	(Paula 247)	1966
15	Up And Down/Wind Up Doll	(Paula 259)	1967
16	Agnes English/Sad Story	(Paula 273)	1967
17	Judy In Disguise/ When The Lights Go Out	(Paula 282)	1967
18	Hey Hey Bunny/No Letter Today	(Paula 294)	1968
19	We Played Games/Lonely Are The Lonely	(Paula 303)	1968
20	Little Dum Dum/Tissue Paper	(Paula 310)	1968
21	Sometimes You Just Can't Win/What Is Happiness	(Paula 315)	1968
22	Shirley / High Heel Sneakers	(Montel-Michelle 998)	1968
23	Back In The USSR / Silly Sally Carter(Eating On A Moonpipe)	(UNI 55135)	1969 9
24	Three Deep in a Feeling/Open Doors	(UNI 55160)	1969
25	Julia Julia / Love My Soul	(UNI 55187)	1969
26	Harlem Shuffle/Shirley	(Paula 445)	1985

NB: (8) & (9) as by The Playboys. (16) - (20) also released on Pye International in the UK. (22) also released on CBS in the UK and (23) on MCA in the UK. Two Picture Sleeve 45s were also released in France: Judy In Disguise/Out Of Left Field (Stateside) 1968 and What Is Happiness/We Played Games (Stateside) 1968.

From Louisiana, John Fred and His Playboy Band were primarily a soul pop band with horns. They got a big hit in 1967 with Judy In Disguise, a song composed by Fred, Bernard and Wessler after listening to the Beatles' Lucy In The Sky With Diamonds.

In 1969, John Fred released a final album on UNI with a partly new line-up. Love My Soul still contains horns but is much better than the Paula LPs, notably because of the skills of Hal Ellis, their new guitarist. Produced by John Fred and Lynn Ourso and recorded at Robin Brian's Studios in Tyler, Texas, it contains mainly original tracks plus a cover of Back In The USSR and a weird (but interesting) medley of Sweet Soul Music and Can't Be So Bad, the Moby Grape song.

Boogie Children and Something's Going On are featured on Mindrocker Vol. 6.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

Frederic

Personnel:

- RON BERA keyb'ds, trumpet, horn A
- JOE McCARGER vcls, perc A
- STEVE THRALL gtr, melodica, sitar, olivefte A
- BOB GEIS gtr A
- DAVE IDEMA drms, clawes, bongos A

ALBUM:

1. (A) PHASES AND FACES (Forte 80461) 1968

NB: (1) has been repressed and issued on CD with bonus tracks (Arf! Arf! AA 061) 1996.

45s:

1. 5 O'Clock Traffic/Red Pier (Evolution 1001) 1968
2. 5 O'Clock Traffic/Red Pier (Forte 3001) 1968

Pleasant minor league soft pop-rock with some psychy moments. From Grand Rapids, Michigan, this outfit would evolve into Rock Garden (who cut one 45 - Johnny's Music Machine/Love Is A Good Foundation on (Capitol 2806) 1970) then Garden (The Winds Of South Chicago/The First Day Of My Life (Capitol 2919) 1970). Both these 45s are best avoided.

Lead vocalist Joe McCargar and guitarist Bob Geis were high school mates playing in a local band. When their existing drummer and guitarist quit, shortly before a gig, they drafted in Steve Thrall, with whom they immediately struck up an accord. In the days that followed, David Idema - a family friend - and Ron Bera were added, and the band began to rehearse extensively.

They soon caught the eye of a booking agent, who got them a support slot for U.K. duo Harper and Rowe, who were doing a U.S. promotional tour. Harper and Rowe, didn't want to be upstaged by a local support, so the band changed their name to The Frederic on their way to the first gig in Frederic, Michigan. They soon developed a good local reputation, and opened shows for The Boxtops, Tommy James and The Shondells, and Yellow Balloon amongst others.

The oft-hyped-as-a psych-megabuck-rarity LP has seen a boot reissue, whilst the non-LP Nine O'Clock Traffic can be enjoyed on Echoes In Time, Vol. 2 and Filling The Gap. Even better however is the Arf Arf CD reissue, which includes Nine O'Clock Traffic plus three cuts recorded for an aborted second album.

It should be said that, while the LP may not blow your mind, the music is of a consistently high quality throughout.

(Max Waller).

The Free

45s:

1. (A Day Of Decision) For Lost Soul Blue/ What Makes You? (Marquee 448) 1968
2. (A Day Of Decision) For Lost Soul Blue/What Makes You? (Atco 6662) 1969

This was the work of an obscure and too short-lived Michigan band. The 'A' side is a superb venture into psychedelia with lots of fuzz, wah-wah and bizarre lyrics. You'll also find it on the Sixties Rebellion Vol. 15 (CD), Psychotic Moose and The Soul Searchers and Good Roots (originally released as All Cops In Delirium). After the ultra heavy topside the flip could only be a lighter affair - bright midfast handclappin' pop-rock with some finger-pickin' good guitar. (Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

45s:

Freeborne to Friar Tuck

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Freeborne
- Free Design
- Freedom Express
- Freedom Five
- Freedom Highway
- Freedom Of Choice
- The Free For All
- Freeman Sound
- Freeport
- Free Spirits
- Free Thinkers
- Freight Train
- French Lick
- Fresh Air
- Friar Tuck

Freeborne

TOP

Personnel:

NICK CARSTOIU	gtr, keyb'ds, vcls, recorder, cello	A
DAVE CODD	recorder, harp, perc, vcls, bs	A
LEW LIPSON	drms, perc	A
BOB MARGOLIN	ld gtr	A
MIKE SPIROS	keyb'ds, chimes, trumpet, perc	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	PEAK IMPRESSION	(Monitor MPS 607)	1967

NB: (1) has been reissued on vinyl. It has also issued on CD by Afterglow in 1995, but with one track either edited or missing. More recently the album has been reissued again on CD by Distortions (DR 1041) 1998, this time with three bonus cuts!

45:

1	Land of Diana/Images	(Monitor 45-1806)	1967

A Boston group whose sole album, recorded at CBS Studios in New York, is excellent - full of the acid imagery which typified the Bosstown sound in 1968. Almost every track is of interest. For example Land Of Diana has a compelling organ intro, Visions Of My Own some fine woodwind instrumentation and Inside People unusual fuzztone vocals and pleasing keyboards.

In 1997, an alternate 45 mono mix of Land of Diana surfaced on Erik Lindgren's excellent A Heavy Dose of Lyte Psych CD comp, and in 1998 Distortions reissued Peak Impressions on CD together with three bonus cuts: the mono 45 version of Images, an alternate stereo mix of Land Of Diana, and Incidental Music - twenty-odd seconds worth of spacey keyboard noodlings.

In the mid-'70s, Bob Margolin became a member of Muddy Waters band and he later played with the Johnny Winter Group. He is still touring and recording Chicago Blues albums. Nick Carstoiu too remains active in the music scene.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini / Joe Rein)

Free Design

TOP

Personnel:

BRUCE DEDRICK	vcls	A
CHRIS DENDRICK	vcls, piano	A
ELLEN DENDRICK	vcls	A
SANDY DENDRICK	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	KITES ARE FUN	(Project 3 PR 5019SD)	1967
2	YOU COULD BE BORN AGAIN	(Project 3 PR 5031SD)	1968
3	HEAVEN / EARTH	(Project 3 PR 5037SD)	1969
4	THERE IS A SONG	(Ambrotype)	1972

NB: There's also a Spanish compilation, Umbrellas (Siesta 104) 1999.

45s:

1	Kites Are Fun / Proper Ornaments	(Project 3 1324)	1967
2	You Be You And I'll Be Me / Never ...	(Project 3 1331)	1968
3	Eleanor Rigby / Make The Madness Stop	(Project 3 1345)	1968
4	A Leaf Has Veins / You Could Be Born Again	(Project 3 1350)	196?
5	Where Do I Go / Girls Alone	(Project 3 1356)	196?
6	Dorian Benediction / Summertime	(Project 3 1358)	196?
7	If I Were A Carpenter / Now Is The Time	(Project 3 1360)	196?
8	2002: A Hit Song / Hurry Sundown	(Project 3 1366)	1969
9	Butterflies Are Free / ?	(Project 3 1370)	196?
10	Bubbles / I'm A Yogi	(Project 3 1375)	196?
11	Tomorrow Is The First Day Of The Rest Of My Life / Kije's Ouija	(Project 3 1383)	196?
12	Don't Cry Baby / Time And Love	(Project 3 1387)	196?
13	Felt So Good / You Are My Sunshine	(Project 3 1393)	196?
14	Friendly Man / Stay Off Of Your Frown	(Project 3 1404)	196?
15	Friends (Thank You All) / Going Back	(Project 3 1415)	196?

A sophisticated pop psych/soft rock group with harmony vocals lead by Chris Dendrick. Free Design released at least three other albums on Command/Project3 and were based in New York state. Their records may interest fans of groups like Neon Philharmonic and are more and more sought after.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller)

Freedom Express

TOP

Personnel:

- ZIP COCHENOR drms A
- MIKE HYRCZYK gtr, bs A
- DAVE MILOVAC electric piano, bs A
- PAUL MILOVAC acoustic gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BRINGS FRESH AIR (Fresh Start) 1975

A rural-style rock album recorded at Asterik Recording Studio, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. It was produced by the group and Gino Manetta. Some pleasant guitar moments but unexceptional overall.

Freedom Five

TOP

45:

1. We Aren't Free/To Save My Soul (SRI 5527) 196?

A late sixties garage band from Oak Park, Illinois, whose 45 is highly-rated.

Freedom Highway

TOP

Personnel:

ANDY BLAKE	gtr	A
JEOF EVANS	tamb	A
GENE GARCIA	gtr, vcls	A
DAVE HARRIS	bs	A
RICHARD "RICHI RAY" HARRIS	gtr, vcls	A B C D E
CHUCK HODGE	drms	A
KURT EICHSTAEDT	drms	B
SCOTT INGLIS	bs, vcls	B C D
MIKE LAMB	gtr, vcls	B
HOWIE LAZZARINI	organ, vcls	B

BRUCE BRYMER	drms, vcls	C D E
GARY PHILIPPET	gtr, vcls	D E
DAVID SCHALLOCK	bs, vcls	E

NB: Line-up 'A' initially known as City Lights, then Freedom Highway 1965. Line-up 'B' 1966. Line-up 'C' 1967. Line-up 'D' 1968. Line-up 'E' 1969.

This act used to play at the Avalon Ballroom and outdoor San Francisco shows. Led by guitarist, singer and songwriter Richard Harris, later known as "Richie Ray". They never put out a record, but they were a great live act and over their four year life-span played with Buffalo Springfield, The Doors, Grateful Dead, Quicksilver, Big Brother and the Holding Co., Jefferson Airplane etc.

A ten-track retrospective CD is due for release in 2000, with some great anecdotal liner notes from Richie Ray.

Bruce Brymer went on to play in the Ducks and numerous other San Francisco bands. Gary Philippet went on to Copperhead, and Earthquake. Greg Kihn later wrote Jeopardy, David Schallock went on to Big Brother, David Bromberg and Sons of Champlin. Richi Ray Harris went on teach at Sonoma State University then took a role in the Broadway stage show "Beatlemania".

(Tom Ordon)

Freedom of Choice

TOP

45:

1. Doctor Tom/Fat Man (Wand WND-11223) 1970

Turn-of-decade fuzzy psych-rock, led by female vocals, that's both catchy and nicely brain-tingling. It should have been a massive hit but, of course, the best stuff never was. The flip is competent too, tho' lacking the fuzz 'n' effects. Nothing known about the group. (Max Waller)

The Free For All

TOP

45:

1. Blue Monday/Show Me The Way (Challenge 59339) 1966

It has been revealed at long last that this was actually Nova Scotia's Great Scots under a pseudonym, though they did spend plenty of time south of the U.S./Canadian border, recording in New York and later Los Angeles. Their story is revealed on two recent Sundazed releases - The Great Lost Great Scots Album (Sundazed SC 5052, 1997) and Arrive! (Beat Rocket BR 101, 1998). See their forthcoming entry in the Canadian archive.

The 'A' side was a big beat number. The flip, an undeniably commercial pop/punk song (co-wriften by Keith Colley, a familiar LA writer, and produced by Richard Delvy, another significant figure in the LA scene at that time), later resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 9. (Max Waller)

Freeman Sound

Personnel:

- RAY ESCOTT vcls
- L. J. FORTIER drms
- JOHN HARROW ld gtr
- BUSTER McCARTHY bs
- KURT SUNDERMAN gtr

45:

1. Singing My Own Song/Sixteen Tons (PS) (Starshine 7059) 1970

A hard rockin' Youngstown, Ohio, band on the same label as Morly Grey and Biggy Rat. Comes in a "1970 Limited Collector Edition" picture sleeve (way ahead of the times there) which also optimistically announces 'release of record to be limited to 10,000 Annually Worldwide'. The searing guitar on the 'B' side certainly merits that. (Max Waller)

Freeport

Personnel incl:

JIM BRICKNER ?	A

ALBUM:

1	FREEPORT	(Mainstream 6130)	1970

45s:

1	I Need Your Lovin/ I Need Your Lovin (mono)	(Mainstream 730)	1970
2	Now That She's Gone/Misunderstood	(Mainstream 732)	1970

One of the last rock releases on Mainstream, it's both disappointing and directionless. Some tracks are rock oriented (the uninteresting cover of Animals' (Don't Let Me) Misundestood), some are dreamy ballads with flute and delicate piano, whilst others are pop (their cover of Eric Carmen's I Need Your Lovin), all have some female vocal harmonies.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Free Spirits

Personnel:

COLUMBUS "CHIP" BAKER	gtr	A
LARRY CORYELL	gtr, vcls, sitar	A

CHRIS HILLS	bs	A
BOBBY MOSES	drms	A
JIM PEPPER	sax	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	OUT OF SIGHT AND SOUND	(ABC ABC-S 593)	1967

Produced by Bob Thiele, Free Spirits were a group of talented young jazz musicians trying to do an "electric rock" album with original material. There are some really nice tracks and instrumental parts (Angels Can't Be True, I'm Gonna Be Free with its sitar, Cosmic Daddy Dancer with an excellent guitar...) but the vocals are generally too weak and most songs are not strong enough.

Bob Thiele was later more successful in introducing jazz musicians to rock with Eden's Children.

Larry Coryell had a very prolific career. Jim Pepper also released some solo LPs and wrote Witchi Tai To which was covered by Everything is Everything, Harpers' Bizarre and Brewer and Shipley.

Pepper died in the '90s.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Free Thinkers

TOP

Personnel incl:

- FRANK RONDELL

45s:

1. She's Hurt/You Were Born For Me (Mala 517) 1965
2. Why Why, Why/She's Hurt (Mala 532) 1966

Originally from Toronto, Canada, this "project" was executed in New York. The flip to the first 45, a very solid punk pop sound with a heavy bass, written by Wes Farrel and Doc Pomus, can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 12. Unfortunately She's Hurt is a pre-Beatles type ballad whilst Why, Why, Why is a mournful harmony ballad brightened only by a few bars of squealing guitar.

Freight Train

TOP

ALBUM:

1	JUST THE BEGINNING	(Fly By Nite)	1971 R1

A heavy blues-rock outfit.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

French Lick

ALBUM:

1	GLIDER	(Private Pressing)	1976

A guitar driven progressive outfit. The few known copies have a paste-on cover and an insert.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fresh Air

ALBUM:

1	A BREATH OF FRESH AIR	(Amaret ST 5003)	1969 R1/R2

The rarest release on Amaret (a label mainly known for the albums by Crow), it's a good mix of pop and hard psyche, with heavy guitar and organ.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Friar Tuck

Personnel:

- MIKE DEASY (Friar Tuck) gtr A
- BEN BENAY gtr A
- BUTCH PARKER piano A
- MIKE HENDERSON organ A
- JIM TROXEL drms A
- JERRY SCHEFF bs A
- TOXIE FRENCH vibes A
- SANDY SALISBURY vcls A
- CURT BOETTCHER vcls A

ALBUM:

1. PSYCHEDELIC GUITAR (Dot/Mercury/MGZ 1111/SR 61111) 1967

45:

1. Alley-Oop/Sweet Pea (Mercury 72684) 1967

This album was produced by Curt Boettcher and was a studio-only project. Mike Deasy was 'Friar Tuck' and is so depicted on the cover. A survivor from the instrumental and surf scenes he'd be involved in many other Los Angeles studio projects and outfits, often with Curt Boettcher and others of this particular clique of seasoned session musicians. These include Flower Pot, Ceyleib People, Your Gang and Gator Creek. Not one of Boettcher's greatest, the album does nonethless include vocal tracks from the pre Sagittarius and Millennium outfit Ballroom.

Scheff, Troxel and French also recorded as Goldenrod.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Friedles to Frost

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Friedles
- Friend and Lover
- The Friendly Torpedos
- Friends of The Family
- Friendship
- Friendsound
- Frijid Pink
- Froggie Beaver
- Frolk Haven
- Front Line
- Front Office
- The Front Page News
- The Front Page Review
- The Fronts
- Frost

Friedles

TOP

Personnel:

- MIKE FRIED gtr
- MILT FRIED vcls
- SIMON FRIED bs
- HERMAN FRIED gtr

45s:

1. The Joke's On You/? (Not Released) 196?
2. * I Lost Her/I'm So Glad (Scope 4818) 1965
3. I Lost Her/I'm So Glad (Hanna H 1001) 1965
4. She Can Go/Don't Tell Me What To Do (Bat B 1004) 196?
5. When Love/Love The Way You Loved Me (Not Released) 1968

* Released as by The Fried Brothers.

Penns Grove, in the Southwestern tip of New Jersey, was home to this band of four brothers. They started off with a pretty primitive punk sound typified by I Lost Her and Don't Tell Me What To Do, but in mid-career were also influenced by bands like The Zombies and Searchers as evidenced on She Can Go. By 1968, they were experimenting with psychedelia. Sadly When Love was not released at the time but it's full of whining vocals and psyched-out guitar. Alas! Despite experimenting with a horn section and female back-up vocalists they vanished back into obscurity but you can hear their finer moments:. I Lost Her, She Can Go, Don't Tell Me What To Do and When Love on the Attack Of The Jersey Teens compilation.

Friend_and_Lover

TOP

Personnel:

JIM POST (FRIEND)	vcls, gtr	A
? (LOVER)	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	REACH OUT OF THE DARKNESS	(Verve Forecast FTS 3055)	1968

45s:

1	Zig Zag/If Love Is In Your Heart	(Verve/Forecast 5091)	196?

NB: (1) also released in France with a picture sleeve. There was also a German 45 with picture sleve: Reach Out Of The Darkness/Time On Your Side (Verve Forecast 518006) 1968

A male/female pop duo whose only album was produced by Joe South and Buddy Buie and recorded in Atlanta. It's mainly notable for the pop raga Room To Let with its sitar.

Jim Post, who wrote all the songs, would later record some singer/songwriter albums in a James Taylor mould.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Friendly Torpedos

TOP

Personnel:

- SEAN BONNIWELL
- PAUL BUFF

45:

1. Nothing's Too Good For My Car/ So Long Ago (Original Sound 95) 1970

This was a Los Angeles-based studio only product of Sean Bonniwell and Paul Buff, the studio whizz behind the Music Machine's recordings. For Bonniwell completists only, it is very disappointing compared to his previous output: the 'A' is inane pop whilst the flip is country-style pop! Paul Buff would issue a similarly odd 45 as Mad Andy's Twist Combo on the same label. (Max Waller)

Friends of The Family

Personnel:

- JIMMY CRAWFORD drms A B
- TED MUNDA ld vcls, gtr A B
- JOHN RHOADES bs A
- WAYNE WATSON ld gtr A B
- RAY ANDREWS bs,vcls B
- LINZEE LEE keyb'ds, vcls B

ALBUM:

1. (A(B) THE SONGS OF TED MUNDA (Distortions DB 1003) 1991
2. (A/B) THE ENFIELDS AND THE FRIENDS OF THE FAMILY (Get Hip GHAS 5000) 1993

NB: (2) duplicates some of the same material as (1).

45:

1. Can't Go Home/How You Gonna Keep Your Little Girl Home (Smash S-2144) 1968

Upon the demise of The Enfields (a Wilmington, Delaware outfit), Ted Munda quickly formed another band with John Rhoades and two former members of another local band The Turfs, Wayne Watson and Jimmy Crawford. In May 1967 they entered the Virtue Recording Studios in Philadelphia to record a six song demo, which several labels (including Kama Sutra) expressed an interest in but none would actually release. The tracks - Time Music, Wallace, He Plays With Frogs, Funny Flowers, Blue Boat Makes Me Sad, Jello Lights and Bambi's March - can now all be heard on the Distortions/Get Hip retrospectives. They perfectly showcase Munda's fine songwriting and breathtaking Zombies-style vocals.

John Rhoades left the band in the late Summer of '67, being replaced by Linzee Lee and Ray Andrews, and a further five original songs (You See I've Got This Cold, Last Beach Crusade, Hot Apple Betty, Together and Sing A Song) were recorded in July '68. These tunes were arguably Munda's finest work, with a Beatles/Left Banke feel, and can be found on the Get Hip CD retrospective. They were all passed over at the time, however, in favour of the two tracks Can't Go Home and How You Gonna Keep Your Little Girl Home, which were penned by Cameo Parkway staff writer Neil Brian. In fact, the band were only allowed to sing on these two cuts, with hired session musicians playing all the instruments. Subsequently, the band fell out with label owner/producer Joe Renzetti, and went their own way... they didn't record again, but did get to open for The Who and Pink Floyd at the Philadelphia Music Festival in late '68, shortly before they split.

Ted Munda went on to play with Hotspur, who released an album on Columbia in 1974, and later in the '80s, an outfit called State Of Heart. He has also written some children's books.

Both the Get Hip/Distortions retrospectives, come with detailed liner notes from Dave Brown, from which this entry has largely been taken. (Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

Friendship

Personnel:

- DAVE HOFFMAN
- MIKE GILSON
- KIT GROVE
- DUANE LANGNESS

ALBUM:

1. THE FRIENDSHIP ALBUM (Friendship FR 3/4) c1973

When Dave Hoffman and Mike Gilson left The Unbelievable Uglies in 1973 they formed Friendship. A very talented group with exceptional vocals and strong, solid musicianship, their album was recorded in their own studio in the Fargo-Moorhead area (on the Minnesota / North Dakota border). It consists soley of cover versions of older hits.

The band had a very good local following in the few years they were together, playing mostly cover arrangements of Beach Boys and Beatles songs.

Friendsound

Personnel:

- CHRIS ETHERIDGE bs
- DRAKE LEVIN gtr
- MIKE SMITH drms
- PHIL VOLK bs
- RON COLLINS organ
- JIM GORDON drms

ALBUM:

1. JOYRIDE (RCA Victor LSP-4114) 1969

A strange, haunting album of acid-inspired experimental weirdness, which is worth seeking out and is becoming a minor collectors' item.

Drake Levin, Mike Smith and Phil Volk were all ex-Paul Revere And The Raiders and together with Ron Collins also recorded as Brotherhood. (Jeroen Tenkink/Vernon Joynson)

Frijid Pink

Personnel:

TOM BEAUDRY	bs	A
KELLY GREEN	ld vcls	A
RICH STEVERS	drms, tympani	A B
GARY THOMPSON	gtr	A
TOM HARRIS		B
JOHN WEARING	ld vcls	B
CRAIG WEBB	ld gtr	B
LARRY ZELANKA	piano, organ	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	FRIJID PINK	(Parrot 71033)	1970 11
2(A)	FRIJID PINK DEFROSTED	(Parrot 71041)	1970 149
3(B)	EARTH OMEN	(Lion LN-1004)	1972
4(B)	ALL PINK INSIDE	(Fantasy 9464)	1975

NB: (1) and 2 also issued in France (Deram SML-R 1062 and 1077 respectively). All albums have been reissued on CD. (1) with two extra tracks, (2) with four bonus cuts and (3) with two non-album 45 cuts from 1972. (2) also released in Colombia with a different cover (London) 19??. There's also a German compilation, In The Beginning (Teldec) 1973.

45s:

1	Tell Me Why/Cryin'Shame	(Parrot 334)	1969 -
2	Drivin' Blues/God Gave Me You	(Parrot 340)	1969 -
3	House Of The Rising Sun/Drivin' Blues	(Parrot 341)	1969 7
4	Sing A Song For Freedom/End Of The Line	(Parrot 349)	1970 55
5	Heartbreak Hotel/Bye Bye Blues	(Parrot 352)	1970 72
6	Music For The People/Sloony	(Parrot 355)	1971 -
7	Shortly Kline/We're Gonna Be There	(Parrot 358)	1971 -
8	I Love Her/Lost Son	(Parrot 360)	1972 -
9	Earth Omen / Lazy Day	(Lion 115)	1972 -
10	Go Now / Lazy Day	(Lion 136)	1972 -
11	Big Betty / Shady Lady	(Lion 158)	1973 -

NB: (3), (4) and (7) also issued with picture sleeves in France (Deram 17044, DM 309, DM 336 respectively) 1970. There was also a German picture sleeve 45: Rainbow Rider / Earth Omen (MGM 2006130) 1973.

From Detroit, Michigan this act were another fine example of the local hard rock and blues scene. Although they actually enjoyed three top 100 hits in the US, by far their finest moment was their highly original rock arrangement of House Of The Rising Sun (a traditional popularised by Dylan and The Animals), also notable for some superb guitar work. You'll find this on Michigan Rocks, Vol. 2.

Produced by Michael Valvano, their debut album also sold well, peaking at No. 11 in the Charts. Apart from House Of The Rising Sun and Cryin' Shame (written by Valvano), all their material was written by Beaudry and Thompson. Recorded in New York and entirely composed of original tracks penned and produced by the group, the second album also met with some commercial success, climbing to No 149. Both albums combine hard rock and blues and are enjoyable if you like this style.

The group then broke up and Rick Stevers assembled a new line-up. Recorded in Toronto, the third album, Earth Omen, was produced by Vinnie Testa and Clyde Stevers and is more heavy in style, with keyboards and some harder guitar work. Some ballads were also now included on here and are not their most interesting aspect. Lion Records was a subsidiary of MGM.

A fourth and final album was released on Fantasy in 1975, with an unknown line-up and style.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Froggie Beaver

Personnel:

- JOHN TROIA ld vcls A
- JOHN FISCHER vc[s, gtr A
- ED STASZKO keyb'ds, vcls A
- RICK BROWN drms, vcls, perc A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FROM THE POND (Froggie Beaver 7310) 1973

NB: (1) reissued on CD by Gear Fab (GF-13) 1999, with five bonus tracks - the two 45 cuts, plus three unreleased tracks from 1973.

45:

1. Nothing For Me Here/Movin' On (Million 34) 1972

The band originated from Omaha, Nebraska. Melodic, progressive rock rather than psychedelic or garage they are a marginal case for inclusion here. The album has become a minor collectable.

Frolk Heaven

Personnel:

- CHARLES OSTMAN gtr, bs, cla, vcls A
- BAILEY PENDERGRASS vcls A
- STUART COPELAND drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) AT THE APEX OF HIGH (LRS RT-6032) 1970

NB: (1) reissued in 1996.

As many of you will have noticed from the personnel details above this San Diego, Ca., outfit contained Stuart

Copeland (before he joined Curved Air/The Police). Inevitably, then, some collectors seek it out. It's a very experimental, but for the most part tedious progressive, with some psychedelic sound effects in places. (Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Front Line

Personnel incl:

- BILL BOWEN drms
- GARY PHILLIPET keyb'ds

45s:

1. I Don't Care/Got Love (York 9000) 1966
2. Saigon Girl/Three Day Pass (Titan 2001) 1967

From Marin County, this band were once known as The Turtles until The Crossfires took their name. The 'A' side of the 45 has some nice pipey organ, the flip resurfaced on Psychedelic Unknowns, Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 2 and Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1.

Phillipet had previously played with Pullice and Electric Train and was later in Freedom Highway and Copperhead. Bill Bowen too had been in Electric Train and joined the Sons Of Champlin in late '66.

(Max Waller / Alec Palao / Stephane Rebeschini)

Front Office

45:

1. Girl/Wow (Mijji 3007) 1967

Probably from California (San Jose) since the 45 was issued on the same label as the Venus Flytrap 45. You'll find Wow on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6 and Everything You've Always Wanted To Know.... CD.

The Front Page News

Personnel:

- SAM ROUTH
- GARY SMITH
- DAVID WADLEY

45:

1. Thoughts/You Better Behave (Dial 4052) Jan. 1967

Came out of Fort Worth, Texas with Thoughts - one of the State's best fuzz guitar songs. You can find it on the Magic Cube, Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 4 or Gone, Vol. 1 compilations. More recently, it has reappeared on Big Beat's I Turned Into A Helium Balloon (CD). Unlike some previous comps, these are bona-fide 100% legit, so they get access to the master tapes which are used wherever possible. This can throw up the odd anomaly and here's a good 'un. Has anyone else spotted that the CD version of Thoughts sounds a little different, like SLOWER? The original 45 track is 2:45 and, yes, the CD track is several seconds longer. Having retimed both and played 45 & CD simultaneously, I can only surmise that the original 45 was mastered at the incorrect speed and that the transfer for the CD was done at the correct speed, since the CD version actually sounds RIGHT - though it does take some getting used to. File this useless info alongside Mad River's first album mis-master, for conversation stoppin' trivia....

A master remix version of Thoughts, plus You Better Behave, appear on Collectables' Human Expression & Other Groups: Your Mind Works In Reverse CD, whose liner notes reveal the personnel above and inform us that the band were actually the New Imperials from Tulsa, Oklahoma. The name change came about after recording the single in Fort Worth with producer Edwin Greines (who'd worked with the Penthouse 5).

You Better Behave is also now available on Tymes Gone By comp.

(Max 'Myndblown' Waller)

Personnel:

RICHARD BARTLETT	gtr	A
THOMAS BELLIVEAU	bs	A
STEVE CATALDO	vcls, gtr	A
DAVID CHRISTIANSEN	gtr	A
JOSEPH SANTANGELO	piano, organ	A
DAVID WEBER	drms	A

CD:

1(A)	MYSTIC SOLDIERS	(Big Beat CDWIKD 166)	1996

Based in Boston, they initially played covers around the Boston clubs until songwriter Steve Cataldo joined the group in late 1967. Signed to MGM Records, they recorded an album in April/May 1968, produced by Alan Lorber, who was responsible for Bosstown Sound Productions. It's release was delayed by the numerous releases of the other MGM Bosstown acts; and when the band broke up before the album's imminent release, the label decided not to proceed without a functioning band to support it. It was finally released (on CD) in 1996.

The album is less psychedelic than some of the other Bosstown releases i.e Ultimate Spinach, Beacon Street Union and is more like early prog - similar in some ways to Detroit's SRC. Prophecies/Morning Blue opens with the sounds of children playing, over which elegiac voices intone predictions of nuclear holocaust. After a gradual accelaration, the music suddenly lurches at the point of climax into a heavily syncopated, frenetic jazz piano solo in 5/4 time. Prism Fawn has an imperious organ/guitar riff and a driving beat. One Eyed Minor is a jaunty piece in a folkdance rhythm and Feels Like Love is a nondescript rocker, but Silver Children has a pleasant relaxed groove and Valley Of Eyes is another intense apocalyptic piece with flanged drums and bluesy 1968-style fuzz guitar. Without

You is a dull proto-70s softrocker and For The Best Offer ends the album in a tone of enigmatic whimsy. Overall an enjoyable addendum to the Bosstown canon.

Cataldo later recorded as St. Steven, whilst Bartlett was in Brother Fox And The Tar Baby. Later still, Cataldo formed the punk band Nervous Eaters and played guitar on some Willie Alexander recordings. Essentially the band played good soft-psych.

The bonus cuts on the reissue of the One St Stephen album are actually by Front Page Review.

(Vernon Joynson/Lloyd Peasley)

The Fronts

TOP

Probably from Texas hence the inclusion of Catch A Thief and Slash and Drip on Acid Visions, Box Set 2 (CD).

Frost

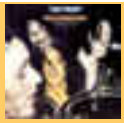
TOP

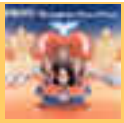
45:

1. Cool Jerk/Behind The Closed Doors Of Her Mind (Radex 68301) 1968

From Freeport, Illinois. The 'A' side is a cover of The Capitols song, (also covered by the U.K. Creation).

(Max Waller)





© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Frost to The Fugitives

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Frost
- Max Frost and The Troopers
- Frumious Bandersnatch
- Fruit of The Loom
- The Fugitives
- The Fugitives
- The Fugitives
- The Fugitives (Bill Allan and)
- The Fugitives
- The Fugitives
- The Fugitives

Frost

TOP

Personnel:

- GORDY GARRIS bs, vcls A
- DON HARTMAN gtr, vcls A
- BOB RIGGS drms A
- DICK WAGNER gtr, vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) FROST MUSIC (Vanguard VSD-6520) 1969 168
2. (A) ROCK AND ROLL MUSIC (Vanguard VSD - 6541) 1969 148
3. (A) THROUGH THE EYES OF FROST (Vanguard VSD - 6556) 1970 197
4. () EARLY FROST (Vanguard VSD-79392) 1978

NB: (1), (2) and (3) have been reissued on CD.

45s:

1. Bad Girl/A Rainy Day (Date 1577) 1968
2. Mystery Man/Sand In The Shadows (Vanguard 35089) 1969

3. Linda/Sweet Lady Love (Vanguard 35099) 1969
4. Donny's Blues/Rock And Roll Music (Vanguard 35101) 1969
5. Rock And Roll Music/Donny's Blues (Vanguard 35111) 1969 105
6. A Long Way From Home/Black As Night (Vanguard 35115) 1970

NB: (1) credited to Dick Wagner and The Frost. (5) also issued in France with picture sleeve (Vanguard 119017) 1969.

A Michigan-based rock outfit whose recorded output may be of some passing interest to readers. They were originally called Dick Wagner & The Frost under which name they released the 45 on Date and Dick Wagner had earlier led the Flint-based Bossmen.

Whilst Frost enjoyed Top 100 hit singles, their albums all sold reasonably well too.

Dick Wagner later went on to Ursa Major. You'll find Rock And Roll Muslc on Michigan Rocks Vol. 1.

(Max Waller / T.R. Black)

Max Frost and The Troopers

TOP

ALBUM:

1. SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME (Tower ST 4147) 1968

45s:

1. Stomper's Ride/There ls A Party Going On (Sidewalk 938) 1968
2. Shape Of Things To Come/Free Lovin' (Tower 419) 1968 22
3. 52%/Max Frost Theme (Tower 452) 1968 123
4. Sittin' In Circles/Paxton Quigley's Had The Course (PS) (Tower 478) 1969 -

NB: (4) 'B' side is by Chad & Jeremy.

This 'group' were actually Dave Allan and The Arrows, or at least the tracks on the Shapes Of Things album are the more punky psychedelic cuts from all the soundtracks Dave Allan and The Arrows made like Wild On The Streets, which contained 52% and Shape Of Things To Come. As these albums were released on Tower many consider that there is almost certainly a connection with The Chocolate Watch Band, especially as we know the latter didn't play on all their studio cuts.

The movie 'Wild In The Streets' starred Chris Jones as Max Frost and the Californian band Davie Allan and The Arrows appeared in the film as the backing band. The band had also earlier appeared in the film, 'Three In The Attic', which featured their Sittin' In Circles 45, and the flip by Chad & Jeremy.

Confusingly, it is also claimed that the ubiqutous Michael Lloyd (of The Smoke etc.) had some involvement with Max Frost and The Troopers, and that The Smoke may have been responsible for some of the recordings.

Compilation appearances have so far included: Lonely Man, from 1967 on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 2 (LP) and Vol. 1/2 (CD), Sixties Archives Vol. 8 and Lysergic Soup Vol.1; and Shape Of Things To Come on Rhino's Nuggets Vol.12: Punk Part Three.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster)

Frumious Bandersnatch

TOP

Personnel:

- DAVID DENNY ld gtr, vcls A C D E F
- BRIAN HOUGH bs A B
- JACK KING drms, vcls A B C D E F
- GEORGE TICKNER gtr A B
- KAJA DORIA vcls B
- BRET WILMOT ld gtr B
- ROSS VALORY bs, vcls C
- JIMMY WARNER ld gtr, vcls C D
- BOB WINKELMAN rhythm gtr, vcls, (bs) C D E F
- JACK NOTESTEIN bs, vcls D E

CD:

1. A YOUNG MAN'S SONG (Big Beat CDWIKD 169) 1996

EP:

1. (C) LIMITED EDITION (Muggles Gramophone Works) 1968

From Oakland, California, Frumious Bandersnatch came into existence when All Night Flight (line-up 'A' above) decided to change their name, and chose Frumious Bandersnatch from Lewis Carroll's "Jabberwocky" poem. The bands lynchpin, Jack King, had previously played with Shades Blue Ltd. and Denny had also been a surf act called The Breakers.

Lineup 'B' recorded just two tracks, Now That You're Gone plus an early version of Cheshire in October 1967. Neither was released at the time, but both have subsequently been included on A Young Man's Song CD retrospective. The band broke up at the end of the year when all their equipment was stolen; but after a short hiatus the band reformed as lineup 'C', with Bob Winkelman joining from The Epics while Warner and Vallory were recruited from The Good Timers.

This lineup recorded their classic EP which looked all set to make it big by the Summer of 1968. This contained three tracks Heart To Cry, Misty Cloudy and Cheshire. On the first of these, Warner, Winkelman and Denny put together some of the finest acid guitar playing to come out of San Francisco, but the bands drug and alcohol-fueled manager Jim Nixon effectively killed their chances of getting a major label deal with his obnoxious behaviour (the group apparently had plenty of offers).

After Valory left to join Faun in late 1968, the band gradually lost impetus and finally broke up in late 1969; Tickner and later joined Valory in Faun and both were later founder-members of Journey. Winkelman, Denny, King and Vallory all later played at some time in The Steve Miller Band.

In 1995 Big Beat reissued their seminal EP as part of the CD, The Berkeley EP's (Big Beat CDWKD 153), along with the June 1966 effort by Country Joe and The Fish, The Mad River and Notes From The Underground EPs. The following year they put together a passionate but unpolished collection of Frumious Bandersnatch rarities including live recordings, studio-outtakes etc, which with it's 73 minute running time is definitely worth investingating.

Hearts To Cry from their EP can also be heard on Endless Journey, Phase 3.

For more information check the following website: http://www.daviddenny.com/

(Vernon Joynson / Lloyd Peasley)

Fruit of The Loom

TOP

Personnel:

- CRUNCHY CRYSTALS gtr x
- JOHN KOZMO bs x
- PANAMA RED vcls x
- SNIDELY WHIPLASH drms x

ALBUMS:

1. () KEEP ON TRUCKIN' (Trash 1001) 1971
2. (x) SPOILEN ROTTEN (Westbound WB 2008) 1972

NB: (1) and (2) as Fruit. (1) also released on Westbound (WB 2005).

45:

1. One Hand In Darkness/A Little Bit Of Bach (Loom 101) 1967

An obscure self-pressed 45. One Hand In Darkness can be heard on Echoes In Time, Vol. 2. From Detroit, Michigan this outfit shortened their name to Fruit and had two LPs in the early seventies. Personnel on the last LP was Panama Red (vcls), Crunchy Crystals (gtr), John Kozmo (bs) and Snidely Whiplash (drms)!!

The Fugitives

45s:

1. Louie, Go Home/You Know She's A Woman (Alamo Audio 108) 1966
2. 'Till The End Of The Day/Ferry Gross The Mersey (Roun Sound 69,70) 1967

A British-influenced garage band based in San Antonio, Texas. The 'A' side of their first 45 is pretty good, and the flip is a slow organ lead sloucher. You check them out on Texas Punk, 1966.- Vol. 9 and Sixties Rebellion Vol's 1 & 2 (CD) respectively.

This lot were unconnected to the Houston band of the same name who included Sid Templeton and Steve Headley (later of The Lavender Hour and briefly The Clique) but did not record. There was also a garage band called The Fugitives in Austin in 1964-5 which didn't make it onto vinyl. They included Rocky Erickson (later of The Spades and the 13th Floor Elevators) and George Kinney (later of Chelsea and The Golden Dawn).

The Fugitives

Personnel incl:

- GARY QUACKENBUSH A
- GLEN QUACKENBUSH A
- ELMER CLAWSON A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) THE FUGITIVES AT DAVE'S HIDEOUT (Hideout 1001) 1965

45s:

1. A Fugitive (vcl)/A Fugitive (instr) (D-Town 1031) 1965
2. On Trial/Let's Get On With It (D-Town 1044) 1965
3. You Can't Make Me Lonely/I Don't Wanna Talk (Westchester 1002) 1965

The Hideout was a Detroit teen club and record company run by Dave Leone and Ed 'Punch' Andrews. The Fugitives (who were originally known as The Tremolos) and came from Birmingham (a relatively affluent Detroit suburb) were the first band they discovered. They appeared playing songs like Louie, Louie on the opening night of the Hideout and were also the first band to be recorded on the associated Hideout record label, although they did have earlier recordings on the local D-Town label which are hopelessly rare. Their album, which was recorded in a basement and then re-recorded to include fake applause and audience approval, was a mixture of cover versions like Louie, Louie and Love Potion No 9 and originals like Friday At The Hideout. Just 500 copies were pressed and consequently they now change hands for a lot of money. Back then, copies were sold at the club for $3 each. The core of the band evolved into the Scot Richard Case and SRC. Your best chance of hearing what they sounded like would be to access On Trial on Glimpses, Vol. 3 or Said Goodbye (from their album) on Oil Stains (which has itself long been deleted).

Said Goodbye plus both sides of the Westchester 45 were also featured on an impossibly rare 1965 compilation Friday At The Cage A Go Go which was recently reissued as Long Hot Summer.

The Fugitives

TOP

45:

1. You Can't Blame That On Me/I'll Hang Around (Fenton 2075) 196?

This was the work of a teen outfit from West Michigan. The 'A' side, a typical teenbeat recording with muffled background screams and 'Wipeout' drumming, has resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 3 and you'll find the flip on The Best Of Michigan Rock Groups, Vol. 1.

The Fugitives (Bill Allan and)

TOP

Personnel incl:

- BILL ALLAN

45:

1. Come On And Clap/You're The Kind Of Girl (Trend 101) 1966

Also known as Bill Allan and The Fugitives, they came from Madison, Wisconsin and only made this one 45. The 'A' side, Come On And Clap, is a frantic if poorly produced rocker and can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 15: Wisconsin, Part 2. and Mondo Frat Dance Bash A Go Go (CD).

The Fugitives

TOP

Personnel:

- MICK RUSSELL ld gtr A

- JOE RUSSELL keyb'ds A
- RICHARD DONLAVEY ld vcls A
- JIMMY SICKAL bs A
- TOMMY SICKAL rhythm gtr A
- BUSTER BYARD drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ON THE RUN WITH THE FUGITIVES (Justice 141) 19?

NB: (1) reissued on CD by Collectables (COL-CD-0613) 1996.

Yet more Fugitives. This was a rare garage album by an outfit from Richmond, Virginia, originally issued on the collectable 'Justice' label. Comprising four originals and eight covers - including Turn On Your Love Light,Tossing And Turning, You Can't Catch Me, Ebb Tide and Get Out Of My LifeWoman - it's one of the better Justice offerings.The title track from the album has also been compiled on Hipsville 29 B.C., Vol. 2. (Max Waller)

The Fugitives

Personnel:

- EVAN CHARMATZ
- RAY CHARMATZ
- PHIL FELICIOTTO
- TOM JOHANSON

45s:

1. Mean Woman/I'll Be A Man (Columbia 4-43261) 1965
2. Your Girl's A Woman/She Believes In Me (Mala 533) 1966

Mindrocker, Vol. 7 captures this group's finest moment Mean Woman - melodic swinging beat with ringing guitars that nod more towards The Ventures than The Byrds. It's a shame their other material veered towards harmony pop/Four Seasons sounds.

Johanson hailed from New London, Connecticut; the other three from Manhattan. The Fugitives may have also spent some time in Florida.

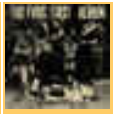
(Max Waller / Mike Dugo)

The Fugitives

45:

1. I Miss You Girl/This Is It (Clevetown CTXP-128) 1965

Good garage-beat by an outfit from Warren, Pennsylvania, according to Mike Kuzmin's 'Sounds From The Woods'. (Max Waller)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Fugs to Future

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Fugs
- Bobby Fuller Four
- Fumin' Humins
- Fun and Games (Commission)
- Funkadelic
- The Furniture
- Furniture Store
- Fuse
- Fusion
- Future

The Fugs

TOP

Personnel:

JOHN ANDERSON	bs, gtr	A B
TULI KUPFERBERG	tamb, maracas	A B C D
VINNY LEARY	gtr	A B
ED SANDERS	tamb, maracas	A C
PETE STAMPFEL	gtr, fiddle, hrmnca	A
KEN WEAVER	drms	A B C D
KEN PINE	gtr, vcls	B C D
STEVE WEBER	gtr	A B
DANNY KOOTCH	gtr	B C
CHARLIE LARKEY	bs	B C D
BOB MASON	drms	C
JIM PEPPER	flte	D
DAN HAMBURG	gtr	D

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1(A)	THE VILLAGE FUGS SINGS BALLADS OF TEMPORARY PROTEST	(Broadside 304)	1966 R1
2(A)	THE FUGS FIRST ALBUM	(ESP-Disk 1018)	1966 SC
3(A)	THE FUGS	(ESP-Disk 1028)	1966 SC
4(A)	VIRGIN FUGS	(ESP-Disk 1038)	1967

5()	FUGS 4, ROUNDERS SCORE	(ESP-Disk 2018)	1967
6(B)	TENDERNESS JUNCTION	(Reprise R(S)-6280)	1967
7(C)	IT CRAWLED INTO MY HAND, HONEST	(Reprise RS-6305)	1968
8(-)	BELLE OF AVENUE A (Comp.)	(Reprise RS-6359)	1969
9()	GOLDEN FILTH	(Reprise RS-6396)	1970

NB: (2) is a reissue of (1). (1), (2) and (3) also released in France (ESP 538 114, 538115 and 538116 respectively) 1968. (4) and (5) released in France (Vogue/Reprise CRV 6083 and 6095) 1968/1969. (9) is a live set from the Fillmore East. (2) were reissued on CD in 1995 with live bonus tracks. (2) reissued on CD and Double LP (Abraxas) 1999 (3) reissued on CD (Fugs CDWIKD 121). (6) reissued on Edsel (XED 181) 1966, and (8) on (ED 217) 1987. Also of interest are Star Piece (dble LP/CD), Live From The 60s (Fugs CDWIKD 125), No More Slavery (Fugs CDWIKD 145), Refuse To Be Burnt Out - Live In The '80s (New Rose 56) 1985 (LP) and (Fugs CDWIKD 139) (CD), The Real Woodstock Festival Dble CD (CDWIK2 160) and The Folkways Sessions.

45s:

1	Crystal Liason/?	()	19??

The Fugs set out to shock people. They started in the mid-sixties in New York's Greenwich Village as a group of poets who decided to sing. However, music was always of secondary importance to The Fugs, but it acted as a vehicle for their works and visuals, which concentrated on sex, drugs and politics.

Virgin Fugs is for me their best album, although Tenderness Junction and It Crawled Into My Hand Honest are many peoples favourites, along with their classic debut. Virgin Fugs was actually their second album, but when ESP refused to release it, The Fugs was recorded in its place. It contained such gems as We're The Fugs, Hallucination Horrors, CIA Man and I Saw The Best Minds Of My Generation Rot which was written by Beat Poet Allen Ginsberg, who was for a time a member of the band. The lyrics to We're The Fugs are atypical of the taboo subjects they set out to deal with.

'We Hate War
We Love Sex
Twos or threes
Four or Fives
LSD A dimethylatr'
(from We're The Fugs)

More vintage Fugs lyrics can be heard on Hallucination Horrors:-

'Benzedrine
Mescaline
Pot and LSD
I Need Aquamorphine
Hallucination Horrors is what I've got
Hallucination Horrors is what I've got
(from Hallucination Horrors)

Both Virgin Fugs and The First Album featured Holy Modal Rounders, Ed Sanders and Peter Stampfel.

The Fugs' album had some tracks of interest. For example, it contained the satirical Kill For Peace, the druggy Coming Down and the ambitious, typically crude freakout Virgin Forest.

After Virgin Fugs, the band changed to the Transatlantic label and their fourth album contained Out Demons Out, the peace anthem later adopted by The Edgar Broughton Band.

Although they are something of an acquired taste, no record collection is complete without at least one Fugs album.

The Fugs reformed for Refuse To Be Burnt Out, which they recorded live at the Bottom Line, New York. It contains reworked and rewritten songs from the sixties plus new material. The new line-up contained Sanders and Kupferberg from the earlier line-up and newcomers Steve Taylor (gtr), Coby Bafty (drms), Mark Kramer (bs), and Vin Leary (gtr). Further Fugs reunions resulted in the Star Piece studio album,

Bobby Fuller Four

TOP

Personnel:

BOBBY FULLER	gtr, vcls	A B
RANDY FULLER	bs	A B
DEWAYNE QUIRICO	drms	A
JIM REESE	gtr	A B
DALTON POWELL	drms	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	KRLA KING OF THE WHEELS	(Mustang M(S) 900)	1965
2(B)	I FOUGHT THE LAW	(Mustang M(S) 901)	1966

NB: (2) has been reissued by Line. (1) and (2) were issued on one CD by Del-Fi (DFCD 956). Besides these two albums there are many posthumous releases: Memorial Album (President PTL PTL 1003) 1967, The Best Of (Rhino RNDF-201) 1982, The Bobby Fuller Tapes (Rhino RNLP-047) 1984, The Bobby Fuller Tapes, Vol. 2 (Voxx LP-100) 1985, Live At PJs (Del-Fi DFCD 13142) and Shakedown! The Texas Tapes Revisited (2 CD set on Del-Fi, 1996, recorded between 1961 and 1964). Eva have also issued two albums: I Fought The Law (Eva 12032) and Live Again (Eva 12046) 198?.

EPs:

1	Love's Made A Fool Of You/I Fought The Law/Don't You Ever Let Me Know	(London 10179)	1966
2	Wine Wine Wine / Baby I Don't Care / Not Fade Away / Pretty Girls Everywhere (PS)	(Eva 2003)	198?

NB: (1) is a rare French only EP with PS, estimated value $300.

45s:

(selective)

1	King Of The Beach/Wine, Wine, Wine	(Exeter 122)	1964 -
2	I Fought The Law/Little Annie Lou	(Mustang 3014)	1966 9
3	Let Her Dance/Don't You Ever Let Me Know	(Mustang 3016)	1966 26

NB: (2) and (3) were also released in the U.K. (London HLU 10030 and 10041). In the eighties Eva also released a bootleg 45: I Fought The Law / Shangai'd (Eva Jukebox 2) 198?.

With his blatant reverence for Buddy Holly, fellow Texan Bobby Fuller (born October 22nd, 1942) was a bit of an anomaly in the mid-sixties. With his Stratocaster guitar and brash, full sound, at his best Fuller sounded like Holly might have had he survived into the sixties. Cracking the Top 30 in 1966 with a cover of Holly's Love's Made A Fool Of You, and then the Top Ten with I Fought The Law (written by one-time Cricket Sonny Curtis and featuring future Moby Grape guitarist Jerry Miller), Fuller had just become a star when he died in mysterious circumstances in a parked car in Hollywood (the police thought it was a suicide, just about everyone who knew him disagreed). Fuller's relatively short period of national stardom actually crowned a good half-dozen years of recording, during which he released many outstanding tracks. After a few local singles in his hometown of El Paso in the early sixties, he moved to California with his combo in 1964, and briefly had aspirations of playing surf music before hooking up with producer Bob Keene. In the short time he recorded for Mustang in 1965 and 1966, he waxed quite a few fine tracks (most self-penned) besides his hits, including Let Her Dance, Another Sad And Lonely Night, My True Love, Never To Be Forgotten, Fool Of Love, and The Magic Touch. Rocking, tuneful and infectiously joyous, they showed Fuller to be a worthy inheritor of early rock 'n' roll and rockabilly traditions without sounding self-consciously revivalist. While it's hard to imagine Fuller maintaining his success in the era of psychedelia, he no doubt would have gone on to produce interesting work.

A talented and prolific songwriter and a studio wiz who drew from Eddie Cochran and (though only slightly) the full guitar sound of the British Invasion as well as Buddy Holly, he recorded a great deal of unreleased studio and live material that was issued in the 1980s, when the depth of his loss began to be appreciated.

His brother Randy later joined Blue Mountain Eagle and Dewey Martin's Medecine Show.

Compilation coverage has included: Wine, Wine, Wine on Pebbles, Vol. 2 (LP + CD); I Fought The Law on Pebbles Box Set and Let Her Dance on Nuggets Vol.3: Pop.

(Vernon Joynson / James Lucas / Stephane Rebeschini)

Fumin' Humins

45:

1. Relative Distance/Queen (Angry Music Co. FH-2-67) 1967

This group comprised of students at Tabor Academy in Marion, Massachusetts, and according to Erik Lindgren's excellent sleeve notes for his An Overdose of Heavy Psych comp, was ltd to 500 copies. Relative Distance - features some great guitar and gave the title to Aram Heller's excellent New England nuggets LP Relative Distance. It has also been compiled on An Overdose..., but the flip, which features pleasant folk rock, remains uncompiled.

Fun and Games (Commission)

Personnel:

JOHN T. BONNO	bs	A
CARSON GRAHAM	drms	A B
D.J. GREER	piano, gtr, vcls	A
PAUL GUILLET	ld gtr	A B
SAM IRWIN	vcls, tamb	A B
ROCK ROMANO	gtr, vcls	A B
JOE DUGAN	keyb'ds	B
JOE ROMANO	bs, vcls	B

ALBUM:

1(A/B) ELEPHANT CANDY (UNI 73042) 1968

45s:

1	Today-Tomorrow/Someone Must Have Lied (To You)	(Mainstream 671)	1967
2	It Must Have Been The Wind/Holding Me Back	(Cinema)	196?
3	Elephant Candy	(UNI 55086)	1968
3	Elephant Candy/The Way She Smiles	(UNl 55086)	1968
4	The Grooviest Girl In The World/It Must Have Been The Wind	(UNI 55098)	1968 78
5	We/Gotta Say Goodbye	(UNI 55128)	1969

NB: (1) as The Fun And Games Commission. (3) promo only.

From Texas, this band evolved out of The Six Pents. Bobby Shad of Mainstream signed them, with two 45s as Sixpentz, but when they discovered the similarly named Sixpence, changed names again to The Fun And Games Commission and their first 45 was released under this name. They played mostly well-crafted pop in the Millennium/Sagittarius mould, with production duties being handled by Gary Zekeley of Jan and Dean and Yellow Balloon fame.

The Grooviest Girl ln The World climbed to No 78 in the U.S. Top 100 and the band lasted until the late '60s/early '70s.

Joe Romano had also played with A 440 and most of the band were also involved with Mayo Thompson (of Red Crayola fame).

John Bonno and D. J. Greer retired from the band just before they signed with Uni records. Sam Irwin later formed Phoenix and now has the band Duck Soup out of Austin Texas. Rock Romano went on to form Doctor Rockit and the Sisters of Mercy. He and the Sisters split and he continued to front Doctor Rockit. He also played guitar and bass with The Sheetrockers and even played bass with Duck Soup for a while. He now has a recording studio in Houston. Carson Graham played drums for several other groups and Paul Guillet retired from the professional music scene. Joe Romano went on to write and record songs, including several children's songs for Sesame Street. He now performs with Susan Elliott as Mood Indigo in and around the Houston area. Joe Dugan also played with several other groups.

An early version of It Must Have Been The Wind (from the Cinema 45), with great vocals and some scorching guitar work, can be heard on the Psychotic Reactions compilation.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster)

Funkadelic

TOP

Personnel incl:

GEORGE CLINTON	vcls	A
BOOTSY COLLINS	bs, vcls	A
TIKI FULWOOD	drms	A
EDDIE HAZEL	gtr	A
GARY SHIDER	vcls	A
BERNIE WORRELL	keyb'ds	A

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1	FUNKADELIC	(Westbound 2000)	1970
2	FREE YOUR MIND AND YOUR ASS WILL FOLLOW	(Westbound 2001)	1970
3	MAGGOT BRAIN	(Westbound 2007)	1971
4	AMERICA EATS ITS YOUNG	(Westbound 2020)	1972

45s:
(up to 1970)

1	Music For My Mother/Same (instr.)	(Westbound 148)	1969
2	I'll Bet You/Open Your Eyes	(Westbound 150)	1970

Born in 1941 in North Carolina, George Clinton formed a doo-wop group, the Parliements, in the mid-fifties. After several line-up changes the Parliements had to wait until 1967 before they charted for the first time with the soul single (I Just Wanna) Testify. In 1968, Clinton formed Funkadelic and signed with Westbound, a new label created in Detroit by Armen Boladian (they also released several Teegarden and Van Winkle albums).

Funkadelic (for "Funk" and "Psychedelic") tried, rather successfully, to merge soul, funk, rock and psych and will interest fans of Sly And The Family Stone and Hendrix (a major influence on their guitarist, Eddie Hazel). In a slightly different style, another black group, The Temptations, tried to do the same with their Psychedelic Shack period.

Funkadelic kept on recording for Warner during the '70s and early '80s. Their albums were generally housed in highly colored sleeves and the musicians were among the first to wear exuberant science fiction outfits, with strange boots, glasses, feathers etc.. A very prolific musician but also an advised businessman, George Clinton managed to sign during the same core of musicians to different labels and therefore also formed Parliament(Invictus and Casablanca), the Brides Of Funkenstein (Atlantic), the Parlets, Botsy Collins Rubber Band (Warner) and the Horny Horns.

It should be noted that this George Clinton musn't be confused with the Californian white keyboards player who formed Timber, was an active sessionman and today composes soundtracks. It's also worth mentioning that the group backed Ruth Copeland on her album I Am What I Am (Invictus) 1971.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Furniture

TOP

45:

1. Keep On Running/l Love It Baby (Stature 1105) 1968

From Galesburg, Illinois. A good cover of The Spencer Davis hit by a Chicago band. The flip side later resurfaced on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 7 and Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD). (Max Waller)

Furniture Store

ALBUM:

1	NORTHERN FRONT PRESENT...	(Kader)	1975 SC

An acid rural folk group. The copies came with two inserts

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Fuse

Personnel:

- CHIP GREENMAN drms A
- CRAIG MEYERS ld gtr A
- RICK NIELSEN keyb'ds, gtr A
- TOM PETERSON bs A
- JOE SUNDBERG vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FUSE (Epic 26502) 1970

NB: (1) has been pirated as an exact duplicate.

45:

1. Cruisin' For Burgers/Hound Dog (Epic 10514) 1970

From Rockford, Illinois. The lineage of this band is reported to stretchback via certain members (Rick Nielsen is frequently mentioned) to the Phaetons, via the Boyz, and possibly the Huns. They were also known as Grim Reaper but changed their name to Fuse upon signing to Epic. Peterson and Nielson were also in Sick Man Of Europe and Nazz. Bassist Tom Peterson and Rick Nielson went on to play with Cheap Trick. This album is pretty heavy.

Fusion

Personnel:

- HARVEY LANE reeds A
- RICK LUTHER keyb'ds A
- GARY MARKER bs A
- RICHARD MATZKIN drms A
- BILL WOLFF gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BORDER TOWN (Atco 33-295) 1969

45:

1. Another Man / News Of Salena (Atco 6715) 1969

Unusually for a sixties LP, the sleeve notes to this album give a lengthy history of the members of the group. In doing so they fill in many of the missing pieces of the Los Angeles music scene jigsaw. Bill Wolff had been in Sound Machine, The Psychedelic Rangers (an early Doors incarnation) and the Peanut Butter Conspiracy, whilst Gary Marker had been in the Rising Sons with Ry Cooder and also Sound Machine.

Marker, Lane, Matzkin, Luther and Ry Cooder were also briefly in a band called 'The Jazz Folk', but when this group broke up Marker, Lane, Luther formed a goup 'The New World Jazz Company' with future Spirit members Ed Cassidy, John Locke and Randy California. When the later three went off to form Spirit, Kevin Kelly was brought in on drums to form the first version of Fusion but he quickly left to join the Byrds and Richard Matzkin was brought back in to finally form the group that recorded the above album, Border Town.

The record consists mainly of fairly ordinary blues rock with a lot of tasty slide guitar. Side two sees the group exploring some new areas with some jazz and country influences. The highlight of the album is the extended closing instrumental track Erebus which has a strong jazz rock feel. (Tony Allen / Max Waller)

Future

TOP

Personnel:

JIM BUNNELL	vcls	A
JIM BURDINE	vcls	A
JIM ODOM	vcls	A
(JAMES BURTON	gtr	A)
(DAVID COHEN	gtr	A)
(GENE ESTES	perc	A)
(JIM GORDON	drms	A)
(WALLY HOLMES	trumpet	A)
(MAC REBENNACK	piano	A)
(RED RHODES	steel gtr	A)
(LYLE RITZ	bs	A)
(MIKE RUBINI	piano	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	DOWN THAT COUNTRY ROAD	(Shamley SS703)	1968

45s:

1	The Shape Of Things To Come / 52%	(UNI 55082)	Aug. 1968
2	Raggedy Jack / Love Is All You've Got	(Shamley 44007)	1969

3	Thank You Father, Thank You Mother / Love Is All You've Got	(Shamley 44011)	1969

NB: (1) both sides state "From the American Int'l picture 'Wild In The Streets'". Both Shamley 45s contain tracks from the LP.

Produced by Norman Ratner (Leaves, Hook etc.) and Vic Briggs (of Eric Burdon and The Animals), Future was a Californian trio from Santa Monica. Their only album was released on the short-lived Shamley label (which also issued The Moonrakers and HMS Bounty). It's a competent mix of pop and country rock with vocal harmonies and a religious content in some lyrics.

All their material was original and written by Jim Bunnelle and Wally Holmes.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Ben Chaput/Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

G.T.O.'s to Gas Mask

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- G.T.O's (Girls Together Outrageously)
- Gables
- Gabriel Gladstar
- Galabooches
- Galactus
- The Galaxies
- The Galaxies IV
- Galaxy
- Gallows
- Game
- Gamma Goochee
- Gandalf
- Gandalf The Grey
- The Gang Of Saints
- The Gants
- Jerry Garcia
- Jerry Garcia and Howard Wales
- The Gas Company
- Gas Mask

G.T.O's (Girls Together Outrageously)

TOP

Personnel:

JEFF BECK	A
MISS CHRISTINE	A
MISS CINDERELLA	A
LOWELL GEORGE	A
MISS MERCY	A
MISS PAMELA	A
DON PRESTON	A
MISS SANDRA	A
And many others	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	PERMANENT DAMAGE	(Straight 1059)	1969

45:

1	Circular Circulation/Mercy's Tune	(Straight STS 104)	1969

The GTO's were formerly known as the Laurel Canyon Ballet Company. These five girls were signed to Straight after the label owner, Frank Zappa hired Miss Christine as a baby sitter and heard her songs. Zappa produced most of the album and invited some Mothers Of Invention to form the backing group: Jimmy Carl Black, Don Preston, Roy Estrada, Lowell George (who wrote and produced several tracks), Ian Underwood Jeff Beck, Rod Stewart and Nicky Hopkins also appear in places.

The songs are notably dealing with the groupies phenomenon and the original pressing came with a booklet "The Groupie Papers" . The GTO's also appeared on one track on the Wild Man Fischer album and on the inner gatefold of Three Dog Night's Suitable For Framing.

A long time girlfriend of Alice Cooper, Miss Christine died of an heroin overdose in 1972. Miss Pamela married Michael Des Barres, the singer of the english group Silverhead, and later wrote several books about her various experiences.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Gables

ALBUM:

1. SNAKE DANCE (Fleetwood) 196?

This obscure mid-sixties garage album is now a minor collectors' item.

Gabriel Gladstar

Personnel:

- MICHAEL GWINN vcls, gtr A
- PHILLIP MORGAN vcls, gtr A
- JIM ZEIGER vcls, perc, flute A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A GARDEN SONG (Canada/Flying Guitar no #) 1973 R2

NB: Reissued in the U.S. (Flying Guitar) 1981 in a black and white picture cover (R1).

This acoustic trio was based in Laguna Beach, California, in its formative years, but moved to Washington state in the early seventies and issued the first press there. They eventually returned to Laguna Beach and reissued the album in a newly - designed sleeve. The album is consistently good throughout, in a laid - back acoustic folk style, and is recommended to fans of the style. It was originally issued in a colour "peacock" sleeve. (Clark Faville)

Galabooches

45:

1. I'll Never Work It Out/She Doesn't Care (Staff 188) 196?

Came out of Gary, Indiana and were fronted by a 16 year old singer. The 'A' side of their Stones-influenced teen-rock 45 can be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 4, but it's nothing special.

Galactus

Personnel incl:

- BOB HOCKO

ALBUM:

1. COSMIC FORCE FIELD (Airship) 1971

This group was a later incarnation of The Swamp Rats and is in no way psychedelic. Hard/heavy Stones-influenced rock that suffers by comparison to their garage stuff - Not recommended - for completists only.

The Galaxies

Personnel:

- RON (BOB) LOWERY vcls A B C D
- MARK EUGANS sax, keyb'ds, bassoon A B C D
- BOB KOCH ld gtr A B C D
- CHUCK NAUBERT bs A B C
- RON RUSTAD sax A B C D
- BILL SLYTER drms A
- PHIL HANSON drms B C D
- STEWART TURNER gtr C D
- JIM STANSTEAD bs D

CD:

1. (-) MAKING MONEY AND SURFIN' BACK TO SCHOOL (Collectables COL-CD-0593) 199?

45s:

1. My Tattle Tale/Love Has Its Way (Guaranteed 216) 1960

2. My Blue HeavenfTremble (Dot 16212)1961
3. Shaken/Tacoma (Seafair 110) 1961
4. Stompin' Willie/Doin' The Seaside (Etiquette 4) 1964•
5. I'm A Worker/Make Love To Me Baby (Etiquette 17) 1965
6. On The Beach/She Said I Do (Etiquette 20) 1965
7. I Am Yours/I Who Have Nothing (Etiquette 25) 1966
8. She Said I Do/Along Comes The Man (Panorama 54) 1967

Formed in Tacoma, Washington, their early recordings are irrelevant to this book but when they signed to Etiquette, their career began to take off. With the onset of the psychedelic era, they became the first Northwest band to use an automatic lighting system. They also played outside the Northwest adding a string section to their recording of I Who Have Nothing in LA. In search of a new image they changed their name to Rock Collection in 1967.

They have three cuts (Rudolph, Please Come Home For Christmas and Christmas Eve) on the compilation LP Merry Christmas (Etiquette 025) 1965, which was reissued in 1985. I'm A Worker and She Said l Do have resurfaced on the Northwest Collection, Vol. 1 and On The Beach has landed up on Follow That Munster...

The Galaxies IV

TOP

45s:

1	Let Me Hear You Say Yeah/ Till Then You'll Cry	(Veep V 1211)	1966
2	Don't Let Love Look Back/?	(Mohawk)	1966/7
3	Piccadilly Circus/I'm Goin' For Myself	(Mohawk 169)	1966
4	Piccadilly Circus/Don't Lose Your Mind	(RCA Victor 47-9235)	1967

This Trenton, New Jersey group's best known song is the brilliant fuzz punk raver Don't Lose Your Mind, but Picadilly Circus is also an excellent fuzz instrumental and the Veep 45 is a decent beat effort and was probably also issued on Mohawk.

Compilation appearances have included:- Don't Lose Your Mind on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol. 1, Glimpses, Vol. 2 and Mayhem and Psychosis, Vol. 1; Piccadilly Circus on Pebbles, Vol. 1l (incorrectly billed as Don't Lose Your Mind) and Piccadilly Circus (from the Mohawk 45) on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 1 (CD).

NB: The sleeve notes to Turds On A Bum Ride suggest that this band came from Los Angeles, but this is incorrect, so there!!

(Max Waller)

Galaxy

TOP

Personnel incl:

- FRENZI FABBRI gtr
- SPACE MAMA GERGER keyb'ds
- PEPPER LEONARDY bs

- MISS GUNNER POWELL drms

ALBUM:

1. DAY WITHOUT THE SUN (Sky Queen SQR 1677) 1976

NB: (1) had a limited repress in 1989 and has also been issued on CD.

This heavy psychedelic album is an important item among collectors, (though some would say it's overrated hype!). The band were almost certainly from Jacksonville, Florida.

Gallows

Personnel incl:

DON ACHELPOHL		A
DENNIS CHAMBERLAIN		A
RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN	gtr	A
BRUCE KETTLITZ	vcls	A

45s:

1	Slow Death / Come To The Party	(It 2307)	1965
2	Remember Mary / Too Many Fish In The Sea	(Maintain IT-2315)	1967

This band ruled in Keokuk, Iowa until the advent of the Gonn. In fact Gonn's Craig Moore had previously been a Gallows' fan, then their roadie and promoter, before forming his own bands - The Pagans then Gonn.

Compilation appearances have included:- Come To The Party on Drink Beer! Yell! Dance!; Too Many Fish In The Sea on Basementsville! U.S.A.; and Remember Mary on Leaving It All Behind.

(Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

Game

Gamma Goochee

Personnel incl:

EDDIE KEATING	bs, vcls	A
SCOTT KIRKPATRICK	drms	A
LES LUHRING	keyb'ds	A
GEORGE TERRY	gtr	A

ALBUMS:

1()	GAME	(Evolution 2021)	1970

2() LONG HOT SUMMER (Evolution 3008) 1971

Game's two albums rarely turn up. In 1974, George Terry would join the Eric Clapton Band as second guitarist and also play with Steve Stills, while Scott Kirkpatrick would later be in Firefall and the McGuinn/Hillman/Clark Band.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

EP:

1 The Gamma Goochee + I'm Gonna Buy Me A Dog (Colpix 8007 M) 1966

NB: French EP with picture sleeve, the other side is Nooney Rickett with Bye Bye Baby/Maybe The Last Time.

A bubble-gum crowd-pleaser, recorded with fake applauses. I'm Gonna Buy Me A Dog was written by Boyce and Hart while The Gamma Goochee was penned by Mangiagli.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Gandalf

TOP

Personnel:

- DAVY BAUER drms A
- BOB MULLER bs A
- PETE SANDO gtrs A
- FRANK HUBACH keyb'ds A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GANDALF (Capitol ST 121) 1968

N.B. (1) has been counterfieted twice on vinyl as well as being reissued officially on See For Miles (SEE CD 326) in 1991.

45:

1. Golden Earring/Never Too Far (Capitol P-2400) 1969

The above-mentioned album is excellent, but unfortunately originals are rare. The opening cut Golden Earrings (a 1948 hit for Bing Crosby!) is a beautiful relaxing number which culminates in a spacey climax. The album also contains sensitive covers of Tim Hardin compositions including Hang On To A Dream, a lovely version of Nature Boy and some strange instrumentation in Can You Travel In The Dark Alone, which is easily the best of Peter Sando's two originals on the album. There's also an ethereal and delicate cover of Harry Belatonte's 1957 recording Scarlet Ribbons. The album is a superb piece of laid back pop psychedelia with some progressive influences as one might expect given the year of its release. It was produced by Koppelman and Rubin, who are best known for their production work for The Lovin' Spoonful and The Sopwith Camel.

Until recently next to nothing was known about the group apart from their line-up, but as the Gandalf album was originally issued on the "Rainbow" Capitol label, this dates it as 1968 because Capitol didn't switch to the "Light Green" label until 1969.

In fact Pete Sando tells us that Gandalf had their roots in Thunderbirds, an outfit formed by Bob Muller, which were based in Greenwood Lake, New York. They soon transformed into The Rahgoos and went on to play the bar circuit in Greenwood Lake, N.Y., the Jersey Shore, and various New York City clubs and coffee houses, such as The Phone Booth, Murray The K's World, Electric Circus and legendary Night Owl Cafe, in Greenwich Village.

They met songwriters Gary Bonner and Alan Gordon (of Magicians fame), one night at The Night Owl, who in turn introduced them to Koppelman and Rubin. Suitably impressed by The Rahgoos, and their rather unique approach, they arranged for the Columbia deal, under the new monicker Gandalf and ushered them in to Brooks Aurthur's Century Sound studios in New York.

Shortly after the album's release Gandalf guitarist Pete Sando sang on The Barracuda 45 The Dance At St. Francis, which was written and produced by Gary Bonner/Alan Gordon and charted, when it was originally released in 1969.

In the seventies and eighties, Sando played with various New York and L.A. bands, recording an unreleased album in 1981 entitled Sandcastles. He's recently finished a new singer-songwriter CD, Creatures Of Habit and co-written three tunes for a movie called "Time Served".

A CD of rare and unreleased Gandalf material is currently being thought about.....

For more information, check Pete Sando's website: http://www.petersando.com

The See For Miles' Gandalf reissue on CD is highly recommended to fans of U.S. psych. You can also find Golden Earrings on Psychedelic Frequencies compilation CD.

Gandalf The Grey

TOP

Personnel incl:

- CHRIS WILSON gtr, vcls

ALBUM:

1. THE GREY WIZARD AM I (Grey Wizard Records (S) 7) 1972

N.B. Reissued on Heyoka HEY 207 (1986).

Recorded in New York, this is guitar orientated rock with harmonious vocals and both a psychedelic and folksy taint although it lacks variety of mood. The reissue is recommended.

Chris Wilson also made some pre-album 45s, which although sought-after, are inferior to the album.

The Gang of Saints

TOP

Personnel incl?

- STEVE BEALL
- MICKEY BURNS

45:

1. Yes, It's Too Bad / This Feeling (PKB'S 000) Apr 1966

Recorded in Miami, this band actually hailed from Adel, Georgia according to Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2. It features the top side for its "outstanding bass and lead guitar riff" (Roger Maglio). A dreamy midtempo garage-ballad with cascading runs of chiming guitar.

(Max Waller)

The Gants

TOP

Personnel:

JOHNNY FREEMAN	vcls, gtr	A C
SID HERRING	vcls, gtr	A B C
VINCE MONTGOMERY	bs	A B C
DON WOOD	drms	A B C
JOHNNY SANDERS	gtr	B

ALBUMS:

1(B)	ROADRUNNER	(Liberty LRP - 3432)	1965
2(B)	GANTS GALORE	(Liberty LRP - 3455)	1966
3(B)	GANTS AGAIN	(Liberty LRP - 3473)	1966

NB: There's also three compilations: The Gants (LP) (Bam-Caruso KIRI 067) 1988; Roadrunner! The Best Of The Gants (Sundazed SC 11078) 2000; and I Wonder (Bam Caruso/RPM RPM BC 202) 2000.

45s:

1	Roadrunner/My Baby Don't Care	(Statue 605)	1965
2	What's Happening/Careless Hands (By The Niteliters)	(Statue 608)	1965
3	Roadrunner/My Baby Don't Care	(TOP 5002)	1965
4	Roadrunner/My Baby Don't Care	(Liberty 55829)	1965 46
5	Little Boy Sad/(You Can't Blow) Smoke Rings	(Liberty 55853)	1966
6	Crackin' Up/Dr. Feelgood	(Liberty 55884)	1966
7	I Want Your Lovin'/Spoonful Of Sugar	(Liberty 55903)	1966
8	Greener Days/I Wondey	(Liberty 55940)	1967
9	Drifters Sunrise/Just A Good Show	(Liberty 55965)	1967
10	Another Chance/Ain't Too Proud To Beg	(Statue 7006)	1969

NB: (10) Released as Sid Herring and The Gants.

Greenwood in Mississippi was home to this band which came together in 1963. At the time of line-up "A" they were actually known as The Kingsmen. They called themselves The Gants when Johnny Sanders replaced Johnny Freeman on guitar. The name was taken from a local shirt manufacturer! In their early days, they sounded much like The Beatles and by chance The Animals' manager Mike Jeffries spotted them playing in Mississippi and booked them as a support act for an Animals tour.

Before long they were in Alabama's Muscle Shoals studio recording their own arrangement of Bo Diddley's Roadrunner. It was very popular locally and after release on a couple of local labels it was picked up by Liberty and this national distribution took it to No. 46 in the national charts. An album followed and was made up from material recorded at the same session. It was a mixture of punk covers like Gloria and House of The Rising Sun and Sid Herring compositions like the melodic My Baby Don't Care and Six Days In May which underscored Herring's songwriting skills.

A Johnny Burnette composition was chosen for their second 45 but it failed to return them to the charts. The third 45 took two of the better tracks from their Gants Galore album which had been recorded in Los Angeles earlier that year. Compared to their first effort this was disappointing. No Herring compositions were included and the whole album consisted of cover versions, including The Standell's Dirty Water, The Yardbirds Shapes Of Things and Eddie Cochran's Summertime Blues and C'mon Everybody.

In 1966 they were taken to Nashville, Tennessee, where they recorded a new 45 I Want Your Lovin , a fresh-sounding record with a taint of country and western influence, although The Beatles influence was still very evident. The third (and final) album was also recorded at the same time. This contained fine covers of Paul Revere's Hungry and The Rascals' You Better Run and some more fine Herring compositions, particularly I Wonder, a fine Beatlesque song. When neither the single or album made much impression they returned to Los Angeles and assisted by David Gates they recorded Greener Days, a good harmony pop song which had some regional success but failed to break through locally.

After one further harmony pop 45 in April 1967 Johnny Sanders quit and Johnny Freeman returned to replace him, but by the end of the year the whole band had largely collapsed. Only "largely", however, as some gigs were booked in the first half of 1969 through a Memphis Talent Agency and The Gants went on the road with Alston Meeks (ex-Reets) and Johnny Jennings taking over Johnny Sanders guitar parts. Sid Herring continued to record spasmodicaily and even released an album All American Dream in 1982.

Much of The Gants best material is collected on the three retrospective compilations (although Bam Caruso's early vinyl comp ommits both sides of the corkin' Smoke Rings 45); but you'll also find I Wonder on Pebbles, Vol. 8; Just A Good Show on Its Only A Passing Phase; Smoke Rings on Let's Dig 'Em Up Vol. 2.

Johnny Freeman is still active in the local music scene, playing together with Johnny Jennings in a band called Curb Service, where Gants' songs form a part of their set. Sid Herring now resides in Nashville.

Come the new millennium and it's all happening again for The Gants. Not only are there two decent (if overlapping) CD comps, but The Gants are back in action, a headliner act for the 3 day Cavestomp extravaganza, also featuring the Blues Magoos and Troggs.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

Jerry Garcia

TOP

ALBUMS:

(up to 1974)
1	GARCIA	(Warner WS 2582)	1972 35
2	GARCIA	(Rounder 59301)	1974

45:

1	The Wheel/Deal	(Warner 16146)	1972

NB: (1) French release with PS.

"Uncle Jerry" was the co-leader of the Grateful Dead and a kind of musical guru for the Bay Area groups. Apart from his prolific work with the Dead, he also released several solo albums with various members of the Dead plus Bill Vitt and John Kahn, Ben Benay and even Larry Carlton. They will be of interest to "Deadheads", but are probably best avoided if you don't appreciate the Dead's particular style.

As if recording with the Dead and solo wasn't enough, Garcia can also be found guesting on albums by Jefferson Airplane (Volunteers and Early Flight), It's A Beautiful Day (Marrying Maiden), Link Wray, Papa John Creach, Tom Fogerty, Merle Saunders.

Jerry Garcia died on the 9th August, 1995.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jerry Garcia and Howard Wales

Personnel:

MARTIN FIERRO	sax	A
JERRY GARCIA	gtr, vcls	A
JOHN KAHN	bs	A
BILL VITT	drms	A
HOWARD WALES	keyb'ds	A
(CURLEY COOKE	gtr	A)
(MIKE MARINELLI	drms	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	HOOTEROLL ?	(Douglas 30859)	1972

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD.

The Grateful Dead leader teamed up with his usual jamming rhythm section (Vitt/Kahn) and Howard Wales, the former A.B.Shky keyboard player for a mix of psyche, jazz and blues. Curley Cooke (Steve Miller Band, A.B. Skhy) and Martin Fierro (Sir Douglas Quintet) guested on some tracks. Mostly recommended for Dead-heads. Wales would also play on some Grateful Dead albums.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Gas Company

Personnel:

- MIKE CLOTHER organ A
- BARRY CURTIS gtr, vcls A B
- NED NELTNER gtr, vcls A B
- BOB RNEBER bs, vcls A
- TONY WINSLOW drms A B

- JIM KENFIELD bs B
- STEVE FRIEDSON organ B

45:

1. See/Couldn' Make Up My Mind (Debtone 800) 1968

This band was formed in Spokane, Washington by Ned Neltner, (formerly of The Mark 5) after he completed a period of military service. Curtis had previously played with The Kingsmen and Kenfield with The Rock-N-Souls. They soon relocated to Seattle and played at all the top clubs like The Happening. They toured nationally with The Box Tops whose managers' handled their business affairs and arranged for them to record the above 45 at Ardent Studios in Memphis, Tennessee under the production of Don Nix. It was a big hit in the Northwest. Epic brought the material from the Ardent sessions for an album which was never released and the band were also involved in a multimedia event with the Seattle Opera which toured State schools.

The band really fell apart soon after Ned Neltner departed, dissatisfied with their art rock direction, to write songs for The Wailers with Buck Ormsby. He later produced Locksley Hall's album and was last reported playing for JR Cadillac, a Puget Sound group. Barry Curtis plays with the reformed Kingsmen and Mike Clother has his own band.

Gas Mask

Personnel:

RAY BROOKS	bs	A
BILL DAVIDSON	electric gtr	A
RICHARD GRANDO	wind instruments	A
DAVID GROSS	wind instruments	A
NICK OLIVA	keyb'ds	A
BOBBY OSBOURNE	vcls	A
JIMMY STRASSBURG	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A) THEIR FIRST ALBUM (Tonsil T-4001) 1970

NB: (1) also released in France (Tonsil T 4001) 1971.

An unknown rock group, probably from New York, with Bill Davidson, previously with the Steve Baron Quartet. Tonsil Records was a short-lived label which also released the Great Jones LP.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Gas Station to The Gents

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Gas Station
- Gass Co.
- The Gaunga Dyns
- The Gears
- The Geers
- Arthur Gee
- Joey Gee and The Come Ons
- The Gee Tee's
- The Generations
- Genesis
- Genesis
- Genesis with Maryann Farra
- Geneva Convention
- The Gentlemen
- The Gentlemen Wild
- Gentle Reign
- Gentle Soul
- The Gentrys
- Gentrys
- The Gents
- The Gents

The Gas Station

TOP

45:

1. One Way Street/Wild Honey (Happy Tiger 582) 1970

The above 45 was this Chicago-based outfit's sole stab for stardom.

Gass Co.

TOP

45:

1. Come On Up/First I Look At The Purse (PRO P 400-62/3) 1967
2. Walk On By / Walk In The Sun (Goodway 100) 1967
3. Tomorrow / Walk In The sun (diff.version) (M.W. Lads 2867) 1967
4. Girls That I Know Of / Second Chance (M.W. Lads 3407-1) c1967
5. Sundays / What A Feelin' (M.W. Lads MWL-4966) 196?

The first 45 listed contains soulful garage covers by a Philadelphia outfit who would become The Bubble. Their version of First is most excellent indeed. They also did some commercials for M.W. Lads that can be sampled on Crude Pa, Two and the last 45 listed contains gentle orchestrated folkie-flower pop, Sundays features some very mellow use of wah-wah. Still, a long way from the Pro 45. Were composers J.Stumpo, D.Stumpo and R.Steinbronn group members? (Max Waller)

The Gaunga Dyns

TOP

Personnel:

- BEAU BREMER ld vcls
- ROB CARTER bs
- BRIAN COLLINS keyb'ds
- RICKY HALL drums
- MIKE KING ld gtr
- NEALE LUNDGREN ld vcls
- STEVE STAPLES rhythm gtr

45s:

1. Rebecca Rodifer/Stick With Her (Busy-B Zap 2) 1967
2. Clouds Don't Shine/No One Cares (Busy-B Zap 4) 1967

An interesting sounding band who came out of Louisiana. Rebecca Rodifer has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 8: The South. It veers towards psychedelia and boasts a catchy guitar riff and a rather Eastern-influence. This is evident again on No One Cares, a punkier song also on Highs, Vol. 8 and Louisiana Punk Groups, Vol. 2 which has a fine Eastern riff alongside a typical punk style beat, which is more evident on Stick With Her (also on Louisiana Punk Groups, Vol. 2).

The above line-up came together in New Orleans in late 1965 when Carter and Collins, the remnants of the original Gaunga Dyns, merged with another west bank outfit, The Twilights. Read their full story in "Brown Paper Sack #1", which also reveals how they came to cover the Glass Kans' Stick With Her on their first 45.

(Andrew Brown-BPS#1/Max Waller)

The Gears

TOP

Personnel incl:

- DAN PETERSON
- BOB ALWOOD
- JOE DANIELS

45s:

1. Feel Right / Explanantion (Hillside 1001) April 1968
2. Come Back To Me / Sooner Or Later (Counterpart C-2639/40) 1968

From Columbus, Ohio. The Hillside 45 is simple and winsome Beatlesque garage-pop, and harks back to 1965. The Counterpart 45 is more with the times, and kicks off with waspish guitar but cometh the '68 brass, so cometh also the disappointment. The catchy pop flip has a fluid guitar solo but is spoilt as well by pointless brass tootlings. Their earliest 'comp' appearance is on the Hillside 66 LP where they cover The Outsiders' Time Won't Let Me. The following year Hillside put out a 1967 Promotion EP (Hillside SON 53941/2) and here are The Gears again, this time with a rather good garage-ballad We're Through. No, they didn't make it onto Hillside's 1968 Promotion 7", just in case anyone was wondering.

It's way past time that these sought-after local scene Hillside releases, and the Northlands 3rd Annual Battle Of The Bands (featuring the Four O'Clock Balloon and more Columbus acts), got wider appreciation by being reissued.

(Max Waller)

The Geers

TOP

45:

1. I Need You / Please Don't Break My Heart (SSS International 760) c 1967

A different and unknown outfit. I Need You is sinuous pop-garage with a bit o'soul and a melody that you think you've heard before (echoes of Get Ready, for one). The flip is also derivative but with a soulful Animals-cum-Merseybeat style.

(Max Waller)

Arthur Gee

TOP

Personnel:

BILL ALEXANDER	synth, keyb'ds, celeste	A B
BOB ALLISON	vcls	A
CLYDE ALEXANDER	vcls	A
MARCUS DAMERT	gtr, celeste, perc, vcls	A B
ARTHUR GEE	vcl, accoustic gtr, jaw harp, mouth harp	A B
DOUG GUNN	drms	A
RICHARD HATHAWAY	bs, drms, vcls	A B
DONNIE KRYNOVICH	vcls	A
DON RIGGS	drms, vcl	A B

STEVE VAN GELDER	violin, vcl, gtr, piano	A B
SNAZZ WALL	pedal steel gtr	A
DAVE WILLIAMS	recorder, horns	A
REX WILLIAMS	vcls	A B
(PAUL BEAVER	moog	B)

ALBUMS:

1(A)	ARTHUR GEE	(Tumbleweed TWS 101)	1971
2(B)	CITY COWBOY	(Tumbleweed TWS 107)	1972

From Colorado, a noteworthy singer/songwriter who released two albums mixing dreamy ballads, psyche, prog and country. The first one is especially good and came housed in a superb gatefold sleeve with a songbook. The lyrics are quite mystic and not always easy to understand (ALFALFA, Confessions, Dimensions). The second is more on the country side but contains some nice moments too (notably on High House and Re-Affirmation).

Both albums were produced by Marcus Damerst.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Joey Gee and The Come-Ons

TOP

Personnel incl:

- JOEY GEE

45:

1. Don't You Just Know It / Little Searcher (Sara 6451)1964
2. She's Mean/You Know' Til The End of Time (Sara J-6599) 1965 Don't Blow Your Cool/lt's More Than I Deserve (ABC 10781) 1966

NB: (1) as Joey Gee with The Bluetones. (3) as Joey Gee.

This group hailed from La Crosse, Wisconsin. Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 10 includes She's Mean, which is really a R & B-surf style sound and Vol. 15 of the same series included Til The End Of Time, a raw proto-punk effort. A third 45 may be by a different Joey Gee.

The Gee Tee's

TOP

45:

1. Put You Down/Dog (Perfection Rock S.S.566) 1966?

Glimpses, Vol. 4 features both sides of the above 45 by this outfit, who hailed from Smyrna, Georgia. Put You Down has also been included on Garage Punk Unknowns Vol. 8. To secure an original 45 you would've needed to put up (or down) around $400 in 1997. (Max Waller)

The Generations

Personnel:

EDWARD CHISTIAN	rhythm gtr, vcls	A
BILLY ELLIS	tenor sax	A
JERRY EMORY	bs, vcls	A
JOHN GALIFAKIS	drms	A
MIKE HINSON	ld gtr, vcls	A
GARY JACOBS	keyb'ds	A
TOMMY PARSONS	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A) MEET THE GENERATIONS COMBO (Justice 158) 1967

NB: (1) reissued on CD (Collectables COL-0614) 1996.

Although the orginal 1967 liner notes refer to the band as The Generations, the Collectibles reissue lists the titles as Meet The Generations Combo. Yet another reissue of a Justice Records album, this one is in more of a soul vein and includes cover versions of Hold On, I'm Coming, Night Train, I Got You, but also includes attempts at the more conventional pop fare of Gerry and The Pacemakers' Don't Let The Sun Catch You Crying and the Left Banke's Walk Away Renee.

(Mike Dugo)

Genesis

Personnel:

- SCOTT ASHLEY
- ROGER HUYCKE drms
- RAY KENNEDY gtr
- DARYL MANINEN ld gtr

45:

1. Window Of Sand/Would You Like To (Ripcord 004) 1967

This was a later incarnation of Portland, Oregon's Wilde Knights who would also be called American Cheese, Fury's and King Biscuit Entertainers during their long and convoluted history. This is fully untangled on the Wilde Knights' collection LP Beaver Patrol (Voxx VXS 200.026). You'll find Window Of Sand thereon.

Genesis

Personnel:

- KENT HENRY gtr A
- BOB METKE drms A
- FRED RIVERA bs A
- JACK TTANNA gtr A
- SUE RICHMAN vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) IN THE BEGINNING (Mercury SR 61175) 1968

45s:

1. Angeline/Suzanne (Mercury 72806) 1968
2. Gloomy Sunday/What's It All About (Mercury 72869) 1968

A short-lived late sixties Los Angeles band. Kent Henry went on to play for Charity and later for Steppenwolf. Fred Rivera and Sue Richman went on to play for Delaney Bramlett and The Thieves respectively. The album is worth obtaining.

Genesis with Maryann Farra

TOP

45:

1. Society's Child/One Day Boy (Rare Bird R-5000) 1970

A female led keyboard rock cover of Janis Ian's song by an unknown outfit. (Max Waller)

Geneva Convention

TOP

45:

1. Something Beautiful / Call My Name (Beverly Hills 45-9340) 1970

Produced by Bill Traut for Dunwich Productions, the 'A' side written by A.Tucker and K.Wakefield is pop with strong bass parts and horns. The flip written by K.Chovan and J.Zdanowicz is good pop rock a la Paul Revere and Raiders (but without the guitars), and again features strong bass parts.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Gentlemen

TOP

45s:

1. It's A Cry'n Shame/You Can't Be True (Vandan 8303) 196?
2. Come On (If You Can)/Only Me (Cameo 419) 1966

The first 45 was certainly the work of a Fort Worth garage punk band. You'll find the 'A' side on Pebbles, Vol. 5. One of the band was later in The Werewolves, another Texan outfit. Despite the inclusion of Come On (If You Can) on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 17: Texas, Part Four the label makes it more likely that this was the work of a Michigan band of the same name. The cut can also be found on Boulders, Vol. 2.

The Gentlemen Wild

TOP

Personnel:

- CRAIG CATHEY vcls, keyb'ds A B
- PAGE MCCALLUM keyb'ds A
- DAVID VERMILYA drms A
- BILL WHITCOMB bs A B
- JAY ZILKA ld gtr A B
- STEVE JOSLIN keyb'ds B
- BOB HART drms B
- DAVE COOKSON drms
- JOHN CROWE drms
- JOHN PHELPS gtr

45:

1. You Gotta Leave/I Believe (Northwest International NWI 2694) 1967

Hailing from Portland, Oregon, where they formed in 1965, this band's music was an amalgam of early Northwest rock and punk. When Bob Hart joined in 1966 his father, Ross took over their management and soon their fortunes prospered. They won the Oregon Battle of The Bands in May 1967, made some local and national TV appearances, became the house band at "Tork Club", a teen nightclub in Portland and opened for many big sixties acts. Their sole 45, which was very punkish in style became a big regional hit both in the Northwest and on the West Coast. The 'A' side has since resurfaced on Boulders, Vol. 3, Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 16 and The '60s Choice, Vol. 2. When they finally disbanded in April 1969, Cathey and Vermilya went on to play with River.

Gentle Reign

TOP

Personnel:

- GALE GARNETT vcls
- BRUCE HORIUCHI ld gtr
- TONY HILL keyb'ds
- MICHAEL ARAGON drms

- (BOB FISCHER bs)
- (DICK RUSMINI gtr)
- (BOB INGRAM gtr)

ALBUMS:

1. GENTLE REIGN (Vanguard) 1968
2. AN AUDIENCE WITH THE KING OF WANDS (Columbia) 1969
3. SAUSALITO HELIPORT (Columbia 9760) 1969

45:

1. Breaking Through/Fall In Love Again (Columbia 44479) 1968

Gale Garnett had earlier made three solo albums for RCA in the early sixties. A New Zealander by birth, she came to the USA in 1951 and worked as an actress from 1957. She appeared on many TV shows including Hawaiian Eye and Bonanza. The albums are not sought-after by collectors, but pleasant and relaxing. The second includes a good version of Dolphins.

Gentle Soul

TOP

Personnel:

TONY COHAN	tabla	A
RY COODER	gtr	A
MIKE DEASY	gtr	A
PAUL HORN	flute	A
LARRY KNECHTEL	keyb'ds	A
SANDY KONIKOFF	drms	A
GAYLE LEVANT	harp	A
TED MICHEL	cello	A
VAN DYKE PARKS	harpsichord	A
BILL PLUMMER	bs	A
PAMELA POLLAND	vcls	A
RICH STANLEY	vcls	A
RILEY WILDFLOWER	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	GENTLE SOUL	(Epic BN26374)	1968

45s:

1	Tell Me Love / You Move Me	(Columbia 4-43952)	1967
2	Our National Anthem/Song for Three	(Columbia 4-44152)	1968

Produced by Terry Melcher, this album is a nice example of californian psyche soft rock. The instrumentation (harpsichord, tabla, flute, slide guitar) provide an interesting background for the voices and songs of Pamela Polland and Rich Stanley. Among the best tracks are Through A Dream, Young Man Blue and the instrumental Overture. Young Man Blue can also be found on Epic Rocktbusters (XSB 139673), a 1969 radio promo LP. The 45s are not from the LP.

Pamela Polland was also known as a songwriter (her Tulsa County was recorded by The Byrds and The Rising Sons). She formed Gentle Soul with Rick Stanley in 1966 as a duo and over the three years they were together, various musicians were part of the group, including Jackson Browne, Sandy Konikoff and Riley Wildflower.

After the group split, she sang with Joe Cocker for the Mad Dogs And Englishmen tour and album. Then she moved to Hawaii where she still lives and records. Her 1972 LP for CBS features Taj Mahal and Marc McClure and is interesting.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Gentrys

TOP

Personnel incl:

BRUCE BOWLES	vcls	A B
BOBBY FISHER	tenor sax	A
JIMMY HART	ld vcls	A B X
JIMMY JOHNSON	trumpet	A
PAT NEAL	bs	A B
LARRY RASPBERRY	ld vcls	A
LARRY WALL	drms	A B
LARRY BUTLER	keyb'ds	B
DAVID BEAVER	keyb'ds	X
MIKE GARDNER	drms	X
STEVE SPEER	bs	X
JIMMY TARBUTTON	ld gtr	X

ALBUMS:

1(A)	KEEP ON DANCING	(MGM SE-4336)	1965 99
2(A)	GENTRY TIME	(MGM SE-4346)	1966 -
3()	THE GENTRYS	(MGM GAS-127)	1970 -
4(X)	THE GENTRYS	(Sun 117)	1970 -

NB: (4) is a CD reissue of (1) plus Spread It On Thick and Everyday I Have To Cry. There's also a CD compilation: Keep On Dancing (Collectables COL-CD-5622) 1995.

45s:

1	Little Drops Of Water/Sometimes	(Youngstown 600)	1965 -
2	Keep On Dancing/Make Up Your Mind	(Youngstown 601)	1965 -
3	Keep On Dancing/Make Up Your Mind	(MGM 13379)	1965 4
4	Spread It On Thick/Brown Paper Sack	(MGM 13432)	1965 50
5	Everyday I Have To Cry/Don't Let It Be	(MGM 13495)	1966 77
6	A Woman Of The World/There Are Two Sides To Every Story	(MGM 13561)	1966 112

7	You Make Me Feel Good/There's A Love	(MGM 13690)	1967 130
8	I Can See/90 Pound Weakling	(MGM 13749)	1967 -
9	I Can't Go Back To Denver/You Better Come Home	(Bell 720)	1968 132
10	Midnight Train/You Tell Me You Care	(Bell 753)	1968 -
11	Keep On Dancing/Woman Of The World	(Golden Circle # unknown)	1968 -
12	Why Should I Cry/I Need Love	(Sun 1108)	1969 61
13	Cinnamon Girl/I Just Got The News	(Sun 1114)	1970 52
14	He'll Never Love You/I Hate To See You Go	(Sun 1118)	1970 116
15	Goddess Of Love/Friends	(Sun 1120)	1970 119
16	Wild World/Sunshine	(Sun 1122)	1971 97
17	God Save Our Country/Love You All My Life	(Sun 1126)	1971 -
18	Changin'/Let Me Put This Ring On Your Finger	(Capitol 3459)	1972 -
19	Little Gold Band/All Hung Up On You	(Stax 0223)	1974 -
20	High Flyer/Little Gold Band	(Stax 0242)	1974 -

NB: Some of the Sun 45s were issued on colored wax. There's also a rare French EP with PS: Keep On Dancing/Brown Paper Sack/Hang On Sloopy/Everybody (MGM 63628) 1966.

The Gentrys formed in Memphis, Tennessee in 1963 as a seven-man band. Their debut album Keep On Dancing just made the Top 100 and the title cut climbed to No 4. This was their only big hit, but they enjoyed several other minor hits. They featured Larry Raspberry as their lead singer. Their early keyboardist Rick Allen later joined The Box Tops.

They disbanded in 1966, but original member Jimmy Hart reformed the band in 1969 for the album on Sun, which also generated three further Top 100 hits. The album is good hard turn-of-the-decade rock that is worth a listen if you're into that particular bag. Hart was now the lead singer.

Larry Raspberry, who wasn't in the reformed line-up, joined Alamo, who recorded an album on Atco in 1971. They included Richard Rosebrough who worked in the Ardent Studios, later joined Alex Chilton's band and went on to work with him in Big Star. Later still, Raspberry formed The Highsteppers.

Jimmy Hart is currently a wrestling manager known as the Mouth Of The South.

Their cover of the Zombies' You Make Me Feel Good is on Garagelands Vol. 1.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson / Hugh MacLean / Stephane Rebeschini)

Gentrys

TOP

45:

1	Wild / Moments	(Kato 0074)	May 1965

Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 includes Wild by this Burlingame, California band.

(Max Waller/Alec Palao)

The Gents

45:

1. I Wonder Why/Moonlight Sonata (Normandy NRS 91067) 1967

This Utah band's claim-to-fame is that in 1967 they were the number one band in the USA. After regional and state rounds, a final National Battle Of The Bands was staged in Braintree, Mass which was recorded live for posterity and made available on the 3-LP set Battle Of The Bands - Ridge Arena on the Normandy label (rumoured to exist in other forms).

First place went to Utah's Gents, who got an encore which was also captured. Their tracks on the LP-set are: You Can't Sit Down, Moonlite Sonata, Six O'Clock, Roll Over Beethoven, Come On Down To My Boat and Things We Said Today. The ultimate prize was to record for the mighty Normandy label which they duly did, presenting two very different sounds from their repertoire - so different that it might be thought to be a mispress, with a 101 Strings type ensemble on the flip of an excellent garage-punker.

Second place in the finals went to Action Brass and third to Tony's Tigers - they have two tracks preserved apiece. The following bands get just one: Barons Inc., Barracudas, Diane & The Jades, Disciples (good version of 'Gloria'), Elegants, Embers, Flares (girl group), IV Dimensions (Wisc group?), Gentlemen Wild (the Oregon group?), Immortals, LCS & The Bishops 4 (Texas), Limited Edition (doing 'White Rabbit'), Loved Ones, Madd & The Hatters, Mike & The Mardels, Missing Links, Nite Raiders, Purswaders, Rogues Inc., Roots Of Evil, Sheffields, Soul Division ("from Montgomery", but which one?), Soulbenders (yes, THE Soulbenders with 'House Of The Rising Sun'), Tombstones ('Light My Fire'), Untouchable Men, and Wandering Kind.

Any more details on the rumoured variations of this LP-set and reminiscences or info on the event itself would be most welcome.

Compilation coverage has so far included: I Wonder Why on Destination Frantic!.

(Max Waller)

The Gents

ALBUM:

1. WE GOTTA GET OUTA THIS PLACE/BEST OF THE BEST (Recorded Publications Co. 96) 1966 R4

NB: (1) had a limited edition reissue in 1996.

45:

1. If You Don't Come Back/I'll Cry (Duane 1046) 1966

From Bermuda, although the label Duane, has New Jersey connections and the split album is on a Camden, New Jersey, label. It features one side each by The Gents/The Best, two unknown combos, who run through a bevy of typical garage covers in a 'prep rock' style. Very basic stuff - no fuzz, no off-the-wall ravers - just honest and workmanlike attempts that may sometimes sound flat and far from inspiring. But then that's what is so appealing about this genre and why serious collectors will pay a fortune for an original.

If You Don't Come Back has also appeared on Chosen Few, Vol. 1 and I Was A Teenage Caveman.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Geoffrey to The Glass Harp

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Geoffrey
- The Georgetown Medical Band
- The Georgia Prophets
- Geronimo Black
- The Gestures
- Geyda
- Tom Ghent
- Giant Crab
- Giant Jellybean Copout
- The Giant Sunflower
- The Gigolos
- Russ Giguere
- Jimmy Gilbert
- The Gillian Row
- Gin Gillette
- Steve_Gillette
- Ginger
- The Girls
- Glad
- The Glass Bottle
- The Glass Candle
- Glass Family
- The Glass Harp

Geoffrey

ALBUM:

1	GEOFFREY	(Concert Arts)	1972 R3

NB: (1) reissued on (Psychedelic Archives PALP 1004) 1996 as a limited edition of 290.

A very rare folky singer-songwriter album from 1972. For singer-songwriter rather than psychedelic enthusiasts. Geoffrey is Geoffrey de Mers who wrote seven of the eight tracks himself and co-wrote the other - A Tale Of The Banshee - with Erin McFadden. He also handled the production and played acoustic guitar. Pleasant but nothing special, although some dealers compare him to Tim Buckley or Athur Lee Harper.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Georgetown Medical Band

Personnel:

- JOHNNY RICHARDSON gtr A
- CHUCK GREENWOOD A
- GARY P. NUNN keyb'ds A
- RICK COBB A

Based in Austin, Texas in the late sixties. Richardson had previously been in The Wig and was later in Plum Nelly, two other Austin outfits. Indeed, The Wig Live At The Jade Room (Texas Archive Recordings TAR-3) 1983 includes two studio practice cover versions of Light My Fire and HeyJoe by the band who didn't make it on to vinyl at the time.

The Georgia Prophets

ALBUM:

1	FEVER	(Custom)	c1970 R1

Another exploito album, with covers of Traffic's Feelin Alright and Neil Young's Down By The River.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Geronimo Black

Personnel:

JIMMY CARL BLACK	drms, vcls	A
ANDY CAHAN	keyb'ds, drms, vcls	A
TJAY CONTRELLI	sax, flute, vcls	A
BUNK GARDNER	piano, sax, flute	A
TOM LEAVEY	bs, hrmnca	A
DENNY WALLEY	gtr, vcls	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	GERONIMO BLACK	(Uni UNI 73132)	1972
2(A)	WELCOME BACK	(Helios HR 440-5)	1980

Jimmy Carl Black and Bunk Gardner were previously in the Mothers of Invention, Tjay Contrelli was in Love circa Da Capo and Denny Walley was a member of Big Mouth.

Their first album was produced by Keith Olsen (the former Music Machine/Millenium member) and should particularly interest the Zappa and Captain Beefheart fans. Musically it mixes blues (Low Ridin' Man), instrumental tracks (Siesta, Quaker's Earthquake) and rock tracks (Other Man, L.A. County Jail 59, Let Us Live); its high point being An American National Anthem written by JC Black about the Indian killings ("Indian Land is stolen, 52 million dead, each one's head is scalped by a trick taught by white man hunters coming over the land"). The lyrics and musicianship are both really strong. Buzz Gardner, Murray Roman and a small string section also played on this underrated album.

Geronimo Black reformed in 1980 to record Welcome Back on the small Helios label, with new versions of Low Ridin' Man, Other Man and An American National Anthem plus four new songs and covers of Hoochie Coochie Man and Lovesick Blues with the help of other ex-Mothers of Invention: Ray Collins, Don Preston and Buzz Gardner.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Gestures

Personnel:

- DALE MENTON gtr, vcls A
- GUS DEWEY gtr, vcls A
- TOM KLUGHERZ bs A
- BRUCE WATERSTON drms A

ALBUM:

1. MEET THE GESTURES (Sundazed LP 5021) 1996

NB: Coloured vinyl issue of unreleased album from 1965 which contains both their singles and a lot of previously unreleased tracks. Also on CD (SC 6079).

45s:

1. Run Run Run/Seems To Me (Soma 1417) 1964 44
2. Don't Mess Around/Candlelight (Soma 1426) 1965
3. Run Run Run/Seems To Me (Apex 76939) 1965
4. Don't Mess Around/Candlelight (Apex 76953) 1965

Operated out of Mankato, Minnesota, but they were an important part of the Minneapolis sixties scene. They were originally known as The Jesters but altered the spelling when they discovered there was another band of the same name. Run Run Run, a bouncy pop tune, actually made the Billboard Charts. The song was also recorded by The Castaways and like them The Gestures were quite influenced by the British invasion sound. All four of their tracks can be heard on the 1965 compilation Big Hits Of Mid-America, Vol. 2 which also came out on the Soma label. Dale Menton, who fronted the band, was in several other Minnesota bands including The Best Things, The Madhatters, The Seraphic Street Sound and Buckwheat.

In 1996, Sundazed released Meet The Gestures, which contains all their single cuts, plus loads of unreleased material. The additional unreleased tracks confirm a strong British invasion beat era influence on the band. There are three more Dale Menten originals - two versions of I'm Not Mad, an instrumental Savage World and Stand By Me, a gentle beat ballad. The remainder of the material comprises cover versions, which injected enough of their own style and flavour to make them good sixties recordings:- Things We Said Today (two versions) (Beatles), She Cried (Jay and The Americans), Don't Let The Sun Catch You Crying (Gerry and The Pacemakers), Can I Get A Witness (Marvin Gaye), Long Tell Texan (Coasters) and Hi-Heel Sneakers (Tommy Tucker). It seems these were recorded very soon after the release of their second 45 in the hope of releasing an album which didn't happen until Sundazed stepped in!

Compilation coverage has so far included: Run Run Run on Pebbles Vol. 9; Seems To Me on both Changes and Garage Dream Revisited Vol.1 (EP); Don't Mess Around on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 7 (CD).

Geyda

45:

1. Third Side / ? (L.B.J. 242) 196?

A hard Rork quartet from Michigan whose cut on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 2 - Third Side - frankly sounds rather a mess.

Tom Ghent

Personnel:

THE BLOSSOMS	backing vcls	A
AL CASEY	gtr, dobro	A
MIKE DEASY	gtr, special effects	A
REX HECTRE	backing vcls	A
JIM HORN	flute	A
TOM GHENT	gtr, vcls	A
JIMMY JOYCE SINGERS	backing vcls	A
LARRY KNECHTEL	piano, organ	A
JOE OSBORN		A
EARL PALMER	perc	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	TOM GHENT	(Tetragrammaton T-113)	1969

An orchestrated folk/rock album that some 'deaf' dealers tend to present as psychedelic, probably because the liner notes talks about cosmic consciousness and that Ghent's publishing company was Peyotl Music. Produced by Jill Gibson, all the songs were penned by Ghent, who had a rather pleasant voice but no particular skills. The album is rather monotonous and better avoided.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Giant Crab

Personnel:

DENNIS FRICIA	drms, horns	A
KENNY FRICIA	keyb'ds, horns, vibes	A
ERNIE OROSCO	vcls, gtr	A

RAY OROSCO	bs, keyb'ds	A
RUBEN OROSCO	bs, drms, sax	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	A GIANT CRAB COMES FORTH	(Uni 73037)	1968
2()	COOL IT HELIOS	(Uni 73057)	1969

45s:

1	Listen Girl/Summer Breezes	(Corby CR-216)	1967
2	Day By Day (It Happens)/Kind Of Funny	(Corby CR 217)	1967
3	I Started With A Kiss/The Answer Is No	(Corby CR-221)	1967
4	Hi Ho Silver Lining/Hot Line Conversation	(Uni 55094)	1968
5	Believe It Or Not/Lydia Purple	(Uni 55103)	1968
6	Cool It/Intensity My Soul	(Uni 55134)	1969
7	ESP/Hot Line Conversation	(Uni 55155) 1969

From Santa Barbara California, this band evolved out of Ernie's Funnys. Their albums are now very minor collectors' items, and their material patchy. For example, Listen Girl is excellently warped pop-punk, kinda UK-freakbeat style, busy with effects, but its flip side, Summer Breezes, is bitterly disappointing acoustic harmony dross.

Ernie Orosco went on to form Big Brother and released a solo LP, as Ernie Joseph.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Craig Morrison / Alec Palao)

Giant Jellybean Copout

TOP

45:

1. Awake In A Dream/Look At The Girls (Poppy 504) 1968

Sometimes the more weird'n'wonderful named the outfit, the less weird'n'wonderful the music. The label gives it away - the 'A' is a very good version of a Critters' song. So good that it probably is The Critters given that Jim Ryan who wrote it also produces this version. The flip is mellow Beach Boys-a-la-Pet-Sounds fare. Nothing to freak out about. (MW).

The Giant Sunflower

TOP

Personnel incl:

RICK DEY	bs	A

45s:

1	More Sunshine/February Sunshine	(Take Six 1000)	1967
2	February Sunshine/Big Apple	(Ode 102)	1967

3	What's So Good About Goodbye/Mark Twain	(Ode 104)	1967 116

A Los Angeles band, whose February Sunshine, now included on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3, typified the commercialism of flower-power pop in this era. The record was produced by Lou Adler and its professionalism and chord changes suggests it could be The Mamas and Papas recording under a pseudonym.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Gigolos

TOP

45:

1. She's My Baby (Part 1)/(Part 2) (Power 259-945) 1981

Supposedley an obscure Los Angeles band, this 45 actually dates from 1981. A "fools-gold-nugget" in the vein of Katz Kradle, Huntsmen and Wolfmen, She's My Baby has nonetheless been compiled on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD) and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 20 LA, Part 4. It's a pounding rocker! (Max Waller / Mike Markesich)

Russ Giguere

TOP

Personnel:

JULES ALEXANDER	gtr, bs	A
DON BECK	gtr	A
BEN BENAY	gtr, bs, hrmnca	A
JOHN BOYLAN	gtr	A
CHRIS ETHRIDGE	bs	A
RUSS GIGUERE	vcls, gtr, perc	A
JUDY HENSKE	vcls	A
JIM KELTNER	drms	A
LARRY KNECHTEL	bs, keyb'ds	A
RUSS KUNKEL	drms	A
BERNIE LEADON	gtr	A
SPOONER OLDHAM	piano	A
HERB PEDERSEN	vcls, banjo	A
EMIL RICHARDS	perc	A
LYLE RITZ	bs	A
JUDEE SILL	gtr	A
BOBBY WOMACK	gtr	A
JERRY YESTER	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HEXAGRAM 16	(Warner WS 1910)	1971

The only solo album of Russ Giguere is much better than most of his previous work with the Association.

Hexagram 16 was co-produced by Giguere and John Boylan, who also contributed a song he'd earlier recorded with Appletree Theater. The album is a good mix of Californian pop and folk with some brilliant guitar parts, the most notable songs being In New Germany, Brother Speed and the ambitiously orchestrated Pegasus.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jimmy Gilbert

TOP

45:

1. Believe What I Say/So Together We'll Live (Darn-L 853-D-5264) 196?

An obscure Michigan-based outfit. Both sides of this disc can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 6: Michigan, Part 2. The 'A' side is a good pop-punk song with quite a lot of fuzz. The flip is more poppy.

The Gillian Row

TOP

Personnel:

DAVE	A
JOE	A
LARRY	A
TOM	A

A hairy punk quartet whose raw version of Them's Gloria is one of the choice cuts on the rare 1966 LP, WONE, The Dayton Scene (Prism PR-1966). This features one cut each from a dozen Daytonian acts, selected from the WONE sponsored three-day battle of the bands.

Their image matches the sound - not prepared to pose well-dressed or in matching kit in front of a curtain or plain backdrop, these rebels with the Pretty Things look are pictured crouching in a dingy brick-and-plaster corner of a garage or cellar.

Regrettably The Gillian Row didn't graduate to releasing their own 45s, like Jerry and The Others (who provide the other choice cut on the WONE LP), The Dawks and The X-cellents. Still, you can hear their two minute twenty-four second legacy on Highs In The Mid-Sixties Vol. 9: Ohio.

(Max Waller)

Gin Gillette

TOP

45:

1. She'll Never Let Him Go/Train To Satanville (Musikon 102) 196?

This was issued on a Hollywood label. Scum Of The Earth includes the flip side.

Steve Gillette

TOP

Personnel:

STEVE GILLETTE	gtr, vcls	A
BRUCE LANGHORNE	gtr	A
BILL LEE	string bs	A
DICK ROSMINI	gtr	A
(ELMER GORDON	piano	A)
(BUFFY SAINTE-MARIE	coat-hangers	A)
(RUSS SAVAKUS	bs	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	STEVE GILLETTE	(Vanguard VSD-79251)	1967

A Los Angeles folk singer whose first album contains two excellent tracks: The Erlking adapted from a Goethe's poem, with the three combined guitars of Langhorne, Rosmini and Gillette, and Goin' Home Song penned by Pamela Polland (Gentle Soul) and Steve Mann. The remainder, which are good but more folk orientated, were written by Gillette, Linda Albertano and Tom Campbell.

Gillette kept on recording sporadically on local labels. His songs have been recorded by Spanky and Our Gang, Gordon Lightfoot and Ian & Sylvia.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Ginger

TOP

Personnel incl:

BOB EDWARDS	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	GINGER	(Cheap Swank)	1973 R2

From Minnesota, this album was released by the group after the death of Bob Edwards, their lead singer. Side One contains poorly recorded live and studio cuts recorded with Edwards, whilst Side Two consists of songs written in his memory. Musically it's rural psych rock, organ driven, with an undermixed lead guitar and trippy effects, and vocals by a brother of Edwards. It came in a B&W psychedelic paste-on cover with three inserts.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

45s:

1. My Love/My Baby (Capitol 5528) 1965
2. Chico's Girl/Dumb Song (Capitol 5675) 1965
3. Way Way Out/Modesty Blaise (20th Century Fox 6651) 1966

An all-girl outfit as their name suggests, they were in fact four sisters by the name of Sandoval from L.A.. You can check out Chico's Girl on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 2, and My Baby on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 4.

Glad

Personnel:

RON FLOGEL	gtr, vcls	A
GEORGE HULLIN	drms, vcls	A
TOM PHILLIPS	gtr, piano, vcls	A
TIM SCHMIDT	bs, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	FEELIN' GLAD	(ABC ABCS-655)	1968

45s:

1	See What You Mean/Bedtime Story	(Equinox 70004)	1968
2	A New Tomorrow/Pickin' Up The Pieces	(Equinox 70006)	1968
3	Johnny's Silver Ride/Love Needs The World	(ABC 11163)	1969
4	Let's Play Make Believe/No Ma, It Can't Be	(ABC 11199)	1969

Originally formed when four sophomores at Encina High School in Sacramento, California formed a surf instrumental group called The Contenders in 1963. They were also known as Tim, Tom and Ron and The New Mind. By 1965 they had changed name again to The New Breed and achieved some commercial success locally. When Los Angeles producer Terry Melcher (Doris Day's son) signed them to his Equinox label, he changed their name again to the hippier-sounding Glad. They recorded two psychedelic 45s for Equinox, and two for ABC. Produced by Eirik Wangberg, the album is in a flower-power pop/soft rock vein with lots of harmonies and orchestration. It's sought after by some collectors but is in fact quite bland. Schmidt went on to play for Poco and later The Eagles.

Unhappy with the style imposed by Melcher, the other three formed another country-influenced outfit, Redwing, who recorded five albums for Fantasy during the 1970s.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Glass Bottle

ALBUM:

1 THE GLASS BOTTLE (Avco Embassy AVE 33012) 1970

On the same label as Liquid Smoke or Bead Game, an unknown rock group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

45:

1. Light The Glass Candle/Keep Right On Living (Target T 1004) 1969

Fuzz overload on the top side, whilst the flip is an excellent frenetic garage pop-rocker. Sadly the sole 45 by this Wisconsin outfit, Light The Glass Candle can also be savoured on 30 Seconds Before The Calico Wall (CD). (Max Waller)

Personnel:

- RALPH PARRETT gtrs A
- DAVID CAPILOUTO bs, keyb'ds A
- GARY GREEN drms, perc A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ELECTRIC BAND (Warner Bros. 1776) 1968

45s:

1. Teenage Rebellion/? (Sidewalk 920) 1967
2. Agorn/Guess I'll Let You Go (Warner Bros. 7262) 1969
3. Guess I'll Let You Go/David's Rap (promo only) (Warner Bros. PRO. 309) 1969

Produced by Richard Podolor (Steppenwolf, Jamul), a Californian outfit whose album is pleasant soft L.A. flower-power with several good psychedelic cuts, including Agorn (Elements Of Complex Variables). Their material was written by Ralph Perrett, except for Agorn and I Want To See My Baby which he co-wrote with Green and Capilouto. Another example of their breazy flower-pop, Guess I'll Let You Go has resurfaced on Slowly Growing Insane (CD) and it's vinyl counterpart Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 11. House Of Glass meanwhile is included on the EP accompanying the French book "Le Rock Psychedelique Vol.1". They also had one track on Freakout USA - I'm Losing It - which can also be heard on Filling The Gap.

The flip to Sidewalk 920 is unknown, it may only have been issued as a double 'A' side. Teenage Rebellion is good fuzzy pop.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Glass Harp

Personnel:

JOHN S. FERRA	drms, vcls, gtr	A B
PHIL KEAGGY	gtr, vcls	A B
STEVE MARKULIN	bs	A
DAN PECCHIO	bs, vcls	B

ALBUMS:

1(B)	GLASS HARP	(Decca DL-75261)	1971
2(B)	SYNERGY	(Decca DL-75306)	1971 192
3(B)	IT MAKES ME GLAD	(Decca DL-75358)	1972

NB: (1) reissued in 1977 (MCA 293). All three albums have been issued on CD by Line.

ACETATE:

1(A)	We've Just Begun/Where Did My World Come From/She Told Me	(United Audio)	196?

NB: (1) Only 10 copies made.

45s:

1(A)	ARBY'S EP (Swing Over)	()	1969
2	Where Did My World Come From/She Told Me	(United Audio)	Mar. 1969
3	Childrens'Fantasy/Village Queen	(Decca 32830)	1971
4	The Answer/Just Always	(Decca 32915)	1972
5	La De La/David and Goliath	(Decca 32995)	1972

NB: (1) This was a promo only 45 ep for Arby's (yes, the roast beef people). Arby's started out in Youngstown, and the EP contains four different versions of the same song Swing Over, an instrumental. Glass Harp did one cut and the remaining three were done by three other groups in different styles (jazz, etc.). The EP came with a sleeve with a crude drawing of a cow.

These albums, which are in a progressive/psychedelic style with lots of heavy guitar, are beginning to interest some collectors. The outfit formed in Youngstown, Ohio in the late sixties and were among the State's prime flag bearers of the British invasion.

They recorded a 45 for United Audio and an unreleased acetate-album before going on to sign for Decca. Only ten copies of the acetate were made, which contained both sides of the United Audio 45 plus We've Just Begun, a typical slice of Zombies' - influenced pop. One copy of the acetate was sent to Apple Records in the hope of getting a contract, but it was rejected. The bass player on these United Audio recordings was Steve Markulin, a cousin of Joe "Ting" Markulin, The Human Beingz rhythm guitarist. Dann Pecchio joined later and he is featured all the Decca recordings.

Phil Keaggy had earlier played in The Squires, Volume IV and New Hudson Exit.

Both tracks on their first 45 Where Did My World Come From/She Told Me were written by Phil Keaggy who also produced several records for Ohio area garage bands and later achieved success in the Christian music movement.

One track from the United Audio acetate, We've Only Just Begun has subsequently re-surfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 21.

(Vernon Joynson/Mike McKay/George Gell/Max Waller/Bob Wickland)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Glass Menagerie to The Golden Dawn

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Glass Menagerie
- The Glass Opening
- The Glass Prism
- Glass Sun
- The Glitterhouse
- Glory
- Glory
- Glory Rhodes
- Gnats
- Go-Betweens
- Godfrey
- God Unlimited
- The Godz
- Gold
- Barry Goldberg
- Goldberg-Miller Blues Band
- The Golden Catalinas
- The Golden Dawn

Glass Menagerie

TOP

Personnel:

- BRIAN GODULA bs
- BOB QOUIVECT gtr
- DAVE WILKE gtr
- MIKE SHRIEVE drms

45:

1. End Of The Line/Troubled Mind (Revolve 208) 1968

A San Francisco outfit who formed in 1967 but fell apart the following year. Mike Shrieve, of course, later went on to play for Santana and Godula later joined Together, a 1969 San Francisco band which did not record.

There was at least one other act using the Glass Menagerie monicker, and their track Mad Threads can be found on Off The Wall 2. Could this be the same Glass Menagerie which came from Boston, and featured a pre-Velvet Underground Doug Yule. Answers on a £50 note please!

(Vernon Joynson / Joe Foster)

The Glass Opening

TOP

45s:

1. My Head Is Heavy/I'm Your Prey (New Wodd 001) 196?
2. * All Those Lies/Virgin Of Time (Dondee 12563) 1970

* The flip side was by The Major Six.

I've seen this band variously reported as coming from Minneapolis and Kentucky. An all girl outfit, their first 45 was rather folkish punk and I'm Your Prey recently resurfaced on the Girls In The Garage compilation.

The Glass Prism

TOP

Personnel:

- AUGGIE CHRISTIANO bs A
- RICK RICHARDS drms A
- CARL SIRACUSE keyb'ds A
- TOM VERANO gtr A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) POE THROUGH THE GLASS PRISM (RCA LSP 4201) 1969
2. (A) ON JOY AND SORROW (RCA LSP 4270) 1970

45:

1. The Raven/El Dorado (RCA Victor 74-0205) 1969

Their first album is an attempt to set poems by Edgar Allan Poe to a rock format. Although they don't really pull it off the music isn't bad on cuts like The Raven. Much more relevant is the second album, which features some great guitar work, especially on Extention 68. Both albums are available quite cheaply. The band were mostly Italian Americans who came from the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre area of Pennsylvania. They were previously known as El Caminos and also made recordings under that name.

Tom and Rick later formed a power trio called Shenandoah with bassist Lou Cossa. Later still Cossa and Carl Siracuse joined 'one-hit' wonder band The Buoys, the nucleus of which then became Dakota.

(Vernon Joynson / Tom Truszkowski / Chris Kraynak)

Glass Sun

Personnel:

BOB CASS		A
MIKE CASS		A
BRUCE ROLL		A
RICK ROLL		A
DAN SILLS		A

45:

1	Silence Of The Morning/Oh Sandy	(Sound Pattems 139)	1968/9
2	I Can See The Light/Stick Over Me	(Sound Patterns 150)	196?

A Michigan trio who have two cuts: Silence Of The Morning and Stick Over Me on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 1. The former track is a stunning slice of guitar-driven psychedelic punk which is well worth checking out - it also appears on the An Overdose of Heavy Psych CD, Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol.1 and Sixties Archives Vol. 6 CD. Stick Over Me is disappointing in comparison.

Their second 45, I Can See The Light, is a heavy slab of bad-trip psych-grunge, which has also been compiled on Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 1.

(Max Waller)

The Glitterhouse

Personnel:

HANK ABERLE	vcls	A
MICHAEL GAYLE	vcls	A
AL LAX		A
MOOGY KLINGMAN	keyb'ds	A
JOEL "BISHOP" O'BRIEN	drms, perc	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	COLOR BLIND	(DynoVoice 31905)	1968

45s:

1	I Lost Me A Friend/Tinkerbell's Mind	(DynoVoice 925)	1968
2	Barbarelia/Love Drags Me Down	(DynoVoice 927)	1968

Probably a studio project of the producer/arranger Bob Crewe in collaboration with Michael Gayle rather than a real group. The Philadelphia/New York-based Bob Crewe is best known for his productions with Frankie Valli's Four Seasons, whose pop/psych concept album, The Genuine Imitation Life Gazette is similar in sound to The Glitterhouse. Possibly some of the same musicians were used.

Michael Gayle wrote all the songs on their album and by far the best cuts are on side one. Tinkerbell's Mind, Princes Of The Gingerland and Child Of Darkness (Journey Of A Child Traveller) are all symphonic psych pop in a Procol Harum vein and are worth seeking out. Also of note is Happy To Have You Here Again, which has a good-time feel with some chirpy keyboards and nice harmonies.

The Glitterhouse, along with Bob Crewe and Charles Fox provided the music to the film "Barbarella", and are included on the soundtrack LP on Dynovoice (DY 31908).

(Vernon Joynson/Costas Arvantis/Max Waller/Scott Blackerby)

Glory

TOP

Personnel:

- LINDEN HUDSON vcls A
- TED HAWLEY ld gtr, keyb'ds A
- HAL HAWLEY bs A
- RICHARD JONES organ A
- RONALD GARNER organ A
- CHUCK CONWAY drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A MEAT MUSIC SAMPLER (Texas Revolution TRR 69) 1969

N.B. This album has had a limited repressing.

45s:

1. Holy Roller/Climbin' The Walls (Advanced Promo 189249) 1972
2. But I'm Tired/Sunshine Floods All Over Me (Skratchy 451) 1975

The album was a studio project masterminded by Linden Hudson at Walt Andrus' studio in Houston. Hudson produced, engineered and sang on it. Despite being a lighthearted exercise, it does contain some good music:- bluesy jams with guitar, harmonica and organ. Only six tracks in all, including the long Spin Me A Rag, Slow Rock'n'Roll and Studio Blues Jam. The liner notes written by "Jack Smack" stand out: "Meat Music is the next best thing to sex, as a matter of fact, one could say that they are one-in-the-same. When Meat music and sex are combined... well, it's swell. In this sampler album, Glory has combined meat music with neat music and even some sweet music (...) This bit of wax will, perhaps, give you some idea about where America's Glory truly lies (or is it lays)".

The album was repressed in limited quantities in the mid-eighties as the limited initial pressing had made it hard to obtain.

Hudson and friends returned in 1972 to record the non-album Holy Roller 45. The later 1975 45 was an acoustic effort involving Van Wilkes and at least one former member of Homer.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Glory

Personnel:

RAY BENICK	bs	A
BILL CONSTABLE	ld vcls	A
KEN CONSTABLE	ld vcls	A
BOB KALAMASZ	gtr, vcls	A
JIM QUINN	gtr, vcls, perc	A
BILL SCHWARK	drms	A
(PHIL GIALLOMBARDO	keyb'ds	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	GLORY	(Avalanche AV-LA148-F)	1973

From Cleveland and previously known as Damnation Of Adam Blessing, Glory released an album which will interest guitar lovers. Produced by Jim Quinn, one of their guitarists, it offers nine good tracks of hard rock with good vocals, all the songs being penned by the group (Hot Momma, Nightmare, Dawn, Sunny Days...).

Avalanche was a subsidiary of United Artists.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Glory Rhodes

Personnel incl:

J. LAVIOLETTE
KENNY LYLES	ld vcls
G. NOBILE
S. SERIO
FRANKIE SPENCER	ld gtr

45s:

1	I'm Gonna Change The World / Stay Out Of My Way	(U-Doe 101)	Jan 1966
2	Gonna Be Somebody / Not That Kind Of Guy	(U-Doe 102)	1966
3	One Track Mind / Run For Your Life	(White Cliffs 251)	c1967
4	Old Laces / She's A Big Girl Now	(Atco 6559)	March 1968
5	Can We Go To The City / I'm So Happy	(Atco 6626)	1968

From New Orleans, and initially Invasion inspired, they chose to cover the Animals' anthem of '60s youth on their excellent debut - both sides of which feature on A Journey To Tyme Vol. 5. By the time of the Atco 45 their edge and aggression had been dulled to an ok but uninspiring club/pop sound withstrings and brass. According to Andrew Brown's "Brown Paper Sack #1" they'd last into the early 70s.

(Andrew Brown/Max Waller/Joe Rein/Patrick Brown)

Gnats

Personnel incl:
W.R. ("DUB") LYNCH A

45:

1 That's All Right / The Girl (Emcee 014) 1966

This group included Dub Lynch (ex-Danes) who went Texas Valley group Foamy Brine.

(Max Waller/Andrew Brown)

Go-Betweens

45:

1. Knock Knock/Have Her For My Own (Cheer 1011) 1965

Open Up Your Door, Vol. 2 includes a song called Have Her For My Own by this obscure New York City band. Some members are rumoured to have gone on to The Shades.

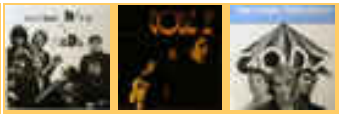
Godfrey

45s:

1. The Trip/Come On, Come On (as by Godfrey's Group) (Cee Jam 3) 1965
2. Let's Take A Trip/ The Trip (as by Godfrey & Friends) (Cee Jam # 3) 1965
3. Down Whittier Blvd./Down Whittier Blvd. (instr) (Whittier 505) 1967

An LA disc jockey who did a cover of Kim Fowley's The Trip, which can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 3, The Pebbles Box Set, Acid Dreams Epitaph CD, and Sixties Rebellion Vol. 12 (CD).

God Unlimited



ALBUM:

1 RIDE ON (G.I.A.) 1970

A folky Christian group with choral vocals, haunting at times, and some good electric guitar, especially on the long title track.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Godz

Personnel:

- JAY DILLON organ, piano, autoharp, psaltery A
- LARRY KESSLER gtr, viola, violin, vcls A
- JIM McCARTHY gtr, hrmnca, vcls A
- PAUL THORNTON drms, autoharp, vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) CONTACT HIGH WITH THE GODZ (ESP 1037) 1967
2. (A) GODZ 2 (ESP 1047) 1968
3. (A) THIRD TESTAMENT (ESP 1077) 1969
4. (A) GODZUNHEIT (ESP 2017) 1970

N.B. (1) also issued on Fontana in Holland and (2) on Fontana in the UK. (1), (2) and (3) have all been reissued on CD by ESP.

45s:

1. Lay In The Sun/I Want A Word With You (ESP 4503) 1966
2. Travelin' Salesman/Wiffenpoof Song (ESP 4548) 1967

A New York-based avant garde rock group whose albums have not aged well but do deserve a mention here. From the same label as The Fugs, their recorded output (I've avoided using the word music) was even more anarchic. It tended to consist of wailing unmelodic vocals, avant-garde solos and various background noises. Their album does include two more structured tracks, Radar Eyes and Soon The Moon, but Squeek probably epitomises the best the sound they were striving to achieve. Overall, their third album is a slightly more structured and successful psychedelic venture, which makes more effective use of sound effects than their second effort. It also contains a few folky numbers like Walking Guitar Blues and Neet Street. Their fourth and final album was more in the mainstream rock mould but better produced. Certainly, the first three albums are for fans of highly experimental avant-garde rock only.

Jim McCarthy also recorded a solo album, Alien (ESP-3003) 1973, on which Paul Thornton plays maraccas. The session musicians included Left Banke members Steve Martin and George Cameron. It's pretty typical singer/songwriter stuff with Word Of Honour the stand-out track.

In the nineties, German label Zyx, reissued the entire ESP catalogue on CD, including Godz Bless California, which comprised unreleased material and outtakes from 1970-74.

For more information check the following website: http://www.raybrazen.com

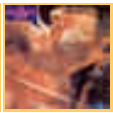
Gold

Personnel:

- JOSEPH BAZJA A
- DENNIS CABRAL A
- RONALD COCO A
- LOUISE GOURSON A
- JOE MANCADA A
- PERCY NICHOLSON A
- EDWARD SCOTT A

ALBUM:

1. (A) NO PARKING (Rockadelic RRLP 20) 1995



45:

1. No Parking / Summer Time (Golden State 501) 1969

From San Francisco, their 45 was part-produced by Country Joe in late 1969 at Leo De Gar Kulka's Golden State Recorders, whose legacy has been explored by Big Beat in the Nuggets From The Golden State series. No Parking and a previously unreleased effort I Saw You can be found on the Big Beat's What A Way To Come Down comp. The band also recorded an album, which remained unreleased until Rockadelic came to the rescue in 1995. Side one is best: No Parking and Righteous Road are high energy rock; Conquistadore has some Santana-influenced percussion and Summer Dresses is essentially hippie-pop; but the stand-out track is the laid back High On Love, which has some lovely melodic guitar. Side two is less impressionable.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Barry Goldberg

TOP

Personnel:

BARRY GOLDBERG	organ, piano, vcls	A B C D E F G
HARVEY MANDEL	gtr	A B C D E
CHARLES MUSSELWHITE	hrmnca	A B C D
RON RUBY	bs	A B
MAURICE McKINLEY	drms	B
DUANE ALLMAN	gtr	C
ART	bs	C
GREAT (MIKE BLOOMFIELD)	gtr, hrns	C E
EDDIE HINTON	gtr	C
EDDIE HOH	drms	C D E
DAVID HOOD	bs	C
DON McALLISTER	bs	C D
BOBBY GREGG	drms	D
BOB GREENSPAN	vcls	E

ALBUMS:

1(A)	BLOWING MY MIND	(Epic 26199)	1966
2(B)	BARRY GOLBERG REUNION	(Buddah BDS-5012)	1968
3(C)	TWO JEWS BLUES	(Buddah BDS-5029)	1969
4(D)	STREETMAN	(Buddah BDS-5051)	1970
5(E)	BARRY GOLDBERG AND FRIENDS	(Record Man CR5016)	1970
6(-)	BLAST FROM MY PAST (comp)	(Buddah BDS-5081)	1974
7(F)	BARRY GOLBERG	(Atco 7040)	1974
8(G)	BARRY GOLDBERG AND FRIENDS RECORDING LIVE	(BUDDAH 5684)	1976

NB: (3) was also released in France and in England (Buddah 203 020). (6) was released in the U.K. by Polydor (2318 938) in 1974.

45s:

1	Blowing My Mind/Think	(Epic 5-10007)	1966
2	Ronny Siegel From Avenue L/Carry On	(Verve Forecast KF 5045)	1968
3	Hole In My Pocket/Sittin In Circles	(Buddah BDA-59)	1968

Originally from Chicago, Barry Goldberg is a singer, songwriter, producer and pianist who was very active between 1965 and 1976 on the Chicago and San Francisco scenes, generally playing a combination of electric blues with soul and rock.

In 1966, after the Golberg/Miller Blues Band, he released his first solo album, produced by Billy Sherrill and then formed the Chicago Loop with Mike Bloomfield who would soon move to California.

In 1967, Goldberg was asked to join the Electric Flag by Bloomfield and Gravenites. Shortly afterwards, he signed a long term contract with Buddah Records and recorded four albums for the label, the best of which Two Jews Blues containing songs like Jimi The Fox (dedicated to Hendrix), Spirit Of Trane (for Coltrane) and Blues For Barry And, with excellent guitar parts by Bloomfield, Harvey Mandel, Duane Allman and Eddie Hinton.

In 1972 he joined Neil Merryweather for the Ivar Avenue Reunion album and kept on working constantly with Bloomfield on his solo albums, the reformed Electric Flag and the creation of KGB. Goldberg was also a producer, notably for Mother Earth, David Blue, James Cotton and The Rockets.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Goldberg-Miller Blues Band

TOP

Personnel incl:

BARRY GOLDBERG	organ	A
STEVE MILLER	vcls, gtr	A

45s:

1	More Soul Than Soulful/The Mother Song	(Epic 9865)	1965
2	More Soul Than Soulful/More Soul Than Soulful	(Epic 9865)	1965
3	Whole Lotta Shakin Goin On/Ginger Man	(Epic 10033)	1966

NB: (2) is a rare blue wax, promo only 45.

Formed in Chicago in 1965 by Steve Miller and Barry Goldberg, the band was first called the World War Three Blues Band before renaming itself as the Goldberg-Miller Blues Band. They broke up when Steve Miller moved to San Francisco in 1966. Their singles are extremely rare.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Golden Catalinas

Personnel incl:

- BOB DICKS
- JIM KELLY
- DENNY NOIE
- AL POSNIAK
- HARRY WHEELOCK

45s:

1. War Party/Crazy Twistin' Baby (Cuca 1094) 1962
2. By My Window/Wo Wo (Sara 6392) 1963
3. Hey Little Girl/Forever And A Day (PS) (Mundo 1000) 1964
4. It Ain't A Big Thing/Dee Dee (Knight 100) 1965
5. Come To Me/Yakety Sax (Knight 101) 1966
6. Varsity Club Song/Can Your Monkey Do The Dog (Target 101/2) 1966
7. Dee Dee/Mojo Workin' (Tee Pee 117/8) 1967

NB: (1) - (3) as The Catalinas, (4) as Denny Noie and The Catalinas.

Hailed from La Crosse in Southwest Wisconsin. They were originally known as The Catalinas, recording an instrumental for Cuca in 1962 and a three more 45s before adding the 'Golden' to their name in 1965.

With the new name came a change of image - gold suits, gold shoes and bleached hair. Varsity Club Song, a raw garage punker with classic nasal vocals and organ beat, paid homage to one of La Crosses top teen clubs in the mid-sixties. You can check it out on Back From The Grave, Vol. 6. A rather messy production though. It's flip side: Can Your Monkey Do The Dog has also been compiled on Tougher Than Stains.

Alan Posniak, who was the driving force behind the Target and Tee Pee labels, also played with an outfit called The Phaetons. Other acts on Tee Pee included Sertified Sounds.

Golden Dawn

Personnel:

- GEORGE KINNEY vcls A
- BOBBY RECTOR drms A

- TOM RAMSEY gtr A
- BILL HALLMARK bs A
- JIMMY BIRD gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A POWER PLANT (International Artists 4) 1967

NB: (1) has had a limited repressing in 1979 and issued on CD by Fan Club (NRCD 4126) and Eva (B26) in 1992.

Taking their name from the esoteric teachings and philosophy of the Hermetic Tradition, this band was formed in Austin in 1967. The 13th Floor Elevators got them a recording contract with International Artists. Indeed, George Kinney and Roky Erickson had grown up together in South Austin, attended the same school and played together in The Fugitives, a garage band from 1964/65. Kinney also played in Chelsea from late 1965 to late 1966 joining The Golden Dawn at the invitation of some high school friends when Chelsea fell apart.

The album is one of the best on the label with fine psychedelic instrumentation and thought provoking lyrics. Sadly, International Artists failed to promote it and the band fell apart when Kinney, determined to have nothing more to do with them, headed for California. Together with George Banks (who did the artwork for the album) Kinney later published Roky Erickson's book "Openers" whilst Roky was in Rusk State Hospital and the book helped to win his release. One cut from the album, Starvation, was later issued on an EP by Radarscope (RAD 88) 1978 in the U.K. along with cuts by the 13th Floor Elevators, The Red Krayola and The Lost and Found. Copies were given away at Red Krayola's 1978 reunion gig at London's Hope and Anchor pub. My Time can be heard on Endless Journey, Phase 3.

Bill Hallmark went on to sing & play guitar for Rubayyat along with the 13th Floor Elevators' Danny Galindo.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Goldenrod to Goose Creek Symphony

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Goldenrod
- Golden Throat
- Goliath
- Goldtones
- Golgotha
- Golliwogs
- Gonn
- Good and Plenty
- Good Cheer
- Good Dog Banned
- Good Earth
- Good Feelins
- The Good Idea
- The Good Rats
- The Good, The Bad and The Ugly
- Goodthunder
- Goose Creek Symphony

Goldenrod

TOP

Personnel:

- JERRY SCHEFF bs A
- TOXEY FRENCH drms A
- BEN BENAY gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GOLDENROD (Chartmaker CS 91101) 1967

NB. (1) reissued on Heyoka (HEY 205) 1985 and on CD 1997.

From Los Angeles, Goldenrod were part of the "Our Productions" crew, along with Mike Deasy, Lee Mallory and Curt Boettcher. As part of this talented group of people, they contributed to numerous albums and sessions in addition to those released as Goldenrod. Some of these included Tommy Roe and backing the Association on their first two albums. Much of this session work was done on a "conveyor" belt system; with all the instrumental tracks being cut at Gary Paxton's studio, and vocals for the more well known acts cut at Columbia.

All three had earlier played with Ballroom with Boettcher and together with Mallory, they formed the basis of the original line-up of Millennium. Scheff contributed Dandelion Wine to the Millennium repertoire, but all three left when it looked like Millennium would turn into a 'proper' band rather than a studio project. Goldenrod are also thought to have backed Lee Mallory live.

The Goldenrod album contains four elongated tracks consisting of extended and improvised jamming with mystical titles, such as Karmic Dream Sequences and Descent Of The Cyclopeans. The former was written by Curt Boettcher and Lee Mallory, and was later also recorded by Millennium.

Apparently the group first met while they were recruited to back The Fifth Dimension and they all went on to become top LA session men; Scheff also went on to back Elvis Presley and backed Benay appeared in Fun Zone in the seventies.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster)

Golden Throat

TOP

ALBUM:

1	GOLDEN THROAT	(Trim)	c1972

From Hawaii, a rock group with Hammond B-3 organ and female vocals. The album came in a fine cover with mushrooms.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Goliath

TOP

ALBUM:

1	HOT ROCK AND THUNDER	(Private Pressing)	c1974

From Kentucky, a hard rock act heavily influenced by Deep Purple.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Goldtones

TOP

ALBUM:

1	THE GOLDTONES	(La Brea)	1966

On the same label as The Starfires, a frat rock cover band.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Golgotha

Personnel:

- R.X. HEYMAN drms A
- MICHAEL JANNONE sax, perc A
- BETSY LEE vcls A
- MICHAEL MELESURGO perc A
- B.C. SCOFIELD gtr, vcls, bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) OLD SEEDS BOOTLEG (No label) 1974 R3

Very home-made local New Jersey private press with blank labels. Interesting amalgam of Little Feat (at their most laid - back) and Grateful Dead's early seventies sound. Most of the tracks are guitar - led and tend to get heavy. It was issued in a plain sleeve with front cover sticker glued on.

Richard X.Heyman next turned up in Bethesda, Md - playing guitar in Rage, drumming behind Link Wray, then going solo.

(Clark Faville / Max Waller)

Golliwogs

Personnel:

DOUG CLIFFORD	drms	A
STU COOK	bs	A
JOHN FOGERTY	vcls, gtr	A
TOM FOGERTY	gtr, vcls, hrmnca	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE GOLLIWOGS	(Fantasy 9474)	1975

45s:

1	Don't Tell Me No Lies/Little Girl	(Fantasy 590)	1965
2	Where You Been/You Came Walking	(Fantasy 597)	1965
3	You Can't Be True/You Got Nothin' On Me	(Fantasy 599)	1965
4	Brown-Eyed Girl/You Better Be Careful	(Scorpio 404)	1966
5	Fight Fire/Fragile Child	(Scorpio 405)	1966
6	Walking On The Water/You Better Get It	(Scorpio 408)	1967
7	Porterville/Call It Pretending	(Scorpio 412)	1967

When Tommy and The Blue Velvets signed with Fantasy, they became The Golliwogs, much to the group's embarrassment. The seven singles on Fantasy and its affiliated Scorpio label show their evolution, from a Beatles influenced group lead by Tom Fogerty (born 9th November 1941) vocals and guitar to a Rock, Country and R&B act totally dominated by his younger brother John (Born 28th May 1945). A gifted singer, songwriter and guitarist, John soon relegated his brother to rhythm guitar.

The singles are rare but can be found on The Golliwogs compilation album released in 1975 and some tracks on The Scorpio Records Story.

On Christmas Eve 1967, The Golliwogs rechristened themselves Creedence Clearwater Revival.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Gonn

TOP

Personnel:

BRENT COLVIN	drms	A
GERRY GABLE	keyb'ds	A B C F
REX GARRETT	gtr	A B F
CRAIG MOORE	bs	A B C D E F
GARY STEPP	gtr	A D
LARRY LAMASTER	gtr	B F
DAVE JOHNSON	drms	B C? D? E? F
JERRY HEATH	gtr	C
SLINK RAND	ld gtr	C
DANA GEORGES	ld gtr	D
ALFRED BOYER	gtr	D E
JERRY ISON	ld gtr	E

ALBUMS:

1(A)	ROUGH DIAMONDS: THE HISTORY OF GARAGE BAND MUSIC, VOL 9: GONN	(Voxx 200.029)	1985
2(-)	FRENZOLOGY 1966-1967 (CD)	(MCCM CD 9601)	1996
3(F)	GONN WITH THE WIND (LP/CD)	(MCCM)	1998
4(-)	LOUDEST BAND IN TOWN (LP)	(Beat Rocket BR 108)	1999

45s:

1(A)	Blackout of Gretely/Pain In My Heart	(Emir 9217)	1966
2(B)	Come With Me (To The Stars)/You're Looking Fine	(Merry Jaine IT-2316)	1967
3	The Prophecy / Cry To Me (PS)	(MCCM 6696-1)	1996
4	Pretty Girl / Head In The Clouds (PS)	(MCCM 6696-2)	1996
5	Fellow Slave/The Wind (PS)	(MCCM)	2000

NB: (3) limited edition of 1000, first 200 on pink wax. (4) limited edition of 1000, first 200 on blue wax. (5) contains LP version and Live in Turin, Italy, Feb '97, orange swirl vinyl with PS.

Based in Keokuk they emerged out of the ashes of The Pagans, a garage covers band, of which Moore, Gabel and La Master had been members. They were a controversial 'live' act and won backing from Bill Egan after he'd seen them playing a show in Burlington and wanted them to back him on a 45. The deal was, they'd back him on two songs if he'd pay for them to record two of their own. So they backed him on Eddie Cochran's C'mon Everybody and Kansas City, which never got a release, whilst their two songs were issued on the Emir label. Late in 1966 they entered a basement studio in Quincy, Illinois, to record a tape of cover versions for a guy in Florida who'd promised to get them lots of gigs down there. Fortunately, Craig Moore kept a copy of it and many of the songs can now be heard on their retrospective Rough Diamonds and Frenzology albums, because they never heard any more of the tape they sent to Florida.

1967 saw some personnel changes with Colvin and Stepp leaving to be replaced by La Master and Johnson. This line-up returned to Quincy to record another self-penned Garrett-Moore composition (the flip was a Kinks cover) which they released on their own Merry Jaine Records. Further convoluted line-ups took place in 1968, as Craig Moore recalls:- "The next-to-last version of Gonn in 1968 also had Slink Rand on guitar. He took my Les Paul on the sly and auditioned for Freddie Tieken and The Rockers, a job which he naturally and rightfully got. Slink was then replaced by one of his students, Dana Georges, and Jerry was replaced by Alfred Boyer. Then Dana was replaced by Jerry Ison, and there the Gonn story came to an end, except for I think three reunion gigs in 1969 with Rex, Larry, Dave, Gerry and I. It all gets a bit hazy, we did so much in such a short time".

When the split came, Gabel formed an eight piece called Mother Hooker's Blues Band and Moore and Johnson formed a blues trio, Trinity. Craig:- "I joined Slink in Freddie Tieken and The Rockers for a while. Fred changed the name to The American Music Band, stealing it sort of from The Electric Flag. We played EVERYWHERE... Then when the horn guys all quit, we became Ilmo Smokehouse, heavy as hell, anti-war, pro-drug hippie all the way. When that eventually ended Dennis Slink and I became 'Smokehouse' as a really heavy progressive trio. Later on we had Micki Free on guitar (later with L.A. soul group Shalamar). We wore glitter and make-up before Kiss, but they made it we didn't. It's all nuts, convoluted, insane, I can't believe I did all of this crap!"

The Voxx album, or the later Frenzology retrospectives are higly recommended, containing their fuzz-punker Blackout Of Gretely, the keyboard-led Come With Me (To The Stars), an unreleased 45 Doin' Me In and a number of spirited cover versions.

Craig Moore now runs a collectors label MCCM, which has put out reissue/retrospective 45s on artists including Al's Untouchables and The Intruders. Other releases include a solo double LP from 1989 Agonnagain (colored vinyl 500 pressed), a 1994 7" EP Sun Session with Jim McCarty of The Yardbirds (recorded at Sun, Memphis, 1992) with a cover of Yardbirds' Evil Hearted You, and a new 7" Fine Surprise/Gonna Come For You from an upcoming album that also features Jim McCarty, Chris Dreja and The Creation's Eddie Phillips.

As for The Gonn, they have continued to be held in high regard and this has led to them reforming and releasing new material in addition to being actively involved in compiling their original '60s material. The two 30th Anniversary Reunion 45s released on Craig Moore's own MCCM imprint, reveal more about the band's recent activities. First off they reunited in 1990 for a festival held in Keokuk. Then, when Craig was assembling the Frenzology compilation in 1996 he got in touch with all the other members for their contributions to the project. The rekindled enthusiasm resulted in a full-blown reunion to celebrate their 30th anniversary with new recordings plus some live gigs in the U.S. and Europe.

It is to their credit that the new recordings on the 45s recapture much of their '60s spirit and sound, and will NOT dilute their reputation. The new LP, Gonn With The Wind is out now in multi-coloured vinyl, and limited to 500 numbered copies.

Compilation appearances to date have included: Blackout Of Gretely on The Chosen Few, Get Primitive (The Best of Pebbles) and Pebbles, Vol. 1 (CD); Doin' Me In on Pebbles Box Set and Pebbles, Vol. 10 (CD); and Signed D.C. on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 8 (CD).

(Max Waller)

Good and Plenty

Personnel:

1. DOUGLAS GOOD A
2. GINNY PLENTY A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE WORLD OF GOOD AND PLENTY (Senate S-21001) 1967

All the tracks on this album were written by Tony Romeo and Wes Farrell and they handled production too. It came in a great cover and has one fine track in Children Dreamin'. Overall, though, an album to rank alongside Split Level, The Collage, etc.

Good Cheer

ALBUM:

1	TIME FOR	(ORS)	c1972 R1

A rare private pressing released by an Indiana rock group, with one side of garage originals and one side of covers.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Good Dog Banned

Personnel:

TIM CAINE	sax, gtr	A
LEE MARKS	drms, flute	A
CHRIS MILLER	gtr, sax	A
DOUG MORTENSON	gtr, steel gtr	A
DWIGHT WOLF	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE GOOD DOG BANNED	(No label DM 1001)	197? R3

NB: (1) reissued officially on CD (Gear Fab GF-125) with bonus tracks.

Rare private press album from Northern California circa 1973. Only 200 copies were made, and the album came in a plain cover with front and rear paste-on slicks. Caine was formerly with Sons of Champlin. One of the hardest Bay Area records of the era to locate, the group plays proficient rural rock that sounds influenced by the early seventies Grateful Dead.

Good Earth

45:

1. Stone Free/Still Beside Me (SWAC 903S-1001) 1968

A competent, if uninspiring Hendrix cover in a hard slightly psychy vein. The flip is softer rock but good. The band are thought to have hailed from Michigan, but this is unconfirmed. (Max Waller)

Good Feelins

45s:

1. I'm Captured/End Of A Love (Rock-It 1007) 1967
2. I'm Captured/End Of A Love (Liberty 55981) 1967
3. I'm Lost/Shattered (Rock-It 2000) 1967

A mid-sixties San Bernadino (California) punk band. Shattered can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD), The Essential Pebbles Collection, Vol. 1(dble CD), Boulders, Vol. 3 and Gone, Vol. 1. You'll also find I'm Captured on Vile Vinyl, Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

The Good Idea

Personnel:

BOB BLANK	vcls, sax	A
RICK Lia BRAATEN	drms, vcl	A
DAVE LINDER	gtr, vcl	A
JOHN MIESEN	keyb'ds	A

45:

1	Inside, Outside/Patterns In Life	(Good Idea no #)	c1968

This Christian rock/garage band came from St. Paul, about 100 miles Northwest of Minneapolis in Minnesota and operated between 1968-69. Their 45 is good and becoming hard to find and features keyboard-bass parts ala The Doors.

In addition to the 45, they also recorded a track called 12:25.

After The Good Idea split in 1969, Rick Lia Braaten and John Miesen formed a trio with Bill Hallquist called Final Assembly. Bill:- "I had operated lights for The Good Idea briefly, and had earlier played in The Transgressors and The Other Guys with Rick Lia Braaten. In '69 we began work on what was to be another concept piece like 12:25

(Christmas Story), called Summertime Children with me on lead vocal. Bob Blank offered to re-join if he could bring in bass player Terry Tilly and we became Thundertree".

John Miesen shopped the Good Idea track 12:25 around to labels and landed a contract with Roulette. We used 12:25 as one side and completed another side with the real Thundertree band.

Compilation coverage has included Inside, Outside on Bad Vibrations Vol. 2.

The Good Rats

Personnel incl:

MICKY MARCHELLO	gtr, vcls	A
PEPPI MARCHELLO vcls		A

ALBUM:

(up to 1968)
1	THE GOOD RATS	(Kapp 3580)	1968

NB: (1) also released in France (Vogue CLVXK 347) 1968.

45:

1	For The Sake Of Everyone/Gotta Get Back	(Kapp ?)	1968

NB: (1) also released in France with a picture sleeve showing a big rat (Vogue/Kapp KV 538) 1968.

A Long Island Italian-American band lead by the Marchello brothers. Their first album was produced by Ron Hoffkins and Barry Osslander but flopped. The Good Rats persevered, returning in 1974 with Tasty on Warner and enjoyed some success at the end of the '70s. Their singer, Peppi Marchello, was notable for his raunchy timbre.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Good, The Bad and The Ugly

Personnel:

- BUBBA GOODE vcls, gtr, bs, drms A
- JOE PIPPS ld vcls, bs, gtr, keyb'ds, drms A
- KENNY YETMAN drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE GOOD, THE BAD AND THE UGLY (Mercury SR 61253) 1970

This bunch were previously known as The Next Exit, and came from Beaumont and Port Arthur, Texas. Their sole album was produced by Huey P. Meaux and is a heavy R&B rootsy rocker, which continues where the American Blues' second album left off. Despite the occasional 'psych' tag by opportunistic dealers, this is definitely for those deeply into blues-rock ala Johnny Winter, who also hailed from Beaumont and with whom they'd jammed. (Max Waller)

Goodthunder

Personnel:

WAYNE COOK	keyb'ds	A
JOHN DESAUTELS	drms	A
DAVID HANSON	gtr, vcls	A
JAMES CAHHON LINDSAY	vcls, perc	A
BILL RHODES	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	GOODTHUNDER	(Elektra EKS-75041)	1972

Recorded in Los Angeles, this is a decent album of hard psyche with some prog influences and good organ and guitar parts. Nothing exceptional but quite pleasant and masterfully produced by Paul Rothschild (Doors, Love, Buckley, Joplin etc.).

Wayne Cook will later play with a reformation of Steppenwolf and become a session musician.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Goose Creek Symphony

Personnel:

DAVE BIRKELL	bs	A
RITCHIE HART	ld vcls, gtr	A
BOB HENKE III	gtr, piano, organ, vcls	A
PAUL HOWARD	gtr, dobro, vcls	A
MIKE McFADDEN	gtr	A
(ED BLACK	gtr	A)
(BUDDY WHEELER		A)

ALBUM:

(selective)

1(A)	GOOSE CREEK SYMPHONY	(Capitol SM 444)	1970

Formed by Mike McFadden after Superfine Dandelion broke up, Goose Creek Symphony was a rural rock group with strong country influences. Recorded in Arizona and produced by Kelly Gordon and Tim Ramsey, their first album is worth obtaining for Talk About Goose Creek, eight minutes of guitars duels, with the participation of Ed Black, another ex Superfine Dandelion.

Lead by Charles Gearheart, their following albums are too country rock oriented to be included here.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Jimmy Gordon to The Grass

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Jimmy Gordon
- Gordian Knot
- Gord's Horde
- Gospel
- Gospel Oak
- Gossip
- Gove
- Symon Grace and Tuesday Blues
- Graced Lightnning
- Graffiti
- A Grain of Sand
- Grains of Sand
- Grains of Sand
- The Grains of Sand
- Grand Larceny
- Grand Prees
- Grand Prees
- Granfalloon
- Grandma's Rockers
- Granmax
- Grand Theft
- Granicus
- Grant's Blueboys
- Grapes Of Rath
- The Grapes of Wrath
- The Grapes of Wrath
- The Grapes of Wrath
- The Grass

Jimmy Gordon

45s:

1	Buzzzzzz / Somethin' Else	(Challenge 59194)	1963

2 Test Pattern / 1980 (Challenge 59355) 1967

Buzzzzzz inspired the title of Arf! Arf!'s instrumental CD compilation series, and justifiably features Buzzzzzz on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 1 (CD). Test Pattern from his 1967 45 is on the companion Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 2 (CD).

Jimmy Gordon also was behind Peter Pan and The Good Fairies.

Gordian Knot

Personnel:

- PAT KINCADE gtr A
- DULIN LANCASTER drms A
- J. D. LOBUE keyb'ds A
- LELAND RUSSELL bs, vcls A
- JIM WEATHERLY gtr, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) TONE (Verve V(6) 60562) 1968

45s:

1. If Only I Could Cry/Year Of The Sun (Verve 10595) 1968
2. Broken Down Ole Merry-Go-Round/We Must Be Doing Something Right (Verve 10612) 1968

A short-lived San Francisco-based outfit whose album was essentially harmony/pop rock, certainly not one for garage fans. Jim Weatherly later would become a soft country singer, releasing several albums for Buddha circa 1974/5.

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

Gord's Horde

Came out of Rhinelander, a small Northeast Wisconsin town with I Don't Care, which was a fine folk punk song with lots of minor chords which originally appeared on a half of an EP on Hodag (0540) Records in 1966. The song is well worth checking out and you'll find it on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 15: Wisconsin, Part 2.

Gospel

45:

1. Redeemer / I Won't Be Sad Again (Vanguard Apostolic VRS 35084) 1969

Both sides of this hippie folk 45 were written and produced by John Townley of Magicians, Family Of Apostolic, and Apostolic Studio fame. The 'A' side is a harmony-folk ballad with an Eastern/psychy vibe, like a spaced-out Steeleye Span. The flip is in a more trad folk-country vein, with banjo and latterly fiddle. (Max Waller)

Gospel Oak

TOP

Personnel:

- BOB LEGATE gtr,vels A
- KERRY GAINES drms A
- CLIFF HALL piano, organ A
- GORDON HUNTLEY pedal steel gtr A
- MATTHEW KELLY hrmnca, gtr A
- JOHN RAPP bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GOSPELOAK (Kapp KS 3635) 1970

NB. Also issued on Uni (UNLS 113) in 1970.

45:

1. O. K. Sam/Go Talk To Rachel (Kapp 2115) 1970

A marginal case for inclusion since this album is basically hippie-influenced country rock. Pleasant enough with some good guitar moments but in no way exceptional. It has yet to create much interest among collectors. Two of the best tracks were also issued on the above 45. Other memorable songs are Recollections Of Jessica and St. Anne's Pretension.

OK Sam was later ripped off and recorded as Important Exportin' Man by the New Riders Of The Purple Sage on their Panama Red album. Tim Hovey (co-author of same) had been a major child movie star of the 1950's. Tragically he recently commited suicide.

John Rapp later died of a drug overdose, Gordon Huntley was later a member of Elton John's band and Matthew Kelly is a current member of Ratdog (Bob Weir's Grateful Dead carry-overs). He has also played on many of the Dead's projects, over the years. Finally, Bob Legate became a successful real estate broker and currently plays with the Grateful Living.

Gossip

TOP

45:

1. No One's Standing In Your Way/Whispering Wind (Gossip ARA 102268) 1968

Phoenix, Arizona's answer to Jefferson Airplane? Well, not quite, but pleasant West Coasty hippie folk-psych-rock with the then obligatory female vocalist. (Max Waller).

Gove

ALBUM:

1 HEAVY COWBOY (TRX LPS-1002) 1971

Probably from Texas, this album has been described as "a weird mix of country rock and psych, sorta like Darius meets Euphoria (the Capitol one)". The songs include In The Morning (When You Dream), Death Letter Blues and Morning Dew. The album rarely turns up for sale.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Symon Grace and Tuesday Blues

45:

1. You Won't Get Me Workin'/Out Of Sight (Main Line ML 1364) 1967

NB: (1) also released on Round (1004) 1967.

Powerful pumping fuzz-garage with soulful intonations. Sadly, the flip is very soulful and brassy. From Erie, Pennsylvania. (Max Waller)

Graced Lightnning

Personnel:

- JOAN BURNSTEIN keyb'ds, mandolin A
- GEORGE EDWARD drms, perc A
- GARY GAND gtr, bs A
- CHRIS HERMAN gtr, bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE GRACED LIGHTNING SIDE (No label) 1975 R3

A local Illinois one-sided album issued in a plain cover with front and rear paste-ons. It's three tracks are hard progressive rock instrumentals with great guitar. (Clark Faville)

Graffiti

Personnel:

STEVE BENDEROTH	keyb'ds	A
JOHN ST. JOHN	gtr	A
TONY TAYLOR	vcls	A
RICHIE BLAKIN	drms	A
GEORGE STRUNZ	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	GRAFFITI	(ABC ABCS 663)	1968

NB: (1) reissued on CD (LSD ET 5005) 1998.

45s:

1	He's Got The Knack/Love In Spite	(ABC 11123)	1968
2	Do You Feel Sorry?/Girl On Fire	(ABC 11182)	1969

Produced by Bob Thiele (Ford Theatre, Eden's Children etc.), Eddie Kramer and Jay Senter, their album is a mix of light and heavy rock with some occasionally excellent guitar solos, leaning more towards progressive than acid or psych. Strunz and Benderoth, sometimes helped by St. John and Taylor, wrote all the songs, except Ugly Mascara penned by Ronald Hovanecz.

The band were based in Greenwich Village, having relocated from Washington DC when they were known as The Button, (which was the final incarnation of The Hangmen). The Button line-up included drummer Bob Berberich who returned to DC, teamed up with two other ex-Hangmen and Nils Lofgren to form (Paul Dowell and) The Dolphin and later Grin. The CD reissue adds He's Got The Knack to the album tracks, which include both Love In Spite and Girl On Fire. He's Got The Knack is also to be found on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 3 and World Of Acid: a fast 'n' fuzzy mainly instrumental post-Vanilla Fudge rocker. Actually, the flip Love In Spite is pretty good heavy stuff too.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini/Bob Embrey)

A Grain of Sand

ALBUM:

1	MUSIC FOR THE STRUGGLE BY ASIANS IN AMERICA	(Paredon)	1973

A hard strummin electrical/acoustic folk trio, obviously influenced by Jefferson Airplane at times. Housed in a thick cover with a book, a yellow vinyl pressing.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Grains of Sand

Personnel incl:

- DOUG MARK gtr, vcls A
- GUY FINLEY drms B
- JIMMY GREENSPOON keyb'ds, vcls B
- MICHAEL LLOYD bs, ld vcls B
- SEAN McLEOD gtr B

45s:

1. (A) That's When Happiness Began/She Needs Me (Valiant 736) 1965
2. (B) Going Away Baby/Golden Apples Of The Sun (Genesis 101) 1966
3. Nice Girl/Drop Down Sometime (Philips 40469) 1967

This band operated out of Los Angeles, and according to the Pebbles liner notes the original line-up met whilst in the Navy. Their second 45 was produced by Kim Fowley and Michael Lloyd, with the 'A' side, Going Away Baby, being written by Michael Lloyd and Sean McLeod. It is a catchy uptempo rocker, which has subsequently resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 1, Essential Pebbles, Vol. 1 (dble CD), Pebbles Box Set and I Was A Teenage Caveman. The flip, Golden Apples Of The Sun, was written by Michael Lloyd and Kim Fowley and is much more psychedelic, featuring some fine guitar work and culminating in a haze of confusion. You'll also find this on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3.

Their first 45 That's When Happiness Began, was an Addrisi brothers composition and has got a further airing on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 1 and What A Way To Die. The song was also recorded by The Montanas and their version can be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 5. It's flip She Needs Me can also be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD), Gathering Of The Tribe and Off The Wall. Doug Mark, who played and sang on this 45, later went on to The Sunshine Company.

Their third and final 45: a pleasant soft pop effort - suffers by comparison to their first two releases. It's also known that the band recorded further material, with Michael Lloyd producing, which has yet to be released.

Michael Lloyd was also in The Smoke, Rubber Band, and West Coast Pop Art Experimental Band. He became one of America's top record producers. Jimmy Greenspoon went on to become a founding member of Three Dog Night.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Joe Foster)

Grains of Sand

45:

1. Passing Thru'The Night/The Castaway of Capt. Haze (American Music Makers 008) 1967

This 45 was the work of a Pittsburg, Pennsylvania band, who had recorded earlier as The Grand Prees. The 'A' side was included on Gone, Vol. 1, although Burghers, Vol. 1 included both sides of their sole 45. Produced by Lou Guarino, both songs are Beatles influenced and were written by Bob Wyler, who was probably a member of the group.

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Grains of Sand

Personnel incl:

- JERRY WOOD

45:

1. I've Got It Bad/I Wonder Why (Swank 154) 196?

A different ouffit from the better known Los Angeles and Pittsburg bands, this mob came from Oklahoma City, where they played in the second half of the 1960s, recording this one good punk 45.

Grand Larceny

45:

1. Jumpin' Jack Flash/Since I Fell For You (Galaxy 1003) 196?

A Stones' cover from an Iowa-based garage outfit.

Grand Prees

45s:

1. No Time To Lose/This Lovely Day (Scotty GQP 825) 196?

Average organ punkers from Pittsburg on the Scotty label, though not the famed Warren Kendrick one. They later recorded as Grains Of Sand.

(Max Waller).

Grand Prees

45:

1. Heartbreak Hotel/Four Strong Winds (Go Go 101) 1964

This Grand Prees probably came from Florida / Alabama. Anyone know any more?

Grandma's Rockers

Personnel:

- JAMIE FARNUM drms A
- BRIAN HAAS bs A
- DAVE LANGE organ A
- JIM MAROUSIS gtr A
- LARRY WILLIAMS ld gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HOME MADE APPLE PIE AND YANKEE INGENUITY (Fredlo 6727) 1967 R5

NB: (1) reissued on Del-Val in 1993 (R1).

Just five hundred copies of this rare garage-style album were made. A private release by high school kids, it was funded by their parents and mostly given away to friends and family. Musically it's a mixture of covers of Music Machine and Country Joe and The Fish songs with standards like Louie, Louie and some originals too. The band hailed from Iowa and like many of these albums it's pretty disappointing musically.

Their version of Talk Talk has also resurfaced on Oil Stains, Vol. 2.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Scott ?)

Granmax

ALBUM:

1	A NINTH ALIVE	(Panama)	1976

An unknown hard rock group from Missouri.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Granfalloon

Personnel:

- GEORGE BELL perc A
- W. G. CHRISTENSEN drms, perc, vcls A
- JIMBO DEE synthesizer A

- D. DISTORTO bs, mellotron A
- MAUREEN O'CONNOR gtr, vcls, mellotron A
- LARRY PARSONS keyb'ds A
- CARL VANYOUNG clarinet A
- LARRY WOLF soprano sax A

ALBUM:

1. (A) LASER PACE (Takoma R 9021) 1973

An experimental, avant-garde, progressive album also characterized by Maureen O'Connor's distinctive vocal style. Some of you could find this album 'psychedelic', but it's certainly not for garage fans. If progressive rock is your niche you could find this interesting and it's becoming rare. Lots of complex keys, melletron and guitar and Maureen O'Connor's vocals are haunting.

Grand Theft

ALBUM:

1	GRAND THEFT	(Private Pressing)	1972 R1

From Washington, an hysterical hard rock outfit with manic vocals, screaming guitar leads and a strong Led Zeppelin influence. The known copies are in a plain white cover.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Granicus

ALBUM:

1	GRANICUS	(RCA Victor AFL 1-0321)	1973

NB: (1) reissued on CD.

An obscure hard rock group from Ohio which may interest some collectors. In 1975, their drummer produced a flexi-disc by Pandora (Evatone), another hard rock outfit.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Grant's Blueboys

45:

1. If I Were A Carpenter/Love Is Such A Game (Garland GR-2014) 1969

Salem, Oregon's answer to Blue Cheer? An awesome version of Tim Hardin's classic with some savage outbursts of fuzz and distortion - hear it on High All The Time 2. The flip is a comparatively mellow affair but still pretty wicked. (Max Waller)

Grapes Of Rath

ALBUM:

1. GLORY (Tarus) 196? R4

A very rare mix of garage fuzz and organ pop from a Pennsylvanian band, which was recorded circa 1968/69.

The Grapes of Wrath

Personnel:

- STEVE (SKELTON) KELLY drms
- WILLIAM "SONNY" LYLE bs
- HUEY P. MEADOWS gtr
- KENNY WAYNE ld vcl, gtr

45:

1. Time Seems To Fly/Baby Come On Home (Koper) Sept. 1966

Based in Texarkana, Texas, this band were actually Kenny Wayne and his band The Starchiefs. The 45 was recorded at Buddy Knox/Ray Ruff's Checkmate studio in Amarillo, Texas in June 1965, but not released until October '66, and then under a different name due to the band changing drummers.

The 45 was recorded while The Starchiefs (aka The Grapes Of Wrath) were touring West Texas / South-western Oklahoma and the South-west parts of New Mexico on their first trip away from their usual Nort East Texas / South Eastern Arkansas / South East Oklahoma territory. The 45s 'B' side also featured a black session player on keyboards who used to be booked out as bogus "Booker T" and "Dave Baby Cortez" by Ray Ruff and Grapes Of Wrath executive producer Charlie Johnson. Both sides also featured two uncredited female vocalists, who appear on many of Ray Ruff's and Buddy Knox's recordings.

The Koper label was based in Houma, Louisiana.

Wayne was later with Kenny Wayne And The Kamotions.

The Grapes of Wrath

45:

1. Cauz It Was Her/For Every Year (Vita V-006) 196?

San Pedro, California's Grapes Of Wrath's derivative punker has now been immoftalised on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 7. There was also a Grapes Of Wrath in Wisconsin who had a cut (Flower Lady) on sixties compilation Badger A Go Go (Night Owl KTU-3). (Max Waller)

The Grapes of Wrath

Personnel:

- BRENT BURNS gtr,vcls A
- JOHN HESTERMAN organ, drms, gtr, bs,vcls A
- MIKE WHITEHURST ld gtr, vcls A
- STEVE WHITEHURST drms, gtr, keyb'ds, vcls A
- STUART WOOD bs, vcls A
- BRIAN BLACK keyb'ds, vcls
- GERALD TIETZ bs
- TERRY MERRITT vcls
- TERRY MITCHELL gtr, drms, vcls
- BILL MUMFORD vcls
- GREG VANN bs, vcls
- LANCE WOLF gtr, vcls

CD:

1. GRAPES OF WRATH (GEAR FAB GF-126) 1999

45:

1. If Anyone Should Ask/Not A Man (Storm 2245) 1967

Unreleased Demos/Acetates:

1. Irene / Life's Not For Me (Only For You) (Bacak/JHP no #) 1967
2. Have A Good Time On Me/Bawm Diddy (Wolfhound/JHP no #) 1967
3. Suicide / Shades Of Lilian White (JHP 1001) c1969
4. I'm In Love With You / If You Leave Me (JHP 1002) 1971
5. The Party's Over / Cloudy Afternoon (JHP 1003) 1971
6. Laura / Makin' It Through 71 (JHP 1004) 1971

From Phoenix, Arizona this outfit lasted from 1964 thru 1973 and still get together on an annual basis. They released just one 45 and recorded at least a dozen other tracks, which are gathered together on the Gear Fab CD. The excellent power-punk-popper Have A Good Time On Me, from 1967, can be heard on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2. (Max Waller/Roger Maglio)

The Grass

45:

1. I'm Getting Tired/Y'love (Goldust 45-5016) 1966

The 'A' side of this, a catchy garage number written by D. Finn and L. McIntyre, can be found on New Mexico Punk From The Sixties. The flip is composed by D. Finn and is a garage waltz (!) proclaiming various female attributes. The label is from University Park, a few miles Northwest of El Paso.

Both sides can now be heard on Collectables' The Goldust Records Story CD.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Grass Roots to Great Bear

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Grass Roots
- The Grateful Dead
- Graven Image
- Nick Gravenites
- Jesse Graves
- Graveyard 5
- The Gray Things
- Great Bear

The Grass Roots

TOP

Personnel:

BILL FULTON	vcls	A
CREED BRATTON	ld gtr	B
RICK COONCE	drms	B C
WARREN ENTNER	vcls, gtr, keyb'ds	B C D
ROB GRILL	ld vcls, bs	B C D E
TERRY FURLONG	ld gtr	C D
DENNY PROVISOR	keyb'ds	C E
REED KAILING	ld gtr	D
JOEL LARSON	drms	D E
VIRGIL WEBBER	keyb'ds	D
REGGIE KNIGHTON	gtr, vcls	E

ALBUMS:
(up to 1975)

1	WHERE WERE YOU WHEN I NEEDED YOU	(Dunhill D(S) 50011)	1966 - 67
2	LET'S LIVE FOR TODAY	(Dunhill D(S) 50020)	1967 75
3	FEELINGS	(Dunhill D(S) 50027)	1968 - 68
4	GOLDEN GRASS (Comp.)	(Dunhill DS 50047)	1968 25
5	LOVIN' THINGS	(Dunhill DS 50052)	1969 73
6	LEAVING IT ALL BEHIND	(Dunhill DS 50067)	1969 36

7	MORE GOLDEN GRASS (Comp.)	(Dunhill DS 50087)	1970 152
8	TEMPTATION EYES	(Dunhill)	1970 -
9	THEIR 16 GREATEST HITS	(Dunhill DSX 50107)	1971 58
10	MOVE ALONG	(Dunhill DSX 50112)	1972 86
11	A LOT OF MILEAGE	(Dunhill DSX 50137)	1973 -
12(E)	GRASS ROOTS	(Haven ST-9204)	1975 -

NB: (4) and (6) were also released in the U.K. and in France by Stateside. The following compilations were released: The ABC Collection (ABC AC-30003) 1976, Powers Of The Night (MCA 5331) 1982, Greatest Hits, Vol. 1 and Vol. 2 (MCA) 1987, Anthology 1965-1975 (Rhino) 1991 and All-Time Greatest Hits (MCA) 1996. (1) was reissued in 1995 (Varese Vintage) with 6 bonus tracks.

45s:

1	Mr. Jones (The Ballad Of A Thin Man)/You're A Lonely Girl	(Dunhill 4013)	1965 121
2	Where Were You When I Needed You/These Are Bad Times	(Dunhill 4029)	1966 28
3	Only When You're Lonely/This Is What I Was Made For	(Dunhill 4043)	1966 96
4	Look Out, Girl/Tip Of My Tongue	(Dunhill 4053)	1967 -
5	Let's Live For Today/Depressed Feeling	(Dunhill 4084)	1967 8
6	Things I Should Have Said/Tip Of My Tongue	(Dunhill 4094)	1967 23
7	Wake Up, Wake Up/No Exit	(Dunhill 4105)	1967 68
8	A Melody For You/Hey Friend	(Dunhill 4122)	1968 123
9	Feelings/Here's Where You Belong	(Dunhill 4129)	1968 -
10	Midnight Confessions/Who Will You Be Tomorrow	(Dunhill 4144)	1968 5
11	Bella Linda/Hot Bright Lights	(Dunhill 4162)	1969 28
12	All Good Things Come To An End/Melody For You	(Dunhill)	1969 -
13	Lovin' Things/You and Love Are All The Same	(Dunhill 4180)	1969 49
14	The River Is Wide/(You Gotta) Live For Love	(Dunhill 4187)	1969 31
15	Who Will You Be Tomorrow/Midnight Confessions	(Dunhill)	1969 -
16	I'd Wait A Million Years/Fly Me To Havana	(Dunhill 4198)	1969 15
17	Heaven Knows/Don't Remind Me	(Dunhill 4217)	1969 24
18	Walking Through The Country/Truck Drivin' Man	(Dunhill 4227)	1970 44
19	Baby, Hold On/Get It Together	(Dunhill 4237)	1970 35

20	Come On and Say It/Something's Comin' Over Me	(Dunhill 4249)	1970 61
21	Temptation Eyes/Keepin' Me Down	(Dunhill 4263)	1970 15
22	Sooner Or Later/I Can't Turn Off The Rain	(Dunhill 4279)	1971 9
23	Two Divided By Love/Let It Go	(Dunhill 4289)	1971 16
24	Glory Bound/Only One	(Dunhill 4302)	1972 34
25	The Runaway/Move Along	(Dunhill 4316)	1972 39
26	Anyway The Wind Blows/Monday Love	(Dunhill 4325)	1972 107
27	Love Is What You Make It/Someone To Love	(Dunhill 4335)	1973 -
28	Look But Don't Touch/Where There's Smoke There's Fire	(Dunhill 4345)	1973 -
29	We Can't Dance To Your Music/Look But Don't Touch	(Dunhill 4371)	1973 -

NB: There's also a rare French EP with PS: Where Were You When I Needed You/These Are Bad Times/Ballad Of A Thin Man/You're A Lonely Girl (RCA 8906) 1966.

The Grass Roots was originated by the writer/producer team of P.F. Sloan and Steve Barri as a pseudonym under which they would release a body of Byrds/Beau Brummels-style folk-rock. Sloan and Barri were contracted songwriters for Trousdale Music, the publishing arm of Dunhill Records, which wanted to cash in on the folk-rock boom of 1965. Dunhill asked Sloan and Barri to come up with this material, and a group alias under which they would release it. The resulting Grass Roots debut song, Where Were You When I Needed You, sung by Sloan, was sent to a Los Angeles radio station, which began playing it. The problem was, there was no Grass Roots. The next step was to recruit a band that could become The Grass Roots. Sloan found a San Francisco group called The Bedouins that seemed promising on the basis of their lead singer, Bill Fulton. Fulton recorded a new vocal over the backing tracks laid down for the P.F. Sloan version of the song. The Bedouins were, at first, content to put their future in the hands of Sloan and Barri as producers. However, the rest of the group was offended when Fulton was told to record their debut single, a cover of Bob Dylan's The Ballad Of A Thin Man, backed by studio musicians. When that single, released in October of 1965, became only a modest hit, The Bedouins - except for their drummer, Joel Larson - departed for San Francisco, to re-form as The Unquenchable Thirst. Sloan and Barri continued to record and released Where Were You When I Needed You. The album never charted.

Amid the machinations behind Where Were You When I Needed You, no "real" Grass Roots band existed in 1966. A possible solution came along when a Los Angeles band called The 13th Floor submitted a demo tape to Dunhill. This group, consisting of Warren Entner, Creed Bratton, Rob Grill, and Rick Coonce, was recruited and put in the hands of Sloan and Barri. The first track cut by the new Grass Roots in the spring of 1967 was Let's Live For Today, a new version of a song that had been an Italian hit, in a lighter, more up-tempo version, for a U.K. band called The Rokes. Let's Live For Today was an achingly beautiful, dramatic, and serious single and it shot into the Top 10 upon its release in the summer of 1967. An accompanying album, Let's Live For Today, only reached number 75. The group began spreading its wings in the studio with their next album, Feelings, recorded late in 1967, which emphasised the band's material over Sloan and Barri's. This was intended as their own statement of who they were, but it lacked the commercial appeal of anything on Let's Live For Today, sold poorly, and never yielded any hit singles. Eleven months went by before the group had another chart entry, and during that period, Sloan and Barri's partnership broke up, with Sloan departing for New York and an attempt at a performing career of his own.

The band even considered splitting up as all of this was happening. The Grass Roots' return to the charts (with Barri producing), however, was a triumphant one - in the late fall of 1968, Midnight Confessions reached number 5 on the charts and earned a gold record. Midnight Confessions showed the strong influence of motown and R&B.

In April 1969, Creed Bratton left the band, to be replaced by Denny Provisor (ex Hook) and Terry Furlong. Now a quintet, they went on cutting records without breaking stride, enjoying a string of Top 40 hits that ran in to the early seventies, peaking with Temptation Eyes at number 15 in the Summer of 1971. Coonce and Provisor left at the end of 1971, to be replaced by Reed Kailing, Virgil Webber, and Joel Larson - of the original Bedouins/Grass Roots outfit. They arrived just in time to take advantage of the number 16 success of Two Divided By Love, which was the last of the Grass Roots' big hits. The Grass Roots soldiered on for a few more years, reaching the Top 40 a couple of times in 1972, but their commercial success slowly slipped away during 1973. They kept working for a few more years, but called it quits in 1975.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Where Were You When I Needed You on Nuggets Vol.5: Pop Part III; Mr. Jones (Ballad Of A Thin Man) on Nuggets Vol. 6: Punk Part II; Feelings on Nuggets Vol. 9: Acid Rock; Only When You're Lonely on Nuggets Vol. 10: Folk Rock; Let's Live For Today on Nuggets Vol. 11: Pop Part Four and Dunhill Folk Rock 2 : Penny Arcade; You're A Lonely Girl on Dunhill Folk Rock 2 : Penny Arcade and Turds On A Bum Ride Vol. 4 (CD). Is It Any Wonder, Out Of Touch, Things I Should Have Said, Wake Up Wake Up (1967) on Dunhill Folk Rock 1.

The Grass Roots also have a website: http://members.aol.com/Gab1239507/roots.html.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Grateful Dead

TOP

Personnel:
(up to 1972)

- JERRY GARCIA gtr,vcls A B C D E
- PHIL LESH bs A B C D E
- BOB WEIR gtr A B C D E
- RON 'PIGPEN' McKERNAN harp, piano A B C D E
- MICKEY HART perc B C
- BILL KREUTZMANN drms A B C D E
- TOM CONSTANTEN keyb'ds B
- ROBERT HUNTER lyrics B C D E
- KEITH GODCHAUX keyb'ds E
- DONNA GODCHAUX vcls E
- (MERLE SAUNDERS keyb'ds D)

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1. (A) THE GRATEFUL DEAD (Warner Bros 1689) 1967 73
2. (B) ANTHEM OF THE SUN (Warner Bros 1749) 1968 87
3. (6) AOXOMOXOA (Warner Bros 1790) 1969 73

4. (B) LIVE/DEAD (Warner Bros 1830) 1970 64
5. (B) WORKINGMAN'S DEAD (Warner Bros 1869) 1970 27
6. (C) AMERICAN BEAUTY (Warner Bros 1893) 1970 30
7. (A) VINTAGE DEAD (Sunflower 5001) 1970 127
8. (A) HISTORIC DEAD (Sunflower 5004) 1971 154
9. (D) THE GRATEFUL DEAD (Warner Bros 1935) 1971 25
10. (E) EUROPE '72 (Warner Bros 3 x 2662) 1972 24
11. +2 Fillmore tracks & Zabriskie Point.

NB: (1) to (6) also released in France by Vogue/Warner. Recent releases which may interest collectors include Freshly Dead, a limited edition double live LP from 1966 when they were known as The Warlocks; Garcia's Gang, a limited edition 2 LP set from 1971 and Seastones, an urra rare and weird LP of theirs which has recently had a limited reissue.

45s:
(upto 1972)

1. Don't Ease Me In/Stealin' (Scorpio 201) 1966
2. The Golden Road (To Unlimited Devotion)/Cream Puff War (Warner Bros 7016) 1967
3. Born Cross-Eyed/Dark Star (Warner Bros 7186) 1967
4. Dupree's Diamond Blues/Cosmic Charlie (Warner Bros 7324) 1969 -
5. Uncle John's Band/New Speedway Boogie (Warner Bros 7410) 1970 69
6. Truckin'/Ripple (Warner Bros 7464) 1970 64
7. Johnny B. Goode/So Fine (by Elvin Bishop) (Warner Bros 7627) 1972
8. Sugar Magnolia/Mr. Charlie (Warner Bros 7667) 1972 91

Along with Jefferson Airplane, The 'Dead were the other foremost San Francisco underground group and, apart from The Steve Miller Band are the only one still going today.

Jerry Garcia's first guitar was electric and his idol was Chuck Berry. He met Robert Hunter, their non-performing songwriter, at San Mateo Junior College, forming a blue-grass group with him called The Wildwood Boys. Earlier, Garcia had met Bob Weir and Ron McKernan (nicknamed Pigpen) while playing on the coffee house circuit in the Bay Area. Pigpen and Bill Kreutzmann, who Garcia had also met when working in a music shop, were forming a rock group called The Zodiacs, The Wildwood Boys changed their name to The Hart Valley Drifters and starred at the 1963 Monterey folk festival. Garcia's next group, Mother McCree's Uptown Jug Champions included Pigpen, Dawson and Bob Weir, they later changed their name first to The Asphalt Jungle Boys and then to The Warlocks. Kreutzmann replaced Dawson as the group's drummer and Phil Lesh was invited to play bass. This format played in Bill Graham's benefit concert for the Mime Troupe at the Fillmore.

The Wariocks had thus come from diverse musical backgrounds. Phil Lesh had a classical background, (violin and trumpet), Pigpen's father had been an R & B player and Bill Kreutzmann had been a jazz drummer. Garcia, himself, had played mainly bluegrass. The Warlock's early music was rooted in the blues, but under the influence of acid (legal in California until 1966) their music became less conventional. They became the house band for Ken Kesey's Merry Pranksters and the Acid Freaks associated with them. This period is well-documented in Tom Wolfe's book "The Electric Kool Aid Acid Test". A bootleg does exist of The Warlocks' music, which was apparently recorded in Los Angeles in May 1965. The strange times in which The Warlock's operated suggested the need for a 'trippier' name and, after browsing through a dictionary one day, the band came up with The Grateful Dead. Their association with the Merry Pranksters soon diminished following Kesey's drug bust trial, conviction and his flight to Mexico. They soon became an important force in the new exciting San Francisco music scene.

The Grateful Dead played their first gig at Magoo's Pizza Pariour in June 1966. Soon they were playing all over town - the Matrix, the Avalon, the Fillmore - at all the major dance venues. They were, of course, the key attraction at Ken Kesey's Fair Day Trips Festival held at the Lonshoreman's Hall in January 1966. Despite the outrageous dress, the drugs and the light shows, the success of this festival was really due to the music. The Dead were now playing the long, trip-orientated instrumental sets for which they became renown. Such events helped their development as a community group, often playing around the city for free. Their first recording Don't Ease Me In was issued in 1966, by a subsidiary label of Fantasy Records. Apparently unexceptional, copies are now rare and change hands for in excess of £15 a copy, In the early seventies two albums - Vintage Dead (Sunflower 5001) 1970 and Historic Dead (Sunflower 5004) 1971, which were issued by Polydor in the U.K. - were released and contained material from this era in the group's history. They contain the band's interpretations of numbers such as Dancing In The Street, Good Morning Little Schoolgirl and In The Midnight Hour.

The publicity that events on the U.S. West Coast were attracting led to a race among the major record companies to sign up all of the major West Coast bands. The Dead signed for Warner Brothers - in many ways an odd choice and, in retrospect, probably the wrong one for the band. Their first album was disappointing, both in comparison with their live shows and with the early offerings of their counterparts like The Jefferson Airplane, Country Joe and the Fish and The Steve Miller Band. Its strongest track, The Golden Road (To Unlimited Devotion) was coupled with Cream Puff War on an US-only single (WB 7016) in 1967. This is now rare. The album, which had been recorded in three days, sold badly and to make matters worse LSD was made illegal in California and the group was inevitably busted. The band was getting into debt too but Lenny, father of Mickey Hart, who had recently joined the group as its percussionist, now became its manager. Later in 1970 they would have to file an embezzlement charge against Lenny Hart and replace him with John Maclntyre.

Two more psychedelic albums followed - Anthem Of The Sun and Aoxomoxoa. The first typified the long instrumentally-orientated pieces they had been playing at the Acid Tests. Born Cross Eyed was taken from the album, backed with a non-LP track, Dark Star and issued as a single (WB 7186), which is also very rare. In America it was issued with a picture sleeve, although this was not a feature of U.K. copies. The former are now particularly sought-after by Grateful Dead collectors.

Aoxomoxoa is particularly memorable for its cover. A disjointed album overall, it does contain some interesting experiments in psychedelia, such as Rosemary and a few quite strong tracks such as St. Stephen, Mountains Of The Moon, and Dupree's Diamond Blues. Evidently, The Dead were unhappy with both albums, and Phil Lesh remixed and re-edited both in the early seventies.

Once again, commercially and in comparison with the offerings of their West Coast counterparts, both Anthem Of The Sun and Aoxomoxoa were disappointing.

Almost inevitably recording success eluded them until they issued Live Dead, a double LP, in 1970. This showed them at their best, performing long, predominantely instrumental, improvised songs and included the legendary Dark Star, as well as St. Stephen and Death Don't Have No Mercy.

Eventually in 1970 they came up with two successful studio albums. The first, Workingmen's Dead contained a number of short, well-constructed acoustic country rock songs such as Uncle John's Band (also issued as a single), Black Peter and Casey Jones. The latter having a very catchy chorus:-

> 'Driving that train
> High on cocaine
> Casey Jones you'd better watch your speed
> Trouble ahead, trouble behind
> And you know that notion just caught my mind.....
> (from Casey Jones)

The follow-up American Beauty also contained a number of tight songs, including a love song Sugar Magnolia and the autobiographical Truckin, which recounted the events of a year in which they had been busted again (this time in New Orleans) and had sacked their manager. They had also played their first European date at a festival near Newcastle-Under-Lyme in England. These three were the best of their early albums. Prior to American Beauty, Constanten, who was into scientology, left the band to concentrate on his studies. The following year a second 'live' double LP was issued. Warner Brothers vetoed its original name Skullfuck and it became called simply Grateful Dead. This became their first album to go gold.

As a 'live' band they were now at the pinnacle oi their achievement and in May/June of 1972 toured Europe again and issued a triple 'live' LP as a record of its finer moments. They played at the Bickershaw Festival outside a depressing mining town in the North of England. By the end of the first day the audience were wallowing in mud and thoroughly miserable. Yet, gradually The Dead's music won them over and before long the audience was on its feet ecstatic.

The early seventies also saw the departure of Mickey Hart, perhaps embarrassed by his father's misappropriation of their finances. However, Europe 72, which was not one of their stronger live albums, did feature two new members, Keith Godchaux (keyb'ds) and Donna Godchaux (vcls), on record for the first time.

Upon their return to the States, disaster struck. Pigpen, who had been living on a diet of little more than booze and berries had developed a serious liver disease and accompanied them on the '72 tour against doctor's advice. On 8th March 1973 he died of a stomach haemorrhage. Pigpen had been a key band member, but the group survived this blow and went on to record numerous albums throughout the seventies and into the nineties, until sadly, Jerry Garcia died on the 9th August, 1995.

Jerry Garcia, Bob Weir, Robert Hunter and Mickey Hart all made solo albums during the seventies. Keith and Donna Godchaux also made an unsuccessful album in 1975, whilst, earlier in the same year, Phil Lesh combined with Ned Lagin to make the Seastones album. Keith Godchaux was killed in a car crash in the late seventies.

The Dead have certainly proved a durable outfit. Their 'laid-back' music lacked the urgency of The Airplane, but was sufficiently unique to secure a strong cult following. The secret of their success appears to have been their ability to adapt to the changing times and, in September/October 1981 they were in England playing three nights to packed audiences at London's Rainbow Theatre. Of the numerous compilations of their material, Skeletons From The Closet originally issued by Warner Bros in 1979 and reissued on Thunderbolt (THBL 01 8) in 1987, is a good introduction to their music from the early years.

More difficult to find but also of interest to 'deadheads' will be Califomia Christmas, which features a version of Turn On Your Lovelight with Janis Joplin. California Easter has two tracks with them joining The Beach Boys(!) - Riot In Cell Block Number 9 and Searchin'; two numbers (including Hoochie Koochie Man from 1963) performed by Pigpen and Pete Albin and two numbers by Jerry and Sarah Garcia, also from around 1963. California New Year includes Uncle John's Band.

Graven Image

TOP

45:

1. I Would But I Could/Take A Bite Of Life (V.O.L. 134) 1967

This 45 was a minor San Antonio outfit's sole stab at immortality - the 'A' side is an Augie Meyer penned dirge but the flip is good uptempo garage with a Diddleyesque beat - check it out on Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

Nick Gravenites

Personnel:

DINO ANDINO	conga	A
MIKE BLOOMFIELD	gtr, vcls	A B
JOHN CIPOLLINA	gtr	A
SNOOKY FLOWERS	baritone sax	A
NICK GRAVENITES	vcls, gtr	A B
NOEL JEWKES	tenor sax	A
BOB JONES	drms	A
JOHN KAHN	bs	A B
IRA KAMIN	organ	A
MARK NAFTALIN	keyb'ds	A
GERALD OSHITA	baritone sax	A
JOHN WILMETH	trumpet	A
PAUL BUTTERFIELD	vcls, hrmnca	B
MARIA MULDAUR	vcls	B
CHRISTOPHER PARKER	drms	B
ANNIE SAMPSON	vcls	B
MERLE SAUNDERS keyb'ds B	keyb'ds	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	MY LABORS	(Columbia CS 9899)	1970
2(B)	STEELYARD BLUES	(Warner BS 2662)	1972

45:

1	Theme from (Drive Again)/My Bag (The Oysters)	(Warner WB 7637)	1972

Originally from Chicago Nick Gravenites moved to San Francisco and became a central figure in the Bay Area scene. Songwriter, singer, guitar player and producer, Gravenites, is sometimes credited as Nick The Greek or Nicky Gravy. He was (and still is) a multi-talented man. Primarily known for penning Born In Chicago and East-West for the Paul Butterfield Blues Band on their first two albums (1965/66), he became a close friend of Mike Bloomfield and naturally became the lead singer of the Electric Flag when it was formed.

During the same period, he began working with Quicksilver Messenger Service, providing some of their songs (All Night Worker, on Live In San Jose and Joseph's Coat on Shady Grove) as well as producing their first album. After the demise of the Electric Flag, Gravenites became the lead singer of Big Brother and The Holding Company when Joplin left. He produced their underrated Be A Brother album as well as writing several songs for it. He also made a guest appearance on his own Buried Alive In The Blues on Big Brother and The Holding Company's final album How Hard It Is.

Gravenites first solo album from 1969 My Labors, was partly recorded live. It was a commercial failure, largely due to his horrid cover, but still really deserves to be heard if you like electric west-coast blues. Mike Bloomfield's solos are truly remarkable on the live tracks and John Cipollina is one of the "anonymous friends" playing on the studio cuts. The album was produced by Elliot Mazer.

In 1972, Steelyard Blues was in fact the soundtrack of a Jane Fonda/Donald Sutherland movie and contains only original bluesy tracks which were mostly written by Gravenites and Bloomfield. (Gravenites also produced the album). Two tracks from the album were also released as a 45.

Nick Gravenites production credits also include Brewer and Shipley, Chet McNicholls, Southern Comfort and several blues albums (Sam Lay, Otis Rush).

In the '70s, Gravenites kept on working with Bloomfield until he died. In the '80s, he formed the Gravenites/Cipollina Band (also known as Thunder and Lightning) and still performs, produces and records to this day. His current group features Roy Blumenfeld (ex Blues Project).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jesse Graves

ALBUM:

1	JESSE GRAVES	(Gazebo)	1972

This unknown singer is rumoured to sing a kind of bluesy acid folk.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Graveyard 5

45s:

1	The Marble Orchard/Untitled(Graveyard Five Theme)	(Stanco 102)	Aug 1968
2	The Sure Way/?	(Dental Records)	196?

From Kelseyville/Cobb in Northern California. Pebbles Vol. 16 features both sides of the first 45, which is ridiculousy rare. The second 45 and its full details remain even more elusive. Marble Orchard begins with a heartbeat, has a mystical quality and good acid guitar - with better production it could have been a real classic. The flip is a fine reverb-fuzz instrumental.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Alec Palao)

The Gray Things

45:

1. Charity/Lovers Melody (Laurie 3367) 1966

The 'A' side of this late sixties release, which seems to have been their sole recording venture for Laurie, can be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. 3 or Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 15, Seething vocals and tidy harmonies supplant a novel garage styled keyboard backing. A Florida outfit.

Great Bear

Personnel:

- MICHAEL BOBAK keyb'ds, vcls A
- JOHN GONSKA gtr A
- BOB GRYZIEC bs A
- PAUL METZGER drms, perc, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GREAT BEAR (Scepter SPS 585) 1971

Not a well known album, but a pleasant collection of psychy rock of which Cinderella is probably the finest moment. Worth checking out. This act should not be confused with the outfit that graces the Strangers In A Strange Land compilation, who in fact hailed from Delhi, India.... The Indian act won a place on one of two Simla Beat compilations, funded by an Indian Tobacco company. The best tracks from these were subsequently recompiled as Strangers From A Strange Land, and mistakenly sold by dealers as a U.S. comp.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Great Believers to The Grim Reepers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Great Believers
- The Great Imposters
- Great Jones
- The Great Society
- The Great Society
- The Greek Fountains
- The Greek Fountain River Front Band
- Green
- Green Apples Dirty
- Green Beans
- The Green Giants
- Green Lyte Sunday
- Green Slime
- Norman Greenbaum
- Greenwood, Curlee and Thompson
- Greer
- The Gregorians
- Dale Gregory and The Shouters
- The Gremlins
- The Grey Stokes
- Griffin
- Griffin
- The Grifs
- The Grim Reepers

The Great Believers

Personnel:

- JOHNNY WINTER gtr, vcls
- EDGAR WINTER keyb'ds
- DAVE RUSSELL bs
- AMOS BOYNTON drms

45:

1. Comin' Up Fast (Part 1)/(Part 2) (Cascade 365) 196?

Originally known as Amos Boynton and The ABCs this Houston-based quartet was an early outing for the Winter Brothers who had previously played together in Black Plague. The 45 can be found on Acid Visions, Vol. 1, Mindrocker, Vol. 4 and Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3 CD) set. The latter compilation also includes another Johnny Winter composition, Easy Lovin' Girl, recorded by The Great Believers with Roy Head.

The Great Imposters

45:

1. Who Do You Love?/I Wanna Be Your Driver (PS) (Dads 6-6602) 1966

This rock foursome came from Omaha, Nebraska and their powerful rendition of Bo Diddley's classic Who Do You Love? can be found on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 3. The original 45 came in a picture sleeve which captured the band in full splendour with pegged Italian pants and greased hair. The were previously known as Larry Ray & The Red Tops, and were still going in the 1980s.

Great Jones

Personnel:

BILLY CADIEUX	gtr	A
(MERRY CLAYTON	vcls	A)
(VANETTA FIELDS	vcls	A)
(JEFF GUTCHEON	keyb'ds	A)
(CLYDIE KING	vcls	A)
GARY KILLARUS	drms	A
DAVID TOLMIE	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	ALL BOWED DOWN	(Tonsil 4002)	1970

45:

1	I'll Keep It With Mine/My Lovin' Woman	(Tonsil 0001)	1970

The sleevenotes to this album tell us: 'Great Jones is an odd combination; a jazz-loving guitarist; a blues-freaking drummer; and an ex-folk singing bassist.' Well, the end result is a funk/blues album with at least three decent tracks. The first is opener Cripple Creek, with its bouncy bass notes and sharply accentuating drum beats. Superimposed on this are Cadieux's catchy acoustic guitar riffs. The second is the title cut, a funky piano-driven number. Also of note is I Ain't Got Long, on which Cadieux contributes some delicate blues guitar which blends well with Tolmie's gutsy vocals. An average album, overall, though. The 45 cuts are non-LP.

Their material is made of three covers (Dr. John's United States of Mind, Sleepy John Estes' Leaving Trunk...) plus several good originals penned by Cadieux and Gutcheon. The album was produced by Joe Zagarino and Neville Gerson and recorded in Boston.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Great Society

Personnel:

- GRACE SLICK vcls, piano A B
- DARBY SLICK ld gtr A B
- DAVID MINOR rhythm gtr A B
- PETER VAN DE GIDER bs B
- JERRY SLICK drms A B
- BARD DU PONT bs A

ALBUMS:

1. (B) CONSPICUOUS ONLY IN IT'S ABSENCE (Columbia/CBS 9624) 1968 166
2. (B) HOW IT WAS (Columbia/CBS 9702) 1968 -
3. (B) SOMEBODY TO LOVE (Harmony 30391) 1971
4. (B) COLLECTORS ITEM (Reissue of 1st & 2nd LP) (Columbia/CBS 30459) 1971
5. () BORN TO BE BURNED (Sundazed SC 11027) 1996

N.B. (3) was a reissue of (1). A recent release which may interest readers is Live At The Matrix, a double LP set. (5) is a compilation of previously unreleased tracks, plus both sides of their first single.

45s:

1. Someone To Love/Free Advice (North Beach 1001) 1965
2. Sally Go Round The Roses/Didn't Think So (Columbia 44583) 1966

One of the very first San Francisco underground groups. The Great Society, played in the first dance organised by The Family Dogg at The Longshoreman's Hall in 1965. Thereafter, they gigged regularly at the Fillmore, the Avalon, the Matrix and Mother's. The nucleus of the group were Grace, with her unique vocals, her husband, Darby and his brother Jerry. They recorded a single for Tom Donahue's North Beach label Someone To Love. The first LP recorded live at the Matrix is of particular interest in that it contained an early version of Darby's Somebody To Love and Grace's White Rabbit which The Jefferson Airplane were later to transform into nationwide hits. However, the record company held back its release until after the group had split and Grace had become famous. In addition to White Rabbit, Grace also wrote three other songs on the album Didn't Think So, *Often As I May*and Father Bruce (a tribute to Lenny Bruce). However, the group never made it nationally and when the nucleus of the band resolved to set off for India to learn sitar music Grace was snapped up by The Airplane who then really began to develop. Her husband, Jerry joined another San Franscisco band, The Final Solution. (2) and (4) were subsequently reissued. They also have two cuts on San Francisco Roots, (Vault 119) a 1968 compilation. Their version of White Rabbit is on the Psychedelic Dream compilation and both sides of their Northbeach 45 have resurfaced on Nuggets, Vol. 7.

Somebody To Love is on the Microdelia CD. Big Beat's Nuggets From The Golden State CD series has dug up many Great Society gems from the vaults - the Someone To Love CD has no less than 7 tracks from an October 1965 audition session PLUS the first 45 coupling AND 3 unreleased 1966 goodies. My free advice is get it, and hear the cries of the San Francisco Sound being born.

Peter Van Gelder later played with Saddhu Brand.

For more information check the following website: http://www.student.nada.kth.se/~d94-mfj/greatsoc/

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Great Society

45:

1. She's Got It On Her Mind/Second Day (Dana Lynn 70611) 1967

If garage-folk-rock is your bag, here are two superb examples of the genre on an obscure 45 from Cincinnati, Ohio. Absolute bliss. (Max Waller)

The Greek Fountains

Personnel:

D. CHESON	A
D. COHEN	A
T. MICHELI	A
C. VETTER	A

45s:

1	Well Alright/That's The Way I Am	(Bofuz BF-1104)	1965
2	Howlin' For My Darling/Go Back Home	(Bofuz BF-1110)	1965
3	Blue Jean/Countin'The Steps	(Philips 40355)	1966
4	I'm A Boy/She Does It	(Pacemaker 250)	1966
5	I Can't Get Away/An Experimented Terror	(Montel-Michelle 976)	1966/7
6	Buy You A Chevrolet/What Is Right	(Montel-Michelle 983)	1966/7

From Louisiana, this band are best known for upbeat rock recordings like Blue Jean, Buy You A Chevrolet and Well Alright. The Beyond The Calico Wall compilation features their An Experimented Terror - a completely wacky recording more in the vein of Red Krayola at their most experimental. This could well have been recorded on acid. By contrast, their I'm A Boy is a pretty straight cover of The Who hit. They later changed their name to The Greek Fountain River Front Band.

Other compilation coverage has included:- their cover of Willie Dixon's Howlin For My Baby (The Bo-Hog Song) on Teenage Shutdown Vol. 14: (Howlin' For My Baby).

The Greek Fountain River Front Band

Personnel:

- D.CHESON A
- D.COHEN A

- T.MICHELI A
- C. VETTER A

ALBUM:

1. (A) TAKES REQUESTS (Montel - Michelle 110) 1967/8

45:

1. High Heeled Sneakers/ Warm Daddy's Choice (Cyclin 0001) 1967/8

This was a later version of The Greek Fountains. The album is now rare and sought-after.

Green

Personnel:

BOBBY BLOOD	horns	A
GARY CASEBEER	vcls, horns	A
WILSON FISHER	vcls, gtr, hrmnca	A
RICHARD GARDZINA		A
JOHN MARTIN	keyb'ds	A
JAMES NEEL	vcls, drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	GREEN	(Atco SD 33-282)	1968

A minor but pleasant group, a bit like Buffalo Springfield with horns and good lead guitar work. There could be another album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Green Apples Dirty

45:

1. To The Max/Girl I Miss You So (Mid-Evyl M 101) 196?

Mildly garagey, a melodic rocker and a ballad, spoilt by the vocalist who sounds like he wants to be a country and western singer on Max and Roy Orbison on the flip. From somewhere in Michigan. (Max Waller)

Green Beans

45s:

1. Friction/Superstition (Mercury 72504) Oct. 1965

2. Knock On My Door/Who Needs You (Tower 237) April 1966

From the Los Angeles area. Friction was later given an R&B make-over by Australia's Missing Links, and their cover version is well worth searchin' out. The original, is much more in a laid-back, pop vein. Another track Who Needs You is more uptempo, sounding like a case of The Monkees meet the garage.

You can find Friction and Who Needs You on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD), whilst Who Needs You also appears on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 20.

The Green Giants

TOP

45:

1. You're Going To Lose That Girl/Pity Me (Round & Round RR-4501) 1966

A rough cover of the Beatles and a garagey beat-ballad from Omaha, Nebraska. (Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

Green Lyte Sunday

TOP

Personnel incl:

SUSAN DARBY	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	GREEN LYTE SUNDAY	(RCA)	1970

45:

1	Chelsea Morning/Emmie	(RCA 74-0365)	1970

Although some dealers tend to tag this album as "breezy pop psych", it's only a mediocre pop album with female vocals and covers of Joni Mitchell and Laura Nyro. It was produced by Peter Shelton.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Green Slime

TOP

45:

1. The Green Slime/Far Beyond The Stars (MGM 14052) 1969

Songs We Taught The Fuzztones includes a song called Green Slime, which was used in a sixties movie of the same name.

Norman Greenbaum

Personnel:

JOHN COPPOLA		A
RUSSEL DaSHIELL	gtr	A B C
NORMAN GREENBAUM	vcls	A B C
DOUG KILLMER	bs	A B
NORMAN MAYELL	drms	A B C
DAN PATIRIS		A
CHUCK PETERSON		A
ROBBIE ROBINSON		A
BILL SABATINI		A
STOVALL SISTERS	backing vcls	A B
WILLIAM TRUCKAWAY	keyb'ds, moog	A B
STEVE BUSFIELD		B
BILL DOUGLAS	acc. bs	B C
LYNN ELDER	hurdy gurdy	B
DAN HICKS	washboard	B
JOHN McFEE	steel gtr	B
BILL MEEKER	drms	B
DAN PAIK	mandolin	B
SQUIRE	jug	B
JERRY YESTER	chamberlain	B
KENNY BURT	banjo	C
JOHN CASEY	dobro	C
RY COODER	mandolin, gtr	C
HENRY DILTZ	glockenspiel	C
CYRUS FARYAR	gtr	C
MARK NAFTALIN	accordian	C
RICHARD OLSEN	clarinet	C
FRITZ RICHMOND	bs	C

ALBUMS:

1(A)	SPIRIT IN THE SKY	(Reprise RS 6365)	1969
2(B)	BACK HOME AGAIN	(Reprise RS 6422)	1970
3(C)	PETALUMA	(Reprise MS 2084)	1972

45s:

1	Spirit In The Sky/Milk Cow	(Reprise RA 0885)	1969 (Germany)
2	Spirit In The Sky/Tars Of India	(Reprise RV 20237)	1970 (France)
3	I.J FOXX/Rhode Island Red	(Reprise RV 20255)	1969 (France)
4	Canned Ham/Junior Cadillac	(Reprise RV 20245)	1970 (France)

5	California Earthquake/Rhode Island Red	(Reprise 14085)	1970 (France)

NB: California Earthquake is non LP.

Originally from Boston, Norman Greenbaum was first known as the leader of Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band. He went solo and moved to San Francisco where he hit the big time with Spirit In The Sky in 1969. His three albums were produced by Erik Jacobsen (Lovin Spoonful, Sopwith Camel, Tim Hardin) and deserve to be heard: friendly vocals, well structured songs with good lyrics, great guitar parts (courtesy of Russel DaShiell, who later played with Crowfoot and the Don Harrison Band) and solid rhythm section for a mix of "good time music", jug band style and west-coast vibes, quite reminiscent of the Youngbloods production. California Earthquake, one of his best tracks, was only released as a single and announces the "Big One" with a devastating fuzz guitar solo and good lyrics ("My advice to you is to keep your feet off the ground. As long as you're flying, you won't tumble down"). Among his usual back-up group, Norman Mayell and William "Truckaway" Sievers were both former members of The Sopwith Camel. Several guests played on his albums: two Charlatans (Dan Hicks and Richard Olsen), Mark Naftalin (Butterfield Blues Band/Mother Earth), Ry Cooder, Cyrus Faryar (Modern Folk Quartet, Zodiac Cosmic Sounds), Jerry Yester... His last album, Petaluma, in 1972, has a great sleeve with an eight page leaflet (with cartoons, kids, chicken, sheeps, goats and pig pictures!) and clearly announces that Greenbaum had decided to settle in Petaluma to pursue his life on the farm with his family (Grade A Barn, The Day The Well Went Dry, Dairy Queen...). The album is more acoustic than the two other ones.

Spirit In The Sky has been reissued and covered many times, including a U.K. hit for Dr. & The Medics but Greenbaum apparently left the music business for good.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Greenwood, Curlee and Thompson

TOP

Personnel:

- CURLEE A
- GREENWOOD A
- CLYDE THOMPSON A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ONE TIME ONE PLACE (No label) 1972 R3

This local Minnesota electric folk album contained a couple of great Eastern - influenced tracks. The privately pressed release included an insert with lyrics and photos.

Greer

TOP

Personnel:

- DAN DIXON vcls, bs A
- JIMMY GLASGOW drms A

- MICHAEL GREER gtr, keyb'ds, vcls A
- ROBERT KIRKLAND vcls, gtr A
- WESLEY LOCKE drms A
- DAVID NIBLOCK bs A
- MARTY STOUT piano A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BETWEEN TWO WORLDS (Sugarbush 109) 1973 R3

Excellent guitar/organ led progressive hard rock album. The long track Nights Of Dreams with it's dreamy, atmospheric quality and treated vocals will appeal to psych fans... this track and one other were recorded in Spring 1971, the remainder in Spring 1973. The group were from North Carolina. (Clark Faville)

The Gregorians

TOP

Personnel incl:

JIM BRICKNER	A
GREG BURNETT	A

45:

1	Dialated Eyes/Like A Man	(ABC Paramount 11225)	1969

From Cleveland, Ohio they were formerly called The City Squires. Apart from pulsating keyboard effects that means it's often tagged as 'psych', Dialated Eyes is a provocative folkie protest-rock that targets the sins visited by drink-addicted parents on their offspring:-

> "Drunken father beats his son for sipping at his beer,
> Will this hypocritical society we fear,
> Come to pass,
> To pass...
> another ice-cube for their glass,
> And his mother with the dialated eyes."

A sobering cut, recently compiled on Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 1. The flip is brassy pop-rock with a religious slant.

(Max Waller/George Gell)

Dale Gregory and The Shouters

TOP

45:

1. Did Ya Need To Know/I Remember (B-Sharp 271) 1965

Hailed from Sioux Falls, South Dakota with this garage rock 45. They later became Those Of Us. Did Ya Need To Know is aired on Roots 66, Vol. 1.

The Gremlins

Personnel incl:

KARL GEBHARDT aka KARL X BLUE	A

45:

1	Treat Her Right / No Surf	(Liverpool)	1965

From the Chicago area, Karl Gebhardt (Kal-X-Blue) went on to play in Something Wild.

The Grey Stokes

45:

1. The Legend of Tarzan/? (Tri Con 2290) 196?

From the District of Columbia, this punk out it's primitive recording of The Legend of Tarzan can be heard on the Signed D.C. compilation. Its simplicity is rather appealing.

Griffin

Personnel:

- VINCE MORTON keyb'ds A
- JERRY BROWN drms A
- BRUCE BENTLEY gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE WORLD'S FILLED WITH LOVE (ABC ABCS 634) 1968

45:

1. Murder In The Cathedral/World's Filled With Love (ABC 11064) 1968

A flower-power good-time outfit. Magic Carpet Ride, not the Steppenwolf song, is one of the few highlights on their album, which is a very minor collectable.

Griffin

Personnel:

M. BRADY	bs, vcls	A
G. DUCKWORTH	gtr, vcls	A
G. GREEN	drms, vcls	A
(JOHN D'ANDREA	flute	A)

(JACK ARNOLD	perc	A)
(GEORGE CLINTON	keyb'ds	A)
(CECIL HUNT	perc	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	GRIFFIN	(Romar RM-2001)	1972

45:

1	Mississippi Lady/?	(Romar 707)	1972

Another Griffin, whose only album was released on the small Romar label and produced by John D'Andrea and Bob Marcucci. Recorded in Los Angeles, it include covers of Neil Young's Down By The River and Noah's World Band.

Duckworth was a competent guitarist but the group obviously doesn't have a precise style and navigates between blues rock, Doobie Bros style, to funk, psyche and pop with strings and the album is clearly overproduced.

In Spite Of What's Going On is the strongest track but the result is better avoided. George Clinton, who played the keyboards, is not the Parliement/Funkadelic leader but a Californian musician who leaded Timber and is present on countless records.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Grifs

45s:

1. Catch A Ride/In My Life (AMG 1002) 196?
2. Catch A Ride/in My Life (5-D 007) 196?
3. Northbound/Keep Dreamin' (Palmer 5025) 1968

These three 45s were this obscure Michigan band's only stabs for stardom. Catch A Ride, by far the poppier of the two has resurfaced on Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 (CD) and Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 5. Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 also features Keep Dreamin', a really snarlin' throaty, punk screamer.

(Max Waller)

The Grim Reapers

45:

1. Two Souls/Joanne (Chalon 1003) 1966

A mid-sixties garage band from Los Angeles. Two Souls can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 2 and Garagelands Vol.1 (LP). The flip, Joanne has resurfaced on Garagelands Vol. 2 (LP) and both sides feature on Garageland Vol. 1 (CD).

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Grodeck Whipperjenny to Group Therapy

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Grodeck Whipperjenny
- The Grodes
- The Groop
- Grootna
- Gross National Productions
- Groundspeed
- The Group
- The Group
- Group Axis
- Group "B"
- Groupies
- Groupies
- The Group Image
- Group Inc.
- Group Therapy
- Group Therapy

Grodeck Whipperjenny

TOP

Personnel:

- DAVE MATTHEWS piano, organ, trb A
- KENNY POOLE gtr, vcls A
- MICHAEL MOORE bs A
- JIMMY MADISON drms A
- MARY ELLEN BELL vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GRODECK WHIPPERJENNY (People PS-3000) 1970
2. () SECOND SECRET ALBUM (Le Fumme Angelo no #) 1997

NB: (1) was recently reissued on vinyl.

Recorded in Cincinnati, Ohio, this album was co-produced by Dave Matthews and Ron Lenhoff and was released on James Brown's People label. It's a superb psychedelic/progressive effort which is full of imagination and fresh ideas. Every track is excellent in its own right making it difficult to identify highlights, but Conclusions is a superb instrumental and Evidence Of The Existance Of The Unconscious has fine keyboards and makes interesting use of echoed vocals and discordant guitars.

Grodeck Whipperjenny also appeared as the backing band on James Brown's Sho Is Funky Down Here album recorded at or right around the same time. They also backed Brown on a non-album 45 recorded at the same session which included the first version of Talkin Loud and Sayin Nothin. This 45 was later withdrawn.

The Second Secret Album is an Italian limited edition (of 300) reissue of material recorded up to 1971 and apparently issued 'under another name' which is not revealed. Can anyone enlighten us? Is it the James Brown album under a different name?

(Vernon Joynson/Matt McClellan / Max Waller)

The Grodes (Tongues of Truth/Spring Fever)

TOP

Personnel:

- MANNY FREISER vcls, gtr A B C D
- DALE SMITH ld gtr, vcls A B C D
- RICH COTA ROBIES bs A B C D
- RICK LUST keyb'ds A B C
- JOHN WHITE drms A
- RICH MELLINGER drms B C D
- KEITH CRAIG trombone, keyb'ds C D
- PATTI McCARRON

ALBUM:

1. (A-D) ROUGH DIAMONDS: HISTORYOF GARAGE BAND MUSIC VOL 2 THE GRODES/TONGUES OF TRUTH (Voxx 200.010) 1984

45s:

1. Uh Huh Girl/I Won't Be There (Tri-M 1001) 1965
2. Cry A Little Longer/She's Got What It Takes (Tri-M 1002) 1966
3. Love Is A Sad Song/I've Lost My Way (Rally 505) 1966
4. * Let's Talk About Girls/You Can't Come Back (Current 112) 1966
5. What They Say About Love/Have Your Cake And Eat It Too (Impression 114) 1967
6. Give Me Some Time/Give Me Some Time (instru.) (Splitsound SSDG 4) 1967
7. + Sand/Give Me Some Time (Splitsound SSDG 8) 1968

* As Tounges Of Truth. + As Spring Fever.

Originally known at The Hustlers this band changed their name to The Grodes one drunken night in Phoenix in 1965. They were one of Tucsons's finest in the mid to late sixties. Their first two 45s were issued on a record label which their leader Manny Freiser formed with LA promotion man Mike Borchetta and a friend of his, actor Cass Martin. So they called it Tri-M (Manny, Mike, Martin) records. The first 45 climbed to 32 on the local KTKT chart and from hereon KTKT DJ Don Gates became their manager, producer and mentor.

Love Is A Sad Song, a pop ballad, recorded at Audio Recorders, Phoenix, was their biggest chart and sales success. Released in May 1966 it reached No 5 in the KTKT charts. However, The Grodes fell out with Don Gates when he announced that their version of Let's Talk About Girls which was actually written by Manny was by The Tongues Of Truth without consulting them about this change of name. They sacked him and the 45 reached No 37 in the KTKT charts.

Keith Craig came in on trombone for (It's True) What They Say About Love and later replaced Lust on keyboards, but this particular 45 made little impression. Give Me Some Time was their big production number, recorded over a period of three or four months - it was a Top Ten hit in Tucson. Their final 45 was recorded under the name Spring Fever with the band undecided whether to move to LA to advance their career or remain in Tucson. Around this time Patti McCarron, a girl singer, joined the band and she and Freiser left the band to head for LA in August 1968 where Patti signed for Liberty and released a 45 Love Theme From Romeo And Juliet. Manny signed to United Artists issuing a 45 On To LA / I Went To California (Barnaby ZS7 2044) which was recorded in 1969 but not released until 1971.

In August 1970, Patti and Manny married. They also formed the duet Fire and Rain, recording an LP for Mercury in 1973 and a single, Hello Stranger which reached No 100 in Billboard in May 1973. They also recorded a version of Born Free for MGM and an LP for 20th Century which was never properly promoted.

The Voxx compilation contains all their 45s except the instrumental version of Give Me Some Time and also has excellent liner notes on The Grodes' history written by Manny Freiser which this article is based on. It also includes a previously unreleased version of I Won't Be There which Manny had recorded in LA in 1964 with a different band which included Gary Paxton (gtr) and Mike Friedman (drms). It was produced by Jerry Kasenetz, who later produced a number of successful bubblegum acts such as Ohio Express and 1910 Fruitgum Company.

Dale Smith became the successful owner of a Tucson Construction Company, Rich Cota Robies now works as a credit executive with a San Diego hospital, Rick Lust went in the U.S. Air Force later becoming a commercial pilot and Keith Craig is a carpenter in Tucson. Manny Freiser's Let's Talk About Girls was later covered and made famous by The Chocolate Watchband whose version can be found on the Nuggets compilation. Pebbles (CD) Vol. 1 includes a version by The Tongues of Truth.

Other compilation coverage has included: Cry A Little Longer on Acid Dreams Epitaph CD, Acid Dreams - The Complete Collection and Pebbles Box Set. It was also covered by Yard Trauma on their Music and Must've Been Something I Took Last Night albums. Love Is A Sad Song is also the feature track on Love Is A Sad Song Vol. 1.

(Max Waller)

The Groop

Alright (the title has been suggested by the compilers), from an acetate, has resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 8 by this unknown garage band. It was recorded at The A&T Studios in Toledo, Ohio.

Grootna

Personnel:

JACK BONUS	sax	A

KELLY BRYAN	bs	A
SLIM CHANCE	gtr, vcls	A
DEWEY DAGREAZE	drms, vcls	A
ANNA RIZZO	vcls, ld finger	A
VIC SMITH	gtr, vcls	A
RICHARD SUSSMAN	piano	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	GROOTNA	(CBS C 31033)	1971

Grootna was the first group Marty Balin produced after he'd left Jefferson Airplane. The result was an excellent West-Coast album, with strong instrumental parts and good vocals. Unfortunately, it was a total commercial failure.

Dewey Dagreaze was in fact Greg Dewey, the former Mad River / Country Joe drummer. Before Grootna, he had been backing Country Joe with Vic Smith and Richard Sussman. Sussman had also been in Elephant's Memory.

Slim Chance was probably Austin De Lone who co-wrote several songs on this album and later played with Eggs Over Easy, a country rock act.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Gross National Productions

TOP

ALBUM:

1	P FLAPS AND LOW BLOWS	(Metromdia KMD 10??)	1972

A weird good time rock group with interesting guitar interludes between tracks.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Groundspeed

TOP

45:

1. In A Dream/L-12-East (Decca 32344) 1968

From Cambridge, Massachusetts. This is a wonderful progressive/psychedelic 45. Very Anglophile, it'll appeal more to fans of the U.K. Rubble series than, say, Pebbles acolytes. In A Dream can also be experienced on Relative Distance and World Of Acid.

(Max Waller).

The Group

45:

1. Why Does My Head Go Boom?/514 Bathtub (Freak SS-9240-01) 1967

This slice of psychedelia was the work on an Eastern Iowa band. They travelled to Iowa City to record it. You can check out the 'A' side on The Midwest vs The Rest, Vol. 1. It's nothing special though.

(Max Waller)

The Group

Personnel incl:

- R. SHARP

45:

1. Yesterday Is Today/Tell Me Why (Shore Bird 1013) 1968

Came out of Oklahoma City with just this one 45 which features some nice fuzz guitar.

Group Axis

45:

1. Not Fade Away/Smokestack Lightning (Atco 6642) 1969

Originally from West Texas, this band were based in LA. The 'A' side of this 45 became the title of Doug Hanner's superb Texas music magazine, and has recently been compiled on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8.

Group "B"

Personnel:

- DAVE DAMRELL A
- ROGER HILLE A B
- JIM KING A
- JACK MAY A B
- DANNY MIHM drms B
- DICKIE PETERSON B

- JERRI PETERSON B

45s:

1. Stop Calling Me/She's Gone (Scorpio 402) 1965/6
2. I Know Your Name Girl/I Never Really Knew (Scorpio 406) 1966

Looking back, Fantasy's Scorpio label managed to pick up quite a few of the "about to happen" bands on the San Francisco scene - notably The Grateful Dead and pre-Creedence Clearwater Revival Golliwogs. Amongst the 'also-rans' we find this Davis, Ca. outfit whose inclusion is more for historical than musical reasons. Dave Damrell went on to Kak. Drummer Danny Mihm also played for Andrew Staples and for The Whistling Shrimp Blues Band before being persuaded by Cyril Jordan to join the Flamin' Groovies. Dick Peterson would of course go on to team up with Oxford Circle's Paul Whaley plus Leigh Stephens to become brainblasters Blue Cheer.

All four of the bands 45 cuts also appear on Big Beats' The Scorpio Records Story; although a different, fluteless version of I Never Really Knew is included rather than that which appears on the 45.

(Max Waller)

Groupies

Personnel incl:

- GORDON McLAREN
- PETE HENDLEMAN
- BOBBY CORTEZ
- RONNIE PETERS

45:

1. Primitive/I'm A Hog For You (Atco 6393) 1965

This punk quintet came from New York. The 'A' side, a Stones-influenced slow tempo number, resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 10, Get Primitive (The Best of Pebbles) and Bom Bad (Songs The Cramps Taught Us). The flip can be found on the Ear Piercing Punk and Pebbles Box Set compilations. They held a residency at Manhattan's Scene Club for a while.

The Groupies

ALBUM:

1 THE GROUPIES (Earth Records ELPS-1000) 1969

Subtitled "The girls heard on this record report their actual life experiences, feelings and opinions within the pop music scene", this album is a documentary about the groupies, produced by Alan Lorber, the man behind the Boss-Town sound (Chameleon Church, Puff, Ultimate Spinach) and Robert "Bobby" Callender. It doesn't contain music, only spoken vocals with some sound effects and came with an insert which is interesting for its glossary, with the definitions of "stoned", "out of it", "plaster casters" plus many other "in" or crude expressions.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Group Image

Personnel:

- FREDDY KNUCKLES A
- PROFESSOR LEON LUTHER RIX A
- DR HOK A
- BLACK DOUG A
- WILLIAM GUY MERRILL A
- SHEILA DARLA A

ALBUM:

1. (A) A MOUTH IN THE CLOUDS ASKS: WHAT TIME ARE U? (Community A-101) 1968

45:

1. Hiya/? (Community 3200) 1968

A hippie outfit from New Jersey. Hiya, a shorter version of an album track can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 14. The high pitched, often manic vocals, make this song at least rather a novelty. At times it recalls Tim Buckley in his prime. Hiya is the outstanding track on an inconsistent album which has its moments. There is also some fine guitar work on Moonlight Dip and Aunt Ida and on Banana Split, which is quite trippy in places. Definately worth a listen.

The album was produced by Vinny Testa, Shadow Morton (aka Shadow Mann) and John Linde and recorded in NY. All the tracks where penned by the group.

Leon Luther Rix went on to play with Buzzy Linhardt.

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

Group Inc.

45s:

1	Like A Woman/Just Call Me Up	(Staff BP-177)	1966
2	Like A Woman/Just Call Me Up	(Freeport 1008)	1966

This Gary, Indiana outfit embraced the late '64-to-'65 Invasion and Merseybeat sounds for their sole 45, but were a little late to catch that wave. Despite this it was picked up by the Freeport label, best known for its releases by the Five Emprees.

Compilation appearances have included:- Like A Woman on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 4 and Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD); and Just Call Me Up on Midnight To Sixty-Six.

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller)

Group Therapy

Personnel:

- TOMMY BURNS vcls A
- ART DEL GUDICO gtr, bs A
- JERRY GUIDA organ A
- RAY KENNEDY vcls A
- MICHAEL LAMONT drms A

ALBUMS:

1. () PEOPLE GET READY FOR GROUP THERAPY (RCA LSP-3976) 1968
2. () 37 MINUTES OF GROUP THERAPY (Philips PHS 600303) 1969
3. () YOUR IN NEED OF GROUP THERAPY (Philips PHS) 1969

45s:

1. People Get Ready/Who'll Be Next (RCA Victor 9527) 1968
2. Can't Stop Lovin'You Baby/I Must Go (Philips 40598) 1969

A late sixties outfit. Unfortunately much of their material is of The Vanilla Fudge school - heavy soulful sludge. A typical example of this would be their cover of Ike and Tina Turner's River Deep.... Mountain High on their second album. The formula occasionally worked well, particularly on Can't Stop Lovin' You Baby, also from their second album. Collectors are beginning to show some interest in their albums but I wouldn't recommend them.

In 1975, Ray Kennedy formed KGB with Mike Bloomfield and Barry Goldberg. After this failed, he became a session background singer and released a decent solo album in 1980 Ray Kennedy (CBS).

The Group Therapy moniker was used by at least four bands in the '60s.

(Vernon Joynson)

Group Therapy

Personnel:

PETER GERDA GUILKERS	A
JULES	A
MARTY	A
BUTCH	A
JOHN	A

45:

1	Silhouetted Summer Dream / You Haven't Lived	(Parasonic 48)	1967

NB: (1) copies came with a promo folder.

Formed in 1958 in Holland, this band were previously known as the G-Brothers. They went to Australia in the early 60s, then toured all over Europe in 1964-5. In 1966 they hit the US where they were 'affectionately tagged "The Crazy Dutchmen" '. They stayed in Nashville just long enough to cut this 45 on a small label before the travel-bug took them on to the West Coast.

Silhouetted Summer Dream is a wistful and soppy harmony-pop ballad - rather out of place on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 3.

(Max Waller/Roger Maglio)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Growing Concern to Gypsy Trips

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Growing Concern
- Peter Grudzien
- Gryphon
- The Gs
- Lenis Guess
- The Guilloteens
- Guise
- Guitar Ensemble
- Guns and Butler
- Sandy Gurley
- The Gurus
- Margo Guryan
- Arlo Guthrie
- Guys Who Come Up From Downstairs
- Gwydion
- Gypsy
- The Gypsies
- Gypsy Boots
- Gypsy Trips

Growing Concern

TOP

Personnel:

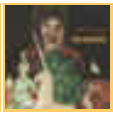
- RALPH WILLIAMS drms A
- PETE GUERINO gtr,vcls A
- RALPH TOMS gtr A
- JOHN PEDLEY bs A
- DAN PASSAGLIA keyb'ds, vcls A
- BONNIE MacDONALD vcls A
- MARY GARSTKI vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE GROWING CONCERN (Mainstream S/6108) 1968

NB: (1) was repressed in 1989 and is also available on CD (Golden Classics Rebirth GRC 003) 1996.

45:



1. Tomorrow Has Been Cancelled/A Boy I Once Knew Well (Mainstream 685) 1968

The above psychedelic rock album is one of the better Mainstream issues. Side one opens with Hard Hard Year, full of pleasant vocal harmonies and melodic guitar work. Edge Of Time is an uptempo number with great guitar work. Tomorrow Has Been Cancelled and A Boy I Once Knew Well both feature harmonised vocals and some great guitar. Side two relies more on covers. There's some great guitar playing in their version of Mister You're A Better Man Than I and in Other Side Of Life and they've an individual interpretation of Steve Still's Sit Down I Think I Love You.

An EP accompanying "Le Rock Psychedelique Vol.1" book also features What Kind Of Life.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Peter Grudzien

TOP

ALBUM:

1. THE UNICORN (P.G. 101) 1974 R3/4

The album is a very rare and unusual psychedelic folk album. Grudzien came from New York and some collectors rate his album, which incorporated bits of stolen classical, blue-grass and electronic experiments, very highly indeed. It has recently been reissued on CD by the Parallel World label with six bonus tracks.

Gryphon

TOP

Personnel:

1. GEOFFREY GIBOR perc, gtr, vcls A
2. LARRY LATIMER bs, vcls A
3. RICK SMADE ld gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GRYPHON (NR 12497) 197?

Geoffrey Gibor seems to have been the creative force behind this group, having written the music and lyrics to most of the tracks on their album. The heavier rock cuts on the album are the best and feature some fine guitar work with Motel Mama, You Really Need Me There and Lady among the finer moments.

The Gs

TOP

45:

1. Cause She's My Girl/There's A Time (Young Generation 108) 1966

An average punk band from Denton in Texas judging by the flip of this 45, which can be found on Texas Punk, 1966: Vol. 9, Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 4 and Acid Visions Vol. 3 (triple CD).

(Max Waller)

Lenis Guess

TOP

Personnel:

TERRY BACON	gtr	A
LENIS GUESS	vcls	A
JERRY JAMES	bs	A
CHRIS KYPROS	organ	A
"STINKY" VANN	drms	A

45s:

1(A)	Just Ask Me / Workin' For My Baby	(Legrand 1042)	1966
2(A)	Just Ask Me / Workin' For My Baby	(SPQR 1102)	1966
3	What Can I Do But Cry / In My Room	(Legrand 1044)	1967
4	Some Woman's Bedroom / Just Like Me	(Legrand 2001)	196?
5	Working For My Baby / Old ...	(New Faces '68 101)	1968
6	Thank Goodness Gotta Good Woman / Too Many Nights	(Peanut Country 1002)	196?

A regular on the Norfolk, Va. scene since 1958 and the Blue Beards, Lenis Guess was a soulful singer who recorded under the guidance of local scenemaker Frank Guida. The Guida/Guess partnership extended into songwriting, e.g. both sides of The Wild Thing's debut.

His own material is mainly outside our borders but check out Aliens, Psychos And Wild Things (CD) for the "soul-garage" sounds of Workin' For My Baby, which topped the local charts and featured Terry Bacon and Jerry James from The Psychos.

(Brent Hosier/Dr.Simon Trent D.S.U./Max Waller)

The Guilloteens

TOP

Personnel:

JOE DAVIS	A
LADDIE HUTCHERSON	A
LOUIS PAUL Jnr.	A

45s incl:

1	I Don't Believe (Call On Me)/Hey You	(HBR 446)	1965

2	For My Own/Don't Let The Rain Get You Down	(HBR 451)	1965
3	I Sit And Cry/Crying All Over My Time	(HBR 486)	1966
4	Wild Child/You Think You're Happy	(Columbia 4-43852)	1966
5	I Love That Girl/Dear Mrs Applebee(PS)	(Columbia 4-44089)	1967

Elvis Presley once cited this Memphis-based trio as his favourite local band which instantly led to a deal with the HBR label. They recorded quite extensively during 1965-66 and toured widely but success eluded them and plans for an album were scrapped.

Most of their self-penned material certainly appealed to their fellow garage bands if not the record buying public - Five Of Us' version of Hey You can be heard on Boulders, Vol.8; The Moonrakers' cover of I Don't Believe on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 18. Unfortunately the later material was not penned by the band and degenerated into bland pop, Crying All Over My Time for example is a rather wimpy sounding garage effort. Of their material worthy of note - I Don't Believe is a decent jangly folk-rock ditty; For My Own is Byrdsy garage pop; I Sit And Cry is excellent tough garage-beat A-la Gants.

Louis, who left the band after For My Own recalls:-"We were working with Phil Spector when our manager signed us with HBR... I grew up with Elvis, he used to call me 'Highschool'. We hung out on the movie set with him when we weren't working. He was a wonderful person, we had a lot of fun, I miss him. The Guilloteens were his favorite band at that time and he used to come to the Red Velvet Lounge to hear us play. He had a place there in the corner where he could sit unnoticed."

Hey You was also covered in 1981 by Jonny Sevin (Sounds Of Now 80s comp).

Laddie Hutcherson still lives in Memphis.

Compilation coverage has included:- Hey You on Diana's Rooten Tooten Rock And Roll Party and Everywhere Chainsaw Sound; Crying All Over My Time on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 8: The South; Wild Child on Mind Blowers; For My Own on Leaving It All Behind.

For more information, check out Louis Paul Jr's Guilloteens website: http://sites.netscape.net/louispauljr/guilloteens

(Max Myndblown)

Guise

Personnel incl:

- GREG HOELTZEL
- MIKE KRENSKI
- MITCHELL
- RAY SCHULTE
- WHARTON

45s:

- Long Haired Music/When You're Sorry (Musicland USA 20011) Feb/Mar. 1967 123
- Half A Man/Chumpy McGee (Musiciand USA 20015) 1967 -

- Time/News (Musicland USA 11 4) 1967
- Girl, Make Up Your Mind/Nothing Else But Love (Atco 6599) 1968

An obscure St. Louis, Missouri outfit, who evolved out of Bob Kuban and The In-Men. Their Time/News is interesting to psych pop collectors - Time is sorta Brit-pop-psych with Turtles harmonies whilst News has a tougher edge with some gruff guitar and a pulsating beat. Unfortunately the Atco 45 saw them drift towards the Blood, Sweat and Tears school of soul-rock.

Ray Schulte was an early member of this band, though we don't know whether he played on any of the 45s. He was of course later the main guy in the excellent late-sixties combo Touch.

Time has resurfaced on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8 whilst News has also been compiled on Brainshadows Vol. 2 CD.

(Max Waller/J. Gold)

Guitar Ensemble

TOP

ALBUM:

1 YOU-N-YOU (Private Pressing) 1971

A Christian guitar rock group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Guns and Butler

TOP

Personnel:

- PAUL COHEN gtr A
- PETER COHEN bs A
- LENNY FEDERER violin, viola A
- JEFF LYONS vcls, gtr A
- RICHARD PLOSS flute, sax A
- PETER TUCKER drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GUNS AND BUTLER (Cotillion SD 9901) 1972

A very marginal case for inclusion because this is an underrated progressive as opposed to garage or psychedelic album. An unusual combination of instruments works well with all tracks interesting and a couple particularly good - all were penned by the group. An all Jewish line-up with a hint of traditional Jewish music in their sound. Closely followed by Lloyd Grossman, who co-produced the album and wrote the sleeve-notes.

Sandy Gurley

ALBUM:

1	SANDY GURLEY	(Tower ST 51??)	1969 SC

A San Francisco hippie singer in the Janis Joplin style, with a competent back-up group using fuzz guitar.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Gurus

Personnel incl:

PANKIN	A
N. SCHNEIDER	A
J. TALBOT	A

ALBUM:

1	THE GURUS ARE HERE!	(United Artists UAS 6563)	1967

NB: (1) was advertised but does not appear to have been released.

45s:

1	Blue Snow Night/Come Girl	(United Artists 50089)	1966
2	It Just Won't BeThat Way/Everybody's Got To Be Alone Sometime	(United Artists 50140)	1967

A mid-sixties outfit who have been variously reported as coming from New York and Los Angeles. Both sides of the first 45 are Eastern-influenced, the vocals are rather reminiscent ot Kaleidoscope. The second 45 is rather more poppy - the 'A' side is a cover of a Critters' song.

Erik Lindgren's liner notes for A Heavy Dose of Lyte Psych (which includes It Just Won't Be That Way), says that the band consisted of five music majors from the New York area, who recorded several tracks for the above album, but that United Artists pulled the plugs, after the 2nd 45 stiffed. Their first 45 came in a pic sleeve. Come Girl has also resurfaced on A Trip On The Magic Flying Machine.

It's way past time someone issued this LP on the strength of the 45s alone.

(Max Waller)

Margo Guryan

ALBUM:

1	TAKE A PICTURE	(Bell)	1968

NB: (1) reissued on CD in Japan (Trattoria) 199?

45:

1	Spanky And Our Gang/Sunday Mornin	(Mala 12002)	1968
2	Take A Picture/What Can I Give You?	(Mala 12020)	1968

A soft psych singer, who wrote Sunday Mornin, a hit for Spanky and Our Gang. The non LP 'A' side was a "thank you" for recording her song.

(Stephane Rebeschini/David Rosner)

Arlo Guthrie

TOP

ALBUMS:
(up to 1969)

1	ALICE'S RESTAURANT	(Reprise)	1967
2	ARLO	(Reprise)	1968
3	RUNNING DOWN THE ROAD	(Reprise RS6346)	1969

NB: These albums were also released in the U.K. and France. (1) has been reissued several times.

45s:

1	Motorcycle Song/Now And Then	(Reprise)	1967
2	Motorcycle Song, pt 1/pt 2	(Reprise)	1968
3	Coming In To Los Angeles/?	(Reprise)	1969

Son of the legendary Woodie Guthrie, Arlo appeared in 1967 with Alice's Restaurant Massacree, an eighteen-minute underground hit. His first album was well received and a movie was later made out of the song themes. His following effort Arlo, was live and is not recommended. Guthrie then teamed up with Lenny Waronker and Van Dyke Parks and Running Down The Road was recorded with two Byrds (Clarence White and Gene Parsons), Ry Cooder, Jim Gordon, James Burton, Jerry Scheff (Holy Mackerel), John Pilla and Chris Ethridge. Essentially folk and country rock oriented, it contains two songs of interest: the dope-smuggling anthem Coming In To Los Angeles and the strange title track with its chiming guitars recorded with lots of echo.

Arlo Guthrie performed at Woodstock and a live version of Coming In To Los Angeles can be found on the 'Woodstock' film and soundtrack. Still working with Cooder, Clarence White and various folk and country-rock musicians, his other albums are out of the scope of this book.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Guys Who Come Up From Downstairs

TOP

45:

1. Growth/Nothing We Can Do (Disc-Guys 6836) 1968

You'll find Growth on Hipsville 29 B. C. and Ear Piercing Punk (CD). Blatant stuff from Cedar Rapids, Iowa. (Max Waller)

Gwydion

Core Personnel:

- DANA CORBY vcls, gtr, dulcimer A
- GWYDION vcls, gtr A
- RADIMUS RAGWEED vcls, bs A
- HUGIN REDBEARD vcls, gtr, mandolin A
- ED REEDY drms A
- (and guest musicians)

ALBUM:

1. (A) SINGS SONGS FOR THE OLD RELIGION (Nemeton) 1975 R2

NB: (1) reissued in the U.K. on Psychedelic Archives in 1995 and also reissued on CD, together with his 1981 album The Faerie Shaman as The Music Of Gwydion 1998.

An Oakland, California band whose acid folk album, on which Gwydion is backed by the Wicca Blues Band, is notable for an outstanding cover photo and one great track called Sungod. Not that expensive to obtain in the U.S.A., it seems to have been considered a mega-rarity in Europe, which resulted in its reissue.

Gypsy

Personnel:

- JAY EPSTEIN drms A
- JAMES C. JOHNSON vcls, gtr A B
- DONI LARSON bs A
- ENRICO ROSENBAUM vcls, gtr, perc A B
- JAMES 'OWL' WALSH vcls, keyb'ds, perc A B
- RANDY GATES vcls B
- BILL LORDAN drms B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) GYPSY (dbl) (Metromedia M2 1031) 1970
2. IN THE GARDEN (Metromedia KMD 1044) 1971
3. (B) ANTITHESIS (RCA VICTOR LSP-4775) 1972
4. UNLOCK THE GATE (RCA VICTOR APL1-0093) 1973
5. AMERICAN GYPSY (CHESS 60034) 1975

6. THE JAMES WALSH GYPSY BAND (RCA VICTOR AFL1-2914) 1979

NB: (5) as by American Gypsy, (6) 6 as by The James Walsh Gypsy Band.

45s:

1. Dead And Gone / Here In My Loneliness (Cognito 008) 196?/7?
2. Gypsy Queen Part III / Dead And Gone (Metromedia 202) 1970
3. As Far As You Can See / Here In The Garden (Metromedia 228) 1971
4. Day After Day / Lean On Me (RCA Victor 74-0862) 1972
5. Don't Bother Me / Make Peace With Jesus (RCA Victor 74-0933) 1973
6. Need You Baby / Precious One (RCA Victor APB0-0036) 1973
7. Don't Stop For Nothin' / Magic In My Life (Dore 907) 1975
8. Cuz It's You, Girl / Bring Yourself Around (RCA Victor 11403) 1978
9. Love Is For The Best In Us / Don't Look Back (RCA Victor 11480) 1979

NB: (8) and (9) as by The James Walsh Gypsy Band.

This long-lived outfit evolved out of Minneapolis' Underbeats, who'd been wowing them in the Midwest since the early '60s. Given the prodigious output under their various monickers, latterly as American Gypsy and The James Walsh Gypsy Band, they must have enjoyed much success but have retained a relatively low profile in collectors circles since, apart from entries in Tom Tourville's ground-breaking Minnesota Rocked discography. They may have relocated to California at some point, since their early LPs were recorded there. The first double album is full of originals, which are psychedelic in mood with West Coast jazz-rock influences and some Southern rock tinges. One of the second LP's highlights is Another Way, an Eastern influenced jam which sounds not unlike early Santana - it's featured on the Journey To The East compilation.

The third album is more mainstream and not as good. It does consist entirely of originals, the better tracks being Facing Time, Young Gypsy, Antithesis and Money. Enrico Rosenbaum was the chief creative force behind Gypsy, and sadly later committed suicide. James Walsh led several reformations in later years, and now works in a recording studio in Minneapolis doing independent production projects. Bill Lordan went on to work with Sly and The Family Stone, and later had a long-lasting relationship with Robin Trower, touring and recording with Trower for many years.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson / Richard King / Bill Cafruny)

The Gypsies

TOP

45:

1. Look For The One That Loves You/Oh Girl (Caprice 607V-8442) 1965

This punk 45 was the work of 15 year olds from Bryan Adams High School in Dallas. The flip can be found on Texas Punk, 1966.- Vol. 9. It's a forgetable sort of dance record. Caprice was a subsidiary label of Vandan.

Gypsy Boots

45:

1 Havin a Love In/ ? (Sidewalk) 1968

An unknown group, but a promising song title!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Gypsy Trips

Personnel:

- ROGER TILLISON
- TERRYE TILLISON

45:

1. Rock'n'Roll Gypsies/Ain't It Hard (World Pacific 77809) 1965

Originally from Oklahoma but based in Los Angeles, the flip to this folk duo's 45 was covered by The Electric Prunes on their first 45. It has since been covered by Vancouver's Fiends on their 1992 Zombie A Go Go EP, and by Tim Gassen's Purple Merkins on the Dig It EP. Rock'n Roll Gypsies was also covered by Hearts and Flowers, on BOTH their Capitol LPs and latterly compiled on Nuggets Vol. 10. Teaming up with old friend and another Oklahoma emigre, Leon Russell - who now had a label "Viva" and adding J.J. Cale and you get The Leathercoated Minds' LP.

In 1970, Roger Tillison made one good album, Roger Tillison's Album,(Atco >SD-355), strongly influenced by The Band And Dylan. He also made further solo albums.

You can also find Ain't It Hard on Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD) and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 1.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

H. B. and The Checkmates to Half Tribe

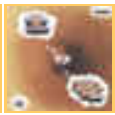
Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- H.B. and The Checkmates
- H.M.S. Bounty
- H.M. Subjects
- H.P. Lovecraft
- H.Y. Sledge
- Hackamore Brick
- Hackers
- Haircuts
- Hair Theatre
- Hal and The Prophets
- Half Pint and The Fifths
- Half Tribe

H.B. and The Checkmates

TOP



45:

1. Louise, Louise/Summertime (Lavender 1936) 1965

Hailed from Springfield, Oregon. The 'A' side has resurfaced on *Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 7*and Boulders, Vol. 11. Basically, they transposed the song into one about a girl and had the gall to claim the credit. The result, which was recorded live at the Cascade teen Glub, has not stood the test of time well.

(Max Waller)

H.M.S. Bounty

TOP

Personnel:

- MERRELL FANKHAUSER gtr, vcls A
- BILL DODD gtr A
- JACK JORDAN bs A
- LARRY MEYERS perc A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THINGS (Shamley SS 701) 1968

NB. (1) reissued on Time Stood Still (TSSLP2) 1985, and CD (Afterglow 015) 1995. Sundazed have also reissued the album on CD with extra tracks.

45s:

1. Things/Rich Man's Fable (Shamley 44006) 1968
2. I'm Flying Home/Girl (I'm Waiting For You) (Shamley 44008) 1969

This brief Fankhauser project was based in Los Angeles in 1968, after he and Dodd had earlier played with Fapardokly. In their time, H.M.S. Bounty often opened for Canned Heat, Electric Flag and the Paul Butterfield Blues Band. They split in early 1969 when Myers and Dodd left.

This album, which was reissued in 1985 by Cherry Red's subsidiary, Time Stood Still, is a melodic amalgam of both folk and acid rock. The latter being represented by the paranoid, Lost In The City, Drivin' Sideways (On A One Way Street), with the vocalist recounting a bad trip and mystical numbers, like Madame Silky and A Visit Wlth Ashiya. The album is full of hooks, harmonies and sound effects that were typical of the period. The re-issue includes an additional track, I'm Flying Home - the B side from a 1969 45.

Fankhauser and Dodd both went on to form Mu, who also included Jeff Cotton, formerly of Captain Beefheart.

Fankhauser was one of the more interesting rock figures to emerge from Los Angeles in the late sixties. Moving to the West Coast from his birthplace of Louisville, Kentucky, he played with surfing outfits like The Sentinels and The Impacts (with Jack Jordan) and later with (Merrell and) The Exiles, prior to forming Fapardokly. Mu spent much of their time in Maui, Hawaii and were a pretty weird bunch. Fankhauser has also cut solo albums in 1976, 1983, and 1985, which are well worth investigation

Fankhauser suffered a heart aflack following an apparently outstanding concert appearance at Pismo beach, California in 1987 and for a while it was touch and go but he did fully recover.

H.M. Subjects

TOP

Personnel:

- JEFF ALLEN drms
- GEORGE HALL bs
- DANNY MURPHY vcls, bs, gtr, perc
- CARTER RAGSDALE vcls
- GEORGE WALDEN ld gtr
- JOHN WEATHERFORD rhythm gtr

45s:

1. Don't Bring Me Down Pt 1/Pt 2 (Saint 1001) 1966
2. Don't Bring Me Down (censored)/Don't Bring Me Down (uncensored) (Blue Saint 1001) 1966

This band were previously known as The Montells, who were responsible for You Can't Make Me, one of the finest primal R'n'B 45s, matching (if not out-doing) any early Pretty Things recording. From Miami, Florida, this 45 under the H.M. Subjects monicker, includes two versions of The Pretties' classic, which was censored for the line '... When I LAID her on the ground'. The uncensored version can also be found on the Psychotic Moose And The Soul

Searchers compilation or you can check out the censored version on Good Roots (aka All Cops in Delirium).

The recent retrospective LP The Montells / The Evil (Corduroy CORD 027, Australia 1997) contains all released plus some unreleased material, and so includes both versions of Don't Bring me Down. Highly recommended.

Jeff Allen also later played in Evil.

(Max Waller / Ivor Trueman)

H.P. Lovecraft

TOP

Personnel:

- GEORGE EDWARDS gtr, bs, vcls A B C D
- DAVID MICHAELS keyb'ds, vcls A B C D
- (KAL DAVID gtr A)
- (FRANK BARTOLI bs A)
- (FRED PAPPALARDO drms A)
- TONY CAVALLARI ld gtr B C D
- MICHAEL TEGZA drms B C D
- TOM SKIDMORE bs B
- JERRY McGEORGE bs C
- JEFF BOYAN bs,vcls D

ALBUMS:

1. (C) HP LOVECRAFT I (Philips 600252) 1967
2. (D) HP LOVEGRAFT II (Philips 600279) 1968
3. (C/D) AT THE MOUNTAINS OF MADNESS (dbl) (Edsel DED 256) 1988
4. (D) LIVE MAY 11 1968 (Sundazed LP 5004) 1991

NB. (1) was later reissued as This Is H.P Lovecraft. (3) is a compilation of their first two LPs plus their first single, (4) is also available on CD (Sundazed SC 11008). (1) and (2) were reissued on one CD (Britonic BRTACD 010) 1997.

Related Albums as Lovecraft:

1. VALLEY OF THE MOON (Reprise 6419) 1969
2. WE LOVE YOU WHOEVER YOU ARE (Mercury SRMI 1031) 1975

45s:

1. Anyway That You Want Me/ It's All Over For You (Philips 40464) 1967
2. Wayfaring Stranger/Time Machine (PS) (Philips 40491) 1967
3. White Ship (Part 1)/White Ship (Part 2) (Philips 40506) 1967
4. Keeper Of The Keys/Blue Jack Of Diamonds (Philips 40578) 1968
5. We Can Have It Altogether/Will I Know When My Time Comes? (Reprise 0996) 1971

6. I Feel Better/Flight (Mercury 73698) 1975
7. Ain't Gettin' None/We Love You (Mercury 73707) 1975

NB: (5), (6) & (7) released by Lovecraft.

George Edwards, an ex-folk troubadour who had cut a solo 45 for Dunwich, Norwegian Wood/Never Mind, I'm Freezing, and a raw cover of Bob Dylan's Quit Your Low Down Ways, that remained unreleased until its inclusion on Happy Tiger's Early Chicago compilation in 1971, was working as in-house session vocalist with Dunwich when this Chicago-based outfit was first assembled. Aside from David Michaels, the other three members of the band were borrowed from another Chicago ouffit, The Rovin' Kind. The name H.P. Lovecraft was appropriated from the deceased fantasy horror wrighter. This initial line-up (February 1967) was responsible for the first 45, although the flip side was a George Edwards solo outtake from the previous year. The group came together as a stable entity in the Spring of 1967 (line-up B), although Tom Skidmore soon made way for Jerry McGeorge, who'd previously played with The Shadows Of Knight and Dalek/Engham: The Blackstones. (Joe Kelly, also of The Shadows Of Knight, was briefly in the band when Tony Cavallari, was absent for a while in late 1967).

The vocal combination of the folkie Edwards and Michaels, a classically-trained singer, gave the band a unique and distinctive vocal sound effectively supplemented by Michael's powerful keyboard-playing. Their debut album is one of great variety. The stand-out track was The White Ship and this is the song with which the group are most usually associated. Making use of a 1811 ship's bell, sombre harmonies, reeds, feedback and some baroque harpsichord pieces it conjured up a hallucinogenic atmosphere ideally suited to the times. Also of note were an excellent upbeat version of Dino Valente's hippie anthem Let's Get Together, which preceded The Youngblood's hit by over a year; That's The Bag I'm In, which had its roots in the garage; Wayfaring Stranger, a folk-based number and the dopey, sleepy number, I've Been Wrong Before, which gave a clear indication of the direction they would follow on their second album.

In the Spring of 1968 they relocated to Marin Country in Northern California, having already briefly toured the West Coast. They became a frequent attraction at the nearby San Francisco ballrooms playing alongside most of the top Bay Area bands. Jerry McGeorge wanted to stay in Chicago and was replaced by Jeff Boyan, previously with Hezekiah and before that Saturday's Children. Not only was Boyan a talented guitarist, he possessed a distinctive lead voice, too.

Later that year the group moved on again to Los Angeles where they recorded a second album which contained many fine moments. The sleepiness of the tracks like Spin, Spin, Spin, Electrallentando and Mobius Trip was reminiscent of the second side of the first It's A Beautiful Day album. There was a fine version of High Flying Bird, a song recorded by many West Coast groups; At The Mountains Of Madness, which captured the group's vocal harmonies at their tinest, and Blue Jack Of Diamonds, which had an unusual chiming intro. This is reputedly the first major label album where all those involved in the recording were high on acid!

H.P. Lovecraft effectively dissolved in 1969. Their first 45 got a further airing on the Early Chicago compilation a couple of years later. A new line-up of Edwards, Tegza, Marty Grebb (ex-Buckinghams and Exceptions), Michael Been (ex-Troys) and Jim Dolinger (ex-Aorta and Exceptions) signed with Reprise in 1970 calling themselves Lovecraft. Edwards departed before they recorded a rockier album and 45 the following year and soon Lovecraft were no more. Tegza later joined Bangor Flying Circus, but he reformed Lovecraft with an entirely new line-up in 1975 and a disappointing further album and two 45s were released which attracted little attention.

Those first two H.P. Lovecraft LPs remain rather special and Edsel's 1988 release compiles both along with additional tracks. Similarly, the live release, from a concert at San Francisco's Fillmore in May 1968, captures the band in their prime.

Completists may also be interested in two radio spots which are included on both Oh Yeah! and If You're Ready, The Best Of Dunwich series on Sundazed.

For more information on the band check the following website:
http://www.angelfire.com/music2/lovecraft/

(Vernon Joynson)

H.Y. Sledge

TOP

Personnel:

- MICHAEL EWBANK organ, piano, vcls A
- RICHARD PORTER gtr, piano, harp, vcls A
- JAN PULVER bs, cowbell, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BOOTLEG MUSIC (SSS lntemational SSS-22) 1971

Despite the colourful cover, the album, produced by Ewbank and Poner, is very much an early seventies rock sound. Its finest cuts include Canadian Exodus which starts abrasively but slows down and features some nice, mellow guitar playing and Cellophane Lady, which has some sixties style fuzz guitar, otherwise it's very much an early seventies sound. H.Y. Sledge hailed from Valparaiso, Florida.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Hackamore Brick

TOP

Personnel:

- ROBBIE BIEGE A
- TOMMY MOONLIG A
- CHICK NEWMAN A
- BOB ROMAN A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ONE KISS LEADS TO ANOTHER (Kama Sutra 2025) 1971

45:

1. Searchin'/Radio (Kama Sutra 521) 1971

Brooklyn in New York was home to this early seventies band who had a decidedly sixties sound. One reviewer described their live sound as 'like an early sixties psychedelic band'. Nuggets, Vol. 5 features Got A Gal Named Wilma, a melodic number off their album which features some nice laid back guitar work. A band worth investigating and sadly too short-lived.

Hackers

45:

1	Keep On Running, Girl / Angel Love	(J J's Jewel Wear .003)	1967

From the home of the FAME studios - Florence Alabama Music Enterprises. A decent folk-punker, Keep On Running, Girl can be found on Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

Haircuts

Personnel incl:

ROY STRAIGIS A

45:

1	She Loves You / Love Me Do	(Cameo Parkway 899)	1964

Mike Kuzmin's 'Sounds From The Woods' notes that this was a studio aggregation based in Philadelphia. They'd already released one 45 in 1963 as The Emblems and when Beatlemania took hold in 1964 they leapt on the bandwagon, releasing two LPs on Wyncote as The Liverpools.

(Max Waller)

Hair Theatre

ALBUM:

1	HAIR THEATER	(Glass Brick)	c1972 SC

A very obscure West Coast psych group, whose sole album was released in small quantities.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Hal and The Prophets

45:

1. Shame Shame Shame/She's Doing Fine (Scepter 1287) 1964

This must be one of the best versions of the Jimmy Reed classic. Drivin' beat and some real mean but cool lead licks, like some early Jimmy Page. Shame on them for putting such an awful ballad on the flip. (Max Waller)

Half Pint and The Fifths

45:

1. Orphan Boy/Living On Borrowed Time (Orlyn 6018) 1966

A Chigago garage band. Back Fiom The Grave, Vol. 7 features Orphan Boy, a bluesy song on which the Chicago influence is evident, whilst the flip can be found on Tougher Than Stains.

(Max Waller)

Half Tribe

Personnel:

- J.M. GAROUTRE ld gtr A
- JOHN HAWKINS bs A
- DICK ZACHER gtr A
- DICK SAMMIS drms A
- NICK HILTON vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ONLY STARTIN' (Private Pressing) 1965/6

NB. (1) reissued on Resurrection (CX 1386) 1984.

From the Reading, Pennsylvania area this ouffit, also known as the 'Half Tribe of Manasseh' or just 'The Tribe' left just one gloriously rare vinyl artifact - (no 45s traced) - of decent garage music featuring mainly covers - Money, Empty Heart, Maloguena, Summertime etc. Shortly after this the band would disintegrate - Hawkins and Sammis going on to form The Other Half whose LP is equally rare. (M.W.).

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Sonny Hall to John Hammond

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Sonny Hall
- The Hallmarks
- The Hamilton Face Band
- Hamilton Peach
- Hamilton Streetcar
- Hammer
- John Hammond

Sonny Hall

TOP

45:

1. The Battle Of The Moon/Poor Planet Earth (International Artists 131) 1969

This was a one-off venture on the Houston-based label. The flip, something of a novelty item, resurfaced on Epitaph For A Legend in 1980.

The Hallmarks

TOP

45:

1. Girl Of My Dreams/Soul Shakin' Psychedelic Sally (Smash S 2115) 1967

A bubblegum outfit, from Ocean Port, New Jersey, who combined well crafted harmonies with a garage-style rhythm section. You ran check out Soul Shakin' Psychedelic Sally on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 2. They started off with a much rawer garage sound as evidenced by a previously unreleased 1966 acetate I Know Why, which has resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 4. This is actually an earlier version of Soul Shakin'... and under this title has been covered by '90s garageniks the Mummies - whose live version is on Follow That Munster Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

The Hamilton Face Band

TOP

Personnel:

ALAN COOPER	bs, vcls, trumpet	A
LENNY LAKS	vcls, trumpet, bs, sax	A
STEVE MARGOSHES	piano, trombone	A
RUTH ROMANOFF	drms	A

RONNIE SELDIN	gtr, bs	A
(AMOS BLACK	wah wah pedal	A)

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE HAMILTON FACE BAND	(Philips PHS 600.308)	1969
2(A)	AIN'T GOT NO TIME	(Bell 6042)	1970

45s:

1	Banana Song / High Why And Die Company	(Philips 40603)	1969

Produced by Anne Tansey and housed in a nice sleeve, their first album is a good mix of jazz, blues and psyche. All the tracks are group compositions but with some assistance of Paul Wolfe, who was credited as their lyrics writer. The best cuts are High Why And Die Company, Speed Song and Slippery Sweet but the whole album is worth a listen.

Before the second album, Ruth Romonoff married Ian Underwood from The Mothers Of Invention and was credited as Ruth Underwood. Produced by Johanan Vigoda, all the tracks were once again composed by Margoshes, Seldin and Laks but the result is not as interesting, although United States Atomic Energy Control Plant, Ghost Of A Highway Child and a new version of High Why And Die Company are worth a listen.

When the group broke up, Ruth Underwood went on to play with the Mothers (Of Invention) and became an important element of Frank Zappa group in the early '70s.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Hamilton Peach

TOP

45:

1. With The Girl That You Love/One Way Ticket Down (CEI CE-131) 1967

A melodic minor-mood ballad backed by a keyboard dominated instrumental. The CEI label moved from Toledo,Ohio to Maryland in 1966 and returned in late '68, so it's likely that the band was from that area. (Max Waller/George Gell)

Hamilton Streetcar

TOP

Personnel:

- JOHN BOYLAN A
- BUZZ CLIFFORD A
- RALPH PLUMMER A

ALBUM:

1. HAMILTON STREETCAR (Dot DLP 25939) 1969

45s:

1. Invisible People/Flash (LH1 17016)1968
2. Confusion/Your Own Comedown (LH1 1206) 1968
3. Silver Wings/I See I Am (Dot 17253) 1969
4. Brother Speed/Wasn't It You? (Dot 17279) 1969
5. Honey And Wine/Now I Taste The Tears (Dot 17306) 1969

This Los Angeles band's finest moment was Invisible People captured on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3. It has a catchy organ intro, vocals of some commercial potential and some fine fuzztone guitar work and was not included on their album. The track was also covered by The Slickee Boys in 1983. The flip Flash is more laid back and can be found on Slowly Growing Insane (CD) and it's vinyl counterpart Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 11

Their album, however, is orchestral mainstream pop and rather disappointing by comparison. All the Dot singles are taken from the album and you can also find Silver Wings on Turds On A Bum Ride Vol's 1 & 2 (CD).

Hammer

TOP

Personnel:

- JACK O'BRIEN ld gtr A
- NORMAN LANDSBERG keyb'ds A
- JOHN GUERIN drms A
- RITCHIE MCBRIDE bs A
- JOHN DE ROBERTS vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HAMMER (San Francisco SD 203) 1970

A second generation San Francisco band, whose debut album was superb but they also made a second album which was never released. Two tracks from their album (Tuane and Charity Taylor) can also be found on San Francisco Sampler - Fall 1970.

Guerin was a session artist who also had spells with The Byrds and Muleskinner.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

John Hammond

TOP

Personnel incl:

JOHN HAMMOND	vcls, hrmnca, gtr	A B C D E F G H
JIMMY LEWIS	bs	A B E
MICHAEL BLOOMFIELD	piano	B C

LEVON HELM	drms	B	D
GARTH HUDSON	organ	B	D
CHARLIE MUSSELWHITE	hrmnca	B	D
ROBBIE ROBERTSON	gtr	B	D	E
ARTIE BUTLER	piano			E
RICK DANKO	bs			E
CHARLES OTIS	drms			E	F	H
BILL WYMAN	bs			E
WILLIE BRIDGES	sax				F
GORDON FLEMING	piano				F
HERMAN PITMAN	bs				F
GEORGE STUBBS	piano				F
BILLY NICHOLLS	bs					H

ALBUMS:
(up to 1971)

1(A)	JOHN HAMMOND	(Vanguard VSD-2148)	1963
2(A)	BIG CITY BLUES	(Vanguard VSD-79153)	1964
3(B)	SO MANY ROADS	(Vanguard VSD-79178)	1965
4(C)	COUNTRY BLUES	(Vanguard VSD-79198)	1966
5(D)	MIRRORS	(Vanguard VSD-79245)	1967
6(E)	I CAN TELL	(Atlantic SD-8152)	1967
7(F)	SOONER OR LATER	(Atlantic SD-8206)	1968
8(G)	SOUTHERN FRIED	(Atlantic SD-8251)	1969
9(-)	BEST OF	(Vanguard VSD)	1970
10(H)	SOURCE POINT	(CBS S64365)	1971

NB: Mono pressings of (1) to (6) exist. In France, (5) was issued by Vanguard, (7) and (8) by Atlantic and (10) by CBS. (3) and (6) have been reissued on CD.

45:

1	Shake For Me/ Turn Me Down	(Atlantic 650191)	1991

NB: (1) French 45 with PS.

Born in 1942 the elder son of the famed scout talent and producer John Hammond Sr (the man who "discovered" Bessie Smith, Dylan, Springsteen), John Paul Hammond is primarily a white blues singer, harmonicist and guitarist. He is not a songwriter, however, and his album's always rely on covers of Blues and R&B classics, originally written by Muddy Waters, Bo Diddley, Willie Dixon, Robert Johnson etc. His inclusion here is justified by the excellent quality of his albums and the great backing groups used on the sessions, with members of the Band, Mike Bloomfield, Charlie Musselwhite, Duane Allman and even Bill Wyman of the Rolling Stones (in 1967!). Recognized by his peers, Hammond has often been criticized for being "only" a white blues singer but his albums are still very listenable and enjoyable.

John Hammond started playing in 1958 and, after six months spent in Asia, gradually began to perform in New York clubs with a backing group, the Screamin' Nighthawks (including for some months a young Jimi Hendrix). In 1963 he played at the Newport Festival and got offered a contract with Vanguard.

His third album, So Many Roads, benefits from an exceptional backing group: Charlie Musselwhite, Mike

Bloomfield (on piano!) and three future members of the Band (and ex Ronnie Hawkins' Hawks): Levon Helm, Garth Hudson and Robbie Robertson, who uses a lot of distortion on his guitar solos, notably on Who Do You Love and You Can't Judge A Book By The Cover.

In 1966, Mirrors was more of the same. Hammond also guested on the second Richard and Mimi Farina album, on Dylan's Bringing It All Back Home and played with the Jefferson Airplane and Jerry Garcia (one track In The Morning was released on the Airplane's Early Flight).

In 1967, I Can Tell was released and once again Robbie Robertson guitar added an extra dimension, especially on tracks like Spoonful and I Wish You Would (this one with Bill Wyman on bass).

In comparison, although good, Sooner Or Later is more classically blues oriented, with Hammond in charge of all the guitars and the production work. This is his rarest, as the masters were destroyed and no reissues exist.

In 1969, Hammond went to Muscle Shoals, Alabama, to record Southern Fried and Duane Alllman played the lead guitar on four tracks. The album is recommended if you can find a copy, Hammond posing on the back cover in a superb python skin suit!

Hammond also guested on albums by Don Covay (blues) and the Blue Velvet Band (bluegrass oriented, with Richard Greene of Seatrain).

After 1970, still faithful to his love for the blues, John Hammond kept on recording for various labels and is still touring, coming to Europe once a year to tour the jazz/blues club circuit.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Hampton Grease Band to Tim Hardin

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Hampton Grease Band
- A Handful
- Hangmen
- Hangmen of Fairfield County
- Ha'Pennys
- The Happy Dragon Band
- The Happy Feeling
- Harbinger Complex
- Tim Hardin

Hampton Grease Band

TOP

Personnel:

JERRY FIELDS	perc, vcls	A
BRUCE HAMPTON	vcls, trumpet	A
MIKE HOLBROOK	bs	A
HAROLD KELLING	gtr, vcls	A
GLENN PHILLIPS	gtr, sax	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	MUSIC TO EAT	(Columbia G 30555)	1971

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD.

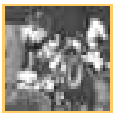
From Atlanta, this is a totally demented album which should appeal to fans of weird psychedelic groups. The Hampton Grease Band somehow managed to sign a contract with Columbia and released Music To Eat, a double album which seems to have had one of the worst sales in the Columbia history. It was "produced" by the group with David Baker and contains only seven long tracks: Halifax, Mario, Six, Evans, Lowton, Hey Old Lady and Hendon. Hampton screams, whispers, sings, a la Captain Beefheart or Far Cry, while Kelling and Phillips explore various styles of guitar, from jazz, blues and rock to oriental music and freak out experiences. The lyrics are really weird, even including the reading of the label of a paint tin. The gatefold sleeve is strange too and mentions that "the people pictured here have complete control of the North American Continent at this very second"!

Ptolemaic Terrascope magazine would later release two live tracks by the band on one of their free 45s.

Glenn Phillips went on to release several solo albums on his SnowStar label (Caroline/Virgin released some of them in England) and to play with the improvisation specialist Henry Kaiser, who often quotes him as a strong influence. The "Colonel" Bruce Hampton also had a fragmented solo career and is apparently still performing and recording.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

A Handful



45:

1	Dying Daffodil Incident/?	(LHI)	c1968

An obscure and weird garage group, on Lee Hazlewood label.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Hangmen

Personnel:

BOB BERBERICH	drms	A B C
GEORGE DALY	gtr	A B C
TOM GUERNSEY	gtr	A B C
DAVE OTLEY	vcls	A B
MIKE WEST	bs	A
PAUL DOWELL	bs	B C
TONY TAYLOR	vcls	C

ALBUM:

1(B)	BITTERSWEET	(Monument SLP 18077)	1966

NB: (1) also issued in France on Monument.

45s:

1(A)	What A Girl Can't Do/The Girl Who Faded Away	(Monument 910)	Nov 1965
2(B)	Faces/Bad Goodbye	(Monument 951)	Jun 1966
3(C)	Dream Baby/Let It Be Me	(Monument 983)	1966

One of Washington D.C.'s most popular and successful '60s bands, their story began with an act called The Reekers who were formed by guitarist Tom Guernsey in 1964. Following the release of their debut 45 - Don't Call Me Flyface / Grindin' (Ru-Jac 13) in early 1965, Bob Berberich was recruited on drums and The Reekers laid down early versions of What A Girl Can't Do and The Girl Who Faded Away. No 45 resulted, although their acetate version of The Girl... can be found on the EP Garage Dreams Revisited Vol. 1.

After more personnel changes the band re-emerged as the Hangmen in April 1965, with vocalist Dave Ottley - a British ex-pat working as a hairdresser in DC. The band re-recorded the Reekers' tracks for their first 45 and What A Girl Can't Do is a classy girl-put-down belter.

The follow-up, the stunning Faces, is a five-star mean'n'moody fuzz-rocker with Who power chords and obtuse lyrics - PLAY LOUD. This 45 featured new bassist Paul Dowell and Ottley moved on soon after its release to be replaced by Tony Taylor (ex-Roaches).

The third 45 was a taster for the album that appeared at the turn of the year. It includes rather lame reworkings of What A Girl Can't Do and Faces and for fans of the first two garage-punk 45s it may be a disappointment. It's good, but not that good, despite a five-minute-plus version of Gloria, and will appeal more to pop fans with tracks like the dreamy version of the Everly Brothers' Let It Be Me.

By the Summer of '67 the band's direction shifted to psychedelia and their name changed to The Button. Daly and Dowell had been replaced by guitarist George Strunz and Alan Fowler, former bassist of the Mad Hatters. Founder Tom Guernsey left soon after and The Button relocated to Greenwich Village where they evolved into Graffiti.

When Berberich left The Button, he returned to DC. There he reunited with Dowell and Daly to form (Paul Dowell and) The Dolphin. Their line-up was completed by a young and talented guitarist called Nils Lofgren. Berberich also sat in with Puzzle for a while when their drummer was injured in a car accident.

In 1968, Tom Guernsey produced a 45 by The Piece Kor. He was also reunited with Reekers vocalist Joe Triplett, writing and producing a 45 for The Omegas. In the '70s he returned to performing with brother John in the band Claude Jones. Dave Ottley returned to the U.K. and is now a hairdresser in Barnet, London.FS

You can read all about the Hangmen in Bob Embrey's zine 'DC Monuments', issue #11.

Compilation coverage by the band has so far included: What A Girl Can't Do on Signed DC; What A Girl Can't Do and Faces (2nd 45 version) on Psychotic Moose And The Soulsearchers; and Faces (2nd 45 version) on The 60s Choice Vol.1.

(Max Waller, with thanks to Bob Embrey)

Hangmen of Fairfield County

TOP

45:

1. Stacey/I Don't Want You Around (High Castle HC 401) 1966

A Fairfield, Connecticut outfit. Stacey can also be heard on Hipsville 29 B.C.

Ha'Pennys

TOP

ALBUM:

1. LOVE IS NOT THE SAME (Fersch FL 1110) 1966 R3

NB: (1) reissued on Resurrection in 1985.

A prep/punk outfit from Philips Academy, Andover, Massachusetts. The album is pretty low key beat in style, comprising mostly British invasion covers (e.g. Day Tripper, Get Off Of My Cloud, Heart Full Of Soul, We Gotta Get Out Of This Place, You're A Better Man Than I) with one original, the title folk-rock cut. Like all the prep rock albums, its very rare.

The Happy Dragon Band

Personnel:

JOHN (BEE) BADANJEK	drms	A
TOM CARSON	vcls	A
DENNIS CRANER	bs	A
MIKE de MARTINO	keyb'ds	A
JOHN FRAGA	bs	A
CECILY LONERGAN	vcls	A
GARY MEISNER	gtr	A
MIKE ORZEL	tamb	A
CLEM RICCOBONO	vcls	A
RALPH SARAFINO	drms	A
SCOTT STRAWBRIDGE	gtr	A
BRIAN WHITE	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE HAPPY DRAGON BAND	(Fiddlers Music Company)	1978

NB: (1) has been repressed.

This is possibly a future collectors' item, certainly an unusual one. A guy called Tommy Court was the brainchild behind the band. He wrote and produced all the songs. There's lots of synthesizer on the album. The better tracks are Positive People, which consists of lots of electronic acrobatics; In Flight, an exercise in cosmic electronics; A Long Time and Inside The Pyramid, both notable for electronic sound effects and, finally, 3-D Free, which stars with a sorta electronic freakout and carries on in a similar mould pretty much throughout with some vocals at the end.

The Happy Feeling

ALBUM:

1	THE HAPPY FEELING	(Avco Embassy AVE 330??)	1970

NB: (1) also released in the UK.

A flower power pop group.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Harbinger Complex

Personnel incl:

- GARY CLARK bs
- JIM HOCKSTAFF lead vcl
- BOB HOYLE ld gtr

- JIM REDDING drms
- RON ROTARIUS rhythm gtr

45s:

1. Sometimes I Wonder/Tomorrow's Soul Sound (Amber 8999) 1966
2. I Think I'm Down/My Dear And Kind Sir (Brent 7056) 1966

From Fremont, California originally, this San Jose band operated between 1966-67 producing two singles and appearing on Mainstream's 1968 Pot Of Flowers compilation. Four tracks were included on the compilation I Think I'm Down and My Dear And Kind Sir, which had earlier been issued as a 45 on Brent and When You Know You're In Love and Time To Kill. Pot Of Flowers was also reissued in the eighties as part of Mindrocker, Vol. 10.

Both sides of the Brent 45 also appeared on Sound Of The Sixties: San Francisco, Part 2 and I Think I'm Down also resurfaced on Nuggets, Vol. 12.

(Max Waller / Bruce Tahsler)

Tim Hardin

TOP

Personnel:

GARY BURTON	vibes	A
BOB BUSHNELL	bs	A
TIM HARDIN	vcls, gtr, piano	A B C D E
PHIL KRAUSS	vibes	A
EARL PALMER	drms	A
BUDDY SALTZMANN	drms	A
JOHN SEBASTIAN	hrmnca	A
WALTER YOST	bs	A
WARREN BERNHARDT	keyb'ds	D E
EDDIE GOMEZ	bs	D
DANIEL HANKIN	gtr	D
DONALD MacDONALD	drms	D E
MIKE MAINIERI	vibes	D
BUZZ	celeste	E
MONTE DUNN	gtr	E
GARY KLEIN	keyb'ds	E
PHILIPE	conga	E

ALBUMS:

1(A)	TIM HARDIN I	(Verve Forecast FTS-3004)	1966
2(B)	TIM HARDIN II	(Verve Forecast FTS-3022)	1967
3(C)	THIS IS TIM HARDIN	(Atco SD33-210)	1967
4(D)	LIVE IN CONCERT	(Verve Forecast FTS-3049)	1968
5(D)	TIM HARDIN 4	(Verve Forecast FTS-3064)	1969
6(F)	SUITE FOR SUSAN MOORE AND DAMIAN	(Columbia CS9787)	1970

7(-)	THE BEST OF TIM HARDIN	(Verve Forecast FTS-3078)	1970 189
8(-)	BIRD ON A WIRE	(Columbia 30551)	1970

NB: (1) and (2) repackaged as double album in 1974. (1) and (2) have also been reissued on one CD by Repertoire. (5) have been reissued on CD by Polygram in 1996 with three extra tracks. There have also been a couple of compilations: Hang On To A Dream - The Verve Recordings (Verve) 1995 and Simple Songs Of Freedom: The Collection which is a double CD set with fourty-seven tracks, fifteen of which are previously unreleased (Columbia/Legacy 485108-2) 1996.

45s:

1	Hang On To A Dream/It'll Never Happen Again	(Verve Forecast KF-5008)	196? -
2	Misty Roses/Don't Make Promises	(Verve Forecast KF-5017)	1966 -
3	Misty Roses/Hang On To A Dream	(Verve Forecast KF-5031)	1966 -
4	Green Rocky Road/Never Too Far	(Verve Forecast KF-5042)	1967 -
5	Black Sheep Boy/Misty Roses	(Verve Forecast KF-5048)	1967 -
6	Tribute To Hank Williams/You Upset The Grace Of Living	(Verve Forecast KF-5059)	196? -
7	Lady Came From Baltimore/Don't Make Promises	(Verve Forecast PB 3078)	1968 -
8	Reason To Believe/Smugglin' Man	(Verve Forecast KF-5097)	1968 -
9	Simple Song Of Freedom/Question Of Birth	(Columbia 44920)	1969 50
10	Reason To Believe/Smugglin'	(Verve Forecast KF-5116)	1971 -

NB: There was also a French 45 Smuglin' Man/Misty Roses (Verve Forecast 518909) 1968 and one Dutch 45 Do The Do / Sweet Lady (CBS 1016) 1972. All the 45 cuts feature on his albums. There's also a French EP with PS: If I Were A Carpenter/Hang On To A Dream/It'll Never Happen Again/Don't Make Promises (Verve Folkways 519 902) 1967.

In many ways rather a sad figure, Hardin was influential on many other performers throughout the era, although commercial success proved elusive. Born in Eugene, Oregon on 13th September 1940 and an ancestor of the notorious outlaw John Wesley Harding, he was discharged from the U.S. marines in 1961 and then embraced the early sixties Boston folk movement, singing in an emotive style that was more jazz and blues-based than folky.

Although he never achieved the kind of success he deserved, the strength of his songwriting is indisputable: If I Were A Carpenter was covered by Bobby Darin, and was a chart hit for Johnny Cash, Jane Carter and The Four Tops. The song was also covered by American Blues, Shaggs, The Small Faces, Electronic Rubayyat, Velvet Night, Grant's Blueboys, Leon Russell and Look. Another Hardin composition Reason To Believe was also covered by Rod Stewart, Hearts & Flowers, Scott McKenzie and The Critters; Danville Dame was recorded by the Blues Project and Yellow Cab by Buzzy Linhardt.

Hardin himself had a minor U.K. hit in January 1967 with Hang On To A Dream. This too was covered by many bands during the psychedelic era including: Art of Lovin', Blossom Toes, Gandalf, The Nice and The Alan Lorber Orchestra. It is somewhat ironic then that Hardin's only U.S. hit Simple Song Of Freedom was not self-penned - it was written by Bobby Darin.

Although released in 1967, the Atco album contains his first recordings from 1963/64: ten folk blues tracks; some originals (including one co-penned with Steve Weber from the Holy Modal Rounders), a cover of Fred Neil's Blues On The Ceiling and some traditional songs: Cocaine Bill, House Of The Rising Sun and Stagger Lee.

Signed to Verve Forecast in 1966, his first real album was produced by Erik Jacobsen and used various jazz musicians plus John Sebastian from the Lovin' Spoonful (another Jacobsen production). The most well-known tracks are Misty Roses and Reason To Believe but all the tracks are equally impressive.

The back-up group on Tim Hardin 2 are uncredited and the album, produced by Koppelman and Rubin, contains If I

Were A Carpenter, Lady Came From Baltimore as well as You Upset The Grace Of Living When You Lie.

Live In Concert and 4 were both recorded live at Town Hall in New York in April 1968 and use MacDonald, Bernhardt and Gomez, (three members of Jeremy and the Satyrs). Jacobsen again produced. Both records are good and contain mainly songs from the Atco and Verve studio albums.

Hardin then moved to Columbia for what is probably his most intimate album. Suite For Susan Moore And Damion - We Are - One, One, All In One is a concept album dedicated to his wife, Susan Moore (already pictured while pregnant on Tim Hardin 2 sleeve) and their son Damion. Produced by Gary Klein, its ten songs are divided into four sections: 'Implication I', 'II', 'III' and 'End Of Implication' and the result must be heard for his inventive songwriting.

In 1974, Hardin moved to Britain and signed to GM to produce what would be his last album: Nine. Although he intended to live permanently in the U.K. at first, he returned to America where he lived in comparative obscurity until his death on 29th December 1980, from a drug overdose. Among his last projects was an attempt to start a duo with Tim Rose, which sadly came to nothing.

Compilation coverage has so far included: MGMs late '60s label-taster The Core Of Rock which features two of his classic originals If I Were A Carpenter and Reason To Believe. Reading Festival 1973 captures his performance of Hang Onto A Dream and Person To Person from that festival and you can also find some 1980 performances of Judge And Jury and Unforgiven on Matthew Katz's Then And Now, Vol. 1 (CD). Vol. 2 of the same series also includes Luna Cariba and Secret from the same performances.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Hardtimes to Harvest Of Dreams

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Hardtimes
- Hard Times
- Hard Times
- Hardwater
- Bob Hardy
- Ray Harlowe and Gyp Fox
- Harper and Rowe
- Harper's Bizarre
- Joe Harriott Double Quintet
- The Harrison
- Kent Harrison Boyles
- Mickey Hart
- Harumi
- Harvest of Dreams

The Hardtimes

TOP

Personnel:

- LEE KIEFER vcls, harp A
- BOB MORRIS bs A
- RUDY ROMERO gtr A
- PAUL WHEATBREAD drms A
- BILL RICHARDSON ld gtr A
- LARRY BYROM bs, gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) BLEW MIND (World Pacific WPS 21867) 1968

45s:

1. There'll Be A Time/You're Bound To Cry (World Pacific 77816) 1966
2. Come To Your Window/That's All I'll Do (World Pacific 77826) 1966 -
3. Fortune Teller/Goodbye (World Pacific 77851) 1966 97
4. Sad, Sad, Sunshine/They Said No (World Pacific 77864) 1967 -
5. Colours/Blew Mind (World Pacific 77873) 1967

NB: (1) and (2) non LP. (4) flip is non LP.

A San Diego band which later relocated to Los Angeles. A pop/punk outfit they released several 45s and were regulars on Dick Clark's TV Show 'Where The Action Is'. Of their 45s, There'll Be A Time, You're Bound To Cry, Come To Your Window, That's All I'll Do and They Said No were non LP.

Kiefer went on to do production work, Romero to a solo career, Wheatbread drummed for Gary Pucker And The Union Gap and Richardson and Byrom joined T.I.M.E.. Byrom later played for Steppenwolf. Between them there's also a 45 by New Phoenix from 1968 (Give To Me Your Love/Thanks on World Pacific (77884)) - both songs credited to Rudy Romero and sounding just like the Hardtimes - possibly it is or maybe Romero's next venture.

(Max Waller)

Hard Times

TOP

Personnel incl:

- ROBY BENNETT ld gtr

45:

1. Can't Wait'Till Friday/Old Wine, New Bottle (Gray Ant 107) 1966

A different Washington D.C. outfit whose Can't Wait 'Till Friday has resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 2.

Lead guitarist Roby Bennett is now a neurosurgeon.

Hard Times

TOP

45:

1. You Couldn't Love Me / Losing You (Ultimate 1) 196?

Originally from Alabama they later changed their name to Rites Of Spring, following the Californian Hard Times' national exposure on ABC-TV'S 'Where The Action Is'.

As Hard Times they recorded a demo 45, Why / No Name (Frankford/Wayne Studios no #), which was later released as Rites Of Spring:- Why / Comin' On Back To Me (Cameo Parkway 109) 1966 . No Name was a working title for Comin' On Back To Me but with no vocals.

(Jeff Lemlich / Max Waller)

Hardwater

TOP

Personnel:

- ROBERT CARL McLERRAN A
- TONY MURILLO A
- PETER M. WYANT A
- RICHARD OTIS FIFIELD A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HARDWATER (Capitol ST 2954) 1968 R1

45:

1. City Sidewalks/Not So Hard (Capitol 2230) 1968
2. Plate Of My Fare/Good Old Friends (Capitol Records 2373) Jan. 1969

Rich Fifield joined The Astronauts in 1963 and was their last original member when the group disbanded in 1967. Fifield plus the last line-up (Murillo, McLerian, Wyant and Bretz) went on to record one 45 as Sunshine Ward. When Bretz left they became Hardwater.

Produced by David Axelrod, their album is pleasant hard/soft West Coasty rock and folk-rock sounds with Crosby, Stills and Nash-like three part harmonies. Whilst neither psych, garage nor hippie-rock it still merits a mention here for its laid-back feel and some fluid guitar-work. All tracks are group originals except City Sidewalks, Sanctuary and Good Ole Friends which were written by Carter-Gilbert (John and Tim), creative source behind Denver's Rainy Daze. Good Luck is in fact a rip-off of the Beatles' Taxman.

Coincidentally the very same Carter-Gilbert tracks appear on the Yankee Dollar album. Is there another connection between these two outfits?

Peter Wyant would later play with David Axelrod on his solo albums.

(Max Waller / Anuj Goyal / Stephane Rebeschini)

Bob Hardy

TOP

Personnel:

ROGER DUMAS	synth	A
BOB HARDY	vcls, gtr	A
DAVE RIFKIN	gtr	A
CLARK YOST		A

ALBUM:

1	DREAMER OF SONGS	(Citsatnaf #S80-1341)	1976

Recorded at Sound 80 Studios, St. Paul, Minnesota, comes this album of psych-tinged folk/rock songs, mostly originals penned by Hardy (Dreamer Of Songs, Wake Up Sunshine and The Storm). The label, Citsatnaf, is "fantastic" written backwards!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Ray Harlowe and Gyp Fox

Personnel incl:

- RAY MARLOWE A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FIRST RAYS (Water Wheel WR-711) 1978

The above album is now a significant collectors' item. Please note: if you're expecting psych a la sixties, forget this - if you're into obscure rock with lots of different influences including COUNTRY(!), then "you got it". Batches of this private press have been 'unearthed' in the last few years and dealers have hyped this one to death - you have been warned!!

Harper and Rowe

Personnel:

HARPER	vcls	A
ROWE	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HARPER AND ROWE	(World Pacific WPS-21882)	1967

A psyche pop duet, nothing is known about them and their backing group. Their only album was produced by Ed Ver Schure and Ralph Murphy (who also wrote eight of the twelve tracks) and they were managed by William McEuen (who also managed Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Sunshine Company, Hourglass). The album is quite patchy and contains folk/pop (Hello Sleepy Sidewalks), rock (Love Machine, penned by Gordon and Griffin), and orchestrated pop (Here Comes Yesterday Again). One of the best track is The Dweller, with flute and guitars, composed by Marcellino and Larson. It is beginning to interest some collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Harper's Bizarre

Personnel:

EDDIE JAMES	gtr	A
JOHN PETERSEN	drms, vcls	A
DICK SCOPPETONE	ld vcls, gtr, bs	A
TED TEMPLEMAN	ld vcls, gtr, trumpet, drms	A
DICK YOUNT	bs, vcls	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	FEELIN GROOVY	(Warner WS 1693)	1967
2(A)	ANYTHING GOES	(Warner WS 1716)	1967
3(A)	THE SECRET LIFE OF HARPER'S BIZARRE	(Warner WS 1739)	1968
4(A)	HARPER'S BIZARRE 4	(Warner WS 1784)	1969

NB: Several compilations also exist.

45s:

1	Anything Goes/Chattanooga Choo Choo	(Warner 1790)	1967
2	Battle Of New Orleans/ Green Apple Trees	(Warner)	1967
3	Both Sides Now/Small Talk	(Warner)	1967
4	59th St Bridge Song (Feelin Groovy)/Come To The Sunshine	(Warner)	1967
5	Cotton Candy Sandman/Virginia City	(Warner)	1968
6	Look To The Rainbow/I Love You Alice B.Toklas	(Warner)	1969
7	Soft Sounding Music/ All Through the night	(Warner)	1969

NB: There was also a French single with a picture sleeve Chattanooga Choo Choo/Hey, You In The Crowd (Warner WV5087) 1968. (7) also released in France with a picture sleeve (Warner WV 5125) 1969. There's also a rare French EP with PS: The 59th Street Bridge Song/Simon Smith/Com To The Sunshine/Debutant's Ball (Warner WEP 1454) 1967.

Originating from a San Francisco surf band called the Tikis, Harper's Bizarre moved to Los Angeles to capitalize on the folk rock boom. Their sound was called "California Sunshine Rock" by Lilian Roxon and it's basically a mix of folk and soft rock with vocal harmonies. Their debut album was produced by Leon Russell and is a classic of its genre. On the next album, they had their biggest hit with a cover of Simon and Garfunkel's 59th St. Bridge Song (Feelin Groovy) and also did some revivals of oldies from Cole Porter and Glen Miller, with the help of Van Dyke Parks.

For The Secret Life, they were joined by Van Dyke Parks, Ron Elliot, (Beau Brummels) and Randy Newman. Despite its psych sleeve, the album hasn't aged well.

On 4, their last album produced by Lenny Waronker, their sound had hardened a bit with Ry Cooder on guitar and it contained covers of Witchi Tai To (Jim Pepper), Blackbird (Beatles) and Hard To Handle (Otis Redding) mixed with original material (notably Soft Sounding Music, with Cooder on bottleneck). I Love You Alice B.Toklas was the theme song for a Paul Mazurski movie starring Peter Sellers.

Ted Templeman went on to become the producer on Captain Beefheart's Clear Spot, as well as for the Doobie Brothers, Little Feat and Van Halen. John Peterson also drummed with the Beau Brummels.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

Joe Harriott Double Quintet

TOP

ALBUM:

1	INDO-JAZZ FUSION	(Atlantic)	1967 SC
2	INDO-JAZZ SUITE	(Atlantic)	1968 SC

NB: (2) also released in France.

Among the best examples of "East West" collaborations, with its mix of indian instruments (tabla, sitar, tamboura) with jazz and rock, this album should interest fans of Bill Plummer's Cosmic Brotherhood or Gabor Szabo.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Harrison

Personnel:

CHARLIE	A
DAN	A
FRANK	A
JERRY	A
LARRY	A

This Dayton, Ohio quintet entered the WONE-sponsored three-day battle of the bands in 1966 and came out as one of twelve winners who got to record one cut each at Mega-Sound Studios for the souvenir LP WONE, The Dayton Scene (Prism PR-1966).

They chose to cover the obscure Invasion-infused I Know That I Love You by Indiana outfit The Rick Z Combo. Perhaps The Harrisons were at the Dayton gig in 1965 where that act had opened for The Strangeloves. Shortly after that Rick Z (better known as Rick Zehringer, later Derringer) signed with the Strangeloves' label Bang, and hit the charts as The McCoys.

(Max Waller)

Kent Harrison Boyles

ALBUM:

1	KENT HARRISON BOYLES	(Private pressing)	1972

From Maryland, an album of psyche/"real people" folk. It seems that only 500 copies were pressed.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Mickey Hart

ALBUM:

1	ROLLING THUNDER	(Warner BS 2635)	1972

NB: (1) also released in France (Warner 46 182) 1972. Later reissued on Edsel ED (1987) and on CD (Grateful Dead CD) 198?.

The first solo album by the Grateful Dead drummer may also interest Bay Area fans. Backed by John Cipollina and David Freiberg (Quicksilver), Grace Slick and Paul Kantner (Jefferson Airplane), Terry Haggerty and Bill Champlin (Sons Of Champlin), Stephen Stills, Sam Andrew (Big Brother), Barry Melton (Country Joe), the Tower Of Power

Horn section, Zakir Husin (Shanti) and Alla Rakha, and, of course, Jerry Garcia, Bill Weir and Phil Lesh from the 'Dead, Mickey Hart offers a mix of Indian invocations, rain sequences, Dead-like songs and loose improvisations with oustanding guitars and drums. The result has its moments (Deep, Wide, Frequent, Pump Song, Gran'ma's Cookies...).

Robert Hunter, Peter Monk and Bob Weir helped Hart helped write some of the material and this album is housed in a splendid Mouse and Kelley sleeve.

Still with the Dead, Mickey Hart went on to release several albums of percussions and worked on soundtracks including work for 'Apocalypse Now'.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Harumi

TOP

ALBUM:

1. HARUMI (dbl) (Verve Forecast FT-3030-2) 1968

45:

1. First Impressions/Talk About It (Verve Forecast KF 5086) 1968

Produced by Tom Wilson, this Japanese gentlemen put out a strange double LP. The first two sides are fairly poppy but the last two sides each comprise one track - Twice Told Tales Of The Pomegranate Forest and Samurai Memories - where we get into heavily introverted mystical Eastern hippie rambling. A period piece, you'll either hate it or be wafted away by it. The 45 was culled from the album.

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Harvest of Dreams

TOP

ALBUM:

1. HARVEST OF DREAMS (Private Pressing) 1982

This psychedelic folk album is now a significant collectors' item.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Jimmy Haskell to Head Lyters

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Jimmy Haskell
- The Hassles
- Jeanne Hatfield
- The Hatfields
- Richie Havens
- Haymarket Riot (Calvin James and)
- Haymarket Riot
- Haymarket Riot
- Haymarket Riot
- Haymarket Square
- Haystacks Balboa
- The Hazards
- The Hazards
- Roy Head (and The Traits)
- Head and The Hares
- The Headhunters
- Head Lyters

Jimmy Haskell

TOP

Personnel incl:

JIMMY HASKELL		A
JOE WALSH	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1	CALIFORNIA 99	(ABC)	1971

Jimmy Haskell is mostly remembered for his prolific career as an arranger and producer in the Hollywood studios. Housed in a fold out cover with a map of the USA, this extremely strange concept album is about life in California after the "big one", with the Great Plains turned into a "Marijuana and Insect Corridor" and the Florida region as a desert. This album was recorded with the usual musicians working with Bill Szymczyk, including notably Joe Walsh on guitar.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hassles

Personnel:

- HOWARD BLAUVELT bs A
- JOHN DISEK vcls A
- BILLY JOEL keyb'ds, vcls A
- RICHARD McKENNER ld gtr A
- JONATHAN SMALL drms A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) HASSLES (United Artists UAS 6631) 1967
2. (A) HOUR OF THE WOLF (United Artists UAS 6699) 1969

45s:

1. You've Got Me Hummin'/I'm Thinking (United Artists 50215) 1967 112
2. Every Step I Take (Every Move I Make)/I Hear Voices (United Artists 50258) 1967
3. 4 O'Clock In The Morning/Let Me Bring You To The Sunshine (United Artists 50450) 1968
4. Night After Day/Country Boy (United Artists 50513) 1969
5. Great Balls Of Fire/Travelling Bag (United Artists 50586) 1969

NB: There's also one Italian 45 with a nice PS: The Every Step I Take/Fever (United Artists UA 3155) 1968.

A typical Long Island (New York) bar band, comparable to The Young Rascals and Illusion. Musically we're talking blue-eyed soul, heavy on the organ and on the second album they're trying to be psychedelic.

In 1970, Small and Billy Joel went on to form Attila, a totally unsuccessful duo who released one album on Epic (Epic 30030). Billy Joel, of course, went on to fame and fortune as a solo artist and Howard Blauvelt, who died in 1993, ended up in Ram Jam.

Their debut 45, You've Got Me Hummin' charted at No. 112, also making the Cashbox and Record World Top 100s.

(Vernon Joynson / Tom Truszkowski / Stephane Rebeschini)

Jeanne Hatfield

45s:

1. My Babe/? (Pharaoh) 196?
2. Busy Signal/? (ARV International 5014) 196?

From McAllen, Texas. My Babe can also be found on Acid Visions, Box Set 2 (CD).

The Hatfields

45s:

1. Yes I Do/When She Returns (Cha Cha 754) 1966
2. Kid from Cinncy/Lost In This World (Cha Cha 790) 1967

Originally from Frankfort, Indiana, where they were known in 1965 as Sherlock and the Homelies, they migrated up to Chicago and changed their name. They specialised in pounding punkers as is evidenced by Yes I Do on Back From The Grave, Vol. 2 and Kid From Cinncy on Vol. 5 of the same series.

Their second 45 has been seen fetching $400+ thirty years later!

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

Richie Havens

ALBUMS:
(up to 1972)

1	MIXED BAG	(Verve Forecast FTS-3006)	1967
2	SOMETHING ELSE AGAIN	(Verve Forecast FTS-3034)	1968
3	RICHIE HAVENS RECORD	(Douglas 779)	1968
4	ELECTRIC HAVENS	(Douglas 780)	1968
5	RICHARD D.HAVENS 1983	(Verve Forecast FTS-3047)	1969
6	STONEHENGE	(Stormy Forest 6001)	1970
7	ALARM CLOCK	(Stormy Forest 6005)	1971
8	GREAT BLIND DEGREE	(Stormy Forest 6016)	1972

NB: (1) (2) and (5) were also released in France and the U.K. by Verve. (7) released in France (DiscAZ STEC LP 86) 1971. (6), (7) and (8) released in the U.K. by Polydor. (3) and (4) released in the U.K. by Transatalantic. There's also a CD compilation Resum, The Best of (Rhino R2711187) 1993.

45:

1	No Opportunity Necessary, No Experience Needed/Three Days Eternity	(Verve Forecast)	1968

One of the very few black progressive folk singers, Richie Havens wore beads, had a guru 'look' and was one of the first musicians to use an electric sitar. Born in Brooklyn in 1941, Havens began singing in the '50s, taught himself guitar and started playing the Greenwich Village coffee house circuit in 1962. He finally got a recording contract in 1967 and his Verve Forecast albums were recorded with an array of musicians including: members of Jeremy and The Satyrs (the whole group plays on Something Else Again), Harvey Brooks, Felix Pappalardi, Bruce Langhorne, Eric Weissberg, Stephen Stills and Skip Prokop. His rough voice was quite unusual at the time and he chose songs by Dylan, Lighfoot or Tuli Kupferberg (Fugs) to display it's full range.

His records sold very well and Havens was invited at Woodstock (Freedom can be found on the movie and soundtrack album). He was also able to launch his own label, Stormy Forest, on which he released his albums, plus those of Bob Brown and the Canadian folk trio Montreal. The two albums on Douglas contain early recordings, with overdubbed electric backing on Electric Havens and are not recommanded.

Richie Havens kept on recording during the '70s and early '80s but he was unable to revitalise his formula. His records always sounded too similar and he slowly vanished from the musical scene.

In the '90s, the U.K. psychedelic outfit Praise Space Electric covered Freedom on their 2 Leaving Demons album.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Haymarket Riot (Calvin James and)

TOP

45s:

1. Footsteps/Find This Woman (Stature 1104) 1967

Released by 'Calvin James and Haymarket Riot' - Calvin James is rumoured to be Jim Johnson of Minneapolis stalwarts The Underbeats.

Many other Haymarket Riots are known to have existed. In addition to the entries listed here there were also a Californian act who were previously known as the Livin End, and a seventies Ohio outfit.

Haymarket Riot

TOP

Personnel:

- JIM DOE gtr, vcls
- DENNIS MORALES drms, vcls
- RON SHANKLETON ld gtr
- ??? bs

45:

1. Leaving/A Sunny Day Song (CLB 691) 1969

This Haymarket Riot came from Monroe Michigan. They formed in the mid '60s and were originally known as The Avengers (didn't every town have one?), changing their name to Haymarket Riot in late 1967 and breaking up shortly after the record was issued in 1969. Jim Doe wrote Leaving whilst Dennis Morales wrote Sunny Day Song.

Leaving has subsequently been featured on A lethal Dose Of Hard Psych, where it's stated that this is the Haymarket Riot who issued the 45 on Coconut Groove - can anyone else confirm this?

(Steve Greer / Max Waller)

Haymarket Riot

TOP

45:

1. Trip On Out/Something Else (Riot 101) 1968

A psychedelic six-piece from Enid, Oklahoma, who cut one excellent 45. The 'A' side has resurfaced on 30 Seconds Before The Calico Wall (CD), and on the vinyl issue of The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 1. Both sides are also listed on Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD), but only Trip On Out is included on the actual CD. The Pebbles liner notes, state that the 45 was recorded in Chicago, which is incorrect - it was recorded on a trip to Oklahoma City...

For the full low-down on the band seek out a copy of 'Lost & Found # 4' fanzine.

Haymarket Riot

TOP

45:

1. Nine O'Clock/Only Yesterday (Coconut Groove 2040) 1968

Possibly from Mount Morris, Michigan... Nine O'Clock can be heard on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 2.

Haymarket Square

TOP

Personnel:

- MARK SWENSON gtr A
- ROBERT HOMA bs A
- JOHN KOWALSKI drms A
- GLORIA LAMBERT vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) MAGIC LANTERN (Chaparral CRM 201) 1968

NB. Reissued on Osmose (1125) 1987 and in 1996 as a ltd edition of 400 (The Sacred Temple Of The Gold STG 2001) 1996. Also issued on CD (LSD 007) 1996.

This Chicago band's album is notable for some catchy drumming and Lambert's powerful vocals. The music on the album was used to accompany the original Baron and Bailey Light Circus at the Museum of Contemporary Art in Chicago. Despite its reissue, original copies remain sought-after. One cut from the album, Amapola appears on Psychedelic Patchwork, Vol. 1. It's well worth seeking out a copy of the reissue.

The band did not release any 45s.

The 1996 reissue (on CD & LP) has been digitally cleaned.

Haystacks Balboa

TOP

Personnel:

- MARK BABANI A
- LLOYD LANDESMAN A
- MARK HARRISON MAYO A
- MARK POLOTT bs A
- BRUCE SCOTT A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HAYSTACKS BALBOA (Polydor 24-4032) 1970

NB: (1) reissued on CD.

Real heavy dudes with some grungey vocals, a mean attitude and some wicked guitar - above-par hard rock. Although outside the musical thrust of this archive, they're worth a mention especially as a couple of tracks on their album were written by Larry West, formerly of the legendary Vagrants and younger brother of guitar colossus, Leslie 'Mountain' West.

Their album was produced by Shadow Morton, aka Shadow Mann

Mayo and Polott still play together in an outfit called "Blue Lagoon".

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hazards

TOP

45:

1. Hey Joe/Will You Be My Girl (Groove 502) 1966

Came out of Richmond, Virginia with a pretty decent rendition of Hey Joe which can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 8: The South or Signed D.C.

The Hazards

TOP

45:

1. Tinted Green/Hey Little Girl (C'mon Let's Live) (Unicorn no #) 196?

Tinted Green has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 21, and these Hazards came from Berlin Center near Youngstown, Ohio. Hey Little Girl has subsequently resurfaced on Project Blue, Vol. 3.

(George Gell/Max Waller)

Roy Head (and The Traits)

TOP

ALBUM:
(up to 1973)

1	ROY HEAD AND THE TRAITS	(TNT TLP-101)	1965
2	TREAT ME RIGHT	(Scepter SS-532)	1965
3	SOME PEOPLE	(Dunhill DS-50080)	1970
4	DISMAL PRISONER	(TMI 1000)	1972

45s:
(up to 1973)

1	One More Time / Don't Be Blue	(TNT 194)	c1965
2	Pain /Teen-Age Letter	(Back Beat 543)	1965
3	Treat Her Right / So Long, My Love	(Back Beat 546)	1965
4	Apple Of My Eye / I Pass The Day	(Back Beat 555)	1965
5	Just A Little Bit / Treat Me Right	(Scepter 12116)	1965
6	Won't Be Blue / One More Time	(Scepter 12117)	1965
7	Get Back (Part 1) / Get Back (Part 2)	(Scepter 12124)	1966
8	One More Time / Convicted	(Scepter 12138)	1966
9	My Babe / Pain	(Back Beat 560)	1966
10	Driving Wheel / Wigglin' And Gigglin'	(Back Beat 563)	1966
11	To Make A Big Man Cry / Don't Cry No More	(Back Beat 571)	1966
12	You're (Almost) Tuff / Tush Hog (Instr)	(Back Beat 576)	1967
13	A Good Man Is Hard To Find /Nobody But Me (Tells My Eagle When To Fly)	(Back Beat 582)	1967
14	Turn Out The Lights / Broadway Walk	(Mercury 72799)	1968
15	Ain't Goin' Down Right / Lovin' Man On Your Hands	(Mercury 72848)	1968
16	I'm Not A Fool Anymore / Mama Mama	(Dunhill 4240)	1970
17	Puff Of Smoke / Lord Take A Bow	(TMI 9000)	1972
18	Bit By Bit / Wait Till I Arrive	(TMI 9010)	1973
19	Rock And Roll Mood / You Got The Power	(TMI 75-0103)	1973
20	Why Don't We Go Somewhere And Love / Smell-A-Women	(TMI 75-0106)	1973
21	Carol / Clyde O'Riley	(TMI 75-0113)	c1973

Traits
45s:

1	Little Mama / Linda Lou	(Renner 221)	1962
2	Little Mama / Linda Lou	(Ascot 2108)	1962
3	Woe Woe / Got My Mojo Working	(Renner 229)	1962
4	Gotta Keep My Cool / Too Good To Be True	(Garrison 3007)	1966
5	Gotta Keep My Cool / Too Good To Be True	(Pacemaker 254)	1966
6	Harlem Shuffle / Somewhere	(Universal 30494)	1966
7	Harlem Shuffle / Somewhere	(Scepter 12169)	1966
8	Parchman Farm / Tramp	(Universal 30496)	1966

From San Marcos, Texas originally, Roy Head relocated to Houston in 1964. His forte is soulful brassy pop/rock and would be outside the boundaries of this book but for You're (Almost) Tuff, a great fuzz-rocker where Bo Diddley encounters Count Five's Psychotic Reaction. Many of his '60s releases were recorded with the Traits and are so credited.

Roy Head scored a U.S. no. 2 hit in 1965 with Treat Her Right. Three of his other recordings have also resurfaced on compilations: You're Almost Tuff and Tush Hog both appear on Austin Landing, Vol. 2, while Easy Lovin' Girl, a previously unreleased Johnny Winters composition, has resurfaced on Acid Visions and Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD set). The latter track was recorded with The Great Believers.

The Dismal Prisoner album contains covers of Van Morrison and John Lee Hooker tracks.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini/Max Waller/Andrew Brown)

Head and The Hares

TOP

45:

1. l Won't Come Back/One Against The World (H&H 200,891) May 1966

You can also hear Won't Come Back on The New England Teen Scene compilation. (Max Waller)

The Headhunters

TOP

45:

1. Times We Shared/Think What You've Done (Fenton 2518) 196?

Times We Shared has resurfaced on Best Of Michigan Rock Groups, Vol. 2. They also have a previously unreleased cut I Need Your Love on Thee Unheard Of compilation taken from one of the two versions of this track only available on Buff one-sided acetates. It's nothing to get excited about.

Head Lyters

TOP

45:

1. I Need You/You'd Better Come Home (Wand 199) 1965

A one-off venture by a New York outfit. The flip side, which mixes chords from Twist And Shout and La Bamba in a humorous way, can also be heard on Mindrocker, Vol. 8.

There's also a 45 by a Headlyters on Phalanx (1010/1011) Girl Down The Street/Shop Around issued around 1965 or 1966. Phalanx is a Michigan label - it may be the same outfit.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Head Over Heals to Heather Black

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Head Over Heels
- The Heads
- The Head Shop
- Headstone
- The Headstones
- The Heard
- The Heard
- The Heard
- The Hearsemen
- The Heart Attacks
- The Heartbeats
- Hearts and Flowers
- The Heathens
- Heather Black

Head Over Heels

Personnel:

- JOHN BREDEAU drms A
- PAUL FRANK gtr, vcls A
- MICHAEL URSO bs, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HEAD OVER HEELS (Capitol ST-797) 1971 R1

A Michigan power trio whose album is powerful and inventive - one of the best on the label. Two cuts were recorded live. Head Over Heels were apparently connected to the Detroit outfit Rare Earth (details yet to come to light) members went onto Fresh Start (one LP on Dunhill in 1974) then Fresh (three LPs on Prodigal/MCA 1977/8).

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Heads

ALBUMS:

1	HEADS UP	(Liberty)	1969

A garage punk group with a driving organ.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Head Shop

Personnel:

- DREW A
- JESSE A
- JOE A
- GEOFF A
- DANNY A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE HEAD SHOP (Epic BN 26476) 1969

NB: (1) has been reissued on CD.

The above is a most unusual and underrated album. Side one, aside from an interesting version of Sunny, is notable for most unusual intros to all its songs, whilst side two is memorable for the invigorating Prophecy and the cosmic ending to the final track Infinity. Original copies of the album are not easy to find, as it's now a minor collectors' item, but the album is recommended.

The band, who are thought to have come from the New York / New York City area, do not appear to have released any 45s. They have however appeared on a couple of compilations with: Heaven Here We Come on Columbia's double-LP Psychedelic Dream and Head Shop on Sixties Archives Vol. 8 CD.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Headstone

Personnel:

- TOM APPLEGATE A
- DAVID APPLEGATE A
- BARRY APPLEGATE A
- BRUCE FLYNN A

ALBUM:

1. (A) STILL LOOKING (Starr SLP 1056) 1974

NB. (1) was repressed in the late 1980s, and is due to be reissued on CD by Gear Fab.

45s:

1. What People Say/Carry Me On (Rome RF-4127) 19?
2. Buying Time/Snake Dance (Rome) 19?

NB: (1) released as by The Headstones.

Predominantly a hard rock album with some soft passages and psychedelic overtones. It has been reissued and is well worth investigating for its good guitar work and vocals. The band have been variously reported as coming from Indiana and Ohio. The album is sought-after among collectors and even the reissue is now hard to find, although Gear Fab are currently working on a legitimate CD release, so watch this space!

The two 45s feature non-LP tracks and all bar Snake Dance also feature on Filling The Gap.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Headstones

TOP

Personnel:

- DAVE WILLIAMS vcls, bs A B
- GLEN VAN LANDINGHAM ld gtr A B
- MIKE FLORENCE keyb'ds A B
- PAUL VEALE gtr, vcls A B
- WINSTON LOGAN drms, vcls A
- MIKE ROGERS drms B

CD:

1. (A/B) TWENTYFOUR HOURS (EVERDAY) (Collectables COL-CD 0700) 1997

NB: (1) is a retrospective CD, which collects together all four Headstones tracks and then explores the released, live and unreleased legacy of related groups: Seompi, Remaining Few, Oxford Circus, and Watermusic.

45s:

1. Wish You Were Mine/24 Hours (Everyday) (Pharaoh 147) 1966
2. Bad Day Blues/My Kind Of Girl (Pharaoh 152) 1966

Probably the strongest act to record on the Pharaoh label, which was based in McAllen, Texas. Their first 45 was a local hit, combining the Beatlesque Wish You Were Mine with 24 Hours (Everyday) a pounding punk song with lots of fuzz, organ and fine vocals. Their follow-up did even better staying at No. 1 for two weeks running in McAllen.

A recommended and worthy CD retrospective The Headstones: 24 (Everyday) collects all four tracks and then explores the released, live and unreleased legacy of the related groups featuring the two leading lights in The Headstones - Dave Williams (Seompi, Remaining Few - n.b. not the '60s Texan bunch) and Winston Logan (Oxford Circus, Watermusic). Spanning garage, psych, heavy and straight-ahead rock styles, the material ranges in sound and musical quality from average to very good.

Their material has also been compilation heavily including: All four cuts on Texas Punk, Vol. 5 and Acid Visions, Vol. 2 (triple CD); Wish You Were Mine and 24 Hours (Everyday) on (Texas) Flashback, Vol. 1; and Bad Day Blues on both Gathering Of The Tribe and The Cicadelic Sixties.

(Max Waller)

The Heard

Personnel incl:

- DON MAU

45:

1. Poppies/Where Has My Summer Gone? (Orlyn 652) 1965

This 45 was the work of an Chicago garage band, who at some point included Don Mau (ex-Vectors). (Max Waller)

The Heard

45:

1. You're Gonna Miss Me/Exit 9 (One Way 0001) June 1967

An interesting band from Longview, Texas who covered the 13th Floor Elevators hit. Exit 9 is rather unusual too. Both songs appear on Flashback, Vol. 4 and The Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 5, whilst You're Gonna Miss Me makes a further appearance on Songs We Taught The Fuzztones.

(Max Waller)

The Heard

45:

1. Stop It Baby/Laugh With The Wind (Audition 6107) 1966

A different outfit from the Texas one. This time from Rochester, New York, The 'A' side, a Kinks-inspired cruncher, can be found on Pebbles, Vol. 7 and was covered by The Marshmallow Overcoat on their first album The Inner Groove. This Heard was previously known as The Belvederes.

The Hearsemen

45:

1. Christy-Ann/I Get That Feeling (Wheel's 4 3619) 1968

This outfit operated out of the Detroit suburbs. Both sides of their 45 can also be heard on Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 11 and The History Of Michigan Garage Bands In The '60s Vol.1 (CD).

(Max Waller)

The Heart Attacks

TOP

See The Beachnuts entry.

The Heartbeats

TOP

45:

1. Cryin' Inside/Choo Choo Train (The Head Beats 2605) 1968

The 'A' side of this 45, an organ punker by a girl group from Lubbock, Texas, was a Ronnie Weiss composition. According to Roy Ames, they made two 45s at Robinhood Brians' studio in Tyler, and won first prize in Dick Clarke's 'Battle Of The Bands' contest the same year (1968). The girls were due to receive $10,000 in prizes, a recording contract with ABC, and nationwide tour, however, as they were aged between 12-15 they were too young to go on the road unchapperoned and their mother/manager Mrs. Jeannie Saunders nixed the whole idea.

Both tracks from the above 45 have resurfaced on Acid Visions, Box Set 1 (CD).

Hearts and Flowers

TOP

Personnel:

RICK CUNHA	vcls	A
DAVE DAWSON	gtr, vcls	A B C
LARRY MURRAY	gtr, vcls	A B C
TERRY PAUL		B
DAN WOODY		B
BERNIE LEADON	gtr	C

ALBUMS:

1(A)	NOW IS THE TIME FOR HEARTS AND FLOWERS	(Capitol ST-2762)	1967
2(C)	OF HORSES, KIDS AND FORGOTTEN WOMAN	(Capitol ST-2868)	1968

NB: (1) and (2) reissued by Cam Caruso in 1986.

45s:

1	Please/The View From Ward 3	(Capitol P-5897)	1967
2	She Sang Hymns Out Of Tune/Tin Angel	(Capitol P-2167)	1968

An excellent and still underrated group from Los Angeles, Hearts and Flowers produced two albums mixing folk rock with Californian harmonies and country folk.

Born in Weycross, Georgia, Larry Murray moved to Los Angeles in the late '50s and joined the Scottsville Squirrel Barkers, one of the several Bluegrass groups playing the Southern California circuit. The personnel of the Barkers fluctuated and included future Byrd Chris Hillman, Kenny Wertz and Bernie Leadon. The group disbanded in 1962 after releasing an album for the Crown label, Bluegrass Favorites, which is now extremely rare.

Murray temporarily retired from the music scene, became a TV actor and worked at the Troubador Club in L.A.. In 1965 he met a folk/rock duo formed of David Dawson and Rick Cunha and they started working together and playing live without a drummer. They secured a deal with Capitol and their first album was released in June 1967. Masterfully produced by Nick Venet (Fred Neil, Stone Poneys, Euphoria, Mad River), Now Is The Time For Hearts And Flowers is a real gem. The choice of material is outstanding, with excellent covers of Tim Hardin's Reason To Believe, Hoyt Axton's 10,000 Sunsets, Carole King's Road To Nowhere and Donovan's Try For The Sun, plus two songs of contemporary groups: Please, the Kaleidoscope song and Rock And Roll Gypsies by Gypsy Trips. Their original songs were penned by Murray, Cunha and Marty Cooper. The vocals are brilliant and Venet added some good production tricks, with some effects, violin, electric bass

The sales were unfortunately extremely poor and Capitol decided to give them a push: two new members, Terry Paul and Dan Woody, were drafted to reinforce their live impact and a promotion campaign began at the end of 1967; with limited results.

Murray and Dawson started working on their second album. Cunha, Paul and Woody left and Bernie Leadon arrived. Of Horses, Kids and Forgotten Woman was released in July 1968 and got the same results as the first album: critical acclaim but low sales. It notably contains She Sang Hymns Out Of Tune, a song originally recorded (but not released) by Jesse Lee Kincaid with the Rising Sons.

Due to their unsuccess, the group disbanded and their records sank into obscurity before being rediscovered in the mid-80s by Bam Caruso.

Larry Murray went on to record a good country folk/rock album, Sweet Country Suite (Verve Forecast FTS 3090) 1969, with backing by Swampwater, Paul Parrish, JD Souther and two Nitty Gritty members, Fadden and McEuen). He also worked with Kris Kristofferson and Jessi Colter in the early '70s. Rick Cunha would later work with Linda Ronstadt, have a career as a songwriter and sesionman and also released two decent country rock albums: Cunha Songs (GRC GA 5004) 1973, with Dave Dawson and Moving Pictures (CBS) 1977.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Heathens

Personnel incl:

- MIKE DELLARIO vcls

45:

1. The Other Way Around/Problems (Vibra 104) 1967

This Schenectady New York-based quintet's 45 was recorded in a garage named Vibra Studios early in 1967. The result was a cool punk 45. The 'A' side can also be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 or Off The Wall, Vol. 1 and you'll find the flip on Open Up Your Door and The '60s Choice, Vol. 1.

Heather Black

Personnel incl:

- TOMMY CHRISTIAN
- CARL FRIEND (?)
- GAYLON LATIMORE (LADD)
- HARRY O. WETSELL (?)

ALBUMS:

1. HEATHER BLACK (Double Bayou DB 2000) 196?
2. LIVE (dbl) (American Playboy 1001) 196?

45s:

1. There/Circles (American Playboy 1977) 196?
2. Cajun Blues/Harris County Jail (American Playboy 1992) 196?
3. She's My Woman/Walkin'Back To Waco (American Playboy 1005) 1970
4. * Look Around Son (Double Bayou 2) 1970
5. * Master Nichols (Double Bayou 4) 1970

* Promo Only.

This outfit was most significant as a later outing for Gaylon Latimore who had earlier had a solo career as Gaylon Ladd and also played in The Dawgs, The Silvertones and Eastside Transfer.

Produced by Huey P. Meaux, the "Crazy Cajun", the Double Bayou album is really patchy: two excellent tracks, notably Bill The Black Militant with a fantastic guitar part and unusual lyrics, but also, alas, several insipid ballads and one of the worst songs you can imagine : Last Words on which Gaylon Latimore speaks to his recently deceased girlfriend. Brrrr! All the songs were written by Latimore and Christian.

From the two Double Bayou singles, only Look Around Son, an awful ballad, can be found on the LP.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Heaven to Henry Tree

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Heaven
- Heavy Balloon
- Heavy Cruiser
- The Dave Heenan Set
- Harry Hellings and The Radials
- The Hello People
- Help
- Help
- David Hemmings
- The Henchmen
- Jimi Hendrix
- Henry Tree

Heaven

TOP

ALBUM:

1. HEAVEN (W.W.) 1970 R2

A rare Nebraska blues - rock album with horns. It has a very underground feel and came in a cool cover. (Clark Faville)

Heavy Balloon

TOP

Personnel:

- FRED ADAMS
- JENNY DEAN
- MALLORY EARLE
- KIRBY HELMUTH
- WOLF JAMES
- MICHAEL JASON
- NED LIBEN
- LORI
- MIGHTY BABY

- TERRY NOEL
- BOBBY NOTHOFF
- CHRISTIAN OSBORNE
- PETER THE PIANO PLAYER
- T. N. PICKOSKE
- MIKE RATTI
- BOB RIZZO
- SENORITA ROSETTS
- SKYDRAGON
- T. O. TUPCAT
- DAVID TYLES

ALBUM:

1. 32,000 POUND (Elephant EVS-1 04) 1969

NB: (1) reissued on CD.

Probably an East Coast band, their album is overrated. Musically it's rather slow, pedestrian blues, rather than psychedelic. They do not appear to have released any 45s. Among the musicians included were Bobby Notkoff (also in Rockets and Crazy Horse) and Chris Osborne (who played with David Peel and Yoko Ono).

They also have one cut, Barnyard Blues on The Magic Carpet Ride, Sixties Archives Vol. 8 and Lysergic Soap, Vol. 1 compilations.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Heavy Cruiser

TOP

Personnel incl:

NEIL MERRYWEATHER	bs, vcls	A

ALBUM:

1	HEAVY CRUISER	(Family Productions FPS 27??)	c1972

A short-lived heavy blues outfit formed by Neil Merryweather. Rather monotonous, but not completely bad, Lynn Carey of Mama Lion co-wrote some of the songs.

A second album is known to exist.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Dave Heenan Set

TOP

Personnel incl:

- DAVE HEENAN

45:

1. Alice In Wonderland/So Many Roads (Epic 10152) 1967

Dave Heenan was a U.K. ex-pat originally from Newcastle, who'd earlier played with The Merseylads.

Harry Hellings and The Radials

TOP

Personnel incl:

- HARRY HELLINGS

45:

1. Tale Of A Crystal Ship/Wake Up Sweet Mary (Highland 1190) 1967

A one-off venture. The 'A' side is Californian psychedelic folk, very much in the style of The Deep. Check it out on the Magic Carpet Ride and the boot of boots Lysergic Soap Vol.1.

(Max Waller)

The Hello People

TOP

Personnel incl:

COUNTRY	ld vcls, gtr, bs	A
GOODFELLOW	ld vcls, gtr, bs	A
MUCH MORE	keyb'ds	A
SMOOTHIE	ld vcls, bs, organ, sax	A
THUMP THUMP (N.D. SMART)	drms, hrmnca	A
WRY ONE	sax, flute, tambourine	A

ALBUMS:

(up to 1968)
1(A)	THE HELLO PEOPLE	(Philips PHS 600.265)	1968
2(A)	FUSION	(Philips PHS 600.276)	1968

45s:

1	Let's Go Hide In The Forest/Disparity Waterfront Blues	(Philips 40481)	1967 -
2	A Stranger At Her Door/Paisley Teddy Bear	(Philips 40522)	1968 -
3	(As I Went Down To) Jerusalem/It's A Monday Kind Of Tuesday	(Philips 40531)	1968

4	If I Should Sing Too Softly/Pray For Rain	(Philips 40572)	1968 -
5	Anthem/Jelly Jam	(Philips 40585)	1969 -

NB: All 45s are LP cuts except (1).

A mysterious six-piece band, who used to play frequently at 'La Cave' club in Cleveland, performing in mime makeup and actually performing mime onstage between their songs. N.D. Smart, who was working with Kangaroo at the time, caught their act and ended up drumming for them on their first two albums, both of which are underrated gems.

The first album is full of catchy, appealing songs like It's A Monday Kind Of Tuesday and none of the songs are credited. With the second, their music has evolved and offered a superb mix of rock, folk, blues and jazz, with a good flute player. The lyrics are more concerned, like Anthem:

> They say I was born in the land of the free
> But the home of the briefcase is all I see
> With fine houses and highways we covered the land
> But freedom's a fable if the conscience is banned
>
> So I'm going to prison for what I believe
> I'm going to prison so I can be free
> I've got something I'll die for
> What else can they do
> I've got something to live for
> What about you?

The same themes are present in How Does It Feel To Be Free, I Ride To Nowhere and Dream Of Tomorrow. This time the songs are credited to P. Weston, W.S. Tongue, L. Tasse, M. Sagarese, R. Sedita and G. Geddes, so we can assume they are the musicians hiding under the masks. Both albums were produced by Lou Futterman who went on to work with Ted Nugent.

In 1969 N.D. Smart stopped working for the band, but he resumed in 1972 with Robert Sedita, George Geddes and Lawrence Tasse. This version of The Hello People also did some live work with Todd Rundgren who had used Smart on some of his early albums, including Runt. A couple of years later two further Hello People albums surfaced on ABC/Dunhill, both with Smart and both produced by Rundgren.

It has also been rumored that Danny Douma was also part of this enigmatic group, but his name doesn't appear on the 1968 Philips albums. Danny Douma later became the leader of the (Big) Wha-Koo (three albums on ABC and Epic between 1976-79) and also recorded a solo album Night Eyes (Asylum) in 1979 with Eric Clapton and Fleetwood Mac.

The Hello People also appeared on the The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour and The Johnny Carson Tonight Show.

(Vernon Joynson / Stephane Rebeschini / Jason Odd)

Help  TOP

Personnel:

- JACK MERRILL gtrs, keyb'ds, vcls A
- ROB ROCHAN bs, vcls A

- CHET McCRACKEN drms, perc, vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) HELP (Decca DL 75257) 1971
2. (A) SECOND COMING (Decca DL 75304) 1971

45s:

1. Keep In Touch/Runaway (Decca 32783) 1971
2. Good Time Music/Hold On Child (Decca 32879) 1971

A Californian band, which included drummer McCracken who had earlier played with The Evergreen Blueshoes and who later ended up with The Doobie Brothers. In addition to the album mentioned here, Help have one track Do You Understand The Words? on Endless Journey, Phase 2.

Second Coming is an album for heavy rockfans. The outstanding track is Do You Understand The Words? for its superb psychedelic guitar work and McCracken's heavy rock drumming. The remainder of the album, which contains all original compositions, is not up to that standard but contains some quite good heavy rock numbers, particularly, All Day, Good Time Music and Hold On Child on side 1. Surprisingly, they did not attain much commercial success, and both their albums are now minor collectors' items.

Help

TOP

Personnel:

- DONALD LOWER bs
- STEVE NELSON perc
- DENNIS SULLIVAN piano
- MICHAEL WELCH flute

45s:

1. Life Worth Living/Questions Why (PS) (Capitol Custom 3704/3705) 1970
2. Make That Change/Always Flowing (No label H-7-75) 1975

NB: (2) As The Hagis Enigma Limpidity Paradisical Band.

Basing themselves in Citrus Heights, California (near Sacramento) this group changed their name to Azitis, due to a conflict with the Decca band Help and released their album on Elco and a single featuring two cuts from the album. When the Decca group broke up they took the Help name back with its new more specific definition.

Questions Why, a reasonable rocker with some good guitar work, has also resurfaced on Relics, Vol. 2.

For more information on the band check their website: http://www.geocities.com/Area51/Keep/3879

(Clark Faville)

David Hemmings

Personnel:

JIMMY BOND	arranger	A
DAVID HEMMINGS	vcls	A
CHRIS HILLMAN	bs	A
ROGER MCGUINN	gtr	A
LEON RUSSELL	arranger	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HAPPENS	(MGM SE 4490)	1968

David Hemmings is the famous '60s English actor who played in "Blow Up". The inclusion of this unknown album here may be surprising but is due to his quality of its tracks, produced in California by Jim Dickson and Leon Russell and engineered by Jim Messina (Buffalo Springfield).

There's an unreleased Gene Clark song (Back Street Mirror), a cover of Tim Hardin's Reason To Believe, some arranged ballads, but also, and mainly, four really strange psychedelic ragas cowritten by Roger McGuinn and Chris Hillman of The Byrds: Talkin L.A., Good King James, Anathea and the 6'30" War's Mistery. On all these tracks, the 12-string guitar of McGuinn sounds like a sitar and the indian percussions (tamboura, tablas...) add to the weirdness of the lyrics.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Henchmen

45s:

1. Please Tell Me/Livin' (Punch 1009) 1965
2. Never Reached Your Heart/Wanna Walk In Your Sun (United Artists 50180) 1967

Punch was a sub-division of the seminal Detroit-based Hideout label. The 'A' side of the Punch 45, was quite melodic but the flip, a guitar-blasting rocker, and a good one too, can be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 5. The 2nd 45 shown is thought to be by this band rather than other Henchmen outfits (on Swan and Ru-Jac).

Jimi Hendrix

Although this brilliant psychedelic blues guitarist was born in Seattle, given that he was based in the U.K. for most of his career, his life and times are documented in the UK Archive.

'Experience drummer, Mitch Mitchell, later played with Ramatam.

Henry Tree

Personnel:

- CARMEN CASTALDI drms A
- LEROY MARKISH ld gtr, vcls A
- CHARLES MCLAUGHLIN bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ELECTRIC HOLY MAN (Mainstream S/6129) 1968 SC

45:

1. Penfield Town/? (Mainstream MRC 729) 1970

NB: (1) double-sided promo copies exist, stock issue not confirmed.

From Cleveland, Ohio. Their album veers towards the progressive, with a country influence on a couple of tracks. The long title track in particular has an unnerving intro and features some good guitar work. Another highlight is quite an impressive cover of Traffic's Dear Mr. Fantasy. Overall, an album which is worth investigating.

(Vernon Joynson / George Gell / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Herd to The Hitch-Hikers

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Herd
- The Herde
- Here Comes Everybody
- Heroes
- Carolyn Hester Coalition
- Hex
- Hickory Hollow
- Hickory Wind
- The Hides
- Gary Higgins
- Higher Elevation
- The Highlifes
- High Mountain Hoedown
- High Numbers
- The High Spirits
- High Treason
- Highway
- Highway Robbery
- Kenneth Higney
- Bunker Hill
- Thomas Hill
- Hillow Hammet
- Him
- The Hinge
- Hip Sound
- The Hippies
- The Hitch-Hikers
- The Hitch Hikers

The Herd

TOP

45:

1. Things Won't Charige/The Sun Has Gone (Octupus 257) 196?

An obscure Washington D.C. band, whose Things Won't Change has resurfaced on Slgned D.C.. It's quite a strong song with effective vocals and some good fuzz guitar. I've also seen them quoted as a Chicago band, and Things Won't Change also resurfaced on Michigan Mixture, Vol. 2. So, who knows? Label mates The Nautiloids hailed from Ocean City, Maryand apparently, so arguably the Maryland/D.C. location is favourite.

The Herde

TOP

45:

1. Mister You're A Better Man Than I/? (Cinema 6900) 196?

This Yardbirds' cover has resurfaced on the Ear-Piercing Punk compilation.

Here Comes Everybody

TOP

Personnel:

CHRIS A. BURNS	A
HANK HAWLEY	A
JIM JACKSON	A
GEFF JUNG	A
VERNON JAMES SCHUBEL	A

ALBUM:

1	HERE COMES EVERYBODY	(CAB Records 101)	1974

Recorded at Stilwater Sound Studio, Stillwater, Oklahoma, comes this strange concept album with a handmade cover. Six tracks on the Side One (My Own Controls, Roy Roberts Intro, Young Roy Roberts, You Have Been Abusing Me, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah and Make A Buck) and L'opera: Johnny Got His Ray Gun, a side long cut on Side Two, with crazy drumming and weird vocals about aliens and ray guns!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Heroes

TOP

45:

1. I Can Only Give You Everything/Say It With A Smile (M-Gee 001) 196?

Better known bands like The Iguanas, The Little Boy Blues, The MC5 and The Ambertones also covered I Can Only Give You Everything. This obscure San Jose ouffit's version later resurfaced on the Everywhere Chainsaw Sound compilation.

Carolyn Hester Coalition

Personnel:

DAVE BLUME	bs, keyb'ds, melodica	A B
SKEETER CAMERA	drms, flute	A B
CAROLYN HESTER	vcls, gtr	A B
JERRY KELLER	bcking vcl	A
STEVE WOLFE	gtr, perc	A B
DAVE MAUNEY	vibes, bs	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	CAROLYN HESTER COALITION	(Metromedia MD 1001)	1968
2(B)	MAGAZINE	(Metromedia MD 1022)	1969

From the East Coast, Carolyn Hester began her career in the early '60s as a traditional folk singer and was married briefly to Richard Farina. Around 1968, she formed the Carolyn Hester Coalition, who recorded two albums for Metromedia.

Both albums produced by Dave Blume and recorded in New York. The first is fuzzed up folk/psych/rock. Like a female folk/singer/songwriter meets Ill Wind. The best offering is the opening cut Magic Man which is mindblowing fuzz psych at its best. It is hard to find weak tracks on this album. The sound is typified by an excellent laidback fuzz guitar and political lyrics like in Half The World ("...Half of the world is starving, half of the world is overfed...!"). Other songs include Be Your Baby, the much recorded hippie anthem Let's Get Together, Journey and Buddha (Was Her Best Man) plus more. Recommended for folk/psych fans. The entire group without Carolyn also showed up as backing band in Twinn Connexion (Decca) 1968.

The second album, Magazine, is another fine example of electric folk/rock with hippy values (the back cover shows the group doing peace signs beside Army tanks), which again should interest fans of Ill Wind and Jefferson Airplane. Hester's crystal clear voice is backed by good musicians and the songs reflects the period: Beadmaker, Plant the Crops In The Garden (about the generation gap), Just Follow Me (described as "a simple formula for entering a world of new and enlightening experiences"), Calico Sky etc. The album also contains ususual versions of Sittin On The Dock Of The Bay, St. James Infirmary and Swing Low Sweet Chariot. It is now a minor collector's item.

Carolyn Hester later returned to a more traditional singer/songwriter career.

(Stephane Rebeschini/Claus Frisenberg Povlsen)

Hex

45:

1. You Cry And I'll Laugh/Doubt (Reissue.) (Hexx HY-101) 1995

From a 1967 unreleased acetate, superb heavy psych by an unknown, belatedly appreciated, combo. (Max Waller)

Hickory Hollow

Personnel incl:

- BUTLER
- CAMERON
- FRANK GORDON
- A. CHARMATZ

45:

1. Never Happen/Home (Musitron M-107) 19?

A Californian combo whose Never Happen is a jaunty number with decent harmonies and a catchy guitar refrain. (Max Waller).

Hickory Wind

Personnel incl:

- ALAN JONES bs, vcls A
- MIKE McGUYER gtr, vcls A
- SONNY PRENTICE vcls, gtr, bs, harp A
- BOBBY STREHL drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HICKORY WIND (Gigantic) 1969

NB: (1) reissued on vinyl by Void records 1999.

Just 100 copies of this album were pressed originally making it extremely rare. The band came from Indiana and all except Prentice went on to play in B.F. Trike. Their album is full of variety wth the most psychedelic track being Time And Changes. This has great vocals plus lots of fuzz and was later re-recorded by B.F. Trike. Mr Man is rather unusual, employing spoken lyrics over a piano/keyboard backing; Father Come With Me is a successful blend of drooning keyboards and vocals and there are also a couple of laid back melodic numbers in I Don't Believe and Judy, which open and close the album. Get to hear the album if you can but don't pay a fortune for a copy.

Mister Man has also resurfaced on Love Peace & Poetry Vol. 1.

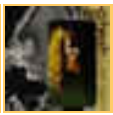
This group is unrelated to another Hickory Wind, a country/folk group who released an album Crossing Devil's Bridge (Flying Fish) 1978.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hides

Personnel incl:

- JOHN MARSIGLIO



45:

1. Don't Be Difficult/When I See The One I Love (Scotty no #) 1966

Formed in early 1965 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania out of the ashes of The Ban-lans and The Runaways, two local bands. They recorded four tunes in Gateway studios in 1966 and paid Scotty to press two up. Don't Be Difficult, which was quite a punchy punker can now be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 and Pennsylvanian Unknowns.

(Max Waller)

Gary Higgins

ALBUM:

1. RED HASH (Nufusmoon WMI 3673) 1973 R1

NB: (1) reissued on CD.

Connecticut electric folk/rock of a very high standard - it even approaches Mu territory at times. (Clark Faville)

Higher Elevation

45s:

1. Diamond Mine/Crazy Bicycle (Chicory 408) 1967
2. Here Comes Sunshine/Thoughts Of Lila (Liberty 56016) 1968
3. Country Club Affair/Summer Skies (Liberty 56035) 1968
4. Odyssey/Highway 101 (Liberty 56094) 1969

NB: (1) released as by Dave Diamond and The Higher Elevation.

A Colorado outfit who backed Dave Diamond on his famed Diamond Mine featured on Pebbles, Vol. 3. The Higher Elevation evolved out of Greeley's Monocles and released three further 45s in their own right, mostly garage-pop with the spaced-out Odyssey probably the highpoint.

(Max Waller).

The Highlifes

45:

1. Choose Me Over Him/No One To Tell Her (Pit 403) 1966

This band came from Waxahachie in Texas. So far as I know the 45 above was their sole stab for stardom. You can hear the flip on Texas Punk, 1966 - Vol. 1 along with an unreleased version of Little Richard's Lucille also from 1966. Both also appear on Acid Visions - The Complete Collection Vol. 2 (triple CD). They also have a previously unreleased track, Cloak And Dagger, on The Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 4.

(Max Waller)

High Mountain Hoedown

ALBUM:

1	HIGH MOUNTAIN HOEDOWN	(Atco SD33-320)	1970

NB: (1) also released in France (Atco 503049).

An unknown trio playing a mix of rock, blues and country, with some original songs and covers of Chuck Berry (Brown Eyed Handsome Man, Nadine), The Band (The Weight) and Leadbelly's Good Night Irene.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

High Numbers

45:

1. I'm A Man/High Heel Sneakers - Mojo Working (medley) (Ocean 8855-0594) 196?

This was recorded in an airplane locker at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport. The 41/2 minute cover of I'm A Man is pretty powerful with lots of mouth organ. Check it out on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 3.

The High Spirits

Personnel incl:

- OWEN HUSNEY gtr, vcls

45s:

1. Love Light/Tossin' And Turnin' (Soma 1436) 1965
2. Love Light/Tossin' And Tumin' (Apex 76972) 1965
3. I Believe/Bright Lights, Big City (Soma 1446) 1966

A sextet who operated out of Minneapolis in the mid-sixties. Their final 45 is a hot garage recording which will interest readers. Both sides can be found on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 3 and I Believe has also resurfaced on Root '66, Vol. 1. The flip was also recorded by Dave Miller and The Byrds (in New Zealand) and The Five (in Australia).

Both sides of the first 45 were originally collected together with other twin-cities nuggets on the Big Hits Of Mid-America Vol. 2 LP.

When the band split, Owen Husney was the only member to continue in the music biz as promoter and manager, most notably for Prince! High Spirits also recently staged a local mini-reunion.

(Max Waller / Jay Krasnow)

High Treason

TOP

Personnel:

- BOBBY BLUMENTHAL perc A
- JOE CLEARY vcls A
- MARCIE RAUER vcls A
- SAM GOODMAN gtr A
- EDGAR KOSHATKA keyb'ds A
- TERRY MORRISSEY bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HIGH TREASON (Abbott ABS-1209) 1968

Recorded in New York, this album consists of five Edgar Koshatka originals and a pretty woeful cover of Bob Dylan's Subterranean Homesick Blues. It was produced by Howard Massler. Although the material is rather weak, there's nothing wrong with the playing - lots of extended jams with some good guitar and organ interplay. The very short jazzy instrumental Circadian Rhythm isn't marred by the rather messy production which undermines the rest of the album.

Highway

TOP

Personnel:

- ERIC BANNISTER bs, vcls A
- DAN CAMMARATA drms, vcls A
- STEVE MURPHY gtr, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. HIGHWAY (No label # 584 N 11) 1975 R4

NB: (1) had a limited vinyl reissue of 300 copies in 1996. Due to be reissued officially on CD by Gear Fab.

A psychedelic hard-rock trio from Minneapolis. The album consists of long tight songs with great vocals and extended, flowing guitar leads on the better tracks - Look Away, Meadow and Tomorrow. Some of the other tracks are rather more nondescript. Their album originally had a pressing of 500, and Steve Murphy had earlier played with Minnesota's The Epicureans. Murphy incidentally is held in high esteem, nay reverential awe, by Midwest afficionados.

(Clark Faville / Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Highway Robbery

TOP

Personnel:

- DON FRANCISCO ld vcls, drms A
- JOHN LIVINGSTON TUNISON IV bs, vcls A
- MICHAEL STEVENS gtr, vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FOR LOVE OR MONEY (RCA LSP 4735) 1972 SC

One of the best major-label heavy rock albums of the era. Stevens was previously with The Boston Tea Party, and also played on Atlee Yeager's solo albums, as did Don Francisco. Francisco became an L.A. session player and has an extensive recording history into the 1980s.

(Clark Faville)

Kenneth Higney

TOP

ALBUM:

1. ATTIC DEMONSTRATION (Kebrutney KBH-516) 1976

NB: (1) had a limited reissue in 1985.

45:

1. I Wanna Be The King / Funky Kinky (Kebrutney) 197?

Originally from Manhattan, psychedelic folk poet Kenneth Higney was based in Bayonne, New Jersey around the time of his album's release. Just 500 copies were pressed and the album is characterised by a stoned vocal style with acoustic backing and lots of effects. Some tracks like Rock Star also veer into heavy territory with its solid backbeat and fearsome distorted guitar. The atonal style of singing tends to be irritating, concealing what little melody there might be. An album you'll either love or hate!

Both sides of his post Attic Demonstration 45, were also featured on a CD, Single 'N' Independent which Higney put together on Kebrutney in 1994. The CD is a compilation of local unsigned acts.

(Max Waller)

Bunker Hill

TOP

45s:

1. Hide And Go Seek Pt 1/Pt 2 (Mala 451) 1962 33
2. Red Riding Hood And The Wolf/Nobody Knows (Mala 457) 1962
3. The Girl Can't Dance/You Can't Make Me Doubt My Baby (Mala 464) 1963 -

From Washington D.C., this guy was really a black gospel singer who in 1963 approached Link Wray for help with a wild rock'n'roll song. Wray got The Raymen in to back him and the result was The Girl Can't Dance, a frantic rocker with Hill's hollering vocals. You'll also find it on Back From The Grave, Vol. 4.

(Max Waller)

Thomas Hill

TOP

ALBUM:

1	INGREDIENTS	(Mercury SR 611??)	1968

A poetic folksinger with some light orchestrations and strange lyrics.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Hillow Hammet

TOP

ALBUM:

1. HILLOW HAMMET'S HAMMER (House Of Fox 2) c1973 R2

NB: (1) reissued as Hillow Hammit by Hillow Hammit (L&BJ) 1978 R1 in a newly designed cover minus one cut - obviously a bootleg, as the sound has dropouts.

Reputed to be a good hard rock album with lots of acid guitar. The album was produced by Lelan Rodgers (of the International Artists label) and sounds like it was originally released circa 1973. The group is currently thought to be from Oklahoma although Mark Opsasnich's 'Capitol Rock' book on D.C. music wonders whether this group included Washington D.C. guitarist Pete "Peaches" Williams, and states that the LP is from 1969. The unconfirmed info comes from rock historian Art Wray.

(Clark Faville / Max Waller)

Him

45:

1. It's A Man Down There/4 A.M. (Tear Drop 3074) 196?

This 45 was the work of Doug Sahm of the Sir Douglas Quintet and The Doug Sahm Band recording under a pseudonym. Huey P. Meaux produced the 'A' side. You'll also find it on Texas Punk From The Sixties. Vol. 2.

The Hinge

45:

1. Come On Up/The Idols Of Your Mind (Tee Pee 75/76) 1968

Came out of Appleton, Wisconsin, with a decent cover of this Young Rascals number featuring some good fuzz guitar. You'll also find it on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 10: Wisconsin. The Idols Of Your Mind is also on The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 3 (CD). (Max Waller)

Hip Sound

45:

1. Far Out/Too Much (Limelight L-3082) 1968

A couple of electronic psych excursions - instrumentals bustin' with synth, oscillator and thingumeebob effects, like someone fiddling with Fifty Foot Hose's equipment in the studio whilst they were taking a break. (Max Waller)

The Hippies

45:

1. Wolly Bully/Boys And Girls (Cha Cha 768) 1966

A cover of Sam The Sham's Wolly Bully by a Chicago combo. The 45 may also have been released with an alternative B side Someday You're Gonna Wake Up.

The Hitch-Hikers

45s:

1	You're The One/Whispering Waves	(Hitch-Hiker 1000)	1964

2	Someday Baby/Make Me Feel Good	(Phalanx 1000/1)	1965/6

From Ann Arbor, Michigan. This act were one of the area's more popular garage acts and later changed names to The Thyme.

(Max Waller)

The Hitch Hikers

TOP

45s:

1	Beaver Shot/?	(HH)	1967
2	Stay Away/ ?	(HH)	1967

A garage band from Indiana.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Hobbits to Hombres

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Hobbits
- Hog Heaven
- The Hogs
- Hokus Pokus
- Randy Holden
- Randy Holland
- Hollins and Starr
- Rex Holman
- Jake Holmes
- Holocaust
- The Holy Ghost Reception Committee Mo 9
- Holy Mackerel
- The Holy Modal Rounders
- Holy Moses
- The Hombres

Hobbits

Personnel:

- TONY LUIZZA A
- JIMMY CURTISS A
- ZOK RUSSO A
- HEATHER HEWITT A
- GINI EASTWOOD A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) DOWN TO MIDDLE EARTH (Decca DL 74920) 1967
2. (A) MEN AND DOORS-THE HOBBITS COMMUNICATE (Decca 75009) 1968
3. () BACK FROM MIDDLE EARTH (Perception) 1969

45s:

1. Daffodil Days/Sunny Day Girl (Decca 32226) 1967
2. Pretty Young Thing/Strawberry Children (Decca 32270) 1968

A New York City band whose music was essentially straight-forward '60s pop. The first album was influenced by JRR Tolkien stories. Curtiss also had several solo ventures, including several singles and one album.

The third album was released on Jimmy Curtiss' label, Perception.

Compilation coverage has included: Psychedelic Situation on Pebbles, Vol. 16, Strawberry Children on Acid And Flowers (CD); and Down To Middle Earth on Baubles Vol.1.

(Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Hog Heaven

Personnel:

EDDIE GRAY	gtr	A
PETER LUCIA	drms, vcls	A
RON ROSMAN	keyb'ds, vcls	A
MIKE VALE	vcls, bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HOG HEAVEN	(Roulette 42057)	1971

NB: (1) also released in France, (Roulette SRV 56041).

The Shondells became Hog Heaven when they split with Tommy James. The album has yet to attract collectors.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hogs

45:

1. Blue Theme/Loose Lip Sync Ship (HBR 511) Dec 1966

Loose Lip Sync Ship, which also appears on Pebbles, Vol. 3 was actually recorded by The Chocolate Watch Band, using The Hogs as a pseudonym for contract reasons. It's a catchy, but by no means outstanding, largely instrumental song which ends in complete mayhem. A novelty.

The German Frank Zappa fanzine/4-volume book "The Torchum Never Stops" maintains that - just maybe - the great man himself plays guitar on Loose Lip Sync Ship.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Hokus Pokus

ALBUM:

1	HOKUS POKUS	(Romar)	1972

A Californian hard rock outfit, on the same small label Griffin.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Randy Holden

ALBUM:

1. POPULATION II (Hobbit 5002) 1969

NB: (1) reissued by Line (LLP 5211 AS) 1985. Also issued on CD with three bonus tracks.

Chris Lockhead of Kak helped ex-Blue Cheer guitarist Randy Holden on the above album. It's an unexceptional effort and is not recommended, although it often changed hands for considerable sums prior to its reissue.

Holden had earlier played with The Fender IV, Sons Of Adam, The Other Half and Blue Cheer. His early works have been compiled on a new CD, Randy Holden Early Works '64-'66: The Fender IV, Sons Of Adam (Captain Trip Records) 1997. It includes both of The Sons Of Adams' 45s for Decca plus three previously unreleased cuts, Without Love, I Told You Once Before and You Make Me Feel Good. It also includes the two 45s for Imperial by The Fender IV plus two previously unreleased tracks, Highway Surfer and Little Ollie.

You can also find Randy Holden's Guitar Song on Reverberation IV (CD).

Randy Holland

ALBUM:

1	CAT'S EYE	(Mother)	1972

From New Jersey, an album which is beginning to attract some attention. The music is reputedly a kind of acid folk.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Hollins and Starr

Personnel:

- CHUCK HOLLINS vcls, gtr, piano A
- DAVE STARR flute, recorder A

ALBUM:

1. (A) SIDEWALKS TALKING (Ovation OVQD 1407) 1971 R1

This gentle soft rock album spans many diverse influences from pop-psych, mystical mellow passages, some quasi-classical touches and some delightful ethereal flute, trance-like vocals and fuzz guitar. Also helping out on the album are Bobby Christian (perc), Pat Ferrara (gtr), Ross Salamoni (drms), Ron Steele (gtr) and Bob Surga (bs). A few other session musicians assist on individual tracks. The highlight is the opening cut, Talking To Myself, but there is much to appreciate on this largely undiscovered gem.

Rex Holman

ALBUM:

1	HERE IN THE LAND OF VICTORY	(Pentagram P-1001)	1970

Probably from California, Rex Holman's album has been described as "mellow psyche" by some dealers. It's probably, like the other Pentagram productions (Turnquist Remedy, Redeye etc.) a mix of psyche with country and west-coast rock. The front sleeve is extremely intriguing.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jake Holmes

Personnel:

JAKE HOLMES	vcls, gtr, piano	A B
TED IRWIN	gtr	A B
RICK RANDLE	gtr	A
DAVID BRIGGS	piano	B
KENNY BUTTREY	drms	B
WELDON MYRICK	pedal steel	B

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE ABOVE GROUND SOUND OF JAKE HOLMES	(Tower ST5079)	1967
2()	LETTER TO KATHERINE DECEMBER	(Tower ST 5127)	1968
3(B)	JAKE HOLMES	(Polydor 24-4007)	1969
4(-)	SO CLOSE SO VERY FAR TO GO	(Polydor 24-4034)	1970

45s:

1	Genuine Imitation Life/Hard To Keep My Mind On You	(Tower 392)	1967
2	So Close/Django And Friends	(Polydor PD 214041)	1970

Jake Holmes released his first album in 1967. It's an extraordinary psychedelic folk/rock masterpiece, then described as "a songwriter, three guitars and a mirror". The guitars of Holmes, Ted Irwin and Rick Randle (Other Four, Brain Police) are the only backing of Holmes' voice and the ten short tracks are oustanding, especially the original version of Dazed And Confused, which was later literally stolen by Led Zeppelin.

This album was produced by Maximillian Productions and Holmes wrote on the back sleeve liner notes "Rick has two extra eyes. He can't word what he sees, but I hear what he sees when he plays".

The following albums are more folky or country and not as interesting.

Ted Irwin would later play with Elliot Murphy, Roy Buchanan and various country singers.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Holocaust

TOP

45:

1. Savage Affection/Tutti Frutti (Red Robb 2025) 196?

An appropriately named late sixties Chicago act judging by the 'A' side, a frantic all action rocker which climaxes in vocal dementia and lots of fuzz. You'll also find it on Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1 and Pebbles (CD), Vol. 2.

The Holy Ghost Reception Committee No. 9

TOP

Personnel:

- DENNIS BLAIR gtr A
- RICH ESPOSITO gtr A
- LARRYJOHNSEN bs,gtr A
- BOB KEARNEY gtr A
- MARK PULEO gtr, mouth harp A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) SONGS FOR LITURGICAL WORSHIP (Paulist P ?) 1968
2. (A) THE TORCHBEARERS (Paulist P 04436) 1969

NB: (2) has had a limited reissue of 500 copies in 1997.

This quintet were all students at Regis High School in New York City. Their albums have a strong Christian theme. Indeed they were put out by the Paulist Press, a wing of the Missionary Society of St. Paul the Apostle in the state of New York. Their first album was essentially poppy, but the second one may interest readers. The lyrics were full of religious propaganda but a few of the tracks like Magnificat 70 are instrumentally interesting. The title cut is an interesting folk-rocker and Know They're You is quite garagey. Overall, though, not recommended.

Holy Mackerel

TOP

Personnel:

- PAUL WILLIAMS vcls, piano A B C
- CYNTHIA FITZPATRICK flt, vcls A B C
- GEORGE HILLER Jnr ld gtr, bs, dobro, organ A B C
- MENTOR WILLIAMS gtr B C
- MICHAEL RAY CANNON drms C
- JERRY SCHEFF bs C

ALBUM:

1. (C) HOLY MACKEREL (Reprise 6311) 1968

45s:

1. I Just Haven't Got What It Takes/Love For Everyone (Reprise 0681) 1968
2. Bitter Honey/To Put Up With You (Reprise 0768) 1968
3. Lady In Waiting/Scorpio Red (Reprise 0797) 1968

This was a short-lived Los Angeles group. Scheff had previously played with Ballroom, Goldenrod and Millennium and went on to session work, and later played for TCB (an outfit comprised of some of LA's top session men). Paul Williams, who'd previously auditioned unsuccessfully for The Monkees, went on to a prolific solo career in the 1970s and Mentor Williams, too, had a solo career and went into production work. The Holy Mackerel album, which paid some homage to the psychedelic music culture of the late sixties, is now a very minor collectable.

The Holy Modal Rounders

TOP

Personnel:

- STEVE WEBER vcls, gtr A
- PETER STAMPFEL vcls, banjo, fiddle A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) THE HOLY MODAL ROUNDERS (Prestige 14031) 1964
2. (A) THE HOLY MODAL ROUNDERS 2 (Prestige 7401) 1964
3. (A) INDIAN WAR WHOOP (ESP 1068) 1967
4. (A) THE MORAY EELS EAT THE HOLY MODAL ROUNDERS (Elektra 74026) 1968
5. (A) GOOD TASTE IS TIMELESS (Metromedia MD 1039) 1971
6. (A) ALLEGED IN THEIR OWN TIME (Rounder 3004)1975
7. (A) LAST ROUND (Adelphi AD 1030) 1978
8. (A) PETER STAMPFEL AND STEVE WEBER: THE ORIGINAL HOLY MODAL ROUNDERS (Rounder) 1978

NB. (1) and (2) have recently been reissued. (3) has also been issued on CD by ESP. A related album Have Moicy (Rounder 3010) 1975, will also be of interest - credited to Michael Hurley with The Unholy Modal Rounders and Jeffrey Fredericks and The Clamtones. In 1999, Stanfel and Weber put together a reunion album with bassist Dave Reisch, Too Much Fun (Rounder CD 3163) 1999.

45:

1. Boobs A Lot/Love Is The Closest Thing (Metromedia 223) 1971 103

The Holy Modal Rounders were in essence Steve Weber and Peter Stampfel. Born in Philadelphia in 1942 and raised in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Weber's unique guitar style was an important aspect of their sound. Stampfel was born in Wauwautosa, Wisconsin in 1938. Prior to the Rounders, he had played fiddle in numerous other musical aggregates - such as MacGrundys Old Timey Wool Thumpers, The Strict Temperence String of Lower Delancey Street and The Temperal Worth High Steppers. In October 1962 whilst in New York, Stampfel played with Tiny Tim and Phil Ochs at a Greenwich Village Club called The Third Side. Stampfel and Weber met in New York in March 1963 and they started to gig as a duo at places like The Cafe Flamenco and The Playhouse Theatre under a series of bizarre names like the Total Quintessence Stomach Pumpers before choosing The Holy Modal Rounders. Their gigs were crazy and interesting. Their music, which included some original material, was a diverse collection of traditional and ethnic styles. They chose to record for Prestige in preference to Vanguard or Elektra (who were also interested) because Prestige's producer Paul Rothschild smoked dope!

Their first two albums for Prestige, which were later reissued by Fantasy, were a fine collection of their material at that time. The first, for example, included their own interpretations of traditional songs like Give The Fiddler A Dram and Cuckoo; innovative covers of Blues In A Bottle (originally recorded by Prince Albert Hunt's Texas Ramblers in the 1930's), and Charlie Poole's and The North Carolina's Ramblers' Hesitation Blues as well as Weber's rehash of Mr. Bass Mann, rewritten as Mr. Spaceman. Stampfel and Weber also appeared on the first Fugs albums - they knew Ed Sanders from Greenwich Village. Stampfel also contributed to many local magazines and fanzines throughout his career.

However, in 1967 Stampfel put together a new band The Moray Eels which included Shepard, Tyler and Antonia (a long time friend of his). Sam Shepard was arguably one of America's best post-war playwrites and was also a film star, appearing in The Right Stuff and Jessica, for example. He also wrote the screenplay for Zabriskie Point. Later in the same year, Stampfel also united with Weber to record Indian War Whoop. It's a weird acid-folk album with no gaps between tracks and is not that good. Tyler did not play on this album and Lee Grabtree came in on keyboards.

Their 1968 album was made for Elektra in Los Angeles and included Californian bassist, John Wesley Annis. This, too, was a bit of a disaster and poorly produced. lndeed it took them a while to secure another recording contract, although eventually they wound up with Metromedia in 1971. The result Good Taste Is Timeless was a bit bland, although it had a few good cuts like Spring of '65 and Boobs A Lot It was disasterously re-mixed in New York by a group of stoned hippies who had not noticed that one of their speakers was malfunctioning. Metromedia went bust and further line-up changes were made.

The line-up for their 1975 album was Stampfel, Weber, Robin Remailly, Luke Faust (ex-Insect Trust), Richard Tyler, Dave Reich and Karen Dalton. This album, which contained good material and was well produced, is recommended. In fact the album had been recorded two years earlier, but its release was delayed.

In the period that followed Stampfel formed The Hoochie Koochie Dream Band and then, in late 1974, The Unholy Modal Rounders, who together with Michael Hurley and friends recorded the Have Moicy album, which was one of their better efforts and superior to Last Round, which was actually recorded in 1976.

1978 brought forth a Stampfel-Weber acoustic reunion album, which is more in the style of their first two Prestige albums, whilst 1999's Too Much Fun included Dave Reich. Stampfel and Weber still gig occasionally, mainly in NYC.

The Holy Modal Rounders were one of rock's most diverse and experimental bands.

Bird Song from their fourth album has subsequently resurfaced on Electrock The Sixties. It was originally featured in the cult movie Easy Rider and appeared on the soundtrack LP.

Karen Dalton who played on their Alleged In Their Own Time album also released two solo albums: It's So Hard To Tell Who's Going To Love You The Best (Capitol) and In My Own Time (Paramount) in late '60s/early '70s.

(Vernon Joynson / Yuli Ikeda / Ken Murphy)

Holy Moses

Personnel:

- BILL BATSON keyb'ds, vcls
- MARTY DAVID bs, sax, vcls
- CHRISTOPHER PARKER drms
- TEDDY SPELEOS gtr, vcls

ALBUM:

1. HOLY MOSES! (RCA LSP 4523) 1971

45:

1. A Cowboy's Dream / Agadaga Dooley (RCA 74-0496) 1970

Produced by Kim King of Lothar and The Hand People, their album contains some really good tracks with guitar, organ etc. Both sides of their 45 also appear on the album.

Teddy Spelos had earlier played with Kangaroo, whilst Bill Batson was later the leader of 80s new wave outfit Hypstrz. Marty David was also a session man, playing with Jackie Lomax, Van Morrison etc.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hombres

Personnel:

- B.B. CUNNINGHAM A
- GARY WAYNE MOEWEN A
- JOHNNY WILL HUNTER A
- JERRY LEE MASTERS A

ALBUM:

1. (A) LET IT OUT (Verve Forecast 3036) 1967 180
2. () THE HOMBRES (Verve-Forecast FTS-3068) 1969

NB: (2) was not released, although some copies do exist.

45s:

1. Let It Out (Let It All Hang Out)/Go,Girl, Go, (Verve Folkways 5058) 1967 12
2. It's A Gas/Am I High? (Verve Folkways 5076) 1967 113
3. The Prodigal/Mau, Mau, Mau (Verve Folkways 5083) 1968
4. Pumpkin Man/Take My Overwhelming Love (Verve Folkways 5093) 1968
5. If This Ain't Loving You Baby / You Made Me What I Am (Sun 1104) 1969

This short-lived quartet came from Memphis, Tennessee. All but Masters were members of Ronny and The Daytonas touring band. They had a highly individualistic sound and are best known for Let It Out (Let It All Hang Out) which made No. 12 in the U.S. charts in the Autumn of 1967. It can also be found on Nuggets, Vol. 12. A later '70s reworking of the track also appears on a compilation called Psychotic Reactions - Early American Rock Groups (Topline TOP 153) 1986.

The unreleased album from 1969 contains the tracks Let It Out, It's A Gas, I'm High and Man Man Man plus a cover version of Gloria which turns into Eight Miles High before reverting back to Gloria again. All of these tracks also feature on their debut album, but it's not known if they are the same or different versions.

Hunter later died in 1976. Cunningham's brother, Bill, was a member of The Box Tops.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Mark Rozzo)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Homegas to Bill Horwitz

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Homegas
- Homer
- The Honey Jug
- The Hoodoo Rhythm Devils
- The Hook
- Hootch
- The Hooterville Trolley
- Hoover
- Hope
- Hope
- Patrick Hopney
- Hoppi and The Beau Heems
- Horses
- Horton
- Bill Horwitz

Homegas

Personnel:

PETER ACEVES	vcls, gtr, rack harp	A
JIM BARDEN	hand harp	A
RICHARD BLAUSTEIN	fiddle	A
DAVE BROCK	hand harp	A
JOHN HYSLOP	bs	A
NEIL ROSENBERG	mandolin, banjo	A
DAVE SATTERFIELD	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1 HOMEGAS (TAKOMA C1026) 1970

Produced by John Fahey on his label, the only output of this rural community is well worth obtaining if you can find a copy. Lead by Peter Aceves, it's an excellent example of folk-blues with good vocals and strong instrumental parts. The songs are all original and some are really outstanding, notably Bumblebee, Bulldozer Blues and Maine. The liner notes mention that two other (unknown) groups used to play with Homegas: Greazy Green and Stoney Lonesome before their house was destroyed by fire.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Homer

Personnel:

- PHIL BEPKO vcls A
- FRANK COY vcls A
- GALEN NILES ld gtr A
- HOWARD GLOOR ld gtr, stgtr A
- GENE COLEMAN drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) GROWN IN USA (United Recording Artist URA 101) 1970

NB: (1) reissued on Breeder (RPR 008-3C-568) 1986 also reissued on CD.

45s:

1. I Never Cared For You/Dandelion Wine (United Recording Artists 123-6/7) 1969
2. Texas Lights/On The Wall (United Recording Artists 123-8/9) 1970
3. Dandelion Wine/Sunrise (United Recording Artists 123-10/11) 1970

This band recorded in Houston although they originated from San Antonio in Texas. Musically they ranged from psychedelia to more progressive rock. Their first 45 was a strange rework of Willie Nelson's I Never Cared For You on the 'A' side. The third, particularly Sunrise, marked the pinnacle of their achievements in the arena of psychedelic rock. Their album is more progressive than psychedelic but it features some fine guitar work and is recommended. Christopher Cross, who achieved considerable success as a solo artist in the early eighties, had some involvement with their LP and rumour has it that Van Wilkes played on their 45s.

Compilation coverage has included: Sunrise and Dandelion Wine on Acid Visions, Vol. 2, Acid Visions - The Complete Collection, Vol. 1 (3-CD set) and Filling The Gap.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

The Honey Jug

45s:

1. Warm City Baby/Honey Say So (Hip 106) 1967
2. For Your Love/in 1582 We... (Hip 110) 196?

Psychedelic Patchwork, Vol. 1 includes this band's cover version of The Yardbirds' For Your Love. Their first 45 is pleasantly laid-back mid-tempo pop (er, with a trumpet solo), backed by folkie-pop. Both sides composed by 'Jordon'. They'd probably appeal most to fans of the Lovin' Spoonful.

(Max Waller)

The Hoodoo Rhythm Devils

Personnel:

ROGER CLARK	drms	A
JOE CRANE	vcls	A
DEXTER PLATES	bs	A
JOHN REWIND	gtr	A
GLENN WALTERS	drms, vcls	A

ALBUM:

(up to 1973)

1(A)	RACK JOBBERS BLUES	(Capitol ST-842)	1971
2(A)	WHAT THE KIDS WANT	(Blue Thumb BTS 57)	1973

NB: (2) also released by Vogue in France.

A San Francisco blues band formed by Glenn Walters after the demise of the Mystic Number National Bank. Their first album is quite good and contains Black Cadillac, Black Widow, Snake Doctor and Hoodoo Beat. On the second, they were reinforced by Martin Fierro (from Sir Douglas Quintet and Mother Earth) and Chester Crill (aka Max Buda, from Kaleidoscope).

They released several other albums during the '70s but went increasingly mellow and country pop oriented.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hook

Personnel:

- BOBBY ARLIN gtr A B
- BUDDY SKLAR bs A B
- DALE LOYOLA drms B
- CRAIG BOYD drms A
- DENNY PROVISOR organ B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) WILL GRAB YOU (Uni 73023) 1968
2. (B) HOOKED (Uni 73038) 1968

45s:

1. Son Of Fantasy/Plug Your Head In (Uni 55057) 1968
2. Love Theme In E Major/Homes (Uni 55077) 1968
3. In The Beginning/Show You The Way (Uni 55149) 1969

A Los Angeles band formed by Bobby Arlin after he quit The Leaves. The first album is hard rock with psychedelic undertones, the second is the more structured of the two - both are worth investigating, and now minor collectors' items.

Previsor had earlier been a solo artist and later went on to play with The Grassroots. Lee "Buddy" Sklar became a very renowned session man and played with Jackson Browne, James Taylor and almost every Californian artist.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

Hootch

Personnel:

HENRY ERKELENZ	A
THOMAS S. HENRY	A
DOUG LEMIRANDE	A
BOB MALONEY	A
LAURA SCHAEFER	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HOOTCH	(Progress PRS 4844)	1974 R3/R4

NB: (1) some copies had a handmade silkscreen cover, the others a plain white one. Reissued in 1994 on Rollocks (Rollock 1001) - limited to 400 copies.

From Wisconsin, this band's sole album is a very rare and mostly instrumental piece. Competent and at times quite experimental but nothing to get really excited about.

(Vernon Joynson/Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hooterville Trolley

45:

1. No Silver Bird/The Warmth Of Love (Lynette 551) 196?

Either a Mississippi, Missouri band or New Mexico outfit, whose trippy song with its swirling sound effects can now be heard on the Sixties Rebellion Vol. 15 (CD), Magic Carpet Ride, Beyond The Calico Wall, and *Lysergic Soap*compilations. It's a spaced out masterpiece with great lyrics:- 'Go and get ready to fly/Lock all the doors as if to hide/Don't worry about faces inside/Just come with me and hide!'. The 45 lists an address in Mississippi, but it was produced by Tom Bee who could be the same Tom Bee who was responsible for nuggets like I Wanna Come Back (From The World Of LSD) by New Mexico outfit Fe Fi Four Plus 2 and who later played/produced Xit. Another 45 by The Trademarks, was also produced by 'a' Tom Bee from Mississippi, so the New Mexico link is probably bogus.

The same track also appeared on the Magic Sand's LP on Uni under a different title Get Ready To Fly.

The original No Silver Bird, a rare track by U.K. band Freakbeaters Creation, can now be heard on the Brain Shadows compilation.

(Max Waller/Clark Faville)

Hoover

ALBUM:

1 HOOVER (Epic) 1970

A good loner folk singer.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Hope

Personnel incl:

- DAN FERNELIUS
- JOHN TUTTLE castrato vcls (!)

45:

1. Greenhouse/Of Times You Can See (Peace Records 9445-2859) 1970

This 45 was the work of a hippie-style quintet from Minneapolis and now interests some collectors. The flip can be found on the Changes compilation of Minnesota bands, along with a track called One Man. This latter track turns out to be by a different Hope, from Wisconsin. Both sides of the 45 also appear on Arf Arf's essential CD The Scotty Story. Of Times.. is particularly poignant and dramatic - not one for the depressed.

Three members of this Hope (excluding John Tuttle) were earlier members of The Castaways...

(Max Waller)

Hope

Personnel:

- JEFF COZY drms, vcls
- JAMES C. CROEGAERT vcls, piano
- DAVID A. KLUG vcls, bs
- WAYNE C. McKIBBIN vcls, gtr
- BOYD R. SIBLEY vcls, organ

ALBUM:

1. HOPE (A&M SP 4329) 1972

45s:

1. Where Do You Want To Go / One Man (Coulee 134) c1970
2. Where Do You Want To Go / Little Things (A&M 1355) 1972

A different group from Lacrosse Wisconsin, they evolved out of the Jesters III. One Man was written by organist Boyd Sibley, and the track appears on their 1972 album, which was recorded in Toronto, Canada under the supervision of Jack Richardson (best known for his productions (Nimbus 9) with The Guess Who). Many other musicians, including bassist Russ Savakus assisted on the album.

You can also hear One Man on the Changes compilation of Minnesota bands, miscredited as an unreleased track by the Minneapolis Hope.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Patrick Hopney

TOP

ALBUMS:

1	ENDS AND MEANS	(Illusion CM 1032)	c1970?
2	PERILS OF LOVE	(Illusion CM 1033)	c1970?
3	COSMIC ROCKOUT	(Illusion CM 1034)	1977

Recorded in Florida, Patrick Hopney was the stage name for Patrick Hearns of Newburgh, NY's Sapians. After Hopney relocated to Florida, he recorded these three albums, which are characterised by excellent guitar work and are now rare and sought after.

The third album was produced by Mike Pinera (ex-Fanz/Blues Image/Iron Butterfly/Ramatam). Not really psychedelic, but Side One is excellent (especially Long Ago And Far Away"), whilst Side Two is rather lame.

Pat also released a 45, Acapulco Gold as a duo under the name Hopney & Phinious (spelling in question).

(Stephane Rebeschini/Ken Masten/Ed Moulin)

Hoppi and The Beau Heems

TOP

Personnel possibly incl:

- HOWARD SYMONS
- J. McCULLOUGH

45s:

1. So Hard/I Missed My Cloud (Laurie 3411) 1967
2. When I Get Home/So Hard (Laurie 3439) 1968

A short-lived Tampa, Florida act. You'll also find I Missed My Cloud on Glimpses, Vol. 2 and Mindrocker, Vol, 12 and When I Get Home on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 8. Catchy no-frills pop-punk is their style with strong, sometimes raucous, vocals. The non-comp So Hard is light keyboard-driven pop-beat.

(Max Waller)

Horses

Personnel:

CHRIS HEROLD	drms	A
DON JOHNSON		A
MATT KELLY	vcls, gtr, hrmnca	A
DAVE TORBERT	bs, vcls	A
SCOTT QUIGLEY		A

ALBUM:

1(A)	HORSES	(White Whale WW7121)	1969

45s:

1	Class Of '69/Country Boy	(White Whale 301)	1969
2	Freight Train/Freight Train (mono)	(White Whale 320)	1969

The Carter-Gilbert team, John and Tim, who were also responsible for the Rainy Daze, and later as songwriters covered by the likes of Strawberry Alarm Clock, Hardwater and Yankee Dollar, produced and wrote ten of the eleven tracks on this fine west-coast album.

Class Of '69 is a raucous rocker, Asia Minor and Wind have good guitar parts, some other tracks are more country-rock oriented.

The 45s were taken from the album, which is very rare now.

Matt Kelly, who was a talented harmonica and guitar player, later joined Gospel Oak in 1970 and then guested on several Grateful Dead albums after 1973. In 1975, back with Herold and Torbert, they formed Kingfish with Bob Weir (Grateful Dead), who included some Horses songs (Asia Minor, Overnight Bag) on their first albums. Kelly also released a solo album A Wing And A Prayer (Relix) 1985 and another in 2000. Dave Torbert sadly died in 1982.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini/Timothy M. Smith)

Horton

ALBUM:

1	DANCEHALL FOR MIDGETS	(Private Pressing)	1976 R1

A rare bluesy hard psych ourfit, with demented vocals influenced by Captain Beeheart.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Bill Horwitz

Personnel:

STECK HECKER	french horn	A
BILL HORWITZ	piano, bs, gtr	A
RICK LEAB	drms	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	LIES, LIES	(ESP)	1974

Produced by David Butler, Horwitz was a political folksinger inspired by Dylan, with songs about hippies and similar topics.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Hot Coffee to The Human Beinz

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Hot Coffee
- Hot Dog Stand
- Hot Poop
- Hot Soup
- Hot Tuna
- Hound Dog Clowns
- Hourglass
- Household Sponge
- The House of Commons
- Houston
- Houston Fearless
- The Huck Finn
- Huckleberry Mudflap
- Human Beings
- The Human Beinz

Hot Coffee

TOP

45:

1. Cheatin' On Me/Some Day You Will Die (Plamie P-1024) 196?

An unknown outfit on a Salinas, California, label. A moody pedestrian garage 'A' side with a subdued fuzzy break and real pissed-off guy lyrics. The flip is more lively but keyboard dominated with no cool guitar break. (Max Waller)

Hot Dog Stand

TOP

45:

1. C'mon Summer's Happening/Zilch (Mala 12014) 1968

This seems to have been a one-off venture. Zilch is as a lose bluesy jam, with some fiery 'acid' rock style guitar - which has subsequently resurfaced on Relics, Vol. 1 and Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 1 (CD).

Hot Poop

Personnel incl:

- THOMAS BURKE

ALBUM:

1. DOES THEIR OWN STUFF (Hot Poop HPS 3072) 1972

A Californian outfit and definitely wacky'n'weird. Imagine an LP of instrumentals varying from cheesy organ fuzzouts, frat rock to rinky-tink rock 'n' roll Jerry Lee Lewis style. Now top'em off with a truly demented vocalist who sounds more like a crazy cartoon character (Bugs Bunny crossed with a psychotic sheep!). Goofy-rock we'll have to call it - with tracks like Wing Wang, Dance To The War, I Always Play With My Food and Screamin' and rarely intelligible lyrics. On the psychedelic fringe, though it's more brain-scrambling than mind-expanding! (Max Waller).

Hot Soup

ALBUM:

1. HOT SOUP (Rama Rama Records) 1969

45:

1. You Took Me By Surprise/Gettin' In My Way Again (Rama Rama 7775) 1969

An obscure minor psychedelic album, purportedly a Los Angeles band.

Hot Tuna

Personnel:

MARTY BALIN	vcls	A
JACK CASADY	bs, vcls	A B C D E
JOE E.COVINGTON	drms	A
JORMA KAUKONEN	gtr, vcls	A B C D E
WILL SCARLETT	hrmnca	B C
PAPA JOHN CREACH	electric violin	C D
SAMMY PIAZZA	drms	C D E

ALBUMS:
(up to 1973)

1(B)	HOT TUNA, LIVE AT THE NEW ORLEANS HOUSE, BERKELEY	(RCA LSP-4353)	1970

2(C)	FIRST PULL UP, THEN PULL DOWN	(RCA LSP-4550)	1971
3(D)	BURGERS	(Grunt BXL1-2591)	1972
4(E)	THE PHOSPHORESCENT RAT	(Grunt BFL1-0348)	1973

NB: (1) to (4) were also released in France, U.K., Germany and Italy (with a different sleeve for the Italian pressing of (1). They have also been reissued on CD.

In 1969, after Volunteers, Jefferson Airplane began to fragment. Kaukonen and Casady began to spend more time with their own 'spin-off' group Hot Tuna, which had first taken shape in December '68 as an outlet for 'Airplane members to gig more frequently. Marty Balin sang at early Hot Tuna gigs, and future 'Airplane drummer, Joey Covington was also involved with the outfit from the beginning. The story goes that the group was to be called Hot Shit but RCA wouldn't hear of it.

Their first album was recorded live and is a fine example of acoustic country blues based on Reverend Gary Davis songs. Their second, a live one too, used amplified instruments (electric violin, guitar, bass, drums and harmonica) and is notable for his strange sleeve and the long jams of John's Other and Keep Your Lamps Trimmed And Burning. Their third album, Burgers, is generally thought to be their best album and offers several exceptional tracks. David Crosby sings on Highway Song, Richmond Talbott plays on 99 Year Blues and Nikki Buck adds keyboards to True Religion and Truckin'.

Phosphorescent Rat saw the first attempt at turning Hot Tuna into a power trio, a formula which would be used for their four following albums.

In the '70s, Hot Tuna kept on recording their mix of country blues and electric boogie, often playing live and developing a strong following . They disbanded after a compilation, Final Vinyl in 1979, but reformed in 1990 for a studio album and several live recordings. The Relix label has issued several live albums from radio tapes from their various periods.

Jorma Kaukonen is still recording, teaching and touring.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Hound Dog Clowns

TOP

Personnel incl:
KIM FOWLEY A

45:

1	Super Fox/ Wicked Witch	(UNI 55047)	1968

Another example of Fowley's work as songwriter/singer/producer. How many groups has he created??

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Hourglass

TOP

Personnel:

DUANE ALLMAN	ld gtr, electric sitar	A B
GREG ALLMAN	vcls, gtr, keyb'ds	A B
PAUL HORNSBY	keyb'ds, gtr, vcls	A B
MABRON McKINNEY	bs	A
(MIKE MELVOIN	keyb'ds	A)
(MAC REBENNACK	keyb'ds	A)
JOHNNY SANDLIN	drms, gtr	A B
JESSE WILLIARD CARR	bs, vcls	B

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE HOURGLASS	(Liberty LRP 3536/LST-7536)	1967
2(B)	POWER OF LOVE	(Liberty LST-7555)	1968
3(-)	THE HOURGLASS	(United Artists UA-LA013-G2)	1973

NB:(1) and (2) have both been reissued on CD by EMI in 1992 with respectively six and seven bonus tracks. (3) is a reissue of (1) and (2) as a double album.

45s:

1	Nothing But Tears/Heartbeat (PS)	(Liberty 56002)	1967
2	Power Of Love/I Still Want Your Love	(Liberty 56029)	1968
3	D.I.V.O.R.C.E/Changing Of The Guard	(Liberty 56053)	1968
4	She Is My Woman/Going Nowhere	(Liberty 56065)	1968
5	Now Is The Time/She Is My Woman	(Liberty 56072)	1968
6	I've Been Trying/Silently	(Liberty 56090)	1969

In the beginning of 1967, Greg and Duane Allman, then with the Allman Joys, gigged at a Pensacola club. The other resident band was the Five Minutes whose members included Sandlin, McKinney and Hornsby. These five musicians shared a love for hard-rocking English acts (mainly 'Stones and Yardbirds) and for R&B. They relocated to Decatur, Alabama and, after trying out different names, settled on the Allman-Act.

Their break came when Bill McEuen, manager of the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, caught their show in St. Louis and persuaded them to move to Los Angeles and sign with Liberty Records, the label who had also taken two of his other clients: the Dirt and the Sunshine Company. Since they were already several groups with almost similar names, the Allman-Act became the Hourglass.

The five men then realized that their producer, Dallas Smith, was only interested by Gregg Allman's voice and was willing to use session musicians and songwriters songs instead of their own writing/playing abilities. They tried to fight the process but won only a few concessions. The resulting album is, unsurprisingly, not really convincing and contains mainly pleasant pop/rock, the exceptions being the more electric tracks: Got To Get Away (the only Gregg original, already recorded with the Allman Joys), Jackson Browne's Cast Off All My Fears and Ed Cobb's Heartbeat. Duane Allman's guitar can be heard from time to time only. The album and the singles were a total commercial failure and McKinley left to be replaced by another former Five Minutes, Jesse Williard (Pete) Carr.

The group then demanded artistic freedom to Liberty and Hourglass were allowed to choose its own material, although Dallas Smith remained as their producer. Released in March 1968, Power Of Love, their second album, was a vast improvement on its predecessor, being much bluesier, with seven Gregg Allman songs, a Solomon Burke song, two Eddie Hinton/Marlin Greene tracks (Down in Texas and Home For The Summer), one Penn/Oldham cover (the title track) and a really weird instrumental version of Beatles' Norwegian Wood, beginning with Duane's electric sitar before degenerating into a kind of raga rock. The sales were low once again.

Hourglass were then playing live a lot, being booked every month at the Whisky A Go-Go and sometimes at the Fillmore West, including three nights with Buffalo Springfield, indeed Neil Young and Steve Stills wrote the enthusiastic liner notes for Power Of Love. They developed a strong reputation as a solid driving blues rock outfit but they were really unhappy with their records. With $500 from a gig, they finally rented Rick Hall's Studio in Muscle Shoals and cut some tracks on their own in April 1968 (one of these tunes BB King Medley is included on Duane Allman Anthology). The group returned to California with their tapes but Dallas Smith thought they were terrible and useless. They played some Southern gigs and eventually just drifted apart.

Gregg was then forced to finish out the contract with Liberty and had to record, using session musicians, a pop oriented solo album which was shelved (the recorded tracks are the bonus on the CD reissues).

After this unsuccessful Los Angeles period, all the musicians would return to their Alabama / Georgia / Florida area and would took a central part in the creation of the Southern Rock in the early '70s. Duane would first go to the Fame, Muscle Shoals and Criteria Studios to do sessions with soul and rock acts before forming the Allman Brothers Band with Gregg in 1969. He also was in Derek and the Dominos with Eric Clapton. One of the best slide guitar players ever, he sadly died in 1971 in a motorcycle accident. His brother is still touring with a new version of the Allman Brothers Band.

Johnny Sandlin, Paul Hornsby and Pete Carr are credited as producers, session players or group members with countless bands (Charlie Daniels, Wet Willie, Marshall Tucker, Sailcat, Cowboy etc.).

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Household Sponge

TOP

Personnel incl:

- PROSSEDA
- SBORDONE
- SIANO

45:

1. Scars/Second Best (Murbo 1017) 1967

A 45 whose acquisition would inevitably be dissapointing given the choking descriptions and asking prices by specialist dealefs over the years - especially when having finally obtained a copy both sides turn up on Strange Things' Garagelands, 2 not long after!! Nevertheless this obscure New York City combo turn in two fine moody poppy psych-punkers; the 'A' side is slightly marred by some chirruping female backing vocals but the 'B' side makes up for that with a hypnotic beat and some fine yet understated distorted fuzz.

(Max Waller)

The House of Commons

TOP

45:

1. Till Tomorrow/Love Is A Funny Thing (Wheel's 4 3609) 1965

From the Garden City suburbs of Detroit. Till Tomorrow has resurfaced on Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 11, whilst Collectables' 3-CD set The History Of Michigan Garage Bands In The '60s Vol.1 includes both sides of their 45 and an eight-pack of unreleased tracks.

(Max Waller)

Houston

TOP

ALBUM:

1	HOUSTON	(SSS)	1970

Another obscure rock outfit on Shelby Singleton's label. This one is rather mediocre.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Houston Fearless

TOP

Personnel:

- BOB WALL A
- JOE KRASOMIL A
- BILL COMBEST A
- HARLEY BAKER A

ALBUM:

1. (A) HOUSTON FEARLESS (Imperial 12421) 1969

Presumably this outfit was from Houston. Their album consists of average late sixties heavyish rock and shouldn't be of much interest to readers.

The Huck Finn

TOP

Personnel:

MICHAEL APPEL	A
DONALD HENNY	A

45:

1	Two Of A Kind / We'll Catch The Sun	(Kapp K-958)	Dec 1968

A NYC outfit who were previously known as the Balloon Farm, some of whose members had previously been in

Adam. Two Of A Kind is a catchy fuzz-popper with a hint of bubblegum.

(Max Waller)

Huckleberry Mudflap

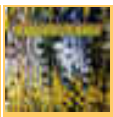
45s:

1. Blue Surf/Goodnight, Mrs. Kollendoffer (Wherever You Are) (Scepter SCE 12245) 1969
2. Eyes Of Blue/What A Day (Line 5 L-5002) 196?

A great name for this Wilson, North Carolina, outfit. Pleasant poppy soft-rock is the overwhelming style on these two 45s. The latter's label depicts the front and rear view of a very hairy hippie's head. I guess that says where they were at (man). What A Day is very much in that mellow genre and is the best cut by far. (Max Waller)

Human Beings

45s:



1. Because I Love Her/Ain't That Lovin' You Baby (Warner Bros 5622) 1965
2. I Can't Tell/An Inside Look (Impact 1001) 1965
3. You're Bad News/Ling Ting Tong (impact 1006) 1966
4. I Can't Tell/Yessir, That's My Baby (Impact 1022) 1967

Not to be confused with Ohio's Human Beinz, this outfit was from Detroit. Pebbles, Vol. 7 featured You're Bad News, a mid-tempo punker with some fine guitar work, and An Inside Look has re-emerged on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 5. Better still however, is Collectables 1997 CD The Best Of Impact Records (COL-5883) which features all five of their Impact-released tracks. Because I Love Her has now turned up on the Michigan Nuggets CD.

An Inside Look also appears on Think Of The Good Times - The Tucson Sound because, apparently, the band were based in Tucson for a while and recorded that particular 45 there.

(Max Waller)

The Human Beinz

Personnel:

RICHARD BELLEY	ld gtr	A
JOE 'TING' MARKULIN	gtrs	A
MEL PACHUTA	bs	A
MIKE TATMAN	drms	A

ALBUMS:

1	HUMAN BEINZ/MAMMALS	(Gateway GLP 3012)	1967 -
2(A)	NOBODY BUT ME	(Capitol ST 2906)	1968 65
3(A)	EVOLUTION	(Capitol ST 2926)	1968
4()	LIVE IN JAPAN 1968	()	19??

NB. (3) reissued on Decal (LIK 5) 1987, (2) reissued on See For Miles (See CD 327) 1991. (4) is a rare Japanese only release, subsequently reissued on CD by Cosmic Mind (HB 001 CD), and on vinyl as Hold On Baby (HB 001). There is also a compilation CD on Collectables, Golden Classics.

45s:

1	The Times They Are A Changing/Gloria	(Gateway 828)	1966
2	Pied Piper/My Generation	(Gateway 838)	1967
3	My Generation/Evil Hearted You	(Elysian 82OF 8687)	1966
4	Hey Joe/Spider Man	(Elysian 3376)	1967
5	Nobody But Me/Sueno	(Capitol 5990)	1967 8
6	Turn On Your Lovelight/It's Fun To Be Clean	(Capitol 2119)	1968 80
7	Every Time Woman/The Face	(Capitol 2198)	1968 -
8	I've Got To Keep On Pushing/This Little Girl Of Mine	(Capitol 2431)	1968

NB: (3) & (4) as by the Human Beingz. (5) also released in France with a PS (Capitol CLF 5990).

Human Beinz came from Youngstown Ohio, and were originally known as The Human Beingz. The split Gateway album, with The Mammals, included four cuts by them, which display their British invasion influences - but as with their Gateway 45s, are now virtually disowned by the band.

Under the guidance of their producer Alex "Lez" De Azevedo, they developed into a fine psychedelic pop group with a sense of humour. Their second album, contained one of the all-time punk classics, Nobody But Me and the third too is recommended - consisting of anglophile pop, weird psychedelic ballads and some great psychedelia - inconsistent in places but good overall. The third album also contained a 7 minute guitar freakout April 15th, which was arguably their finest moment.

They also cut a very rare live LP in Japan, which is probably mainly of interest to completists. It has recently been reissued together with six bonus "rare studio outtakes"; five of which turn out to be from their Gateway album plus Evil Hearted You, from their debut 45. A welcome release nonetheless. The CD version includes also includes their last Capitol 45.

Somewhat temptingly, a couple of full live sets from 1967, still exist and are said to show the band at their best, with a mixture of Stones / Byrds covers and the usual dance standards of the time.

Nobody But Me remains one of the best recordings of this period, and second and third albums are worth checking out.

Dick Belley later had a spell in The (Pied) Pipers.

Compilation coverage to date has also included: My Generation on Pebbles, Vol. 8; Evil Hearted You on What A Way To Die and on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 9; a track from the live album Mr. Soul on Filling The Gap; and their classic Nobody But Me has resurfaced on Nuggets, Vol. 1, Wild Thing, and Frat Rock! The Greatest Rock 'N' Roll Party Tunes Of All Time.

(George Gell/Max Waller/Mike McKay/Stephane Rebeschini)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Human Equation featuring Jon Uzonyi to The Huns

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Human Equation featuring Jon Uzonyi
- The Human Expression
- The Human Situation
- The Humane Society
- The Humans
- The Human Zoo
- Ray Hummel III
- Hung Jury
- Hunger
- The Huns
- The Huns
- Huns Of Time

The Human Equation featuring Jon Uzonyi

TOP

Personnel:

- RICK ABTS keyb'ds A
- GARY TSURUDA drms A
- JOHN UZONYI gtr A

ALBUM:

1. (A) PEACEPIPE (Rockadelic RRLP 18) 1995

NB: The album is shown as by Peacepipe. Jon Uzonyi couldn't decide what name he wanted to use on the album and kept changing his mind! He finally decided on Peacepipe.

45:

1. The Sun Won't Shine Forever/Lazy River Blues (Accent ACS 1279) 1968

Uzonyi formed the band with Tsuruda in the mid-sixties whilst they were still at High School. In 1968 they headed for Hollywood and recorded two tracks; The Sun Won't Shine Forever and Lazy River Blues, which were released on a 45 by Accent. After school Uzonyi joined the U.S. Air Force and was based in Tucson, Arizona. There he met Rick Abts who joined Jon and Gary to form The Human Equation. They gigged around the U.S. West but disbanded in 1969 to pursue non-musical careers. Shortly after, though, they reformed to record the tunes, which 26 years later found their way onto a Rockadelic's Peacepipe album. (Jon shelved the project at the time). The result is some stunning psychedelic rock with the opening track Sea Of Nightmares especially ear-catching. On side two, A Biker's Tune features some superb psychedelic guitar work and Open Your Mind culminates in more guitar histrionics. The final track Love Shine is much more mellow by contrast.

The Human Expression

TOP

Personnel:

- MARTIN ESHLEMAN ld gtr
- JIM FOSTER rhtm gtr
- TOM HAMILTON bs
- ARMAND POULIN drms
- JIM QUARLES ld vcls

45s:

1. Readin' Your Will / Everynight (Acetate Demo) Summer 1966
2. Love At Psychedelic Velocity/Everynight (Accent 1214) Summer 1966
3. Optical Sound / Calm Me Down (Acetate Demo) Winter 1966
4. Optical Sound/Calm Me Down (Accent 1226) Winter 1966
5. Sweet Child Of Nothingness / I Don't Need Nobody (Accent 1252) Summer 1967

Hailing from Westminster and Tustin, California, this psychedelic punk band were formed early in 1966 and played around the LA area, at clubs such as Gazzari's and USO clubs. An acetate Readin' Your Will / Everynight cut in the Summer of '66 got them a deal with Accent, who released two awesome acid-punk singles in the shape of Love At Psychedelic Velocity and Optical Sound. Both singles were mixed by Wally Heider who also worked for the Grateful Dead, and are now extremely sought-after and impossibly hard to find.

After Optical Sound proved too far-out for the Charts, the bands manager offered them the opportunity to record two tracks by what he described as "an up-and coming songwriter". The first demo Sweet Child Of Nothingness would become their third single, and the other track was turned down because Jim Quarles' didn't think lyrics like "Get your motor running / Head out on the highway" were much cop. The song was of course Mars Bonfire's Born To Be Wild which Steppenwolf would later cover!!

By the time the Sweet Child Of Nothingness / I Don't Need Nobody single was recorded, both Jim Quarles and Martin Eshleman's had left the band.

Both their first two singles Love At Psychedelic Velocity and Optical Sound are worthy of investigation and all their released material now appears on compilations:- Love At Psychedelic Velocity on Pebbles, Vol. 10; Every Night on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3; Optical Sound on Echoes In Time, Vol. 1 and Psychedelic Disaster Whirl and Calm Me Down on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 20.

Better still is the Collectables CD release Love At Psychedelic Velocity, which compiles all the bands singles, plus demo's and four post-Human Expression solo tracks cut by Jim Quarles. The CD also includes excellent liner notes, from which this entry has largely been taken, and is recommended to fans of the band. You can also check out one of the unreleased cuts Who Is Burning? on the Psychedelic Crown Jewels, Vol. 1 CD, whilst a later Collectables CD, The Human Expression & Other Psychedelic Groups: Your Mind Works In Reverse includes the previously unreleased demo Your Mind Works In Reverse, Calm Me Down and Optical Sound all restored from the masters by Jim Quarles himself.

Jim Quarles is still active in the music business, working in a studio as a technical engineer, and writing and recording songs.

(Max Waller)

The Human Situation

45:

1. I Got Away/Mediocre Fred (Eclipse 4940) c1966

From Allentown, Pennsylvania. I Got Away is a fairly basic garage tune, but compelling nonetheless. You can also find it on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 2.

The Humane Society

Personnel:

RICHARD MAJEWSKI	bs	A
WOODY MINNICK	gtr	A
JIM PETTIT	gtr	A
BILL SCHNETZLER	drms	A
DANNY WHEETMAN	gtr, vcls	A

45s:

1	Knock Knock (Who's There)/Tiptoe Through The Tulips With Me	(Liberty 55968)	1967
2	Lorna/Eternal Prison	(New World 2004)	1968

They hailed from Simi Valley in California and were originally called The Innocents. A demo of Knock Knock recorded in 1966 at Golden State Studios in San Francisco, led to a deal with Liberty where they re-recorded the song. A classic punker, with a tight menacing feel, the 45 nevertheless failed to happen, and they were dropped, leaving their proposed 2nd 45 stranded at the acetate stage... They did later release another 45 on the New World label, the flip to which, Eternal Prison, is haunting soft garagey-psych.

The band have been well compiled: The demo version of Knock Knock can be found on the Good Things Are Happening CD, whilst the "Liberty" version is included on Pebbles, Vol. 8 (CD), Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 4, Son Of The Gathering Of The Tribe, Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 3 (LP), Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 2 (CD), Nuggets Box (4-CD) and Victims Of Circumstance; Eternal Prison is also on Acid Dreams Vol. 2, Prisoners Of The Beat and Fuzz, Flaykes And Shakes Vol. 1.

(Max Waller)

The Humans

Personnel incl:

- BILL KUHNS ld gtr

45:

1. Warning/Take A Taxi (Audition 6109) 1966

A typical garage punk outfit with a real throaty vocalist. The cool looking six piece formed whilst the members were in Albion, New York high school in the Summer of 1964. They toured pretty extensively and got to open for the likes of The Animals, The Hollies, The Standells and The Stones and in the Summer of 1966 opened for Mitch Ryder at the Rheingold Festival in Central Park. You'll find Warning on Back From The Grave, Vol. 5.

The Human Zoo

Personnel:

- ROY YOUNG vcls A
- JIM CUNNINGHAM vcls A
- LARRY HANSON gtrs, keyb'ds A
- JOHN LUZADDER gtr A
- BOB DALRYMPLE bs A
- KIM VYDAREMY drms A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE HUMAN ZOO (Accent ACS 5055) 1969

A Californian band, whose album is extremely mediocre. The haunting finale, The Time Was Over is the best track. Despite my lack of enthusiasm, (I think it's CRAP), I must admit it's now a minor collectors' item.

The LP fails because they're not sure what bag they're in. First there's some bits of good acid-guitar, some heavyish mainstream rock, but then some funk and some Blood, Sweat and Tears brassy soul-rock on top of some dirgeful material doesn't help.

Ray Hummel III

45s:

1. Fine Day/Gentle Rain (Fenton 2188) 196?
2. Can't Keep A Good Memory Down/Daily Grinds & Neon Signs (Renegade 5630) 196?

3. For Whatever It's Worth/Don't Point Your Finger (Renegade 5651) 196?
4. From Adam's Rib To Woman's Lib/? (Renegade 5655) 196?

NB: (1) some copies of this 45 came with a picture sleeve, bumping up its asking price to $150+.

Originally from Grand Rapids, Michigan, this guy was vocalist with The Ju Ju's. His first 45, Fine Day, was his own composition and can be heard on both The Magic Carpet Ride and Project Blue, Vol. 1. Although not a particularly strong song it does give another airing to his vocal talents. The 45's flip, Gentle Rain has also been compiled on Project Blue, Vol. 3, although reputedly after that 45 his material skips over the hills and far away into country / C&W territory.

(Max Waller)

Hung Jury

TOP

45:

1. Buses/Let The Good Times In (Colgems 66-1010) 1967

Bouncy pop-psych with a warped guitar break and ending that saves it from anonymity, unlike the group, about whom we can reveal nothing. The flip is straight baroque-pop. (Max Waller)

Hunger

TOP

Personnel:

- MIKE LANE A B
- MIKE PARKISON A B
- JOHN MORTON A
- TOM TANORY A B
- STEVE HANSEN A
- BILL DAFFERN A B
- ED KING gtr B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) STRICKLY FROM HUNGER (Public 1006) 1969
2. (B) Untitled Test Pressing (No label) 197? R6

NB. (1) Reissued as Psycho 14 (1983) and on CD (Afterglow 010) 1993. (2) was only issued as a test pressing in a plain sleeve.

45s:

1. Colors/Mind Machine (Public 1001) 1967
2. Colors/Mind Machine (Possibly also released on Corby)

3. Mind Machine/She Let Him Continue (Public 101/2) 1967
4. Not So Fine/No Shame (Public PR-1 03/4) 1968

NB: (4) as by The Touch

This band originated in Portland, Oregon, but went to LA in an attempt to make it. There they released their first single, Colors, and the above-mentioned Strictly From Hunger album, which is now a rare collectors' item. Colors is reissued on Love Peace & Poetry Vol. 1 and Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 3, and is recommended listening. Likewise is Workshop, another track from the album, which is on Endless Journey, Phase 2, Glimpses, Vol. 3 and Acid Trlp From The Psychedellc Sixties. These are its two strongest tracks, although The Mind Machine and The Truth on side two contain some good organ work. The sequence on side one is different to that on the record cover.

Overall, the album is overrated - not a bad effort, containing a couple of rather laboured instrumentals, it's not worth the money copies of the original pressing change hands for, but the reissues are worth picking up.

The Not So Fine/No Shame 45 was released as by The Touch and both tracks feature on the LP (Not So Fine retitled as Trying To Make The Best, having been slightly reworked. A modified line-up of the band also made a later album, which didn't go beyond the test pressing stage of manufacture. This was issued in a plain sleeve with no label or number and would certainly fall into the R6 category. Only one copy of the test pressing is known to exist, which consists of superior re-recorded and/or re-mixed versions of tracks from the Strictly From Hunger album. Overall, the album is transformed from a wheezy - organ garagey effort to a sinister heavy guitar monster! The album has recently been reissued as Hunger on Void records.

Workshop was later covered by U.K. psych band Glass Keys (on Rubble 9).

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller / Clark Faville)

The Huns

TOP

45:

1. Winning Ticket/Destination Lonely (Rock N Jazz 8668) 1966

Hailing from Arlington Heights, Illinois and often appearing in animal skins with bleached white hair this mob produced one of the best garage 45s to come from the Midwest. With its powerful vocals and driving guitar Destination Lonely has since featured on The Midwest vs. Canada and Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 5. The 'A' side, Winning Ticket can also be found on Pebbles, Vol. 6 (CD).

They later changed name to Greenwood County Farm and released a 45 for Ampex.

The Huns

TOP

45:

1. Shakedown/You Know (Pyramid 6646) 1966

There was a different Huns, from Concord, North Carolina, which was also home to The Tamrons, who issued just one 45. Shakedown has also resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 4.

Huns Of Time

TOP

See Attila and The Huns.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Hunted to Hysterics

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Hunted
- The Huntsmen
- Michael Hurley
- The Hurricanes
- Sandy Hurvitz
- The Hush Puppies
- The Hustlers
- The Hustlers
- Danny Hutton
- Laura Huxley
- The Hydraulic Raisins
- Hydro-Pyro
- Hysterical Society
- Hysterics

The Hunted

TOP

Unknown band who's Sinner has resurfaced on It's Finkin Time.

The Huntsmen

TOP

45:

1. So Long/Say What I Mean (Sure-Shot SS 6704) 196?

This Massachusetts act was formed by a guy called Hunt. Their sole vinyl offering was this good double-sided punker - good beat, mouth harp, snarling vocals. Like their 'label-mates', The Katz Kradle, its also rumoured that this is a bogus outfit put together by Erik Lindgren the noted sixties enthusiast. So Long is on Follow That Munster Vol.2 and Say What I Mean can also be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 22.

(Max Waller)

Michael Hurley

TOP

Personnel:

MICHAEL HURLEY	vcls, gtr	A B C D

ROBIN REMAILLY	fiddle, mandolin, vcls	A	B	D
EARTHQUAKE ANDERSON	hrmnca		B
JESSE COLIN YOUNG	bs, gtr		B
MAGGIE HURLEY	harmony vcl		B
MICHAEL KANE	bs, cornet		B	C
SCOTT LAWRENCE	piano		B
JEFF MYER	drms		B
BANANA	gtr, bs, piano, vcls, claves			C
JOE BAUER	drms			C
PETER STAMPFEL	fiddle, vcls			D

ALBUM:

1(A)	FIRST SONGS	(Folkways FG 3581)	1964
2(B)	ARMCHAIR BOOGIE	(Raccoon 6 / Warner WS 1915)	1971
3(C)	HI FI SNOCK UPTOWN	(Raccoon 14 / Warner BS 2625)	1972
4(D)	HAVE MOICY	(Rounder 3010)	1975

NB: (4) With The Unholy Modal Rounders, Jeffrey Fredericks and the Clamtones. (4) reissued in 1987 by Rounder.

A strange folksinger closely associated with The Holy Modal Rounders and The Youngbloods. Born in 1941, he spent a part of his teenage traveling in the South with Robin Remaillly. His first album was released in 1964 and contains his classic Werewolf.

The second and third LPs were produced by The Youngbloods' Jesse Colin Young and Banana on their Raccoon label. Both albums are excellent, with very unusual lyrics but hard to find now. In 1975 he teamed up with Peter Stampfel and various other folk musicians to record Have Moicy. He kept on recording for Rounder and is still active on the music scene.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hurricanes

TOP

See the Johnny and The Hurricanes entry.

Sandy Hurvitz

TOP

ALBUM:

1	SANDY'S ALBUM IS HERE AT LAST	(Verve/Bizarre V6-5064-X)	1968 SC

A good jazzy folk rock singer and pianist, backed by Jeremy Steig, Donald McDonald and Eddie Gomez (all from Jeremy and The Satyrs) and Jim Pepper. Sandy Hurvitz was at the time the girlfriend of Cal Schenkel, the graphic designer for the Mothers Of Invention, and her album was the first with the Bizarre logo on its cover, which also features Zappa's head in a TV set. It was produced by Ian Underwood.

Sandy Hurvitz later changed her name to Essra Mohawk and record three albums on Reprise, Asylum and Private Stock between 1970 and 1977.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hush Puppies

45:

1. Look For Another Love/Stop Messin' Around (Playboy 910) 196?

Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 features both sides of this 45 by this unknown garage band. Look.. is a wild rocker, with punchy organ and plenty of chops and changes in rhythmn - it was probably more fun to record than listen to repeatedly. The flip has a driving beat and scorching guitar solo(s). California has been suggested as their home state but who were these guys?

(Max Waller)

The Hustlers

45:

1. She Waits For Me/The Sky Is Black (Orlyn 1949) 196?

A Chicago garage band whose The Sky Is Black is on The Essential Pebbles Collection, Vol. 1 2-CD set.

(Max Waller)

The Hustlers

Personnel incl:

- BOB LEAVITT gtr
- JOHNNY MCNICOL gtr
- JOE ROMEO bs
- NICK FRESCA drms

45:

1. If You Try / My Mind's Made Up (Chelle 145) 1966
2. I Don't Know/Try To Forget Her/We Were In Love/Vivid In My Mind (Voice Inc. 8965) c1965

NB: (1) later appeared as a demo by 'Sweet Young Things'.(2) unreleased demo.

If You Try is a great punker with a powerful swagger that comes on initially like a fuzzed Byrds - crank this one up on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol.2 - especially for the dee-lishus solo and Beatlesque harmonies. Jeff Lemlich, Mr. Florida, dug up their story and personnel for the liner notes.

(Max Waller / Roger Maglio)

Danny Hutton

45s:

1. Roses And Rainbows / Monster Shindig (HBR 447) 1965 73
2. Big Bright Eyes / Monster Shindig Part 2 (HBR 453) 1965 102
3. Funny How Love Can Be/Dreamin' Isn't Good For You (MGM 13502) 1966 120

The above were some of Danny Hutton's early solo efforts. He may have also been involved with The Bats, before joining Cory Wells and The Enemys, and subsequently Three Dog Night with Cory and Chuck Negron.

(Max Waller / Tom Truszkowski)

Laura Huxley

ALBUM:

1	RECIPES FOR LIVING AND LOVING	(Columbia)	c1969 SC

NB: (1) also issued in a plain white promo cover with name and title printed in blue.

From the wife of the famous and influential writer Aldous Huxley, comes this very meditative album of relaxation music, with two side-long tracks: Your Favorite Flower and Rainbow Walk. Prepare your incense vase!

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Hydraulic Raisins

Personnel:

- RANDY BARNES vcls, rhythm gtr
- DAN BRAYMER drms
- JOHN GERODINI bs
- LARRY OXENHAM ld gtr

ALBUM:

1. Wailin' In West Covina!! (Bacchus Archives BA 1128) 1998

NB: (1) CD retrospective which features The Hydraulic Raisins, The Rhythm Surfers and The Spectrums.

45:

1. Tragedy In Liverpool/The End (Spectrum) 196?

Prior to joining The Hydraulic Raisins, Dan Braymer had drummed for the Ella Jones Varsity Show, the Teen Charmers (an all-girl accordian band!), and several incarnations of bands fronted by Del Pierce, including The Knockouts, The Masked Marvels, and The Squares. In 1963, he hooked up with the Rhythm Surfers, an instrumental surf band that released 502/Big City Surfer on Daytona Records (D-6301).

Soon afterwords, Braymer formed the Spectrums, another instrumental band whose recordings have survived but were never officially released. Then, after the breakup of the Spectrums, Dan answered an ad for a local group based in Baldwin Park, California. After rejecting the name Hydraulic Kumquats(!), Braymer, Barnes Oxenham and Gerodoni decided on The Hydraulic Raisins.

The 'Raisins released one single on Spectrum Records (a label financed by Braymer's mother): Tragedy In Liverpool / The End. Tragedy... was yet another instrumental, whilst The End was folk rock.

Since The 'Raisins always taped their rehearsals, several recordings remained in the can. Now all but one of these, First Encounter, have been included on the Bacchus Archives CD. Two of the tracks, Travel The World and Mountain Dew were both used by the band as demos. In addition there's two group originals:- Smog Song (a clone of Barry McGuire's Eve Of Destruction delivered in a similar manner to the original) and Baby Boy; plus a version of The Rumblers' I Don't Need You No More, which was recorded with some serious attitude.

The complete Hydraulic Raisins / Rhythm Surfers / Spectrums story, of which the above is a summary, can be found in the liner notes to the Bacchus Archives CD.

(Mike Dugo)

Hydro Pyro

TOP

CD:

1. PSYCHEDELIC MOODS, PART 4: THE FINAL ACT (COL-CD-0653) 1995

NB: (1) is a retrospective, which also includes material by Deep.

From upstate New York, they resided in Greenwich Village for part of 1967. On 24th April 1967 they entered the Mercury Sound Studios to cut six mind expanding psychedelic numbers written by Deep members Mark Barkin and D. Blackhurst. None of the band were more than nineteen and they were heavily into acid. The six tracks:- The House of Yesterday, Id, Hydro-Pyro, Purple Floating, Snow Petals and Little Tln Soldier - sound like the Deep album and you'll find them all on Psychedelic Moods - Part Two, which has been reissued on CD. The retrospective CD above features 4-track remixes of the six tracks on Vol. 2 and adds one more - Man Who Shot Your Mother.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson)

Hysterical Society

TOP

45s:

1	Come With Me/I Know	(United Artists 50147)	1967
2	I Put A Spell On You/Summertime (Variations)	(Tipton 100)	Sept. 1968

A little behind the times down in Amarillo, Texas - their first 45 contains two fine chunky beat-punkers that have 1965 written across 'em. I Put A Spell... takes on a Doug Ingle and Iron Butterfly sound, with shades of light and heavy, doomy cathedral organ sounds and deep booming vocal. Summertime has a lighter jazzy feel (imagine Zombies meeting Vanilla Fudge). The band may have evolved out of The Hysterical Society Boys who issued another 45:- Funny Face/I Got Shot (EBR 620001) 1962?.

Compilation appearances have included: I Know on Incredible Sound Show Stories Vol. 8 and Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 9; and Come With Me on Basementsville! U.S.A..

(Max Waller)

Hysterics

Personnel posibly incl:

- D. DISMUKES

EP:

1. Won't Get Far/Everything's There/That's All She Wrote/Why Should You Treat Me This Way (Bing B-303) 1986

NB: (1) is a reissue. Its four tracks contain the band's two original 45s for Bing and Tottenham records.

45s:

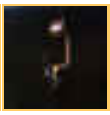
1. That's All She Wrote/Won't Get Far (Tottenham 500) 1965
2. Why Should You Treat Me This Way/Everything's There (Bing B-303) August 1965

A typical period punk band from the San Bernadine/Riverside area of California. Their finest moment was Everything's There. The lyrics were typical of the period - about the vocalist's infatuation with his girlfriend who's left him for another man.

The band also issued at least one 45 as The Love Ins, which coupled two of the above tracks: Everything's There and That's All She Wrote. The latter track has also been covered by Italy's Others on their 1995 EP Going Around With... .

Compilation coverage has so far included: Everything's There on Pebbles, Vol. 7 (and Vol. 8 on CD), Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1 and Pebbles (CD), Vol. 1; Everything's There and Won't Get Far on Boulders, Vol. 1; Won't Get Far on Pebbles, Vol. 9 (CD) and I Was A Teenage Caveman; That's All She Wrote on The '60s Choice, Vol. 2; That's All She Wrote on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 5 (CD) and Why Should You Treat Me This Way on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 6.

(Max Waller)



© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Id to Ilmo Smokehouse

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Id
- Id
- Id
- The Id
- The Ides
- The Ides of March
- The Ides of March
- Idle Few
- Idols
- The Iguanas
- The Iguanas
- The Iguanas
- The Ill Wind
- The Ill Winds
- Illinois Speed Press
- Illusion
- Illusion
- The Illusions
- The Illusions
- The Illusions
- The Illusions
- Ilmo Smokehouse

The Id

Personnel:

- PAUL ARNOLD A
- COLE A
- ELIJAH A
- + 2 A

ALBUM:

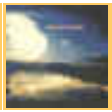
1. (A) THE INNER SOUNDS OF THE ID (RCA Victor LSP 3805) 1967

NB: (1) reissued on vinyl 199?

45s:

1. Short Circuit/Boil The Kettle, Mother (RCA 47-9136) 1967
2. Wild Times/The Rake (RCA 47-9195) 1967

NB: Both 45s are taken from the album.



Paul Arnold was clearly the brainchild behind this San Diego band and produced their Beatles - influenced album. The title track is a strange voyage into the mysticism of Eastern-influenced music, which is not wholly successful. It does contain one outstanding cut, though, Boil The Kettle, Mother, which features some fine fuzztone guitar work and demented vocal style and lyrics, making it one of the classic psychedelic punk recordings.

Strangely, three versions of tracks from the Inner Sounds album: Wild Times, Don't Think Twice and Boil The Kettle turn up on the exploito-psych album Give Me Some Lovin' by The Projection Company (Custom CS 1113) 1967. The Id-entical (sic) first two also reappear as by The Associated Soul Group on the Top Hits Of Today album from 1968. They sound close enough to the originals at times, especially Don't Think Twice, to make one wonder whether The Id were behind these and perhaps other exploito tracks/albums credited to faceless (Id-less?) or fictitious groups.

Compilation coverage has so far included: Boil The Kettle Mother on Mindblowers, Pebbles, Vol. 2 (CD) (ESD), Mayhem And Psychosis, Vol. 1 and Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 1; and The Rake on A Heavy Dose of Lyte Psych CD.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson)

I d

TOP

Personnel:

JAMES ALBERT	steel gtr	A
RALPH JENKINS	drms	A
KEVIN ORSON	bs	A
DAVID OICKLE	gtr, keyb'ds	A
GARY OICKLE	ld gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A) WHERE ARE WE GOING? (Aurora AR 1000) 1977

NB: (1) has had a limited repressing and has also been issued on CD (Flash 53) 199?.

This Maryland, Texas outfit is completely unconnected to the other Id(s). The album is spacey-sounding, largely instrumental and may be of interest to readers. It's full of feedback and sound effects. Most of both sides are taken up with the 30 minute long title track and the album was recorded in New York City in 1975.

Gary Oickle sadly died of ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease) in April 2000.

(Vernon Joynson/Deb Chasteen)

I d

TOP

45:

1 Rotten Apple / Listen To Me (Jolly Roger 101/2) Oct. 1966

NB: (1) first pressing, on a blue label, came with a pic sleeve.

Also from San Diego, Ca. but not the RCA bunch. This pre-pubescent quartet are pictured, in mournful contemplation around a headstone, on the rare 45 pic sleeve reproduced on the cover of Diggin' For Gold Vol. 7, which features their decent teen-punker Rotten Apple.

(Mike Markesich/Max Waller)

The Id

TOP

The Girls In The Garage compilation includes a previously unreleased track Those Ever-Lovin' Baby Blues, a raw bluesy sound from an all girl band.

The Ides

TOP

45:

1. Psychedelic Ride/Only Your Love (Ken-Del 5309) 196?

The Ides are thought to have came from Delaware. The above cut, which can be found on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 1, is one of the classics of the psychedelic punk genre with discordant guitar and tormented vocals.

The Ides of March

TOP

Personnel:

BOB BERGLAND	bs	A
MIKE BORCH	drms	A
LARRY MILLAS	gtr	A
JIM PETERIK	ld vcls, gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	IDEOLOGY	(Sundazed LP 5032)	2000

NB: (1) also issued on CD with the addition of the two unreleased tracks featured on the earlier Sundazed 45 and stereo versions of Hole In My Soul and Girls Don't Grow On Trees (Sundazed SC11067) 2000.

45s:

1(A)	Like It Or Lump It / No Two Ways About It	(Epitome 7195)	Jul 1965
2(A)	You Wouldn't Listen / I'll Take You Back	(Acetate)	1965
3(A)	You Wouldn't Listen / I'll Keep Searchin'	(Harlequin 660412)	May 1966
4(A)	You Wouldn't Listen/I'll Keep Searching	(Parrot 304)	Jun 1966 42
5(A)	Roller Coaster / Things Aren't Always What They Seem	(Parrot 310)	Sep 1966 92

6(A)	Sha-La-La-La-Lee / You Need Love	(Parrot 312)	Nov 1966
7(A)	My Foolish Pride / Give Your Mind Wings	(Parrot 321)	1967
8(A)	Hole In My Soul / Girls Don't Grow On Trees	(Parrot 326)	Feb 1968
9()	Nobody Loves Me / Strawberry Sunday	(Kapp 992)	1969

NB: (1) as Shon Dels Unlimited, just 200 pressed on their own label. (2) as The Shondels. (4) as I'des of March. There's also a reisue 45: I'm Gonna Say My Prayers / The Sun Ain't Gonna Shine Anymore (PS) (Sundazed S 142) 1999.

The great commercial success as a top notch horn-rock outfit and Peterik's subsequent career as soloist and front-man of Survivor, have meant that the early period of this Chicago outfit has been overlooked, so here's a brief rundown on the pre-Warner Bros releases.

Originally known as Shon Dels Unlimited, and briefly The Shondels, they quickly became one of Chicago's top teen bands. Nearly all their material was group originals written by Peterik. Their style for this period was a vibrant blend of Invasion-influenced beat and mod sounds, brimming with melodic hooks, ringing guitars and commercial appeal but with strong vocals and harmonies and a tough edge - the result is some classic mid-60s garagey pop.

The pre-Parrot releases are extremely hard to find these days but you can't go far wrong with the first three Parrot 45s. I'll Keep Searching, featured on Pebbles CD Vol. 7: Chicago Part 2, is great moody teenbeat not unlike The Knaves' The Girl I Threw Away. The classic Rollercoaster (Pebbles Vol. 10) is a stunning Who-style mod-pop-punker and the mod theme continues with an excellent cover of the Small Faces' hit Sha La La La Lee. All the flips on these are decent beat-garage-pop too.

The next 45 brings early signs of change - Give Your Mind Wings is a smooth beat-ballad and My Foolish Pride has the first influx of brass (though it's still good pop). Hole In My Soul is upbeat brassy pop but Girls Don't Grow On Trees returns to form - a fine 'Raiders-cum-Monkees style pop-punker. The transitionary Kapp 45 features the soft ballad Nobody Loves Me, that would not be outta place on an Association album, even with the brass. The flipside Strawberry Sunday is more interesting - their sole attempt at a heavy psych-pop sound with distorted guitar, which comes off okay.

After that, well ... to each his own and it's well documented elsewhere ... check out "An American Rock History Vol. 3: Chicago and Illinois" for starters.

The Sundazed pic sleeve 45 dusts off an unreleased track from 1967 and an "Ides one-take wonder" from 1968 with notes and memories from Jim Peterik.

The fourteen-track Ideology LP gathers the Parrot 45s tracks with the '65 Shon Dels Unlimited debut and The Shondels' acetate. The CD version adds the two unreleased tracks featured on the Sundazed 45 and stereo versions of Hole In My Soul and Girls Don't Grow On Trees.

(Max Waller / Tom Truszkowski)

The Ides of March2

TOP

45:

1. Life Has Been So Good/Playthings - 5 x 5 (No label #1460) 1966

A different outfit from Bay City, Michigan who issued this privately pressed 45 before changing their name to Blues Company.

Idle Few

Personnel:

- RON BENNETH
- RON KNOOP
- DAN McLEAN
- PAUL ROMINE
- RICK WEBSTER

45s:

1. Farmer John/Another World (Soma 1457) May 1966
2. Farmer John/? (Dunwich 127) 1966
3. Letter To Santa/Splishin'And Splashin' (Not Known) 1967

NB: (2) is reissue of (1), although unconfirmed, the flip for Dunwich version is presumably Another World.

This was one of Indianapolis' top mid-sixties bands, although they'd originally formed back in 1958 as The Kingsmen but changed their name after the similarly named Portland, Oregon outfit had their Louie, Louie hit. They had a fine live reputation and fronted many big name acts like The Byrds, Beach Boys and McCoys on live bills. Their cover of Farmer John (made famous by The Premiers) can also be heard on Hoosier Hotshots.

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson)

Idols

45:

1	True Luv Gone Astray / Haunted House	(Luv 201,306/7)	Jul 1967

NB: 'B' side as Ken Kerr (with The Idols).

An unknown New England outfit. Aram Heller describes True Luv... as "an excellent moody garage ballad" in his New England discography 'Till The Stroke Of Dawn'; it's on The New England Teen Scene Vol. 3 (LP) and the later CD version, New England Teen Scene. The demented Haunted House, with howls and manic vocals throughout, has been exorcised on Sick And Tired.

Aram notes that this is not the Idols from Rhode Island who issued 2 45s (on Dot and EZ) in the early 60s.

(Max Waller/Aram Heller)

The Iguanas

Personnel incl:

- A. MELINGER

45s:

1. Black Suit/Leaving You Baby (Valerie 107) 1966
2. I Can Only Give You Everything/Leaving You Baby (iguana 101) 1967

An Elevators - inspired outfit hailing from Baytown in Texas. Their best known song I Can Only Give You Everything has been well covered on compilations - Flashback, Vol. 2, Gone, Vol. 1 and there's an alternate recording on Houston Hallucinations - and it was one of the best psychedelic tracks to come out of the State. You'll also find Black Suit on Open Up Yer Door, Vol. 2 and I'm Leaving You Baby on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 17: Texas, Part Four. All three of their tracks can also be heard on Texas Psychedelia From The Sixties. Their stage act often featured a live Iguana! Metinger later played with Endle St. Cloud.

The Iguanas

TOP

Personnel incl:

- JIM McLAUGHLIN gtr, vcl A B
- JIM OSTERBERG (aka IGGY POP) drms A B
- SAM SWISHER sax, perc A B
- NICK KOLOKITHAS gtr, vcl B
- DON SWICKERATH bs B

ALBUMS:

1. (A/B) JUMPIN' WITH THE IGUANAS (CD) (Fuller Bosom 36024036) 1995
2. (A/B) THE IGUANAS (LP) (Norton ED-251) 1996

45:

1. (B) Mona/I Don't Know Why (Forte/Cosa Grande 201) 1965

Formative Michigan garage outfit whence Iggy got his moniker before going on to cult status with The Stooges. Formed by Iggy and Jim McLaughlin whilst in the 9th grade at high school in Ann Arbor, Michigan, they played their first gig in '63 at a school dance. Within a few months Don Swickerath and Nick Kolokithas were recruited, and The Iguanas began building up a local following, playing at frat parties, high school dances and teen clubs.

In the Summer of '65 they became house band at the Club Ponytail in Harbor Springs, playing their own sets and also backing other acts - sharing the stage with the likes of The Kingsmen, The Guess Who, The Shangri-Las, Bobby Goldsboro, The Four Tops, The Reflections and others. The same year, they also went into United Sound Recording Studio, and put three tracks down onto tape: Mona - their trademark and signature of live gigs, plus two band compositions, I Don't Know Why and Again And Again. The band released two of these on their own Forte label, and Mona received airplay in Detroit, Ann Arbor region.

The following year Iggy left to join the Prime Movers (where he was nicknamed 'Iggy'), and The Iguanas continued with a new drummer, playing clubs around Boston and New York. Columbia expressed an interest in the band, but when that failed to come to fruition they went their separate ways in 1967.

The Jumpin With The Iguanas CD retrospective, contains the three cuts recorded at the Winter '64/Spring '65 session at United Sound, plus material from a 1963 three-piece acetate, and 1964 rehearsals. Complete with photo's, memrobilia, and sleeve-notes by Jim McLaughlin. For vinyl fans, there's also a similar collection on Norton.

Both sides of the 45 can also be found on A Journey To Tyme, Vol. 3, Mona has also got an airing on Echoes In Time, Vol. 2 and the unreleased Again And Again appeared on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 19.

(Max Waller)

The Iguanas

Personnel:

VIC DIAZ ?	A
TONY MINICHIELLO ?	A
MANUEL SANCHEZ ?	A

45s:

1	This Is What I Was Made For/?	(Dunhill 4004)	1965
2	Meet Me Tonight Little Girl/?	(Dunhill ?)	1965

Another Sloan/Barry creation, who released two folk/pop singles. The Iguanas were probably the Matadors, a group who was previously working with Jan Berry at Colpix and on Jan and Dean records.

This Is What I Was Made For has been compiled on Penny Arcade, Dunhill Folk Rock, Vol. 2.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Ill Wind

Personnel:

- KEN FRANKEL ld gtr, banjo A
- RICHARD GRIGGS rhythm gtr, vcls A
- CAREY MANN bs, vcls A
- DAVID KINSMAN drms A
- CONNY DEVANNEY vcls A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FLASHES (ABC S 641) 1968

NB. (1) has had a limited repressing, and is also available on CD with six bonus tracks (Afterglow AFT 012) 1995.

45s:

1. In My Dark World/Walkin'And Singin' (ABC 11107) 1968
2. In My Dark World/High Flying Bird (ABC 11107) 1968

Originally known as The Prophets, with a singer called Judy Bradbury, this band were originally from Wellsley, Massachusettes but based themselves in Boston. Clearly, a hippie as opposed to a punk band, their album is a fine one, with their sound moulded by Conny Devanney's crystal clear vocals. On tracks like Dark World, her voice is beautiful, while on others, notably the widely recorded High Flying Bird, and Hung Up Chick and Walkin' And Singin', it blends in beautifully with that of her male counterpart, Richard Griggs. Also of note is the unusual People Of The Night and the sleepy Full Cycle. This album is strongly recommended if you ever come across it. The band split up in December 1968.

Compilation coverage has included: Full Cycle on Baubles, Vol. 1; In My Dark World and High Flyin' Bird on Bosstown Sound - 1968 (2-CD set).

The Ill Winds

TOP

45s:

1. So Be On Your Way (I Won't Cry)/Fear Of The Rain (Reprise 0423) 1965
2. I Idolize You/A Lefter (Reprise 0492) 1966

Fear Of The Rain can be heard on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 8. Far from being a psychedelic outfit this was actually the Chantays under a pseudonym, a long way trom Pipeline!

Illinois Speed Press

TOP

Personnel:

- MIKE ANTHONY organ, piano A
- PAUL COTTON gtr, vcls A B C
- KAL DAVID gtr, vcls A B
- ROB LEWINE bs A
- FRED PAGE drms A
- JOHN URIBE gtr, vcls C
- FRANK BARTOLI bs
- FRED PAPPALARDO drms

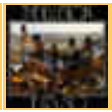
ALBUMS:

1. (A) ILLINOIS SPEED PRESS (Columbia CS 9792) 1969 144
2. (B) DUET (Columbia CS 9976) 1970 -

NB: (1) has been reissued.

45s:

1. Right On Time/Night People (Roulette 4687) 1969
2. Get In The Wind/Get In The Wind, Pt. II (PS) (Columbia 4-44564) 1969
3. Sadly Out Of Place/Country Dumplin' (Columbia 4-45756) 1970



This Chicago-based quintet was formed in February 1968 by Paul Cotton and featured colleague Mike Anthony, whom Cotton had played with in another significant Chicago outfit, The Rovin' Kind, and Kal David, another important

Chicago musician, after his spell in H.P. Lovecraft. The songs on their albums ranged from hard rock to more mainstream rock with country influences and from blues towards folk-rock, very often with psychedelic references and some fine fuzz guitars.

The first album met with some commercial success, peaking at No 144 in the Album Charts during 1969. Duet failed to consolidate on this and the band, by now based in California, went their separate ways in late 1971.

David went on to play for Fabulous Rhinestones and Cotton to Poco, who were to become flagbearers for the country-rock movement. Earlier Fred Page had left for California where he played for various LA-based bands.

Illusion

TOP

Personnel:

- CHUCK ADLER bs A
- RICHIE CERNIGLIA gtr A
- MIKE MANISCALCO gtr, keyb'ds A
- MICHAEL RICCIARDELLA drms A
- JOHN VINCI vcls A

ALBUMS:

1. (A) ILLUSION (Steed 37003) 1969 69
2. (A) TOGETHER (Steed 37005) 1969
3. (A) IF IT'S SO (Steed 37006) 1970

NB: (1) to (3) also released in France by Dot. All of their albums have been reissued on CD on TRC, together with an album called Madonna Blue.

45s:

1. Did You See Her Eyes?/Falling In Love (Steed 712) 1969 -
2. Run, Run, Run/I Love You, Yes I Do (Steed 717) 1969 -
3. Did You See Her Eyes?/Falling In Love (Steed 718) 1969 32
4. How Does It Feel?/Once In A Lifetime (Steed 721) 1969 110
5. Together/Don't Push It (Steed 722) 1969 80
6. Let's Make Each Other Happy/Beside You (Steed 726) 1970 98
7. Collection/Wait A Minute (Steed 732) 1971

NB: (5) also released in France with a picture sleeve (Dot 2C00 690963) 1969.

An Italian - U.S. band, based in Long Island, New York. who played heavy rock with some psychedelic influence. The band were formed by Bruce Brandt, who had also worked with Faine Jade. They enjoyed some minor chart success, and their albums were produced by the famous Jeff Barry.

Michael Ricciardella went on to play in Barnaby Bye (1973) and in 1977 Carniglia and Vinci formed Network.

You can also find I Love You, Yes I Do on Psychedelic Crown Jewels, Vol. 1 (CD).

Illusion

Personnel:

- WENDELL ING keyb'ds A
- HANK LEANDRO gtr A
- DENNY MAEDA gtr A
- GREGG NUTT drms A
- BUTCH O'SULLIVAN bs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ILLUSION (Sinergia SR 7654) 1974 R1/2

A local Hawaii folk/rural album. It's sought - after mostly for its stunning sleeve design. Not recommended musically. (Clark Faville)

The Illusions

45:

1. City Of People/Wait Til The Summer (Michelle 001-XX) 1966

A four piece from Detroit, Michigan. They started out as a frat band in 1964, but the following year got into the garage sound influenced by the likes of The Stones, The Pretty Things etc. They also got to appear on 'Milky's Party Time'- a TV show for kids. Check out City Of People on either Michigan Mayhem Vol. 1 (CD), Glimpses, Vol. 1 or Back From The Grave, Vol. 5. It's a fine example of the garage genre - with great lyrics, good vocals and some catchy tinny guitar. The flip, Wait Till The Summer is also featured on Love Is A Sad Song Vol. 1.

The Illusions

45s:

1	I Know/Take My Heart	(ACP 375)	1966
2	I Know/Take My Heart	(Columbia 43700)	1966

A different outfit from Palatka, Florida whose disc got picked up for nationwide release by Columbia. I Know, a folky pop-punk affair, can be heard on Midwest vs The Rest, Pebbles, Vol. 11 and Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1.

The only clue to the identities of band members might be the composer credit of Gardner, Touchman, Hewett, Williams.

(Max Waller)

The Illusions

Personnel?

- J.DOUGHERTY
- D.GILLON

45:

1. Rain, Shine, Or Snow/Shadows Of You (Chantain L-193-1/2) 1968

Yet another Illusions, who produced an above-average garage-beat ballad and an excellent garage folk-rocker. The latter appears on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2 CD. The above personnel, from the song credits, is listed in the hope of confirmation of their locale - believed to be Birmingham, Alabama.

(Max Waller)

The Illusions

45s:

1. Impossibility/Her Own Way (Cha Cha 744) 1966
2. I've Had Enough/Boy-Girl (Cha Cha 752) 1966

Another Chicago area group this time with two average beat-popsters on the second 45. (Max Waller)

Ilmo Smokehouse

Personnel:

GERRY GABEL	keyb'ds	A
CRAIG MOORE	bs	A
SLINK RAND	gtr	A
DENNIS TIEKEN	drms	A
FRED TIEKEN	vcls	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	ILMO SMOKEHOUSE (w/poster)	(Beautiful Sounds BS-3002)	1970
2(A)	ILMO SMOKEHOUSE (remix of above)	(ROULETTE SR-3002)	1971

NB: (2) is a remixed issue of (1).

Formed in 1969 by the Tieken brothers from Quincy, Illinois. They'd previously been in the long-lived Freddy Tieken and The Rockers who'd been going at it since the late '50s. As The Gonn disintegrated in 1968, first Slink Rand and then Craig Moore joined 'The Rockers. Craig:- "Fred changed the name to The American Music Band, stealing it sort of from The Electric Flag. We played EVERYWHERE... Then when the horn guys all quit, we became Ilmo Smokehouse, heavy as hell, anti-war, pro-drug hippie all the way. When that eventually ended Dennis Slink and I became 'Smokehouse' as a really heavy progressive trio. Later on we had Micki Free on guitar (later with L.A. soul group Shalamar). We wore glitter and make-up before Kiss, but they made it we didn't. It's all nuts, convoluted, insane,

I can't believe I did all of this crap!"

Their album was recorded in Memphis at 'Beautiful Sound' Studio, owned by Dan Penn of Box Tops etc fame (as a songwriter producer). He engineered part of the session, with his partner Jim Johnson.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Image to Index

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Image
- The Immigrants
- Impact
- Impacts/Impact Express
- (Fabulous) Impacts
- Impact 5 (aka Impact IV)
- Impala Syndrome
- The Impalas
- Thee Impalas
- The Implicits
- Improper Bostonians
- In
- The In Crowd
- Inca
- Incredible Broadside Brass Bed Band
- Indescribably Delicious
- Index

I m a g e

TOP

Personnel:

- BARRY BRYAN ld gtr
- JERRY DYER bs, vcls
- JAMES DAWSON vcls
- ROGER PARKHAM drms
- TIM JACOBSMEYER keyb'ds

The compilation Dallas 1971 Part 1: A New Hi (Tempo 2) 1971 features two songs, The Out Station and Everybody's Laughin', by this Dallas band. Both are laid back with nice guitar and keyboards.

T h e I m m i g r a n t s

TOP

Personnel:

- RAY LEAVITT ld gtr A
- DAVE McKAY bs A
- NICK PERRON drms A
- DICK REILLY vcls, gtr A
- ED REILLY keyb'ds A

ALBUM:

1. (A) IMMIGRANTS (Starburst SRA 9837) 1966 R4

NB: (1) reissued in 1994 as The Immigrants '66.

45:

1. Time To Say Goodbye / ?? (Starburst 3121) 1966

A quintet of students based at Kansas Wesleyan University in Salina, Kansas though they hailed from New Jersey, Brooklyn and Staten Island, New York. More in the prep-rock than garage-rock genre they turn in some competent if uninspiring covers of House Of The Rising Sun, Run For Your Life, She's Not There, Keep A Knockin' and a Kansas City/Route 66 medley. Influenced by U.S. rock 'n' roll and instrumental groups plus the U.K. beat invasion sounds, they could be mistaken for a U.K. outfit. No sign of a fuzzbox and their most garagey offering 2.25 Blues has been compiled on Oil Stains.

(Max Waller)

Impact

TOP

45:

1. My World Fell Down/Could You Love Me (MGM K13726) 1967

An orchestrated pop version of the pop-psych classic immortalised by Sagittarius. If this outfit had made more of an impact, we'd probably know something about them. (Max Waller)

Impacts / Impact Express

TOP

Personnel:

- RON BALDWIN vcls AB
- BRUCE FAROUHAR ld gtr AB
- BILL UHLIG bs AB
- DAN 'SPYDER' WHITE keyb'ds AB
- HENRY BRUSCO drms A
- STEVE GREEN drms B

45s:

1. A Little More/Leavin' Here (NWI 2660) 1965
2. Don't You Dare/Green Green Field (Lavender 2005) 1966
3. I'm Gonna Change The World/ You Get Your Kicks (Lavender 2006) 1967
4. Sunshine Day/Don't You Dare (Lavender 2007) 1967
5. A Little Love/Fly With Me (Lavender 2008) 1968

A Rainier, Oregon band who produced some enjoyable tunes - more pop than punk but with that solid Pacific Northwest beat. Baldwin and White had previously been with The Chessmen and this outfit would change its name to Impact Express after the second 45.

Compilation appearances have included:- Don't You Dare on Tymes Gone By; Don't You Dare and Green Green Fields on Bad Vibrations Vol. 2.

(Max Waller)

(Fabulous) Impacts

TOP

45s:

1. Get Out Of My Life Woman/Tell Me (OS) (Dads 7-8001) 1967
2. A Thousand Years/Cry Cry (PS) (Dads 7-8002) 1967

Came out of Omaha, Nebraska. Both 45s were pressed in Minneapolis.

Impact 5 (aka Impact IV)

TOP

45:

1. Island Of Love/Riptide (Agar 7171) 1965

Riptide can also be heard on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 6. The band came out of Minneapolis, Minnesota and the 45 is now quite sought-after. The band were also known as Impact IV.

Impala Syndrome

TOP

Personnel:

BERNARDO BALL	A B
FRANCISCO BELISARIO	A B X
RODOLFO MARQUEZ	A B X
EDGARDO QUINTERO	A B X
NERIO QUINERO	A B

HENRY STEPHEN	A
G. BUSNER		X
F. CHANDRA		X

ALBUM:

1(X)	IMPALA SYNDROME	(Parallax P-4002)	1969

NB: (1) also issued Venezuela (Palacio/Parallax LP - 7565), also later issued in Spain (Diresa/Parallax DLP 1053) 1973. (1) has been reissued on CD. As Los Impala, they also had a Spanish only release: Estos Son (Marter M 30-056) 1968 R1 and an Argentinian LP The Impala And Their Music (Quinto Q 10.005) 1966

EP:

1	CADA VEZ + 3	(Sono Play SBP 10004)	1966

NB: (1) Spanish only release as Los Impalas.

Originally from Venezuela, where they were known as Los Impala, this group relocated to Madrid, Spain in 1965. After a few months, their singer Henry Stephens left to pursue a solo career, recording an EP as Lord Henry Con Los Impala.

After a few years the band moved to Chicago, releasing their Impala Syndrome album which is well worth checking out. An effective blend of melodic, laid back songs (Love Grows A Flower, Land Of No Time and the superb Eastern-influenced finale, Run (Don't Look Behind)) combined with fuzz guitar numbers like Too Much Time and Let Them Try. New Love Time is also rather catchy but Leave, Eve sounds unashamedly like The Rascals' Its Wonderful.

The band recorded other EPs and 45s as Los Impala, not shown in the above discography.

(Vernon Joynson / Clark Faville / Marcelo Lilienheim / Maria Grossi)

The Impalas

TOP

45:

1. Spoonful/Talkin' About You (Feature 817R-107) 1966

This Milwaukee Wisconsin band are rumoured to have had some connection to Sam McClure and The Legends. Their version of Spoonful - a raw bluesy one with a good snotty vocal has resurfaced on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 15: Wisconsin, Part 2.

(Max Waller)

Thee Impalas

TOP

45:

1	Band Of Gold / ?	(Whittier 502)	1966
2	Come On Up / Oh Yeah	(Whittier 506)	1967

From L.A.'s vibrant East Side scene, Thee Impalas released two 45s including a stomping cover of The Young Rascals' Come On Up, featured on Basementsville! U.S.A.. Band Of Gold was also compiled back in 1969 on the double-LP set East Side Revue (Rampart 3303).

(Max Waller)

The Implicits

45:

1. Give Me Justice/She's Alright (Atoll 100) 1965

This California outfit's eminently forgetable punk screamer Give Me Justice can also be heard on Riot City!.

(Max Waller)

Improper Bostonians

Personnel incl:

DICK JEFFREY	ld gtr	A
PAT O'CONNOR	drms	A
PETER O'CONNOR	gtr	A
DAVID PETERSON	bs	A

45s:

1	How Many Tears/I Still Love You	(Minuteman 207)	1966
2	Set You Free This Time/Come To Me Baby	(Minuteman 208)	1967
3	Out Of My Mind/You Made Me A Giant	(Minuteman 209)	1967
4	Gee I'm Gonna Miss You/Victim Of Environment	(Minuteman 211)	1967
5	Gee I'm Gonna Miss You/Victim Of Environment	(Coral 62453)	1967

This outfit were the houseband at the Ebb-Tide, Revere Beach, Revere, Massachusetts, when Minuteman signed them up and paid for them to do a ten hour recording session in New York. Musically they played a hard Byrds sound. Indeed Set You Free This Time was actually a Byrds song. You'll find this along with both sides of their first 45 on Bay State Rock, Vol. 1 and Victim Of Environment is on Leaving It All Behind.

In

45s:

1. Just Give Me Time / You're ... (Sonny 1004) c1966
2. In The Midnight Hour/Just Give Me Time (Hickory 1413) 1966

An unknown (probably from Tennessee) combo whose live frat-party rendition of the perennial Midnight Hour graces Follow That Monster. However it's the uncompiled flip that's the winner here - a great riffin' fuzz-punker. (Max Waller).

The In Crowd

45:

1	Big Cities/Inside Out	(Abnak 121)	1967

Both sides of this 45 were produced by Dale Hawkins and the group reputedly sounds like another Abnak group, the Five Americans. The promo copies were pressed on yellow vinyl.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Inca

See Maitreya Kali.

Incredible Broadside Brass Bed Band

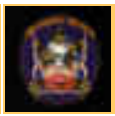
Personnel:

VICTOR BERNADONI	drms	A
MARK BIEBER	washboard, blues harp, water	A
BILL COMEAU	vcls, gtr, blues harp	A
JERRY DEVOKATIS	ld gtr	A
PETE LEVIN	banjo, piano, kazoo	A
THELONIUS LIPSCHITZ	bass skunk	A
CRAZY MAX	bs, bass frogaphone	A
PAUL OSSALA	bs	A
VINCENT dePAUL		A
LINUS PASTERNAK	ld gtr, noises	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE GREAT GRIZZLY BEAR HUNT	(Poison Ring PRR 2240)	1971

45:



1	Little Dead Surfer Girl/?	(Poison Ring PR-717)	1971

An album of good-timey folk-blues-hippie-rock and plain wackiness by a bunch of guys from Connecticut. For those who got lost on their way to Woodstock but still had a great trip.

The band was lead by Bill Comeau, who wrote most of their songs and also had a solo career.

(Max Waller/Stephane Rebeschini)

Indescribably Delicious

Personnel:

MARK COHEN	drums, vcls	A
JIM CONROY	vcls	A
ART JOHNSON	gtr, vcls	A
STEVEN SENCHIA	bs, vcls	A
BRUCE TURNER	ld gtr, vcls	A
(JACK BIELAN	keyb'ds	A)
(GREG MUNFORD	ld gtr, keyb'ds, vcls	A)
(GARY SOLOMON	sax, trumpet, vcls	A)

NB: Personnel shown in parenthesis weren't members of Indescribably Delicious. See main text for explanation.

ALBUM:

1 (A)	GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT!	(All American AA-5743-LPD)	1969

NB:(1) Test pressing only, containing three tracks by Indescribably Delicious, with the remainder consisting of a later session including their vocalist Jim Conroy. (1) pirated as Indescribably Delicious (Fanny 20.08.92) 1994 and reisued "officially" on vinyl and CD (Akarma AK 046) 1999.

45:

1	Baby I Love You/ Brother, Where Are You	(All American)	1969

Although Indescribably Delicious were a real band, their history and 'album' has been the subject of much speculation, with claims to be either a Strawberry Alarm Clock offshoot and/or to feature members of All-American label-mates Big Brother (w/Ernie Joseph). The truth, however, is even stranger than fiction.

The band formed in 1965 in Torance, California, when Jim Conroy and Bruce Turner of garage band The Bountymen got invited to jam with another local band called Darkwaters. At some point in the jam, Jim and Bruce played with Darkwaters bassist and drummer, Mark Cohen and Steve Senchia. Jim:- "For the first time we all felt something magic and the next day quit our bands to form a new one. For a few weeks we didn't have a name, and then a friend suggested Indescribably Delicious and we went for it. Everyone ended up calling us the I.D. but Indescribably Delicious it was."

"From the start the band had an impact, our first gig was a battle of the bands which we won and our reputation grew quickly, to the point where we were soon the most popular band in our area. If there was a dance and the I.D. played it was packed. We then started to travel outside our area and usually got the same reaction. There was just something about the chemistry of the five of us together that created excitement. We couldn't even go to the local shopping malls because the girls would scream and chase us. It was our own mini-mania scene. Our manager, Ray Torrence, was just a kid down the block but one day we were approached by a guy named Gary Solomon (aka Gary Solo) who had Hollywood connections and we decided to go with him."

"He was kind of a schister but he got us good gigs all over and made us polish up the act. We ended up being a well-oiled machine sometimes playing three different places in one night with our roadcrew going ahead of us to set up the next gig. The band performed with a light show with strobes and we put on a real show that most bands didn't have. Imagine a cross between James Brown and the Who. We played the Casey Kasem dances, traveled to Las Vegas and San Diego, opening for: The Seeds, Music Machine, Thee Midniters, Jimmy Reed, Steppenwolf, Buffalo Springfield, The Turtles and The Yardbirds. When we played in our hometown there were riots and we had to have police escorts a couple of times. At the time Bruce and I were 18, Art was 17 and Steve and Marc were 16."

"Then Gary told us we were going to record for Bill Holmes' All-American Records, the Strawberry Alarm Clock label. We went to Hollywood and recorded Brother Were Are You, Baby I Love You, and The Kids Are Allright. We were so green and naive and they didn't even let us in the mixdown session."

"Then came the 45 of Brother, Where Are You and Baby I Love You. We never even meet Bill Holmes or had a contract when they started playing Brother on KRLA a bit. By the way, that silly noise at the end of Brother was not our idea. Anyway it didn't become a hit but I got to hear myself on L.A.'s biggest radio station. We continued playing and our musicianship got better, but times were a-changin quickly."

"Sometime afterwards I was asked to come up to Hollywood and sing on a demo that the lead singer of the Alarm Clock and Gary Solo were making. I agreed to do it even though I didn't think the songs were very good, as I saw it as a chance to get some more recording experience. Bill Holmes had nothing to do with writing those songs, although he's credited as such on the Akarma release. Afterwards they made a small test pressing of the tunes and also put the three I.D. tunes on it. They gave me two of the test pressings, which I played for the guys and we all thought it was pretty funny. The tunes were bad, the playing was bad, and my singing was done in one pass take it or leave it. I didn't really know the songs very well at all. The test pressing was jokingly called the Conroy and we never listened to it again."

"About a year after we had done our recording Bruce Turner got the call to be the lead guitar player for the Strawberry Alarm Clock and decided to take it. At the time The Strawberry Alarm Clock had split in two and Bill Holmes had the lead singer with one band and the other members had another. Bruce joined the one with Bill Holmes and the lead singer which lasted about 6 months when the two factions sued each other and ended up in the courts for the next 15 years. So, that's what happened to the Strawberry Alarm Clock and I'm sure Bill Holmes had a lot to do with that. As for the I.D., after Bruce left we broke up and that was that. It was the fall of 1968."

So, the Indescribably Delicious 'album', isn't quite what quite what it's been rumoured to be over the last few years.

The two reissues feature the same tracks, although Work Song and No Time To Answer on the 'Fanny' release are titled It's Been A Hard Hard Day and The World Is Ended Right Now on the Akarma version. The music is a mixed bag, from melodic psych-pop (Big Ben, Is It Love, The World Is Ended Right Now) which will certainly appeal to fans of Strawberry Alarm Clock, through to heavy fuzz, psychy pop-rock with occasionally soulful vocals (It's Been A Hard Hard Day, Take Me For One Last Ride) and onto full-blown brassy soul-pop (Jerry Ragavoy's Baby I Love You).

Incidentally, Greg Munford, who was also on the "Conroy" session does get a backing vocals credit on Big Brother Ernie Joseph's solo LP An All American Emperor, and also gets writer credits on a couple of tracks. The mystery is not quite complete however, as Brother, Where Are You (which we now know as being by the real Indescribably Delicious) also crops up as the Big Brother 45 (All-American 5718-AA), and is the EXACT same track right down to the spacey outro...

Today, Jim Conroy is still a musician and has two recent CD releases of his own:- "I mostly play Jazz now and am still passionate about making music and hope to be for the rest of my life. Bruce and Marc are also still both musicians and we talk frequently."

As for the reissues, the band are still waiting for any kind or royalty or contract from Bill Holmes...

(Max Waller / Vernon Joynson with thanks to Jim Conroy)

Index

Personnel:

1. JOHN FORD IV ld gtr, ld vcls A B
2. GARY FRANCIS bs (gtr) A B
3. JIM VALICE drms A B
4. TOM BALLEW bs B

ALBUM:

1. (A) INDEX aka "BLACK ALBUM" (DC Records) 1967 R4
2. (B) INDEX aka "RED ALBUM" (DC Records) 1968 R6

NB: (1) reissued in a new sleeve as Voxx 200.023 (1984). (2) reissued on Sears (GRF 71413). (1) and (2) reissued on CD as Anthology, (Top Jimmy Productions 1995) 1995 together with nine previously unreleased tracks recorded in 1969.

From Grosse Pointe, Michigan, originals of their albums are extremely rare. Their first discordant acid-soaked folk album is well worth a listen. It opens with the band's own version of the Byrds', Eight Miles High, includes some interesting echo fuzztone guitar work on Turquoise Feline, their own arrangements of the traditional song John Riley and You Keep Me Hanging On, and three fuzztone instrumentals, Shock Wave, Feedback and Israeli Blues.

Their second album on the DC label, is musically very different to their first. They were obviously quite into the early (pre-disco) Bee Gees because it included covers of I Can't See Nobody and New York Mining Disaster 1941, as well as a rehash of The Byrds' classic Eight Miles High and Cream's Spoonful. This version of Eight Miles High and Turquoise Feline were also on the album issued by Voxx.

When Tom Ballew joined the band, Gary Francis switched from bass to guitar - this expanded line-up also recorded the bonus material included on the Anthology retrospective CD, which dates from 1969. The CD was produced and compiled by Jim Valice.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

Indian Puddin' and Pipe to The Interpreters

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- Indian Puddin' and Pipe
- The Individuals
- The Individuals
- Industrial Image
- The Inexpensive Handmade Look
- The Infinite Pyramid
- Infinite Staircase
- Influence
- The Ingredients
- The Initial Shock
- The In-Keepers
- The Inmates
- Inn Crowd
- Inner Dialogue
- Inner Lite
- Inner Light
- Inner Scene
- Innocence
- Innovation
- The Innsmen
- The Insane
- The Insect Trust
- The In-Sex
- Inside Experience
- The Inside Out
- International Brick
- Internal Canitery Sin
- Interns
- The Interns
- The Interpreters

Indian Puddin and Pipe

Personnel:

- PAT CRAIG keyb'ds
- KRIS LARSON gtr, vcls
- DAVE BURKE bs
- JEFF LABRACHE drms
- STEVE MACK ld gtr
- LYDIA MARENO vcls

Originally from Seattle and known as West Coast Natural Gas, they relocated to San Francisco in 1968. It's a great pity that they did not release an album since their four tracks, Hashish, Water Or Wine, Beyond This Place and Two's A Pair, on The 5th Annual Pipedream album are arguably the best in that collection. They are well worth investigating and if you can't obtain a copy of that album, Hashish is on the Magic Cube, The Acid Dreams Testament (CD) and Acid Dreams - The Complete Collection compilations and Water Or Wine is on Gathering Of The Tribe. They do not appear to have released any 45s, although they did make further recordings, including a 45 as West Coast Natural Gas.

They were one of the bands managed by Matthew Katz, along with Moby Grape, It's A Beautiful Day, Tripsichord (Music Box) and others. Katz operated at least three groups by each of these monickers, so three concerts could be occurring simultaneously by "one" group! In fact, one of the "phony" Moby Grape bands played in Napa in 1967 and were booed off the stage.

The band that recorded the tracks on the Fifth Pipedream - San Francisco Sound Vol. 1 various artists compilation, weren't in fact the "original" Indian Puddin' and Pipe, but today they are thought of as the definitive band due to the above album. In fact, whilst they were still known as West Coast Natural Gas, they played a gig in Seattle with the "original" Indian Puddin' and Pipe before the original band split-up with Katz and became Easy Chair. Reputedly, there was a third L.A. version of the band, put together by Katz to play gigs down South.

After their demise, Lydia Mareno went on to play with Stoneground and Craig and Mack later played with Pipe. Jeff LaBrache had earlier played with The City Limits and Rocky and His Friends.

Recently Matthew Katz's Then And Now Vol. 1 has compiled Planetary Road, and Vol. 2 includes Shadowlarks.

(Vernon Joynson/Clark Faville)

The Individuals

45:

1. I Really Do/? (Raven 2018) 196?

I Really Do can now be found on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 5. It was the only known 45 by this Danville, Virginia band.

The Individuals

Personnel:

1. RENO FRANZE vcls
2. ANDY CAHN farfisa organ
3. LARRY KRAMER gtr
4. SANDY REINER drums

EP:

1. Sky Is Falling/Satisfaction/She's GoneAway/Monkey On My Back (Moxie M-1028) 198?

The Moxie EP, subtitled Johnny Farfisa's Greatest Hits, comprises four tracks from 1965 by this NY combo. Some or all of these were apparently recorded in New Rochelle for an unreleased LP. Musically we're talking frat-garage with a solid sound and reedy keyboards. Highlights are the moody and introverted Monkey... with its wailing harmonica and She's Gone Away, a dynamic fuzzy punk instrumental. An unreleased 1966 version of She's Gone Away, supplied by Andy Cahn, can be heard on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2.

The band later evolved into The Euphorian River, who are reported to have had a very heavy organ and guitar laden sound.

(Max Waller / Roger Maglio)

Industrial Image

45:

1. Living In The Middle Ages/Put My Mind At Ease (Epic 5-10096) 1966

Folk-rockers from Texas with a lone stab at stardom. (Max Waller)

The Inexpensive Handmade Look

45:

1. Ice Cream Man/What Good is Up (Brunswick 55334) 1967

This seems to have been a one-off venture on Brunswick. You'll also find the flip, a decent psych/garage number built around a repetitive riff, on the Psychedelic Disaster Whirl, 30 Seconds Before The Calico Wall (CD) and The Psychedelic Experience, Vol. 1 compilations.

The Infinite Pyramid

On A Windowsill, taken from an unreleased acetate by this band held by Rembrandt Records, dating from 1968, has been included on the Chicago Garage Band Greats and on The Cicadelic '60s Vol.3 (CD) compilations.

Infinite Staircase

45:

1. Margaret/Long Hair (Black Sheep 1337) 1967

A flower-power outfit from San Antonio in Texas, The 'A' side of their sole vinyl offering can also be heard on Flashback, Vol. 4.

Influence

Personnel:

JACK GEISINGER	bs, gtr	A B
ANDREW KEILER	vcls	A B
LOUIS MCKELVEY	gtr	A B
DAVE WYNNE	drms	A B
BOB O ISLAND (BOB PARKIN)	keyb'ds	B
WALTER ROSSI	gtr	B

ALBUM:

1(B)	INFLUENCE	(ABC ABCS 630)	1968

Formed as a quartet in June 1967, this act have an interesting and almost global pedigree. English-born singer Andrew Keiller moved firstly to South Africa in 1964 and together with Irish-born guitarist Louis Campbell McKelvey played in the Johannesburg R&B outfit The Upsetters. McKelvey left this act in late '65, to join The A-Cads, although he was too late to appear on their album, despite being pictured on the sleeve. Andrew Keiller too left The Upsetters, recording a solo album in late 1965 before moving to Montreal in late 1966, along with McKelvey and fellow A-cad, Hank Squires.

In Canada, Squires moved into production working with The Haunted, amongst others, and McKelvey briefly played with Les Sinners and Our Generation before reuniting with Keiller in Influence. Czech-born bass player Geisinger came in from the Soul Mates and English-born drummer Dave Wynne was recruited from The Haunted.

To complete the line-up, two other former Soul Mates, Rossi and Island joined after playing on a Wilson Pickett tour in June 1967. The band then relocated to the US...

Their album makes it easy to understand why they chose their name, as it is more or less a hodgepodge of styles without much consistency. Many satirical elements betray the strong influence of Zappa, on whom they clearly lean too heavily. Nevertheless their love of discordant riffs and 'wrong' modulations works brilliantly on at least two tracks: We Are Here, a sour masterpiece on lost love and Natural Impulse. Lyrically Zappa is omnipresent as becomes hearable in the choice of admittedly transitional subject-matter such as sodomy (on County Fair) and the longing of the gentry to mingle with the peasants (on Sir Archibald). Parodies on The Marcels, Little Richard and the hippie-movement in general sound dated, although they probably were modern in 1968. Worth trying, but don't pay too much.

After Influence broke up, McKelvey and Geisinger played in the Canadian band Milkwood. Geisinger later left Milkwood for Luke and The Apostles. Rossi meanwhile, played with The Buddy Miles Express briefly before joining Geisinger in Luke and The Apostles.

Walter Rossi later played with Charlee, Moonquake and Bombers. Jack Geisinger also later played with Moonquake, Rockers and Crescent Street Singers. Bob Parkin committed suicide in 1970.

Walter Rossi is also rumoured to have played on an album by Thee Muffins in 1966.

(Nick Warburton / Marcel Koopman / Vernon Joynson)

The Ingredients

TOP

45:

1. Hey Who/Please Don't Leave Me (Toddlin Town 3238) 1966

The work of a late sixties Chicago act. You'll also find the flip on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 6 and on Victims Of Circumstances, Vol.1.

The Initial Shock

TOP

Personnel incl:

- GEORGE WALLACE ld gtr
- GEORGE CROWE
- MOJO COLLINS organ

45s:

1. You Been A Long Time Comin'/l Once Asked (BFD 2022) 1967
2. Mind Disaster/It's Not Easy (BFD 0036) 1966

This five piece formed out of the remnants of two earlier Missoula, Montana bands The Chosen Few and Mojo's Mark IV. They cut their debut 45 in Butte, Montana in 1966 and then relocated to San Francisco in 1967, where they played at the legendary Avalon Ballroom among other places. Mind Disaster, was quite an appealing psychedelic pop single can now be heard on Nuggets, Vol. 8. It also got a further airing, along with a post Initial Shock recording featuring Wallace and Crowe, You Been A Long Time Comin', on the California Halloween album.

Wallace and Crowe later played together in Yellowstone, and also The Invaders, who issued one 45 Long Time Comin'/Could You Would You on an indie label in 1977. Another Invaders track was featured on the Bomp compilation Waves, and the pair also backed Gerrie Roslie on the Sinderella project for Bomp under The Sonics monicker. They also later did demo an album for Randy Bachman that went unissued.

The In-Keepers

45:

1. Daily News / Everytime (RCA Victor 47-9713) 1968
2. That Was Just His Thing/The Cobweb Threads Of Autumn (RCA 74-0229) 1969

Thought to be from New England, their first coupling (written by S.Burnett and produced by Pierre G.Maheu) is good rousing acoustic-harmony-folk-pop backed by hush-voiced vaudeville-style pap, sadly a-la-mode at that time. The second 45 fatures a doomy, quasi-religious 'A' side with whipping fuzztone and a sombre multi - voiced chorus. The 'B' side is totally different: strong melodic baroque pop with harpsichord, a middle eight with string quartet and elaborate and tricky contrapuntal harmonies. Excellent.

(Marcel Koopman / Max Waller)

The Inmates

Personnel:

- RON FLANNERY gtr
- GORDON RHOADES vcls
- SAMMY SALVO drms
- AL ASHETTINO bs
- BOBBY NOLAN ld vcls

45:

1. Local Town Drunk/You Tell Lies (Columbia 44032) 1967

From Long Branch in New Jersey, this outfit gained a contract with Columbia by virtue of winning a Battle Of The Bands competition in 1966. Sadly, when Local Town Drunk, a novelty song, flopped, they were dropped from the label. One of their finer moments, an unreleased cut More Than I Have, which featured some good guitar work and drumming, can be heard on Pebbles, Vol. 22 and another of their garage style songs You Tell Lies has resurfaced on Garage Punk Unknowns, Vol. 7. Another unreleased cut I Can Make It Without You plus the aforementioned More Than I Have feature on the Pebbles Box Set.

(Max Waller)

Inn Crowd

Personnel incl:

HAL ELLIS	gtr	A

45s:

1	You Must Believe Me / Sun Arise	(Montel-Michelle MX-971)	1966
2	Run Clarence Run / Baby You're So Fine	(Montel-Michelle 982)	1966
3	Go Away / Keep Your Hands Off My Baby	(Montel-Michelle MX 986)	1967

NB: (3) as Ye Olde Inn Crowd.

This particular Inn Crowd from Baton Rouge, Louisiana and latterly known as Ye Olde Inn Crowd, had a penchant for Invasion flavoured folk-rockers with cool harmonies. Their debut couples a lightweight cover of Curtis Mayfield's You Must Believe Me with a yearning Searchers-inspired ballad. The catchy uptempo folk-punker Go Away is probably their finest moment.

(Max Waller/Andrew Brown)

Inner_Dialogue

TOP

Personnel:

GENE DINOVI	dulcitron, piano	A
LYNN DOLIN	vcls	A
JIM GORDON	drms	A
ROBERT LANNING	drms	A
JERRY SCHEFF	bs	A
B.J.WARD	vcls	A
BARRY ZWEIG	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1	INNER DIALOGUE	(Ranwood R-8050)	1969

Recorded in Hollywood, a pop psyche trio (two girls, one man) with songs like Get Aboard A Dream, In Sequence, I Go To Life, The Touch, Within You and Inner Dialogue. Some dealers describe it as mellow dreamy psych, but it's mainly pop with female vocals in the "Free Design" style, with lots of string arrangements as well.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Inner Light

TOP

Personnel incl:

LARRY JOHNSON	vcls	A
DICK STEFFES	vcls	A

45:

1	This Girl / Temptation	(Century 33685)	1969

Harvested in Page, North Dakota, Temptation is late'n'great '60s fuzz-psych and is featured on A Lethal Dose Of Hard Psych. The liners note that the 'A' side is "a slow insipid ballad with whiney sax".

(Erik Lindgren/Max Waller)

Inner Lite

45s:

1	Hold On To Him/Tabula Rasa	(ssExx 666)	c1970
2	All The Way In/If I Only Know	(ssExx 667)	1970

An Marshaltown, Iowa five-piece, who released two 45s on ssExx and featured on the Crown Production Sampler - a booking agency record from 1967. They should not be confused with the Innerlite featured on the Strangers From A Strange Land comp, who were in fact from Bombay, India... The Indian act were in fact featured on one of two rare psych/garage comps funded by the Simla Tobacco Company in '70 and '71. Subsequently the better tracks were combined onto Strangers From A Strange Land and mistakenly sold by dealers as U.S. origin.

Tabula Rasa and All The Way In, composed by Dave Robinette and Don Sullivan, are heavy freaky guitar instrumentals - check 'em out on Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 2 (CD) and Buzz Buzz Buzzzzzz Vol. 1 (CD) respectively.

(Max Waller)

Inner Scene

This Texas outfit have a previously unreleased cut Communication Breakdown, a clumsy version of The Led Zepplin classic, included on Epitaph For A Legend.

Innocence

Personnel:

PETER ANDERS	vcls, gtr	A
VINNIE PONCIA	vcls, gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	THE INNOCENCE	(Kama Sutra KLP-8059)	1968

EP:

1	Mairzy Doats/Lifetime Lovin You/There's Got To Be A Word/I Don't Wanna Be Around You	(Kama Sutra 617 107)	1968

NB: (1) French release with picture sleeve.

This is in fact a new name for The Tradewinds, Peter Anders (Andreoli) and Vinnie Poncia. Another attempt by Kama Sutra to develop their "good time music" image together with Sopwith Camel and The Lovin Spoonful. (Indeed, The Innocence covers their Do You Believe In Magic?).

Several of the songs on the album were written by Don Ciccone of The Critters.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Innovation

45s:

1. This Ain't Real/Things Ain't The Same (Ascot 2219) 1966
2. Heartaches And Headaches/I Can Make It Without You (RCA Victor 47-9318) 1967
3. Your Time's Gonna Come/Things Ain't The Same (Amy A-11, 032) 1968

NB: (1) released as In-Ovations.

Heartaches And Headaches can also be heard on Victims Of Circumstances Vol. 1. Brash pop-beat with a cheesed-off attitude towards the fairer sex, as you might guess from the title. I Can Make It Without You, a powerful DC5-type stomper with similar sentiments, can also be heard on The Lost Generation. Your Time's... is fratty upbeat fuzz-pop but lacking the bite of its predecessors, and Things Ain't The Same certainly ain't, being a comparatively toothless pedestrian effort.

Their stomping ground was the Elizabeth/Irvington area of New Jersey.

(Max Waller)

The Innsmen

45:

1. Things Are Different Now/I Don't Know (Wheel's 4 3611) 1966

From Michigan, both sides of their 45 can be heard on Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 3 and the 3-CD set History Of Michigan Garage Bands Of The 60s, Vol. 1. The 'A' side has also resurfaced on I Was A Teenage Caveman. (Max Waller)

The Insane

45:

1. I Can't Prove It/Someone Like You (Allen Association 201,347/8) July 1967

The band hailed from Plymouth, Connecticut. You'll find Someone Like You on New England Teen Scene, Vol. 2 and New England Teen Scene (CD). Vol. 3 of the vinyl series also included I Can't Prove It although it's an undistinguished garage punker.

(Max Waller)

The Insect Trust

Personnel:

BILL BARTH	elec/acoustic gtrs, perc	A
LUKE FAUST	banjo, perc, vcls	A
NANCY JEFFRIES	vcls, perc	A
TREVOR KOEHLER	bar sax, bs, thumb piano	A
BOB PALMER	altosax, clarinet, perc, recorders	A

ALBUMS:

1(A)	THE INSECT TRUST	(Capitol SKA 01 09)	1968
2(A)	HOBOKEN SATURDAY NIGHT	(Atco SD 33-313)	1970

NB: (1) has been reissued on vinyl. (1) also reissued on CD (Ascension ANCD 031) 2001.

45s:

1	Miss Fun City / Special Rider Blues (Short Version)	(Capitol P-2386)	196?
2	Been Here And Gone So Soon / World War 1 Song	(Capitol P-2496)	1968
3	Reciprocity/Reincarnations	(Atco 6764)	1969

The Insect Trust were an interesting group whose sound was based around the vocals of Nancy Jerries. Jerries and Barth had earlier played with Peter Stampfel (see Holy Modal Rounders) in an outfit called The Swamp Lillies.

The Insect Trust took their name from a newspaper called The Insect Trust Times, founded by Bill Levy, the original editor of International Times in England.

Their debut album was an amalgam of various strands ot country music and most of the material was written by the band. They utilised a wide range of woodwind and stringed instruments. Their style was varied, ranging from the bluesy Special Rider Blues through the string instrumental Foggy Bridge Riverfly, to the harmonious Been Here And Gone So Soon and Going Home. Also of interest is the unusual instrumentation of another track Mountain Song.

In 1970, the band emerged on a different label, with their follow-up Hoboken Saturday Night. This continued their experimentation and included the unusual, brassy Somedays, successful ballads like Our Sister The Sun and The Eyes Of A New York Woman, the big band sound of Reciprocity, strange woodwind accompaniment of Now Then Sweet Man, strange attempts to merge stringed and woodwind backing in Glade Song, and ends with a brassy instrumental jam, Ducks.

The previous year, Trevor Koehler had also played on a couple of tracks on Octopus' sole album.

After the demise of The Insect Trust, Bob Palmer became a journalist. Sadly, Trevor Koehler later committed suicide.

(Vernon Joynson/Chris Williams)

The In-Sex

45s:

1. Space Man/Penitentiary Planet Blues (Hammer 3001) c1969
2. Alligator Wine/Action in The Streets (Hammer 3002) c1969

Late '60s psychy rock/soul from Philadelphia by an outfit made up of ex-Down Children members. The Leiber/Stoller track, which was originally done by Screaming Jay Hawkins, has resurfaced on Sixties Rebellion, Vol. 15. It was done in a Steppenwolf style.

(Max Waller)

Inside Experience

TOP

45:

1 Tales Of Brave Ulysses / Be On My Way (CEI no #) Jan 1969

A Lakeside, Ohio outfit covering Cream. Highly rated by those lucky enough to have heard it. (George Gell/Max Waller)

The Inside Out

TOP

ALBUM:

1. BRINGING IT ALL BACK (Fredlo 6834) 1968

A rare garage punk album from Iowa.

International Brick

TOP

Personnel:

- RANDY BENNETT bs
- DICK GERBER gtr
- ANTHONY "TINY TONY" SMITH vcls
- CARL PETERS drms

45:

1. You Should Be So High/Flower Children (Camelot 137) 196?

Formally members of Tiny Tony and The Statics, they formed International Brick when Merrilee and Neil Rush departed. They were also called The Bricks for a short time and operated out of Seattle in Washington State, opening for the likes of The Doors and The Byrds. Their nice, mellow slice of flower-power pop can be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 16: The Northwest, Part 3.

Internal Canitery Sin

This Circleville, Ohio band didn't release any 45s in their own right but their cover of Hendrix' Purple Haze made it onto the Hillside 1967 Promotion EP and was more recently compiled on Relics Vol.2. The other bands featured on the Hillside EP were The Gears, Emeralds and Dedicated Followers.

(Max Waller/George Gell)

Interns

45:

1. I've Got Something To Say/The Trip (PS) (Eastwood 1213) 1967

This garage quintet formed in July 1965 in Akron, Ohio. The 'A' side is a typical girl put-down song with some effective farfisa organ, whilst the flip is a fuzzy instrumental. The 45 came with a picture sleeve and had two pressings - the first being mismastered with the effect that the drums and backing vocals are outta sync!

I've Got Something To Say has also resurfaced on Back From The Grave, Vol. 3

(George Gell / Max Waller)

The Interns

45s:

1. Sally Met Molly/Have Mercy (Paradise 1019) 1966
2. Don't Make Me No Mind/Life With You (Paradise 1023) 1966

Another band with the same name from Houston, Texas hence the inclusion of Sally Met Molly on Acid Visions, Box Set 1 (CD). According to Roy Ames, this lot were a bunch of medical students who used to like to play R&B covers and other favourites at clubs and frat parties.

The Interpreters

45:

1. I Get The Message/Stop That Man (Gemini 100) 1965

A New England all girl band. The vocals are very upfront on I Get The Message and there's some nice surfish guitar. You'll find it on Girls In The Garage, Vol. 1.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

The Intruders to Itchy Brother

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- The Intruders
- The Intruders
- The Intruders
- The Intruders
- Intruders 5
- The Invaders
- Invasion
- The Invictas
- Iota
- I.R.A.
- The Iris Bell Adventure
- Iron Butterfly
- The Iron Gate
- Iron Horse
- Iron Lung
- Itchy Brother

The Intruders

TOP

Personnel:

- LARRY COX vcls A
- TOM WALKER gtr, vcls A
- TERRY LEE gtr A
- PETE SCHUYLER drms A
- SHEP COOKE bs A

45s:

1. Every Time It's You/Let Me Stay (Gallant No 1963
2. Then I'd Know/My Name (Moxie MRC 101)
3. Now She's Gone/Why Me? (Moxie MRC 104) 1964

Started out playing surf instruments around Tucson, Arizona in 1963 but when The Beatles became popular they added Larry Cox on vocals. In 1964 they won a recording session having won a local Battle of the Bands competition. What they expected to be a real studio turned out to be the guy's living room. The Gallant 45 was the result and their manager Dan Peters issued two others on his Moxie label. Late 1964/early 1965 the success of a black Detroit outfit called The Intruders led them to change their name to Quinstrells. Later still they became The Beloved Ones and The Dearly Beloved. The Dearly Beloved (Voxx 200.018) 1984 compilation includes Every Time Its You and Why Me? which featured some ripping fuzz guitar.

The Intruders

TOP

Personnel:

- ROD CROSBY gtr, vcls A
- PAUL DILLON ld gtr, vcls A
- LEFTY EISCH drms A
- PAUL WEST bs, vcls, trumpet A

This band from El Paso, Texas had four cuts:- Our Love So Warm, Put Yourself In My Place, Coming On Home and Patrician Melody, all from around 1969, on the compilation I Love You Gorgo (Suemi 1090). The compilation had a limited repress of 300 in 1997.

The Intruders

TOP

45:

1. I'll Go On/That's The Way (Marlo 1545) 196?

The band were a six piece from St Louis area of Missouri and the Marlo label was a subsidiary of Cinema. I'll Go On featured some effective echoed guitar work and has resurfaced on Monsters Of The Midwest, Vol. 4, which informs us of a 2nd 45 with a picture sleeve on the Cinema label but gives no details of it.

The Intruders

TOP

Personnel:

- BOB 'BUB' EVANS gtr A
- JEFF HALLOWS drms A
- LARRY LEMONS bs A
- BILL MOBUS ld gtr A
- DOUG OAKLEY vcls A

45:

1. Now That You Know Me/She's Mine (PS) (It 2312) 1966

From Pittsfield, Illinois, this 45 has been reissued on yellow/gold wax with a picture sleeve and detailed insert by Doug Oakley on Craig Moore's MCCM label (MCCM 9101). The 'A' side is a folk-punk ballad. The flip has some catchy fuzz guitar.

You can also find Now That You Know on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 5 (CD) and She's Mine on Monsters From The Midwest, Vol. 3.

Intruders 5

TOP

Personnel incl:

- CHRIS WILLIAMS vcls

45:

1. Ain't Coming Back/I Don't Know You (Grog 2201) 1966

Hailed f rom Greenevile, Tennessee and judging from Ain't Coming Back, which can also be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 3, but was originally put out on their own label, they were a typical snarling punk band - snotty vocals, organ backing and girl put-down lyrics. As a bonus, there's a bit of tasty guitar work too.

The Invaders

TOP

Personnel:

- STEVE DRUMHELLER vcls, drms A
- AIVARS OSVALDS organ A
- BOBBY POLLOCK sax, vcls A
- STEVE POLLOCK gtr, vcls A
- HAROLD ROBERTS trumpets, drms, hrmnca A

ALBUM:

1. (A) ON THE RIGHT TRACK (Justice 157) 1967 R3

NB: Reissued on CD (Collectables COL-CD-0608) 1995.

A welcome reissue of this mythical album that most of us could never possibly afford on the rare occasion that an original copy might surface - a total eclipse is a more frequent event. Inevitably therefore, there is bound to be some disappointment, confirmed by the original liner notes describing their style accurately as 'rock and soul'. Hailing from Charlottesville, to the northwest of Richmond, Virginia, this outfit presents ten competent covers plus two originals that encompass frat-rock, brassy soul sounds, soppy ballads and some decent garage nuggets. One of those originals, Have You Ever, can also be sampled on Project Blue, Vol. 3. (Max Waller)

Invasion

TOP

45s:

1. The Invasion Is Coming/I Want To Thank You (Dynamic Sound 2004) 1967
2. Do You Like What You See?/? (Dynamic Sound 2009) 1967

This trendy-looking quintet came out of Milwaukee, Wisconsin with these meaty punkers. The Invasion Is Coming can be heard on Vile Vinyl, Vol. 2 and Do You Like What You See? can be found on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 and Psychotic Moose And The Soul Searchers. They were previously known as The Ethics.

The Invictas

TOP

Personnel:

- MARK "MAX" BLUMENFELD gtr A
- HERB GROSS vcls,lead gtr AB
- DAVE HICKEY drms A B
- JIM KOHLER bs A B
- DAVE PROFETA gtr B

ALBUMS:

1. (A) A-GO-GO (Sahara 101) 1965
2. (A/B) THE BEST OF HERB GROSS AND THE INVICTAS (Forevermore 5007) 1996 CD

NB: (1) reissued on Eva (12016) 1983.

45s:

1. I'm Alright / Stuff (Bengel DIS-113) Mar 1964
2. The Hump/Long Tall Shortie (Sahara 107) Mar 1965
3. Do It/The Hump (Sahara 110) May 1965
4. Shake A Tail Feather/The Detroit Move (Sahara 117) Feb 1968

Based in Rochester, New York State, this band all attended Rochester Institute Of 1964 Technology and Syracuse University. They were 'discovered' while playing at Bengel's Inn hence the debut 45 label name. Their collectable album is choc full of garage-frat-dance classics - Land Of 1,000 Dances, Farmer John, Louie Louie, Hang On Sloopy - plus all the 45s listed. The twenty-track retrospective CD incorporates most of their released material, an interview, live and unreleased material, plus later 80s and '90s recordings featuring guitarist Dave Profeta (including The Hump '95). Do It is on the Oil Stains compilation and The Hump is on Garage Monsters.

There was also an EP released in 1980, title unknown, on Bengel DIS-1980.

(Vernon Joynson / Max Waller)

Iota

TOP

45s:

1. Sing For You/R.I.P. (MOC 678) 1969
2. Within These Precincts/Love Come Wicked (Hi 2200) 1971

Heavy and doomy psych-rock - you'll also find Within These Precincts on the Growing Slowly Insane CD compilation and its vinyl counterpart Psychedelic Unknowns Vol. 11. Sing For You is decent heavy sounds with some great guitar flourishes. From Memphis, Tennessee. (Max Waller)

I.R.A.

TOP

45:

1. Dooley Vs. The Ferris Wheel/I'm A Woman (Dot 45-17087) 1968

Compiled on An Overdose of Heavy Psych, the 'A' side appears to have also been released as A Matter Of Fact by The Dominoes. Basically it's a Purple Haze ripoff, with gutsy female(?) vocals. Recommended.

The Iris Bell Adventure

TOP

Personnel:

- IRIS BELL A
- DEREK PIERSON A
- BUTCH MILES A

ALBUM:

1. (A) THE IRIS BELL ADVENTURE (Rubaiyat) 1969

A live 'folkish' performance which was recorded at The Rubaiyat in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Iron Butterfly

TOP

Personnel:

DARRYL DeLOACH	vcls	A B C D
DOUG INGLE	keyb'ds, vcls	A B C D E
JACK PINNEY	drms	A
DANNY WEIS	gtr	A B C
GARRY WILLIS	bs	A
RON BUSHEY	drms	B C D E F
BRUCE MORRIS	drms	B
JERRY 'THE BEAR' PENROD	bs	B C D
ERIK BRAUN	gtr	D E
LEE DORMAN	bs	E F

MIKE PINERA	gtr	F
LARRY REINHARDT	gtr	F

ALBUMS:

(up to 1972)
1(C)	HEAVY (Atco 33227)	Jan. 1967	78
2(E)	IN-A-GADDA-DA-VIDA	(Atco 33250) Jun. 1968	4
3(E)	BALL	(Atlantic 33280) Jan. 1969	3
4(F)	IRON BUTTERFLY LIVE	(Atlantic 33318) Apr. 1970	20
5(F)	METAMORPHOSIS	(Atlantic 33339) Aug. 1971	16

NB. (2) to (5) also released in France (Atco). (1) reissued in France by Midi (MID 20050). (1) and (5) reissued on CD by Repertoire. (1) reissued on CD by Rhino (8122-71521-2) 1993. (2) reissued on CD by Rhino with additional versions of the title track. (3), (4) and (5) reissued on CD by Rhino. (3) reissued on CD by Line (LECD 9.00950) 1990. (5) has also been repressed. There's also a 21-track CD compilation, Light And Heavy - The Best Of Iron Butterfly (Rhino RZ 71166) 1993, which is a pretty good introduction to the band featuring a selection of their 'A' and 'B' sides and cuts from their first three albums.

45s:

1	Unconscious Power/Possession	(Atco 6573)	Apr. 1967
2	In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida/Iron Butterfly Theme	(Atco 6606)	Jul. 1968 30
3	Soul Experience/In The Crowds	(Atco 6647)	Jan. 1969 75
4	In The Time Of Our Lives/It Must Be Love	(Atco 6676)	Apr. 1969 96
5	I Can't Help But To Deceive You Little Girl/To Be Alone	(Atco 6712)	Sept. 1969 118
6	Easy Rider (Let The Wind Pay The Way)/Soilder In Town	(Acto 6782)	Sept. 1970 66
7	Silly Sally/Stone Believer	(Atco 6818)	Apr. 1971 -

This band originated in San Diego and evolved out of Gerry and The Gerritones and The Palace Pages in mid-1966.

Their line-up went through a number of changes with Pinney and Willis leaving in the summer 1966, being replaced briefly by Penrod and Morris. After their first album Danny Weiss left in August 1967, to form Nirvana, which never got off the ground. He then auditioned for Electra's Project Supergroup. Penrod and DeLoach left the following month, with Penrod re-joining Weiss in Project Supergroup and DeLoach recording a solo 45. 'Project Supergroup' became Rhinoceros in February 1968.

Their second and most successful album, In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida, was recorded by Braunn, Dorman, Bushey (ex-Voxxmen) and Ingle. This remained near the top of the U.S. album charts for over two years and is generally thought to be the first album to go platinum. The title track, a seventeen minute composition of Doug Ingle's, comprised the whole of one side. Although the lyrics of the remaining tracks like Flowers and Beads and Termination sound dated today, they also accounted for the album's enormous popularity in the flower power era. Ingle's organ work (his father had been a church organist which accounted for the classical influence in his writing), is always to the fore. This gave the group a similar sound to The Doors and his classical influence is particularly evident in My Mirage.

The album's phenomenal success proved too much for the group to live up to. In late 1969 Braunn was replaced by twin guitarists Mike Pinera (ex-Blues Image) and Larry Reinhardt (a former associate of Duane Allman). This new line-up recorded the live album and Metamorphosis but was unable to arrest the group's decline. They eventually dissolved on a farewell tour in 1971. Like so many other West Coast groups, they were to reform to cut two unsuccessful albums in 1975.

Possession was included on The Age Of Atlantic compilation and both sides of their first 45 appeared on the Savage Seven soundtrack LP.

Mike Pinera went on to Ramatam, New Cactus Band and Thee Image.

(Vernon Joynson/Nick Warburton)

The Iron Gate

TOP

Personnel:

- TOM CULLEN
- MIKE CAMPBELL
- SAL GAMBINO
- BILL MOSER
- LOU WOLFENSON

45s:

1. Feelin' Bad/My Generation (Marbell 1001) 1966
2. Hold On I'm Coming (one sided acetate) 1967

This Philadelphia-based outfit was formed in late 1965 by Tom Cullen and Mike Campbell who were classmates at the Father Judge High School in the Mayfair area of town. They were originally known as the 5 Shades but soon changed name to The Iron Gate. They set out playing hard-edged blues-based music very much in the mould of British invasion bands like The Yardbirds, The Rolling Stones and The Animals. In November 1966 they were runners up to The Scholars in the P.A.L. Battle Of The Bands. In December 1966 they recorded their 45 and two unreleased tracks:- Spoonful and Hit The Road Jack. Only 500 copies of the 45 were pressed for sale at their gigs.

Feelin' Bad, which later got another airing on Psychedelic Unknowns, Vol. 1, essentially consisted of a 'I Want My Baby Back Grown'. More recently it has resurfaced on the Crude PA compilation. The acetate is reputed to be of poor sound quality. When they graduated from High School in 1968 the band fell apart, although Tom Cullen and Mike Campbell performed together in several blues bands up to 1971. More recently Tom Cullen has become co-founder and director of The Bucks County Blues Society and a radio show presenter in Warminster, Pennsylvania.

Iron Horse

TOP

EP:

1. THE IRON HORSE "6 UNRELEASED CUTS 1967-1968" (PS) (Moxie M-1038) 1982

The EP comprises just five tracks - Light My Fire, In My Own Time, 96 Tears, Time (Has Come Today) and Back In The U.S.S.R.. From the San Gabriel Valley, California, and featuring future Surf Raider Bob Dalley, they are competent cover versions. (Max Waller)

Iron Lung

TOP

ALBUM:

1. HIGH BAIL (K.D.R. BB 1063) 1975 R3/4

NB: Reissued on Casket in the U.K. in 1994.

A very rare and sought-after local Illinois blues - rock privately pressed album. It commands a high value despite being rather unexceptional in the style. The reissue, which had a pressing of 400, should enable those of you curious to hear it to do so. (Clark Faville / Vernon Joynson)

Itchy Brother

TOP

Personnel:

- ANTHONY KENNEY bs, vcls A
- GREG MARTIN ld gtr A
- FRED YOUNG drms A
- RICHARD YOUNG gtr, vcls A

45:

1. Shotgun Effie/Rock 'N' Roller (King Fargo) 1973

From Louisville, Kentucky, this band were formed in 1967 as The Truce (line-up 'A' above). Named after the cartoon lion on "King Leonardo & Friends" the group was very influenced by The Nazz, Cream, The Beatles, Jimi

Hendrix, Iron Butterfly and Mountain. After several name changes, they settled on Itchy Brother in 1973, and recorded one regional single 45 on the King Fargo label, Shotgun Effie/Rock 'N' Roller.

After many years of demos, personal changes, playing dances and the club circuit, Itchy Brother folded in 1980. In 1986, Greg Martin, Fred Young, and Richard Young along with Doug & Ricky Phelps put together The Head Hunters.... now known as The Kentucky HeadHunters. Their 1989 grammy award album Picken' On Nashville has been discribed as "Bill Monroe Meets Cream" and "Psych-A-Billy Boogie". Oddly enough, the original Itchy Brother lineup, along with Doug Phelps are together today..... check out Stompin' Gounds (1997) on BNA and Songs From The Grass String Ranch (Audium/Koch) CD.

For more information check their website: http://www.kentuckyheadhunters.com.

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

It's A Beautiful Day to The Ivymen

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- It's A Beautiful Day
- Its Them
- Its Us
- Ivan and The Sabers
- Ivar Avenue Reunion
- Peter Ivers
- Ivory
- The Ivymen

It's A Beautiful Day

TOP

Personnel:

DAVID LAFLAMME	flute, violin	A B C D
LINDA LAFLAMME	keyb'ds	A
VAL FUENTES	drms	A B C D E
PATTIE SANTOS	vcls	A B C D E
HAL WAGENET	gtr, vcls	A B C
MICHAEL HOLMAN	hrmnca, vcls, bs	A B C
FRED WEBB	vcls, horns, keyb'ds	B C D E
TOM FOWLER	bs	C D
BILL GREGORY	gtr	C D E
GREG BLOCK	violin	E
BUD COCKRELL	bs, vcls	E
DAVID JENKINS	ld gtr
JOHN NICHOLAS	bs

ALBUMS:

1(A)	IT'S A BEAUTIFUL DAY	(Columbia 9768)	1968 47
2(B)	MARRYING MAIDEN	(Columbia 1058)	1970 28
3(C)	CHOICE QUALITY STUFF	(CBS 30734)	1971 130
4(D)	LIVE AT CARNEGIE HALL	(Columbia 31338)	1972 144
5(E)	TODAY	(Columbia 32181)	1973 114
6(A)	1001 NIGHTS	(Columbia 32660)	1974
7(-)	IT'S A BEAUTIFUL DAY	(San Francisco Sound SFS 11790)	1985

NB: (1)-(6) were issued on CBS in the UK. (1) to (3) also issued in France by CBS. (6) is a reissue of (1). (1) has been reissued on vinyl and CD and (2) has been reissued on CD. TRC have released (3) and (4) on CD, together with a Greatest Hits disc.

45s:

1	Bulgaria/Aquarian Dream	(San Francisco Sound 7)	1968
2	White Bird/Girl With No Eyes	(San Francisco Sound)	1969
3	White Bird/Wasted Union Blues	(Columbia 44928)	1969 118
4	Soapstone Mountain/Good Lovin'	(Columbia 45152)	1970 -
5	Anytime/Apples And Oranges	(Columbia 45536)	1972 -

One of the leading second-generation San Franciscan bands, this group's music was dominated by the excellent violin playing of classically-tutored La Flamme, who also produced their records. Their debut album made an enormous impact and contained the stand out song White Bird. This was one of the classic albums of the era and the twin vocals of La Flamme and Panie Santos blended together beautifully on tracks like White Bird, Hot Summer Day and Girl With No Eyes. Side 2 is dominated by the sleepy, drug-influenced Bulgaria and the Eastern-influenced Bombay Calling, it is slightly marred, however, by a rather tedious drum solo on the final track Time Is.

Linda La Flamme then left the band and Fred Webb was also introduced on keyboards for follow-up Marrying Maiden. Jerry Garcia guested on this record, too, playing banjo and pedal steel guitar. Although inferior to their debut effort, this album contained some fine tracks too, Don And Dewey and Hoedown were effective instrumentals, whilst the laid-back back harmonies of the first LP were in evidence on The Dolphins, Essence of Now, Let A Woman Flow and Do You Remember The Sun?. However, the follow-up Choice Quality Stuff marked a clear downward turn. The laid-back mysticism of their earlier songs had been replaced by a rather unimaginative 'good time' sound. The album had its moments, however - The Grand Camel Suite was a competent instrumental - but it was enormously disappointing. The follow-up live album was unable to reverse this trend and further personnel changes reduced the band to a mere shadow of its former self, as did subsequent albums.

It's A Beautiful Day reformed for a performance at the Fillmore Auditorium in San Francisco on November 29th 1997. The line-up will consist of original members David LaFlamme, Mitch Holman, Val Fuentes and Hal Wagenet, plus long-time vocalist Linda Baker LaFlamme and new keyboardist Larry Blachshere.

Two tracks, Bulgaria and Aquarian Dream appeared on the 5th Annual Pipe Dream (San Francisco Sound S7 11680), which was very rare prior to its reissue a few years back. Matthew Katz's Then And Now Vol. 1 includes Girl With No Eyes, The Dolphins and a 1980 tribute to John Lennon entitled John. Vol. 2 also contains Aquarian Dream and Wasted Union Blues. Aquarian Dream is also included on Turds On A Bum Ride, Vol. 5 (CD).

Bill Gregory had earlier played in New Orleans band Nectar.

(Vernon Joynson/Patrick Brown)

It's Them

TOP

45s:

1. Don't Look Now / A Girl Like You (King 5967) Dec 1964
2. Baby (I Still need Your Lovin') / You Give Your Love To Me (Toy Tiger 1001) 196?

NB: (1) issued as by Them. (2) first issue as It's Them, second issue as TTHHEEEMM.

This Cincinnati, Ohio group was actually called Them and continued to perform as such, but they chose to issue their second 45 under different names to prevent confusion or legal hassles when the Belfast U.K. bunch appeared on the scene. It was issued first as by It's Them and then as by TTHHEEEMM.

Baby I Still Want Your Lovin' is British invasion styled, gritty, bluesy R & B, very much in the mould of The Animals. You'll also find it on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 21 Ohio, Part 2.

(George Gell/Max Waller)

It's Us

45:

1. Don't Want Your Lovin'/? (Arab) 1966

Came out of Kenellon, New Jersey, where they formed in 1965. This was their sole platter and they put it out on their own label. They recorded it at Roulette Studios in New York City. Don't Want Your Lovin, a rather appealing folk-punkish number, can also be heard on Back From The Grave, Vol. 7 and Straight From The Garage Vol.1 EP.

(Max Waller)

Ivan and The Sabers

45s:

1	Just Let Her Go / It's Not Like You	(Prism 1893)	1964
2	Listen To Me / I Want To Know	(Prism 1916)	1964
3	My Mind Cries Out / What's Rushing Through Your Mind Dear	(Counterpart C-2615/6)	1967
4	Think Of Me / Great Potato Famine Of '71	(Counterpart C-2623/4)	1968
5	Stereo / Cozy	(Counterpart C-2645/6)	1969

Originally from Centerville, Ohio this pop band relocated to Cincinatti. BUT according to Beverly Patterson in "Twist & Shake #7", Ivan led a double-life - he was also the Ivan Browne of The Lemon Pipers.

(George Gell/Max Waller)

Ivar Avenue Reunion

Personnel:

LYNN CAREY	vcls	A
BARRY GOLDBERG	keyb'ds	A
JAMES HERNDON	gtr, keyb'ds	A
TIM McGOVERN	drms	A
NEIL MERRYWEATHER	bs, vcls	A
CHARLIE MUSSELWHITE	hrmnca, vcls	A
MICHAEL WILLIS	gtr	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	IVAR AVENUE REUNION	(RCA LSP-4442)	1970

A pure product of the Chicago white blues rock scene, Ivar Avenue Reunion was a kind of local supergroup formed by Neil Merryweather, Lynn Carey (ex C.K. Strong), Barry Goldberg and Charlie Musselwhite. As often with this kind of albums, the musicianship is competent but it lacks of ideas and energy. Not bad, but there are so many similar LPs that it's mainly an item for completists.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Peter Ivers

Personnel:

TONY ACKERMAN	gtr	A
PAUL BALMUTH	sax	A
YOLANDE BAVAN	vcls	A
PETER IVERS	vcls, hrmnca	A B C D
STEVE KOWARSKY	bassoon	A
R.FRANK POZAR	perc	A
JOE SEALE	intermodulator	A
HENRY SCHUMAN	oboe	A
RICHARD YOUNGSTEIN	contrabass	A
KATHY APPLEBY	violin	B
BEN BENAY	gtr	B
DAVID COHEN	gtr	B
ALICE DeBUHR	drms	B
ELLIOTT INGBER	gtr	B
MARTY KRYSTALL	sax	B
PAUL LENART	gtr	B
BUELL NEIDLINGER	bs	B C

ALBUMS:

1(A)	KNIGHT OF THE BLUE COMMUNION	(Epic BN 26500)	1969
2(B)	TERMINAL LOVE	(Warner BS 2804)	1974
3(C)	PETER IVERS	(Warner BS 2930)	1976
4(-)	NIRVANA PETER	(Warner 25213-1)	1985

NB: (4) is a compilation of the Warner Lps with unreleased tracks.

45s:

1	Ain't That Peculiar/Clarence O'Day	(Epic 5-10681)	1971
2	Eighteen And Dreaming/Eighteen And Dreaming (mono)	(Warner WBS 8287)	1976
3	Love Theme from Filmex/Love Theme From Filmex (instr.)	(Filmex)	1980

NB: (1) as Peter Ivers Group.

Born in Boston in September 1946, Peter Ivers was a multi-talented artist: singer/songwriter, yoga master, actor, theater writer, experimental video director... An Harvard graduate, he began playing in the late '60s with the Street Choir which was part of the "Boston's new sound". His first album Knight Of The Blue Communon is one of the strangest records of this period and can only be compared to the United States of America for mixing classical and rock instruments with electronic sounds (provided by an "intermodulator"), free jazz and classical singing (Yolande Bavan was a opera singer). The lyrics written by Timothy Mayer (future Associate Director of the American National Theater) have a strong religious content (Gentle Jesus, Confession, Lord God Love, Dark Illumination...) and the result is really "something else". The LP was produced by Sandy Linzer.

Still with the same producer, his next project, Take it Out on Me, was recorded in 1971 although Epic shelved it and only a 45 was released. In the mid-'90s, One Way tried to license all the Epic recordings for a CD but this was rejected by Sony.

The second album from 1974, Terminal Love was totally different but is equally as interesting: high pitched voices, unusual songs structures and lyrics (Holding The Cobra, Alpha Centauri, Felladaddio...). The album was coproduced by Ivers and the free jazz bass player Buell Neidlinger. Eliot Ingber (ex-Fraternity of Man, Zappa, Beefheart) plays on some tracks.

The 1976 album was produced by Gary Wright (ex-Spooky Tooth) and is not as interesting.

Later Ivers wrote In Heaven, the theme of David Lynch's "Eraserhead". A final single was released in 1980, with Richard Greene (ex-Seatrain) and Falconer (Rod Taylor). He also performed with John Cale and created the New Wave Theater. He was murdered in 1983.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Ivory

Personnel:

- CHRIS CHRISTMAN vcls A
- MIKE McCAULEY A
- KENNY THOMURE A

ALBUM:

1. (A) IVORY (Tetragrammaton T-104) 1968

Probably from California, this obscure American group had a sound similar to Jefferson Airplane (not surprising considering their producer was Al Schmitt, the Airplane producer) with powerful female vocals by Chris Christman. An excellent example of the American tough psychedelic sound with some great fuzz guitar / organ interplay on the best track Silver Rains. All their material was written by Chris Christman and Kenny Thomure, Mike McAuley being also credited for Silver Rains and Wark on Last Laugh. None of the group members appear to have played in any documented group before or after Ivory. Recommended.

Silver Rains can also be found on Journey To The East.

There was also another act by the same name who had an self-titled album on Playboy (115) in 1973. We had this listed as a reissue of the above album, but this is incorrect, the music is by a completely different group and is said to be terrible.

(Tony Allen / Ed Moulin / Max Waller / Stephane Rebeschini)

The Ivymen

45:

1. La Do Da Da/Bo Diddley (Twin Town 720) April 1966

This very rare and sought-after 45 was the work of a from Coon Rapids just north of the Twin Cities. They changed name to The Buttons in 1968 but did not record under that name.

(Max Waller)

© Borderline Books 1995 - 2001.
Web version administered by Ivor Trueman. ivor@borderlinebooks.com

J.H. and The Esquires to The Jam

Return to:
[Borderline Home Page] [Fuzz Acid & Flowers]

- J.H. and The Esquires
- J. Michael and The Bushmen
- Jack and The Beanstalks
- Jack and The Rippers
- The Jackasses
- John Roman Jackson
- The Jackson Investment Co.
- The Jackals
- Jacob's Creek
- Jacob's Ladder
- Jacob's Reunion
- Jade
- Jade
- Jades
- The Jades
- The Jades (of Fort Worth)
- Jagged Edge
- Jagged Edge
- Jagged Edge
- Jagged Edge
- The Jaggers
- The Jaguars
- The Jaguars
- The Jaguars
- The Jaguars
- Jaim
- Jake Jones
- The Jam
- The Jam Band

45:

1. Comin' On Strong / Stay By Me (Mus-I-Col HR 1149) 1967

From Columbus, Ohio and more commonly known as the Esquires. More soul than garage. (George Gell/Max Waller)

J. Michael and The Bushmen

TOP

45:

1. I Need Love / Little John's Revenge (Corby CR 207) 196?
2. I Need Love / Wine Wine Wine (Corby CR 210) 1966

From Corvallis, Oregon - home to Oregon state university. The opening scream on I Need Love sets the tone for this punk screamer, which can also be heard on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 14: The Northwest, Riot City, Boulders, Vol. 11 and Riot City.

(Max Waller)

Jack and The Beanstalk

TOP

45:

1. Don't Bug Me/So Many Times (Le Ron 822L-3601) 1966
2. A Long Time Comin', A Long Time Gone/Mood For Hurt (Revolution 2914) 1968

This beat outfit came from Milwaukee, Wisconsin and you'll also find both sides of the first 45 on Highs In The Mid-Sixties, Vol. 10. There's a strong Yardbirds/Stones influence in this 45, although the second is reputedly a more psychedelic affair.

(Max Waller)

Jack and The Rippers

TOP

Personnel:

- JACK HAMMOND
- LARRY BERRY
- JIMMY STEPHENS
- JOHNNY BROOKS

An obscure act with one 4-track EP on Jades Promotional Records.

The Jackasses

Personnel:

- TERRY ANDERSON gtr, vcls A B
- LEE DITMER drms, vcls A B
- CHUCK EFFINGER bs, vcls A
- BUB FOLLEY organ A B
- MARK GENSMEN sax A B
- DAN LOWTHER bs B

45:

1. Sugaree/Shake It Up (Bray 2626) 1964

Formed in Vancouver, Washington in 1963 by former members of an outfit called The Gay Blades. They played as one of three paid acts at the first Portland Teen Fair along with Paul Revere and The Raiders and Don and The Goodtimes. Their sole 45 was popular in the Northwest. The 'A' side has resurfaced on *Boulders, Vol. 7*and on Vol. 9 of the same series. In 1965 they changed their name to The Mid-Night Sons.

John Roman Jackson

ALBUM:

1	JOHN ROMAN JACKSON	(Oak Records ORS-2001)	c1971

A Californian folk rock singer/songwriter with some country influences and an electric backing (drums, bass, guitar, occasional organ and harmonica) and, on two tracks, female background vocals. Some tracks are quite good, notably Rosemary, Mary's Garden and Sometimes, but the record suffers from the muddy production of Ernie Freeman and poor drumming. The album was recorded at the Goldstar Studios.

Oak Records was a short-lived label based on Sunset Bld, Hollywood.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Jackson Investment Co.

Personnel:

TRACY ANDERSON	ld gtr	A
GARY COOKE	ld vcls	A
DANNY PROVINCE	keyb'ds	A
MIKE ROLLER	bs	A
GEORGE STEWART	gtr	A
JIM STEWART	drms	A
MIKE TRABUSLY	gtr	A

45:

1	What Can I Do?/Not This Time	(Paris Tower PT-125)	Nov 1967

Lakeland, Florida was home to this septet, who laid down two highly-rated folk-punkers from the pen of George Stewart. They are highly rated by compilers: both sides adorn Teenage Shutdown Vol. 9: Teen Jangler Blowout; What Can I Do? is on Pebbles Vol. 21; the pumping Not This Time is on Sixties Rebellion Vol. 6 and Psychedelic States: Florida Vol. 1 (CD).

(Vernon Joynson/Max Waller/Jeff Lemlich)

The Jackals

TOP

Personnel:

- BILL LAWSON vcls, harp A B
- MIKE NEAL gtr, vcls A
- JOHN TALLEY keyb'ds, vcls A B
- RON STERLING bs A B
- PHIL CAMPBELL drms A B
- WILLIAM WILLIAMS gtr, vcls B

45s:

1. Love Times Eight/A.F. Lament (Instr) (Boyd Recording demo acetate) 196?
2. LoveTimesEight/Taxman (PS) (Caped Crusader CC-72) 1989

A Dallas guitar garage outfit whose unreleased gem Love Times Eight has finally seen the light of day on the Caped Crusader release which contains a full biography of the band. (Max Waller)

Jacob's Creek

TOP

ALBUM:

1	JACOB'S CREEK	(CBS)	1968

A totally obscure album of organ/guitar interplay, which came with an insert.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jacob's Ladder

ALBUM:

1	IF I HAD A WISH	(Lovejoy)	c1976

From San Francisco, a private pressing issued on a black and white cover. It has been described as "sleepy hippie music".

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jacob's Reunion

ALBUM:

1	JACOB'S REUNION	(Private Pressing)	1975 R1

From New Hampshire, a folk rock group with feminine vocals, mixing traditional and original material. Only 500 copies were pressed.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jade

Personnel:

- JIM AUMANN keyb'ds A
- NICK ROOT bs A
- TIM NIXON drms A
- RANDY MORSE gtrs A

ALBUM:

1. (A) FACES OF JADE (General American Record GAR 11311) 1970/71

45:

1. My Honey/? () 1970/71

The LP sports a sticker 'contains the hit single My Honey - such a big hit that no trace of it can be found! From Cincinnati, Jade gave us a pleasant pot pourri of late sixties Beatlesque pop - unfortunately dealers tout this as 'Rare Garage/Psych' to bump up the price. Rare it may be, garage or psych it certainly is not, You've been warned!

(Max Waller)

Jade

45:

1. I'm Leaving You/? (Jade SS-769) 196?

I'm Leaving You can also be heard on The Garage Zone, Vol. 1. The group came from Pueblo, Colorado and is thought to feature ex-members of The Trolls.

(Max Waller)

Jades

Personnel:

ALEXANDER ?	A
C. CLARKE ?	A
D. SIEGEL ?	A

45s:

1	Confined Congregation / Please Come Back	(Fenton 2134)	1966
2	Surface World / We Got Something Going	(Fenton 2208)	Jun 1967

A Sparta, Michigan outfit whose 45s are keenly sought and command suitably steep prices. Swingin' folk-punk is their forte with just the occasional use of fuzz. No surprise that they've been well compiled:- Confined Congregation on the cassette-only Best Of Michigan Rock Groups Vol. 2 and Destination Frantic!; Please Come Back is on Midnight To Sixty-Six; and Surface World on Teenage Shutdown Vol. 5: Nobody To Love.

(Max Waller/Mike Markesich)

The Jades

ALBUM:

1. LIVE AT THE DISC A GOGO (Jarrett 21517) 1965

45:

1. So Tough! / ? (Ching no #) 196?

From Dallas, Texas, their album consists of early sixties rock meets mid-sixties punk.

The Jades of Fort Worth

Personnel:

- GARY CARPENTER A
- RONNIE BROWN A
- ALVIN McCOOL A
- LARRY EARP A
- JACK HENRY A

ALBUM:

1. (A) INTRODUCING THE JADES (Cicadelic 1000) 1982

45s:

1. I'm Alright/'Till I Die (Ector 101) 1965
2. Sha-La-La-La-Lee/I'm Coming Home (Strawberry 10) 1966
3. Little Girl/Mercy, Mercy (Emcee 012/3) 1966

A raw punk outfit from Fort Worth who were a popuiar local attraction in their day. Sometimes known as The Jades Of Fort Worth, their second 45 and later pressings of the third one were released under that name, Their third 45 was originally credited to Jades Of Stone. They specialised in cover versions, which they delivered in their own fiery style. On I'm Alright Gary Carpenter set a Rolling Stones song to new lyrics and the formula worked - they enjoyed a local hit. Next up was a Small Faces song and for their third and final effort they choose a Van Morrison composition. They finally called it a day in 1969 by which time only Carpenter and McCool remained from their original line-up. For the first half of the seventies Carpenter played for a showband called Colossus and later he recorded an album which he decided not to release. After a spell as a DJ in Fort Worth he was last heard of managing the Sound Idea stereo store on Camp Bowie. The Major Bill Tapes, Vol. 2- The Fort Worth Teen Scene includes I'm Alright, Little Girl, Don't Bring Me Down and Mercy, Mercy, but the most comprehensive guide to their material can be found on their retrospective album. More recently I'm Alright appears on Texas Flashback and Little Girl also appears on the We Have Come For Your Children compilation.

Jagged Edge

Personnel:

DREW GEORGOPOLOUS	gtr, vcls	A B
ELLIOT INGBER	ld vcls	A B
RONNIE SHERMAN	drms	A
ART STEINMAN	ld gtr, vcls	A B
HARLEY WISHNER	bs	A B
KENNY BENNETT	drms	B

45s:

1(B)	You Can't Keep A Good Man Down/How She's Hurtin' Me	(Gallant 3017)	1965
2(B)	A Change Is Gonna Come/Xanthia	(Jubilee 5542)	1966
3(B)	Reflections/Lies I Spoke	(acetate only)	1966
4(B)	Stop Feeling Sorry For Yourself/Look in Her Eyes	(acetate only)	196?

NB: (2) - (4) as by The Off-Set.

From Brooklyn, New York, this band evolved out of The Jaguars who formed in 1963 and included Art Steinman and Harley Wishner. Probably the first band to use the Jagged Edge monicker, their first 45 was promoted heavily at DJ hops in the tri-state area, resulting in a hit in Buffalo and a piece in the June 1966 edition of "16" magazine.

Their second 45 wasn't as well promoted and subseqently didn't sell as well. By the time their third single was recorded, another Jagged Edge had appeared on the scene with a 45. A threatened law suit resulted in the Brooklyn act changing their name to The Off-set, although they broke-up soon after.

Art Steinman continued to play music professionally and was signed to Atlantic after Ahmet Ertegun saw him and Wilbert Harrison perform at The Filmore East on Feb 9th 1970. No releases were forthcoming, although tapes are known to exist - indeed as are rehearsal tapes of Jagged Edge and the pre-Jagged Edge, Jaguars.

Of the unreleased demos: Lies I Spoke is the most promising - dramatic but fragmented pop-punk with psychy effects and raga-esque break; Look In Her Eyes is a strong and moody folk-rocker; Reflection and Stop Feeling Sorry For Yourself present the band's poppy side with the former winning out for the sweet harmonies which bring to mind Curt Boettcher confectionery.

Art Steinman: "One of the two managers of our group was Eric Van Lustbader (aka Eric Lustbader), who is the successful author of Ninja books and other thrillers." "We played some WMCA Good Guy shows at tri-state high schools to promote our 45s and appeared with and backed up some of the leading bands of the mid-60s - Question Mark and the Mysterians, Music Machine, Critters, Percy Sledge, Brian Hyland, The Association and The Left Banke to name a few."

In '99 Art works for Lucent Technologies; Drew is a consultant for a software company in New Jersey and continues to write music; Elliot has his own high-end audio/video installation company in Manhattan; Harley is a urologist living in Van Nuys, Ca. and Kenny Bennet works for the US post office in Brooklyn, New York.

As to one obvious factoid question - was Elliott Ingber the same guy who was with Frank Zappa and the Mothers Of Invention, then Fraternity Of Man, before becoming Winged Eel Fingerling in Captain Beefheart's band? Art replies - "It is an amazing coincidence in names, but I am quite certain that he was not the famous musician who performed with Beefheart and Zappa. I don't think our Elliot Ingber had a musical career beyond the Jagged Edge."

Compilation coverage has so far included:- How She's Hurtin Me on From The New World; You Can't Keep A Good Man Down on Vile Vinyl, Vol. 2 and Gone, Vol. 2; and Xanthia on Branshadows CD.

(Max Waller w/ thanks to Art Steinman)

Jagged Edge

45:

1	Midnight To Six Man/How Many Times?	(Twirl 2024)	1967

This 45 was recorded in California although I can't confirm that the band originated from there... Michigan and Ohio have also been claimed as their stompin' ground. Compilation coverage has included:- Midnight To Six Man on The Cicadelic Sixties, Vol. 2 (LP) and The Cicadelic Sixties Vol. 4 (CD); and How Many Times? on Open Up Yer Door, 60's Choice, Vol. 1 and Teenage Shutdown, Vo. 6: I'm Down Today.

(Max Waller)

Jagged Edge

TOP

45:

1. Madelynn Murphy / The Big Black Bird (WGW 329) 196?

NB: (1) is a split 45, with flip by The Time Masheen.

A split 45, Madelynn Murphy is thought to be by a New Jersey based Jagged Edge.

Jagged Edge

TOP

45:

1. Deep Inside/Baby You Don't Know (RCA Victor 47-8880) 1966 129

Another Jagged Edge - anyone able to elaborate the details?

The Jaggers

TOP

45:

1. Feel So Good / Cry (Executive no #) 1966

From the Pittsburgh area, this band lasted into the 70s. Following a respelling to Jaggerz, they achieved a top-5 U.S. hit with The Rapper in 1970 and released several more 45s for Kama Sutra. Feel So Good features a Kinks-esque riff with great harmony vocals and a super-cool guitar break. It has also resurfaced on Psychotic Reactions.

(George Gell/Max Waller)

The Jaguars

TOP

45s:

1. Dead Sea/Supersonic (Dot 16723)1965
2. The Gorilla/You'll Turn Away (Dot 16931) 1966
3. You'll Turn Away/The Gorilla (Jaguar 101)1966

4. Another Lonely Night/Night People Make It (Jaguar 102)1966
5. St James Infirmary/Good Time (Jaguar 103)1967

This outfit operated in San Jose, California cira 1965-68. Another Californian Jaguars, assumed to be a different outfit, put out two 45s on Faro in 1964.

The Jaguars

TOP

45:

1. It's Gonna Be Alright/l Never Dream Of You (Skoop 1067) 1967

A Kinks-influenced rock outfit from Michigan, although their sole vinyl offering was recorded in Santa Claus, Indiana. You'll find It's Gonna Be Alright on Back From The Grave, Vol. 5.

The Jaguars

TOP

45s:

1. Fine, Fine, Fine / It Finally Happened (Rendezvous 216) 1963
2. Where Lovers Go / Discover A Lover (Faro 618) 1964
3. The Return Of Farmer John / Love Is Strange (by the Salas Brothers) (Faro 619) 1964

NB: (3) flip by The Salas Brothers.

An East Side Los Angeles outfit, whose Where Lovers Go is featured on the 1969 double-LP comp East Side Revue and more recently on the East Side Sound CD.

(Max Waller)

The Jaguars

TOP

Personnel:

- DAN MASYS ld vcls, ld gtr
- DAVE SAMPSON bs
- JIM KELLY keyb'ds
- SANDY EDELSTEIN
- JON RICKLEY drms

45s:

1. Two Can Play / The Day You're Mine (unreleased acetate) 1964/5
2. I'll Be Lonely / You Are Your Only Mystery (Ironbeat HR 1167) Feb 1968

NB: (2) as Baroque Monthly.

Formed circa 1964 in Columbus, Ohio, whilst students at Bexley and Eastmoor high schools. From their 1964/5 acetate Two Can Play, a coy garage-beat charmer, can be heard on Psychedelic Crown Jewels Vol. 2 which also features their 1968 effort You Are Your Only Mystery, released under a one-off name - The Baroque Monthly.

Watch out for a two volume Get Hip retrospective collection of the Mus-I-Col label, of which Ironbeat was a subsidiary).

In '99 Dan Masys is Associate Clinical Professor of Medicine in California, Sampson is an engineer for Lockheed Martin, Kelly a gymnastics teacher in New Jersey, Rickley lives in Indiana, Edelstein's whereabouts are unknown.

(Max Waller / George Gell / Roger Maglio)

Jaim

Personnel:

PAUL BISHOP	piano, organ, harpsichord	A
JERRY CRONIN	vcls, 12 str gtr	A
MARTIN HALL	gtr, vcls	A
FAL OLIVER	drms	A
GARY WOODS	bs	A

ALBUM:

1(A)	PROPHECY FULFILLED	(Ethereal)	1969

This album is rare and reputedly contains some dreamy psych material.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

Jake Jones

ALBUM:

1	JAKE JONES	(Kapp)	c1971
2	DIFFERENT ROADS	(Kapp)	c1972

From Missouri, a forgotten band, between psych and rural rock, with good floating guitar work. Their second album contains several good tracks, notably Tripping Down A Country Road and Lost In My Own Back Yard.

(Stephane Rebeschini)

The Jam

45:

1. Loving Kind Of Way/Something's Gone (Sire 5001) 1972

This seems to have been a one-off venture produced by Seymour Stein, who later discovered The Ramones. The flip, a fine example of baroque-pop with strong vocals, and harmonies and some good upfront Hammond organ, has resurfaced on Pebbles, Vol. 12.

The Jam Band

Personnel:

TOM HAMILTON	bs, vcls	A
JOE PERRY	gtr, vcls	A
DAVID 'PUDGE' SCOTT	drms	A
JOHN McGUIRE	hrmnca, vcls

ALBUM:

1(A) THE JAM BAND (private pressing) 1969

NB: (1) Just four copies are thought to exist.

Joe Perry a native of Hopedale, Massachusettes was the fiery guitarist of this group and had played in local groups The Chimes Of Freedom (1964-65), Just Us (1965-66), The Flash (1967) and Pipe Dream in 1967 with Tom Hamilton (bass), David 'Pudge' Scott (drums), Kathy Lowe (vocals) and Perry on lead guitar. They worked the Boston and New Hampshire band circut, but didn't gain any decent support gigs, which was considered the 'making' of a local act. Hamilton, Scott and particularly Perry were heavily influenced by British act The Yardbirds and the new spin-off of that group, The Jeff Beck Group. They split Pipe Dream to form Plastic Glass in mid 1967 with John McGuire (harmonica, vocals) which followed the heavy psyche blues style laid out by the Jeff Beck Group and the Jimi Hendrix Experience, before splitting in late 1968.

In early 1969 Hamilton, McGuire and Scott formed a power trio with Guy Williams on lead guitar, but before long Joe Perry worked his way into the group and they became known as The Jam Band and worked the New Hampshire scene in a heavy blues vein. Their further influences included the MC5 and another British act Fleetwood Mac, the latter group's Rattlesnake Shake was the Jam Band's showstopper. John McGuire couldn't committ to the group full time and eventually left, the remaining trio of Hamilton, Perry and Scott recorded one of their rehearsals via two microphones into a two track reel to reel recorder on August 30th, 1969.

The resulting tape was privately pressed as four albums in individual sleeve designs, apparently the three menbers got a copy, while the fourth was supposedly given to Elyssa Jerrett who recorded the set for the band. The resulting LP featured the group's version of Jeff Beck's Shape Of Things, Let Me Love You Baby, Blues Deluxe and Rice Pudding. As well as takes on Red House, Ramblin' Rose, Milk Cow Blues and Gimme Some Lovin' in a heavy psyche blues style.

In 1970 the group was in the postion to back a Boston based singer Steve Tallarcio on a demo as an audition for the Jeff Beck Group. Tallarcio like the members of the Jam Band was a veteran of the Boston band scene, but with far greater credentials as he had played drums and sung with a variety of groups starting with The Mancis in 1963, and alternating between The Strangers and The Dantes in 1964.

The Rolling Stones influenced Strangers became a professional group in late 1964 and changed their name to The Stranguers, signing with CBS in 1966 and recording as the Chain Reaction for CBS subsiduary Date Records with little success, although they became regulars on the New York circut and opened for the Yardbirds. The Chain Reaction folded in June 1967, Tallarcio then worked in the studio with the last version of The Left Banke before working the New York club scene with Chain in 1967-1968, then back to Boston where that group split in 1969. He then worked with Fox Chase (1969), William Proud (1970) before trying out for the reforming Jeff Beck Group.

Tallarcio was teamed with The Jam Band by Henry Smith, a roadie and gofer not only for The Stranguers, but also the Yardbirds, The Jeff Beck Group and even Led Zeppelin. The resulting recordings did nothing towards the Beck venture, although Tallarcio was convinced that he should continue to work with the group which was on the verge of splitting with 'Pudge' Scott leaving. In September 1970 Joe Perry and Tom Hamilton joined Tallarcio in Boston and they rounded out the group with rhythm guitarist Ray Tabano a childhood friend of Tallarcio's who had been in William Proud and had jammed with The Jam Band in 1969. In October 1970 the group was complete with drummer Joey Kramer and they named themselves Aerosmith.

